Beardsley Plan Cuts Sales Tax

Gives Vets' Bonus Plan

DES MOINES (AP) — Republican Gov. William S. Beardsley yesterday called for a "thorough study" of the state's tax system, with removal of the sales tax on food, in an inauguration speech before Iowa's 53rd general assembly.

The new governor, who took his oath a few minutes prior to the address, said he favored financing the $85-million veterans bonus only in part from the state surplus, leaving a reserve for lean years.

Beardsley also asked the legislature to overhaul the government's administrative set-up, provide better roads, initiate a conservation program, and take steps "to make the teaching profession more attractive."

Other recommendations will be submitted "from time to time," the governor said. His budget message, outlining fiscal recommendations, will be ready within a few days, he added.

Beardsley, Iowa's 30th governor, told the combined session that he meant "to suggest, not to direct." His inaugural proposals on roads, schools, taxes, and administration were first mentioned in campaign speeches.

"We should be firm in the determination to place the governmental affairs of Iowa on a sound, progressive and economical basis," Beardsley said. "You and I are the servants of the people — let no one assume otherwise," he added.

The governor, onetime representative from New Virginia, proposed a department of labor and industry, consolidating the labor department, industrial commission and mine inspection departments.

Hoover Asks More Power for President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Herbert Hoover urged congress yesterday to give the president sweeping authority to order reorganizations in the executive branch of the government.

It's time for reshuffling of "the most gigantic business on earth" so the government can serve the people better, Hoover said in letters to the house and senate.

Former President Hoover heads a bi-partisan commission, established by congress, to study governmental reorganization.

Hoover recommended restoration and broadening of the law under which the chief executive had authority to order the consolidation and elimination of government functions.

He did not object to congress retaining the power to disapprove reorganization plans submitted by the President.

He declared, however, that the United States is "paying heavily for a lack of order, a lack of clear lines of authority and responsibility, and a lack of effective organization in the executive branch."

Acheson Pledges Firm Policy

Secretary of State Appointee Testifies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dean Acheson pledged himself yesterday to a continued "no appeasement" policy toward Russia when he becomes secretary of state and said he will see to it that subversives are kept out of the state department.

The suave, 55-year-old lawyer-diplomat told the senate foreign relations committee, which held a brief hearing on his nomination to succeed ailing Gen. George C. Marshall, that reports he was an appeaser were "incredible."

Chairman Tom Connally of Texas predicted Acheson would win senate confirmation by a "very large vote." He said the committee may send the nomination to the senate floor today after questioning Acheson again behind closed doors in the morning.

Acheson testified that while he could not at this time spell out in detail his attitude toward the Soviet Union, he fully intends to follow the example set by Mar-

New Governor Installed

Statehouse Too Crowded for Decorations; Loudspeakers Address Overflow

DES MOINES (AP) — In the presence of about as many people as could crowd into the statehouse house chamber, William S. Beardsley, New Virginia farmer, was inaugurated yesterday as Iowa's 30th governor.

Among those who were given places of honor were the state's new first lady, and the new governor's mother, Mrs. Carrie McHaffey, 78, of New Virginia.

There weren't many decorations, except around the speaker's rostrum. But there wasn't room for any more. Almost every inch of available space on the main floor and in the balconies was occupied.

As the new Republican governor read his recommendations to the joint session of the legislature, his words echoed from outside the chamber, where loud speakers were set up to accommodate those who were unable to get inside.

Gov. and Mrs. Beardsley were to head the receiving line at the reception in the chief executive's suite at the statehouse. State officers and legislators and their wives also were to participate. There was to be dancing until midnight on the main and ground floors of the statehouse.

Former First Family Returns to Private Life

DES MOINES (AP) — Former Gov. Robert D. Blue slipped quietly back into private life yesterday. He turned the governor's personal keys to the governor's office, over to Mrs. Norma Mathis, secretary to Governor William S. Beardsley, yesterday morning, and he and Mrs. Blue left immediately for their home in Eagle Grove.

