U.S. Booklet Pictures Life Of Workman

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The government yesterday fired a fact-filled word picture of the American working man to counter Russia's propaganda that the U.S. worker is a slave victim of imperialism and Wall street.

The 142-page booklet entitled "The Gift of Freedom" is designed to tell the worker in foreign countries "how his American counterpart lives," precisely and without frills.

It's a product of the labor department's bureau of labor statistics and is based on factual surveys. Prepared at the invitation of the state department, it will be used in publications and radio broadcasts overseas.

Admits "Flaws"

The booklet says candidly there still are "flaws" on operation of the American system but contends "our mistakes impede but do not halt our progress, or change our direction."

It says we have the combination of free enterprise and free labor, plus regard for individual dignity along with the economic capacity, to conquer our shortcomings.

The booklet carries a set of photographs: a worker's wife in her kitchen with gleaming white refrigerator, stove, sink and cabinets; a typical suburban street; scenes of labor contract signing, union meetings, strike picketing for higher wages; public schools and libraries; well-filled grocery stores; industrial and farm machinery; plant safety devices and first aid rooms; toilet facilities at home and on the job.

Tells Wages

And it shoots these statistical facts about the American worker to refute the ideas that he has "fabulous" wealth or is "rolling in green masters."

He can buy twice as much with his wage today as he could with his pay 30 years ago—with at least 10 hours less work a week.

His typical daily food consumption includes: one egg, 1-2 pints of milk, half a pound of meat or fish; 1-3 pound of sugar.

By six minutes labor he can earn enough to buy a pound loaf of bread; 37 minutes, a pound of round steak; nine minutes, a quart of milk; 34 minutes, a dozen eggs; six hours, a pair of shoes; two days, a good radio; 22 days, an electric refrigerator; three days, a month's rent; 140 days, a new automobile.

Farm Ownership

The booklet says two out of three farms are operated by their owners (among Negro workers three out of 10 own their farms), and two farm workers now have as great an output as three did 15 years ago.

The Communist party in the United States has tried over the years to gain influence in many important unions but with very little success," it says. "This shunning of the Communists by the wage earners and unions results both from dislike of totalitarian doctrines and from the conviction that Communists represent the interests of the Soviet Union . . ."

He Needed Melons, So They Sent 'Em Airmail

IT'S WATERMELON ALL RIGHT, but it's more than that to 4-year-old Ronnie Calvert of Richmond, Calif. Doctors say the melons are good for leukemia. Probably the best part of the story is that a B-29 crew, on an operational flight, picked up the melons in Florida and flew them to California where they delivered them to Ronnie. "Get-well" note painted on melon in foreground is signed by the 367th bomb squadron, Tampa, Fla.

Reveals Polish Espionage Rings Operating from Embassy in U.S.

WASHINGTON — House spy hunters published last night the story of a former Polish general who said he was sent to this country in 1946 to direct espionage activities for his Communist government.

Twenty-seven documents and the testimony were supplied by Gen. Zyador Rudolf Modelski, a former Polish embassy official whose appointment backfired on Poland's Communist regime.

The testimony points to at least two espionage networks operating out of the embassy, one supposedly specializing in atomic secrets, the other branching into Canada and Mexico.

Modelski's papers and what he said are included in an official house un-American activities committee report.

It indicates that the Poles were after everything from humdrum economic figures to military super-secrets. His story told of a Russian spy master pulling the strings. There is no measure of how successful they were.

Polish embassy officials could not be reached for comment.

Exited

During the war, Modelski was undersecretary of war for the Polish government exiled in London. He said he collected the documents dealing with spying while he was military attache at the Washington embassy from May, 1946, to last August.

One top secret document was a set of detailed instructions given Modelski in March, 1946, he said, before he came to this country. He said they dealt with "what fields are to be covered, and which way the spy network must be set up."

It listed 89 kinds of information he was supposed to get, 28 dealing with the armed forces and a few with war industries. This was one of many papers bearing the signature of Col. W. Komar, chief of the second division of the general staff of the Polish army.

Later a brigadier general, Komar was identified by Modelski under questioning as a Russian citizen in charge of espionage for the Polish government.

Modelski said the chief of Polish espionage in the United States was Col. Gustav Alef-Bolkawski, a man who was his deputy military attache in name only. This aide, he said, controlled spy rings in Mexico and Canada.

The general testified that he believes Dr. Ignace Zlotowski, an atomic scientist, ran a network trying to get atomic secrets. He said he is "sure" Zlotowski was spying for the Polish government, adding that his own instructions excluded atomic information. Modelski said the scientist was connected with the embassy.

The report says Zlotowski was connected at times with various American colleges and universities but that the latest word the committee has on him is that he is in Poland.

Big Problem: Bashful Hippo

Bulky Hippo Balks at All Attempts to Ship Her to Betrothed in Columbus Zoo

CHICAGO (UP)—Bubbles, a bashful hippopotamus, refused yesterday to be pushed into romance.

Bubbles, who lives in the Brookfield zoo here with her parents, is engaged to Pete, a lonely hippo at the Columbus, Ohio zoo.

The romance was arranged for her and Bubbles balked.

She wouldn't leave home.

Her stubbornness posed a heavy problem since she weighs 1,800 pounds.

For two days curators have been trying to get her into a special nine-foot traveling cage. They've tried a variety of baits, unsuccessfully.

They even put a picture of her betrothed in the crate but Bubbles wasn't interested. She rolled away and went to sleep.

Robert Bean, head of the Brookfield zoo, and Earl Davis, Columbus director, the matchmakers who arranged Bubbles' sale, decided to let the bride-to-be have her way temporarily.

They said Bubbles, who is two years old, needs time to think it over.

"We're just going to leave her alone for three days with a special bait in the crate," Bean said. "We want her to forget about our attempts to trap her."

The bait, however, was far from romantic.

It is a mixture of alfalfa, crushed oats, bran, chopped apples and carrots, generously flavored with garlic.

"Hippus love garlic," Bean said, hopefully.

Construction Halted On A-Bomb Carrier

WASHINGTON (UP)—Defense Secretary Louis Johnson yesterday ordered construction halted "at once" on the navy's 65,000-ton "atomic bomb" aircraft carrier.

A defense department spokesman said the order kills permanently the navy's plan to build the supercarrier which has been the storm center of a bitter navy-air force dispute.

