County Census Up to 45,541

The unofficial 1950 Johnson county census count is 45,541, a gain of 12,350 since 1940, according to P. J. Cerretti, Davenport, district census supervisor. This is a 37.2 percent gain over 1940's figure. The addition of SUI students, who previously were counted at their home towns, to the Johnson county figure accounted for much of the gain. Cerretti said the Johnson county increase was greater than any other in the first congressional district. He said only half the 12 counties in the district showed increases. The total district population was announced as 370,823, a gain of 32,562. The six counties in the district which gained in population are Johnson, Muscatine, Scott, Henry, Des Moines and Lee. Those which lost are Washington, Iowa, Jefferson, Cedar, Louisa and Van Buren.

Truman Signs Bill Allowing Entry of 136,000 More DP's

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman signed with "very great pleasure" Friday a bill extending the displaced persons law another year and opening the way for the entry of an additional 136,000 homeless to the United States. "Now," he said, "the post-war victims of totalitarianism will be on an equal footing with earlier victims of Nazi aggression." The legislation, more than a year in the writing, liberalizes and extends for another 12 months a 1948 law which was due to expire June 30. His remark about placing the post-war victims of totalitarianism on an equal footing with persons driven out of their homes during the war referred to one of the important changes in the new law. It makes Jan. 1, 1949, rather than Dec. 22, 1945, the cut-off date by which refugees from eastern Europe must have entered Germany, Austria or Italy in order to be eligible for admission to the United States under the DP program. The new law contains security restrictions designed to prevent the entry of subversives and other undesirable. The displaced persons commission will investigate the character, history and eligibility of all persons seeking admission, and everyone admitted must take an oath that he has never been a member of the Communist party.

California Scientist Arraigned
A JET-PROPULSION SCIENTIST at the California Institute of Technology, Dr. Sidney Weinbaum (left), leaves the U.S. commissioner's office in Los Angeles in the custody of an FBI agent. Weinbaum was arraigned on charges of perjury and fraud against the government. He was accused of lying when he testified that he never had been a member of the Communist party.

Cal Tech Scientist Accused Of Hiding Red Membership

PASADENA, CALIF. (AP)—Dr. Sidney Weinbaum, a Russian born scientist who worked for three years at California Institute of Technology's super-secret jet propulsion laboratory, Friday was arrested on charges that he concealed membership in the Communist party. The 52-year-old physicist and mathematician, now a research fellow in chemistry at the institute, was taken in custody at his home by FBI agents. The mild-mannered scientist, who speaks with a strong accent, was charged in a U.S. attorney's complaint with perjury and fraud against the government. He was arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Howard Calverly and his bond set at $5,000. Two counts are in the complaint. One charges that on Sept. 23, 1949, Weinbaum "under oath before the industrial employment review board willfully and fraudulently testified that he had never been a member of the Communist party, when in fact he had held membership in the Communist professional unit No. 122, under the party name of Sydney Empson."

Former Army Man Arrested In Spy Case

NEW YORK (AP) — A former U.S. army technician who the government said worked on the A-bomb itself was charged Friday with supplying atomic secrets to a wartime Russian spy ring. FBI agents, who seized the 28-year-old ex-army man Thursday night, identified him as David Greenglass of Manhattan. They quoted him as saying he felt Russia was entitled to A-bomb secrets since the Soviet was an ally of the U.S. during the last war. Greenglass was accused of slipping the top-secret information to Harry Gold, Philadelphia chemist, while assigned as a technician fifth class to the Los Alamos A-bomb project in New Mexico in 1945. Gold, arrested last May 23, was described by FBI agents as an intermediary between the Soviet spy ring and Dr. Klaus Fuchs, imprisoned British scientist who confessed getting atomic secrets for the Russians. Greenglass' arrest paralleled the seizure in Syracuse, N.Y., Thursday night of Alfred Dean Slack, 44-year-old chemist whom the FBI also linked with the Fuchs spy apparatus. Federal agents said Slack admitted giving samples of a secret high explosive to Gold. In Washington, high authorities indicated that other arrests would follow. The other count alleged that on about April 8, 1949, Weinbaum "in his personal security questionnaire which he signed in connection with his employment with the jet-propulsion laboratory at Cal Tech willfully omitted a statement that he had been a member of the Communist party."

Federal Judge Revokes Bridges' U.S. Citizenship

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A federal court ruled Friday that Harry Bridges, Australian-born labor leader convicted of perjury, must relinquish at once his rights as a U.S. citizen. In announcing that he would cancel the citizenship of the fiery CIO longshore union official, Judge George B. Harris opened the legal gate to a new deportation proceeding. But Bruce Barber, district director of immigration and naturalization, expressed doubt that a deportation order would be issued soon. He said that probably would await outcome of Bridges' appeal from his conviction of having lied about membership in the Communist party when he was naturalized in September, 1945. Assistant U.S. Attorney Robert McMillan said he would prepare the revocation order as soon as possible and probably would have it ready for court signature on Monday. Defense Attorney Norman Leonard filed a quick written notice of appeal from the court's decision. He also filed a written motion for stay of execution, and June 21 was fixed for argument on this motion. Thus it appeared Bridges' actual citizenship status may not be determined for several days, possibly much longer if effect of the order is held up pending appeal from it. Bridges flew to Chicago on union business and learned of Judge Harris' decision from a reporter when he landed.

Ask Charge Against Student Be Nullified

DES MOINES (AP) — A defense attorney asked the Iowa supreme court Friday to nullify a murder charge against Duk Sung Choi, a Korean, on grounds that a district court at Dubuque acted illegally in continuing the case for three months. E. Marshall Thomas, the defendant's court-appointed attorney contended in a petition seeking a review of the case that District Judge M.J. Glenn had no right to continue the trial from June 10 to Sept. 11 on a prosecution motion. The state code specifies, the petition said, that notice of an insanity plea need not be filed until four days before the trial date. Thomas filed a notice of pleading innocent by reason of insanity last June 3. Duk was accused of slashing the throat of Chun Kuen Oh last Jan. 6 in a dormitory on the Dubuque university campus. Both were students at the university.

Lustron Head Says Senator 'Unethical'

COLUMBUS, OHIO (AP) — The receiver for the defunct Lustron Corp. Friday said U.S. Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) was "unethical" in selling Lustron a housing manuscript for $10,000. "This is what I object to," said receiver Clyde M. Foraker of Columbus, in an interview. He pointed to a sentence which said the material was gathered during a 30,000-mile tour as vice-chairman of the joint congressional committee on housing. "What the government pays for belongs to the government," said Foraker in heated tones. But, Senator McCarthy contended "I just sold to the highest bidder." Foraker, who took over operation of the $37.5-million prefabricated housing plant in Columbus more than two months ago, declared: "I'll bet he wouldn't have gotten it (the $10,000) if he wasn't a senator."

Iowa's Switzer to Testify Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Carroll O. Switzer is scheduled to testify today before a senate judiciary subcommittee which is considering his nominations to be a federal judge for the southern district of Iowa. Switzer, who was given an interim appointment by President Truman last October, is one of several witnesses expected to appear at the hearing. At an earlier hearing two months ago, Sen. Guy Gillette (D-Iowa) opposed the appointment. Switzer did not appear at that public session. Gillette told the subcommittee then he thought that there was "strong evidence" of "political trafficking" in Switzer's nomination. He said he did not object to Switzer personally but did not think him qualified for the job. Switzer was nominated in May, 1949, but the senate did not act. Mr. Truman then gave him a recess appointment after the senate adjourned and sent the nomination to the senate again last January. Jake More, Harlan, Iowa State Democratic chairman, plans to at-

Crossed Paths . . .

OTTAWA (AP) — Government sources said Friday an American scientist accused Thursday of giving the Russians wartime secrets about the super-explosive "RDX" in all probability crossed paths with a Canadian scientist already convicted of doing the same thing. Whether the two were aware of each other or were working together is something officials either don't know or aren't talking about. The Canadian is Dr. Raymond Boyer, wealthy McGill university professor who was sentenced to prison after telling a Royal commission he gave a Russian agent, Fred Rose, enough information to allow the Soviets to build an RDX plant. The American is Alfred Dean Slack, arrested in Syracuse, N.Y., on a charge of conspiring to supply Russian agents with samples of the powerful explosive.

