Hoffman Told To Quit ECA

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator McKellar (D-Tenn) got his dander up against Paul Hoffman yesterday, bluntly telling the Marshall plan boss: "The sooner you resign, the better it will be for the United States."

Then as Hoffman vainly tried to break in, McKellar shouted that the ECA chief was using resignation "threats" in an effort to keep the senate appropriations committee from cutting European recovery funds.

"You have undertaken to do it before," he stormed at Hoffman. But, he added, "You are not going to do it this time." Hoffman finally managed to get a word in.

"Nothing I said implied any threat," he told McKellar. "I said if I came to the conclusion I could not administer the program successfully then I would resign."

The exchange came as a follow-up to Hoffman's testimony Thursday that he believes the foreign aid program cannot be carried on successfully on less than $4-billion for the fiscal year starting July 1. The house, however, voted only $3,568,470,000, with authority to spend that amount in 10 1-2 months if necessary.

Vishinsky Presents Treaty for Germany At Big-4 Conference

PARIS (AP)—Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky put a warmed over German peace proposal before the council of foreign ministers yesterday and was accused of delaying the conference.

At the same time the United States insisted that the meetings adjourn at the end of next week.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin bluntly told Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky that his proposal was hopeless on the face of it, since the ministers had not been able even to agree on putting Germany into any condition to accept a treaty.

"We are not required to deal with proposals ridiculous to the whole world," Acheson said.

Vishinsky's proposal yesterday on Germany was in three parts:

1. That the four governments submit individual drafts of a new peace treaty within three months to the foreign ministers.
2. That the draft treaty should provide for withdrawal of occupation forces of the allied powers within a year of the conclusion of a peace treaty.
3. That consideration of procedure for preparing a peace treaty should be concluded at the current session of the ministers.

Sen. Gillette Raps President's Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Guy M. Gillette (D-Iowa) said yesterday that he considered the president's nomination of Carroll Switzer for a federal judgeship a direct affront.

The Iowa senator, who had recommended two other attorneys, declined to comment on whether he would oppose Switzer's nomination when it comes before the senate.

Detectives to Search 26 Cities for Reuther Gun

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit detectives will take off for 26 cities around the country in the next day or two in an effort to track down the gun used in the Victor Reuther shooting. One officer was assigned to each city in which the type of gun used in the assault was sold.

Call Secret Hearing on AEC

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secret congressional hearings were ordered yesterday on charges that certain key employees of the atomic energy commission have been given access to secret atomic data after their loyalty was questioned.

Chairman McMahon (D-Conn) said the senate - house atomic energy committee voted 9 to 8 to hold closed - door sessions on further testimony by Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) against specific individuals. McMahon said Hickenlooper

SUI Seniors Fill Fieldhouse for Commencement

GRADUATION TIME CAME TO SUI yesterday in the Iowa fieldhouse, as 1,765 graduates packed the ground floor of the building to hear the commencement address and receive their degrees. Friends and relatives of the graduates were seated in the balconies on both sides of fieldhouse. SUI's concert band under the direction of Prof. C. B. Righter played before and during commencement exercises.

FBI's Report at Coplon Trial Reveals Aide Helped Spy Ring

Testimony Refuted By Mrs. Chambers

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Whitaker Chambers testified yesterday that she and her ex-communist husband attended a New Year's eve party given by Alger Hiss and his wife a year after the date upon which Hiss has sworn he last saw Chambers.

Mrs. Chambers, called in the Hiss perjury trial as a government witness, had considerable trouble remembering the dates. A first she testified that the party was held on Dec. 31, 1936. Then she changed the date to Dec. 31, 1937. Hiss swore to a grand jury here last December that he had not seen Chambers since Jan. 1, 1937.

Later, under cross-examination, Mrs. Chambers could not recall when her husband broke with the Communist party. When she said she didn't think the date was important and objected to the question, the judge accused her of "bad grace."

Federal rules on perjury provide that two witnesses are needed to prove a defendant lied under oath. The government also must prove in this case that the alleged perjury in some way obstructed justice.

President to Make 'Important Speech'

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — President Truman flew here yesterday for a reunion with his World War I buddies and announced that he will make a "very important speech" on international matters today.

"This speech of mine is going to be an international proposition," Mr. Truman told Gov. Sid McMath who greeted the president on his arrival by plane from Washington.

"It is a very important speech and will be broadcast nationally and rebroadcast in Europe," the president said.

Mr. Truman will speak today at 2:30 p.m. (Iowa time) at the dedication of a war memorial park. His speech will climax his two-day visit here at the annual reunion of the 35th division, the outfit with which he fought in France.

has "15 or 20 personnel cases" he wants to bring up. Hickenlooper has accused AEC Chairman David E. Lillenthal of "incredible mismanagement" in directing the nation's atomic program and has leveled charges against other unnamed AEC officials. Lillenthal protested that Hickenlooper's method of identifying the targets of his accusation by symbols, such as "Case A," was too flimsy to disguise the employees' identity from their workers.

Deer Adds Insult to Injury

PORT JERVIS, N.Y. (UP)—Clark Pounell, 39, Unionville, Conn., is in St. Francis hospital with a broken leg. He said he was riding his motorcycle along a countryside when he ran into a deer. Pounell was thrown over the handlebars. He landed dazed on the highway. "And then," he said, "The deer walked over and kicked me."

Federal Jury Indicts Tucker, 7 Associates

CHICAGO (UP)—Dapper Preston Tucker Sr., who dreamed of mass-producing a radically new automobile, was indicted with seven others by a federal grand jury yesterday on charges of mail fraud and violation of securities and exchange regulations. Named with him were company officials and prominent associates in the floundering Tucker corporation, which failed after three years to turn out anything but a few hand-built "Tucker Torpedoes."

A single indictment containing 31 counts of fraud and conspiracy charged that some $28-million was spent in a little more than a year in an effort to fulfill the 44-year-old dream.

Indicted with Tucker were: Floyd D. Cerf, 60, Chicago investment banker, alleged to have received $2-million from the firm as stock underwriter. Robert Pierce, 50, Detroit financier who served for a time as director and treasurer of the Tucker firm.

Harold A. Karsten, 58, North Hollywood, Cal., who played a prominent role in the formation of the company. Fred Rockelman, Chicago, former Ford and Plymouth executive who was Tucker's director of sales.

