Chavez Denounces Budenz; Assails McCarthy's Charges

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM), a Roman Catholic, Friday denounced Louis Budenz, accused of Owen Lattimore, as a lying publicity seeker who "advertised his conversion to Catholicism" and who "has been using the cross as a club."

This was immediately challenged by Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) who defended Budenz as courageous, truthful, accurate — the victim of an "outrageous attempt to smear."

Chavez also assailed in a Senate speech what he termed the "wild irresponsible charges" on McCarthy who presented Budenz as a star witness in the senate's investigation of the state department.

Budenz is a professor at Fordham university, a Jesuit school in New York.

Okays Flander's Proposal Chavez endorsed a proposal of Sen. Ralph E. Flanders (R-Vt.) that no more public hearings be held by the inquiry committee, declaring:

"The American people do not want, I am certain, the United States senate to be turned into a platform for every half-baked gossip, every suspicious or vengeful individual, every mountebank and scandal monger..."

The methods used are fruitless, he said.

Questions Chavez Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.) raised questions about Chavez's attack on Budenz. He noted that the government had used Budenz as a witness in its conspiracy case against 11 top Communist leaders and in other cases. He wanted to know if Chavez thought the Communist leaders should be freed.

Chavez said he did not but he added that he did not believe Budenz's testimony was the only thing that led to their conviction.

Professors to Meet The local chapter of the American Association of University Professors will hold its next meeting on May 22 at 8 p.m. in the house chamber of Old Capitol, Prof. F.R. Kennedy, president of the local chapter, said Friday.

Bandits Grab $15,000 Payroll

THOMPSONVILLE, CONN. (AP) — Four bandits, concealed in the payroom of a big carpet factory, ambushed three Brink's guards Friday and fled with a $15,000 payroll.

No one saw the robbers enter the plant, operated by the Bigelow - Sanford Carpet company. No one saw them after they fell on the three guards who had just arrived with the money for 300 night shift workers.

State police said they got a "pretty good description" of the holdup men from one of the three guards, who were beaten, disarmed and then tied with light cord.

Escaped Under Fence They reported too that there was evidence that after the robbery, the four bandits left the scene by crawling beneath a fence surrounding the factory grounds.

Brink Guards Hospitalized after Holdup

RECOVERING AFTER A $15,000 holdup in a Thompsonville, Conn. carpet factory, three of Brink's guards are shown in the hospital. The guards were ambushed inside the factory and slugged, disarmed and tied with cord. Officials stated that they did not believe the Thompsonville gang was the same one that pulled the $1.7-million Boston job. The FBI announced in Washington that it had assigned a number of agents to the case.

MASON CITY STUDENTS STRUCK Friday to protest the ban placed on the annual tug-of-war between the junior and senior classes of that school. These students, representing the two classes, marched to the city hall to talk with the mayor. They are shown on the steps of the city hall, where they had earlier set up a picket line complete with placards and roving pickets.

WINNIPEG, MAN. — A fifth of Winnipeg's residents had fled the flooded city Friday night as rains threatened to inflict new havoc.

A total of 70,000 persons have been evacuated from Winnipeg and rural areas since the flood began a week ago Friday night. An estimated 60,000 of greater Winnipeg's 320,000 population had gone. More than 10,000 had left the area between here and the United States.

But flood control officials warned residents of the twin cities of Winnipeg and St. Boniface that "we are still in danger" and urged the evacuation of women, children and aged continue.

In Jamestown, N.D., Red Cross Disaster Chairman R. M. Stout said he expects that nearly 300 families will have to be evacuated from this eastern North Dakota city now being flooded for the second time this spring by the overflow from two rivers.

Body Recovered Stout said he was worried that flood - threatened residents will not leave their homes because of the warm weather. In the first flood, they were driven out when their heating systems failed.

The search for victims of southeast Nebraska's early week floods produced another body Friday.

Ted Jorgenson, Burlington bus superintendent, said the body was that of Marjorie Rinehard, about 20, of Cozad, Neb. It was found near Talmage, about 16 or 17 miles from the spot where the bus she was riding was swept from the highway by floodwaters.

Ministers Agree on Policy For Western Germany LONDON (AP) — The Big Three foreign ministers agreed Friday on joining western Germany economically and politically to the rest of a united western Europe.

Determinedly, they emphasized the decision of the United States, Britain and France to continue to uphold the western allied rights in Berlin, rights protected at great cost through a year - long airlift when Soviet Russia blockaded the battered former capital.

NLRB CONTROVERSY WASHINGTON (AP) — The split between the national labor relations board (NLRB) and its chief counsel, Robert N. Denham, widened Friday, and there were reports that President Truman soon may fire Denham.

SUI Staffers to Testify On U.S. Education Bill

Two SUI staff members will testify before the U.S. senate committee on labor and public welfare next week in favor of a proposed education bill for physically handicapped children.

Prof. Wendell Johnson director of the SUI speech clinic, and W. B. Schoenbohm, director of the SUI Hospital School for Severely Handicapped Children, will speak at the committee hearing.

The bill, sponsored by the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., the Easter seal agency, would enable states to make more adequate provision for educating crippled youngsters in the United States, Schoenbohm said.

Johnson to Speak Tuesday Johnson, now in the east on a speaking tour, will appear before the committee Tuesday. Schoenbohm will leave for Washington, D.C., Wednesday to testify Thursday.

The biggest gap in services for the handicapped today is in education, Schoenbohm said. There are federal - state programs for surgery, hospitalization, vocational training, medical care and treatment of crippled children.

