U.S. Rejects Russian Plan For 'Stranglehold' of Berlin

PARIS (AP)—Soviet Russia was disclosed yesterday to have made proposals which in the view of the western powers would have given the Russians a political and economic stranglehold on Berlin.

The western powers rejected the proposals. Secretary of State Dean Acheson was quoted as telling the council of foreign ministers that under the proposals the only thing left Berlin's 4-million Germans beyond Soviet consent was death.

At the same time the United States, backed by the other two western powers, was disclosed to have favored giving Berliners sweeping powers of self-government, similar to those to be held by Germans in the western zones.

The result appeared to be a hopeless deadlock on virtually every issue connected with Berlin.

Among the suggestions advanced by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky was that the four occupying powers, pending election of a Berlin city government, name a temporary German commission to run the city and supervise elections. He proposed as "fair and equitable" that the Soviet commander appoint 50 percent of the commission, and that the three western powers appoint the other 50 percent.

Acheson said this was not "fair and equitable" on the basis of population or any other standard. He said West Berlin had two-thirds of the population.

He added that if it was based on the desire of one power to support one political party it should be pointed out that the Soviet-sponsored party had received 19 percent of the vote in the 1946 election, and therefore 25 percent for the Russians would be generous.

Committee Requests Fast 'Pact' Passage

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atlantic Pact is the world's best insurance against another war, the senate foreign relations committee said yesterday as it pressed for speedy ratification of the 12-nation mutual aid treaty.

At the same time it warned of "disastrous consequences" abroad if the senate fails to act favorably and promptly on the 28-year accord.

In a quick follow-up to its unanimous vote of endorsement of the treaty Monday, the group told the senate in a formal report:

"The committee strongly believes that it would be in the best interests of the United States and indeed, the entire world, to sustain and encourage the momentum of confidence that has been building up in Europe, by ratifying the treaty at an early date."

The foreign relations committee, headed by Senator Connally (D-Tex.), filed its formal report shortly after Great Britain deposited its ratification papers with the state department to become the second alliance member to complete action on the treaty. Canada previously had led the way when it stamped its formal approval on May 3.

Britain's Laborites Win Budget Scrap

BLACKPOOL, ENGLAND (AP)—The Labor party conference beat down a revolt against the government's "hard labor" financial policy yesterday after warnings that Britain is in for an economic blizzard.

The rebellion was squelched when the big unions led by Arthur Deakin, head of the transport and general workers union, came to the support of Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer and economic boss.

After Deakin spoke, only a show of hands was necessary to defeat decisively a resolution calling for an "emergency budget" this fall.

Highlanders to Perform in Scotland in 1950

SUI's Scottish Highlanders have received and accepted an invitation to perform in a festival at Edinburgh, Scotland in the summer of 1950, William Adamson, director of the bagpipe unit, said yesterday.

The invitation came about through correspondence between Adamson and officials of the Scottish festival of music and drama.

Pool Opens On Saturday

Iowa City's new $130,000 swimming pool in City park will be ready for the first swimmers at 1 p.m. Saturday, June 11 City Recreational Director J. Edgar Frame said yesterday.

He then qualified his statement by adding the pool would be open providing unforeseen difficulties don't arise

Pool Manager William Boswell Jr. said pumping of water through filters had been underway since late Monday afternoon and the water now is "coming up to a good test" for purification.

Boswell said yesterday that if pumping operations continue as in the past day and a half the pool should be ready by Saturday.

The pool will be open seven days a week from 1 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The pool will be used in the mornings by the Johnson county Red Cross for classes in swimming instruction.

For the time being adult admissions will be 40 cents; children 15 cents. Boswell said. It will cost 25 cents to rent a swimming suit and 10 cents for a towel.

Boswell, recently named manager of the pool, came to Iowa City from Marshalltown. He has had seven years' experience in pool management at Marshalltown, Winnetka, Ill., and San Diego, Calif.

New Lethal Product Being Manufactured, Atomic Official Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—A top atomic official said yesterday that a plutonium plant at Hanford, Wash., is handling a product more lethal than "deadly poison," but he discounted any link with a new atomic weapon.

Carlton Shags, deputy general manager of the atomic energy commission, cited the product in testimony before a senate appropriations subcommittee.

"It handles a product that needs a better name than 'deadly poison,'" he said, referring to the highly secret Hanford plant.

In other developments in the congressional atomic investigation:

1. Secretary of Defense Johnson informed Senator McMahon (D-Conn) that "the military establishment has not attempted and will not attempt, to take atomic energy away from civilian control."

2. Senator Graham (D-NC) demanded a hearing before the senate-house atomic energy committee—following testimony that he was cleared for access to secret atomic data after the atomic energy commission's security advisory board had turned thumbs down on him.

3. AEC Chairman David E. Lilienthal had a day off from a joint congressional investigation into charges that he is responsible for "incredible mismanagement" of the atomic energy program.

WELLS FARGO ROBBED

NEW YORK (AP)—Two armed men yesterday escaped with $19,000 of Columbia university payroll funds after holding up two guards of the Wells Fargo Express Co. on the campus.

Others Will Join Her Saturday Afternoon

WHEN SATURDAY AFTERNOON ROLLS AROUND, Susan Funk, 21, Iowa City, can go all the way into the water at the new City park swimming pool. Unless something goes wrong with the pumping equipment, the pool will be opened to the public at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Pool Manager William Boswell Jr., said yesterday. The pre-season appearance of Miss Funk in the pool was arranged with city recreation officials.

St. Paul Desperados Captured, Auto Accident Ends Search

MARYSVILLE, KAN. (AP)—The 72-hour flight of a pair of youthful St. Paul desperados through four states and covets of police officers ended early yesterday when their stolen car was wrecked in a broken culvert on state highway 15-W near Morrowville.

