IOWA SURGE RIPS INDIANA, 35-9

Hawkeyes Score Four Times After Trailing at Halftime, 9-7

By ALAN MOYER
Daily Iowan Sports Editor

A lethargic Iowa ball club that just couldn't get going suddenly came to life in the third period Saturday afternoon to swamp Indiana, 35-9, and satisfy 44,000 Homecoming football fans.

The margin of victory was the greatest for a Hawkeye team in a conference game since 1922 when Iowa whipped Northwestern here, 37-3.

However, it looked for more than a half that there wouldn't be an Iowa victory of any kind, as the underdog Hoosiers left the field at halftime with a 9-7 lead, thanks to a second quarter field goal from the Iowa eight yard stripe.

By winning, Dr. Anderson's charges evened their season's record at two wins and two losses, with both victories at the expense of Big Ten clubs.

The victory cost the Hawks the services of Ralph Woodard, defensive left end, who was carried from the field with a compound fracture of the left leg midway in the opening period. He'll definitely be lost to the Hawks for the rest of the season.

The third quarter explosion that set off four touchdowns in 15 minutes came with Fred Ruck quarterbacking the Hawks. Glenn Drahn had been forced out of the contest before the close of the first half when the knee he injured two weeks ago was roughed up.

Ruck, who turned out to be the day's hero with four completions in six tries, good for 98 yards, heaved long to End Jack Dittmer, who grabbed the ball after it bounced off two defenders' hands on the Indiana 38. Ruck had passed from his own 29.

After gaining nothing on two running plays Ruck faded deep, eluded several Hoosier tacklers and let fly once again in Dittmer's direction. The sticky fingered end raced by two Indiana defensive men and with a leap nabbed the ball. He barely managed to regain his balance and raced 18 yards into the end zone, putting Iowa into the lead for the first time since the second period.

Bill Reichardt added the extra point, the first of a perfect afternoon of five for five, and Iowa led, 14-9.

With the air and ground attack suddenly moving as if the Hawks knew they could name their own score the roof fell in on the tired Hoosiers.

Bob Hoff recovered an Indiana fumble on the enemy 20. Halfback Chug Wilson, playing for the first time this year, raced around end to the 12, and three plays later big Mike Riley plowed the center of the Indiana line to score. Reichardt split the uprights and before the afternoon was over sent his consecutive conversions to 10, three against Purdue, two against Illinois and five Saturday.

With a chance to pile it on the Hoosiers, who haven't won a game since they downed Iowa at Bloomington a year ago, the Hawks began to roll. Guard Lou Ginsberg intercepted Nick Sebek's pass at midfield and in 10 plays Iowa scored twice, one tally being called back on a penalty and the other upping the score to 28-9.

Sebek then put the Hoosier attack in the air, only to have Halfback Duane Brandt pick one off for the Hawks and put the ball in play on the Indiana 31.

On the runback he picked up several Old Gold blockers and sprinted down the eastern sidelines for 35 yards.

On first down, Wilson, the Iowa City product who was determined to make good on his first real chance as a Hawkeye runner, took a handoff from Ruck and charged around left end for 31 yards and Iowa's final touchdown. Reichardt's successful boot completed the afternoon's scoring and buried an Indiana team that had come to Iowa City seeing the Iowa game as their best opportunity to pick off a conference victory.

Although they were beaten the Hoosiers had the upper hand for a good half of the ball game. They scored first, added a field goal before the half had ended and drove to the Iowa 32 midway in the third quarter.

When Tackle Bob Geigel recovered Jerry Van Ooyen's fumble at that point, the tide turned and the offense that had stalled both in the air and on the ground except for brief moments of sparkle was in high gear for stay.

Indiana drove to its touchdown after nine minutes of the first period, traveling 85 yards in 15 plays. Bobby Robertson, easily the Hoosier's outstanding runner of the day, paced the attack, although he needed the help of Sebek's accurate throwing arm at times.

The tally came on a pass from Sebek to Le. End Cliff Anderson. The rangy end, who made several leaping catches and actually saved the game from being a complete rout, outran two Hawkeye defenders and latched on to the ball in the end zone. Don Henkle's try for the extra point was blocked by Chuck Denning, but it gave Indiana a lead, 6-0.

After Denning, who has been doing such a nice job of the Iowa kicking, punted to the Indiana five, Sebek then decided to quick-kick in place of taking a chance on handling the ball in such dangerous territory.

SUlers, Young and Old, Feel Homecoming Spirit

By MART BAILEY

You could still feel that old Homecoming spirit, even late Saturday night after the dance.

Everyone continued talking about the first big Homecoming parade, the snappy pep meeting Friday evening, and the big game Saturday afternoon.

Just before the game, you could see old moth-eaten Iowa football blankets thrown over the arms of countless returning fans. Blankets, which — if they could talk — would now add another successful chapter to their record of football history.

Among the thousands of persons who poured into Iowa City Saturday were Gov. William S. Bardsley, his wife and many state legislators. But the most honored Homecomers were members of the 1899 SUI Western conference championship team, celebrating their fiftieth anniversary.

Hundreds of boys in high school letter sweaters walked the streets of Iowa City Saturday morning, waving pennants, whistling SUI songs and wearing Homecoming badges as proudly as the alumni. Many of them were talking of the day when they, too, would play on a Hawkeye team.

One of the funniest sights was a huge, robust "I" man, tenderly carrying a Homecoming "mum" for his girl to wear to the game and the big dance Saturday evening. No one dared kid him about it, though. He was too big to fool with.

One elderly man, dressed in a dark, inconspicuous business suit sported a flashy black and gold necktie. You could see the Homecoming spirit had made him feel 10 or 20, maybe even 50 years younger. He was now just another enthusiastic Iowa football fan.

Tailfeathers' Badge Sales Total 31,107

A total of 31,107 Homecoming badges were sold by Tailfeathers, official SUI pep club, during the three day '49 badge sales period. Pres. E. K. Jones said late Saturday afternoon.

Last year about 23,000 Homecoming badges were sold, Jones said.

Badge sales for Saturday totaled 15,211. On Thursday, the first official day of badge sales, 9,745 badges were sold and on Friday Tailfeathers sold 6,151 badges, Jones said.

The winning Tailfeathers sales team and the three highest individual salesmen will be announced sometime next week, he added.

Purpose of the Homecoming badge sales is to pay for Homecoming activities, Jones said.

No-Cut Day Rule In Effect Monday

Monday is a no-cut day for all undergraduate SUI students, Registrar Ted McCarril said Saturday.

The no-cut rule will be in effect for all classes all day Monday, he said.

According to SUI regulations, the penalty for missing a class on a no-cut day is the addition of one semester hour academic credit to the student's degree requirements for each hour of class missed.

The no-cut regulation does not apply to graduate students, McCarril said.

Truman Signs Bill to Up Cabinet Officers' Salaries

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman signed legislation Saturday giving his cabinet officers a $7,500 pay raise. The new annual salary for members of the cabinet is $22,500. They had been receiving $15,000.

The bill also boosts the pay of 200 other top government officials, most of whom have been getting about $10,000 a year. Their new salaries will range from $15,000 to $20,000.

CIO Proposes All Unions Join In War Chest

PITTSBURGH (AP) — CIO President Philip Murray lined up in John L. Lewis' labor unity parade Saturday and proposed they set up a war chest with the AFL to fight strike battles of all unionized labor.

Replying to Lewis' proposal that the UMW and the AFL set up a $2.5-million per week war chest to aid the steelworkers, Murray said his union was prepared to reciprocate. The mine workers, on strike for 27 days may need money, too, he pointed out. Murray said:

"The United Steelworkers of America and, I am sure, other equally minded affiliates of the CIO stand prepared to join with the United Mine Workers and affiliates of the American Federation of Labor to pool their resources for the common defense and general welfare of the labor movement."

Murray said the steelworkers will lend help and assistance to the miners and to all unions "which are forced into necessary strike action by the opposition of the monopolists and financial interests who dominate the great industries of this country."

There was no immediate comment from AFL President William Green. An aide in Washington said Green will make no statement before Monday.

Murray's counter proposal caught most labor authorities flat-footed. It was generally believed the long-standing Lewis-Murray feud would prevent anything but disagreement on the CIO leaders' part.

