Sixteen Killed In B-29 Crash

PONTA DELGADA, SAO MIGUEL, THE AZORES (AP) — A U.S. airforce B-29 bomber, breaking a flight to Britain because of engine trouble, carried 16 persons to death in a landing at the Lagens air base early Thursday. The plane hurtled off the runway of an American installation on the island of Terceira and caught fire.

In London a spokesman for the U.S. third air division said the plane came in for a normal ground-controlled approach, went into a left bank, apparently stalled and crashed on the field.

The flames destroyed the plane in a few seconds. All but two of the victims were cremated, dispatches to Ponta Delgada stated. Eleven crewmen and five passengers, all military personnel, made up the group.

The plane's home base was Barksdale field, Shreveport, La. Attached to the 301st bomb wing group, it was en route to Lakenheath, England, under the airforce program for rotational overseas training.

MOSCOW DAM PROJECT WASHINGTON (AP) — The first hydro-electric cooperative asked the U.S. supreme court Thursday to clear the way for construction of the long-delayed Moscow dam project on the Cedar river near Muscatine.

Seven Firms Bid on New Generating Unit

Seven companies submitted bids Thursday for a new steam generating unit for the SUI power plant. The Winger Construction company of Ottumwa made the low bid of $240,800.

Prof. George Horner, SUI superintendent of construction and planning, said the Winger company was low bidder on a base bid but the contract will not be let till an analysis of all bids are made.

Contracts also were let Thursday for two building projects that will start in the near future.

Bid for Hillcrest Work A $28,800 base bid by the Russell Electric company of Iowa City was accepted for electrical services on the Hillcrest dormitory addition. The $9,458 contract for the heating and water services of the dormitory were awarded to the Carsten Brothers company of Ackley. R.H. Wildman Construction company of Iowa City received the contract for an addition to the geology building on a bid of $15,224.

Cost to Near $300,000 Proposed plans for the generator call for it to be in operation by September, 1951. It was estimated that the total cost of the project would be near $300,000.

The complete unit would include a boiler, stoker, furnace, controls, fans and accessory equipment.

This will be the first increase in the steam capacity of the SUI power plant since 1936. The plant was constructed in 1926.

Wasn't Even Probing Either

IT'S HARD TO BELIEVE, but Rep. Stephen Young (D-Ohio) wore a black eye Thursday with a gloomy expression to match, and claimed he got the mouse by walking into a door. "I walked right into a plate glass door at my hotel. I thought the door was open." In four years since his army service the congressman said he has averaged one black eye annually. "Maybe I'd better get back in the army where I'm safe," he added.

Truman Indicates Democrats In Group of 'Obstructionists'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman said Thursday he meant Democrats as well as Republicans when he called for the defeat in November of "some of the worst obstructionists" in congress.

In his Chicago speech last Monday, the President complained that part of his legislative program had been blocked by the opposition of "oddlly assorted groups" in congress. He called for the defeat of the worst ones in that opposition.

Asked at a news conference Thursday whether he meant to differentiate between Republicans and Democrats, Mr. Truman replied with a prompt "no."

He said, however, he did not want a subservient congress, which Senator Robert Taft (R-Ohio) declared Tuesday night was the Truman aim. He said he wanted an independent congress.

Difference in Degree Mr. Truman defined an obstructionist as one who is against everything proposed for the welfare of the people. He excluded from this definition legislators who have a pet thing to oppose.

He said he did not mind that kind of opposition and agreed with a questioner that the difference was entirely one of degree. Other subjects dealt with by the President Thursday: Government reorganization Foreign affairs — Mr. Truman issued a statement welcoming as an act of "constructive statesmanship" the French proposal for pooling French and German steel and coal industries. Government reorganization — commenting on the recent defeat of four more of his reorganization plans, he replied with a smile that it is the legislative prerogative to continue to talk about efficiency and economy in government and oppose changes that affect a local situation.

President Hancher To Review ROTC

The SUI ROTC regiment will salute SUI President Virgil M. Hancher at the 4th annual President's review today at 3:30 p.m. on the women's athletic field south of the Iowa Union.

