Russ Spies in UN, Eisler's Sister Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Testimony of a self-described former Communist that Russia has used the United Nations to "reinforce" her spies in this country was made public last night by a senate judiciary subcommittee.

The statement was made by Mrs. Ruth Fischer, New York City, a sister of Gerhart Eisler, the Communist leader who jumped bond and skipped the country after being convicted of passport fraud.

Mrs. Fischer testified behind closed doors at a meeting of the senate committee on May 10. She said she once was a leading member of the German Communist party but broke with the Communists in 1926 and became a United States citizen in 1947. She testified against Eisler at his trial.

British Sloop Flees Communists' Gunfire In Yangtze Escape

LONDON (AP)—The British sloop Amethyst has escaped down the Yangtze river under the fire of Chinese Communist shore batteries and rejoined the fleet without suffering damage or casualties, the admiralty announced last night.

The escape took place Friday, the admiralty said. A signal received from the Amethyst said: "Rejoined the fleet. No damage or casualties. God save the king."

The Amethyst was fired on at least twice in her downriver run to safety, the admiralty said.

The Amethyst has been at anchor in the Yangtze river since last April 20, when she was shelled by Chinese Communist shore batteries and ran aground on Rose island, 60 miles downstream from Nanking.

This was before the fall of Nanking to the Communists. At that time British casualties aboard the 1,490-ton Amethyst included 17 dead and 20 wounded.

Shanghai Workers 'Hold' U.S. Envoys

SHANGHAI (AP)—A lock-out of three United States consular officials by about 150 former employees of the U.S. Navy continued into its second night last night with no immediate change in the situation in sight.

The former employees, mostly Chinese but including a sprinkling of Indians and White Russians, are demanding additional pay and severance allowances equal to six and one-half months' pay.

These blockaded in the consulate are Walter McConaughy, acting consul - general; Cmdr. Morgan Slayton, naval attaché; and Reuben Thomas, administrative attaché.

Ten other Americans attached to the consulate, plus a number of Chinese, had to stay in the building Friday night, but were able to leave later.

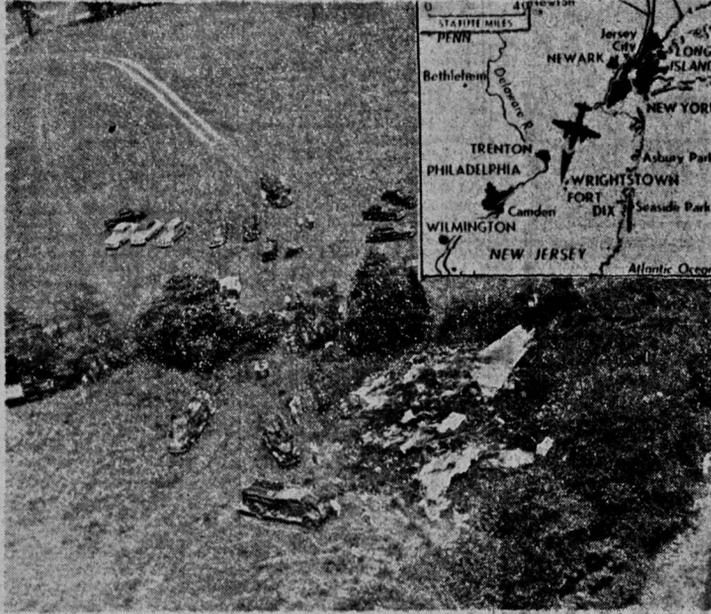

The dispute goes back to the swift withdrawal of U.S. naval units at the end of April, a month before the Communists took over.

The former navy employees contend they were not properly discharged and received no notice.

Japanese Warned Of Swing to Right

TOKYO (AP)—A sharp warning from occupation headquarters was reported last night to have halted, at least temporarily, Japanese government efforts to swing back to the old restrictive regime of pre-surrender times.

In the name of anti-communism, the conservative government of Premier Shigeru Yoshida has been trying to restore the prewar centralized police system, to "depurge" ultra-nationalists and heads of large economic concentrations on a wholesale scale, and to ease off on the occupation-imposed austerity program for balancing the budget.

Airliner, Fighter Collide in Mid-Air

SIXTEEN PERSONS were killed when an Eastern airlines DC-3 and a navy fighter plane collided near Fort Dix, N. J. yesterday (see inset). Aerial view shows the wreckage of the Memphis-bound airliner in which all 15 passengers and crew perished. The fighter pilot was the 16th victim.

Two Planes Collide; 16 Killed

WRIGHTSTOWN, N. J. (AP)—A stunting navy fighter pilot, harassing a little Piper cub, zoomed up in a fast turn yesterday and smacked into an airliner, killing himself and the 15 persons aboard the DC-3 transport.

The violent collision in a cloudless sky tore a wing off both the Eastern airlines plane and the Grumman Hellcat and they spun crazily to the earth. The Piper club flew unharméd.

The twin - engine transport plunged into an alfalfa field and roared into flames, charring the bodies of the 15 passengers, including a child, and the three crew members.

