Begin 2 Probes in Navy Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two investigations were launched swiftly Tuesday in the aftermath of navy officers' charges that naval morale is shattered and the national security weakened under the unified defense setup.

operations, announced an investigation to determine how "confidential" naval correspondence containing some of the charges happened to be made public.

Believe Lewis Ready to Talk Coal Terms with New Offers

PITTSBURGH (UP) — John L. Lewis may be ready to spell out his terms for peace in the coal industry now that the nation is in the grip of economy-wrecking coal and steel strikes.

Observers believe Lewis is ready to settle his contract fight to forestall the possibility of government intervention in the coal dispute, more likely now under the pressure of simultaneous walkouts in the nation's two biggest industries.

Denfeld said he himself did not approve the charges, although he had spoken in the correspondence of the danger of stripping the navy of its offensive power.

President Truman, in a brief comment on the row, Tuesday expressed hope and belief that the navy and airforce will "get all their troubles settled."

The quarrel flamed into full public view Monday when a navy source, asking anonymity, released letters three admirals had sent Secretary of the Navy Matthews.

Red Feather Drive Funds Total $2,057

Total contributions to the Iowa City community chest climbed to $2,057 Tuesday, an increase of $332, General Chairman Graham Marshall said.

The first residential solicitation was finished Tuesday morning, the third day of the drive, when Mrs. W.F. Wiecek, 421 Grand avenue, brought the money she collected to the campaign headquarters in the city hall.

Parade Plans Set For Homecoming; 32 Groups Enter

Thirty-two entries for the Homecoming parade, Oct. 14, have already been received, William Coder, parade chairman, told the parade committee Tuesday night.

The parade will start at 7 p.m., with the line-up of entries extending south on Clinton street from the courthouse.

Dean Stuit Compiles Book for American Council on Education

Dean Dewey B. Stuit, of the college of liberal arts, and three other educators recently finished compiling a book entitled "Predicting Success in Professional Fields".

The book was published by the American Council on Education this fall and will be on the market around Nov. 1, Stuit said.

Stuit headed the committee appointed by the American Council on Education to prepare a book summarizing all research previously made, pertaining to the prediction of students' scholastic success in professional schools.

"The purpose of the book was to make information of this type readily available to high school and college counselors who help and advise students on the choice of a professional field," Stuit said.

The co-authors are Gwendolen S. Dickson, formerly with the University of Minnesota and now with the Veterans administration; Thomas P. Jordan, St. Vincent college, Latrobe, Penn., and Lester Schloerb, director of guidance in the Chicago public schools.

"The project had been started by the Veterans administration and was taken over by the American Council of Education to be enlarged and made more generally available to educators," Stuit said.

Post Office Feels Devaluation Effects

The first place in Iowa City to feel effects of the worldwide devaluation of money is the money order window in the post office.

According to the postal bulletin sent out from Washington, D. C., last week, all money orders sold in the U.S. payable in Canada must be discounted 10 percent.

That means a money order for one Canadian dollar is worth 90 cents in American money.

The fee charged will be for a 90-cent money order. The margin on the order will be cut for the face value.

These money orders will be repaid only at the issuing office and for the amount paid. On the money order, it must state the amount paid and the cash value.

All other foreign money orders are to be changed according to the world devaluation rates. The post office has been supplied with new schedules for these orders.

High Schools Receive Journalism Magazine

A report on the Iowa High School Press association convention which met in Iowa City Sept. 9 and 10, will be presented in the forthcoming edition of the Iowa High School Journalist, publication of the SUI school of journalism.

The Journalist, directed by Prof. E.F. Mason, will be mailed this week to 530 high schools throughout Iowa.

All high schools which have some type of publication receive the Journalist periodically during the year.

Plans for a critical service to be offered by the school of journalism to high school writers will be included in the Journalist.

New Traffic Signals To Be Installed Here

Metal standards were erected Tuesday at the Dubuque and Market streets intersection in preparation for new traffic signal installation there, police said.

H. B. Allen company workmen started work on the new signals Monday when they dug holes and began pouring cement for the concrete bases. The Allen company, Des Moines, has the contract for 12 new sets of traffic signals in Iowa City, nine of which have been completed.