Mr. Hancher will present awards to 27 cadets for scholarships in ROTC and other activities in the military department.

This will be the third and last formal review for the unit this school year. May 8 and 9 the ROTC regiment had federal inspection and May 10 they honored Gov. William S. Beardsley.

Evaluation Forms Meet Instructors' Informal Approval

Agnew Rovane, C3, Keokuk, chairman of the faculty - evaluation committee, told the student council Thursday night grading forms had been given to instructors to use.

In Rovane's report, Liberal Arts Dean Dewey B. Stuit was quoted as saying that approval of the plan had not formally taken place, but the fact that the forms were available to instructors to use at their will was a form of approval.

Very Technical Job

Stuit also said that "the plan cannot be pushed too far in the beginning phases for the working of a plan in a successful manner is a very technical job." James Fahrnc, A3, Davenport, chairman of the used book exchange committee, said a building could not be secured in which to operate the exchange.

No Building Exchange

Fahrnc said he had contacted Stuit, T.M. Rehder, directory of the dormitory and dining service and Registrar Ted McCarrel about using a temporary building but all of them had been taken. Fahrnc said McCarrel told him all graduate assistants do not have offices and the temporaries will be used for their needs. Stuit said the book exchange might be housed in the new library upon completion but the exchange probably wouldn't be operating until January, 1951.

Following the discussion, the council voted to send a formal written request to McCarrel for a building in which to house the exchange.

Life Magazine Story

In other action, Vice - President Louise Bekman, A2, Ottumwa, said a letter had been received from Life magazine inquiring as to the possibility of an SUI professor being included in a future picture story.

The letter said 10 or 12 professors would be chosen from names sent in from 50 universities throughout the United States.

An expert in property law, Bordwell will teach "Future Interests," a property course in the law school there from June 12 to July 20.

A $50,000 Booby Trap

PATERSON, N.J. (AP) — Andrew Tempia strode out of the Silver Bar and Grill here last September and fell flat on his face. Thursday he sued the saloon owner for $50,000 damages, charging the tavern entrance was "a dangerous trap" in which he was "caused and permitted to lose his balance and equilibrium, stumble and fall to the pavement with great violence."

The doorway, he alleged, contained "latent and concealed danger."

Airmen Say Captivity 'Better Than Expected'

PEARL HARBOR (AP) — Two U.S. airmen yesterday described their 18 months in Chinese Communist captivity as "a better deal than we could possibly have expected."

Both said they got considerate treatment and never were offered violence. They are Marine Sgt. Elmer C. Bender, 27, Cincinnati, and William C. Smith, 32, Long Beach, Calif., navy chief electrician's mate.

They spoke at a press conference. It was the first time they had talked to American reporters since the Communists released them May 3 at the North China port of Tsingtao. From there they went to Hong Kong on a British steamer and were flown on to Pearl Harbor.

"The Chinese people," said Bender, "are getting a better deal under the Communists than they were under the Nationalist government."

En Route Home They were given a great deal of Communist literature. They read everything that was in English.

Smith, breezy and happy he is en route home, fully backed up Bender's story. "We ate as well as the Chinese did," Smith said. "They certainly went out of their way to give us as much as they could of all they had."

Good Question — Where Does Art Begin?

MIAMI, FLA. (AP) — A stripper went to bat for her whole sisterhood Thursday to determine legally whether it is indecent and lewd to bare the bosom publicly.

Blonde Paula McGhee brought, through her attorney and the management of the nightclub where she disrobes, a test case in city court which she hopes will establish a legal precedent labeling the feminine bosom, if stationary, objects of art.

To Appeal Decision

They lost the first round. Miss McGhee was fined $50 and costs but her attorney, Al Hubbard, said she would appeal.

Miss McGhee, who is 32 and from Tennessee, submitted to the test near midnight Wednesday when two plainclothesmen arrested her on a charge of indecent and lewd exposure.

The nightclub management had informed police that Miss McGhee was willing to make a clean breast of her profession in an effort to release all Miami strippers from confining gauze.

