House Okays Foreign Aid Bill
Knocks Out 'Rider' on Ireland

WASHINGTON (AP) - The house, in a sweeping reversal of its earlier actions, Friday passed and sent to the senate a billion foreign aid bill. The vote was 287 to 86.

The huge, one-package bill was trimmed of some of the money President Truman wanted, and his plan to develop backward areas of the world was cut almost in half.

But the administration won these two hotly contested points:

1. An amendment which would have barred all aid to Britain until Ireland is united was knocked out by a 226-to-60 standing vote.

2. A provision that $1-billion of the fund be earmarked for surplus U.S. crops was eliminated, 198 to 70.

But the administration lost a couple of other decisions.

A $250-million cut in Marshall Plan funds stayed in. Through a technicality, the administration had to accept the cut or the surplus crop amendment.

The Democratic leaders decided to take the cut—and hope the senate would put the quarter billion back in.

The plan to develop economically backward areas was slashed from a requested $45-million to $25-million. The vote here was 117 to 78.

Here's the way the bill now lines up:

$2,850-million for the Marshall Plan nations of Europe.

$100-million for the Republic of Korea.

$100-million for Formosa, Nationalist China and southeastern Asia. (This fund is a carry-over from previous money which hasn't been spent).

$27,450,000 for relief of Arab refugees from Holy Land Wars.

$25-million for development of backward areas under the "point four" plan — so named because Mr. Truman mentioned it fourth in a foreign policy speech.

The amendment which would have barred aid to the British until Ireland is united was passed Wednesday when the house was in a kitchensh mood.

Date Set to Seat Council Delegates

Delegates-at-large elected to the SUI Student Council in Wednesday's all-campus elections will take office April 20, Pres. Dick Dice, A4, Marion, said Friday.

Elected for one-year terms from a slate of 17 were Edward Diekmann, E2, Ottumwa; Dick Turney, A2, Oelwein; Joy Wilson, A3, Ottumwa, and Louise Bekman, A2, Ottumwa.

Thirteen other members will be appointed to the council from SUI housing units next week, Public Relations Director Bud Landon, A4, Council Bluffs, reported.

But How High Can Higher Education Go

EASTON, PA. (AP) - Lafayette college popped up Friday as the highest in higher education in the flying college.

Dr. Ralph C. Hutchison, president of the eastern Pennsylvania school, disclosed Friday that students will leave this college June 30 on a summer tour study with the world as classroom.

The flying college will be conducted in conjunction with Lafayette's school of international affairs.

Students will pay $1,542 and will begin their summer course when they step aboard DC-4 at Bradley field, Wirlocks, Conn.

They will fly across the United States for visits to the Hawaiian Islands, Wake Island, Japan, Hong Kong, Siam, Pakistan, Iran, Palestine, Greece and Italy.

The roving students will their final exams at Rome August 8 and head for home.

Bond for Rutledge Refused by Clerk

CEDAR RAPIDS (AP) - Effort to free Dr. Robert Rutledge from Madison prison on bond was temporarily stymied Friday when Linn County Clerk Arthur A. refused to accept property of Sioux City widow as bond.

Bob Cornett, Omaha bond and Defense Attorney Sid met with County Attorney W. Crissman and Axmeier for more than two hours, but Cornett, the courthouse without possession.

Rutledge is serving a 70-year sentence at the Fort Madison prison on his second degree murder conviction of the hotel room slaying of Byron Hattman, alleged seducer of Rutledge's wife. He was convicted here last May of the December, 1948, knife-slaying.

His conviction has been appealed to the Iowa supreme court and his freedom is sought on an appeal bond pending the high court decision, expected next fall.

Over Reds in High Office Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) - Democratic and Republican leaders, carried their foreign policy battle to far-flung parts of the country Friday in a sharpening debate over whether the government is Communist-infested.

With the dispute rapidly shaping up as a key campaign issue in this year's congressional elections, these were highlight developments:

1. Sen. Robert Taft (R - Ohio) declared the "only way to get rid of the Communists in the state department is to change the head of the government." He told a party rally in Portland, Me., "It can't be done with men in control who think they (Communists) are red herrings."

2. Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath accused the Republicans of launching a "Communist scare" so as to "prey upon the people's fear and create headlines helpful to the Republican campaign cause."

3. Secretary of State Dean Acheson flatly denied that Owen J. Lattimore, whom McCarthy has called a Communist agent, molded this country's far eastern policy to Russia's benefit.

Acheson told a news conference that the Johns Hopkins professor never has been employed by the state department and that Lattimore's contacts with the department have been limited to a few occasions. The secretary also said he doesn't think he has even met Lattimore. The latter is on his way back from abroad to deny McCarthy's charges.

4. Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH) challenged President Truman to a "showdown" on his charges Thursday that Bridges, McCarthy and Sen. Kenneth Wherry (R - Neb) are "sabotaging" this country's foreign policy by their attacks on the state department.

5. A Republican senator, Wayne Morse of Oregon, issued a statement blasting anyone who seeks "to make our country's foreign policy a partisan issue."

Stolen Baby Found, One Still Missing

NEW YORK (AP) - A 36-year-old mother of four was charged with kidnapping Friday in the disappearance of another woman's blonde, blue-eyed baby girl from a Brooklyn theater lobby.

The baby was found unharmed as police were unsuccessfully searching every nook and cranny of a Bronx neighborhood for a tiny, premature Negro baby that also vanished Thursday night from the Lincoln hospital incubator.

Doctors said there was only the faintest hope that the Negro child has survived. It probably could not live more than an hour outside the incubator, they said.

Both infants disappeared around 7 p.m. (Iowa time) Thursday night. Police said, however, there was no connection between the incidents.

Magazine Charges AEC With Gag on Physicists

NEW YORK (AP) - The atomic energy commission has imposed a gag on physicists which threatens to prevent the American people from making intelligent judgments on the atom and hydrogen bombs, Scientific American magazine charged Friday night.

The magazine revealed that it was forced to burn 3,000 copies of its proposed April issue because of an article written by Hans J. Bethe to which the AEC objected.

Iowans Wow Legislators

SACRAMENTO, CALIF. (AP) - Student singers from Iowa brought a break Friday in California law-making.

