Acheson Promises No Swaps At Paris Meeting of Big Four

WASHINGTON (AP) — On the eve of his departure for the Paris big four conference, Secretary of State Acheson sternly declared last night he would refuse to "barter away" to Russia successes already scored by the west in rebuilding a democratic Germany.

He warned the American people against "the luxury of either undue pessimism or premature optimism" as to the outcome of the new east-west talks. No one can tell now whether the Paris meeting will succeed or fail, he said.

And he appealed for "steadiness and consistency" in American foreign policy, declaring it would be tragic if this nation should prematurely slacken its efforts to get the kind of world it wants at the first sign of success.

Acheson issued a statement on his Paris policy after a closed session with the senate foreign relations committee to which he explained in detail what amounts to a "no compromise" attitude toward dealing with the Russians.

His declaration made emphatically clear that he would not make concessions which in his opinion would extend Russian influence into the western German zone.

Committee Chairman Connally (D-Tex) told reporters that he thought the committee was in complete agreement with Acheson's views.

The secretary of state, who will leave for the French capital this noon summed up his approach to the new council of foreign ministers session in these words:

"We shall neglect no real opportunity for increasing the area of solation and tranquility in the world. At the same time we shall not barter away successes achieved for the sake of promises which might again prove to be illusory, as they too often have in the past."

He said that he thought that "perhaps we have a better opportunity" now to reach a workable agreement with the Soviet Union on Germany than had existed in prior meetings. But he added, "we must certainly arrive now in a better position to deal with the consequences of a failure."

Lone Tree Farmer Wins Damage Suit

A verdict in favor of Earl Hinkley, the plaintiff in a $2,940 damage suit against the Eastern Iowa Light and Power co-operative, was returned by a Johnson county jury at 8:45 p.m. last night, after deliberating the case since 11:45 a.m., Judge Harold D. Evans said.

The jury awarded Hinkley, a farmer living near Lone Tree, judgment in the amount of $1,250 against the power firm.

In the original suit, Hinkley asked judgment for $2,940 for damages allegedly caused when the power cooperative built a sub-station on property which he said, partially destroying a tile line draining his farm land.

Prominent Surgeon Testifies in Defense Of Own Son-in-Law

CEDAR RAPIDS (AP) — A prominent Missouri surgeon yesterday testified as an expert medical witness in the murder trial of his own son-in-law.

The witness was Dr. Howard B. Goodrich, 49, Hannibal, Mo., who asserted the knife thrust which killed Byron C. Hattman of St. Louis last Dec. 14 was not "expertly inflicted."

The state claims Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, Jr., Dr. Goodrich's son-in-law killed his wife's alleged "seducer" with a knife wound "expertly and unerringly made."

It claims Rutledge followed the 29-year-old engineer to Cedar Rapids, got into the hotel room by a ruse, and stealthily slew him after awaiting Hattman for more than three hours.

The defense asserts Hattman attacked the young doctor with a knife which later may have changed hands.

Defense counsel drew from Dr. Goodrich the following points:

1. Hattman's fatal wound could have been caused by a blade as short as three inches. (The state claims it would have taken a weapon with a four or five inch blade — longer than any pocket knife Hattman might have carried — to cause the death wound.)

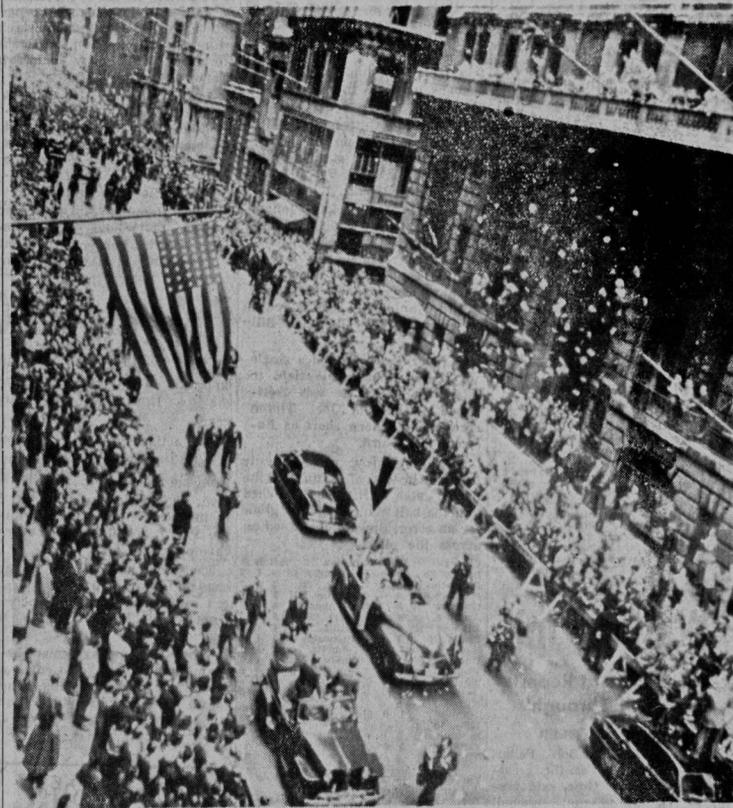

2. Hattman's body could have been in motion at the time his wound was inflicted. (The state contends Hattman may have been unconscious from a blow on the head when he was stabbed. The defense argues his wound occurred accidentally or was self-inflicted while the two men fought.)

3. Dr. Rutledge "would not have been lucid at any time" between noon and 3:20 p.m. last Dec. 17 when police took a hospital statement in which Rutledge told about Hattman's death. (The defense is attacking this statement in which Rutledge is quoted as saying he struck the first blow in the fight with Hattman.)

W. German Constitution Rejected by Bavarians

MUNICH (FRIDAY) (AP) — The big American zone state of Bavaria rejected early today the constitution for a west German republic.

The state parliament, by a vote of 101 to 64, refused to ratify the constitution drawn up by the constituent assembly at Bonn.