The fighter pilot tried to save himself by bailing out but he didn't get his parachute open in time. His body was found 800 yards from the wreckage of his fighter plane, shattered and almost completed.

Parts of both planes were found scattered over a two-mile area of this rolling farmland north of the big army base at Fort Dix. The pieces rained down through the sky after the planes collided about 10 minutes before noon.

George Humphrey, piloting

the Piper cub, said the pilot of the navy plane had "buzzed" him twice.

"On the second pass he cut right in front of my nose," Humphrey said. "Then he pulled up in a tight chandelle and smacked into the transport just aft of the wing. I don't think he saw the transport at all."

New Meters Begin Working Tomorrow

Iowa City police tomorrow morning will begin checking for parking violations on downtown streets where new parking meters have been installed, Mayor Preston Koser said yesterday.

Both new and old meters are in operation from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. weekdays and 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturdays.

Police Chief E. J. Ruppert reminded drivers there are three types of meters in operation:

- 1. One-hour meters, aluminum standards, six minutes parking for a penny or one hour for a nickel.
- 2. Two-hour meters, green standards, 12 minutes parking for a penny, one hour for a nickel or two hours for two nickels.
- 3. Three-hour meters, yellow standards, 18 minutes parking for a penny, one and one-half hours for a nickel or three hours for a dime.

CANTON MENACED

HONG KONG (AP)—Chinese Nationalists claimed yesterday that reinforcements in south China had opened a counter-offensive, but they admitted that recent Communist successes threatened the main government defense line before Canton.

U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff in Frankfurt

The U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff are in Frankfurt, Germany, yesterday after arriving in President Truman's personal plane. They are in Europe for conferences with military leaders of the Atlantic pact powers and to survey American forces there.

Police Hold Pair After Alleged Beating Of Boy

17-Year-Old Is Treated for Cuts, X-Rayed

Two Des Moines youths were held without bond last night in Johnson county jail on charges of assault with intent to do great bodily injury after allegedly starting a fight with and injuring Raymond Meeker, 17, of 712 Kimball avenue, at 2:35 p.m. yesterday, police said.

Albert Lee Cady, 19, and Charles E. McCaughey, 21, were brought into the Iowa City police station by highway patrolmen after the fight on Muscatine avenue near Court street.

Police said Meeker was hitchhiking on Muscatine avenue and Cady and McCaughey allegedly started the fight after an unfriendly exchange of words and signs with the youth from the car in which they were riding.

After Meeker had knocked down one of the Des Moines youths, the other knocked down the Iowa City boy and kicked him, police said.

Meeker was taken to University hospitals where he was treated for cuts and bruises. Hospital officials said his head was X-rayed.

Police said after the fight, the Des Moines youths drove off, but were later picked up by the highway patrol at the junction of state highway 38 and U.S. highway 6 near Wilton Junction.

Police said a preliminary hearing for the two youths will probably be held in police court at 3 a.m. tomorrow.

Authorities said Cady has an extensive police record in Des Moines.

Newsman in Miami Gagged, Robbed

MIAMI, FLA. (AP)—Two men kidnaped and robbed a Miami newspaperman yesterday, then called his paper with a tip on a "good story."

Forrest Turnbull, 25-year-old Miami Daily News circulation manager, was kidnaped in the shadow of the News tower, robbed of $300 and left bound and gagged in a wooded area.

The nervous robbers then telephoned the paper a tip on a "good story" and gave them Turnbull's location.

The newspaperman freed himself and notified the paper.

Turnbull had driven five carrier boys to the News building, let them out and started for the paper's parking lot. A stranger swung aboard his car and at gunpoint forced Turnbull to drive several blocks to pick up the second robber.

A 'Fine' Time Was Had By All!

The Lord giveth, and the Lord taketh away. The police desk sergeant on duty yesterday afternoon reported a lady meter-violator walked in and offered him a dollar because "the time on my parking meter expired and the policeman didn't leave a ticket on my car."

She insisted that she should pay because "the Lord wants us to do what is right." The officer finally convinced her that the Lord would take him to task if a meter fine was received under such circumstances.

Seven New Instructors Appointed to SUI Faculty

Appointment of seven new faculty member at SUI was announced yesterday by President Virgil M. Hancher.

Vernon Van Dyke was named associate professor of political science. He taught at DePauw university and was a lecturer in the school for advanced international studies in Washington, D.C. For the past three years, Van Dyke has been professor of political science at Yale.

Asks Recess To November

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) said yesterday that congressmen are getting "punchdrunk" and "slap happy" and ought to be given a "seventh inning stretch" until November.

His proposal followed a similar one from Sen. Wayne Morse (R-Ore.), and coincided with an announcement from Sen. Eugene Millikin (R-Colo.) that the senate Republican conference will discuss adjournment proposals soon.

But while congress may be eager to get away from Washington's humid heat, leaders of the Democratic majority are giving no encouragement for vacation plans before Labor day.

Wiley suggested that congress could quit in about two weeks and return Nov. 1. Morse had reported that he and about 15 Republicans were behind a plan to quit Aug. 20 and come back Nov. 15.

