

Cards Take First Place On 8-4 Victory

Klein's Homers Defeat Braves

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The on-rushing St. Louis Cardinals took over the top perch of the National league for the first time this season last night when they downed the Boston Braves, 8-4, while the Brooklyn Dodgers were taking the count at Pittsburgh.

Two home runs by Lou Klein and another by Tommy Glaviano were the big blows in the victory which delighted 18,000 fans.

The Braves outhit the Cards, 17 to 13, but were able to score in but two innings. They left 13 base runners stranded.

Both starting pitchers, Vern Bickford of the Braves and Al Brazie of the Cards, were yanked without retiring a batter in the third inning. Ted Wilks put the damper on a Boston rally which produced three runs and kept the Braves off the warpath until the sixth when he went out with an injured knee. Gerry Staley finished.

Young Johnny Antonelli relieved Bickford in a vain attempt to protect a one-run lead, but he was unable to cage the rampant Birds.

The Cardinals' flight to the top perch started just a month ago last night when they took a 3-1 decision from the Braves. At that time they were in seventh place, 6 1/2 lengths back of the pace-setting Braves. They have been moving at a terrific clip ever since, winning 25 out of 32 games and winning every series except one they split with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Favorites Advance in Wimbledon Net Meet
WIMBLEDON, ENG. (AP) — Despite wide criticism of their court tactics, favored Americans advanced in four divisions of the Wimbledon tennis championships yesterday with Gertrude (Gorgeous Gussie) Moran of Santa Monica, Calif., the only major casualty.

Miss Moran, seeded fourth in women's singles, blew her third round match to Tiny Gem Hoahing 28-year-old Anglo-Chinese girl, 6-2, 5-7, 6-3.

EVERYBODY SEEMS TO BE FIRST as Emil Verban, Chicago Cubs second baseman, gets back to the base safely ahead of New York Giants' First Baseman Joe LaFata (24). LaFata caught Herman Reich's pop-up and tried to trap Verban in the National league game at Chicago yesterday. At right is Larry Jansen, Giant pitcher who ran over to cover the bag. The umpire is George Barr. The Cubs won, 6-2.

Cubs Slap Sliding Giants, 6-2

CHICAGO (AP) — The last place Chicago Cubs slapped down the sliding New York Giants, 6-2, yesterday with Big Hank Sauer supplying the punch with a three-run homer.

Sauer unloaded his eighth four-bagger of the season in the first inning off Larry Jansen following singles by Emil Verban and Hank Edwards.

The Cubs cemented the decision and chased Jansen in the third with another three run drive. Hal Jeffcoat singled home one run and Gene Mauer two.

Rookie Warren Hacker, although tapped for 13 hits, the same number the Cubs culled off five Giant pitchers, went all the way for Chicago. The recruit righthander was tough with men on the bases.

Feller Limits Nats To 7 Hits as Tribe Tops Senators, 8-2

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bob Feller won his third straight game and his fourth of the year last night, limiting Washington to seven hits as Cleveland captured an 8-2 decision before a crowd of 23,018.

Bob Feller's third homer with Larry Doby on base in the seventh featured the Indians' 9th hit attack against Joe Haynes, Dick Welteroth and Lloyd Hittle.

Haynes was belted from the mound in the fifth inning and was charged with his third defeat. He has won one.

Feller's triple gave the Indians a run in the sixth.

Yankee Rally Spills Tigers

NEW YORK (AP) — Clutch hitting and pitching by Tommy Henrich and Lefty Joe Page, respectively, earned the American league's pace-setting New York Yankees a 5-4 decision over the Detroit Tigers yesterday. Yogi Berra drove in four of the Yank's runs with a double and homer.

Henrich singled home Charley Keller from second with the winning run in the seventh inning after the Tigers had snarled the count at 4-4 in their half with a three run rally.

Page, who snuffed out the Tiger uprising, blanked the Bengals over the final frames. The Tigers loaded the bases in the ninth with two down but Page got rookie Johnny Groth to pop out to Second Sacker Gerry Coleman to end the game.

Pirates' Two Hits Beat Brooklyn, 4-2

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Ralph Kiner's first-inning homer with two aboard and his eighth inning single were the only safeties Pittsburgh could get off Brooklyn pitchers last night but they were enough to defeat the league leaders, 4-2. A crowd of 34,670 saw big Ernie Bonham go the route to register his third win against two defeats.

Rex Barney was charged with the loss to give him a 3-5 record. Bonham was in fine form as he scattered seven hits. Carl Furillo got to him for a homer in the second.

