Representative Sol Bloom Dies; Headed House Foreign Affairs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Sol Bloom (D-N.Y.), chairman of the house foreign affairs committee, died unexpectedly last night of a heart attack. He would have been 79 tomorrow. His death occurred at 7:50 p.m. (Iowa time) in the naval hospital at nearby Bethesda, Md.

Police Seize More Bulgarian Pastors, Spokesman Asserts

By EDWARD M. KORRY
SOFIA (AP)—A government spokesman announced yesterday that security police had seized more Protestant clergymen and he said it is "possible" that as many as 50 are in jail. The latest roundup was disclosed as 15 other Protestant pastors waited in bleak Sofia central prison for their sentences today on charges of treason, espionage and black-marketing. All are liable to death by hanging.

Asked to comment on reports circulating in Europe that 50 more clergymen had been arrested Sunday, the government spokesman said:

"I don't know how many are under arrest or are being questioned. It is possible they number 50. As you could see during the present trial proceedings, some witnesses were pastors under detention. Others also were named as involved in the spy ring."

Four days ago church circles reported that 25 ministers, in addition to the 15 on trial, were held by authorities. The spokesman did not say whether Sunday's arrests brought in 50 or whether that was the total number.

However, the arrests mean that more than one-third and possibly more than one-half of Bulgaria's 138 Protestant clergymen are in the custody of police.

The 15 awaiting their fate at 5 a.m. today (Iowa time) were said to be spending their hours in prayer. Heavy snows whirled around the four-story prison and drifts piled high against the thick, 20-foot walls surrounding the building.

Each defendant faces a sentence of from 10 years to death for allegedly passing state secrets to an Anglo-American "spy ring."

Odom Fighting Bad Weather

ROCK SPRINGS, WYO. (AP)—Bill Odom drove his tiny plane steadily eastward through storms and icing conditions last night, pursuing a non-stop light plane record.

When he made radio contact with the civil aeronautics administration radio station here at 11:28 p.m. he had flown approximately 3,361 miles in the more than 23 hours since he took off from Honolulu at 11:05 a.m. (Iowa time).

With a tail wind, he reported his speed was 160 miles per hour.

Ahead of him, if he was to succeed in his proposed flight to Teterboro, N.J., were some 1,924 miles. He hoped to reach Teterboro by late morning.

Odom had already broken his own record of 2,401 miles, set last Jan. 13 when he attempted this same trip, then turned back after reaching the mainland and landed at Oakland, Calif.

This time storms over Donner pass in the Sierras just west of Reno, Nev., again blocked his way. Rather than battle them, Odom swung his frail craft on a wide circle across northern California, southern Oregon, central and southern Idaho and into Wyoming.

The long detour added miles to his gruelling journey and hours to the long period in which he had to keep awake.

Checking in with the civil aeronautics administration station in Sinclair, Wyo., Odom said: "I'm feeling okay except I'm a little tired."

House Debate Expected Soon on Veterans' Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—A multi-billion dollar veterans' pension bill is expected to be cleared today by the house rules committee for house debate, which probably will start next week.

Committee action had been planned tentatively for yesterday, but the rules committee was occupied with other legislation and did not get around to the pension measure being pushed by Representative Rankin (D-Miss.).

The veteran congressman, widely known for his philosophical manner, and his beribboned pince-nez, had entered the hospital on March 4.

Second Death
Bloom's death was the second to strike congress within the last 36 hours.

Sen. Melville Broughton (D-NC) succumbed to a heart attack Sunday morning.

Advised of Bloom's death, his long time associate, Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) said:

"I think Sol Bloom was one of the finest men I ever knew and one of the best friends I ever had. Everybody who loves a great soul will grieve at Sol Bloom's passing. He performed a great service to his state, his country and his generation."

14th Term

March 4, the day on which he entered the hospital, was one of unusual significance for Bloom. For it was on March 4, 1923 that he began his long service in congress. He was re-elected last fall to his 14th term as a representative from New York's twentieth district — part of the city of New York.

Dr. George W. Calver, congressional physician, said Bloom entered the hospital because he had been suffering from a cold which he could not throw off, and it was felt he could be given better care there than at his home.

Only two servants were at the home, the doctor said.

Coronary Condition

Death was attributed to an acute coronary condition, the doctor of the day at the hospital pronouncing the congressman dead at 7:50 p.m.

Rep. Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, house Republican leader, said:

"I deeply regret the death of Sol Bloom. He was a personal friend for a good many years and one I had learned to admire and respect. His rise from an humble beginning to his high position was typical of what can be done in a free country like America."

The house will take up no regular business today.

The session, Speaker Rayburn said, will be devoted to eulogies for the New Yorker. Capitol flags will fly at half mast.

A House Stood Here Early Yesterday

ONLY DEBRIS REMAINS where early yesterday stood the home of Fred Sharpe, 50, a Methuen, Mass., bachelor. Sharpe was killed yesterday and his house was blown to splinters by an explosion blamed on leaking illuminating gas. The blast seared houses on either side of Sharpe's but no others were injured. Fire men probe the ruins, which resemble wartime bomb damage.

House Favors Creating Defense Undersecretary

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to create the office of an undersecretary of defense passed the house yesterday and was sent to the senate.

The measure, sponsored by Rep. Short (R-Mo.), would establish the position as an administrative aid to the secretary of defense.

Joe E. Brown Leaves 'Harvey' with Malaria

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Joe E. Brown was forced to quit the stage production "Harvey" yesterday because of recurrent malaria.

The 56-year-old entertainer contracted the disease in the south Pacific while entertaining servicemen.

Chief on Warpath Again

Silverheels, 69, Keeps Scalp But Goes to Jail; Eagle Feather, 97, Is Heap Mad

WAVERLY, TENN. (AP)—Chief Eagle Feather, who was jailed last Thursday after he tried to scalp his wife, is on the warpath again.

The white-haired 97-year-old Cherokee warrior was released Sunday when his wife, 69-year-old Princess Silverheels, withdrew the assault charge.

Neighbors had restrained Eagle Feather from lifting her scalp with a knife.

The chief sought revenge yesterday, but he's not using a knife this time. It's all legal. He told Sheriff Trent that Silverheels was hiding stolen property, Westbrook related, "cracked corn to be exact."

A search of the princess' house revealed a cache of the grain, Westbrook said.

Now it's Silverheels' turn to think about languishing in jail. She was charged with concealing stolen property, but was released on her own recognizance until a hearing.

High Court Indicates State Closed Shop Curbs Are Legal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The supreme court rule yesterday that the states may impose tougher curbs on "union security" contracts than are provided in federal laws.

The court held 7-2 that neither the Taft-Hartley act nor the Wagner act which preceded it bans states from regulating union security agreements.

The majority said the only limit is that "the state shall not impose inconsistent with national policy."

Three Forms

There are three common forms of union security:

(1) The closed shop, in which five striking gravediggers talked with Francis Cardinal Spellman for two hours yesterday in a vain attempt to end the union-church dispute at two Catholic cemeteries.

Specifically, the court upheld an order of the Wisconsin employment relations board. The order directed the Algoma Plywood and Veneer company, of Kewaunee, Wis., to disregard a maintenance of membership clause in its contract with a local of the AFL carpenters and joiners union.

Wisconsin Law

The board based its order on a Wisconsin law which requires that two-thirds of the workers in a plant must vote for maintenance of membership before it is included in an agreement. The Taft-Hartley act permits such agreements when a majority of the workers approve.

Justice Frankfurter said for the majority that both the Taft-Hartley and Wagner acts make it clear that "the states are left free to pursue their own more restrictive policies in the matter of union security agreements."

Justice Black wrote a dissent, in which Justice Douglas joined.

Connally Claims 'Unification of Europe' Clause Gives Russia 'Hollering Point'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The full $5,580-billion the administration asked for the second installment of the Marshall plan was approved last night by the senate foreign relations committee, 13 to 0.

The committee added an amendment encouraging the "unification of Europe," despite objections from Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) that it would give a "hollering point" to Russia, which charges the U.S. with dictating to foreign nations.

River Floods Highway 218

Rapidly rising flood waters, believed caused by the breaking of an ice jam on the Iowa river above Coralville, overflowed highway 218 north of Iowa City at about nine o'clock last night.

By 10:30 p.m. 10 inches of water covered about 250 feet of the highway two blocks north of the city park bridge.

Ice was reported jamming at the Burlington street bridge at about 11 p.m.

The highway was closed at 11 p.m. and traffic was re-routed over highway 261 to Mount Vernon.

By 1 a.m. this morning the river had receded about a foot and No. 218 was clear. The ice had gone on down the river, except for several large pieces which were stranded on the highway shoulder near the Mayflower.

At 11 p.m. the river had risen to 11.3 feet from a level of 8.5 feet late yesterday afternoon, U.S. Geological Survey officials said last night.

Workers at the Coralville light plant said they believed an ice jam had broken further up the river because the water overflowed there earlier in the evening.

Wives of Strikers, Spellman Have Talk

NEW YORK (AP)—The wives of five striking gravediggers talked with Francis Cardinal Spellman for two hours yesterday in a vain attempt to end the union-church dispute at two Catholic cemeteries.

