Ringing Bells, Silent Prayer To Celebrate UN Anniversary

This is United Nations day. President Truman will sound the keynote in a speech before the United Nations general assembly.

The bell bears the inscription: 'That this world, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom.'

Church bells in many communities across the United States will echo the peal of the 'Freedom Bell' as it sounds along the radio waves of the U.S. and Europe at 11:03 a.m. (CST).

In many places, authorities have called upon the public to offer up 'peace prayers' at that moment.

Thousands of schools will join in ceremonies. It is the fifth anniversary of the day when the UN charter came into effect.

President Truman's speech at 10:30 a.m. (CST) will be broadcast nationally.

The Berlin bell is a 10-ton affair paid for by popular subscription in the U.S. It toured 26 major U.S. cities before it arrived in Berlin last Saturday.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U.S. chairman of the 'crusade for freedom' which sponsors the bell, will make the formal dedication in Berlin. Clay was U.S. commander in Germany at the time of the Berlin blockade, and more than any other man was responsible for breaking that blockade.

Release Reservists Whenever Possible, Marshall Tells Army

WASHINGTON (AP) - Defense Secretary George C. Marshall, Monday night ordered armed services to release all reservists recalled to duty involuntarily after they are thoroughly trained and can be replaced by draftees or volunteers.

Acting in the midst of a rising wave of criticism over the way in which the reservists are being handled, Marshall also directed the armed forces to set their manpower quota six months in advance.

At the same time, the secretary ordered the services to wipe from their roster of reservists all those who aren't available for extended active duty because of physical or other reasons.

While Marshall was issuing his order, Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) was revealing that his house armed services committee is considering extending the draft from 21 months to two years and said it probably will be necessary to call men who are now draft-proof.

He also said congress might be fooling itself if it enacts universal military service because there may not be enough men to fuel both the draft and UMT. The best thing, he said, 'would be to call up youths for two years' service when they became 19.'

Major Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, national selective service director, has asked for a 30-month draft and Vinson did not say why the committee is considering the lesser period.

Chicago Buries Former Mayor Kelly Today

CHICAGO (AP) - Chicago prepared for one of the most elaborate funerals in its history for former Mayor Edward J. Kelly, who will be buried today.

Samuel Cardinal Stritch will celebrate the Requiem High Mass in Holy Name cathedral for Kelly, who died of a heart attack last Friday at the age of 74.

Burial will be in the family mausoleum in Calvary cemetery. The city council Monday passed a resolution eulogizing the man who headed the city for 14 years and then arranged to serve as an honorary escort at the funeral.

Most city and county officials will be closed. Mayor Martin H. Kennelly will head a list of 16 pallbearers, and Democrats, from ward bosses to national leaders, will attend the services.

The police department detailed more than 100 policemen to serve as escorts in the funeral procession and as ushers. The fire department added 32 firemen. Kelly had been a powerful poli-

Old Capitol Bell To Honor UN Day

When the bells of Old Capitol begin to ring at 11:03 a.m. today - it won't mean time for classes to change.

It will mean SUI has joined Iowa City and the nation in the 'crusade for freedom' movement and celebration of United Nations day.

Mayor Preston Koser Monday said American communities have been asked to join in the ceremonies by ringing their own church, school or town bells for five minutes this morning.

All Catholic churches in Iowa City will observe United Nations day with rosary services and prayer for peace each hour beginning at 7 a.m.

Meanwhile, a hand-sewn United Nations flag was presented to SUI Monday by the graduate home economics club of Iowa City. The flag was made by the organization.

Game Reservations For Minnesota Trip Available at Union

Thirty-seven SUI students have registered for the Minnesota football trip Nov. 4 and Phil Spelman, manager of the Union bus depot, expects more to sign up as registration continues today.

Reservations may be purchased at the Union today and Wednesday for $12.75. This includes the bus and game tickets. Tickets for a party at the Minnesota Union also are available for $1.50.

John D. Harris, G. Humboldt, Tailfeather's president, said 150 tickets for the party are available. Charters will leave Iowa City at 1 a.m. Nov. 4 and return at noon the following day.

Harris said approved housing for women making the trip must be listed at the office of student affairs by Saturday.

Local Parlay Cards On Kefauver Agenda

DES MOINES (AP) - Atty. Gen. Robert L. Larson said Monday he expects to confer informally today with Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), head of a senate crime investigating committee.

Larson said he was given some football parlay cards Saturday at Iowa City and indicated he might pass some of the cards on to Kefauver.

Kefauver will be in Des Moines to appear at the 64th annual convention of the Iowa Banker's association.

Tailfeathers Sell 24,000 Badges

Incomplete returns indicate more than 24,000 Homecoming badges were sold, Prof. Lewis C. Zoph, Homecoming committee chairman, said Monday.

The badges, sold by members of Tailfeathers, went on sale Thursday and were available until game time Saturday. They are used as a means of financing Homecoming activities.

A goal of 38,000 was set by Tailfeathers.

CADET DAVE CAMPBELL

WINNING TOP honors in his class at the Naval Air Station's preflight graduate class, Aviation Cadet Dave Campbell Jr. also set a precedent. He was the first negro ever to win that honor in U. S. naval history. Campbell is a World War II marine corporal veteran. His home is Augusta, Ga.

Pownall Named Press Director

Prof. Fred M. Pownall, director of SUI publications and publisher of The Daily Iowan, was elected director of the Inland Daily Press association, Monday, at its 66th annual meeting in Chicago.

Pownall came to SUI in 1927 after having edited the Des Moines Capital until it merged with the Register. He worked for the Register and the Waterloo Courier, before coming to Iowa City.

Four Iowa newspapers were awarded honorable mention in the local government news contest of the association.

The Iowa newspapers were: Class A (below 5,000 circulation) - Fairfield Daily Ledger.

Class B (5,000-10,000) - Newton Daily News.

Class C (10,000-25,000) - Council Bluffs Nonpareil.

Class E (above 75,000) - Des Moines Register.

The Inland Daily Press is the oldest and largest regional association of daily newspapers in America. It has 428 members and is represented in 19 states from New York to Utah. It also has member papers in Ontario, Canada.

Council Purchases Off-Street Tract For Parking Lot

The Iowa City council Monday night purchased a 70 by 150 foot tract on S. Dubuque and Burlington streets for $25,000 to be used as an off-street parking lot.

The property was sold to the city by V. W. Nall, 350 Hutchinson street.