There is no federal - state program for education of the more than 1,750,000 physically handicapped in the United States.

Education of a physically handicapped child costs from two to five times as much as education of a normal child.

Appropriations provided by the proposed bill would be divided among the states on the basis of the number of children between five and 17 years of age in each state.

The federal government would not control the state's educational program, according to the proposed bill.

Railroad Walkout Hits Coal, Steel Companies

Peace Offer Rumors Denied

CHICAGO — Chairman Francis O'Neill Jr., of the national (railway) mediation board said Friday night the locomotive firemen's strike was just as deadlocked then as at the start.

O'Neill made the comment at the end of a meeting between the board and representatives of the struck rail lines.

Earlier in the day, hopes for an early break in the strike against four key lines arose when the union was reported to have made a new peace offer, which O'Neill denied.

Thousands Idle The walkout had forced more than 150,000 other workers on the four systems into idleness, and shutdowns mounted in coal mining, steel, autos and other dependent industries.

Coal mines, including our "captivity" pits of U.S. Steel, closed in western Pennsylvania, southern Illinois, Indiana and West Virginia.

General Motors said 4,900 of its employees had been laid off because of the rail strike, mostly in Fisher body plants, and Willys-Overland at Toledo put 4,500 of its 7,000 production workers on a four-day shift.

Additional Fireman The brotherhood of locomotive firemen and engineers have demanded employment of an additional fireman on multiple - unit diesel engines.

The walkout crippled passenger and freight service in 27 states by tying up western divisions of the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads, most of the Santa Fe and all of the Southern railroad.

The firemen revealed after the strike that they had modified their original demand to call for employment of a second fireman only on fast, through passenger trains.

The carriers had branded the revision an attempt to "get a foot in the door," but observers believed new settlement attempts might revolve around such a solution.

City Alderman Files $15,000 Slander Suit James M. Callahan, Iowa City alderman for the first ward, Friday filed a $15,000 slander suit in district court against Ira W. Montgomery, 11 E. Prentiss street.

The suit resulted from a row at a city council meeting Monday night while the council was taking final action on the awarding of a three-year garbage hauling contract to Clifford Esterday, Montgomery was an unsuccessful bidder for the contract.

Callahan alleges Montgomery made an untrue statement which "constituted a malicious defamation."

The Iowa city alderman said he made a formal demand to Montgomery to retract his statement Tuesday, but Montgomery published a letter Thursday refusing to do so.

Callahan asked $7,500 for actual damages and $7,500 for exemplary (punitive) damages. He demanded a jury trial.

Russian Envoy Leaves For Kremlin Conference WASHINGTON (AP) — Russian Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin said Friday he is going back to Moscow for a vacation but western diplomats wondered if there isn't something more significant behind the journey.

Panyushkin said he was going "on leave," but he did not reveal when or if he plans to return here. He has booked passage on the Polish steamer Batory Tuesday.

Regardless of when — or if — he returns, the Kremlin apparently would consult him on current cold war developments.

May Cut FEPC Talk WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Majority Leader Scott Lucas (D-Ill.) served notice on southern Democrats Friday that he may take steps Wednesday to cut off debate on his motion to bring a fair employment practices commission bill before the senate.

Tried and convicted in July, 1947, Denis refused Judge Pine's offer of an opportunity to appear before the committee and purge himself of contempt.

Bill to Aid Witch Hunters —

Noisy Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis) has screamed "Communist" so long and so loud that a lot of otherwise settled congressmen have the jitters.

This same uneasiness has increased pressure for passage of the Mundt-Ferguson Communist control bill.

Provisions of the bill call for the establishment of a three-man committee with power to hang the "Communist" label on any group it considered subversive.

Communists and leaders of Communist front organizations would be required to register with the justice department. These persons would be banished from government service and stiff fines would greet anyone thought to be working for an overthrow of the government.

The danger comes from the human element involved in determining what is subversive and what is not.

What might be a Communist to McCarthy might be a staunch Republican to most of us.

It could get to the point where a person would be unwilling to enter government service because of the witch hunts that accompany routine investigations for government employes.

Many top flight men are afraid of government work now. David Lilienthal is an example of an outstanding man who was forced out of government service because of congressmen's anxiety to "keep democracy safe."

Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) threw his "incredible mismanagement" charge often enough at Lilienthal that the AEC head called it quits.

The same reckless, weakly documented charges could carry over to any group that would hang "subversive" tags on other groups or individuals.

What the bill attempts to do is set a standard of "safe" thinking. Then we would end up with no thinking at all.

That is the only "safe" way. And that is, needless to say, the most precarious, dangerous of all ways.

First rate men cannot and will not work under the conditions set by those who tremble at original ideas.

Anyway, the Communists would not be hurt by the Mundt-Ferguson bill and witch hunters would have a field day. The only sufferers would be American security, democratic institutions and citizens genuinely loyal to them.

Files of Fear —

The question of whether or not the confidential files of the FBI should be opened, in order to affirm or refute current charges that certain men in the government are Communist stooges, has been wrinkling the brows of many congressmen lately.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover opposes opening of the files for two reasons:

First, opening the files would seriously hamper the bureau's future efforts in obtaining confidential information, by disclosing names of informants. Some of the witnesses whose testimony led to the conviction of the 11 Communist leaders in New York had risked their lives as undercover employes of the FBI.