The women, a committee representing the 240 men who have been on strike for seven weeks, said the cardinal wanted the men to go back to work as individuals, not as union men, and that he insisted the strikers' committee would not be rehired.

Picketing of the cemetery continued yesterday as the strikers held out for their demand of a five-day week for the same salary of $59.40 which they received for six days.

Chicago Bishop Calls for Illinois FEPC Law

CHICAGO (UP)—The Most Reverend Bernard J. Sheil, Auxiliary Catholic Bishop of Chicago, called yesterday for a fair employment practice commission in Illinois.

Sheil in a statement supporting fair employment legislation proposed in the state assembly said it is "ridiculous" to charge that such laws are "Communist-inspired."

The Catholic hierarchy is behind FEPC programs on state and national levels, Sheil said. In Illinois, the enactment of a FEPC law is long overdue, he added.

"The speedy creation of an FEPC will be positive proof that the members of our legislature subscribe to the philosophy inherent in our democratic heritage," he said.

DOZER GOES FISHING

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—An Australian recently caught twelve large trout with a bulldozer. He was H. Lewis of Maldon, Victoria. While scooping gravel from the Loddon river during the construction of a new reservoir, he saw the trout. Some of them weighed up to four pounds. A few were damaged but all were edible.

Skiers Find Plane Wreckage on Mountain

WRECKAGE OF A MARINE CORPS PLANE which plowed into rugged Mt. San Antonio, northeast of Los Angeles, is pictured as skiers located it Sunday. The victim was Pilot Charles D. Castle, 28, missing since Wednesday. Another marine plane crashed only 100 yards away.

China Premier Resigns Post

NANKING (TUESDAY) (AP)—Dr. Sun Fo, bowing to mounting criticism of his policies, resigned today as premier of China.

Sun announced his resignation and that of his entire cabinet in an administrative policy report to the legislative yuan, the members of which led the campaign to oust the son of the founder of modern China.

He said that his resignation has been accepted by Acting President Li Tsung-jen.

Sun's resignation came as a surprise. Previously, he had appeared adamant in his refusal to give up the post which he accepted only at the strong urging of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

Lawmakers who only yesterday afternoon called on Sun to resign were met with a stern "no." Immediately they began circulating an assortment of petitions demanding his resignation, his impeachment, the return of all government functions to Nanking and an investigation of provincial governorships.

Sun had been under fire from legislators who claimed his policy had blocked peace talks with the Chinese Communists.

Jury Selection Starts for Communists' Trial

NEW YORK (AP)—The process of picking a jury to try 14 of the nation's high Communists on conspiracy charges finally began yesterday.

This followed a final—and futile—defense effort to halt the trial on the grounds that President Truman's recent remark about "traitors" made a fair trial impossible.

The president had used the word in commenting on statements issued by two U.S. Communist party leaders.

Presiding Judge Harold R. Medina put an end to seven weeks of pre-trial defense arguments by denying motions to halt the trial on the basis of the President's remarks, and on other grounds.

Then, sweeping aside all objections, he called into the courtroom a panel of 60 persons, from which the jury is to be selected, and told them to expect a long trial—"several weeks, perhaps a month or more."

Court was adjourned after three prospective jurors had been dismissed. Judge Medina approved their excuses for not wishing to serve on the jury.

He said the defense would be permitted only 10 peremptory challenges — the usual amount. This allows defense attorneys to turn down any 10 prospective jurors without stating their reason.

Others may be rejected if there is a valid reason why they cannot or should not serve.

Judge Medina said he had a list of questions from the prosecution and the defense plus some of his own. He planned to put them to each prospective juror to determine his or her fitness to hear the case.

During the nearly two months of pre-trial legal scuffling, the defense shot motion after motion at Judge Medina in an effort to get the charges dismissed.

This led the judge to comment late yesterday that "if this has not been stalling, then I've never seen it in my life."

Demonstrators, estimated by police to number 420, sang and chanted outside the court. Some carried babies in their arms. The rally was sponsored by the New York civil rights congress in protest against the trial.

Wolverines Upset Illinois, 70-53

Suprunowicz Leads Victory Over Champs

ANN ARBOR, MICH. (AP)—Michigan ran up its highest score of the season to humble Illinois, newly crowned 1949 Big Nine basketball champion, 70 to 53, before 8,500 fans last night.

In handing Illinois its second conference loss in 12 starts, Michigan won from the free throw line. Each team made 23 field goals but the Wolverines hit 24 free throws out of 32 chances while the Illini made but seven and missed eight. Mack Suprunowicz, shifty Michigan forward, paced his team's attack and elevated himself to third place in the conference's individual scoring race by pouring in seven field goals and four free throws through the nets for an 18-point total, 16 of which came in the second half. He received capable scoring support from veteran Guard Bob Harrison, who had 17 points. The sophomore center, Leo Vander Kuy, got three field goals and nine charity tosses, eight of which he made without a miss. Illinois' lanky Fred Green, 6-foot, 7-inch pivot man, hit seven field goals for his team's best individual effort. Dike Eddleman scoring 10 points to miss by eight in seven field goals and four free throws through the nets for an 18-point total, 16 of which came in the second half. He received capable scoring support from veteran Guard Bob Harrison, who had 17 points. The sophomore center, Leo Vander Kuy, got three field goals and nine charity

IC Sub-State Starts Tonight

The boys high school tournament grind resumes at the field-house tonight with the first of four days of sub-state basketball action.

Schedule changes were announced yesterday by tourney officials in the play-off that may bring Iowa City and Davenport together for the third time this year. Provided both win tonight the two AA powers will clash Thursday at 8 p.m.

The Little Hawks, originally scheduled to meet Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids on Wednesday night, will try for their third victory over the Roughriders tonight at 9:30.

In the second game tonight Davenport takes on Clinton, with Paul Moon's Blue Devils out for another win over their Mississippi Valley foes.

Wayland and Wellman open the sub-state program tonight at 7. Wellman ousted St. Mary's of Iowa City in district play.

Elsewhere in AA tournaments tonight Newton meets Dowling of Des Moines, Chariton faces Keokuk, Marshalltown and Mason City tangle, Sioux City Central meets Ft. Dodge and Lincoln of Council Bluffs goes against Webster City.

Class B frays tonight include Moorhead vs. Galva. The Moorhead quintet is still undefeated but in Galva faces one of the fives that got into the quarter-finals in the state tournament last year. Diagonal, veteran of the tournament wars, meets Lovilla while Hudson, in the state tourney a year ago, plays Buckingham's Genesee.

Tomorrow night the final half fieldhouse pits Winfield against Lowden; Montezuma against Mt. Pleasant and West Liberty against Marion.

Stations KSUI and WSUI will air all or part of each game in the Iowa City meet. Tonight both stations will carry the Wayland-Wellman game at 7.

Only KSUI will broadcast the Davenport-Clinton game at 8:15, while WSUI will carry a play-by-play of the City high-Roosevelt clash.

Tomorrow evening KSUI will air the first two games, with WSUI joining the last part of the Montezuma-Mt. Pleasant game. The same station will broadcast the Marion-West Liberty tilt.

Thursday WSUI will carry a play-by-play of both games, the same setup to prevail Friday night.

League Jumpers to Begin Suit Against Organized Baseball

NEW YORK (AP)—A group of major league players suspended for jumping to the Mexican league will file multi-million dollar suits today against organized baseball.

John L. Flynn, attorney, said Flynn mapped his legal strategy in a highly secretive conference last night with Max Lanier and Fred Martin, former St. Louis Cardinals pitcher.

Flynn refused to give any details of the projected suits other than to say they would seek more than $5-million in damages and would be "something sensational."

"We can't afford to tip our hand," remarked the lawyer, a big, pleasant Irishman.

He intimated the suits would follow the form of the Danny Gardella case, still pending in the courts, but would have a more far-reaching effect.

Gardella, former New York Giant outfielder, sued baseball leaders for $300,000 charging the game is a monopoly and in violation of the anti-trust laws. He said the suspension deprived him of a livelihood.

The suit challenges the reserve clause, the legal backbone of the national game under which a player is bound to one club for life unless he is sold, traded or released.

All these players were given five-year suspensions in the spring of 1946 for jumping to the Mexican league.

Mickey Owen, former Brooklyn catcher who is also under suspension, refused to join the group. Instead, he began a one-man campaign to dissuade the others from suing.

New Tigers Get Together During Training Lull

Johnny Sain in Good Form As Big Leaguers Warm Up

BRADENTON (UP)—Paced by Pitcher Johnny Sain, the Boston Braves yesterday put on a flashy exhibition for two "visiting firemen." Baseball Commissioner A.B. Chandler and Umpire Bill Stewart.

Stewart, who is making a tour of National league camps, donned a Boston uniform and gave a detailed analysis of several diamond problems. Chandler confined himself to a role of a spectator.