In Washington, John D. Battle, executive vice-president of the National Coal association assailed Lewis for "the inconsistency of holding men out on strike . . . and at the same time offering to give their money to another union."

The steel strike has idled 480,000 basic steelworkers. Some 385,000 soft coal miners are out of the pits and at least 75,000 workers in allied industries are jobless because of the two walkouts.

Murray's United Steelworkers spread their free pension strike to some steel fabricators and made ready to hit aluminum next.

Another 16,000 if the USW strikes the nine plants of Aluminum Company of America. Murray set a midnight deadline tonight but said Saturday he is prepared to resume negotiations on his demand for free pensions.

BUDAPEST (AP) — Laszlo Rajk, once one of Hungary's top-number Communist, was hanged Saturday for treason — the fate he had begged at his trial.

Rajk, who swept out Hungary's middle class Smallholders party or the Communist revolution in 1947, had avidly confessed to leading a Balkan-wide Yugoslav plot to assassinate the biggest Hungarian Communist and make himself premier.

Executed with him were two associates, Dr. Tibor Szoenyi, 46, former director of the Hungarian Communist party's cadre section, and Szoenyi's deputy, 32-year-old Andras Szalai. The cadre section supervised the rank-and-file membership.

Announcement of the executions was made by a foreign office spokesman. The trap was sprung about 6 a.m., presumably in a prison courtyard. The place of imprisonment was a government secret.

Jawaharlal Nehru Visits America's Biggest City

NEW YORK (AP) — Jawaharlal Nehru, prime minister of India arrived Saturday for a busy six-day visit to New York which will include a ticker-tape Broadway parade, a trip to the grave of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt and a major policy speech on Wednesday.

After four days in Washington as the guest of President Truman, Nehru arrived at La Guardia field in Mr. Truman's private plane and was welcomed by a crowd of some 300 persons including many of his countrymen who live in New York.

Hoosier Aerial Complete to Marshall

Parity Dispute Causes Walkout

WASHINGTON (AP) — A tentative agreement on bitterly-contested farm price legislation blew up Saturday night.

Senate and house members of a conference committee were right back where they started. They stomped out of a long session apparently in complete disagreement over a fundamental section of their conflicting bills.

The basic dispute the bills presented was: Shall the government continue to support at 90 percent of parity all major crops, provided they are under maximum government regulation?

Or would a sliding scale of supports from 75 to 90 percent be better?

A morning meeting brought agreement on a 90 percent plan, by a vote of 11 to 3.

At nightfall, the 14 conferees waded up this agreement and adjourned until Monday.

Plans to close out congress next week for the year might be endangered by this latest development.

Chairman Harold D. Cooley (D-NC) of the house agriculture committee and his house colleagues, who earlier had forecast a final compromise at this afternoon's session, said when they left:

"We may not be able to reach any agreement at all now."

Other conferees said a switch by Senate Majority Leader Scott W. Lucas (D-Ill) and Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM) scuttled the compromise. Both had voted earlier in the day for support payments at 90 percent of parity when maximum controls were applied.

The scrapped agreement would have ordered supports at 90 percent of parity for cotton, wheat, corn, tobacco, rice and peanuts whenever farmers submitted to the maximum cuts the law provides in planting, and also approved marketing quotas.

Chinese Communists Nearing Hong Kong

HONG KONG (AP) — The Chinese Communists Saturday night completed the occupation of Canton and reached the border of the British colony of Hong Kong.

The refugee Nationalist government formally set up shop in Chungking, 600 miles by air to the northwest, vowing to fight to the end despite all setbacks.

Regular communications with Canton, the recent provisional capital, remained severed.

Private and pro-Communist reports, however, said occupation of the city was completed at 9 p.m. The Communist radio in Peiping said the first troops had marched in at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

The broadcast also said Communist forces had raced 25 miles west of Canton in hot pursuit of the Nationalist garrison which had fled a day earlier.

'Labor-Socialist' Trend to Be 1950 Issue: Taft

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans intend to make what they call the Truman administration's trend toward "a labor-socialist government" the chief 1950 political issue, Sen. Robert Taft (R-Ohio) indicated Saturday.

Taft, running for reelection next year, disputed in detail a white house listing this week of accomplishments of the Democratic 81st congress. Charles Ross, presidential secretary, had said the listing represented a "rather remarkable record" of results.

Contending this, Taft contended in a speech recorded for Ohio voters that the 81st congress is no more in sympathy with President Truman's "Fair Deal" program than was the Republican 80th.

adopted the program of the CIO political action committee, Taft said "the philosophy of the 81st congress is like that of the 80th — one based on the continuation of the principles of liberty under a free economy."

Other Republicans have been pounding away at "statism," a term they often use to accuse the administration of showing a trend to centralized government powers.

Guy George Gabrielson, the Republican national chairman, sounded a similar note in a talk to the party's midwestern state chairmen at Chicago.

He listed the "fair deal" as among the "dictatorships" the republicans oppose. The GOP, he said, stands for "strong, competent local self-government."

The Ohio senator said that, far from accepting the President's "Fair Deal" program, the Democratic congress pushed most of it aside.

As examples, he mentioned the President's request last January for price-wage controls and for authority to build steel plants. He said this had been dropped. He cited rejection of the Brannan plan for production payments to farmers.

"Then there was his plan to repeal the Taft-Hartley act and restore arbitrary powers and special privileges to the labor union bosses, which was defeated in the senate and the house," Taft said.

Grass for Cattle Causes Quarrel in National Forests

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's been many a shooting war in the west over grass—the basic food from which cows manufacture beef-steaks. And beef is the stuff from which thousands of cattlemen make a living.

Now the U.S. forest service and some western cattlemen are quarreling over the green blades of grass growing on western national forests.

These forests cover an area larger than the combined land area of Maryland, Delaware, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Alabama.

The forest service says there are too many cattle on some national forests. It says they are eating so much grass the land is left unprotected from snow and rain and the soil is washing away.

So the forest service is forcing some cattlemen to reduce their herds on forest lands, which the cattlemen use under permit. These forest lands are one of the last, great unfenced areas left over from the days when western grazing lands were open to all comers.

In 1921 more than 2-million cattle were permitted in the forests, on paid permits. Since then the number has been cut almost in half.

A few ranchers have been wiped out of business because they had no other summertime range.

Some cattlemen say the government is being "high handed", that it can't justify some of the cuts and is permitting wild life—deer and elk—to increase at the expense of cattle. There now are about 1,661,000 elk and deer on national forests—three times the number in 1921.

The quarrel has jarred congress into action. A joint resolution has been passed by house and senate, without a dissenting vote, authorizing $41-million in the next 15 years to plant and grow more grass on 4-million acres of forest lands, an area as large as Delaware and Connecticut combined.

Congress still has to appropriate the funds. Forest experts say the chances are "excellent" work will be started by next fall, but Lyle Watts, chief of the forest service, said in an interview this isn't going to change his policy of making the cattlemen reduce their herds.

Watts says almost half of the forest grazing areas—which cover 76,500,000 acres—have been overgrazed to some extent and need rest.

When I started to buy a badge from one of the girls, the other girl accused me of playing favorites. She started crying and repeated that her mother told her men were all alike. I bought two badges, pinning one on each shoulder pad.

I smiled calmly, held up my right hand and remarked, "Sorry, I have two already, sorry!"

"Ya don't have no badges, buddy," said the gentleman, who was approximately two feet taller than I.

He was right. I didn't have any Homecoming badges. He had taken them off and put them in the sack he was holding in his hand.

He took them out of the sack once again and generously offered to sell them back to me, providing I would buy two more originals from him.

I purchased all four of them. After all, I can always use four Homecoming badges. It helps stimulate school spirit, I can cover up the holes in my suit, and he was approximately two feet taller than I.

I concluded from all this that the Tailfeathers should change their name to the Neckfeathers.

With a spirited organization such as they have, they will never be behind.

Pownall, Moeller Will Attend Fall Conference

Prof. Fred Pownall, publisher of The Daily Iowan, and Prof. Leslie G. Moeller, director of the SUI school of journalism, will go to Chicago Sunday for the fall meeting of the American Council on Education for Journalism.