Mitchell Dulian, 55, Tucker's general sales manager and a company director, who has been in the automotive business 25 years. Otis Radford, 45, company treasurer, formerly of Detroit.

Cliff Knoble, Director of advertising from December, 1947, to August, 1948.

Insults Exchanged At Senate Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss), openly called a senate committee witness an uncensored "s.o.b." yesterday and the witness in turn called the senator a "narrow-minded bigot" and mouthpiece "for the cotton council."

The witness was C. B. Baldwin, secretary of Henry A. Wallace's Progressive party. Neither Eastland nor Baldwin minced words in the most outspoken exchange of insults between a senator and a committee witness in the memory of capitol veterans.

The cross-fire occurred when Baldwin, appearing to testify on the Mundt-Nixon communist control bill before a senate judiciary subcommittee headed by Eastland, refused to take an oath that he is not a Communist.

Apologizes Publicly To TVA Chairman

WASHINGTON (UP) — Army Secretary-Designate Gordon Gray last night publicly apologized to Gordon Clapp, chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority, because an army cablegram described him "unemployable" for a temporary military government assignment in Germany.

Gray blamed use of the word "unemployable" on a junior officer who, he said, concluded for himself that Clapp didn't have the proper background for the assignment. The officer was not named.

Gray said the army had never investigated Clapp and had "absolutely no derogatory information about him." He apologized both to the public and to Clapp for the incident, and said steps have been taken to see that such mistakes don't happen again.

Gray gave the explanation after Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) angrily protested a published report that Clapp had been found unemployable, "presumably for security and loyalty reasons."

Announcing that a senate subcommittee has begun an inquiry, Kefauver said Clapp was a man of "unimpeachable integrity." He denounced "smeared" of public officials, and said it was about time for senators to get up and "fight" every time "someone is smeared in the newspapers by inference."

New $130,000 City Park Pool Opens To Bathers Today

Iowa Citizens will have their first chance to dive into the clear blue water of the new $130,000 City park swimming pool when it opens this afternoon at 1 p.m.

All pool personnel "will be on duty," City Recreational Director J. Edgar Frame said yesterday. Personnel includes Pool Manager William Boswell Jr., and Lifeguards Rod McDonnell, David L. Brockway, Richard E. Keith and Ed Berg.

Adult admissions are 40 cents, children are admitted for 15 cents, Frame said. There is no state retail sales tax since a municipally operated pool, such as Iowa City's pool, doesn't have to pay the tax, he said.

Persons driving out to City park to see the pool or to swim should enter the park at the gate near Park road and Park street.

Car parking areas (see diagram on page 5) are provided near the entrance on Park road and along the ridge road curving north and west from the pool. Park Commissioner Francis W. Suetzel said.

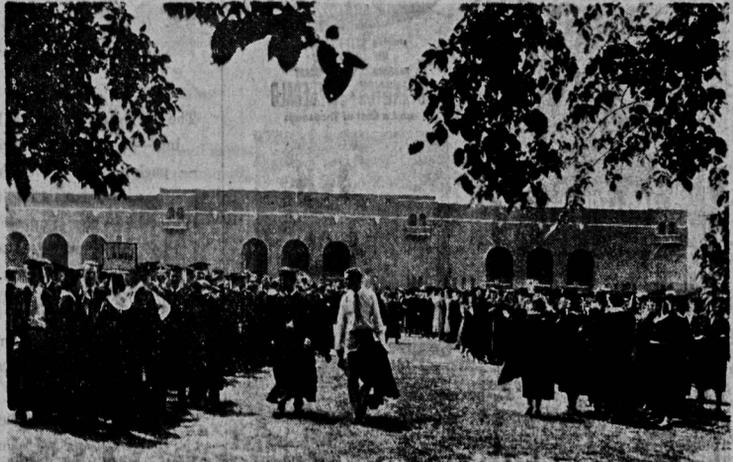

When leaving the area, drivers should follow the ridge road to the exit gate on Park road near Templin road.

The road and parking facilities are not yet completed, but are in condition for use. The area has been graded and all that remains to do now is to surface it with gravel, Suetzel said.

STOCKS TRUMBLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Prices skidded again on the New York stock exchange yesterday, wiping out around $500-million in market valuations. Trading was quiet.

Rewarded - After All Those Grueling Years

EXPERT AT STANDING IN LINE after several years of college, these SUI students awaited presentation of degrees at yesterday's commencement activities. Students are shown here lining up behind the fieldhouse preparatory to marching inside for the ceremonies. Lines were formed and degrees were conferred according to colleges and major fields of the students.

Says School Must Provide Best Training for Students

The largest commencement ceremony in SUI's history was held yesterday afternoon in the Iowa fieldhouse, with approximately 1,765 graduates receiving diplomas. Previous high was set last June when 1,319 degrees were conferred.

Beginning at 1:45 p.m., the graduates marched into the fieldhouse to hear President Franklin B. Snyder of Northwestern university deliver the commencement address.

Snyder lauded SUI for striking "a happy balance" between adult education and extension work.

"You believe, as we do at Northwestern, that the undergraduate must come first, and that to him the university must offer the best possible opportunity for intellectual, spiritual, social and physical development.

"But you know, too, that the professions need their trained recruits, that scholarly investigations must be fostered, and the university must minister to the needs of the community and of the state through a carefully organized system of extension work and adult education."

He praised the academic freedom at SUI, reminding the graduates it was an inherited gift from their ancestors which was given into their safe keeping and cautioned them to continue to protect it.

Attacking "some of our social planners" who would create "cradles to the grave security," Snyder warned that the pathway to a planned economy sometimes meant worse than poverty or disease.

He compared the pathway to that of ancient Rome which, he claimed, fell because its citizens had the idea "the government will do it."

He encouraged the graduates to "make their voices heard in every legislative hall in the nation" and to show they were taught to think and live as free men who do not propose to surrender their freedom.

"If you say something like that to your representatives at Des Moines and Washington, they will listen to you . . ." he said.

Prof. Marcus L. Bach of the school of religion pronounced the invocation which preceded the commencement address.

Degrees and certificates were conferred by SUI President Virgil M. Hancher.

Candidates for degrees were presented in their respective colleges by Deans Dewey B. Stui, liberal arts; Mason Ladd, law; Mayo Soley, medicine; Alvin W. Bryan, dentistry; R.A. Kuever, pharmacy; Francis M. Dawson, engineering; Chester A. Phillips, commerce; and Harvey H. Davis, graduate college.