Boy Struck by Car; Suffers Only Bruises

Six-year-old Keith Bauserman, 618 N. Dodge, received bruises about the head and arms when he was struck by a car near his home at 5:20 p.m. Friday. The car was driven by Charles M. Bohn, Millersburg. Keith, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford N. Bauserman, was taken by a neighbor to Mercy hospital where he was treated and released immediately. His mother said, "As far as we know he isn't seriously injured." Bohn, 46, was driving to the Coralville dam where he works as an operating engineer. He said he was driving north on Dodge street, cars parked on both sides of the street making it difficult for him to see. He said the boy "came from behind a parked car on the opposite side of the street." No charges were filed against Bohn, police said.

Dulles in Japan To Discuss Treaty

TOKYO (SATURDAY) (AP)—John Foster Dulles arrived today for talks with General Douglas MacArthur to determine "if it is wise at this time to proceed with a peace treaty for Japan. The state department Republican advisor was ahead of two other top officials who will take part in the talks next week. Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson and Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff are due tonight from Okinawa. As the hour for the top-flight conferences neared, reliable sources said Japan's leaders were fearful lest the talks on a peace treaty produce a formula difficult to sell to the Japanese. They referred to what they believe is rising Japanese opposition to the U.S. maintaining bases in Japan after a treaty is signed.

College President Assails Compulsory Loyalty Oath

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — President James L. Morrill of the University of Minnesota Friday assailed compulsory loyalty oaths for members of college and university faculties. Addressing closing sessions of the 50th annual convention of the American Institute of Banking, Morrill said he does not object to a positive oath of loyalty for all men.

ARMS AID APPROVED

WASHINGTON (AP)—Next year's $1,222,500,000 installment of foreign arms aid was approved informally Friday by the senate foreign relations and armed services committee.

"THIS SUN-BATHING BUSINESS is a bore," yawns young Ronny Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Clark, G. 150 Riverside park. Daddy "Bo" was playing tennis Friday afternoon on the courts in the background but that didn't seem to interest little Ronny either. And mommy—holding his ankle and smiling at him—"Well," as Ronny puts it, "I guess I'm too sleepy for 'em all."

Reject Russian Demand To Internationalize City

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, Britain and France tersely rejected Friday Russia's new demand that Trieste be internationalized. They called the demand a propaganda attempt to "injure the cause of peace."

In virtually identical notes the three governments denied Moscow's charge they have violated the Italian peace treaty by keeping 10,000 troops in the Adriatic port area.

The western big three said the 1948 plan to create a free territory around Trieste is now impossible to carry out because Russia repeatedly has sabotaged efforts to appoint an acceptable international government.

The state department at the same time scoffed at Russian accusations that Britain and the United States have established an "illegal naval base" at Trieste and are carrying out "military maneuvers and other military measures."

Russia has demanded in a formal note April 20 that Trieste be internationalized and the allied troops be withdrawn. Moscow since then has served notice it will refuse to discuss an Austrian peace treaty until a satisfactory reply was received.

The United States denounced Russia's accusations as obvious efforts to block a friendly agreement between Italy and Yugoslavia over settling the future of Trieste.

Pick Up Youths Who Ran Away from Boys Town

Two boys who ran away from Father Flanagan's home for boys in Boys Town, Neb., Thursday to "visit folks in Chicago" were picked up by Iowa City police on highway 6 east of Iowa City at 12:30 a.m. Friday.

The police contacted Nebraska police and were waiting word to send the boys back to Boys Town or to Chicago, they said.

One of the boys said they ran away because they "didn't get any vacation this year" to visit relatives in Chicago.

Mrs. Bodine's Rites Scheduled Monday

Funeral services will be at 2:30 p.m. Monday at Beckman funeral home for Mrs. Sarah H. Bodine, wife of Prof. J. H. Bodine, head of the SUI zoology department.

Mrs. Bodine died following a heart attack at 10 p.m. Thursday at her home on Prairie du Chien road.

Surviving her besides her husband are one son, Joseph, Jr., at home; one brother, David Heimach, Philadelphia, Pa., and one sister, Mrs. Ellen Maxey, in Georgia.

Mrs. Bodine was born in Phillipsburg, Pa., the daughter of William and Martha Gearhart Heimach. In June, 1920, she was married to Prof. Bodine, and before coming to Iowa City, the couple lived in Philadelphia, Pa., for eight years.

The Rev. John G. Craig, pastor of the First Congregational church, of which Mrs. Bodine was a lifelong member, will officiate the funeral services. Burial will be in Oakland cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home until the time of the services.

HORSES TO CARS

DETROIT (AP) — David Vokes, 55, convicted of stealing a horse in 1911, was sought Friday on auto larceny charges.

Hickenlooper Wants Amerasia Testimony Public

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Millard Tydings (D-Md.) Friday threw cold water on Republican demands that his senate inquiry committee make public the secret testimony of a key figure in the 1945 Amerasia case. Tydings told newsmen the committee has no intention of changing its policy of keeping all testimony secret until the investigation has been completed.

"It's not my personal policy," Tydings said. "The committee adopted it by vote." But Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), a committee member, said he would support a motion to lift the secrecy restriction, and he commented: "I think it would be in the public interest."

Hickenlooper joined his colleague, Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) in prodding Tydings to release the testimony in the wake of a new storm of charges and countercharges by McCarthy and Deputy Undersecretary of State John Peurifoy. McCarthy and Peurifoy accused each other Thursday night of trying to influence in advance the testimony given by Emmanuel Sigurd Larsen at a closed-door session of the Tydings committee on May 29. Larsen, a former state depart-

British Bomber Crashes; At Least Five Killed

DUBLIN (AP) — A four engine Royal airforce Halifax bomber crashed on a lonely mountain during heavy fog in west Ireland Friday night. The bodies of five of the eight crewmen were found. The other three were also believed to have died.

The plane, which had been on a routine weather flight from Aldergrove base near Belfast, plowed into 2,192-foot high Mt. Croaghnaun on the isle of Achill in County Mayo.

French Pilot Seriously Injured

PARIS (AP)—Air France said Friday Pilot Jean Sladek is seriously injured and unconscious at Bahrain island hospital but not dead as reported Thursday.

His Saigon-to-Paris Skymaster crashed in the Persian gulf early Tuesday with a loss of 45 of 51 persons aboard.

The pilot of a second Saigon-Paris Skymaster lost in the same locality Wednesday night was reported killed outright. Thirty-nine out of 52 were reported killed in the second crash.

Peruvian Revolt Quiets Down

AREQUIPA, PERU (AP)—Peru's brief but bloody insurrection was all but washed up Friday as government troops patrolled almost deserted streets. Arequipa was quiet.

The city's businesses were closed by a general strike. But, aside from barricades thrown up during the fighting and isolated sniping Thursday night, there were few traces of the revolt.

Troops continued to search for suspected participants in the rebellion.

No official announcement of casualties has been made but reports place the toll at 50 to 150 dead and hundreds wounded. No North Americans were reported injured.

Loveland Visits President Truman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Al Loveland, Democratic candidate for U.S. senator from Iowa, visited President Truman and other party leaders Friday.

Loveland said that after a short talk with the President, he conferred with William Boyle, national Democratic party chairman, and Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan.

Loveland was assistant secretary of agriculture until he resigned several months ago to seek the nomination for senator.

Communists Brawl in Germany

WUPPERTAL, GERMANY (AP)—Communists were involved Friday night in two political rally brawls reminiscent of Adolf Hitler's beer-hall outbursts during his early climb to power. Police halted both disturbances.

In Wuppertal, 200 Communist youths stormed a neo-Nazi beer-hall election rally and hurled glasses and chairs at club-swinging police who finally ended the rioting.

At Muehlheim, Soviet zone refugees attacked a Communist youth meeting and fought the Reds for an hour before police quieted the brawlers.

Father's Gifts to Break Tradition, Father

NEW YORK (AP)—Dad is in for some big surprises when he opens his Father's day presents on Sunday.

He's in for some still bigger ones when he gets the bills for the gifts his children so generously bought him.

For instead of the usual batch of gaudy dollar neckties, fathers of 1950 are more likely to get automobiles, electric drills, paint sprayers, bar-b-que pits, umbrellas with rulers attached to measure fish or sports jackets.