The men were identified as Carl Bistram, 27, and Allan Hartman, 20, both of St. Paul. Bistram and Hartman had been sought since a policeman was killed in an attempted holdup in Minneapolis Saturday. Bistram's older brother, Arthur, 37, Monday night headed a radio plea by his wife to surrender. He gave himself up at a farm near Wisner, Neb.

At Wisner, Arthur Bistram yesterday told Sheriff Charles Fass that his brother killed Patrolman Fred Babcock Jr., 26, in the attempted holdup in Minneapolis.

In Minneapolis, County Attorney Michael J. Dillon said yesterday he will ask first degree murder indictments against the three St. Paul men suspected of killing a suburban policeman during an attempted burglary.

At Omaha, FBI agent J.L. Dalton said Arthur Bistram was arraigned yesterday before U.S. Commissioner George Dittick at Norfolk, Neb., on a charge of kidnaping. The defendant offered no plea and was committed to the Douglas county jail at Omaha pending preliminary hearing. Bond was fixed at $20,000.

Dillon said he would ask a grand jury today to return indictments against Allan Hartman, Arthur Bistram, his brother, Carl.

Dillon said he had conferred with the federal district attorney's office at Fargo, N.D., and that officials there insist that they press kidnaping charges against the Bistrams and Hartman. Dillon said he would file detainers with the U.S. marshal at Fargo to assure Minnesota's taking custody of the men when North Dakota is through with them.

Find Death Gun . . .

MARSHALLTOWN (AP)—A young Oklahoman, held in the hitchhike slaying of an Iowa father, yesterday led officers to the gun he said was the death weapon.

County Attorney Ed Adams said he would charge the youth, Alvin J. Brown Jr., 20, of Tulsa, with murder.

Brown was arrested in Marshalltown Monday night. Police Chief R.S. Smith said Brown signed a statement saying William J. Muldoon, 5, of Mason City, was shot in the forehead while they tussled for possession of Brown's revolver.

A policeman's wife saw Brown on the street and compared mental notes on a description her husband had related at dinner.

NY Policemen Halt Longshoremen Riff

NEW YORK (AP)—Mounted police charged into some 2,500 fist-swinging longshoremen yesterday and broke up a threatened riot in less than a minute.

Dockworkers from New York's north and east river piers left their jobs to rout a picket line of some 400 persons parading outside the offices of the International Longshoremen's association (ILA). They said the picket line was Communist-inspired. A street battle followed.

Spokesmen for the pickets who included members of ILA local 968 of Brooklyn, said the demonstration was staged to protest "Jim Crow" tactics allegedly practiced by ILA President Joseph Ryan.

Four men were arrested and charged with disturbing the peace. No one was injured seriously.

House Opens Probe Of Air Force B-36

WASHINGTON (AP)—The house rules committee cleared yesterday for floor action today a resolution for a full-dress investigation of the air force's pet bomber, the six-engine B-36.

Majority Floor Leader McCormack (D-Mass.) announced the resolution will be the first business before the house today.

Lied To Protect Hiss, Chambers Claims

First Offense Pays Five Cents

OIL CITY, PA. (AP)—First offenders profited five cents by paying their overtime parking tickets yesterday. Mayor William A. Mork became a father for the third time Monday so he responded with a 15-cent stogie as each motorist paid the standard ten-cent fine.

Death Toll Reaches 81 in Air Tragedies

SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO (AP)—A chartered transport plane jammed with Puerto Rican men, women, and children dived into the sea in a rainstorm soon after taking off for the United States yesterday and 54 persons apparently died in the tragedy.

There were 75 passengers, including 19 children, and six crew members—bound for Miami, Fla., and Newark, N.J. Three of the children were babies in arms.

Survivors reported there was screaming panic in the packed cabin as the plane hit the water and sank almost immediately.

The craft was a C-46 army transport, converted for passenger service and chartered by a travel agency from Strato-Freight, Inc. Strato-Freight is a two-plane charter service with headquarters at Bradley field near Windsor Locks, Conn.

The search continued last night by the light of flares dropped by B-17 army bombers. The plane fell in deep water just off the coast about four miles from the airport.

Late last night there was still confusion over exact figures on the tragedy. An official list of survivors carried only 27 names although the navy and coast guard insisted they had rescued 28 still living. Officers said there would be a recheck today.

Puerto Rican officials reported the plane was not overloaded, despite the high number of passengers, because the large percentage of children kept down the weight.

In Rio de Janeiro 27 Brazilians, including four women and two children, are believed to have been killed in the flaming crash of a Brazilian army transport plane two minutes after takeoff from Florianopolis Monday.

It was the biggest air disaster in Brazilian history.

The plane crashed into Cambrelas Peak near Florianopolis, the capital of Santa Catarina state. Search planes which flew over the peak saw no signs of life. A ground party expected to reach the spot some time last night.

GILLETTE TOO BUSY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) said yesterday the press of business here would keep him from attending the Iowa convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at Ottumwa June 16-19.

Sees Draft Again If No Pay Boost

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maj. Gen. John E. Dahlquist, army personnel chief, said yesterday it may be necessary to begin drafting men again unless congress approves a military pay raise.

Congress raised the pay for enlisted personnel after the war in the hope it would attract enough volunteers to eliminate the need for peace-time draftees. The draft has been suspended several months while enlistments have kept the services up to authorized strength.

Dahlquist, testifying before a house armed services subcommittee on a bill to boost military pay rolls by $314-million a year, said this condition may not last.

He said enlisted men don't like the present "socialistic" pay system in which men are paid according to the size of their families.