This is the second lot obtained by the city in the past few months in an attempt to relieve parking congestion. The other is at Gilbert and Washington.

A public hearing will be held Nov. 13 for the sale of $150,000 worth of street construction bonds to cover the cost of the city's street resurfacing project.

The council purchased a 1951 two-door Chevrolet to be used by City Engineer Fred E. Gartzke as a business car. Price of the auto was $1,466.31.

A car also was purchased for Fire Chief Al Dolezal. It was a $1,928 four-door Kaiser sedan.

The city will draw $2,448.50 from its street construction fund to pay the William Horrabin Contracting company for center paving completed on S. Capitol street.

The council instructed the Hargrave Construction company to resurface the Iowa avenue bridge and two blocks on Linn street between Washington and Burlington streets.

The Hargrave company, now doing the other street construction in the city, was permitted an extension on its original contract which called for completion of work by Nov. 15.

Hancher Works With Education Council

SUI President Virgil M. Hancher left Monday for Washington, D.C., where he will serve on the committee on relationship of the American Council on Education.

From the capital, President Hancher will go to Rochester, N.Y. Friday where he will attend the annual meeting of the Association of American Universities, of which he is secretary-treasurer.

UN Troops Race To Save Allied War Prisoners

TOKYO (TUESDAY) (AP) - The South Korean Sixth division has picked up the trail of a large number of American prisoners of war near the Manchurian border and is trying to find them, American military advisers said today.

The American officers, advisers to the Sixth division, said they had found evidence the Communists recently had used the Chongchon river town of Huichon, 50 miles south of the Manchurian border, as a collecting point for American prisoners.

The reports gave no details. But it implied that the Sixth division may have come close to catching up with the Americans at Huichon.

It was thought the Reds may be herding their prisoners north toward the mountain stronghold of Kanggye, 20 miles south of the frontier.

Hope faded meanwhile for the quick rescue of 150 other American prisoners on a prison train north of Pyongyang and it was feared they may have met the same fate as 70 others from the same train who were shot and beaten to death by their Red guards.

United Nations spearheads were driving toward the Manchurian border almost at will in the final mopup stage of the war.

In both the east and west, UN forces were within two days' march of the Yalu river boundary with Manchuria.

Intelligence reports said it was believed the Communists were 'incapable of further organized resistance.'

War at a Glance

Korean Front - South Koreans racing toward Manchurian border. U.S. Eighth army spokesman says no more fighting against organized Red resistance is expected. Kim Il Sung, Communist leader, reported to be establishing new command headquarters near Kanggye. Prisoners taken by Allies now total 120,000. American soldiers discovered huge cache of equipment including entire field artillery battery buried in secret mound in South Korea.

Lake Success - United States reported to have told United Nations Korean relief and rehabilitation to cost about $240-million a year for at least three years.

Supreme Court Accepts U.S. Red Leader Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) - The supreme court agreed Monday to rule on the cases of 11 top Communist leaders convicted in New York of conspiracy to overthrow the government by force.

The high tribunal specified that the review be limited to validity of the 1940 Smith act under which the Red leaders were convicted.

It's Wonderful to Be Free Again

No Pickets Appear Before Two Stores

Pickets of the Amalgamated Meatcutters and Butchers local union Monday failed to appear in front of Rebel's and Self-Service grocery stores for the first time in 40 days.

But pickets remained at the Koza - McCollister Supermarket, 115 S. Dubuque street.

Roy Koza, co-owner of the store, could give no explanation as to why the pickets remained at his store or why the union has chosen to take the action.

Paul Mairet, president of the local union, was out of town and could not be reached for comment.

Johnson County Voters Offered Absentee Ballot

Johnson county residents, who are unable to go to the polls Nov. 7 may get absentee ballots at the county auditor's office. Absentee ballots must be completed and returned to the county auditor by Nov. 6. About 75 absentee ballots have been sent out and many requests for the ballots are being received, county auditor Ed Sulek said.

Students who desire absentee ballots must write to their respective county auditors requesting the ballots.

Registration Required - Registration is required in the following cities before a person can vote in person or by absentee ballot: Ames, Boone, Burlington, Charles City, Council Bluffs, Cedar Falls, Cedar Rapids, Clinton, Dubuque, Davenport, Des Moines, Fort Dodge, Fort Madison, Iowa City, Keokuk, Marshalltown, Mason City, Muscatine, Newton, Oelwein, Oskaloosa, Ottumwa, Sioux City, and Waterloo.

Students of voting age who are residents of any city in Iowa other than those mentioned above need not register in order to be eligible to vote.

To Vote in Coralville - Finkbine and Stadium Parks are outside the city limits of Iowa City; consequently their residents do not have to register. They will vote in Coralville.

Re-registration is required only when a person has failed to vote within the past four years or he has moved to another community that requires registration of voters.

Anyone who has changed his address since the last election must notify the city clerk in order to be eligible to vote.

County Requires 60 Days - Residence requirements to vote in the Nov. 7 elections are, six months in the state, 60 days in the county and 10 days in the precinct.

Students who wish to vote in Iowa City must show 'adequate' proof that they are residents. Saturday is the last day of registration. Iowa Citizens must be registered by then to be eligible to vote in the Nov. 7 general elections.

City Clerk Lists Registrations - City Clerk George Dohrer said there have been 466 new registrations and 273 changes of address recorded by his office in the past few weeks.

Residents of Iowa City may register at the city clerk's office at Linn and Washington street.

SUI Coed Reports Clinic Wallet Theft - A wallet stolen from the SUI dental clinic waiting room was reported to Iowa City police Monday night by Joan Bockenstedt, A4, New Vienna.

Miss Bockenstedt said the wallet was taken sometime between 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. from a zipper notebook while she was in the dentist's chair.

The wallet contained nearly $10 and her identification cards and papers, Miss Bockenstedt said.

JOLSON DIES - SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Jazz singer Al Jolson died of a heart attack Monday night in his suite at the Saint Francis hotel. He was 64.

Osgood to Receive Prize for Slogan - James Osgood, A4, Ottumwa, won the 1951 Campus Chest slogan contest, chest publicity chairman, Max Sowers, A4, Ames, announced Monday.

Osgood's winning slogan was 'You Don't Give to the Chest - You Invest.' He will receive a free ticket to the Dad's Day dance Nov. 1.