PRESIDENT FRANKLIN B. SNYDER, Northwestern university, delivered the commencement address to SUI graduates in the Iowa field house yesterday afternoon. In the background are two of the deans of the colleges who presented degrees later to the candidates.

Grimm Out As Cubs' Manager

Frisch Gets 3-Year Pact

BOSTON (AP) — Jolly Charlie Grimm quit the Chicago Cubs bench for its front office and Frankie Frisch became his managerial successor for a three-year term yesterday.

That shakeup was described by Owner Philip K. Wrigley as "the best way to get the club ahead." Wrigley said that Grimm, manager of the Cubs for about 14 years since 1932, suggested his own transfer as the club's vice-president in charge of baseball operations and Frisch's appointment as his successor.

Frisch, also a veteran pilot in the National League ranks, managed the St. Louis Cardinals and Pittsburgh Pirates, in between a Boston baseball broadcasting assignment, from 1933-1946.

Again vowing he was "through forever with managing," Frisch returned to the airways in New York in 1948. But this season he again was lured away from his microphone by Leo Durocher, who persuaded him to rejoin the New York Giants as a coach. He broke in with that club as the "Fordham Flash" in 1919.

Recent Frisch had a brief managerial fling when Durocher sat out his latest suspension. "I felt the move was necessary to give the Cubs another baseball man in an executive position," Wrigley explained. "Charlie will live longer in his new job."

Wrigley added that Frisch would take over the Cubs in Chicago next Monday and that Jimmy Gallagher, who has been general manager, would continue with the club as its vice-president in charge of business matters.

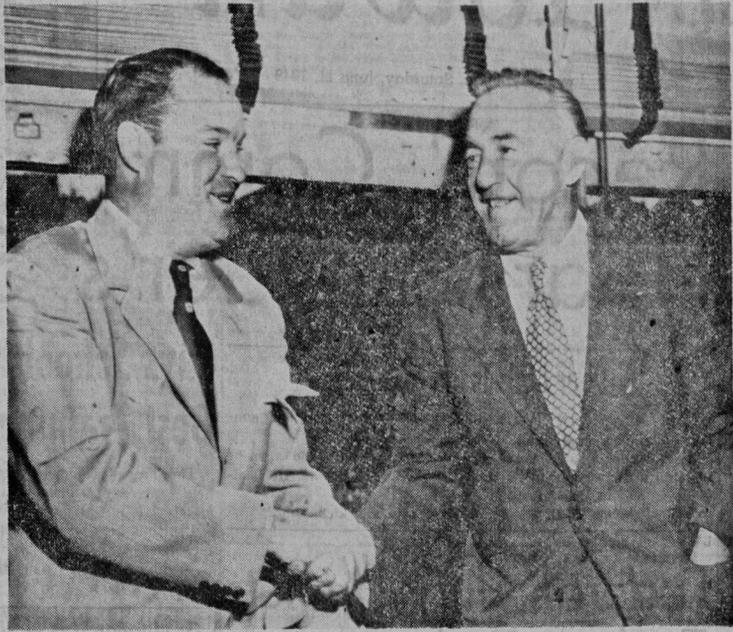

"Charlie was the first to suggest this change," Wrigley continued. "We discussed it for several days in New York and then we contacted Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, to get Frisch. We never would have made this switch if Stoneham had been unable to persuade Durocher to give Frankie his release."

The wealthy Chicago owner explained that he was "not too happy about the way the Cubs have been going" but expressed confidence that the club would win with Frisch managing it and Grimm providing new player strength.

"Frisch on the bench and Grimm backing him upstairs is just the combination we need to get ahead," Wrigley added. Grimm, also 50, broke into the majors as a first baseman for the Pirates back in 1919.

He was traded to the Cubs in 1925 and succeeded Rogers Hornsby as manager in 1932. Three of Grimm's Chicago teams won National League pennants, in 1932, 1935 and 1945.

During Frisch's first managerial fling, the Cardinals won the 1934 world championship. His best show with the Pirates was second-place in 1944, when they finished about 15 games behind the Cardinals.

Braves Send Cubs to NL Cellar

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Braves dropped the Chicago Cubs into the National League cellar by capturing the opener of a four game series, 6-2, last night before a 20,551 crowd.

Lefty Warren Spahn held the Cubs to six hits and had a shut-out going until the seventh. His mates pounded three hurlers for a total of 12 safeties.

The Braves clinched matters by scoring four runs in the third inning.

All that damage was inflicted upon starter Bob Rush, who gave up eight hits in four innings of pitching.

The win was Spahn's seventh of the season against five setbacks. Rush absorbed his seventh defeat. He had won four games.

Marv Rickert paced the Tribesmen by belting two singles after his double and Tommy Holmes, Spahn and Eddie Stanky each had two hits.

Swim Tour 'Out' Says Armbruster

Dave Armbruster, University of Iowa swimming coach, said yesterday he had decided not to accompany a six-member American swimming team on a European tour this summer.

Armbruster said he has informed the Amateur Athletic union, sponsor of the trip, that a "change of plans" causes him to decline the invitation. He had earlier accepted the AAU bid to coach and manage the team.

Earlier, Wally Ris, Iowa Olympic Champion, had turned down an invitation so that he could continue in school through the summer and graduate in August.

Dodgers Clip Reds For Fifth Straight

BROOKLYN (AP) — The League-Leading Brooklyn Dodgers scored their fifth straight victory last night, drubbing the Cincinnati Reds, 10-5. The Brooks won the game with a six run explosion in the seventh inning that Carl Furillo climaxed with a two-run homer. Jimmy Bloodworth banged two homers for the Reds.

The victory was Joe Hatten's fifth against two losses. Bruce Edwards also homered for the Dodgers, his second.

Hawks Card 22 Cage Tilts

The biggest basketball schedule in Hawkeye history, 22 games, has been drawn for Iowa's 1949-50 cage team, including five inter-sectional games and three new home opponents.

In addition to the usual twelve conference games the schedule has the maximum number of non-conference contests allowed by the Big Ten. Iowa never before has played more than 21 games a season and that occurred only in 1939-40.

The Hawks will play four non-league games away from home, including one in Detroit, Mich., against Lawrence Tech. Twelve games are set for Iowa City.

