Generally fair and warm today. Friday continued fair. High today, 78; low, 60. High Wednesday, 79; low, 57.

ABNORMALLY HIGH TIDES PUSHED SHOREWARDS by the gulf hurricane Wednesday swept shoreward properties, broke bulkheads and inundated highways, but only minor damage was reported on the third day of high water as the central Florida coastal area felt the fringe of the big blow.

115-Mile Hurricane Due To Strike Mobile Today

MOBILE, ALA. (UP) — A 115-mile an hour hurricane bore down on this busy port Wednesday night and angry tides whipped up by its advance gales cut off the city both from east and west.

The roaring storm's outer gales kicked up a tornado at Apalachicola on the Florida northwest coast where two persons were reported injured seriously. A dozen houses were knocked down or damaged.

The damage at Apalachicola was estimated at $50,000. The raging winds and drenching rains forced thousands to hurry inland from the industrial-resort coast area.

At 9:30 p.m. (Iowa time) advisory from the New Orleans weather bureau placed the center of the storm about 70 miles south of Mobile.

The center was due to hit this port shortly after 11 p.m. Winds were rising all along the coastline and as far as 50 miles inland pelting rain cut visibility so that motorists were forced to halt.

The hurricane's whirling motion carried the gales eastward from the Pensacola area where a 98-mile-an-hour wind was blowing on Santa Rosa island.

However, cheering word came for this battered-down city from Chief Weather Forecaster William Tillison. He said "winds are not expected to be over 75 MPH here and the tides are not expected to be extremely dangerous."

A ham radio operator heard the Brockley airforce base here say that a new radio fix on the storm indicated it was more likely to strike the coast with full force near Pensacola. Highest land winds so far were estimated at 100 MPH south of Pensacola.

Acheson, Johnson Urge Speedy Mobilization

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Defense Secretary Louis Johnson Wednesday urged "forced draft" speed in rearming the United States and its allies against the threat of Communist aggression.

The two cabinet members and Marshall plan administrator Paul Hoffman were closeted with the senate appropriations committee for nearly four hours.

"The danger we face is clear," Johnson told the lawmakers. "The free world must raise and equip forces sufficient to deter further aggression."

Meanwhile, Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, U.S. draft chief, blasted the armed services for being too finicky in picking manpower on the basis of "physical perfection."

Hershey said in a speech that nearly three out of five candidates are now being rejected for military services.

On Capitol Hill, Acheson, Johnson and Hoffman called for speedy approval of President Truman's request for $4-billion in supplemental appropriations to arm western Europe and other friendly non-Communist nations.

"The best hope of peace in the present situation lies in the creation of a position of strength in these nations sufficient to deter Communist aggression," Acheson said in a statement.

Johnson said the $4-billion requested by President Truman will be used "mainly for new procurement of military equipment and the stimulation of greatly increased military production in Europe."

In other defense mobilizations Wednesday: 1. The house voted 362 to 1 in approving legislation to permit a

Chinese Reds Say U.S. Planes Killed Four in Manchuria

TOKYO (THURSDAY) — Communist China charged today in a timely propaganda maneuver that American fighter planes strafed two points in Red-held Manchuria on Tuesday.

A New China news agency dispatch said four Chinese were killed and seven injured in the two alleged attacks.

The new charge came only several hours before Soviet Delegate Jakob A. Malik was to sit for the last time as president of the United Nations security council at Lake Success, N.Y. Malik still is trying to get the council to discuss Communist China's previous charge that American and British planes have violated Red territory in Manchuria.

The Communists news agency said Red China's premier and foreign minister Chou En-Lai had protested to United Nations Secretary General Trygve Lie and Russia's UN mouthpiece, Jakob Malik, against the "new violation of Chinese territory."

It was the second time in a week Chou had charged that U.S. warplanes were operating over Chinese soil. Some diplomatic sources here regard the charges as a possible maneuver intended to "legalize" Chinese Red entry into the Korean war.

CATHOLICS, REDS SIGN PACT BUDAPEST, HUNGARY (AP) — The Roman Catholic church and the Communist government signed an agreement Wednesday under which the Catholic clergy promised to "acknowledge and support in accordance with their duties the constitution and the people's republic."

President Truman sought personally to break the jam. He called congressional leaders to the White House to appeal for a speed-up on the legislation which is designed to bring in an extra $4.5-billion over a full year's operation.

draft of physicians, dentists and "allied specialists" for 21 months duty in the armed services.

The senate unanimously passed a similar bill Tuesday. Differences in the two versions will have to be adjusted before President Truman signs it into law.

Under the house version, doctors, dentists and allied specialists could be drafted through the age of 50.

2. The senate armed services committee voted 8 to 3 to shelve a bill for universal training until next January, as requested by Mr. Truman.

Chairman Millard Tydings (D-Md) said even if the measure is enacted in January, the program would not go into active operation "for a year or two."

The legislation would provide military training for youths 18 through 20 years old for six months on an intensive basis and another six months in reserve status.

Earlier in the day, Draft Director Hershey said that to expand the nation's armed forces to 3-million men it would be necessary to draft World War II veterans and men with dependents.

Bill Daniels leaned back in his swivel chair, his eyes still on the cluster of children outside the station window.

"Jes' listen to 'em yell," he said to the stranger as the streamliner wailed by. "I reckon there's something 'bout a train kinda fascinates a kid."

"You like kids, don't you?" the stranger said. "Got some of your own?"

"Did have," he said, finally. "A boy." The stranger waited, sorry he had spoken.

"He's dead," Bill told him. "Hit by a train." He waved a thin hand toward the railroad crossing. "Right there," he said.

"My boy, he used to stand out there when he was just a mite of a feller, and watch them trains. 'Some day, Pop,' he'd say, 'I'm gonna go faster'n them trains go.'"

"Y'know, mister, years later, when he bought a second-hand car, I used to think back what he said, and it worried me some, but I never said a word."

"Then one night, I got a call. They told me my kid was already gone — killed right away. Feller with him — laid up quite awhile — told me him and one of his pals had made a bet."

Seventh Polio Death Of Year Reported At SUI Hospitals

Cecil L. Cocking, 32, Castalia, died of polio Wednesday morning at University hospitals, bringing to seven the number of polio deaths at the hospitals this season, Cocking was admitted in "serious" condition Monday.

A brother and sister from Cedar Rapids were among seven polio patients who have been admitted to the hospitals. They were Ann Bohn, 6, and Frederick Bohn, 9. Also admitted late Wednesday was Gene Scholtes, 16, Bellevue. Their conditions were not reported.

Admitted to polio wards in "fair" condition were Harry Gilbertson, 30, Charles City; Ramoni Vorweid, 14, New Vienna; Violet Hill, 11, Wayland, and John Suenkenberg, 28, Harper, who was upon entering the hospitals.

Also transferred to inactive wards were Bessie Koutny, 15, Ely; Dorothy Quass, 25, Palo; Lois Kohrt, 29, Garner; Anna Luppen, 18, Aplington; John Marchant, 6, Marion; Sue Anderson, 27, Dayton; Robert Dochterman, 20 months; Jefferson; Robert Fry, 14, Ottumwa, and Alan Hudspeth, 13, Steamboat Rock.

Judy McIntosh, 6, Decorah, was discharged from the hospitals. Active cases in the hospitals Wednesday totaled 34.

Forgery Arraignment For Raim Continued

Arraignment of Elmer H. Raim, North Liberty, on a forgery charge was continued Wednesday in district court until 10 a.m. Saturday.