It was a defeat for navy planners and a victory for air power advocates who want strategic bombing kept exclusively in the hands of the air force.

NEW AIRLIFT RECORD
BERLIN (UP)—Western planes set a new weekly record for the airlift yesterday, flying 58,155.6 tons of supplies into this blockaded city in the past seven days.

Two Students Hurt in Crash

Two SUI students were reported in good condition by Muscatine hospital officials last night following a collision at 5 p.m. yesterday at the junction of highways 6 and 38, 29 miles east of Iowa City.

Muscatine County Sheriff Fred Nespers said the students, William Newnam, C3, Columbus Junction, and Kiffin Y. Rockwell, G, 1107 Kirkwood court, were taken to Muscatine hospitals following the accident.

Both were suffering from cuts and bruises. Rockwell also had a bruised knee but X-rays showed no bones were broken.

The students' car reportedly collided with a pickup truck owned by H.B. Tumey of Wilton Junction. Tumey and an unidentified passenger were in a Muscatine hospital but their conditions were not known.

The truck was overturned and the students' car was burned.

JAM SESSION
The regular Meyers-Cortimiglia jam session in the River room of the Union will not start until 1:45 p.m. today because of a banquet being held there at noon.

Delinquent Felines Still Safe in Illinois

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. (UP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson yesterday vetoed a bill to curb delinquency of cats.

The state of Illinois, he said, has "enough to do without trying to control feline delinquency."

The bill would have permitted any person to capture cats running at large anywhere in the state and turn them over to police. Owners would get their pets back by paying a $1 fine.

MONKEYING AROUND on the party line is Tamba, a chimpanzee who lives at the World Jungle Compound at Thousand Oaks, Calif.

Communist Force Enters Nanking

Consul Warns Americans to Quit Shanghai

SHANGHAI (AP)—American citizens in Shanghai yesterday were warned to get out while they can.

U.S. Consul-general John Cabot urged citizens to leave as the Nationalist garrison vowed to defend the city from the Communists, "come what may."

"This great city of more than five million population lies behind a flimsy, newly-built wooden fence, 35 miles long, studded with mud pillboxes.

At last count, there were 2,479 Americans in Shanghai. Most of them had elected to stay long ago when previous evacuations were carried out.

Fate Uncertain

With the Communists no more than 200 miles up the Yangtze river west of Shanghai and on the same (south) side, the city's immediate fate was uncertain but ominous.

It was strangely empty of troops.

Cabot's statement said he "wishes . . . to point out that recent incidents on the Yangtze clearly show that American Nationals remaining in Shanghai cannot count on the safety through emergency evacuation if the situation in Shanghai should become so hazardous as to make it inadvisable to stay."

U.S. navy headquarters here had announced earlier in the day that it had enough ships to evacuate all American nationals and a considerable number of other foreigners.

TIMETABLE OF COMMUNIST TRIUMPHS in China is shown on this map detailing Communist victories. Nanking, capital of Nationalist China, was abandoned yesterday as the Communists swarmed across the Yangtze. Shaded areas show territory controlled by Chinese Communists. Black portions are Russian-dominated. Arrows show main drives on Nationalist's Yangtze defense.

Rep. Clarke's Letter Released by Hancher

Pres. Virgil M. Hancher last night released without comment the text of a letter written to him April 19 by State Representative Kingsley M. Clarke concerning Clarke's proposed investigation of SUI's undergraduate colleges by the legislative interim committee.

Following is the full text, released with Rep. Clarke's permission:

Cake-Hungry Youths Jailed for Break-in

DES MOINES (AP)—A yen for cake alameda got two teen-age youths into trouble here early yesterday.

The youngsters were jailed for breaking into an east side grocery about 1 a.m. and taking two cakes and a pint of ice cream.

Detective Capt. Phil Cavendar said the boys, aged 14 and 15, told him they were hungry for some cake and ice cream.

Coed from SMU Named Queen of Drake Relays

DES MOINES (UP)—Mary Campbell, 20-year-old Southern Methodist university junior, will reign as queen of the 40th annual Drake relays here next weekend, it was announced here last night.

It was the second year in a row an SMU beauty has been named as relays queen.

Beuse Named as Hart's Successor

BURLINGTON (AP)—Sheriff Walter Beuse, 44, of Davenport was elected first district Democratic committee man here late yesterday afternoon after a spirited contest with Clair Williams, Danville orchardist.

Beuse, after the election is confirmed by the state central committee, will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of William Hart of Iowa City. Hart resigned following his appointment as U.S. district attorney for southern Iowa.

The Beuse - Williams contest went five ballots.

Reports Say Other Troops Near Shanghai

By FRED HAMPSON
SHANGHAI (SUNDAY) (AP) — Chinese Communist troops today triumphantly occupied Nanking, reports filtering in from that Nationalist capital said.

Communist troops in a victorious sweep across the Yangtze also were said to be nearing Shanghai, a second great center of Nationalist power.

The reports from Nanking said the occupation was orderly.

All telephone communications were cut to Nanking. Radio teletype circuits still were open, but nothing was coming in over them.

Associated Press Correspondent Seymour Topping, who remained in Nanking along with other foreign correspondents, may be forbidden to file news.

Consequently, the military situation was obscure as the Communists in great force swept southward from the Yangtze.

Gen. Chen Ta-chin, commander of the Shanghai garrison, reiterated that this greatest city in all Asia would be defended to the death.

Poor Defense

Garrison soldiers worked on the flat lands before Shanghai building tank traps and pill boxes. But the defense zone seemed to be poorly organized. It was not very heavily manned.

The rush of government and army officials from Nanking to Shanghai continued during the morning.

Premier Ho Ying-chin, who also is defense minister, is here. But what officers newsmen were able to contact seemed to know nothing about the general situation.

Reports rife through Shanghai that the Communists were nearing here.

There was no panic on this Sunday morning.

Citizens appeared to be reconciled to occupation by the Communists. Most of them seemed to hope the occupation would be peaceful.

There were reports that Wushih, cotton mill city 100 miles northwest of Shanghai, had been occupied by the Communists. A telephone call to that city last night, however, showed the city then had not been taken.

Entry Presumed

Nanking, torn by looters and undefended, had awaited the scheduled entry at 7 a.m. Nanking time, hours ago. Since the gates were unguarded, the garrison had fled, and the Communists were in force just outside, it is presumed the entry was made.