Senate Democratic leader Scott Lucas ticked off such legislation as the unfinished appropriation bills, the reciprocal trade measure and the minimum wage bill, and told reporters he saw no way of adjourning by Aug. 20.

Ford 'Warns' Workers Against Proposed Strike

DETROIT (AP)—Ford told its 108,000 production workers yesterday they are likely to be out "a long time" if they carry out their strike threat.

The warning was in a company publication urging all 80,000 Michigan Ford workers to vote "no" in a state-conducted strike poll starting a week from tomorrow.

The CIO united auto workers countered with a charge that Ford is trying to "scare" and "threaten" its employes.

Military Chiefs Reach Europe

FRANKFURT, GERMANY (AP)—The United States military chiefs of staff flew in from Washington yesterday for a get-acquainted survey of western Europe's defenses.

Top-secret conferences with officers of Italy and Luxembourg and with American military leaders in Germany are docketed to tomorrow. The party including Army Gen. Omar Bradley, air force Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg and Adm. Louis Denfeld of the navy has a dual mission to its 10-day tour:

- 1—To discuss the proposed military organization provided by the 12-nation north Atlantic treaty.
- 2—To make a first-hand study of American troops in Europe, the bulk of whom are concentrated in western Germany.

The chiefs arrived yesterday afternoon in President Truman's personal plane, the Independence. They will move on next week to London, Paris and Vienna for conferences with military leaders of the pact nations.

LASHES CHURCH

HAMBURG, GERMANY (AP)—Dr. Kurt Schumacher, west German Socialist leader, last night accused the Roman Catholic church of intervening in the parliamentary election campaign. He said a pastoral letter to be read in west German Catholic churches today is "openly intended to influence the elections in favor of the Christian Democrats."

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet film industry continues to produce three-dimensional films for display in Moscow's Stereoscopic Film Theatre. This theatre uses a system of display which creates three dimensional effects without use of special glasses or any other similar device.

Gosh It's Cold!

Hypnotist Shivers At 100 Degrees

NEW YORK (AP)—Just about everybody is suffering from the heat except Dr. David F. Tracy. He's catching a chill.

Tracy, a hypnotist, has hypnotized himself into thinking that it's really cold outside. He doesn't see any reason why everyone else can't do the same thing and cut out all the boring small talk about the weather.

"Everybody is making themselves hotter and hotter by talking about how hot they are all the time," he said. "If they said it was getting colder and colder they'd really feel quite comfortable."

Tracy sneezed.

"I carried it a little too far," he said. "I've been telling myself all week that I'm buried in an iceberg, and now I've got the sniffles."

Tracy said he had hypnotized a lot of people into thinking they were chilly, when the thermometer said 100. Once he "look" 15 people on an imaginary airplane ride so high in the sky that they nearly froze.

He had one fellow shivering for three hours after he came out of the trance by telling him over and over that he still would be cold when he woke up.

FDR GREAT-GRAND CHILD

PORTLAND, ORE. (AP)—The birth of the first great-grandchild of the late President Roosevelt is expected next week. Van H. Seagraves, husband of the former Eleanor (Sistie) Dahl, disclosed his wife expected to enter a hospital here "sometime" next week for the birth.

New Laws: on Shad, Baseball, Speeding

CHICAGO (AP)—There hasn't been a shad caught by commercial fishermen in the Delaware river in 50 years but there's a new law regulating shad fishing — in the Delaware river.

The Pennsylvania legislature passed a detailed law covering the matter, hoping to lure shad back into the river from which they fled at the turn of the century because of pollution.

This was one of the laws turned up yesterday in a United Press survey of unusual bills passed by state legislatures in recent months. The lawmakers added some freedoms, as well as taking them away.

For instance, you can fish for turtles on Sunday in Pennsylvania after Sept. 1 without fear of arrest. That had been banned under the state's Sunday fishing laws. Gov. Paul Dever of Massachusetts signed a bill which changed the name of Webster lake to Lake Chargogogomanchaugogchaubunagungamaug.

The Indian name is supposed to mean "you fish on your side, I fish on my side, nobody fish in the middle." The Massachusetts legislature said the lake was better known by the long name, anyway.

Nebraska's unicameral legislature passed a law authorizing police officers to exceed the speed limit to catch speedsters. It also abolished the Nebraska advisory defense committee, then enacted a measure authorizing the governor to create a Nebraska advisory defense committee.

Many of the states passed bills banning or regulating the use television sets in automobiles.

Pennsylvania increased slightly the allowable length of busses having powder rooms.

The Utah legislature appropriated .75 mills for school funds. The red-faced lawmakers found a typist's error, repealed the law and passed another imposing a .75 mill levy to appropriate the correct sum of $600,000.

Texas were cheered by a new law permitting them to use fruit jars with a funnel attached for taking minnows for bait. But they no longer can operate motor boats while intoxicated.

The Texas lawmakers apparently also outlawed baseball and football. They passed a bill making it unlawful for any person at an athletic contest "to throw a bottle, cushion, rock or other mis-tile." House Speaker Durwood Mansford said he would "hate to rule on this bill" because he interpreted it to mean that an athlete could not throw a ball.