General Clay Rides the Hero's Route

A HERO'S WELCOME was given to Gen. Lucius D. Clay (arrow), former American military governor of Germany, in New York yesterday. He waves in acknowledgment of spectators' acclaim as he rides the traditional hero's route along lower Broadway from the Battery to City Hall. Seated beside him on rear of automobile is Robert D. Murphy, ambassador-at-large and Clay's adviser in Germany. Police estimated that at least a quarter of a million people lined the route to welcome Clay.

Citizens Committee For Rent Control To Petition Council

A petition addressed to the city council was the first move of the Citizens' Committee for Rent Control in the fight to retain controls in Iowa City. The move was made at a meeting held in the Community building last night.

Copies of the petition were distributed to interested members of the audience of about 30 people attending the meeting.

The petition will be submitted to the council when sufficient signatures have been obtained, James Wiley, chairman of the committee, said.

In the petition the committee charged that decontrol of rents in Iowa City will result in (1) unlimited rent increases, (2) no protection against evictions, and (3) removal of arbitration facilities of the federal rent control office.

The petition further requests the council to "memorialize the state legislature to act against decontrol."

Wiley said the petition was a move by the committee designed to counteract one he charged was planned in August by the property owners association of Iowa City.

Wiley said the August date for their move was chosen by the property owners in hopes that a minimum number of SUI students and faculty members would be in Iowa City at that time to oppose the measure at any public hearing.

RECORD PASSENGER LOAD SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The navy's big flying boat Marshall Mars carried a record load of 301 passengers — plus seven crewmen — on a flight to San Diego yesterday. It had never carried more than 269 passengers before.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The CIO executive board yesterday ordered its left-wing members to resign or face probable expulsion at the October convention in Cleveland.

In the most drastic action in CIO history, the board voted, 29 to 6, for the resignation of all members unwilling to enforce the CIO constitution and carry out instructions of the CIO conventions.

It appealed to international unions whose representatives are unwilling to comply to remove those representatives from the board.

CIO President Philip Murray told a news conference that the convention "unequivocally will remove those board members who violate CIO policy."

He said the six board members and three others who voted against leaving the Communist-dominated world federation of trade unions are liable to be dropped if they don't resign.

They are Presidents Harry Bridges, international longshoremen and warehousemen's union; Donald Henderson, food, tobacco and agricultural workers; Joseph P. Selly, American Communications association; Hugh Bryson, marine cooks and stewards; Abram Flaxer, united public workers; James Durkan, united office and professional workers; Grant Oakes, united farm equipment workers; John Clark, mine, mill and smelter workers; Ben Gold, fur and leather workers.

"It is a Communist situation," Murray said. "It must be met and dealt with. There is no doubt about that."

Government to Intervene In Ford Strike Today

DETROIT (AP) — The federal government moved into the two-week strike of 62,200 United Auto workers against two key plants of the Ford Motor Co., yesterday.

Arthur C. Viat, chief federal conciliator in the area, heeded a Ford request to intervene in the walkout and announced in a terse telegram that he would take part in negotiations today.

NORWAY WRECK KILLS 3

OSLO, NORWAY (AP) — At least three persons were killed and many injured yesterday in the collision of an express train with a lone locomotive at Lillestrom, north of Oslo.

Elections, End To Aid Asked

LONDON (FRIDAY) (AP) — Russia said today she had offered to help settle the civil war in Greece on condition that military aid by foreign powers to the Greek government be ended and new elections held.

The United States at present is giving both military and other aid to the Greek government as part of the Truman program to contain communism. The British also have military personnel in Greece. Mr. Truman asked congress only yesterday for $50-million more to aid both Greece and Turkey during the current fiscal year ending June 30. This would be in addition to $625-million already appropriated.

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, said U.S. Assistant Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Minister of State Hector McNeill approached Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko on the question of a settlement in Greece at the United Nations assembly in New York April 26.

Tass said Gromyko replied to the proposals with his suggestions for ending the civil war and that Rusk and McNeill promised a reply from their government at a later date. Tass did not say when this would be.

Gromyko expressed willingness, the news agency said, to talk over settlement of the Greek civil war on the basis of the recent peace bid of the Communist-led guerrilla government.

The Communist peace offer was not favorably received by the Greek government in Athens.

No U.S. Comment

WASHINGTON (AP) — The state department would neither confirm nor deny last night a report that Russia has submitted to the United States and Great Britain proposals for ending the Greek civil war.

A spokesman said that this government considers the Greek civil war and relations between Greece and neighboring states "a matter to be dealt with in the United Nations."

Thomas Heggen, 29, 'Mr. Roberts' Author, Found Dead in Tub

NEW YORK (AP) — Thomas Heggen, 29, whose best-seller wartime book was made into the Broadway hit play "Mr. Roberts," was found drowned in his apartment bathtub yesterday.

A near-empty bottle of sleeping pills was on a washstand near the tub.

Police said the death was not a homicide. No notes were found.

A housemaid, Romana Cantero, found Heggen dead upon arriving for work.

His body was sent to Bellevue morgue for an autopsy.

Heggen reportedly drew more than $4,000 a week from the play. He was co-author of it with Joshua Logan. It was based on stories Heggen wrote while on navy combat duty in the Pacific during the war.

With Henry Fonda as the star, the play became a solid Broadway hit. It still is drawing heavily after about 65 weeks.

Police found Heggen's body submerged in 14 inches of water when they entered his fashionable duplex apartment on east 62nd street. They said he drowned.

There were six pills in the bottle on the washstand. Police said it originally held 50 tablets.

Heggen was a native of Fort Dodge, Iowa. He wrote for the University of Minnesota daily newspaper before he was graduated from there in 1941.

Later he worked for the Reader's Digest.

Home Secretary Ede To Decide on Eisler

LONDON (AP) — The question whether Communist Gerhart Eisler is a fugitive from United States justice or a political refugee entitled to asylum is to be decided by Home Secretary James Chuter Ede.