Thus one more citadel of the Nationalist China, which President Chiang Kai-shek hoped to see emerge from the desolation of the war with Japan, fell without a shot.

May Use Force on Yangtze, Briton Says

SHANGHAI (AP) — The British consul general last night strongly implied that force would be used if necessary to rescue the sloop Amethyst and its 60 remaining personnel from a Chinese Communist trap in the Yangtze river.

The Communist radio in Peiping meanwhile charged that the four British ships shot up by the Communists since Wednesday were fired upon because they joined the Nationalists in the war.

A British foreign office spokesman in London indignantly denied this, stating the Amethyst and the others which vainly tried to rescue her "only fired in self-defense and did not fire until fired upon."

This spokesman also said one of the British ships, the 10,000-ton cruiser London, was fired on by Nationalists as well as Communist artillery. He did not elaborate on this. British sources in Shanghai previously had denied rumors of Nationalist firing.

Save SUI Students From River Death

MUSCATINE (UP)—John Pollock, 23, and Byron Chant, 22, both SUI students from Muscatine, were rescued from the Mississippi river yesterday after their small sailboat capsized.

The emergency rescue unit here pulled the two men from the river. They had clung to the sides of the craft until the rescue unit could reach them. Officials said the men apparently suffered no ill effects from their plunge.

Illinois Edges Hawkeyes In Slugfest, 13-12

Win on Run in 9th After Neal Ties Game with Grand Slam

By NEAL BLACK
(Iowan Sports Editor)

The boom of the bats was even louder than the whistle of 40 to 50 mile an hour winds as Illinois defeated Iowa, 13-12, yesterday in a 32-hit slugfest on the Iowa diamond.

John "Jug" Neal's grand slam home run over the left field fence 408 feet from the plate in the eighth inning tied up the ball game for the Illini. A single tally on an error and a hit in the ninth meant the ball game for Illinois.

Neal's tremendous blow with the bases loaded was the first time a ball has been blasted over the Iowa field fence in Big Nine competition since Erwin Prasse of the Hawkeyes turned the trick in 1939.

But the Hawkeyes weren't sleep at the plate either. In fact, they out-hit the Illini, 18 hits to 14. Jack Dittmer homered for the Hawks in the fourth with nobody aboard. The Elkaader flash had a field day at the plate with a homer, two triples and a single in six official trips.

Dittmer's blow was an inside the park homer. It skipped past third base barely fair and rolled all the way to the fence in the left field corner.

Hooks Gets 4 for 4

Hooks Hoeksema, who started on the mound for the Hawks, had a perfect day at the plate with four singles in four trips.

Those gusts of wind did crazy things to the horsehide yesterday in addition to filling the eyes of the players and the 3,200 spectators with dust. Sure outs became hits and fair flies became foul balls as the wind whistled over Iowa stadium and across the diamond almost blowing the pitchers off the mound at times.

The hurling, which was brilliant in the Iowa 3-0 win Friday, took a beating yesterday. Horace Tangeman started for the Illini but gave way to Alby Plain in the midst of an Iowa 6-run second inning. He was followed on the mound by Ed Zinker in the fourth and Bill Lukitsch in the eighth. Lukitsch got credit for the win.

Hoeksema pitched fine ball for the Hawks until he got in trouble in the eighth and left with a 6-run lead in favor of Dick Orth. Orth pitched to five men in the eighth but left the mound after throwing up the home run ball to Neal.

Chalk Loss to Demro
Demro came on with the score tied and got them out but allowed the deciding tally to score in the ninth and was the losing pitcher. Russ Steger's double after a walk put the Illini in front in the first inning. The Hawks came back to tie it up on a walk, a sacrifice and Dittmer's single.

Then Iowa had its big inning in the second. After one was out Prinky Primrose singled. Murland Moran walked after Primrose was caught stealing. Then came seven straight hits. Hoeksema started it with a single. Bob Smith followed suit to drive in Moran. Then Hoeksema stole home. Keith Kafer singled and Smith came in on an error.

Dittmer tripled to plate Kafer. Ed Browne singled scoring Dittmer, George Hand singled and then John Tedere, batting for the second time in the inning, singled to score Browne. Primrose fanned to end the inning with the score 7-1.

Get Another in Third
The Hawks picked up another run in the third on singles by Hoeksema and Kafer. Illinois got one in the fourth on three singles but Iowa got it back in the same inning on Dittmer's home run.

Illinois tallied twice in the fifth on four singles and once in the Iowa got its last bunch of runs in the seventh on an error, a pair of singles by Hoeksema and Erickson and Dittmer's second triple of the day to make it 12-5.

Then came the big Illini eighth. John Gugala opened with a single and Pinch-Hitter Bob Simonetti walked. Glen Trugillo singled to drive in a run and Orth relieved Hoeksema. Orth's error put Plews on base. Henry Anderssohn walked to plate Simonetti and Steger struck out. John Kopka singled to score Trugillo and the bases were loaded. But they didn't stay loaded long as Neal picked on a two and nothing curve ball and blasted it over the fence to tie up the game.

The deciding run in the ninth scored after Primrose let a ball go between his legs to put Steger in second. Kopka's triple meant the ball game for the Illini to even the series at a game apiece.

The Hawks got a man on in the ninth when Kafer drew a walk after two were out but Dittmer grounded out, shortstop to first, and it was all over for the Hawkeyes.

Included in those waiting to shake Neal's hand are Coach Wally Roettger (wearing sweat shirt) and Russ Steger (38).

IOWA'S JACK DITTMER hit a homer too. His was a ground ball that rolled to the fence in the left field corner. He's shown crossing the plate as Illinois Catcher John Gugala waits for the thrown-in that got there too late.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Prince Hal Newhouser pitched effectively in the clutch yesterday and Johnny Groth scored the winning run as the Detroit Tigers beat the Cleveland Indians 5 to 4 in 10 innings.

It was the second 10-inning affair in a row between the two clubs. The Tigers scored the winning counter when rookie sensation Groth raced all the way from first base, after Thurman Tucker fumbled Bob Swift's long single to left field.

Newhouser was touched for 12 hits, including home runs by Joe Gordon and Ken Keltner, but was effective in the tight spots, leaving 11 of the world champions stranded. It was his second victory of the season.

Early Wynn gave up 11 hits in the seven innings he worked.

Hawks Capture Sprint Medley As Illini Dominate Relay Meet

CHAMPAIGN—Iowa's track team captured the sprint medley relay here yesterday but the University of Illinois won 10 of 14 events in a quadrangular relays meet in which no team score was kept.

