Cards Fall

St. Louis' lead over Brooklyn was reduced to a single game Tuesday night as Pittsburgh beat the Cards, 6-4. Vic Raschi and Joe Dobson pitched the Yankees and Red Sox to victories. (Stories on Page 2)

Talk Step-Up In Production Of A-Bombs

WASHINGTON (AP) — A swift step-up in American production of atomic bombs was discussed Tuesday night as congress pushed action on a $1,314,010,000 arms aid program to bolster non-Communist nations.

Simultaneously, military planners were reported intent on speeding development of an atomic engine for airplanes.

Chairman Brien McMahon (D-Conn) told newsmen the senate-house atomic committee may discuss the question of expanding American A-bomb production with members of the atomic energy commission today.

McMahon said Russia's advances in the atomic field may lead to requests that congress provide more funds for the U.S. atomic weapons program.

Obviously spurred by news of the Soviet explosion, a senate-house committee reached final agreement on the huge global-arms-aid program and prepared to rush the $1,314,010,000 legislation to the White House.

Chairman John Kee (D-WVa) of the house foreign affairs committee said he expects to ask for a vote in the house today.

Meanwhile, military men said efforts to develop an atom-powered airplane capable of spanning vast distances at tremendous speed may be expanded now that it is clear Russia has the A-bomb.

State Attorney Will Oppose Anderson's Return to Anamosa

A motion has been filed in district court here to set aside a ruling which would return Oscar Anderson, 59-year-old ex-steepie jack to the men's reformatory at Anamosa.

Robert L. Larson, Iowa attorney general, and his assistant, Clarence A. Kading, filed the motion to set aside District Judge Harold D. Evans' order of Sept. 21 that Anderson should be returned to the insane ward at Anamosa.

In October, 1948, Anderson was declared insane by a district court jury here and sent to the insane ward at Anamosa. He had been charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with the near-fatal shooting of Clifford Kelly, Iowa City, last October.

Last June Anderson was returned to the county jail here after Foss Davis, Anamosa warden, declared Anderson was found sane.

Mother, Quads Die In Chicago Hospital

CHICAGO (AP) — A woman who wasn't sure she was pregnant was dead Tuesday with her newborn quadruplets. The last survivor, a tiny girl whose weight was estimated at not much more than a pound, died in an incubator at 2 p.m.

The babies were born three to four months prematurely. The mother, Mrs. Bernice Ecker, 33, gave birth to the babies last night in Holy Cross hospital. She was rushed there by her brother, Francis Fitzgerald, 30, who was visiting at his sister's home.

Mrs. Ecker's husband, Vernon, a truck driver, was at work. He did not know for sure Mrs. Ecker was expecting and had planned to take her to a doctor Friday to find out. Mrs. Ecker has two daughters and a son by a previous marriage.

The first two babies, a boy and girl, were born at 8:55 and 9 p.m. The boy died at 7 a.m. Tuesday. Another boy was still-born at 9:10 p.m. A second girl, born at 9:15 p.m., died at 11:46 p.m., six minutes after the death of her mother.

A staff physician at the hospital said acute anemia was the chief cause of the mother's death. He said she had not had medical attention during her period of pregnancy.

He quoted Mrs. Ecker's husband as saying she was "afraid of doctors." Mrs. Ecker worked until last month as a laborer in a paint factory. She left her job because of severe bleeding attacks.

She suffered a similar attack Monday night when her brother took her to the hospital. Fitzgerald said his sister told him that if she were pregnant, she expected to give birth in December or January.

Mrs. Ecker was divorced in 1944 from Fred Kwiatkowski. She won custody of their children, Mary, 11, Fred, 10 and Anna Mae, 8. The children lived with the Ecker's.

Ecker's former marriage also ended in divorce. His son, Vernon Jr., was awarded to Ecker's divorced wife, Rita.

China Requests UN To Censure Russia

LAKE SUCCESS (AP) — Nationalist China charged Tuesday the Soviet Union is threatening the independence and territory of China and the peace of the whole Orient.

China's chief delegate, T.F. Tsiang, called for a moral judgment by the United Nations assembly against the Russians.

Tsiang told the assembly last week the Russians are directing and backing the Chinese Communists against whom his government is fighting for its life.

In the formal complaint lodged Tuesday with the general assembly, Tsiang said also that Russia had violated a 1945 treaty of friendship and alliance with the Kuomintang government.

The 14-nation steering committee will meet at 3:30 p.m. today and a battle between Tsiang and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinski is assured at that time. The committee must recommend to the 59-nation general assembly whether to take up the case.

Judge Evans then heard arguments from both sides and ruled that Anderson should be returned to Anamosa until there is "competent evidence" of his sanity.

The motion filed Tuesday by the attorney general states: "It appears from the ruling (by Judge Evans) that there was a misunderstanding as to the status of the attorney general's interest in this matter and his right to be heard as representing the state of Iowa, the board of control of state institutions, and Foss Davis, warden at the men's reformatory."

The court did not consider the fact that when the county attorney's motion was set for hearing, the judge ordered a notice be served on the attorney general the court exceeded its jurisdiction and the Anamosa warden.

Larson's motion charged that when it ruled that Anderson be returned to Anamosa, and that the decision is contrary to law.

WELLMAN (AP) — Myron Levy, Kalona, was killed Tuesday when a piece of metal from a broken farm vehicle struck him in the head.

The vehicle broke down two miles east of here and a flying bit fractured his skull.

Minton Faces Questioning by Senate Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — Judge Sherman Minton was summoned Tuesday to explain his role in the 1937 "court packing" incident to the senate judiciary committee which is considering his qualifications as an associate supreme court justice.

The action, highly unusual, came on a 5 to 4 vote after the former Indiana senator's political philosophies were both questioned and defended. Supreme court nominees, particularly former senate members, traditionally receive committee approval without personal questioning.

Minton, nominated by President Truman to succeed the late Justice Wiley Rutledge, is recovering from a leg fracture suffered four weeks ago. It was uncertain when he will appear.

Senate Democratic Leader Scott Lucas, who acted as Minton's principal defender, said he is "sure" the former senator's views have become more mature as a result of his years of experience on the U.S. circuit court of appeals in Chicago.

Lucas agreed with GOP committee members, however, that the division between Republicans and Democrats on the court should be "pretty close to a balance." Ferguson had complained that all of Truman's judicial appointees were Democrats.

Associate Justice Harold Burton is the only Republican on the present court.

Five Air Disasters Kill 62 in 2 Days

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Five plane crashes in widely scattered parts of the world in the last two days apparently have taken 62 lives.

A government-owned commercial airliner carrying 25 persons crashed in flames Tuesday night, 155 miles west of Buenos Aires. First reports said eight were killed and 17 injured.

The plane carried an Argentine relief mission returning from Ecuador's earthquake-devastated area. Mrs. Eva Peron, wife of Argentina's president, was at the Buenos Aires airport awaiting the mission's arrival.

Twenty-five persons, two of them possibly Americans, were believed to have died in the wreckage of a Mexican airliner in snow at the 15,000-foot level of Popocatepetl volcano.

Ground parties were climbing slowly to the airliner. A search pilot saw it but reported no sign of life visible.

A B-29 airforce bomber from Smoky Hill base, Salina, Kan., crashed and burned near Tallihina, Okla., on a training flight.

The wreckage yielded 13 bodies. A collision of two RAF bombers caused 12 deaths in central England. Two other airmen aboard the plane were missing. The accident marred exercises designed to test western European air defenses.

A crash of a single engine plane near Heiskell, Tenn., killed 20 University of Tennessee students.

Administration Pushes Truman's Aid Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration urged congress Tuesday to approve President Truman's four-point program to help undeveloped areas of the world before it adjourns this year.

Acting Secretary of State James Webb told the house foreign affairs committee it would be a "major step toward accomplishing our objective of stable world conditions." It would stimulate world trade and open up new markets for American goods, he said.

In answer to questions by committee members, Webb said the program might run as long as 50 years.

It Was a 'Horrible' Trick

THE PRANK BACKFIRED for Charles Berndt, 16-year-old Schurz high school student of Chicago, when he donned this nasty looking get-up and tried to scare people Monday. Several women chased and held him until the police arrived. He was taken to the juvenile home and turned over to his father. To make his troubles worse, he was playing hockey at the time.

Rail Workers Threaten Strike

A nationwide railroad strike was threatened Tuesday night as the steel dispute became more critical and violence spread in the strike-bound coal fields.

David B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, said his union may go on strike against "every major railroad in the country next month. He said the object of a strike would be to "secure safety on the railroad."

Iron ore miners, belonging to the CIO steelworkers, issued a strike call for midnight today as CIO Leader Philip Murray and U.S. steel officials indicated no progress in their pension dispute. That strike deadline is Friday midnight.

All available state troopers moved into five western Pennsylvania mining counties. Some non-union coal miners armed themselves for protection against strikers forays. Forty pickets were arrested, as the United Mine Workers prepared to renew talks with southern coal operators today.

The CIO union ordered 19,000 iron miners in Minnesota and Michigan to walk off the job Wednesday midnight when bargaining extensions with all the mining companies, except Inland Steel, expire.

In the railroad strike threat, Robertson said the Firemen's union rejects the findings of a presidential fact-finding board that an extra man is not needed to man Diesel engines. Robertson told the United Press 110,000 members are ready to back up their demands.

Roving pickets stoned trucks in Pennsylvania areas and massed against non-striking mines in West Virginia.

In the threatened strike against Ford Motor company, a company official confirmed for the first time that a definite pension offer has been made. Executive Vice - President Ernest R. Breech indicated that the auto firm has offered 8 3-4 cents toward pensions, and will not go over the 10-cent figure in the steel dispute.

Ford and CIO Auto Workers union negotiators reportedly laid separate settlement proposals on the bargaining table, and it was believed possible that a scheduled mining companies, except inland by an agreement to extend bargaining sessions.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor government announced Tuesday that it would increase profits taxes five percent and freeze all forms of income in a desperate effort to "hold the line" against inflation.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps told the house of commons that "mass unemployment and poverty" were Britain's only alternatives to continued austerity and an expanded "soak the rich" program.

Cripps opened a special three-day session of parliament, called to debate the devaluation of the pound sterling from $4.03 to $2.80—a move which touched off a world-wide "chain reaction" of devaluations. Impartial observers commended that the speech was more political than economic—a possible prelude to an early general election.

At the end of the chancellor's 80-minute speech, the government introduced a formal motion calling for a virtual vote of confidence on the devaluation issue. The conservative opposition declared it had "no confidence" in the government, and appealed to parliament as a whole to vote against its policies. The liberal party and a "rebel" faction on Labor's side of the house also announced plans to oppose the government.

Drys Triumph In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (UP) — Oklahoma's militant dries crushed another attempt to repeal the state's prohibition laws Tuesday, scoring their sixth solid victory since statehood in 1907.

Temperance leaders immediately mentioned plans for a campaign to ban 3.2 beer from the state — a beverage which was legally defined as "non-intoxicating" in Oklahoma back in 1933.

Leaders of the pro-repeal Oklahoma economic institute, who staged the biggest campaign to legalize liquor the state has yet seen, reluctantly indicated they were beaten as dries gained a 51.31 vote margin with only 389 of the state's 3,701 precincts uncounted.