Ede told the house of commons yesterday he would make the decision after receiving the official S. requisition for Eisler's extradition.

"As soon as I get the requisition I can decide whether the case is of a political character or not," he said. "If it is of a political character, it will then be my duty to see that further proceedings do not take place."

This would mean barring further court action against Eisler.

Political refugees are exempt from the British-American extradition treaty. The United States seeks Eisler's return as a bail-jumper under sentence to two prison terms, for passport fraud and contempt of congress.

Senate Approves Navy Appointment

WASHINGTON (AP) — The senate yesterday unanimously confirmed Francis P. Matthews, Omaha lawyer, to succeed John L. Sullivan as secretary of the navy.

Without a word of dissent, it also approved the nominations of Dan A. Kimball of California to be undersecretary of the navy and Gordon Gray to be undersecretary of the army.

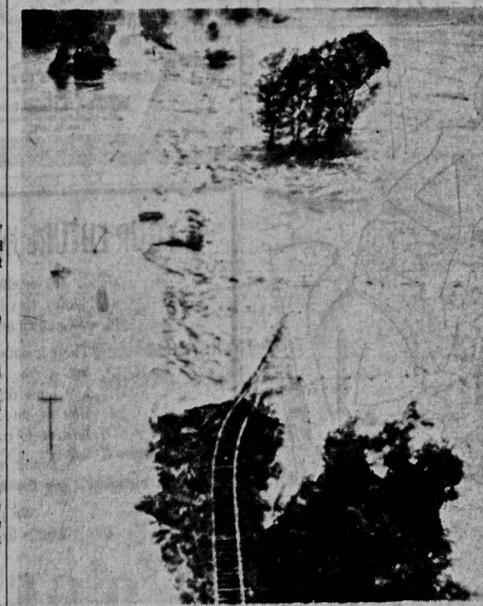

At the same time the chamber voted unanimously to let Gen. Lucius D. Clay, who retired as U.S. commander in Germany last Sunday, keep his four-star rank permanently when he goes on the army inactive list soon.

Wendlandt Awarded Commendation Ribbon

RECEIVING A COMMENDATION RIBBON from Col. W.W. Jenna, (right) SUI military department head, is M-Sgt. Herbert Wendlandt, infantry retired, SUI Pres. Virgil M. Hancher looks on approvingly. Wendlandt received the ribbon at yesterday's military review held at the SUI fieldhouse. It was awarded for meritorious service to the university during the period from January, 1942 to October, 1948. Jenna said of Wendlandt, he is one of the finest soldiers that I have ever known.

Oklahoma Flood Washes Out Tracks

SWOLLEN BY RAINS of more than nine inches, the Washita river was out of its banks in southwest Oklahoma yesterday. Above, a section of the Rock Island railroad tracks between Carnegie and Anadarko are washed out. This spot is a half mile from the river bed.

Indians Edge Yanks, 3-2

Doby Wallops 450-Foot HR

NEW YORK (AP) — Larry Doby, Cleveland outfielder, whacked a 450-foot plus home run — said by veteran observers to be the longest ever hit at the Yankee stadium — as the Tribe beat the New York Yankees, 3-2, yesterday.

The game was all Doby's. Besides his tremendous round-tripper, which cleared the 20-foot bleacher wall and landed in the seventh row among the fans in dead center field, he also banged home the Indians' other two runs.

The triumph snapped a five-game losing streak of the world champions. Doby's single, a sharp bounding ball between first and second, came in the fifth and drove in Thurman Tucker and Dale Mitchell, who had singled.

Steve Gromek, curve-balling right hander, allowed eight hits. Yogi Berra accounted for the Yankees second run by blasting an eighth inning pitch for his third home run of the campaign.

The Yanks' other score came in the fifth.

Giants Beat Reds To Hold Tie for First

CINCINNATI (AP) — The New York Giants warded off the threatening Cincinnati Reds, 6-2, yesterday to maintain their first place National League tie with the Boston Braves.

Johnny Mize slamed his ninth homer of the season with one on and Walker Cooper socked a two-run double to lead the Giants' 3-0 hit attack against Johnny Vander Meer, Ed Ewart and Kent Peterson.

The Reds, who now trail the co-leaders by two games, reached Sheldon Jones for 13 safeties, hitting in every inning except the ninth. The victory was Jones' fifth in eight decisions.

Preacher Roe Gives Bums Win on Shutout

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Preacher Roe was superb in the clutches last night as the Brooklyn Dodgers handed the St. Louis Cardinals their third straight defeat, 2 to 0, before a disappointed crowd of 21,000.

BEATING THE THROW to first on an attempted Cleveland double play is Yankee Shortstop Phil Rizuto. Indian Second Baseman Johnny Berardino took the throw from Lou Boudreau on Rizuto's grounder to force Jerry Coleman at second and threw to Mickey Vernon at first in an unsuccessful attempt for the double play. Watching the play is Yankee Coach Bill Dickey. The Indians won, 3-2.

Minnesota Favored as Big 9 Track Meet Opens Today

EVANSTON (AP) — One of the most uncertain outdoor track showdowns in Big Nine history opens at Dyché stadium today with preliminaries for a 200-athlete field in nine events.

Finals in the 14 events of the 49th annual conference championships will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Minnesota, which has never won a conference indoor or outdoor championship, was boomed as the favorite, but defending champion Ohio State and Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana and Illinois all were rated as sharp contenders.

Observers calculated that the low total of 45 points would cap the title and Minnesota ostensibly had the performers to pick up points, if not first.

The Gophers, 1948 NCAA champions, have only one of the meet's six returning individual champions — Pole-Vaulter Harry Cooper — but Minnesota appears loaded enough to pick up a wad of points in the sprints, hurdles and field events.

The other individual returning champions include Indiana's Chuck Peters in the 100 and 220 dashes; Wisconsin's Don Gehrmann in the mile, Olympic Champion Mal Whitfield of Ohio State in the 440; Illinois' Lou Irons in the high jump; and Northwestern's Jim Holland in the broad jump.

