Communist Troops Take Shanghai

Nationalist Forces Evacuate, Offer Only Token Resistance

SHANGHAI (WEDNESDAY) (UP)—Shanghai, Queen City of the Orient, fell to Chinese Communist troops today virtually without a shot being fired.

Communist troops poured into the city shortly after midnight after breaking through Nationalist defenses in Shanghai's western outskirts. A brief bitter street clash last night in "French Town," the city's wealthy western district, was the only opposition offered by government defenders of this metropolis of some 6-million people.

Student Comment

Chinese students at SUI showed little surprise last night upon learning of the occupation of Shanghai by Communist forces. "I expected Shanghai would be taken sooner or later," said Yung Yuan Chow, G. Shanghai. "The Nationalists had no fighting spirit."

Chow said his parents, who live in Shanghai, told him in a letter last week that they intended to stay there because they believed the occupation would involve no street fighting.

True to their expectations, the Communists marched into Shanghai yesterday unopposed after breaking Nationalist defenses west of the city.

Yu Cheh Soong, G. Shanghai, said he knew that Shanghai would fall, and was not surprised by the news. Soong's mother and one brother are now living in Shanghai.

In the most recent letter Soong received from home, there was no mention of the approaching Communist forces. This was because the occupation was inevitable and was taken for granted, Soong said.

Miss Tehru Cheng, G. Wutsien, Chiangu, said she received a letter two weeks ago from her parents and three brothers in Shanghai. At that time the people there were living "quite the same as before," she said.

"I believe the Communists will treat the people of Shanghai the same as they have treated other occupied Chinese cities," she said.

The sudden Nationalist withdrawal, within a few hours after the Shanghai garrison had exhorted the population to resist the invaders by all means at their disposal, left most of the inhabitants stunned.

The majority, however, seemed relieved that the city had been spared the "blood bath" which Gen. Tang En-po, only yesterday insisted would ensue if the Communist troops broke through the outer defenses.

The Nationalist forces began their evacuation last night a few hours before the Communist breakthrough on the western edge of the city. Long lines of trucks, loaded with troops and weapons, crawled across the Soochow creek bridges, heading north. Peace preservation troops who erected sand-bag redoubts behind the retreating troops fired into the air occasionally to warn away curious civilians.

His case was disposed of in eight minutes. The fugitive Communist's appearance was delayed for an hour while the court dealt with charges against six drunks and 10 prostitutes.

Crowe Pleads Guilty In Embezzlement Trial

NEW YORK (AP)—Richard H. Crowe pleaded guilty yesterday to embezzling $483,660 from the bank where he was assistant manager. The unexpected plea brought his trial to an abrupt close. The husky banker will be sentenced on June 14 and faces a maximum sentence of 45 years in prison and a $30,000 fine.

State Plans SUI Medical School Probe

Seek Expansion Cost Of 30 More Students

The legislative interim committee decided yesterday to make a thorough investigation of what it would cost to expand the training facilities of SUI's college of medicine.

The committee scheduled a meeting for June 13 in Des Moines to hear Dr. M.H. Soley, dean of the college of medicine.

Committee Chairman J.C. Colburn said, "We will invite Dean Soley to appear before our group and tell us just what it would cost to expand the physical-plant to take care of 120 medical students." The Associated Press reported.

Dean Soley said last night, "We are already making a thorough investigation of our facilities to determine what personnel, space and equipment we need to increase the college to 120 students."

He added that any estimate of the cost of expanding the school could be made only after figures from the investigation were compiled and studied and architectural surveys made.

The investigation includes surveys in the basic sciences and clinical facilities, Dean Soley said.

State Senator Colburn (R-Harlan) said in Des Moines, "We want to obtain complete information in this matter. In asking Dean Soley to appear we will advise him to bring along any other university officials who can help enlighten the committee."

Members of the interim group came to Iowa City several weeks ago for first hand inspection of the facilities after a legislative request for expansion of the medical school.

The aim of the interim committee is to assure the training of more doctors to alleviate an acute shortage of physicians in smaller communities.

Dean Soley, commenting on this doctor shortage, said it is known that there are towns without physicians, which have requested them.

He added that surveys are underway to determine the need for physicians in various Iowa communities. The survey also includes the number of doctors practicing in various areas of Iowa and their ages.

Operation 'Filling' For New IC Pool

First test filling for Iowa City's new swimming pool will begin this afternoon when water starts flowing by gravity into the pool. Contractor M. D. McCreedy said last night.

All equipment has been installed and the final check awaits electric power for pumps which will force water into the pool, McCreedy said.

Workers this week completed pool equipment installations and painted depth and lane markings on the pool bottom, he said.

Last of Shelton Gang Is Seriously Wounded

FAIRFIELD, ILL. (AP)—Big Earl Shelton, about 55, was shot and seriously wounded late last night in a club just off the courthouse square. Doctors said they thought Shelton would live.

Big Earl is the last remaining brother of the once famous southern Illinois gang. A brother Carl was shot to death on a road near his farm home about two years ago. Another brother—Bernie—was killed while leaving a roadhouse near Peoria last year.

Two Truck Convoys Escorted Through City

Iowa City police and state highway patrolmen escorted two convoys of semi-trailer trucks through town last night about 8:30. Police declined on the contents or destination of the trucks.

Signs on the sides of the trucks indicated that the cargo was poisonous gas.

Barkley Hefts Paul Bunyan's Gavel

'ORDER' WOULD MEAN 'ORDER' if Vice-President Alben Barkley used this 20-pound "Paul Bunyan" gavel. But Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) (left) told Barkley he couldn't keep it to surprise the senate. Barkley autographed the maul for return to the Bemidji, Minn., chamber of commerce. Then Humphrey gave Barkley the normal-sized gavel, made in the workshop at Bemidji State Teachers college. Bemidji claims its area was the main stamping ground for the legendary lumberjack, Paul Bunyan.

Witness Says Mrs. Rutledge Remained Friendly to Hattman

CEDAR RAPIDS (AP)—A state witness testified yesterday that Mrs. Sydney Rutledge, 23, remained friendly with the late Byron C. Hattman after the night of last July 31 when she claims he seduced her.