"A disclosure of FBI reports would reveal the identity of confidential sources of information and, if it did not place the lives of such persons in actual jeopardy, it would certainly ruin their future value and effectiveness," Hoover said recently.

Second, opening the files could do the most serious and unwarranted injustice to individuals. The files contain complaints and allegations — not only facts — which may or may not be true.

Hoover compared them to the notes of a newspaper reporter before he has culled the printable from the unprintable.

"I would not want to be a party to any action which would 'smear' innocent individuals for the rest of their lives," the FBI chief declared.

In other words, Hoover makes it plain that opening these files could very well both endanger the national security and commit profound injustices on good American citizens.

Pundit Paragraphs —

The American Nurses association unselfishly agreed Tuesday to put the welfare of patients above their own financial interests in voting a no-strike policy for members of the group.

A Hollywood cameraman says it's the look in the eyes that gives a movie star sex appeal. Mebbe so, but we haven't seen many Hollywood studio releases lately that are just head-and-shoulders shots of starlets.

Traffic War . . .

I want to congratulate The Daily Iowan on its editorial "Traffic War" which appeared in Thursday's paper. A "cold traffic war" does exist in Iowa City. As you say, pedestrians and motorists are the violators alike. Traffic lights, marked sidewalks, speed limits, the proper lanes for turning are all flagrantly violated. Why there have been no tragedies, I do not know. It is a battle of wits gets where he wants to go "first" or later, someone might get there "first", but will lack the "mostous," using the wartime slogan.

I do not favor a police state; but Iowa City is in desperate need of the settlement of the "cold traffic war" that is going on. I think that if more tickets were passed out and heavier fines were given, it would possibly remedy the situation somewhat.

I think it would be better if the policemen of Iowa City would open their eyes when they are walking their beats and see these violations going on all the time, instead of riding around in pairs in the new overstaffed, super-cushioned police car or sitting in the "hut" at some of the used car lots. The highway patrol uses the ordinary car you and I buy, and their job is to be riding on the highway.

One of the greatest hazards to both pedestrians and motorists are the taxi drivers. You can see them everyday: parking on the wrong side of the street, making U-turns at the wrong places, passing on the wrong side and the one that is most amusing is parking in the traffic lane waiting for the interurban to arrive.

The present council is now trying to do what should have been done in years past and I think that this would give them something to work on — doing something to alleviate the "cold traffic war."

Smaller Atom Bombs Developed Say Officials

WASHINGTON (AP) — This nation has produced "small" atomic bombs, officials say, but that doesn't necessarily mean that the bombs pack less of a wallop than full sized ones.

The bombs are reported small enough to be carried by jet bombers and fighter — bombers smaller and faster than the B-29 which dropped early model a-bombs on Japan.

As usual, there wasn't a hint as to how powerful this "baby bomb" could be. But it may be more powerful than the early model bombs dropped on Japan or tested at Bikini.

Predicted Effect Wrong — Market Absorbs Wage Hike

By SIGRID ARNE

WASHINGTON (AP)—One minor disaster that the U.S. was warned it might have to face does not appear to be happening. There were predictions last year that a minimum wage of 75 cents an hour would put such a strain on some businesses that workers would lose jobs and business men would lose their investment.

So far the wage-hour division of the labor department has had no such reports. The 75-cent minimum wage has been in effect since Jan. 25, 1950. The minimum wage had been 40 cents from 1945 on. Congress almost doubled it because living costs had almost doubled.

Employers said the new law would add about $300-million to their payrolls, that some might have to close up shop and that many might have to lay off some workers. The labor department said the new ruling would benefit only about 1.5-million workers, who would get increases of from five to 15 cents an hour. The legal minimum would jump from $16 to $20 a week and from $832 to $1,560 a year.

Labor experts said that naturally the increase would hit the low-pay industries, which include lumbering and wood working, tobacco, leather, cotton apparel, textiles, food processing, wholesaling and communications. Workers in canning and food processing and in tobacco plants were earning as low as 40 cents an hour. Workers in the lumber industry were getting 50 to 60 cents an hour. In the garment, textile and hosiery industries they were getting 50 to 65 cents an hour.

So the congress-directed jump was as much as 35 cents an hour for some workers. So far there has been no systematic check of what happened to the industries that had to up their pay rolls. But piecemeal information filtering into the labor department says there have been very few layoffs and no jumps in the prices of products these low-paid workers turn out.

Right now the department is getting ready to make a careful check of what happened. But it will be some months before the study is done. There have been some layoffs in hosiery mills, but labor department experts have heard other conditions in the industry may have been responsible.

They say some of the little portable saw mills of the south — known as "peckerwood mills" — shut up but that some are now reopening with better machinery. There have been some layoffs in plants turning out cotton garments, and some in wood furniture plants.

There has been only one indication that consumers might have to pay more for the products turned out by these low-paid people whose weekly wages suddenly went up by congressional edict. The labor department heard of one manufacturer of men's shirts who says prices will have to go up on his product. So far they have not.

The minimum wage became part of the federal law back in 1938, when it was first set at 25 cents an hour, on the heels of the depression. That rose by degrees to the 40 cents which went into effect in 1945 and has now been raised to 75 cents.

The raise only covers low-paid workers who are "directly" engaged in working on goods that move in interstate commerce. It does not apply to the low paid person who may be pressing your pants or cutting off a slab of snappy cheese for you in the corner delicatessen. Those people have to depend on state laws since their products and services are only sold locally.