Sixty-four touring men and women from Waldorf college at Forest City stopped to listen to debate in the state assembly. Lower house members suggested music, so the students, directed by Odvin Hagen, stood and sang two numbers from the gallery.

ATLANTA (AP) - Atlanta police arranged to have the pictures of escaped prisoners L. J. "Buster" Masters and Eston Anderson broadcast by a local television station.

Shortly afterward the telephone at headquarters rang and a voice identified as Masters' said: "That's a helluva picture of me. Can't you do better?"

Census-Takers Contact Dorms, Living Units Soon

Students living in university housing units probably will be contacted by census-takers sometime next week, George Kanak, local census supervisor Friday.

Although census-taking in Iowa and across the nation today, Kanak said he does not yet know exactly how these students will be contacted.

Of the 17 urban census-takers in university housing units are Ann E. Duhig, A2, Emmet-Currier hall, and Arnold Lehler, C3, Fort Dodge — single) and will take the census there either by contacting students individually or through university records, Kanak said.

Other SUI students, who live off campus, are among Kanak's crew of urban census-takers. Students living in homes will be contacted at the same time as other Iowa City students.

Kanak said Iowa City and SUI have been divided into 28 enumerating districts by the federal census bureau. The bureau also has a number of census-takers in district 17, the same district that did the work in 1940, Kanak said.

He thought the bureau should have created more enumerating districts and allotted a greater number of census-takers.

-Rule in Effect Easter Recess

Faculty members have been asked to report absences of all students not registered in the college for the 24-hour period before and after Easter recess at the registrar's office, Registrar H. McCarrel said Friday.

Easter vacation begins Wednesday at 6 p.m. and ends the following Monday at 7:30 a.m.

A semester hour of academic credit will be added to the total number of semester hours required for graduation for each class cut by an undergraduate.

In the college of liberal arts no classes are to be cancelled or limited to roll taking during these periods, Dean Dewey B. Stuit, college of liberal arts, said.

Substitutes will be provided in the event of enforced absence of the instructor, he said.

Czech Clergymen Deny Spy Charges

PRAGUE (AP) - Two of 10 Roman Catholic priests accused of spying for the United States pleaded innocent Friday in the first major church trial before the state court here, the official Prague radio said Friday night.

Jesuit Father Frantisek Silhan and the Rev. Stanislas Bartak, provisor of Nova Risa monastery, entered innocent pleas, after four other priests had admitted their guilt in court.

The 10 priests went on trial in Prague's Pankrac prison Friday on charges of treason and espionage on orders of the U.S. and the Vatican.

Bednasek Awaits Jury's Decision

Testimony in Robert E. Bednasek's murder trial ended Friday but the case was delayed in reaching the jury when District Judge James P. Gaffney adjourned until Monday morning.

The state and defense rested after 12 days of testimony on the slaying of Margaret Anne (Geege) Jackson, 20-year-old Burlington coed, who died in a men's rooming-house last Dec. 11.

Judge Gaffney said it would be impossible to complete closing arguments and instructions to the jury today, and have a verdict by Sunday — Palm Sunday. He said some of the jurors wanted to attend church.

The state ended its rebuttal with the testimony of Dr. LeMoyn Snyder, former medical director of the Michigan state police. Snyder said he doubted if a fall could have caused the injuries to Miss Jackson's throat that choked off her breath.

Bednasek, who was recalled to the stand Friday, testified Thursday that Miss Jackson died accidentally in a fall against a chair.

Snyder said, "I think it is extremely unlikely that these injuries were caused by falling and striking the back of a chair."

Special Prosecutor Edward F. Rate recalled Bednasek to the stand. Bednasek repeated that Miss Jackson first put her hands on his throat, and that he then showed her the proper way to choke a person.

Bednasek claims he and Miss Jackson often practiced judo holds and even boxed together.

The defense earlier introduced several entries from Bednasek's diary, which the state had used to show that he had dated other girls besides Geege.

The defense contends the initials "GG" after the dates of Dec. 10 and Dec. 11, showed that Bednasek had planned a date with the coed on the day of her death.

The last defense witness was Dr. Wilbur R. Miller, director of the SUI psychopathic hospital, where Bednasek went last month for "truth serum" treatments he claims prided the "forgotten details" of the girl's death from his mind.

Dr. Miller testified that the drug, sodium pentathol, was used effectively in the treatment of shock and amnesia during the war.

On cross-examination, Rate tried to get Dr. Miller to say that whiskey could be used for the same purpose as the drug, but Dr. Miller said the results were different.

By its reference to whiskey, the state apparently sought to show that Bednasek, who had been drinking at the time of the girl's death, told the full story to police after his arrest.

Dr. H.M. Korns, former SUI professor of medicine and now a general practitioner in Iowa City, testified that less than one percent of average persons would be so sensitive that a slight pressure on certain areas of the neck could cause loss of consciousness or convulsions.

The presentation of evidence in the trial was concluded in 14 days. A total of 70 witnesses, 35 for each side, testified during 11 1-2 days of testimony.

Veis' Education Plan Due to End in 1951

WASHINGTON (AP) - The veterans administration warned ex-GI's Friday — 15 months in advance — that the veterans education and training program runs out July 25, 1951.

It also explained the rules that will govern final phases of the government-paid postwar schooling program.

VA explained that it is issuing the warning this far in advance to give veterans "ample opportunity" to make their plans.

It said any veteran who is enrolled in school on the terminal date may, of course, complete his training. But he may not begin a completely new course of training.

Any veteran whose schooling has been temporarily interrupted — by summer vacation or other reasons beyond his control — when the "cutoff" date comes up, has the right to return to school.

There are two exceptions to the deadline date — (1) veterans who were discharged from service after July 25, 1947, and (2) individuals who enlisted or re-enlisted under the armed forces voluntary recruitment act.

California Regents Back Loyalty Oath

SANTA BARBARA, CALIF. (AP) - Regents of the University of California, by a 10 to 10 tie vote, Friday night decided not to rescind the institution's controversial loyalty oath for faculty members.

The vote was taken after four and a half hours of heated debate on a resolution submitted by Regent Earl J. Fenston of Fresno, Calif.

