Unwarranted Charges at "Peace" Meeting

An unwarranted and bitter blast was set off against newspapers, radio and movies Wednesday night at the "Iowa City for Peace" meeting.

Speaker Frieda Schwenkmeyer, administrative secretary of the National Labor Conference for Peace, said these media of mass communication were trying to make working for peace a subversive action.

"The idea," she said, "is to make peace subversive, so there will not be peace, so there will be war, so there will be huge profits for the wealthy capitalists, so we will suffer in the next depression."

We're part of that press, Miss Schwenkmeyer, and we're taking your vicious attack as a personal insult.

Furthermore, we think the Iowa City for Peace group should hang their heads in embarrassment at your words.

In the first place, you should think of some new charges against the press, because the ones you used are stale and stupid as blanket accusations against the entire profession.

Perhaps members of the local group failed to tell you of what happened here on the day The Daily Iowan learned of the group's efforts to get a peace petition started.

On that day we had a straight news story which simply told of the petition being submitted to the office of student affairs for approval to circulate on campus. The same treatment would have been given to a story of the same nature about any local group, whether church, fraternity, sorority or otherwise.

That night, however, we received an Associated Press story on a warning to all citizens by the house un-American activities committee. The committee warned Americans to not sign a peace petition which was being circulated nationally. The committee said the petition was Communist backed and that innocent signers might be black-mailed for years.

We realized immediately that with the two stories appearing simultaneously, many persons might easily associate in their minds the local group with the one mentioned by the house committee. We realized, too, the injustice the local group would suffer if no connection between the groups existed.

And since an SUI professor's wife was a member of the group, we also realized that the consequences of an unfounded, speculative news story on our part might start something pretty embarrassing to the university.

But perhaps first of all in our thoughts was the realization that the local group could very likely be the victims of circumstances—that they could have the highest motives and patriotism, but just happened to start their peace petition movement at a bad moment.

We had no desire to hurt anyone unjustly. We felt the situation was one in which "responsible journalism" was badly needed.

With all this in mind, we called members of the local group, told them of the AP story, and gave them the opportunity to deny any connection with the movement mentioned by the house committee.

At first, the members requested that we wait until after their next meeting before running our story about their petition. We reminded them that many persons in Iowa City who knew of their movement might mentally associate them immediately with the movement mentioned in the AP story if no word of explanation from the local group appeared at the same time in The Daily Iowan.

They admitted this was true and gave us a statement which we ran in our story. We devoted much of the local story space to comments by the group in our attempt to be fair to them and permit them to tell the people there was no connection between their petition and the nationally circulated one.

On the following day, a member of the group called us, complimented us and thanked us for what she said was a fair and well-written story.

And, yet, Wednesday night this group permitted you, Miss Schwenkmeyer, to cut loose your vile barrage against newspapers for "trying to make working for peace a subversive action."

We think your general accusations were unfounded, unfair, ungrateful—and stupid.

And we think the Iowa City for Peace group would do well to choose their speakers more carefully if they want to convince Iowa Citizens of the group's good intentions.

"Peace" Group . . .

TO THE EDITOR: It is the opinion of this writer that The Daily Iowan has been too generous in its attitude toward the organization "Iowa City for Peace."

One of the most effective means of killing any ridiculous movement is to give it accurate and careful coverage to the extent that the fallacies in its arguments become obvious to even the most naive reader. There is more to it than this, however. A search should be made into the background of the organization.

The answers must be found to such questions as:

"Are the members and hang-around of the organization simply naive?"

"Who gives them their directions?"

"Are any members of their group card-carrying Communists?"

"What affiliations do any of the members have with the World Peace congress?"

"Who are the members?"

"How did they come to prepare a petition that had similarities to the Communist-inspired petition?"

"What penetration has the group made into Iowa City and university circles?"

One of the first steps that any editorial group takes to subvert a conquered people is to suppress the newspapers, radio and movies.

And yet in her talk Wednesday night Miss Schwenkmeyer advocated such a step, because; advocates ing to her, these media of mass communications are trying to make working for peace a subversive action.

When we consider the term "peace" we run into one of the fallacies in the base of the "Iowa City for Peace" organization. The group has not defined the word "peace."

If by "peace" they mean freedom from war or actual combat, then by removing ourselves from Korea we would have peace, but for how long, even under that definition? Peace is more than that. It is freedom from fears and agitating passions. How can we be free from such fears, whether we are in Korea or out, when there is evidence to the fact that Russian officers are helping to work out North Korean strategy and the North Koreans are equipped with vast Russian-donated supplies and equipment.

The Daily Iowan has quoted her as having said, "The Korean situation is merely a civil war and we do not have the God-given right to intervene." Does she mean to imply that the North Koreans are following the dictates of God in running their path of aggression?

What were the motives of the "Iowa City for Peace" group when they imported Miss Schwenkmeyer? Are they anxious to hear the latest from the party-line? If so, they should have been pleased when she said that newspapers, movies and radio were trying to promote war. "The idea is to make peace subversive, so there will not be peace, so there will be war, so there will be huge profits for the wealthy capitalists, so we will suffer in the next depression."

It is entirely possible that the "Iowa City for Peace" group is sincere in its efforts, but if such is the case then the members of the group should consider their position. Are they being used as a tool by a movement larger than themselves? Such may be the case. This whole situation is but a minute segment of a larger problem. The American people must no longer accept existing conditions passively. They must take a stand one way or another. It is a question of choosing the ideal of freedom or of force. There can be no peace for Americans without freedom. And our action in Korea sustains our stand.

Traffic Hazard . . .

TO THE EDITOR: (Editor's note: The writer is referring to a recent accident in Iowa City in which a woman, crossing a street, was struck by an automobile.)