Israel Crisis Hasn't Harmed U.S.-British Ties, Truman Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman denied yesterday that the Palestine crisis has hurt relations between the United States and Great Britain and said there has been no change in U.S. foreign policy in the middle east.

Mr. Truman was asked at his news conference about a 30-minute conference he had earlier with the British ambassador, Sir Oliver Franks. Informed sources said the ambassador asked Mr. Truman to get behind an Anglo-American peace drive in Palestine.

The President said he had no statement to make on the meeting and referred all questioners to a statement made last November by Philip C. Jessup, then acting head of the U.S. delegation to the United Nations. Mr. Truman said Jessup's statement still covers the situation.

Jessup said it was the desire of the United States to maintain its "historic ties of friendship" with all people of the middle east, including both Arabs and Jews, and "to see them reconcile their differences either by direct discussion among themselves or through some assistance from the United Nations."

Mr. Truman turned aside most other questions on the Palestine crisis. He declined to comment on whether the United States would back British policies in the middle east.

But he did throw his weight behind a state department statement denying London newspaper reports that five British planes shot down by Israeli forces last week were on a reconnaissance flight requested by the United States.

The President said the reports definitely were not true. The state department had branded them as "entirely untrue" and it endorsed a British foreign office statement which said British authorities undertook the flights of their own responsibility.

No 'Bleacher Attitude' Sought In Inviting Minnesota Group

The delegation of University of Minnesota students who will be the guests of SUI's Student Council at the Iowa-Minnesota basketball game here Monday will be treated solely as goodwill ambassadors, the council agreed at its meeting in Old Capitol last night.

Council President Evan L. Hultman explained that the invitation to Minnesota was mainly a "friendly gesture" to promote better relations between the two schools and was not necessarily connected with any programs to build a wholesome "bleacher attitude" at SUI.

Several Iowa newspapers reported Tuesday that "the move is another in a series of steps taken by Iowa" to promote such a bleacher attitude. The reference was to a pamphlet distributed at the Iowa-Purdue game last Saturday night that presented a plea by SUI's caricature mascot, "Herky the Hawk" for fans to abstain from booing either officials or Iowa opponents.

Council Secretary Jean Gallaher and George McBurney, Council Bluffs, pointed out last night that Minnesota students who have stayed at their housing units during football weekends repeatedly commented on "the fine school spirit at SUI." Their attitudes did not reflect "the strained athletic relations" reportedly stirred up between the two schools during the past football season and the 1947-48 basketball season, McBurney and Miss Gallaher agreed.

Hultman appointed a committee of McBurney, Panhellenic Representative Alice Reininga and himself to make final arrangements for the goodwill gesture and to act as a reception nucleus for the Minnesota students.

In other actions last night the council authorized the NSA committee to obtain SUI rings of medium weight from the Balfour Jewellery company to be distributed through the SUI Alumni office. The ring design will embody "State University of Iowa org. Feb. 25, 1847" around an oval-shaped stone with engravings of Old Capitol and the SUI hawk on the sides.

GOP Ladies Say — Inaugural Is Chilly

WASHINGTON (AP) — A number of the capital's most prominent hostesses — most of them Republicans — said yesterday they don't care what the weather is inauguration day.

Apparently, they said, they're going to be out in the cold anyway.

And a good many of them, rightly or not, are blaming their plight on Mrs. Perle Mesta, Washington's number one entertainer and a close friend of President Truman and his family.

Mrs. Mesta, an oil heiress who carries a workman's lunch box initialed "P.M.," is co-chairman of the inaugural ball committee charged with guarding the "secret" guest list.

The Republican ladies claim that she apparently has overlooked the fact that a lot of GOP women would like to gaze on Mr. Truman the night of Jan. 20 even if they didn't vote for him.

Among those who have not yet received invitations to the ball are Mrs. Edward E. Gann, Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, daughter of Theodore Roosevelt; Mrs. Thad H. Brown, Republican committeewoman for the District of Columbia, and Mrs. William Culbertson, former head of the League of Republican Women.

Mrs. Gann, better known to capital socialites as "Dolly," was the official hostess for her brother, the late Vice President Charles Curtis, during the Hoover administration.