University President Robert G. Spruill then presented a faculty resolution which rejected the loyalty oath and instead asked substitution of a statement declaring communism was an enemy of freedom and had no place in the university.

Plans Approved for $750,000 Hospital School

Plans for a $750,000 new SUI Hospital School for Severely Handicapped Children have been approved by the state board of education, President Virgil M. Hancher said Friday.

The board of education met Thursday at Vinton.

The new hospital school, which will accommodate about 80 full-time pupils, will be located north and west of University hospital, George Horner said Friday.

Construction is expected to begin late this summer, he said.

The school is temporarily located in the basement of Westlawn nurses' home. About 27 children are now enrolled. The school has been operated on an experimental basis since it opened in October, 1948, according to W.B. Schoenbohm, director.

The main part of the new building will be a three-story structure. Four one-story dormitory wings will project from the main structure.

Only children too physically handicapped to attend regular schools will attend the new school.

The new building has been planned to avoid heavy traffic between areas. The top floor will serve resident and day students, and the first floor will have all facilities for the out-patient clinic and the school's administration.

The children will spend most of their time on one floor of the new building because of the difficulty of moving them from one floor to another.

The dormitory floor will be level with the ground at the outer end of the wings, and will open on a play and recreation area.

Classrooms, therapy facilities, a speech clinic, living and dining quarters, a library and a music room all will be located on the same floor.

A small auditorium also will be included in the building. Sloping ramps are planned from the dormitory floor to the auditorium.

Plans will lead up to the stage to enable children in braces or wheel chairs to take part in programs. Other ramps will lead from the upper floor to the ground floor for use as a fire escape.

About 10,000 handicapped children are registered on state records and only a small percentage will be able to live at the school. Many others will be handled as day students and for clinical study, Horner said.

Architects now will begin work on final plans for the building. These plans must be approved by the board of education and the interim committee of the Legislature before bids are opened.

HIS FACE REFLECTED from the shiny table in the judge's chambers, Robert E. Bednasek pondered the days events Friday afternoon. With testimony now completed by both the state and defense, the 24-year old former SUI student now waits for his case to be sent to the jury which shall decide his fate. The Cedar Rapids youth is charged with the strangulation slaying of his campus sweetheart, Margaret Anne (Geege) Jackson.

Money-Making Motto—

Iowa City's street commissioner, Willard Irvin, said two automobiles were damaged Wednesday and Thursday when they struck "frost boils" or protruding mounds of brick on a city street.

The damage was not minor: the oil pans of both vehicles were punctured.

If these two accidents are the only ones to be caused by the neglected condition of our byways, it will be a surprise to us.

Low-slung cars of today are more vulnerable to such accidents than older vehicles but even the older ones could easily be damaged in some of the deep cracks and holes which now plague Iowa City motorists.

We have commented once before in these columns about the vast and overall chuck-holed condition of the streets—a condition which has existed now for over a month with little apparent effort to remedy the situation.

What's worse, there aren't any war veterans posted to motorists to aid in avoiding the "frost boils."

It is a known fact that every spring thaw and running water do considerable damage to the paving, and the street department cannot possibly keep repairs up with amount of damage done, but it seems that street department has taken this situation excusely for its negligence.

Surely the city administration, and especially the street department, is aware of the fact that such damage is forthcoming each spring. Why don't they prepare for it? If added help is needed—allowance should be made for it.

Present motto of the Iowa City administration seems to be "Millions for parking and not one cent for street repair."

A 'Faux Pas'—

Time magazine last week shed some light on a mystery that probably has puzzled millions of U.S. and European restaurant guests for decades.

An unexpected champion, Time said, arose for the millions who cannot tell "Chicken Marengo" from "Escalope de Foie Gras Talleyrand" from "Surprise Omelet Milord" from "apple pie a la mode."

(French fried chicken, goose liver with macaroni and cheese, omelet with pears and vanilla ice cream, and apple pie with ice cream, respectively.)

Time's champion was a columnist for one of Budapest's Communist daily newspapers, who reportedly had his appetite ruined by a restaurant menu item called "Tournedos a la Metternich" (glazed choice cut of filet of beef with Bechamel sauce, truffles and paprika).

The columnist wrote that "patrons of a restaurant could not be expected to order dishes whose names they either couldn't understand or which called up memories that would curdle the stomach."

Time's researchers found that most of the world's gastronomic jargon was created in the 18th and 19th centuries, often in commemoration of important events, but more often to please the cooks' masters.

Time noted, however, that the United States contributed at least one lasting bit of culinary jargon, "Lobster Newberg, Lobster in a sauce of sherry, cream, paprika, egg yolk and butter."

America's World War I vagaries such as "Liberty Cabbage" (sauerkraut) and "Salisbury Steak" (hamburger) also were given "honorable" mention.

Sauerkraut and hamburger, most Americans probably will agree, could stand more appealing names. And American World War II veterans probably would add Spam and creamed beef on toast to that list.

The culinary jargon devised during the war, however, did little to make the eating of Spam and creamed beef on toast more pleasant, he charges.

"The situation offers an invitation to skulduggery. Already there have been instances, on the face of them, have caused enough concern to justify congressional investigation."

The congressional five-percent procedure and the forthcoming lobbyist investigations are small time compared to what would be covered if many "government old grads" were investigated, Butler says.

The Republican senator lists names and cites instances where "old grads" of government agencies have used "former ins" to swing big deals for private clients thereby netting themselves large fees.

To correct this practice, Butler recommends the established technical services of the department of commerce be used as a clearing house where businessmen can get information on the government's technological, scientific and engineering programs, without resorting to an "old grad." Sounds pretty sound.

Census-Takers' Quiz Show Starts Today

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Uncle Sam begins his biggest citizen-counting job in history today. The person who may come to your house any time after 7 a.m. (Iowa time) isn't an April fool prankster. Don't slam the door in his face. He's the census taker, part of America's biggest quiz show.

In every part of the country—from Maine to California, from Florida to Oregon—145,000 men and women will begin ringing doorbells this morning.

And when your census taker announces his presence, don't hesitate to give him 100 percent cooperation. Everything you tell him is strictly confidential. The U.S. government guarantees that.