Of course she was struck. Probably trying to do what you and I attempt every day: crossing with the green light. She forgot. Here the pedestrian has no rights. We all wait while motorists force us aside and barrel on through on the green.

Sometimes such a town, this Iowa, might be called a "center of Iowa culture." Downtown, one crosses with the green light at his own risk. On campus drives, pedestrians scatter as automobile stunts artists and other rugged individuals barrel down hills and career around corners. What culture or cult breeds this?

I hesitate to bring my small family to live with me here. May be they won't all get out alive. Exaggeration? Not a bit of it. A friend of mine is wondering the same thing. Shall we risk our small children to the streets of Iowa City?

Reckless cars cruise by. Policemen write parking tickets, while more of the community are active in joining the melee, than are willing to act to protect it. Whom are you waiting to kill?

Senate Group Named To Oversee Defense

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Millard E. Tydings (D-Md.) of the senate armed services committee Thursday named a seven-member watchdog committee to supervise the Korean war and general rearmament programs.

He said the "looming possibility" of World War III is "ever present" and that congress must make sure the defense program is carried out without waste or delay.

Heading the committee, actually a subcommittee of the armed services committee, will be Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Texas), a strong advocate of preparedness whose suggestion led to creation of the watchdog group.

Tydings said the committee will "function continuously" to see that rearmament "is relentlessly pursued without waste of time, effort or money."

WHAT, NO HOPALONG CASIDY? Professor Arthur Wimer was just starting to show his newswriting class some slides Thursday when the door opened and two half-pint sized boys wandered in and took a position in the front row.

The slides showed some facts and figures on news coverage. Wimer told the kids, "We charge admission for our movies," but this didn't phase the youngsters. They giggled about on their chairs in anticipation of seeing something they could understand and then suddenly they got up and left.

As they went out the door one turned toward the lecturing Wimer, frowned and said, "Foey to you! You don't have any cow-boy movies."

Iowa Must Furnish 500 More Draftees In September Call

DES MOINES (AP) — Iowa probably will be expected to furnish between 500 and 600 more men for the September draft call than its original quota called for, Brig. Gen. Charles H. Grahl, state director of selective service, said after the defense department Thursday increased its call for draftees.

Under the first call for 200,000 men, Iowa's quota was 344. Thursday the defense department called for an additional 30,000 men in September. It also issued a call for 50,000 draftees in October.

Gen. Grahl said Iowa's quota usually amounts to about two percent of the national call, although the first September call was less than that percentage.

On a two percent basis Iowa would have to furnish about 1,000 men in October.

Gen. Grahl said he could not say yet how many men will be called for pre-induction physicals. Those who already have passed physicals and are not called to fill the 344 quota will be called to apply on the new quota, he said.

For the first call, 1,300 men were notified to report for pre-induction physicals.

Prior to the first call, Iowa selective service officials estimated about 20,000 Iowa men were available for immediate call, subject to passage of physical and mental tests.

There's an old saying in Kentucky to the effect that a sure-fire barometer of business conditions is his rise and decline in moonshine — non-taxed whisky making.

In other words, when times are good for most people they aren't for those who make firewater by the light of the silvery moon. But when the economic pendulum swings back, when things begin to lighten up, moonshining booms and the demand for crystal clear stuff with the kick of an over-vitaminated mule increases.

If there is any truth in that old saying — and there are those who insist there is — then the business recession that, people have been looking for so long isn't on the way. It's here. Definitely so.

For, according to a news bulletin, there has been a great increase in "illegal whisky" making in the last few months.

If this is true, business probably won't be bad long. In fact when the treasury department finds out it's agents probably will give the moonshiners the business — of a different sort.

Negro Troops Hold Korean Red Drive, Retreated by Order

WITH THE UNITED STATES TWENTY-FIFTH INFANTRY DIVISION IN KOREA (AP) — American Negro troops, with their cooks and clerks and truck drivers in the firing line, fought off overwhelming numbers of fanatically attacking North Koreans for 24 hours Wednesday and early Thursday.

The GI's pulled back, by order, to adjust their line and prevent entrapment by infiltrating enemy troops.

It was the biggest battle fought yet by the Negro troops of the 25th division who had captured Yechon six days ago.

The Communists opened their attack about 4:30 a.m. Wednesday with a heavy artillery bombardment, at 6:30 there was a sudden silence. The shrill blast of a whistle was heard from the enemy lines and a wave of screaming North Koreans came over.

The Reds knifed between two front line companies and struck an area held by a reserve company.

The attack was stopped. The attackers moved around and started trying to filter into the two front line companies.

Hour after hour fresh troops were thrown into the attack, the blast of a whistle marking the start of each wave toward the American lines.

Time and again the American GI's were thrown back from one position after another. Some were cut off at times. Time and again they counter-attacked and regained their positions.

It was only when headquarters feared that the troops would be overwhelmed by hopelessly superior numbers that the order was given to fall back to new positions west of Sangju.

Nimitz Predicts UN Will Win in Korea

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz said Thursday he is confident that United Nations forces will throw the North Korean invaders back across the 38th parallel.

"I accept with optimistic confidence an army spokesman's statement of a few days ago that we will hold the bridgehead in Korea and push the enemy back. I hope, pray, and believe the spokesman was correct," he told 800 persons at a Minnesota United Nations association luncheon.

The five-star admiral said that in his brief five-year history UN has accomplished much, despite its critics. He credited UN intervention with forcing Russian withdrawal from the Iranian province of Azerbaijan, and with effecting truces in Palestine, Kashmir, and Indonesia. He admitted tension still exists in those areas, but he said it's better to have contending parties arguing than shooting.

He pointed out that UN participation in Korea perhaps was not to have been legal under the UN charter if Russia had attended the session at which the security council voted nine to nothing in favor of sending military aid to South Korea.