She said she hasn't gotten an invitation and doesn't care.

Another capital hostess, who asked that her name NOT be used, wasn't so diplomatic.

Matter of fact, she said, there is some doubt in her mind whether Mrs. Mesta is as good a Democrat as she claims.

"Perle was up at the Republican convention throwing parties," she said dourly. "Why do you think they call her 'Two Party Perle'?"

Weather Blocks Odom At Coast

President Proposes Tax Increases for Incomes $6,000, up

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman suggested by implication yesterday that congress increase the taxes on individual incomes of $6,000 or more.

In his state of the union message the President asked for $4-billion in new taxes. He said this should come principally from additional corporation taxes, with portion coming from revised estate and gift taxes.

He also said in the same message that consideration should be given to raising personal income levies on "middle and upper bracket" incomes. He did not specify the range exactly.

A reporter wanted to know how Mr. Truman felt about the late President Roosevelt's proposal to limit individual incomes after taxes to $25,000 a year.

Mr. Truman said he has no set views on that. But he added that if a man has brains enough to know enough about the tax laws to make more than $25,000, he probably is entitled to it.

Asked whether he knew anything of any new Russian "peace offensive" he said he did not.

A reporter wanted to know if he still is willing to see Premier Stalin in Washington. Mr. Truman said he was.

He has repeatedly expressed unwillingness to go abroad for another "big three" meeting, but a readiness to see Stalin in Washington if he wants to come.

(Moscow press dispatches said yesterday the subject of a Truman-Stalin meeting is being kept alive in the Soviet press.)

The President said many women are under consideration for government posts, but not necessarily for the cabinet.

The controversy over a 70 group versus a 48-group airforce came up once more. Mr. Truman said his budget request for 48 air groups is adequate and that all branches of the armed services support that request.

Mr. Truman declined again to say whether he favored new labor legislation in "one package" or more.

Screen Actress Lana Turner Loses Baby

NEW YORK (AP) — Screen actress Lana Turner, 28, had a miscarriage last night at Doctors' hospital, the hospital announced.

Miss Turner, wife of millionaire Henry J. (Bob) Topping, had been expecting a baby in April.

The hospital said Miss Turner's condition was "very good." The miscarriage occurred at 5:45 p.m.

BILL ODOM
Weather Stopped Him

But Flier Sets World Record For Distance

OAKLAND, CALIF. (AP) — Capt. William P. Odom landed here last night after setting a new world distance record for light planes but failing to complete a Honolulu-to-New York non-stop flight because of bad weather and low fuel supplies.

The 29-year-old world flier brought his Beechcraft Bonanza down on the Oakland airport at 8:37 p.m. (Iowa time). He had been forced to turn back by stiff headwinds that ate away his dwindling gasoline supply and kept him from climbing over the storm-shrouded Sierras.

Fresh-shaven, pink cheeked but wearing a wrinkled checked suit that bore evidences of his nearly 24-hours continuous flying, the lanky aerial adventurer stepped from the cabin of his single-engine plane into a swarm of waiting newsmen.

Only a few spectators were on hand to greet him. His return to Oakland after flying over San Francisco to the east came as a surprise. Few were alert to the fact he had failed to cross the Sierras.

"I want a big steak then I want to go to bed," he joked. He looked particularly fit after his gruelling flight. "Then," he added, "I'd like to go right back to Honolulu and try again."

He said that with good weather he knew he could make the 5,300-mile trip to New York. "It's a fine little plane," he said, patting the silver and scarlet monoplane on the side.

"I don't feel like any congratulations," he said. "We got one record, but I wanted to go on to New York." He was disappointed in missing the chance to crack two other records held by foreigners and bring all light plane distance marks back to the United States after an absence of a decade.

Icing conditions over the Sierras, he said, prevented him from attempting to go beyond the 12,000-foot ridge that has been shrouded for two days in blizzards. "I had no de-icing equipment on the plane," he said.

Tug Strike Is Averted

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor William O'Dwyer announced at 10:03 p.m. (CST) last night that a threatened tugboat strike set for midnight had been averted.