In his recent proclamation calling for the start of the census April 1, President Truman said: "No person can be harmed in any way by furnishing the information required."

"Individual information collected under the census will not be used for purposes of taxation, investigation or regulation or in connection with military or jury service, the compulsion of school attendance, the regulation of immigration, or with the enforcement of any national, state or local law or ordinance."

Census Director Roy V. Peel asked the American people for "whole-hearted assistance" in what he called "the biggest single statistical undertaking in American history."

John J. Lennon, who directs the national census office in a converted government factory here, said all enumerators will be courteous and polite and estimated it'll take a census taker about 10 minutes to accomplish his mission.

"I'm sure nobody will mind that," he said. The job will cost the U.S. about $80-million before all the results are in. This is twice as much as in 1940.

The actual canvassing should be completed in 10 days to two weeks. Some rural areas may take a little longer. Each enumerator will cover about 1,100 persons or 300 families. He'll average about 30 doorbells a day.

Then the real work begins: tabulating, coding, cross-indexing. President Truman won't know how many people he leads until Dec. 1. It figures roughly to about 151,000,000. A lot of other data secured in the questioning will take five or six months more time to compile.

"Electrical brains" will do the compiling.

This will be the 17th U.S. census. Its official purpose is to determine the makeup of the house of representatives, which is based upon population.

Best guesses about population shifts are that California has gained, Pennsylvania lost. California figures to pick up about seven seats in the house, Pennsylvania to lose two.

There are other, unofficial, reasons for the census: It will provide vital figures for businessmen who want to sell television sets, sociologists who want to study the rising or falling standard of living, government officials who will draft social legislation.

And, you'd better answer the questions. If you don't, you are subject to a fine of $50 or a prison term of 60 days.

Oh, the Cost of a Congressman

- 1 ANNUAL SALARY IS $12,500 . . .
- 2 AND $2,500 TAX FREE EXPENSE ACCOUNT . . .
- 3 AND 20 CENTS A MILE TRAVEL EXPENSES TO AND FROM SESSIONS . . .
- 4 AND UP TO $700 A YEAR FOR STATIONARY . . .
- 5 AND CLERK HIRE BASED ON $12,500, WHICH RUNS AS HIGH AS $24,000 . . .
- 6 NEW BILL WOULD UP PHONE, TELEGRAPH ALLOWANCE FROM $500 TO $1,000 . . .

A CONGRESSMAN'S COST to the taxpayer is getting higher and higher, this compilation of expenses and allowances indicates. The congressional reorganization act of 1947 added several of the items above. Latest item is the bill to increase telephone and telegraph allowances. It all adds up to upwards of $30,000 annually, for each of the 435 members of the house of representatives.

Raim Seeks Re-Election As State Representative

Joseph G. Raim, 57, will seek re-election as representative of Johnson county in the Iowa legislature, Atty. Edward Lucas, Johnson county Democratic party chairman, said Friday.

Raim, who lives in Solon, will be a Democratic candidate in the primary election to be held June 5, Lucas said.

Lucas said Raim's present two-year term as a state legislator will expire Jan. 1, 1951.

Emergency Move To Check Diseases

CLARINDA (AP)—Gov. William S. Beardsley Friday sent state officials to the Iowa mental hospital here in efforts to check an outbreak of influenza and grippie among patients and employees.

Dr. C.C. Graves, director of state mental institutions, said 17 of 51 deaths in the hospital during the last two months could be attributed to influenza and pneumonia.

State officials were aroused with an earlier report that 48 mental patients had died of flu, but Graves said that most deaths since February could be attributed to other causes.

Swift action of state authorities saw to it that influenza and grippie patients were isolated. In addition, restrictions on visitors and recreation activities were put into effect.

Following a conference with the governor, board of control Chairman Henry Burma and a member of the board, Robert Lappen, flew here from Des Moines for an inspection of the situation.

Emergency Move To Check Diseases

CLARINDA (AP)—Gov. William S. Beardsley Friday sent state officials to the Iowa mental hospital here in efforts to check an outbreak of influenza and grippie among patients and employees.

Dr. C.C. Graves, director of state mental institutions, said 17 of 51 deaths in the hospital during the last two months could be attributed to influenza and pneumonia.

State officials were aroused with an earlier report that 48 mental patients had died of flu, but Graves said that most deaths since February could be attributed to other causes.

Swift action of state authorities saw to it that influenza and grippie patients were isolated. In addition, restrictions on visitors and recreation activities were put into effect.

Cornsticks Enhance Meals

SOMETHING NEW in the bread family is shown above. The bran cornsticks provide an unusual hot bread to accompany soup, salad or the main dish. This variation on common bread, biscuits or rolls may be toasted for breakfast and served with butter, marmalade or jam. When spring picnics are on the agenda, the cornsticks will provide a welcome addition to the picnic basket.

Bran Cornsticks Replace Bread Served at Meals

Bread — "the staff of life" — may be served in a variety of forms these days to inject a novel influence into everyday meals. Homemakers may now serve such variations as bran cornsticks to vary the usual plate of bread, biscuits or rolls. The sticks are a variation on the usual shape of bread and feature a new and distinctive flavor. The combination of bran and corn meal serves as a tasty accompaniment for soup, salad or the main dish. The left-over sticks may be toasted for breakfast and served with butter, marmalade or jam.

Bran Cornsticks
3 tablespoons shortening
1-4 cup sugar
1 egg
1 1/2 cup milk
1 cup ready-to-eat bran
3-4 cup cornmeal
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 1-2 teaspoons baking powder
Blend shortening and sugar thoroughly; add egg, beat until creamy. Add milk, bran and corn meal. Let soak until most of moisture is taken up. Sift flour with salt and baking powder; add to first mixture and stir until flour disappears. Fill greased cornstick molds and bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 30 minutes. The recipe will yield 16 cornsticks.

Davenport Wins Valley Track Title; Little Hawks Finish in Third Place

Iowa City's Ebert Half Mile Winner

By EVERETT MONTGOMERY
Davenport's power-laden Blue Devils compiled 75 1-2 points Friday night to dethrone Dubuque as Mississippi Valley indoor track champions. Clinton grabbed 58 1-2 points for second and Iowa City captured third spot with 36.