A Russian veto would have legal under the charter, he said. Legal sending of military aid would

MacArthur Confident of Victory

UNITED STATES EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN KOREA (AP) — "New heartbreaks, new setbacks are ahead of the United Nations forces in their fight against the North Korean Communist invasion," Gen. Douglas MacArthur said Thursday after a flying visit to this war zone.

"But I was never more confident in victory — in ultimate victory — in my life," the UN commander in chief told correspondents at the air field here as he prepared to fly back to Tokyo.

No statement was given as to the details of MacArthur's long conferences here with Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, commanding the 8th army; Maj. Gen. Earle E. Partridge, commanding the 5th airforce, United States Ambassador John J. Muccio and President Syngman Rhee of the Korean republic.

It was MacArthur's second visit to Korea since the war started June 25. He came, as he did the first time on June 29, in his unarmed transport Bataan, MacArthur's personal pilot, Maj. Anthony Story, of St. Louis, Mo., used practically every foot of the primitive dirt strip here to make his landing.

Airforce officers in Tokyo advised MacArthur not to try to land in his big plane. Only once before had a C-54 landed here.

"If they can get a puddle jumper in there, Story can get in the Bataan," MacArthur said.

Before he took off for Tokyo, MacArthur said to the correspondent at the plane:

"I have a feeling of optimism after my inspection today. In this type of fighting you must expect ups and downs. Reactions are sure to occur in the interval of time between the initiative that the enemy has and the initiative that he is going to lose. I am completely confirmed in the estimate that I made to the President of the United States last week that the enemy lost his great chance for victory in the last three weeks.

"That does not mean that victory passes to us instantly or without a long, hard row and the most difficult struggle. That we will have new heartbreaks, new setbacks is inherent in the situation, but I was never more confident in victory — in ultimate victory — in my life than I am now."

MacArthur said he knew the American troops in action to the north were fighting well.

"American troops always fight well," he said and added dryly: "As a matter of fact the troops of all countries always fight well."

Four-Way Committee To Aid in War Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman W. Stuart Symington of the national security resources board decided Thursday to appoint a 12-member committee representing labor, industry, agriculture and the public to help him map home front mobilization plans.

He made the announcement after meeting with a group of union leaders to decide labor's part in the program. Union officials have insisted they be accorded an important voice in shaping and operating government mobilization agencies.

Chinese Student Studies Dances

"QUIET FLOWER" is the meaning for Ching Hua, her given name in Chinese. Madeline Ching Kao, G. Shanghai, China, said. These names sounded like "Madeline" to an American friend who suggested she adopt it. Madeline, who is studying modern dance techniques in the department of women's physical education, hopes to create one folk dance representative of all the "regional" folk dances in China.

Chinese Student Studies Modern Dance at SUI

Because she "would like to create one dance representative of all the regional folk dances" in her country, Madeline Ching Kao, G. Shanghai, China, plans to remain in the U. S. long enough to learn modern dance techniques.

Madeline came to the U. S. in 1948 and transferred to SUI after one semester at the University of Indiana in Bloomington, Ind. She plans to receive her master's degree in physical education in August.

She has been living at the home of Prof. and Mrs. A. H. Moehlman, 901 Melrose avenue, while at SUI. Prof. Moehlman is in the SUI college of education.

This fall she intends to continue studying modern dance at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin.

Modern Dance a Creative Medium
She is enthusiastic about modern dance techniques, because she feels it is a "good medium through which you can create something yourself."

You can translate literature, interpret Chinese philosophy, art and even "daily life" through this medium, she explained.

She recalled her enjoyment of Martha Graham's interpretative dancing in Cedar Rapids last year. Last semester Madeline performed one of her own dances in costume for Orchestras, the SUI modern dance club of the women's physical education department.

Modern dance lends itself to reactions similar to those of modern painting, she said. The individual observer may interpret their meaning in terms of his own experience.

Interpretation Complex
Interpreting Chinese dances is complex "because there are lots of different folk dances" which are regional in the country. The "pure" Chinese folk dance is found in northwest China.

In other regions, the folk dances have incorporated interpretations from America and other countries. She lamented the fact that the Chinese people have become largely "spectators" and do not "join in" the dancing.

In contrast, she pointed out the American square dance where "young and old join in."

She will return "probably" to National Central university "in Chungking, China's war capital, where she received her B.A." in 1944.

Miss Grossheim, who is director of student activities for the Westminster foundation at SUI, will leave New Orleans Thursday with a group of U.S. officials, ministers and members of the Presbyterian church.

The tour will be the first in a series of annual world tours to be sponsored by the Presbyterian board of missions.

The group will observe the work of Presbyterian missionaries in Mexico and Guatemala.

In Guatemala they also will visit the Quiche Bible institute, the Presbyterian hospital, the Mam Bible institute, the University radio center, and the Evangelical Radio program session.

Finance Company Files $916.42 Suit

Court action to collect $916.42 from George Spicher, 829 Hudson avenue, began here Thursday by the Associated Discount corporation, South Bend, Ind.

The Indiana finance company claimed the local trucker failed to make payments on a new Ford truck which they were financing for him, so they reclaimed the truck and sold it.

The suit claimed Spicher owed the company $916.42, the difference between the amount of the original contract and the price for which the company sold the reclaimed truck.

According to the suit, Spicher signed a $3,285.60 contract with the finance company on Sept. 25, 1948, to make 24 monthly payments of 136.90 each for the new truck, finance charges and insurance premiums.

'Wrong House' Proves Right One For Housewife

Mrs. Leo Sweeney, wife of an SUI commerce professor, found the right way to rent the wrong house.