The complete schedule:
Dec. 1 — Colorado College at Iowa City
Dec. 5 — Michigan State at Iowa City
Dec. 10 — Lawrence Tech at Detroit
Dec. 17 — Western Reserve at Cleveland
Dec. 18 — Notre Dame at South Bend

Bosox Lose Fourth As Chisox Win, 4-2

CHICAGO (AP) — The losing streak of the Boston Red Sox swelled to four in a row last night as the White Sox, scoring all their runs on two singles, a walk, hit batsman and Bill Goodman's error, gained a 4-2 decision before a crowd of 28,073.

Earl Johnson was the victim of the four-run third frame that enabled the Chicagoans to stop a three-game skid of their own.

Randy Gumpert allowed Boston nine hits in registering his fifth win of the year, but only Ted Williams and Johnny Pesky caused him real trouble.

Pesky walked and scored on Williams' double in the fourth and counted the other Red Sox run after smacking a double in the sixth. Williams sent him home with a single to boost his RBI total for the season to 52.

Werle Spins 3-Hitter At Faltering Giants; Pittsburgh Wins, 6-1

NEW YORK (AP) — Southpaw Bill Werle spun a neat three-hitter as the last place Pittsburgh Pirates hung a 6-1 defeat on the New Giants yesterday.

For five-and-two thirds innings the Giants swung without success at Werle's offerings. Not a New Yorker reached first until Larry Jansen, the Giant starting pitcher, slapped a single to center with two out in the sixth. He got no further.

The Pirates, meanwhile, had picked up a brace of runs in the second when centerfielder Wally Westlake whacked a home run with Ralph Kiner on second base.

Kiner had gone all the way to second on Sid Gordon's wild throw.

Jansen retired in the eighth after he was greeted by a home run off the bat of Pete Castiglione, and then failed to retire any of the next three men to face him. Sam Webb mopped up, Pittsburgh.....020 000 040-6 12 0

Al Brosch Leading National Golf Meet

CHICAGO (AP) — Al Brosch, a near-sighted pro from Garden City, N.Y., grabbed a halfway lead of one strike in the 72 hole National Open Golf championship yesterday with a one-under-par 141. His steady game staved off two spectacular second day rounds by a pair of veterans.

Six former open champions were eliminated as the field was narrowed to 51 for today's closing 36-hole rounds.

Brosch, who can't see the tee without his strong-lensed spectacles, plodded over Medinah's "graveyard of champions" No. 3 course yesterday in par-matching 71.

The opening round leader, Les Kennedy, youthful pro from Pawtucket, R.I., yesterday could only add a two-over par 74 to Thursday's 69 for a fourth spot tie with Claude Harmon, 1948 masters champion, and husky Clayton Heafner at 143.

WESTERN MICHIGAN WINS KALAMAZOO (AP) — A six-hit inning gave Western Michigan college an 8-3 triumph over Indiana yesterday and the chance to meet Purdue or Notre Dame for the fourth district NCAA baseball title.

Lanier, now pitching for the Drummondville Cubs in the Quebec Provincial league, said he is drawing $10,000 salary here.

Next Stop: New York Giants

NO, BILL KAY didn't take a football to graduation yesterday but the big fellow from Walnut saw plenty of the old piskin during his four years at Iowa. He was voted "Most Valuable" as a sophomore, then second team all-American tackle last year. Hard work in the class room got him the diploma and hard work on the gridiron won him a contract with the New York Giants pro football team. First he'll play in the College All-Star game in Chicago, Aug. 12.

Lanier Wants 'Offer'
DRUMMONDVILLE, QUE. (AP) — Pitcher Max Lanier, whose suspension from organized baseball was lifted this week, said yesterday he would go back to the St. Louis Cardinals "if they make an offer that satisfies me."

Raschi Stops Tribe In Ninth Inning, 3-2
CLEVELAND (AP) — Big W. Raschi of the New York Yankees muffled a ninth-inning rally by Cleveland's Indians last night and defeated the world champs, 3-2.

The victory broke the Yankees' four-game losing streak. Winning his ninth game against one loss for the season, Raschi had been coasting along until the last inning with a 3-0 margin, allowing the Indians only three hits.

In the ninth, with two men out, Cleveland scored twice. But then Lou Boudreau's grounder to Jerry Coleman ended the game. New York.....000 100 000-2 11 0

Wedding Bells Ring for Two Couples Today and June 14

Wedding plans have been announced for Miss Ethel Gordon and Irving Lubin to be held at the Chieftan hotel in Council Bluffs on June 14.

Miss Gordon, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gordon of Council Bluffs, yesterday received her bachelor of arts degree from SUI. She is affiliated with Sigma Delta Tau, social sorority.

Mr. Lubin, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Lubin, 1124 Kirkwood court, Iowa City, yesterday got his doctor of medicine degree from SUI. He is a member of Phi Psi Phi, social fraternity, and Alpha Omega Alpha, honorary medical fraternity.

Mrs. Raymond Sanford, a sister of the bridegroom-elect, will be matron of honor and Miss Marcia Gordon, sister of the bride-elect will be maid of honor.

Dr. Samuel Lubin of Tulsa, Okla., will be best man for his brother.

The couple will make their home in Cincinnati, Ohio, where the bridegroom-elect will intern at the Cincinnati General hospital.

Covert-Schaller

The First Presbyterian church will be the scene of the wedding this afternoon of Mrs. Brainerd Newell Covert and L. Welker Schaller.

The couple will be wed in a double ring ceremony which will be attended by members of the family and close friends. Following the wedding ceremony a reception will be held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence R. Taylor, 118 E. College.

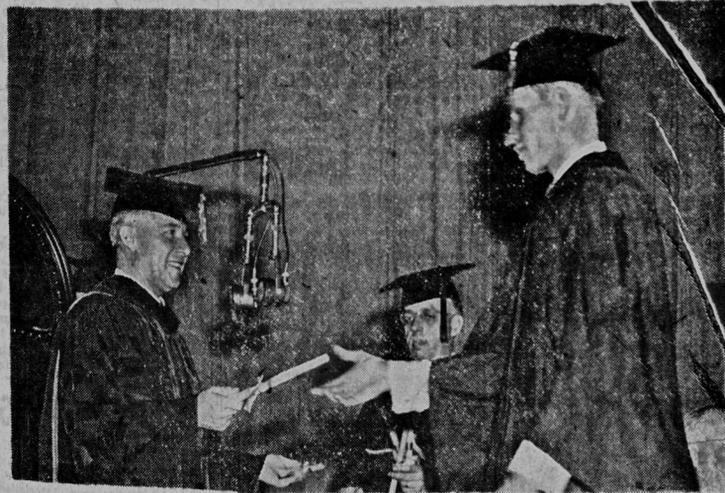

The bride, a daughter of Mrs. Warren F. Goff of Cambria, Wis., will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Lawrence R. Taylor.