The winning Iowa foursome was made up of Tom Sangster, Jack Simpson, Russ Merkel and Keith Brown.

Northwestern took three events while Chautau Army air force base failed to win a first. Had points been scored Iowa would have had 41.

In winning the spring medley relay event Brown took the baton for the final leg of the race, hung onto Illinois' Bob Downs for 660 yards, then cut loose with a mighty burst as he came down the stretch to pass the Illini half-mile.

Iowa's winning time of 3:36.6 was very commendable considering the strong wind that lashed Memorial stadium. The wind blew with such force that entire rows of hurdles were repeatedly blown over.

One record was tied when Dike Eddleman of Illinois leaped 6-feet, 6-inches in the high jump, equaling his own 1948 Stadium record.

Iowa's Dick Tupper, running against Vic Jewsbury of Illinois, in the two mile run, put on a final spurt but failed by seven yards of overtaking the long-winded Jewsbury.

Dicker Erdenberger gained a second place tie in the high jump for the Hawks. His 6-foot leap was as good as Lou Irwin, Illinois, and Abe Dunn, Northwestern, could do.

Iowa placed third and fourth in the discus. James Michel's 135-foot, 8 1/2-inch heave was good for third while Joe Peterson captured the fourth spot.

Peterson also placed fourth in the shot-put. Bob Nelson of Iowa won fifth place in the same event. Bill Eye, Hawkeye miler, finished fifth in that event.

Ryder will discuss the development of the transistor and the micro-wave triode during the joint meeting of the student branches of the IRE and American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Cedar Rapids IRE section.

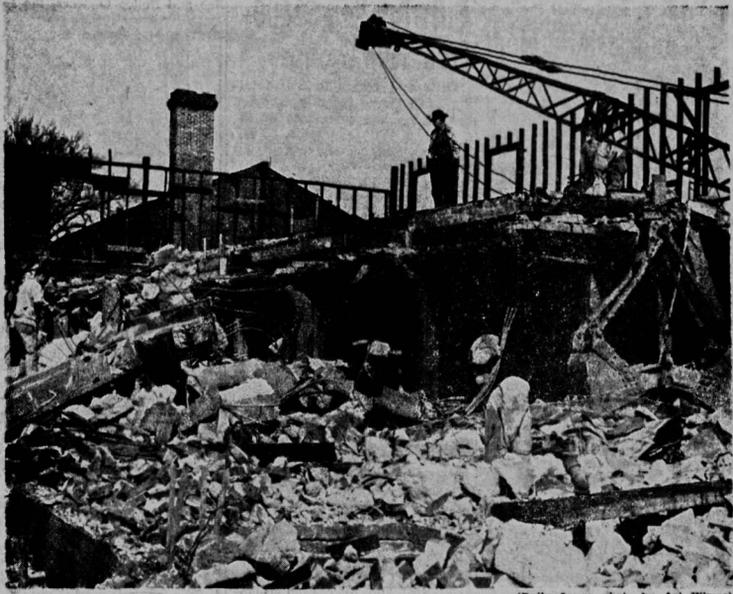

The transistor is a new device that performs many of the functions of the vacuum tubes now used in radio sets, Gerald Luecke, student IRE officer, explained yesterday. It has the advantage of needing no filament or vacuum and of being smaller and lighter than the vacuum tubes.

Postoffice Has Swedish Commemorative Stamps

Five thousand Swedish centennial stamps commemorating the Swedish pioneers are on sale in the Iowa City postoffice, Frank T. Strub, a postoffice employee, said yesterday.

Firemen Extinguish Grass, Shrub Fire

Iowa City firemen fought a potentially dangerous grass fire for over an hour between 3:30 and 4:30 yesterday afternoon.

The grass and shrubs in the big field behind the Moore-Iowa corporation on highway 218 south of Iowa City spread over several acres and endangered the wood section of the railroad trestle near the fire area.

No damage was caused by the fire and firemen were unable to give any cause for the blaze.

Earlier in the afternoon at 12:55 firemen were called to extinguish a grass fire behind 1044 Woodlawn. The fire was started by sparks from an unattended rubbish fire, according to the fire report.

The 250 seats have been sold out. Tickets are available for the $1.20, $1.80 and $3.60 seats at the Iowa Union and Whetstone's Drug store.

Among the forty entertainers comprising what sizes up to a miniature circus will be midgets, a giant, acrobats, juggling clowns, animals, and birds.

The musicians, in addition to playing their orthodox instruments, will make nonsense sounds on a break-down automobile, a washboard, cow bells, bottles, flit guns, automobile horns and a complete set of tuned doorbells.

The two-act show will open with Jones' rendition of the song satire "Der Fuehrer's Face" which rocketed him to fame in 1942.

AFL Official Blasts Labor Coalition Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL served notice on congress yesterday that it considers a coalition labor bill as obnoxious — or more so — than the Taft-Hartley act which the unions want repealed.

This blast at the bill sponsored by Rep. Wood (D-Ga) with Republican backing came from George Meany, AFL secretary-treasurer, in a radio speech.

As he delivered it, house members were straggling back to the capital from a 10-day Easter vacation to plunge into a scrap this week over the controversial labor legislation.

Meany called the Wood bill "a transparent disguise for Taft-Hartleyism at its worst" and said that some of its provisions "go even beyond the Taft-Hartley act in their vicious and malicious attacks against organized labor."

While actual debate on labor bills won't get under way until Tuesday, house Republicans have called a closed-door session tomorrow afternoon to map out strategy.

Advance indications are that the GOP will line up rather solidly behind the Wood bill. If they do, enough southern Democrats may join them to throw the administration's bill aside and pass the Wood measure late in the week.

Neither measure has been considered by the senate, although the senate labor committee has approved the administration's Taft-Hartley repeal bill and the senate will take it up after the house settles its scrap.

The labor fight fills the entire house program for this week.

Raymond J. Hudachek, E3, Hot Springs, Ark., was awarded a $50 first prize for his scientific paper presented at a midwestern meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers held in St. Louis Thursday and Friday.

Hudachek's paper, "The Rate of Corrosion on the Internal Surface of Pipes," was one of nine student papers presented at the conference of midwest group 6, southern tier, of the engineering society.

Prof. E.C. Lundquist of the mechanical engineering department attended the conference as faculty representative and advisor of the SUI chapter of ASME.