The witness, Fred Gais of St. Louis, was one of several who took the stand in the Dr. Robert C. Rutledge Jr., murder trial yesterday to describe Hattman as "an amiable, friendly and quiet man."

Rutledge, 28-year-old St. Louis pediatrician, is charged with fatally stabbing Hattman in a Cedar Rapids hotel room last Dec. 14.

Gais, head mathematician at the plant where both Hattman and Mrs. Rutledge worked, was the tall blonde's immediate superior.

"On several occasions," Gais testified, "I saw Mrs. Rutledge stop at Hattman's drawing board and speak to him. I don't know how long this period of friendship lasted but it was past the first of August."

Gais also gave testimony which challenged Mrs. Rutledge's story that Gais took her on a company party aboard an excursion boat on July 23 after Dr. Rutledge asked Gais to escort her.

Gais told the jury he never had any conversation with Dr. Rutledge.

Gais was one of a series of rebuttal witnesses whose testimony varies in many respects from the defense version of the Hattman-Rutledge "triangle."

The state pictures the handsome doctor as a jealous husband who was trying to extort money from Hattman after learning the St. Louis engineer had been intimate with his wife, Sydney, 23.

State witnesses yesterday included:

1. Milton Moldafsky, St. Louis attorney for the dead Hattman. He testified a man who identified himself as Dr. Rutledge called him last Aug. 20 and asked for $200 to $250 so that his wife could undergo an abortion.

Moldafsky said Rutledge told him Mrs. Rutledge was pregnant, that Hattman was responsible, and that he (Rutledge) "did not want any child that was not his." He said Rutledge withdrew the demand for money a day later.

(Rutledge has testified his fears about his wife's pregnancy proved unfounded. He has denied he ever sought money from Hattman and

Brother of Walt Reuther Shot in Face

DETROIT (AP)—Victor Reuther, brother of President Walter Reuther of the CIO united auto workers union, was mysteriously shot and wounded at his home late last night.

An unknown assailant fired through a front window of the home shortly before midnight, police reported.

Reuther was wounded in the right eye and right shoulder.

The circumstances were much the same as the shooting of Walter Reuther a year ago.

Receiving hospital in Redford, a Detroit suburb, said Victor's condition was "critical."

Lt. J.B. Greiner of the detective bureau at police headquarters said shortly after the shooting was reported that he had "no clues."

Reuther is educational director of the auto union.

"We're trying to pick up what we can," Greiner said.

The wounded man was taken to receiving hospital in the suburb of Redford.

The shooting of Walter Reuther has never been solved.

At the time the union president blamed it on "Communists, management or a crackpot."

Union, Ford Strike Snag in Settlement

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO united auto workers surprise plan for settlement of the 20-day Ford Motor company strike hit a snag yesterday when the union and company disagreed on what issues should be arbitrated.

Chief Ford Negotiator John S. Bugas agreed in principle with the UAW proposal, but asked in a telegram to UAW Pres. Walter P. Reuther that new conferences be held today to reconcile differences.

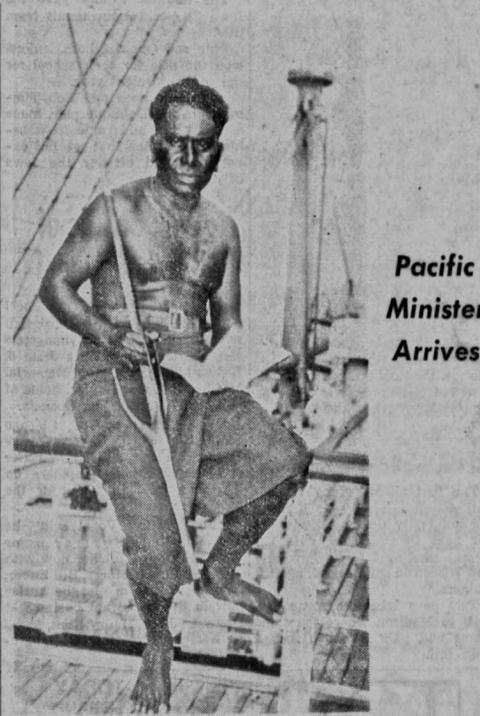

Reuther agreed to the meeting in a sharply worded reply to Bugas in which he blasted Ford for refusing to give a "simple yes or no answer" to the union's straightforward proposal "to arbitrate on the UAW's terms."

The UAW suggested that six minor issues be ironed out immediately through direct negotiations, sending 62,200 strikers back to their jobs.

Iowa Citizen Re-Elected K. of C. State Deputy

CHARLES CITY (AP)—The Iowa Knights of Columbus re-elected Gus A. Pusateri of Iowa City as state deputy and also renamed all other officers as their annual convention closed yesterday.

The session accepted a resolution congratulating Francis P. Matthews of Omaha on his selection as new secretary of the navy. Matthews is former national head of the Knights of Columbus.

Russian Bid to Share Ruhr Control Rejected

PARIS (UP)—The United States, Great Britain and France rejected a bid by Russia at a big four foreign ministers conference yesterday to get a share in control of Germany's rich Ruhr industrial area.

They told Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky also that they are determined to carry out their plan for a unified German state in their occupation zones.

They invited Russia to let her occupation zone join with the western zones in a unified Germany under the new Bonn constitution.

The foreign ministers got down to business yesterday and the cordial, chuckling atmosphere of Monday's opening session vanished.

Vishinsky opened business talks by offering a four-point proposal for the immediate future of Germany, as follows:

1 — International control of the Ruhr, with Russia taking part in a four-power control body and all the small neighbors of Germany, namely Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg, Denmark, Czechoslovakia and Poland, taking part on a consultative basis.

2 — Re-establishment of the four-power allied control council for Germany, which has been dormant since Russia walked out of it March 20, 1948 and started the Berlin crisis.

3 — Resumption of four-power control of Berlin, which Russia ended by splitting the city into two parts.

4 — Creation of a "German state council" consisting of German representatives eastern and western economic organizations. The council would have economic and administrative responsibilities.