The Campus Chest drive will be from Nov. 8 to 11. Chest funds go to the following organizations: World Student Service fund, American Cancer society, CARE, SUI Displaced Persons committee, and National Scholarship Service and Fund for Negro Students.

Truman Names Control Board

WASHINGTON (AP) - The justice department Monday announced a swift crackdown on 86 persons tabbed as active alien Communists. A coast-to-coast roundup netted nearly a score of them in the first stages.

These aliens, described by officials as having carried on Communist propaganda work, were marked for detention and possible deportation.

FBI agents and U.S. immigration officials were reported on the track of those not yet picked up.

Some of the arrests were made before dawn Sunday. Others were seized in half a dozen cities Monday.

Important Reds Seized First - The justice department said the 10 'most important' aliens in the group were taken in first. Later, the department announced the names of five others caught in the net, and federal authorities elsewhere reported further arrests.

All were seized under the 1950 internal security act - the so-called 'Communist control' law - which congress passed over President Truman's veto.

As the roundup continued, President Truman acted to put teeth into the new anti-subversives law by setting up machinery needed to determine what organizations and individuals are subject to provisions of the statute.

Three members of the new board, including Richardson, are Republicans. The other two are Democrats.

Under the law, Monday was R-day - the last day for American Communists to register voluntarily.

Communists Ignore Law - All signs indicated that the party and its members intended to ignore the law and see what the government would do about it. Some federal officials have estimated it would take three or four years to trash out the constitutionality of the law in the courts.

The justice department's sweep against alleged alien Communists reached into eight major cities - New York, Pittsburgh, Chicago, San Francisco, St. Louis, St. Paul, Seattle and Los Angeles - in the first phase of the roundup.

Officials emphasized that although the drive was launched under provisions of the anti-subversives law, it is entirely separate from any action to be taken later against American Reds.

Aliens Involved - Only aliens are involved in the present campaign.

Justice department officials said the first 10 seized in the roundup have been most active in fostering Communist propaganda. The department said many of the 86 marked for detention had previously been ordered deported but had not left the country.

Australian Communist Headquarters Raided - CANBERRA, AUSTRALIA (AP) - Federal investigation service men raided Communist headquarters, newspapers and homes of leaders Monday in the first move to implement Australia's new law outlawing the Communist party and affiliated Red organizations.

Reports on U.S. Children

NEW YORK (AP) - One hundred thousand children are born out of wedlock in the United States each year, a child welfare leader said Monday.

Over 100,000 children are born each year without benefit of medical care.

Over 1.9-million children under 15 suffer from some chronic disease or impairment.

Over half the patients in all U.S. hospitals on a given day - some 600,000 - suffer some kind of mental illness.

Each year 150,000 persons are committed to mental hospitals, 25 percent of them under 18 years of age.

One-million children suffer behavior disorders, and each year between 250,000 to 400,000 appear in juvenile courts.

Suggests New Distribution Plan —

The interest aroused by the appearance of Charles Laughton here Oct. 17 was so great that the tickets were gone one hour and 15 minutes after distribution started.

Because of the complaints which came to us from students who said they were unable to be at the Union at 7:30 a.m. the morning the tickets were given out, we suggested a new plan which might be used hereafter for events which promised to attract the same interest.

Prof. Earl E. Harper, chairman of the committee on university lectures, said he would place the plan before the committee for consideration.

Next Monday night the Don Cossack chorus of Russian singers and dancers will present a concert at the Union.

At this time we can't say for sure how many students will be interested in seeing the performance, but our guess is that we will find another clamor for tickets.

We would like to suggest that Prof. C. B. Righter, manager of the SUI concert series, use the system we suggested when he distributes tickets for the Cossack chorus performance.

We suggested that the tickets be divided into four groups, with one-fourth of them offered at 7:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. on two consecutive days.

We felt this at least would give more of the students a chance to get in the ticket lines.

Next Monday night would be a good time to try the plan.

Voting Information —

Many people understandably are confused about the requirements for voting.

The principal requirement is one of residence. You must have lived in Iowa six months, within the county 20 days and within the precinct where you vote 10 days.

Many students can meet these requirements. Others whose real home is at the residence of their parents, cannot. Married students are considered to have their homes in Iowa City, and should register at the City Clerk's office so they will be eligible to vote.

Full information can be obtained at Republican headquarters at room 206 in the Hotel Jefferson or at Democratic headquarters at 114 S. Linn street.

REGISTER AND VOTE.

Stocks Unchanged; Hog Market Active

NEW YORK (AP) — Early gains made Monday in the stock market were too feeble to withstand a last minute light selling attack.

As a consequence they faded away for the most part leaving the stock market about unchanged on balance over a range of $1.50 either way.

There wasn't anything spectacular throughout the session in the way of price movements either in groups or individual issues. Nor was there any impelling reason forwarded in the news that should cause them to move.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was unchanged at $84.70. Industrials in the average lost 20 cents and rails were down 10 cents. Utilities advanced 20 cents.

The volume of business came to 1,850,000 shares as against 1,840,000 on Friday, not too big a day.

Cattle Steady ...

CHICAGO (AP) — The hog market was fairly active Monday and prices were steady to 25 cents lower than Friday's average. Top price was $20 on several loads of choice offering weighing 200-230 pounds. Receipts at 11,000 were in line with expectations but were under arrivals on the same date a year ago.

Cattle trading was slow and steady to 50 cents lower generally. Several choice loads selling 1,400 to 1,500 pounds brought $31 to $31.75, 25 cents higher than last week's dull close. Two loads of choice and prime steers around 1,125 to 1,250 pounds sold at $34.

Most good and choice heifers and mixed yearlings went for $30 to $32.

Bonds Advance ...

NEW YORK (AP) — Bank eligible U.S. treasury bonds were the star performers in the bond market Monday as corporate issues tank slightly lower.

The usually staid treasuries advanced as much as 3/32 to continue a recovery move that got underway late last week.

Treasury issues that are not eligible for commercial banks were generally unchanged from previous prices.

The volume was $3,220,000, only a shade under the $3,310,000 of last Friday, the last full session.

The Rise of Civilization

Defeat Alters Russia's Tactics

By J. M. ROBERTS JR., AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Russia, having taken it on the chin in Korea, seems quite definitely to be trying to work herself into a new-appearing position in world affairs.

Andrei Vishinsky probably came as near to telling the truth about Russian policy as he ever has when he said in the United Nations Monday that it was based on "peaceful coexistence" of two world spheres "for a long, long time."