Although three records may be menaced, the mark regarded most likely to fall is in the mile as Gehrmann, with a season's best of 4:10.1 shoots at the 4:10.8 set by Indiana's Don Lash in 1936.

The pole-vault record of 14 feet, 2 3/4 inches will face an assault by three 14-foot fencers, Cooper, Wisconsin's Tom Bennett and Illinois' Don Laz.

Illinois' Dike Eddleman a last week cleared a shade under 6 feet, 7 inches and possibly may make a serious pass at the league high jump record of 6-7 1/4 set by Ohio State's Dave Albritton.

The best 220 time this season has been by Minnesota's Tom Mason (.217), who figures to give Peters a real scrap in the furlong.

Cooper has been nursing an ailing ankle all week and, in good health or not, will be pushed by Bennett and Laz.

Holland will be pressed by Wisconsin's George Kailas, Ohio State's Bob Wade and Purdue's Jewell Daily.

The 100 sprint, always a toss-up, finds Peters facing two rivals who have better seasonal clockings, Purdue's Charlie May and Meson, who have romped .09.6 centuries.

Braves Tally Twice In 9th, Tip Bucs, 3-2

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Braves Hurler Vern Bickford won his own game with a timely single, scoring Phil Masi from second in the first of the ninth, giving Boston a 3-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday.

A crowd of 16,482 watched Elmer Riddle acquire a six-hit, 2-1 lead going into the ninth.

But then Bill Salkeld slashed a double to score Jim Russell, who had walked, with the tying run.

Masi ran for Salkeld and came home on Bickford's single to right off Hugh Casey, who relieved Riddle after Salkeld's blow.

'Washed Up!' Feller Scoffs at Reports He's 'All Through'

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Feller, regarded by many as the greatest pitcher of his time, said yesterday he would quit baseball before he'd descend to mediocrity.

The Cleveland ace righthander was quick to add, however, that although he is not the Feller of old, he thought he still had several good years left. He laughed at reports that he was "all through."

Would he quit if he thought he was nearing the "washed up" stage? He was asked yesterday.

"Who's washed up?" he countered. "Do you think I'm washed up?"

Well, would he retire if he thought he was no better than a 10-or-12 game winner?

"Definitely," came his prompt reply. "When the day comes that I can't stay up there with the best, I'm going to call it a career."

"But that's a long way off," he insisted.

Bob admitted he had lost some of his speed, but said he believes he makes up for that by a better assortment of pitches, better control, experience and general all-around savvy on the mound.

"It's a funny thing," he said in the Indians' clubhouse following the Tribe's 3-2 victory over the New York Yankees. "I thought I didn't do too badly yesterday, everything considered. Yet, the morning papers said I appeared all washed up. They did everything but hang the crepe over me."

Bosox Errors Help Chisox To 7-6 Win

BOSTON (AP) — Although they rapped almost twice as many hits as their opponents the Chicago White Sox needed the assistance of four Boston errors yesterday before they could whip the Red Sox 7-6 in ten innings. The Chicagoans made 13 hits to Boston's seven.

All the long hitters of the Red Sox failed to come through in the bottom of the tenth after the first batter, Johnny Pesky got on via a base on balls.

Reliever Max Surkott, fourth Chicago pitcher, got rid of Ted Williams on a fly to deep center, Vern Stephens on a foul to the catcher and struck out Bobby Doerr to end the game.

The winning run was tallied on an error by First Baseman Billy Hitchcock.

Grover Bowers lined a single over second base into right to start the tenth. He was sacrificed to second. Joe Tipton grounded to deep short as Bowers took third.

Stephens' throw wasn't quite true but instead of getting off the bag to catch it, Hitchcock reached and the ball glanced off his glove for an error. Bowers continued on across the plate.

Hutchinson Hurls, Hits Tigers to 10-1 Victory

WASHINGTON (AP) — Freddie Hutchinson's hitting and pitching helped give Detroit a 10 to 1 triumph over Washington yesterday.

Hutchinson scattered seven hits in getting his second win and hammered out a triple, a double, and a single, and batted in three runs.

Ray Scarborough and Forrest Thompson were nicked for 10 hits.

Scarborough, who was slammed for seven hits and issued seven bases on balls before being shelled from the mound in the sixth, was blasted for eight of the Tigers' runs. He was charged with his third defeat.

Jacobs Era in Boxing Ends Tonight in Garden

NEW YORK (AP) — The Mike Jacobs era in boxing ends tonight in Madison Square garden.

To Pete Mead of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Robert Villemain of Paris, a pair of middleweights, go the honor of headlining the final Jacobs' production in the arena.

Jacobs, ailing since he suffered a stroke late in 1946, recently sold his 20th Century Sporting Club to the garden. He steps down formally on June 1 after 12 years of promoting garden bouts. No fight is scheduled there for next week.

A crowd of 15,000 is expected to pay around $40,000 to watch the farewell fight, scheduled for ten rounds or less.

Iowa Faces Gophers Tonight

Iowa's baseball team faces another important weekend when it opens a two-day stand against Minnesota in Minneapolis tonight.

To Jack Bruner, the western conference's leading hurler with a 4-0 mark, goes the honor of pitching the first night game in Iowa history at the new Minnesota ball park in tonight's opener.

Either Wes Demro, last Saturday's winner over Wisconsin, or Hooks Hoeksema will follow tomorrow morning.

Iowa's 5-3 mark has kept it in the fight for the Big Nine title along with Indiana (5-3) and Minnesota (4-3). This weekend's play will eliminate either the Hawks or the Gophers from conference title consideration.

Arwed Henning (2-0) and Lloyd Lundeen (2-1) have split all Gopher victories between them and will probably start the two conference tests against the Hawks. Outfielder Harry Elliott has paced Minnesota hitting with a .333 average. He has 11 hits in 33 times at bat, including a triple and home run. Catcher Glen Gostie is next with a .316 mark.