Raim has been held in the Johnson county jail since last week when he was charged in police court with forging the name "Clarence Raim" on a $60 check in Iowa City.

Forgery charges against Clarence H. Salisbury, West Branch, have been dismissed in Iowa City police court on recommendation of County Atty. Jack White.

Salisbury, was accused of assisting Raim in forging a $50 check at a local service station.

Children Unhurt In Bus-Car Crash

Approximately 35 children escaped injuries Wednesday afternoon when the school bus in which they were riding collided with a car just north of Cosgrove.

Deputy Sheriff Don Wilson said the bus and the car, traveling in opposite directions, collided on a curve at about 3:55 p.m. No one was reported injured and neither vehicle left the road, Wilson said.

Damage to the car was estimated at $500. The bus received about $75 damage.

May Draft Married Men Through 25

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman will be urged to lift the ban on the drafting of married men 19 through 25 when the new GI family allotment bill becomes law, top selective service officials revealed Wednesday.

They said a survey of the probable manpower needs of the armed forces, to be started as soon as congress completes action on the measure, "unquestionably" will show the necessity for drafting married men, including some with children.

Senate-house conferees agreed Tuesday on a compromise allowance bill, and final congressional action is expected soon. The bill would provide monthly allotments of from $85 to $165 to GI families, depending on the serviceman's rank.

There are an estimated 750,000 men in the 19-through-25 age group registered for possible military service but deferred for family reasons. Another 2.5-million can not be called because they are World War II veterans.

Draft calls now are running about 100,000 men a month and must be met out of a pool of 1-million men who are potential 1-A's. Another 100,000 reach 19 each month but probably not more than 20,000 to 30,000 are available for induction. The others are deferred or weeded out for physical reasons.

More Reserves Called

DES MOINES (AP) — An additional 157 army enlisted reserve members and 11 marine reserves in Iowa have been called to active duty, the Iowa military district said Wednesday.

Army enlisted reservists receiving orders will be included among 793 men scheduled to report at Fort Riley, Kan., Sept. 15 to Sept. 18.

The marine reservists are to report to the Des Moines recruiting station before Sept. 15 for physical examinations.

Truman to Disclose Emergency Controls In Fireside Chat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Promised a home front mobilization bill within 48 hours, President Truman on Wednesday set 8 p.m. (Iowa time) Friday as the hour of a broadcast to tell Americans what they face in the way of leaner living.

House and senate conferees rapidly smoothed out minor conflicts in a day-long session. They predicted the "defense production act of 1950" will be approved and on its way to the White House by Friday at the latest.

Without waiting to see it, Mr. Truman formally asked congress for $60-million to cover the cost of administering such emergency controls as he may apply.

As now written, the bill gives Mr. Truman a ten-month grant of virtual war powers to control scarce materials, curb consumer and real estate credit, and limit the output of civilian goods where necessary to support the Korean war effort.

It carries standby authority to impose price ceilings — on single items or groups of items — so long as wage controls are applied to the same industries. Consumer rationing is authorized but — officials say — is not now needed.

Truman Asks Labor To Fight Communism

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman Wednesday called for labor's utmost effort in the fight against communism which, he said, "reduces the working man to slavery wherever it attains power."

In a Labor day statement, Mr. Truman asked that America's free labor observe the Monday holiday not only as a day of thanksgiving but of dedication to the struggle for lasting peace.

"Until there is concrete evidence that the aggressors are willing to have peace, we must build sufficient defenses," he said.

TWO NORTH KOREAN DIVISIONS (1) attacking in Kigye-Pohang sector Wednesday stopped a U.S. and South Korean counter-attack a mile north of Pohang. In the central sector (2) Reds hammered at allied lines north of Taegu, infiltrating to a point near Sinnyong and beating back a U.S. attack northeast of Waegwan. In the south (3) American Negro and South Korean troops retook Battle Mountain as the bloody hill changed hands for the eighth time in two weeks.

Acheson Warns Chinese Reds To Stay Out of Korean War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Acheson flatly disavowed hostile aims toward Communist China Wednesday, but warned that the Chinese will be branded aggressors if they intervene in Korea.

He made the statement at a press conference shortly before the White House announced that President Truman will report to the nation at 8 p.m. (Iowa time) Friday on the progress of the Korean war and its impact at home.

Acheson also said that United Nations forces would not cross the 38th parallel into Red territory if the North Koreans lay down their arms now—something no one expects to happen.

His assurances reflected official concern over reports of huge Chinese Red troop movements in Manchuria, just north of the embattled peninsula.

They likewise were designed to reassure China that the United States means exactly what it says about Formosa; that it is interested only in maintaining the status quo until the island's future can be decided by international agreements.

Other diplomatic sources said friendly governments already have relayed several U.S. foreign policy statements to Chinese Communist leaders at Peiping, including a copy of Mr. Truman's statement disavowing any territorial ambitions in China.

Further west along the northern rim of the UN beachhead, units of the South Korean Sixth division clashed with a force of 300 Reds which had infiltrated defense lines three miles north of Sinnyong, which is 16 miles northeast of Taegu.

General MacArthur's summary Thursday said Allied troops cleared out a Red unit which had cut the Pohang-Taegu supply road behind South Korean forces in the Kigye area, nine miles northwest of Pohang. But the key artery to Taegu was reported still under Red rifle fire from the hills.

Other diplomatic sources said friendly governments already have relayed several U.S. foreign policy statements to Chinese Communist leaders at Peiping, including a copy of Mr. Truman's statement disavowing any territorial ambitions in China.

Air, sea war: UN airforce damages or destroys 28 tanks, 87 trucks, and many military buildings. Headquarters spokesmen say planes and warships have hit Red supplies so hard that three new Communist divisions will be ill-equipped.

Washington: President Truman will give a fireside chat Friday (8 p.m., Iowa time) on Korean war and problems growing out of it.

Ten from County Pass Physicals

Ten of the 31 Johnson county men who have passed pre-induction physical examinations have been ordered to report to Des Moines for induction Sept. 19.

Today an additional 41 Johnson county men are to go to Des Moines for physicals for possible later drafting.

The draft board Wednesday said selection of possible draftees has worked down to the 22-year-old class. Under the draft law, men are to be drafted according to age first.

No Fullscale Offensive Yet By Communists

TOKYO (THURSDAY) (AP) — A new Red Korean attack today on the imperiled port city of Pohang rolled the defenders back more than a mile.

The South Korean Third division, hit by the Communists at 2 a.m. (10 a.m. Iowa time, Wednesday), was forced to withdraw to positions about a mile and a half north of the east coast city.

But the relentless push of the Reds on Pohang was costing them heavily. An airforce summary today said that 1,200 Reds have been killed by plane bombs, rockets and machinegun fire during the past two days.

Other Red forces, also seeking to push toward Pohang against the South Korean capital division from captured Kigye, nine miles to the northwest, shelled the defenders for an hour this morning.

These were the only significant developments reported in the mid-morning communique of the U.S. Eighth army around a 120-mile battle perimeter against which 120,000 Reds have been sending probing spearheads in search of soft spots.

Wednesday, after Communist rifle fire began spraying Pohang, big 46-ton Pershing tanks and marine planes helped American and South Korean troops beat back the Communists for a mile gain north of the city. Plane pilots later reported they killed 500 Reds.

Neither at Pohang nor elsewhere around the 12-mile battle perimeter have the Red concentrations opened a fullscale offensive but their probing efforts grew.

Gone was any prospect of the Reds fulfilling an order by their commander in chief, Premier Kim Il Sung, to eliminate the beachhead by Aug. 31.