In addition to the Dubuque and Market street signals, the contract calls for new signal installation at Burlington and Capitol streets and at Clinton and Washington streets.

Students Flock to See Television Set

Television Is Here To Stay, Says 'Guest Happy' Student

By MURRAY SEEGER

Dick Beemer, Hillcrest, is thinking of building bleachers in his room to hold the crowd that wants to look at his new television set.

Beemer, A4, Mason City, holds the title of the first TV set in an SUI dormitory, and the long line of men trying to get into his room testifies to the novelty of it.

"I have to do my studying early in the day before the fellows start trooping in to look at the patterns," Beemer said.

Beemer moved from a first floor single room to his present fifth floor tower room in order to erect his 15-foot aerial with a minimum of trouble. Even so, it wasn't easy.

He started his campaign for a TV set last spring by asking Bob Katter, head proctor at Hillcrest last year, if it would be possible to have a set.

Katter referred him to Theodore Rehder, head of dormitories, who gave provisional approval, but told Beemer to clear up the details with V. S. Copeland, dormitory manager.

Copeland agreed TV was here to stay and that someone would have to try it in a dormitory.

The hard part came last Saturday when he put up his aerial. Copeland advised Beemer to have an SUI electrician help him and a person with television experience supervise.

"As it turned out, I did most of the work but they were there to help me," Beemer said.

The aerial rests on an air vent on the Hillcrest roof and is held by several wires. It is a directional aerial which must be pointed towards the nearest TV station.

"Luckily Davenport and Chicago are in the same easterly direction I set the aerial for," he said.

The test patterns sent out by WOC in Davenport have come in very well and Beemer said he can get Chicago sometimes, especially on a cloudy day.

Beemer's set is an RCA Victor with a 10-inch screen. He bought it in Chicago last August. It is the third piece of radio equipment he has. First was a console radio and second a wire recorder. Radio and recordings are Beemer's hobbies. During the summer he recorded weddings on wire and sold the desirable parts on discs to the bride and groom.

He has done some short wave work besides building radio sets and amplifiers. He wants to get into television sales after finishing school.

Beemer said there's some talk of moving Hillcrest's new popcorn machine up to his room to increase sales, but he isn't looking forward to it.

Three City Sections Get 1-Curb Parking

Signs permitting parking on only one side of the street were erected Monday in three sections of Iowa City where parking on both sides has caused traffic congestion.

Mayor Preston Koser said the streets are too narrow in these three spots to allow two-way traffic when both sides of the street are used for parking.

Cars may park along one curb only on Madison street from Bloomington street north to the water works, and on Woolf avenue across the viaduct over U.S. highway 6.

Dodge street from Iowa avenue to Market street also has been limited to "one-side parking" since police Monday re-routed Iowa highway 1 along that street.

Highway 1 formerly extended up Market street to Dubuque street but was changed to Dodge street to take advantage of wider streets on Iowa avenue.

Farmer's $1,000 Taken In Card Game at Hotel

DUBUQUE (P) — Leo Klein, 54, Waupeton farmer, told police Tuesday two strangers had taken more than $1,000 from him in a card game at a Dubuque hotel, Police Sgt. Hugh Callahan said.

Klein told officers he met the two men after cashing a check for $1,000 — the price he received here Tuesday for a load of hogs. Within 10 minutes after going with them to a hotel room he had lost the entire $1,000, Callahan said.

Fall Concert Band to Record Music for SUI Football Film

SUI's fall concert band will record the marching music for the Hawkeye football movie being produced this year by the visual education division, Prof. C. B. Righter, director of SUI bands, said Tuesday.

The movie will be composed of scenes from the Iowa football games and will be distributed throughout the state after the season ends, Righter said.

Recording the football band in action would be impractical because of the wind and other interferences, he added.

Righter said woodwind and French horn players are still needed in the band and interested persons should stop at the band office, room 15, Music building.

Mum Sales Begin For Homecoming

Operating on the belief no college homecoming is complete without chrysanthemums, YWCA freshmen women this week are taking orders for mums to be delivered Homecoming morning, Oct. 15.