Final Date Set to Award Coralville's Flood Control Bid

The contract for the new Coralville flood control project will be in the hands of the chosen contractor by July 10, Col. R.L. Dean, Rock Island district engineer, said yesterday.

At a pre-bidding conference yesterday at the project site, four miles north of Iowa City, Dean told representatives from 16 construction companies that bids for the project will be opened on June 21, to allow time for awarding the contract and getting approval from the chief of engineers in Washington, D.C., by July 10.

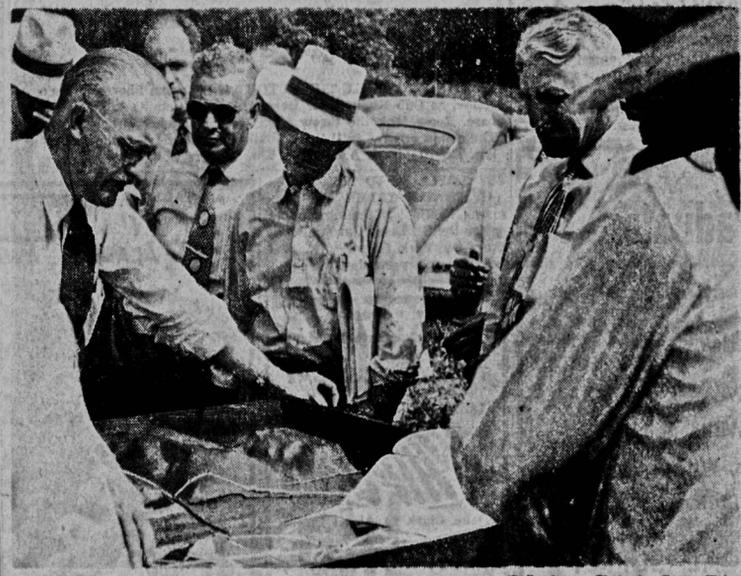

The contract will be awarded by that date, so much of the construction work can be completed before winter. Contract specifications call for completion of the first stage of construction by March 1, 1950, Dean said.

"The only thing that would preclude a prompt contract award would be failure to get a satisfactory bid," Harold W. Bischman, engineering chief of the construction division of the Rock Island district, said.

Area to be covered in the construction is estimated to comprise 320 acres, Dean said. A permanent storage pool, covering about 1,700 acres will lie above the dam.

Among army and civilian engineers attending the conference was Lt. Col. H.K. Howell, who was recently appointed resident engineer of the project. Both Howell and a civilian engineer from the Rock Island district have been assigned to the project, Dean said.

Also to Stop Communists

NEW YORK (AP)—Whittaker Chambers yesterday admitted lying seven times before the grand jury that indicted Alger Hiss but said he did so to protect former fellow-Communists.

"I was particularly anxious not to injure Mr. Hiss any more than necessary," he said at Hiss' federal perjury trial.

Hiss has denied every being a Communist.

Ending four days of cross examination, Chambers, his character under attack by the defense, admitted covering up evidence before the grand jury last October.

Chambers said that, when he appeared before the grand jury last December, he changed his story and involved Hiss in charges that led to the perjury complaint.

Chambers accused Hiss, former state department official, of giving secret government papers to a Communist spy ring, for which Chambers says he was a courier. Hiss denied it and was indicted.

After admitting that he lied to the grand jury the first time, Chambers was asked by Assistant United States Attorney Thomas F. Murphy:

"Did you tell the grand jury in the month of December, 1948, why you did not tell them before of Mr. Hiss and the document?"

"I did," Chambers replied. "I had two purposes," Chambers said, when asked to explain. "One was to disclose in part and paralyze the Communist conspiracy."

"The other purpose was to protect from injury, so far as I could, individuals involved in that conspiracy."

"I was particularly anxious not to injure Mr. Hiss any more than necessary because of our past friendship and because by widespread consent he had been a very able man. Rather than to reveal the extent of his activities and those of others, I chose to jeopardize myself."

Atomic Equipment Sent to Russians, FBI Report Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—An FBI report disclosed yesterday that Russia received a shipment of atomic research devices from the United States in 1947 and that two other shipments were blocked in 1948 and 1949.

The report said the equipment sent to Russia included radiation detection apparatus, Geiger counters and other instruments used in atomic development.

It said the official Soviet purchasing agency, Amtorg, seemed to have "exact knowledge" of what type of equipment to ask for. In general, the report said, Amtorg was interested in the same type of equipment that was being purchased by the U.S. atomic energy commission which makes A-bombs.

The FBI report was brought into the open at the espionage trial of Judith Coplon, 28, a former justice department analyst, who is accused of filching secret government data to aid a foreign power, Russia.

Government attorneys had contended that disclosure of the documents might endanger the national security.

Gray Nominated as Secretary of Army

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman yesterday nominated a one-time buck private to be secretary of the army.

He is Under Secretary Gordon Gray, North Carolina lawyer and publisher and acting secretary since the resignation of Kenneth C. Royall April 27.

Gray, born in Baltimore in 1909, is not a career military man. But he served three years in the army, enlisting as a private in 1942 and rising to a captain of infantry with the 12th army group in Europe.

Brecheen Blanks New York, 3-0, As Musial Blasts Two Homers

Cardinal Lefty Gives 5 Hits

NEW YORK (AP) — Stan Musial and Harry Brecheen teamed up last night to lead the St. Louis Cardinals to a 3-0 victory over the New York Yankees before 50,000 fans. Musial belted two homers, his 10th and 11th of the season and drove in all the Cards' runs. Brecheen allowed only five hits. The loss dropped the Giants out of a first place tie with Brooklyn.