Leaders of the united dries issued a statement thanking God for their victory. Dries had staged 24-hour-long prayer meetings before polls opened to ask for divine help.

Rev. Roy S. Hollomon, executive secretary of the dries, hinted that the dries' previously-announced plans to campaign against beer if they won Tuesday would go into effect automatically.

"We are now working on a definite program of education and law enforcement to be submitted at another date," Hollomon said. He said the OEI should now use its statewide organization to help enforce the dry laws. The wets had loudly accused the dries of playing into the hands of the state's flourishing bootleg liquor traffic.

"The OEI had deplored enforcement," Hollomon said. "We now call upon the organization and every individual who sincerely voted wet to join us with the state, county and city officials in ridding our state of bootleggers and the evils of whisky traffic."

DES MOINES (AP) — The department of internal revenue office Tuesday reported 2,910 persons, firms, clubs, or fraternal organizations; hold federal retail liquor dealer occupation tax stamps.

The revenue office added occupation tax stamps for 3,501 slot machines were held by 893 persons.

The cost of a retail liquor dealer's stamp is $27.50 per fiscal year, and $100 is the annual fee for each slot machine stamp.

Vacationing Stassen Late for School

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Daily Pennsylvanian, the university's student publication, wondered editorially Tuesday if President Harold Stassen "unnecessarily missed the opening bell of the school bell."

Enumerating Stassen's summer trips to Maine and a fishing trip, the editorial counted the president's London trip his "third vacation" this year.

The editorial concluded "all good things must come to an end. Dr. Stassen has had three jaunts lasting well over two months—ample, even for a freshman."

Stassen, former Minnesota governor, was named president of the university last year.

BUTTERWORTH CONFIRMED WASHINGTON (AP) — The senate Tuesday confirmed the appointment of W. Walton Butterworth as assistant secretary of state four months after he was named to the post. The vote was 49 to 27.

Abandoned Car Linked to Robbery

THE GETAWAY CAR, a 1949 maroon Mercury, used by the three young bandits who held up the Reliable Loan company Monday afternoon, was found abandoned Tuesday morning one-half mile west of Solon, police said. Price tags from one of the stolen guns were found in the car, authorities said. Deputy Sheriff Don Wilson is parking inspecting the car which was stolen Monday in Dubuque, police said. The car was towed to the showing lot behind the court house.

Other valuable objects removed, police believe the hold-up men may try to use them on another vehicle.

After the car was towed into Iowa City, Assistant Police Chief Joe Dolezal and Officer Harland Sprinkle made a careful inspection for fingerprints and other evidence.

The robbers seemed to have changed a flat tire, according to the evidence. There was a sand burr in the car which police believe was tracked into the car when the tire was changed. The keys were not removed from the car.

Britain Boosts Profits Taxes

LONDON (AP) — The Labor government announced Tuesday that it would increase profits taxes five percent and freeze all forms of income in a desperate effort to "hold the line" against inflation.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps told the house of commons that "mass unemployment and poverty" were Britain's only alternatives to continued austerity and an expanded "soak the rich" program.

Cripps opened a special three-day session of parliament, called to debate the devaluation of the pound sterling from $4.03 to $2.80—a move which touched off a world-wide "chain reaction" of devaluations. Impartial observers commended that the speech was more political than economic—a possible prelude to an early general election.

At the end of the chancellor's 80-minute speech, the government introduced a formal motion calling for a virtual vote of confidence on the devaluation issue.

The conservative opposition declared it had "no confidence" in the government, and appealed to parliament as a whole to vote against its policies. The liberal party and a "rebel" faction on Labor's side of the house also announced plans to oppose the government.

Conservative Leader Winston Churchill will take up the attack today. He is expected to propose an amendment to the government's "confidence" motion, blaming devaluation on government "mismanagement."

The vote, which would determine whether the election must call an immediate election, was expected Thursday.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman will fly to St. Louis today and to Kansas City later in an airforce Constellation.

His own plane, The Independence, now is at the Douglas Aircraft plant in California for a regular 1,000-hour checkup.

Yanks, Boston Win; Margin Unchanged

Raschi Notches 20th Over A's

NEW YORK (AP)— Still boiling with a charge that Umpire Bill Grieve "blew" the big decision in Monday's game with Boston, the New York Yankees kept their pennant hopes alive Tuesday by downing Philadelphia, 3-1, for Vic Raschi's 20th victory.

Shortly after hearing that Outfielder Cliff Mape had been fined $200 and Manager Casey Stengel and Ralph Houk, $150 each, for Tuesday's argument with Grieve, the Yanks ripped into Dick Fowler for three big runs in the third inning.

After that outburst they were cooled off by Little Bobby Shantz, Mr. Mack's pint-sized lefty, who allowed only one hit in a superb relief job over 5 2-3 innings.

Raschi, the Yanks' first 20-game winner since Spud Chandler in 1946, allowed only four hits in a workmanlike job. It was his third try at the American's 20 club and he finally made it to join Boston's Ellis Kinder and Mel Parnell and Cleveland's Bobby Lemon.

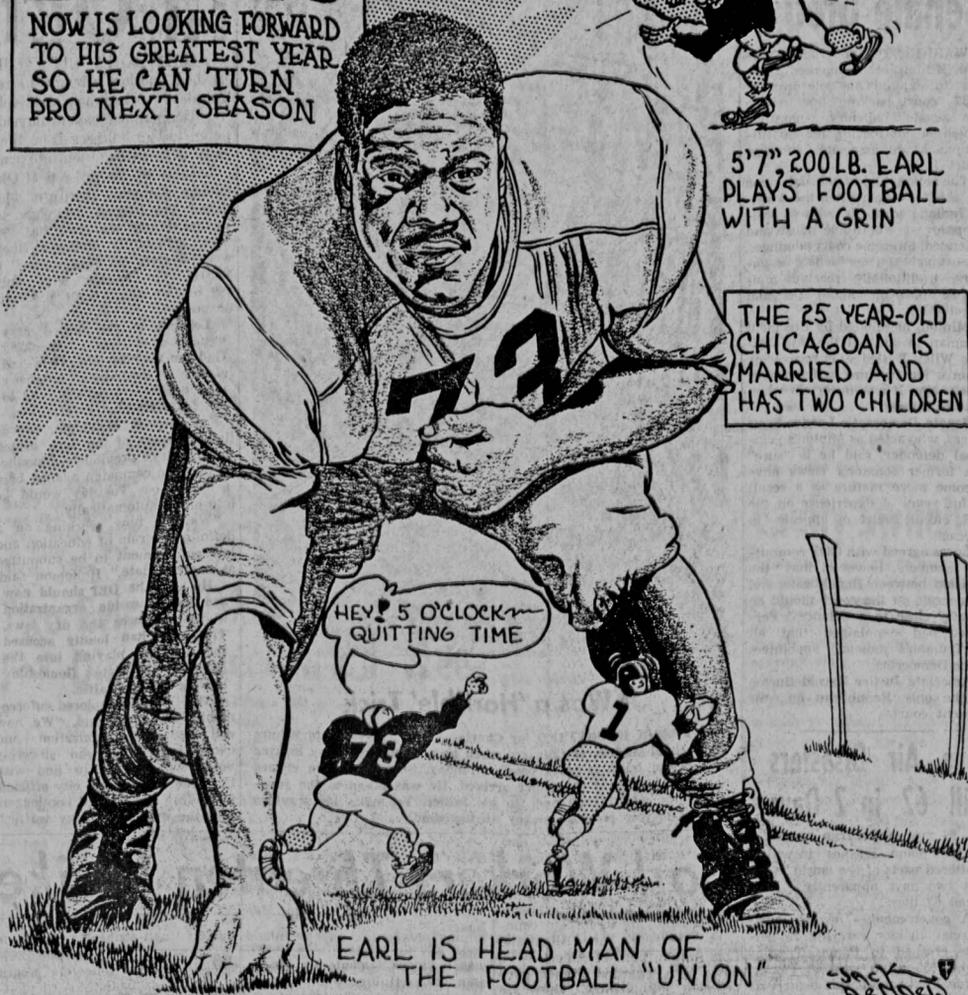

The Yanks cashed in on Dick Fowler's sudden wild streak in the third. Phil Rizzuto pumped a single to center. Then Fowler, a 14 game winner, walked Jim Delsing and Bobby Brown to fill the bases. He couldn't find the plate and also passed Henrich forcing in a run. Yogi Berra's two run single to center brought Shantz ambling to the scene.

Harrison Calls Cage Sessions For Monday

"Pops" Harrison, in his eighth season as head mentor, and Jack Spencer, former Hawkeye guard and now assistant coach, will greet SUI cage hopefuls in the first drill Monday.

Spencer's appointment to the coaching staff was officially announced Tuesday by Athletic Director Paul Brechler. Spencer was a member of the Hawkeye title five in 1945. He was also a regular on the Iowa team of 1944, 1947 and 1948, all of which were prominent in loop play.

The "Thin Man" of recent cage wars, known as a playmaker and court strategist, is very familiar with the Harrison cage styles. He received a physical education degree from the university in August.

Frank (Bucky) O'Connor will handle the Iowa frosh cage squad for the second season. He is also varsity golf coach. The junior varsity squad will be under the direction of Vincent Harsha. His Jayvee squad won five of seven tilts in the 1948-49 campaign.

The Hawkeye varsity will face the largest slate in the school's history this season. They will play 22 games. The junior varsity schedule has not yet been arranged.

Have You Heard This One? — Flying Dolphin Needs An Upside-Down Giant

By JOHN HOLWAY

Diminutive Danny Roper—he objects to being called "little"—is looking for a very particular kind of man. The Daily Iowan wants ad that Dan's thinking of composing goes something like this:

Wanted—A man to help out in my act. Must weigh 200 pounds or more, have hands like steel bands, and must enjoy hanging by his knees for a quarter of an hour or so 35 feet in the air.

What's Danny's business? He's a "flier", and he's looking for a likely-looking "catcher" to toss him around and bring him back again in his annual trapeze act for the Dolphin water show.

The lights dim, the drums roll, and Danny is soaring and flipping through the spotlight beam into the big hands of his catcher. That's when a fella really needs a friend.

Larry Griswold, the comic trampoline performer who has appeared in other Dolphin shows, says that the Iowa trapeze is more thrilling than the one in the Ringling brothers circus act because it's about 10 feet higher.

But Danny has only fallen once, and he's been thrilling the Dolphin crowds for the last three years. "Two years ago," he says, "I missed the catch. The pool lights were out; I couldn't see the water. Then—off—I hit, right on my side. I was spitting blood all the next day."

But it is in the record that Dan was up on the flying bar the next night and the night after that.

Doesn't it scare, Dan, when you're up there? "Scared! Darned, right! The first time you get up there is enough to scare anybody. The only time I don't get scared is during the show. When there's 3,000 people, you don't give a darn."

So then Dan had to explain how he ever got started in the act. He was freshman and was "curious" about the pool's 35-foot high tower. He tried it. "Heck," he figured, that trapeze shouldn't be so hard, either.