O'Dwyer made the announcement as he addressed negotiators for tug operators and the AFL union.

The strike would have had a crippling effect on the city, tying up its vast harbor and stunning its commercial life. The settlement reached last night must be ratified by the 3,500 members of the union, local 333 of the international longshoremen's marine division. Terms of the agreement were not immediately disclosed.

See Vengeance in Oklahoma Murder

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The FBI last night sought an ex-convict charged with murdering a prominent Oklahoma City attorney who had sent him to prison.

Federal officers said they believe Frank Godbey, 53, is on a vengeance hunt he vowed during his trial in 1932.

A warrant charging him with murdering former Prosecuting Attorney Earl Pruet was filed yesterday. Pruet was shot to death Tuesday in his law office.

Four witnesses to the Pruet slaying told officers they were positive Godbey was the man who did the killing.

Rout Roughriders As Gene Hettrick Tallies 23 Points

By HOBERT DUNCAN

The all conquering Iowa City Little Hawks, paced by Center Gene Hettrick, who tallied 23 points to lead the game's scoring parade, raced past Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids, 64-31, last night at City high gym in a Mississippi Valley conference scrap.

This triumph marked the 11th consecutive win for the Hawklets this season and gave them an 8-0 record in loop play.

The victorious Little Hawks, who hit 52 percent of their field goal attempts, completely dominated offensive and defensive play in the first stanza as they pushed in 15 markers while holding the impotent Roughriders pointless.

Led by Whitey Diehl and Hettrick, the Little Hawks continued their withering scoring pace in the second quarter and posted a commanding 28-12 halftime margin.

Iowa City accelerated its offensive drive in the concluding two quarters to establish the 33 point margin of victory, 64-31.

Irish Face Tough Foe at CR Tonight

St. Pat's faces its toughest rival of the season tonight when the Irish travel to Cedar Rapids to meet the undefeated powerhouse of Immaculate Conception.

Immaculate Conception boasts a squad of no less than ten powerful men. The Greyhounds average well over six feet in height, and are noted for their speed and endurance. Each and every member of the team can be considered a basket-scoring threat to the Irish defense.

Records show that Immaculate Conception has walked away with many games this season, winning some by as much as 25 points. St. Pat's fell into this category last November when they lost to the Greyhounds by a score of 57-26.

Wilkinson to Badgers Says Milwaukee Paper

MILWAUKEE (P) — The Milwaukee Sentinel said last night that "all signs point to Charles (Bud) Wilkinson as the new University of Wisconsin football coach."

The article said that Wilkinson, now head coach at the University of Oklahoma, arrived here by plane yesterday and was met by Prof. William B. Sarles, chairman of the Wisconsin Athletic board and William Hoard, the board's alumni representative.

The three men, the article said, then left for Madison in Hoard's car.

Hawkeye Mat Team To Wheaton College For Season Opener

Wrestling Coach Mike Howard yesterday had his eight man squad ready to open the Hawkeye mat schedule against Wheaton college at Wheaton, Ill., tomorrow.

Joe Scarpello, 175-pound Big Nine champion last year and member of the Olympic team, will not become eligible again until the second semester begins.

Commenting on the first of Iowa's six dual meets, Howard said, "We expect just as hard a meet with Wheaton as with some conference teams. Wheaton whipped Wisconsin last week by taking six of eight bouts from the Badgers."

Wheaton is especially strong in the heavyweight division, with 200-pound Bill Simmons. Backing him are Pete Wilson at 155 pounds and Bob Elliot in the 165-pound class.

Hawkeye Heavyweight Bob Geigel and "Junebug" Perrin have grappled to a draw in three trials this week so will alternate in varsity competition. Perrin will make the trip to Wheaton.

Captain of the squad is 121-pound Vern McCoy, Waterloo junior. In two seasons of wrestling he has won seven matches and last year was second in the conference meet.