Mr. Schaller, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schaller of Earlville, will be attended by Lawrence Taylor.

The couple plan a southern honeymoon, and they will make their home in Cedar Falls after Aug. 1.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding include Mr. and Mrs. Dale Johnson and Eldon Johnson of Mt. Vernon, Miss Dorothy Schulz of Rochester, Minn., and the Rev. and Mrs. Orval Walker of Marshalltown.

Just a Blank Sheet of Paper ...

... But This is the 'Real Thing'

Need a baby sitter? A Want Ad may find you one. Call 4191 to in the "Baby Sitting" column day and place your ad.

Graduates Receive — Genuine Diplomas

Diplomas — real ones — were given to 1,700 SUI graduates yesterday afternoon, immediately after commencement exercises.

In former years, graduates received blank sheets of paper at commencement and then received their diplomas several months later by mail. This allowed the university more time to check all final grades.

Yesterday the usual blank sheets of paper were distributed at the exercises but seniors could exchange their blank sheets of paper, along with their caps and gowns, for the real diplomas at Campus stores.

This eliminated the possibility of students going through graduation ceremonies only to find that they really weren't graduates. Now grades must be in early enough to allow the student to know definitely whether or not he will be graduated when commencement day arrives, Assistant Registrar J.H. Croy said yesterday.

M. Jones Resigns, Accepts New Post

Marshall R. Jones, assistant professor of psychology, and clinical counselor at SUI, said yesterday that he has resigned to accept a position as professor and director of the clinical psychology training program at the University of Nebraska.

Jones will teach here this summer, and assume his new duties Sept. 1. He has been a member of the SUI faculty since 1946.

A 1932 graduate of Drake university, Jones received his doctor of philosophy degree from Yale in 1940.

Jones was an assistant professor of clinical psychology in the Cornell university medical school and served in the U.S. navy before coming here.

Iowa Citian, SUI Student, Announce Engagements

SEPTEMBER WEDDING PLANS HAVE BEEN MADE by Betty Jean Janssen and Truman D. Smith. The engagement is announced by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. George Janssen, Champaign, Ill. Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, Atlantic, Miss Janssen is a junior in the college of liberal arts at SUI and is affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta, social sorority. Mr. Smith, a graduate of SUI is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, social fraternity.

THE ENGAGEMENT OF JACQUELINE L. McDONALD to Harold E. Snook is announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDonald, Coralville. Mr. Snook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Snook, 1320 Muscatine avenue. Miss McDonald is a graduate of City high school and is now employed with the Northwestern Bell Telephone company. Mr. Snook graduated from City high school and is employed with the Home Oil company.

Issue Marriage Licenses

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday in the Johnson county clerk's office to Joe Noone and Mary Jane Glenn, Thomas J. Mc Killip and Barbara Jane Brunelle, Harold Morrison and Marjorie Beatty, William Edward Chalmers and Julia Grace, all of Iowa City; George J. Primmer and Helen D. Balm, both of Cedar Rapids.

Lawrence L. Miksch and Jeanette L. Picken, both of Washington, Iowa; Dale E. Goss, Muscatine, and Zella Marie Gillham, Rockford, Iowa; William C. Gray and Letha M. Burr, both of Lone Tree and to Price Curd Campbell, Louisville, Ky., and Mary Frances Cantrell, Iowa City.

New Students' Orientation to Start Monday

All new SUI students entering the college of liberal arts will meet for general orientation in Macbride auditorium at 8 a.m. Monday, Prof. Robert L. Ebel, director of the university examination service, said yesterday.

The rest of the day and Tuesday afternoon and evening will be spent taking tests in the geology auditorium.

Purpose of the tests, Ebel said, is to provide information for advisors to aid in placing students in certain courses. These tests also enable the college to evaluate its progress in terms of improvements made by the students, he said.

A meeting for the new students will be held at 7 p.m. Monday in Macbride auditorium. Advisors will be assigned, registration materials distributed, and general instruction given at this meeting. Registration will be held Tuesday morning in the fieldhouse.

IT SHOULDN'T HAPPEN SINGAPORE (AP) — Ten shots to kill a stray dog, complained a citizen, is a form of cruelty to animals, a waste of ammunition — and something should be done about it, he told the Singapore Rural Board. The chairman listened sympathetically, but ruled that "only so much efficiency" can be expected from a dog-shooter who gets only $12 a month.

A SPECIAL OFFER TO THE GRADUATING CLASS... JUNE '49

You May Be Accepted for an Early U. S. Air Force Aviation Cadet Training Class

If you are a college graduate, married or single, between the ages of 20 and 26½ and physically and morally qualified, you may be accepted for assignment in the U. S. Air Force Aviation Cadet classes starting in late summer or early fall.

You get a well-planned course, valued at $35,000 :: this includes about 275 hours of flight training, and the finest aviation education and executive training in the world.

Win your wings and then start a career with a future...

College men are today's leaders of the U. S. Air Force. With new and complex aircraft and equipment being developed, scientific research becomes more and more important, increasing the need for college-trained men.

As a college graduate you will have an unlimited future in aviation fields of personnel management, operations, materiel, supply, research and development.

It's a year of learning, flying and time for recreation with a hand-picked top-string team of Americans. Upon assignment to an Aviation Cadet class you will be sent to one of the U. S. Air Force bases in Texas for the world's finest aviation training. Here you will receive about 175 hours of flying instruction in the Texan T-6 trainer plus an extensive course in aviation education and executive training. Navigation, fuels, weather, radio and radar are some of the subjects you will take.

During this training period you'll find plenty of hard, fast action to keep you fit and trim... the best athletic facilities are available. Upon completion of training, you will win your silver wings and receive a Reserve commission as second lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force. Outstanding graduates receive Regular commissions upon graduation.