Two of the Gophers' victories have been over Wisconsin. They stand fourth in batting with a .256 percentage and are in fifth place in conference fielding at .936.

Purdue (5-1) is sitting on top of the league due mostly to the fact that the Boiler-makers possess the one thing the other Big Nine clubs lack — a one-two pitching combination.

Although fourth in fielding and seventh in hitting according to latest conference figures, Purdue has rolled along behind the stellar hurling of Mel Hanson (2-1) and Bob Hartman (3-0).

Iowa is third in conference fielding with a .949 mark and second in batting with .272 behind Ohio State's .273. Murl Moran holds the sixth highest average in the conference, batting at a .370 clip. The Hawkeye first baseman has 12 hits in 27 times at bat, including a triple.

"Pinky" Primrose's four hits in six times at bat against Wisconsin last week boosted his average to .321. Jack Bruner continued his effectiveness as the plate, too, slugging at a .313 clip, while Catcher Ed Browne is hitting at .303.

Jack Dittmer's slump in the Badger series dropped his average over the weekend from .316 to .273. His fielding, however, has not suffered. He has made only one error in handling 88 chances for a percentage of .989 for all games.

To Send Big 9 Club to Bowl

CHICAGO (UP) — Faculty representatives of the Western conference voted last night to send a Big Nine football team to the Rose Bowl for the next two years.

The action ruled out the possibility that any non-member team, no matter how good its record, could win the prize berth in the post season games against the Pacific Coast conference champion.

There was no discussion of any changes or renewal of the Western conference Rose Bowl agreement with the Pacific Coast league.

The Rose Bowl agreement began three years ago to cover a five year period. A Big Nine team was obliged to play in the game for the first three years,

Freshman Thinclads Nip Missouri, 67-65

The Iowa freshman track team nipped Missouri, 67-65, in a postal meet last week, according to results announced yesterday by Cliff Juedes, assistant track coach.

Again it was the speedy Marcelus Boston who paved the way with three of the Hawks' nine first places.

He ripped off a .98 100-yard dash and broke the tape on the 220 dash with a time of :21.9 seconds. Boston later leaped 21-foot 4 1/2-inches to win the broad jump.

He also competed with Virgil Troyer, Dereef Greene and Craig Harper to win the mile-relay.

Harper also grabbed first place in the 440 dash with a time of a flat :52 seconds.

Jack Davis and Bill Snook won the mile and two-mile events respectively. Davis was clocked at 4:27 and Snook 9:50.2.

Jim Hayek won the other running event in the 120-yard high hurdles with a time of :15.7 seconds.

Iowa City Schools In State Track Meet

Iowa City high school will be represented by 11 men in the state class A and University high will send a 12-man squad to the class B outdoor meet tomorrow on the Iowa State track in Ames.

City high will be greatly hampered by the absence of Keith Hemmingway who is sidelined with a broken foot. The Hawklets qualified men in two individual events and four relays at the district meet held two weeks ago at Marion.

The Blue Hawks of University high have nine qualifiers in the individual events and also will run in four relays.

The Little Hawk workhorse will probably be LeRoy Ebert, a quarter and half-miler who will anchor three relay teams. Stan James may also run in three baton events at the meet.

Attorney Surprises Defense, Rests Case in Communist Trial

NEW YORK (UP)—The government unexpectedly rested its case yesterday against the 11-man "Politburo" of the American Communist party, charged with teaching and advocating revolution in the United States.

Coming as a complete surprise after five months of bitter court sessions, the move caught the defense off balance and led to a wild scene of shouting and vituperation when Judge Harold R. Medina ordered them to proceed today with their case.

U.S. Attorney John F.X. McGohey excused mild-mannered Balme Hidalgo, Jr., the government's 13th witness and like six others an FBI plant within the Communist party, at 3 p.m.

"The government rests its case," he said.

Judge Medina excused the jury until 10:30 this morning. Then he turned to the battery of defense attorneys who were talking excitedly with their clients, the top Communist leaders in the United States.

"You now have until 4:30 to argue your motions for a mistrial," he said. "I can tell you now you are not going to get any adjournment. You are going to make your motions now. And you will put on your witnesses tomorrow morning."

George W. Crockett Jr., Negro defense attorney, leaped to his feet in angry protest that the defense was not prepared to argue its motions; Medina replied that they might reserve those motions until the end of the trial.

Firemen Prepare for Parade - 42 Years Ago

Iowa City Firemen 'Ran Down' Fires in 1900

By GEORGE BLACK

When a fire alarm sounds in Iowa City today, firemen answer the call with the best of modern equipment.

But it was a different story in 1900.

The ringing of the fire bell from the central station was a signal for volunteer firemen to drop their everyday work and run for the fire. It was literal case of run, too, since there were no shiny motor trucks ready to roll to the fire.

Ladders, hose and other equipment were loaded on hand-drawn carts — a four-wheeled one for a hand pump and ladders and several two-wheeled carts for hose reels. Two long ropes tied to the front of the carts provided a hand-hold for the men who pulled the carts to the fire.

In those days there were few water mains and if a well or cistern wasn't handy, bucket brigades were required to supply water for the pump — a far cry from the 1,500-gallon pumps that are a part of Iowa City's modern fire trucks.

But fire protection wasn't the only function of the old-time volunteer fire department. The department's presence in parades held on all holidays was one of the high points of the affair. Competition in decoration of equipment was a regular thing among the various companies that formed the volunteer force.

There were contests between the Iowa City companies and with companies from other cities on these holidays. Races were held on Clinton street between Burlington and Jefferson streets.

One company would be at each end of the course. They raced for the Washington street intersection and when they arrived, hose was unreeled and coupled up. The first company to complete the task was the winner.

Another social function of the companies was the annual dance sponsored by each company. Revenue from these dances provided uniforms and other similar items for each company. These dances generally were held on special holidays and were high points in the social season of Iowa City.