As part of his proposal for four-power control of Berlin Vishinsky asked that the interallied city command, called the Kommandatura, be revived and that an all-city government be re-established.

The western foreign ministers saw Vishinsky's program as constituting a demand rather than an offer which gave hope of settling German problems.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson, French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin took turns stepping on the Russian program.

"The Potsdam agreement failed disastrously in the past," Acheson told Vishinsky.

Soviet spokesman Vladimir Pavlov supplemented Vishinsky's program at a press conference last night by repeating Russia's claim that the eastern frontier of Germany is settled permanently.

Cardinals Edge Braves, 3-1

Musial's HR Aids Brecheen

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Stan Musial spoiled Johnny Antonelli's second pitching start of the season with a two-run fifth inning homer to lead the St. Louis Cardinals to a 3-1 victory over the Boston Braves last night. Harry Brecheen hurled his third victory of the year for the Redbirds.

Chuck Diering walked to start the Cardinal fifth. Red Schoendienst sacrificed, then Stan slammed the ball onto the roof of the right field pavilion. It was his fifth this year.

Musial also doubled against Antonelli in the first inning to put Schoendienst on third. The St. Louis second baseman scored on Eddie Kazak's single for the first run of the game.

Hawklets Win Tennis Crown

DAVENPORT (AP) — Iowa City's net duo of Henry Rate and Ed Duncan captured the state high school doubles title yesterday with a three-set victory over the Dubuque team, 5-7, 7-5, 6-4.

The finals were held here after rain forced postponement of them at Ames Saturday.

The doubles victory gave the Iowa City school the tennis team title.

Rate and Duncan, both seniors, won the title for their school for the second straight year.

Dale Launspach and Bob Timmerman, the Dubuque pair, made a strong bid and came from behind to take the first set, but experience paid off for the Iowa City lads.

Dodgers Slap Bucs On Two Home Runs By Robinson, 6-1

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Jackie Robinson smashed out two home runs good for four runs last night as Ralph Branca pitched the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 6-1 victory over the hapless Pittsburgh Pirates. It was Branca's seventh straight win. Despite heavy pregame showers, attendance was 29,625.

ROBINSON

Branca scattered nine hits, only one for an extra base. He was in trouble only in the seventh when the Pirates got their lone run. A snappy double play, started by Robinson, squashed that rally.

Bob Chesnes started for Pittsburgh and yielded eight hits and five runs before he was relieved by Hal Gregg in the fifth.

Big 9 Gymnastics Meet Scheduled Here for '50

The University of Iowa has been awarded the site for the 1950 Big Nine gymnastic championships. It was announced yesterday. It is the first time since 1937 that Iowa will be the host school for the meet. It was at that time when the Hawks won their only gymnastics title.

Gymnastics Coach Norman Holzapfel said that there will be six events in the meet. The events are the side horse, high bar, parallel bars, flying rings, trampoline and tumbling.

Cubs Whip New York, 8-2

CHICAGO (AP) — Lefty Bob Chipman ended Chicago's five game losing streak yesterday as he pitched the Cubs to an 8-2 triumph over the powerful New York Giants.

Chipman, making his first start of the season, held the Giants to five hits. He lost his shutout in the ninth inning when Bob Thomson and Willard Marshall socked consecutive home runs.

Chipman yielded singles in three of the first four innings and then retired 11 straight Giants before Thomson and Marshall connected in the final inning.

Yanks Trample Browns, 13-3

NEW YORK (AP) — Little Phil Rizzuto and stocky Yogi Berra supplied the punch that enabled the New York Yankees to trample the lowly St. Louis Browns, 13-3 yesterday.

Rizzuto whaled a triple with the bases loaded and Yogi belted a three-run homer to highlight a ten run, fifth inning rally against Lefty Joe Ostrowski that sewed up the game. Errors by Gerry Priddy, Bob Dillinger and Jack Graham figured prominently in the uprising that turned the game into a cake walk.

Vic Raschi, who worked the first eight innings for the Yanks, allowed only four hits and received credit for his sixth win in seven decisions.

Reds Trip Phils, 4-3, On 11th Inning Play

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds squeezed Johnny Wyrostek home from third on Ray Mueller's bunt last night with the eleventh inning run that defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-3, before a crowd of 16,111.

Wyrostek had walked to open the 11th frame and moved to third on Ted Kluszewski's single.

Trailing 3-1 going into the eighth inning, the Phillies tied the game on two walks, a double by Puddin' Head Jones and Eddie Miller's long fly which counted Bill Nicholson from third with the second run.

Starter Johnny Vander Meer, who issued nine walks for the night, was relieved by Jess Dobernic and the Philadelphia rally died.

Iowa Golfers in Michigan For Big Nine Title Play

Seven members of the Iowa varsity golf team left yesterday afternoon for Ann Arbor, Mich., to compete in the Big Nine golf championship May 27-28. The Hawks finished seventh in last year's meet.

The Hawk linksmen finished their conference dual meet season with a 2-2 record, topping Illinois and Indiana while losing to Minnesota and Purdue.

It is fairly certain that Jim Rastley, Skip Calson, Bob Graham, Gene Mathess and Bob McKirahan will comprise the first five with the sixth man being either Warner Strout or Bob Phillips.

Karl Leib Charges 'Sanity Code' Critics Afraid of Action

Prof. Karl E. Leib said yesterday that critics of the National Collegiate Athletic association's "sanity code" are afraid the code can and will be enforced if it is violated.

Telling the Kiwanis club's noon luncheon about the code, the NCAA president quoted Coach Harvey Harman of Rutgers university as calling the code another "prohibition act" and unenforceable during a speech Monday at the University of Delaware.

"If he (Harman) wants to test the code," the SUI commerce professor asserted, "I think he will find out that the eastern schools will cooperate in enforcing our rules."

Leib said that the Eastern Inter-Collegiate Athletic association, of which Rutgers is a member, had helped in formulating the code and that the authorities of all the schools, including Rutgers, had "been very cooperative."

It is intended to eliminate "improper pressures" on the athlete's choice of schools, keep financial aid to athletes in hands of regular university scholarship committees and maintain a scholarship standard for athletes.