The victory enabled the Cards to move into second place, a half game behind Brooklyn. The Yankees dropped to fourth, a half game behind the Boston Braves.

Musial blasted his tenth homer in the opening inning after Red Schoendienst walked. Musial hit his 11th in the eighth inning, belting a 3-1 pitch over the right field stands.

The shutout was Brecheen's first of the season. The slender southpaw led the league in that department with seven last year. The triumph was the Red Birds' 13th in their last 15 starts.

Browns Top Bosox For Embree, 6-2

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Browns used a 10-hit attack — including four doubles — to back up Red Embree's six-hit pitching and defeat the Boston Red Sox 6-2 last night. It was the 12th victory of the season for the American league cellar team.

Embree didn't walk a man. He struck out three Red Sox. Errors, often a cause for the Browns' downfall, allowed one of the Boston runs. It came on Bob Dillinger's bad throw to first, letting Billy Hitchcock go from second to the plate.

Doran Tops Franklin For Hawklets, 3-1

City High's baseball team stopped Franklin high of Cedar Rapids, 3-1, here last night. It was Iowa City's seventh win in nine tries this season.

Dick Doran pitched four-hit ball for the Little Hawks and was never in serious trouble until the last inning when Franklin loaded the bases, but couldn't score.

Iowa City scored its three runs in the first inning. Jerry White led off for the Little Hawks by drawing a walk. He went to second on a sacrifice by Jim Cilek and then scored on a line single by Jerry Anderson. The next batter, Rox Shain, slammed a hard single that got away from the center fielder and he raced all the way home.

Franklin scored its run in the fifth when Watson singled in Quinby from third.

Schrimper went the distance on the mound for Franklin. He allowed four hits and struck out 10 batters. Doran set down nine Cedar Rapids batters on strikes.

Trailing 3-1 going into the seventh Kvacch singled to start the inning for Franklin. A walk, a sacrifice and another walk loaded the bases for the visitors. Watson then popped to the shortstop and Doran struck out the last batter to end the game.

ROCK ISLAND HERE TONIGHT

The Iowa City Cardinals will open their National Fastball league season tonight against Rock Island. Game time is 8 p.m. The Cardinals have broken even in six exhibition games.

A Little Pin for A Big Honor

THE OUTSTANDING HAWKEYE ATHLETE, Wally Ris (left), receives the annual Tailfeathers award from Paul W. Brechler, SU's director of athletics. It is given to the student who is outstanding in athletics during the school year. Ris won the award from a field of 14 candidates in the March 30 campus elections. It is a small "T" and features a gold feather on a gold trimmed black background.

Ris Given Award as 'Outstanding Athlete'

Olympic Champion Wally Ris, chosen SU's outstanding athlete in the March 30 elections, yesterday was presented the annual Tailfeathers athletic award by Paul W. Brechler, director of athletics.

Ris was the spearhead of the '49 swimming team which Coach Dave Armbruster called "far and away the greatest team" he has led in 33 years of coaching.

Ris won the award from a field of 14 candidates. It goes to the student who does an outstanding job in athletics during the year, in performance and from both the students and participants' point of view, Brechler said.

The award is a small "T" and features a gold feather on a black background trimmed with gold. It is about an inch high.

In addition to his collegiate feats, Ris has won five straight AAU championships and last summer won the 100-meter free style Olympic title.

Ris was named the outstanding college swimmer of 1949 by the College Coaches of America shortly after winning the NCAA title in Chapel Hill, N.C., early this spring. He is the only swimmer to ever sweep Big Nine, NCAA, and AAU titles two years running.

Ex-Iowa Gridder Loses Pay Case

GREEN BAY, WIS. (AP) — Circuit Judge Edward M. DuQuain yesterday declared the National football league's controversial player release rule legal.

He dismissed a $2,700 back-pay suit brought by ex-Guard Charles Tolleson against the Green Bay Packers.

The former University of Iowa star argued that he should have been paid for a full season though he was released after only two league games in 1946.

Tolleson played guard for the Packers in 1944 and 1945, and in three exhibition and two league games in 1946. He now is a beer distributor in Green Bay.

Tigers Defeat Yankees, 5-2

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers clipped a full game off the New York Yankees' American league lead yesterday as they beat Yankee Southpaw Ed Lopat, 5-2, for his first setback of the season.

Lopat, who had won five straight up to yesterday, saw the Tigers bunch six of their nine hits in two innings—the first and fourth—for all their runs.

Catcher Bob Swift and Outfielder Hoot Evers each drove in two runs with extra base hits to pin the defeat on Lopat.

Hal Newhouser, who had been beaten twice by the Yankees this season turned in a neat nine-hitter for his sixth win of the campaign as against five losses. New York 010 010 000-2 9 0
Detroit 200 300 000-5 9 1

Owen, Lanier Apply For Reinstatement In Major Leagues

NEW YORK (AP) — Climbing aboard the bandwagon which they hoped would carry them back to their old major league jobs, five wayward Mexican league jumpers, headed by Mickey Owen and Max Lanier, applied to the National and American leagues yesterday for reinstatement.

President Ford Frick of the National league immediately informed the players, whose five-year suspensions were lifted on Sunday by Commissioner A. B. Chandler, that they first would have to obtain legal releases from their present baseball commitments, if any, before they could be reinstated by the majors.

Besides Owen, former Brooklyn Dodgers catcher, and Lanier, ex-St. Louis Cardinals pitcher who has a damage suit pending against organized baseball, the players who applied yesterday were Sal Maglie, who pitched for the New York Giants, and two one-time American leaguers, Pitcher Alex Carrasquel of the Chicago White Sox and Outfielder Roberto Ortiz of the Washington Senators.