The seventh annual sale began Tuesday with advance orders being taken at the YWCA office in the Iowa Union. Mums will be delivered at any housing unit Homecoming morning, YWCA women also will be posted on campus corners to sell the flowers.

Tuesday night freshmen YWCA women took orders for flowers at fraternity houses.

The mums will be the traditional huge yellow variety with the black initial "I" pasted in the center.

"Major in Marriage" lecture series co-sponsored by both YWCA and YMCA will be financed, in part, by proceeds from the sale. Since lectures are open to all SUI students, financial benefits from the sale will not be limited to "Y" members, YWCA Executive Secretary Mrs. D.C. Wilson emphasized.

Reynolds To Hurl Series Opener

Shotton Undecided — Roe or Newcombe?

NEW YORK (AP) — It will be Allie Reynolds, the sturdy papsop from Oklahoma City, against either big Don Newcombe or Elwin (Preacher) Roe when the Yankees and the Dodgers lock horns in the opening game of the '49 World Series today at Yankee stadium.

Reynolds at least will start for the American league champions. That is on the word of Manager Casey Stengel. It will surprise no one, least of all old "Case," if fireman Joe Page is in there throwing his bullets before the last Brooklyn batter is out.

Adhering to a policy he established in his first World Series two years ago, Manager Burt Shotton of the Brooks declined either to name his starter or to concede that it was a choice between Newcombe and Roe.

A major mystery developed around mid-day when Carl Furillo, slugging Brooklyn right-fielder who blasted for an amazing .410 average in the last 46 games of the season, told newsmen he wouldn't be able to play today "unless the doctor performs a miracle."

Furillo, whose throwing arm is one of the most feared in the big leagues, said he pulled something loose in his groin when he slid into third in the final game against the Phillies Sunday at Shibe park.

That seemed real enough—a cruel blow to the Dodgers' hopes of matching the Yankees' batting power in the play-off. But Shotton mystified the same newsmen by announcing calmly that Furillo would start in rightfield today. He wouldn't even name a possible alternate.

Joe DiMaggio will, of course, roam the center span for the Yanks no matter who pitches for Brooklyn. The biggest Bomber of them all still is weak from his recent virus infection and is afraid to step on a scale to see how many pounds he lost.

But he will be in there, and the Dodger pitcher will breathe a little faster every time Joe toes the plate.

The betting odds still were in the Yankees' favor Tuesday, and Brooklyn supporters, despite their professed confidence in their heroes, were insisting upon a cushion of around 17-10 in man-to-man action.

Jerry Krall Top Rusher In Big Ten

CHICAGO (AP) — Jerry Krall, Ohio State's speedster left half, loomed Tuesday as the player to beat for individual statistical honors in the Big Ten football race.

Although Krall has played in only one conference game, he scooted for 129 yards in 12 attempts for an average gain of 10.7 yards. He also was in first place in total offense with 179 yards, adding four pass completions for 50 yards to his rushing net.

Krall's teammate, Quarterback Pandel Savic, came along to pace the conference in passing and help the Buckeyes into first place in the team statistics. Savic, ranked as one of the best last year, completed five out of eight attempts against Indiana last Saturday for a .625 percentage of completions and his tosses gained 75 yards.

In team figures Ohio State was tops in both offense and defense. The Buckeyes gained 527 yards against Indiana, more than 200 yards above the 320 yards Northwestern gained against Purdue to hold second place in the division. The Buckeyes also held Indiana to only 96 yards, compared to figures above 200 yards per game for every other team in the conference.

And for Iowa . . .

Offensive balance between rushing and passing which makes football teams dangerous was achieved by the 1949 Iowa Hawkeyes in their first two contests.

Official statistics for the games show 686 yards gained, of which 386 were by rushing and 300 by completion of 17 passes in 42 attempts.

Both the Hawkeyes and opponents have had 92 rushing plays. Iowa hit an average on the ground of 4.1 per play as compared with the opponents' 3.1. The total yardage by rushing and passing by the opponents is 518.