One of the fundamental troubles between east and west all along has been Russia's inability to understand why the United States and the other western powers will not and cannot get together with her, divide up the world and go ahead from there. That was the way great powers used to do after a war, and that is what Russia expected after the last war.

The west, however, in addition to believing that the world must progress beyond the moral stage where such things were possible, is convinced that coexistence is merely an interim device designed to give Russia time to organize her sphere for the world conquest which is preached by her Communist "bibles."

For a time, prior to the prompt U.S.-UN action of the case of Korea, it was feared that Russia was about to drop the coexistence idea entirely and resort to more direct and more dangerous methods—perhaps even a third world war, in order to attain her ends before western organization could make that finally impossible. Since she declined to intervene in

Government Relaxes Export Cotton Controls

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government Monday night relaxed its export controls on cotton in the face of a storm of protests from the south.

Secretary of agriculture Charles F. Brannan announced the tight controls have been loosened to permit shipment abroad of an additional 146,000 bales during the first eight months period ending next March 31.

This means the so-called "preliminary and interim cotton export quota" for that period now stands at 2,164,000 bales, plus unlimited shipments to Canada.

Brannan indicated the controls may be relaxed even more in coming months.

"As previously announced," he said, "the cotton export situation is under constant review and adjustments will be made as the situation warrants."

The curbs on cotton exports were imposed on Oct. 1 to insure adequate supplies for this country at a time when stocks were dwindling fast. The original quota called for a cutback of almost 50 percent in shipments, compared to the same period last year.

QUAKE REPORTED
GUATEMALA, GUATEMALA (AP) — A few old houses were razed by an earthquake Monday in San Marcos and Zucaltenango, in western Guatemala.

Rearmament Overdone, Nourse Tells Bankers

DES MOINES (AP) — Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, who resigned a year ago as chairman of President Truman's council of economic advisors, said Monday there is danger the rearmament program is being overdone.

In an address to the Iowa Bankers association convention, Dr. Nourse said the nation's military and foreign relations services should not overcommit the nation's industrial system.

On the other side, what has the United Nations not done in the five years?

The United Nations has not achieved control of atomic energy for peaceful purposes. That seems even farther in the future now than it did Jan. 24, 1946, when the first general assembly, in London, set up the UN atomic energy commission and ordered it to work toward international control of the atom.

Iron Ore Supply Joint Concern of U.S., Canada

(Editor's Note — This is the second of a series of articles on Canada's participation in the United Nation's struggle in Korea to curb world Communist aggression.)

By H. D. CRAWFORD, Central Press Correspondent
MONTREAL—Modern wars are fought with steel, and one major concern in the defense of North America is assurance of an adequate emergency supply of iron ore to feed the blast furnaces of United States and Canadian steel mills.

High defense authorities in Canada stressed to me the importance of keeping the steel mills situated in the mid-continent, because the submarine menace in another world war will be far greater along coastal areas than during World War II.

Defense leaders in Canada and the United States have been stressing the great importance of making the high-grade, open-pit iron ore of Labrador and Quebec accessible to the mid-continent steel mills. This will help conserve dwindling Mesabi reserves and provide a supplementary source to meet demands of war or peace.

World War II made dreadful drains on Mesabi range iron ore. During the first two years, for instance, Lake Superior district production jumped from 64-million tons a year to 93-million tons. About 90 percent of the increase came from the rich open-pit mines.

Exploratory surveys and drilling in Labrador and Quebec indicate that at least 350-million tons of high-grade, open-pit iron ore are available. High Canadian officials firmly believe the supply is much greater.

Montreal is headquarters of the various companies concerned with the Labrador-Quebec iron ore developments. I talked with one of the officials of the combined companies. In Ottawa I discussed defense aspects of Labrador-Quebec iron ore with Canada's Prime Minister Louis S. St. Laurent and with Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, Canadian chairman of the Canada-United States Permanent Joint Board on Defense.

You find a close similarity to the thinking of responsible leaders in both Canada and the United States.

Saved Money
They agree that the sensible, cheap and sound policy is to construct the St. Lawrence seaway. The existing fleet of Great Lakes ore ships can haul Labrador-Quebec iron ore up the St. Lawrence to the same ports that now handle Lake Superior ores. It can be unloaded by the same equipment, hauled if necessary on the same railroads, and forged into steel in existing mid-continent steel mills. Promoters of the Labrador-Quebec ore development do not intend, however, to wait for the seaway to be constructed. They have virtually completed surveys for the 360-mile railroad that will carry ore from the Labrador-Quebec mines to Seven Islands on the St. Lawrence river about 500 miles east of Montreal.

They figure that the over-all cost of developing the mining project — railroad, docks at Seven Islands, townsite for 5,000 people, hydro-electric power and everything — will run about $200-million.

UN Celebrates Fifth Birthday; Fights for Existence, Peace

LAKE SUCCESS (AP) — Five years after a happy start with the blessings of millions of war-weary people, the United Nations in fighting the toughest battle of its life. The stakes are high: a third world war or world peace.

The UN birthday will be celebrated Oct. 24 at a solemn meeting of the fifth general assembly in Flushing Meadows. President Truman is billed to make an important address. It will be a time for taking stock and for looking to the future.

UN forces are closing victorious-ly the military phase of a battle against Communist aggression in Korea. The political phase, expected to begin shortly, may prove more difficult of solution than the life and death struggle.

What has the United Nations done with its assignment in the five years since the San Francisco charter took effect?

Countries Created
The United Nations has taken a leading part in creating three new countries, Israel, the Republic of Korea, whose life has just been saved by the UN, and the Republic of Indonesia.

It has offered a common meeting ground for Russian and western talks which ended the blockade of Berlin and eased tension in Europe.

It has acted as a legislature for the first time and decreed early independence of Libya, formerly a keystone in the prewar colonial empire of Mussolini.

It has saved Iran from a war of nerves with neighboring Russia and possibly even saved Iran, or at least a part of it, from being absorbed by Russia.

It has set in motion a program of aid to underdeveloped countries designed to raise the standard of living for millions of people.

It is watching over some 200-million persons through the trusteeship system, which is the up-to-date way of speaking of colonial areas.

UN Failures
On the other side, what has the United Nations not done in the five years?

The United Nations has not achieved control of atomic energy for peaceful purposes. That seems even farther in the future now than it did Jan. 24, 1946, when the first general assembly, in London, set up the UN atomic energy commission and ordered it to work toward international control of the atom.

