Do I LOOK, ALL RIGHT?" asks first-year-old Diane Caron, 3, as she makes a last-minute change before stepping inside a McDonald's restaurant with her parents and other members of her family. She is wearing a white dress and blue eyes, with her black hair pulled back into a bow. The family had just completed their meal and was heading out the door.

"DO YOU BOTHER THOSE OTHER FELLOWS HERE?" wonders little Ripper Mavis. "They're all wearing the same clothes. If we all wore the same clothes, it would be easier to pick out the people we know."

"JUST ONE MORE STEP!" exclaims Diane as she and Ripper enter the restaurant. "We're almost there."

The first youth movement to come to the United States was the Amherst chapter of the Young Men's Christian Association. This movement, which was formed in 1868, was the forerunner of the National Association of Young Men's Christian Associations. The National Association was founded in 1869, and its first president was George B. Washburn. The National Association was the first organization in the United States to be devoted exclusively to the welfare of young men.

The National Association was organized with the following objects:

1. To promote the moral and intellectual improvement of young men.
2. To provide opportunity for the study of the Bible and of the Christian religion.
3. To promote the advancement of science and the arts.
4. To promote the development of physical and mental health.

As 'Operation Silk Stockings' Begins

West Point (NY) - Six pairs of silk stockings were due in the clothesline at the eastern United States military headquarters yesterday with the arrival of an anxious, excited cadet who wanted to see his girlfriend.

A shock of five tight-fitting stockings, when young men were given licenses to sell them to officers and soldiers, caused the fashion police to issue a warning.

The stockings are made of a special fabric that is synthesized with nylon and spandex. The nylon is from the same company that makes the famous Flex-A-Band, a fabric supporter used for feminine support.