The main Red pressure was brought to bear on the northern front, where the lines run roughly 55 miles inland from Pohang on the east coast to Waegwan, 12 miles northwest of Taegu.

General MacArthur's summary Thursday said Allied troops cleared out a Red unit which had cut the Pohang-Taegu supply road behind South Korean forces in the Kigye area, nine miles northwest of Pohang. But the key artery to Taegu was reported still under Red rifle fire from the hills.

McCarthy Hits Democrats Again

BEAVER DAM, WIS. (AP) — Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said Wednesday night the Democratic party has placed itself "officially" on the side of Communism and that only a Republican election victory in November can save western civilization.

In a speech prepared for delivery before the Dodge county Republican club, he reiterated his allegations of Communist infiltration of the state department and called again for the resignation of Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

But the senator reserved his major attack for the Democratic party which, he said, looked aside as Communists slipped into government policy making roles.

O'Dwyer to Say 'Adios' Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Amid the whoopla of a Broadway parade, William O'Dwyer today says "adios" to the metropolis he has served as mayor since 1946.

The mayor, formally nominated by President Truman Wednesday to become ambassador to Mexico, is due for a farewell as noisy and colorful as a south-of-the-border fiesta.

There will be a half-holiday for all city employes.

Many of them will be in the parade of 5,000 marchers and seven booming brass bands that will move up Broadway for an hour long ceremony on the steps of city hall.

Cedar Rapids Man Wins at Chicago Fair

CHICAGO (AP) — Bernard J. Early, 32, of Cedar Rapids, Wednesday became the 1,500,000 Chicago fair visitor and immediately became the possessor of:

A television set, vacuum cleaner, electric vibrator, first aid kit, a supply of groceries and a set of aluminum dishes.

Fair Manager Crosby Kelly also gave Early and his wife passes to everything on the grounds. Early is a hog butcher in Wilson and Company's packing plant in Cedar Rapids. He and his wife came to Chicago on their vacation, leaving their three children at home.

"This is our lucky year," Mrs. Early said. She won a $60 furniture drawing recently in Cedar Rapids.

Report Cook County Prisoners Offer Bribes

CHICAGO (AP) — Assistant State's Atty. James Condon reported Wednesday that prisoners in the Cook county jail can get liquor, narcotics and a locked room to share with women visitors by bribing the guards.

Condon informed State's Atty. John S. Boyle that an inmate could get liquor or narcotics for $5. A private room behind the jail office costs $3, he said.

Boyle asked for a complete written report of Condon's findings and said that the matter may be taken to the grand jury.

Condon, a former detective, began an investigation of conditions in the jail last month when keys and crude weapons were discovered in cells.

Earlier in the year, jail officials had disclosed the existence of a canteen system in which certain prisoners held sway over the others and exacted "tribute" from them.

Inmates failing to knuckle under to the leaders were beaten or stripped of their clothes, it was said.

In the latest disclosures, Condon said that recently a woman drove up to the jail in a Cadillac and tried to arrange for a private room in which to visit an inmate.

Warden Chester Fordney intervened, Condon said, forced the woman to leave and "reprimanded" the guard.

Condon said one hospital attendant at the jail admitted peddling whiskey to inmates and said he got the liquor from an inmate, who now is in Korea.

One inmate, Condon said, had passed the word along to another prisoner that he had been able to have an impression of a key made and that it had "turned out very well."

In addition, Condon said, prisoners in a special ward for hardened criminals, including some under death sentence, have access to stainless steel food trays from which they could fashion knives, saws and keys.

Fordney said that conditions were "not as bad" as depicted by Condon. He admitted he had been told of narcotics and whiskey smuggled into the jail and said that guards had been discharged for taking money on visiting days.

Fordney complained, as he has in the past, that his staff of guards is inadequate to police the jail properly.

Condon said that 41 guards have been given lie detector tests and that "we have two suspects among them."

Yanks Bombed Chinese Purposely, Pravda Says

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda reported from Peking Tuesday that American planes had bombed targets on the Manchurian side of the Yalu river on purpose and warned that the Chinese people are ready to fight to defend their territory.

The Communist party paper also quoted a Chinese political leader as saying that the American "warmongers must be curbed" and "the partisans of the peace camp can and will do that."

VFW Convention Calls for Change in U.S. Leadership

CHICAGO (AP) — The annual encampment of veterans of Foreign Wars Wednesday passed a resolution calling for a change of "leadership" in the defense department, but watered down a similar motion directed at the state department.

After heated debate, VFW delegates passed a resolution severely criticizing policies of the state department, but not directly asking for a change of leadership.

Earlier, by standing vote, delegates approved a motion unmistakably aimed at the ouster of Louis A. Johnson, the defense secretary not mentioned by name.

The resolution called upon President Truman to appoint "new and competent leadership" in the defense department.

A similar resolution calling for a change of "leadership" in Dean Acheson's state department had been drafted, but as it reached the floor from the national security committee the wording had been changed.

The motion, as re-worded, said that Mr. Truman should appoint "new, patriotic and able persons in the state department."

Sharp debate developed. Illinois Delegate Bajrd Helfrich charged that the object of both resolutions was to "antagonize the President of the United States . . . and to support the GOP."

W. P. Chennault, delegate from Memphis, Tenn., declared that the convention should go on record as demanding the "outright resignation" of Acheson.

The version reported out by the committee carried, however, it charged the state department with a "blundering, vacillating and appeasing policy."

The resolution also asked the dismissal of state department employes "whose misfeasance, ignorance and nonfeasance have resulted in failure in the field of diplomatic relations," and those whose "loyalty to American ideals is questionable."

When the motion relating to the defense department came to a vote, delegates voted down a last minute proposal from Helfrich which would have watered it down, too.

The resolution charged that Johnson's department has brought "our nation's defenses to our present shameful and inadequate condition in the face of world wide communist aggression."

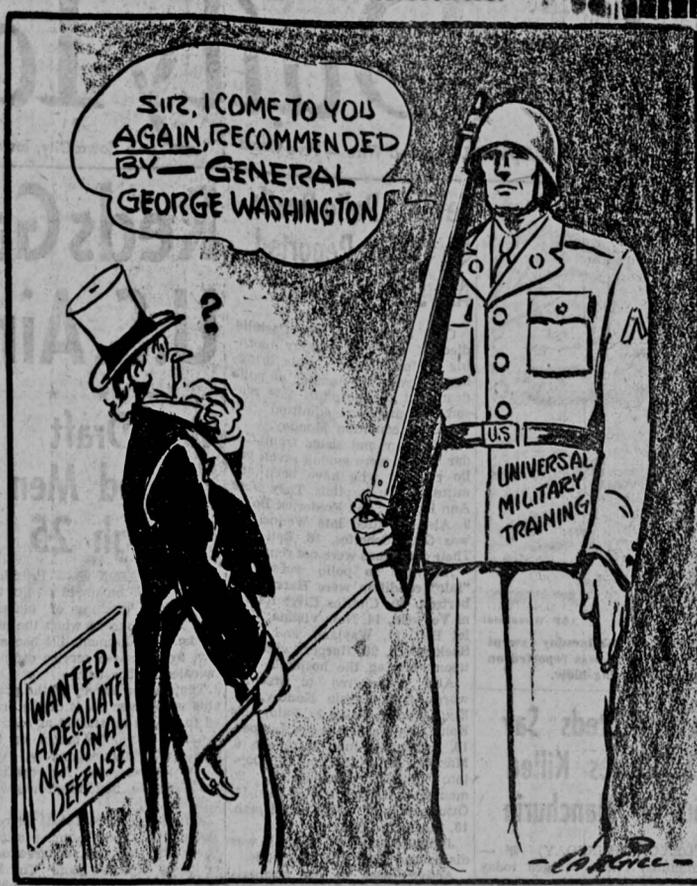

National VFW Commander Clyde A. Lewis denied in a floor speech that he was "playing politics" in backing strong resolutions against both the defense and state departments.