Communists Terrorize Sections of India

CALCUTTA, INDIA (AP) — Communist terrorism in large sections of India has reached the stage of undeclared war, government officials said Friday.

Communists in the Hyderabad-Madras border area in the south central area now claim control of 2,500 villages in an area covering nearly 15,000 square miles.

India investigators said Communists were responsible not only for 91 cases of sabotage on Indian railroads in six months but that they stirred up the recent bloody Hindu-Muslim religious riots in Bengal, with the idea of creating chaos and weakening the government.

A high government official said

102 persons had been murdered by Communists in six months and that police had killed 92 Communists.

These figures are official, the informant said, and actually it is possible that up to 2,000 persons are killed each month as the result of various Communist sabotage attempts, raids and terrorism.

In the Hyderabad-Madras border area there actually is a stage of guerrilla warfare. Police are in control by day but movement by night is unsafe.

Calcutta street cars are protected with chicken wire to keep Communists from hitting motormen with acid bulbs in order to disrupt transportation.

Devil Postpile, Freak of Nature Draws Many Tourists to Wilderness

By Central Press
MAMMOTH LAKES, CALIF.—Several thousand sightseers are expected here next summer and autumn to view the strange results of a three-act play produced about 150,000 years ago by the forces of old Father Time.

This is the Devil Postpile National Monument, a curious pile of rocks indeed. And probably, while the sightseers are at it, they'll have a sip of the free soda the old gent provides for thirsty travelers.

The Devil Postpile lies in the still, green pine forests of the Inyo-Mono wilderness in the nation's highest mountain range—the 14,000-foot Sierra Nevada of California.

The best known parallel of the Postpile's 60-foot natural blue-gray pillars is the Giant's Causeway in Ireland.

The Devil Postpile is open when snow melts from the high passes in June, and is accessible until the first snows in early November. Residents of this resort community are cleaning cabins, polishing silverware for guests and making general preparations to receive visitors.

THE PRESENT resort is built near the ruins of Mammoth, a gold mining town of nearly a century ago. Although the mines were so rich they were called "Mammoth," the gold played out and the village became a "ghost" town until its resort days.

From Mammoth, it's about 13 miles to the Devil Postpile. A trail from the forest ranger station leads past broken fragments of the four, five and six-sided posts, lying where they were thrown by some ancient earthquake.

Then, towering 60 feet above the trail are the blue-gray columns, two feet in diameter — standing as though awaiting some giant to walk through the still forest to resume a strange and mighty building task.

The first of the three acts that created the unusual stack of rocks opened with molten lava gushing angrily up through the earth's crust. It left a very hot hunk of rock.

The second act featured the cooling. But so rapidly did the red hot lava cool that the stress was uneven. Thus the rock broke — like a hot glass placed in cold water — and split into multi-sided posts.

But if you'd been standing around gawking, during that 150,000 years ago ago, you wouldn't have seen the pillars. They were covered by a rock crust. It took the third and final act of old Father Time's play to reveal the posts. This third act brought a great glacier. This heavy, powerful ice mass tore away the crusty sides. The columns were exposed.

FOR A FEW thousand years the volcanic columns rested peacefully among the forests, mountains and annual snow, waiting for someone to find them.

It wasn't until a hundred years ago that the pile of columns was found. Gold prospectors, overturning almost every rock looking for a "strike," came upon the area and saw the story of Father Time's three-act play. The Devil Postpile National Monument was created in 1911 by President William Howard Taft.

Although the volcano which caused the Postpile poured forth its last mass of lava several thousand years ago, there's still volcanic activity in the region. Hot springs, caused by water passing over crystallizing volcanic rock, bubble throughout the area.

But, best of all on a hot day, there's a treat for the thousands who venture into the Monument — a free glass of soda pop!

A cool soda spring trickles 24 hours a day near the Devil Postpile columns. Add a little of the sparkling water to lemon juice — and you have a lemon soda, by courtesy of the same old Father Time.

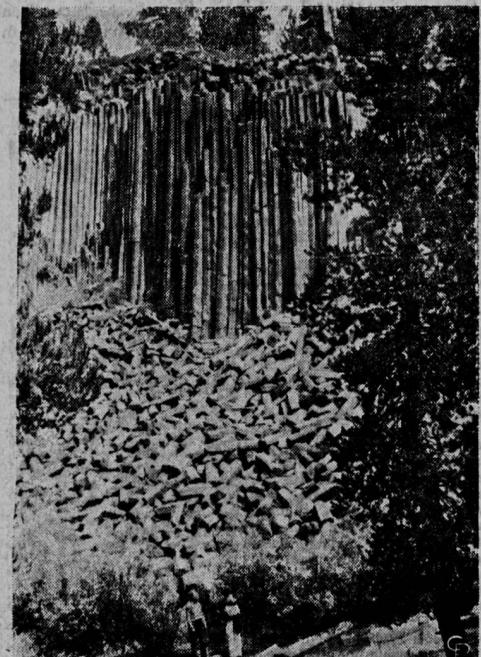

Indo-China Position Confused by Bargain

PARIS (AP) — The French in Indo-China are in the peculiar position of fighting for the right to surrender part of their once-great empire.

The effect of the bargain made this week by French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman and U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson will be to give Indo-China near-total independence in return for military aid from the United States.

Three autonomous states within the French union — Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia — already have been established in Indo-China, but France still retains control of diplomatic and military matters.