The Big Three of the Valley league completely dominated the events, winning all but one event. In that one, Clinton gained a tie with Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids.

Iowa City's star half-mile runner, LeRoy Ebert, won his section of the 880-yard run, breaking the tape in 2:01.5 and with yards to spare. Ebert came back later to anchor the Little Hawk medley relay team to victory for Iowa City's two firsts.

Probable Hawkeye Starter

ONLY VETERAN PITCHER on the Hawkeye baseball team this year is Dick Hecksema, who will probably be Coach Otto Vogel's choice this afternoon to open the season on the mound for Iowa. The Hawks play Washington university in St. Louis at 2:30 in the first of an eight-game swing through Missouri and Arkansas.

Hawks Travel to St. Louis for Opener with Washington Today

Iowa's baseball team opens its 1950 season today against the Bears of Washington university at St. Louis. Game time is set for 2:30 p.m.

Today's game is the first of eight contests scheduled during the Hawkeyes' southern training trip. Monday and Tuesday the Iowans play a pair of games with Arkansas State at Conway, Ark. The team will wind up its week-long jaunt through Arkansas and Missouri with a game with St. Louis university at St. Louis.

Pitching a Problem
The biggest problem facing Coach Otto Vogel in his 23rd season at Iowa, is the pitching department. The Big Ten co-title team of 1949 has only one man who can be classed as a starter.

The Hawkeyes' hopes of repeating last year's performance which won them a share of the conference title with Indiana and Michigan depend upon whether, or not the death of pitchers can be corrected.

Only veteran hurler is Dick Hecksema, a senior left-hander who has won two letters. Hoeksema pitched .500 ball last season, winning two and losing two. Dick Orth, another left-hander and Glenn Drahn, right-hander, both won letters last year, but saw only limited action. Either Hoeksema or Drahn will start against Washington today.

Rod Marsh, a minor letter-winner last year, may bolster Vogel's southpaw mound staff. Junior Merlin Kurt could prove valuable in relief roles.

May Convert
Vogel, in order to strengthen his pitching staff, has been working on the conversion of a pair of infielders who won major letters last year.

The two former infielders are George Schamberger and Arnold Espe, both right-handers. Bill Andrews, Duane Brandt, Al Lenski and Jack Weik have shown promise in spring workouts. All are right-handers except Andrews.

Outside of the pitching weakness the Hawkeye situation looks bright. Twelve major lettermen, six of whom started most of last season's games, have returned and are No. 1 candidates for the positions held last year.

The only vacant spots in the Iowa lineup are one infield and one outfield position. The infield is intact except for shortstop. Bob Primrose, last year's starter at short, has been moved to third base to replace Keith Kafer, who graduated.

At second will be Jack Dittmer, top Iowa fielder, for the fourth straight year. Dittmer placed on the second all-American team last year. Murland Moran, leading Hawkeye hitter in Big Ten games, will be back at first base.

Iowa Grid Officials Talk to West Branch 'I' Club Prospects

(Special to The Daily Iowan)
WEST BRANCH — The statewide expansion of the "I" Club moved to West Branch Friday night as Max Hawkins, alumni field secretary, addressed more than 50 prospective members.

The "I" Club is an organization of friends of SUI who support the school "with enthusiasm, rallies and financial assistance."

Open to Anyone
It is not limited to letter winners, as is the popular conception, but is open to anyone who wishes to "foster school and state pride."

Hawkins pointed out that members pay yearly dues of $10, which goes into a scholarship fund apart from university control.

"The 'I' Club scholarships are given to all students, not only athletes," Hawkins said.

Advantages Told
Hawkins cited several tangible advantages of membership in the club. Members receive preference in monthly tickets, receive the monthly bulletin of the organization and attend numerous club-sponsored functions, he said.

Two members of the Iowa coaching staff, Bob Fitch and Bernie Masterson, also gave talks. Fitch revealed that SUI is trying to install a B football team "to give more students a chance to play the game."

Andrew Mathers, head of the West Branch chapter, concluded the meeting by declaring that "West Branch is 100 percent behind our state university."

Yale Freshman Tops Two World Records

NEW HAVEN, CONN. (AP) — John Marshall, a sleek package of swimming dynamite from Australia, knocked off two world records in a single race Friday night in winning the 220 yard freestyle at the National AAU championships for his second individual crown.

Marshall, a 20-year-old Yale freshman, ripped through the 200 meter freestyle in 2:04.6 and the 220 yards in 2:05.5, both faster than anyone ever swam the distances before.

Joe Verdeur of Philadelphia, representing the Brighton swim club, lowered another world standard when he was timed in 2:28.3 for the 200 meter breaststroke, but his rival, Robert Brawner of Princeton, lunged ahead of him in the next event and won the national championship in the 220-yard breaststroke in 2:29.3, a new meet record.

There is no recognized world record at 220 yards in the breaststroke.

Marshall, who Thursday night won the 1,500 meter free style and set a new meet record, Friday afternoon lowered the accepted world standard for 220 yards from 2:07.1 to 2:06.4. Six hours later he pushed it down almost another second.

As was the case in the 1,500 meters, his only rival was another Yale freshman, James McLane, who did 2:08.6.

The listed world records that were kicked around Friday night were: 200 meters free style, 2:05.4, set by Alex Jany of France, 1946; 220 yards free style, 2:07.1, set by William Smith, Ohio State, 1944; and 220 meters breaststroke, 2:30.0 set by Verdeur in 1948 in this same pool.

Pro Golfers May Quit PGA Sanction

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP) — Professional golf's tournament setup erupted Friday with the disclosure that a group of about 25 of the top circuit players were on the verge of setting up their own organization, with or without sanction of the parent body, the Professional Golfers' Association of America.

Machinery for the new organization was set in motion Thursday night at a meeting of most of the top players who currently are competing in the Wilmington Open.

George Schneider, manager of the PGA tournament bureau, will head the new setup if it goes through as proposed.

Meanwhile a reliable source said that Schneider would be called to Chicago headquarters next Monday for a "showdown" meeting with PGA President Joe Novak of Los Angeles and other officers.