Fred Martin, the former Cardinals pitcher who with Lanier has filed a $2,500,000 damage suit against organized baseball, and ex-Giant hurler Harry Feldman and Adrian Zabala applied Monday. They were the first players to take advantage of Chandler's ruling.

Roe Whiffs Ten; Dumps Cubs, 7-1

BROOKLYN (AP) — Preacher Roe pitched Brooklyn into undisputed possession of first place yesterday by striking out 10 men in a six-hit, 7-1 victory over the wobbly Chicago Cubs.

The veteran lefthander lost his shutout on Andy Pafko's seventh inning homer but he coasted in after the Brooks routed Dutch Leonard in a four-run sixth inning.

Billy Cox, back at third base for the first time since May 9 when he sprained his right ankle, had a perfect afternoon with three hits and a walk.

Duke Snider's double and his ninth homer accounted for Brooklyn's two runs off Leonard in the first and third innings. Roe struck the big blow in the sixth by knocking in two with a bases-loaded single.

BOSTON (AP) — Pinch-hitter Tommy Holmes scored the winning run on Al Dark's foul fly to right with the bases loaded in the ninth to give the Boston Braves a 6-5 win over the Cincinnati Reds last night before a 15,031 crowd. Eddie Stanky drew a pass to force in the tying run in that same frame.

The Reds broke a 4-4 tie in their side of the final session, which Claude Corbitt opened with a single to right. He was advanced on a neat sacrifice by Lefty Kent Peterson, the second of the four Cincinnati hurlers in the tight battle, and scored when Frank Baumholtz connected safely.

Tribe Fan Must Leave His Perch

CLEVELAND (AP) — After a week aloft, Pole Sitter Charley Lupica was ordered grounded yesterday by the city health department but said he plans to defy the order.

Lupica, who vowed to sit on his 40-foot perch until the slumping Cleveland Indians regained first place in the American League, was ordered down because he had no camp permit and "lacked sanitary facilities."

Capt. Leo Schamander of the health department said that if Lupica is not down by morning he would seek a warrant and use force if necessary.

"The way the Indians are going, I'm giving that guy a break," the captain said.

The Indians, who were seven games behind when Lupica started his vigil, are now 9½ games out of first.

Hawkeye Teams Gained 43 Victories This Year

The athletic program at Iowa has drawn to a close for another year, with nine Hawkeye varsity teams dividing up 43 victories, 41 defeats and one tie since the Marquette football game way back in September.

The best won and lost record was turned in by the swimming team, winners of four out of five dual meets. Led by Olympic Champion Wally Ris the team won additional honors at the NCAA meet at Chapel Hill, N.C. and at the National get-together in Daytona Beach, Fla.

After winning his speciality at the NCAA meet, the 100-yard free style, the coaches voted Ris the nation's outstanding college swimmer for 1949. (See today's story of Tailfeather's award.)

Right behind the swimmers in winning percentage was Otto Vogel's baseball team, with 14 victories and eight setbacks. Eight victories and four defeats in the Western conference was good for a tie for the title, the first for an Iowa team since 1945, when the basketball team copped the Big Ten cage crown.

The successful season was highlighted by the pitching of Jack Bruner and the fielding of Jack Dittmer. Bruner established a new Big Ten strikeout record with 66 whiffs while Dittmer equaled the league record by going through the 12 loop games without an error.

Bucky O'Connor, in his first year as golf coach, brought his team in third in the conference meet. In dual meets the golfers won three out of five.

The wrestling squad came out on top three times, dropping two dual meets and tying one. Olympic wrestler Joe Scarpello was undefeated, winning the Big Ten 175-pound title for the third straight year. He had come from behind in the final 30 seconds in the conference title match to defeat Waldemar Van-Cott of Purdue. The Hawks as a team finished a disappointing seventh after being considered a threat to unseat champion Purdue.

After early season non-league success the basketball team ran into league trouble. Fans remember the thrilling home victories over Wisconsin, 61-60, and Michigan, 63-62, and the upset win over Ohio State earlier in the season. The season's record stood at 10 wins and 10 losses. Charlie Mason, now playing for Iowa City Cardinals of the National fastball league, paced the Hawkeye scorers with 146 points.

Two of the best remembered football games were losses, to Notre Dame and Minnesota. What started as a rout in the Notre Dame game was turned into a grueling battle before the Hawks went down, 27-12. On several occasions Iowa went deep into Irish territory only to lose the ball just short of the goal line.

Against Minnesota the underdog Hawkeyes battled on even terms, trading touchdown for touchdown. With the score 28-21 it was Iowa's turn to score, only to have the final gun end the threat. Final for the season: four wins, five losses.

Tennis rebounded from its post-war rut, winning four matches and losing five. All four wins came in succession. This was the first of what should prove a successful rebuilding program.

The same goes for track, where Francis Cretzmeier's boys won one out of five meets. New talent and a rebuilding program will make a difference in future Hawkeye track teams.

The cross country squad failed to win, dropping four meets, however, it did place in the conference meet.

Before the home fans Iowa teams won 28 games, matches, or meets, while losing 15. On the road the record was 15 successes and 26 reversals. In all the Hawks had a winning percentage of .511. Naturally the record could be better but in the best athletic conference in the country a better than even break is something to be proud of.

All six members of the Iowa tennis team will play in tournaments this summer or teach the game. Don Lewis, No. 1 singles player, will be in summer school and the No. 2 man, Bill Ball, will work in Cedar Rapids and enter tournaments. Mike Trueblood will teach tennis in a Sioux Falls, S.D. recreation center.

