Say Tientsin Penetrated by Communists

PEIPING (AP) — Pro-government reports said yesterday the Chinese Communists had penetrated into several points well within the city limits of besieged Tientsin. The Tientsin city council appealed to both sides to halt the fighting. Headquarters of Gen. Fu Tsoyi, the government's north China commander, reported the Communists Friday attacked Tientsin from the east, west and south, throwing more than one column into each sector. A Communist column averages 15,000 men. Meanwhile in Nanking, China's government reportedly made one more desperate bid for peace yesterday as the Communists loosed intense attacks on Nanking's last defense line short of the Yangtze. The ambassadors of the United States, Great Britain and France were summoned to the foreign office. A usually reliable source said they had been requested to ask their governments to try to mediate the civil war.

Monkey Guerrilla Infiltrates into Home, Battle Follows

TAMPA, FLA. (AP) — A brash young monkey with a sharpshooter's aim hurled pots and pans at police and firemen before he was captured inside a house last night. When Mrs. Irene Boykin saw the monkey leering at her in the kitchen she called for help.

An agile volunteer chased him round and round. He offered bananas. The monk took the fruit and thanked him by banging him with a pot.

Blinds were ripped down, dishes broken, utensils scattered over the house.

Two deputies arrived with a crab net. The monkey nimbly dodged each pass of the net, then hopped atop a door and took a bow. That got boresome so he began to grab the net.

Two firemen joined the hunt. More nets. The case got livelier.

Finally a lucky sweep with a net stopped the animal. But even then he kept on scrapping. It took a blackjack to quiet him.

He was booked at the county jail for indecent exposure and resisting arrest.

Surgeon, SUI Graduate, Found Shot to Death

LITTLE ROCK, ARK. (AP) — Dr. H. W. Hundling, 57, a distinguished surgeon, was found shot to death at his home yesterday.

He died from a shotgun blast which entered his neck.

Dr. Gordon Holt, deputy coroner, said the death was suicide. He added that Dr. Hundling had been in ill health for several weeks.

A native of Iowa, Dr. Hundling graduated from the University of Iowa medical school in 1915 and served his internship at the Montreal, Quebec, general hospital.

His law firm's connections with the Communist government of Poland, and Acheson's personal relations with Alger and Donald Hiss, who have been charged with membership in a prewar underground Communist ring.

Chairman Tom Connally (D-Tex) of the senate foreign relations committee immediately vowed to comply with these requests and tentatively planned public hearings for this week. Connally predicted that Acheson will be confirmed without much opposition.

Though interest on Capitol Hill centered mainly in Acheson's attitude toward communism and Russia, his appointment struck diplomatic quarters as a possible tip-off that President Truman is determined to play a more important role in foreign policy matters.

Lane broke the bottle, but the mouse was in a stupor.

Demand Acheson Probe

Ask Attitude On Soviets

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, (R-Mich) and other leading Republicans yesterday demanded a full investigation of Dean Acheson before the senate approves his nomination as the new secretary of state.

Though there appeared no immediate threat to senate confirmation of Gen. George C. Marshall's successor, senators demanded full disclosures on these points:

1. Acheson's attitude toward Soviet Russia and the east-west "cold war," plus his viewpoint on state department officials described by some critics as bad security risks.

2. His law firm's connections with the Communist government of Poland, and Acheson's personal relations with Alger and Donald Hiss, who have been charged with membership in a prewar underground Communist ring.

Chairman Tom Connally (D-Tex) of the senate foreign relations committee immediately vowed to comply with these requests and tentatively planned public hearings for this week. Connally predicted that Acheson will be confirmed without much opposition.

Attacks Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — A house Republican leader charged yesterday that President Truman's program would put the country another $12-billion in the red, even if taxes are increased.

Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, GOP floor leader in the last congress, said plans outlined in President Truman's state of the union and economic messages this week might bankrupt the nation and do "irreparable harm" to the close friends of Acheson insisted the appointment will not mean a milder policy toward the Soviets.

Acheson was among the first to advocate a "firm but patient attitude toward Russia."

Meanwhile, Sen. Homer Capehart, (R-Ind) asserted that Acheson appointment proved the bipartisan foreign policy is dead. He said the fact that no Republicans were consulted about the appointment in advance was "another slap" at bipartisanship.

Halleck estimated that the most revenue the government could expect in the 1950 fiscal year would be $44.7-billion, even with the $4-billion tax boost the President wants.

That would mean a deficit of more than $12-billion, contrasted with the $2-billion surplus Mr. Truman reportedly envisages if the tax hike is enacted.

The Indiana Republican based his calculations on a study made by economic experts of the GOP national committee.

Iowa Loses Big Nine Opener To Speedy Riveters, 73-53

By BUCK TURNBULL
Daily Iowan Sports Editor

Getting a taste of what lies ahead of them in the torrid 1949 Big Nine basketball season, Iowa's basketball Hawkeyes fell before the fast-breaking, smooth-working Purdue Boilermakers in the Western conference opener for both schools at the fieldhouse last night, 73-53.

The defeat, first for an Iowa quintet on the local floor in 25 games since 1947, snapped the Hawkeyes winning streak over Big Nine teams here at home at 11 straight. The last previous loss came at the hands of Wisconsin in the 1947 league opener, 63-62.

A crowd of 12,046, failing to hit capacity because of an unexpected decrease in student attendance, saw Purdue ease into a tight 30-27 halftime lead and then thrash the nets in a brilliant red-hot second half exhibition which accounted for the 73 points, highest single team total in the history of Purdue-Iowa cage competition.

Howard Williams, wiry six-foot Riveter forward, plunked in 25 points for individual high scoring honors. Williams' floor play was just as spectacular as his shooting, leading the high-geared Purdue fast-break which at times threatened to blast Iowa right off the court.

Purdue's one-sided triumph was evidenced in the team shot percentages. Iowa could find the range on only 18 of 93 field goal attempts and a .193 shooting percentage. On the other hand, the Boilermakers shot .301 with 25 field goals in 83 tries.

Only Hawkeye scorer to hit double figures was Tony Guzowski, who drew one of the starting guard berths with Tom Parker. Guzowski racked up 14 points, his long set shots keeping Iowa in the game during the first period.

Three other Iowans, Stan Straatsma, Charlie Mason and Bob Schulz, all hit six points to tie for second in the individual scoring column.

The Hawks' season's high scorer, Center Al Weiss, was held to five points by the bruising pivot guarding of Andy Butchko. Butchko himself was the night's most inaccurate shooter, failing to rim one basket in 15 attempts.

The Old Guard five managed to flail away on even terms with the much faster Riveters in the first half. However, even this was amazing.