Iowa Manufacturing Employment Falling, State Office Reports

Employment in Iowa's manufacturing concerns is declining according to a report of the Iowa state employment service, Mrs. Nellie C. Verdin, manager of the Iowa City employment office, said yesterday.

The downward trend began four months ago and has now reached almost all manufacturing industries in the state, she said.

Exceptions to this general downward trend are found in the manufacture of agricultural machinery, electrical machinery and transportation equipment. Employment in these fields has increased as much as five percent over last year, Mrs. Verdin said.

The drop in employment is the result of decreased demand and the completion of contracts, according to manufacturers' explanations, Mrs. Verdin said.

In the field of non-manufacturing industries, public utilities and transportation are the only two registering gains in employment in the last four months, she said. Decline in the non-manufacturing field has been slower but has been going on since August, 1948, Mrs. Verdin said.

Two Records Fall In Women's Meet

Jo Hulse and Marion Thornton broke the SUI women's records for baseball throwing and the 70 yard dash at a track meet held yesterday morning for women physical education majors.

Miss Hulse threw the baseball 232 feet and Miss Thornton ran the 70 yard dash in eight seconds.

Freshmen came out ahead in total points earned in the meet by accumulating 30 points. Seniors won 24 points; juniors, 15 1-3 points; graduates, 5 2-3 points, and sophomores, 5 points.

Other winners in the meet were Mary Woodward, A1, West Union, hurdles; Sally Henry, Cedar Rapids, javelin; Marion Thornton, A1, Evanston, Ill., broad jump; Jo Hulse, A3, Van Meter, base ball throw; Marion Thornton, 70 yard dash; Gertrude Clark, A3, Davenport, discus; and Sally Henry, high jump.

In the relay the sophomores won first place, freshmen, second; and graduates, third.

Members of the church have been asked to wear old clothes to emphasize the theme, "Hobo Hike."

Following the 6:30 p.m. supper, activity reports of the various church organizations will be heard and new trustees, deacons, deaconesses, and committees will be elected, the Rev. Craig said.

New Report System Between Wilkinson, Rent Board Planned

A new system of keeping the local rent advisory board in closer touch with the operations of the Iowa City rent office has been suggested by T.J. Wilkinson, area rent director.

Regular monthly reports will be submitted by the director to the board with its permission, the rent director said.

This plan will be submitted for approval to the rent advisory board by Board Chairman J.A. Swisher at the next meeting, Wilkinson said.

The practice up to this time has not included as full a report to the board by the local rent director and it has not been on a regular monthly basis, he said.

"Members of the board, representing the various interests of the community, will undoubtedly be able to give the rent office the benefit of their personal reactions to the operation of the office, if all of them are kept in closer and more frequent touch with its work," Wilkinson said.

"We at the office have greatly appreciated the help afforded us by means of the advisory board interest. The suggestion advanced now is to help these volunteer members to be even a more important connecting link between the public and the office that serves the public in rent control matters," Wilkinson said.

Miss Evelyn Crary was chairman of the planning committee.

Cotton Perfection for Summer Days

Gals Clad in Cotton Return to SUI Scene

With the coming of June, the SUI campus is liberally sprinkled with women in bright summer cottons.

Every classroom has its share of calicos and chambrays with full skirts and ruffles or the tailored "golfer" styles.

Sunday in Iowa City's churches is the scene of sheer summer dresses or pastel suits and flowered straw hats. White, the all-time favorite for summer, is pre-dominant in suits, dresses and accessories.

Within the two remaining weeks of school and during the summer session, SUI girls will wear crisp and cool cottons to classes and on dates.

American designers have been busy rediscovering the charm of the fabrics of grandmother's day. The newest silhouettes for 1949 are done in such well-remembered materials as calico, voile, lawn, batiste, dotted swiss, dimity and cambric.

Some of the newer accents for summer cottons are the purse pockets, large patch pockets, on dresses with full skirts, cap sleeves and low necklines. Another feminine touch on washable cottons is the shawl collar featured on dresses designed with full gathered skirts and fitted bodices.

The student-and-career-girl special, another campus favorite, is the deep-toned coat dress with fly-away collar and cuffs and big patch pockets.

Casual clothes in seersuckers, linens, shantungs, ginghams, and piques are found in almost every girl's wardrobe. These materials are simply designed with decorative buttons and buckles.

The sundress has received special attention this year. Some are strapless with separate or zip-on jackets and others feature the bolero-type or shawl-type jacket.

Bright colors and youthful design highlight all summer styles in women's clothing.

Two SUI Students Plan June Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. William Collier, Davenport, announce the engagement of their daughter, Geri, to Charles L. Cooper. Mr. Cooper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L.R. Cooper, Omaha.

The wedding, to be in Davenport June 9, will be attended by the immediate families. A reception at the home of the bride, 1714 E. Elm street, Davenport, will be held from 6 to 8 p.m.

Both Miss Collier and Mr. Cooper are students at the State University of Iowa. The bride-elect is a junior in the art department. Mr. Cooper, also a junior, is a member of Alpha Delta Sigma, professional advertising fraternity.

Professor Johnson Helps Write Text

Prof. Jack T. Johnson, SUI political science department, announced yesterday that he is co-author of the book "Fundamentals of Citizenship" which is now being printed by Laidlaw Brothers at Chicago.

The book, which is the fourth written by Johnson, is a civic text especially designed for Iowa high schools. Co-authors with Johnson are G.L. Blough, Joliet, Ill., and David S. Switzer, Dallas, Tex.

MULLINS MANUFACTURING CORPORATION
WARREN, OHIO

World's Largest Makers of Steel Kitchens

What with the indignities one has to suffer to sell one's furniture, I'm not sure if it's all worthwhile. Maybe we should have waited and called in the Salvation Army.

Word got about that we're selling our furniture, and I guess that's what brought the gentleman to our door just five minutes before dinner.

I would like to explain here that we are not opening a used furniture shop. Nor is it a move to raise money for Jeanne's operation. Jeanne does not need an operation, and if she did, I think we'd sell something besides the furniture to finance it. The reason why we're selling our furniture is that we're moving — God willing — as soon after June 10th as possible. They may want that diploma back.