Sponsored by Washington university of St. Louis, the conference was also attended by representatives from Missouri School of Mines, Purdue university, Rose Polytechnic institute, and the universities of Kentucky, Missouri, Louisville and Illinois.

Army Explodes 10,000 Pound Bomb in Tests

EXPLODED BY REMOTE CONTROL, a 10,000 pound general purpose bomb mounted on the ground undergoes realistic tests at Aberdeen, Md., proving grounds. The army says the white streaks are not bits of burning explosive but "glowing air" caused by compression of the air by outward rush of bomb fragments. Trees (left background) are estimated to be about 40 feet high.

Lecturer to Show Film About China

Karl Robinson, documentary film maker and lecturer, will present his color movie "China Journey" 8 p.m. tonight in Macbride auditorium. The program will be sponsored by the Iowa Mountaineers.

Robinson lived in China 10 years before World War II and returned in 1942 to make this film. "China Journey" depicts the agrarian phase of China, which Robinson says shows "the underlying strength with which the country has built a brilliant record of survival for the past few thousand years."

Admission to the movie will be by Mountaineer membership card or ticket purchased at the door.

Things Are Tough, Even in California

Iowans planning to migrate to the Los Angeles area were warned yesterday by the Los Angeles chamber of commerce secretary that employment conditions in that area were becoming very "tight."

In a letter written to Robert Gage, Iowa City chamber of commerce secretary, Harold W. Wright said 65,000 veterans are unemployed in the Los Angeles metropolitan area now and the situation has been made worse by extensive migration into the area of people seeking work.

THIS WEEK'S music

By DONALD KEY

Music for the SUI orchestra concert Wednesday night will be mostly French with one Slavic and one Hungarian number.

"Chasseur Maudit," a symphonic poem by the French composer Cesar Franck, is a work that is seldom heard on the American concert stage. There does not seem to be any logical reason for this for it is the type of music that listeners usually enjoy.

The composition is based on a poem, "Der Wilde Jager" (The Wild Huntsman) by Gottfried Burger, and the music presents some interesting and descriptive passages.

Anton Dvorak, Bohemian composer familiar to Iowans because of his visit to this state, is represented on Wednesday night's concert by his "Suite for Orchestra in D Major."

The music in "Suite in D Major" is typically Slavic with haunting gypsy-like melodies and a last movement that could have been written as one of his Slavic dances.

"Second Piano Concerto" by Franz Liszt will be featured on the last half of the orchestra's concert.

This work needs little introduction to American audiences. It is one of the greatest works for piano by one of the greatest pianists in musical history.

John Simms, graduate instructor in piano in the SUI music department, will be soloist for the concerto.

Simms is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia and was a professional accompanist for two years before coming to SUI. He has toured with such famous artists as Francis Greer of the Metropolitan Opera company.

This afternoon's New York Philharmonic Orchestra broadcast will feature two excerpts from the operas of Richard Wagner, "Forest Murmurs" from "Siegfried" and "Entrance of the Gods into Valhalla" from "Das Rheingold."

The program, conducted by Leopold Stokowsky, will open with "Symphony No. 1 in C Minor" by Johannes Brahms.

Since the orchestra is broadcasting from Birmingham, Ala., concert time will be changed to 1:45 p.m. Radio station WMT will carry the program.

The Chicago Theater of the Air will present the operetta "Madame Pompadour" next Saturday night over station WGN at 9 p.m.

Students to Discuss 'Tour' at Luncheon

A Students Concerned luncheon meeting, open to everyone, will be held in the YMCA rooms at 12:30 Tuesday for discussion of the "Know Your Government" tour to Washington, Executive Secretary Ralph Schloming said yesterday.

About 20 students who made the recent trip will be there to discuss information and impressions received during the tour.

Conservation Group To Hear Saunders At Quarterly Meet

Prof. H. W. Saunders, chairman of the SUI sociology department, will speak on "Population Trends" at the quarterly meeting of conservation commissioners for this area being held tomorrow morning and afternoon at the D & L cafe.

Twelve district commissioners and other soil conservationists from Johnson, Keokuk, Washington and Iowa counties will attend the meeting.

Saunders said yesterday he will give an optimistic report on world population in relation to food supply. Contrary to recent publications warning of under-production, he added, the outlook is not nearly so dismal as some people

Iowa Union to Send Four to Convention

Four SUI representatives will attend the annual convention of the National Association of College Unions at Colorado Springs Wednesday through Saturday.

Prof. Earl E. Harper and Frank Burge, director and assistant director of the Iowa Union respectively, will represent SUI along with Mrs. Nell Alderman, manager of the Union dining service, and Theodore M. Rehder, director of dormitories.

Harper will be chairman of a panel discussion on "Union Relations — On and Off Campus." Rehder will act as expert counsel on food service.

Looking Ahead

BY THE WORLD STAFF OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON — More shocks are in store for the Communists on trial in New York's federal court.

The Communists' faces turned very red when their "fellow Communist," 33-year-old Herbert A. Philbrick, took the witness stand and disclosed that during his entire nine years as a party member he had been a federal bureau of investigation informant.

The frightened Communists quickly ordered their own brand of loyalty investigation. They fear there may be more FBI men within their ranks.

They are right. More "Communists" who are really FBI operatives will testify before the trial is over.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

New York — Retailers are looking at this year's total business with more confidence than they did before Easter.

They appear convinced that sales will be off anywhere up to 10 percent, prices off as much as 20 percent, and profits off a maximum of 25 percent.

SENATOR CLIFFORD?

Washington — There's some talk that President Truman might want Clark Clifford, his legal adviser, to run for the senate in Missouri. But party leaders see former Gov. Phil M. Donnelly as the likely Democratic candidate against Republican Senator Donnell.

GERMAN YOUTH

Frankfurt (Germany) — Loosely organized "voters' groups" of younger Germans are demanding that half of the 410 deputies of the proposed west German parliament be men and women under 35.

They contend the previous failure of German democracy was due to over-aged politicians. A check of German politicians and members of state parliaments showed the majority well over 50. Men of 60, 70 and over dominate the field.

THE CHILL

Washington — Friends have noticed a distinct coolness between house minority leader Martin of Massachusetts and Rep. Halleck (R-Ind). Halleck was majority leader when Martin was speaker of the Republican 80th congress. He apparently is being "included out" on questions of policy and doesn't seem likely to get any major assignments in the 1950 congressional campaign.