OFFICER CANDIDATE SCHOOL FOR COLLEGE GRADUATES

If you can meet the high standards required of candidates for officer training, there's a real future for you in the U. S. Air Force. Capable young executives are needed for positions of responsibility in non-flying assignments :: management, communications, engineering, research and other fields. That is why the Air Force is offering qualified, ambitious men and women with college training an opportunity to prepare for leadership in the air age.

Congress Assumes World Role

BY SIGRID ARNE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Because we Americans have been forced to take the lead in the western world, congress has invented an interesting new device.

Three times now congress has voted merely to state the way the majority of the members want this nation to act in relation to other nations.

None of the three times that congress has voted in this manner have the actual words become a law. They weren't meant to. In each case it was just congress saying: "Look, this is the way we want world affairs to go, and this is the goal toward which we intend to work."

In the last few days 90 members of the house have proposed to use that device again. The full congress must still approve. Congress first used the device in 1940. France had fallen. We didn't know whether the Germans would grab Martinique and Guadeloupe French colonies in the Caribbean — and use them against us.

We had the 1823 Monroe doctrine on the books which said that we would "regard as dangerous to our peace and sovereignty any attempt of any Europeans to extend their system" to this hemisphere.

In 1940, congress decided to remind the world of the Monroe doctrine.

In 1943, when the allied governments began to plan for a peace that would stop the causes of war, the congress again announced to the world what it could expect from the American people.

Through two resolutions — the Fulbright (house) and Connally (senate) — it said the United States would favor a world organization, and would take part in it.

The United Nations (UN) was set up but it soon developed that the Russian bloc and the rest of the world couldn't get together on policies.

So last June the senate passed the Vandenberg resolution.

This went farther than a mere statement of principle. It named specific steps it wanted the U.S. to push in the United Nations.

Now, a fourth time, a group of congressmen proposes a reminder to the world that our objective is still a world agency that can prevent war.

They want congress to approve a simple expression of principle which says "it should be the fundamental objective of the foreign policy of the United States to support and strengthen the United Nations, and to seek its development into a world federation . . . with limited and definite powers . . . but open to all nations . . ."

I'D RATHER BE RIGHT Spy Games Spread Fear

By SAMUEL GRAFTON (New York Post Syndicate)

It is not unusual now to pick up an average issue of an American newspaper and find almost half the front page devoted to spy stories, old or new, fresh-cooked or warmed-over. And it is time, I think, for us to lift up our eyes from these individual stories, and to realize that we are in a new phase of the development of the American mind and spirit.

WE SHALL be very lucky if we come out of this phase without what psychiatrists call a "broken situation", one in which it will be impossible to re-establish normal relationships, or to retain the concepts which we have normally held about each other. The spy accusations that are hurled from witness stands and ventilated before Congressional committees may be motivated by intense desire to safeguard this country, but, in operation, each one automatically produces a kind of secondary effect, and that is to pound home the idea that Americans can no longer safely trust each other.

IT IS NOT OFTEN said in the course of the usual spy hearing or probe that the issue is our faith in each other. But it is the issue, even if it be the hidden one. I don't know how much spying is being averted by our great public concentration on this problem, or by the heavy Congressional emphasis on the matter, but I wonder if, in total, whatever is thus being accomplished is nearly as important as the harm that is being done to our customary feelings of security in regard to one another. I don't know the answer; it will have to be worked out by the dark algebra of historical process. Maybe the spy menace is so great that it is worthwhile to blow up a happy legend, to dismantle premises that have held us, as a people, in valid association for going on two centuries.

But I don't believe it, and I feel the time has come to make it clear that to blow off steam with an undetermined charge, under conditions which do not allow for a full determination of the issue, is, even though unknowingly, to pull at the very fabric of the faith that holds us together. I do not believe that this country is pocked and infected with disloyalty, and I believe that a recapitulation a few years from now will show that though much was said, little was proved, and that appalling chances were taken while the structure of confidence that is basic to our way of life.

It is time to begin to treat the terrible imputation of treason with a due and proper reserve. For the dreadful paradox is that if those who have set out to save America by proving there is treason under every bush are right, then treason is just an incident, and the old, loyal America has already vanished, and there is no safety anywhere and there can be none.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

(Readers are invited to express opinion in Letters to the Editor. All letters must include hand written signature and address — typewritten signatures not acceptable. Letters become property of The Daily Iowan; we reserve the right to edit or withhold letters. We suggest letters be limited to 300 words or less. Opinions expressed do not necessarily represent those of The Daily Iowan.)

I have been an enthusiastic Daily Iowan reader for a long time and although I have had bones to pick before, I have never felt the necessity of addressing a letter to the editor, but something in Friday's editorial page forces me to take a stand and correct a wrong which I feel very deeply.

In the editorial on communism in education titled, "Eisenhower: Mirroring a Change," the statement was made, "But Communists and left-wingers staged an unruly student strike at CCNY in protest against the dismissal of two professors."

This statement when read by most readers will be accepted as part of a rather liberal-minded editorial on the problem of communism in higher education.

The recent disturbances at CCNY were caused by the fact that two professors were not dismissed. Professors Knickerbocker and Turner were found guilty by many students, teachers and non-academic people of outright racial prejudice, as preached by Professor Knickerbocker (against the Jews) and as practiced by Professor Turner by segregating Negroes from whites at Army hall, a veteran housing unit at the school.

These men were completely cleared of all charges by the Board of Higher Education. The strike which was finally called most probably involved some communists and "left-wingers" but it was called by a referendum, voted for by the student council (which is not communist-controlled) and voted on by the entire student body! The results called for a strike, and strike they did.

Harold P. Cohen, G
Quad Cottage No. 21

The Iowan is guilty of poor wording. The "protest against" the dismissal of the CCNY professors should be corrected to read, "protest for."

—The Editor.

Indonesia: World Interest Focus

BY EDWARD E. BOMBAR
Of The Associated Press

The best current sign whether the advance of Communism in Asia is going to be stemmed may be forthcoming very shortly, not from China but from Indonesia.

There final arrangements are being made by a United Nations commission to end the six-month captivity of the Indonesian republican leaders and restore them to their former capital at Jogjakarta. They represent probably the strongest anti-Communist force in southeast Asia and at the moment are a focus of American official hopes.

