Biggest Bills of 81st Congress Await Action After 3 Months

WASHINGTON (AP)—The biggest bills of the 81st congress awaited action yesterday—some untouched—with three months passed and signs that the session may run into July or August. President Truman's legislative program was making slow progress.

Senate Dairy Bloc Begins to Organize For Fight on Oleo

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dairy state senators began organizing yesterday for their fight against the house-approved bill to repeal federal taxes on oleomargarine. Nevertheless, Senate Democratic Leader Scott W. Lucas said he was confident the repealer bill would be brought to a senate vote this year.

The house passed a bill last year and the senate finance committee approved it. But the threat of prolonged debate was enough to keep the measure from the floor in the waning days of the session. That same threat this year is the dairy bloc's chief weapon. The senate already has a heavy backlog of major bills awaiting debate and has more to come.

Notes Start Action On 3 Soviet States

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Britain teamed up yesterday in a move toward bringing three Soviet bloc countries to international judgment for "notorious" flouting of their peace treaty vows.

They sent strongly worded notes to Hungary, Bulgaria and Romania demanding that these Communist-run governments live up to pledges signed less than two years ago to give their people basic human rights and freedoms. The United States charged that each of the three Communist nations has "deliberately and systematically" denied its people "freedom of expression, of press and publication, of religious worship, of political opinion, and of public meeting."

Christoffersen Named As Hart's Successor

DES MOINES (AP)—Iver Christoffersen of Cedar Falls was named yesterday as the new treasurer of the Iowa Democratic state central committee.

Christoffersen was chosen to fill the vacancy in that post created by the resignation of William Hart of Iowa City.

Hart, who has been first district committeeman, resigned because he was sworn in Friday as the new U.S. district attorney for southern Iowa.

State Chairman Jake More said Democrats of the first district would hold a caucus to recommend a successor to Hart as first district committeeman.

Fraternity Hazing Called Out of Date

OMAHA (AP)—Arthur A. Barlow, Cedar Rapids, businessman and national regent of Sigma Nu fraternity, said yesterday that "any fraternity which resorts to the paddle or hazing is out of date."

Barlow is in Nebraska for initiation ceremonies at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln and the annual Omaha alumni dinner.

Barlow, who is also on the 12-member Iowa State college advisory council on Iowa economic studies, told a reporter that under the program Iowa is turning a microscope on its state assets and needs.

And directly ahead lay the big job of stop-communism legislation—foreign aid and the Atlantic pact to be followed by a proposal of arms for America's free world partners.

There was some unofficial cloakroom talk that a special session might even be necessary later if the problem of arming European foes of Communism proves too knotty.

Originally leaders aimed at a six-month session. They hope to quit by the end of June but they aren't too optimistic.

Although the records show 30 bills enacted into law since congress met on January 3, only a few rate major classification. The others are in the non-controversial "minor bills" category.

Congress has enacted bills continuing the 80th congress anti-inflation program through voluntary controls; extending rent controls; raising the President's salary; giving emergency relief to storm-smitten western states; continuing the President's export control powers; authorizing the airforce to build a radar warning network around the country, and furnishing financial aid to Palestine refugees of the Jewish-Arab fighting.

The record of major accomplishment comes to an abrupt end there.

Still kicking around are these big bills, most of them on the Truman program:

Repealing the Taft-Hartley labor act; awaiting both senate and house action and cleared by committees.

Boosting existing minimum wage levels; approved by the house labor committee.

Veterans pensions; rejected by the house, but now back again in revised form.

Continuing the foreign aid program, known as the Marshall plan, to halt the spread of communism abroad; scheduled for house debate this week as the senate worked on it.

Stand-by price control and inflation-curb powers for the President; no committee action taken.

Tax increases; nothing done and nothing in sight at least for the present.

Federal aid to education; approved by committee and awaiting senate action.

Pre-paid government health program; no committee action.

Extension of the reciprocal trade program; passed by the house and slated for senate debate this week.

Oleomargarine tax repeal; passed by the house; senate hearing due this week.

Long-range housing, providing for construction of 810,000 low-cost housing units in six years; approved by senate committee, awaiting senate action, but not yet considered by the house or its committees.

Extension and liberalization of social security program; subject of hearings in house ways and means committee; no senate action.

70-group airforce; passed the house and awaiting senate committee action.

$54-million in aid to China; on house schedule for vote this week; no senate action.

The house is well-ahead of its normal past schedules on money bills. The senate, still feeling the delaying effect of a three-week filibuster over civil rights legislation, has passed no appropriation bills.

Although rent controls are being lifted in many areas, Iowa City renters needn't worry about decontrol action here in the opinion of three key figures in any future decontrol action in Johnson county.

Mayor Preston Koser, Area Rent Director T.J. Wilkinson and J.A. Swisher, chairman of the local rent advisory board all agree that no major changes in rent controls are probable at this time.

The opinion of local officials will carry more weight under the new law because provisions for decontrol action by local governments has been incorporated in the new rent legislation.

Mayor Koser said that he feels

Marshal Tito Blasts Capitalist, Socialist States for 'Slander'

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA (AP)—In a defiant and independent speech, Premier Marshal Tito has accused both the western "capitalistic" powers and Russian-dominated socialist state of "lies and slander" against Yugoslavia.

TITO

He spoke Thursday at Brioni Islands, where he is vacationing, to a group from Croatia, Slovenia, Istria and the Slovene coastal areas. The text was made public here last night.

Bluntly, Tito said: "The anti-Yugoslav propaganda will not bother us, nor will it make us digress from the road which we are following."

Tito has been on the outs with the rest of the soviet bloc since the cominform—the communist propaganda bureau for eastern Europe—expelled Yugoslavia last spring for following too independent a course.

Some Areas Decontrolled

WASHINGTON (AP)—Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods notified tenants yesterday that under the new rent law they are entitled to anywhere from three days to six months' notice before they can be evicted.

The three-day notice applies to tenants who don't pay their rent. A landlord who wants to withdraw his property from the rental market permanently must notify his tenant six months in advance.

In every case, the tenant and the area rent control office must be notified, Woods said.

At the same time, he started his country-wide program of removing rent controls in nearly 100 areas. More than 36,000 units in four states were in the first group, and Woods plans to announce the others within a week.

Alabama, Indiana, New Jersey and Texas were affected by his first order.

Woods said local rent control advisory committees would remain in all decontrolled areas to recommend decontrol if necessary.