SCIENCE

Bloemfontein (South Africa) — The 10-inch astronomical camera being set up here by the University of Michigan for a systematic picturing of the southern hemisphere sky is expected to be operating in a month.

GLIMPSE OF FUTURE?

Washington — If President Truman goes to the annual governors' conference in Colorado Springs in June he may meet his successor there.

Democratic governors Chester Bowles of Connecticut, Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, Henry F. Schricker of Indiana, G. Tennen Williams of Michigan and Frank J. Lausche of Ohio all have been mentioned as possible Presidential candidates.

Among Republicans, Earl Warren of California, Val Peterson of Nebraska and Alfred E. Driscoll of New Jersey stand out as possible candidates. And of course nobody is too sure that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York won't try again.

Former President Herbert Hoover has been invited to speak, as well as Mr. Truman, to lend a bipartisan flavor to the meeting.

Auto Firms Await Packard Prices

DETROIT (AP)—Packard's forthcoming announcement of new car models has reopened the question to auto price cuts to follow the recent downward trend.

Packard, Chrysler corporation and Studebaker are the only major holdouts against price cuts which were started by General Motors two months ago and followed by seven other companies, including Ford of Canada.

Packard shut down its plants for the model changeover March 29 and went into production on the new cars 11 days ago. The veteran auto maker's price policy will be announced when the cars go on sale in dealer showrooms within several weeks.

ANALYSIS OF THE WORLD'S NEWS AS — IT HAPPENED LAST WEEK

British Naval Sloop Amethyst Still on the Yangtze, Under Communist Guns

China War

Communist Armies Pour South Across Yangtze

China's Nationalists ignored the Communists' Wednesday surrender deadline. On Thursday Communist armies (of anywhere from 300,000 to 1 million men) poured south across the Yangtze. Their leaders announced the official end of peace negotiations. By the weekend, Communist forces on both sides of the muddy river had driven within artillery range of near-defenseless Nanking and shivering Shanghai.

Spurred on by grand scale Nationalist army desertions, the Communists were destined to engulf the two Yangtze cities at any moment. Chiang Kai-shek emerged from the exile he imposed upon himself on Jan. 21. After a meeting with Nationalists, he announced they would fight the Communists "to the end." The end seemed dangerously near.

The British navy probably offered the stiffest opposition to the Communists last week. The sloop Amethyst, steaming from Shanghai with supplies for Nanking's British embassy, was battered by Communist shore batteries and driven aground. It is still anchored on the Yangtze under Communist guns.

Three British ships, including a cruiser, were driven off in running fights by shore batteries while trying to aid the Amethyst. British dead: 44 including the Amethyst's commander.

Cold War

Rumors Claim Russians To Lift Berlin Blockade

Compared to the tense tragedy going on in China, the rest of the cold war looked like tea and crumpets.

In Berlin, for instance, rumors about the Russ blockade being lifted flew into town faster than the allied airlift planes. The rumors assumed a near-official tinge when Radio Moscow urged that "normal trade" be restored in Berlin. The west kept flying in near-record airlift loads; it was up to the Soviets to make the first move.

Not even the Paris "peace congress" composed of Communist and leftist leaders from 60 nations could stir up much interest. Even American Negro singer Paul Robeson's startling statement that U.S. Negroes would not oppose the Red army had the steam taken out of it. Two days before in the New York trial of U.S. Communist chiefs, a former Negro Communist told how the Communists planned to set up a segregated Negro soviet in Dixie.

In Stockholm Robeson was booed and hissed when he sang a Russian anthem in a concert hall. He later cancelled two scheduled concerts in Copenhagen, Denmark, because the newspaper sponsoring them supported the Atlantic pact. Robeson offered to sing, however, if the Danish Communist newspaper sponsored him.

In the UN, the general assembly voted against inquiring into the iron curtain trials of Cardinal Mindszenty and 15 Protestant churchmen. Instead, it voted to invoke peace treaty guarantees of freedoms and human rights in the Soviet satellites concerned.

America's army in Germany, not to be accused of napping, divided into two teams. One staged an "invasion" into Germany from the Czech border while the other sprang to Germany's "defense."

Health Plan Unwrapped; Senate OK's Housing Bill

President Truman — shortly after throwing the traditional first pitch opening the baseball season — pitched his health plan into congress. It called for compulsory payroll health insurance with yearly costs estimated at $6-billion. The plan also called for vast expansion of the nation's hospital and medical facilities and for more doctors, dentists and nurses. Awaiting the pitch were Senator Taft with an alternate plan which would put the matter of health insurance up to private firms and the states and Dixie Senator Hill with a plan that would virtually legislate the status quo.

Housing — After Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) conducted a fist-full of colleagues on a tour of Washington slums, the senate passed a bipartisan housing bill 57 to 13. The bill calls for slum clearance and the construction of 810,000 public housing units during the next six years. The bill also calls for a farm housing program and research to cut building costs.

The senate had to beat down a Bricker-Cain move to kill the bill by tagging it with a civil rights rider.

Lend-Lease — Secretary of State Acheson gave a closed meeting of the senate foreign relations committee the bill for military lend-lease to Europe: $1,450,000. Some of the money, the senators were told, would be made up by existing supplies of arms.

President Truman announced the resignation of Secretary of the Army Royal and appointed the ECA chief in France, David Bruce, as the new U.S. ambassador to France. Mr. Truman also signed the bill authorizing $5,580,000,000 for ERP during the next 15 months.

Labor

Southern Coal Operators Put Lewis on Defensive

The southern soft coal operators snatched the offensive from John L. Lewis in their 1949 wage negotiations by serving him with a surprise contract termination notice, effective June 30. The move is designed to force the UMW to bargain while the T-H act is still on the books.

The American Newspaper Publishers association also urged the NLRB to rule immediately on the International Typographical union's strike to retain the closed shop. The publishers want the ruling to come under the present labor law which makes the closed shop illegal.

The CIO united auto workers lost two bargaining elections to the insurgent CIO farm equipment workers. The FEW was ordered disbanded by the CIO last fall and has defied the order; the UAW is attempting to pry loose the FEW grip on the farm implement field.

Ireland Celebrates Its Independence of Britain

Ireland celebrated its independence of Great Britain with joy worshipping and a suggestion by its president that the English tongue also be abandoned. Meanwhile, in a hush-hush London meeting, British Commonwealth prime ministers were trying to reconcile India's wish to cut political ties with Britain.