The National Father's Day committee which has headquarters in New York, said it has done its work in behalf of Papa so well that children can't do enough for him — with his money.

"It doesn't really matter," said Alvin Austin, executive director of the committee. Fathers will get things they won't usually buy for themselves. They always let themselves come last. This way some of the money is spent on Dad."

When Father's day was started in Spokane, Wash., in 1910 gifts were given only to fathers in poor families. Nobody paid much attention to the day for 25 years, and then the committee was founded. It's been working day and night to win respect for the "old man," and Austin said he thinks it has succeeded—judging from the Father's day gift list for this year.

A Washington, D.C., store is selling the fisherman's umbrella, complete with ruler. Boston stores are selling a lot of electric drills and paint sprayers. Many San Francisco Dads are going to get terry cloth towels with pockets to wear at the beach, pajamas so sporty they can be worn in the garden and barbeque equipment.

In Chicago, children are buying card shufflers, crows, crows consisting of imitation crows and telescopes the size of fountain pens.

'Basing Point' Bill Vetoed by Truman; Called Unnecessary

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman Friday vetoed the bitterly-contested basing point bill as unnecessary, confusing and a possible blow to the anti-trust laws.

The measure was intended to clear up any doubt that a business man acting without collusion could sell his product at delivered prices without regard to hauling distances; meeting competitive prices by "absorbing" the freight charges.

President Truman said the legality of these practices already has been clarified. He said they are plainly within the law.

Cutting squarely across partly lines, the legislation had split congress wide open, supporters contending it was vital to the business world, and opponents charging it would aid monopoly. But there were no predictions that the veto could be overturned.

Indeed, an author of the bill, Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) called Mr. Truman's message a clear signal to businessmen that they can absorb freight charges and sell at delivered prices.

"It says fear not when acting individually," O'Mahoney told reporters.

Backers of the bill hadn't reformed their lines for the next move. To Chairman McCarran (D-Nev) it appeared that the veto would force a study and rewriting of the anti-trust laws at the next session.

But Rep. Walter (D-Va) said he will press at once for a rule to set his own basing point bill before the house. It bears judiciary committee approval.

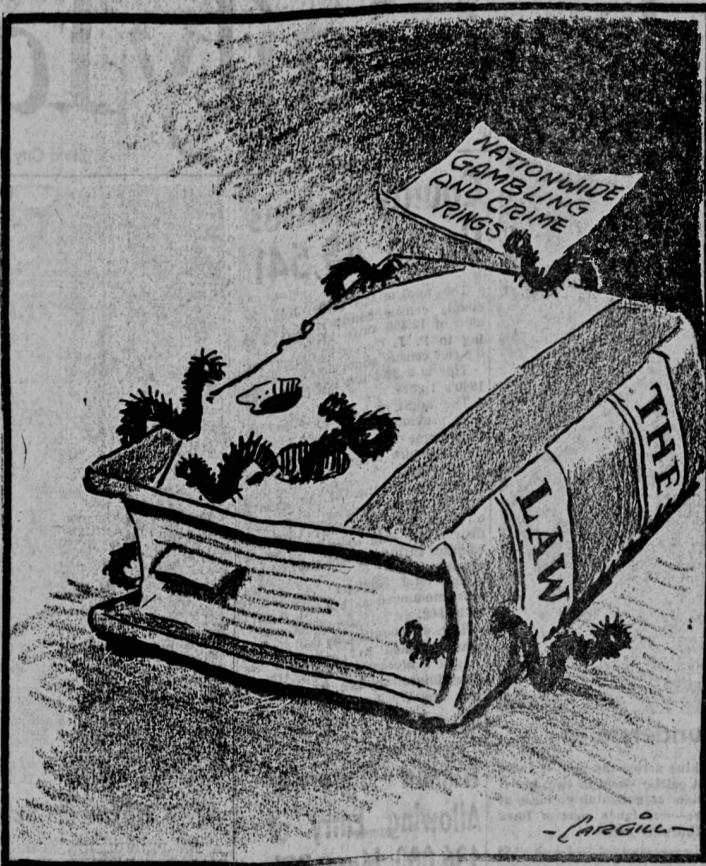

Walter's bill calls for a two-year moratorium on action of the federal trade commission against individual companies using delivered prices and absorbing freight to meet competition anywhere — in the absence of a conspiracy.

In effect, Mr. Truman said they can go ahead anyway in his opinion and O'Mahoney hailed the veto message as upholding his own view in its significant features.

"The bill would not achieve the clarification desired," said Mr. Truman. He contended it would obscure the law and make it even tougher for the businessman, government and the courts to apply the laws against monopoly and unfair competition.

The basing point system has a long history of controversy. As practiced in the steel industry, for example, "basing points" were set up in various sections of the country. Then, when a customer brought steel he was charged the price at the basing point nearest to him, plus freight from that basing point, no matter where the steel actually came from.

'Bookie' Worms

Registration Confusing, Hot

By DICK JACKMAN

Registration should be all over for most of us now. But last Monday and Tuesday probably will remain in the memories of our freshmen for years to come.

They were warm days in Iowa City — so warm you could almost feel the perspiration dripping from assorted IBM cards as SUI students underwent the mental as well as physical heat of registration for the summer session.

The scene of the summertime show was the spacious Iowa fieldhouse. The plot was dull, the cast was terrific, for Registrar Ted McCarrel reported early figures as showing nearly 4,000 students would cast their educational lot here for the next eight weeks. The total was a drop from last summer's total, but still a substantial margin over the top pre-war mark of 3,000.

GI's Idea Provides Proxy Fathers for Orphans' Dad's Day

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—For many hundreds of kiddies all over the United States Sunday, "Daddy" is going to be wearing an air-force uniform.

The children, orphaned or victimized by broken homes, have been invited to sit on the knees of eager substitute fathers — fathers located at more than 50 air fields in the U.S.

Sunday these deprived youngsters get a chance to lick ice cream cones and walk along with "Daddy," hand in hand, just like millions of other little children across the nation.

They get this chance because a 32-year-old GI had an "idea" one day last year.

The GI Staff Sgt. Harold Craven of Hayward, Calif., is the father of two children. He's been in the service for six years.

Harold was stationed at Hamilton Airforce Base, Calif., in 1949 and he was doing a lot of thinking about kids who didn't have reason to celebrate Father's day. Maybe it was some of the orphans he had seen at nearby Sunnyside school that prompted his plan.

Maybe he was wondering what his two children would do on Father's day if he weren't around. Or maybe, as he says, he just had an idea.

But whatever the motive when Craven mentioned his thoughts to Staff Sgt. Herbert Hymer, the crazy plan began to crystallize.

Hymer, 39, and unmarried, soon became as enthusiastic as his pal. Together they succeeded in getting official okays from station officers.

Almost immediately the idea hopped from airfield to airfield, and by Father's day many of the military bases were solidly booked for "Operation Father."

This year Craven is at Tinker field in Oklahoma City. His base and his buddies there are in on tomorrow's nation-wide Father's day for orphans. Half a hundred other air stations have plans to join with him and make a success of the second anniversary of his plan.

There'll be band concerts, movies, lunches and plane inspections to amuse the youngsters. But more important, there'll be an air-force-uniformed "Daddy" for every young child who wants one.

Harriman Appointed Truman's Assistant For Foreign Affairs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador W. Averell Harriman, veteran of many important assignments in government and diplomacy, was named by President Truman Friday to a new White House post — special assistant to the president in handling foreign affairs.

In general, officials said, his task will be to coordinate the activities of all government departments so far as they bear on foreign policy. The aim is to achieve what Secretary of State Dean Acheson calls "total diplomacy" in the conflict with Russia.

A White House announcement did not mark out the exact boundaries between Harriman's and

W. AVERELL HARRIMAN Named Special Assistant

Acheson's duties, but administration informants said there would be no conflict. Acheson, it was learned, recommended the appointment to Mr. Truman last week.

Linked to London Conference The announcement linked the new job to decisions recently reached in diplomatic conferences at London for greater military, economic and political cooperation among the western powers in the cold war.

This was interpreted to mean that Harriman will help work out American government programs for dovetailing this country's armed forces with those of other North Atlantic treaty nations.