The nine committees and boards he ordered scrapped were found either to have completed their jobs or to be duplicating functions performed by other groups, he said.

moral purposes, 10 days' notice. Evictions which require a certificate include:

- 1. Where the owner or his immediate family wishes to occupy a rental property; three months' notice required.
2. If the landlord proves he wants to make major alterations or repairs to the unit, requiring that the tenant vacate; three months' notice.
3. If the landlord is a tax-exempt group, such as a religious, educational or charitable organization, and wants the property to house its staff; three months' notice.
4. If the landlord wants to withdraw the unit from rental permanently, or to convert it permanently to commercial use, or to use the property for other non-housing purposes; six months' notice.

Nine Boards Get Axe In Secretary's Purge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Defense Secretary Johnson last night followed up his assertion that "there are too damn many committees" by abolishing nine armed forces committees. He said they were "useless."

The nine committees and boards he ordered scrapped were found either to have completed their jobs or to be duplicating functions performed by other groups, he said.

West Denies Pact Threatens Russians

Policy Doesn't Mention Shaving

LONDON (UP)—Lloyds of London has insured Monte Woolley's beard against destruction by "fire, theft, hail or tornado," the London Star said yesterday.

Harvard university took out a $5,000 policy on Woolley's chin whiskers for the duration of his personal appearance at Cambridge, the Star said.

Plans Signing For Tomorrow

WASHINGTON (AP)—All 12 Atlantic pact powers, speaking for the first time with a single voice, coldly accused Russia yesterday of misinterpreting the "nature and intent" of their projected non-Communist alliance.

A formal statement issued here on the authority of the 12 foreign ministers virtually charged Russia with deliberately distorting the purposes of the treaty. Moscow, in a note Thursday, called it an aggressive move against the Soviet Union.

Yesterday's statement was a complete and sweeping rejection of the Soviet note. "The pact," it said, "is not directed against any nation or group of nations but only against armed aggression."

The statement was approved at the first meeting of the foreign ministers. They will gather again at 2 p.m. (Iowa time) tomorrow to sign the historic document. Against it the Soviet Union has waged a campaign of denunciation for months.

In their meeting yesterday, the foreign ministers of Belgium, Canada, Denmark, France, Iceland, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal and the United Kingdom and the U.S. secretary of state also took two other actions. An official communiqué reported them as follows:

1. They "formally approved" the text of the 20-year treaty. It would pledge the United States and each of the other powers to join in resisting an attack against any of the 12 nations.

2. They decided that an Atlantic council provided for in the treaty should be "composed of foreign ministers or other representatives of governments." They agreed it should meet as soon as the treaty goes into effect and should then set up a defense committee.

The top diplomats of the western world thus got off to a quick start on creating the peace machinery for the alliance.

It cannot come into actual existence until (1) The agreement is signed tomorrow, (2) It is approved by the U.S. senate and possibly other western parliaments and (3) It is formally ratified by the seven governments which originally drafted it.

Officials were obviously cheered by this progress. They realize that it will be several weeks at a minimum before the pact powers can officially work together to establish their defenses against any attack.

The statement of the foreign ministers in commenting on the formal Russian attack on the treaty Thursday had a cold and impersonal quality.

It was in contrast to the anger and excitement sometimes expressed in exchanges between the Soviet Union and some individual governments. It was designed primarily to make two points.

These were (1) That the Russians are misinterpreting the treaty instead of judging accurately by the treaty itself what it proposes to do, and (2) That the treaty is completely defensive, in conformity with the United Nations, and not directed against anybody.

Pope Pius XII Feded On 50th Anniversary

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Sixty-thousand singing school children paid tribute to Pope Pius XII on the 50th anniversary of his priesthood yesterday in an outdoor celebration in the Vatican's huge Belvedere courtyard.

The turnout far surpassed expectations. The children waved yellow and white flowers and chanted a welcoming hymn when the Pope appeared in the courtyard. The two children of Italian Education Minister Guido Gonella presented the pontiff with a small traveling altar, and other students offered cakes and flowers.

The pope, visibly moved by the children's tribute, spoke briefly to the throng and urged the students to follow the teachings of Jesus. He spent the rest of his "Golden Mass" day in prayer and quiet meditation.

China Dispute Delays Europe Aid Decision

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dispute over aiding China, coupled with a shortage of senators on a spring Saturday afternoon, forced the senate to postpone its final decision on the European aid bill until tomorrow.

Earlier, the senators were told that Great Britain shipped some jet airplane engines to Russia after the war, but stopped deliveries late in 1947. That information, from Secretary of Defense Johnson, was read to the senate as it debated the $5,580-million authorization bill with only a few members on hand.

The squabble over China was set off by Senator Knowland (R-Calif.). He wanted to authorize the President to use an estimated $54-million unspent balance of China aid funds to help areas of China as far not overrun by the Communists.

Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah), a former Mormon missionary in the orient, objected strongly. Adoption of Knowland's plan, he said, would be "an open invitation to mob violence on the part of the hungry Chinese — it might stir up and re-open all the kinds of disorders we're trying to avoid."

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the foreign relations committee also questioned Knowland's proposal. When Knowland said that this country's tactics in China are giving the Communists a chance to put China's millions behind the iron curtain, Connally shouted:

"Every time you hear a bush rattle, there's a Communist behind it!"

Knowland replied, with heat, that he was representing California, which is vitally interested in the objections by Thomas.

The objections by Thomas and Connally blocked action on the proposal before tomorrow, when the senate resumes the debate after a weekend recess. A stack of two dozen amendments awaited action.

On the showdown, it appeared highly likely that the administration will get the entire $5,580-million authorization it asked. Two attempts to slash it were beaten Friday night.

Clerical occupations — stenographers, accountants, telephone operators and the like probably will "continue to gain in importance for some time." Selling jobs will not increase as much as some others, while service occupations — waiters, bartenders, policemen — will grow "moderately."

Trades and industry, largest of the broad occupational groupings, offer "good employment opportunities" to a large number of skilled workers each year. Semi-skilled occupations also will continue to grow, but those increases will mean "relatively fewer" jobs in industry for unskilled workers.

"In the field of farming offers an excellent opportunity for vigorous, intelligent operators."

Wild Dog Killed Near Davenport

WILD DOG, hunted many times the last year by special posses in the eastern section of Iowa, is shown being held by Henry B. Koch (left), a farmer near Davenport, and a neighbor, Arnold Schaff. The huge black dog was killed by Koch on his property early yesterday. The dog was spotted among cattle on the Koch farm.

Rent Decontrol Not Predicted Here

Although rent controls are being lifted in many areas, Iowa City renters needn't worry about decontrol action here in the opinion of three key figures in any future decontrol action in Johnson county.