Missouri made it grand larceny to steal a rabbit at night, but rejected a bill which would have required street car companies to furnish every passenger with a seat.

The Illinois senate voted approval of a bill which would have required every room in every public building except schools and churches to have a cuspidor. The house didn't get to vote on it.

Sen. Roland Libonati said he would have been happy with such a law.

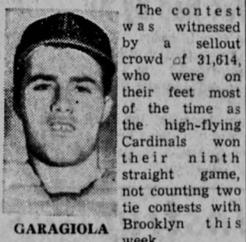

"It meets all my expectations," he said.

Cards Nip Brooklyn, 7-6, On Garagiola's Double

Up Loop Lead To 2 1/2 Games

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals extended their first-place margin over Brooklyn to two and one half games last night by defeating the Dodgers, 7-6, in a spine-tingling thriller, with Catcher Joe Garagiola doubling in Glenn Nelson with the winning run in the eighth.

Enos Slaughter drove in Stan Musial with the tying run in the same inning. Musial had drawn a base on balls.

GARAGIOLA

The contest was witnessed by a sellout crowd of 31,614, who were on their feet most of the time as the high-flying Cardinals won their ninth straight game, not counting two tie contests with Brooklyn this week.

A four-run uprising in the seventh sparked by Jackie Robinson's two-run single to right put the Dodgers ahead, 6-5. Pitchers Max Lanier and Ted Wilks were blasted out in the big inning.

Singles by Tommy Brown, Bruce Edwards, and Pinch-Batter Roy Campanella and a base on balls accounted for two runs and sent Lanier to the showers. Robinson drove in the two scores with his single to right after Peevée Reese beat out a bunt for a hit. A force play at the plate and an outfield fly had left the bases loaded.

The Redbirds forced into the lead 5-2 and keyed lefty Joe Hatten in the third. Hatten got the first two men out but Chuck Diering started things going with a triple to deep right center, scoring Lanier who had walked. Red Schoendienst singled home Diering and, after Musial walked, scored on a single by Nippy Jones.

Hatten was relieved by Jack Banta after walking Enos Slaughter and was greeted with a two-run single by Marty Marion.

Five More Runs and Time for Tea

THIS IS CRICKET. It is a game which Great Britain claims as its national sport, and is similar to our game of baseball. Many runs are scored in an inning of cricket. This picture shows Hutton (batter) making a hit during his record individual score of 364 runs when England played Australia at the Oval cricket ground, London. What the others are doing is a mystery. They are unidentified. Later everybody took time out for a spot of tea.

Browns Edge Nats In Hit Parade, 11-9

WASHINGTON — A battle of 30 hits between Washington and St. Louis ended in a victory for the visitors yesterday by an 11-9 score.

It was the 15th loss for the Senators in their last 16 games. The Browns pounded Paul Calvert for all their runs and 13 of their 14 hits to deal the bespectacled right-hander his eighth straight defeat and his 11th for the season against six victories.

Washington blasted four St. Louis pitchers for 16 hits.

Tribe 10th Tips Bosox, 10-6; Cuts Yanks' Lead to 3 1/2 Tilts

BOSTON (AP) — Cleveland's world champion Indians crept within three and a half games of the American league leading New York Yankees yesterday by rallying for four runs in the tenth inning and a 10-6 decision over the Boston Red Sox.

Homeless Snake Sneaks Title to 'Wrong' Team

SALEM, N.H. (AP) — Members of the Salem athletic club said yesterday that a snake eed them the championship of the Lawrence (Mass.) suburban twilight baseball league.

The reptile crawled into Shortstop Bruce Magoon's glove and he discovered it just as an easy grounder came his way. The error set up four runs for the St. Michael's team of North Andover, Mass., to give them the game 6-4 and the league title.

Chisox Ruin Casey's Party, 9-2

NEW YORK (AP) — The Chicago White Sox spoiled New York Yankee Manager Casey Stengel's celebration of his 59th birthday yesterday, whacking the Yankees, 9-2.

The Yankee defeat, coupled with Cleveland's victory over Boston, cut the New Yorkers' first place lead to three and a half games over the Ohioans.

Chicago Manager Jack Onslow shook up his lineup and the new blood came through in brilliant style. Don Wheeler drove home five runs on a double, triple and two singles and Floyd Baker knocked in three on a single, fly out and two walks. Charley Kress scored four times.

Vic Raschi, gunning for his 16th victory, was yanked in the fourth during a three run Chicago rally.

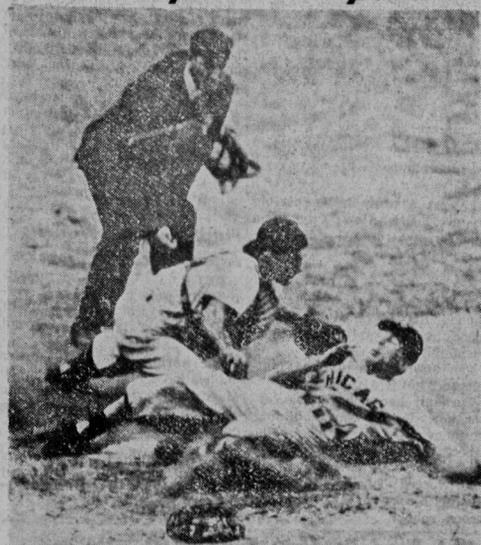

Lefty Bill Wight, former Yankee, started and received credit for his tenth victory. Wight is the first Chicago pitcher since 1947 to win ten games. He left in the sixth in favor of Ed Klieman with two on and none out.