After Iowa had broken into a 14-9 lead with eight minutes gone in the opening period, Purdue crept back into contention and tied the score at 15-15.

During this period of the game, and while the Boilermakers were edging into a 26-19 lead, Iowa went without a field goal for eight minutes; went without a point scored for seven minutes except Gudowski's four free throws, and went scoreless from the field for 10 minutes except for two Guzowski set shots.

Regaining some semblance of balanced scoring late in the half, the Hawkeyes came back to trail by only three points at the intermission, 30-27.

Purdue's burst to start the final half kept the Iowans at a safe distance for the first seven minutes. The Chicago weather bureau said the new blizzard would hit over the northern Rocky Mountain and great plains states until it exhausted itself. There were 23 dead in the wake of the other storm.

A cold wave warning of temperatures as low as 10 and 15 degrees below zero was issued for parts of Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin, and Minnesota.

Winds of 30 to 40 miles an hour with light snows but heavy drifting also were forecast for those areas.

Train service in the storm area was almost back to normal Saturday, but highways all were not yet cleared, according to the Associated Press. In some sections of Nebraska, in the path of the new storm, snow on the ground is 40 inches deep.

Auto Crashes into Parked Interurban

A car driven by SUI student William C. Cantrell crashed head-on into a Crandic parked car at 9:14 o'clock last night at the interurban depot, 23 E. College street.

Cantrell, a graduate student from Hamilton, Ala., was taken to University hospitals for X-rays. He received cuts and bruises of the head.

The impact of the crash threw Cantrell against the windshield of his car. Bits of his hair and skin remained on the smashed windshield.

The Crandic was standing in front of the station when the accident occurred. Cantrell was alone in the car.

Israeli UN Delegates Snub British Protest on Air Clash

NEW YORK (AP) — The Israeli delegation to the United Nations refused last night to transmit to Tel Aviv a British protest against the shooting down of five RAF planes because it was not addressed to the Israeli government.

Britain has not recognized the state of Israel.

I. L. Kenen, press attache of the Israeli delegation to UN, announced that Arthur Lourie, delegation head, had informed Sir Terence Shone, British deputy on the UN security council, of the Israeli stand.

The protest was drafted after the British air ministry in London accused Jewish forces of downing five British planes on patrol over Egypt.

In his statement to Shone, Lourie said he had noted the British document "contains a request to the Jewish delegation" to transmit the protest contained in that document to "the Jewish authorities at Tel Aviv."

"I had assumed that you were calling on me in my capacity as acting representative of the provisional government of Israel at the security council of the United Nations, and it was on that understanding that, subject to the proviso verbally communicated to you, I had undertaken to transmit the contents of the document in question to my government."

"It is clear from the document itself, however, that I was mistaken, and in the absence of any specific indication as to who is intended by words 'the Jewish representative' or 'the Jewish authorities at Tel Aviv,' I am not in a position to act on your request."

One Pilot Killed

LONDON (AP) — Israeli fighters shot down four British war planes and Israeli anti-aircraft guns bagged a fifth near the Palestine-Egyptian border Friday before the UN-negotiated cease-fire took effect, it was disclosed yesterday.

Two of the British pilots were captured, one slightly wounded, inside Israeli territory, the Israeli spokesman said. Another British pilot was found dead in the charred wreckage of his plane near the Jewish colony of Nirim, nine miles inside Palestine.

The British air ministry said it did not know whether the RAF planes had returned the Israeli fire. But it ordered RAF planes henceforth to regard Israeli planes encountered over Egypt as "hostile" — in other words to shoot them down.

Two Jap Sailors Learn War Over

GUAM (AP) — Two Japanese sailors, who surrendered Thursday on Iwo Jima after they learned that the war was over, arrived here yesterday.

They gave up to four airforce fliers after hiding in caves for nearly four years, making nightly forays on American camps for food and supplies.

Both men were on Iwo Jima when the Americans landed.

Gillette, Iowa Demos Endorse Hart for District Attorney Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) said yesterday he has endorsed William R. Hart of Iowa City for appointment as U.S. district attorney for southern Iowa.

"The justice department has contacted me about Mr. Hart," Gillette told a reporter. "I told them I would approve his nomination if it is sent to the senate for confirmation."

Hart, 55-year-old attorney, has been recommended for the position by the state Democratic central committee.

In Des Moines State Democratic Chairman Jake More said the recommendation had been forwarded to Sen. Guy Gillette and that "there is every reason to believe Mr. Hart will receive the appointment."

The U.S. district attorney for southern Iowa has been Maurice Donegan of Davenport. His term has expired and the job has been temporarily open.

Attorney Hart is now first district Democratic committeeman and has been prominent in local and state bar association work. He is a member of the state board of law examiners.

He also is a past-president of the Iowa City Chamber of Commerce and has served on the board of the State Historical Society.

Gophers Rout Champion Michigan, 45-31

McIntyre Hits 20; Skoog, 16 In Minnesota's Bid for Flag

MINNEAPOLIS (UP) — Minnesota's Gophers put in an early bid for the 1948-49 Big Nine basketball title last night by trouncing defending champion Michigan, 45-31, before a capacity crowd of 16,143 fans at the Minnesota field house.

Minnesota's scoring twins, Center Jim McIntyre and Forward Whitey Skoog, between them scored all but nine of the Gopher's points. McIntyre dropped in eight field goals and four free throws for 20 points while Skoog had 16 points on seven fielders and two free throws.

The best Michigan could do was Guard Bob Harrison's nine points. Minnesota played an "iron man" game for all but the last four and one-half minutes. Not until the game was nearly over did Starters McIntyre, Skoog, Forward Bud Grant and Guards Harold Olson and Jerry Mitchell leave the game.

Michigan also substituted sparingly during most of the game as the Wolverines sought in vain to find a combination that would click against the hard-driving Gophers.

Guard Pete Elliott did a good job of defending against Skoog, but the shifting Gopher sophomore was more than a match for any guard as he dropped them in from far out and under the board.

The victory preserved Minnesota's undefeated string at nine straight. It was Michigan's second setback against seven wins.

Illini Squeeze Past Hoosiers In Double Overtime, 44-42

BLOOMINGTON, IND. (AP) — Substitute Fred Green hit a field goal in the last split-second of a second overtime period last night to give Illinois a 44-42 Big Nine basketball victory over Indiana.

It was the 50th game between the universities and a capacity crowd of 10,013 saw a contest as tight as any in the long series. The result kept Illinois on top of the Western Conference standings with two victories.

The score was 37-31 when the regular playing period ended and 40-40 after the first overtime.