Mayor Preston Koser, Area Rent Director T.J. Wilkinson and J.A. Swisher, chairman of the local rent advisory board all agree that no major changes in rent controls are probable at this time.

The opinion of local officials will carry more weight under the new law because provisions for decontrol action by local governments has been incorporated in the new rent legislation.

Mayor Koser said that he feels

"the supply of rental property here hasn't improved noticeably. There is still a backlog of demand for it."

He pointed to the classified columns of the paper as an illustration. "There are any number of houses for sale, but very few for rent," the mayor commented.

In February of this year rent controls were continued in Johnson county by Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods. "The demand for rental housing in Johnson county has not been met," Woods said at that time, and directed that rent controls be continued in the county.

Area Rent Director T.J. Wilkinson said "the housing situation in Iowa City is still critical." Any change in the housing situation in Iowa City since last December has been "infinitesimal."

J.A. Swisher, chairman of the local rent advisory board said, "I don't look for much change."

Making it very plain that he spoke only for himself, Swisher said that although no general change in rent ceilings is likely here, "some adjustments" are probable.

Swisher pointed out that the interpretation placed on the new rent act by Housing Expediter Woods will be the big factor in determining just how much more power the Iowa City advisory board will have under the new law.

The local rent advisory board is in a position to know more about rental needs in Iowa City than any other group. It is the logical agency to make rent control adjustments, Swisher said.

No local action on rent controls is to be expected in Iowa City until the state legislature has enacted state rent control legislation, Mayor Koser said. The bill being prepared by the state attorney general's office contains provision for city and town councils to conduct rent decontrol hearings if they choose, he said.

Burlington Cops State Track Title

Three Meet Records Fall

Burlington's Grayhounds reached out of the Little Six Conference to pluck the state indoor class A indoor track and field championship last night in the fieldhouse.

The Grayhounds by last night's victory, became the second Little Six club to rise to a state title within a month. Ottumwa, also of the Little Six, captured the basketball crown last month.

Three records were cracked and two others equaled in last night's meeting as Burlington grabbed 44 1-2 points, nearly seven ahead of runners - up North high of Des Moines who had 37 6-7. Dubuque, with 29 markers, was third, followed by Ames with 23 5-14 and Iowa City with 24.

The two-mile relay event was run on the outdoor track in order that all competing teams could run at the same time. Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids won the event in 4:34.6.

Western Conference Gridders Into Spring Training Drills

CHICAGO (UP)—Every 1949 Big Nine football team was deep into spring training yesterday with more than 900 athletes working out.

Although the average length of spring practice for the teams is about 35 days, Iowa will train for 45 days, longest of any school, while Illinois, Indiana and Northwestern's Rose Bowl champions will practice for 30 days.

Practice for most teams was largely to benefit the freshmen who will get their first major competition next fall. But 65 regulars reported to the training camps, with the Wildcats and Ohio State boasting the largest number, 10.

Touted freshmen were out for training in every camp, but there were five standouts. They were Ronnie Clark, Illinois halfback, Halfback Bob Robertson of Indiana, Dick Gregory and George Nudak, Minnesota backs, and Vic Janowicz, an Ohio State back expected to move into a first team berth with ease.

A school by school picture:
Illinois: 25 lettermen, nine regulars, 33 freshmen and 30 days of practice.

Indiana: 16 lettermen, five regulars, 35 freshmen and 30 days of practice.

Iowa: 19 lettermen, six regulars, 45 freshmen and 45 days of practice.

Michigan: 22 lettermen, seven regulars, 35 freshmen and 31 days of practice.

Minnesota: 29 lettermen, eight regulars, 21 freshmen and 36 days of practice.

Northwestern: 34 lettermen, 10 regulars, 40 freshmen and 30 days of practice.

Ohio State: 24 lettermen, 10 regulars, 40 freshmen and 30 days of practice.

Purdue: 29 lettermen, four regulars, 59 freshmen, and 35 days of practice.

Wisconsin: 34 lettermen, eight regulars, 50 freshmen and 36 days of practice.

Wisconsin was the first school to open training, starting on March 1, while Northwestern and Indiana were the last, each opening drills on April 1.

ISC Tops Simpson
AMES, IA. (AP)—Pitcher Sterling Singley's triple followed by Shortstop Bob Henley's single in the tenth inning gave Iowa State a 2-1 win over the Simpson baseball team yesterday.

Iowa State took a lead in the third, but two singles and an error enabled Simpson to tie the count in the seventh.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The Jackie Graves - Miguel Acevedo fight has been postponed to April 12, it was announced last night. The bout was originally scheduled here for Thursday, April 7.

Wildcats First, Hawks Second in Rifle Shoot
EVANSTON, ILL. (AP) — Northwestern won a triangular rifle shoot yesterday by outpointing Iowa and the University of Chicago.

The Wildcats totalled 1,320 to Iowa's 1,317 and Chicago's 1,300. Iowa's Blain Kearney with 277 out of a possible 300, and Chicago's Bob Sloan tied for top individual honors.

McLane swam the 440-yard freestyle in 4 minutes, 41.5 seconds, breaking Smith's old record of 4 minutes, 42.1 seconds, set in the indoor meet of 1944. Yesterday Smith finished fourth, losing his second title of the meet. Bob Gibe of Detroit took the 220-yard freestyle crown from Smith Friday.

Bill Heusner of Northwestern was second to McLane and Jim Thomas of the University of North Carolina was third.

Harlan had a close call in defending his three-meter crown. David (Skipper) Browning Jr., 17, Dallas, Tex., was only .06 point behind the champion. Harlan picked up 138.05 points.

Cubs Win on Gistine's Clout

SAN ANTONIO, TEX. (AP)—Frank Gistine's home run in the ninth inning gave the Chicago Cubs a 5-4 victory over the St. Louis Browns before 2,750 fans yesterday at Mission stadium.

It was the third homer of the game for the Cubs. Phil Cavarretta sent one out of the park in the first inning and Rube Walker connected with a man on base in the seventh.

Dodgers Romp
FORT WORTH, TEX. (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday handed their Fort Worth farmhands a 9-3 pasting before a chilled crowd of 5,307.

Eight of Brooklyn's eleven hits were for extra bases, including a 90-foot homer by Bill Cox and another roundtripper by rookie outfielder Al Abrams, who also drew four walks. Duke Snider had another heavy hitter with two doubles and a single.

Rookie Steals Home
PHOENIX, ARIZ. (AP)—Swift Pete Milne pilfered home plate with two out in the tenth inning yesterday to give the New York Giants a 5-4 win over the Chicago White Sox.