Pownall represents the Inland Daily Press association of the council and Moeller is chairman of the council on standards of journalism of the Association of Accredited Schools and Departments of Journalism.

Ah, 'Tis Fall, Balmly Days, Beautiful Scenery — and Football

They Fell on Their Faces, But Today—

Martin and Lewis are Top Broadway Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis have a mutual affinity for falling on their faces and that explains how they have arrived today as one of the most hilarious comedy teams in Broadway show business.

Lewis, a 23-year-old youngster who has a face like a comic mask, stumbled one afternoon when he was working as a waiter in a resort hotel in the Catskills and when he picked himself off the floor, he found he had a broken arm which prevented him from being a waiter any more. So he started his career as a comedian.

Martin, who is more of a romantic type, was a prize fighter who found his face on the canvas floor too many times, so he abandoned the resin ring to try his luck as a singer.

Now that they are off the floor, the boys are teamed in a comedy act which has lifted them into the stratosphere of Broadway night clubs, radio shows and stage shows.

They have been playing at the Paramount theater on Broadway; they are doing an NBC comedy broadcast on Fridays and they are appearing at regular intervals in the Broadway night club, Copacabana.

"We teamed up a couple of years ago when Jerry was playing at the 500 club in Atlantic City," Martin said. "Jerry wanted to get a job for me, but the owner of the club said he didn't want a singer. I was strictly a singer then."

"So Jerry, who wasn't hiding behind the door when the brains were passed out, said that was fine because I was not only a singer, but also a good comedian and a smooth straight man."

He argued that I could be both a comic and a straight, and sing when necessary. He said I would be doing three jobs for the price of one. So I got the job and we became a team."

They have an extraordinary comedy act in that they work without a set script except on their NBC broadcasts. They use scripts on the air because they have to work with other acts and an orchestra. But on the stage and in night club floor shows they use impromptu ad libs.

Lewis, who has more the looks of a comedian with his crew haircut that looks like a wig and his jutting chin, is the son of Danny Lewis, a vaudeville performer who only recently returned to the Broadway stage himself to play at the historic Palace.

With such a theatrical background, he started in the business early when, at the age of 14, he staged a benefit show in his native Newark, N.J., for the American Red Cross.

He was given a plaque by the Red Cross for this job and he still keeps it in his many dressing rooms as a good luck piece.

Although in his droll manner, Martin is just as much the comic as Lewis, he sometimes seems more the matinee idol.

He is a handsome fellow married to blonde Jeanne Biggers, a fetching model whom you see in newspaper cigarette advertisements. Aside from his talent for fun making he has a singing voice which makes him a favorite song master on phonograph records.

A second musical event on the Goethe centennial festival at SUI will be a recital by two members of the music department faculty preceding a lecture by Prof. Arnold Bergstasser, University of Chicago German department.

The lecture will be held in Macbride auditorium at 8 p.m. Friday.

Prof. Philip G. Clapp, head of the SUI music department, and Prof. Herald Stark, director of the chorus, have programmed a group of compositions based on works of the famous German poet-philosopher, Johann Wolfgang von Goethe.

MAJOR WORK on the program will be the "Sonata, Opus 57 — Appassionata" by Ludwig van Beethoven, to be presented by Prof. Clapp on the piano.

Prof. Clapp said this sonata was not specifically written on a Goethe text, but was composed during the time that Goethe and Beethoven were very close friends.

"The music was undoubtedly influenced by the philosophy and personality of Goethe," Prof. Clapp said.

Prof. Stark, tenor, will sing a group of songs including "Mignon's Lied" and "Der Wanderer's Naughtiness" by Franz Schubert, "Talisman" by Robert Schumann, and other songs by Robert Franz and Hugo Wolf. Piano accompaniment by Prof. Clapp.

A FIRST Wednesday evening music hour will be presented by the SUI music department faculty at 8 p.m. Oct. 19 in studio E of the Engineering building.

A program of woodwind chamber music, under the direction of Prof. Himie Voxman, has been scheduled. A trio for flute, violin and viola by Max Rezer will be played by Helen White, flutist; Marianne Fleece, violinist, and Patricia Trachsel, violist.

A quartet for woodwind instruments by Wolfgang A. Mozart has also been planned for the recital.

THE BOSTON OPERA company will visit Cedar Rapids to present two operas, "Carmen" by Georges Bizet and "La Traviata" by Giuseppe Verdi, on the evenings of Oct. 21 and Oct. 22.

Tickets for the performances may be obtained by writing to the Memorial Coliseum, Cedar Rapids.

How to 'Grow Old Gracefully'

NEW YORK (AP) — Ten Commandments for a person to grow old gracefully, as listed by Dr. Herman Seidel of Baltimore. He would continue to work at his vocation and retain his accustomed position in society as long as possible.

Avoid sedentary habits and inactivity, continue with whatever open air activities or hobbies he may be accustomed to; if he has none he should acquire some.

Engage in systematic daily exercises, designed to prevent or overcome physical deformities; these should include the practice of deep breathing.

Make full use of helpful gadgets such as hearing aids, eyeglasses and dentures.

Keep face and body free from unsightly blemishes.

Always maintain self-respect and dignity, be jealous of his appearance, dress neatly, and retain good manners.

Continue contact with buddies and lifetime friends, and learn to make new ones.

Follow good body hygiene and sanitation; eat sensibly — a well-balanced diet of nourishing food.

Seek medical advice at frequent intervals, and carry out in full the advice given.

Above all avoid despair and an outlook of futility, and "fear God and keep his commandments, for this is all that is required of a man."

Dr. Seidel, chief of medicine, Herber home for the aged and infirm, Baltimore, is author of one chapter in a new book, "Rehabilitation of the Handicapped."

One reason for a more cheerful outlook for older people is that the nation has so many of them, and will have even more in the future.

This fact is compelling research into the changes and processes of aging, and how to help people age more gracefully, he says.

"It is inaction that is harmful to the aging person and not action," Dr. Seidel writes.

When old people develop bad manners or habits, it isn't necessary to think these are due to physical or mental changes, he adds.

"The ill manners and bad behavior of the aged person may very well be explained on the basis of a defiant attitude that the aged person may assume.

He resents being left out from the social or economic activities in which he played his role for many years of his life. He resents the segregation to which he is subjected.

He resents even the overflowing kindness showered upon him, the commiseration and undue sympathy extended to him. Thus he assumes an attitude of futility and hopelessness.

He transfers that attitude even to his outward appearance and in that way he gets caught in a vicious circle. The treatment accorded the aged makes him defiant and spurs him to acts that make him even less desirable."

Question: What trait do you dislike most in an instructor?

Dee Kinsey, A3, Des Moines: "I don't know any traits I particularly dislike, but I like friendliness."

Harold Anderson, E4, Iowa City: "The habit of stuttering and repeating is the one I dislike."

Ruby Nicks, A2, Carbon: "I don't like some instructors' impatience with the stupid members of their classes."

Mark Howell, A3 Winterset: "Some of them don't talk loudly enough."

Sweaters Cashmeres Found Women's Favorite

Sweaters, all-time favorite sportswear, were popular way back when the racoon coat and the middie blouse led the fashion parade.

Mom and pop didn't dash about campus in the twenties wearing the same type of sweaters we do, but "sweater girls" probably rate whistles then, as they do today.

From one season to another trends may be noted in sweater buying.

That doesn't mean a coed loses her first hand-knit masterpiece just because she buys a slipover instead of a cardigan. But it's a good bet that she buys a new sweater she conforms to the current dicta of dame fashion.

At present women's stores are finding cashmeres head the popularity list, especially for wear on special occasions and for gift giving. Several stores mention they can't keep enough cashmeres in stock.

But nylon sweaters are popular too, because of their versatility. Several sportswear buyers mentioned nylon's shape-retaining, washing and quick drying qualities as the basis for their popularity with the college coed.

Short sleeved slipovers have proved to be the campus favorites so far this season. Coeds wear them under suits, weskits and with their dressier skirts. Local buyers anticipate sales later of more sweater sets and long sleeve styles.

Angoras is popular still as a luxury sweater, but one buyer felt that coeds are cautious about the brushing their wear necessitates. Another disagreed with this by saying that angoras have retained the popularity they enjoyed last year.