Work will begin July 10 on additional seating for Michigan's football stadium. Its present seating capacity of 85,938 will be increased to 97,000 by next fall. So more people are going to see the Wolverines try and tack a few more victories on to their 23 game winning streak.

Indians Edge Senators, 13-11; Umpires Avoid Player Riot

CLEVELAND (AP) — In a wild three-hour game, which included a near riot among players, the Cleveland Indians last night edged the Washington Senators, 13-11, before 18,000 fans.

Players streamed from both benches in the fourth inning when Joe Gordon strode with fists clenched toward Senator Pitcher Walter Masterson after being struck by a pitched ball. Umpires stepped between the two men before any blows were struck, but players milled about the field for 15 minutes before order was restored. No one was banished.

Leading the 15-hit Cleveland attack were Larry Doby and Rookie Shortstop Ray (Ike) Boone. Doby crashed two homers to drive in four runs. Boone, given the shortstop post Monday when Manager Lou Boudreau moved to third base, boomed two triples and two singles.

The Phils went into the eighth, holding a 1-0 lead behind the one hit pitching of Curt Simmons, before singles by Richie Ashburn, Eddie Waitkus and Del Ennis preceded Seminick's game-winning blow in the Phils' half of the ninth.

SCHOOL MARM—Guam's version of a "little red school house" is a quonset hut, but the idea's the same.

Flock to Island 'Foreign Legion' — Men Outnumber Gals

By THE CENTRAL PRESS
GUAM — Men, disappointed in love, have always been able to run off to sea or join the French Foreign Legion.

Women, until recently, could only learn to knit. Things have changed — now the disappointed fair maidens go to Guam, go to work for Uncle Sam, accumulate a tidy nest egg that will help any future romance along, and have the time of their lives doing it.

What's more, the men on Guam, the United States' main Pacific island possession, outnumber the women 100 to one! Government personnel executives, in charge of recruiting the women who serve as stenographers, clerks, teachers and personnel workers on Guam, say there are three underlying motives causing a woman to seek employment on the island. The motives, all variations of the same theme are these:

- 1—A chance at a different type of life — the "faraway places" theme.
 - 2—A means of getting away from something.
 - 3—An unhappy love affair.
- However, whatever the motive, the girls seem to thrive on Guam. The salary scale may have a lot to do with it — the lowest salary for a clerk-typist is $3,122 a year, free of income tax. Living quarters are free and food is never more than $1.25 a day. Life on Guam is casual and the wardrobe need not be up to Big City working day standards.

There are certain drawbacks — as to all seeming paradises. Girls applying for jobs on Guam are carefully screened and investigated to make certain that they are competent, mentally and physically fit. GUAM ITSELF is hot and rainy — 90 inches a year — and the woman's prerogative of changing her mind won't work. She must stay for the duration of her contract — barring illness or an emergency.

There are also no dry cleaning plants on Guam and girls on Guam are never allowed to go out alone for any distance in the daylight and never at night. (With 100 men who'd want to?) Primitive facilities were available only until a few months ago but now most quarters have modern plumbing and other comforts of home.

Work hours take a bit of getting used to — they start at 7 a.m. and end at 1 p.m., to escape the worst of the heat. However, the early work hours leave plenty of time for steak fries and beach parties, high points in Guamanian recreation.

Jobs held by women range from typing, clerking and clerical to teaching schools, serving as hostesses in government clubs and mess halls. A few women have important administrative posts. Almost all are under 35. Quarters are prefabricated buildings or Quonset huts lined side by side in compounds. Compounds are fenced in and patrolled at night by guards and the girls are driven to and from their jobs in navy or army buses.

All eating is done mess hall style and snack bars operate between meals. Coffee is usually taken to the women workers twice a day.

On the credit side, more and more clubs, both for civilians and military personnel, are springing up. New hobby shops and recreation spots crop up daily. Movies, of the outdoor type, are, of course, very popular.

Four offices recruit workers for Guam — the army, the navy, army exchange service, and private construction firms. All of them warn prospects that Guam experiences — all too well — typhoons of up to 70 miles an hour. However, they have little trouble in keeping their employment lists filled with girls who yearn to "get away from it all and see something different, for a change."

Vets Seek to Retain 52-20 Compensation

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of about 150 veterans paraded in front of the white house yesterday carrying signs reading, "Don't let the veterans have to sell apples." The object of their hour-long demonstration, sponsored by the "Young Progressives for America," was to dramatize their fight for extension of veterans unemployment compensation.

"52-20 must not die," read one of the signs. Under the present law, which expires next month, jobless veterans are entitled to $20 weekly unemployment compensation up to a period of 52 weeks.

Tonsils Wait Polio Lapse

Better Report System May Account for Rise

DES MOINES (AP) — Many Iowa youngsters are having their tonsils taken out about now.

Their physicians thought it should have been done a year ago but the job was delayed for a reason — polio.

A year ago Iowa was beginning to come to grips with an incidence of infantile paralysis which turned out to be an all time high for the state in the number of cases reported.

May of 1948 started off with a bang and the caseload increased heavily throughout the summer and well up toward the close of the year before it tapered off. Doctors advised against tonsillectomies and dental surgery because of the danger of infection.

It has been different this year because the polio threat in the early months has not been bad, according to Dr. Ralph H. Heeren, chief of the state health department's bureau of preventable diseases.

Dr. Heeren said there is no cause to take the polio outlook lightly from the standpoint of prevention but at this time Iowa is not bad off.

Seven cases were reported in April and only one last month. So the youngsters are getting rid of unwanted tonsils before polio germs begin to spread.

The normal peak for infantile paralysis in Iowa comes during the months between July and October.

The usual polio season begins about March 1 with a gradual increase in cases from then on. In 1948 the state finished the month of May with 38 reported cases, of which 19 were new May cases.