Northwest Airlines Plans Alaska Flight Service

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Northwest Airlines said Wednesday that Boeing Stratocruiser service will be extended to Alaska Sept. 1 to make further NWA equipment available to the government for its airlift to Korea.

DC-4 equipment presently flying the Seattle-Tacoma and Anchorage route will join the airline's fleet of planes carrying vital supplies and personnel to Korea. A DC-4 freight plane also will be handed over.

Husbands Bound to Lose — Daytime TV War Declared

NEW YORK (AP) — An all-out war between America's housewives and the television industry shaped up Wednesday. Advance reports indicated that the American husband will be the chief casualty.

A reconnaissance mission conducted by a staff under Dr. Ernest Dichter, who has done psychological warfare work for some of America's top advertisers, indicated that the women will put up a stiff fight but psychologically, the battle is already lost — or won, depending on which side you're on.

The television industry is fighting for the advertising it can sell if daytime television goes over. The women are all-out to defend their long-held shopping, cleaning and feeding habits. The husbands have nothing to lose but their meals if television wins.

Dr. Dichter's intelligence reports showed that the women are kidding nobody but themselves.

Yanks Join South Koreans to Drive Commies Off Hill

POHANG (AP) — Just about everything in the books happened Wednesday when Korean troops, with the help of American GI's and tanks, drove the Reds from west of Pohang.

The attack got underway with five tanks with 90-mm. millimeter guns and crews fresh from the United States spearheading it. A group of GI's, now veterans after nearly two months in Korea, went along.

Republican troops moved along high ridges on both sides of the Americans. I accompanied the lead tank, with Sgt. Ernest Belcher of Hazy, W. Va., in command. His crewmen were Sgt. Joseph Mazio, of Ambridge, Pa.; PFC's Victor Hall of Big Stone Gap, Va., and Cyril Roney, of Montebello, Calif., and Pvt. Leo Samard, of Canton, Ohio.

We were warned that the Reds had anti-tank rifles 100 yards ahead.

"I'll bring you back a dandy anti-tank gun," Belcher promised as he climbed in the hatch.

We saw the South Koreans advancing along the ridges. Suddenly we got caught in cross-fire and hit the dirt. We found the South Koreans were firing at each other by mistake. They soon stopped.

The tanks stopped 500 yards up the road, and their guns started blazing. The GI's with them jumped for cover. PFC Vincent Vastano, of Stamford Conn., came back to get a litter for a wounded man. He said the tanks had run into automatic weapon and machine gun fire.

About that time marine fighter planes swooped down to strafe the Reds. One came so close the Americans hit the ditches. A bomb dropped about 50 yards from us. That's the marine specialty — close support of infantry. It was too close.

The tanks went up the hill twice more. They met heavy fire both times. They finally managed to chase about 100 Communists off the hill.

Iowa Legislators Discuss Hopes For Speaker's Job

DES MOINES (AP) — Talk of governmental reorganization and candidacies for speaker of the house occupied the conversations of Iowa legislators Wednesday.

They were guests of the state fair board, along with state officials, at the annual state day at the fair. A good share of the 158 lawmakers were there.

The subject of governmental reorganization pertained to speculation on recommendations the "little Hoover" committee will make to the 1951 legislature. The committee has been working in secret about a year and a half on proposed consolidations and eliminations of state agencies.

"We will have some recommendations that will shock the people," a member of the committee commented. "They will be major proposals too."

It will be political dynamite in some quarters. That's one reason the report will not be made until Dec. 1, following the November election.

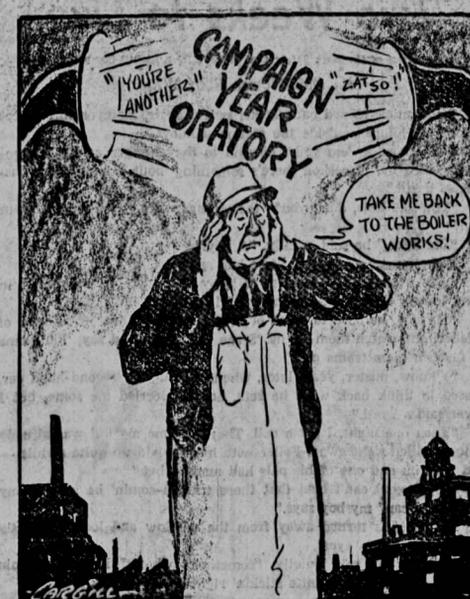

One legislator, not a member of the committee, commented, "if the committee were to report before the election we'd probably all get beat."

Another member of the committee said the recommendations would be important to all of the people in the state. He added that the suggestions won't pertain only to departments of lesser importance.

Neither of the committee members would permit use of his name, and neither would give any inkling of what any of the recommendations will be.

At least seven house members were mentioned as possible candidates for speaker, with two listed as "the hottest prospects." The two are Reps. Clifford Strawman (R-Anamosa) and Fred Schwenker (R-Davenport).

Americans Organize Crusade To 'Sell' Freedom to World

(Editor's note: Many believe that the United States has lost the initiative to Russia in the battle for men's minds. A few months ago there was born a new movement designed to regain that initiative. The movement is called Crusade for Freedom. Here, Lt. Gen. (Ret.) Ira C. Eaker, one of the leaders of this movement, explains why he and other U.S. leaders believe this crusade is an urgent necessity.)

By WILLIAM BEST
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lt. Gen. (Ret.) Ira C. Eaker warned Wednesday that Americans, touted as the world's best salesmen, were doing a poor selling job on the world's most precious commodity — human freedom.

This man of the sword, whose 8th Airforce helped beat Nazi Germany to her knees seven years ago, was talking about the power of words.

He and other U.S. leaders believe that through apathy we have lost the initiative in the cold war of words to the Soviets. Eaker, who retired in 1947, has been "drafted" into a new movement, the Crusade for Freedom, to fight with words and ideas where he once battled with war planes. Crusade wants to regain that initiative.

"I knew Eisenhower had a hand in it when I heard its name — Crusade for Freedom."

"Remember Ike's book, 'Crusade in Europe'?"

"This is our first effort to win the battle for men's minds," said the 54-year-old Texas-born general who is giving generously of his time as vice-president of the Hughes Tool company, one of the industries of Movie — Producer — Aircraft — Manufacturer Howard Hughes.

"It's the first strike in the fight to take the offensive of thought away from Russia."

"Americans are known as the greatest of all salesmen. But we aren't working at selling human freedom. And unless we start to work soon, human freedom will be sold out," he said in an interview.

Eaker pointed to two framed quotations from Winston Churchill on the walls of his office in Culver City.

"Swords can be dulled and made impotent by words, or they can be forged into deadly super weapons. I'll never forget how the heated truth of Churchill's words forged such a deadly weapon of tiny Britain. No wonder the Reds hate Churchill. They fear his mind." Eaker at first turned down the call to serve as California's state chairman of Crusade for Freedom. The call came from L. M. Gianini, president of the Bank of America, the world's largest bank.

Eaker promptly got a long-distance phone call from Gen. Lucius W. Clay, former military governor of Berlin and now national chairman of Crusade for Freedom.