AS I was saying, this fellow came to our door just five minutes before dinner to "look over" our furniture. Our apartment is so small he could have "looked it over" from the doorway, but this man was near sighted.

When he walked through the doorway, I could see his nose wrinkle. By gad! The man sniffed at our chop suey. Well, after all, we may be poor, but at least we're clean. A sniff like that amounts to a personal affront. My card, sir! Choose your weapon! I should have said those things to him, by George.

ONE OF the first points to remember in selling furniture is that you should appear to be disinterested. You're apt to appear too eager. There are lots of persons in the market for used furniture these days, and there's no sense in getting all excited about one potential buyer.

To appear as disinterested as possible, I practiced my toe flexing exercises (very good for flat feet, you know) and cleaned my finger nails with a paring knife. The fellow's nose was still wrinkled, and he looked as if he expected a flock of chickens to come flapping out of the closet. What is in our hall closet is none of his business. Chickens, indeed!

You can see that this fellow got off on the wrong foot with me right from the start.

"IS THIS the studio couch that's for sale?" Well, what does it look like, buddy; an overland stage coach. What did you expect; a four poster with a gold canopy, maybe?

"My, it has certainly seen a lot of wear, hasn't it?" the man said, picking at the frayed edges. No, it belonged to an old lady who never sat down more than twice a week. She suffered from boils. He wanted to be certain it was comfortable, because his little boy might have to sleep on it occasionally this summer. A pretty big boy has slept on it more than occasionally all winter, and you don't see any humps on my back, do you?

"WHAT ABOUT the dinette set?" What about it? You want its blood lines? It has a table and three chairs, that's what about it. And as soon as you get through snooping around here, we're going to eat our chop suey on that dinette set. (I hope that wrinkle in his nose becomes a permanent fixture.)

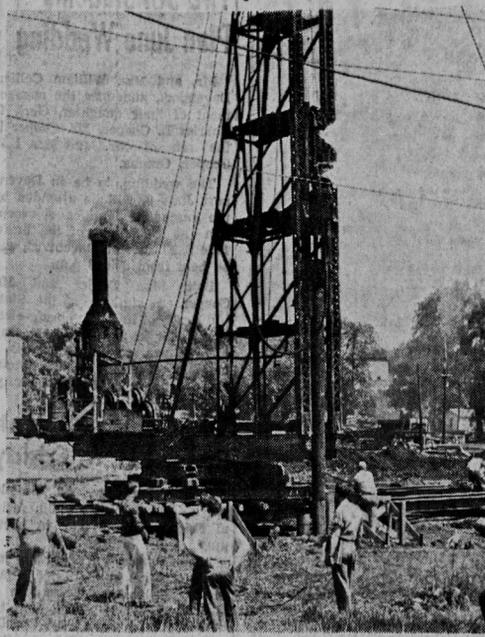

"Oh! It really isn't a set, is it? The table and chairs don't match. Let's see now; the table is green, and each chair is a different color — yellow, blue and peach."

Yes, it's a set all right. That's the way they're wearing them this year. If you'll wait just a moment, though, I'll pour beet juice over the whole affair, and then they'll match.

"I SUPPOSE the fourth chair is broken." Oh, no! We never break chairs here. That's the one we put copper plating on and wired for high voltage. It's the only way we could cure Uncle Rudolph of biting his nails. I should have told him — pass the chop suey, please.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED Marriage licenses were issued yesterday in the Johnson county clerk's office to Clayton Widmer and Mary Lois Swartzendruber, both of Washington, Iowa, and to Chalmers C. Loftis and Isabelle Elison, both of Anamosa.

SUI's New Library Gets a Foothold

Over 3,000 Notarized —

Bonus Applications Decline

With over 3,000 veteran bonus forms notarized since May 1, the number of applications being processed in Iowa City has declined sharply, service centers reported yesterday.

Ed Lucas, Veterans of Foreign Wars post No. 2581, said processing at his office dropped from 40 forms a day to about five.

The university veterans service has reduced its staff handling the work from six to one or two. Estimates by organizations of forms processed vary from "about a hundred" on up. The Red Cross has notarized about 700 applications and the SUI veterans service almost 1,200.

About 1,650 forms remain of 8,000 received at the court house for distribution, the county auditor's office reported.

Veterans wishing to pick up applications may do so at the court house, American Legion, VFW posts or university veterans service.

To have forms notarized, veterans must bring a full size copy of their discharge with them. Although the veteran can fill out most of the application himself, a notary public must copy information taken directly from the discharge.

Festival to Feature Honegger Oratorio

A performance of the oratorio "King David" by Arthur Honegger will be featured in the summer session fine arts festival August 3, Prof. Earl E. Harper, director of the school of fine arts, announced yesterday.

The work will be sung by the SUI chorus and accompanied by the summer session orchestra. Associate Prof. Herald Stark will conduct the concert.

Honegger's oratorio consists of parts for chorus, orchestra, four soloists and a narrator. It was composed to accompany a drama by Rene Morax.

A concert by the SUI orchestra, scheduled for July 20, will also be presented during the festival Harper said.

Annette Zykofsky Seeks Divorce in Court Here

Annette Zykofsky, 242 1-2 S. Clinton street, filed suit yesterday in Johnson county district court for a divorce from Herman J. Zykofsky.

She charged cruel and inhuman treatment. She asked to be granted the right to take back her former name, Annette Davis, and for alimony and costs.

Esterday Sues Trucker In $300 Judgment Action

Clifford Esterday, 2201 Muscatine avenue, filed a $300.53 judgment suit in Johnson county district court yesterday against Melvin Ross, Iowa City trucker.

Esterday, also a trucker, claimed the defendant failed to pay for lime which had been hauled from the River Products company lime bed.

Japan: Deeper Emotions —

Vishinsky's proposal to set a date for drafting the Japanese treaty at the foreign ministers meeting was swept aside as one of Russia's usual parley-opening surprises.

Why in the world would Russia want a Japanese treaty now? Our army of occupation has thoroughly democratized Japan and will leave behind a constitution renouncing the right to make war and guaranteeing far-reaching liberties.