The other division representatives include Bill Quinlan, Clinton sophomore, winner of three of five bouts in 1946, 128-pound Eddie Steinhoff, Ft. Dodge senior, in 126-pound competition; Ken Keith in the 145-pound class, a senior from Delhi; George Tesla, 155-pound division.

Ralph Thomas, winner of an AAU title at 15, 165-pound representative; and Bob Lage, Long Grove sophomore, in the 175-pound class.

Sideline Coaching Out in New Rules

PALM SPRINGS, CALIF. (P) — College football coaches were curbed in master mind operations from the bench and offense was encouraged as the National Intercollegiate Football Rules committee yesterday rewrote the grid book for 1949.

In tackling the highly controversial free substitution rule, the committee eliminated the regulation permitting one substitute to enter the game while the clock is running. There still will be mass substitutions, but coaches can't send in single men, most of them obviously carrying instructions from the bench, while the game is in progress.

Impetus was given to offense, in rules relating to punts received in the end zone, and passing in the end zone.

Hogan Hot

PEBBLE BEACH, CAL. (P) — Little Ben Hogan, golfdom's most consistent shotmaker, came back from the depths of a midwinter slump yesterday to rip tough old Cypress Point golf course apart with a sensational nine-under-par 63 in practice for the opening of the $10,000 Bing Crosby pro-amateur today.

Jim McIntyre to Speak Here

Minnesota's all-America Center Jim McIntyre will step out of his basketball shoes and onto the pulpit at the Iowa Church of the Nazarene at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

"Big Jim," who will play here against Iowa Monday night, will discuss the topic: "Playing the Game of Life." He was invited to speak here by the Rev. Wendell Wellman.

Second only to Iowa's Murray Wier in conference scoring last year, McIntyre aspires to eventually study for the ministry. He is very active in the "Youth for Christ" movement and has spoken at many rallies.

On the court Jim enjoyed two great seasons, 1946-47 and 1947-48. He set Minnesota scoring marks of 360 points in one season, and 215 points in one season's conference play, both last year. The rangy pivot-man dunked in 86 markers against the Hawks at Minneapolis last year to post another Gopher record.

This season has been no different for the 21-year-old senior, who towers 6-feet, 9 1/4-inches and tips the scales at 235 pounds. In Minnesota's ten games so far, all of which it has won, Jim has scored 182 points to lead his team in point-making. He is second in conference scoring to Ohio State's Dick Schnittker, who has scored 42 points in two games so far.

Weiss, Calsbeek Add Height to Hawkeyes

(Second of a series of sketches on University of Iowa varsity basketball players.)

Al Weiss

Weiss is a 6-foot, 4-inch, 19-year-old center from Chicago, Ill. He attended Kelyvn Park high school.

A sophomore, he is a commerce major and wants to take up salesmanship or business management after he graduates.

Weiss was selected on the all-city squad during his senior year (1947) and was the city's leading scorer that year.

He is one of the newcomers to the Hawk team and has two years of eligibility remaining after this season.

During the summer he takes care of a summer home at Lake Geneva, Wis.

While in prep school, Weiss played against such stars as Osterkorn of Illinois, Wolf of Michigan State, Fendley of Northwestern and many other of the current cage crop.

Frank Calsbeek

Calsbeek is the tallest man on the squad, standing 6-feet 8 1/2 inches. The big fellow comes from Hull where he was all-state on the 1944 selection.

In addition to his cage prowess, Calsbeek was also a baseball and track man. On the diamond he was a catcher, while in track he ran the quarter-mile, high-jumped and threw the shot.

His greatest feat on the hard-court was dunking 42 points against Ireton in 1944. That year he averaged 21 markers per game.

As a Hawk, he has been converted to a forward where he has seen most of his action.

The rangy Calsbeek hopes someday to become a coach, and is majoring in physical education.

McIntyre Gives 'Sweet Music'

Hal McIntyre, who thinks that "there can be no successful challenge to the trend in 'sweet music'" will bring his band here tonight to play for the all-university prom.

McIntyre decided that the desire for "sweet" music prevailed after he noticed that "The kids jumped up on the floor to dance when the band played nostalgic ballads." A "fastie" made them flock back to their seats.