SCARBOROUGH, ENG. (AP) — Jack Kramer of Los Angeles, the world's foremost professional tennis player, came from behind yesterday to defeat Don Budge of Oakland, Calif., for the Scarborough singles title, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2, 6-4.

It was only the second time the two former Wimbledon champions had met in open competition. Budge, who won the Wimbledon title in 1938, was the complete master of the first set, but Kramer, the Wimbledon finalist in 1947, came back strong after a 12-game second set to defeat the tiring Budge.

OUT AT THE PLATE is Chicago Outfielder Herb Adams who is tagged by Yankee Catcher Yogi Berra to complete the second half of a third inning double play. During the White Sox-Yankees game at Yankee stadium yesterday, White Sox Second Baseman Cass Michaels grounded to Billy Johnson at third who threw to George Stirnweiss for a force play at second on Luke Appling, Chicago shortstop. Adams tried to score from third and Stirnweiss threw to Berra for the putout.

DORIS POPPLE DEFEATED

ST. JOSEPH, MO. (AP) — Lucille Davidson of Lee's Summit, Mo., defeated Doris Popple of Des Moines, 9-7, 6-2, in the women's semifinals of the Missouri state tennis tournament yesterday. The men's singles moved through the quarterfinals. Leonard Prosser, Mission, Kan., defeated Dick Mechem, Topeka, 6-3, 6-4.

Going to England? — Tea, Cricket In Season

The season for Great Britain's national sport, cricket, is now in full swing. So if you happen to be traveling in England this fall and can't follow the world series, you may develop an interest in something besides tea — cricket. The game is quite similar to our baseball — except that the ball is a different weight, the bat a different shape and the number of innings never exceeds two for both sides. However, you do play with a ball and bat, and you do score runs, lots of runs. In fact, if you're real "cricket" you might score 300 runs or more.

The British Travel association has concluded that anyone who enjoys watching baseball will get a kick out of watching flannel-clad cricket players chasing a red ball across green grass.

Nobody quite seems to know when, where or how Britain's national game began, but it did.

An inning of cricket may last as long as two days. A complete game may take an afternoon or five days. Eleven men constitute a team.

There are no set boundaries. A "wicket" is set up at each end of the playing field. (The wicket is slightly taller than the one used in our spirited game of croquet.)

The bowler (pitcher) stands 22 yards (a nice safe distance) from the batsman (batter). The idea is for the bowler to hit the wicket with the ball and the batsman to hit the ball as far as he can. His chances of being put out are rather slim.

The game is greatly played up by the "gentlemen of the press," who like their tea as well as their cricket.

Britains have a genuine respect for their umpires. They never threaten them with bottles, words or unemployment, but the game still holds some excitement.

There are several cricketing terms that may catch your attention, not because of their clarity, but because of their charm.

For instance, "silly point" is a position in the field so dangerously near the batsman that it's a crazy place to be; "maiden" is six consecutive balls bowled without a run being scored, and "sticky wicket" (this has nothing to do with the wicket at all) merely means that the ground is muddy.

Cricket is met with as much, if not more, enthusiasm as any other sport in Great Britain. A game will not be stopped for anything — except a spot of tea.

Lockman's Hit in 10th Lets Giants Win, 8-7

CINCINNATI (AP) — The New York Giants edged the Cincinnati Reds, 8-7, in ten innings yesterday with Whitey Lockman tripling home Hank Thompson from first base with the winning run. Thompson singled off Ewell Blackwell, third (Cincinnati) pitcher, with two out in the extra frame and Lockman followed with his three-bagger on a hit and run play.

The Giants clipped Howie Fox for two runs in the second inning but the Reds tied the count in the third at the expense of Monte Kennedy.

Lefty Dave Koslo relieved Sheldon Jones in the last of the tenth with two out and the bases loaded, and got left handed hitter Ted Kluzewski to bounce into a force out on the first pitch to end the game.

Trucks Ends Athletics' 6-Game Win Streak With 5-Hitter, 11-0

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pitching his first complete game since June 19, Virgil Trucks snapped Philadelphia's six-game winning streak yesterday as Detroit romped to a 11-0 victory.

Trucks came up with a five-hitter as his mates put on a rousing 19 hit attack against three Philadelphia pitchers. Neil Berry had four hits.

Only Wally Moses, on his double in the eighth inning, reached second base on Trucks as he registered his second successive shut-out win over Philadelphia. He turned in a one-hit 4-0 victory here on June 14.

Joe Coleman, dropping his second decision to Red Rolfe's team, was Detroit's victim as he was chased during a four-for-five fifth inning uprising.