Grapefruit Results — Tigers Down Cards in 11th

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA. (AP) — The Detroit Tigers downed the St. Louis Cards, 2-1, in 11 innings Friday for the Birds' fourth straight loss.

Both clubs got top-flight hurling. Rookie Saul Rogovin and Hal White stopped the Cards with seven shattered hits. Fred Martin and Harry Brecheen also displayed mid-season form in five-inning stints.

Rookie Tom Poholsky, up from Rochester, hurled the 11th inning and was the losing pitcher. The winning run resulted from an error by Steve Bilko followed by singles by Johnny Groth and Dick Kryhoski.

Neither team made a substitution except on the mound.

BRAVES 7, YANKEES 6
BRADENTON, PA. (AP) — Coming from behind with a three-run outburst in the eighth inning, the Boston Braves defeated the New York Yankees, 7-6, Friday.

A single to center by Willard Marshall, ex-New York Giant, scored Sibby Sisti and Sam Jethro with the tying and winning runs against Duane Pilette. Fred Sighford, first Yankee pitcher to go seven innings this spring, turned over a 6-4 lead to Pilette, having held the Braves to seven hits.

CINCINNATI 2, RED SOX 0
TAMPA, FLA. (AP) — Boston's Red Sox suffered their first shutout of the spring training season Friday when Cincinnati's Reds, aided by the wildness of Maurice McDermott, pushed over two second-inning scores for a 2-0 victory.

Singles by Jimmy Bloodworth and Red Stallcup, began the Cincinnati second. Herman Wehmeier fouled out after Dixie Howell had walked to load the bases. The stringbean Sox southpaw then issued passes to Grady Hatton and Johnny Wyrostek for the only runs of the afternoon.

CUBS 14, CLEVELAND 9
TUSCON, ARIZ. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians' five-game winning streak came to an end and righthander Bob Lemon got his first pasting of the year Friday as the Tribe lost to the Chicago Cubs, 14-9.

WHITE SOX 5, BROWNS 5
ALPINE, TEX. (AP) — A ninth inning homer by Chicago's Johnny Ostroski was cancelled and the White Sox and St. Louis Browns settled for a 5-5 tie in a bob-tailed exhibition Friday.

Graziano, Janiro Fight to 10-Round Draw

Rocky Back to Garden After Four-Year Lapse

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Janiro, the 22-year-old comeback kid from Youngstown, Ohio, laughed at the 12 to 5 odds against him Friday night as he fought former middleweight champion Rocky Graziano to a ten-round draw before 16,983 spectators in Madison Square Garden. Graziano weighed 159 3-4, Janiro 152 3-4.

Makes Comeback

Handsome Tony nearly knocked down Rocky in the first round and after taking a severe beating during the middle rounds, came back to grab the last heat to earn his draw.

Judge Arthur Aidala voted for Graziano, 6-3-1. Judge Arthur Siskind scored for Janiro 5-4-1 while Referee Judge Walsh split his ballot right down the middle, five rounds and 10 points for each battler. The Associated Press card has Graziano ahead, 5-4-1.

Rocky Almost Down

The crowd, largest of the winter fight season here, had hardly settled in their seats when handsome Tony let go with a lightning fast left and right to the head that almost brought Rocky down.

But the tough New Yorker weathered the storm and was holding his own at the end of the round.

After that it was a slambang battle for four rounds as Tony countered the former champ's round swings with dazzling left-right combinations to the head.

Janiro lost his steam in the sixth and Rocky handed him a severe beating through the next three frames. Rocky staggered his lighter rival in several of those rounds, but he couldn't bring the game Ohio youngster down.

In the tenth, with the pro-Graziano crowd yelling for the kill, Janiro surprised Graziano with a blazing spurt that befuddled the ring rusty New Yorker.

It was Rocky's first fight in the Garden in four years and the ring's golden boy brought out the largest fight crowd of the winter season here as well as the fattest gate, $81,049.

Scarpello Scores Pin In NAAU Wrestling

HEMSTEAD, N.Y. — Iowa's Joe Scarpello, Big Ten and NCAA 175-pound wrestling champion, got off to a winning start here in the National Senior AAU championships Friday night by pinning Ray Bronzie of Greensburg, Pa., in five minutes, 30 seconds.

Scarpello's top opposition for the AAU crown, Charles Shift of the Baltimore YMCA, the defending 175-pound champion, pinned Fred Dexter of Cornell college Friday evening in five minutes, 58 seconds.

Lowell Lange of Cornell, the defending titleholder in the 136-pound section, led the way into the quarter finals of the sixtieth annual wrestling tournament by scoring a double victory Friday.

The top ranking performers moved through the early rounds of action in eight classes as expected.

In the 115-pound division John Harrison of Iowa State Teachers, the winner at 121 pounds last year, scored a 4-1 triumph over William Buckingham of Michigan State.

Arnold Plaza of Purdue university, defending 115-pound titlist, won his opening match as the top ranking performer at 121 pounds with a 5-2 decision over Ed Eichelberger of Granby high school, Norfolk, Va.

Married Students Sign New Leases This Week

Students living in married students' housing areas began signing new leases this week, Mrs. Imelda Murphy, manager of the dormitory assignment office, said Friday.

Married students who have mailed a statement saying they want to remain in the same unit from June, 1950, to June, 1951 may sign new leases at the dormitory assignment office before April 8, Mrs. Murphy said.

A lease-signing schedule for faculty members living in the housing units will be published later.

Should Report

Mrs. Murphy said married students in the following categories should report to the dormitory assignment office to check their leases:

1. Those leaving for the summer only who will return in this fall.
2. Those who have not renewed their leases and have not mailed a request for new lease.
3. Those who want to move to other units and have not yet submitted their requests.

Schedule Set

Following is the schedule for appearing at the dormitory assignment office by housing areas:

- April 10 and 11: Quonset, Newton, Central, North, Templin and Westlawn parks.
 - April 12 and 13: Riverdale.
 - April 14 and 15: Stadium.
 - April 17 and 18: North Capitol and South parks.
 - April 19 and 20: Riverside.
 - April 21, 22 and 24: Hawkeye.
 - April 25 and 26: Finkbine (100-600).
 - April 27, 28 and 29: Finkbine (601-1117).
- Mrs. Murphy also asked that all married students living in SUI housing areas who are leaving permanently on or before June 10, 1950, notify the dormitory assignment office.