The UN has failed to bring the

U.S. Experts Believe Truth Essential in Battle of Words

By ROBERT E. GEIGER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The British "laughed at the German broadcaster Lord Haw Haw during the war—and hanged him afterward. American GIs usually were only amused at Tokyo Rose.

Experts in the army's new enlarged psychological warfare branch believe Haw Haw and Tokyo Rose were laughable because they showed no respect for the truth and they did the Germans and Japanese more harm than good.

The basic idea with the army's word-fighters is that in any conflict among peoples the truth must prevail sooner or later—and that the faster it spreads, the quicker the fighting will end.

The units job is to deliver the truth to enemy peoples and troops through mass communications and in such a way that they recognize it as the truth.

Pumpkin Pie Featured as Halloween Treat

Halloween may have become only a good excuse for children's horseplay, but no one is too old to enjoy it.

Fortune telling and traditional Halloween games are always popular, particularly when supplemented with food, something no one outgrows.

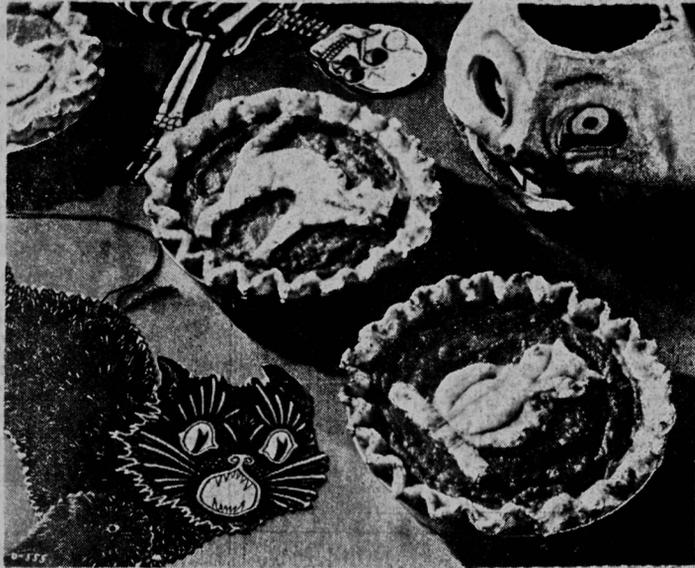

For throughout-the-evening nibbling, molasses popcorn balls, peanuts, potato chips, and jugs of apple cider will serve.

But Halloween would not be complete without that eternal symbol of harvest time—the pumpkin pie.

For the pie filling, use:
No. 2 1/2 can pumpkin
1/2 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons molasses
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 eggs, slightly beaten
2 cups scalded milk

Combine ingredients in order given. Mix well. Pour into unbaked pastry shells. Bake in hot oven (425-450 degrees) 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degrees, and bake 20-25 minutes.

For bran pastry shells, use:
1/3 cup bran
2 cups sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup shortening
6 tablespoons cold water
Crush bran into fine crumbs. Mix with flour and salt. Cut in shortening. Add water, a little at a time, mixing until dough is just moist enough to hold together. Roll out to 1/8 inch thickness on lightly floured board. Fit into two 8-inch or four 4-inch pans.

HALLOWEEN, FAVORITE TIME FOR CHILDREN from 6 to 60, is best symbolized by pumpkin pie. Pies can be especially festive when decorated with cutouts of cats, owls, jack-o-lanterns or ghosts in place of an upper crust. And pumpkin pies are especially good when made with this recipe.

SUI Dentists Attend Atlantic City Meeting

Dean A. W. Bryan, college of dentistry, will head a delegation of five SUI faculty members to a meeting of the American Dental Association in Atlantic City, N.J., Monday.

Prof. P. W. Herrick, A. K. Fisher, D. W. Lovett, and P. J. Rashid, all of the college of dentistry, will attend the meeting with Dean Bryan. Herrick will present a paper entitled "Occlusions Pertinent to the Crown and Bridge Prothesis," and Lovett has prepared an essay, "Use of Radiographs in Operative Dentistry" for the meeting.

Marriage Lecture Series Continues Today at 4:30

Third "Major in Marriage" lecture will be "Relationship with the Spouse," by Dr. Frank E. Coburn at 4:30 p.m. today in the chemistry building auditorium. Coburn, an assistant professor of psychiatry, will continue the same topic at the next meeting Nov. 7. The lecture series is sponsored by the YWCA and is open to the public.

Local DAR Chapter to Sponsor Style Show

Pilgrim chapter of the DAR will sponsor a style show at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Community building. Mrs. John Van Bibber, 508 River street, is in charge of the style show. Directing the show is Mrs. Inez Dodd. Shown will be new fall and winter clothing, including suits, sportswear, afternoon, cocktail and evening dresses and lounging clothes. Models for the show will be Mrs. Jocelyn Davis, former SUI student; Mrs. Midge Carlson, SUI graduate; Mrs. Rose Swales, Mrs. Lorene Emrich, Gwanda O'Neill,

Joan Schnoebelen and Beverly Donnelly, all of Iowa City, and twins Arlene and Darlene Worrell, Solon. Entertainers will be the Bobby Cotter Trio; John Drury, A3, Aurora, Ill., comedy routine; Sylvia Danielewski, G, and Tad Danielewski, research assistant in the SUI department of speech, Polish dancers; Connie Jewett, A3, Des Moines, as Ogden Nash; Carly White, A2, Iowa City, as Otis Skinner, and Ralph White. Tickets for the show can be purchased at Whetstone Drug company, Pearson's Pharmacy, Racine's and Alden's, for 50 cents. Proceeds will go to charity.

Air Group Displays Prize Winning Prints

An exhibit of prints including four award-winners made by the Iowa print group went on display Monday in the main gallery of the SUI art building. The Iowa print group is made up of students enrolled in graphic arts at SUI. Prof. Mauricio Lasansky, SUI art department, is advisor to the group.

Four prints by group members won awards at the 1950 Iowa State fair. Lasansky's "Bodas de Sangre," a color print, won first prize. "Paradise Lost," by Robert Shuler and "Father and Child," by Lindsey Decker, former SUI students, and "Ritual" by Elliot Elgart, G, Chelsea, Mass., won second, third and fourth prizes.