It looks simple on the surface. But a deeper look could be embarrassing. Little things — like the 3-million Communist votes in a recent election — crop up. And there are bigger headaches.

Economically, Japan is a ward of the U.S. As we have in Germany, we've decided that our $1.2-billion occupation bill in Japan is too much of a load. What to do? Help Japan recover economically.

There is, of course, a contradiction between stripping Japan of her war potential and helping her industry recover. For instance, the U.S. carted away $13-million in reparations for needy Pacific allies. Then we stopped; for years now Japanese factory owners have been floundering, never knowing if or when their property will be seized.

Soon a positive recovery goal was drafted

Atomic Research on Trial —

David Lilienthal lost some uranium-235. He has mismanaged his post as chairman of the atomic energy commission. These are the latest blasts levelled at the nation's problem child, atomic energy.

There was a military-civilian scrap when atomic energy first became public property and there was a question of who should manage this new project.

Another big fight occurred when David Lilienthal was nominated for the chairmanship of the AEC.

This present investigation of AEC management promises to bring out all the answers to logical questions — and the first exaggerated accusations promise a dog-eat-dog battle of personalities.

Sen. Hickenlooper's original allegations were distorted quite far beyond later findings; he overestimated the amount of uranium that was missing, and he implied that it was stolen. The FBI has since reported there is no indication the precious substance was fished.

But these first charges have probably set the tone for the investigation. It may become a vicious personality clash. It may become a

Russ Admit Guerilla Tie

J. M. ROBERTS, JR., AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Russia, in her latest approach to the Greek problem, has retreated from her previous position on at least two points.

She tacitly admits her ability to speak for the guerrilla forces, and therefore her direct connection with the civil war which she has heretofore denied. And she is now willing to participate in a border control commission similar to the U.N. commission which she boycotted on the grounds that it was interfering illegally.

On other points, however, Russia sticks to previous guerrilla terms for peace which have been labeled as propaganda by the western powers.

The Communist position in Greece is deteriorating rapidly, just as it was in Berlin when Russia agreed to lift the blockade and resume negotiations in that field. Again Russia is retreating, but this time with more reservation.

Smulekoff, Murray Reach Settlement On Judgment Suit

Settlement of the Smulekoff's vs. W.E. Murray judgment suit was made out of court yesterday as both parties reached an agreement during the morning recess.

In the stipulation signed by both parties yesterday, Smulekoff's agreed to pay Murray $350, plus $100 in court costs. The defendant agreed to pay $549.95 to the plaintiff.

In the original suit, Smulekoff's claimed that $919.95 was still due them for the installation of carpeting in the Murray home at 407 Melrose avenue.

In a counterclaim, Murray charged that the carpeting installed was not the grade ordered, and that it had been damaged during the installation.

He asked the carpet be tendered the plaintiff and the contract be rescinded. He also asked for a refund of a $400 down payment he had made on the original $1,319.95 bill.

The plaintiff's petition and the defendant's counterclaim were both ordered dismissed by Judge Harold D. Evans.

Swisher and Swisher and Edward O'Conner were attorneys for the plaintiff, and D.C. Nolan was attorney for the defendant.

Collegiate C of C Election Set Today

Six persons will be elected today to the collegiate chamber of commerce board of directors for next year, Acting President John Tyson announced yesterday.

The election meeting will be at 4 p.m. in room 208, University hall, he said.

The six elected members will serve with five selected members. The selected members are the two members of the college of commerce union board, one representative each from Delta Sigma Pi and Alpha Kappa Psi, professional commerce fraternities, and Phi Gamma Nu, professional commerce sorority.

Any person who will be in the college of commerce during both semesters next year is eligible for election, Tyson said.

All members of the collegiate chamber of commerce are eligible to vote in today's elections.

Woman Wants City To Help Strangers

Mrs. Christy Kahler, Oxford, thinks Iowa City officials could do something to help strangers find their way around the city.

She complained in a letter to Mayor Preston Koser that street markers were turned the wrong way and many markers were absent. A city bus driver became angry, she said, when she boarded the wrong bus. Even a policeman couldn't help her, she wrote.

"A little repair work would be of much help to a great number of people, I imagine," Mrs. Kahler said.

by the U.S. This year we are spending $100-million to help the nation get on its economic feet. And here is where the real trouble begins.

Japan has a highly-developed steel industry. But coal and iron ore must be imported. Before the war, they came from Manchuria largely. Manchuria today is in Communist hands and the supply lines are cut.

The U.S. has turned to expensive alternatives. Japan is importing coal from the U.S. at the cost of $28 a ton. She used to import Manchurian coal at $5 a ton.

Far-sighted observers, like Owen Lattimore, have pointed out our Japanese dilemma. We are trying to make it the workshop of the far east. We want to withdraw our occupation force, sign a peace treaty and have Japan join the ranks of anti-Communist nations in the far east.

But an industrial Japan doesn't have much choice when it comes to getting vital raw materials. She must come to terms with Communist China. Apparently Moscow is aware of this, if not counting on it.

Now that China is nearly all Communist, the Russians may be deliberately waging the Japan dilemma in our face. Vishinsky's suggestion was laughed off in Paris Monday. But it stirs up different emotions deeper down.

Atomic Research on Trial —

David Lilienthal lost some uranium-235. He has mismanaged his post as chairman of the atomic energy commission. These are the latest blasts levelled at the nation's problem child, atomic energy.

There was a military-civilian scrap when atomic energy first became public property and there was a question of who should manage this new project.

Another big fight occurred when David Lilienthal was nominated for the chairmanship of the AEC.

This present investigation of AEC management promises to bring out all the answers to logical questions — and the first exaggerated accusations promise a dog-eat-dog battle of personalities.

Sen. Hickenlooper's original allegations were distorted quite far beyond later findings; he overestimated the amount of uranium that was missing, and he implied that it was stolen. The FBI has since reported there is no indication the precious substance was fished.

But these first charges have probably set the tone for the investigation. It may become a vicious personality clash. It may become a long record of libelous but privileged accusations. In an effort to relieve Lilienthal of his duties, his accusers may smear every person in atomic energy work or research.