The saxophonist and band leader received his start seven years ago as a musician in Glenn Miller's orchestra. He was influenced by Miller in his desire to have an all-around band.

"There is a happy medium in music and it can be styled to please both 'sweet - lovers' and 'hot-devotees,'" McIntyre believes.

McIntyre is also looking for a higher standard in arranging. "We've been heading gradually toward a marriage of jazz and the classical," he believes, "at least toward the classical music of the great moderns like Shostakovich, Debussy."

About 100 tickets for the semi-formal university prom will be available today and also may be purchased at the door, dance chairman Aaron Jones said yesterday.

The prom, to be held from 8:30 to 12 in the Iowa Memorial Union, will be an optional corsage dance. Presentation of the Hawkeye queen and her court will be featured at intermission.

U.S. Prevented Hirohito Trial

TOKYO (AP) — Documentary evidence available in Tokyo yesterday showed that Emperor Hirohito escaped prosecution as a war criminal because of an order transmitted to General MacArthur through the United States joint chiefs of staff.

The same sources said the decision not to prosecute came from "a government level" and that the American joint chiefs of staff were merely the transmitting agents.

(Washington records show that members of the joint chiefs of staff in January, 1946, were Admirals William D. Leahy and Chester Nimitz and Generals Dwight D. Eisenhower and H.H. Arnold. General Eisenhower and Admiral Nimitz declined official comment on the Tokyo story.

Polio 'Dime March' Begins $5,000 Drive

A pictorial presentation of the war on polio in the Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric company window highlights the March of Dimes drive, starting today toward its $5,000 goal.

Prepared by Dr. W.D. Paul, SUI associate professor of internal medicine and chairman of the division of physical medicine, the exhibit features photographs taken at University hospitals to show the physical therapy side of polio treatment.

Graphs showing the costs of polio treatment and maps showing the total number of polio cases in Iowa by counties and the numbers treated at University hospitals are also displayed.

Five thousand dollars was set as the 1949 Johnson county goal yesterday by Mrs. J.K. Schauf, chairman of the drive.

Half the money collected will stay in Johnson county for local assistance while the other half goes to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. One hundred coin collection containers and posters were distributed in strategic points in Iowa City, Coralville and Hills yesterday by the Women of the Moose. Surrounding towns will receive their collection containers very soon, Mrs. Schauf said last night. Contributions can be mailed to the March of Dimes, post office box 89, Iowa City.

Market Basket Index Hits Its All-time Low

The Daily Iowan market basket slumped to a new low this week by dropping to $16.46. This was the lowest level recorded in the 16-month history of the index, which was started in September, 1947. The previous low was $16.50, set Jan. 8, 1948.

The market basket index represents the amount the average student family of three will pay for food each week. It is computed from a weekly survey of prices on 24 food items in seven representative Iowa City grocery stores.

This week's figure represents a drop of nine cents since a week ago. Food items declining this week were butter, sugar, bacon and lard. Flour was the only commodity to advance in price.

First grade bacon, with a drop of four cents a pound, led the list of foods to show declines since a week ago. Both bacon and center cut pork chops, the two pork items in the Daily Iowan survey, are now selling in Iowa City at their lowest prices in 16 months.

The first break in two months in retail lard prices was noticed yesterday. Armour's lard dipped three cents a pound and sold at 25 cents a pound in most stores.

Comparatively insignificant declines were also noted on butter and sugar. Iowa brand butter retailed at 70 cents a pound, a drop of one cent since a week ago. Five-pound sacks of granulated sugar fell a similar amount, crossing the counter for 50 cents.

The only item to go up in price this week was Gold Medal flour. It advanced two cents over the retail level of a week ago.

Promise of continued food price declines is assured, judging from the latest Dun and Bradstreet wholesale food price index. The index of prices on wholesale markets this week tumbled to its lowest level in 19 months, it was reported.

The Dun and Bradstreet list of foods declining in price included oats, lard, butter, cheese, sugar, cottonseed oil, cocoa, potatoes, rice, steers and lambs.