Milne's daring theft capped a rally that saw the Polo Grounders knot the count in the ninth on rookie Gall Hentley's pinch-hit homer off Howard Judson, plating Bobby Rhawn ahead of him.

Hank Behrman, making his second appearance in a Giant uniform, was impressive. He was credited with the win, allowing three hits and one run in the last four innings.

Braves Lose Again
TAMPA, FLA. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds reeled off four double plays yesterday as they defeated the Boston Braves, 8-6, in a free-hitting game before 1,000 fans.

Each team collected 12 hits but the Redlegs' twin-killings enabled them to snuff out four separate Boston rallies.

Homers Nips Cards
ST. PETERSBURG, FLA. (AP)—Mat Batts, Boston catcher, slammed out a homer against a strong wind in the ninth inning to give the Red Sox a 2-1 exhibition victory over the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday.

Batt's home run, with no one on base, was the only hit off relief hurler Cloyd Boyer in four innings.

The other Red Sox tally came in the first frame—an unearned run as Eddie Kazak fumbled Bill Hitchcock's roller, allowing Dom DiMaggio to score.

Oklahoma Ags Unofficial Top At Texas Meet

AUSTIN, TEX. (AP)—Three long-standing records were smashed yesterday as the survivors from a field of more than 1,100 athletes wound up the 22nd annual Texas relays before a crowd of 9,000 in the University of Texas' Memorial stadium.

New marks were posted in the university division pole vault, the college division sprint medley relay and the high school shot put as out-of-state teams dominated the relay events.

Oklahoma A&M's crack thin-clads wrested the unofficial university class team championship away from the host University of Texas squad by scoring 26 points to Texas' 23. Texas A&M garnered 17 points, Oklahoma 16 1-2, Rice 15 1-2, Nebraska 14 1-2 and Kansas State 11.

George Rasmussen of Oregon shattered a vaulting record that had stood since 1942 when he pushed himself over the crossbar at 14 feet 2 1-4 inches, more than eight inches higher than his nearest rivals. The old mark of 14 feet 3-8 inch was held by Harold Hunt of Nebraska.

Rasmussen, defending NCAA champion, cleared the bar at the record height in his first competition of the season to best such performers as Leonard Kehl, Nebraska's Big Seven indoor champion; Bob Smith of San Diego State, National Junior AAU champion, and Oklahoma's Bill Carroll, Central Collegiate titleholder.

Opposing Germuska and DiMarco, who each hurled four innings, were Bill Brown, Bruce Marsh and Vern Thompson. Brown was the victim of Hand's blast between Outfielders Murl Moran and Dale Erickson. Hand scored a moment later when George Schamberger sent a long fly to left field.

The contest was close until the top of the eighth inning, when an error, two walks and two singles — one by Clay Colbert, the other by Bob Christoph — pried four unearned runs from Thompson.

Germuska's four innings and Marsh's three inning job showed the best pitching of the day. Germuska gave up singles to Dale Erickson and Arnold Espe and was touched for one unearned run.

Marsh struck out three men and walked one in his stint on the mound, John Tedore's single down the leftfield line was the only hit off him.

DiMarco, though touched for four hits and two runs, one unearned, in his four inning job showed good speed.

Jack Dittmer missed Friday's and yesterday's practice because of an injury suffered in Tuesday's game when he slid into second base. He is expected back tomorrow.

Hawks Third in NAAU New Haven Wins Crown

DAYTONA BEACH, FLA. (AP) — Jimmy McLane, 18-year-old prep school senior, upset Ohio State's Olympic Champion Bill Smith in the 440-yard free style swim yesterday and gave the national AAU men's championship to the New Haven (Conn.) swim club.

Ohio State, with 34 team points, finished second and the University of Iowa tied for third with the Brighton hotel (Atlantic City, N.J.) swimming club, with 20 points.

New Haven's medley relay team barely edged out Iowa's threesome in that event when Wally Ris, Olympic 100-yard free style champion, almost overcame the New Haven lead in the final 25 yards of furious swimming.

The medley relay defeat was the first of the year for the Iowa trio.

The winning team consisted of Backstroke Allen Stack, Breast Stroker Paul Girde and Free Styler Ray Reid.

Ohio State picked up 10 points in the three-meter diving event — Bruce Harlan taking first. The Buckeyes, defending champions, scored 22 in the two diving competitions.

McLane swam the 440-yard freestyle in 4 minutes, 41.5 seconds, breaking Smith's old record of 4 minutes, 42.1 seconds, set in the indoor meet of 1944. Yesterday Smith finished fourth, losing his second title of the meet. Bob Gibe of Detroit took the 220-yard freestyle crown from Smith Friday.

Bill Heusner of Northwestern was second to McLane and Jim Thomas of the University of North Carolina was third.

Harlan had a close call in defending his three-meter crown. David (Skipper) Browning Jr., 17, Dallas, Tex., was only .06 point behind the champion. Harlan picked up 138.05 points.

Mayor to Appoint New Officials — City's New Council to Take Office Monday

Iowa City's new city council will take office Monday noon in the city council chambers. Just preceding the noon meeting the old council will meet to clear up any final business. It is the custom to adjourn the meeting of the old council before noon in favor of the old council.

Re-elected Mayor Preston Koser and four re-elected aldermen will take the oath of office along with three newly elected aldermen. Also to be sworn in are Police Judge Emil Trott and Treasurer Milo Novy.

Re-elected aldermen include James Callahan, first ward; Charles Smith, third ward, and Clark F. Mighell and Frank Fryauf Jr., aldermen-at-large.

Newly elected aldermen are Wilber J. Teeters, second ward; Wayne Putnam, fourth ward; and Gordon Webster, fifth ward.

Webster's election was contested last Thursday by defeated candidate William H. Grandrath. In a recount trial, Webster supported his original claim by a recount vote of 685 to 690. The original count was 678 to 687 in favor of Webster.

Also to be revealed Monday are the appointments of 12 city officials. Mayor Koser will appoint a police chief, weighmaster, fire chief, health physician, sexton, street commissioner and janitor.