In answer to a "for rent" ad, she went to a number on Ronalds street, but found the house empty. Mrs. P.O. Norman, who lived next door, explained that she owned the house, but hadn't offered it for rent.

She consented to show Mrs. Sweeney the house anyway. The mystery cleared for Mrs. Sweeney when she discovered that the house in the advertisement was on Brown street, not Ronalds.

But the mistake turned out well, because Mrs. Sweeney rented the Ronalds street house instead.

Books by Instructors In Journalism Published

Books by two SUI journalism instructors, Walter Steigleman and John Davenport, are being published by the William C. Brown company, Dubuque.

In "The Newspaperman and the Law," Steigleman has explained the legal problems met in various newspaper assignments.

Davenport, in "Newspaper Circulation — Backbone of the Industry," has proposed a theory defining the place of distribution in the newspaper industry. He is circulation manager of The Daily Iowan.

A famous male hairdresser advises woman to take a squint at the stars before she styles her coiffure. The new types are called "horoscope hairdos."

The shape of her face and height of her forehead are not necessarily the total of a woman's personality, the hairdresser claims. She has inherent characteristics that should be complemented by her coiffure.

And so the zodiac hairdos were invented. For Leo children (July 23 to Aug. 22), noted for impulsive forceful natures, the "magnet" hairdo, featuring a new version of the bang is suggested. The magnet is a roll from one side of the crown to the other.

The Cancer born (June 22 through July 22) should use a short feminine contoured cut to emphasize a sensitive, retiring disposition.

Now if the stars and the hairdresser would get together and devise a coiffure that wouldn't require a pin curling every night, we'd really have something.

FROM Detroit comes a story of the day when a big ministers' convention and a pow-wow of automobile salesmen were held simultaneously in the same hotel. The salesmen were topping off a big dinner with "spiked watermelon" for dessert, but the hard-pressed waiters served it to the ministers by mistake. The maitre d'hotel was frantic when he heard of the mix-up. "That watermelon is soaked in alcohol," he moaned. "Get it away from those ministers, before they run me out of town."

The waiters returned to say it was too late: the ministers were busy chewing away at the prized watermelon. "What did they say?" asked the harassed maitre d'hotel. "How do they like it?" One waiter answered, "I don't know how they like it, boss, but they're all putting the seeds in their pockets."

Phillies Trounce Cubs, 13-3

Simmons Registers 14th Win of Season

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies held to their one and one-half game lead in the National league Thursday as Southpaw Curt Simmons racked up his 14th pitching victory with a 13-3 decision over the Chicago Cubs.

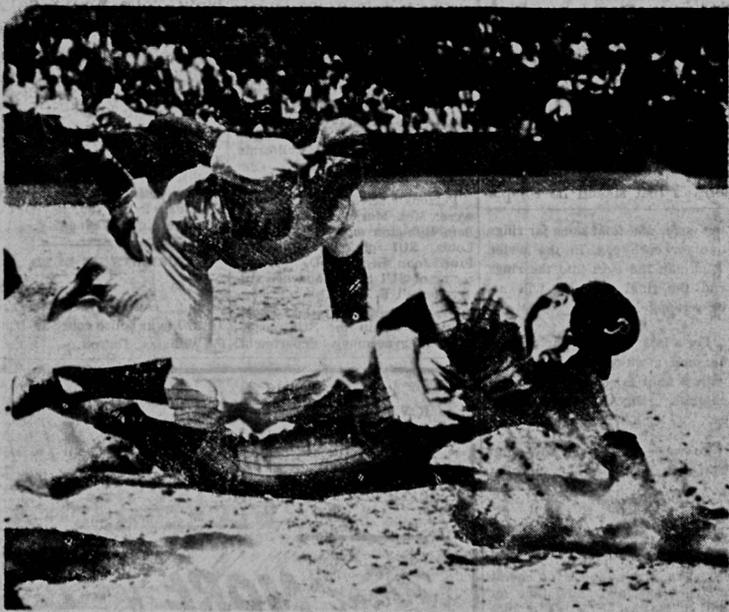

Simmons, who leaves Saturday for two weeks at a national guard encampment, kept the Cubs' seven hits well scattered, fanned five and walked the same number. He is the first pitcher in the National circuit to win 14 games.

Del Ennis struck the big blows in the Phils' nine-hit offensive. He cleared the loaded bases with a double in the seventh and hit a grand slam homer in the eighth for a total of seven runs driven in.

Ennis' homer, his 19th of the season, was hit off Johnny VanderMeer, who followed Doyle Lade and Frank Haller to the mound for the Cubs.

Andy Pafko struck the only long blow off the southpaw slants of Simmons as the Cubs bowed to the Whiz Kids for the fourth straight time. He hit his 19th homer with the bases empty in the sixth.

PHILADELPHIA'S MIKE GOLIAT was out at home plate as he attempted to score from second base against the Chicago Cubs Thursday, but as it turned out, the Phils didn't need the run. They trounced the Cubs, 13-3. Chicago Catcher Mickey Owen made the put out. Thursday's loss was Chicago's seventh straight.

Chisox, Senators Split Doubleheader

CHICAGO (AP)—Randy Gumpert pitched the Chicago White Sox to a 6-3 victory over Washington in the second game of a doubleheader before 5,174 persons here Thursday after the Senators used just three hits to capture the opener, 3-2.

In the first game, White Sox Starter Billy Pierce held off the Senators without a hit for six and a third innings, then yielded the winning three-run spurge to the visitors in the eighth.

Washington jumped into a 3-0 lead in the second game when Noren and Mickey Vernon singled for two runs. Gil Coan scored the third counter when he stole home in completing a triple steal with Noren and Mele. After this spurt Gumpert allowed just four hits to gain his fourth payoff.