Food advancing were flour, rye, wheat, corn, barley, currants, peas, beans, eggs, beef and hogs. add six point figures

MARKET BASKET: This week $16.46; last week $16.55. The Daily Iowan market basket index is not an added total of the prices listed above. That is, the index figure takes into consideration both the costs of the items listed above and the amount of each item the student family of three uses in one week. The amount of each item the family of three uses in one week was arrived at in a survey conducted in cooperation with the university bureau of economic and business research.

Auxiliary to Collect Funds to Purchase Medical Equipment

A plan to collect money to buy portable medical equipment for nearby towns was announced yesterday by officials of the American Legion auxiliary of the Roy L. Chopek Unit No. 17, of Iowa City. The funds are to be raised by the sales of national magazine subscriptions, officials said. They added that no outright donations will be acceptable.

Letters of authorization and identification have been issued to salesmen, officials added. The equipment to be purchased from the funds includes — portable hospital beds and mattresses, and portable electric pack heaters. The equipment will be housed in the American Legion hall in the Community building, officials added.

The pack heater can be used in the Sister Kenny method of treating infantile paralysis and for other medical treatment requiring hot packs, officials said.

There will be a charge for transportation, but no other charge will be made for its use, officials said. The equipment will be available to doctors and nurses for temporary use in times of emergency.

Residents of Hills, Coralville, Solon, Oxford, Tiffin, North Liberty, Oakdale, Morse, Lone Tree and Swisher will also be entitled to use the equipment, officials said.

The letters of identification include the following signatures: Mrs. G.J. Dinsmore, president of the Auxiliary; Mrs. Dave Whittell, first vice-president; Mrs. Dale Hartley, Mrs. Martin Pederson, Mrs. Charles Fiesler, Mrs. L.E. Clark and Mrs. Rex Day, executive board members; Mrs. W.L. Cole, child welfare chairman, and Mrs. James Herring, Americanism chairman.

Local Firm Loses $200 Judgment Suit

The Abernathy Furniture company of Kansas City, Mo., was awarded a default judgment of $199.01 from the Hurd Furniture company of Iowa City yesterday in Johnson county district court.

The Kansas City company had filed the suit claiming the defendant owed them $199.01 for goods and merchandise. Glenn Garten and Xen Q. Lindel of Des Moines were attorneys for the plaintiff.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A SLIGHTLY passe Hollywood matinee idol was hauled into a Santa Monica courthouse, charged with driving a car while intoxicated. "I note by your record," said the judge severely, "that you were arrested for the same offense twice in 1937, four times in 1938 and six times in 1939, but were never convicted once. Can you explain that?"

"I can," said the defendant. "At the time, your honor, you were my lawyer!"

Louise Bonino, the juvenile editor, was dining with a prospective authoress and her family one evening. The authoress told her five-year-old son, "Jackie, go wash your hands before dinner." "I can't get into the bathroom," asserted Jackie. "God's in there. 'What on earth are you talking about?' his mother asked. Jackie insisted, "For the past ten minutes, Daddy has been banging on the bathroom door, saying, 'God, are you still in there?'"

Glenn Rummelhart, 656 S. Governor street, was fined $27.50 in police court yesterday on reckless driving charges filed after the car he was driving was involved in an accident at 10:15 p.m. Wednesday.

The accident occurred at the corner of Dodge and College streets and also involved a car driven by William Englert, 1020 Carroll street, police said.

Neither driver had filed estimates of damages yesterday.

A second accident Wednesday occurred at 9:30 a.m. on Iowa avenue one block west of Old Capitol. The two drivers involved were Florence Havlik, 524 E. Church street, and Kenneth A. Tyler, SUI student from Villisca. An estimated $70 was done to the Tyler car. No damage was estimated for the other vehicle.

Cimprich, Hinkle Win Honors In SUI Law Club Arguments

Willmer G. Cimprich and James R. Hinkle won first and second place respectively in the fourth and final case of the 1948 SUI Junior Law club arguments argued last night at the law commons.