The sophomore fullbacks top the yard gainers in rushing. Don Riley has 106 yards in 23 trials for 4.6 and Bill Reichardt has 103 in 12 for a 7.9 average. Third man is another sophomore, Halfback Don Commack, with 50 in 12 for 4.1.

Quarterback Glenn Drahn has connected for a forward pass percentage of 459, competing 17 of 37 for 300 yards and four touchdowns. His leading receiver is Jack Dittmer, right end, who snagged five for 103 yards and two scores.

Oh, Oh — What One Poor Li'l 'O' Can Do

Iowa's bruised gridders went through a long non-contact defensive drill against Illinois Tuesday with the emphasis on pass defense for the second straight week.

Dr. Eddie Anderson said that the Hawks needed much work on both offense and defense before they would be ready for Illinois Saturday.

To top this off, Dr. Anderson has line problems. Guards Earl Banks and Bob Lage and Tackle Andy Buntz are on the doubtful list as starters.

"This is the time for the sophomores to come through," Anderson declared. "It appears that such men as Tackles Don A. Woodhouse and Herb Hunt and Austin Turner, George Vrame and Jim Bullock, guards, will be needed and they will get a lot of work to prepare them."

Quarterback Glenn Drahn, who was injured in the Purdue game, was under a heat lamp during Tuesday's practice session. Drahn was able to limber up without pads.

Jack Dittmer, right end and leading pass-catcher, was chosen as offensive game-captain, a position he held against Purdue last Saturday. Earl Banks and Ralph Woodard were named defensive game-captains. If Banks can't play, Woodard will handle the job alone, Anderson said.

Meanwhile, Business Manager Frank Havlicek reported a heavy sale of Illinois tickets this week.

He said that about 2,500 remained Tuesday afternoon but they were moving fast. The seats are in the main stands.

The smooth Hastings college marching band was going through an intricate movement as it spelled "Hello" to the visitors at the Hastings-Sioux Falls college game.

But somehow the "O" formation got on the wrong end of the line. The director's whistle sent the blushing bandmen scampering back to the more decorous position. Hastings won, 37-0.

Big Papa Joe Says No

NEW YORK (AP) — Papa Joe DiMaggio, centerfielder for the New York Yankees, ruled Tuesday that 8-year-old Joe DiMaggio Jr., can't skip school to see World Series games.

"Maybe he'll get to see one in Brooklyn Saturday or Sunday. A boy can't skip classes to see a ball game," said papa Joe.

"My dad will knock those Dodger pitchers right out of the ball park," chimed in Joe Jr.

Don Winslow Fulfills Dream

— Despite Rheumatic Fever

When a potential athlete recovers from a serious disease and then fulfills a boyhood dream, it sounds like something created by a writer of fiction.

However, that's exactly what happened to Iowa's Don Winslow. It wasn't until the current Hawkeye left tackle was a junior at Iowa City high school that he got his first chance to compete in football. Neither Hebron, Neb., his birthplace, nor Grand Island, Neb., where he later moved, fielded teams.

His mother moved to Iowa City after the death of his father in 1937. Don, eager to play football was stricken with rheumatic fever in eighth grade. So doctors wouldn't let him participate.

After-effects kept him out until his junior year and then he saw limited action because of his inexperience. As a senior, Don was forced to sit out City high's first four games because of leg injuries. But in the fifth game he broke into the lineup and was a starter from then on.

With only one year's actual high school experience, he won a full-time starting berth on Slip Madigan's 1944 Iowa team. Following 20 months army service, he came back to play mostly as a reserve on the 1947 squad.

Then last year he came into his own, starting all contests except the Marquette opener. Now the 223-pound, 5-foot, 11-inch pharmacy senior is well on his way to earning his fourth varsity letter. He captained the Hawkeyes in the UCLA game.

The 23-year-old Winslow was named to the all-America Sigma Chi lineup in 1944 and 1948. Two important plays stand out in his list of accomplishments — his only blocked punt which was the turning point in Iowa's 13-7 upset triumph over Minnesota in 1947 and his game-saving tackle against Wisconsin last year in the 19-13 Iowa victory.