Representative Mother Honored at Dance

Mrs. Louis P. Penningroth was presented during the intermission of the "May Frolic" Friday evening as SUI's 1950 Most Representative Mother. She was selected from approximately 30 entries.

A 1918 SUI graduate, Mrs. Penningroth is the mother of four children who have also attended the university. Two of her children are students at present. They are Nancy, a sophomore in liberal arts, and Peace, a senior in liberal arts.

Mrs. Penningroth did graduate work at Columbia university, the Union Theological seminary in New York and SUI.

Active in community and church work, she also writes for newspapers and occasionally for magazines. She has contributed to poetry columns in Davenport and Chicago papers for many years and has had poetry printed in a number of anthologies.

She was sent last fall by the American Society of Friends to survey the group's relief and rehabilitation work in Europe. While abroad, she wrote a series of articles for the Cedar Rapids Gazette and has spoken on European conditions approximately 60 times in the six months following her trip.

She is active in a creative writers' study group, a member of the Iowa Authors club and district poetry chairman of the Iowa Federation of Women's clubs.

Mrs. Penningroth, as a minister's wife, has participated in many forms of church work for 30 years with special emphasis on teaching Sunday school classes and sponsoring evening fellowships. Her undergraduate activities included the executive council on which she was vice-president of the Women's league, U.W.C.A. cabinet, University Dramatic club and editor of Christian activities on the Hawkeye staff.

Mrs. Penningroth was also one of the "Portfolio of 18 Representative Women" which was featured in Hawkeye when she attended SUI.

Iowa City Group To Show Designs In Creative Crafts

An exhibit Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. in the Iowa Union, by the Iowa City Craft guild, will demonstrate what can be done in creative crafts. This is part of the planned Mother's Day weekend program.

On Thursday morning's broadcast over WSUI's "Club Camera" three participants discussed various activities of the guild. They were Mrs. A.C. Trowbridge, charter member and past president; Mrs. John M. Russ, vice-president, and Mrs. P.J. Leinfelder, chairman of the leather group of the guild.

Organized in 1940
"The guild primarily exists for those interested in creative crafts," Mrs. Leinfelder said.

The local club was organized in 1940 by Mrs. Frank Luther Mott, wife of the former director of the SUI school of journalism.

Eight crafts are represented in the guild. They include the hobby, silver, leather, weaving, textile painting, ceramics, candles and metal groups, Mrs. Russ said. "Practical as well as beautiful articles are made," she said.

100 Members

The only requirement for membership in the guild is that one have an active interest in the club. Membership is limited to three crafts within the guild. Approximately 100 members retain membership in the guild at present, Mrs. Russ said.

Each craft group meets twice a month with three general guild meetings.

Iowa Citizens' Work To Be Broadcast

Original compositions by Iowa City lyric and music writers will be featured at 11:30 a.m. today over WSUI.

The program is part of the monthly series sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. C.B. Righter, director and organizer for the Trinity Episcopal church, wrote the musical background for the program. She is the wife of the director of the SUI bands; a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, professional music fraternity, and Pi Kappa Lambda, national honorary music fraternity.

Lyrics for the music were written by Mrs. Arthur Owen Peterson; Mrs. Minnie Flickinger, Dorothy Gurney, Mrs. A.E. Gillington, Mrs. Fred M. Pownall, Mrs. Paul Lawrence Dunbar, Christina Rossetti, Elizabeth Wittman and Mrs. George Robeson.

Stores Show Many Gifts for Mother

Sunday is the time when the nation's best girls, the Mothers, become queens for a day.

SUI students away from home, faced with the problem of showing their Mothers' day appreciation by mail, have been going to the stores this week to buy gifts.

Local stores are showing everything from greeting cards to lingerie for Mother's day shoppers.

One of the newest items is a plastic fitted cosmetic case with unbreakable plastic bottles. This case is ideal for travel-minded Mothers.

Another excellent traveling aid is solid cologne which is now being made by most perfume manufacturers.

Gay Handbags
Gay summer handbags come in every fabric imaginable, such as straw, canvas, woven bamboo and bright beads.

For space economizers there are billfolds and small fitted purses in plastic with Indian designs as well as leather.

Summer gloves may be found in sheer nylons, string or cotton to match scarves in riotous colors.

More Gifts
Cotton slips and gowns are more feminine than ever this year and recommended for hot summer days. Many of them feature eyelet trim with ribbons in all pastel shades.

For the mother who entertains there are dating hostess aprons in gaudy, many with stenciled flowers. Tall frosted glasses with lively designs would be a welcome companion to summer meals.

Plastic canasta trays complete with score pads and rules might be welcomed by Mother.

Sunback house dresses made in pinafore style will help Mother keep cool this summer. Smocks which serve as housecoats, aprons and gardening jackets are back in stock.

Straw Hats
Panama straw hats or sheer bemberg dresses would give a lift to Mother's summer wardrobe. Or if she prefers sewing her own clothes, there is a wide selection of silk, cotton and rayon yardgoods in brilliant colors.

Even a lack of money needn't keep one from remembering Mother — a stamp only costs a few cents.

PAUSING FROM HER MOTHER'S DAY SHOPPING to admire a poster is Dale Eckhardt, Coralville. Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Eckhardt, Dale will be three years old next month. Young as well as adult shoppers are crowding the stores this week in search of gifts to show their appreciation for Mom.

Badgers Whip Hawkeyes, 6-5

Defeat Third for Hawks In Big Ten Competition

(Special to The Daily Iowan)
MADISON, WIS. — Wisconsin's Badgers handed Iowa its third Big Ten defeat of the season Friday night, 6-5, and virtually eliminated the Hawkeyes from the conference title race.