Several members of the old volunteer fire department are still living in and around Iowa City. Among them are Joe Shimon, 928 East Davenport street; Joseph Leno, 916 North Dodge street; Arthur Kloos, 314 North Reno street; Joseph Benda, 717 East Market street; A.O. Carleton, Coralville, and Iowa City's present fire chief, J.J. Clark.

The fire best remembered by most of these men was the one that destroyed the St. James Hotel on the corner of Clinton street and Iowa avenue — the present location of the Dey building.

The stock and interior of the Coast Brothers men's clothing store — at present Towner's women's store — was destroyed in the same fire.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

WHEN Time Magazine sent two crack reporters to interview Tallulah Bankhead, the tempestuous star began chattering as they entered the drawing room, and didn't stop for a solid half hour. Then she paused for breath and inquired, "Have you another question to ask me?" One of the reporters reminded her, "We haven't opened our mouths!" Miss Bankhead is apt to be a bit absent-minded when the question of her age comes up. Her sister Eugenia says ruefully, "Every time Tallulah takes off a year, I have to, too. This can't go on much further because she's got me in diapers now."

Ted Shane calls attention to the pathetic drunk in Venice who lay down in the gutter to sleep it off.

Oranges Higher — Food Price Index Rises Here

Rising orange prices gave The Daily Iowan market basket a substantial boost this week. It rose to $16.23, 13 cents more than last week's figure.

The new crop of California Valencia's is now arriving in Iowa City. They run about 10 cents a dozen higher than the old crop of California navel oranges which is now almost depleted.

Butter also contributed to the attack upon the food prices pocketbook this week as it rose an average of two cents a pound, the index figures show.

Lard, with a decrease of a penny a pound, was the only item showing a loss this week.

There were strong indications this week that the crop of new potatoes which is also arriving from California and the south might send the basket figure up even further in the future weeks.

This current rise in the local grocery scene is not in line with the national wholesale food trend, the Dun and Bradstreet wholesale food price for this week shows. It was down to a mark which equalled this year's low.

The market basket has been a weekly feature of The Daily Iowan since September, 1947, with the exception of some vacation periods. It was originated to determine how much a student family of three spends for basic

Dietitian Goodenow To Get State Post

Choral Music of Bach Features SUI Concert

By DONALD KEY

Musical modern composers and the choral music of Johann S. Bach highlighted the SUI symphonic chorus concert Wednesday night in the Iowa Union.

The chorus, directed by Prof. Herald Stark, presented a reverent interpretation of the group of religious numbers that comprised more than half of the program.

Especially well done by the chorus were the two numbers from Bach's "Mass in B minor," "Et Incarnatus Est" and "Crucifixus."

The Bach motet, "Be Not Afraid," was given a less impressive performance, but the florid passages of this work make an exacting presentation difficult. Here, the chorus seemed to be missing the local phrase lines and contrasts in dynamics.

Modern works on the program seemed to be the "Alleluia," by Randall Thompson and Prof. Philip Greeley Clapp's "Lenore."

The "Alleluia" is conventional in form, but modern in mood, with quick changes from minor to major keys.

This work seemed to be liked best by the audience, and it was the best performance of the modern numbers by the chorus.

Monsieur Vincent — French Priest Is a Creation Of Sensitivity

By BOB SENNISH

Starting today at the Capitol theater is one of the very finest motion pictures to appear during this or any other season. Acting, story, and production technique are each of them peculiarly strong. And the film escapes being a hodge-podge of unrelated excellences, for it contains a considered thesis which persists throughout, and leaves no loose ends to mar or disturb its artistic integrity.

"MONSIEUR VINCENT" is the story of a French priest who is too honest to ignore the suffering which goes on around him, too shrewd to regard it as irremediable, and too scornful of hypocritical Christianity to allow himself the idleness of his fellows. He goes about working his head off and his heart out for the beggars, cripples and misbegotten of his age.

His ventures include small town enlightenment, government service as chaplain, and finally large-scale charity within an organization of his own zealous creation. When he becomes a celebrated figure, of interest to courtly circles for his untiring efforts, he experiences a defect in himself and forces himself back to the gutter and market-place where, he contends, his value really means something.

PIERRE FRESNAY . . .

. . . As Monsieur Vincent

"THIS IS Christianity in action — not hell-fire evangelizing, not pulpit coaxing, not off-the-cuff philanthropy. He insists that 'the poor are his masters.' It is his duty to serve them. And when his service is thrown back in his teeth by the same poor, he is man and Christian enough to hold in his pride and go on serving. Perhaps he knows something about socio-economic determinism, as well as the Gospels.

His fame sets off the charitable instincts of the ladies of polite society. But in a scene of terrific pressure, these ladies back down when it is time for dirty work, and this kind of giving is properly exposed as merely a more self-righteous form of cupidity.

"TOO FORTHRIGHT" a study of human nature to play off all guilt on the rich, the film does not whitewash the greed of M. Vincent's "masters." He sees them as hard and unjust and only through love will they forgive the bread you give them.

What a tremendous achievement this is! The acting is superior and Pierre Fresnay's priest is a creation which only the most sensitive and intelligent of actors could have conceived. No sentimental tear-jerker this, but a beautifully groomed piece of art which should tell upon the most finicky moviegoer.

"IT IS WITH SOME SELF-SATISFACTION that I am able to comment on the splendid efforts of The Burt French Players during the season now closing. The talent of this indefatigable Cedar Rapids group was brought to my attention last fall and this paper's editor saw fit to run a full feature on their activities. Their former productions have indeed surpassed all expectations.

I'D RATHER BE RIGHT Love That Free Speech

By SAMUEL GRAFTON (New York Post Syndicate)

Free speech is sick in our country today; it is at least suffering from scattered local ailments, if not from a general malaise — and it is not going to be cured by the supreme court's decision in the case of the Rev. Arthur W. Terminiello.