The call went like this: Clay: "Ira, it's very difficult to get men to work on this thing because they're already overburdened. This needs an ardent enthusiast. You're one. And it needs an organizer. You're that, too. I personally would like you to accept this."

Eaker: "Okay, I still think you ought to get a prominent and long-time Californian but I can't turn you down and I believe in your crusade."

"I guess," he said later, "that I was just born to fight communism."

"With his acceptance went the responsibility for organizing the drive to gather California's quota of 545,000 of the 10-million signatures the crusade needs on scrolls that pledge Americans to fight communism.

Labor day is kick-off day officially in California and the campaign runs six weeks. Each signer will be asked to contribute something between one cent and one dollar — no more.

"We figure that it should have a price tag attached to it, because the American way is to pay for something. Then Americans believe they've bought a piece of it."

House of Commons Okays Rail Bill

OTTAWA (AP) — The house of commons Wednesday approved the principle of a government bill to bring Canada's crippling holiday rail strike to an end.

The vote on second reading of the bill was 192 to 47. This is the crucial stage of the measure's movement through parliament.

The measure to become law must be studied in committee stage and given third reading. Then it will go to the senate for passage there before receiving royal assent.

Under the bill the 124,000 rail strikers would go back to work immediately. The unions, and the railways would have 15 days to negotiate a settlement.

Washington Seminar Teaches Citizenship

BY CENTRAL PRESS
WASHINGTON — This summer more college students than ever have invaded Washington to find out what makes their government tick. So, for some 200 students, Washington becomes a summer-time laboratory of political science. All take real jobs, some paid and other gratis.

More than half, in the Washington Student Citizenship seminar, are scattered all over town working in various government agencies from the census bureau to the national arboretum. The 108 come from 67 different college campuses.

Then there are the 24 college girls, mostly from Wellesley, who are spending $225 of their own money to work for nothing for Uncle Sam. Maybe that explains their more glamorous jobs.

They work for senators, the Democratic and Republican national committees, the National Gallery of Art, the National Cancer Institute, and even St.

Elizabeth's Mental hospital! Some of their misconceptions are being dispelled. Bureaucrats were found not to be so bad after all. Politicians work long hours. The Big Shots seemed unimpressed with themselves and amazingly frank and eager to help these volunteer workers.

Vassarite Sally Montgomery, of Westfield, N.J., got a pat on the back from Sen. William Benton (D-Conn) for her "unique" analysis of the political scene in the Nutmeg state. Her carefully prepared chart of voting habits since 1920 will be used in the forthcoming campaign.

Betty Felsenfeld, from Brooklyn, who worked for Sen. Herbert Lehman (D-N.Y.), found the McCarthy battle more dramatic than anything she had ever seen on Broadway. This Wellesley girl got a "good mark" for some tax research on business concerns owned by colleges.

Another Wellesley girl, assigned to the bureau of Indian affairs, spent several days on a Cherokee reservation.

At first, these college girls found their jobs tougher than going to classes. Besides, they had to discard those comfortable blue jeans and saddle shoes to look proper among government girls.

In contrast, the seminar students have filled more typical government jobs with salaries that almost cover their expenses. These even met President Truman. They attended congressional hearings, observed the senate debates and saw the supreme court in action.

After a week of that — and some sightseeing — they settled down on their full-time government jobs. Add to that many field trips and eight to 12 hours of seminar a week and these young people have been plenty busy. But they are "loving it," even if some jobs are "too routine."

Frank Loy of San Francisco, a student at UCLA, is seeking a future job in the justice department as training for a career in private law practice.

But others aren't so keen about working permanently for Uncle Sam.

Helen Clanton, a senior at Wesleyan college in Georgia, insists, "Government work is all right for a while . . . but not creative enough and everyone seemed regimented."

The WSCS is part of the national students program of the YMCA and YWCA. "It is not a professional training program for the recruiting of future government employes," says "Jo" Abraham, director of the seminar for the fourth year. "Rather they prepare in Washington to become effective citizens in their home communities."

End of Runaway for Girl

(AP Wirephoto)

Marines Plan Orders For Specialist Officers

Marine corps headquarters will begin sending out orders within the next few days to male officers in the grades of captains and lieutenant, district headquarters in Des Moines have announced.

These officers will have combat-type specialists and, for the most part, will be under 31 years of age. Currently planned total number of officers to be called to active duty by July, 1951, is approximately 2,300.

The majority of these officers will report for duty during the months of September and October.

A number of officers in this category have already requested active duty. Any officer in this category who desires to volunteer has been urged to do so by marine corps headquarters.

No officer pilots of the volunteer reserve are being called at present.

Approximately 300 non-pilot officers, with aviation specialties will be called. These officers will be principally from the grades of captain and lieutenant.

All enlisted men of the rank of sergeant and below, both aviation and ground, will be ordered to active duty, the headquarters reported.

Orders to both officers and enlisted men will provide a minimum of 15 days between the receipt of orders and date of commencement of active duty.

District directors have been directed to grant an additional 15 days under certain definite criteria.

The commandant of the marine corps announced his present policy is that no marine, regular or reserve, under 18 years of age will be ordered into actual combat.

Bids Submitted for New Student Center

Three general contractor bids have been submitted for construction of the new Methodist Student center, the Rev. Robert Sanks, reported Wednesday.

Companies submitting general contractor bids were the Wildman construction companies, Iowa City; Morehead Construction company, Cedar Rapids; and Lantz Construction company, Glenview, Ill.

Electrical bids were submitted by Geg's Electrical service, Iowa City, and the Cedar Rapids Electrical Supply company, Cedar Rapids.

Two Iowa City firms submitted bids for plumbing and heating contracts for the new center. They were the Boyd and Rummelhart company and the Wagner-Connel company.

Bids will be submitted to Edward F. Jansson, Chicago, architect for the project.

The lengthening of the period of draftee service will swell Britain's armed forces by 77,000 men in six months, a white paper released simultaneously with Attlee's announcement said. It will furnish 55,000 trained men for the army; 17,000 for the airforce, and 4,000 for the navy, the white paper said.

Necessity for the action was pointed up by the disclosure that Britain's volunteer recruitment has been falling off sharply during the past years.

The American team was composed of a group of Ogden, Utah, civil air patrol cadets. The Canadians were selected from air service league squadrons throughout Canada. For the third straight year the Canadians won the competition.

The grandstand program also included a thrill show, Capt. Frank Frakes' dynamite stunt, and the presentation of valor and life saving awards by Gov. William S. Beardsley. A California delegation of native Iowans presented to Beardsley the flag and jack of the battleship Iowa.

The east Iowa district of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will hold its quarterly conference in Iowa City Sunday.

Principal speaker will be Waldo M. Anderson, Chicago, president of the Northern States mission.

The conference will be under the direction of Vernon S. Flake, Bonaparte, district president.

Members from Iowa City, Cedar Rapids, Waterloo, Muscatine, Ottumwa, Bonaparte and Tama are expected to attend the meeting which will be at the church, 918 E. Fairchild street, at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Four Slightly Hurt As Car Overturns Near Lone Tree

Four persons escaped serious injury Tuesday night when the car in which they were riding went out of control and overturned on county road M four miles north of Lone Tree.

The accident was reported Wednesday by highway patrolmen.

Occupants of the car, Pearl Appel, 49, William Terry, 12, and Virginia Kullerstrand, 3, all from Chicago, and Mrs. Robert Vance, Canton, Ill., suffered minor cuts and bruises. They were treated by a local physician and later released.