Jim Gilchrist, 255 pounds of catch-man, talked him into joining the act, and the two of them have been doing it ever since. Gilchrist comes down every year from Cedar Rapids for the show. "He gets a kick out of catching me," says Dan.

The trouble is they need another catch-man to work some new wrinkles into their act.

Dan has one complaint. He's getting impatient about remarks about his size. "I'm sick and tired of being called '100 pounds'," he says. "I'm 116, and I want full credit for all of it!"

The Davenport aerialist was watching Don Myron, Frank LaDue and Tom Kincaid work out on the flying bars near the fieldhouse roof. "I never saw anybody make a catch," he exclaimed. "I don't know what the heck it looks like."

The only aerial acts he's seen are the ones he's been in himself.

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Boston Red Sox Tuesday night maintained their one-game lead over the New York Yankees in the hot American league pennant race by beating the Washington Senators, 6-4.

A four-run sixth inning gave the Sox a 6-0 lead, sufficient to stave off Washington's late rallies in the seventh and eighth.

Before he was knocked out, Dobson had singled home the last run of the Red Sox big sixth. It followed Birdie Tebbets' two run-single. Earlier in the sixth Vern Stephens' one-baser had driven in Johnny Pesky.

Dobson walked Ed Stewart to start the seventh. Roberto Ortiz followed with a single to left. Eddie Robinson connected and sent a drive against the right field wall but no one scored as it appeared that Al Zarilla might catch the ball.

Dobson bore down and got former Red Sox Sam Mele to foul out. Sam Dente flied out, Stewart scoring after the catch and Jake Early ended the frame by grounding out.

The Senators knocked out Dobson in the next round. Pinch-hitter Gil Coan opened the frame with a single. Ed Yost walked and Sherry Robertson singled to score Coan, Yost moving to third. Masterson took over at this point and induced Ortiz to bang into a doubleplay, Robinson scoring. Robinson then flied out to end the bid.

St. Louis Lead Reduced As Cards Fall

Bucs Triumph, 6-4 On Rookie's Homer

PITTSBURGH (AP)— Rookie outfielder Tom Saffell's home run with the bases loaded off Red Munger climaxed a five-run second inning and gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 6-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday night. The loss cut the Cards' first place margin over the idle Brooklyn Dodgers to one full game.

The Cards fought back valiantly, closing the gap to 6-4 with a three-run uprising against Willie Werle in the eighth, but were stopped cold by relief pitcher Vic Lombardi, who once toiled for the Dodgers.

The defeat was St. Louis' sixth all on the road.

All five runs for the Bucs in the hectic second inning were unearned.

Wally Westlake led off the frame with a single and should have been erased on Pete Castiglione's bounce to Tommy Glaviano, but Red Schoendienst dropped the third Sacker's throw in a double play attempt, and all hands were safe. Westlake was cut down at the plate on Monty Basgall's grounder, but Munger walked McCullough and Stan Rokj to force in a run.

Saffell then slammed a 2-1 in 10 games here and gave the Pirates the season's edge, 11-10. The two teams play again today in their final meeting.

Both the Cards and Dodgers now have four games left to play, pitch into the left field stands to clean the bases.

Cincy Rallies, 5-4, Escapes Cellar Tie

CINCINNATI (AP)—Eighth place in the National league was beckoning to the Cincinnati Reds Tuesday but they rallied for the two runs in the last of the ninth that brought a 5-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

A Chicago victory would have dropped the Reds into a tie with the Cubs for the coal hole spot.

Virgil Stallcup was the hero of the piece—his fourth hit of the game driving in Danny Litwilek with the winning run with two out. It enabled Ken Raffensberger to rack up his 17th pitching victory of the campaign as against the same number of defeats.

The Reds clubbed Dutch Leonard, Johnny Schmitz and Warren Hacker for 17 hits.

Illness Forces Paige To Retire from Tribe

CHICAGO (AP)— The Cleveland Indians will finish out the American league schedule without the services of Leroy "Satchel" Paige, veteran Negro pitcher.

Paige, who won four and lost seven in 31 games in his second season with Cleveland, returned to his home in Kansas City to rest due to a gall bladder disorder.

Bruner Picked to Hurl Against Cleveland Today

CHICAGO (AP)— The Cleveland Indians, challenging Detroit for third place in final American league standings, will send rookie Dick Rozek, southpaw pitcher up from Oklahoma City, against the Chicago White Sox here today.

Rozek, who won eight and lost seven and pitched a no-hitter for Oklahoma City, will oppose Jack Bruner, another rookie lefty. Bruner, called up by the White Sox from Waterloo, will be making his second start against Cleveland.

A former SUI pitching star, Bruner has a one-one record for sixth placers.

Air Attacks Pace Conference Openers

On the basis of first games, the two passing/st teams in the conference are Ohio State and Iowa. The Buckeyes and the Hawkeyes each threw 24 passes.

Ohio State completed 11 of their attempts for 171 yards and three touchdowns. Iowa hit 12 of 24 for 208 yards and two touchdowns. Quarterback Glenn Drahn tossed all of them.

However, the best passing average was compiled by Minnesota, with Billy Bye connecting four of his eight attempts and Dick Lawrence, three for three, the Gophers completed seven of 11 passes for 101 yards and a touchdown.

Six sophomores drew starting assignments at Big Ten schools for the opening games, and it's likely that most of them, and probably more, will be playing regularly all season long.

Stengel Fined for Disputing Vital Decision

City High Gridders Drill for Mohawks

CHICAGO (AP)— President William Harridge of the American league yesterday fined Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees and two of his players a total of $500 for disputing a decision by Umpire Bill Grieve which may have decided the American league pennant.

The decision came in the eighth inning of Monday's Yankee game against the Red Sox when Grieve called Johnny Pesky of Boston safe at home on a close play. It was the run which eventually gave the Red Sox a 7 to 6 victory and first place in the torrid American league pennant race.

In addition to the fines, Harridge ordered Outfielder Cliff Mape of the Yankees to apologize, under threat of suspension, for "directly inferring that Grieve had a bet on the ball game."

The Yankees, through General Manager George Weiss, immediately protested Harridge's action "as just as hasty and erroneous as was Grieve's decision."

Weiss telegraphed the protest to Harridge along with what the Yankees said was Mape's "apology."

Stengel and Catcher Ralph Houk were fined $150 each by Harridge and Mape was assessed $200. He explained that he was not suspending any of the three for "it is our desire that the championship be decided on the field."

In his protest, Weiss claimed that the "pictorial evidence" was "overwhelming" that Grieve "blew a vital decision in a most vital game."

"The Yankees' conduct throughout the 1949 season has been exemplary despite a heated pennant race," Weiss said. "These are the first fines levied against them all year. There has been only one instance in which a Yankee player has been expelled from a game. Obviously the provocation was great in this instance."

Weiss complained that Harridge acted after hearing only the umpire's side of the case, and not hearing the players' side.

Bluehawks Prepare For Winfield Tilt

Head Coach Bob Weber put his University High Bluehawks through a stiff workout yesterday in preparation for Friday afternoon's tilt with unbeaten Winfield on the SUI practice field.

The Bluehawks, 13-12 losers to West Branch last Friday, were in high spirits, hoping to break into the win column this weekend.

Weber says that his squad is in good shape and, barring further injuries, will be at full strength for Winfield, with the exception of guard Bill Nigg who suffered a cracked rib against Wilton two weeks ago.

Powerful Winfield, rated one of the best clubs in the Eastern Iowa Hawkeye conference, has piled up a total of 90 point this season while holding its three league foes scoreless.

The 1899 team won shut-out victories over eight opponents and played only one tie. SUI became a member of the Big Ten the following year.

Sophomore Revives Drake Grid Hopes

DES MOINES — John Bright — only a sophomore — appears on his way in raising Drake university to new football heights. The Fort Wayne, Ind., Negro's running and passing are causing overtime figuring for the Bulldog grid statisticians.

In Drake's first two games (40-0 over South Dakota State and 42-0 over Emporia State) Bright has carried the ball 23 times from scrimmage for 295 yards and completed eight of 20 passes for 220 yards, including one touchdown.

His payoff peg to Tom Biemann against Emporia State Friday night covered 72 yards for one of the longest pass completions in Drake stadium history.

Seven 1899 Hawks Accept Reunion Bid

Seven of the 13 living members of SUI's 1899 football squad have accepted the invitation for a reunion here during homecoming activities, Oct. 14 and 15.

The 1899 team won shut-out victories over eight opponents and played only one tie. SUI became a member of the Big Ten the following year.

The men who have definitely planned to come are: Charles Briggs, Red Oak; Moray Eby, Cedar Rapids; Willis Edson, Storm Lake; Dr. Ray Morton, Sioux City; Dr. F. L. Sieberts, Hampton; Fred Williams, Salem, Ore. and Dr. V. E. Herbert, Storm Lake.

LOOKING AT THE DISPUTED PLAY that took place in Monday's Yankee-Boston game are Cliff Mape (right), who was fined $200 for his run-in with Umpire Bill Grieve, Johnny Lindell (left) and Ralph Houk. The pictures are of the play at the plate Monday that netted the Sox the winning run and the game that took first place away from the Yanks. Houk and Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees drew fines of $150 for their part in the argument on the field.

Dittmer Captain for Purdue Tilt

Jack Dittmer, Iowa's nimble fingered right end, has been designated by Coach Eddie Anderson as game captain for the Purdue fray at Lafayette Saturday.

Earl Banks, squatty senior guard, will take over the captaincy when Dittmer is absent from the lineup. Banks is a veteran in the Big 10 grid circles as he has participated since a freshman.

Dittmer snagged four serials for 79 yards in the Hawks' opener with UCLA, one of which went for a touchdown. Dittmer's efforts are usually restricted to offense.

Jovial Earl was selected on the Big Nine all-conference team as a freshman in the 1946 season. He appears set for his best year, having trimmed down to 195 pounds, ten pounds shy of his 1948 weight.

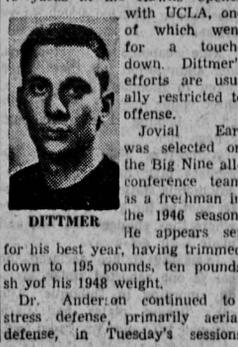

Dr. Anderson continued to stress defense, primarily aerial defense, in Tuesday's sessions with little Al DiMarco, Hawkeye passing ace last year, doing the pitching.

The Hawkeyes are also concentrating on stopping the great Purdue back, Harry Szuborski, who has recuperated from a recent knee injury.

Iowa's main foreign field nemesis is at Purdue where they have dropped nine tilts in 13 appearances. The last Hawkeye victory at Lafayette was in 1939 when they defeated the Boiler-makers 4-0. In the complete Iowa-Purdue series the latter school has copped 16 wins since the opener in 1910, compared with 16 Iowa victories and one tie.

Glenn Drahn, Iowa quarterback threw four times as many passes in the initial 1949 conflict as he did during the complete 1948 season. Against UCLA he hurled 24 passes and completed 12 for 202 positive yards.

Union Decor Is 'Conservative Modern'

Change from conservative to "conservative modern" is the scheme in the decoration of Iowa Union, according to Union Director Earl E. Harper. The change is being achieved with color and the addition of functional furnishings, he said.