Last night's case, postponed from Tuesday, concerned a party-line telephone rights question. A woman tried to call the fire department when her house caught on fire but her neighbor refused to give up the line.

As a result, her house burned but firemen said it could have been saved if they had been called at once. Whereupon, the burnt-out and burnt-up woman sued her neighbor for the value of her house.

The neighbor filed a motion to dismiss the suit claiming that the plaintiff had no grounds for a cause of action. The lower court overruled and she appealed the case.

About 125 persons heard presiding District Court Judge James P. Gaffney of Marengo term the case "very interesting." He also said it was "well-handled" by the four students who argued it.

Judge Gaffney said the case would have been very hard for a court to decide but added that the Iowa State supreme court may have to decide one in the near future as such an incident could very easily happen.

Richard T. Jordan and Cimprich argued for the appellant and John H. Holley and Hinkle argued for the appellee.

The eight winning students out of the 16 who took part in the four cases of this year's junior arguments are now eligible to argue a case before the Iowa Supreme court on Supreme Court day here in the spring. It is one of the law college's highest honors.

Hillel Forum Group To Hear Prof. Hoyt Lecture on Judaism

Prof. Robert S. Hoyt of the SUI history department will discuss at 7:30 tonight in Hillel house the relations between Jews and Christians in the middle ages.

Hoyt's talk, "Rome and Jerusalem: The church, the Jews and Judaism," will be the third in a series of Friday night forums on "The Intellectual Pilgrimage of Judaism," sponsored by the Bnai Brith Hillel foundation.

Hoyt said yesterday he will trace the harmonious relations between Jews and Christians in the twelfth century, the deterioration of the harmony in the thirteenth century and the reason for this growth of anti-semitism.

Hoyt said he is currently working on a book on the origins of the modern national state, of which Rome and Jerusalem and conflicts between minority groups are a part.

At a meeting of the American Historical association in Washington, D.C., during the Christmas holidays, Hoyt presented a paper on medieval civilization which will soon appear in the magazine, Speculum.

He received his bachelor of arts, masters and doctors degrees at Harvard university. Hoyt has been at SUI for three years.

The Lutheran minister will meet with the Lutheran Student association cabinet at 4:15 Sunday afternoon, Miss Bohlken said, and he will be guest speaker at the regular LSA meeting at 5:40 p.m.

He will visit the campus Monday, Miss Bohlken added, and will meet with the board of trustees for the Lutheran foundation at the LSA house at 7:30 p.m.

Union Leaders Set In Repeal Campaign Of Taft-Hartley Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Union leaders broke about even yesterday in their campaign to sell congress members on their two-step plan for revising the labor laws. Meanwhile President Truman declared himself neutral in the capitol hill controversy.

The union men won over at least partially — the new chairman of the house labor committee, Rep. Lesinski (D-Mich.), who introduced a bill to repeal the Taft-Hartley law and replace it with the New Deal Wagner act, with amendments to the latter act to be handled in a later measure. This is what both the CIO and AFL advocate.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), co-author of the 1947 labor law, told a reporter "all this talk about two steps is just silly." "It would be idiotic," he added, "for congress to go through all that debate" over Taft-Hartley repeal "and then do it all over again later" in dealing with Wagner act amendments.

At the same time, the GOP policy leader predicted that all major sections of the Taft-Hartley law will survive the administration's drive to repeal the measure.

Union leaders, however, are confident that the Democratic-controlled congress will override the Taft-led opposition and wipe the Republican enacted law off the books. Even so, they are pressing an all-out campaign to have the switch-over made in two steps because they contend that otherwise important concessions will be made to Taft-Hartley supporters in trying to amend the Wagner act simultaneously with the repeal move.

Shortage Creates Student Janitors

Since World war I, when the scarcity of men created a shortage of university janitors, students have been campus "clean up men."

Loy Julius, in charge of student janitors, said yesterday that 74 students are now employed as student janitors.

The jobs have one good selling point. A person is paid for a two-hour period regardless of how long it may take to clean the area he has been assigned.

Wages are 60 cents per hour, and the students work under the regular building janitors.