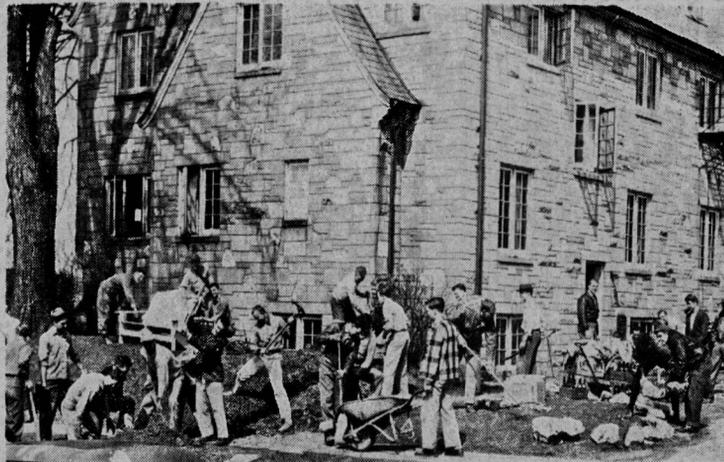

Confirmation by the council is needed for the mayor's appointments.

At a 7:30 evening meeting, the council will appoint a city attorney, city clerk, city auditor, city engineer, and assistant city engineer.

Mayor Koser will also present his selection of aldermen to permanent committees at the evening meeting.

Only one item of business is scheduled for the new council. The Thursday night meeting of the old council left to the new council the third reading of the ordinance to rezone business property at the west edge of Iowa City from residential to business.

Dean Mallory, Howard Thomas, Cecil Vanderzee, George Matlack, John F. Haskin and Alexander I. Popov. Nine papers in the geology division will be from SUI. Work on these papers was done by Professors A.K. Miller, J.J. Runner and A.C. Tester, Robert H. Downs, John C. Mickelson, H. Garland Hershey, state geologist of Iowa, and W.E. Hale and Keith E. Anderson of the Iowa geological survey.

Nine papers in the botany section have been prepared by Prof. Robert B. Wylie and Robert G. Brown, Bernard Lowy, S.N. Postlethwait, Herman Webe and William D. Creasy of the geology department.

Papers in the organic and biological chemistry department were written by Professors Robert E. Buckles and Stanley Wawzonek, along with Walter E. Steinmetz, Walter T. Smith Jr. and Edwin M. Smolin.

Papers in the physics section were written by Professors Fritz Coester and L.A. Turner.

Zoology papers were written by Professors J.H. Bodine, R.L. King and L.R. Fitzgerald.

Prof. M.F. Smiley has prepared the only mathematics paper to be read from SUI.

Guard Unit to Get Federal Inspection

A federal inspection of the 109th medical battalion clearing company, Iowa City national guard, will be held Monday, Cpl. Charles Jennings, administrative assistant, said yesterday.

The inspection will be conducted by Col. William F. Smith of 5th army headquarters in Chicago.

Smith will inspect the company records and equipment during the morning and afternoon, Jennings reported, and will review the men at 7:15 Monday evening.

Because of the inspection, the 34th reconnaissance company will hold its weekly meeting Tuesday.

This will be the first federal inspection of the clearing company since it was activated in Iowa City earlier this year.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

One author who offers a vast fund of stories about himself is Elliot Paul, author of "The Last Time I Saw Paris," "A Ghost Town on the Yellowstone," and a dozen other best sellers. Paul protests, "There's nothing unusual about me at all. Just because I refuse to be fenced in and made to live the life of a colorless drone, you fellows make up all sorts of ridiculous stories about me."

His indignation, however, is short lived. The next moment he is launching on some new, fantastic reminiscence, with a twinkle in his eye, fully aware that his enraptured audience is thinking, "Boy, oh boy, what a liar!"

Paul's first literary endeavors were performed for a Boston newspaper, where he was perfectly happy until he discovered one day that the owners were paying more per week for a syndicated feature called "The Adventures of Peter Rabbit" than they were for his exclusive services. His pride stung, Paul wired the editor—collect—"You are robbing Paul to pay Peter. Demand ten dollar increase." The editor wired back, "Your resignation reluctantly accepted." Elliot enlisted in the Signal Corps reassignment after spending 17 months in Japan. His wife, Mrs. Barbara Fridell, accompanied him home.

Anti-Drunk Medicine Not Perfected Yet, Says SUI Doctor

Dr. W.B. Bean, head of the department of internal medicine, said yesterday that the anti-drunk drug in curing alcoholism announced Friday "is not something completely new."

"It's like a number of other drugs such as apomorphine," Dr. Bean explained, that cause vomiting when taken in sufficient quantity.

The report quoted the American Medical association journal as saying that two Copenhagen doctors perfected a drug which "shows promise in curing alcoholism."

The press release said 52 of 99 alcoholics "were socially recovered" after six months of observation with "antabus and psychotherapy."

Dr. Bean said it's not a new drug but a compound. He pointed out that it doesn't cure everybody, nor has the cure been established over a sufficient period of time to be absolute.

The press release said the drug acts by producing a premature "hangover" so intense that the patient doesn't want to have anything more to do with alcohol.

Dr. Bean pointed out that the drug creates a vomiting condition which is independent of the effect of the so called "hangover." The drug is based on the conditioned reflex theory, he added.

ANALYSIS OF THE WORLD'S NEWS AS —

IT HAPPENED LAST WEEK

AFTER attending the folk dance festival at the women's gym Friday night, I'm still a little in the dark as to what goes on at a square dance or barn dance or whatever the term is.

Of course, some of the dances date all the way back to pre-colonial days, so I suppose they really don't come under the classification of barn dance.

THE FEATURED group of the evening was a delegation of collegiate cowboys and their partners from the University of Denver.

The wranglers from Denver wore genuine cowboy clothes and boots. At least they looked genuine from the balcony. One of the men from DU (he would stand tall in a Sears and Roebuck saddle) wore just about the fanciest pink and black shirt you ever saw.

A friend who hails from Texas explained to me that this type of outfit is known as a Swish-Along-Cassidy rig.

IT TOOK an unexpected event to reveal how the cowboys' ladies were dressed. The calico dresses were reinforced by enough petticoats to stock a small dry goods enterprise.

A plump, graceful young lady inadvertently aided in this description. During one of the more strenuous flings, something lost its footing beneath those several yards of material, and purely as a reportorial observer I paid strict attention to the repair of whatever damage had occurred.

DURING A square dance there is a fellow who stands on the outer rim of the affair and shouts things. For the most part, this person chants in a strange tongue which faintly resembles a cross between a Navaho incantation and a Salvation Army street sermon.

At the proper inflection of his voice, or at some secret pass word (known only to the chanter and the dancers), the persons jiggling around on the floor stop whatever they're doing and start something new.

BY CAREFULLY listening to the chanter it was possible to glean a few of these phrases. When he said doseoyo, fornutagin or hole innagrown-pawminade, an immediate change in the proceedings on the floor took effect.