Phils Thrash Cubs Twice, 4-3, Then 9-1

CHICAGO (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies captured both ends of a double bill with the Chicago Cubs here yesterday, 4-3, and 9-1, before an amazingly large Saturday crowd of 33,461.

Russ Meyer set his ex-mates down with only five hits in the curtain raiser for his eighth victory. Robin Roberts was almost as good a workman in the nightcap, yielding eight hits in breezing to his 10th win.

The Cubs didn't tally on Roberts until the eighth when Gene Mauch and Hal Jeffcoat singled and Phil Cavarretta doubled to give him a four-for-seven day in his return to first base.

The Phillies scored once in the first inning of the nightcap and then routed Johnny Schmitz and the four-run outburst in the fifth. Frankie Gustine opened the plate with a boot on Richie Ashburn.

After two out San Holmberg tripled and Willie Jones, Eddie Miller and Del Ennis singled in succession. Thereafter it turned into a rout, with the Phillies rolling up 16 hits.

Singles by Dick Sisler, Bill Nicholson and Jones produced the decisive run off Doyle Lade in the seventh inning of the opening game. Nicholson hit his eighth homer earlier and Hank Sauer belted his No. 20 for the Cubs. Philadelphia 021 000 100-4 10 1

Decorators Brighten Wesley Annex Lounge

Bold designs and bright colors give the redecorated Wesley annex lounge the lift its decorators had in mind seven months ago when they started the remodeling project.

Rev. Robert Crocker, associate minister of the Methodist church and director of graduate and married student activities in the annex, said the initial step of the project was the removal of partitions between rooms to make a 12 by 32 foot lounge.

Light gray wallpaper was put over the new plaster and formerly drab walls. Woodwork was painted the same shade, while a deeper gunmetal gray was applied to the ceiling.

Draw draperies of gray cotton pebble cloth were selected to frame the floor to ceiling windows of the lounge and conceal a bay window. Pleated valances of cherry red were used to complement the rose, gray and chartreuse hues of the tropical leaf design in the drapes. Cherry red was repeated in gray slip-covers for a davenport and chair with brush binding. Another chair was slip-covered in hunter green.

New pieces added to the room were a wainut console table and pottery table lamp. A long-playing record unit was also installed in the radio.

The Friendly Newcomers, Kum Dubl and Mr. and Mrs. clubs, which meet regularly in the annex during the school year, contributed a silver tea service to the lounge.

The annex, 213 E. Market street, will be open to student groups September 6.

55 SUI ROTC Students Finish Summer Training

Fifty-five advanced SUI ROTC students completed a six-weeks summer training encampment at Camp McCoy, Wis. and Ft. Belvoir, Va., yesterday. The encampment began June 20.

Sixty-five other advanced students, who began their encampment a week earlier in June, completed their periods of training at three other U.S. army bases last Saturday.

The advanced ROTC students who were at the training camps this summer included medical and dental students who have completed their sophomore year and students from all other SUI departments and colleges who have completed their junior or senior year.

Maj. E. O. Culver said six dental and 35 medical students have finished six weeks of practical work in medical internship at Fitzsimmons General hospital, Denver, and at Brooke Medical center, Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

Their work at these centers will prepare them for the administrative duties of a military doctor or dentist, Culver added.

Twenty-four advanced ROTC air science students have finished a six weeks encampment at Tinker Air Base, Oklahoma City, where they were trained to perform the duties of an army airforce administrative officer.

Yesterday 41 advanced ROTC infantry students left Camp McCoy after completing six weeks of military strategy training including scouting, patrolling, and the planning of defense fortifications. Fourteen advanced ROTC engineering students also completed their encampment at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

Public Hearing Set Over Streetlighting

City councilmen will hold a public hearing on downtown streetlighting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the city hall council chamber, City Clerk George J. Dohrer said yesterday.

Downtown property owners will be given a chance to express opinions on whether to repair or replace and extend the present downtown streetlighting system, Wilber J. Teeters, chairman of the council's streetlights committee, said.

The council voted July 12 to assess lighting improvement costs to business property owners in the affected area.

Salesmen from streetlight companies will present information on replacement of the present lighting system. Repair estimates will be presented by City Engineer Fred T. Gartzke, Teeters said.

Contour Plowing Meet Scheduled for Sept. 10

The annual conservation field day and contour plowing contest for Iowa, Johnson, Keokuk and Washington counties will be held Sept. 10 this year, William Davis, soil conservation director here, said yesterday.

The event, sponsored by district conservation commissioners of the four counties, will take place one mile north of Main Amana, about 25 miles west of Iowa City.

Gary Vice Pickets Threatened After Brothel, Bookie Crusade

GARY, IND. (UP)—The mayor ordered police yesterday to protect housewives crusading against vice from the death threats of anonymous telephone callers and the spying of wire tappers.

The leaders of the housewives committee, which organized the picketing of handbooks and reported several telephone threats to "lay off the heat; it's death and it's dynamite."

Mayor Eugene Swartz said that he did not know where the threats were coming from, but he assured the women's citizens committee that he would do everything in his power to protect the women.

Leaders said their two-day picketing was successful and pointed to reports from Indianapolis that four Gary prostitutes had turned up there.