Patrolmen said the car apparently went out of control when it hit a slippery spot on the wet gravel road. The car overturned twice and landed upright. Damage to the car was estimated at $300.

A seven-year-old Iowa City girl also escaped possible injury Tuesday when she darted into a car traveling on Market street.

Ruth G. Lindemann, route 5, said Patricia Kron, 819 E. Market street, ran from between two parked cars and fell against the side of her car.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Kron, parents of the girl, said the child was uninjured. The car was not damaged.

In an accident Wednesday, Mrs. J.L. Dickerson, 222 Brown street, told police the car she was driving was involved in a minor accident by A.B. Gingerich, Kalona.

Deere Workers To Strike Tonight

MOLINE, ILL. (AP) — Both company and union officials said Wednesday they expect 13,000 CIO united auto workers to strike at seven Deere and company plants at midnight tonight.

A strike would involve 4,000 workers at three Deere plants at East Moline and the remainder at Waterloo, Des Moines, Dubuque and Ottumwa.

A company statement said that the UAW had rejected two proposals for setting a wage dispute.

The Quad-cities would be hit hard by a Deere strike, since 10,000 other workers at plants of the International Harvester company and J. I. Case company already are idle in walkouts.

In addition, it was reported that 2,000 farm equipment union members may strike at two Deere plants in Moline along with the UAW.

Moeller Named Head Of Journalism Group

Prof. Leslie G. Moeller, director of the SUI school of journalism, Wednesday was named president of the association of accredited schools and departments of journalism at the annual convention of the group, made up of the 39 accredited schools.

Moeller has served for the past two years as chairman of the association's council on standards of journalism, and as a member of the American council on education for journalism, which has charge of the accrediting program.

Truman Seeks to Build 'Emergency' Offices

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman Wednesday asked congress for $139.8-million to set up government office facilities outside of Washington for use "in event of emergency."

Apparently part of long-range plans for dispersal of the government to guard against atomic attacks, the proposed program would provide for buildings at four sites within commuting distance of Washington.

A White House statement said the construction program stems from a "joint study" by government agencies.

"No widespread relocation of government workers and their families is envisioned," the statement said.

"The new federal buildings will be near enough to Washington to permit workers now residing in the Washington area to commute daily to and from their jobs."

The statement said that the amount sought Wednesday "would initiate a long-range plan to insure the continuity of essential functions of government in event of emergency."

Represents Iowa City Saddle Club

An SUI student, Jean Slavata, 424 N. Van Buren street, will represent the Iowa City Saddle club Saturday in the Ft. Madison rodeo's queen contest.

She will ride "Sunday," which is owned by Claude Campbell. Winner will be selected on the basis of her riding ability and showmanship.

Miss Slavata, a junior in the physical education department, has been showing horses since 1945. Although she does not own her own horse, she has entered riding other's horses in a number of shows since then.

For the last four years she has been a riding counselor at the scout camp near Iowa City. She joined the Saddle club this summer.

Riding is her favorite sport, she said. But she likes skating, swimming and other sports. She plans to teach after graduating.

Revises Naval Enlistment Rule

The U.S. navy department recently has relaxed the requirements for reenlistment in the cases of certain rated men who have been discharged.

The new change enables many of these men to reenlist at or near the same rate they held at the time of discharge.

Ratings affected by this new order include: radarmen, sonarmen, electronics technicians, radio technicians, machinist mates, waiters, pharmacist mates.

Teleman, journalists, draftsmen, photographers, interior communicationmen, pipefitters, patternmakers, and surveyors.

Dependency in any rating of seaman and above is no longer a bar to reenlistment.

The navy department has also announced that it desires applications from naval reserve women officers and enlisted women on a voluntary basis for recall to active duty for an obligated and guaranteed period of one year.

Under this plan Wave reserve officers are desired in the grades of lieutenant commander and below in the line, and staff corps and enlisted women in pay grades E-3 and above.

Yanks Top Tribe Twice, Take 1st Place; Tigers Split

Henrich's Hit Wins Opener; Lopat Blanks Indians in 2nd

NEW YORK (AP) — The surging New York Yankees gained possession of first place in the teeming American league pennant race Wednesday by taking both ends of a doubleheader from the Cleveland Indians, 4-3 and 3-0.

Tommy Henrich's pinch-hit single in the eighth inning drove in the winning run in the first game. Ed Lopat blanked the Tribe on six hits in the second.

The Yankee victories coupled with the Detroit Tigers' split in their doubleheader with Washington moved the New Yorkers out into first place by a full game.

Lopat's victory was his 15th of the season and his fifth without a loss over Cleveland this season to boost his lifetime record over the Indians to 27 victories against only one defeat.

Veteran Johnny Mize supplied Lopat with all the runs he needed. Mize followed a single by Joe DiMaggio in the second inning with his 15th home run of the season and his second of the day. The Yanks added their final run against Mike Garcia in the fifth on singles by Phil Rizzuto and Yogi Berra and an error by Allie Clark.

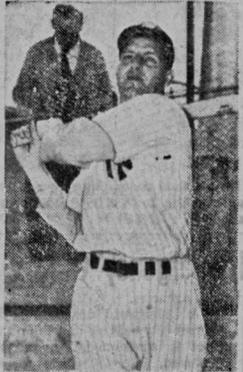

The Indians jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the first three innings of the opener, scoring twice in the first and once in the third on a homer by Clark.

Mize got the Yanks back into the game by starting a two-run fourth inning rally with a home run. The Yanks squared the count at 3-3 in the fifth on Rizzuto's single and double by Joe DiMaggio.

Mize walked to start the Yanks' eighth inning rally. Joe Collins went in to run for him and stole second after Hank Bauer filed out. Bob Feller then intentionally walked Bill Johnson, but Henrich singled to right and Collins pranced home with the winning run.

Giants Blank Bucs; Stanky Near Mark

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Sal Maglie fashioned a five-hit shutout Wednesday night as he pitched the New York Giants to a 4-0 win over the Pittsburgh Pirates before 7,794 fans — one of the smallest night crowds in Pirates' history.

It was Maglie's eighth straight win and his 13th of the year against three losses.

Eddie Stanky, who walked in his three times at bat in Tuesday night's game, worked Cliff Chambers for bases on balls in his first four trips to the plate Wednesday night, giving him seven straight, one shy of the major league record.

Red Sox Win 15th In Last 16 Games, Move Ahead of Tribe

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox Wednesday whipped the Chicago White Sox, 6-1, to slip ahead of Cleveland into third place in the feverish American league pennant fight.

The home forces scored four unearned runs in the third inning, when the Chicagoans made three errors, and continued on to their 15th victory in their 16 games of this current home stand.

The victory, gained before 9,898 paid fans, was the 14th of the campaign for burly Joe Dobson who lost his shutout in the eighth when Floyd Baker and Eddie Robinson both hit ground doubles.

The usually light hitting Baker hit safely in all four times at bat as he made half his club's safeties, the same number the Bostonians were able to rap off the pitching of Ken Holcombe and Howie Judson.

Holcombe should have been out of the third without a run. Buddy Rosar walked and went to second on Dobson's sacrifice. Dom DiMaggio hit toward left field. Baker made a great stop and tagged out Rosar.

DiMaggio stole second and went to third when Holcombe misplaced Johnny Pesky's grounder.

Billy Goodman scored DiMaggio with a left field double which extended his hitting streak through 14 games.

Gus Zernial then dropped Clyde Vollmer's fly for an error as Pesky and Goodman scored and Vollmer continued to second. Herbie Adams dropped Walt Dropp's fly and Vollmer scored.