It was Wisconsin's fifth win in seven Big Ten games this season and firmly entrenched the Badgers in second place. Veteran Thornton Kipper held the Hawks to 10 hits while his teammates collected 13 from the offerings of Dick Hoeksema.

Iowa got off to a one run lead in the first inning. Rex Vana walked, went to second on George Hand's infield ground out and scored when the Wisconsin shortstop errored on Ed Brown's ground ball.

Tie Score

The Badgers came back in the bottom of the same inning to tie the score after two had been retired. Bob Wilson, Badger catcher, walked and advanced to third on Bob Shea's single. Bruce Elliott then laced a ground rule double to right field scoring Wilson.

Wisconsin added another run in the third inning for a 2-1 lead. Wilson slammed a tremendous home run that rolled to the center field scoreboard 500 feet from home plate.

In the last half of the fifth, Shea doubled to right field to start the inning. He went to third on Brown's passed ball from where he scored on Elliott's single. Bauer then doubled Elliott home to give the Badgers a 4-1 lead.

Iowa rallied for two runs in the top of the sixth on two hits, a ground out and an outfield fly. Murland Moran opened the inning with a double and went to third on Pinky Primrose's single. After Brown grounded out short to first, Merlin Kurt singled home Moran with Primrose moving to third. Primrose scored from there when he tagged up on Pinch Hitter John Sullivan's fly out to left field.

Keeps Rally Alive

Hoeksema kept the rally alive with a single but Vana was called out on strikes to retire the side.

Dean Evans gave Wisconsin a 5-3 margin in the bottom of the sixth with a home run. Hand slipped on the grass dampened by a downpour a half hour before game time and the ball rolled to the fence in center field.

In the bottom of the seventh,

Blackwell's 5-Hit Job Gives Cincinnati 3-1 Win Over Cardinals

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ewell Blackwell tightened the screws on the St. Louis Cardinals Friday night with a 5-hit performance that gave the last-place Cincinnati Reds a 3-1 victory. The Reds belted Harry Brecheen and Al Brazle for 10 hits.

Blackwell, who struck out six men, allowed only two solid hits — one a well-placed double over third base by Stan Musial and a single by Enos Slaughter. Cincinnati won the game in the fourth inning with four hits and three runs off Brecheen, who went out in the same frame for a pinch hitter.

Ted Kluszewski doubled in that inning, pushing across two of the three tallies.

The Cardinals, who scored 30 runs in the three games prior to Friday night's, got their only score in the second inning. Red Schoendienst was safe at first on a bad throw by Blackwell. Schoendienst stole second and scored when Red Stallcup let Marty Marion's grounder go through him for an error.

Hawkeye Tennis Team Meets Gophers Today

Iowa's tennis team plays host to Minnesota today on the library annex courts at 1:30. Six singles and three doubles matches are scheduled. Bill Ball, Cedar Rapids, and Don Lewis, Fort Madison, are number one and two men for the Hawkeyes.

Coleman's Homer Gives Yanks Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Jerry Coleman socked a three run home run in the fifth inning Friday night to lead the New York Yankees to a 3-2 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics. Sam Chapman accounted for both Philadelphia runs with a home run in the sixth inning off Tommy Byrne who went the distance for the Yanks.

Billy Johnson singled with one out in the fifth to get the Yanks underway. Hank Bauer followed with a fly to Paul Lehner but the A's outfielder dropped the ball. Coleman then homered into the leftfield stands to break a scoreless tie.

The A's got their two runs in the next inning when Ferris Fain walked and Chapman homered. Philadelphia 000 002 000—2 8-1

TENNIS

HOLDER OF 25 TENNIS TITLES, Bobby Riggs will lead a troupe of four of the nation's best professional players in an exhibition match scheduled for the Iowa fieldhouse Monday. Play starts at 7:30 p.m. Others to play Monday are Richard (Pancho) Gonzales, 1948 U.S. Champion; Frank Parker, two-time U.S. champ and Jack Kramer, two-time U.S. and Davis Cup winner and 1948 U.S. professional champion. Riggs titles include two U.S. and Davis Cup crowns, the 1950 U.S.L.T.A. indoor title, the Clay Court three times and the Eastern Grass Court four times.

Iowa Trackmen Meet Purdue

At least two and possibly three Big Ten indoor champions will be on hand this afternoon when Iowa's track team plays host to Purdue's Boilermakers for the first of two home meets.

The meet — second with the Boilermakers and Purdue's first appearance on Iowa's track — will get underway at 1:30 p.m. with the mile run the first track event.

Iowa's champion is Russ Merkel, winner of both high indoor and low hurdle crowns — the sixth man to perform the feat.

Close Meet

Indications are that the meet will be a closely contested affair with possibly only four or five points separating the two clubs.

Russ Merkel is picked to take both hurdles and will be backed up by brother John and Gene Freels in the highs and DuWayne Dietz and Dean Deuel in the lows. Their opposition will be Bob Hocker, Howard Corry and Bob Mastrovitch.

The top dual of the meet is expected in the half-mile with Keith Brown pitted against James Weisflog who was fourth in the league indoor meet. Brown's running mate will be Mel Rosen and Jack Copeland.

The two sprinters should go to Iowa with Marcellus Boston and Jack Simpson in the 100 and 220 although Harvie Conlin has recorded a .101 in the 100 this year. Purdue's ace sprinter, Harold Omer is not entered in the meet.