Even before writing off China, Washington decided that there must be a settlement in Indonesia if the rest of the Orient is to be kept out of the Soviet orbit. Part of the decision was that such a settlement is impossible without the native republican regime.

Indonesia also is a show window for the American policy of promoting the orderly transformation of colonies to independence. The United States has taken the lead in bringing pressure on the Dutch to make another sincere try for agreement on terms.

For all those reasons the events of the next few weeks will be followed anxiously in Washington and a number of other world capitals.

Unless the republican regime can be made a going thing again, and prevailed on to cooperate in a general settlement fostered by the United Nations, prospects appear slim for preventing Indonesia from sliding further into a chaos ripe for Communist exploitation.

In four years the Dutch have not been able to restore order, and there is no other native nationalist movement but the republicans in sight which has the strength and will to keep the rich and populous island area from becoming another chaotic Indo-China.

The first test may come in a matter of days. President Soekarno, Premier Hatta and other republican officials are now expected to be restored to their capital next week. Under terms of their latest agreement, they must then order their widely scattered armed forces to cease fighting. If the order is obeyed the way will be open for a promising general peace conference later this summer.

But if the 150,000-odd armed Indonesians choose instead to keep on fighting as guerillas, a new crisis seemingly would be inevitable. Only the Dutch could solve that by giving support to a regime which they have repeatedly tried to upset.

Any doubt about the sentiments of the nationalists has long since been dispelled. Moscow picked last September for a full scale Communist revolt in Java. The republican regime liquidated it in eight weeks, jailed some 40,000 as participants and killed Moscow-trained Musse, the revolt leader. They did this without Dutch help, although it was offered.

Camera Takes Pictures of Blood Stream To Aid Congenital Heart Disease Diagnosis

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. — A new medical camera technique that photographs the blood stream of infants as an aid in diagnosis of congenital heart disease was reported yesterday at the annual meeting of the American Medical Association.

The technique, described as "the latest advance in diagnostic procedure using the X-ray," was revealed by Drs. Wendell G. Scott and Sherwood Moore, of the department of radiology, Washington university school of medicine at St. Louis, Mo.

The procedures are known as cardiovascular angiography and aortography. X-ray studies of blood vessels and the main artery.

Angiography, they said, has been most useful in demonstrating defects involving the right side of the heart while aortography is the procedure of choice in demonstrating congenital defects involving the main artery.

The techniques have been made more practical and safer through the development of X-ray photographing apparatus which is capable of making a series of exposures in rapid succession on a large film, 77 feet long and 9 1/2 inches wide.

The medicine, the doctors explained, adapts the magazine of an aerial camera. The speed is set to make X-ray exposures at the rate of one every half second. Thus, in 10 seconds, 20 films are exposed in a manner similar to a giant motion picture camera operating at low speed.

A technician, they explained, presses a single button to set the apparatus into automatic operation.

"Since most of the patients with congenital heart disease are children it is necessary to keep them quiet during the injection and exposure of the films," the doctors said. "Originally we thought it was necessary to give them a light ether anesthetic, but with more experience we have learned that infants can be kept quiet by giving them a little sugar water in a bottle and older children by giving them a little phenobarbital sedative an hour before examination."

They pointed out that "nearly every child today with a malformation in the heart can be diagnosed and appraised as to whether or not he can be rehabilitated to lead a normal and active life."

new crisis seemingly would be inevitable. Only the Dutch could solve that by giving support to a regime which they have repeatedly tried to upset.

Any doubt about the sentiments of the nationalists has long since been dispelled. Moscow picked last September for a full scale Communist revolt in Java. The republican regime liquidated it in eight weeks, jailed some 40,000 as participants and killed Moscow-trained Musse, the revolt leader. They did this without Dutch help, although it was offered.

Army 'Hires' Robot Worker

CLARKSVILLE, VA. — Push button methods are being used by army engineers in a multi-million dollar project to tame the long-unruly Roanoke river.

Automatic and semi-automatic machinery, some of it so new that engineers here had never seen it before, has been moved in now that test pourings have been finished on the $78-million Buggs Island dam.

Buggs Island is the first and largest of 11 such structures planned along the length of the historic stream here on the Virginia-North Carolina border.

After more than two years of preparatory work on location, test pourings were made in mid-April. By the end of a week, workmen using "robot-typed" machines had become skilled enough in their operation to pour 1,000 yards a day. Full capacity of 2,500 cubic yards a day will be reached by mid-May.

One of the machines already in use is a giant concrete mixer with a keyboard like the console of an organ with lights, buttons, dials and recording instruments.

An engineer hands the operator a formula for the type of concrete desired, the operator adjusts his dozen or more dials, presses a few buttons and sits back.

In a completely automatic operation, the machine works like a druggist filling a prescription. It weights the materials, dumps the proper amounts into tumbling drums, gives them a thorough mixing and pours the filled prescription into huge buckets.

Economy Drive Picks Up Speed in Congress

BY EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—An economy drive has picked up at least temporary strength in the senate but one of its leaders observed that President Truman holds the whip hand.

Senator McClellan (D-Ark) told a reporter that most economy moves—if passed by congress—probably will run into a presidential veto.

As chairman of the senate expenditures committee, McClellan is working on a measure aiming at a balanced budget for the new fiscal year that begins next month. It would propose to trim about three billion dollars from President Truman's original budget for spending just under $42-billion.

"That's about the best that congress can do now," McClellan said. "If the President should veto it, then that would be his responsibility."

Meanwhile the senate for the first time this session cut a major appropriations bill below amounts voted by the house.

It passed by voice vote the annual money bill for the state, justice and commerce departments and the federal judiciary, containing $671,782,281 for all. This was $12,833,821 less cash voted by the house.

Part of this cash savings was offset by upping contract authority—or the right to spend and ask congress to pay later—by $6,100,000 to a total of $68,700,000.

All other annual appropriations have been increased by the senate as compared with house totals.

Senator McCarran (D-Nev), who served as floor leader for the state-justice-commerce bill, said he "hopes to see this new trend increase."

One of the biggest economy tests was set in the opening of hearings by an appropriations subcommittee on the $5,617,440,000 foreign aid bill passed by the house.

Many senators have been talking about cutting a billion dollars or more from this. It provides the bulk of funds for the second year of the European recovery program.