Green, a six-foot seven-inch reserve center, sank the game-winning hook shot from about 20 feet out. The same gangling but nervous youngster tossed the basket that gave Illinois a 52-51 victory over Indiana here last season. His decisive basket last night was his only fielder of the game and he sat out the entire second half of the regular playing period.

Creighton Defeated As Badgers Score Easy Win, 75-39

MADISON, WIS. (UP) — Wisconsin stepped out of Big Nine play last night to take an easy 75-39 victory over outmanned Creighton before 12,000 fans.

There was no doubt about the outcome after the opening five minutes. Wisconsin was far taller and had much more experience. The Omaha club also was handicapped by the loss through injury of its star forward, Stubbie Salerno.

The Badgers held Creighton to only three field goals during the first half which ended Wisconsin 40, Creighton 14. Coach Bud Foster cleared the bench of Badger players after that, using 19 men in a merciful attempt to hold down the score.

Lanky Wisconsin Center Don Rehfeldt led the scoring with 14 points.

Buckeyes Rap 'Cats, 68-56

COLUMBUS, O. (UP) — Ohio State, led by ace Forward Dick Schmittker, shook off a persistent Northwestern quintet last night for a 68-56 victory in a Western conference basketball game in the Fairgrounds coliseum.

After taking a comfortable 32-24 lead at the half, Ohio started to coast and the Wildcats fired away consistently to take a surprising 41-39 advantage with 10 minutes left to play.

Schmittker and Center Bob Raider took things into their own hands, however, to pull the game out of the fire. Raider hit with two goals and a foul to put the Buckeyes into a 44-44 tie. Schmittker, who tallied 22 points in the contest, pulled the game from there.

Ohio State stayed ahead of the Wildcats during most of the fray.

Hawks Leave Tonight for Indiana

Seek First Victory Since 1945 Season On Hoosiers' Floor

For the second night in 48 hours, Iowa's basketball team will take on a rugged Indiana foe when the Hawkeyes travel to Bloomington for their second Big Nine game of the season against Indiana tomorrow night.

Last night Pops Harrison's cagers were dumped by Purdue in the Big Nine curtain-raiser for both clubs while Indiana was suffering a close double-overtime loss to Illinois on the Hoosier court, 42-40.

Harrison named 12 players to make the Indiana trip with three more to be added following a meeting of the squad at 5 p.m. at the fieldhouse this afternoon. The Hawks will leave immediately following the meeting at 6 p.m. aboard a chartered DC-3 United Air Lines plane from the Iowa City airport.

The Hawks will arrive in Bloomington later this evening and will return to Iowa City by the same plane Monday night.

The game will be the 55th in the Iowa-Indiana series. The Hoosiers have won 34 to Iowa's 20 since the opener in 1909. Iowa has dropped the last three at Bloomington, the 1948 and 1947 games by two-point margins.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. at the Indiana fieldhouse with two Iowa radio stations, WSUI of Iowa City and KRNT of Des Moines, scheduled to give play-by-play descriptions.

Cozad Signs With LA Dons

The Daily Iowan learned last night that Jim Cozad, four-year letter-winning tackle at the University of Iowa during the seasons of 1943, 1946, 1947 and 1948, has signed a professional football contract with the Los Angeles Dons of the All-America conference.

It was revealed yesterday that Cozad signed with the Dons during the Christmas vacation through a Los Angeles agent in Chicago.

He is the second member of the 1948 Iowa football team to come to terms with the Dons and the third Hawkeye gridder within two weeks to ink a professional pact.

Center Dick Woodard is also under a Dons' contract after his trip to California for the East-West Shrine game New Year's Day, while Tackle Bill Kay signed with the New York Giants during his stay in Florida for the North-South Shrine contest Christmas night.

It is believed that Cozad's salary, including bonus to sign, will be on a one-year basis of close to $5,000.

Cozad, 6-foot, 3-inch, 197-pounder was an all-state tackle at East Waterloo high school in 1942. The 21-year-old Hawkeye athlete now makes his home in Van Nuys, Calif., right outside of Los Angeles.

minutes, and then the Boilermakers slowly turned a previously close game into a rout.

The Iowa cagers simply could not cope with the speed of their Indiana rivals. Poor offensive rebounding by the Hawkeyes all through the contest set up the Riveter quick break to work with the excellent ball-handling of Coach Mel Taube's outfit.

Both fives had mediocre shooting percentages in the first half, Iowa .211 and Purdue .222. In the last half the Boilermakers dunked in 15 of 38 shots for a sizzling .394 pace. For the same period the Hawkeyes shot .181.

But the individual hero was the lithe Williams. He shot 20 times and hit nine field goals for .450. At least half of his baskets were set shots from well beyond the free throw circle.

Hawlets Win Tenth, 61-59, Over Clinton

(Special to The Daily Iowan) CLINTON — Iowa City's Little Hawks proved their class last night when they traveled to Clinton and won their tenth straight basketball game, 61-49.

Gene Hettrick, the six-foot five-inch center, continued his scoring pace by pouring in 12 points but had plenty of help from Forward Whitey Diehl, who also hit for 23 counters.

The winning effort, strengthening the Little Hawks hold on first place in the Mississippi Valley conference, was a close affair for the first half. Iowa City held a slim lead at intermission, 27-26.

To gain a lead at all the Hawks had to shower the basket in the second period, to overcome a 16-11 lead the River Kings had piled up. Diehl spearheaded the assault with three fieldgoals.

City high hit its stride in the second half, outscoring Clinton, 18-7, in the third period, then coasting the rest of the way to victory number 10.

Rossie, Joe Louis On Same Fight Card

Bob Rossie, 150-pound Iowa City boxer, has been slated to appear twice in the next two weeks on the same card with Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis.

Rossie's next meet of four rounds with Leonard Craig of Omaha takes place in City auditorium in Omaha Monday. Louis is booked on the same card for a four-round exhibition with Sterling Ingram.

Rossie will again appear for six rounds on the same card with Louis on Tuesday, Jan. 18, in Moline. Rossie accepted the contract, but as yet has not been assigned an opponent.

At Moline Louis will go another four-round exhibition against Dick Hagan, former international Golden Gloves heavy-weight champion.

Young Composer Airs Work

WSUI Plays Music By Eleanor Taylor

A "weakness for Gershwin" may have inspired Eleanor Taylor, an SUI graduate student, to write the musical which was presented yesterday on radio station WSUI.

Miss Taylor presented her compositions "Scherzo" and "Air; First Leaf Falling" on the organ. Tenor Harold Reeves of the Coe music faculty sang "Three Whimsies" and "Sorrow Things and Glad."