Mickey Owen, former Brooklyn Dodger who jumped to the Mexican league, rejoined his mates before the contest and watched the game from the bench. Owen's suspension, along with other players who had been banned from organized baseball for five years, was lifted recently by Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

Syndicate May Buy Cleveland Indians

CLEVELAND (AP) — President Bill Veeck says his Cleveland Indians baseball club, 1948 world champs, can be bought, but that no one has made him an offer or approached him about making one.

Sports Editor Gordon Cobble-dick wrote in yesterday's Cleveland Plain Dealer that a syndicate of businessmen is forming to buy the Indians and would "be ready in the near future to make a formal offer of approximately $2 - million." Gobbledick said George Creardon, president of the Standard Brewing company headed the syndicate.

Creardon, now a stockholder in the Cleveland Baseball corporation, said the newspaper story was "news to me."

Red Sox Smash Browns, 21-2

Ted Aids Attack With 2 Homers

BOSTON (AP) — Ted Williams paced a 25-hit attack with his 18th and 19th homers yesterday as the Boston Red Sox crushed the injury-riddled St. Louis Browns, 21-2.

The lanky slugger, who drove in seven runs to boost his 62-game total to 77, sewed up the game against Joe Ostrowski in the first inning by driving a home run into the centerfield stands after Dom DiMaggio had singled and Johnny Pesky doubled.

Williams' second four-bagger of the day came while leading off in the seventh against Ray Shore, the last of three victims of the savage onslaught.

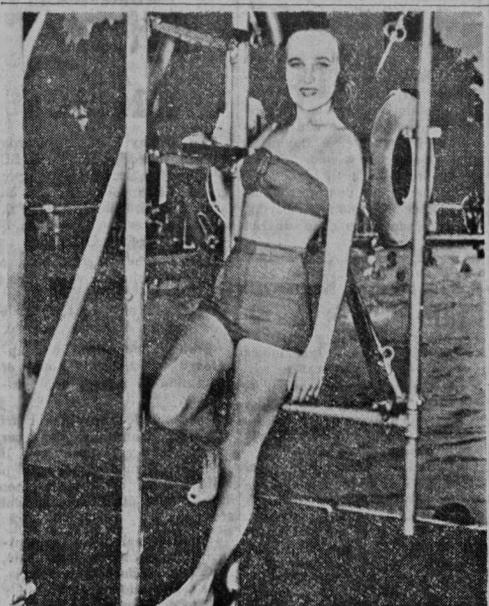

Ellis Kinder held the Browns to five hits, including homers by Whitey Platt and Andy Anderson. Kinder retired the last 13 men to face him while chalking up his seventh pitching win.

Harrison Still 1st

TORONTO (AP) — E.J. (Dutch) Harrison cooled a bit yesterday but managed to maintain a three-stroke lead at the three-quarters point of the Canadian Open Golf championship.

The big, leisurely-playing pro from Little Rock, Ark., fired a 71 on his third tour of the par 72 St. George's course to wind up with a score of 204 for 54 holes.

WITHDRAWING FROM A BEAUTY CONTEST because of religious convictions, Miss Jane Gallagher will not be a candidate for Miss West Virginia. The girl's mother, Mrs. J. E. Gallagher, said, "Religion is more important than any beauty contest." The contest is to be held at Moundsville.

Perhaps Louis Retired Too Soon?
Nobody really expected the dancing exhibition in Comiskey park Wednesday night to produce anything sensational in the heavyweight boxing division so there couldn't have been too many disappointed persons.

No doubt the better of the two second raters, Ezzard Charles and Joe Walcott, won the bout but it certainly is too bad that the heavyweight class is in such sad shape that the 15th world champion is a fighter who couldn't hold a glove to the guy we're used to thinking of when the world champion is mentioned—Joe Louis.

Louis, who wasn't watching just for amusement, sat at ring-side and saw two boxers trying hard—and they were, there's no doubt about it—when just a few years ago they would have been lucky to get a shot at the Brown Bomber when he was going through his "bum of the month" campaign.

That was back when the champ fought almost one a month, putting away such heavyweight luminaries as Red Burman, Tony Musto, Abe Simon, Gus Dorazio and others who received the biggest purse of their careers the night it was their turn to be knocked out by Louis.

Getting back to Wednesday night, perhaps Louis sat there counting the crowd and wondering if maybe he didn't announce his retirement prematurely. Maybe he was thinking of the crowd that would pack an outdoor park if he were to meet Charles for the crown he voluntarily gave up?

It isn't that Charles is not a good boxer. The 181-pound Cincinnati is a good "journeyman" light heavyweight, but when fans think of a heavyweight champion they usually think of 200-pounders who carry knockout ability in either hand. Charles is the slasher type of fighter, on occasion, anyway, the wear 'em down and knock 'em out type. Most heavyweight champs are liable to explode at any time and with minimum of swings send an opponent to the canvas.