Paraguay's President - Elect Felipe Molas Lopez announced an unofficial political amnesty and repeal of an oil monopoly law as the first steps in a proposed program of political and economic reform. Lopez was just elected of a single-ticket allot.

In Greece, a Communist newspaperman was sentenced to life imprisonment for participating in the murder of U.S. correspondent George Polk last May. His mother was acquitted and two Communist underground leaders, still at large, were sentenced to death in absentia.

The Economy

Ward Stockholders Give A Very Vote of Confidence

Montgomery Ward's stockholders reelected iron-fisted, 75-year-old Sewell Avery in a sweeping vote of confidence. Avery recently lost the last of an entire portfolio of vice presidents because of his iron rule tactics.

The economy didn't react to expected spring tides and continued to recede with glacial speed away from inflation's summit. The labor department reported that factory earnings, hours worked and non-farm employment were still sagging in March.

Earnings decreased about $1 to $53.37 in March — $1.64 below last December's peak. Hours worked slipped from an average 39.4 hours a week in February to 38.9 in March. Non-farm employment were dropped from payrolls during March.

Things are stiffening down on the farm too, the agriculture department reported. It expects net farm income this year to fall as much as 10 percent below last year's whopping $17.4-billion.

Legislature Calls on SUI To Enlarge Med School

On 3 p.m. Wednesday the legislature stopped the clocks, signifying a completion of business by the previously set deadline. Then it worked on into the weekend cleaning up unfinished business.

Among the 13th hour legislation approved: a new capital improvement appropriation for the state board of education which asks SUI to enlarge its medical school within two years to handle 120 students (90 are now accommodated). A sum of $250,000 was specifically tagged in the $2,700,000 measure to enlarge the medical school.

Council Awards Garbage Contract to Don Ayres

The city council turned down plans to make garbage collection and disposal a municipal business and to renew an existing private contract by awarding the job to Don Ayres for a $16,800 bid. The new contract runs for one year.

The university ROTC program will be revamped on or about July 1 putting the airforce program on a par with the army training. Instead of giving army and air cadets identical two-year required training, the new plan would start the two groups specializing after one year. More than 1,300 students will be affected.

Names in the News

Rep. Robert L. Coffey Jr — The freshman Democratic congressman from Pennsylvania was killed when his airforce shooting star fighter crashed during a New Mexico takeoff. Coffey, a colonel in the airforce reserve, was on a cross-country flight.

Adm. Alan G. Kirk — The U.S. ambassador to Belgium was named to succeed Gen. Walter Bedell Smith as U.S. envoy to Russia.

Dr. Stephen S. Wise — The world-renowned Jewish leader who spent a lifetime in making the state of Israel a reality — but who never got to visit it — died in a New York hospital. He was 75.

John Garris — The rising young Metropolitan opera tenor was slain in Atlanta, Ga. Detectives are still probing the mystery.

Officials See Strike Threat In Steel, Coal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government officials said yesterday that nationwide steel and coal strikes may break out this summer.

They voiced "serious concern" about strike possibilities as the United Mine Workers and United Steel Workers (CIO) called wage policy committees into strategy sessions.

Philip Murray, CIO and steelworkers president, reportedly has told Benjamin Fairless, president of the U.S. Steel corp., that he will no longer play "second fiddle to John L. Lewis" on the issue of pensions and insurance. Fairless granted such a program to UMW employees of his company's coal mines. Murray wants one for his steelworkers.

Murray will meet with his policy committee in Pittsburgh May 3-5. Negotiations on wages and welfare matters can begin June 16 under the present agreement and the union is free to strike after July 17.

By that date, Lewis' miners may be idle unless they get a new wage contract before July 5. Members of Lewis' 200-man policy committee are on their way to Washington for their strategy meeting beginning Monday.

The miners are expected to ask that the coal operators double their contribution to the UMW welfare and that the work day be reduced from eight to six hours with no reduction in pay.

The present contract will expire June 30, but the miners begin their annual 10-day vacation on June 25. Unless a new agreement is signed they will not return to their jobs on July 5 under their no-contract, no-work policy.

Four to Represent 4-H Clubs of Iowa

DES MOINES (AP) — The four Iowa 4-H club members who will represent the state at the national 4-H club convention in Washington, D.C. were announced yesterday.

They are Ruth Fielding, Scranton; Thelma Ann Ross, Holland; David Williams, Villisca, and Richard Thompson, Boone.

They were selected from eight finalists. The Des Moines Register and Tribune pays their expenses to Washington for the two-week camp period in June.

Calhoun Sentenced On Larceny Charge

Thomas Calhoun, Benton Harbor, Mich., yesterday was sentenced to not more than five years in the Anamosa reformatory on larceny charges in the $1,600 theft from a Michigan horse buyer April 15, the United Press reported.

Calhoun pleaded guilty in Marquette district court and was sentenced by Judge J.P. Gaffney.

Calhoun took the $1,600 from the trousers pocket of A.D. Brink, a traveling companion, while Brink slept in a rooming house at Victor. Calhoun is believed to be the man who hired an Iowa City taxicab the night of April 15 to take him to Chicago where he was captured.

Studies Airforce Methods — British Officer Visits Iowa City

One of 37 RAF British in United States, Flight Lt. Gordon D. Cremer, 32, London, England, has been visiting in Iowa City during the last week.

Serving as an exchange officer in the U.S. airforce, Cremer is not a newcomer to the states. Back in 1942 he received his first airplane training in Alabama. Within 18 months he was shipped back to England to serve with a night fighter squadron.

The 37 British exchange officers will be in America for a period of two years, Cremer said. They are here to learn about the organization of the American air force and to fly U.S. planes.

These Britishers are stationed all over the states under different commands while Americans are in England studying the RAF methods too. Both Americans and Englishmen will return to their own countries and serve in staff capacities.

Cremer returned to America in 1947 and is at present stationed at Barksdale field, La. There he will receive training in the new B45 jet bombers which are arriving at that base.

"I'd like to settle here," the tall pilot who's been flying for seven years said.