Harper described redecoration as "a continually moving process. Every spring I have the entire staff go over the Union and suggest what they think should be done about furnishings, carpeting, painting, and lighting."

"On the basis of that we proceed to make up a program to see how many of the suggestions can be completed between the end of the summer session and the beginning of the fall semester," the Union director said.

University Architect George L. Horner has a lot to say about color schemes, Harper said. "He, Frank R. Burge, assistant director of the Union, and I work closely together in choosing decorations."

If the project is a large one, a campus field committee works with them, and with the entire professional staff of the Union.

Paintings are not the center of the color schemes, Harper said. "They are always changeable," he noted. "Between our permanent gallery and reproduction gallery at the Union we have enough choice so that the color schemes will still blend even though we move the paintings from time to time."

"The exhibits in the lounge are readily changeable," he continued. "Modern panels serve as background for any exhibit brought to the Iowa Union," he said.

The main work done within the last few years has been redecoration of the women's lounge; refurbishing the corners of the River room; new draperies and lighting fixtures in the private dining room and the redecoration of the library.

Private offices and rooms have been painted in colors to harmonize with the lounge, but don't carry the atmosphere completely, Harper said. The lobbies, too, have been brightened.

A great deal of work has been done in the cafeteria. Walls were repainted, the food service unit brightened and new table tops added.

But the downstairs isn't the entire story. Upstairs club rooms and the building exterior must be considered. There's always repair work to be done, too, Harper stressed.

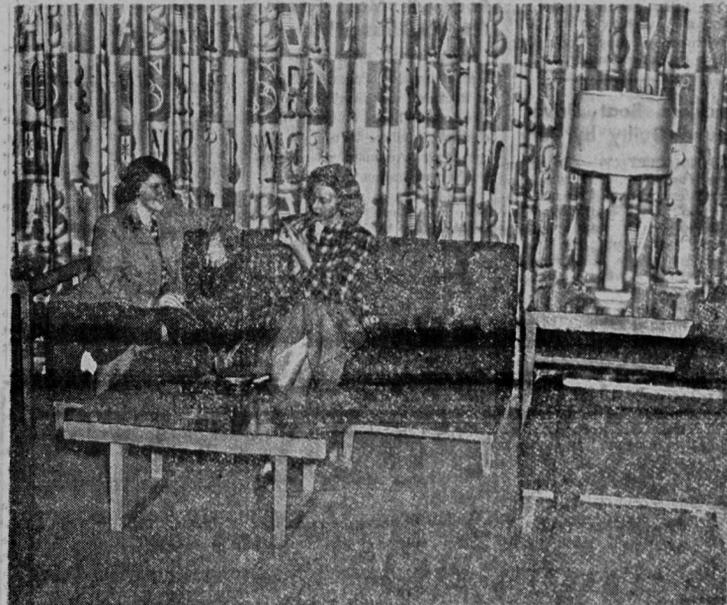

Three basic color schemes are considered to be a good rule for most rooms, he commented. Because of the size of the main lounge, however, four basic colors have been used: blue, red, brown and green.

Major work on the main lounge and the River room of the Union was begun years ago. Refurbishing and redecoration has been completed. New carpeting should be laid by February, the director said. "By that time we have to begin refurbishing again," he added.

When lighting fixtures in the main lounge and the balcony were changed from dark-wrought iron and amber glass to grey, many student noted the words "Class of 1926" on the balcony for the first time.

"Many of the furnishings of the Union are the gifts of graduating classes," Harper said. "The stairway that leads from the fountain room, the balcony and the grandfather clock in the main lounge are but a few of them."

There are always plans for the future, Harper noted, and even the proposed addition to the Union won't stop the continual redecoration process.

A BRIEF RESPIRE FROM COLES AND CLASSES IS TAKEN IN THE redecorated women's lounge of the Iowa Union by two coeds. Nancy Kleinhen, A2, Davenport, takes time out for a cigarette while Jeanne Campbell, A1, Rock Island, applies the necessary cosmetics. The lounge is decorated in a multitude of colors, featuring a maroon couch and chair, lime-colored chairs at the dressing tables, jade green overstuffed chairs and blonde maple end tables. The alphabet multicolored drapes are in aqua, gray, cream and maroon. Walls are done in blue-gray tones with a green drop-ceiling effect. Covering the north wall are mirrors for makeup application, and the south wall features a full-length mirror for the ever-necessary seam-straightening process.

SUI 1949 Graduate To Study in France

Luther Gillett, a 1949 SUI graduate, has been awarded a Fulbright scholarship to the University of Lille, France.

Gillett will leave his Atlantic, Iowa, home next week for the French school.

Gillett won his scholarship upon recommendation of the SUI department of romance languages, the Institute of International Education and the U.S. Educational Commission to the Board of Foreign scholarships. It includes travel grant, tuition and subsistence.

Three other former SUI students will be studying in foreign countries this year. June Allen and Lois Sutton, both of Albert, N.Y., have been awarded French government scholarships. They are now in Paris, after doing graduate work at SUI.

Mary Healy, a Spanish major and a 1948 SUI graduate will leave in December for study in Santiago, Chile. She has a scholarship from the Iowa Federation of Women's clubs.

LA Election to Fill Faculty Committees

Dean Dewey B. Stuit of the college of liberal arts Tuesday announced an election will be held within the next few weeks to fill seven vacancies in the three standing committees of the college.

Three faculty members will be elected to the executive committee, three to the committee on curriculum and instruction, and one to the adjustment committee.

Nominating ballots will be sent next week to professors, associate professors and assistant professors in the college of liberal arts. The election will be held as soon as possible, Stuit said.

Mock Debate Held At Forensic Mixer

Informal speeches on the different phases of forensic activities at SUI highlighted a mixer held in room 221A Schaeffer hall Tuesday night.

The mixer, sponsored by the forensic society, was presided over by Murray Kniffen, A4, Rock Rapids, S.D., president of the association.

Speakers on the program were Charles Thodi, A4, Davenport; Edward Diekmann, A2, Ottumwa; Louise Bekman, A2, Ottumwa; George McBurney, LI, Council Bluffs; Gilbert Pearlman, A3, Des Moines; Natalie Hennessy, A3 Iowa City, and Georgiana McBurney, Iowa City.

Faculty members introduced were Profs. A. Craig Baird, H. Clay Harschbarger, Orville Hitchcock and Hugh Seabury and instructors Ray Sandefur and M. Baker.

An added feature of the mixer was a "mock" debate by Pearlman, Evan Hultman, LI, Waterloo and William Shuttleworth, G, Cedar Rapids.

Y's Plan Conference At Palisades Park

The YMCA and YWCA will mix business with pleasure at their joint "setting-up" conference Oct. 7-8 at Palisades Park near Mt. Vernon, according to Walt McMahon, C4, YMCA president.

YMCA cabinet members will leave Oct. 7 for the planning meeting that evening. They will be joined next day by YWCA cabinet members and other members of both organizations, when further plans will be drawn up.

Students interested in going to the conference may sign up in the YMCA office at the Iowa Union, McMahon said.

VETERAN GENERAL RETIRES

ST. PAUL — Maj. Gen. Elard A. Walsh, a top U.S. national guard figure, Tuesday announced his resignation as Minnesota's adjutant general. He has held the post 24 years.

SUI Microfilms Aid Pictorial Research

Gardiner Soule, managing editor of Better Homes and Gardens magazine, Des Moines, visited SUI last week to use the SUI microfilm library, it was announced Tuesday.

Ralph E. Ellsworth, director of SUI libraries, said this is the first time the microfilm collection has been used extensively by any one individual since its addition two years ago.

Ellsworth said Soule is doing research work for a pictorial history book he plans to write. The book will cover the period 1550-1600 A.D.

Soule plans to use the microfilm collection to gather data and pictures.

The microfilm collection, Ellsworth said, contains film copies of most of the important English literature up through 1600.

The editor's work in pictorial writing is his hobby. He plans to use a technique in handling history similar to the visual education method used by Life magazine to explain nuclear fission, new medical operations and similar complex subjects.

Ellsworth said Soule chose the 1550-1600 period of history for his work because it was so important in terms of the early development of the United States, Britain and France.

Currier Women to Be Guests at Quad Mixer

Currier hall residents will be guests of the Quadrangle association at an informal mixer Friday in the Quadrangle lounge.

Frank Herud, EA, Chatham, N. J., secretary-treasurer of the dormitory group, said Monday his organization also had voted to hold a dance in the main lounge of the Iowa Union on Oct. 21.

Herud said he was making arrangements with Glen Gray and his orchestra for that dance.

Quadrangle men also worked on plans for their Homecoming display at the Monday night meeting.

Sigma Delta Chi to Hold First Meeting of Year

Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, will hold its first meeting of the fall semester at 5:30 p.m. today at the Royal cafe.

John McIntosh, SDX president, said the group will discuss the annual Wayzgoose banquet, Homecoming plans and the national convention.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Meyer, Hobbs, Calif., are guests in the home of Mrs. Anna J. Meyer, 121 N. Van Buren street.

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Driesbach, 1104 Finkbine, Monday at Mercy hospital. The baby weighed 6 pounds 5 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Steinle, 711 N. Gilbert street, are the parents of a girl born Monday at Mercy hospital. The baby weighed 7 pounds 5 ounces.

Robert Swaine, 63, SUI Graduate, Dies

Robert Swaine, 63, SUI graduate and prominent New York attorney, died Sunday at his home in Hampshire house, New York, N.Y.

"The death of Swaine is a loss not only to Iowa but to the American legal fraternity and the nation," President Virgil Hancher said Tuesday.

Swaine, a native of Tingley, graduated from SUI in 1905 and received a bachelor of law degree in 1910 from Harvard university.

He was a member of Cravath, Swaine and Moore, a New York law firm representing such clients as Bethlehem Steel, Ford Motor company, and Royal Dutch Shell.

For many years he had been a director and counsel for the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad company.

In 1947 he received the Centennial Commencement award and citation as one of the 99 prominent SUI alumni.

Swaine was the establisher of three SUI loans and scholarships — the Swaine Loan fund, Swaine Iowa - Harvard Graduate scholarship and the Swaine Connecticut scholarship.

Swaine was cited by President Hancher as "one of the nation's most eminent lawyers and one of SUI's most distinguished alumni."

"He always maintained an active interest in his native state and the university," Hancher added.

NEWLY DECORATED CORNERS OF THE RIVER ROOM ARE popular places for studying, say these typical SUI students. Joseph F. Kremer, A2, Cascade, sneaks in a few moments of biology concentration between classes while John Puckett, A2, Jefferson, and Mary Lou Thomas, A4, Marion, discuss a paper project. The River room surroundings include a cream-colored fireplace, multicolored landscape painting, plaid drapes in khaki and red and a gray and cream-colored hassock. Furniture offers a striking contrast to these features. Included are a green sofa and chair, a fuchsia-red sofa and two lime-colored chairs. Two table lamps are topped by one gray and one fuchsia-red shade. The walls are painted green.

Women's Co-op Elects New Officers for Year

Residents of Russell House, women's cooperative dormitory, held an election of officers Monday evening. President Sally Voss, elected last spring, presided over the meeting.