A string quartet composed of SUI students played "Lento" and "Fugue." Members of the quartet were Kenneth Klaus and Helen Gower, violin; Patricia Traschel, viola, and Charles Becker, cello.

Four Coe students played "Controversy" on woodwind instruments. They were Elaine Perusch and Charlotte Lazier, clarinet; Charles Piotrowski, bass clarinet, and Joan Brandt, bassoon.

A Cedar Rapids resident, Miss Taylor was graduated from Carleton college, Northfield, Minn., and attended New England Conservatory in Boston. She expects to receive a masters' degree in music in August.

The young composer said she prefers writing "for chorus rather than anything else." Her work at Coe college, where she is an instructor in organ theory, choir and piano, deals mostly with the chorus.

The prim blonde didn't begin to compose "until I came to the university for graduate work in 1947." As a student, she noted her work "has to be varied for the sake of experience."

Miss Taylor is enthusiastic about one of her latest works, a piece for chorus and orchestra, which she will use for her graduate thesis. She adopted the text from the poem, "Corn" written by Paul Engle, a childhood acquaintance.

Nine years of lessons on the organ and twelve years of piano lessons encouraged Miss Taylor's musical interests. She was instructed by the late Alfred DeVoto while studying at New England Conservatory.

Original works of Iowa composers are featured on the monthly programs on which Miss Taylor appeared. The programs, sponsored by Daughters of the American Revolution, are arranged by Mrs. Paul Shaw of Pilgrim chapter.

Sister West Regrets Marriage Ceremony By Marjoe Gortner

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sister Essie Binkley West, "Angel of Skid Row," said last night she never would have ordained Marjoe Gortner, aged four, if she knew he was going to perform a marriage ceremony.

"I am not in favor of children conducting such ceremonies," she said. "I think Marjoe is an anointed child who has divine aspiration in his preaching — but they should have told me about the marriage."

The motherly Mrs. West won the nickname "Angel of Skid Row" for her rescue mission services. Her admiration for the boy preacher is boundless.

She said: "Marjoe was the first child ordained by our organization, the old-time faith. He has a gift the world does not see often. He has a vision of faith that is breath-taking."

The controversial ceremony was conducted last Sunday at a Long Beach wedding chapel. The blond, curly-haired minister married Seaman Raymond Miller, 23, to Alma Brown, 21.

Mrs. West said, however, she felt the ceremony was perfectly legal under the circumstances and the couple should have been proud the boy preacher married them.

"A ceremony performed by a child like Marjoe, who is anointed by God, is far more valid to me than one performed by some cigar-smoking, liquor-drinking clergyman who calls himself a minister."

PROFICIENT ON THE ORGAN is Elizabeth Taylor, a University of Iowa graduate student in music and Coe college faculty member. Varied selections for organ, voice and instrumental groups written by Miss Taylor were presented on a WSUI broadcast yesterday. ## 'Hot Break'

SUI Band to Play Improvised Solo

A "hot break" improvised by Larry Barrett, former Iowa City band leader and SUI student, will replace the cornet solo in Bennett's "Rhapsody in Rumba" at the SUI band concert Wednesday evening.

Director C.B. Righter said the Barrett arrangement was first performed as a surprise to him at a concert in Jefferson, Iowa, near the end of one of the concert band's spring tours.

"The 'Rhapsody in Rumba' contains a series of solos by various band instruments, and when the time came for the cornet solo, the whole section stood up and harmonized," Righter recalled.

Barrett, then playing with the band, had composed the arrangement, and he and the other cornetists had practiced it on the bus while traveling from town to town.

And so the cornet solo in "Rhapsody in Rumba" as played by the SUI concert band Wednesday in Iowa Union will actually be a swing quartet.

The concert will begin at 8 p.m.

Dedication of New Worship Center by USF This Afternoon

The United Student fellowship of the First Congregational church will dedicate a new worship center at 6:30 this afternoon in the student club rooms on the first floor of the church. The dedication will take place at the regular Sunday meeting of the fellowship.

The altar, on a raised stage at one end of the large recreation room in the lounge, is made of masonry and is three feet high. It is four feet long and eighteen inches wide. The altar, painted coral rose, is placed in front of a rich, deep red velvet curtain.

The silver cross and candle holders on the altar are from an army chaplain's field service kit. They belonged to the Rev. John G. Craig, pastor of the church, and he used them when he was in the service during World War II in Europe. The cross is six inches high and stands on a five inch stained pine base.

Miss Grace Hadley, student center director, yesterday said work on the new worship center was done entirely by students. Students who worked on the center were Tom Lawton, Walt McMahon, Sylvia Wilson and Dorothy Jahns, she added.

Miss Hadley said the center was constructed so that the student fellowship would have a convenient and more worshipful place to hold their devotionals. The altar is on casters, she said, so that when it is not in use it can be moved to give space for other activities.

Austrian Ski Ace —

To Instruct Iowa Mountaineers

Skiing instruction by a former Austrian ski champion will feature a three part program ushering in the Iowa Mountaineers' winter sports program a week from today.

Erich Farber, twice Austrian skiing titlist, will advise members who have trouble learning to control hickories.

The other two phases of the program include tobogganing and an evening skating party, Mickey Thomas, outing leader, said yesterday.

The skiing and tobogganing activities will start from the Mountaineers' club house at 1:30 in the afternoon. From the club house members will go to Finkbine golf course, Thomas said.

The skating party will leave from the Club house at 7 p.m., and proceed to the skating rink at Melrose pond. Refreshments will be served in the private club house at the rink, Thomas said.

In case the weather man forgets to supply Iowa City with the necessary ice and snow, an alternative activity has been planned, Thomas said. It consists of a short hike West of Iowa City to be led by Farber. Last year the turn out for the skiing sessions was slight at the start, but about 30 members were registered before the end of the season, Thomas said.

Thomas asked interested members to register before Saturday. They may register by phoning 5391, he said.

MISS MILLER TO SPEAK

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A PROSPEROUS dress house on Seventh Avenue boasted five partners, one of whom was slightly in disfavor with the others for two reasons: he didn't worry over details as constantly as they did, and he made it obvious that he considered himself their intellectual superior.

He was the last partner to arrive one morning and found the other four sunk in despair. Observing his high good humor, one of the four said, "You couldn't have heard! Our bank is closed! We're ruined." "Certainly I've heard," said the superior one, "but you know how much smarter than you I am. The worrying you'll be doing for the next week, I've already finished with in an hour."

Vincent, star barber and monologist in Mr. Greco's impeccable shop in the Delmonico, reported two hours late for work one morning. "Couldn't be helped," he reported glibly to the boss. "I was shaving myself, and before I knew what had happened, I had talked myself into an oil shampoo and a facial."