After Bob Doerr walked Al Zarilla grounded out to end the inning.

UP IN THE AIR goes Bobby Doerr, Boston Red Sox second baseman, as he is hit by Chicago White Sox Shortstop Chico Carrasquel in the second inning of their game at Boston Wednesday. Carrasquel tried to break up a double play that started when Catcher Phil Masi grounded to Shortstop Johnny Pesky. Pesky threw to Doerr, who has just sent the relay to first in time for the second out. The Red Sox won the game, 6-1.

Phillies Rally in 9th To Edge Cards, 9-8

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A pinch double by Dick Whitman and a long fly by Jimmy Bloodworth brought in three runs in the ninth inning to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 9-8 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday night.

Whitman's double came with the sacks full. It was the second time the Phils came from behind and erased one of Jim Konstanty's first failures as a relief hurler this year.

The Redbirds hit Konstanty four times for two runs in the eighth to break a 6-6 tie. But Konstanty drew the victory as the winning run scored while he still was the hurler.

The victory boosted the Phils to six and a half games ahead of the second-place Brooklyn Dodgers who lost to the Chicago Cubs Wednesday afternoon.

The Phillies used 20 players in the three-hour game. Richie Ashburn and Del Ennis were the big batters for the Phils with three hits apiece.

Philadelphia did its scoring in three-run spurts. The Cards went into a four-run lead in the first five innings before the Phils came back with three in the sixth. The Redbirds tallied two more in the last of the sixth to lead, 6-3, before the Phils tied it up with three in the seventh.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The St. Louis Browns shoved the Philadelphia Athletics into the American league cellar Wednesday night by taking a 7-6 10-inning victory in the second game of a two-night doubleheader after Ned Garver had outpitched Alex Kellner for a 2-1 win in the first game.

Hank Art's single off Rookie Southpaw Joe Murray after two walks brought home the winning tally in the nightcap. The second game looked an easy St. Louis win up to the eighth inning. With the Browns leading, 6-1, the A's pushed over two runs on two St. Louis errors, a hit by Ferris Fain, a hit batter (Elmer Valo) and Billy Hitchcock's outfield fly.

CHICAGO (AP) — Shortstop Roy Smalley made a diving catch of a liner with the bases loaded and two out in the ninth inning Wednesday to enable Walt Dubiel to score the first victory of his career over the Brooklyn Dodgers, Chicago won, 6-5.

In addition, Smalley hit a two-run triple in the seventh to highlight a four-run Cub spurge. That helped Dubiel carry a 6-3 lead going into the ninth.

Then the Dodgers caught up on Dubiel. Duke Snider singled with the bases loaded and one out to the score 6-5.

Bob Rush relieved Dubiel and got Jackie Robinson to force Snider. Rush walked Carl Furillo to load the bases. Gil Hodges smashed a liner to Smalley's right but the shortstop made a diving catch to come up with the ball and end the game.

Iowa State Opens Football Practice

AMES (AP) — Sixty-two gridiron hopefuls reported to Coach Abe Stuber at Iowa State college Wednesday as the Cyclones prepared for daily drills.

The football candidates went through picture taking routine and worked out later on running plays. Contact work will start today. There will be two drills daily until Sept. 23 when Iowa State opens its Big Seven season against Colorado here. This is the earliest opening date in the history of the college. Coach Stuber said he planned to start scrimmages before the week is out.

Detroit Drops Off Top; Late Rally Wins 2nd

WASHINGTON (AP) — Detroit rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to snare the second game of a twilight-night doubleheader from Washington Wednesday night, 10-8.

The Senators won the first game, 3-2, in 11 innings. By splitting the twin bill the Tigers dropped one game back of New York in the American league pennant scramble.

Pitcher Sid Hudson, pinch-hitting for the first time since 1942, delivered a seventh-inning single with the bases loaded to give Washington an 8-7 lead in the second game, but the Tigers pounced on rookie Jim Pearce in the ninth to escape defeat.

The Senators had jumped off to an early lead in the second game with two runs in the first inning. The Tigers splurged for three in the second and four more in the third for a comfortable 7-2 lead.

Washington peeked away at the edge with one in the last of the third, three more in the sixth and went out in front with two in the seventh. The score stood at 8-7 in favor of the Nats before the Tigers pulled it out in the ninth.

Sam Dente's eleventh inning single scored Sam Mele from second base to give the Senators the verdict in the opener. Consuegra went the route to post his sixth win against five losses. Freddie Hutchinson was the loser, dropping his second decision against 14 victories.

Net Gals Draw Top Crowds

Fancy-Pants Gussie Would Have Only Shared The Billing in U.S. Tennis Championships

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UP) — Fancy-pants Gussie Moran signed her pro tennis contract just in time.

There is glamor aplenty around the tailored lawn courts of the West Side tennis club as the U.S. championships unwind and Gorgeous Gussie, darling of the throngs for several years, would have been forced to share the billing, at least.

The glamor comes in several grades but all of it is box-office and these are the gals who are drawing the crowds better than the top male internationalists — so far:

1. Ginger Rogers of Hollywood. She entered in mixed doubles with Frank Shields of New York and her court coveting had the folks pop-eyed.

2. Maureen Connolly of San Diego, only 15 but a sweetheart of a tennis player.

3. Andrea Drew — Bear of Venezuela, a 20-year-old redhead with more looks than tennis.

4. Althea Gibson of New York, a 22-year-old Negro, first of her race ever to compete at Forest Hills. More customers watched her against Wimbledon Champion Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., than witnessed the simultaneous struggle between Billy Talbert and Don McNeill, conqueror of Australian Ken McGregor.

Ginger is mighty nimble on her dancing feet and plenty nifty in her white, two-piece tennis costume with bare midriff, a colure kerchief at her throat and her blonde hair trailing beneath a peaked tennis cap.

She plays what the experts call a nice sociable game of lawn tennis.

The little Connolly girl, National girls champion, has the stuff of a future champion. "She can't miss," said Sarah Palfrey Cooke, former U.S. title holder and now a tennis pro. "A little more time perhaps, and she'll make it."

The California youngster bowled over Mrs. Adrienne Ayares of Baltimore in the first round and was matched against second-seeded Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla., in the second round.

It was a tough trail in the Nationals but she came into the tournament with impressive victories already this season over Beverly Baker of Santa Monica, Calif., and Mrs. Helen Perez of Encino, Calif., both rank-

Kansas City In Cage Loop

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Kansas City became the eighth member of the National Professional basketball league at a meeting of officials of the organization Wednesday.

The Kansas City franchise filled the circuit, which also includes Anderson, Ind., Waterloo, Iowa, Louisville, Ky., St. Paul, Denver, Grand Rapids, Mich., and Sheboygan, Wis.

Last year the Anderson, Waterloo, Denver and Sheboygan teams performed in the National basketball association.

President of the Kansas City team is Ben Cockerel of Indianapolis and coach of the new club is Paul Cloyd, formerly of the University of Wisconsin and the Sheboygan Redskins.

Officials of the new league are Magnus Brinkman of Sheboygan, president; Jerry Lester, Denver, vice president; Chris Marsau, Waterloo, secretary; and Bill Johns, St. Paul, treasurer.

Others who attended the meeting were: Frank Gates of Hutersville, Tex., player-coach; Waterloo — Bob Buckmaster; Louisville — Johnny Knoph, manager and president; St. Paul — Dick Headley, business manager; Denver — Mart Reese; Grand Rapids — George Glammack; Sheboygan — Frank Kolbeck, business manager.