The incidence spread through the summer and all through the winter with a record number of 1,236 polio victims.

"We think it looks fairly hopeful for this year," Dr. Heeren said. "Texas is having an increase in the disease and there has been a little increase in California."

"Probably that Iowa figure for last year is not as bad as it looks. We had a more thorough system for reporting cases. We received many more reports than we used to receive from those cases where the victim suffered no paralysis."

"Our previous peak year was in 1940 when we had 920 cases. If we had the same kind of reporting system in 1940 that we had last year the results probably would have shown an equal number of cases in both years."

I'D RATHER BE RIGHT

T-H Repeal Uncertain

By SAMUEL GRAFTON (New York Post Syndicate)

The great senate debate on repeal of the Taft-Hartley act is on, and the first point to note is that the President and his leaders seem to have done not very much more to prepare for this event than if it had been Arbor Day, or something similar, that was coming up.

NO DEFINITIVE STATEMENT on the subject has been made by the chief executive, no fresh explanation has been given to the people of an issue that was central to the election campaign.

Instead, with his customary terrific timing, the President chose the eve of this debate for the announcement that he would not stomp the country on the issues this year, thus lifting even this frayed thread from the minds of the opposition.

NO REAL EFFORT has been made to mobilize or to channel public opinion on this matter; an appointment with history is being treated like an encounter in the street. Morale is low; the opposition openly taunts the administration with the charge that it is thinking in terms of establishing the issue for use in the next election campaign.

And indeed there is the feeling in the Washington air that the battle is being fought for the record book rather than for the penman.

IT IS TRUE that some earnest Democratic souls, led by Senators Douglas of Illinois and Hill of Alabama, have worked out a set of so-called bipartisan amendments, designed to win over enough middle-of-the-roads to get the Taft-Hartley repealer through.

I say "so-called bipartisan amendments" because both parties have not agreed to them in any formal way; it is only some outstandingly liberal Republicans, such as Wayne Morse of Oregon and George D. Aiken of Vermont who have come out in support of them.

WHATEVER may be said in objection to these amendments, they are better than the Sims "compromise" for which administration leaders plumped so abruptly in the house a month ago; they do wipe out the use of the injunction in labor disputes, substituting an idea that will be familiar to readers of this column, the use of government plant seizure in "national emergency strikes" instead.

Government seizure of struck properties at least has the merit of putting pressure on both sides in the dispute, which anti-strike injunctions certainly do not do.

BUT THERE is no assurance that this compromise will get through the senate, or, if it gets through the senate, that it will pass the house.

And the reason for the doleful uncertainty is that the administration has not gone to the people, and has not backed even the compromise efforts with enough of a positive fight against the Taft-Hartley act on the merits of the case.

The work going around Washington that administration leaders will be satisfied with the best bill they can get is certainly not calculated to produce any legislative miracles, or even upsets.

ONE FEELS, as the debate goes on, that a crisis of some sort is underway in the Capitol, but, curiously, it wears more of the air of being a political crisis, a crisis in the Democratic party's relations with the labor movement, or the administration's relations with congress, than of being a clear crisis in the American worker's effort to rid himself of the labor injunction.

The feeling of indignation, down deep in the labor movement, against the revival of the antiquated injunction weapon, has not been given the direct and unmistakable expression which it merits; urgency has suffered somehow in the course of the administration's uncertain handling of this affair.

THAT FEELING did get expression in the last election campaign, when Mr. Truman turned directly to the people, on the issues. And here is an odd point — those administration forces which take too unhelpful an approach toward the prospects of repeal of the Taft-Hartley act are, in a sense, repeating the mistake that so many made during the last campaign, when Mr. Truman was not expected to win.

But the point is that you don't produce these results by fretting over the prospect; you produce them by making a fight.

Interpreting the News —

Russ Seek Peace, Teach War

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR., AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Bedell Smith, former U.S. ambassador to Moscow, quotes Prime Minister Stalin as saying, "We do not want war any more than the west does, but we are less interested in peace than the west and therein lies the strength of our position."

The timing of the Marshal's statement is not given. Stalin may have learned since then that the west, too, has limits beyond which it may prefer war to peace. Patrick Henry expressed it by asking:

"Is life so dear or peace so sweet as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery?"

But Stalin's commentary is an interesting sidelight on Russia's "peace offensive."

Not that it represents a new expression of Communist attitude. From its very beginnings it has accepted civil war as the natural climax of its efforts to extend its sway over the world.

The writings of Lenin and Stalin and the comintern's textbooks for revolution all preach it. The steps to be followed are well defined. First comes propaganda, beginning with simple, transitional slogans.

When progress has been made, the slogans become more concrete, and the actual attempt is made to organize the masses for attack on the bourgeois state. Worker control of industry, seizure of landed estates, etc. are played up.

This is accompanied by strikes and demonstrations; then armed demonstrations, and finally the general strike and armed insurrection. Those are the words of the comintern.

has been varied to take advantage of new circumstances. Under the protection of the Communist army in eastern Europe the Communists have been willing to work through coalitions in which other parties proved digestible.

But the coups have not turned into civil war — only because the armed action committees, with Communist army backing, have been bowed to by governments which were unwilling to order their small postwar armies in a losing and bloody fight.

Communist propaganda also has made it amply clear that the Communist army is now considered a part of the revolutionary force anywhere, that it and the fifth columns are part of one system, and that its strength will be thrown in if feasible whenever the day of insurrection arises.

But instructions from the comintern to the Communists abroad also were specific regarding periods when the tide might be running against revolution. Organization in such periods is to continue, but slogans are directed to everyday needs of the workers, not toward insurrection.