G-String, 2 Wings

The two policemen testified that Miss McGhee came out in a G-string and two possibly butterfly-like wings obscuring the upper part of her body.

"She danced to the Blue Danube, I think," one said. "When she stopped she took off the wings and exposed her bosom fully."

Judge Cecil Curry ruled that the display was unlawful and levied the fine.

Census Completed Here Except for Spot Checks

Census-taking has been completed in Iowa City, according to local census supervisors. Census-takers will make spot surveys of certain sections of town which may have missed in the enumerating, however. People will be asked whether they have been contacted.

By Tuesday, the census will have been completed in all parts of Johnson county, officials estimated.

Deputy Council Set Up to Plan 'Preparedness'

LONDON (AP) — Twelve western nations Thursday night agreed to pool their economic and military might into one vast armed force, centrally directed to resist Soviet aggression.

Atlantic pact foreign ministers ended a four-day session with a six-point program designed to speed up western preparedness and overtake Soviet military might.

They agreed in principle to the American military concept to "concentrate on the creation of balanced collective forces." This meant that each of the 12 nations will contribute specific units to the central western armed force and not try to maintain expensive overall military establishments each self-contained in all arms.

The ministers set up an overall council of deputy foreign ministers meeting year around to put the collective security program into force. This council will have a permanent chairman who, it is understood, will be an American.

The biggest share of defense costs is expected to be borne by the United States, and there are indications the U.S. share will cost more than $1-billion this year.

Each of the 12 countries, however, was committed by the council to bear a share in proportion to its resources.

Outside the pact meetings the United States and Canada gave notice they intend to share in Europe's economic problems in 1952 when the European recovery plan ends.

This was done in a complicated announcement that Canada and the United States would join on an informal basis the organization for European economic cooperation. They are not members now.

Senate Investigators Start Crime Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators revealed Thursday they will open their inquiry into nationwide crime with a "general study" of an estimated $50-billion amassed by underworld characters.

Chairman Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) issued his first public statement on the scope of the $150,000 investigation to be undertaken by his special five-man crime committee.

After the general inquiry, Kefauver said, the investigators will look into such matters as narcotics rings, the numbers racket, violations of white slave and kidnapping laws, and other illegal activities.

They hope to start public hearings here within a month.

Second Rail Walkout Looms

CHICAGO (UP) — The Association of Western Railways Thursday branded a strike threat of the Switchmen's Union of North America (AFL) as a "reckless drive for prestige."

The union Wednesday announced its intention to strike against 10 western and midwestern railroads next Tuesday to back up a demand for a reduction in the work week from 48 to 40 hours without loss in pay.

Minority Group

Daniel P. Loomis, chairman of the AWR, said the strike threat was "an attempt by one small union to outsmart and outdo a big rival union."

Loomis said the switchmen's union represented less than five percent of the "ground" men employed in railroad switchyards, whereas the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen represents about 95 percent of all ground employees.

Refused to Wait

A presidential fact-finding board here has been hearing the 40-hour week demands of the trainmen, as well as the order of railway conductors and the yardmasters union. Board member Roger I. McDougough said that the switchmen's case also was handed to the panel to investigate, but that the union refused to wait its turn in the hearings and demanded immediate and separate treatment.

House to Consider New Rent Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — A one-year extension of federal rent controls — but only in cities and other localities that want to keep them — was approved by the house banking committee Thursday. The vote was 13 to 4.

The new bill would renew the federal rent powers, but with a stipulation that rent ceilings would be lifted automatically next Dec. 31 in all localities where the governing body or the citizens do not vote to continue the controls on to June 30, 1951.

Asks License Renewal

CANDIA, N.H. (AP) — Dr. Hermann N. Sander, who was acquitted in March on a charge of murdering one of his patients, said Thursday he would reapply for a license to practice medicine in New Hampshire on June 19.

Old Wives Tale or Panacea --

President Truman's statement that Cumberland, Maryland's unemployment is tragic compared to the healthful employment situation elsewhere needs challenging.