Mrs. Russell T. Griffith, chairman of the committee said the latest of innumerable threats against her life came Friday. A man told her on the telephone that she would be killed if she "didn't lay off the heat."

Mrs. Griffith, a 35-year-old former high school teacher, mother of two small children, laughed at the threats.

"They wouldn't dare," she said. "We're too strong now."

But Dr. M. P. Avery, a dentist and chairman of the Gary crime commission which was set up by the women's committee, expressed concern over the threats.

"How would you like to go out and picket after receiving a threat like that against your life?" he asked.

He said that at least three other women had been threatened in telephone calls by men obviously disguising their voices. One woman was told, he said, that "she was stepping on a bunch of eggs and that if she went out to picket she would be asking for the undertaker."

The housewives ended their picketing of bawdy and gambling houses Friday night and drew criticism from Mayor Eugene Swartz for their activities.

Swartz charged that members of the committee frequent a country club which featured strip teasers, poker games and $200-pot crap games. He suggested the police were doing their job and suggested that the women picket the country club which is outside the Gary limits.

Friday, one group of pickets in front of a bawdy house was approached by a foreign-speaking man who sought their services. He apologized profusely and retreated in confusion when they explained who they were.

City Issues $37,700 In Building Permits

Building permits slacked off the past two weeks with the city engineer's office issuing permits for $27,700 construction the week ending July 22 and $10,000 the week ending yesterday.

Permits were issued for two houses, one business place, four remodeling and addition projects and two garages.

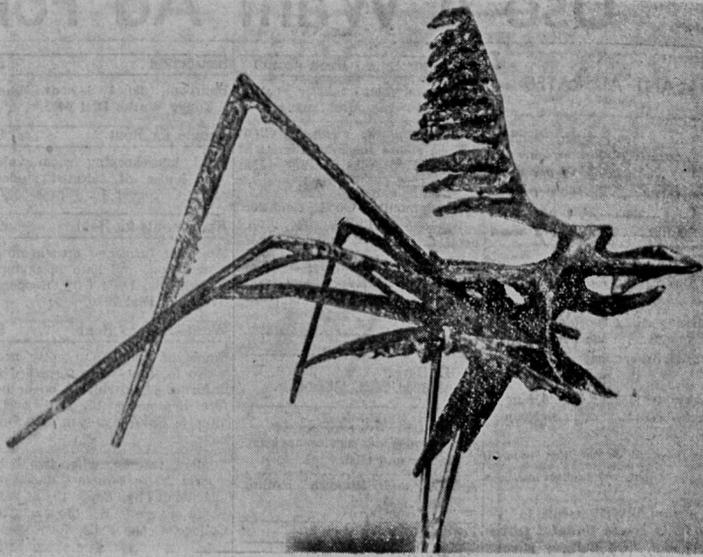

House — Leonard Brodsky, Ferson avenue, $12,500, and Wilbert Frantz, 725 Bowers street, $11,000.

Business place — R.H. Wildman, Kirkwood avenue, $10,000.

Remodeling and addition — Aletha B. Redman, 314 Church street, $2,000; Prof. M. Willard Lampe, head of the SUI school of religion, 8 Bella Vista, $1,000; Ted DeFrance, 719 Third avenue, $300, and John L. Ruppert, 431 Beldon avenue, $200.

Garage — Raymond Bontrager, 717 Seventh avenue, $500, and Anton Piek, 715 N. Dodge street, $200.

Modern Life Expressed in Welded Steel

On Exhibit at SUI art building, 'Mild Fury' by Theodore Roszak

Summer Art Exhibit — Steel, Today's Sculpture Clay

(Fourth of a Series) By CARL BRAHCE

Steel today can be handled as easily as wax, according to modern sculptors.

Sculptor Theodore Roszak has put aside his hammer and chisel and donned welder's mask to blaze away on steel, not to make a living, but to make sculptures.

Rozzak's "Mild Fury," now on exhibition in the SUI art building, is made entirely of welded steel.

Using steel for sculpturing isn't just a whim of his. He uses hand and power tools common in industry because he believes that modern sculptors must use materials which express our present-day civilization.

According to Roszak, the steel used to make skyscrapers and automobiles is more typical of life today than stone and clay. Added alloys permit great control and strength.

Many of his sculptures are relative to airplanes in subject matter as well as in their construction. Roszak seems fascinated with the power and dread linked with modern airplanes.

"Mild Fury" suggests the deadly menace of present-day destructive power with man's engineering marvels. With his welding torch, Roszak has linked the brutal fury of fighting insects with modern form.

The result is a terrifying figure suggesting modern man flying on an atomic-bomb mission of purposeful destruction. The viewer can see the grim and ghastly elements of man's self-slaughter in the steel form. Roszak has varied his structure to include different suggestions of fury, threat and violence.

Although at first glance one might think "Mild Fury" was just a construction of the artist's imagination, a close look reveals that he drew from sources in modern life and nature for his figure.

The spectre-like head resembles a prehistoric monster that kills everything in its path. Four sprawling legs, like an insect's, suggest deadly savage hate. From the front, the figure reminds one of a large spider, while the projecting legs suggest a large crab from the back.