The new officers elected for the year are Bonnie Anderson, Ridgefield, Conn., proctor.

Towners to Meet

There will be a meeting of the intramural Town league Wednesday at 7 p.m. in room 221A Schaeffer hall. An athletic program for the coming year will be planned and athletic managers will be elected.

All men not living in university dormitories or fraternities are invited to attend.

See No Drop In 'Big Three' Auto Prices

DETROIT (AP) — Other major auto makers are not expected to follow the lead of Nash in cutting prices on 1950 model cars.

Although the $73 to $140 reductions caused a considerable ripple of comment in auto circles, the "big three"—Chrysler, Ford and General Motors—are expected to hold the price line at least for the present.

There are two principal reasons why. Demand for cars still is good considering that September traditionally is an "off" month, and labor costs will go up when fourth-round wage talks are finished.

If there is any price cutting, it probably will come first from the independent makers which are competitively priced with Nash.

Nash said its reductions, which brought the six-cylinder four-door sedan down to $1,738, and the eight-cylinder sedan to $2,064, were possible because of increased production and savings on steel.

During the steel shortage auto makers grabbed all the steel they could get in any form, converting it for their use at high cost. Now they can get all the steel they want in any shape or size.

There has been some slack-off in the market, chiefly among the more expensive cars. But Plymouth, Ford and Chevrolet still have top sales volume and most of the medium priced cars are finding ready markets.

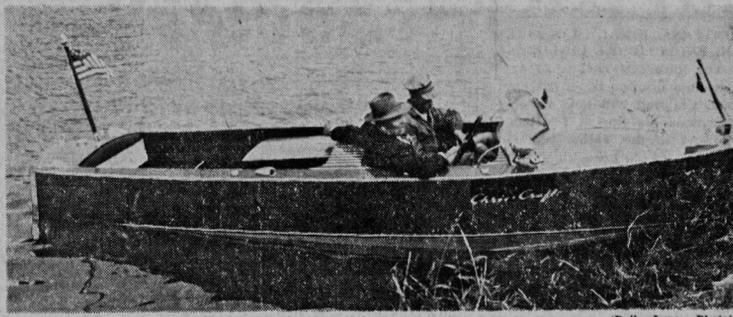

Ward's Reports, Inc., estimated that auto production last week dropped 4,350 from the week before. It attributed the decline to indications of faltering sales. However, the total still was among the highest production periods for the industry.

General Motors, which led the field with price cuts in February, chipped another $10 to $40 off their cars and trucks last spring. None of the other makers followed suit after the second reduction.

So far only Studebaker has joined Nash in putting 1950 models on the market. It was one of the few holdouts against price cutting. But Studebaker, which leads the independent field in production and sales, isn't pushed competitively yet to require lowering price tags.

Auto labor costs are on the way up. How much of a boost hasn't been thrashed out, but it probably will amount to around the 10-cents an hour that was recommended for steel.

New SUI Patrol Boat to Cruise River

(Daily Iowan Photo)

THIS BRAND NEW ALL-MAHOGANY CHRIS-CRAFT patrol boat, just purchased by SUI, will soon be seen cruising down the river every afternoon—and night, too. C.W. Bain demonstrates the 95 horsepower craft to Loren Bohmke, physical plant employe, who will pilot the boat.

University Buys Motorboat For River Patrol Equipment

A new Chris Craft inboard motorboat has been purchased by the university for use by its river patrol.

David A. Armbruster, SUI associate professor and swimming coach, said Tuesday, "We have been trying for many years to get a modernly equipped patrol boat that is more suitable in covering the river and making it safe for students."

The coach commended the patrol for past work with the "inadequate equipment" it had. He said he has been trying for more than 15 years to obtain a faster power boat.

The 17-foot-long craft is all mahogany, with an open cockpit and a 95 horsepower Chris Craft marine engine. Its top speed is 35 miles per hour and it can idle to almost a complete stop, Armbruster said.

Frank Havlicek, SUI athletic department business manager, said the boat used for patrol until now was not large enough. "This boat has precision equipment," Havlicek said.

Equipped with modern life-saving devices, the craft has a siren for emergency warnings, Coach Armbruster commented.

Patrol hours will be from 4 to 6 p.m. and from 7 to 10 p.m. weekdays. Saturdays and Sundays the boat will begin patrol at 1 p.m. and continue until 10 p.m.

Loren Bohmke, 1131 First avenue, physical plant employe, will pilot the boat. Life guards from the athletic department will be on duty during patrol hours, Armbruster said.

He added that students who canoe during hours when the river is not patrolled will do so at their own risk.

Eldora Youth Given One-Year Sentence For Extortion Tries

ELDORA (AP) — Paul Starn, 21-year-old gravel pit worker, was sentenced Tuesday to a year in the county jail after he pleaded guilty to a charge of malicious threats to extort.

Sentence was pronounced by District Judge H.E. Fry, who told Starn the only reason he wasn't sending him to prison was because of his youth.

Starn was arrested Aug. 15 when he sought to pick up $10,000 he had demanded from Mrs. E.F. Froning, an Eldora widow in one of a series of extortion demands upon her. Mrs. Froning had notified authorities who set the trap for Starn.

Starn also had made a separate extortion demand on W.K. Bramwell, Eldora banker. All his extortion attempts were unsuccessful and Sheriff Paul Hodgson said Starn told him he had just made up his extortion notes as he went along.

In court Tuesday, Starn told Judge Fry that after he bought a second hand car about a year ago he began going with a girl in Ames. He said he went into debt buying her presents and driving down to see her four or five nights a week. He told the judge he dropped out of school after finishing the seventh grade.

The charge against Starn was filed by County Attorney Don Barker of Iowa Falls.

Scout Conference To Be Held Here

Representatives from seven eastern Iowa Boy Scout councils will attend the "Crusader's Round Table" here today.

The meeting is one of seven being held at this time by scouts in the middle west.

Featured speakers on the program will be W. Waldo Shaver and Joe Thomas, New York, N.Y.; and Harry L. Schaeffer, Jack P. Whitaker and O.A. Kitterman, Kansas City, Mo.

Program for the meeting will be: 10:30 Macbride auditorium—registration and general meeting. 12:30 Iowa Union — banquet luncheon. 2:30 Meetings for presidents and unit leaders. 6:30 Iowa Union — banquet followed by meeting.

WANT TO SELL STOCK WASHINGTON (AP) — Interstate Power company, Dubuque, Tuesday asked securities and exchange commission authority to sell at competitive bidding 300,000 shares of $3.50-par common stock.

Polk Jury Renews Fraud Investigation

DES MOINES (AP) — The Polk county grand jury has renewed investigation of county fraud cases, it was learned Tuesday.

County Attorney Ed S. Thayer declined to say what phase of the county fraud probe was being submitted.

The investigation was brought to the attention of the county board of supervisors at Tuesday's regular board meeting in connection with a claim filed for salary and expenses of Carl Nimrod, a state examiner under State Auditor Chet Akers.

The claim for $28.75 was for "salary, mileage and expense of Nimrod in assisting the county attorney in a grand jury investigation Sept. 26."

District Judge E. V. Newell of Burlington recently dismissed indictments against former Sheriff Vane B. Overturf and two of his deputies and ordered the cases resubmitted to the grand jury.

Thayer, who has asked the court to reconsider his dismissal rulings, declined to say whether was the review of the Overturf present fraud investigation cases.

Nimrod was a witness for the state in the county fraud trials which have been tried in district court.

'Fish Fight' Ends In Friendly Flop

CHICAGO (AP) — The press was invited to a "fish fight" Tuesday. Dr. Chritisan Ulrich, 24, a hospital interne who raises Siamese fighting fish, put his watery warriors on display.

He warned newsmen and photographers to watch closely because the tiny fish "can strip the fins off each other in seconds."

Then, while photographers poised their cameras tensely, he dropped a blue fish and a red fish in a bowl.

The fish swam around contentedly, ignoring each other. "Sometimes they don't fight," Ulrich explained lamely.

Reckless Boat Driver Found Guilty by Jury

SIoux CITY (AP) — In an unusual case here, a district court jury Tuesday found Clarence Sanford guilty of operating a motorboat in such a way as to endanger life and property.

Judge George Prichard, who presided at the trial, delayed sentencing.

Sanford was arrested Aug. 20 at Brown's lake, about 10 miles south of Sioux City, according to court records.

Rockwell Man Fined For Reckless Flying

MASON CITY (AP) — In the first case of its kind, Ernest W. Meyer of Rockwell was fined $25 in justice court here Tuesday on a charge of failure to comply with the Iowa Aeronautics commission's registration requirements.

In addition to the fine, Meyer paid a $10 registration fee and a $2 penalty to Robert Nemmers, chief of registration for the commission.

Nemmers said there is pending before the CAA a complaint alleging that Meyer indulged in reckless flying by passing over Mason City at low altitudes last Saturday afternoon.

'Write It Right' —

Library Girls Plead

— For Call Cards

By VIRGINIA BOYLE
"Write it right" is the plea of the SUI library call girl, better known as the library page.

The numbers you write on a library call card are important, especially to the person who's looking for one among the 619,066 books on file in university libraries as of last June.

Every letter and number is a clue for the page, to give her exact information on which shelf the book you want will be filed.

A "900" instead of a "700" causes the page to look in the wrong location. That means a trip back to the desk, double checking, another trip to the right place, and back to the desk again—to say nothing of the extra long wait in store for you.

Life for the library page is no bed of roses! General library in Macbride hall has four floors, each with several rooms and hundreds of book shelves.

Graduate students may obtain permission to use the "library stacks" at will. They have special pass cards enabling them to roam through the floors selecting the books needed for their thesis work.

Some even have special desks on one of the four floors where they may study without interruption.

For the undergraduate student with a term paper assignment, the problem's not so simple. Wanting to know more about his subject, he looks to the page for help.

Say the assignment's Browning, for instance. Card files give some indication of what he's seeking, but that's not first hand. One of the library pages is called upon to find the books for the student to inspect.

Some of the books under "Browning" are the original works of Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning and some are biographical.

If you write out 15 cards, hoping to get one good book on the subject, the pages have to carry as many of the 15 books as are on file in the library, to the desk for you to inspect and check out.

That's the reason pages on duty sometimes look like they're trying to break in a vaudeville juggling act.

Books may be filed on different floors. One of the pages goes downstairs, another upstairs and after many steps the books reach the desk.

You've heard of postmen taking walks on holidays, but there's seldom a library page who walks around with a book on her head. Not even for posture's sake.

No Soy Beans in 1908

Now U.S. Major Crop

WASHINGTON (AP) — In 40 years soy beans have risen from almost nothing to one of the major U.S. crops, says W. J. Morse of the U.S. department of agriculture. The department first became interested in the crop in 1908.

The beans were imported from China. At first there was little use made of them in this country. Mostly they were planted when some other crop failed. Then they were used for many years mainly as a forage crop.

After 1930, however, soy beans began to have a place in many crop rotations. Now they are widely used as a cash crop. The beans are sold for food and industrial uses.