The President has taken it on himself since his last birthday to assert that the country is in a very good state and that he alone is responsible.

He has, actually, given the Democratic party and his hand-picked 81st congress a little credit, but only because of the master hand at the helm: Harry Truman.

Actually, Cumberland, Md., is in no worse a position than many cities in the nation; it probably is in better condition than many places. The fact of the matter is, there is not universal employment. Jobs are getting harder to get, as any June graduate will tell you. Business is cutting back, ever mindful of its overproduced itself into a depression only a little more than 20 years ago.

Nor are the strikes liable to help business improve its lot. Labor troubles are in keeping with this period of the business cycle, and they are indicative that all is not well with the national economy.

Actually people are more scared now than they've been at any time since the war ended. Half the politicians warn war is just around the corner; the rest laugh off such rumors as old wives' tales.

This may be what Harry Truman is doing. If so, it's a dangerous panacea.

Signpost for War or Peace --

Secretary-General Trygve Lie's conference with Russia's Joseph Stalin has been labeled a "save the UN" move. If may well be just such a desperate last ditch attempt.

The Democrats and the GOP — indeed even those within their respective parties — can't agree whether war is imminent. One thing is sure. The nation, and even the world, is filled with two types of people:

Alarmists or patriots and ostriches or patriots, the name depends on which side you belong. You pay your money and you take your choice.

The UN was conceived in good faith by nearly 40 nations before the closing days of World War II, in a rosy haze when all the nations of what was then the united front against the Axis powers looked forward to a never-ending peace.

Concessions were made and agreements signed. The UN was born with a lusty crew as the world made ready for its newly-conceived attempt at world government. Then the hitches started showing, mere scratches across those rose-colored glasses at first.

A few nations thought they were being asked to give up too much national sovereignty. What happened then is history, very recent history.

Now we are at a crossroads where there are only two choices: war or at best an armed peace for an undetermined number of years. We have just that much choice.

Anyone who makes a prediction about the outcome of Lie's mission is probably whistling in the dark or a pessimist. We're marking it down merely as a signpost on the road to war or peace.

Small Consolations --

Chiang Kai-shek has declared he is prepared to defend Formosa to the death. Disregarding the Chinese Nationalist leader's previous statement that he would defend Chushan island to the same lengths (then pulling out without firing a shot), Chiang's declaration about Formosa is at least plausible in terms of physical possibilities.

Formosa is the ancient remnant of a once-broad upland, a mountain that originated from a volcanic disturbance. Time has weathered down the coastal lands into low plains around the perimeter with the mountains rising starkly a few hundred miles inland.

Chiang would have no trouble defending the island to the death; indeed it's doubtful if the Chinese Communists could ever take any Nationalist who wanted to remain hidden.

Natives of Formosa are few outside of the mountains. Almost all the coast lands are occupied by immigrants, the interior being ringed off by a high fence from the barbaric aborigines farther inland.

During the war, airforce personnel were told going down within the fence was preferable to landing outside and being captured by the Japanese. The reason: they probably could stay alive and well until after the war and then make their way to the coast and re-join the allied forces.

Yes, Chiang could defend his island inland, but mainly because even the Communists probably wouldn't care about seeking out the holed-up Nationalists. This may sound like small consolation, but Chiang's position demands grasping even the smallest consolation.

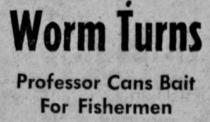

They're Calling for His Scalp

WITH SEN. JOSEPH McCARTHY demanding he be fired and "Red probes" of the state department razing, expressions of anti-Acheson sentiment are more and more frequent in Washington. Here are unposed photos of the secretary of state, called "the most powerful man in the government" by Senate Republican Leader Kenneth Wherry. McCarthy's demand that Acheson be fired was countered Tuesday by Sen. Francis J. Myers (D-Penn) who called the demand "political talk."

LIFE IN AN OYSTER
By GIL PEARLMAN

Why Postal Service Slower

WASHINGTON — No move in recent times toward governmental economy nor indication that Uncle Sam is having trouble balancing his financial income and outgo has created half as much stir as Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson's order curtailing postal service.