Air Conditioning Article by Lundquist Published

An article describing the use of aircraft propellers in axial air-conditioning fans by Prof. Elmer C. Lundquist, mechanical engineering department, appeared in the October issue of Heating, Piping and Air-conditioning magazine. According to Lundquist's article, the propellers are frequently installed in ducts to be used as axial - flow fans for moving large quantities of air against low pressures.

Doctors to Attend St. Louis Meeting

Eleven SUI staff members will attend the 78th annual meeting of the American Public Health Association in St. Louis Oct. 30 through Nov. 30. Members of the department of hygiene and preventive medicine attending will include Drs. M. E. Barnes; C. I. Miller; Roland Rooks; I. H. Borts; Kenneth MacDonald; Gilbert Kelso, and Marcus Powell.

Other staff members planning to attend include Dr. J. R. Porter, professor and head of the department of bacteriology; Marie Neuschaefer, coordinator of public health nursing in the college of nursing. Violet Kinstle, director of nursing and physical therapy for the state services for crippled children, and Elvira L. Grabow, nurse consultant, bureau of dental hygiene.

Two Staff Members Elected to Office in Children Society

Two SUI staff members were elected president and vice-president of the Iowa Society for Crippled Children and Adults at the society's annual meeting Sunday in Des Moines.

W. B. Schoenbohm, director of the SUI hospital school for severely handicapped children, was elected president.

Prof. Wendell Johnson, director of the speech pathology and audiology clinic, was one of two vice-presidents chosen by the group.

Johnson will act as panel chairman at the 1950 convention of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults Thursday in Chicago.

Johnson, president of the American Speech and Hearing association, will lead a panel of distinguished handicapped persons. Theme of the three-day convention is "Building Happy Useful Lives."

Law Students' Ball To Be Saturday

Annual "Barristers' Ball," sponsored by the SUI Law Students' association, will be Saturday at the Iowa Union.

Grant Eastham's band will play for the informal dance from 9 p.m. to midnight. This is the year that law students will be admitted at no charge, according to George Pappadakis, L.I. Storm Lake. The dance has always been subsidized by the association, but an additional charge was made for those attending.

Tickets will be given out at the dean's office of the college of law beginning today.

Training Courses Begin For Adult Scout Leaders

A training course for adult scouters began here Monday and will continue through this week. Frank D. Sills, leadership training chairman for the Iowa River Valley Boy Scout council, announced. Scouters are men active in Boy Scout work.

Classes meet at 7:15 p.m. in room 13 at the SUI fieldhouse, Sills said. Friday through Sunday training will be held at the Rotary Scout camp.

Music Convention to Hear Modern Opera

"The Medium," a modern opera by Gian-Carlo Menotti will be performed here Monday during the convention of the Iowa Music Teachers association.

The two-day convention starts Sunday with Menotti's opera being presented by the Drake university music department at 3:30 p.m. Monday at Macbride auditorium. The performance is open to the public.

Menotti, an Italian-born American, has written several operas in English which have been presented on Broadway. His music has been compared with Puccini, composer of such favorites as "La Boheme" and "Madame Butterfly."

Visiting music teachers and students enrolled in music courses at SUI will sit in a reserved section. Prof. Herald I. Stark of the SUI music department said.

Other open events during the convention include an organ recital by Eugene Devereaux, Cornell college, Sunday at 4 p.m., and

Girl, 12, Tells Kids How To Cope With Grown-ups

BERKELEY, CALIF. (AP)—Many a kid has complained about grown ups, but few ever did anything about it until Jill Owsley came along.

At the age of 10, this girl amazed her mother by scribbling outspoken child's-eye-view of her elders.

Now, two years later, Jill, who lives in an attic apartment with her mother, Mrs. Alice Owsley, is awaiting royalties from her first book.

Titled "A Handy Guide to Grownups," it is a collection of her opinions on what makes grown ups tick and how kids can get along with them.

Jill — short for Jennifer — started writing, her mother said good - naturedly, because "she thought she'd had a pushing around from the adults in her life."

"She saw all the books on child care I was reading and decided children needed a handbook worse than adults."

"When she was annoyed, she'd write something. Often she'd cross it out later. The book is what is left."

One of the gems it contains reads: "Hardly any mothers will stop talking (on the telephone) until you bother them quite a lot. I think it is perfectly fair to bother them as much as you have to. After all, they can call their friends back after you have to be in bed. Some of the ways to bother them are: going upstairs and calling them, starting downstairs without any coat on . . ."

On the jacket, Random House suggests the book is hilarious for adults and definitely of the "let's-be-sure-to-keep-this-from-the-kids" type.

But, Jill insists, "The publishers misunderstood. It's for kids." "Of course," she added, "I guess there are more grownups than kids and they had to make mon-

Purdue Game Behind Them —

Hawks Start Preparations For Bucks

With an even break in four conference games including Saturday's upset win over Purdue behind them, Iowa's Hawkeyes started preparations Monday for Ohio State.

Only serious casualty from the Homecoming victory was Don Commack. The little Waterloo halfback re-injured a tender shoulder in throwing a key block which freed Jerry Faske on a 52 yard touchdown gallop.

Commack probably won't be available for the Ohio State game, Iowa officials said Monday, but it's hoped that he'll be in shape when the Hawks play Minnesota two weeks hence.

Bernard Bennett will probably replace Commack at left half in the Iowa lineup Saturday. Bennett, three sport all-stater from Mason City, has looked good in his rare offensive appearances this year.

In the Purdue game, he caught a touchdown pass from Glenn Drahn. Against Indiana, Bennett's completed pass on the 22 yard line set up Iowa's lone touchdown against the most recent conquerors of Notre Dame.

Monday, the Hawks continued work on the passing attack which started clicking against Purdue after lying like a dormant giant in the two previous conference games. In the drills, Bennett and Faske were doing almost as much throwing as Drahn.

Pass Defense Weakness
The Hawks are expected to hammer at Ohio State's pass defense weakness. The Buckeyes have held ground attacks in check all season but have been vulnerable in the air.

Iowa scout Maury Kent, who saw the Bucks rattle Minnesota Saturday with a 48-0 lacing, reported back with plenty of respect for last year's co-champions.

"They've got a good, solid ball club," Kent said. "They're big enough and clever enough and have as high an average of speed as any team in the conference."

"The thing that made them tough, with the exception of the speed, is that they're using Bernie Bierman's single wing system with the personnel to execute it. They shoved Bierman's own system down his throat Saturday."

Kent termed Ohio State "the best conference team I have seen this year."