The announcement said that the implementation of the decisions reached at the recent London meetings, and the integration of the various interests of the departments and agencies concerned with the development of government-wide policies related to our international responsibilities, require a large measure of presidential consideration and decision.

Assumes Post in August In other words, Mr. Truman sees a lot of foreign policy decisions coming up.

"The president believes," the statement added, "that Mr. Harriman's long experience in international affairs will be of great value in helping him deal with these matters. Mr. Harriman will assume his new duties early in August."

In October, 1946, Harriman became secretary of commerce and was one of the officials chiefly responsible for developing the European Recovery program and winning congressional approval of it.

Woman Claims 4 Holy Visits

NECEDAH, WIS., (AP)—A mother of seven children lifted her tear-stained face to the heavens Friday and said the Virgin Mary appeared to her.

But more than 1,500 devout and curious persons who gathered to watch saw nothing.

Mrs. Fred Van Hoof, 45, who said the Blessed Mother appeared to her on three previous occasions, knelt in the soil of her small farm home near here for an expected fourth visit.

Hundreds of Catholics, including several priests, were present. The Catholics knelt with Mrs. Van Hoof and recited the rosary. Mrs. Van Hoof spoke to the crowd, urging prayers for Russia. Then she looked up into the brassy sky, appeared to be transfixed, and stood perfectly still for a moment while tears rolled down her cheeks.

"If you would pray, the Blessed Mother has promised me, I know now that the iron gates of Russia will be thrown open," the farm wife said to the crowd.

She urged them to keep God's commandments and then slumped to the ground. Priests carried her into the farmhouse and revived her.

"She came again, just like the other times," Mrs. Van Hoof told the priests. "I knew she would. I saw the same light and she was there and she spoke to me."

But members of the crowd shook their heads. They had seen nothing. The crowds dispersed while Mrs. Van Hoof remained in her house, her faith unshaken.

A plain, slender woman, Mrs. Van Hoof indicated to the priests that the Virgin had delivered the same message of prayers for Russia that had been manifested before.

The farm wife said the first time she saw the Virgin was in the back-yard of the farm.

There was a blinding flash like lightning, she said, followed by the appearance of the Blessed Mother.

"There was no doubt about it," the farm wife said, "and she spoke to me."

She said the Virgin after a third visitation promised to return at noon Friday and again Oct. 7. Although the crowd gathered well before noon, Mrs. Van Hoof did not indicate that the visit occurred for another hour and half after noon.

She said the Virgin appeared "in a blue mist, dressed in a blue robe with a large rosary at her waist and a gold chain around her neck."

Roman Catholic church officials said it was too early to say whether the visitations were authentic, but said that a full-scale investigation was being made.

Sgt. Winborn Returns From Special Training

Sgt. Walter D. Winborn of the SUI department of military science and tactics, has returned to Iowa City after six weeks special training at the Army Information and Education school in Carlisle Barracks, Pa.

Winborn finished in the upper third of his class of 150 army and airforce enlisted men and women.

United States Tracking Down Indians Again

By Central Press

PORTLAND, ORE.—An Indian hunt is about to begin in the far west.

Nope, it's not to be a bloody war between the whites and Indians as in the old days. This time the government is looking for descendants of four Oregon Indian tribes, to whom Uncle Sam wants to pay $16,500,000.

The other day a United States court of claims in Washington, D. C., awarded the Tillamooks, Coquilles, Too-Too-To-Neys, and Chetco tribes that big sum of money for coastal lands taken by the government in 1855. The land totaled 2,772,580 acres and comprises more than half of Oregon's frontage on the Pacific ocean.

Now 1885 is a long time ago, and finding the legal descendants to claim all this money will be a herculean task. It won't be so much finding Indians, but finding the rightful heirs.

L. P. Towle, acting area director of the Indian Service, owns up to the big job. "The big problem," he says, "will be an equitable distribution of the funds to those who are entitled to them. You'll be amazed at the number of persons who will try to get into the act—including white-skinned Indians.

"We've already made preliminary surveys to determine who are the direct descendants of the owners, but there is still much to be done."

In fighting the award, at hearings in 1947, government officials asserted the job of finding the legal descendants would be like locating a needle in that well-known haystack. At the time, Clifford Stearns, United States justice department had been unable to find the four tribes of Indians existent today.

He quoted from a letter penned in 1908 by James Garfield, then secretary of the interior. The letter said that the "Indians on the coast have intermarried so that tribal distinctions have disappeared."

Stearns contended that if the government couldn't locate the tribes in 1908, the problem is even greater today. But attorneys persisted, so today the government is looking for heirs to $16,500,000.

The case has been in controversy for a long, long time. An act of congress in 1935 referred it to the court of claims. The suit was filed in August, 1940. On April 2, 1945, the court ruled out all the other tribes except the new lucky four.

This decision was appealed to the United States supreme court, which, in 1946, upheld the court of claims. The case was then sent back to the lower courts to determine the exact value of the land as of 1855.

Basis for the suit is this: The land was ceded to the government by a treaty negotiated in 1855 by one Gen. Joel Palmer, Indian treaty negotiator extraordinary, and called for the setting up of Siletz reservation. For the treaty to be operative, it was necessary for the United States senate to ratify it. This was never done, for reasons now obscure.

However, the government did go ahead and set up the reservations and moved some of the tribes and carried out other treaty provisions. Even that reservation has by now almost disappeared. Several years ago Indian residents were given title to the lands they farmed individually and most of them subsequently sold them to white men.

The hearing here in 1947 to determine the value of the land as of 1855 brought out many conflicting witnesses, since much of it contained timber and some minerals. Indians, backed by their own attorneys, at first pressed a claim for $77-million.

Timber, grazing facilities and agriculture were placed at $10-million, exclusive of minerals. That figure, plus 6 percent interest, since 1855, would come to more than $65-million. That would put the land value at a little more than $3.66 an acre.

However, the United States Court of Claims, after weighing all the testimony, determined that the true value 95 years ago was but $1.20 an acre, bringing the land price to $3,300,000. That sum, plus 4 percent interest, totals slightly more than $16.5-million.

TOMMY JONES (left) and Luke Cowapoo are two of the Indians claiming descent from four Oregon tribes to which a U.S. court awarded $16,500,000 in payment for a debt dating back to 1855.

Canadian Woman Studying SUI Teaching Methods

By BLANCHE REDMAN
SUI's summer session attracts students from far and near and for various reasons.

Agnes G. Waddell, Stratford, Ontario, Canada, is here because the SUI speech department has made a name for itself in Canada. She hopes to obtain some practical know-how from courses here to assist her in Stratford's project in speech correction beginning next fall.

Miss Waddell teaches kindergarten and grades one, two and eight in Stratford's Avon school where she "started as a little girl," herself. These grades will give her the "opportunity to make analyses of speech difficulties at lower levels and follow through with correction," she explained.

Stratford, as other large Canadian towns, now regards speech correction as a "felt need," she explained. Educators there and elsewhere in Canada feel that SUI has some outstanding people in its speech department and that some of its publications have done a great deal.

Prof. Wendell Johnson's books are especially well-known in Canada and teachers are guided by them and use them for "teacher's references," she said. She was released from her work early to come here because the school year in Stratford ends June 29.

"The tremendous number of courses offered at your university is overwhelming," she said. "And such practical courses."

Choral Speaking
In addition to her regular school work, Miss Waddell is in charge of children's choral speaking and teaches night courses in arts and crafts at vocational schools for adults.

Choral speaking is better suited to a group of 15 or 16 children, she said. It gives confidence to the backward child by working in a group.

It eliminates tedious memory work and unit work is an aid to learning. Group work is more enjoyable and provides social training, she pointed out. The goal is toward a high standard of speech, but the strong people in the group bring the others up.

Miss Waddell says she feels at home in Iowa because Stratford is in an agricultural belt, too. Here is one of the older families in the city and goes back 80 years to her grandfather.

Named for Shakespeare
Her home town stresses the Shakespearean motif and is named for Stratford, England. Its river is named Avon and "just as muddy as yours," she says. City wards have names from Shakespeare's plays and schools to match.

Romeo ward has a Romeo school; Juliet ward — Juliet school; Falstaff ward — Falstaff school; Hamlet ward — Hamlet school; Avon ward — Avon school (where she teaches). These are elementary schools, grades one to eight. Anne Hathaway school is not elementary.

