Hartung Goes Route, Giants Top Pirates

NEW ORLEANS — Clint Hartung went the nearly perfect second inning, worked himself in trouble four times, and was the only pitcher with any semblance of control for the New York Giants Wednesday afternoon.

Hartung allowed the Pirates’ Wally Westlake to score in the second, but the Giants’ lead in the series was already 1-0.

Hartung fanned five batters, walked five and scattered three hits, allowing one hit to the Pirates. In the second inning, Hartung had Warner Smith hit a single, but Westlake stole second and scored when shortstop Sam Houser muffed the easy throw.

Cubs Get 10 in Fifth To Beat Dallas, 12-2

Fever Occurs in Springtime

Doctors List Rheumatic Disease Symptoms

By MAX M. EDES

One of the leading causes of death among U.S. children is rheumatic fever. It occurs as a late complication of rheumatic fever, a serious disease that affects the heart and blood vessels. Rheumatic fever can cause severe heart damage, leading to death. The symptoms of rheumatic fever include fever, pain, swelling, and redness of the joints. The disease may be treated with antibiotics and other medications.

The disease is caused by a streptococcal infection of the throat or skin, which is treated with antibiotics to prevent further complications. The disease affects both men and women equally.

THE HANDBALL court was empty at one o'clock, and some of the students had already left for lunch. The game was to start at 1:30, but there were only two players left at the table when the time finally arrived.

The floor was covered with a thin film of dust, and the ball was difficult to hit. The players had a hard time keeping the ball in the court, and there was a lot of noise and confusion on the court.

The score was tied at 11, and the game was still in progress when the bell rang for lunch.