Rev. Terminiello was convicted in Chicago of disorderly conduct in breaching the peace by a sensational 1946 speech in which, according to a supreme court justice's summary, he attacked Mrs. Roosevelt, Wallace, Morgenthau and Jews. The supreme court has reversed this conviction, rejecting the trial court's construction of a local ordinance on breach of the peace, even though the Rev. Terminiello's speech was delivered in an atmosphere of tension, with a hostile crowd milling outside the hall, and responding with great anger to the speaker's opinions.

IN DELIVERING the 5-to-4 majority's decision, Mr. Justice Douglas nobly holds that speech is "often provocative and challenging" and upsetting to people, "as it presses for acceptance of an idea," and that therefore it must be protected against punishment unless the danger it seems likely to produce "risks far above public inconvenience, annoyance or unrest." A speaker has a right, in other words, to be annoying, or even infuriating, and the police can do nothing about it.

ONE CAN well believe that Mr. Justice Douglas and those who voted with him, Justices Black, Murphy, Rutledge and Reed, are not at all in sympathy with the Rev. Terminiello's opinions, as expressed in the Chicago speech, any more than are the four minority justices, and that therefore the court has given us a glowing reenactment of Voltaire's famous crack about disagreeing, etc., but defending to the death, etc., etc. Check. Very good. The decision is a sound one, and I am happy it was handed down. Love that free speech.

BUT THERE IS a danger involved in this legal incident, taken as a whole, as a social-judicial phenomenon, and I want to point out what the danger is. The danger is that we are going to become too fond of ourselves because of this decision, too proud of ourselves, too easily convinced that free speech has been saved in a difficult time — when, as a matter of fact, the real, actually existing danger to free speech today is not touched upon in this decision at all.

The danger to free speech today is not that the police will prosecute rightwing speakers, but that, in increasing areas around the country, leftwingers are, because of private opposition, being denied forums. The sad point highlighted for us by the supreme court's decision is that the real peril to free speech today is quite beyond the power of the courts to act upon.

THE COURT has acted to protect a man's right to speak freely when he stands on a platform, but that must be small comfort to followers of Wallace, for example, or devotees of other unpopular causes, who find themselves denied the use of platforms, as in the case of campus speaking facilities, etc.

In a democracy, every citizen is a member of a kind of larger supreme court, handing down fundamental decisions by his every act, and the orthodox which is gradually creeping over us is limiting freedom of speech in a way that no formally constituted tribunal can counteract.

I am in political opposition to Mr. Wallace, but I often find myself feeling sick over the humiliations to which he is subjected, and especially, the gleefulness with which, on occasion, these seem to be administered. In this area the supreme court cannot act at all.

THE FREE SPEECH problem of 1949 is not that of overzealous police action against individuals; it is that of community unconcern about the denial of rights and privileges which were once taken for granted. Here the decision has to be made within ourselves, and in our rejoicing over the court's disposition of a 1946 free speech problem, let us save a corner of our concern for the special and characteristic free speech problems of 1949.

Large Bonus To Sullivans

DES MOINES, IA. (P) — State bonus board officials said yesterday the largest single bonus check for world war two veterans will undoubtedly go to Mrs. Thomas F. Sullivan, Waterloo.

She is the mother of the five Sullivan brothers who went down together in their ship in the south Pacific during World War II. Officials said her check will be for $2,000.

They said she has applied for the bonus as the beneficiary of four of her sons. The fifth and youngest son, Albert, was married. The board said it has been informed that his widow, Mrs. Catherine Sullivan, Waterloo, will apply for the bonus.

The Sullivan boys were George, 29, gunner's mate; Francis, 26, coxswain; Joseph, 23, seaman second class; Madison, 22, seaman second class, and Albert, 20, seaman second class.

The brothers went down with the cruiser Juneau which was sunk by the Japanese on Nov. 13, 1942, off Savo island.

Dad Toted on Back By 8-Year-Old Son

LONDON (P) — Eight-year-old Alan Ambrose didn't know his own strength.

His father gave him a piggy-back ride and said afterward, "Now what about giving me one?"

Alan, who weighs 72 pounds, picked up his 182-pound father and carried him around with no trouble at all. Now he does it often—just for fun.

TO THE EDITOR:

Who does Communist Professor Phillips think he's kidding? As an avowed Communist he knows that his talk Monday night was full of weasel-words and downright falsehoods.

That the American Communist party is affiliated with Moscow and does advocate the violent overthrow of this form of government is a matter of fact, proved by testimony given in the trials now taking place in New York. For further proof simply look in the teachings of Lenin and Stalin.

It is also part of their teachings that the end justifies the means, and any falsehood, trick, or ruse, or even crime is justified to further communism.

Phillips seems to be confused by the terms communism and socialism. What Russia is spreading over Europe is not socialism, but a system of governmental gangsterism in the manner of Hitler. The tactics used by Russia certainly can't masquerade as socialism, which is a gradual change in the economic system. I might point out that communism has never won a free election in any of those nations in eastern Europe. They have been taken over by coercion, overt or otherwise.

How strange it is that Communists make use of the democratic freedoms to spread their propaganda, and then strip the conquered peoples of those same freedoms when they take over a official organ, the Daily Worker, has condoned every violation of democratic rights and civil liberties by the Communist Parties of Europe.

Phillips stated "we Communists are jubilant" about the successful policies of Russia in achieving the spread of socialism in eastern Europe.

Enough said!

Mrs. Mahan might be interested in the enclosed paragraph from the New York Times of Sunday, May 14, 1949. It is a news item, not an excerpt from the editorial page.

"Franco himself has done nothing to relax his dictatorship. Spain is a police state. There are thousands of political prisoners in jails, hundreds of thousands of other persons on liberdad vigilada (watched liberty) — liable to reimprisonment at any time.

"There is only one legal party, the Government Falange. There is no freedom of speech or press. Any assembly of more than fifty persons must be licensed by the police. Non Catholics may not publicly practice their faith."

Pact Boosters Are Cautious

BY J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Signs of coolness toward the Atlantic Pact among senate leaders may be more apparent than real.