Even the city garden is based on the Shakespearean idea and has a rustic entrance with thatched roof. A close bond with Stratford, England, is maintained by Rotarians and by city projects. The two cities have exchanged flags, and Christmas baskets have been sent to the namesake in England.

Her Hobbies
Art and crafts are Miss Waddell's hobbies. She has made purses among other leather work. Two years ago one of her paintings was accepted by the London Art gallery for its annual exhibit of amateur and professional paintings done in Western Ontario.

For painting she likes to use a "mixed technique," she said. It is a revival of a technique used in old European cathedrals and studied by a group of Canadian painters. Its general basis is egg-and-dried-color, called "egg and tempera." She is fond of water scenes, "probably because of the St. Lawrence river."

Novel Skirt Hanger Saves Closet Space

Housekeeping efficiency calls for shortcuts, and the alert homemaker can discover many ways to save time and energy.

For example, closet space is a problem in student housing quarters and in most homes. By putting up parallel rows of question-mark hooks on the closet door or wall, you will have created a skirt hanger.

The skirts can be suspended between two hooks, hanging flat, from loops of tape sewed to the waistband. One skirt can be hung above another with no danger of wrinkling or falling down.

For those scrubbing days, here is a way to ease the knees. Instead of a kneeling pad for hands and knees, household tasks, make pockets in the knees of your slacks and blue jeans for holding squares of sponge rubber, which can be removed when the job is done.

Greetings for Father's Day Offer Family Wide Choice

Messages to Father strike many notes in verses for his day, but the general sentiment is "good old Dad."

Greeting cards vary from gentle ribbing and childish scrawls to tailored dignity. Artists and rhymesters plan months ahead to get them into the stores for the third Sunday in June.

The little boy selects this one with Mom's help:

"You're the very nicest Daddy in all the world, and so here's a special card for you just to let you know!"

The son who is a dad, too, ponders at the counter and comes away with one like this: "Just Button into tell you You can bet your Sunday Vest That when it comes to darned swell Dads You're nothin' but the best!"

On Being Coy
For the Dad who likes to be known as a jolly good fellow, is a cold glass of beer surrounded by a barber-shop-4:

"A plain 'Old Fashioned' way to greet A Dad who simply can't be beat." And for the straight kind—no frills, no jokes—this is a popular selection of sons and daughters:

"A Happy Father's Day, Dear Dad, And gosh, I think you're great!" But if you want to be a bit coy, you might send one picturing a gallant lady stooping to recover a fair lady's lace handkerchief: "Hope o' Dame Fortune will always stop To flirt a bit with a popular Pop!"

Mom's Card
And there's the type of card, sporting ties hung in a neat row: "For the swellest of guys Hope your day is as bright As this rack-full of ties."

Just to show Father that the whole family thinks of him on Father's day, Mom can add hers: "A little note on Father's day With lots of love and kisses"

And loads of happy wishes, too, From your devoted Mrs."

These greeting cards mark an American holiday which J. Walker McSpadden in his "The Book of Holidays" calls topical—the topic being Father. McSpadden says holidays fall into three general groups: religious, patriotic and topical.

Resident Physicians Wed in Oregon

The wedding of Dr. Mary Carolyn Beyer and Dr. William H. Ames, both resident physicians at University hospitals, took place Wednesday in Astoria, Ore.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Beyer, Astoria, Ore., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Ames, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Attending the bride were her sister, Mrs. John F. Bradbury, matron of honor; and bridesmaids Mrs. Phyllis Mowick, Warrenton, a cousin of the bride; Shirley Gohrke, Dallas, Ore.; Mrs. James W. McKee, Astoria; and Mrs. Gerald C. Phillips, Warrenton.

Flower girls were Diane and Jaelyn McKee, goddaughters of the bride.

The bridegroom's brother, Evan F. Ames, Louisville, Ky., served as best man. Ushers included John F. Bradbury, Robert J. Bradbury, both of Astoria; Robert R. Gohrke, Dallas, Ore. and Richard H. Gohrke, Bend, Ore.

A reception at the Astoria Country club followed the ceremony. After a two week trip in Wyoming and Colorado, the couple will live at 529 S. Governor.

The bride received her B.A. degree at Oregon State college where she was affiliated with Delta Delta Delta social sorority. She received her medical degree from the University of Oregon Medical school at Portland.

Three Medical Students Plan Work in Kansas

Webber Wins State Golf Title; Defeats Dick Schultz in Finals

Winner Drops Long Putt to End Match

By HOBERT DUNCAN
Daily Iowan Sports Editor

Don Webber, 16-year-old shot master from Ames, Friday won the 1950 state junior amateur golf tournament by beating Dick Schultz of Boone with a brilliant display of putting on the back nine.

Webber was two strokes behind after eight holes of the final match before he rallied with accurate play on the greens to win, 3-2.

Friday's victory was the first major tournament victory for the red head who has been shooting par golf since he was eight. And he did it dramatically by dropping a 40-foot putt on the 16th green to end the match.

Crowd Favorite

Schultz, a favorite with the crowd, needed at least a tie on this hole to stay in the match after his early round lead had disappeared. Webber's drive landed in the sand trap at the approach of the green. Schultz drive hooked to the left but left the ball in a playable position about 15 feet off the green.

After Schultz had chipped to within 10 feet of the hole on his second shot, Webber shot from the trap and rolled the ball just to the edge of the green.

It appeared that Webber would need at least two putts from that distance. If Schultz could drop his putt and win the hole, his deficit would be cut to single stroke with two holes remaining.

Webber, however, calmly rolled his ball the 40 feet to the lip of the cup where it paused momentarily before dropping in for a par three. Schultz putt missed by inches to end the match.

Prolongs Match

On the 15th hole, Schultz prolonged the match by dropping a nine foot putt.

Webber missed a two-under par eagle on the 14th green by inches. A 35-foot putt from the edge of the green stopped two inches from the hole. He sank the next shot for a birdie while Schultz took a par for the 570-yard hole.

The two golfers remained even in the first four holes of the match before Schultz took a one stroke advantage on the fifth with a par while Webber bogied. Schultz added another stroke to his advantage on the seventh.

Then Webber started the precision putting that was to sweep him to victory. He took the 9th, 10th and 11th holes for a one stroke lead. Webber and Schultz battled evenly until the 14th when the Ames offer added another important stroke to his lead.

The seven golfers who will represent Iowa in the national junior tournament at Ames, Aug. 13 to 19, were announced by Daveannon, chairman of the state junior meet.

In addition to Webber and Schultz, they are: Max Shields, Skaloosa; Dale Kniss, Waterloo; Wayne Higley, Iowa City; George Lark, Ottumwa, and Dick Bellinger, Waterloo.

The alternates are Herb Klontz, Ottumwa, and Don Platt, Ames.

Flight Finals

Finals in six other flights of the four-day tournament were also completed Friday. The most hotly contested match of the day was avenge Wagenvord's second flight victory over Dick Bruns of Waverly, 1 up in 20 holes. Wagenvord led an overwhelming five up and after 10 holes had been completed, but Bruns rallied gamely to take the next five and square the match. They halved the 18th hole, forcing the match into an overtime.

The results of the other championship matches: First flight — Bob Sunstrum, Oskaloosa, defeated Don Terrell, Oxford, 5-4; Third flight — Dick Baldwin, Spencer, defeated Brian Kneafly, Ottumwa, 3-2; Fourth flight — Bob Esch, Mount Pleasant, defeated Don Lubin, Iowa City, 4-3; Fifth flight — Donald Eslick, Marshalltown, defeated George Bishop, Muscatine, 4-2; Sixth flight — Al Arkhart, Marion, defeated Geneivotny, Iowa City, 2 up.

White Sox Score Sixth Straight, Beat Nats, 7-1

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox scored all their runs during a seven run third inning defeat Washington, 7-1 to gain their sixth straight victory before 102,628 persons Friday night.

Ray Scarborough pitched the distance to gain his third win in four starts for Chicago on a yield five hits. However, he walked batters.

Dave Philley's No. 4 homer in the sixth produced three of the winners' seven runs.