Walcott, who three times knocked Louis down in their two meetings, was entirely different against Charles. He was content to back-pedal, flick with his left and simply annoy his lighter opponent. Now that's the same as he did against Louis, but Walcott knew Charles was no Louis, yet he didn't try for a kill the one time he hurt Charles.

Walcott acted like most Louis victims—they just aren't much good after taking his blows. Old Jersey Joe was just that Wednesday night. Had he been as sharp as he was in the first Louis fight he would have jumped at his chance to finish off Charles or at least tried to create more chances to finish off his 27-year-old foe.

Had the fight been decided on polish, Jersey Joe would be the NBA version of a heavyweight title holder. Not that he'd be any better than Charles, but on polish alone he was able to make Charles look foolish at times. His shuffle and fancy footwork, plus being quick for a 35-year-old was nice to watch, even if his gloves seemed to be merely for decorative purposes after the seventh round.

The only real knockdown of the evening came right after the new champ had been named. That was when Jake Mintz, one of Charles' four handlers, took the count when he heard his boy had won. It made quite a sight, Mintz stretched out on the canvas, at least 30 photographers practically standing on him and 30 cameras held high in the air and aimed downward, trying for a shot of the tired Jake.

The fight didn't make the three promoters much money. The principals took away a little over $53,000 each, which didn't leave much of a melon for Harry Mendel, Arthur Wirtz and Joe Louis.

Wirtz and Mendel handled the front office business and most of the promotional work. Amid handing out twice as many "free" tickets as there were seats for such people and a general mix-up on getting the people to attend, the promotional side of the enterprise was slightly messed up.

The only partner who seemed to handle his job with any degree of smoothness was Louis. He saw that things went right in the dressing rooms following the fight. When Charles and nearly 100 writers tried to crowd into the tiny dressing room Louis quickly arranged for a larger room where the new champ could receive his press.

One of the gems coming from the fight was by a writer who didn't see the fight but saw it over television. Said he: "I didn't need that medium (television) as the wind was right. All I had to do was sit by an open window facing west, and I could tell what was happening."

The next title fight, London version, will be in September when Bruce Woodcock, the British champion, and Lee Savold tangle. Savold has been up and down as a heavyweight here for a long time. He has spells of real ability and then seems to go to the other end of the line. It will be a real scrap if he's right the night he meets Woodcock. The natural match then would be the winner against Charles who is now enjoying a three week vacation.

Chisox Down Athletics, 2-1, For Gumpert

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Chicago White Sox scored their second win of the season over Philadelphia's Athletics last night — a 2-1 victory — as Randy Gumpert went the distance to hang up his sixth American league pitching triumph. The loss pushed the A's deeper into second, 5 1/2 games behind New York.

It was a tough defeat for Carl Schieb who gave up only four hits.

Philadelphia's inly run off Gumpert was unearned and it came with one out in the seventh when Shortstop Bobby Rhawn, who took over for veteran Luke Appling, dropped a ball at second on a perfect double play setup.

The miscue allowed Nelson Fox, who had singled and pulled up at second on another hit, to cross the plate when the ball rolled into left field.

Chicago's two tallies were made in the top half of the seventh. Charley Kress opened the inning with a double and Schieb walked George Metkovich.

Then Schieb tossed Cass Michaels scratch hit-to-third wildly trying for a force out at that bag, allowing Kress to score. Metkovich romped home with the eventual winning tally on an infield out.

Owen 'Happy' About Rejoining Brooklyn

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Catcher Mickey Owen, the most famous of the Mexican league "jumpers," rejoined the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday with his long suspension at an end.

Owen, 33, was brimming over with confidence that he could take up where he left off as the Dodgers' first-string catcher in 1946. That job, now belongs to Negro Roy Campanella, with the capable Bruce Edwards in reserve.

"The two best catchers in baseball are Campanella and Edwards," admitted Owen. "But I'm going to beat out any one for a job it might as well be the best."

Owen, who "was" accompanied here by his wife, Gloria, came from Winner, S.D., where he managed a semi-pro team for the past season.

SUI Offers Credit In Political Science For Operations UN

SUI students will receive university credit for participating in Operations UN, a mock United Nations organization now being set up on the campus for the fall semester. William Davis, A4, said yesterday.

Davis is committee chairman of the project. Students can get credit by enrolling in a one-hour political science course, readings in political science, and using Operations UN as their course project, Davis said.

In order for Operations UN to be a project of the course, students just either be a member of the general assembly or simply attend the meetings regularly.