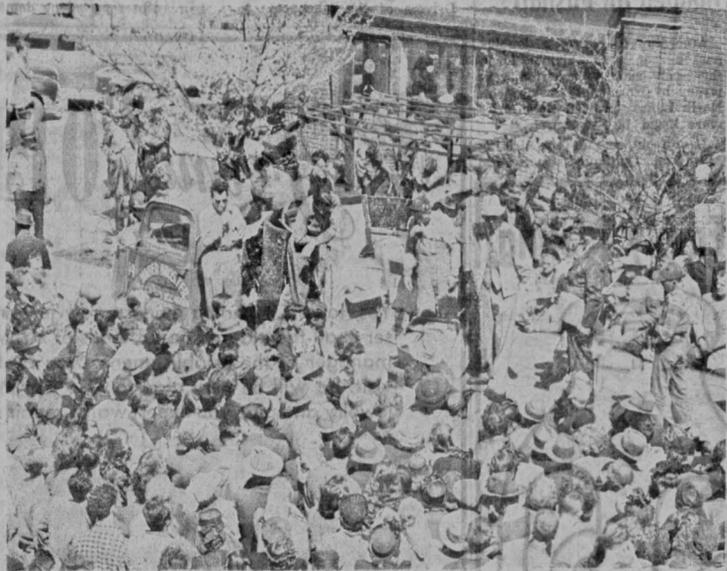

The flight lieutenant, a rank equivalent to that of an American captain, has 2,400 hours of flying time. Most of it was acquired in journeys across to the continent from England. He served with the RAF transport command after the war.

"My experiences? One of the most harrowing was the first time a plane crashed under me. The canopy jammed after a mid-air collision. Under ordinary circumstances I wouldn't have had the strength to open it with my feet but I did so and jumped out just in time," he said.

Cremer's interests are varied. He has travelled all over the world by air and has been in all but four states in America. "It makes the world seem rather small," he said. His other interests are dogs, athletics, and photography.

His father was a leading photographer in England until his recent illness. Cremer has one brother who is married and lives in Yorkshire.

"I'd like to settle here," the tall pilot who's been flying for seven years said.

The flight lieutenant, a rank equivalent to that of an American captain, has 2,400 hours of flying time. Most of it was acquired in journeys across to the continent from England. He served with the RAF transport command after the war.

"My experiences? One of the most harrowing was the first time a plane crashed under me. The canopy jammed after a mid-air collision. Under ordinary circumstances I wouldn't have had the strength to open it with my feet but I did so and jumped out just in time," he said.

Cremer's interests are varied. He has travelled all over the world by air and has been in all but four states in America. "It makes the world seem rather small," he said. His other interests are dogs, athletics, and photography.

His father was a leading photographer in England until his recent illness. Cremer has one brother who is married and lives in Yorkshire.

Try and Stop Me

OSCAR DYSTEL and Walter Ross tell a story about Westbrook Pegler when he was a rising young sports writer. Pegler sold his first short story for seventy-five dollars to a magazine that is notorious for the inadequate fees it pays contributors. The story was so good that within a week of publication, other editors ordered pieces from him at prices ranging from three hundred dollars to a thousand.

He just had closed the thousand-dollar deal when the editor who had bought his first story wired him, "Will take ten more from you at same price as first one." Pegler wired back, "Sorry, but I've turned pro."

Joseph Henry Jackson, the literary editor, promises to present a halo to the first author of a book about early California who does NOT include the story of the street sign that read, "This street is not passable. It is not even jackassable." Jackson says he spotted it in eight new volumes the last year.

Five Kinnick Awards Available For Iowa High School Grads

Five Nile Kinnick scholarships will be available to qualified Iowa high school graduates for the 1949-50 academic year, Walter R. Goetsch, chairman of SUI's scholarship committee, announced yesterday.

The awards are made in honor of the late scholar and athlete, Nile Kinnick. They provide $500 for the first academic year with a possibility of renewals in the succeeding three years based on satisfactory scholastic standing.

Three specific requirements must be met to obtain the scholarships:

1. Students must graduate in the upper one-fourth of the high school class.

2. They must display leadership in extra-curricular activities.

3. They must have shown evidence of great personal integrity. All applications will be carefully screened by the committee and fifteen applicants will be invited to attend SUI during the weekend of May 13.

The students will be given academic tests and personal interviews with university officials during the weekend. In addition, they will tour the campus and visit Pres. Virgil M. Hancher.

Each applicant must submit by next Sunday a personal letter describing his high school achievements and leadership; a transcript of high school grades; and four letters of recommendation from the superintendent or principal of his high school, the high school coach and two professional or business men.

Five candidates will be selected from the fifteen students on the basis of the tests and interviews. Results will be announced at a later date by Hancher.

NO TIME CHANGE DAYLIGHT, IND. (AP) — The residents of the Vanderburgh county community of Daylight said yesterday they would remain on standard time this summer. Daylight is ten miles northeast of Evansville, which remains on standard time.

Noted Art Designer Speaks to Iowa Art Teachers, Students

Stressing purpose more than the end product, Serge Chermayeff, noted art designer, said yesterday "what we are getting is a funny and synthetic expression corrupted by commercialism."

He said it is not the grand prize that is important but "it is extremely important that you should have painted. The expression is more important."

Speaking at the concluding day of the 19th Annual Art conference of Iowa high school teachers and students, Chermayeff said "every school boy wants to get his art up at exhibition because of a $500 prize from some crayon company."

About this situation, he quipped

"I understand that the $500 prize was won by someone who used the side that wears the crayon out faster."

Chermayeff is presently the president of the Chicago Institute of Design. He was born in the Caucasus, Russia, and came to the U.S. just before World War II. In 1942 he was appointed professor of architecture and chairman of design at Brooklyn college in New York.

Siamese Twins Born In Germany Still Alive

HAMBURG, GERMANY (AP) — Siamese twin sisters were born in Dortmund last Monday and are still alive, although their mother died in their delivery, hospital officials said yesterday.

Between them the girls have two heads, two hearts, three hands, but only two legs.

Double-Parked Car Blamed for Mishap

According to police, a double-parked car was blamed for a three-car accident reported yesterday by Norman D. Lamprecht, North Liberty printer. No injuries were listed in the report.

Lamprecht said he was driving south on Dubuque street and started to pass the illegally parked car when his car was involved in the accident with two other vehicles at 8:45 p.m. Friday. Drivers of the other cars involved police said, were Carl Sweeting, 229 W. Benton street, and Louis J. Shimon, 509 Church street.

Lamprecht reported no damage to his car but said $40 damage was done to the bumper and fender of Sweeting's machine and $20 damage to the side of Shimon's car.