Sain, slated to hurl Sunday's exhibition game against Brooklyn at Miami, was in brilliant mid-season form as he threw four different types of curves to batters. Veteran Pitcher Clyde Shoun, who signed his contract only recently, participated in his first workout.

TAMPA—Manager Bucky Harris of the Cincinnati Reds yesterday named Ken Raffensberger, Eddie Erault and Walker Cress to pitch the club's opening exhibition game against the Boston Red Sox at Sarasota Saturday. Pitcher CLEARWATER — Infielder Bob Blattner, last of the Philadelphia Phillies holdouts, signed his 1949 contract yesterday for a reported $7,000 after a short conference with Club President Robert Carpenter Jr.

VERO BEACH — A terrific home run by First Baseman Gil Hodges high over the centerfield shrubbery featured Pee Wee Reese's Colonels 9 to 2 triumph over Bruce Edwards' Californians in a Dodgertown league game yesterday.

The game, played in a snappy wind, was halted after four and a half innings. Joe Hatten, making his first start, was the victim of Hodges' homer and a triple by Dick Whitman in three innings. Jack Pierre Roy was belted for seven runs in two frames.

Willard Ramsdell, allowing four hits in three innings, and Jim Romano, St. Paul rookie who allowed none in one, pitched for the winners.

ORLANDO — The Washington Senators had a slight scare yesterday when big Eddie Robinson, first baseman counted upon to do the cleanup chores this season, wrenched his back in batting practice.

The ex-Cleveland first sacker immediately underwent treatment by Trainer George Lentz who said that Robinson would be unable to play this weekend when Washington opens its exhibition series against the Athletics at West Palm Beach.

SARASOTA — Tommy O'Brien, former outfielder for the Pittsburgh Pirates who batted .359 with Birmingham last year, was the only member missing from the Boston Red Sox squad yesterday as the club went through a long workout.

ST. PETERSBURG — Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees said yesterday he would "go slow" with his veterans and use a liberal sprinkling of youngsters in the team's first exhibition game against the St. Louis Cardinals Saturday.

ST. PETERSBURG—Larry Miggins, rookie outfielder from New York who is bidding for a regular job with the St. Louis Cardinals, drove in five runs yesterday and enabled Tony Kaufmann's "Pheasants" to blank Buzzy Wases, "Buzards," 6 to 0, in an intra-squad tilt.

The 6-foot, 4-inch slugger drove in two runs with a single in the first inning, rifled another single

Mason, Calsbeek Spark Conference Victories for Iowa

Charlie Mason's clutch free throws in Iowa's last two winning contests served to salvage something out of an otherwise dismal basketball season.

Mason dropped in the points that spelled the difference in the $1-60 win over Wisconsin as well as the 63-62 decision over the Wolverines Saturday night. Frank Calsbeek hit for the highest Iowa individual total for one contest in the Michigan thriller, with 29 points.

The team as a whole broke two Hawkeye scoring records. In 20 games the squad dropped 1,102 points through the hoop compared to last season's record for 19 games — 1,082.

The old record for most free throws, 268, set in the 19 games of the 1947-48 season, was broken by the new mark of 294 for this winter's 20 contests.

Charlie Mason walked away with scoring honors for both conference and non-conference games, getting 123 markers in Big Nine competition while scoring 146 in 19 games altogether. Tony Guzowski was runner-up with 93 points for conference games and 128 in a total of 18 games.

Al Weiss, who garnered only 14 points in conference competition, was third in overall scoring with 111 points. He started at center in most of the non-conference contests.

On the strength of his great effort against Michigan, Calsbeek finished in the number three spot in Big Nine games with 74 points. His Saturday scoring spree catapulted him into fourth place in team scoring for all games, with 107. He played in 19 contests.

The team had an overall shooting average of 24.6 as compared with the opponents' 26.8. The Hawks led their opponents in free throw percentage with .812 as against .581. In conference competition the field goal average was a cool .225 compared with their opponents' .293.

Iowa played to 200,611 persons at home and away. The 13 home contests drew 122,042, of which 78,134 came to see six home conference games.

Aggies in Playoff
KANSAS CITY (AP)—Oklahoma A & M will meet the basketball champion of the big seven conference in a one game playoff to determine the fifth district's entry in the western regional of the national collegiate athletic association, a three-man selection committee announced yesterday.

Wildcats Top Final Poll by Wide Margin

NEW YORK (AP)—Kentucky won in a walkover.

The blue grass basketball boys, who ran off with the Southeastern conference tournament last week and who are aiming at two national tourneys, completely dominated the final Associated Press basketball ranking poll for the 1948-49 season.

Kentucky drew the first place votes of 136 of the 161 sportswriters and sportscasters who participated in the last week of balloting this season. And virtually all of those who didn't put the Wildcats on top, gave them second place.

Heading into the National Invitation tournament and the Eastern National Collegiate A.A. eliminations next week, Kentucky rolled up a total of 1,546 points in the usual 10-9-8-etc. scoring system.

Coming in a rather distant second was Oklahoma A. and M. with five first-place votes and 1,209 points. St. Louis, which was placed first by only one expert accumulated 1,158 points, and Illinois, the Big Nine champion, with eleven firsts and 1,120 points were the only other teams that even came close.

Kentucky's smashing series of triumphs in the Southeastern tournament, giving the Wildcats a season's record of 29 victories and one defeat, clinched the top spot. The Oklahoma Aggies also won one game last week to capture the Missouri Valley conference title.

After the top four, the voting of the experts resulted in a thorough shuffle of the list of leaders.

Minnesota, which suffered an unexpected defeat and lost out in the Big Nine race, slipped from fifth place to sixth, a notch behind Western Kentucky.

Bradley University, a strong Missouri Valley conference outfit, moved up from tenth to seventh.

Tulane, runner-up in the Southeastern tourney, fell from seventh to ninth as a result of the beating it took from Kentucky in the final. Bowling Green of Ohio dropped back one place to tenth.

The second ten showed even greater changes with Yale, which virtually clinched the Ivy league championship, Utah, North Carolina State, Villanova and U.C.L.A. moving up. Yale was 18th a week ago and U.C.L.A. didn't appear among the first 20. Arkansas was displaced by the Californians' rise.

Except for tournament play, most of the leaders have ended their season's competition.

The top teams figures on a point basis of 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 (first place votes and won-lost records in parentheses)

1 Kentucky (136) (29-1) 1546

San Francisco, City College To Play in Invitation Tourney

NEW YORK (AP)—San Francisco and City College of New York yesterday accepted bids to the National Invitation Basketball tournament and Villanova closed in on the district two berth for the N.C.A.A. championships.

CCNY (17-6) and San Francisco (21-5) thus became the sixth and seventh teams picked for the eight-team N.I.T. tourney in Madison Square Garden, March 12-14-17-19. The other five schools chosen are Kentucky, St. Louis, Western Kentucky, Utah, and Bradley.

The last place will go to another New York city quintet, either Manhattan (18-7), New York U. (11-7) or St. John's of Brooklyn (15-3).

Asa Bushnell, chairman of the N.I.T.'s selection committee, who announced the CCNY and San Francisco acceptances, said he expected to name the eighth team shortly.

This will be San Francisco's first appearance in the N.I.T. and CCNY's third. The far western independents beat CCNY twice this season, once here and the second time in San Francisco.

Villanova can officially clinch the district two nomination if it beats Georgetown at Villanova.

Low Andreas, Syracuse cage coach and chairman of the district's selection committee, said if Villanova should lose it may have to play off with Duquesne (17-5) for the berth.

Yale, Illinois and Kentucky have been selected for the other three eastern N.C.A.A. spots and will meet in the Garden March 21-22.

None of the western N.C.A.A. teams have been picked yet. That part of the tourney will be staged in Kansas City, March 18.

Oklahoma A & M, Nebraska and Oklahoma are in the running for district five: Rice, Arkansas and Baylor have been invited to play off in Dallas next Wednesday and Thursday to decide district six; Wyoming is a cinch to get district seven; UCLA and Oregon State meet later this week for the Pacific Coast conference title and the district eight nomination.

All-Star Big 9 Team Named

CHICAGO (AP)—The 1949 all-star Big Nine basketball team — split among five schools in a hotly-contested poll — was selected for the Associated Press yesterday by conference coaches.

Not a single choice was unanimous. Eight players received between four and six first-team votes. Three 1948 all-stars failed to repeat.

Title winning Illinois and runner-up Minnesota, which battled for the title almost down to the wire, landed only one performer each, as did Wisconsin, Michigan, and Ohio State.

The Illini honored was guard Bill Erickson, a terrific "money" player for the superbly balanced champions. Minnesota's member was the only all-star sophomore, forward Meter (Whitey) Skoog.

One Repeater
Rounding out the No. 1 quintet were Center Don Rehfeldt of Wisconsin, the league scoring champion; Guard Bob Harrison of Michigan, sole repeater from last season's AP team; and Forward Dick Schmittker of Ohio State.

This combination, averaging almost 6-3 in height and a rugged 192 pounds, forced to the second team such players as Forward Dwight Eddleman of Illinois and Center Jim McIntyre of Minnesota, both 1948 all-stars, and Purdue's brilliant Howie Williams.