"That Minnesota game was an odd one for me," he declared. "I played five minutes, blocked the kick and was a momentary hero. Then the whole Minnesota team proceeded to walk over me like a welcome mat."

City High, Davenport Top League

City high will be seeking to protect an unblemished record and remain on top of the heap in the Mississippi Valley conference Friday night when the Hawkllets move against Dubuque.

If comparative scores are an indication, the battle looms as just about a toss up.

Both City High and Dubuque have met Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids and came out of the battle with identical and victorious scores of 20-6. First it was Coach Frank Bates' men who conquered Roosevelt in the opening game of the year and the following week Dubuque turned in the same feat.

At present the Davenport Blue Devils are deadlocked with City high for the conference lead, but they meet Rock Island Friday in a non-loop fracas which gives the Iowa City team a chance to move into undisputed possession of first place.

U-High Prepares For Mt. Vernon

University High's Bluehawks journey to Mt. Vernon this Friday night for a tussle with Mt. Vernon's formidable Eastern Iowa Hawkeye conference aggregation.

Still smoldering from the 18-7 defeat handed them by Winfield last week, the determined Bluehawks went through another long drill session Thursday afternoon with hopes of breaking into the victory column this week against what is probably the toughest team in the league.

Except for guard Bill Nigg who sustained a cracked rib three weeks ago and will be out for the whole season, the Bluehawks should be at full strength against Mt. Vernon. Quarterback Bob Ewalt is still nursing a badly bruised foot, injured in the Winfield game, but expects to be ready to go by Friday.

Eight Hawk Gridders Prepped by Schwank

Wally Schwank, present Davenport high school football coach, has more than just a passing interest in this year's Iowa football team.

The reason? Schwank had eight of the Hawkeys as preps in Iowa City and Davenport high schools. They were Fred Ruck, Joe Paulsen, Bill Reichardt, Don Winslow, Don Fryauf, Bob Wilson, Jim Sangster and Holger Christensen.

Have You Heard This One? — Hawks of '94 Trying To Get Together Here

The Hawkeye team of 55 years ago—1894—is making tentative plans for a reunion here for the Oregon game Oct. 29. Dr. Prince Sawyer of Sioux City, captain of the Iowans that year, is trying to round up the five living members of the squad.

The squad members are Sawyer, Chief Justice Michael McKinley of Superior court, Chicago, Rev. Herman Williams, missionary of Albuquerque, N.M.; Iver Iverson, attorney of Tyler, Tex., and State's Attorney Richard Kepler of Sidney, Neb.

The date is the anniversary of Iowa's 18-18 tie at Stagg field, Chicago, against A.A. Stagg's University of Chicago team. McKinley called the game a "moral victory" for Iowa, since Stagg's squad that year was one of the country's outstanding teams. Clarence Herschberger, the first man west of the Alleghenies to make Walter Camp's all-American, played against the Hawks that day. Incidentally, Sawyer insisted that Stagg referee the game that day in which his own team was involved.

Dr. Eddie Anderson, Director Paul Brechler of the athletic department, Prof. Karl Leib, president Eric Wilson of the SUI sports information office were on the national committee that recently selected New Brunswick, N.J. as the site for football's hall of fame and national shrine.

The next question before the committee is nomination of the immortals to occupy the shrine which will correspond to the national baseball hall of fame at Cooperstown, N.Y.

The Dolphins are breaking a long-standing tradition this year in inviting women to take part in their annual water show over the Homecoming weekend. The fellows debated a long time, but they liked Marilyn and Marilyn Adams and Helen Okamoto well enough to include them.

Helen, from Hilo, Hawaii, will do an authentic hula dance—grass skirt and all—to keynote their show, "Hawaii Calls". The Adams twins, from Des Moines, won second place this spring with two other girls in the national synchronized swimming competition.

Scribes Agree Irish 'Heavily Penalized'

CHICAGO — Chicago football writers viewed a movie of the Notre Dame - Washington game Tuesday and a dozen scribes agreed that the Irish, despite their usual brutal blocking, were no more guilty of illegal play than any other midwest team on an average week end.