Navy Doctor Offers Aid to Cold Victims With 'Wonder Pill'

A U.S. navy doctor claims to have discovered a "cold killer" pill that was 90 percent effective over a seven-month test period, according to a recent naval medical bulletin.

The doctor, Capt. John M. Brewster, treated 572 patients with the drug, called "coricidin" from "cor-ya" meaning the common cold and "cide", to kill.

Brewster said all cold symptoms were cured in 80 percent of the cases when treatment with the drug was started within an hour after the first onset of cold symptoms.

Coricidin tablets contain a small amount of an antihistaminic drug called "chlor-trimeton". The antihistamines had been used in treating allergies, and the discovery they are also effective in stopping the onset of colds was made accidentally by doctors treating patients for allergies.

This month the Journal of the American Medical Association said "the common cold is an allergic response in susceptible persons to contact with a specific protein which is the cold virus or its product."

According to Prof. Louis C. Zopf of the SUI college of pharmacy, coricidin is "not generally available here."

Coricidin, as yet, is available only with a doctor's prescription, and it will probably be some time before you can go into a drug store and order a box of "cold killers."

Tests Will Choose Safest Driver Here

The safest driver in the Johnson county junior farm bureau will be chosen Thursday morning in a driving performance test.

Twenty-three members of the safe drivers club took written tests on driving Monday night. The ten scoring highest will enter the contest to be held on Ronalds street between Dodge street and Governor street at 8:30 a.m.

All 23 took lessons in safe driving from Emmett C. Gardner, county extension director, to prepare themselves for the exams.

The driving tests will be supervised by Lt. Clarence Day of the Iowa highway patrol.

The person with the highest score in the performance test will represent Johnson county in a state-wide contest in November.

The ten driving contestants are: Kenneth Smalley, William H. Hebl, Ralph Baughman, all of Iowa City; Frank E. and John Colony, North Liberty; Fred Charbon, Tiffin; Arlene Lacinia, West Branch; Kenneth Burns, Donald K. and Earl L. Johnson, Oxford.

The meeting, the first of the school year, will be held at the Veterans hospital. Chairman of the meeting will be George Frye, SUI alumnus and now chief occupational therapist at the Knoxville hospital.

Principal speaker will be Dr. Walter Barton of Boston State hospital. Barton was chief of reconditioning in the army during World War II.

Officers of the Iowa Occupational Therapists are: Marguerite McDonald, president; Janet Fields, vice-president; Doris Klindt, secretary-treasurer; Maxine Ferrell, delegate, and Jean Lovett, alternate delegate.

Miss Ferrell is from Des Moines; the other officers are from Iowa City.

Young German Student —

Adopted by SUI Social Fraternity

— To Remain for a Year —

Frieder Gleixner, German student brought to the SUI campus by Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity, can't believe that he is now in a country which was once his country's enemy.

And he doesn't feel like he's "five or six thousand miles" from his home in Bremen. In fact, he feels right at home here in Iowa City.

The young German—he will be 21 next Tuesday—is one of 60 who passed rigid oral examinations to come to this country to study. The SUI fraternity chapter is sponsoring his work here for a year through the International Institute of Education.

"Fred" said many of the residents of his part of Germany have completely forgotten the war and have no hatred toward America. "We don't have time to hate," he said.

Drafted into Hitler's anti-aircraft troops when he was 15, he was ready for officer's training when the war ended. His "daddy," an opera singer at the State opera in Bremen, never liked the "regime" but was drafted in 1944, Gleixner said.

After the war, the youth went back to high school. He graduated in 1948 and went to work in an "America house"—one of the library information centers maintained in Germany by the American government.

"These libraries were very popular," the German student said, "for they contained many expensive books that my people had not been able to buy since the war."

Through this work, he met a young director of libraries from Wilmington, Del. who was doing research work in Germany. Gleixner acted as his interpreter and they became friends. The American tried to interest the youth in coming to this country and when Gleixner came this fall, he spent two days with his friend.

Gleixner studied one semester at the University of Marburg, before coming to SUI. He plans to return there for more study and hopes eventually to become a literary critic. He is studying philosophy, English and German at the university.

Gleixner said he is a little surprised at the importance of athletics and social life at SUI. "In Germany," he said, "students study not so much to guarantee themselves a good job, but more just for the sake of studying."

But Gleixner likes it here. He said he's treated wonderfully by the fraternity and is eager to get acquainted with other students.

And he is serious about wanting to return to Germany to help rebuild it as a sound, democratic country.

READING A NOVEL IN HIS OWN LANGUAGE, Frieder Gleixner, a German student, relaxes in the living room of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house. His studies at SUI are being sponsored by SAE social fraternity. After a year here, Gleixner will return to the University of Marburg to finish his studies.

Journalists Will Choose Officers Thursday Night

The junior class of the Associated Students of Journalism will hold their organizational meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in room E-304, East hall.

Pres. Murray Seeger, A3, Hamburg, N.Y., said the meeting would include election of officers and a discussion of the year's activities.

Through this work, he met a young director of libraries from Wilmington, Del. who was doing research work in Germany. Gleixner acted as his interpreter and they became friends. Jane Russell Hits London — And Sings, Too

LONDON (AP) — Jane Russell put up a bold front at Prince's theater Tuesday night and won an ovation from an unruly audience that had just shouted one performer off the stage.

As the Daily Express critic said, she gave this country of shortages "a double ration" of entertainment.

Miss Russell opened as the star of the new vaudeville season and there was a good deal of speculation as to what she could do on the stage. It turned out to be singing, in a low cut gown.

Set of Cards —

The exchange mail brought an interesting suggestion from the Daily Kansan recently. In the Sept. 20 issue, it was suggested that research papers be substituted for a more workable, practical method of collegiate study.

They point out that some instructors require learned theses from undergraduate courses, others bravely struggle through hundreds of questions and answers that their students "copied from last semester's class."

After some 16 or 17 weeks of lectures, notes, questions, answers and other things, the professors and students play an elaborate game called final examination. The professor "dreams up obscure questions, and the students dream up obscure crib notes."

Most of the information is forgotten shortly after the course work is completed. Very likely, the professors throw the examinations away as soon as they are corrected.

The Kansan goes on to say, "It looks like both professors and students are overlooking what could be a valuable dividend from the class. If the professor would require the students to keep a list of recommended references on his subject, then the student would have something worth keeping."

The professors would then be able to list and recommend certain books in their fields and require the students to keep a list on a card with a few short notes about the book.

If this were done for most courses, the cards could be kept by the students and could help them build a valuable collection for their four years at IUI.

In this manner, the students would become exposed to some works in a particular field; the professors would have more assurance that the students are actually doing some work on their own; and the students would have a set of reference cards that could be of some use after they leave the university.

The idea seems to have merit and it would certainly save wear and tear of frazzled nerves toward the end of January when term papers take on paramount importance in most students' lives.

Time for Control —

Now that two earth shaking announcements in less than a week have cooled at the outer edges, maybe we can all sit back and think over the world situation a bit more rationally.

First came the announcement the senate had passed the arms aid bill, leaving only a conference committee to pick up the loose ends and iron out the differences between the house and senate version.

And then, on the heels of the first, came the news Russia had exploded an atomic bomb. President Truman made the announcement because, he declared, the American people had the right to know, whenever national security would permit, all the facts relating to atomic energy and how others nations stood in relation to our American progress.

National GOP chairman Guy Gabrielson Saturday in Iowa City charged the Chief Executive had made his announcement to take the spotlight away from the Republican farm conclave in Sioux City.

Maybe yes, maybe no. This is not an issue where we can indulge as a people in the kind of politics America delights in. It is rather an issue where we must sit down as a people and think what is the next step.

The news of the last few days is doing much of the deciding for us it would seem. Now uranium ore is reported discovered on both sides of the iron curtain. Both American and British intelligence confirm the stories that Russia has been for more than three years readying sites from which to launch V-2 rocket bombs which would be aimed at west-of-the-iron-curtain nations — the United States and Great Britain in particular.

This begins to look strangely like the era of the pre-World War I years. Then it was an armament race. Now it's an atom weapon race.

After World War I, we more than royally flubbed our opportunities with the League of Nations. We aren't treading the primrose path with the United Nations this trip.

But there still remains one ray of hope in the whole cluttered mess: we haven't pulled out of the United Nations. And therein lies what may be our only solution. We can still try to work within the framework of the UN and, if Russia cooperates, bargain our way out of trouble — for a few years at least.

Now this is not an impassioned plea for "peace in our time." Instead it's a plea to use what little time we may have left before some hot head touches off the still smouldering fuse of a cold war and turns it into a free-for-all HOT war.

American Elder Statesman Bernard Baruch offered one solution several years ago. He suggested both Russia and the United States along with other world powers give up a little national sovereignty and permit free inspection by UN inspectors of all atomic plants. Atomic weapons had already been outlawed.

Now it would be naive to believe Russia is willing to give up any more of her national sovereignty today than she was last week. Because her bargaining position is definitely stronger than it was last week, when we didn't know of her A-bomb.

But UN delegates from nations behind the iron curtain have keyed the feeling that predominates in the world since last week's two announcements of U.S. arms aid passage and the disclosure of Russia's atom weapon progress.

We've been pretty serious about what an atom war could do to the world since we blew a hole in the desert at Los Alamos. More so since Bikini and the Japan bombings. If Russia has had a taste of the horrible things one A-bomb can do, then the time may well be ripe for peace feelers and atomic energy control.

Red Sox Get Tough —

It's been a long hard pull, but the boys from Bean town have finally replaced the New York Yankees atop the American league standings.

Since Southpaw Harry threw out the first horseshoe last spring, the Boston Red Sox have been one of the seven teams smothered in the New Yorkers' dust.

Most of the time it looked as if the Yanks would roar down to the wire as alone as Whirlaway in a pony race.

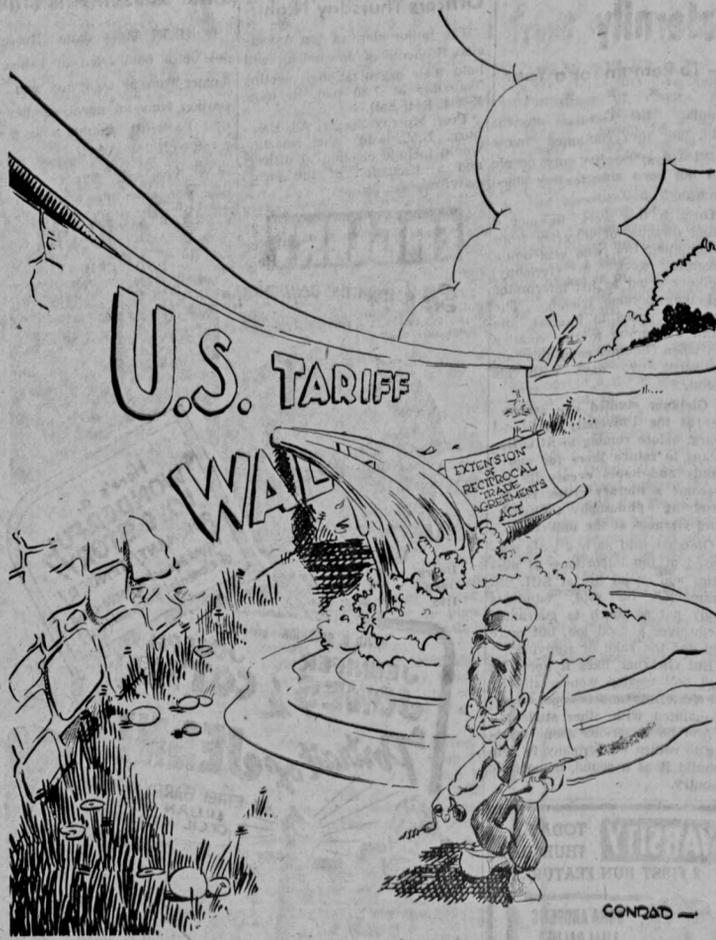

But the situation has changed. It's dog-eat-dog from here on in. Joe McCarthy's boys have come to life. They've finally become aware that a line up studded with Williamses, Stephenses, DiMaggios, and Doerris is pennant caliber.