The typical guardsman will be selected for leadership, conduct, initiative, drill aptitude and sacrifices he has made for the guard.

Latest hit at SPENCER'S HARMONY HALL is Tommy Dorsey's "You Can Never Shake Love" and "You Know What the Trouble Is, Baby." The first side is a fine dance number, taken at a bright tempo. The reverse, a blues, sung by Lucy Ann Polk. Ask to hear this one.

Frank Sinatra and Pearl Bailey team up to produce the novelty "A Little Learnin'" is a Dangerous Thing." Pearl sings the first side with comments by Frankie on the side. Frank takes over on the reverse while Pearl does the kibbitzing. This side has humor, talent and rhythm to spare.

Also in stock at SPENCER'S HARMONY HALL are Stan Kenton's "How Am I to Know" and "He was a Good Man" and Louis Armstrong's "Before Long." The latter is backed by "A Song is Born," taken from the new movie featuring Louis. Jack Teagarden, Barney Bigard and Sid Catlett are featured on the sides.

ANALYSIS OF THE WORLD'S NEWS AS—

IT HAPPENED LAST WEEK

Congress

Demo Congress, Readies To Champion 'Fair Deal'

The Democratic 81st congress rode their dark horses up to Capitol Hill, had a roll call just to see if they really could outvote the GOP, heard "Harry" and by the weekend had their legislative still percolating vigorously.

A group of GOP upstarts sought to oust Sen. Robert Taft from his post as policy committee chairman. But the Young Turks were voted down in a party conference and Taft was in. For his aides, old liners Millikin of Colorado was elected conference chairman and Wherry of Nebraska, floor leader. Sen. Lodge, boomed by the Young Turks for Taft's job, said afterwards, "The fight will go on for new leadership within the Republican party."

The house rules committee became the next trouble spot. Liberal Democrats — seeing that it would be packed largely with southern Democrats due to seniority — sought to curb its powers of holding up legislation. The GOP tried to lure southern Democrats into a coalition against the proposal.

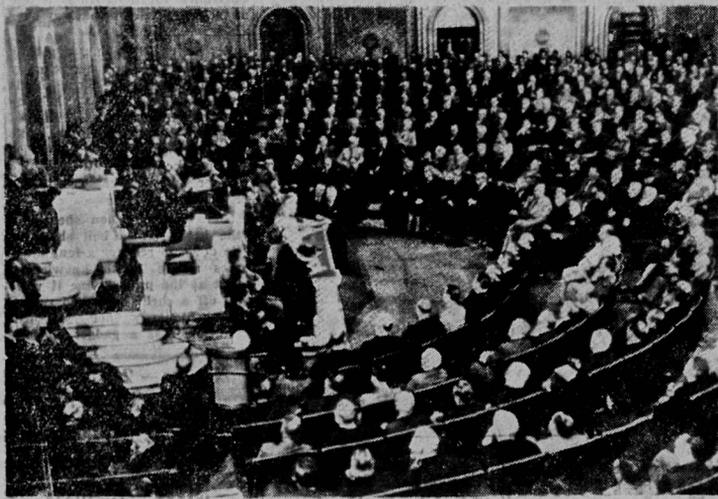

But the southerners stayed in line. Instead, more than one-fourth of the GOP ranks sided with the pro-Truman forces in approving the measure. Under the new ruling, chairman of legislative committees can move to have bills approved by their committees considered by the house if the rules committee fails to clear them in 21 days.

Speaker Rayburn can decide whether to recognize committee chairmen for that purpose on the second and fourth Mondays of any month.

Next, the senate Demos took topheavy control of key committees dealing with foreign relations, labor, agriculture, banking, public works and rules. They put 8 men on these committees against 5 for the GOP. The important appropriations committee was stacked 13 to 8.

President Truman, finding things running smoothly, delivered his state of the union speech to a joint session on Wednesday. Summing up his philosophy of government, he said: "Every segment of our population and every individual has the right to expect from his government a fair deal." His program was quickly dubbed the "Fair Deal."

Truman's "Fair Deal" shopping list: to control inflation with consumer credit and bank credit controls, by regulating commodity speculation, imposing export controls, allocating scarce transportation and resources, continuing rent control, enacting standby price and wage controls, lending money to industry for expansion or constructing new facilities direct if private enterprise won't; taxes—$4-billion increase, mostly from corporate taxes, middle and upper bracket-income taxes; Taft-Hartley act—repeal it; minimum wage — at least 75 cents; anti-trust laws — close loopholes; agriculture — maintain parity incomes, price supports, allow CCC to provide adequate storage space for crops, more rural electrification; conservation — more flood control, irrigation and navigation projects, especially TVA's for other river basins. Build St. Lawrence seaway and power project, maintain federal control of tidal-land resources, sell public power from public transmission lines; social security — broaden coverage, increase benefit payments; health — prepaid medical insurance; education — federal aid to states; social welfare agencies — lumped together into a department with cabinet status; housing — one million low-rent homes; civil rights — the original Truman program; foreign policy — continued support of the bi-partisan foreign policy, the UN, ERP and the good neighbor policy. Universal military training; world trade — restore full reciprocal trade agreements, displaced persons — eliminate unfair discrimination.

Truman's economic report outlined much the same proposals with the emphasis on the economic angle. Immediately afterwards congressional hoppers were deluged with administration-sponsored bills to enact the "Fair Deal." The fun was just beginning as the week drew to a close.

George Marshall and his undersecretary, Robert Lovett, resigned on the weekend. Spiking rumors that he was winking at appeasement, Mr. Truman appointed veteran state department figure Dean Acheson secretary of state with Budget Director James Webb as undersecretary.

Global

Chinese War Lingers; Israelis Take Negev

China, Israel and Indonesia shared the international spotlight last week. All were involved in wars.

In China, things haven't been the same since Chiang Kai-Shek's

CHIANG KAI-SHEK Things Haven't Been the Same

New Year's offer to form a coalition with the Communists, and even abdicate his power in favor of others. Fighting has slowed into monotonous skirmishes — with the Communists winning most of them. Last week the Communists continued to snub Nationalist peace offers and pressed on in an attempt to win a full military decision.

A rumor circulated that the U.S. marines were abandoning their isolated Tsingtao base. The rumor was quickly snuffed out. William C. Bullitt reported to congress on his China mission, recommending $800-million in aid, American of-payments to Iowa State college for veterans education costs following a disagreement over the formula for figuring the amount due. The government says it has been overcharged for over two and a half years and wants an estimated $550,000 returned.