The film was shown and explained by Athletic Director Ed "Moose" Krause of Notre Dame. "We use a shoulder block that is used by every team in the country with the elbow extended," Krause said. "Frank teaches the boys to hold their shirts on this block, and we were accused of holding."

Coach Frank Leahy of Notre Dame had complained about the officiating after the Irish were penalized 11 times, most of them for major offenses, for a total of 135 yards.

Washington was penalized four times for 20 yards.

Michigan, Irish, Oklahoma Lead A.P. Grid Poll

NEW YORK (AP) — Michigan, Notre Dame and Oklahoma ran 1-2-3 Tuesday in the season's first Associated Press poll to pick the top ten college football teams from coast to coast.

For Michigan and Notre Dame, their position were the same they held in the final poll at the close of the 1948 season. Oklahoma wound up as the No. 5 team last year.

Fourth place in the new lineup was captured by Tulane, while Minnesota landed in the No. 5 spot. Neither of them was in the top ten when the 1948 campaign came to a close.

North Carolina, third last year, started off as the No. 6 club this time, followed in order by Army, Southern California, Southern Methodist and California. Only Southern Cal in that group failed to make the grade last year.

Eighty sports writers and broadcasters participated in the first 1949 poll. Thirty-four of them placed Michigan at the top of their ballots.

On the basis of ten points for a first place vote, nine for second, and so on, the Wolverines collected a total of 688 points out of a possible 800.

Notre Dame drew only 15 first place votes, two less than Oklahoma but the Irish had enough added support for second and third to give them 627 points, compared to 505 for the Sooners.

All of the top ten are undefeated, having played only two or three games this season. Only 18 other teams were mentioned in the balloting, and some of them already have been beaten.

Michigan, the Big Ten champions, barely beat Michigan State, 7-3, in their opener before dropping Stanford, 27-7, to run their victory string to 25 games dating back to 1946.

Notre Dame, unbeaten in its last 29 games although tied twice, has a 49-6 conquest of Indiana and a 27-7 triumph over Washington to show for its 1949 efforts.

As a matter of comparison, the top ten lined up like this at the end of the 1948 season: Michigan, Notre Dame, North Carolina, California, Oklahoma, Army, Northwestern, Georgia, Oregon and Southern Methodist.

The total vote with points figured on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis (first place votes in parentheses):

1. Michigan (34) 688
2. Notre Dame (18) 627
3. Oklahoma (17) 565
4. Tulane (4) 442
5. Minnesota (2) 353
6. North Carolina (3) 294
7. Army (1) 280
8. Southern California 210
9. Southern Methodist 194
10. California 129

The second ten — 11. Ohio State, 120; 12. Texas, 106; 13. Michigan State, 86; 14. Duke (3), 80; 15. Kentucky (1), 76; 16. Villanova, 72; 17. Cornell, 39; 18. UCLA, 22; 19. Pittsburgh, 20; 20. tie among Pennsylvania, Northwestern and Missouri, 11 each.

Others receiving one or more votes — Georgia 6, Louisiana State 5, Stanford 3, Illinois 2, Baylor 1, Navy 1.

Big Russ Cracked Iowa Line for Four TD's In Three Years as Illini Fullback

CHAMPAIGN, ILL.—In seven years Illinois has never lost a football meeting with Iowa, and no Illini has found the Hawkeys more lenient than Fullback Russ "Ruck" Steger.

As a freshman playing under the war-time eligibility rules, Steger scored the winning touchdown against Iowa in 1946, and the following season he added two more scores. Again in 1948 Steger crossed the goal line to give him a record of four touchdowns in three years against the Hawks.

Army Holds Series Edge Over Wolves

ANN ARBOR, MICH.—Michigan and Army will resume football relations before 97,239 fans here Saturday. No matter who wins Army still will be in the near-unique position of holding a series advantage over Michigan.

The Wolverines and Cadets have met on the gridiron only twice in the past. That was in 1945 and 1946 when Coach Earl (Red) Blaik and his Black Knights of the Hudson were knocking over everything they came across in the line of collegiate football opposition.

In 1945 Michigan went against Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis and company and gave the Cadets more of a tussle than the final score of 28-7 indicated.

Better remembered is the 1946 contest which saw Army finally win, 20-13.