But a team like the Yankees, which has led from the first day of the season, isn't going to lay down and play dead while the Sox fill orders for World Series tickets.

It's reported that ailing Joe DiMaggio may be ready for the two-game series with the Bostonians over the weekend.

Those two games in Yankee stadium will undoubtedly decide the American league representative. They should be hot ones.

Interpreting the News —

Soviet Atom Bomb May Balloon 'Peace Of fensive'

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The Russian "peace offensive," which began before the end of the Berlin blockade and had settled down to a fairly steady propaganda flow, can be expected to reach a new crescendo now.

Andrei Vishinsky set the tone for it when he called on the United Nations first to censure the west for planning war, and then to issue a call for a five-power peace treaty.

Tass, the Soviet information agency, made it even more clear in its reference to Soviet possession of atomic power. First it sought to leave the impression that Russia's prime interest and use for atomic energy is in industrial construction. It casually referred to the existence of Russian atomic weapons, and then put the cracker on:

"It should be pointed out that the Soviet government, despite the existence in its country of an atomic weapon, adopts and intends adopting in the future its former position in favor of the absolute prohibition of the use of the atomic weapon.

"Concerning control of the atomic weapon, it has to be said that control will be essential in order to check up on the fulfillment of a decision on the prohibition of production of the atomic weapon."

This language is closely akin to former statements on the subject by Molotov, Gromyko and Vishinsky. Along the same lines the Russians have made other very peaceful-sounding proposals. Disarmament. Withdrawal of occupying troops from Korea and Germany. Peace treaties for Austria, Germany and Japan. Each proposal has made the Kremlin appear to be avid for settlement. And each has been followed by acts or by introduction of detailed demands which have been unacceptable outside the Russian sphere. This has applied especially to proposed controls for atomic energy.

Western reaction to news of Russia's possession of the atom bomb has followed expectable lines. The defense program, beginning to lag due to relaxation of tension and the mounting burden of its costs, gets a shot in the arm. At the same time there is renewed effort to find some peaceful means of settlement with Russia to stop these expenses and to prevent the arms race from following its historical pattern into full-fledged war.

The trick for Russian propaganda is to keep these two forces in some sort of balance.

It is to her advantage, under the long-range belief that capitalism will destroy itself, to keep the west so stirred up that the enervating expenditures for preparedness will continue. But not to the point where they constitute a practical military threat to Russia herself or might be used in desperation to get it over with.

The bomb has done the stirring this time, just as the Czechoslovak coup did it for the Marshall plan and the Berlin blockade did it for the Atlantic pact.

Peaceful words now, like the lessened demands on Finland and the lifting of the Berlin blockade before, can help maintain the balance from Russia's standpoint. At the same time, broad talk of peaceful agreements, followed by impossible demands in committee rooms, can provide a background for a new effort to show that it is the west, not Russia, which refuses peace.

'World Citizen' Studies Gandhi —

Garry Davis Gains European Following

FIRST OF A SERIES
By Central Press

PARIS—To Europeans the idea of an international citizenship that would make wars unnecessary is appealing in a way that few Americans can understand. War is a more terrible reality here, hence, the sudden springing up in France of some 300,000 eager followers of Garry Davis, the young Philadelphia idealist who renounced his American citizenship to become a World citizen.

Davis believes his awareness of these facts has placed in his hands an enormous power. He is now busily searching for a way to put this power to a practical use. He is at last doing some thinking. Incidentally, he is sure the World Citizens movement will "take" in the United States, once Americans understand it.

The need for thinking made Davis decide a withdrawal from the public eye was desirable. The Paris newspapers announced he had left town and would return only when he had developed a plan of action and a personal philosophy that he could express in every day language.

Actually Davis has not left Paris, though he has "retired." He lives with a French family in a small flat on the Left Bank. This section of Paris is the traditional refuge of students, artists and philosophers.

In this area, where new philosophies are pronounced almost every day, Davis does his work.

Davis sits behind a portable typewriter, flanked by a dictionary and innumerable outlines looking for all the world like a college student doing a senior thesis. The books on his shelf indicate the kind of plan Davis will probably produce. Well over half of his books are about Gandhi, India's great leader.

Gandhi was the proponent of "passive resistance." Davis, too, talks in terms of passive resistance. However, he's not sure just yet what his followers will resist.

He's not even sure that he knows what he will expect of other world citizens. At first Davis said no follower would have to renounce his citizenship, but now he's wavering on that point. Renunciation would make his followers more light-knit by giving them the common bond of statelessness.

What would be the duties of an American who became a world citizen? Davis has not got that worked out yet, but he would expect "him to strike blows for racial tolerance by non-violent means."

Like many mystics—and that is what he is—Davis hopes to work out a code of conduct for himself which will be an example for others. He speaks in terms of a "personal spiritual reawakening," of "morals," of the "brotherhood of man"—all are the terms of the religious person. He said he would prefer his followers imitate him without his giving any "orders."

Yet in the following breath, he grimly speaks of "tightly disciplined groups" of world citizens acting together to bend the national states to their will.

Davis feels he is approaching his answer, that he has nearly completed his program of action. He does not know when his retirement will end, but it may not last much longer. Meanwhile, his organization is growing stronger every day.

Because Davis considers his job is to awaken a feeling of common citizenship in men, he is not concerned with the structure of the world government which he hopes there will someday be.

"That isn't my job," he says. Then he adds: "I am sure there are men at any bar who could plan a better world government than the United Nations."

"My real job at this moment," says Davis with a smile, "is to find the answer to the question:

"Who is Garry Davis?" He darkly wonders if he has the "guts" for the sacrifices he is sure he will be called to make. "I must be able to practice what I preach," he observed.

As to what will happen when Davis returns to public life, it is too soon to say.

Truman Defends Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman Tuesday scoffed at critics of his domestic program, saying they are "just about 160 years behind the times."

Launching a drive for women recruits for the Democratic party, the President said in a White House radio broadcast there are "certain people" who denounce his fair deal policies as "alien or dangerous."

But he told his listeners: "Our program is unshakably founded on the principle that the power of the government should be used to promote the general welfare."

Mr. Truman's 10-minute talk highlighted a program of "Democratic women's day" ceremonies marking the anniversary of the date in 1919 when the Democratic national committee voted to admit women to its executive committee.

Mr. Truman sounded a campaign-like pledge to press for congressional action on better housing, more schools, improved medical care, greater social security benefits and other objectives of the 1948 Democratic platform.

Also on the program were three "typical American women" representing farm, labor and business. They were Mrs. Elsie West, of Lothian, Md., Mrs. Albert C. Hulihan of Slippery Rock, Pa., and Mrs. George London of Raleigh, N.C.

"I know that women are not misled by political slogans," the President said, in an evident allusion to Republican cries that his policies are leading the nation down the road to a Socialistic state.

"Women look beneath the labels to see the facts."

He went on to cite the preamble which says the American Constitution was established "to promote the general welfare," and he declared:

"The Democratic party proposes to see that the federal government carries out this constitutional responsibility."

"We will do so in spite of the outcries of certain people who say there is something alien or dangerous in the idea of a government that works for the welfare of our citizens."

"Those people are just about 160 years behind the times. They want us to forget the language of the Constitution."

Our Economy Gets Boost from Cartoon 'Freddie Fudsie'

SEARCY, ARK. (AP)—A blonde-haired moppet called "Freddie Fudsie" is seeking to sell Americans on the American economic system.

He was conceived by the president of a little Arkansas church college and brought to life on Hollywood drawing boards with the aid of eastern cartoon. Freddie is an animated cartoon character.

He is the star of the second of four movie shorts designed to carry out the idea of Dr. George S. Benson, president of Harding College in Searcy. The idea is that Americans aren't doing so badly under the American free enterprise system.

The movies are geared to hold the attention of the average family through drama and humor while the message is being put over.

"We're not trying to teach economics," explained Col. Nater an associate of Dr. Benson. "All we want to do is remind Americans what a great country this is and remind them that freedom is everybody's job."

Dr. Benson is satisfied that Freddie is doing an able job of selling. He is an appealing little fellow who makes mistakes in his business operations but winds up on the right track. The story is a 10-minute fast-moving performance on the screen.

The general theme of the cartoons is that profits have helped develop American business and industry and therefore profits have helped develop the nation. But there is no profit connected with the movies.

"We didn't do it to make money," Nater explained, adding that to his knowledge M-G-M "just about breaks even" on distribution costs after charging movie theatres a rental fee.

Own Witness in Inquiry

(AP Wirephoto)

Called as a witness by the house un-American activities committee in connection with the inquiry into wartime atomic espionage is Dr. Irving D. Fox (left), assistant physics instructor at the University of California. Fox refused to deny or confirm accusations that he once was a member of a secret Communist "cell." He is shown talking with his attorney, Clifford J. Durr, before appearing before the committee Tuesday.

No Answers Given By Atomic Scientist In Espionage Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Irving David Fox, a wartime atomic scientist, refused Tuesday to deny or confirm accusations that he once was a member of a secret Communist "cell" on grounds that his answer might incriminate him. The witness, now an assistant physics instructor at the University of California, was called by the house un-American activities committee in connection with its inquiry into wartime atomic espionage, including the case of the mysterious "Scientist X."

Committee counsel Frank S. Taverner opened the hearing with the statement that a secret Communist "cell" operated at the university's radiation laboratory at Berkeley while it was doing hush-hush wartime atomic research for the government. "Mr. Fox," he added, "is one of the persons reported to the committee as being a member of the Communist cell."

Plane Dispute Case Appealed to Court

DES MOINES (AP)—The Iowa supreme court Tuesday was asked to decide whether an airport manager who cranks an airplane for a pilot regularly maintaining his plane at the field is legally a member of the crew of the plane.

The point was one of the chief ones in an appeal filed with the court Tuesday by the Western Casualty and Surety company, of Fort Scott, Kan. The company is appealing from a $1,580 judgment given against it in Koskuth county district court. Paris Miner, operator of the Algona airport, suffered a broken arm while cranking the propeller of a plane belonging to W.A. Hall of Algona.

