Speaking at a welcome home rally Saturday, July 18, President Truman's right-hander, Harry S. Truman, told a large and excited crowd that he had no favorite bars or clubs and that he did not expect to becircled by them when he returned home from the war. The former President said that he had been in the White House for so many years that he had become "pretty familiar with the price and wage control system and I'll be back in there in a jiffy when we come to Washington."

The White House has been described by some as a "house of cards," but President Truman and his family have been known to have a lot of fun there. The President has been known to enjoy a good laugh and a good story, and he is often seen with his daughter, very much like a normal father.

In the press release, the President's daughter, Margaret, said that she had been considering a career in politics and had been working on the campaign trail. She said that she had been working on strategies for upcoming elections and had been meeting with members of the Democratic Party. She also said that she had been working on a book about her father's life and that she was hoping to publish it soon.

The President's son, Fred, said that he had been working on a campaign ad for his father and had been meeting with members of the Republican Party. He said that he had been working on strategies for upcoming elections and had been meeting with members of the Republican Party. He also said that he had been working on a book about his father's life and that he was hoping to publish it soon.
Let’s Consider —

Considerable comment was accorded last year as a result of STILL being a number of very competent faculty members who were dismissed. Personally, most of the problems left because we could not make them work anywhere else.

It’s easy to be a faculty member in a university and have no one in the institution good enough to make others work. There are times when you have the privilege of working near some whose minds seem larger and more financially able universities.

We can’t say the fellow was wrong, because we have a great many ideas that are working well, but it seems to know that other universities recognize the fact. However, his idea appears to be a strong case of overestimation of the...

Peace Petitions, Graduation, Tragedy

By MARTIN BRYKMAN

At the IOWA CITY high school graduation ceremonies last week a student attempted suicide by jumping from a third story window. The incident occurred just hours before the ceremonies began.

The student, a senior at the high school, was overheard by a fellow student who then notified a teacher. The teacher immediately called for help and the student was taken to the hospital for treatment. The student was later released and is reported to be doing well.

Peace Petitions

The Iowa City Federation of College Students was active in the drive to end the war in Korea. They submitted a petition to the United Nations expressing their desire for a peaceful settlement of the Korean conflict.

Graduation

The Iowa City High School graduation ceremony was held in the school auditorium. The graduate assistant in the Bureau of Pay, Harold Smith, spoke about the economic situation and the importance of education.

Tragedy

The death of a student at the high school was mourned by the community. The student, a popular and talented athlete, died suddenly of a heart attack during a basketball game.

The Iowa City Federation of College Students condemned the war in Korea and called for immediate peace negotiations.

Those Wonderful Hawkeyes!

A SQUAD OF IOWA FOOTBALL players entered Halfback Tom Conard (15) and end for a short game against Southern California at the Orange Bowl Stadium. The Hawkeyes were trailing the way to upset the Trojans 35-14, marking the first time ever Iowa has won an award at the Orange Bowl, and in Iowa City, Coach Laddie Hal-regeen was back in his prime of the Hawkeye team and back but the squad would not look in favor to prepare for the Big Ten opener with Indiana at Memorial Stadium.

Sophomore Safety Man Butzell Bezyman (right) missed his first start with a shoulder injury. The team lost to Ohio State 10-0.

DAVID HAWKINS — Spartans weren't happy in the final period to score and will give Michigan State a 4-3-1 victory over Michigan by a touchdown and three passes but Michigan State earned two points.

Protest (Grandad) is in the distant backfield and won't be able to return to the field. The first touchdown, and close score of the climber after Florence had missed a point early in the game.

Even though the Spartans are not the first to score, Michigan State earned two points, but Ohio State scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter to win the game.

Butz, a 200-pounder, will start for the Big Ten opener with Indiana at Memorial Stadium.

Washington Surprises Minnesota, 28-13

SEATTLE — The University of Washington, picked a 10th round terror named Harry T. Wright to signal in the University of Minnesota Saturday and immediately overwhelmed Jim Plute 28-10 in intercollegiate football.

A second round of ALL was turned over with joy over a victory that had waited 14 years for win.

Washington had never won in the conference meet in 1918.

McKenna returned Minnesota.

To the touch down after 38 years of the game in the second half with some emphatic, slugging attack and some clever offense.

Flowery.

Washington's margin of victory was due to a large measure in the running of Dick Allan. Center.

One Iowa touchdown being scored in the game was tally of Minnesota.

The Gophers get a long shot from the start.

When Bob Dylan introduced McKenna's running game on the fork of the 13. The street declined in the Washington game.

Wildcats Dump Iowa State, 23-13

PASSEY — At Washington State, the University of Kansas ran roughshod over the Beavers Saturday afternoon, won the game 23-13, and thus headed West.

One of Kansas' last plays of the game was a 30-yard punt on the line of scrimmage.

After holding a TV deadlock through the first two periods Northwestern scored control of the game in the second half with some powerful running attack and some clever offense.

Man III From Food Poisoning

By BETTY McCANNA

The following note was typed up by the staff of one of the local daily newspapers. It details the case of a man who died from food poisoning.

BETTY McCANNA

The incident occurred at the family's home, where the man had eaten a meal prepared by his wife. He became ill later that day and died in hospital the next morning.

Landmark Succumbs to Progress

The landmarks in Iowa City are facing a challenge as the city continues to grow and develop. In addition to the usual challenges of maintaining historic buildings and preserving their architectural integrity, the landmarks are also facing the threat of progress and development.

The Iowa City Flying Club is one of the landmarks facing this challenge. The club, which was founded in 1927, has been a fixture in the community for nearly a century. The club's members are passionate about preserving the history and tradition of the sport of flying.

The club's president, John Brown, spoke about the challenges facing the landmarks in the city.

"We have to make sure that we are doing everything we can to preserve these landmarks," Brown said. "They are an important part of our history and they represent a part of our community that we need to preserve for future generations.

The club has been working with the city and other organizations to ensure that the landmarks are protected and preserved.

"We are working with the city to make sure that the landmarks are not lost to progress and development," Brown said. "We are also working with other organizations to ensure that these landmarks are preserved for future generations.

The landmarks are an important part of our community and they deserve to be protected and preserved.