Repercussions were immediate since the impact of the retrenchment, beginning about June 1, is felt right at the mail boxes on millions of homes and offices throughout the land.

Donaldson, the nation's first "career Postmaster General" as the result of President Truman's departing from a tradition that the chief of the party in power shall have the post, is a lifelong postal employee.

LAKE SUCCESS (AP) — Put yourself in the shoes of Margarita. He left behind his parents, two brothers, a sister, and a sweetheart. His father once had some money. He has heard no word from them since he escaped Germany in 1938. They are presumed dead. But there is no trace of them.

Death Certificates Needed - 'Missing Men' Plague UN

Among the few starving, wasted men who were sent home to Hungary by the Russians in early 1945 you find a former friend of your husband. He tells you that they were all captured by the Russians and put to work at forced labor. He saw your husband in January 1945 in a small labor camp in the Ukraine and then they lost track of each other.

Death Certificates Needed - 'Missing Men' Plague UN

Or figure for yourself, if you can, what it is to be like Marie N---, a French barmaid. The Germans came into her little town in Alsace, sent her father into Germany for forced labor, shipped her husband off to a prisoner-of-war camp. She doesn't know what became of them. Both of these women — and many, many more — have a lot of problems.

Oregon Election to End Bitter Battle

PORTLAND, ORE. (AP) — A brief but bitter campaign battle between U.S. Sen. Wayne Morse and his ultra-conservative opponent, farmer Dave Hooper, ended Thursday night on the eve of Oregon's primary election.

National interest today will be centered on the attempt by Hoover, candidate of the right wing of the Republican party, to unseat Morse on grounds he has deserted the GOP by siding too often with the Truman fair deal.

Chemistry Students' Wives Form SUI 'Catalyst Club'

The women behind the men in the chemistry department at SUI comprise the membership of the Catalyst club.

The term catalyst in the chemical world refers to an activating agent — a substance which accelerates an action.

This term is applicable to the wives aid their husbands in the realization of their ambitions.

Thursday morning over WSUT's "Club Camera" three representatives of the local club were interviewed by Flo Robinson, A4, Cedar Rapids, program moderator.

Organized in 1946

They are Mrs. Ralph Child, past president; Mrs. Robert C. Johnson, past treasurer, and Mrs. Morris Sanderson, present president of the club.

Organized in 1946 by Mrs. George Glocker, wife of the head of the chemistry and chemical engineering departments, the club has about 45 members at present. Seventeen charter members retain membership in the group.

"The purpose of our club is to bring together the wives of students in chemistry on a social basis," Mrs. Johnson said. "We consider it our responsibility to be worthy of the name — Catalyst."

Four Honorary Members

All wives of chemistry or chemical engineering students are eligible for membership. Every two years four faculty wives are invited to become honorary members. Those who hold honorary membership now are Mrs. Ralph Shriner, Mrs. Lothrop Smith, Mrs. Walter Smith and Mrs. Stanley Wauzonek.

Two groups comprising the club — crafts and sewing — meet twice a month and hold a general meeting once a month.

Outside speakers, talent shows and interest group displays are featured throughout the year.

Iowa's Hawkeyes will attempt to improve their fourth place standing in the Big Ten baseball series this week-end with a two game series against last place Minnesota today and Saturday. Iowa has a 4-3 record in conference play while the Gophers have won one game and lost four. Minnesota is also last in the league in fielding and hitting. The team has a collective batting average of .179 and a fielding mark of .904.

Engstrand to Start
In today's game, Dale Engstrand, who has a 0-2 record for the season, is scheduled to start for Minnesota and Dick Hoeksema will probably be Coach Otto Vogel's choice. Last weekend the Hawks split two-game series with second-place Wisconsin at Madison, Wisconsin on the Friday game, 6-5, and the Hawks captured the second, 9-3. Glenn Drahn went to the plate for the Hawks in the Saturday game.

The Gophers are coached by Dick Siebert, former major league player with the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Athletics. He was unable to reach a salary agreement with the A's in 1946 and retired from baseball to accept a sports announcing job in Minneapolis.