Soft wools, both in long and short sleeve pullovers and cardigans are giving the less conventional types a race for their place in the campus picture. A new dolman sleeve trend in sweaters is becoming noticeable, one buyer said.

In the men's picture the call seems to be for plain colors. Ninety-five percent of the requests are for V-neck sweaters, one buyer noted. Fellows, too, like cashmeres, but zephyr and brushed wools in deep tones are equally popular with the SUI male sex.

Fund Campaign Started For Highlanders' Tour

A fund-raising campaign to send the Scottish Highlanders to Europe to entertain more than a hundred thousand American troops, has been organized by the newly-formed Iowa Highlanders Boosters club.

The Highlanders long had planned a tour of Scotland and England for next summer. Expenses in the British Isles will be defrayed by British and Scotch travel agencies.

Word of this trip reached the army special services corps in Frankfurt. The chief of special services wrote a letter to Bill Adamson, Highlander pipe major, asking if it would be possible for the Highlanders to tour the American zones in Germany and Austria, prior to their trip through the British Isles.

Stipulated in the letter was the requirement that the band remain in the American zone for a minimum of 15 days. In return for this, the army would agree to provide food and lodging for the girls and members of the Highlander official party.

The only hitch in the plan is the cost of traveling expenses from a debarkation point in England to the American zone. That's where the 11-man central committee of the Highlanders Boosters club comes in.

The girls themselves will pay the traveling costs from Iowa City to England and back. Estimated cost for that portion of the trip is about $32,000 or approximately $425 per person.

An extra $12,000 is needed for the European trip, though. Local and county organizations are expected to work in conjunction with the central organization to

Illinois Priest to Lead Cana Conferences Here

The Rev. John J. McGrath Springfield, Ill., has been appointed director of the Cana conference to be held at St. Mary's auditorium Nov. 13, the Rev. J. P. Hines, assistant pastor of St. Wenceslaus church here, announced Monday.

The conference, which is exclusively for married couples, will emphasize discussions on religion and family life. A pre-Cana conference for engaged couples will also be conducted by Father McGrath Nov. 12.

Moehlman to Speak At Teachers College

Prof. Arthur Henry Moehlman, SUI college of education, will be guest speaker at the Iowa State Teachers college assembly on Thursday.

The Teachers college assembly is in honor of John Dewey, noted educator, who observes his 90th birthday Thursday. Dewey, one of the foremost philosophers in American history, is being honored nationally by educators, students and friends this week.

Moehlman also will be the main speaker at a dinner at the commons in the evening. The dinner is sponsored jointly by Phi Delta Kappa, professional education fraternity, Kappa Delta Pi, an honor society in education and Delta Kappa Gamma, an honor organization for teachers in education.

Students May Name Their Own Fathers For '49 'Alumni Dad'

For the first time in Dad's day history, any SUI student may nominate his own father for "SUI Alumni Dad of 1949."

Dad's Day is Oct. 29.

In making the announcement, Gene Glenn, A4, Ottumwa, said the plan was adopted so more nominations may be received for the honor. Glenn is chairman of the SUI Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity for upperclassmen, whose committee annually selects the honor dad.

As in the past, a student is invited to nominate others than his own father. The only requirement, Glenn said, is that the candidate be an SUI graduate.

Letters of nomination must be left at the office of student affairs, University hall, by next Thursday noon. Glenn said the letters should be addressed to ODK Dad's Day committee and should include:

- (1) Name of candidate.
- (2) Year of candidate's graduation from SUI.
- (3) Names of candidate's children attending, or who have attended, SUI.
- (4) Information about other students who may have been helped through school by the candidate.

Nominations for the "SUI Student Dad of 1949" will be received from the 12 married-student housing units, one from each unit.

Glenn said each unit is being contacted about how to submit its nomination.

Presentation of the Student and Alumni Dad will be made at the Dad's Day dance, Oct. 28, in the Iowa Union, Glenn said.

Dear Friends:

Fast Service in dry cleaning is often very important. Our service here at New Process has been consistently good; however, our business volume has been built on fine quality workmanship.

Fast Service can be offered best by increasing plant capacity at a rate equalling volume increase. We have done this several times in the past two years and now we have done it again. Our plant capacity has been increased 25% in the last month. This results in one thing — faster service to the customer.

So now — Fast Service — yes. But even better — Service As You Demand. Perhaps an unexpected trip out of town or some other emergency requires you to get your dry cleaning "in and out" right away. Or suppose on Thursday afternoon you discover those party clothes are not ready for Friday night's party or the game Saturday. We have the answer now to these problems.

We feel that this service should be brought to you at
NO EXTRA CHARGE.

Sincerely,
The Management

Union Center As Legislators 'Come Home'

Iowa City staged a comeback as state capital Saturday morning when Iowa legislators gathered at the Union to start celebration of SUI's 1949 Homecoming.

Sporting name-cards — miniature maps of Iowa — senators and representatives mingled in a conversational aura of politics and football.

Gov. and Mrs. William Beardsley were among the notables on the Homecoming roster.

The governor and his wife have been present for other SUI Homecomings when three of their children were students here — Blaine Beardsley, graduate '41, — Mary Beardsley Scheig, graduate '43, and Charlotte Beardsley Stickle, who attended SUI for two years. Gov. Beardsley showed confidence in SUI's gridiron prowess when he predicted an Iowa victory by 14 points.

Rep. A.E. Rankin, Hampton, showed optimism. "We have to win. That's what we came down for," he said.

"Iowa will win, of course," assured Sen. Sherman West, Appanoose City, adding with a grin, "Never bid the devil goodmornning until you meet him."

A feminine viewpoint came from Mrs. X. T. Prentiss, wife of Senator Prentiss, Mt. Airy. Asked if she thought Iowa would win, Mrs. Prentiss replied:

"A loyal Iowan couldn't have any other answer but 'yes' — whether we know anything about the game or not!"

A group of six representatives and their wives were preparing to leave for a week camping in the Ozarks. Rep. J. Henry Lucken, Akron, said the legislators would study the school set-up in Missouri.

Representatives H.R. Frei Jr., Reinbeck; J. Henry Lucken, Akron; A.E. Rankin, Hampton; Will mot Hendricks, Muscatine; Carl Anderson, Wellman, and Laurence Boothey, Cherokee, will make the trip.

Sen. O.H. Henningsen, Clinton, had special interest in SUI. He started sponsoring the bill to build the new library, and also asked for appropriations to start the school for crippled children at SUI.

Homecoming Registration — Legislative Style

(Daily Iowan File) STATE LEGISLATORS REGISTER FOR SUI HOMEcoming at the Iowa Union Saturday morning. Shown awaiting tickets for the Iowa-Indiana game are Rep. Howard E. Brookings, Oakland; Sen. J. P. Berg, Cedar Falls; Sen. H. M. Knudsen, Clear Lake; Sen. Raymond Gillespie, Dexter; Rep. H. A. Nielson, Onawa; Rep. R.C. Berry, Pomeroy, and Rep. Harvey Long, Clinton.

Information First Schedule Set

The four Information First programs for the fall semester have been announced by Information First Chairman Mary Louise Anneberg, A3, Carroll.

The University Woman association-sponsored project will inaugurate the series Thursday with an informal discussion by four SUI students who traveled in Europe this summer. Chairman will be Prof. John H. Haefner, assistant professor of history and head of social studies. Participants include Mary Louise Anneberg; H. Rand Petersen, A3, Harlan; Mary McMahon, A4, Manning, and Larry Fryer, C4, Des Moines.

The Nov. 3 program will feature Dr. Charles Graves, director of mental institutions in Iowa. His topic will be "Does Iowa Have a Snake Pit?" Rep. James Dolliver, Iowa's sixth district, will speak on the Information First Nov. 10 program. Dolliver returned from England recently after making a study of the British health service.

Robert Ray, former SUI student, is scheduled for the Dec. 8 program. Ray served as a political adviser to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in the last presidential election.

Members of the Information First committee are Anne Gilson, A2, Kirkwood, Mo.; Mitzi Metcalf, A2, Des Moines; Dona Lee Bendixen, A4, LeMars; Verna Mae Wingate, A3, Daventry, and Helen Hays, A2, Iowa City.