There was surprise in Washington Tuesday when Senator Connally suggested that the public might be given more time to get acquainted with the measure. Later he said he was only talking about matters of Senate procedure. But taken with previous statements designed to alleviate Senate fears regarding the extent of U.S. commitments, the foreign relations committee chairman's words continued to cast some doubt on his personal eagerness for the pact.

This was especially true because the remarks coincided with receipt in Washington of advance reports of a public opinion poll showing a small majority of people actually for the pact, with a considerable proportion undecided and a small number actively opposed.

Although such polls are now open to question in Washington, this agreed with Senator Vandenberg's appraisal of the situation in the senate itself, where many members have still to make up their minds.

Actually, the cautious Connally-Vandenberg strategy may be only to avoid antagonizing the latter group, to avoid interpretations of the pact which emphasize the extent of American commitments, and also to avoid emphasizing, through argument, the opinions of anti-pact witnesses in the committee hearings.

This also may have had something to do with Secretary of State Acheson's statement Wednesday pushing the idea of a Pacific Pact into the background. Prime Minister Schley of Australia, President Rhee of Korea and Ambassador Wellington Koo from China have issued statements urging such a pact.

Only Senior Graduates Alone

EVA MAE BRADBURY WAS THE ONLY GRADUATING senior at Ada, Kan. high school, but then she was used to it. Since she started in the first grade at the Ada public school, the 16-year-old girl hasn't had a single classmate. Full honors were accorded to Eva, here being presented her diploma by Principal A.M. Gardner. The graduating ceremonies were attended by some 150 persons—practically the whole population of Ada. Miss Bradbury wears the medal of class valedictorian.

REVIEW —

Donald Ramsey, Harold L. Lawrence received a citation.

Don E. Woodard was awarded the Chicago Tribune gold medal for proficiency in drill and manual of arms annually given a first year basic student. Roger H. Tutton received the second place medal.

Jess M. Birks received the Chicago Tribune gold medal for first place proficiency in drill and manual of arms among second year basic students. A silver medal was awarded Kay H. Black for second place.

Winners of the university medical and dental awards for scholastic achievement were Forrest G. Dannenbring, second year advanced medical unit, Carlyle C. Moore, first year advanced medical unit, and Raymond L. Wicks, first year advanced dental unit.

Eight men were awarded expert medals for proficiency in drill and manual of arms. They were Leonard D. Ankrum, Robert K. Daniels, William M. Dubois, Richard E. Emmert, Paul R. Hanson, Judson A. Herriott, Richard J. Patterson and Rudy R. Wright.

The following received awards as distinguished military students thus becoming eligible for commissions in the regular army or airforce: Robert J. Berens, Harry J. Eckhoff, Carl W. Grant, Hugh A. Drown, Frederick J. Haesemeyer, Donald O. Thompson, Charles M. Mason, Robert E. Gross and Daniel T. Streib.

cher commended all ROTC cadets' performances during the current school year. "Today's review was the finest I have ever seen," he said.

Col. W.W. Jenna, SUI military department head, told the cadets that "this is the most successful of the three post-war years" in speaking of the regiment's accomplishments during the year.

The Scottish Highlanders, all-girl bagpipe band, supplied music for the review originally scheduled to be held on the women's athletic field. This was the cadets' final performance this year.

Demos Out to Hold Midwest; Des Moines Meeting Planned

WASHINGTON (UP)—Democratic leaders set the stage yesterday for an all-out political struggle with the Republicans for control of the key midwest farm vote in the 1950 congressional elections.

President Truman picked up amazing support in the normally Republican midwest in last year's presidential elections and Democratic national headquarters made it plain yesterday he will try to keep it.

It announced that Democratic governors, mayors, senators, representatives and politicians from 16 midwestern states will meet at Des Moines June 12 for a two-day session on campaign strategy.

The fact that Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan was listed first among those who will attend from Washington made clear that the strategy decision will be aimed largely at the farm vote.

The republicans already have announced that GOP farm leaders will hold their own midwestern meeting this summer to see what can be done to woo farmers away from the Democratic standard.

Some Republican leaders feel that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey let Mr. Truman win the farm vote, by default because he failed to explain where the GOP stood on farm matters while the President made farm issues a major part of his campaign.

The 16 states which will be represented at Des Moines are Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Wyoming, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio.

SUI Military Engineers Re-elect Bjork President

Harlan L. Bjork, E3, Wapello, was re-elected president of the SUI chapter of the Society of American Military Engineers at the election meeting of the chapter Wednesday night in the field-house armory.

Other officers elected were James L. Culhane, E2, Des Moines, vice-president, and Howard Riley, U, Iowa City, re-elected corresponding secretary.

International Club To Present Bose, Seashore Awards

The Bose and Seashore awards will be presented to the winners at the International club meeting tonight in the basement of the Methodist church. The meeting will start at 7:30.

A non-American on the SUI campus who has contributed the most during the year to international understanding will get the Bose award. The Seashore award will go to the American at SUI who has done the most to promote international cooperation during the year.

Each year a committee composed of the SUI president, a representative of the student council, a representative of the International club, the director of the Student Affairs office, the advisor to foreign students and a representative of the American Association of University Professors selects the winners.

Last year Prof. Jacob Van der Zee of the political science department won the Seashore award and Michael J. Flach, G, Prague, Czechoslovakia, last year's International club president, was selected for the Bose award.

President Charles Kin said members of the International club who have been active in club work will also be recognized at the meeting.

Six Girls Compete for 'Paper Doll' Title

The six contestants for the prep honor are:

Alberta Kondara, 907 Rundell street; Shirley Workman, 1603

Muscataine avenue, and Coleen Aherns, 828 Dearborn street, all of City high.

Marlene Schnoebelen, 641 South Governor street, St. Patrick's; Ann Neusel, Tiffin, St. Mary's; and Sue Winter, 517 North Templin road, University high.