Dave Philley highlighted Chicago's attack with a homer off Conrade Marrero, who suffered his sixth setback. Chicago completed the day's offensive fireworks with two run spurts in the fifth and sixth innings.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ed W. LeBaron, west coast football star, is going on active duty in the Marine corps after the all-star Philadelphia Eagles football game at Chicago on Aug. 11.

LeBaron is under contract to the Washington Redskins of the National professional football league. But the defense department said Thursday that a call to active duty with the Marines will "take prior claim to his services."

Cards Batter Five Dodger Hurlers, 13-3; Musial's Streak Halted at 30

Diering, Slaughter Each Hit 2 Homers

BROOKLYN (AP)—Stan Musial's 30-game batting streak came to an end Thursday when the St. Louis Cardinals outfielder failed to get a hit in five times at bat. His teammates, however, made up for this lapse by blasting five Brooklyn pitchers for 13 hits to fashion an easy 13-3 triumph over the Dodgers.

The victory gave the Cards the rubber of their three-game set but left them still a game and a half behind the league leading Philadelphia Phils who swamped the Chicago Cubs by the same score.

Eight of St. Louis' hits went for extra bases with outfielders Enos Slaughter and Chuck Diering blasting two homers apiece. Slaughter also hit a double to drive in five runs. Marty Marion doubled and tripled and Del Rice hit his second homer in three days.

The Dodgers used five hurlers but Musial could do nothing with any of them. He popped up to the infield once, flied to the outfield and grounded three times to the infield. His mates did their best to give him a last chance in the ninth when the first six men reached base. However, Musial rapped into a double play with Billy Loes on the mound.

The Boston outfielder broke his arm when he crashed into a concrete wall chasing a fly ball.

Alexander Leads First Round Play In Sioux City Open

SIoux CITY (AP)—Skip Alexander, the former Duke university star, smashed out a record 63 Thursday to grab the lead at the end of 18 holes in the Sioux City Open golf tournament.

The tall, bespectacled southerner dropped a nine-foot putt on the 8th hole for a birdie 3 to take the front spot away from Sam Snead and Jack Burke Jr., who posted 65's.

Beats Course Record
Alexander, professional at the Deanne Hill club, Knoxville, Tenn., topped the 6,506-yard Elmwood course record by two strokes. His 63 also was the lowest score made this summer along the PGA's tournament trail.

The 31-year-old Alexander was nine strokes below Elmwood's par 72. He was out in 32, three under, and raced home in 31.

Paul O'Leary, the 22-year-old Bismarck, N.D., professional; Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill., and Ed (Porky) Oliver of Seattle were grouped at 66. Oliver's 32 on the front side included an eagle 2 on the par 4 352-yard 9th hole. Porky holed out a 75-yard low approach from the woods.

Demaret, Ferrier Tie
Jimmy Demaret, colorfully togged us usual, had a flashy 30 for his first nine but fell back to a 39 finish for a 69. He had four putts on the lip of the cup on the second nine.

Jim Ferrier, winner of the St. Paul Open in a playoff with Snead last Monday, also had a first round 69.

Local Swimming Club Wins Meet

DAVENPORT — Iowa City's swimming club won the Davenport Invitational meet here Wednesday with victories in all the men's events.

Iowa City amassed 56 points to 31 for second place Clinton in the meet open to all teams representing a municipal swimming pool.

The victory over Clinton raised hopes of an Iowa City victory in the state AAU meet scheduled to get under way in Iowa City Saturday.

Jim Counsilman, meet manager, announced Thursday that 152 entries have already been received for the affair. A total of 17 teams have filed entries, with the largest number coming from Iowa City, Cedar Rapids and Cedar Falls.

Preliminaries will start at 2 p.m. Saturday with the finals scheduled for 7 p.m. No admission will be charged for either session.

Blue in the Face

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—Baseball ticket taker Henry Snydam got a complaint from a fan.

"Why," Snydam was asked, did South Atlantic baseball league President Earl Blue "rule out Sunday baseball at Greenville?"

"He didn't," Snydam explained, "the Greenville city council ruled it out."

"I saw in the paper about it," declared the unconvinced fan. "It said 'Blue law invoked.'"

Braves Defeat Bucs, 5-3, Move Into Third; Spahn Gets Triumph

BOSTON (AP)—Lefty Warren Spahn hurled the Boston Braves back into the National league's third spot by notching his 12th win of the season with a 5-3 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday night before a slim 8,302 crowd. Spahn had a 3-1 shutout until the Pirates bunched three of their eight hits for all of their runs in the ninth inning.

The Braves clinched matters against Starter Cliff Chambers, also a lefthander by banging four hits for two runs in the third inning after scoring in each of the previous frames.

Chambers gave way to Hank Borowy in the eighth, during which Roy Hartsfield slammed his third homer of the season.

Pep to Fight Saddler for Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Boxing's hottest match finally was signed and sealed Thursday when featherweight Champion Willie Pep agreed to defend his crown once more against Sandy Saddler in Yankee Stadium Sept. 6.

At the same time that he closed for that eagerly awaited and long overdue "rubber" bout, President Jim Norris of the International Boxing club said that he would issue a statement on the plans of Joe Louis at 10 a.m. today.

Norris has made no secret of the fact he would like to see the retired heavyweight champion pick up the gloves again and meet Ezzard Charles, the reigning NBA king, this September. The IBC has a Sept. 27 date open at the Stadium just in case Louis "un-retires."

Big Jim said he talked with Louis Thursday.

"Joe is driving from Chicago to West Baden, Ind.," said Norris.

If Norris can not make a Charles-Louis fight, he said, he would like to put on a middleweight title scrap between Champion Jake La Motta and welter King Ray Robinson.

"We're working on the middleweight bout, too," said Norris.