Coach in 1948
Siebert became baseball coach at Minnesota in the 1948 season. Last season, Iowa's conference champions whipped Minnesota twice, 2-0 and 9-4. Game time today is 3:30 with the Saturday game scheduled for 2 p.m.

Re-instate Wakefield; Won't Play for Yanks

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Wakefield, the American league's No. 1 problem child, is back on the New York Yankees' payroll, but it's a cinch he will never be in their lineup.

In announcing Wakefield's reinstatement Thursday, the Yankees let it be known in no uncertain terms that the balking outfielder never will play for them again. Wakefield's previous activity as a member of the Yankees was confined to three pinch-hit appearances in which he singled, walked and struck out.

"The Yankees do not want Wakefield," said Arthur (Red) Patterson, club secretary. "He will not be asked to return. Some disposition of his case will be announced soon."

Patterson hinted strongly that Dick would be sold to another big league club. Rumor had Wakefield going to a National league team.

Whether the Yankees re-instated Wakefield of their own volition or did so under pressure from Commissioner A. B. Chandler was a matter of conjecture.

"The Yankees did it pretty much on their own although they did have several discussions with the commissioner," said Patterson.

Hawks Now After Third Place Finish —

"We've got to win two from Minnesota if we're going to finish third," Otto Vogel said Thursday as he leaned back in his office chair and talked about the Big Ten baseball race. The big series this week-end, of course, is at Madison, Wis., where the second place Badgers play two games with first place Michigan.

The Wolverines are on top with a 7-1 record, the Badgers behind with a 5-3 mark. Ohio State is currently third, 5-3, and the Hawkeyes fourth, a whisker out of third.

"I wish we played Michigan," Vogel commented, as he recalled the many times that Michigan has fallen into a victory over not just Iowa but other conference schools. This year, he said, Michigan has been way behind in a couple ball games only to finally win out on something like the seven errors Purdue made after leading by several runs.

"We only play them in certain years," he continued, "as the conference is split into two divisions for baseball, to keep expenses down. To top it off, we usually get them when we have a weak team and they have a good one."

Talk of who will be representing district four in the NCAA baseball playoffs will start in a few days. Even if Michigan wins the Big Ten title the Wolverines may not get in the playoffs, as they have lost to Western Michigan and to Michigan State.

John Kobs, baseball coach at Michigan State and a member of the NCAA committee, told Vogel during the two-game series here last week that he thought Iowa's name should be left in the running for the NCAA playoffs.

Iowa has a better team than either Ohio State or Michigan, he told the Iowa coach. Even if Iowa sweeps its two remaining series the Hawks probably wouldn't get, or accept, the bid. "I told him," Vogel said, "that I didn't think we had the pitching for a tournament."

The playoffs, won last year at Wichita, Kan., by Texas university, will be held this year in Omaha, Neb.

Tennis Coach Don Klotz gives Pancho Gonzales, the 21-year-old tennis star who appeared here earlier this week, a couple more years in big time tennis, "unless he changes his attitude."

Gonzales, according to Bobby Riggs, another of the tennis stars, doesn't train, but, he said, "with his bad boy attitude and bullet-like serve he draws crowd."

Klotz added that Gonzales is "playing on natural ability and although Jack Kramer is several years older, he may not have yet reached his peak." Both are Los Angeles residents, Kramer at present the world professional singles champion.

A new SUI music ensemble, the Madrigal group, will debut at the Collegium Musicum concert at 7:30 p.m. today in the north music hall.

Prof. Albert Luper of the music department said the public is invited. No tickets are required. Madrigal singing as a social activity appeared in England in the latter half of the 16th century when groups gathered around a table for an evening's singing of songs.

SUI's Madrigal group will include more than English songs, Luper said. On the program are a group of Italian madrigals, two French chansons and two sacred motets.

Director of the group is Instructor Charles Davis of the music department.

Included in the program will be vocal solos and duets, trio for winds and keyboard instrument and music for strings.