Loses 58 Pounds Within Two Hours

MADISON, WIS. (AP)—A 450-pound man lost 58 pounds within two hours Tuesday through an operation. Doctors at Methodist hospital here cut 58 pounds of fatty tissue from the abdomen of Albert W. Bartells, 45, of Rock Falls, Ill. Dr. James A. Jackson, the chief surgeon, said the operation, called a lipectomy, is exceedingly rare. Jackson said the cause of Bartells' abnormal size is not known. He once weighed 700 pounds but died down to 450 before the operation. The surgeon said he removed the fatty tissue so Bartells could get around. Before the operation, the patient's waistline measured four feet across. Bartells is "doing fine" at his lighter weight, Jackson reported.

20 Girls Enrolled In Nursing School's Four-Year Program

Twenty SUI nursing freshmen are enrolled under the new four-year nursing program, school of nursing officials said Tuesday. The four-year program, which leads to a bachelor of science degree in nursing and a graduate nurse certificate, combines liberal arts and nursing courses. The program was started at SUI this fall as part of the change from the school of nursing to the college of nursing, officials said.

Students enrolled under the new program are Betty Antczak, Waukesha, Wis.; Marilyn Cherry, Aledo, Ill.; Aloma Frerichs, Lansing; Patricia J. Grady, Binghamton, N.Y.

Delores Holland, Fort Dodge; Mary Lou Hoover, Oskaloosa; Marilyn Jensen, Cedar Rapids; Donna Kress, Mitchell, S.D.; Alma Jean Kroon, Hull; Marybelle Meyer, Sheldon; Milly Model, Los Angeles, Calif.; Maryanne Nelson, Keokuk.

Mary Lou O'Toole, Stuart; Elizabeth O'Riley, Waukon; Marie Proehl and Ellen Staught, both of Iowa City; Mary Lou Smalley, Conway; Joy Smith, Spirit Lake; Sharon Tuel, Paulina and Anne Waring, Chattanooga, Tenn.

During the first two years of their nursing course, these women will live in SUI dormitories on the east side of the Iowa river and take mostly liberal arts courses. At the beginning of their junior year they will move to Westlaw to complete their training.

English Nobleman To Wed Divorcee

LONDON (AP)—David Michael Mountbatten, the Marquis of Milford Haven, Tuesday announced he will marry American divorcee Mrs. Romaine Simpson in Washington, D.C., probably in November. He is 30, she 27. The titled electric heater salesman, whose name has been linked romantically with Princess Margaret Rose and Sharmah Douglas as well as Hollywood and British music hall stars, broke royal precedent by making the announcement in a three-page publicity release.

The usual procedure for young British noblemen of Milford Haven's blood would be to use the Buckingham palace court circular in announcing an engagement. He is a great grandson of Queen Victoria and a distant cousin of King George VI.

MOVIE ACTRESS HAS SON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Screen Star Olivia de Havilland, bed-ridden for seven months to avoid losing her expected child, Tuesday became the mother of an eight-pound son. She is the wife of Writer Marcus Goodrich.

$13,000 in Prizes At Omaha Rodeo.

OMAHA (AP)—Cowboys from all over the west will arrive here this week to compete for more than $13,000 in prize money at the third annual Ak-Sar-Ben world championship rodeo opening Friday night.

Nine nightly performances of bronc riding, calf roping, saddle horse riding, bulldogging and Brahma bull riding are scheduled. Rodeo Chairman E. F. Pettis said Ak-Sar-Ben is posting record purses of $2,200 plus entry fees for each event.

Street Intersection Signals Completed

New traffic signals at the intersection of College and Clinton streets began operation Tuesday as the citywide traffic control program neared completion.

The center island signal which formerly directed traffic on that corner was removed Tuesday afternoon. The H. B. Allen company, Des Moines, was in charge of installation, police said.

Other intersections slated for new signal installation are Dubuque and Market streets, Capitol and Burlington streets, Washington and Clinton streets, and College and Gilbert streets.

Improvements Completed On Parking Lot Drive

City workmen Tuesday afternoon completed improvements on the driveway to Iowa City's off-street parking lot in the 300 block on East College street.

The driveway was paved from the street up to the parking area, city hall officials said. The lot itself is surfaced with crushed rock.

The lot was purchased by the city in the fall of 1947 in an attempt to provide adequate parking facilities near the business district. Motorists have been using the area for parking since January.

Here Are Hints for That Homecoming Float

By JOE BROWN

You won't have to be an engineer nor a millionaire to enter a float in Iowa City's first Homecoming day parade, Oct. 14.

The Homecoming committee has announced floats mounted on everything from baby carriages to trucks and trailers will take part in the procession.

Cost of construction needn't be great. Attractive floats and displays can be made with scrap lumber, wooden laths, crepe paper, wrapping paper — even paper napkins play a big role in the decoration of the entries.

And pretty girls, whether they're the members of your sorority, or the cashier you have to protect from your male employes, can add that to a parade which a $1,000 float cannot.

Figure C in the above drawing illustrates how one inch by one inch wooden strips can be nailed around a trailer or truck bed to form the base of your float.

Chicken wire can be tacked to this base framework and bent or molded into almost any shape desired. To this wire, you can attach either crepe paper or paper napkins.

Napkins are used on many floats in parades staged in larger cities. To attach napkins to the chicken wire, they are simply opened, placed against the wire with the palm of the hand and then pushed into several of the holes with the fingers.

The final effect, when napkins have been attached to all of a wired construction, is a soft, fluffy, flowery appearance.

They either can be left white or sprayed with paint. In either case, the napkins will give your float a professionally constructed appearance.

Atop the trailer can be a display portraying any idea you might have in connection with the holiday's theme, "The '49ers," or the meeting of the Iowa Hawkeyes and Indiana Hoosiers Oct. 15.

A display similar to the one illustrated above can be constructed in the same manner described for the float's base.

The body of the wagon, as shown in figures A and B, can be made from one inch by one inch wooden strips, covered with the chicken wire and then stuffed with paper napkins. To form the cover of the wagon, laths could be soaked and bent into place, covered with the same wire and also stuffed with napkins.

Names or organizations, clubs and business establishments, can be shown in a number of ways.

The letters can be cut from wood, cardboard, beaver board or even colored paper, and attached to the float in the desired spot.

Another method of displaying names, slogans and figures, though perhaps somewhat more difficult, is to insert colored napkins in the appropriate areas of the chicken wire base.

Court Shift Asked In Murder Trial Of Morrison Man

GRUNDY CENTER (AP) — District Judge R. W. Hasner Tuesday took under advisement a defense motion for a change of venue in the murder trial of Edward Beckwith, 27, Morrison.

Defense Attorney W. L. Beecher, Waterloo, told the court there is "much excitement and prejudice" in Grundy county and he doubted "if the defendant could receive a fair trial there."

Beckwith, a factory worker, is accused of slaying Mrs. Irma Jean Stahlhut, 22, last June at Morrison. The woman's mutilated body was found in a walk-in refrigerator at a tavern.

Beecher told the court that 31 Grundy county residents signed a petition asking that the trial be held elsewhere because they had formed opinions on the case.

The state, however, said that 202 people in the county had requested the trial be held here. Prosecutor B. K. Willoughby cited numerous cases in contending the defense motion should not be granted.

Originally scheduled for Monday, the hearing was postponed in order that Beckwith might be taken to Independence state hospital for a mental examination.

GUNMEN PLEAD GUILTY

FARGO, N.D. (AP) — Arthur Bistrum, 36, and Allen Hartman, 20, two of three St. Paul gunmen accused of abducting a North Dakota patrolman last spring, pleaded guilty to kidnapping charges in federal district court here Tuesday.

Russia To Return U.S. Patrol Craft

WASHINGTON (AP) — Russia agreed Tuesday, after four years of prodding to return soon a batch of ships obtained from the United States under wartime lend-lease.

Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin signed a commitment to turn back 30 vessels by December 1. Included are three ice breakers and 27 frigates, which are small patrol craft.

The action followed several weeks of negotiations and was a new break in the long effort to work out a settlement with Moscow on Russia's over all $11,000,000,000 lend-lease account.

Iowa Editors Petition Against 'Censorship'

DES MOINES (AP) — Editors of 30 Iowa daily newspapers asked the state tax commission to revoke a new ruling which they charged constituted "news censorship."

In a letter to Commission Chairman Warren Wells, the editors said they did not question his motives . . . or sincerity. They charged, however, the rule "in effect, establishes news censorship over all the activities of an important branch of our state government."

"Even our national department of defense, which deals with vital security matters, has no such restrictive policy as this," the editors wrote.

Wells said the commission would consider the editor's request soon.

Plan Dance at Union Saturday

People who love to dance will have their heyday Saturday at the Iowa Union.

"The 'Carnival of Bands' will supply music from 2 to 5 in the afternoon. From 9 to 12 p.m. Bill Meardon's orchestra will play for an "After the Carnival" dance in the Union lounge.

Don Guthrie, central party committeeman, said the following bands will participate in the carnival: Bill Meardon, Larry Barrett, the Sevenaires, Dick Tripp, Leo Cortimiglia, Greg Franzwa, Hal Webster, J. Wiedler and Jack Davis.

Tickets for the informal dance will be on sale at the Union desk and at the door for $1 a couple. The dance is sponsored by the Student Union board and the central party committee.

Football enthusiasts may listen to the Iowa-Purdue game at any one of a dozen radios in the Union during the carnival.

Hunters Can Buy $2 Duck Stamps Today

New migratory bird stamps are on sale at the Iowa City post office today.

The green and white stamps cost $2 this year instead of the $1 charged last year. The stamps arrived late this year because of the new law raising the price, Walter J. Barrow, postmaster, said.

The stamps are issued by the U.S. department of the interior and are necessary for anyone hunting migratory birds.

All hunters must carry a stamp when in the field. The expiration date of the stamps is June 30, 1950.

FIRES ON GI

VIENNA (AP) — Cpl. Donald R. Tilney, Cleveland, was fired on Tuesday by a displaced person in a camp in the U.S. occupation zone of Austria. He returned fire, but neither Tilney nor his assailant was hit.

Television Makes Debut Over Davenport Station

DAVENPORT (AP) — Television made its debut in the Quad-cities Tuesday as radio station WOC sent first official TV patterns.

Station engineers sent a grid pattern from the transmitter near Bettendorf.

Regular test pattern transmission will begin Saturday with programming planned by the end of October.

Art Guild Activities To Begin Sunday With Social Mixer

Activities of the SUI Art Guild will begin this fall with an informal mixer in the main gallery of the art building Sunday from 7 to 10 p.m.

Guild President Yvette Wright, A4, issued a special invitation to new art students interested in joining the group to attend the mixer.

A combo will provide music for dancing. Movies and refreshments are also on the agenda. No admission fee is required.

Guild officers making up the mixer committee, besides the president, include Vice-president Milton Levey, G; Treasurer Marjorie Little, A3; and Faculty Advisor Byron Burford.

All art faculty members will be guests of honor.

Some of the projects sponsored by the Art Guild are an annual advertising design show, an annual fine arts show, a costume ball and the university film series.

A group of short Charlie Chaplin films at 8 p.m. Oct. 7 will begin the fall film series. Films will be shown in the art auditorium.

Season tickets for the six movies to be shown will be available next week in the art building. Individual tickets also will be sold at the door.

These movies will be old classics and foreign pictures, Miss Wright said.