Louis has said his return to the ring hinges on an income tax deal with the government. The Brown Bomber owes the government a considerable sum. He has offered to give up his purse for a Charles' fight in settlement of all claims.

Tigers Drop Boston, Extend League Lead; Yanks Beaten

Dizzy Trout Hurls Win Over Boston

DETROIT (AP)—The Veteran Paul (Dizzy) Trout turned back the Boston Red Sox 5-1 on a neat nine-hitter Thursday to protect the Detroit Tigers' slender American league lead.

It was Diz' third triumph over the Red Sox this year and came at the expense of Ellis Kinder who absorbed his fourth loss at the hands of Detroit. He has beaten the Tigers only once.

Four double plays helped Trout out of the occasional bits of hot water he got into while salvaging the Tigers' lone victory in a three-game series.

Manager Red Rolfe, who juggled his lineup when the Tigers went into a losing streak that saw them drop six of eight games, reverted to his "regular" batting order Thursday and it paid dividends.

A crowd of 16,059 saw the Tigers climb all over Kinder in the first inning as they pushed over a pair of runs on three hits, a walk and a wild pitch.

Boston made it a 2-1 game as it got its lone tally in the fourth on Johnny Pesky's triple and Dom DiMaggio's single.

But Detroit bounced back with a three-run fifth inning featured by Vic Wertz' 16th homer to grab a 5-1 lead which Trout guarded "the rest of the way."

Stirnweiss' Single Gives Browns Win

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Ex-Yankee George Stirnweiss' ninth inning single with two men on enabled the St. Louis Browns to beat New York 3-2 here Thursday night. The winning pitcher was Al Widmar who gave up eight hits. The loser was Tommy Byrne who also allowed eight hits.

The defeat dropped the second-place Yankees one and a half games behind Detroit in the American league race.

The blow by Stirnweiss drove across the run that broke a 2-2 deadlock in the ninth.

New York scored two markers in the fifth on Gene Woodling's triple.

But St. Louis came right back to tie it up in the last of the fifth. Ken Wood's single scored Don Lenhardt, who had doubled, and Roy Sievers' single brought in Sherman Lollar, who had walked.

Cosmetology Division To Stop Unlicensed Home Beauticians

DES MOINES (AP) — The state division of cosmetology is in the midst of a special drive to crack down on unlicensed beauty operators who give beauty treatments in their homes and operators who practice under unsanitary conditions.

"Such violations have been going on for years, but in the last six months the division has been making a special drive against the violators," Mrs. Helen Vernon, executive secretary, said Thursday.

The drive started as the result of a number of complaints from licensed beauty operators, she said.

Mrs. Vernon said it is not necessarily aimed at persons who give home permanents. It includes all unlicensed persons who give any kind of beauty treatments, including shampoos and hair sets, for compensation.

The division has three inspectors who investigate complaints. When they find an unlicensed operator practicing in her home for compensation or any operator giving beauty treatments under unsanitary conditions, they attempt to stop the practice by talking with the violator.

Later, written warnings may be sent. If these are disregarded, suit for a permanent injunction is brought in the case of an unlicensed operator. Violation of the sanitary regulations may result in a fine of up to $100.

GI Examines Shelled Tank

PFC. RICHARD MAHANES OF Ferndale, Mich., points to a hole in the turret of a U.S. tank after the heavy armor was pierced by North Korean fire. The shelling occurred in the front lines along the Yongdong-Taegon road. The tank gunner was killed and three other crewmen wounded by the hit.

Sally Rand Owes $21,727 in Taxes

KOKOMO, IND. (AP) — An internal revenue man visited Sally Rand Thursday to see whether she had any assets the government can seize.

The government claims Sally owes $21,727 income taxes on her 1947 and 1948 earnings and the collector was armed with a lien filed with the Howard county recorder.

The revenue man said they had been trying to catch up with her ever since she left California last spring on tour with the carnival which features her and her tent show of 50-count them—50 girls. Internal Revenue Deputy Collector Wilbur O. Plummer said, however, that the government wouldn't take her fans from her even if she doesn't have enough other assets to pay her bill.

100 Yanks Trapped In Yongdong Retreat Fight Way to Safety

WITH THE UNITED STATES FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION IN KOREA — More than 100 First Cavalry Division troopers, trapped behind enemy lines since the retreat from Yongdong Tuesday, fought their way back to safety Thursday.

They had hiked 20 miles through mountains and valleys infested with North Korean infantrymen and guerrillas, and they made it even though some of them were carrying wounded buddies unable to walk.

An L-5 liaison plane had spotted the GI's Tuesday and dropped supplies to them as they fought their way back.

Two First Cavalry reconnaissance-planes crashed Thursday between Kunchon and Taegu. One plunged into Kum river and its occupants were seriously wounded. The other plane crash-landed nearby so its crew could help the wounded pair.

There was a significant new development in the First Cavalry's area Thursday — a force of South Korean police arrived and took over the job of rounding up and screening the refugees who are streaming into the battle area — from east and south of Yongdong.

Many of these refugees are believed, as usual, to be disguised Communist troops. The South Korean police detained 500 or more suspected Reds who appeared suddenly behind the American lines Thursday.

Wisconsin Officials Search for Bandits Who Shot Treasurer

CHIPPEWA FALLS, WIS. (AP) — Officials admitted Thursday night they were "up a tree" in their search for bandits, who Chippewa County Treasurer Warren Robarge said, tortured and shot him three times.

Robarge said the bandits were the same pair that attacked him twice before in attempts to rob the county safe. One year ago they stole about $2,500 from his office. Last Feb. 27, Robarge was beaten but the thugs were frightened off before they opened the safe.

The county treasurer was found on a highway early Thursday bleeding from three flesh wounds. His condition was reported serious. Dist. Atty. Marshall Wiley said authorities were "up a tree again" in their efforts to solve the latest attack.