Gophers Poor
The impressiveness of Ohio State's win is blunted somewhat by the weakness of the once mighty Golden Gophers. Kent agreed with all observers that the Gophers are the weakest this year they have been in years. "It's the poorest Minnesota team I've ever seen," Kent remarked.

One of the chief objectives of the Iowa defense Saturday will be stopping versatile Vic Janowicz. In Iowa's last two appearances against the Buckeyes—in 1947 and 1948 — it gained a victory and battled to a tie. Iowa's 1948 victory, 14-7, marked the first time in 20 years that Iowa had beaten Ohio State.

A crowd of close to 80,000 is expected to watch Saturday's game at Columbus. If this estimate materializes, it will be the second largest crowd ever to see an Iowa team in action.

Record High
The record high was set in the 1947 Iowa — UCLA game when 90,910 flowed into Memorial Coliseum for the game. This crowd will probably never again be equalled on the west coast for a regularly scheduled game because of the inroads of television.

Plans have been completed for a flying trip to Columbus. The team and official personnel plan to leave from Cedar Rapids at 8 a.m. Friday. The return trip will be Saturday afternoon following the game with arrival in Cedar Rapids scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Two planes, a DC-3 and DC-4 will be used on the trip.

Oklahoma Wins 25 Straight, Wilkinson Still Not Satisfied

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Oklahoma has won 25 straight football games and is the nation's No. 3 team, but Coach Bud Wilkinson is still trying to convince everybody this isn't the Sooners' year.

The Monday quarterback here heard Wilkinson repeat: "I'm not so sure our team is as good as people think we are."

Oklahoma walloped Kansas State, 58-0, last Saturday, but the Sooner coach was not impressed.

"I don't think we played particularly good," he said. "Kansas State was just outmanned. We had a sloppy first quarter. We scored easily and didn't really earn many touchdowns in the sense that you usually work for them."

"Unless we get a whole lot better, we'll lose two or three games. I don't mean to cry, but we're going to have to continue improving."

Oklahoma meets Iowa State at Ames Saturday in a Big Seven conference contest, and Wilkinson says Abe Stuber's team will give the toughest fight of the season.

He calls Iowa State's Bill Weeks "a great passer" and predicts "the Cyclones can win throwing against us. He played against five good teams and has a 60 percent average with his passing."

"Iowa State also has two good receivers in Jim Doran and Cy Wilhelm. We can't let them have the ball and control the game. No one has stopped Iowa State cold and I don't anticipate stopping them."

Applying Taken Off Active Player List
CHICAGO (AP) — Charles Comiskey, vice-president of the Chicago White Sox, revealed Monday that Luke Appling, who holds an all-time record of having played 2,218 major league games as shortstop, has been taken off the roster as a player.

Comiskey said that Appling, who has spent his entire career with the Chicago club, will be offered the managership of the Sox' farm team at Memphis, Tenn.

GOPHERS SCRIMMAGE
MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Coach Bernie Bierman drove the Minnesota football team through a rugged scrimmage Monday.

SMU Replaces Cadets As Nation's Top Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Southern Methodist's unbeaten Mustangs galloped to the top of the standings Monday in the Associated Press weekly poll to determine the country's No. 1 college football team.

The southwest conference power, which made stubborn Rice its 42-21 victim Saturday night, gained 96 first place nominations from the 246 voting sports critics. Army, leader the past two weeks dropped to second despite its 49-0 conquest of Harvard while Oklahoma, the former runner, slipped to third, the place formerly held by Southern Methodist.

Kentucky remained in fourth place and the top ten was completed by California, Ohio State, Texas, Tennessee, Northwestern and Cornell in that order.

Tennessee, Northwestern and Cornell are newcomers to the present list, replacing Stanford, Maryland and Washington, all of whom were defeated last Saturday.

With Kyle Rote as their big producer, the Mustangs have romped over five opponents from five different circuits. In order, they have defeated Georgia Tech, Ohio State, Missouri, Oklahoma A & M, and Rice. In building their unblemished record, the Texans have scored 184 points to 61 for their opponents. That's an average of 37-12 in each game.

They are idle this week while preparing for their annual tussle with Texas, seventh in the weekly rankings for the past two weeks.

Army's fall from the top followed its easy conquest of inept Harvard. The Cadets, unbeaten now through 24 games, had a 42-0 edge at the half before Coach Earl Blaik sent in his reserves. Oklahoma also suffered in prestige despite a lopsided win. The Sooners measured Kansas State, 58-0, for their 25th straight victory.

Only one ballot listed Notre Dame, former darling, of the voters. It was for eighth place and the resultant three points dropped the Irish, beaten last Saturday by Indiana for the second loss this season, into a tie for 39th place with Iowa, Louisiana State, Yale, and Virginia. Indiana, Notre Dame's conqueror, hopped into 19th place on the strength of the victory.

Rickey Won't Say If Pact Renewed

BROOKLYN (AP)—Branch Rickey met with other Brooklyn Dodger stockholders Monday without announcing his plans for 1951.

Rickey and his partners would not say whether his contract as Dodger general manager, expiring Saturday, will be renewed.

"I am available," said Rickey. "I have not received any offers from another club. I am not going to discuss any other club or any other engagements."

Browns Want Money For Injured Player

CLEVELAND (AP) — National Football League officials offered "no comment" Monday in answer to a Cleveland Browns move to have the Chicago Cardinals pay the remaining salary and medical bills of an injured Cleveland player.

Arthur (Mickey) McBride, owner of the Browns, said he would ask Commissioner Bert Bell to order the Cards to reimburse the Cleveland club as the result of serious injuries incurred last week by end Len Ford.

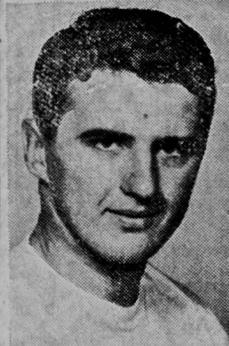

Bell said in Philadelphia he would wait until he received the complaint before saying anything.

"After all, I don't know what it's all about," Bell said. "I have to have both sides presented in order to make any decision."

Cardinal President Ray Bennisen was reported from Chicago to be unexcited about McBride's statement.

Ford suffered a broken nose, fractured cheek bone and jaw, and lost several teeth in the game with the Cardinals.

Hoff Lineman Of Week

BOB HOFF
Top Lineman

(Special to The Daily Iowan)
CHICAGO — End Bob Hoff, one of the reasons for Iowa's 33-21 upset of Purdue last Saturday, was selected midwest lineman of the week Monday by The United Press.