The Information First project was begun in January 1942 as a war program designed to acquaint students with world affairs. It has adopted as its motto, "Knowledge—The Last Great Hope of the Earth."

Among the alumni visiting at Currier hall this week-end are Mibsy Pell, Barbara Ginter, Billie Fleck, Dorothy Mayhall, D.J. Myers, Donna Olson, Elizabeth Thomas, Barbara Wright, LaVonne Stock, Marilyn McMinn and Jean Strong.

Student-Faculty Meet Planned for Tuesday

A student-faculty "get acquainted" coffee hour will be held Tuesday from 4 to 5 p.m. in the River room of the Iowa Union, Louise Bekman, A2, Ottumwa, said Friday. Miss Bekman is chairman of the SUI Student-Faculty Relations committee.

This is the first of five coffee hours planned for this year and the first of a series of such meetings since before the war, Miss Bekman said.

She described the coffee hours as informal parties to acquaint the SUI students and faculty. All students and faculty members are invited.

The radio journalism and home economics departments are to be special guests at this first meeting. Serving hostesses will be Sybil Woodruff, home economics director; Mrs. Leslie Moeller, wife of the school of journalism director, Carol Chopek and Anne Smith.

Fluorine compounds have become more important recently, because plastic materials developed from them have been found to be resistant to strong acids and other solvents, said Prof. R.E. Buckles, SUI chemistry professor.

Fluorine Researcher To Talk Wednesday

G.C. Finger, fluorine research chemist, Wednesday will speak on "Aromatic Fluorine Compounds" to the Iowa section of the American Chemical society.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in room 300 of the chemistry building.

Finger is head of the fluorospar division of the geo-chemical section of the Illinois Geological survey. The unit has offices on the University of Illinois campus.

Fluorine compounds have become more important recently, because plastic materials developed from them have been found to be resistant to strong acids and other solvents, said Prof. R.E. Buckles, SUI chemistry professor.

Operating costs of the central library will be shared by member colleges and universities, he added.

Students will arrive at the Union just before game time and there for part of the evening Homecoming festivities. Tentative departure for Iowa City has been listed as 10:30 p.m.

Tailfeathers, SUI pep organization
TO SPEAK ON FORUM
Robert F. Ray, director of SUP's institute of public affairs, will appear on the New York Herald Tribune's famed forum on current problems in New York City, Oct. 24 through 26.

The Union will be contacted in an effort to arrange early breakfast for those leaving before regular meal hours, officials said. An extra bus is being sent along with the caravan in case one of the 10 develops engine trouble. Students need have no worry of missing the game because of bus breakdown, officials assured. Also scheduled to attend the Wisconsin game are the Highlanders. They will travel by bus but at a different time than the student trip delegation.

Northwestern Passing Upsets Wolves, 21-20

Loss Halts Conference Win Skein for Michigan

By CHARLES DUNKLEY

EVANSTON, ILL., (AP) — Twice-defeated Northwestern Saturday registered the most stunning upset of the Western conference gridiron season by defeating once mighty Michigan, 21-20.

Michigan, 1947-48 conference champion, had blazed through 15 successive Big Ten games without defeat, losing its last to Illinois, 13-9, in 1946.

The proud Wolverines, 1948 mythical national champions, had rung up a string of 25 consecutive victories until Army upset them 21-7 a week ago.

A stunned standing room crowd of 55,000 saw the Wildcat passing attack completely overshadow the heavily-favored Wolverines. Northwestern, first beaten this season by Pittsburgh in an upset and then bowled over by Minnesota, completed five passes in eight attempts for 124 yards—an average 24.1 yards per completion.

Harry Allis' unsuccessful attempt for point after touchdown towards the end of the third quarter spelled defeat for the Maize and Blue. The kick sailed an inch wide of the goal post.

With Northwestern leading 14-13 at the start of the fourth period, Wildcat Halfback Tom Worthington made the upset victory certain, on a sensational 56-yard touchdown gallop.

He took a punt from Michigan's Walt Teninga on his own 44, faked a handoff to All-American Fullback Art Murakowski and then skirted down the sidelines for the score while spectators sat dumfounded.

After a dull first period, Michigan started the touchdown parade midway through the second period. The Wolverines climaxed a 50-yard march over land and through the air when Fullback Don Dufek, an Evanston boy, crashed over center from the one, Allis converted.

The Wildcats tied the score when Quarterback Don Burson pitched a 31-yard pass to Halfback Ed Tuttle which raced 35 to score. Eddie Nemeth added the point.

After Fullback Gaspar Perricone set the Wildcat grid machine rolling with a 35-yard sweep, Burson passed to End Don Stonieser in the flat and the Denver product traveled seven yards for the second Northwestern touchdown.

Nemeth then added the all-important extra point to give last year's Rose Bowl champions a 14-7 lead.

The vaunted Michigan running attack started clicking at the end of the third period. Big Dick Kempthorn dove over left guard from the five-yard line and the touchdown to end the 51-yard game-tying point.

The Wolverines tried to come back, after Worthington's gallop, and finally did late in the game. They moved from their own 29 to the Northwestern 20 in ten plays and Dufek finally went through center to score. Allis kicked the extra point but it was too late as the game ended two minutes later.

Huskers Lose, 22-7
STATE COLLEGE (AP)—Bill Luther ran and passed an improving Penn State eleven to a 22-7 victory Saturday over Nebraska. Penn State combined alert defensive play with an effective mixture of passing and running to delight a Homecoming day crowd of 23,600.

Duke Triumphs, 14-13
Durham, N.C. (AP)—Duke edged North Carolina State, 14-13, Saturday in a Southern conference football game that was settled on a missed placement for conversion, 10 seconds' from the game's end.

Minnesota Giants Clip Ohio State, 27-0
Huge Gopher Line Spearheads Attack
COLUMBUS, OHIO (AP)—Minnesota moved a lengthy piece down the Rose Bowl road Saturday by belting Ohio State, 27-0, in a Western conference football game before 82,111 fans.

The running of Halfbacks Billy Bye and Dick Gregory, with the help of savage blocking, sparked the Golden Gophers' four-touchdown parade.

The result never was much in doubt after the first few plays. Minnesota's giant line took command of the situation almost immediately. Led by Center Clayton Tonnemaker and Tackle Leo Nomellini, the Minnesota forwards simply smothered any Ohio State attack that became even slightly dangerous.

Bye counted the first Minnesota touchdown late in the first period, going 14 yards over Ohio State's right guard. End Gordon Soltau kicked the first of three straight conversions.

Gregory set up the second touchdown late in the first period, going 14 yards over Ohio State's right guard. End Gordon Soltau kicked the first of three touchdowns with a 51-yard run around his own right end and

Wisconsin Rolls Past Middies With Seven Touchdowns, 48-12

MADISON, WIS., (AP)—Wisconsin rolled up its highest score in 19 years to upset Navy, 48-12, Saturday before a capacity crowd of 45,000.

Wisconsin passed and ran four of its seven touchdowns and intercepted Navy passes to score two more and set up a third.

Navy scored its first tally by going 84 yards on the ground in the first period and waited until the final quarter before scoring again on a 78-yard march.

The opening period indicated a bruising battle with the Badgers getting off to a 7-6 lead. Three rapid fire touchdowns by Wisconsin in the second quarter changed the picture completely and there was little doubt from that point on as to the outcome.

Bob Teague, Badger fullback, got his team off to a flying start with a 49-yard touchdown sprint through tackle before the game was two minutes old.

Liste Blackburn added the first of his six extra points with a place kick. But Navy punted back, marching 84 yards on runs by Duff Arnold and passes by Bob Zastrow. Arnold scored on a 19 yard pass play.

In the second period Zastrow's passes began to backfire. Bob Radcliffe, Badger back, intercepted one and ran it back for 39 yards and a touchdown. Jerry Schaefer scored from the one for a second after another interception by Radcliffe and Teague went over from the one for a third.

A pass, Bob Petruska to Schaefer, good for 23 yards, brought a fifth Wisconsin touchdown in the final period. Roland Strehlow added another with a 35 yard dash through the middle and Radcliffe wound up the scoring for the Badgers with a 42-yard return of a pass interception.