A spokesman for the CIO-AFL federated legislative labor council said the U.S. supreme court decision that states may outlaw closed shop only adds strength to the determination of Iowa labor groups for repeal of "two anti-labor laws passed by the last legislature."

The Dutch blitz in Indonesia was completed in 17 days, the Republican troops were fighting guerrilla action and the puzzled western world still didn't know what to do about it. Despite UN demands, the Dutch still had top Indonesian leaders as captives.

The cold war spent a lukewarm week. The U.S. and British and French allies demanded that Russia tell how many German prisoners she still holds and why she failed to release them by midnight Dec. 31 in accordance with a formal inter-allied agreement. The Moscow radio retorted that the "Overwhelming majority" had been returned, then got lost in the static of diplomatic double talk.

The Economy

'Soft Spots' Mar Scene; Tucker Corp. Shuts Down

The stock market, apparently soothed by President Truman's congressional speeches, sailed along on an even keel. But the worrisome clouds on the horizon — labeled "soft spots" — shaded things slightly. After mysterious banker who was supposed to save the firm evaporated a federal judge ordered the Tucker corporation to shut down maintenance. Bankruptcy and receivership suits against Tucker, which has fallen after more than two years to mass-produce a rear-engine automobile, alleged that the firm has liabilities of more than $1-million.

With an anticlimactic pop, the capital gains tax saving bubble broke and comedian Jack Benny got caught in the spray. The bureau of internal revenue ruled that the $1,356,000 paid to him in a network shift is subject to the income tax rate instead of the capital gains tax.

Labor

Supreme Court Upholds Anti-Closed Shop Laws

Organized labor took a kick in the teeth and a pat on the back last week. The supreme court ruled that individual states may outlaw closed shop and other union security provisions in labor contracts even if the employer does business in several states. Labor slinked away from the court snarling that when the Taft-Hartley law was repealed they would challenge the state laws again.

That's where the pat on the back came in. President Truman called for repeal of the T-H law and restoration of the Wagner act with modifications against the jurisdictional strike, the secondary boycott and strikes affecting the national welfare. Congressional leaders backed him up. Most labor leaders will settle for the bargain.

Apply Weed Killer Now, Experts Say

When spraying lawns, cemeteries, golf courses, etc. to control weeds, it is often preferable to apply the weed killer, 2,4-D, in the fall rather than in the spring, County Extension Director Emmett C. Gardner said yesterday.

Gardner, who attended a weed control conference sponsored by the state department of agriculture Thursday and Friday in Des Moines, said weed control experts at the conference had advised fall spraying of lawns when perennial weeds are to be controlled.

Grass itself is more susceptible to 2,4-D in the spring when it is growing rapidly, and if there are flowers near the lawn they may be killed by 2,4-D which drifts into the flower bed from the sprayed lawn.

Annual flowers are dead anyway in the fall, Gardner said, and 2,4-D may be applied to perennial weeds, such as dandelions, with a minimum of harm to other plants.

Volcanic Earthquake Jolts Isle of Hawaii; Lava Flow Slowing

HONOLULU (AP)—A sharp earthquake cracked beneath erupting Mauna Loa yesterday, jolting the entire island of Hawaii as a fiery stream of lava gushing from the volcano appeared to have halted its seaward surge.

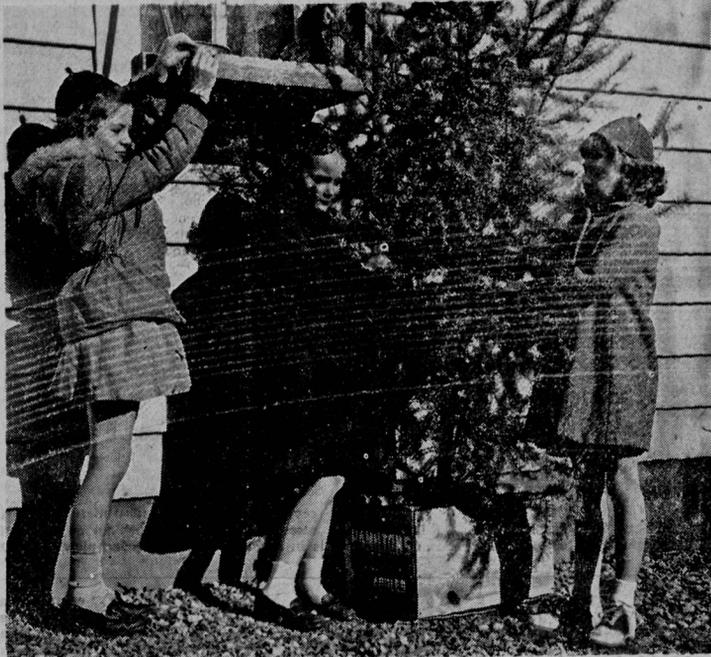

Scientists said the shock could be either the forerunner of another giant blast of the smoking, lava-spouting volcano or a signal that the eruption is ending.

The quake was strong enough to awaken sleepers in Hilo, 40 miles away.

It brought a new threat to nervous islanders who were beginning to return to their homes along the Kona Coast, after fleeing when the hot sheet of lava swept a 20-mile flaming path down Mauna Loa's snow-covered sides toward the coastal villages and plantations.

Dr. Thomas A. Jaggar, world-famous volcano expert, said if the earthquake originated under Kilauea crater it might mean that the Mauna Loa "firepit" was preparing to erupt after 14 years of inactivity.

Girl Scouts Supply Food for Birds

THREE BROWNIE GIRL SCOUTS make it easier for the birds spending the winter in Iowa City. Each Girl Scout was asked to put up a bird feeding station or Christmas tree. These Brownies have erected both the station and the tree in Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Memler's yard, 134 Parsens avenue.

MARILYN WEEBER, GIRL SCOUT TROOP 13, Roosevelt school, supplies a permanent bird feeding station. Girl Scouts all over Iowa City are keeping feeding stations supplied with corn, sunflower seeds, raisins, nuts, bread crumbs, and balls of suet. The erection of the stations is an annual Girl Scout community service.

Seek Capone's Kin In Gangland Slaying

CHICAGO (AP)—The first gangland slaying by a machine gun since the prohibition era sent police hunting yesterday for Albert (Bites) Capone, brother of the late Scarface Al Capone whose trademark was the "Chicago typewriter" in eliminating opponents.

Hyman Frank, 51, former convict, pre-war ringleader in an alcohol smuggling racket, was the victim. He was cut down just outside his home in a quiet residential neighborhood.

The assassination was calm professional job. A 13-year-old high school girl saw the killer walk away from Frank's body without haste. He stepped into a waiting black car and sped away.