Local Groups Given High Drama Ratings

A superior and an excellent rating were awarded to St. Patrick's high school, Iowa City, and the Iowa City Woman's club, respectively, during the annual Play Production festival at the University theater March 25 through today.

The Iowa City school was entered in Class C, the category where all groups performing original one-act plays written and entered by western playwrights are placed.

The group gave a cut from "I Remember, Mama" by John Van Druten.

The Iowa City Woman's club entered in the community play house group of the festival. They performed "Mooney's Kid Don't Cry" by Tennessee Williams.

Top Local Spellers In Statewide Match

Johnson county's two spelling champs — Jane Crawford, 14, Lone Tree, and Marvina Donohue, 13, 608 Ronalds street — left for Des Moines Friday to compete in the Iowa spelling contest today.

Miss Crawford will represent Johnson county schools outside of Iowa City, and Miss Donohue, who attends St. Patrick's school here, will represent Iowa City.

Duane Lodge, seventh and eighth grade teacher at Lone Tree, and Tim Rose, county elementary schools supervisor, accompanied the girls to Des Moines.

They were scheduled to attend a banquet Friday for all of the contestants in the state contest and their teachers.

Mailcarrier Pushes New Mailbag

(AP Wirephoto)

THE TELESCOPIC MAILBAG HE INVENTED is demonstrated by Chester S. Strausburg, Hollywood, Calif. He says the invention will take heavy loads off carriers' backs and shoulders. Normally post-office regulations do not permit use of such accessories, but Strausburg was given special permission to try out the cart. If it is approved he hopes to make it available throughout the country. It is made of light tubular metal and folds into a small compact package weighing five pounds when not in use.

Judge Upholds School's Teaching on Abstinence

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The teaching of abstinence from alcohol and tobacco does not constitute religious instruction, a district court judge ruled Friday in the Bethany "coronation kissing" episode.

Judge Baker H. Melone threw out of court charges that the Bethany school board permitted Nazarene church to dominate schools there. The charges were raised by a group of irate citizens.

All the testimony during the three hour hearing concerned drinking and smoking. Judge Melone ruled this did not especially constitute a religious belief. He said it was as much a moral belief as religious and that Oklahoma law permits instruction on the effects of smoking and drinking.

Bethany is a blue law town of 2,500, ten miles west of Oklahoma City. Statutes forbid kissing and the wearing of shorts in public and prohibit sale of beer and tobacco.

The church issue was brought to a head and split Bethany in factions after a high school basketball queen coronation Feb. 17 in which Riddell Riggs kissed Queen Charlotte McLean. The next day 30 students walked out. They claimed they feared reprisals because public kissing was against school and church rules.

Six of the students were suspended for a short time. One girl testified Friday she was forced to put her head on her desk and raise her hand because her father and mother smoked. Another said she was told it was sinful and would go to hell if she smoked.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

DURING one of the last Indian uprisings, which took place in the Southwest, the colonel of a crack regiment was dispatched to put it down. With him went his wife and young son. The Indians made a surprise attack. At its height, the youngster dashed out of his room with a wooden gun and began running after the Indians. A cavalryman scooped him up in his arms just as he got into the open and restored him, mad as a hornet, to his mother's arms. His punishment was confinement to barracks for one solid week. His father explained to him, "Douglas MacArthur, this will teach you in the future to obey orders."

"Look, Elsie," said Mrs. Manges sternly to the new maid, "I declare I can write my full name in the dust you've left on this piano." "Well, bless mah soul, exclaimed Elsie with delight, "It's sure nice to be workin' fo' a lady with a education."

All first year law student compete in these arguments, which are held every spring.

The nine winners this week, according to Instructor Richard C. Huber, director of the arguments, were:

- Thomas W. Curry, Creston;
- Richard E. Kendall, Iowa City;

- James E. Kennedy, Estherville;

- John S. Hall, Ames;
- Wayne A. Brooks, Davenport;
- Robert L. Claypool, Williamsburg.

ing, beginning at 7 p.m. A practicing attorney and two senior law students serve as judges for the arguments.

The competition is conducted as a mythical supreme court — McClain supreme court — at which the participants are arguing an appeal case. The four freshmen taking part in each argument are allotted 20 minutes each.

Iowa Pair Indicted For Alleged Swindle Of 'Lonely Hearts'

SIOUX CITY — Hilmer E. Barnes, 40, Clarinda, was indicted Friday by a federal grand jury on seven counts of using the mails to defraud in connection with a "lonely hearts" club.

Tobias Diamond, U.S. district attorney, said Barnes and a woman companion allegedly swindled from 40 to 50 members of the lonely hearts club of about $15,000 during the last two years.

Woman Not Indicted
Diamond said the woman, who he refused to identify, was not indicted because there was evidence Barnes forced her to accompany him with death threats if she did not. He said the woman, from northwest Iowa, now is serving a two-year term in federal prison, but did not disclose the charges.

Diamond said the pair operated in most midwest states by corresponding with members of lonely hearts clubs. He said the two would appear at the homes of the members, posing as brother and sister, and announce they were interested in marriage.

Business Deals
After they had gained the confidence of the person, he said, they would seek a loan to complete a business deal or an emergency that had arisen.

They promised to repay the money, Diamond said. Twelve persons testified against Barnes before the grand jury, Diamond said. Others failed to appear through fear of losing jobs if the cases were made public.

New York Census Takers to Start Work

31 Students to Make Eastern Vacation Tour

Thirty-one SUI students are scheduled to leave today on the YMCA-YMCA sponsored Easter trip to New York and Washington, D.C.

YMCA Pres. Walter McMahon, G. Clinton, said the group would leave at 4:30 p.m. from the Iowa Union.

Also going with the SUI group are students from Grinnell college, Grinnell; Parsons college, Fairfield; University of Nebraska, Lincoln; University of Oklahoma, Norman; North Dakota Agricultural college, Fargo; and Central college, Pella.