ONE OF the more difficult steps involves considerable twisting and gyrating. To an observer it would appear the dancers turn themselves inside out. I was almost certain someone would dislocate a pelvis or something, but since nothing of that nature happened, I am assuming the dancers are blessed with complete, deluxe sets of double joints.

While the dancing went on there was much foot stomping and shouting by the participants. The Denver boys had an advantage over the Iowans because they wore western boots with high heels. These are capable of manifesting a greater stomp than the ordinary mid-western oxford.

It is also noteworthy that the womenfolk shout more loudly than their partners. I can't help but feel there may be a relationship between the men's stomping and the women's yells.

Vets Have Month To Cancel Leaves

Veterans attending SUI under the G.I. bill have less than 30 days to cancel their automatic 15 day leave for this academic year, William Coder, director of the local veterans administration office said yesterday.

Atlantic Pact

Foreign Ministers Meet To Sign Historic Treaty

One by one, foreign ministers of 12 nations living in the North Atlantic neighborhood journeyed to Washington. It was their mission to sign the North Atlantic security pact; the date in their appointment books was Monday, April 4, 1949.

Some of them, like Italian Foreign Minister Carlos Sforza, arrived almost unnoticed. Others, like British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin, were confronted with "peace" pickets and a barrage of flying vegetables.

All of them met in closed session yesterday to give final approval to the treaty and to discuss the creation of administrative machinery.

During the week the Norwegian parliament voted 130 to 13 to sign the pact. Portugal — whose island possessions were used as bases in the last war and who recently expelled a U.S. correspondent for reporting a Salazar "election" — officially decided to join the pact.

Iceland voted 37 to 13 to end her traditional isolation and to join the alliance. While the parliament was voting, a Communist mob rioted outside the parliament buildings.

Final roster of nations signing the treaty: United States, Great Britain, Canada, Belgium, The Netherlands, France, Luxembourg, Norway, Italy, Portugal and Iceland.

It is certain that Europe would have been communized and London under bombardment some time ago but for the deterrent of the atomic bomb in the hands of the United States.

"Under the impact of communism all the free nations are being welded together as they never have been before and never could be, but for the harsh external pressure to which they are being subjected."

"We seek nothing from Russia but good will and fair play. War is not inevitable."

In a way, the serenity which reached out and deadened the echoes of Churchill's speech meant that the cold-war-weary world found no exhilaration in the grim business of power struggling. During the week: Louis Johnson, newly sworn-in U.S. secretary of defense, promised unification just as fast as the law allowed. For emphasis, he began cracking some "service brass" heads together.

Russia's Commander-in-Chief in Germany, Marshal Vasily D. Sokolovsky, was called home to become first deputy minister of the Russian armed forces.

ITALY'S COUNT SFORZA Some Were Unnoticed

Russia stepped up her opposition to the Atlantic pact with a formal protest. It was quickly rejected by the west.

Cold War

Churchill MIT Speech Arouses Little Reaction

Winston Churchill's speech at the mid-century convocation of MIT in Boston seemed to drum on ringing ears. It aroused no general feeling of crisis, world significance or urgency. Typical excerpts:

"It is certain that Europe would have been communized and London under bombardment some time ago but for the deterrent of the atomic bomb in the hands of the United States."

"Under the impact of communism all the free nations are being welded together as they never have been before and never could be, but for the harsh external pressure to which they are being subjected."

"We seek nothing from Russia but good will and fair play. War is not inevitable."

During the week: Louis Johnson, newly sworn-in U.S. secretary of defense, promised unification just as fast as the law allowed. For emphasis, he began cracking some "service brass" heads together.

Russia's Commander-in-Chief in Germany, Marshal Vasily D. Sokolovsky, was called home to become first deputy minister of the Russian armed forces.

come first deputy minister of the Russian armed forces.

The "world peace" conference in New York City ended, but before the behind-the-iron-curtain guests could tour the country, the state department politely but stiffly handed them their hats and coats.

The Czechoslovakian government announced that two U.S. soldiers — missing since December — had been tried secretly as spies and sentenced to long prison terms at hard labor.

Rumors from inside Bulgaria are telling of a top-level Communist party split between Premier Georgi Dimitrov, a Moscow puppet, and Vice Premier Traicho Kostov, a home-grown Communist.

To Americans last week, the cold war was as routine as a tornado in Texas or a love-slaying in Wisconsin. No wonder Churchill couldn't make a dent.

Congress

Taft-Wherry-Russell ERP-Cutting Bid Dies

GOP senate leaders Taft and Wherry staged a week-long drive to slice 10 percent ($814.5-million) from the ERP extension bill. They found some allies in Georgia's Russell and some fellow Dixiecrats.

But on the weekend, the senate slapped down with an impressive 54-23 vote the Taft-Wherry-Russell attempt to wield the axe.

Congress sent the 15-month rent control bill with a "home rule" provision to the President. Mr. Truman, acting like the bill was just what he wanted instead of a watered-down version, signed it. "A crushing defeat for the real estate lobby," he beamed.

But the real estate lobby was still full of fight. One of its spokesmen said the bill would plunge the nation into a depression and concluded, "It isn't any fun, Mr. Truman, to be president in a depression."

The house passed 287 to 89 a bill repealing federal oleo taxes and handling charges and permitted unrestricted sale of pre-colored margarine in all but 12 states which specifically prohibit its sale. The bill, a stinging defeat for butter interests, went to the senate.

The Economy

FRB Eases Controls on Stock Market Margins

The federal reserve board shaved stock market requirements from 75 percent to 50 percent Wednesday. Under the ruling that securities could be bought with only 50 percent in cash down, the stock market experienced a spurt of buying. In one day key stocks sprouted up in value from one to four dollars, many to the highest prices of the year or longer.

The margin slackening was new proof that the FRB thought inflation was no longer a threat. More FRB proof: consumer credit dropped one-billion dollars in January and February, the sharpest decline for a two-month period since the end of the war.

Kaiser-Prazer corporation snipped prices on its cars on an average better than 10 percent and put more power in the hands of co-founder Henry J. Kaiser. Reason suspected: to capture more of an ever-stiffening market.

Henry Ford II said he was considering price cuts.

Global

Syrian Army Stages Bloodless Revolution

The Syrian army overthrew the government of Premier Khalid Al-Azm in a bloodless revolution. The revolt erupted on the eve of scheduled armistice talks between Syria and Israel. The army stated the coup was staged to "save the people from the disorder threatening the country and to save the brave army from vilification." Translated, it meant the army wasn't ready to make peace with the Jews yet.