Oklahoma Aggies Give Drake 1st Defeat, 28-0
STILLWATER, OKLA. (AP)—Jack Hartman passed the Oklahoma Aggies to a 28-0 Missouri Valley conference victory over Drake Saturday before 15,000 persons.

The Aggies scored their first touchdown in the first period and then tacked on three more in the next quarter to open the defense of the conference title they won last year.

John Bright, Drake's star and the first Negro ever to play here, was stopped both on the ground and in the air.

Durham, N.C. (AP)—Duke edged North Carolina State, 14-13, Saturday in a Southern conference football game that was settled on a missed placement for conversion, 10 seconds' from the game's end.

Minnesota Giants Clip Ohio State, 27-0
Huge Gopher Line Spearheads Attack
COLUMBUS, OHIO (AP)—Minnesota moved a lengthy piece down the Rose Bowl road Saturday by belting Ohio State, 27-0, in a Western conference football game before 82,111 fans.

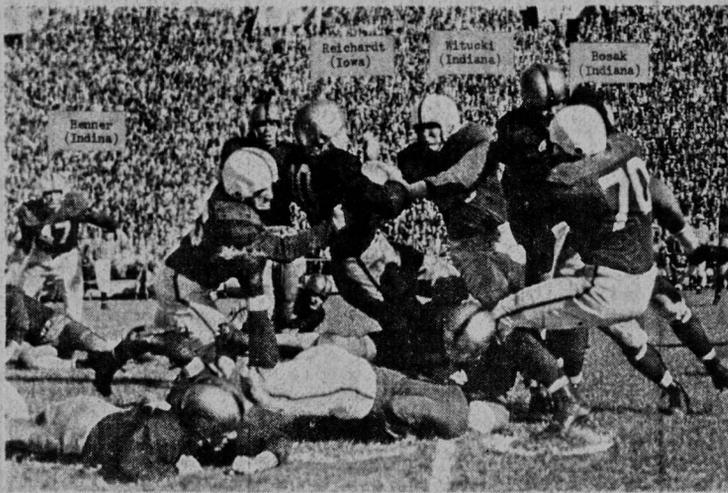

The running of Halfbacks Billy Bye and Dick Gregory, with the help of savage blocking, sparked the Golden Gophers' four-touchdown parade.

The result never was much in doubt after the first few plays. Minnesota's giant line took command of the situation almost immediately. Led by Center Clayton Tonnemaker and Tackle Leo Nomellini, the Minnesota forwards simply smothered any Ohio State attack that became even slightly dangerous.

Bye counted the first Minnesota touchdown late in the first period, going 14 yards over Ohio State's right guard. End Gordon Soltau kicked the first of three straight conversions.

Gregory set up the second touchdown late in the first period, going 14 yards over Ohio State's right guard. End Gordon Soltau kicked the first of three touchdowns with a 51-yard run around his own right end and RETURNING A KICKOFF is Iowa's Bill Reichardt, shown being downed after traveling 25 yards in the first quarter of Saturday's Iowa-Indiana football game. Reichardt made it to the Iowa 30 yard line, as the Hawks put the ball in play after Indiana scored its lone touchdown. Iowa caught fire in the second half and downed the Hoosiers, 35-9.

Hawks Jubilant Over Victory

Anderson Satisfied With Second Half

By HOBERT DUNCAN
Iowan Sports Writer

A celebrative atmosphere reigned in the Iowa dressing room Saturday afternoon after the Hawkeyes, loggy and listless in the first half, rallied in the last two quarters to score four touchdowns and overwhelm Indiana, 35-9, before a Homecoming crowd of 44,081.

The jubilant Hawks tramped into the dressing room extending mutual congratulations to each other and in turn receiving them from Coach Eddie Anderson. Obviously happy, Anderson circulated about the room, tendering personal praise to individual players.

However, Anderson's only public comment concerning the game was, "I was satisfied with our play in the second half."

Iowa's joy over the triumph was tempered somewhat by the notification that Ralph Woodard, Hawk left end, had suffered a compound fracture of the left leg in the opening minutes of play.

This season-long incapacitation was termed a "tough break" by Anderson. "I didn't observe the play very closely in which Ralph was hurt," Anderson said, "but I think he was hit from the side."

Glenn Drahn, Iowa's passing quarterback who was removed from the lineup with an injured leg, stated after the game that "I'm all right."

Jerry Fiske, the Iowa halfback whose offensive thrusts in the second half sparked the dormant Hawk offense to full flame, had nothing but praise for the Iowa line which opened gaping holes in the Indiana forward wall.

"I've never seen an Iowa line drive like it did this afternoon in the two years I've been here," Fiske said. "The whole middle of the line played inspired ball and all the backs were driving hard."

The Iowa right end, Jack Dittmer, said, "We were getting behind their defenders without too much difficulty today. I think that I could have gotten behind them anytime I wanted to if I had opened wide on the line of scrimmage such as I did the first half. Once Indiana got going downhill in that second half, they went fast."

Clyde Smith, Indiana coach, refused to admit writers to the Hoosier dressing room after the resounding setback—their 11th in succession.

Indiana players reflected their coach's attitude as they walked dejectedly from the locker room.

Hugh Craton, Hoosier right end, summarized the Indiana defeatist attitude with the observation, "Iowa has a pretty good team."

Santa Clara Rolls Over UCLA, 14-0

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An underrated Santa Clara football team struck the clock for the Cinderella-like Bruins of UCLA Saturday, knocking them out of the ranks of the nation's undefeated eleven with a 14-0 victory.

Breaking a dull, scoreless duel in the fourth quarter as 28,911 unbelieving spectators looked on, the astonishing Broncos from Northern California ended the UCLA winning streak at four games with a two-touchdown blast.

It was a non-conference game, having no direct bearing on the UCLA standing in the Pacific Coast conference Rose Bowl race.

JUSTICE STARS, 28-14
CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP)—All-America Charlie Justice went on a three-touchdown spree Saturday to pace unbeaten North Carolina to a 28-14 victory over Wake Forest.

Justice, Wake Forest's star, seemed to melt before the rushes of Tonnemaker and Nomellini.

Twice in the second period, Ohio State threatened. The first time, Halfback Jerry Krall pitched to Halfback Ray Hamilton who was ended out of bounds on Minnesota's 19. It was a 55-yard gain. But the attack bogged down. In the last seconds of the first half, Ohio State's Jimmy Clark tossed to End Tom Watson who was pulled down on the Minnesota 20 for a 60-yard advance. This drive fizzled too.

102-Yard Run Spills USC, 16-10
BERKELEY, CALIF. (AP)—With a thrilling 102-yard touchdown run in the final quarter, California's Bears came from behind to chalk up a 16-10 upset victory over the Southern California Trojans Saturday in their crucial coast conference football game.

While an overflow crowd of 81,500 fans stood and screamed, Left Halfback Frank Brunk, just off the injured list, caught a Trojan kickoff behind his own goal. He started back down the middle, picked up fine interference and raced through the whole Trojan team for the winning tally.

Brunk outran the last opposing tacklers by swerving toward the sideline. Jim Cullom, placekicking artist, added his second conversion and California had posted what turned out to be the winning marker.

With only seconds to play, California added a safety for two

One Record Broken As East Des Moines Cops Prep Mile Title

East high of Des Moines copped the AA class of the 1949 high school mile team championship here Saturday by edging Council Bluffs (Abraham Lincoln), 18-22.

The event, scored as in cross-country, counts points in order of finish with low score winning.

One record was broken as Ray McConnell of Nevada skinned 2.6 seconds off the mark posted by West Branch's Vacic in 1941. Ray's brother Dick placed in the No. 2 spot as the Story county team slid in front of Marion for the class B crown.

University high school of Iowa City was fourth in the class B section.

Fairfield drove to an overwhelming victory in the class A, underdog Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids by 12 points. Larry Manary and Wayne Davis crossed the finish line one-two for Fairfield.

The class C section was another close contest with Central City slipping to a one-point margin over Ollie.

The summary:

Michigan State 42, William & Mary 13
EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State rolled up three touchdowns in the opening period Saturday and then staved off a scrappy band of William and Mary grid-ders for a 42-13 victory in an aerial duel in which 55 passes were thrown.