Doxie Moore, formerly of the Sheboygan Redskins, is the league commissioner. The league plans a 60-game schedule with the opening game around Nov. 15.

Brough Wins Net Playoff

FOREST HILLS — Althea Gibson's bid for tennis fame flickered out in a hurry Wednesday when the tall Negro girl lost three straight games in her match with Louise Brough and bowed by scores of 6-1, 3-6, 9-7 from the National championships.

Their match had been stopped by rain Tuesday with the sets even and the 23-year-old Miss Gibson leading in the rubber set, 7-6. They continued from that point Wednesday.

Althea, who had played so brilliantly Tuesday, could not stop the blonde from Beverly Hills, Calif., after the final three games and a quick victory.

Miss Gibson is the first of her race ever to play in the National tennis meet. And she almost struck lightning in the tennis world when she came close to beating Miss Brough before the rains came Tuesday.

Six thousand fans watched Miss Brough win the first set Tuesday, 6-1. Miss Gibson rallied, after trailing 2-3, to win the second set, 6-3. Miss Brough again went ahead in the third and deciding set, 4-1, before Miss Gibson rallied to deuce the set and send it into an overtime.

The match was halted by rain with Miss Gibson one game away from victory in the third set, 7-6. They continued with the 14th game Wednesday.

The playoff provided the high spot of the third day of the championships. High seeded players, both men and women, won through an schedule.

Denver Pitchers Pass Physicals, Suspended For Leaving Ball Club

DENVER (AP) — Pitchers Jack Taylor and Larry Hartley of the Denver Bears were fined two weeks' pay and suspended Wednesday as they prepared to leave for their homes in the south.

The players said they had taken pre-induction examinations and expected to be drafted before Sept. 15 and wanted to get their affairs straightened out at home. Taylor lives in Landis, N.C., and Hartley in St. Augustine, Fla.

Bob Howsam, president and general manager of the Bears, said the fines and suspensions were decided upon "on the grounds that Taylor and Hartley are actually jumping the ball club."

"We checked with the state draft board here and found that neither has been notified of date status of induction, or that either has passed the physical examination," Howsam said. "The board said there was no chance that either would be called until near the end of September, and they would still be entitled to ten days to get their affairs in order."

"I tried to convince both men they were actually deserting the ball club at a crucial time in the season, when there is a fine chance to land in the playoffs. It looks to me as though both men just wanted to go home and are doing so."

Howsam said there was no chance of replacing the two pitchers before the end of the season.

College of Nursing Offers New Course In Administration

A new course in ward administration will be offered this fall by the SUI college of nursing. Graduate nurses now occupying or preparing for positions as head nurses in hospitals are eligible to register, according to Dean Myrtle Kitchell, who will teach the course. The class will meet during the fall semester, from September until February. Two semester hours of college credit will be awarded upon completion of the course. Meetings will be held from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. Saturdays, to allow nurses working in hospitals near Iowa City to commute. Objective of the course is to develop the understanding, ability and skill basic to the operation of a single nursing unit of a hospital nursing service. Lectures, conferences, demonstrations and individual projects will be used. Emphasis in the course will be placed upon the development of desirable inter-personnel relationships and the factors involved in giving patient care.

Iowa Bonus Board Halts 78 Claims

DES MOINES — The Iowa World War II bonus board announced Wednesday it had disallowed 78 more claims, bringing total disqualifications to 5,210 since the start of payments. Ed Kallemyr, bonus board secretary, said veterans recently refused bonuses were not legal residents of the state, had not served in the armed forces during the compensatory period or had served less than the required time. An additional 6,546 claims had been processed, but payments cannot be made because the board now is without sufficient funds, Kallemyr said. He said it would take another $7-million to pay those claims and 13,065 additional ones now being processed. The board has paid 229,265 claims out of 254,086 applications. Operating expenses and bonuses were paid out of an original appropriation of $85-million. The 1951 legislature was expected to appropriate additional funds to complete payments.

Two Divorce Suits Filed in Court Here

Two divorce suits have been filed in Johnson county district court. Mrs. Vera G. Penney, 405 S. Dodge street, Wednesday asked for a divorce, sole custody of her two minor children, and title to all family properties. The couple had 10 children, according to the petition. They were married at Osage Aug. 2, 1917, and separated June, 1942. The other divorce suit was filed by Mrs. Regina Lisle, Johnson county, against Sanford A. Lisle, Iowa City. Mrs. Lisle asked the court to clear her ownership of properties, order the defendant to pay debts, and issue an injunction restraining the defendant from molesting her or coming on her premises north of Iowa City.

Rhode Island Lodger Slays Family of Five, Burns Home

EAST GREENWICH, R.I. (AP) — Police said that a young lodger told Wednesday how he killed once, waited and smoked and then killed again and again until he had destroyed a family of five. Then he burned their house. Among the dead was the young wife of the family who, the lodger said, had taken him as her lover and was going to have his child in a few weeks. "She didn't fight much," the lodger was quoted as saying. The lodger is rangy, blond Edwin H. Reynolds, 27, who faced an arraignment on charges of murder and arson late Wednesday. Reynolds himself is the father of three children, but estranged from his own family. The victims: Fred J. Dusza, 39; his wife, Beatrice, 31; their three children, Beatrice, 11; Kathryn, 8; Gail, 3.

Police Hunt Attacker Of Ecuadorian Girl

WASHINGTON (AP) — A general alarm was broadcast along the eastern seaboard Wednesday for a 200-pound man who attacked a 23-year-old Ecuadorian girl in a woodland at suburban Arlington, Va. Police withheld the girl's name out of deference to her aristocratic family which is well known in diplomatic circles here. The victim, a student at the Americanization school here, told police from her hospital bed Wednesday how the man waylaid her as she took a shortcut through the woods from a shopping center. He grabbed her from behind, dragged her into the trees, ripped off her play suit, beat her brutally, threw her to the ground and attacked her. The girl made her way from the woods and came upon three small boys who helped her to the home of Isabelle Green. While the latter called police, the boys "stood guard" outside with their toy bow and arrows in case the man should return. Authorities quickly rounded up scores of suspects, some with sex crimes on their records, but late Wednesday all had been released and detectives admitted they had hit a blank wall.

Johnson County Woman Granted Divorce Here

Mrs. Verlee Levi, Johnson county, was granted a divorce Wednesday by District Court Judge James P. Gaffney. Mrs. Levi had charged her husband, Frank, with cruel and inhuman treatment. She was given the right to resume her maiden name.

Two Men Fined On License Charge

Two persons were fined in Iowa City police court Wednesday on charges of driving without licenses. Francis J. Lynch, route 1, was sentenced to four days in the Johnson county jail in lieu of a $12.50 fine. Vivian Akers, route 6, paid a $12.50 fine for a similar charge. Judge Emil G. Trott dismissed charges of leaving the scene of an accident against C. A. Tucker, 20 Evans street. The charges were dropped after the owner of the car which was struck failed to appear in court. In another case, John Connolly, Davenport, was fined $12.50 for intoxication. The fine was suspended on condition that Connolly leave town.

HOW TO GET AN APARTMENT. No, we don't have any magic secret to tell you how to find an apartment. In fact, it's common knowledge that Daily Iowan Want Ads have been getting good results for apartment-hunters. Those who advertise in the "Wanted To Rent" classification often call us and ask to cancel their ads because they've found a place. Sometimes it only takes one insertion.

WANT ADS For Action. Daily Iowan Want Ads.