In China, a pessimistic six-man delegation from the Nationalist government arrived in Communist Peiping to discuss the Communist's unconditional surrender demands. An 11-man steering committee of top Nationalist leaders remained in Nanking to pass on any settlement reached in Peiping.

If there was any optimism in the Nationalist camp, it was dispelled when a Peiping-bound delegate likened his mission to "walking over an abysmal hole on thin ice."

Iowa

Little Taft-Hartley Act Proposed in Legislature

A proposal for the creation of a "Little Taft-Hartley act" for Iowa was filed in the house of representatives. Designed as a substitute for a highly-controversial labor measure being tossed around, the new bill would legalize union shops, prohibit labor unions from making political campaign contributions and prohibit either unions or management from discriminating against workers because of race, creed or color.

The house also passed a GOP-sponsored county assessor bill 89-9 and sent it to the senate. It would reduce the term of the county assessor from life to four years.

The local "dry" option beer bill was riddled with amendments in the house, then killed by a 57-51 vote.

Iowa City

Mayor Koser, Demos Retain Control in City

In city elections last week Mayor Preston Koser was re-elected. Democrat Milo Novy unseated City Treasurer Earl Raymond who held the job for 22 years. Democrats retained the police judge and the park commissioner posts.

On the city council, the Democrats had their majority narrowed four to three. One Democrat was unseated by five votes.

In the SUI campus elections, Bob Tyson, Dick Dice, Mary Vand Steeg and Joan Tripp were elected as delegates-at-large. Don Guthrie and Max Sowers won two-year terms on the Board of Publications with Anne Smith winning the one-year term.

Rain and "new-fangled" mechanical voting machines showed up the balloting. After 13 and a half hours of voting, only 2,425 ballots were cast. Last year, 3,199 students voted.

Repeal of T-H Law Blocked, Coalition Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Republicans and southern Democrats publicly claimed victory yesterday in their battle to block the administration's drive for Taft-Hartley act repeal.

The revived coalition, considered dead earlier, insisted it has enough votes to write its own labor bill. The legislation will not take the Taft-Hartley act off the statute books, its leaders said.

The administration's bill, which would re-enact an "improved" Wagner act, is now pending before the house rules committee. There were strong indications that it will not be sent to the floor for debate before May.

The Republican-southern Democratic strength is behind a substitute bill sponsored by Rep. John S. Wood (D-Ga.). It would make a few procedural amendments to the Taft-Hartley act.

The strategy of the Taft-Hartley supporters is to permit the administration's bill to come to the house floor. But as soon as debate opens, the Wood bill will be offered as a substitute.

Should the house accept the substitute, parliamentary rules would forbid the offering of further amendments. The administration would be blocked completely from efforts to make the measure conform to the demands of organized labor.

Administration sources made no secret of their concern. But they said they had the strength to beat the Wood substitute.

Both Republicans and southern Democrats insisted that they have made no formal alliance against the administration's bill. They described their joint status as a "mere meeting of minds."

But when the house labor committee considered the legislation, the Wood bill was offered by a Republican—Rep. Samuel K. McConnell Jr., Pa. It was rejected in committee despite the support of southern Democrats.

Award SUI Intern Research Fellowship

Dr. Horace W. Gerarde, intern at University hospitals, was awarded a research fellowship by the American College of Physicians at their annual convocation at the Waldorf Astoria in New York last week.

Dr. Gerarde of the departments of biochemistry and surgery will devote his one year fellowship to the study of nucleic acid (proteins) metabolism in diseases of the liver.

"Practically no work has been done with nucleic acid in the human liver," Dr. Gerarde said. His research will include such diseases as obstructive jaundice, nutritional deficiencies and carcinoma (a form of cancer).

The fellowship fund, set up for young physicians interested in academic medicine, was awarded to Dr. Gerarde on the merits of a research plan he submitted in October, 1948.

Anatomy Professor To Speak in South

Dr. E.W. Scheldrup, SUI associate professor of anatomy, will be a guest speaker at the 22nd annual spring graduate course at the Gill Memorial hospital in Roanoke, Va.

Outstanding specialists in eye, ear and throat will attend the six day course Monday to Saturday. Among the 29 guest speakers are representatives from France and England. Dr. Scheldrup's subject, on which he will give four lectures, is "The Applied Anatomy and Embryology of the Neck."

Carrier Women Prepare Carnival 'Rat-Race' Booth

THIS WEEK'S music

By DONALD KEY

An Easter concert by the combined SUI chorus and orchestra will feature the "German Requiem" of Brahms, and "Benedicite" by Ralph Vaughan Williams on Wednesday evening of this week in the Iowa Union.

The famous Brahms' "Requiem" has been acclaimed as the greatest work for chorus and orchestra, excepting of course, the "B Minor Mass" of Bach and the "Missa Solemnis" by Beethoven.

As a text for this work, Brahms used passages from both the old and new testament and from the Apocrypha of the Lutheran Bible. It is thought to have been written in memory of soldiers who lost their lives in the Austrian-Prussian war in 1866.

A performance of three choruses of the "Requiem" was given in 1867 in commemoration of Schubert. This rendition was spoiled by a kettle-drummer who pounded his "D concert" so loud that he drowned out the voices.

The work consists of six numbers — four choruses, two baritone solos, and one soprano solo. Brahms said that the soprano solo was inspired by the thought of his mother, who died in 1866.

Probably the best known number of the work is a chorus, "How Lovely Thy Dwelling Place, O Lord of Hosts."

Ralph Vaughan Williams is noted more for his combined chorus and orchestra writing than for anything else, although he wrote four symphonies. The "Benedicite" is considered one of his best works.

It is continuous music throughout and a soprano solo is sung over the accompaniment of chorus and orchestra in the latter part of the composition. Words were taken from "Song of the Three Holy Children," and from a poem by Jane Austin.

Both the "Requiem" and the "Benedicite" provide special difficulties for the chorus. Brahms' choral technique was greatly influenced by Bach and the tessitura, or range is extremely high. Vaughan Williams was more practical as to range, but his voice parts are difficult rhythmically.

The New York Philharmonic Orchestra will be broadcasting Mozart's "Symphony in G Minor" and excerpts from the "Gottterdammerung" by Richard Wagner this afternoon. The program will be conducted by Leopold Stokowski, and can be heard over station WMT at 2 o'clock.

Benefits to Continue — Musician's Union Given Fund

Local 450, American Federation of Musicians, has been allocated $732.23 to continue its free public music program for the third year, President William Meardon said yesterday.