This week's game is rated a toss-up but when it's over Army will remain one of the few teams ever to boast a series advantage over Michigan.

19 Fielders, Pitcher — Baseball In Afghanistan

By KEN VAN RUEKEL
If you don't like the traditional American game of baseball, try the Afghanistan game of "toup danda," which means ball-stick. Mohamad Islam Tabakh, A3, Kabul, Afghanistan, claims toup danda is the national game in his country. He had never seen a baseball game, he said, until coming here last May.

According to Mohamad, toup danda or ball-stick, if you prefer the translation, uses two bases, home plate, first base and a softball, about the size of a tennis ball.

"The size of the field varies with the number playing," Mohamad explained. Usually about 20 players compose a team. Each team has a pitcher, but all the rest of the players are fielders.

"A batter gets three chances to hit the ball," Mohamad said, "and if he hits it, he runs to the other base and attempts to return to home plate before he is tagged or hit with the thrown ball."

A point is allowed if a man hits the ball and returns safely. Mohamad, who likes American girls and adventure movies, finds American food quite different. "In Afghanistan, we cook our meat in plenty of butter," he said, "and we also use lots of rice."

Lamb and chicken are the main meat dishes in Afghanistan, Mohamad said, while beef seems to be the main meat here.

The 22-year-old Mohamad said the people here are friendly "except for the waitresses."

Mohamad is majoring in finance at SUI. He said he had eight years of elementary school and four years of high school in Kabul, then studied three years in the college of law at Kabul university. He attended the 1949 SUI summer session.

Comparing SUI instructors with those in his homeland Mohamad said, "Classes in Afghanistan are much smaller and the professor has more time for individual attention."

University High to Elect Head of Student Council

University high school students will elect a student council president in an all-school election Friday morning, Principal Myron Olson said.

Five candidates for the council's president were chosen at a meeting of the council Tuesday. They are Letitia Dawson, Bob Ballantyne, Dean Evans, Karl Harshbarger and Walter Ingram.

Campaign managers for the five candidates will give speeches at a pre-election assembly Thursday morning, Olson said.

Law Students to Meet At Luncheon Today

Students who are eligible to write for Iowa Law Review, a quarterly publication edited by law students, will attend a luncheon at 12:30 p.m. today in the Memorial union.

Dean Mason Ladd of SUI's college of law, will be special speaker.

Ladd's address will deal with the value of experience gained by writing for Iowa Law Review.

RECORD IN DUCK STAMPS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The annual sale of federal duck stamps produced a new record revenue of $2,127,598, the fish and wild-life service said Tuesday.

Secrecy Shrouds Design of Homecoming Monument

TRADITIONAL SECRECY SURROUNDING the annual Homecoming corn monument was evident Monday night as contest judges hid all but the monument's base from photographers. The design and model submitted by Richard Martin, A2, Hamburg, was judged the winner of a $10 cash prize, sponsored by the Associated Students of Engineering. The full-scale monument will be unveiled

Colloquium to Hear Illinois Professor

The year's first psychology colloquium will be held Saturday at 9 a.m. in the house chambers of Old Capitol and will feature a talk by Prof. G. Robert Grice, University of Illinois.

Grice, a 1947 SUI graduate, will speak on the topic, "Experimental Test: of the Lashley Criticism of the Stimulus-Response Theory," according to chairman John Sullivan, SUI psychology instructor.

This is the fourth year colloquium programs have been held at SUI. The committee selects prominent psychologists to come to the campus during the school year.

Members of the committee are Instructors Joe Smith, Ruth Peck, Earl Irwin, Elizabeth Erdice and Sullivan.

Speech Group Elects McBurney President

George McBurney, G, Council Bluffs, was elected president of Delta Sigma Rho, honorary speech fraternity, at a regular meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Owen Peterson, G, Parker, S.D., was elected vice-president.

The honorary fraternity is composed of outstanding men and women in speech activities who are chosen yearly as permanent members. Prof. A. Craig Baird, speech department director, is fraternity advisor.