Southern California Tops NCAA Track Qualifiers

MINNEAPOLIS (UP)—Southern California's mob of trackmen Friday qualified 10 men for today's finals in the 29th annual NCAA track and field meet and threatened to grab the title for the second straight year and the 14th time since the meet began.

The Trojans, entering a 19-man squad—the largest in the meet—were shut out only in the shot-put, the 440-yard dash, the javelin throw and the 220-yard dash. But in return they dominated the hurdles, qualifying three in the 120-yard high and two in the 120-yard low.

Attlesley Leads

The hurdlers were paced by one of the Southern California stars, Dick Attlesley, who won his heat in the 120-yard high in :13.9, equalling the meet record but falling short of the :13.5 he posted earlier this season to better the world mark. Attlesley also won his heat in the low hurdles.

The Trojans, however, had to share honors for the day with massive Jim Fuchs, the Yale shot putter who earlier this year flipped a 58-foot, five-inch throw to improve the world record. Friday he slammed the shot 56 feet, 7-1/4 inches on his second throw to surpass his own NCAA record of 56 feet, 1-1/2 inches last year.

Fuchs finished third in the discus throw too as his running mates, Victor Frank and George Wade, also displayed standout style. Frank was fourth in the discus and was expected to do better in the finals of the event Saturday. He was also fourth in the shotput.

Half-Mile Threat

Wade, a crackerjack miler, threatened to take the half-mile today. He won his half-mile heat today in 1:52.2, more than a second better than the time posted by winners of the other two trials.

A total of 38 of the 73 schools entered placed men in the final tests. Four had three men, seven two each, and 20 one man each. The qualifying tests only strengthened the opinion that Southern California is the team to beat. Should Yale's Fuchs, Frank and Wade capture three events, it appeared Old Eli still would tally something short of 40 points, while Attlesley, Mier Jim Newcombe and the other Trojan qualifiers are expected to show well enough to exceed that figure.

Cleveland Nips A's; Alex Kellner Injured

CLEVELAND (AP) — Luke Easter's two-run homer in the fifth inning Friday night gave the Cleveland Indians a 3-2 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics. Early Wynn allowed only six hits in winning his fourth victory.

Alex Kellner, Philadelphia pitcher, was carried off the field on a stretcher after being hit in the left temple with a line drive in the fifth inning.

The blow knocked him out, but he regained consciousness and was hurried to a hospital for an X-ray examination. It could not be determined immediately how serious the injury might be.

The ball, hit by left fielder Dale Mitchell, bounded off Kellner's face to the Stadium's running track and went for a double.

Carl Schieb took over on the mound for Philadelphia.

Broken Hand Forces Graziano to Postpone Scheduled Title Fight

NEW YORK (AP) — A fractured left hand knocked Rocky Graziano out of a title fight with Middleweight Champion Jake LaMotta Friday and the promoting international boxing club immediately cast about to find a substitute for the June 28 date in the Polo Grounds.

Graziano, the trouble-haunted socker from the east side, injured his hand in training several days ago but didn't bother to report it, the IBC said. Friday the hand bothered him and an X-ray examination showed he had fractured the mitt.

His hand was placed in a cast. The IBC said it hoped to get either Ray Robinson, the welterweight champion, Laurent Dauthille, the France contender, or Tiberio Mitri, Italy's undefeated European champion, to substitute for Graziano in a title bout on June 28.

LaMotta, who is training at Kimesha Lake in the Catskills, heard the bad news while he was playing golf.

Flubbs Putt

He then flubbed a one-foot putt. According to an IBC representative, LaMotta declared willingness to fight someone else on that date.

Robinson won Pennsylvania recognition as world middleweight champion by defeating France's Robert Villmain in Philadelphia, June 5. Dauthille is scheduled to meet Tuzo (Kid) Portuquez of Costa Rica in Montreal next Tuesday and Mitri is carded to oppose Joe Robinson in Providence Monday.

Graziano was treated by Dr. H.R. Freisinger at Warwick. Dr. Vincent Nardiello of the New York State Athletic commission inspected the X-rays at Warwick and confirmed the bad news.

Three Weeks Off

Dr. Nardiello said Graziano wouldn't be able to resume training for at least three weeks.

Dan Dowd, executive secretary of the New York commission, and Dr. R. Muzzicato of the commission's medical advisory board, left here for Greenwood Lake to see Graziano.

Dodgers Down Cards, 7-3; St. Louis Lead Cut

Brooklyn Scores 4 Runs in Second

BROOKLYN (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers scored three unearned runs in the second inning and went on to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-3 Friday night to snap a seven game St. Louis winning streak. The victory also cut the Cards' first place edge over the runner-up Dodgers to two and one half games.

The Dodgers scored four runs in the second inning off Red Munger with an error by third baseman Ed Kazak paving the way for the last three runs.

Peo Wee Reese singled home the first run with two out. Kazak then booted Preacher Roe's grounder to admit the second. Munger walked Billy Cox and Gene Hermanski followed with the second and Kazak accounted for the Cards' final runs with a two run homer in the third.

Roy Campanella hit his 13th homer in the fourth to up Brooklyn's lead to 5-3. The Dodgers nicked Reliever Al Brazle for their final two runs in the eighth.

The Cards loaded the bases with two out in the eighth but Johnny Lindell struck out. The Red Birds filled the sacks with one out in the ninth but Roe then bore down and fanned Red Schoendienst and got Stan Musial to bounce into a force out to end the game.

New York Defeats Chicago's Rush, 6-1

NEW YORK (AP) — Sheldon Jones went the distance for the second time this season Friday night as he pitched the New York Giants to a 6-1 five-hit victory over Bob Rush and the Chicago Cubs.

A crowd of 13,576 saw third baseman Henry Thompson and Shortstop Alvin Dark pace New York's nine-hit attack on Rush and Paul Minner. Thompson cracked his seventh homer of the season and Dark chipped in with a single and double.

It was Jones' fourth victory against five losses. Rush suffered his fifth setback compared to seven triumphs.

Newhouser Trips Red Sox, 4-1

DETROIT (AP)—Lefty Hal Newhouser beat the Boston Red Sox for the second time within six days as he pitched and batted the Detroit Tigers to a 4-1 decision Friday night before 54,056 fans.

Newhouser held the hard-hitting Boston club to nine hits and yielded their lone run in the ninth. He notched eight strikeouts. Johnny Pesky went down swinging four times.

Newhouser's fifth-inning double off Joe Dobson drove in what proved to be the winning run. That action — packed fifth inning not only broke a scoreless deadlock but also touched off the most heated rhabarb in Briggs Stadium this year.

With one out, Johnny Groh walked and moved to second on Aaron Robinson's single. Dick Kryhoski then forced Robinson at second with Groh scoring as first baseman Ed McKinley ruled Kryhoski had beaten the intended double play relay at first base.

That decision touched off a mass protest by the Red Sox with Catcher Birdie Tebbetts, first baseman Walt Dropo and Manager Joe McCarthy the most vociferous. Tebbetts finally was tossed out of the game before the long argument ended.

Braves Win, 6-5 On Jethroe's Hit

BOSTON (AP) — Sam Jethroe's ninth inning single with two out drove in the run that enabled John Sain to chalk up his ninth win of the season for the Boston Braves Friday night with a 6-5 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

In the top of that frame, Ralph Kiner tied matters with his 14th homer of the campaign.

While becoming the first major league hurler to notch number nine, Sain gave the Pirates 11 hits, including Wally Westlake's 12th homer with none on in the fourth inning, when the visitors started their scoring.

Mel Queen, the third Pittsburgh pitcher in action, was greeted by Earl Torgeson's seventh homer in the eighth inning, which moved the Braves into a 5-4 lead.

In the sixth, against Starter Vernon Law, Walker Cooper banged his eighth four bagger after Torgeson singled.

Little Continues Pace in Palm Beach Meet; Hogan in Last Place

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP) — Veteran Lawson Little shot rounds of 74-71 over the soggy Wykagyl course Friday to stave off all pursuers and cling to his lead in the Palm Beach round robin golf tournament with a plus score of 21 after 54 holes had been played.

Claude Harmon of nearby Mamaroneck vaulted into second place with a plus 188 by virtue of two fine 69's, which gained him 17 points over his six luckless opponents of the day.

Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, recovering rapidly from his defeat by Ben Hogan in last Sunday's play-off for the Open championship, turned in two superb rounds of 70-65, picked up 14 big points and nailed down third place at plus 17 with two rounds of the $15,000 event still to go.

Mangrum's 34-31-65 in the afternoon clipped seven strokes off par for the 6,560 yard Wykagyl layout and tied the competitive course record set in the same tournament a year ago by Cally Middlecott of Memphis.

Middlecott shot steady rounds of 70-60 Friday to gain seven points and stand fourth at plus 10. Herman Barron of White Plains N.Y., the winner two years ago, stood fifth with plus 8 after Friday's rounds of 70-72.

Hogan, the little guy who made golfing history last week at Merion, couldn't hold himself to a competitive pitch for this one and remained at the bottom of the 18-man heap with a minus 24 after shooting three rounds in 76-77-70. The Bantam with the big heart looked very tired.

Ex-Soldier Captured by Police In German Sweetheart's Room

MUNICH (UP)—Homer Cook, 27-year-old Oklahoma pugilist who escaped jail three times in two months, surrendered to police without a struggle Friday in the bedroom of his German sweetheart, Anna Sporer.

Two American military police and six German police battered down the door of Anna's flat to find Cook sprawled across the bed, weak from blood poisoning and hunger. Anna, 21, whom he wooed with hillbilly songs, was not there.

The 200-pound six-footer told police he broke out of the Dachau army stockade Tuesday because I wanted to see my girl.

"Isn't there some way my little Anna can get to see me?" he asked from the prison ward of the U.S. Army's 98th General Hospital here, where two burly MP's stood over his bed.

Heard About Appeal
Anna was in Nuernberg, where police had cordoned off a wooded area in the belief they had the solar-strumming escape artist caged.

Cook said he had heard about a two-minute radio appeal to him last night to give himself up before he was cut down by police soldiers.

"I was going to give myself up anyway," he said. "That's why I went to Anna's room. But she can't come."

"One reason I escaped," Cook said, "was that I read about it in the newspapers. But the main reason was Anna. I felt I had to see her."

Cook, who got a dishonorable discharge from the U.S. Army, showed up on a transport out of Brooklyn to return to Anna. He was picked up at the German border for impersonating an FBI man. That was his first arrest here.

When he was captured he wore the same dirty fatigue trousers and undershirt in which he had fled the Dachau stockade 60 hours before. He was to have gone on trial in a U.S. district court Wednesday on 19 counts, including armed robbery.

Police closed in on Anna's apartment after a tenant reported seeing Cook stagger inside. Cook appeared to be in great pain, grimacing everytime he moved his left arm. It was swollen and black almost to the elbow.

President Signs New Displaced Persons Bill

PRESIDENT TRUMAN SIGNED THE DISPLACED PERSONS BILL Friday in his office as supporters of the law looked on. By the bill the displaced persons program will be extended for another year and the quota for those entering the United States will be raised to 136,000 persons. (Story on page 1)

Top Physics Award Presented to Rogers

Five prizes were awarded at the Iowa Union Friday. The awards were made for devices to make physics interesting and easy to understand.

First prize in the experimental division, $25, went to Prof. R. A. Rogers, Iowa State Teachers college, Cedar Falls, for a demonstration of sound wave movement.

Prof. F. E. Christensen, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, got second prize, $15, for a ripple tank.

Prof. Charles A. Culver, Park College, Parkville, Mo., won third prize, $10, with a new wave analyzer.

The award in the non-experimental division went to Prof. W. R. Anderson, Chicago undergraduate division of the University of Illinois, for a mechanical television device.

Prof. Tanford to Attend Symposium at Minnesota
Prof. Charles Tanford, department of chemistry, Friday said he will attend a symposium on anomalies in reaction kinetics Monday through Wednesday at the University of Minnesota.

The symposium will be sponsored by the division of physical and inorganic chemistry, and the Minnesota section of the American Chemistry society.

Building Permits Issued Totalling $105,200

Twelve building permits, totalling $105,200, were issued the first five days of this week by City Engineer Fred E. Gatzke.

Paul S. Griffith, 2107 F street, was issued three of the permits totalling $42,200. Griffith plans to build a home and garage each at 1306 E. College street, 1302 E. College and 1912 F street.

The other permits were granted to:
Dr. Lorraine Frost, assistant resident pediatrician at University hospitals, for a $13,000 re-modeling of her clinic and one apartment at 205 E. College street.

F. J. Swift, 481 Patterson street, for a $10,000 residence and garage at 1607 College Court street.

'Wolf' Weds, Snubs Ruling at Princeton

MILWAUKEE, WIS., (UP)—The youth who earned the title of "second biggest wolf" of this year's senior class at Princeton really wasn't a wolf at all, friends said Friday.

He was trying to cover up the fact that he was married, a violation of university rules, they said.

The youth is Arthur M. Sells Jr., whose wealthy father is vice-president and attorney for the Wisconsin Electric Power company.

Sells Sr. confirmed that his son was married last Sept. 4 to Elizabeth Ann Boyd, 19, Wilmington, Del. Her father, Charles Edward Boyd, is a DuPont executive.

Friends said that after Sells was married last year he realized he would have to cover up the violation of rules in order to be graduated this June.

So, they said, he tried to lead a "normal" campus life, while seeing his wife whenever he could.

Sells was graduated June 13 and his marriage was announced on that day in local papers here.

The Daily Princetonian of May 23 published results of a senior class poll in which Sells was voted the "biggest party boy," the "most collegiate," and the "second biggest wolf."

His wife was graduated from Edgewood Park Junior college, Briarcliff Manor, N.Y.

Plan to Finish Addition To Hillcrest by Sept. 1

Construction on the Hillcrest dormitory addition should be finished by Sept. 1 barring unforeseen delays, Harold Van Horn, Hillcrest construction superintendent, said Friday.

Van Horn said most of the brick-work has been completed. Bricks for one and one-half floors are still to be laid, and should be finished by July 1.

Work connecting the addition and older part of the building should be finished next week. Student won't leave.

Van Horn said one student told him he planned to move from Hillcrest because of the noise of the pneumatic hammers being used to knock holes in the wall between the main building and the addition.

The student changed his mind after being told the noise would stop in a few days, Van Horn said. Approximately 50 percent of the partitions have been installed, door frames have been set, and the steel-stairway to the fourth floor has been put in, Van Horn said.

Roofing to Begin
Trenches are being dug for the main sewage line. Van Horn said roofing and plastering can begin when the sewage lines are connected. Water on the roof must be drained before roofing can be put on, he said.

Most of the ceilings and closets have been lathed for plastering, and installation of double-hung aluminum window frames will begin next week, he said. The boiler for the hot-water system has been placed in the sub-basement. Van Horn said approximately half of the plumbing and electrical equipment has been installed.

Critic Says Difficult Poetry Deserves Modern Popularity

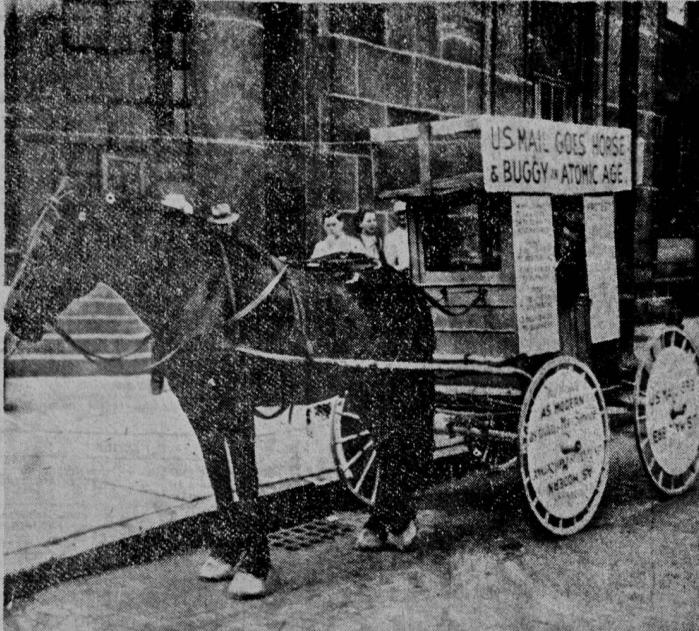

Unpopular modern poetry, that which is difficult to understand, is the type which should be the most popular, Louise Bogan, poet critic for the New Yorker magazine, said here Friday night.