Even the finest motive — national security — would be no excuse for a campaign of vilification such as this AEC probe might become. A fair and impartial investigation should be assured.

The history of some recent congressional investigations allows some doubt that its probing will be impartial and accurate.

Can this issue be divorced, at least in part, from its congressional committee to the extent that a civilian board of scientists and administrators carry out the investigation?

But whatever board carries out the probe, let's hope it does not forget that private capital is still interested in working with atomic energy, the military is still interested in working with atomic energy, and there are many congressmen who had once opposed Lilienthal's appointment.

It might be a good idea to use a special investigating committee in this instance where there are so many technical and political implications.

Used Car Prices Leveling Off

DETROIT (AP) — Used car prices which nosedived starting last fall are leveling off.

And it's a good thing for both the dealer, and the customer who winced at 1948 price tags, according to the president of the National Used Car Dealers association.

Carl E. Marker said a survey showed that 1948 and 1947 models have come down from their peak prices from 20 to 50 per cent, depending on make and condition. The jalopy class — 38's, 39's and 40's — slumped 35 to 50 per cent, and still are a drag on the market, Marker said. Although some postwar models took big cuts, the big share of the "half price" tags went on the older cars.

Used car prices are holding "fairly steady" now, he said, although the market got a slight boost from the relaxation of credit controls, the usual spring buying season, and the Ford Motor company strike.

Letters to the Editor

Readers are invited to express opinion in Letters to the Editor. All letters must include hand written signature and address — typewritten signatures not acceptable. Letters become the property of The Daily Iowan; we reserve the right to edit or withhold letters. We suggest letters be limited to 300 words or less. Opinions expressed do not necessarily represent those of The Daily Iowan.

TO THE EDITOR

Concerning the letter of May 18 written by Mrs. Bruce Mahan, I think and I know she is quite wrong about Franco Spain. She naively repeats the falsehoods which Franco's propagandists invent. I don't know how life is in Soviet Russia, but I know exactly from reliable sources how life is in Spain under Franco's rule. Because Spain is my native country, I can affirm that in Franco Spain there is no religious freedom. If I were not a Catholic, I could not even worship God as I saw fit in my own country.

Positively, only foreign people can attend Protestant services and this only in buildings which do not have on the exterior any sign of being a church. Even a cross of Christianity at the front is forbidden them. Only Catholic teachers are permitted to teach at the universities, secondary and primary schools.

There is no freedom of speech in Franco Spain. Many peoples have spent years and years in a prison because of their criticism of the Franco regime or of the black market which is in the hands of military men and Falangists. There is no freedom of assembly under Franco's rule. Many men are kept in prison because they have tried to meet to discuss some national or labor problem.

There is no freedom of soul in Spain at the present time, because the schools, controlled by the Falange, have poisoned the children's minds with totalitarian philosophy. Franco is even guilty of the outrage of persecuting minorities. The gypsies in Spain are persecuted just for being gypsies, as Jews were in Germany under the Nazis.

In Franco Spain there is no kind of political freedom. There are no civil rights. There is no justice. There is no food. There is nothing for a satisfactory life for civilized human beings, because 65 percent of the national budget is spent to pay military men, police forces and spies to support Franco against the will of 28-million Spaniards.

In view of the nature of the Franco regime, is it any wonder that all democratic minded Spaniards despair when the democratic countries of Europe and America discuss the possibility of admitting Franco Spain into their military alliances and their economic arrangements?

These same democratic countries who fought nazism must realize that most of the beliefs and practices of German fascism exist today in Spain.

Lila Leeds Makes Marijuana Movie

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Miss Lila Leeds, recently of the county jail, made a movie about marijuana last week that she says is a respectable documentary designed to teach everybody a lesson.

This quickie, "Devil's Weed," was shot in seven days on a budget the director prefers not to remember. Miss Leeds hopes it'll keep citizens from straying in her footsteps that wound up at Robert Mitchum's ill-fated marijuana party.

"I'm going on tour with the picture and will give speeches before PTA groups and in theaters," she announced.

Summer Hours Announced By Iowa City Retail Stores

Thirty-nine Iowa City retail stores have agreed to new store hours in order to give employees extra time for relaxation during the summer months, Chris Yetter, president of Yetter's incorporated and co-chairman of the group of retail stores, said yesterday.

The new hours will be from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily and from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Saturdays. Previously stores opened and closed at a variety of hours, Yetter said. None of Iowa City's chain stores will observe the new hours. Most of the stores on College street will not observe the hours either, while many of those on and north of Washington street have agreed to the new hours.

The new hours go into effect Tuesday and last until Sept. 3. "If it proves satisfactory, we may continue the new schedule into the fall," Yetter said.

Several businesses, such as the banks and garages, did not join the group because they already close early on Saturday, he said.

Stores in the group are Aldens-Strubs, The Bookshop, Bremers, Dobby Boot shop, Dunn's, Ewers Men's store, Ewers' Footwear shop, Firestone stores, Frowhew Supply company, Fryauf Leather Goods, I. Fluks Jewelry, Hands Jewelry, Hauser Jewelry, Herten and Stocker Jewelry, Huyett Music store, Iowa Supply company, Jackson's Electric and Gift shop and The Judy shop.

Widow Clears Navy Doctor For Suicide

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. James Forrestal yesterday exonerated Bethesda, Md., naval hospital and the navy psychiatrist who attended her husband from any criticism for his suicide leap from a 16th floor hospital window.

She said there was "no foundation for criticism" of either the hospital or Capt. George N. Raines, the top navy psychiatrist who took full responsibility for the freedom which enabled Forrestal, a mental patient, to make his fatal plunge.

In a letter to retiring Secretary of Navy John L. Sullivan, the widow said that "Jim would be hurt indeed if he felt there was any criticism of the navy medical center for its care of him."

Mrs. Forrestal's letter was made public by the national military establishment as a special navy board of inquiry continued its investigation of her husband's suicide early Sunday and the nation made arrangement for his burial in Arlington National cemetery today with full military honors.

President and Mrs. Truman, members of the cabinet and personal friends will pay their last respects to the 57-year-old one time Wall street lawyer and investment banker at public funeral services in the cemetery's impressive white marble amphitheater.