Planning 'Here to Stay'

CHICAGO (AP) — An insurance executive told the 44th annual American Life Insurance convention Tuesday that pension plans and social welfare plans are "here to stay whether we like it or not." Responsible for their growth are high earnings, taxes and present labor-management relations, said George B. Gose, general counsel of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company of Los Angeles.

Last Rites Thursday For Local Resident

Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine M. Groh, 78, Iowa City resident, will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Oathout Funeral chapel. She will be buried at Oakland cemetery.

Mrs. Groh died at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Mercy hospital. She was ill for several years.

She lived with her son-in-law, Glen Wertzell, 12 W. College street.

Her husband, William Groh, died in 1936.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Cole, Iowa City, and several nieces and nephews.

City Law Violators Pay $4,466 In Fines

A total of $6,267.17 was collected by Police Judge Emil G. Trott in police court from July 1 through Sept. 30, according to the quarterly report to be released to the mayor and city council.

Violators of city ordinances paid nearly four and one-half times as much in fines as violators of state laws did, a breakdown of the report shows. City fines assessed amounted to $4,466.17 and state fines amounted to $1,004.

The report also shows city court cost amounted to $235.00 and city bonds forfeited totalled $374.

The total amount collected for the city was $5,075.67.

State court costs amounted to $172.50 and state bonds forfeited totalled $15. The court collected a total of $1,191.50 for the state.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

Marriage licenses were issued in Johnson county clerk's office Tuesday to Richardson C. Jacobson, Tama, and Gloria B. Schone, Iowa City, and to Sam Schminkey and Martha Watson, both of Cedar Rapids.

Survey of Buying In Southwest Iowa To Begin Oct. 24

The survey to discover consumer buying habits in southwestern Iowa will begin Oct. 24. David Day, service associate in the SUI bureau of business and economic research, said Tuesday.

Day and two other SUI faculty members returned Tuesday from Atlantic, where representatives of 10 southwestern Iowa towns met Monday evening to discuss the plan.

Prof. C. Woody Thompson, director of the bureau of business and economic research, explained to the representative business men the service functions of his bureau.

Prof. Wendell R. Smith, head of the SUI marketing department, discussed the theory of research and explained the applications could be made from the survey findings.

The representatives from the 10 towns were to return home and discuss the plan with their local business men. They were to reply by Friday whether their communities wish to cooperate in the survey, Day said.

The towns represented at the Atlantic meeting were Anita, Oakland, Sidney, Clarinda, Atlantic, Audubon, Dunlap, Harlan, Villisca and Griswold.

Day said Shenandoah was not represented but had indicated it would cooperate when the survey is taken.

About 23 graduate students in marketing will serve as field supervisors when the survey is made.

Off-Campus Room Inspection Begins

SUI's annual inspection of off-campus student housing has begun, Richard E. Sweitzer, director of off-campus housing, said Tuesday.

Mrs. Mabel Sandeen is the housing inspector this year, Sweitzer said.

"The purpose of the annual inspection is primarily to become acquainted with the type of off-campus housing students are living and to work out any problems student tenants and their landlords might have," Sweitzer said.

"In this way, it is possible to keep the same high standards of off-campus housing now as in past years," Sweitzer said.

Sweitzer estimated between 1,000 and 1,100 different Iowa City homes would be inspected some time before March 1, when the inspection is scheduled to end. Last year 1,986 homes were inspected during the annual inspection period.

Young Progressives Hear Students Talk On Robeson Affair

Three SUI students gave eye-witness accounts of the "Peekskill affair" at the Young Progressives of America organizational meeting Monday night.

Ronnie Steck, A2, and Barbara Binswanger, A2, both of New York City, and Ernie Steck, C, Rock Island, Ill., described what they saw at the Paul Robeson outdoor concert Sept. 4 at Peekskill, N.Y.

Ronnie Steck said the anti-Robeson gathering was made up of "high school kids and older-sized fascists."

The 16 UPA members present later elected officers for the fall semester.

Elected were Jan Esser, A2, Iowa City, chairman; Charles Muhlstock, A2, Woodmere, N.Y., vice-chairman; Les Brower, A1, Chicago, treasurer, and Dick White, A4, Burlington, recording secretary.