Seen from the side, "Mild Fury" looks like a huge bird-like creature soaring through the air.

Rozzak has used various means to suggest movement. On the left, there is a complex wing structure, made of intricate pieces, like a bird's wing. The right wing is a large flat plane of steel, resembling a modern airplane's wing.

The fin-like projection on top looks like a shark's fin cleaving the water and also like an airplane rudder. It adds another element of meaning with its prominent position, suggesting a deadly power, as though the figure was proudly carrying its flag into battle.

The two lower fins convey a feeling of movement and of cold-blooded purpose.

3-Year-Old Boy Dies of Polio

David Patton, 3, son of J. C. Patton, Hampton, died of polio at 12:15 a.m. yesterday at University hospitals, according to hospital officials. His was the seventh polio death at the hospitals since Jan. 1. Nine polio patients were admitted to the active ward yesterday, bringing the number of active cases under treatment at the hospitals to 32.

Reported in "serious" condition yesterday by the hospitals were Dennis Whelan, 8, son of J. Edward Whelan, Dubuque, and Mrs. Freda Rudisill, 39, Iowa Falls.

Admitted from Dubuque, recently declared an epidemic area, were Robert Smith, 7-month-old son of L.T. Smith; Mary Koenig, 7, daughter of Emil Koenig, and John Hartford, 3, son of Robert Hartford. All were reported in "fair condition" by authorities.

Also admitted yesterday in "fair" condition were Bobette Patterson, 5, daughter of Neill Patterson, Muscatine; Echo Schermerhorn, 4-year-old daughter of Alfred Schermerhorn, Winthrop; Charles Nolte, 3, son of David Nolte, Hampton, and Jeannette Simon, 6, daughter of Mrs. Kathleen Simon, Bernard.

Jean Pope, 7, Victor, in "good" condition, and Marvin Smith, 26, Marion, in "serious" condition, were transferred to the inactive lists yesterday.

Two Medical Graduates Commissioned by Army

D.C. Ivie, 127 Melrose avenue and R.W. Opfell, route No. 1, have been commissioned first lieutenants in the Army medical corps reserve, according to an announcement from the Army surgeon general's office.

The two physicians, both Iowa graduates of the SUI college of medicine, were among 255 medical school graduates selected for the Army's civilian intern program. Ivie is serving his internship at King County hospital, Seattle, Wash., and Opfell at Methodist hospital, Indianapolis, Ind. They began their internships July 1.

Believe One Man Wrote Bad Checks

Five bad checks passed here Monday were probably written by the same man, police said. The checks totalled $129.27.

The checks were passed at four different clothing and shoe stores in Iowa City and were made out to and endorsed by Robert L. Newbold, Robert L. Newbolds, Monty Wilcox and Arlan V. Harden. Three of the checks were signed by "R. R. Snyder," one by "James Turner," and one by Clarence Jackson.

A witness said the man calling himself Newbolds presented an army discharge as identification. The witness added that he thought an Illinois address was listed on the discharge.

On Job 30 Years —

Campus Cop Keeps Kids Clear of Cooler

By KEN CARTER
"If I had a nickel for every student I've known, I could retire with plenty," says George Thomas, the 58-year-old campus policeman who has watched over SUI for 30 successive years.

George is visible proof that you needn't be president to have a university for your charge. He has kept vigil here so long, he has become an institution himself.

He came to SUI in 1919 and until last year he put in six 10-hour days a week as guardian of both east and west campus.

Now another person, Earl Stoner, has charge of the west campus and the work week has been cut to 44 hours. "That is, if we aren't needed at special times," George says.

George is a familiar sight making his daily patrol. He starts work early and goes home at about 4 p.m. A complaint to check there, a report to make there, a situation to smooth out elsewhere, and the end of another day.

Asked how far he can go in keeping trouble from the SUI door, George says he has the authority of a regular city policeman. Does he give parking tickets? "Oh, once in awhile." Does he make arrests? "Yes, but not too often."

"We never have very serious trouble," he says. "If you try to cooperate with the boys, they'll cooperate in return."

When reminded that the university also has women students, he has little to say.

It might be thought that professional jealousy would cause a rift with Iowa City police, but that isn't true according to George. He and the city department willingly cooperate whenever the need arises.

"We have nothing to fight about," he says, "and we've always gotten along fine."

Who is This Woman?

Who is This Woman?

SUI GUARDIAN FOR 30 YEARS is the record of University Policeman George Thomas, shown here giving a warning or "courtesy" ticket to an illegally parked motorist. Thomas has full police authority on university property, but says little serious trouble occurs. He says, "If you cooperate with the boys, they'll cooperate in return."

Iowa City to Have One Visiting Nurse

A visiting nurse for Iowa City will be hired sometime next week. Mrs. Benton W. Smith, secretary-treasurer of the Iowa City Visiting Nurse association, reported.

The board of directors did not make a decision Friday because several applications for the position had not yet been returned, Mrs. Smith said.

Present plans of the recently-formed, non-profit association are to hire one nurse to help carry out the organizations program of advancing individual and community health. Later they may hire a second nurse.