The world wants peace now, so Communism becomes its advocate.

But a Russia "less interested in peace than the west" has given promise through all the writings of her leaders that when the time is more favorable—in depression, periods of disputes between other nations, in any situation of chaos or unrest—the banner of aggressive revolution will be unfurled again.

Iowa City Gets 6 Votes —

Jaycees Attend National Meet

Eleven Iowa City Jaycees left Sunday and Monday to attend the national junior chamber of commerce convention in Colorado Springs, Colo., tomorrow through Saturday.

Iowa City will have six official votes at the convention, Wayne Putnam Jr., local Jaycee president, said. The number of votes is determined by membership of each chamber, he explained.

The local convention group agreed at its last meeting to give $10, 1 from each person, to the national organization for a gift for the national Jaycee president. Putnam said that like last year, the national president will receive a new car as his gift.

Word was received by the local Jaycees that the Wichita, Kan., junior chamber was holding open house for delegates on their way to Colorado. However, it is not known if the Iowa City group will stop, Putnam said.

Those making the convention trip include Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Putnam Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snider, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Spender and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. David Cannon and Mrs. and Mrs. Jack Walters.

Others who went were Mr. and Mrs. Morris Dicker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. William Ludwig, Harold Gatens and Bernard Franke.

Funeral services for Charles W. Bunn, 79, 224 N. Dubuque street, who died Monday, will be held at the Oathout funeral chapel at 4 p.m. today. Dr. L.L. Dunnington will officiate.

Burial will be at Fort Dodge, where further services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Young funeral home.

The son of Caleb and Josephine DeLong Bunn, he was born in Dubuque county in 1870. Mrs. Bunn died in 1926, and Mr. Bunn came to Iowa City last year.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Henry Africa, Iowa City, two grandsons and a nephew.

Vacationers

Should Use Caution This Summer

Vacationers are urged by the Iowa State conservation commission to use caution when swimming, fishing and boating in Iowa lakes this summer.

The commission suggests that the following precautions be taken in swimming:

1. Wait an hour or two after eating before going in.
2. Don't stay in the water after becoming tired.
3. Swim only in supervised areas.
4. Don't overestimate the distance you are able to swim.
5. River currents are dangerous—don't "buck them".
6. Use the safest method possible to rescue a person in trouble.

The commission said there are 10,000 pleasure boats on Iowa's inland waters. Here are some rules recommended by conservation commission for boating:

1. Do not exceed the passenger limit of a craft.
2. Stay out of boats that are not seaworthy.
3. Do not go on the water when a storm is approaching or when the water is rough.
4. Do not wear boots or hampering clothing in a boat.
5. Do not purposely rock a boat or permit any "horseplay" by boat occupants.

Kiback Freed on $1,000 Bail in Assault Charge

Stephen J. Kiback, Coralville, was released on $1,000 bond in police court yesterday morning.

He was arrested Monday night on a charge of assault with intent to inflict bodily injury, after he allegedly pulled a knife on Gene Herleski, a bartender, during an argument at Hammond's tavern, 209 E. College street.

Kiback's case was continued for preliminary hearing in police court at 5 p.m., Friday, June 17.

Admit Ninth Polio Case To University Hospitals

The ninth polio patient of the year was admitted to the "active" ward at University hospitals yesterday, hospital officials said.

The illness of Robert Bentz, 11, Wellsburg, was diagnosed as polio yesterday. He was admitted to the hospitals Monday.

Hospital officials described the boy's condition as "fair" yesterday.

The last previous polio patient to be admitted was Sherille McDonald, 4-year-old Grinnell girl. She was admitted Friday.

Commission Considers City Bridge Plans

Iowa City officials will "hear later" from the state highway commission on the proposed rebuilding of Burlington street bridge, Mayor Preston Koser said yesterday.

Mayor Koser, Consulting Engineer Ned L. Ashton, City Engineer Fred Gartzke, City Attorney William Bartley and five aldermen met yesterday with five members of the highway commission and Fred White, chief highway commission engineer, at Ames.

The Iowa City officials presented revised plans and cost estimates for rebuilding the Burlington street bridge. Plans called for a 48-foot bridge roadway and repaving the intersection at the west end of the bridge. Costs were estimated at $240,000.

Highway commission members studied the plans and asked a few questions, Mayor Koser said. "They didn't heckle us and that's supposed to be a good sign," he said.

Resealing Program Lets Farmers Extend Loans

A corn resealing program giving farmers an opportunity to extend loans on their 1948 corn crops was announced yesterday by Ray E. Smalley, Johnson county AAA chairman.

The program also permits farmers to put a purchase agreement on corn now under the loan, Smalley said.

STOPPING THE CLOCK so it won't ring out the time during an orchestra or band concert is just one of Charles (Charlie) Snider's duties at the Iowa Union. As a university special policeman, Charlie also escorts visiting dignitaries to the main lounge for their performances or speeches.

Janitor Works, Sings

By JOE BROWN

Charles (Charlie) Snider, the ditty-singing head janitor at the Iowa Union, made a big decision 20 years ago in Prairie Hill, Mo. He told his wife they had to decide upon the best place to educate their five children.

Iowa City was their choice. They sold a general merchandising business they had owned for 15 years to come here.

Charlie says he carried out his purpose in making the decision. Two of his children are graduates of SU—one is still in graduate school—and the other three have attended the university at one time.

The Sniders' migration started in the south. Charlie was born, the youngest of 12 children, on his father's 1,200 acre plantation near Bristol, Tenn.

Warm memories of their birthplaces still remain in their minds, but Charlie and Mrs. Snider consider themselves solid citizens of Iowa today. They live in the home they bought on Fourth avenue