Miss Bogan spoke before about 120 persons in the senate chamber of Old Capitol on "Popular and Unpopular Poetry." Her speech was the first summer graduate lecture series sponsored by the SUI English department.

"High-class, excellent poetry is always difficult," she said. "Formal English poetry today is complex, modern and strong. Modern poets have what psychologists call insight, and they ask that man be a whole person and not suppress half of his nature."

"It is difficult because it has undertaken difficult labors," Miss Bogan explained. At its best, it is always a little ahead of the times.

"To understand it, one must read widely and learn to distinguish true modern poetry from mere verbalization."

Ohio Carriers Return to Pony Express Days

CANTON, OHIO, MAIL CARRIERS PROTESTED reductions in mail service by parking this ancient delivery wagon in front of the postoffice. The cart was used in Canton during the 1890's, while the horse is a more recent model. The stage driver is unidentified.

Doctor Urges Ear Tests for Children Every Three Years

School children should be given hearing tests once every three years, according to Dr. Dean M. Lierle, head of the otolaryngology (ear, nose and throat) department in the SUI college of medicine.

In a recent medical publication, Lierle listed signs of deafness which parents and teachers should watch for in children.

Symptoms are: a listless or weary expression; frequent requests for repetition; mispronunciation of words; habitually turning one ear toward the speaker. Inattention or failure to respond when questioned, voice or speech peculiarities; continued failure in school; earaches, head noises, discharging ears and a tendency to avoid people.

Progress is being made in treating hearing losses by using sulfonamides and antibiotics, and by treating allergies which might affect ear passages and surgery, Lierle said.

Helping a deaf person adjust to his handicap has also progressed with better and less conspicuous hearing aids, speech correction and lip reading, he said.

Reveal Birth of Baby To 10-Year-Old Girl

CHARLESTON, MISS. (AP) — A baby daughter was born prematurely on May 25 to a 10-year-old girl. It has been kept alive in a home-made incubator using heated bricks.

Birth of the child to Sarah Moore was revealed Friday. Sarah, whose 11th birthday will not come until Oct. 3, lives in a rickety tenant farm shack with her grandparents.

The birth certificate lists Dr. E. W. Rayn as attending physician. The baby has been cared for by the mother and members of the county health department staff. Its weight was not available.

Coralville to Sell Bonds for Sewer Project

Bonds totalling $48,000 for the construction of a municipal sewer system at Coralville will be sold Monday, Atty. William F. Morrison, Coralville town engineer said Friday.

Selling will begin at 8 p.m. in the Coralville city hall. A contract for $124,272.90 was let April 28 to the Midwest construction company, Cedar Rapids, stipulating that the new system be ready for operation Nov. 1.

A contract has been negotiated between the Coralville and Iowa City councils for Coralville sewerage to be carried through a part of the Iowa City system to the local sewage disposal plant.

BANK AWARDED MONEY

The Lone Tree savings bank, Lone Tree, was awarded a judgment of $433.20 against Cecil H. Peterson, Buchanan county, Friday in Johnson county district court. Judge Harold D. Evans awarded the sum as payment for two overdue promissory notes of $200 each plus interest and attorney fees.

Church Singers to Appear Here

"WINGS OVER JORDAN," CHURCH CHOIR now touring the country, will appear at the First Methodist church at 8 p.m. Thursday. The 14 Negro singers are making the tour primarily to foster better race relations, according to the Rev. P. Hewson Pollock, in charge of the program. The choir hopes to develop a better understanding of the Negro through the universal language of music, Rev. Pollock said. No admission will be charged for the program, which is sponsored by the Iowa City Ministerial association.

SUI Latin Workshop Expects 35 Teachers At Refresher Course

Approximately 35 high school Latin teachers from 14 states are expected to attend the second annual Latin workshop which opens at SUI Monday and continues through July 1.

Prof. Gerold F. Else, workshop director and head of the SUI classics department, said the workshop, entitled "Latin and the Romans' World," is designed to refresh and broaden the teachers' understanding of the Roman civilization as well as to inform them of the latest teaching methods.

Two speeches by visiting lecturers will be broadcast over radio station WSUI. Prof. Norman J. Dewitt, chairman of the classics department at the University of Minnesota, will speak Tuesday at 8 p.m. on "The Problem-Solution Method in Language Teaching," Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Ralph Merriam, lawyer and transportation counsel from Chicago, will discuss "Cicero's Oration as Seen by a Lawyer," Friday, at 8 p.m.

Both radio speeches will originate at the WSUI studios.

Another special feature of the session will be a lecture in Schaeffer hall on "An Integrated Latin Program," by Mrs. Pauline E. Burton, head of the Latin department, Edward D. Libbey high school, Toledo, Ohio.

All other sessions will be held in Schaeffer hall.

The workshop staff includes Prof. Camille J. LeVois, head of the foreign languages department at University high school; Prof. Dorrance S. White, SUI classics department.

Prof. Clyde Murley, Northwestern university; Instructor Thomas G. Rosenmeyer, SUI classics department; Prof. Laura B. Voelkel, university of Virginia, and Else.

The Latin conference is open to the public.

Swimming Classes To Begin Tuesday

Non-swimmers enrolled in SUI's summer session will have a chance to learn beginning Tuesday, according to Prof. M. Gladys Scott, professor of women's physical education at SUI, and water safety chairman of the local Red Cross chapter.

Free classes in swimming will be held Monday through Thursday beginning at 1 p.m. at the Iowa City swimming pool. They will continue for six weeks, she said.

Anyone interested in the lessons may pick up a registration card at the Red Cross office, 15 1-2 S. Dubuque street. Registrations must be on file by 4:30 p.m. Monday, she said.

The lessons are sponsored by the local Red Cross chapter and the Playground and Recreation commission.

The program is open to all persons in Johnson county from the second - grade age level upward, Miss Scott said.

Crippled Children To Attend Parties

Roy L. Chopek post No. 17 of the American Legion has appropriated $200 for the Forty and Eight's Saturday afternoon crippled children's outings, Commander Clair Hamilton announced Friday.

The Forty and Eight is the Legion's fun organization. The first of the series of parties was held June 10 when 10 youngsters from the hospital school for severely handicapped children were entertained by the Legionnaires.

The children, who ranged in age from four to eleven, were given a ride in the Forty and Eight locomotive, taken to City park zoo and served ice cream and sodapop at a local radio store.

Parties for the children will continue weekly during the summer, Hamilton said.

Hoover Asks Halt To Deficit Spending

CHICAGO (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover said Friday that further government borrowing to meet deficits "is the road to disaster for every cottage in the land."

The 76-year-old former GOP chief executive spoke before the 30th annual business meeting of commerce. The jaycees have been supporting the proposals for government reorganization suggested by the Hoover commission.

Hoover, in an address prepared for the main banquet meeting, posed the question: "Can we reduce (governmental) expense?"

"To that, the answer is 'yes,'" his address was on a subject requested by the jaycees themselves, the relation of government expenditures, deficits and taxes, to jobs and to national life.

"Financing government deficits by borrowing," Hoover said, "if continued long enough, has only one end — inflation."

Catholic Student Center To Hold Open House

The Catholic student center, 108 McLean street, will hold an open house Sunday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. The Rev. Leonard J. Brugman, director of the student center, announced Friday.

Father Brugman said the purpose of the open house is to receive Catholic summer session students.

What They're Wearing for Summer

(AP Wirephoto)

DALE HENDERSON, 27, WAS FOUND IN THE "JUNGLES" near the Mississippi river at Davenport Friday, covered with tar and wood. Henderson told police he had been drinking with two buddies and was unable to explain what took place. His main concern and that of the onlooking policemen was to clean off his new "coat."

$62.90 Suit Filed By Chicago Firm

Educator Development, Inc., Chicago publishers, filed suit in the Johnson county clerk's office for $62.90 against Mr. and Mrs. George Porter Jr., West Liberty.

The suit charges that on April 5, 1949, the plaintiff sold Mrs. Porter various children's books and publications and rushed delivery on them for the birthday of the Porters' daughter Jane.

The publishers claim that the Porters have failed to pay for the books and publications and ask $62.90 for payment plus interest and costs.