Albert Capone was sought for questioning as police examined possibilities that might connect him or the Capone syndicate to the murder.

Harold's Gives 250-1 Odds Against Quake Damaging His Area

RENO (AP)—A gambling casino posted an earthquake book yesterday, offering 250 to one odds against the chance of a damaging quake hitting the Reno area.

The odds were posted by the Harold's club bookmaker, despite a recurrence of the frequent tremors which have disturbed the Reno-Verdi area for the past two weeks.

The bets are accepted on the basis of the quake occurring in any certain week, with bettors picking their own week.

In Winnemucca, 200 miles eastward, owner Jack Summers of the Farris club announced the opening of a book known as "bets on the big quake."

He said he will accept "most bets on the possibility of a big earthquake hitting the Reno area." Summers won't quote odds but will accept bets either way for and against such a quake.

windows, doors and dishes. No damage of any kind was reported.

Prof. Vincent Gianella, University of Nevada seismologist, said they were vertical earthquakes believed to be centered in the Verdi area.

The Jim Campion family atop 8,277-foot Peavine mountain, directly astride the Verdi fault believed to be causing the continuing quakes, reported their home was its own seismograph.

"We've gotten used to them now," Mrs. Campion said. "We just go about our business without marking down the time or even mentioning them anymore."

Cancel February, March Draft Calls

WASHINGTON (AP)—Because of the high rate of voluntary enlistments, the army announced yesterday it will draft no men in February and March.

Voluntary enlistments and re-enlistments have averaged 35,000 a month for the past few months, the army said.

Army Secretary Kenneth Royall notified the munitions board, which controls draft calls for all services, that the army's previous 5,000 man draft call for February should be cancelled. In addition, the army told the munitions board it would make no calls in March.

In explanation, Mr. Royall referred to the selective service act of 1948, which requires the army to limit its draft calls to the difference between requirements and intake through voluntary enlistments.

About 50 percent of the gains in the last three months have been re-enlistments and extensions of enlisted enlistments.

SUI Student Art Guild To Meet Tuesday Night

Boone to Seek Permit For Broadcasting Station

BOONE (AP)—Organization of the Boone Broadcasting Company, to operate a 1,000-watt station here, was announced yesterday.

Officers of the corporation, which was formed to seek permission for the station to operate on a frequency of 1590 kilocycles, include Harold L. Fisher, president; R. E. Munn, vice president; and Harold A. Garvey, secretary-treasurer.

L. W. Andres Inc. of Davenport, a radio consultant, has been retained to obtain a construction permit, erect the station and obtain a license from FCC.

Jim Shank Winning Polio Battle

City High Student Lauds 'Dimes' Help

By ELFREDA KOLSCH
Jim Shank, the boy who used to toss footballs for City high, has now tackled weight lifting to help him recover from polio.

After almost five months at University hospitals, this plucky polio patient was able on Dec. 19 to come home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Shank, 903 E. Burlington.

Each morning, Monday through Friday, 15-year-old Jim returns to the hospitals for a treatment. Each day at home he makes a determined effort to help himself by lifting weights, crawling, and walking just a little on crutches.

Initial diagnosis on Sept. 1 tabbed Jim's case as infantile paralysis but harmful consequences did not show up until four days later.

Felt Fine at First
Jim felt fine for the first three days. He even "snuck out of bed."

The fourth day brought a change. "I woke up and couldn't move," Jim recalled yesterday from his wheelchair. "My breathing was bad, too, so I couldn't say a sentence."

But polio wasn't the only thing Jim had to battle. He also had glandular fever and an abscessed tooth.

There's a story behind the abscessed tooth. Jim told it yesterday with a big grin which is minus that tooth.

"I had it all fixed up so some of us polio patients could see the Minnesota-Iowa game. I lined up a new Hudson to take us to the game and I got it all arranged with the hospital."

Misses Game
"On the day of the game the whole side of my face swelled up. Everybody but me went off to the game."

An avid sports fan, Jim talked basketball yesterday, Jim talked basketball yesterday, Jim talked basketball yesterday.

"I'm going to see that City high-Davenport game if I have to go there at four o'clock," he said emphatically.

To strengthen his arms young Shank works on his weight lifting every day, "whenever I have the ambition." His heaviest "dumbbell" weighs 15 pounds.

With the aid of crutches he is now able to walk back and forth across the Shank living room for about 50 feet.

Leg Still Weak
It's the right leg that's still bothering him, Jim said. But he added quickly, "It's coming along all right, just a little weak yet."

Jim commented about the many friends he made to University hospitals with very special emphasis on the nurses.

The Hubbard tank in the physical therapy department is termed by him as the "most valuable" device used in his recovery. On his trips to the hospital Jim still takes the tank treatment three times each week.

"It's better than a bath tub," he smiled yesterday. "You just lie there in this warm water about 18 inches deep. You can stretch out and learn to kick and move a little."

A tilt table to teach him to stand again, a bed trapeze to strengthen his arms, electric shock treatments to stimulate his muscles, and parallel bars to help him walk again — all these, Jim said, were used at the hospitals to help him get back to tossing those footballs again.

"I'm afraid I won't win the Golden Gloves this year," said the curly-haired polio victim who fought in Iowa City last season as a 135-pound lightweight. "But I know I'll be back in school next year."

Jim is now taking high school history and English courses by correspondence from the University of Nebraska. This will satisfy two of the eight credits he needs to make up for the year.

"A sort of insurance policy," is how Jim described the investment of a dime in the March of Dimes drive opening next Friday.

"The more people put in the more protection they'll get," he said. "Part of each dime goes for research. We need to spend more money on research so we can find out how to stop polio in the first few days."

"I was in the hospital three days before I got bad. If they'd known how to stop polio then it sure would have been worth much more than a dime to me."

Business BRIEFS

Formal opening of the new Sears and Roebuck farm store and service station will be held Thursday.

The new business is located at 328 S. Clinton street in the recently constructed building owned by Alva B. Oathout and L.R. Morford. Constructed of steel, concrete and brick, the building's overall dimensions are 80 by 100 feet.

Managed by Glenn Kruse, the farm store is located in the south section of the building. Merchandise includes a complete line of farm machinery and general farm equipment.

Tires, batteries, oil and auto accessories will be sold at the station, which also houses a service department for autos and farm machinery. The station is managed by Frank Black.

Factory representatives and Sears' area sales personnel will be on hand for the opening. Coffee and doughnuts will be served to the public.

Robert A. Yetter, secretary-treasurer of Yetter's department store, will attend the annual convention of the National Retail Dry Goods association in New York tomorrow through Thursday. Yetter will remain in New York until Jan. 21, to buy merchandise and complete other business transactions.