Lynn Chandnois, the Spartan's all-America halfback candidate, drove over on three touchdown excursions to trip up the Southern conference Indians in the first contest between the two schools.

A crowd of 32,655 saw State take its third straight triumph of the season, far more hard-fought than the score indicated.

Chandnois swiveled his way 24 yards for a touchdown two minutes after the opening kickoff to send State in front. The Spartans never were behind but pitching Buddy Lex kept them frightened and fighting by connecting on half of his 28 aerial attempts for 222 yards and the Indians' two touchdowns.

cracked the Indiana line for consistent gains, finally set up a first down on the 15, and scored on the first play. The scoring play was a fake handoff from Drahn, who finally fed a pitchout to Reichardt. Burly Bill got in trouble twice on a 15 yard jaunt to the touchdown but both times shook himself free from would-be tacklers and got across the line inches away from the out of bounds line.

The extra point gave the Hawks a one point lead, 7-6, as the first quarter ended.

It looked like the Hoosiers were going to score again after they got possession of the ball, as Robertson, taking Denning's punt on his own 35, twisted and turned his way to the Iowa 17. The 48 yard run was the longest of the day and set up Indiana with a golden opportunity to increase the lead all predictors said they would never have.

The officials, who were free with the penalty yardage all through the game, put the ball on the Iowa 23 on a delaying-the-game infraction. Robertson flipped to Hugh Craton on the Iowa five. Van Ooyen plunged to the two, but a backfield-in-motion penalty moved the ball back to the eight.

Henkle entered the game and although the pigskin was at a difficult angle, 15 yards in from the western sidelines, managed to make good on the kick, shooting the Hoosiers back into the lead, 9-7.

The rules infractions took on all aspects of ridiculousness after the last period touchdown of Riley's. On the extra point attempt Reichardt's first try went wide, but Indiana was off sides. On second try both teams were caught holding and the kick was blocked. But on third try everyone behaved and the ball sailed through the uprights.

With the Hawks kicking off Reichardt booted out of bounds, requiring another attempt. Stan Wilkins returned the second kick to the 33 but Iowa was off sides and again Reichardt kicked off. Indiana's Al Tuttle tumbled the return but it was all legal and play was resumed.

For the Hawks the second half was a good showing all around. The victory means high spirits for the tough ball game coming up next week when Northwestern comes to town. The Wildcats will be tougher than ever after upsetting Michigan Saturday, 21-20.

Iowa's Campus Gets a 'Southern' Visit

A pair of unusual fellows, paid the Iowa campus a visit last week, but there was no welcoming mat out for them. In fact, as they walked around the Iowa stadium it was only by chance that they met and talked with these two "gentlemen from the south."

After a few preliminary questions—like how many seats in the stadium are cement and how many are wooden—we managed to squeeze in a question of our own: Who are you?

"I'm treasurer of the University of Tennessee and my friend here is secretary of the alumni association," he said. "We've been on a tour of the midwest this week. Hit several campuses, including Iowa State this morning," he went on. "Just looking around at stadiums and things like that."

By that time our interest was bubbling over and our imagination was working overtime. Here, we imagined, is what you read about, scouts on a talent hunt. A setup, Mr. Moneybags and his assistant with pen and ink, ready to offer "athletic opportunity and education" in the haven for paid athletes, the Southeastern conference.

Names? Imprecable, the show was over when they found out we were from a newspaper. It was too bad, too, because our next question, other than to find out names, was to be something like, How are the Iowa high school stars, or, are there many unhappy college players in the midwest these days?

Before our story went walking off toward the fieldhouse, slightly perturbed at all the questioning, we did find out that "the Volunteers (that's a joke, there's nothing voluntary about it) will be back on the football map one of these days."

There's an Iowa City example of Tennessee's football comeback program, too. He's Rox Shain, who fullbacked for City High last year and was a 200-pound prospect for college football.

Then Louisiana State tried hard to lure Don Swartzendruber but the Wellman triple threat finally decided to take a stab at Big Ten football, for Iowa.

There are hundreds of examples. Southern colleges have long made it a practice to raid (scout) the coal mining area around Pittsburgh, Pa. and the cornfields of the midwest because it's where a majority of the big stars have come from. The south just hasn't produced the high proportion of football standouts that other sections have.

Quite by coincidence one of the first men we talked to after the "stadium talk" conference had ended so abruptly was Dr. Karl Leib, who was inside the practice field watching the Hawkeyes go through a pass defense drill.

Dr. Leib is an SUI commerce professor, but he's also National Collegiate Athletic association president and one of the authors of the famous "sanity code" for controlling the how and how much of college athletes. He was quite interested, but not alarmed.

"I don't believe they were looking for players here or at any college," he said, "although they might have been checking high school athletes that had been spotted by someone connected with Tennessee."

Naturally it's a practice the NCAA is trying to stop, Dr. Leib said, but it seems the southern schools have always been the net we "recruiters" and we can't expect it to stop overnight just because the NCAA code is now being so heartily backed by most colleges.

A check with the record book we had received from Tennessee showed that it wasn't very long ago that the Volunteers were "power" in the football world.

Two trips to the Rose Bowl have been taken, although both were losses to Southern California, 14-0 in 1940 and 25-0 in 1945. In '39 it was the Orange Bowl, '41 and '43 the Sugar Bowl, and two years ago the Orange Bowl again.

But there's a moral to this story, at least for the football fans who think as much of recruiting as we do. You might even call it poetic justice.

The evening of the "visit" to Iowa's campus, Tennessee's fullback and co-captain, Ralph Chaney, was declared ineligible. Reason: fifth year of college football. Call out the scouts, one fullback needed at Tennessee.

AMES (AP) — Iowa State's surprising Cyclones thrilled a record-breaking Homecoming football crowd of 19,500 Saturday with a 25-21 victory over Kansas State.

The excited Homecomers saw their favorites win their third straight Big Seven conference game.

The "Old Grads" had all their anxious moments, but all in all they hadn't had so much fun since 1938 when the Cyclones of that era went unhalated until a 13-13 tie with Kansas State in the next to the last game of the season.

Iowa State came out punching for a 13-0 lead in the first eight minutes on a 25-yard intercepted pass return by Mark Rothacker and a three-yard plunge by Lornie Paulson.

But Kansas State, finding the Iowa State pass defense and its line vulnerable, roared back for two touchdowns and two extra points by Ross Estes. The teams took their halftime rest with Kansas State a 14-13 leader.

Gerald Hackney, the big fullback who powered to 162 of Kansas State's 207 net yards by rushing, bulled across for the Wildcat touchdowns from the three yard line.

Iowa State got its winning points with a furious third quarter performance. The Cyclones breezed to two touchdowns on passes from Bill Weeks to Jim Doran, a 15-yard pass into the end zone and the second was a 41-yard pass - run sizzler. Doran grabbed the ball on the 26 and twisted to the counter.

Kansas State threw a terrific scare into Iowa State enthusiasts in the final quarter. The Wildcats drove 80 yards for a touchdown that Hi Faubion scored from the one. Estes rushed in to boot his third extra point and it was 25-21 with eight minutes to go.

Irish Crush Tulane, 46-7

SOUTH BEND, IND. (AP)—Notre Dame's massive linemen and flashing backs reduced the Green Wave of Tulane to a ripple Saturday, winning to a 46-7 victory before 34,198 fans.

Tulane came to the field rated as the best team in the south, undefeated in three games, but the Henry Franks - coached eleven hardly was able to stay in the clash against the surging Irish mustered.

Piced by Larry Coutre, a slender 170-pound speedster who sailed for three touchdowns, one of them on a 81-yard run which had every facet of greatness, Notre Dame counted 27 points in the opening period.

That was more than enough to win and the Irish were enough wraps the rest of the way as even the fourth stringers, both in the backfield and the line, showed ability so close to that of their betters that Tulane crossed mid-field only five times. One of these trips was a one-shot affair, a pass play from Bill Bonar to George Kinek which covered 75 yards for Tulane's only score.

That pass play, strangely enough, was directly over Coutre's head and although Kinek bobbed the ball on his finger tips before he took off to run, Coutre was unable to catch him and in a close contest, he might have been a goat.