Michigan's Pete Elliott, who, with Harrison, formed an all-Michigan honor guard tandem last season, dropped clear down to honorable mention this time.

Rehfeldt, Skoog Lead
Rehfeldt, only the sixth Big Nine player ever to top 200 points in a 12-game conference season, and the irrepressible Skoog led the balloting with 15 of 18 possible points. Each was named first choice by six coaches.

Hook — shot expert Rehfeldt tallied 14 points Saturday night for a season bag of 227.

Harrison, honored more for his play-making than scoring ability, also drew six first team votes. With 14 points, he tied Schmittker, who got first call five times. Erickson shaded Williams by getting five first team ballots to the Purdue sharpshooter's four.

Also getting four first team votes were Eddleman and McIntyre. Ohio State's Bob Reidinger and Indiana's Lou Watson were named on the second team at forward and guard respectively.

In all, 20 players figured in the coaching canvass.

Harrison is the lone all-conference senior. Schmittker (a fire-vagon performer although dogged by illness), Erickson, and Rehfeldt are juniors.

Lonie Senior
Rehfeldt's late season scoring surge unsated the 6 foot 9 1-2 inch McIntyre at center. The Gopher senior had appeared a cinch to repeat his 1948 feat of winning unanimous all-conference acclaim.

YWCA Announces Slate of Candidates For Campus Vote

YWCA candidates who will be voted on in the all-campus elections March 30 were announced yesterday at the YWCA cabinet meeting.

The slate is Flora Robinson, A3, Cedar Rapids, and Virginia Burt, A3, Ottumwa, president; Frances Henderson, A3, Oakland, and Madlin Melrose, A3, Waterloo, treasurer; Nancy Shuttleworth, A3, Berkeley, Calif., and Julie Jensen, A2, Harlan, secretary;

Shirley Schrieber, A1, Des Moines, and Marion Neff, A3, Ames, freshman advisor.

The candidate not elected president in the elections will be vice-president. The member not elected treasurer will be finance chairman.

Officers will be announced at recognition day, March 31. There will be no hour requirement for voting privilege and all YWCA members may vote. A list of all members will be at each polling place.

Membership in the student YWCA is based on the school year. All women who have joined since last September are eligible to vote.

Sorority Mothers To Hold Roundtable

Three SUI sorority housemothers will participate in a roundtable at the Junior Panhellenic March meeting today at 4:30 p.m. in room 221A Schaeffer.

Mrs. M.H. Anderson, Kappa Alpha Theta, Mrs. Ralph Overholser, Delta Gamma, and Mrs. Viola Heidenreich, Sigma Delta Tau, will discuss "Integrating the Functions of Chapter Members and Housemother" at the meeting of sorority pledges.

Ether Baumer, pledge president of Sigma Delta Tau, will conduct the roundtable.

Campus housemothers are invited to attend the meeting, Miss Helen Reich, assistant director of student affairs and advisor to the group, said yesterday.

Committee members planning the meeting include Miss Baumer and pledge presidents Sally Watson, Pi Beta Phi; Mary Lou Barth, Zeta Tau Alpha, and Jo Ann Foley, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

35 Johnson County Students Enter in State Essay Contest

Thirty-five Johnson county entries have been received in the state essay contest for students in junior and senior high schools, County Superintendent Frank J. Snider said yesterday.

The contest is sponsored by the Iowa Development commission in Des Moines, with the approval of the state department of public instruction.

Snider said the contest is designed to better acquaint young Iowans with the unlimited industrial, educational, cultural, agricultural, recreational and future living advantages the state offers.

A winner will be selected in each county to compete with other county winners in each of the seven districts, Snider said. Two winners will be named from each district to compete for the $300 state prize.

All junior and senior high school students in grades seven to 12 in both public and parochial schools are eligible to enter the contest which closes April 30.

Suggested topics for the essays are "Why I Want to Live in Iowa," "Why Iowa is Great" and "An Iowa Story." The essays must not contain more than 1,500 words and must be written in ink or typed, Snider emphasized.

Prof. Bach to Publish Book On Hutterian Sect Next Fall

Eight years of study will end next fall when a book by Prof. Marcus Bach of the SUI school of religion on the Hutterians, oldest and most flourishing Christian communistic society in America, is scheduled to appear.

Bach said recently he has signed a contract with Bobbs-Merrill company, Indianapolis, and that the announcement of his book will be in their 1949 fall catalog.

The book will be built on the life of a young Hutterian boy who has caught glimpses of the "outside world," Bach said. The boy will be called "Little Mike," which may also be the name of the book, Bach said.

For his book Bach visited most of the Hutterites' 10 colonies in America and 30 colonies in Canada. He lived with Hutterians for a time during his study, he said yesterday.

In America the Hutterians' mother colony is located in Bon Homme county, South Dakota. There are also colonies in Montana, Bach said.

"The Hutterites live today the way the Amana society lived 60 years ago," Bach said. They are part of the Anabaptist tradition and resemble the old order Amish people in appearance and characteristics, he said.

Bach was the first to record the hymns of the Hutterites.

"Their hymns tell the history of these people and describe their suffering and persecution in Germany, where they originated in the 16th and 17th centuries," Bach said.

He first studied the Hutterites in connection with research for his "America's Little Known Religious Groups" study. He teaches a course by that name in the religion department here. Bach said he was particularly fortunate in being able to understand the Tyrolian German dialect the Hutterians speak.

A year ago Bach was invited by the Manitoba, Canada, provincial legislature to report on the Hutterians at a meeting of the legislature.

"The Hutterians' isolationist tactics and ardent insistence on pacifism has often brought the disfavor of their patriotic neighbors," Bach said.

The Hutterites were in the news recently when some of the colony migrated to Paraguay from Canada. Those who left felt Canada had not fulfilled her promise of complete freedom for the communal life they lead, Bach said.

"I have a great deal of admiration and respect for Hutterian principles, but will consider the problem of whether a system of this type can much longer survive the impact of American ways," Bach said concerning his book.

"America has wonderfully respected the Hutterians' lives," he added.

The cohesive element in Hutterian life is religious communism, which is stronger than economic principles, Bach said. The group came to the United States in 1874.

Bach is also the author of two other books, "Report to the Protestants," and "They Have Found a Faith."

Oxford Man Fined For Auto Violations

Stanley Hartscock, route 1, Oxford, was fined $12.50 on each of two charges in police court yesterday, police said.

He was charged for not having a driver's license and for operating a motor vehicle with defective equipment after highway patrolmen arrested him Friday on highway 6, nine miles west of Iowa City.

Highway Patrolman V.F. Johnson said the car was in such defective condition that it had to be towed in for repair.

Don Lotta, Riverside, was fined $2 in police court yesterday on a charge that his parked car blocked the driveway entrance of the Reliable Motors company Sunday.

French Club to Discuss Current Movie Tonight

An informal discussion of the French movie "Children of Paradise" will highlight tonight's meeting of the SUI French club.

The discussion will be at 7:30 in the Eastlawn lounge.

Library Reports — 600 Books Missing

The missing book situation at the reserve library has reached the point where students using core course books may soon find the open book shelves empty.

About 600 core course books valued at $1,400 were taken from the library last semester, Jean Gallaher, student library committee chairman, said yesterday.

The program of placing current core course texts on open shelves originated about two years ago to aid students unable to purchase them. About 3,000 books were provided by the university for students, but this program might be suspended because of the actions of some students, Miss Gallaher said.

Many books and publications have been mutilated by students. Removal of some pages has destroyed the usefulness of the texts, she added.

Letters are being sent to core course instructors asking them to inform students the open shelf program will be discontinued if students do not respect the privileges extended to them by the university, she said.

The library committee will contact representatives from housing units to aid in asking students to return missing books, she added.

Students Involved In 2 Auto Mishaps, IC Man Pays Fine

Two SUI students were involved in two Sunday traffic accidents, according to police reports yesterday.

Gerald L. Buckwalter, 118 E. Prentiss street, was charged with making a left-hand turn and failing to yield the roadway to an oncoming car after the car he was driving was involved in an accident at the intersection of Dubuque and Market streets, police said.

He was fined $27.50 in police court yesterday after pleading guilty to the charge.

Milton T. Vincent, D1, West Branch, said he received a slight head cut when the car he was driving and the Buckwalter car collided at 9:10 p.m. Sunday. A passenger in the Vincent car, Dorothy Benda, x-ray technician, was released from Mercy hospital after an x-ray examination.

No report of damage to the cars was given.

Charles E. Weeber, M2, Albia, and John G. Pirsch, 104 Central park, were driving cars involved in an accident on South Grand avenue Sunday at 2 p.m., police said.

Weeber estimated damage to his car at $75 and damage to Pirsch's car at $10.

Beardsley Signs State Bonus Bill

DES MOINES (AP) — Gov. William S. Beardsley yesterday signed the compromise legislative bill on financing of the state soldiers bonus.

The bill provides for the use of $50-million of the state's cash surplus and issuance of interest bearing bonds in an amount not to exceed $35-million.