Introduced in Iowa City last week were two models of the new English-built Ford cars, now on display at the Burkett-Rhinhardt Motor company.

The two models, the Anglia and the Prefect, are smaller than the average American-made cars. The Anglia, which sells at $1,490, has an overall width of 57 inches and measures slightly over 12 and three-quarters feet long. It stands 63 inches high.

Listed at $1,660, the Prefect is somewhat larger than the Anglia in overall dimensions and weighs 1,840 pounds, 140 pounds heavier than the Anglia.

More than $600,000 will be spent this year by the Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric company for the improvement of service to consumers in the Iowa City area.

Among the projects underway is one calling for installation of a $300,000 high pressure boiler at the electric generating plant in Coralville.

Bill Kyle to Speak To Student Group

Bill Kyle, graduate student from Tennessee, will address members of the Student Christian council at a 2 o'clock meeting this afternoon in the YMCA rooms at the Iowa Union. Kyle was an officer in the national student organization last year.

University Student Christian Council Chairman Sue Gronna said yesterday that Kyle will talk this afternoon on the relationship between the national organization and the local chapter.

Name G. T. Kuester, Leo, to Iowa's Top Assembly Positions

DES MOINES (AP)—Two farmers were renominated yesterday for the highest authority within the power of the Iowa legislature. Both are Republicans. Their formal election on tomorrow is virtually certain because of their party's heavy majority.

They are Rep. G.T. (Gus) Kuester of Griswold, for speaker of the house and Senator Richard V. Leo of Dysart for president pro tempore. The offices will be filled officially when the legislature convenes tomorrow.

Senator Leo, 59, has spent the last five sessions in the upper house. He won in an original field of six candidates, on the third ballot.

The senate caucus also renominated Leo Elthon of Fertile as majority party floor leader. Elthon, who has served eight terms in the senate, won on the second ballot.

Speculation arose immediately in the house caucus from among the members as well as observers whether the house Republican selections represented a sweeping victory for the forces of Gov.-Elect William S. Beardsley.

Need 'Radar Fence' Around Us

US Aims to Attain Air Supremacy by 1952, Symington Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—We have "none too much time" to prepare, Secretary of Air Symington said yesterday. And he restated his belief in a 70-group airforce despite its heavy cost.

The 70 combat groups are one feature of a four-year program aimed at creating by 1952 an airforce able to meet any crisis. The airforce began building toward it last year but it takes annual appropriations to fulfill the program.

With a tight national defense budget in prospect, the secretary of the airforce said in his first annual report:

"The expenditures of money which this program requires are great.

"Legislative and executive authorities must constantly weigh the state of world conditions, the military needs of the country, and the efficiency and economy with which the airforce is carrying out the program.

Symington described as "critical" need:

A "radar fence" around the country to warn of air attack and direct the defense.

Symington's proposal for a radar screen around the United States was assured of quick attention in capitol hill. Rep. Vinson (D-Ga.), who will be chairman of the house armed services committee, has introduced a bill to authorize it.

Symington said that congress by its action had made the four-year program "an integral part of national policy." One air, he said, is "attaining by 1952 'supremacy in air power.' Symington said the term "70-group plan" is unrepresentative of the "four-year program." While 70 combat groups are essential to it, he described as more important the fact that it provides for:

1. Replacement of obsolescent world war II type planes with types capable of meeting new requirements for combat.

2. Research and development which assure that best possible equipment for the nation's pilots.

3. A long range striking force to "choke off hostile attack at its source."

4. Nourishment of a healthy aircraft industry and training of skilled manpower necessary for quick expansion in event of war.

The aircraft industry is behind schedule on new plane production, the secretary said.

Among Symington's legislative proposals were these:

1. Adequate facilities for research and development of supersonic aircraft and guided missiles.

2. Increased airbase facilities to meet present needs and prepare for scheduled development of aircraft.

Plan 'Thinking' Bomb

Guided Missile Fitted With Television Set Will 'See' Proposed Target; Attack It

WASHINGTON (AP)—American military scientists appear to be working on the idea of a "thinking" guided missile that will identify the intended target from a picture, then attack it.

A hint of this uncanny flying monster with a brain was contained in a "glossary of guided missile terms" made public last night by the research and development board.

The glossary's reference to the project was terse, saying merely this:

"Guidance, homing, active—a system of homing guidance wherein both the source, for illuminating the target, and the receiver are carried within the missile."

The definition seemed to relate to an idea which some scientists have considered. Roughly, it is as follows:

A guided missile (it could be a rocket or merely a pilotless plane) is fitted with a television set and a picture of an intended target—perhaps an aerial photograph of a city. The missile is launched in the general direction of the target. When it arrives at a point where the pattern of the picture matches what its television "eye" sees, the missile "homes in" on the target.

This explanation is vastly oversimplified. Involved are thousands of complex electronic elements actuating computing devices which make instantaneous but compli-

Capable, well-trained, reliable, they see to it that the service does not fail — 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Many of them are on duty while the rest of the community sleeps. In cases of emergency, some must work endless hours, risking life and limb to restore service in a minimum of time. Each has an important assignment to carry out. As another year gets under way, this Company and its employees renew their pledge to leave nothing undone in providing the type of gas and electric service that makes life easier, happier and more healthful.

Interfraternity Council Plans Dance Refund

SUI's Interfraternity council officers will probably decide Wednesday how to reimburse SUI couples disappointed by the failure of noted jazzman Woody Herman to appear for the Interfraternity formal dance here Friday night.

They were undecided about what action to take. Admittance to the dance, which was paid for indirectly by fraternity men through IFC dues, amounted to about four dollars per man, IFC Budget Director Hal Hockenberg said yesterday.

The IFC officers, as well as many students who attended the dance, yesterday praised campus bandleader Bill Meardon's pinch-hit job for Herman. "Bill did a fine job and cooperated wonderfully," Bud Flood of the dance committee said.

But committee members spent many hectic hours before Meardon was finally lined up, Flood said.

Flood reported that the committee talked by telephone to Herman in Salt Lake Thursday when he played a Wednesday night engagement. At that time he said he would be here Friday, Flood said.

Since then, reports on the Herman "herd" whereabouts were vague and the transportation situation in and out of Cheyenne appeared similarly clouded.

Mrs. Stella Coan, employe at Racine's, yesterday reported that she saw several men who she said were members of Herman's band in Green River, 100 miles west of Cheyenne, Friday morning.

Flood said yesterday that the dance committee had kept in close contact with Rock Island railroad officials in regard to Herman's whereabouts and that apparently some Rock Island trains had come through to Cedar Rapids from snowbound western areas.