The President originally asked $6,322,200,000 for foreign aid and at first the house threatened a sharp cut. Later it voted to allow at first the house threatened a $1.5 billion cut, later it voted to allow a $1.5 billion cut, later it voted to allow a $1.5 billion cut.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), GOP spokesman on international affairs, told a reporter he would back the ECA in opposing further senate reductions.

But Vandenberg said that if congress later agrees upon some overall cutback of 5 percent or so on all spending, he would vote to include ECA on this.

Senator McClellan said an expenditures subcommittee will offer an economy measure that would authorize President Truman to cut domestic funds from $1-billion to $2-billion.

Then McClellan said congress itself probably should take enough out of ECA—a billion or more—to keep government outgo even with income during the next year.

Court to Hold Forfeit Hearing On Seized Ranch Club Items

A forfeiture hearing on items seized in a raid on the Ranch club in Cou Falls last Saturday has been set for Friday, June 17, according to Police Judge Emil Trott.

Unless the club owner can show cause why the liquor and gambling devices seized in the raid should not be condemned, they will be forfeited to county authorities who will dispose of them, Trott said.

Over 100 bottles of liquor, eight slot machines, a telegraphic quotation ticker, a blackjack table, punch boards and racing bet slips were seized in the raid by four agents of the Iowa criminal investigation bureau.

The articles were turned over to County Sheriff Albert J. (Pat) Murphy after being hauled to Iowa City in a truck from a local transfer firm.

County Attorney Jack C. White planned to file charges against C. R. Schlesselman for illegal possession of intoxicating liquors and gambling devices, but no charges have been filed yet.

no arrests were made at the time of the raid.

Youthful Bank Bandit Amazed at Own Loot

SOUTH BEND, IND. (AP) — A young gunman robbed a small branch bank yesterday and stared amazed when police who caught him 35 minutes later told him he stole nearly $60,000.

The gunman, Luther W. Roy, 22, Harvey, Ill., readily admitted the crime. He said he needed the money to make payments on a new maroon-colored convertible coupe which he used to stage the holdup.

Historical Art Exhibit Displayed for Alumni

Between 10 or 15 pictures depicting the historical development of SU are on display in the Iowa Union and other campus buildings today, especially for the approximately 1,500 alumni visiting here.

The exhibit includes 36 paintings from SU's permanent collection and a number of pieces given to SU by Dr. Clarence Van Epps, class of 1897.

Pictorial exhibits are on display in Old Capitol, Union lobby and in the colleges of dentistry, education and engineering.

Ruth E. Jones Granted Divorce in Court Action

Ruth Elizabeth Jones, Iowa City, was granted a divorce yesterday in Johnson county district court from Evan Maynard Jones, Madison, Wis.

She was awarded custody of the child, $30 monthly for child support and costs of the action.

FRANCIS L. DUFFY writes from Ottawa, Ill., that he asked a misbehaving youngster, "Do you know where bad little girls go?" "Certainly," she answered. "They go almost everywhere!"

In an irrelevant postscript, Mr. Duffy points out why a bird with one wing is nothing like a bird with two wings. It's a difference, as I'm sure all of you have guessed, of a pinion.

Bert Lehr's son Johnny came home in his baseball suit, bearing a tattoo on the floor with his "Louisville Slugger" bat, and demanded, "Pa, give me a dollar to go window shopping." "You don't need money to go window shopping," pointed out Mr. Lehr. "Oh yes, I do," said the son. "It's Mr. Bernay's window I'm shopping for."

Stephen Longstreet, the novelist, has a solution for the troubles besetting the film industry. "There's absolutely nothing wrong with Hollywood," he told fellow members of the Authors' League, "that a short, bloody Indian uprising couldn't cure!"

READY TO SAY "I DO" is Joan Fraseur, dressed in a delicate white wedding gown of sheer rayon marquisette. Thin cotton lace forms the yoke and bodice of her dress. A lace inset at the hips is held out by stiff buckram to give a padded hip effect emphasizing the tiny waistline. The full skirt of Joan's dress extends into a junior train. The bride's satin bonnet, trimmed in pearlized orange blossoms, catches a French illusion veil of rayon marquisette net which falls to the fingertips.

AS THE LOHENGRIN WEDDING MARCH IS PLAYED, Helen Gower will walk down the aisle wearing a wedding gown of sheer, white rayon marquisette. Yards of delicate Chantilly lace trim the gown and edge its senior train. A bertha collar of matching lace is set on a sheer net yoke. The leg o'mutton sleeves are fashioned with a point at the wrist. Helen's veil of imported illusion net is finger-tip length. Her sweetheart tiara of the same material is trimmed with pearlized orange blossoms on either side.

SUI Brides-Elect Plan Trousseau, Model Wedding Ensembles

June has always been the month for brides and SUI sweethearts are doing their share to emphasize the custom.

Two coeds, Joan Fraseur and Helen Gower, took time from their own wedding preparations to make pictorial suggestions for other brides elect.

Joan, a junior in the college of liberal arts from Tipton, is majoring in elementary education. She will marry Richard Overholser, Red Oak, a junior sociology major, early in September. A transfer from MacMurray college, Joan was SUI's entry for Drake Relay queen.

Helen, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. William Gower, 19 Evans street, will graduate Friday from the SUI school of music. Her marriage to Raymond Wicks, Iowa City, will take place this fall. Mr. Wicks is a junior in the SUI college of dentistry.

Ensembles in the pictures were furnished through the courtesy of Yetters' department store.

"GOING AWAY" COSTUMES FOR THE WEDDING TRIP mean tailored ensembles for Joan Fraseur, left, and Helen Gower, right. Beige linen, inset with lace, is the material of Joan's two piece dress. Her cartwheel-brimmed hat is of rough, natural straw with a navy blue ribbon bow. The purse she carries is of matching beige linen. Bright gold buttons shine on Helen's suit of gold gabardine. Hand stitching edges the club collar and pocket flaps. An eye-catching vulture stickup perches on her panama cloche which is fashioned with a perforated crown.

A BRIDESMAID'S GOWN OF BLUSH PINK is modeled by Helen Gower. The ruffled bertha effect at the neck is repeated by the wide ruffle around the bottom which falls from a tiered bustle in back. Rayon marquisette is the material of the gown. Helen's shoulder-length veil, also of blush pink, is held in place by a hair braid tiara. Bridesmaid's gowns selected for weddings this season are designed to harmonize in texture, style and color with the bridal gowns.