Raines was a witness yesterday before the navy board of inquiry. He presumably elaborated on a public statement he issued Monday night explaining that relaxation of surveillance was necessary for Forrestal ever was to be cured of his psychoneurotic depressive condition.

Ballantyne Addresses 8th Grade Graduates

The eighth grade graduate of today will be one of those who is "paying the price but not getting the purchase" if he doesn't help conserve the nation's wealth.

Robert L. Ballantyne of SUI's office of student affairs told 132 Johnson county eighth grade graduates last night in MacBride hall.

Speaking to the students and an audience of about 750, Ballantyne told the graduates that part of their job in the future would be conserving soil and water.

After the address, Tim E. Rose, supervisor of rural schools, awarded the top 15 percent of the graduating class Honor P's. County Superintendent F.J. Snider presented the diplomas.

Did Not Advocate Overthrow Of U.S., Communist Leader Says

NEW YORK (AP)—The first Communist leader to testify in his own defense yesterday said that he advocated the violent overthrow of the U.S. government.

John W. Gates, editor of the Daily Worker, Communist news-paper, said "I did not," when asked if he had urged such a thing verbally or in writing.

Gates, 35-year-old veteran who has been a Communist party member 16 years, spent the day on the stand under examination by his attorney, Harry Sacher, telling of his work in the party.

His testimony was designed as direct rebuttal to the contention of the government that Communists were taught revolution in the U.S. would come in a depression.

Gates said American Communists did not advance this idea.

Instead, he asserted, they taught that "the only way crises could be abolished forever was by abolishment of the capitalist system and the establishment of socialism."

Asked why he became a party member, the defendant replied:

"Because I felt the Communist party had the only and best solution to the problem of America." Gates also denied testimony of Louis Budenz, former editor of the Daily Worker and a government witness, that the party concentrated on basic industries in its recruiting in order to be in position to set up a working class dictatorship.

The party did center its efforts on such workers, he said, but the purpose was "to win the support of the majority of the working class . . . for the defense of its own interests" and "to raise its standard of living being attacked by monopolists."

President of CIO's Rubber Union Fired

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Leland Stanford Buckmaster was thrown out yesterday as president of the CIO rubber workers union.

The 13-member union executive board, which convicted him of malfeasance in office, said it suspended Buckmaster indefinitely. This means, a union spokesman said, Buckmaster has been fired.

It was the latest move in an internal squabble in the 180,000-member union that evoked a riot at Pottstown, Pa., last March.

Buckmaster may appeal the decision to the union membership at its Toronto convention next September.

Moving up to replace Buckmaster as president of the union is H.R. Lloyd of Akron, former vice president. Lloyd promptly issued a statement saying "employers and Communists" may attempt to take advantage of the union rift. But, said Lloyd, "I warn both groups that we will not tolerate any interference" in union affairs.

ODK Honor Society Announces Selection Of Twenty Members

Omicron Delta Kappa, upperclassmen's leadership honor society, announced the election of 20 members yesterday.

Elected on the basis of scholarship, leadership and activity the new members were William Shuttlesworth, A4, Cedar Rapids; Sherwin Markman, A4, Des Moines; Richard Dice, C3, Marion; Harold Arkoff, A4, Fort Dodge; Raymond Hill, G, La Crosse, Wis.; Thomas Pawley, G, Jefferson City, Mo.

Richard Huber, L3, Charles City; Robert Stooker, E3, Kansas City, Mo.; Murray Kniffen, A3, Rock Rapids; Donald Hayes, A3, Des Moines; Ralph Woodard, A3, Fort Dodge; George McBurney, A3, Council Bluffs; Charles Thodt, A3, Walcott; Walter McMahon, C3, Clinton; Gene Glenn, A3, Ottumwa; Jack Dooley, A3, Iowa City and LeRoy Copperthwaite, SUI speech instructor.

Three alumni, members of the All For Iowa society, predecessor to Omicron Delta Kappa, will be initiated to membership in absence, President Richard Rust said. They are Jack V. Talbot, M.F. Thorne and David B. Evans.

The new members will be initiated Saturday noon in the senate chamber of Old Capitol. Following the initiation, there will be a luncheon to which all alumni have been invited, Rust said.

Cigarette Company Shows Film Here

With an L and an S and an MPT, the American Tobacco Co. has launched an interesting promotion campaign for Lucky Strikes in Iowa City.

Combining a sales talk and a short moving picture, A.T. Adams and C.L. Ainsworth, assistant sales manager and district manager for the company, toured the city Monday and yesterday explaining their product and company.

The movie is about 10 minutes long and touches on Lucky Strike manufacturing and network shows. The Hit Parade orchestra and Jack Benny's Sportsmen's Quartet are featured, as are scenes showing tobacco buying, aging, and production.

Approach Readied For Concrete Job

Workers yesterday began to set paving forms for the west approach to the West Benton street bridge. Assistant City Engineer Frank M. Kolar said.

The last 80-foot section of concrete will be poured on the bridge floor tomorrow, he said, and the Jensen Construction company of Des Moines should begin paving the west approach Friday.

Both east and west approaches are approximately 300 feet long and 24 feet wide. Yesterday 320 feet of the 480 foot bridge roadway had been poured, Kolar reported.

Accidents Cause $275 Damage

Property damage totaling $275 resulted from two traffic accidents Monday, according to police.

They said an SUI student and professor were drivers involved in a collision on Davenport street at 5:30 p.m. Monday.

Prof. Louis C. Zopf, SUI college of pharmacy, said he was driving east on Davenport street near Clinton street when his car was involved in an accident with a car driven by Kenneth R. Mills, A1, Grinnell.

Zopf estimated $150 damage to his car. No estimate of damage to the Mills car was given.

A car-truck accident on N. Dubuque street east of Iowa avenue Monday at 2:50 p.m. resulted in $125 damage to the left front door and fender of a parked car owned by Donald A. Atkinson, Cedar Rapids, police reported.

Leonard J. Frees, Oxford driver of a truck owned by the Oxford Beverage company, reported no damage.