Snook Favored

Bill Snook shouldn't have much trouble in the two-mile against Purdue entrants. Robert Rodibaugh will probably give Iowa's Jack Davis a good run in the mile. Rodibaugh has been clocked in around 4:15 this season.

Another event that should go in the Hawks' column is the pole vault. Clair Jennett has cleared 12 feet while the Purdue representative's best is 11 feet 6 inches.

Big Chuck Darling is figured to cop both the shot put and discus. The 6-foot 8-inch basketball center has been steadily improving and put the shot 47 feet last Saturday at Evanston.

Douglas Appointed New Freshman Cage Coach

Ben Douglas, hired in March as varsity football assistant, was appointed freshman basketball coach Friday to fill the only major coaching vacancy remaining on the Iowa staff.

It was also announced Friday that Vince Harsha had been appointed junior varsity basketball coach for the third season. The appointments, approved by the state board of education, were made on the recommendation of Head Coach Rollie Williams and Athletic Director Paul Brechler.

Post Vacated
The freshman basketball post was vacated Monday evening when Bucky O'Connor was appointed varsity assistant coach.

Douglas was a nine-letter winner in football, basketball and track at Grinnell where he graduated in 1931. He was an all-Missouri Valley conference selection in football and basketball while at Grinnell.

In addition to coaching football, Douglas has coached basketball at Greenfield, Maplewood, Mo. and Grinnell.

Harsha has coached Iowa's junior varsity cage squad for the past two seasons.

He won three major basketball letters at Iowa as a guard. Harsha is a second-year student in law.

Second Appointment
Friday's appointment is the second addition to the Iowa coaching staff in as many days. Wally Schwank, football coach and athletic director at Davenport high school, was named freshman football coach Thursday.

The Cubs concentrated four hits, all extra-base blows, in the big inning. Wayne Terwilliger doubled and scored on a similar wallop by Hank Edwards. Preston Ward followed with his third homer of the season. Hank Sauer then walked and Andy Pafko hammered his No. 4 homer into the bleachers.

Jim Walsh cooled the Cubs in that inning, then Vic Lombardi entered to check the Chicagoans with a lone unearned run the rest of the way.

However, the Cubs could make no material progress against Bob Rush despite repeated opportunities. They collected 10 hits and received the additional aid of three walks and two Cub errors. But Rush managed to scramble out of repeated danger and finished with his third victory.

"Nanny" Fernandez, who collected a pair of doubles, knocked in two unearned runs in the first inning when Roy Smalley opened the gates with an error.

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs routed Hal Gregg with a five run explosion in the third inning here Friday and hung on grimly thereafter for a 6-3 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates in the opener of a four game series.

Bosox Defeat Nats For 3rd Place, 3-1

BOSTON (AP) — Boston's Red Sox clubbed Washington's coveyed Ray Scarborough for nine hits and a 3-1 decision over the Senators Friday moving ahead of the visitors into third place in the American league.

Left-hander Maurice McDermott doled out five hits to the Washington club in winning his third triumph.

Mauzy gave up five bases on balls and one of them resulted in the only Washington run. Bob Ortiz, who walked with one out in the second, raced all the way home from first on Al Evans' line drive double off the wall in left center.

Scarborough, who is reportedly sought by both the Sox and the New York Yankees, blanked Ted Williams, ending a 12-game hitting streak for the Boston slugger, who has hit in all but two games he has played.

Birdie Tebbetts, however, made one hit, to keep alive his streak of 13 games.

Iowa came back with another two run rally in the eighth. Kurt doubled off the screen in left field and after Sullivan fled out, scored on Hoeksema's third straight hit. Chuck Cebuhar singled Hoeksema to second and he scored from there on Tom Stenger's base hit. With two men on and two out, Dittmer lined out to the shortstop to end the threat and the inning.

The Hawks went down in order in the top of the ninth.

Driver Hits Wall After Fastest Lap

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Troy Ruttman, heavy-footed young Californian, smacked the wall in the southeast turn of the Indianapolis motor speedway Friday a few minutes after he had turned the fastest lap in speedway practice history.

An ambulance was dispatched to the scene. It was not known whether Ruttman was injured. The accident came after Ruttman, of Ontario, Calif., had pushed the Bowes Sealfast special around the 2 1/2-mile track at an unofficial 134 miles an hour.

Observers along the track said Ruttman appeared to have suffered severe head injuries. The Kellner's single and was passing second when he tagged his mind and dove back to second to escape being trapped by Sam Mele's throw to Dente. Boston defeated the Senators, 3-1, to break a five-game Washington winning streak.

Menzer Ends 5-Week Atom Defense Course

Prof. Carl Menzer returned to SUI this week after completing an intensive five-week course in atomic warfare defense at the Institute of Nuclear Studies, Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Menzer, who is director of radio station WSUI and a professor in the electrical engineering department, was named to attend the institute by Gov. William S. Beardsley.

The course was designed to equip qualified scientists throughout the United States with a knowledge of what to do in the event of an atom bomb attack. While at the institute Menzer took courses varying from the study of nuclear physics to field participation in simulated atom bomb attacks.

He dealt with the use of the Geiger counter, decontamination procedures, the after-effects of an atomic explosion, and the problem of civilian defense and preparedness for atomic attacks.