Attorney General Robert Larson announced last week that a test suit would be filed to determine whether this plan of financing is legal.

The Queen Is There--but Which One?

THE WINNER OF THE DAILY IOWAN freshman beauty contest is in this group of 47 contestants. Take your pick and then compare it with those of the judges who voted Sunday night in the river room of the Iowa Union. Winner of the contest will be announced Thursday night at the Englert theatre where the 20th Century-Fox movie, "Mother Is a Freshman," will have its Iowa City world premiere. 20th Century-Fox is sponsoring the contest.

OBVIOUSLY TAKING PAINS with their work are the 22 judges who cast ballots Sunday night in the freshman beauty contest conducted by The Daily Iowan. Above, one of the contestants prepares to walk down an aisle past the judges. Winner of the SUI contest will receive $100 from the 20th Century-Fox film studio and a chance in national competition to win an all-expense-paid trip to Hollywood.

Truman Turns 'Sleepy-Head'

KEY WEST, FLA. (UP)—It took a 21-gun salute to wake President Truman yesterday morning, and even then the vacationing President rolled over for another hour and a half nap.

He got up finally at 9:30 a.m. with a new personal late-sleeping record.

The President's delayed rising was big news at the winter white house.

Mr. Truman is a confirmed early riser, rarely climbing out of bed later than 6 a.m. but he obviously was weary from the tension of Washington when he arrived here Sunday for a two-weeks rest. And never in his public history has he slept so late.

Press Secretary William D. Hassett treated the event like a major news break.

Dispatches were rushed to telegraph circuits and within moments, the news was sent around the world—a "new Truman" had been revealed, a sleepy-head Truman.

Customers Treat Retiring Waitress

The tables were turned yesterday for June M. Spevacek, A2, Iowa City, who quit her job as a waitress at Smith's cafe Sunday.

It was "have lunch with us" rather than "may I take your order" when four SUI professors and a local dentist came to the restaurant for their noon meal.

The professors—regular customers at Smith's for 14 years—treated Miss Spevacek because she had waited on them for a year and a half. They also presented her with two dressy pins.

The professors included Thomas Farrell of the English department, Norman C. Meier of the psychology department, J.M. Russ of the engineering department, Dr. J.D. Wells of the college of dentistry along with Dr. Roscoe Volland, local dentist.

Trainman Promoted To Peoria Position

C.S. Grimm, 921 Dearborn street, has been promoted to the position of trainmaster at Peoria, Ill., railroad officials announced yesterday. The promotion was effective immediately.

Grimm served as roadmaster for the Rock Island lines for the past seven years. His duties involved the maintenance of track and right-of-way between Iowa City and Des Moines.

In the new position at Peoria, Grimm will be in charge of train crews operating between Peoria and Bureau, Ill., and between Peoria and Rock Island, Ill.

Although Grimm left to assume his new duties yesterday morning, his wife and five sons will remain in Iowa City at least until the end of the school year, Mrs. Grimm said last night.

Railroad officials said last night that no one had been named yet to replace Grimm.

Local Youth Leaves For Airforce Exam

Lowell A. Holderness, 18, 831 Maggard street, left yesterday for his airforce physical examination in Davenport, O.A. McClung, army recruiting officer, said yesterday.

Holderness enlisted for three years in the U.S. airforce. He will go to Lackland airforce base, San Antonio, Texas, if he passes the examination in Davenport.

Beauty Queen To Be Named At Premiere

Second-guessers will have a holiday until Thursday night when the winner of The Daily Iowan freshman beauty contest will be announced.

The queen has already been picked, but no one except a board of judges knows who she is.

Thursday the public will be let in on the secret. At that time the "Queen of the Premiere" will be announced at the Englert theatre where the 20th Century-Fox comedy, "Mother Is a Freshman," will have its Iowa City world premiere. The picture co-stars Loreta Young and Van Johnson.

The contest is sponsored by 20th Century-Fox whose search for America's most beautiful freshman has covered 25 college campus throughout the country. Simultaneous premieres are scheduled for these college towns Thursday.

Winners at the 25 schools will receive $100 each and will be entered in national competition for a two-week, all-expenses-paid trip to Hollywood this summer as the guest of 20th Century-Fox.

The Daily Iowan freshman queen was selected Sunday night in the river room of the Iowa Union by 21 judges from men's housing units and a faculty representative. She was among 47 candidates from women's housing units.

An informal coke-session, where candidates and judges became acquainted, preceded the judging.

Candidates introduced themselves individually from the stage in the river room and then walked down a center aisle past the rows of judges. All candidates carried number cards.

Judges were Nevin Woodward, Alpha Tau Omega; Bill Munsell, Beta Theta Pi; Al Glottely, Delta Chi; Jordan Kern, Delta Tau Delta; Don Edwards, Delta Upsilon; Andy Lorence, Hillcrest; Mike Breen, Lambda Chi; Dick Ritter, Loyola House; Bill Miles, Phi Delta Theta; Harlan Hockenbury, Phi Epsilon Pi; Chuck Dodd, Phi Gamma Delta; Dale Erickson, Phi Kappa Sigma; Jack Glaza, Phi Kappa Psi.

Wrex F. Vandecar, Pi Kappa Alpha; Mark Payton, Quadrangle; Joe Poulter, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Gene Glenn, South Quadrangle; Andrew Anderson, Theta Xi, and James P. Cochran, Town Men.

Dick Spencer, managing editor of the SUI information service, was the faculty representative voting.

Ballots were counted by Spencer, Bill McBride, Daily Iowan columnist, and Gail Myers, Daily Iowan editor.

Professors to Talk On T-H Labor Law

Three SUI professors will conduct an informal "Conversation Piece" on the Taft-Hartley law at this noon's Kiwanis club luncheon at Hotel Jefferson.

Professors Kirk H. Porter, political science department head, and W.L. Daykin, commerce, will discuss the law. Prof. Orville Hitchcock of the speech department will act as moderator.

SUI Rifle Squads Schedule Contests With Four Schools

University rifle teams, after winning three postal meets over the weekend, will fire in six more postal meets Saturday.

ROTC riflers will face competition with the University of Nevada, the State Agricultural college and the University of Duquesne.

The varsity will fire against Cleveland college, Duquesne and Nevada in other postal meets Saturday.

In postal meets, the competing teams fire at home and forward the scores by mail to their opponents.

Saturday SUI's varsity team outshot Duquesne 1,846 to 1,791, according to scores received by Coach J.P. Anderson yesterday. Leading the Hawks was A. Blaine Kearney, P2, Oakland, with 375. Robert Speer topped Duquesne's scoring with 368.

ROTC riflemen, firing 1,835, won from Duquesne and Missouri universities' ROTC units which fired 1,791 and 1,823 respectively. Keith L. Nicodemus, E1, Vinton, paced Iowa with 370. Speer and Linnerson led Duquesne and Missouri with 368 and 372.

The ROTC squad did win two bronze medals by placing third and fourth in different phases of individual firing last Saturday in the Camp Perry rifle meet at Booneville, Mo.

Charles U. Keely, A2, Iowa City, finished third in firing from a standing position with a score of 91 out of 100.

Fourth place went to Charles A. Thodt, A3, Walcott, firing from a prone position. He tied for first with six others by placing a perfect 100 score, but in the ensuing shoot-off finished fourth.

Thodt fired 18 consecutive bulls eyes, eight coming in the shoot-off.

Democrats to Hold Convention Friday

Iowa City Democrats will hold their city convention Friday at 10 a.m. in the Johnson county courthouse, City Chairman Ed Lucas said yesterday.

The convention will adopt a platform for the coming city election campaign and will probably officially nominate E. E. Cline as candidate for fourth ward alderman, the city chairman said.

Immediately following the convention the city central committee will elect a new city chairman, vice chairman and treasurer.

In a statement Jan. 8, Lucas said he would not seek the city chairmanship again because his law practice and position as Johnson county Democratic chairman demand too much time. He added that he felt the same man should not be both county and city chairman.

Police received report of a gray gabardine topcoat which disappeared from the Iowa Union.

Vernon Inmer, 1025 E. Washington street, told police the coat was a size 34 or 36 and had the label "M. Knight" in blue and gold thread.

He said a pair of light leather gloves, car keys, and glasses both in cases, were in the pockets.

New Research to Start Here

A new research study, dealing with high blood pressure and the possible use of fever-producing materials in its treatment, will be started soon at the SUI college of medicine.

A $10,000 grant from the Baxter Laboratories, Morton Grove, Ill., will finance the study, under the supervision of Dr. L.E. January, SUI assistant professor of internal medicine.

Other doctors to participate in the special research study will be W.M. Kirkendall, resident in internal medicine; Henry Hamilton, instructor in internal medicine, and Raymond Sheets, resident in internal medicine.

The money, one of the largest non-governmental grants ever received by the department, was accepted last week by the finance committee of the state board of education.

Purpose of the study will be to learn how efficient fever-producing materials, called pyrogens, are in reducing blood pressure levels in various forms of the disease. This form of treatment has

Dr. L.L. Dunnington To Have New Book Published on April 1

The third book by Dr. L.L. Dunnington, pastor of the First Methodist church, entitled "Something to Stand On," will be published April 1.