This amount represents the Union's share of the $1,400,212.42 which James C. Petrillo, American Federation of Musicians president, announced had been appropriated to finance free music this year throughout the U.S. and Canada. This sum brings the overall three-year total of the public service expenditure to nearly $4.5-million.

Local 450's allocation will be used to "entertain patients in all the area hospitals," Meardon said. Last year's allocation was used to finance the Carnival of Bands.

Meardon said AFM locals throughout the country have presented and financed free street dances, symphonic concerts, operas, and other community programs since 1947.

Alpha Phi Omega Re-elects Febowitz

Other new officers include David Hayworth, A3, Sioux City, vice-president; Neil Garnatz, A2, Auburn, treasurer; Charles Ellington, A1, Waterloo, recording secretary.

Howard Moldenhauer, A2, Charles City, corresponding secretary; Darrell Peay, A4, Iowa City, alumnae secretary; Norman Matulef, A2, Des Moines, sergeant-at-arms, and Richard Madison, A1, Sioux Falls, S.D., historian.

The fraternity awarded a plaque for outstanding service to its senior advisor, R.L. Ballantyne, manager of SUI's student aid and placement bureau, at its annual dinner-dance Friday.

The fraternity also presented Gerald Febowitz and Alpha Phi Omega key in recognition of his work last semester.

Pup Needs a License, Does Next Best Thing

A black cocker spaniel pup, perhaps fearful of City Clerk George J. Dohrer's announcement Thursday that all 1948 dog licenses expired, did the next best thing when lost Friday.

Ben Smith, 1118 N. Summit street, said the pup followed his daughter home from school. Smith said he would keep the dog until someone calls for it.

Law Students Brief for Supreme Court Case

FRIENDLY ENEMIES are these two-man teams of student attorneys who will argue the "party line telephone case" before the Iowa Supreme court Thursday, highlighting the traditional law school Supreme Court day. Dean W. Wallace and Robert C. Reimer, counsels for appellee, and Charles A. Kintzinger and Willmer G. Cimprich, counsels for appellant (left to right), make final preparations and notes for the "big day" Thursday.

Supreme Court to Try Mock Case at SUI

The Iowa Supreme court will convene Thursday — at SUI — to hear the appeal of a mythical "party line telephone" case by four senior law students, highlighting the law school's traditional Supreme Court day celebration.

Justice Charles F. Wennerstrum, Ralph A. Oliver, William L. Bliss, Oscar Hale, Theodore G. Garfield, John E. Mulrooney, W.S. Smith and Norman R. Hays will hear the arguments in Macbride auditorium at 2:30 p.m. Thursday.

Chief Justice H.J. Mantz will not be on hand for the arguments or the rest of the celebration because of a recent injury.

Robert C. Reimer, Schleswig, and Dean W. Wallace, Kearney, Neb., will serve as attorneys for the appellee. Willmer G. Cimprich, Cedar Rapids, and Charles A. Kintzinger, Dubuque, will argue for the appellant.

The four senior law students arguing the case before the supreme court have survived a series of elimination arguments in their freshman and junior years at the law school.

They were selected from 16 junior argument winners on the basis of excellence of performance in preparing and presenting their cases. The right to argue a case on Supreme Court day is one of the highest honors accorded a law student at SUI.

The mythical case to be argued Thursday concerns a suit brought by a woman who was prevented from calling the fire department to her burning house by a gabby neighbor who refused to give up the party line. The plaintiff's house burned down and she sues her long-winded neighbor for damages.

The same case was argued last fall by junior arguers in a practice district court. The case is now being appealed to the supreme court.

This year marks the first post-war resumption of the full schedule Supreme Court day. An argument, banquet and entertainment have been planned.

Though Thursday is Supreme Court day, observance of the day will really begin tomorrow when senior law students begin carrying canes emblematic of their achievement in the law school.

Classes will be dismissed in the law school on Thursday. At 11 a.m., the highest scholastic honor bestowed by the law school — The Order of the Coif — will be presented to 15 men and two women.

Membership in the Order of the Coif is restricted to the top 10 percent of the graduating class. This year's 17-initiates are members of the August 1948, February 1949, and June 1949 graduating classes.

Coif initiation ceremonies will be held in the senate chamber of Old Capitol. Justice Norman B. Hays will be the principal speaker at the ceremony; he will be awarded an honorary membership in the order.

At 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the main lounge of the Iowa Union, a banquet will be given the court, law students, faculty and guests.

A decision on the afternoon law argument will be announced at the banquet by Justice Oscar Hale, acting for Chief Justice Mantz. The four students arguing before the supreme court and the 12 other junior argument winners, will be awarded bronze plaques.

Those who will receive the awards besides the four supreme court arguers are William E. Frazier, Richard Jordan, John H. Holley, C.J. Anderson, A.C. Smith, Donald Paul, Donald G. Wolff, Charles R. Mather, John R. Byers, William Tucker, Earl E. Hoover and James R. Hinkle.

Members of the Iowa Law Review board of editors and staff will also be presented with special certificates at the banquet. A humorous skit depicting the difficulties of a young lawyer trying his first lawsuit will be presented by several law students after the banquet to climax the day's activities.

Union Board Plans Coffee Hour Skits

Pantomimes and dramatic sketches will be presented by Prof. Gladys Lynch and students from the dramatic interpretation class at the Union board library chat and coffee hour on Tuesday at 4:15 p.m.

Business BRIEFS

Cash registers, business' best barometers, began ringing more frequently in Iowa City stores last week. Business, which had been in the doldrums since Dec. 24 in most local stores, started showing signs of snapping out of it.

April is looked upon as a crucial month by businessmen everywhere. Business' showing in April is usually a good indication of the rest of the year. Local merchants pointed out that it is still too early in the month to ascertain the overall trend but sales were up last week in many stores.

Iowa City became one of the many battlegrounds last week of the nationwide "record" being currently waged between RCA-Victor and Columbia.

Local platter vendors last week began displaying the new RCA-Victor, 45 revolution-per-minute, seven-inch, vinylite record. They also started selling standard Columbia records for 20 percent less. Introduction of the new record by Victor and the price-cutting by Columbia are the latest developments in the battle of the disks.

The new Victor records, designed to compete with the 38 rpm. records Columbia introduced six months ago, require a special Victor turntable.

Iowa City record retailers reported enough interest among local customers to indicate that Columbia's six-month monopoly of the slow-turning record field is over.

Installation of a neon sign on the front of the new Sears farm store, 328 S. Clinton street, put the finishing touches on that store, Manager Glenn Kruse said yesterday.

The sign has green lettering, a white background, is five by eight feet in size, and logically enough, reads "Sears Roebuck and Co."