With the instructor's permission Operation UN will then be the student's project in the course and credit will be given for supervised reading about the United Nations.

Operations UN will meet every Tuesday afternoon, starting next fall, at 3:30 in the senate chamber of Old Capitol.

Application blanks for membership in the project's general assembly may be secured either by writing or going to the university YMCA or YWCA offices in the Iowa union.

Students are asked when making their application to state countries they wish to represent in the mock UN. They are also to tell why they desire to participate in the project and how they are qualified to represent a country in the assembly.

Members must agree to attend all meetings, Davis said. The various delegates will be selected the first week of the fall semester by a student committee composed of Sherwin Markman, William Davis, John Sherer, Edwin Lisle, Charles Kin and Robert Meeker. New committee members will be chosen this fall.

Hospitals' Operating Rooms Remodeled

By JOHN B. HERMANN

University hospitals' operating rooms have had their "faces lifted" and their ceilings lowered.

Hospital officials said work is now complete on remodeling of the hospitals' four general surgery operating rooms and that all of the remodeled rooms are now in operation.

Among the features of the remodeled operating rooms are lower ceilings, improved lighting, structural glass windows, modern air-conditioning, improved service and utility facilities and provision for quicker x-ray service.

The four original operating rooms opened in 1928 on the north side were two stories high and contained balconies for observation of surgery. That method of teaching has since been discarded for more direct observation and hospital officials decided it was necessary to change the physical set-up.

Ceilings were added between the sixth and seventh floor level. The sixth floor rooms were kept as surgery rooms and the seventh floor level is now the centralized x-ray department.

The lighting system itself consists of 18 incandescent "holophane" lamps counter-sunk in the ceiling in circular fashion over the center of the operating table in each of the rooms.

The lights are focused to concentrate on a small area, known to doctors as the "surgical field." The arrangement minimizes the amount of shadow during surgery.

The new air-conditioning system provides frequent changes of air. This aids in the maintenance of low bacterial count in the air.

Try and Stop Me — By BENNETT CERF

JOHN VOELKER, the prosecuting attorney of Marquette County, Michigan, has a favorite poker story concerning a doctor who was taking a frightful shakedown when lo! in a hand of stud he finally got aces back to back. Furthermore, everybody stayed. On the next turn of the cards, the doctor drew another ace! Unfortunately, his friend Joe, sitting at his right, chose this moment to suffer a heart attack and slumped over the table.

The players rushed him to a couch where he breathed his last, "What'll we do now?" the white-faced players implored the doctor "Out of respect for the dead," he replied promptly, "I suggest we finish this hand standing up."

Carl Loeb, the metal magnate, once asked his son, "How do you spell 'Mississippi'?" The lad countered quickly, "Do you mean the river or the state?" Copyright, 1949, by Bennett Cerf. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

Summer In Iowa City — There's Fun For Everyone

ALL ROADS LEAD to summer fun! Within a few miles of your home, there are many spots where you can while away a hot summer's afternoon and still enjoy it. Three playgrounds in the city offer a variety of recreational facilities for the younger set and five parks are always open in which the oldsters can picnic or just sit and talk. For the more active individuals— young and old—there are any number of summer sports in which to participate. Two golf courses offer plenty of elbow room for links lovers and a lake and a river are close at hand for boating and fishing enthusiasts. A new swimming pool in City park is available for all the kids from 6 to 60. If you want to play tennis or go horseback riding, facilities are available and not too far distant. Of course, you can always stay home and sit on the porch and drink ice-cold lemonade.

PARTICIPANTS in this game of "tether ball" probably aren't keeping cool, but it is a cool way to spend a summer afternoon. The player that wraps the tethered ball around the post first wins the game. Not recommended for adults—they might get dizzy. This recreation scene was snapped at the Longfellow playground.

COOL GREEN FAIRWAYS and still cooler waters entice many Iowa Citians into the out-of-doors in the "good ole summer time." If it's a nice tan you want, try a fast game of tennis on one of the city's sun-drenched courts. For those who like to have a good time without exerting themselves, horseback riding is recommended for young and old alike. Let the horse do the work, while you relax in an upholstered seat.

THIS "SMALL FRY" wading pool at the Benton street playground is always a popular spot in which to keep cool on hot summer days. A few parents are always around "just in case." In the background, the "Pee Wee" softball team holds a practice session. Any ball that lands in the wading pool is good for a home run.

SUMMER VACATION time finds these Boy Scouts of Troop 34, Kalona, making leather moccasins and bone knives at the Rotary Scout camp west of Coralville. Other features of camp life are swimming parties, hiking trips and, of course, "chow" times.