Coutre's other touchdown jaunts were for 15 yards, to end a 71 yard drive of the Irish, and a two yard plunge which was set up by a 53-yard pass from Bob Williams to Bill Wightkin.

Frank Spaniel, another Irish running ace, tallied twice making a 34-yard pass from Williams for his first score and rambling 12 yards for the second to culminate a 63-yard drive in nine plays.

That gigantic Irish end, Leon Hart, who was a blocker - tackler par excellence all day long, also counted on an 18-yard touchdown pass from Williams while Billy Barrett, a sophomore was the final Irish point maker with a 58-yard touchdown junket.

Oklahoma Gains 48-26 Measure Over Kansas

NORMAN, OKLA. (AP) — Oklahoma's touchdown - tornado, Halfback George Thomas, scored four times Saturday as the Big Seven champions smashed a fighting Kansas eleven, 48-26, before 37,000 fans.

Highly favored Oklahoma grabbed a three-touchdown lead in the first half, then squelched a Kansas comeback to mark up its 14th straight victory.

Oklahoma's brilliant triple-threat quarterback, Darrell Royal, Fullback Leon Heath and Halfback Lindell Pearson shared scoring duties with Thomas. Quarterbacks Dick Gilman and Jerry Bogue sparked the Kansas offensive which elicited four times but never gave Oklahoma a serious scare.

Missouri Edges By Illini, 27-20

CHAMPAIGN (UP) — A 22-year famine of victories over Western conference teams ended for the Missouri Tigers Saturday as they outscored Illinois, 27-20, in a wide-open game.

After trading touchdowns with Illinois on even terms for three periods, Missouri drove 63 yards to a last quarter score to hand Illinois its first defeat of the year.

The victory was a sweet one for Don Faurot, coach of Missouri, whose teams never had beaten a Western conference opponent. The win was the first for Missouri over a Western conference team since it beat Northwestern, 34-19, in 1927.

Both teams played wide-open football, and their backs brought the 42,184 fans to their feet time after time with long runs.

Missouri didn't clinch the game until the final minutes when John Glorioso intercepted an Illinois pass in the Missouri end zone to end a drive that threatened to tie the score.

The Missourians started out like they intended to make the game a rout. On the first play Missouri ran from scrimmage. Glorioso broke off tackle and threaded his way 49 yards for a touchdown.

A few minutes later, Missouri took over on the Illinois 44 and drove to another touchdown in eight plays, with Dick Brazzell going the final three yards for the score.

Both teams scored in the second quarter. Ronald Clark plunged for the Illinois score after officials ruled that Mike Ghouly interfered with him on a pass from Bernie Krueger in the end zone. Missouri made it 20-6

Community Chest Drive Receipts Total $14,099

Contributions to the Iowa City community chest recorded Saturday noon at chest headquarters brought the total just over the half-way mark on the last day of the drive. The goal was $26,045.74.

General Chairman Graham Marshall said $14,099.24 had been received at the office. But he knew of several large amounts which had not been brought in. One such amount reportedly was over $800.

Workers were unable to present an itemized report on Saturday because the office was closed at noon. The office in the city hall will be open for "probably two weeks," Marshall said, urging solicitors to bring in their collections right away.

There will be no extension to the drive itself, Marshall said. Persons who wish to contribute and are not contacted by solicitors should call chest headquarters.

Currier to Provide For War Orphan

SUI dormitory Currier hall is "adopting" a war orphan, according to Currier Pres. Donna Belle Jones, A4, Missouri Valley.

Each dorm unit has agreed to contribute part of its unit spending money toward care of the child.

For 50 cents a day—$180 a year—Currier's ward will get food, shelter, clothing and instruction. He may live either in a foster home or in a colony with other war orphans.

The money will be handled by the Foster Parents' Plan for War Children, Inc. This plan is now caring for 7,000 children of 14 nationalities.

Currier women will be given an opportunity to correspond with the child. Some units plan to make letter-writing a unit project.

Prof. Wendell Johnson Writes for New Book

Prof. Wendell Johnson, director of the SUI speech clinic, is author of a chapter on the communication process in a new book, "Mass Communications."

The book is edited by Prof. Wilbur Schramm, director of the Institute of Communications Research at the University of Illinois, and former head of the SUI school of journalism.

Johnson presents in his chapter a stage-by-stage description of "Mr. A talking to Mrs. B," the process of communication, with an analysis of the function and possible disorders at each stage of the process.

The volume is a publication of the University of Illinois.

First Award Given To SUI Physician For EENT Exhibit

An SUI doctor, Placidus J. Leinfelder, was a member of a group which Friday was given first award for a scientific exhibit in ophthalmology at a Chicago meeting.

Leinfelder, professor of ophthalmology in the SUI college of medicine, helped prepare the exhibit presented at a meeting of the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology last week.

The organization is a society of eye, ear, nose and throat specialists.

The exhibit, in conjunction with papers presented by the five members of the group, dealt with here-itary conditions connected with night blindness. Leinfelder's paper was a discussion of the classification of the diseases associated with night blindness, he said Saturday. Dr. Derrick T. Vail, Chicago, was named president-elect of the organization at the meeting which ended Friday.

27 Persons Fined $72 In Police Court Friday

Twenty-seven persons were fined $72 in police court Friday.

Paul Birch, Mason City, was fined $17.50 for speeding, and Dale Schneider, Moline, Ill., was fined $12.50 for failing to stop for a stop sign.

Twenty-five persons were fined $42 for parking and meter violations. Two cases were dismissed.

Alumnus Saves Badges Since 1926

Almost everyone in and around Iowa City buys a Homecoming badge each year, but few keep their badges after Homecoming activities are celebrated.

William J. Hildebrand, 185 S. Van Buren street, however, is one loyal SUI alumnus who has made a hobby of collecting SUI Homecoming badges since 1926.

Hildebrand, 35, began collecting the badges when he was 12. A native Iowa citizen, he continued collecting the badges through high school and his college days here at SUI. He graduated from SUI in 1936 as a commerce major.

The collection now includes all the Homecoming badges issued from 1926 until 1949. He also has one earlier badge issued at the 1922 Homecoming which shows a photograph of the '22 football team.

Here's a description of the other badges in the collection: 1926 badges had a silhouette of the helmeted head of a football player.

1927's was a reproduction of the entrance to the "Old Iowa Field" south of the reserve library; 1928 had the figure of a football player silhouetted in front of the goal posts; and in 1929 the columns of Old Capitol were featured.

1930 badges consisted of an "I" superimposed on the reproduction of a football; 1931, a flying hawk was superimposed on a large "I"; in 1932 there was a picture of a great Dane dog, team mascot at that time, wearing a football helmet.

1933 badges displayed the picture of a football player; 1934's had the picture of Coach Ossie Solem, and the SUI marching band was featured on the 1935 badges.

1936 badges showed the president's home; 1937's consisted of a picture of Irl Tubbs who was then coach; 1938's was a cartoon representing two "old grads" greeting each other, and 1939's depicted Nile Kinick and Coach Eddie Anderson.

In 1940 the badges consisted of an Iowa state map with a large "I" and a drum major's hat super-imposed upon it; 1941's showed a spread-eagled hawk with "Iowa" written below, and 1942 badges featured the Iowa Hawk and a "V" for victory.

Victory tags instead of badges were worn by Homecomers in 1943. They were cardboard tags with Old Capitol displayed; in 1944, Old Capitol was again featured, and 1945 badges depicted the president's home.

In 1946 a view of the field-house was shown; 1947's was the centennial badge and featured Old Capitol's dome; 1948's badge had "Herky the Hawk" over the stadium.

This year's badge is a view of the University hospitals' tower.

Each homecoming sees familiar faces, familiar names. The Campus Consultant staff joins with its advertisers in thanking you for a joyous homecoming... visit with us again... it's always fun seeing you.

Jack McDonald, local Dolphin swimmer, is getting resigned to the new 'sarong' look. The past two Dolphin show nights Jack has been putting his clothes in lockers with fellow Dolphins; each night has seen a change in lockers with a following mixup in lock combinations... thus the 'sarong' look. Jack has been strolling about the locker clad in only a towel waiting for someone to open a locker and release his clothes. When we spoke to him last he seemed anxious for the show to end — 'locker rooms are cold and unfriendly,' he tells us.