"What can the intelligent college student believe in his Christian faith?" is the purpose of his new book, Dr. Dunnington said yesterday.

It is a summary of his life work as it has pertained to students, he commented.

"Something to Stand On" will be the first book to deal with the subject of modern Christian faith in a forthright manner, Dr. Dunnington said.

The last chapter, "Here We Take Our Stand," offers a creed for the intelligent, modern Christian, Dr. Dunnington said.

The book is apt to cause a great deal of controversy because it deals with subjects as what is heaven, is there a personal devil and what can we believe in the Bible, the minister added.

The title, "Something to Stand On," is from a statement by Archimedes, famous Greek mathematician, saying a person who has something to stand on can move the world.

Dean Albert C. Knudson of Boston university school of theology wrote the foreword for Dr. Dunnington's book. Dean Knudson is the author of several books, including "Principles of Christian Ethics," "The Philosophy of War and Peace," and "The Doctrine of God."

He has read Dr. Dunnington's manuscript and approved it, Dr. Dunnington said yesterday.

Dr. Dunnington is also the author of "Handles of Power" (1942), "More Handles of Power" (1944), and "Start Where You Are" (1946), a collection of sermons given at the First Methodist church.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

For some weeks Alexander Woolcott had been boasting to friends that a tony Boston society leader had become so intrigued by his mellifluous radio voice that she had asked if she could visit him next time she came down to New York.

The lady arrived, unfortunately, a few days after Woolcott had taken off for Hollywood, but she was informed by the switchboard operator that his butler awaited her with a message from the master. Vastly impressed, she rang the buzzer of the Woolcott apartment, but fled in horror when she beheld a flunky in a coat several sizes too large for him—and no pants at all. She did not know, of course, that the coat was part of Woolcott's very best full dress suit, nor that the flunky was his great good friend, Noel Coward.

Coward phoned Woolcott in Hollywood that evening to tell him the story. Woolcott indulgently forgave him after an initial burst of wrath, and then continued gossiping for a full half hour. Finally he reminded Coward happily, "I take it you have forgotten that it was you who called me. The bill must be over a hundred dollars by this time."

"Probably," agreed Coward. "I guess I also forgot to tell you that I was calling from your apartment."

Engineer Approves 3 Building Permits

Permits for two garages and for one remodeling of apartment type dwelling were issued by the city engineer's office recently.

H. W. Zimmerman received a permit for a garage he will build himself at 1313 Marcy street at an estimated cost of $1,000.

A permit for garage estimated to cost $400 was issued to Ray Hahn, 2127 Friendship street. Hahn will do his own contracting.

William Novotny received a permit to remodel his building on the northwest corner of Capitol and Court streets. He estimated the cost at $350 and indicated the remodeling was to be done to make the dwelling over into apartments. Burger Construction company will be the contractors.

Russ Note Protest, Cancel Maneuvers

BERLIN (UP) — The Russians yesterday cancelled their scheduled firing practice in vital Berlin airlift corridors after western officials protested at the safety center here, it was officially announced.

This is the first time since last summer the Russians have taken heed of western verbal protests.

Young Republicans Silent on Challenge

The SUI Young Republican league has issued no statement on the fair employment practices bill because "any statement of the YRL's position must come through a regular business meeting," Chairman Jim P. Goodwin, 44, Fort Madison, said yesterday.

The Young Republicans met last on Feb. 24 and have not yet set a date for the next meeting.

The SUI Young Democrats challenged the YRL last week to join the Democrats in lobbying for the FEPC bill in Des Moines this week.

Reserve Fund Bill Passes State Senate

DES MOINES (P) — A bill creating a $30-million state tax reserve fund as a protection against a possible drop in state income was passed by the Iowa senate yesterday 34 to 8.

The bill, advocated by Gov. William S. Beardsley, goes back to the house for final passage.

As originally approved by the house, the measure provided for a $40-million reserve fund. The senate whittled this amount down because the legislature had decided to use $50-million to help finance the soldier bonus.

Both the reserve fund and the bonus payment, totaling $80-million will come out of the state's estimated cash surplus of approximately $100-million.

Fixing of the reserve fund at $30-million was a part of the compromise agreement by which the legislature settled its controversy over how much of the cash surplus should be used for the bonus. The house is expected to concur in the senate action and send the bill to the governor.

The tax reserve fund will be kept in a separate account in the state treasury.

A Vishinsky-Eye-View of Russ Global Policy

FIERY ANDREI VISHINSKY (above) assumed the post of Soviet foreign minister in top-level shakeups in Russia last weekend. Big questions are unanswered: Was Molotov really ousted? Will Soviet policy get tougher or softer or stay the same? What follows is a picturing of global Soviet foreign policy as Mr. Vishinsky must see it today.

ITALIAN COMMUNISTS mass in Rome to demonstrate against the proposed North Atlantic pact. Wrecking the pact—and the Marshall plan—is vital to any Soviet calculations in the current power struggle. Molotov's tactics, including statements that western Communist parties will welcome the Red army in the event of war, may be endangering these parties. Vishinsky will have to call the signals for the western European party-liners now.

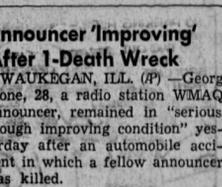

VISHINSKY FINDS the west over a barrel in China. Nothing much to worry about here, just sit and wait. But Communist demonstrations in Japan (like the one above left listening to Sanzo Nozaki, right, number one Japanese Communist) will have to be kept up. Undercover Communist agitation in India and southeast Asia will probably be pushed to the limit as long as the west chooses to look the other way.

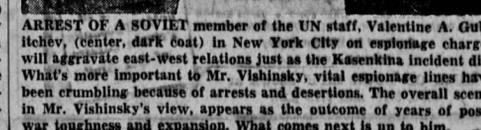

CARINTHIA is focal point of Yugoslavia's demands against Austria at the current peace negotiations in London. Mr. Vishinsky must decide whether to aid or hinder Tito in the present negotiations. He must also find something to do about Tito's "nationalistic deviations"—a sore spot at the Kremlin.

WAR ON RELIGION is probably all mapped out for Mr. Vishinsky. Cardinal Mindszenty (above) was only the beginning. So is the current trial in Bulgaria of 15 Protestant clergymen. Kumbings against the church have been heard in Czechoslovakia and Romania. Even in dissident Tito's Yugoslav domain, clergymen are being persecuted for "treason."

ANNOUNCER 'IMPROVING' After 1-Death Wreck WAUKEGAN, ILL. (P)—Georg Stone, 28, a radio station WMAQ announcer, remained in "serious, though improving condition" yesterday after an automobile accident in which a fellow announcer was killed.

ARREST OF A SOVIET member of the UN staff, Valentine A. Gubichev, (center, dark coat) in New York City on espionage charges will aggravate east-west relations just as the Kasenkina incident did. What's more important to Mr. Vishinsky, vital espionage lines have been crumbling because of arrests and desertions. The overall scene, in Mr. Vishinsky's view, appears as the outcome of years of post-war toughness and expansion. What comes next is up to him.

SO MANY persons indicated approval of the column last week which concerned itself with the cleaning of trivia from the little black notebook that I will attempt to make a similar column a regular Tuesday feature.

If the Agents get on the agate it should be no trouble at all. Of course it means less work for me, but after 10 months of Hauling and approximately 200,000 words in this panel any shortcut which makes the readers happy gets my fondest approval.

Another shortcut I have decided upon is to take off Saturdays. In point of fact, I didn't decide this on my own. My scholastic standing had something to do with it. No matter how much you learn around here, it doesn't mean a thing unless grades show some indication of passing work.

I have often thought I could obtain a better education if classes didn't clutter up my schedule every day.

SEVERAL STUDENTS have been invited to attend the annual Finkbine dinner on March 10. There seems to be an aura of uncertainty about this affair. One fellow told me it was his scholastic standing which got him the bid. Another replied it was because he was classified as an "outstanding student" in campus affairs, and still another thought he was invited because he lives in Finkbine.

Annual dinners are ordinarily considered rather important functions, and I assume both the invited and uninvited will be notified of the qualifications so that wives and sweethearts may be properly impressed or consoled.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON a jangling telephone stirred me from a deep and luxurious nap. It was Agent Connie Carleton reporting that she and all the other little Agents over in Currier cottage number nine put in one hek-tva night last Friday.

The source of difficulties was an uncooperative telephone. Here is the story Connie told without taking a breath: "Our phone was out of order and all we could get on it was 'Hello! Hello!' and our dates couldn't call to find out what time to pick us up, and the girls who had no dates lost out on any chances for one, and no one could call home to their mother as had been promised, and all the other phones were busy around here, and they didn't get it fixed until 10 a.m. Saturday morning, and we couldn't order hamburgers!"

Sounds like Friday evening was a total loss to Currier nine... especially without hamburgers.