Paris Actress Safe After Disappearance

PARIS — Blonde Actress Nicole Riche, who disappeared from the Grand Guignol theater in the midst of a sex-crime play, is safe and well according to a mysterious telephone call received by her mother Friday night.

The mother, who lives near Paris, said she did not recognize the voice that told her briefly her beautiful long-haired daughter was "in safe hands and good health." Police immediately set to work investigating the anonymous call.

It was the first word anybody had heard of the 23-year-old star of "No Orchids for Miss Blandish" since she threw a possum coat over her flimsy negligee and dashed out of her dressing room in the midst of a performance Wednesday night.

French police, hardened to publicity gags from the Montmartre theatrical world, were skeptical of the reported disappearance. But when the boxoffice refunded the patrons' money for the unfinished performance and Nicole failed to show up Thursday night they became concerned.

SUI Profs. to Teach At UCLA in Summer

Prof. Jerry Kollros, SUI zoology department, will spend the summer as a visiting assistant professor of zoology at the University of California at Los Angeles, he said Friday.

He will teach comparative anatomy and a seminar in neuroembryology at the west coast school from June 19 to Aug. 12.

Kollros' duties at SUI will be taken over for the summer by Prof. Albert Reynolds, zoology department, DePauw university, Greencastle, Ind.

Prof. David Stout, SUI sociology department anthropologist, also plans to teach at UCLA this summer, Kollros said.

West coast colleges and universities interchange many professors during the summer terms, he explained.

It's unlikely that any one department of a school can represent all the facets of a field of study, Kollros said, and an interchange of new ideas is always welcome.

Reds to Protest Atlantic Pact

THE HAGUE — City officials mobilized police reserves Friday and ordered roadblocks at the city's approaches to keep out thousands of Communists planning to march on The Hague today to protest a meeting of the Atlantic pact defense ministers.

The ministers, under chairmanship of U.S. Defense Secretary Louis Johnson, will meet to approve a master defense plan worked out by their chiefs of staff and discuss means of financing it.

Other touchy problems expected to arise were a reported request by four or five small pact members for millions more in U.S. aid against western Europe's defenses.

Police Patrol
As the ministers meet to tackle these problems, 800 policemen will patrol the conference area and cordon off the entire city to prevent a Communist protest march. Hundreds of motorized state police were ordered to stand by as reinforcements.

The roadblocks were to be set up at dawn on every route leading into the capital to keep out large numbers of Communists who had been called from Amsterdam and Rotterdam to participate in a mass anti-pact demonstration. The Communists said they had arranged special buses and trains to bring their reinforcements here.

Mayor Bans Meet
Hague Mayor F.M.H. Schokking officially banned the scheduled outdoor demonstration and a Communist party spokesman said the Reds would not hold an outdoor meeting. But he said they would meet indoors and police were alerted for a possible march from their hall.

Communists marched on the U.S. embassy last Friday just before the chiefs of staff met to approve a common defense plan. The Communists were dispersed in front of the embassy. They marched to a downtown area where they were dispersed by saber-wielding police. A much larger demonstration was called for today to salvage their prestige.

Baruch Outlines Plan For General Staff To Win Cold War

NEWPORT, R.I. — Bernard M. Baruch said Friday that this country was "staggering from crisis to crisis" and called for the creation of a "general staff for peace" to win the cold war.

The elder statesman, in his most important foreign policy statement since he laid down his plan for international control of atomic energy, said the "general staff" should be headed by a "man of the stature" of former Secretary of State George C. Marshall.

Bluntly warning that the cold war initiative has gone to "the enemy," Baruch said the general staff must wage "total peace" against Russia — "think, work, plan, live and breathe the cold war."

Critical of Truman
His speech was delivered before students and staff members of the naval war college and was frequently critical of the Truman administration's handling of foreign policy and preparedness.

Baruch made these points:
1 — The United States is spreading itself "too thin" — unable to achieve decision anywhere — and consequently has given rise to "considerable discussion as to whether we are losing the cold war."

2 — He urged anew that a standby mobilization be put into effect — "now." Baruch and President Truman have clashed previously on this issue.

China Defeat Serious
3 — The fall of China to the Communists, he said, was a "serious defeat" for this country.

4 — That Indo-China now appears in danger of going to the Communists by "default" because we keep treating the problem as the problem of one country and not as a matter for a "global strategy."

5 — That any new war probably would not come in the form of an open attack on the United States, but possibly "in a more subtle form of civil war, probably in Germany."

Hog Support Price Ends; No Crisis Seen

WASHINGTON — The nation's hog growers will be stripped of government price support protection today for the first time in eight years.

Agriculture officials said the lapse in hog supports — stemming from a shortage of price support money — will be only temporary. They said there should be no danger of a serious break in hog prices unless farmers "get panicky." They do not expect that to happen.

Cornbelt hog producers and dealers said Friday they will adopt a "wait and see" attitude in the scheduled lapse of support prices.

No Flood of Animals Seen
The men who fatten hogs and those who handle their marketing expected no flood of animals to stockyard centers.

For one thing, they said, hog marketing already has been heavy in recent months, resulting in lower retail prices in the nation's meat markets.

The government's present hog support program expired at midnight Friday. Officials said a new support program will be set up as soon as congress provides more price support money to cover the possible cost of the program.

Brannan Wants New Support
Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan is said to be anxious to set up a new hog support program immediately.

"But his hands are tied," one official said, until congress provides more money. What funds the government still has are said to be no more than required to cover the cost of price supports for the dozen farm commodities which must be supported.

Congressional Action Seen
The government already has $4-billion invested in farm surpluses. The senate is expected to begin debate late next week on a house-passed measure which would put another $2-billion in the support pool. Passage of the measure is considered certain.

One official said there is some evidence farmers have been marketing hogs extra heavily during the last two weeks because of uncertainty about the level at which supports will be set under the new program. Brannan has not said what the level will be.

BUT BARRY, I'M SURE IF YOU AGREE SURE, STAY AWAY FROM BOTH OF US — AND SEE WHICH OF US YOU MISS MOST!

THAT'S NOT SUCH A BAD IDEA!