Wiley said Robarge gave a "very incoherent" story that the bandits forced him to return to the court house Wednesday night. They stuck lighted matches under his fingers in an unsuccessful attempt to force him to reveal the safe's combination, they shot him three times, Robarge said.

The sheriff's office is across the street from the courthouse. But deputies said they heard no shooting.

The 41-year-old treasurer was unable to explain what happened after the shooting. He was found lying in the middle of the highway Thursday.

Wiley said there was some evidence of tampering in Robarge's office. Police said they found burned matches near his desk. Robarge's wallet was missing but no money apparently was taken from the office, officials said.

Five men and a woman were arrested May 28, playing stud poker. Police confiscated $144 in the game. The judge dismissed the charge because police broke in on the game illegally.

When players couldn't remember whose money was in the pot, the judge ordered the $144 turned over to the lawyers for their fees.

U.S. Will Defend Germany

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States warned flatly that it will fight to defend western Germany against possible attack "from the east" and said contrary Communist propaganda is a "Trojan horse" appeal.

The renewed statement that American troops and planes would resist an invasion of west Germany was aimed at counteracting recent Red appeals to west German states to fight with Russia or remain neutral in event of war.

This country's reaction to the Communist propaganda barrage was outlined by state department press officer Michael J. McDermott when asked for comment. He said the west Germans are not likely to fall for any such Trojan horse appeals.

"They have few illusions of the Soviet Utopia in which their less fortunate brothers live, and they should have no doubts of our repeatedly expressed and continuing determination to defend the area of the federal public of a possible attack from the east," McDermott said.

Man Gets Reserve Call In Galesburg, Ill., Jail

SELFREDGE FIELD, MICH. (AP) The airforce wants Francis Rios of Galesburg, Ill., but not badly enough to deprive the county jail of his presence, 10th airforce authorities said Thursday.

Rios, 34-year-old reservist, was notified Thursday to report for active duty at Selfridge field. The telegram was delivered to him in jail at Galesburg, where he is serving a 90-day drunken driving sentence.

County Judge Gale Mathers said he would free Rios if the commanding general here really wants him. The airforce replied, however, that Rios' orders would be rescinded.

Committee OK's Truman Economic Control Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The house banking committee Thursday approved 20-1 President Truman's plan of partial controls—but congress threatened to junk it and adopt a drastic price-wage freeze to combat inflation.

Mr. Truman told a news conference earlier that it is not necessary now to clamp drastic controls on the entire economy as proposed by elder statesman Bernard M. Baruch.

The president said that if price controls do become necessary, wage ceilings and rationing should be imposed simultaneously.

The senate banking committee meantime wound up public hearings on the control bill, and scheduled a closed meeting today to pass on its provisions. The legislation was scheduled for floor action in the house Tuesday, and in the senate Wednesday. Early passage was expected.

The committee approved the president's requests for authority to:

Revive wartime credit controls under which the federal reserve board curbed installment buying.

Set up a system of priorities and allocations to channel steel and other scarce materials into essential production.

Requisition hoarded stocks of industrial materials and even plants themselves when needed for defense output.

Make or guarantee loans to "expedite production" of needed goods. Baruch told the senate banking committee Wednesday that Mr. Truman's limited proposals are not nearly enough to prepare the home-front for an adequate preparedness program. He urged "all-out" mobilization at once.

SUPPORTS KOREAN BONUS

DES MOINES (R-Des Moines), said Thursday he would support legislation to give Iowa veterans of the Korean war a bonus. He said he "saw no reason why" Korean veterans were not entitled to the same state bonus which Iowa paid to the state's World War II

Iowa Sen. Gillette Urges Pacific Union

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Guy Gillette (D-Iowa) Thursday night called for a pacific union as one means of combatting Communism. Gillette said the Communists threaten to frighten western Europe into taking a neutral stand.

"By terrorizing these nations with the threat of impending general war, the Communists are softening them up for political conquest, first neutrality, then submission," Gillette said in an address delivered over radio station WLS.

"We dare not ignore the prevailing anti-war spirit of the men and women of Europe who have just lived through the second great war of this century.

"Certainly the Communists do not ignore it!"

That's why, Gillette said, the U. S. "must demonstrate to the world, in the most dramatic fashion possible, that it is we, the United States, who are the true bearers of peace, that it is we who have the power and the aim to prevent war."

Road Can Wait

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Thirty property owners on Milwaukee's south side took a look at rising prices, saw an unpaved road in front of their homes and signed the following petition:

"We have families and high mortgages. And with the ever-increasing cost of living, we are not able to pay for the road now. With another war on and the increasing taxes, the road can wait."

Racketeer-Evangelist Gets 50-Year Sentence

OAKLAND, CALIF. (AP)—C. "Cash" Thomas Patten, cowboy evangelist convicted of stealing "love offerings" from his followers, was sentenced Thursday to five consecutive terms which could total 50 years in San Quentin prison.

The East Bay evangelist, who was described at his trial as "a racketeer and confidence man who destroyed the faith in God and men of many of his followers," stood expressionless as Superior Judge Charles Wade Snook ordered him imprisoned for five consecutive terms — one for each count of his conviction. However, he remarked to his jailer later than Snook "threw the book at me. A fellow who stole $14-million couldn't have gotten more."

Patten was convicted June 29 by a jury of eight women and four men who found him guilty on the five counts of fleecing his flock of $14,750. The state originally charged that he took at least $20,760 and perhaps more, but one count was dropped and he was adjudged innocent on four other counts.

Witnesses at the trial said that Patten milked his congregation on promises of devoting the funds to church projects that never materialized. Instead, they said, the money was used by Patten for a luxurious life of Cadillac convertibles and fancy homes.