BLESSINGS UPON Ray Floer-chinger, Deep Rock station manager in IC. A brand new 1949 husband drove into Ray's station with waterpint signs all over his honeymoon automobile and requested a wash job last week.

Although the vehicle was covered from radiator to trunk lock with signs reading "Watch Iowa Grow" etc., Ray contracted the job at his usual rates. He says he figures a new husband deserves every break he can get.

AFTER HELPING to judge my first beauty contest Sunday night, I have decided this judging business isn't all it's cracked up to be. Officially I was a ballot counter, but felt a moral obligation to observe the event closely.

There were 51 freshman lovelies in the River room with 22 judges to impress. It was difficult to tell who was the more nervous — judges or contestants. Considering that 20th Century-Fox has agreed to award $100 to the winner at the premier of "Mother is a Freshman" (showing at the Englert Thursday) this contest takes on an even more tense significance.

By the time 51 sets of smiling teeth flashed at the judges there were several cases of minor snow-blindness reported within the group.

FEPC: A Stand . . .

TO THE EDITOR: We find State Senator Mercer's comments upon the FEPC bill now before the Iowa legislature both informative and indicative. His primary concern appears to be the constitutionality of such a law should the law be adequate to minority groups. On this point, it may be enlightening to the senator to know that several states already have such legislation and that it is proving moderately successful. However, its success depends mainly upon the minority groups who have had to pressure such as the senator to enforce it.

If the senator's concern for the constitutionality of such a law providing equal rights for minorities were genuine, he would be provoked into a far more active program to see that such legislation had been passed a long time ago and that it were properly enforced.

He should rather question the constitutionality of such practices as are an everyday affront to the rights and dignity of minority peoples — practices such as racial discrimination in Iowa City bars, shops, in local retail establishments and housing facilities.

Complete equality for all people is already in our constitution — both in the letter and the spirit of this basic document of our freedom. That we are today forced to ask for specific legislation to provide adequate guarantees for this equality is a striking commentary upon the state of civil rights in our country today.

Senator Mercer's attitude is perhaps indicative of what can be expected from our present administration whose bi-partisan energies are expended toward provoking another war while conducting a campaign against the civil rights of all Americans.

It is perhaps also indicative of what we may anticipate by contending ourselves with an equal rights campaign which only approaches officialdom for its opinion and support. We feel that the only campaign which can be successful is one which arouses the American people to the dangers of the present prejudices.

We are a fair, freedom-loving people whose tradition is older than the constitution Senator Mercer shows false concern over. We urge the formation of an all-campus anti-discrimination committee to fight discrimination in Iowa City and to arouse public support for legislation such as FEPC.

Lawrence Kaplan SUI Young Progressives

... And a Question

TO THE EDITOR: The government is currently spending millions of dollars to combat communism in this country, and for all practical purposes the fight is not too successful. It seems to me that the only answer to this problem is for us, everyone of us, to accept the most basic of those concepts embodied in those documents we hold sacred. Actually we must do more than accept them, we must believe in them as we believe in our own particular religions.

The concept I write of is a little thing the word is used frequently around election time, the term is EQUALITY. Communists direct their propaganda at "minority groups", and these "minority groups" have reason to think of other systems, systems that offer them a place in the sun. When we voluntarily take into our hearts all people, and let them absorb the benefits made possible by all the people that preceded us, and all the people that so recently fought to preserve those benefits, then we will have done more to eliminate communism than a direct attack upon the stronghold of communism itself.

It seems to me that FEPC seeks to legislate freedom. In my eyes legislating freedom is a last resort for a nation that is striving to show the rest of the world the advantages of a system of free enterprise. Frankly I don't know whether or not legislating equality is a wise thing. True that it would demand of every person a quality that should be in his heart (as an American), but then under those circumstances such a feeling would actually be a superficial affection.

Perhaps someone will help set me straight.

Lunch Plan Gets A Flood of Spuds

DES MOINES (P)—Bill and Mary, who get hot lunches at school, are going to get lots of mashed potatoes and gravy from now on. So are the thousands of other school kids.

C.W. Bangs, state director of the school lunch program, said yesterday more than 20 carloads of potatoes are being distributed to the schools participating in the program. The spuds are free to the schools.

They were purchased under the U. S. department of agriculture price support program. Also going to the schools under the same program are two carloads of dried raisins and a car of dried eggs.

"We're getting lots of potatoes a lot earlier than usual," Bangs related. "Ordinarily, we keep about two months ahead. The present shipment will last the schools for the remainder of the school year."

"The schools use a lot of ground beef, because other meat is pretty high priced yet. And that means lots of potatoes and gravy for the children from now on."

A record number of 982 schools are participating in the school lunch this year. That means, Bangs said, that about 118,000 pupils are being served hot lunches every day of the school year.

Might Work with Rabbits, But — Pyramid Club Is Numerically Impossible

By CLAIRE COX NEW YORK (P)—If you are one of the dreamers who plunged a dollar in a pyramid club membership, you'll probably have to recruit a few suckers from Mars before you can collect the $2,048 you're supposed to get.

According to the adding machine in use at the International Business Machines corporation's main offices, it would take more people than there on the face of this earth to keep a pyramid from crumbling before you find that pot 'o gold.

The pyramid club is a craze which has swept the nation from coast-to-coast. The idea is to invite two friends to tea and then extract a buck from each of them before they have time to consult a slide rule. These people in turn get two unsuspecting friends to drop in, etc., until you have recruited a pyramid of 15 persons. As soon as the eight persons on the bottom of the pyramid each have recruited two persons, you leave the pyramid and your name goes at the bottom of a list of eight names. Every day, you move up one notch on the list, as the guy at the top is raking in his $2,048. Altogether, it's supposed to take 12 days to make the four steps from the foundation to the peak of the pyramid and the eight steps up the list.

Well, it's all very nice in theory, two IBM mathematicians said, but after a conference with the adding machine, here's what they found out about the one dollar clubs:

A pyramid club, after 10 days of operation, must have 1,023 members to work right. After 20 days, it must have 1,048,575. After 30 days, the figure jumps to 1,073,741,823, which is more people than there are in the U.S.A. On the 31st day, you'd have 2,147,483,647 people scurrying about trying to enlist members.

UMW Strike Hinted if Boyd Is Appointed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A hint of a new coal strike "soon" over safety in mines was hurled at a senate committee yesterday by one of John L. Lewis' chief lieutenants.

John Owens, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers, was testifying against President Truman's appointment of James Boyd as director of the bureau of mines. Owens said:

"We ask that you do not confirm Mr. Boyd, who will be in charge of a federal agency which is responsible in part for the safety of the coal miner."

"The miners are becoming impatient and angry over the delay in action on safety, and there may soon come a day when they will refuse to go down in the mines until these things, so long complained of, are corrected."

The shift in directors of the bureau of mines took place in 1947. Secretary of Interior J.A. Krug released Dr. R.R. Sayers as head of the bureau. Sayers had supported Lewis' position on safety, and Lewis later hired him.

Boyd was named by Krug and President Truman. Lewis fought the appointment from the first. His opposition has been sufficient to block the confirmation up to now. But yesterday Mr. Truman sent a long letter to the committee urging quick action on the appointment.

The bureau of mines investigates mine safety conditions and makes reports but lacks the power to shut down mines it considers unsafe.

Mr. Truman in his letter to Chairman O'Mahoney (D - Wyo) urging confirmation, had said that statistics showed fewer deaths and injuries in the mines since Boyd has been acting head than at any other time in history.

Senator Anderson (D-NM), former secretary of agriculture, argued with Owens that the theory of the government was to get a good administrator at the top and permit him to hire experts. He also got Owens to admit that Dr. Sayers had not been a coal miner, and neither had his predecessors in the job.

By 1953 the total grade school population in Iowa City will increase from 1,201 children to an estimated 1,623, according to a chamber of commerce news bulletin released yesterday.

These figures are based upon a school census taken in June, 1948. They do not include student families or families expected to move to Iowa City within the next five years, the bulletin said.

These facts are pertinent to the proposed school bond issue to be voted upon by Iowa City residents March 14. The proposed bond issue would finance the expansion of facilities at Longfellow and Lincoln grade schools.

The bulletin cited the fact that Horace Mann school has 21 rooms, 330 enrollment, and relatively little room in the district for population expansion.

Longfellow school has 18 rooms, 461 enrollment, and the most possibilities of population expansion of any section of town. Lincoln has three rooms and an enrollment of 84 children.

The cost of borrowing $182,000 for twenty years will be $7 of a mill for each $1,000 of assessed property valuation.

At the present time citizens of Iowa City are paying $30 per $1,000 of assessed property valuation for education in Iowa City public schools. Of this, $1.83 per $1,000 valuation is assessed to retire the outstanding bonds on City high school. The current bond indebtedness of the Iowa City school system is less than $225,000, the bulletin said.

Homeless Returning To Missouri Valley

MISSOURI VALLEY (AP) — Most of the 1,000 persons who had to leave their homes over the weekend, when flood waters struck, were busy last night with the task of preparing to move back in.