Top atomic scientists and members of the armed forces specializing in atomic warfare and defense taught the courses. The program was directed by the atomic energy commission. The 21 men attending the institute are now engaged in, or have had wartime experience with nuclear physics. Menzer participated in the atom bomb tests at Eniwetok in 1948.

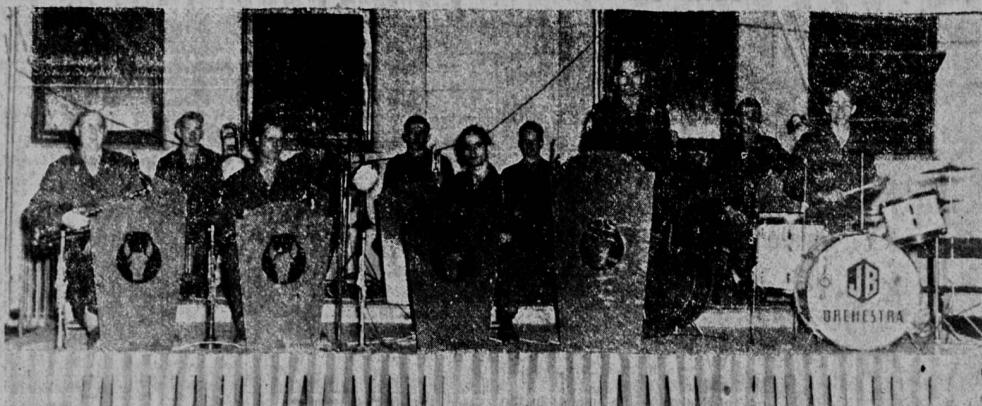

Graduates of the course represent 16 governors from Florida through the Midwest. In Iowa, Menzer will act as an advisor to Gov. Beardsley in any action taken to pass the information learned at the school on to the people of Iowa.

Fulbright Scholar Says SUI Superior To French College

SUI surpasses the University of Lyon, France, according to a letter Lucille Townsend, G. Roanoke, Va., wrote to Prof. John Briggs of the SUI political science department.

Miss Townsend is spending a year studying political science in France on a Fulbright scholarship. She will return to SUI in September to continue her graduate work. SUI library facilities are very much superior to those of the University of Lyon, she said.

In France it is "next to impossible" to see a professor, she reported. They are usually traveling around the continent, and one must have an appointment sometimes a week in advance to talk with them.

The lecture system is used almost exclusively except for one or two courses, where the students present papers and are subjected to what is sometimes brutal criticism by professor and students.

At SUI Miss Townsend was a

Rural Pupils Happy As Summer Vacation Begins at 11 Schools

"No more school, no more books, no more teachers' cross-eyed looks," pupils from 11 Johnson county rural schools chanted Friday as they put in their last day of classes before summer vacation.

School will close at 23 more rural schoolhouses next Friday, and all others in the county will finish the year May 26.

Commencement for 163 eighth graders from the rural schools will be held in Macbride auditorium May 29 at 8 p.m., according to County Superintendent Frank Snyder.

The Iowa City public schools, which include six grade schools, Junior high school and City high school, will close June 9. Classes at the University elementary schools will end May 26, and University high school will close June 2.

Graduation exercises for City high school's senior class of 141 will be held June 8, and University high school's class of 42 will graduate June 2.

12 Indicted by Johnson County Grand Jury

Twelve criminal indictments were returned Friday morning by the Johnson county grand jury in district court.

Three released for publication were against Joe C. Gedraitis, Newton, for writing a bad check; Paul B. Akers, West Branch, for operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent, and Clem Hartman, Iowa City, for larceny in the daytime.

The names of the defendants in the nine other indictments will be released after they have been arrested.

The seven jurors also reported their investigation of the county home and the county jail showed both were in good condition. Gedraitis was charged in the indictment with writing a bad check for $127.50 at Ewers Men's store, 28 S. Clinton street, on Nov. 27, 1948.

The indictment against Akers, 22, charged the youth drove away a 1941 Pontiac belonging to H.E. Foster while Foster was eating in a restaurant near Lone Tree April 24.

Akers was picked up that night by Iowa City police after a chase over the Benton street bridge. The officers reported having to shoot at the car's left rear tire to force Akers to stop.

Hartman was charged with stealing a jacket valued at $20 from a parked car in Iowa City April 16. He had been arrested near the Iowa City police station after a person suspicious of the man had trailed him.

These indictments place the cases in district court. Members were Charley L. Barrett, foreman, Cedar township; Everett W. Jenkins, West Lucas; Joel Linkhart, Oxford; Lawrence Peters, Big Grove; William Rain, Monroe; Oscar H. Wiese, Lincoln; and Frank Zeller, Penn.

Major Nathan Adams, Auburn '40 Personnel Manager, U.S. Air Force

Following a three month course, Lt. Adams decided the Air Force was the place for him. He applied for pilot training, was accepted, proceeded to Maxwell Field.

He won his wings and reported to the 36th Fighter Group in Puerto Rico. The group soon returned to the States, giving Adams a chance to marry his college sweetheart.

Within months Adams was overseas, flying "rhubarbs" (missions against enemy transports). He flew 63 P-47 missions within seven months, returned to the States late in 1944 for rest and recuperation.

V-J Day came, and Adams decided to make the service a career. He chose personnel work as his career field, was assigned for training to the Adjutant General's School at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Now a regular Air Force Major, he heads a 32-man section at Bolling Air Force Base. He advises his Commanding Officer on selection, assignment and promotion of all officers and airmen in the command.