Students, Teachers Attend Art Workshop

SANTA'S WORKSHOP might find extra helpers among these 52 Johnson county teachers and SUI summer session students. The group Thursday concluded a three-day art workshop held at University high school. The workshop, sponsored by Binney and Smith art company, New York City, offered opportunities in finger painting, crayon etching, paper sculpturing and textile painting. Here a group of participants are busily occupied with papier mache projects. Prof. Frank Wachowiak, head of art education at University experimental schools, and Violet M. Eckhoff, art consultant from Binney and Smith company, directed the 15-hour workshop.

Belgian Socialists Stage Riot

BRUSSELS, BELGIUM (AP)—Socialist demonstrators demanding the abdication of King Leopold III battled police and Royalists Thursday. The rioting Socialists invaded the grounds of Laeken palace and were driven out with rifle butts and swords.

Scores of persons were reported injured, including some 50 Socialists slugged with rifle butts by police. The injured also included children who had gone to the palace to pay homage to the king and were caught in the rioting.

The battle with paving bricks and stones broke out after the demonstrators, led by former Premier Paul-Henri Spaak, converged on the palace to protest Leopold's return. Spaak had warned earlier of a possible revolution as it strikes virtually paralyzed five Belgian cities.

The Socialists marched four miles from parliament to Laeken to chant their demand for abdication beneath the palace windows. They became angry when police and state troops drove them from the grounds.

Eye witnesses said the rioting flared when a Socialist seized a paving brick and hurled it at a Royalist car, part of a steady stream of cars and buses carrying Royalists laden with flowers for the king.

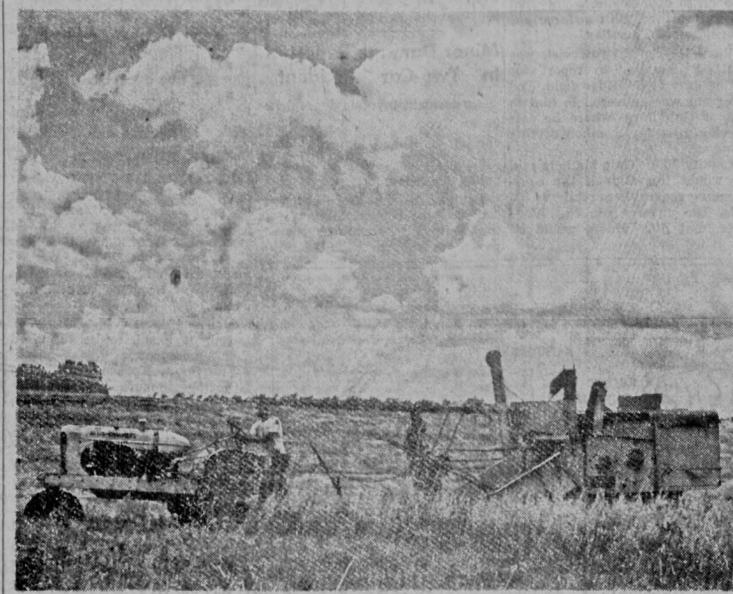

The fighting spread quickly and the big state trooper force on duty was nearly helpless. A full-fledged battle with paving bricks raged along the two-mile road from the palace to the royal church. One car was set afire and exploded. A bus was overturned.

The ministry of interior said 12 persons were arrested.

Socialists deployed behind hedges in the palace grounds at the height of the battle, and women brought stones for the men. State troopers drew their swords and charged, but the crowd melted away to reassemble elsewhere.

Johnson County Farmer Harvests Oats

(Daily Iowan Photos)

WORKING THROUGH THE NOON HOUR to beat an approaching rain, Carroll Sass, route 5, rushed to finish combining a field of oats Thursday. Sass said he had 40 acres of oats left to harvest. He said his harvesting is behind schedule this year because of the abnormal amount of rain in the area this summer. His Clinton oats was "doing between 40 and 50" bushels to the acre, he said.

Motor Club Finds —

Driving Lessons Pay

— In Accident Reduction

It's now possible for properly trained Iowa City drivers to have 50-percent fewer accidents than un-trained drivers.

The secret? There isn't any—just driver education and a willingness to practice a thing called "sportsmanlike driving."

And that's where the Motor Club of Iowa, with a branch office in Iowa City, steps into the scene, bringing with it a dual-equipped car, a college-trained instructor, and a planned course on "how to drive safely."

Survey figures show that drivers trained through this system, and other drivers who use it as a "brush-up" course, are involved in 50 percent fewer auto accidents, according to Floyd L. Link, Motor club supervisor of safety.

The Motor Club of Iowa, with headquarters in Davenport, operating as an affiliate of the American Automobile association, offers a nine-hour course of text-book and "behind-the-wheel" instruction.

The object is to prepare the student for a driver's license examination by the Iowa drivers examiner.

State Diploma

The motor club gives the necessary training, and the state of Iowa awards the "diploma" provided the student passes the test. No one has failed to pass so far, club officials said.

Pupils' ages range from 14 to 60 years old, and anyone, whether a member of the club or not, may take the course, said Miss Frieda Sievers, office secretary and travel counsel in the Iowa City office. However, the fee charged is higher for non-members.

U.S. Offers to Buy More Cuban Sugar

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has offered to buy more than 600,000 tons of Cuban sugar—all of the island's remaining stock-piles.—Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan announced Thursday.

The move reflected the huge consumer demand for sugar since the outbreak of the Korean war despite repeated assurances by President Truman and the agriculture department that there is plenty for everybody.

The Cuban government, it was said, has agreed to hold the sugar for this country until price and delivery schedules can be worked out. If the United States does not need all the sugar, it will be available for resale in the world market at the prices paid by the agriculture department.