The waters had receded from most of the flooded area and the number of families being given emergency food and refuge dwindled to about a tenth of its original size.

Highway 75 again was open through Missouri Valley, and rail traffic has been resumed. The water was virtually all gone from highway 30 west of the city but the state highway commission in Ames had not reopened the route pending an inspection for possible under-scouring.

Heat again was flowing into the

Deliveryman Finds — Dentures in Diapers — Also Toupees

NEW YORK (AP) — Joe Sanelli hasn't trusted a housewife since he was bitten by a bundle of diapers.

Sanelli is a diaper service delivery man, and in addition to replacing the ice man in the affections of the housewife, he also operates a sort of lost and found. He's fished everything out of sacks of used diapers from false teeth to an infant customer.

"I'd like to find a pretty blonde in one of them sacks," he said, "but all I get is champagne, war medals and toupees. Once I found a package of love letters all done up in pink ribbon lyin' in there with the diapers."

"Cream Route"

A jovial bachelor from the Bronx, Sanelli, 31, keeps 350 young ladies and gentlemen in the most modish three-cornered trousers. He works the Park avenue beat, which he refers to as the "cream route," and reports that the offspring of Astors and Rockefeller's use as many diapers every day as the janitor's bawling daughter.

Hardly a day goes by that Sanelli, who has worked for the General Diaper Service for five years, doesn't hear a faltering father change junior into a dry diode or advise new mothers on formulas.

"I hadda take a special course in baby care from the National Institute of Diaper Services before I could start workin' the route," he said. "Can you imagine me, Joe Sanelli, gettin' all het up over them little tikes? Jees, my old sergeant would love that."

Likes His Visits

But Sanelli really likes his visits to the kitchens of the folk who were born with silver spoons in their mouths — except for the things he finds among the washing. If one baby hadn't screamed bloody murder from the diaper bag, he might have wound up in a washing machine. The kid was tossed there by his big brother, who didn't like the competition.

"Once I rescued a half a roast chicken from the wash," he said. "Lots of rattles and rubber toys get in with the diodes, too. I found a couple of brassieres lately and only last week an empty beer bottle popped out of a bag when my truck hit a bump."

Sanelli delivered diapers to babies all over New York before he was promoted to the silk stocking district. He chats with baseball Player Hank Greenberg over the wash and one of the Mrs. Rockefeller's gives him coffee and cake.

"I see Hank quite often," Sanelli said. "I always say 'hello, how are you' and he answers me right back. He's got two awful nice kids."

more than 200 places, including most business houses, which receive steam from the central heating plant. Gas service still was off and water still was being rationed. Typhoid shots were to be administered the citizenry today.

Meanwhile, a new flooding occurred about 50 miles north of Missouri Valley when overflow from the Monona-Harrison ditch covered 12,000 acres of bottomland near Turin and forced residents of 15 farms to evacuate.

Hillcrest Constitution Amended by Council

Hillcrest's council last night passed an amendment to its constitution to remove from office any council member who fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the group.

Vacancies on the council made by the new amendment will be filled by an election within the dormitory section losing its representation.

A three-man committee was appointed by the council to conduct a survey for Hillcrest's candidate for the Hawkeye man-of-the-year award to be presented at the all-campus carnival April 9.

Manville Bro, council vice-president, asked the members to conduct a survey for a resident to represent Hillcrest at the Big Nine inter-dormitory conference in Minneapolis April 8.

GOP Leader To OK Senate Rules Change

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Taft (R-O) yesterday threw his weight behind a crumbling administration effort to break a southern democratic filibuster in the senate.

Taft, who heads the senate GOP policy committee, told reporters that if Vice-president Barkley rules that debate can be limited on a motion to take up a proposed senate rules change he will support that ruling.

Administration forces have made a motion to take up a proposed rules change under which debate could be curbed at any time that two thirds of those present so decided.

The proposed rule was offered as a prelude to an attempt to pass civil rights legislation, and southerners are filibustering against the motion.

Administration forces have been counting on Vice-President Barkley to reverse that ruling, if the question again is raised. They believe he will decide that under the rules, a two thirds majority can limit debate.

But if Barkley should so decide, his ruling would be appealed to the senate as a whole. An administration lieutenant, who asked not to be quoted by name, said yesterday that leaders have become convinced they can't muster enough votes to make Barkley's ruling stick. Only a majority would be necessary to uphold such a ruling.

If the administration leaders fall in that move, there is some doubt that they will try seriously at this time to wear out the 19 southerners who are primed for lengthy talks.

The filibusters will get a rest today. They are yielding to Senator Cain (R-Wash) to let him discuss President Truman's nomination of Mon C. Wallgren for chairman of the national security resources board.

A southern Democrat, in the driver's seat on rent control extension, threatened yesterday to let it die if the administration insists on its drive to curb senate filibusters.

The threat was made by Sen. John J. Sparkman (D-Ala), chairman of a senate banning subcommittee which has the bill to continue the rent control law.

Professional Law Group Pledges 16

Spy Law Passed by House, Authorizes Espionage Network

WASHINGTON (UP)—The house yesterday passed 348-4 a hush-hush bill giving the Central Intelligence agency legal authority to operate a spy network abroad and to provide refuge in this country for ex-Communist "informers."

It also unanimously approved another defense measure creating the post of undersecretary of defense. But it postponed until today action on legislation to erect a radar "fence" around North America, and to build a 3,000 mile-long test range for guided missiles.

The spy bill, approved without debate and with no explanation of its deliberately vague clauses, now goes to the senate.

Rep. Vito Marcantonio (ALP-NY) led the badly outnumbered opposition in a futile protest against the secrecy.

But members of the armed services committee, who had endorsed the measure unanimously after closed hearings, told the house the matters covered were too delicate for public discussion.

The bill gives the two-year old intelligence agency full legal authority for the first time to do what it is already doing—keeping secret, even from the comptroller general, just how many employees it has, who they are, where they operate, and in general, how its government funds are spent.

Molotov to Replace Stalin as Minister, British Reports Say

By ARTHUR GAVSHON
LONDON (AP)—Senior British diplomats believe Vyacheslav M. Molotov is being groomed to step into Stalin's shoes as Soviet Prime Minister, reliable sources reported yesterday.

These informants said the opinion apparently is based on reports which British Ambassador Sir Maurice Peterson has sent from Moscow. They said Peterson warned against expecting any basic change in Russian foreign policy as a result of Molotov's release as foreign minister.

The same views were expressed here privately by a high ranking diplomat of one of the eastern European communist countries.

All expressed the opinion that Stalin would remain No. 1 man in Russia even if he should quit the post of prime minister. His supreme position would be safeguarded, they speculated, by his personal prestige and his posts as communist party secretary general and politburo members.

Ailing and 69, he may wish to be freed of administrative chores.

Playschool Openings For New Students

The Veterans' playschool has several openings for new students, Council Chairman Mrs. Douglas Eastwood said yesterday.

The school which is located in Barracks 67, between the University hospital and the fieldhouse accepts university veterans' children, other university students' children and children of veterans living in Iowa City.

Tuition rates per week are $3, $4.50 and $7.50 for two, three or five half-day enrollments. Enrollment or reinstatement fees of $1, $1.50 and $2 will be added to the tuition rates for new children or those who have not attended school regularly.

Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R-Mass) did not develop. He said Sunday he would oppose the measure unless the reasons for secrecy were explained. He had planned to talk with members of the armed services committee before the vote.

Rep. Lansdale G. Sasser, (D-Md.) floor manager for the bill, described it as largely a "house-keeping" measure. He said it "attempts to build up and develop" the intelligence agency.

Puppy's Rescue Calms 32 Tots as Home Burns

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Thirty-two sleepy tots padded calmly out of the smoke-filled Alexander orphans' home before dawn yesterday. Then excitement started outside. Their pet puppy was missing.

Miss Blance White, home director, rushed back into the building and rescued the pup. That calmed the 32.

A smoking mattress caused the inconvenience. It was set by a janitor smoking in bed.

Saves Brothers and Sisters from Fire

A BABY SITTER SAVED FOUR younger brothers and sisters when fire engulfed their Chicago home Sunday night. Margaret Garcia (center), 14-year-old seventh grader, led her brothers and sisters safely to the street, dashing back into the smoky apartment to rescue Helen, two months old. Here she holds Helen (left) and Anna, 18 months. Robert, five is at the left; Tony, three, is at the right.

Wrestlers' Victim Loses Court Bout

RICHMOND, VA. (AP)—The state supreme court of appeals ruled yesterday that Mrs. Virginia G. Cox knew a wrestling match was no tea party when she went there—even before she was bearded by a flying whisky bottle.

Mrs. Cox got no comfort or cash from the court, which reversed a decision giving her $1,500 damages.

She charged that she leaped out of her ringside seat in Norfolk to remonstrate with a wrestler who pinned his opponent—using a real pin. Another critic heaved a pint bottle into the dispute and it hit Mrs. Cox in the back of the head.

She sued the wrestling promoter and won the first fall in a lower court. But the court of appeals said yesterday she knew "that these wrestling matches are not quiet and dignified affairs."