One of Hoff's biggest contributions to Iowa's victory was his partial block of a kick deep in Purdue territory which led to the Hawkeyes' first score.

Big Thrill
The veteran end said that blocking the kick was one of his biggest thrills. "That's the first punt I've ever blocked," Hoff said.

In addition to blocking the kick, Hoff played an aggressive game on both offense and defense. He was used almost exclusively on defense last season but with the graduation of pass catchers Jack Dittmer and Bob McKenzie, he has been converted into an offensive end this year.

Hoff said Monday he likes playing on offense but is "still worried" about catching passes. Hoff and the other Iowa end, Jerry Long, have shown improvement in this department in recent games.

Second Honor
Monday's selection was the second lineman of the week honor awarded to Hoff this season. The Cedar Rapids native was given honorable mention in a national poll after his team had upset Southern California in the season's opener.

Iowa meets Ohio State this Saturday in its fourth Big Ten game of the season. Previously, the Hawks lost to Indiana and Wisconsin before beating Purdue.

Development Group Holds Photo Contest

The fifth annual Iowa photographic contest, with prizes totaling $300, was announced this week by the Iowa Development commission.

Amateur as well as professional photographers may enter the contest. Entries will be accepted from Dec. 1 through Feb. 28, 1951.

The contest will be divided into three classes: black and white prints (amateur); black and white prints (professional); and color transparencies (open competition). Prizes of $15, $25 and $15 will be awarded in each division.

The photos may depict any characteristic phase of Iowa life or the Iowa landscape.

Additional information about the contest can be obtained by contacting the Iowa Development commission, 708 Central National building, Des Moines 9.

Applications Ready for Orientation Chairman

Applications for the position of chairman of the men's orientation program for the coming year are now being accepted in the office of student affairs.

Blanks may be obtained in the office and should be returned before Monday, either there or at the student council office in Old Dental building.

The chairman of the orientation program has charge of planning activities introducing new male students to the campus during the 1951-52 school year.

Four Men Fined $120 in Police Court Here

Four men were fined a total of $120 in police court Monday for violations of traffic laws.

Fined $12.50 each were William Rotton, D4, Shenandoah, driving without a valid license, and Norris E. Chapman, L1, Des Moines, passing a red light.

Eugene B. Casey, route 5, was fined $77.50 on a charge of reckless driving, and George E. Frohwein, 421 Melrose avenue, paid $17.50 for speeding.

Chorus Concert Soloists Named

Two SUI men will be soloists Wednesday night at the first appearance of the University chorus, scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. in the main lounge of the Iowa Union.

Robert Borg, A2, Des Moines, will sing the tenor solo in "Ca' the Yewes," arranged by Ralph Vaughan Williams. Harry Morrison, A4, Douds, will be baritone soloist in "Rantin', Rovin' Robin," a Scotch folk-song.

Other selections include "Holy Radiant Light" by Alexandre Gretchaninoff, "May No Rash Intruder" from "Solomon" by Georg Friedrich Handel, and "Holiday Song" by William Schuman.

Prof. Herald I. Stark, conductor said free tickets for the concert were available at the desk in the lobby of the Iowa Union.

Jenna to Speak at Statue Rites

Col. W.W. Jenna, commandant of the SUI military department, will be the principal speaker at the dedication of the Statue of Liberty replica Friday, Harold W. Vestermark, statue publicity chairman, announced Monday.

The dedication will take place at 3:30 p.m. on the Iowa City high school lawn. Johnson county schools will be dismissed early so students and faculty may attend the ceremonies.

The statue itself was donated by an anonymous Iowa citizen. Johnson county Boy Scouts helped pay for the statue base.

Twenty other local and county organizations contributed money, materials, and labor to erect the base and statue.

Flight Training Open to SUI ROTC Students

SUI airforce ROTC students may apply for flight training in officer grade six months before they receive their reserve commissions, ROTC officials announced Monday.

The former application period was 90 days. Officials said acceptance will be based on a rigid physical examination.

At Jazz Concert

ELLA FITZGERALD, America's "first lady of swing," will appear Saturday in two concerts of "Jazz at the Philharmonic."

The concerts will be held in the main lounge of the Iowa Union at 7:30 and 10 p.m. Nine other jazz artists — including Flip Phillips and Coleman Hawkins on tenor sax and Buddy Rich on drums — will be on the program. Tickets are now on sale for $1.50 each at the Union desk and Whetstone's drug store.

Labor May Place Demos in Congress

DES MOINES—U.S. Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin declared Monday that if labor organized intensively for the Nov. 7 general election "six or seven Democrats can be elected to congress from Iowa."

He told a news conference this was based on "spot checks and the personal views of labor leaders" since he has come into Iowa for some campaign speeches.

Tobin said about 60 percent of Iowa labor union members are registered to vote. He commented that registrations are higher this year throughout the nation than they were in 1948, a presidential year.

The secretary said, that on the basis of the present outlook, the Democrats would continue control of congress next year and that one of the results would be repeal of the Taft-Hartley act.

MUST STAY OFF BIKE
James Johnson, 14, route 5, was ordered in police court Saturday not to ride his bicycle for ten days, as a result of a charge of riding on the downtown sidewalks.

Dean Ladd Renamed To Safety Council Executive Group

Dean Mason Ladd, college of law, was reappointed to the executive committee of the National Safety Council and chairman of the committee on chemical tests for intoxication, the NSC announced Monday.

Dean Ladd's committee reported to the council at its annual meeting in Chicago last week, that the drinking driver is just as much a traffic hazard as the obviously drunk driver.

Drinking Man
The drinking man has his judgment impaired, and his reaction time slowed down but doesn't realize it, the committee reported. Such a man may show no outward signs of being under the influence of alcohol, yet not have the coordination needed to operate an auto in crowded traffic.

The committee told of a test in Sweden last summer in which 20 expert drivers were given various quantities of alcohol, all insufficient to classify a man as legally drunk.

Performance Tests
In every case, the men were not able to perform some of the tests on a specially constructed segment of road that they were able to do with ease before drinking, the committee pointed out.

The committee's report will be published sometime next summer, Ladd said.

Juvenile Delinquents Predominantly Boys

Cases of juvenile delinquency that reach Iowa courts are predominantly boys, mainly from urban areas, an Iowa commission including Prof. Robert G. Caldwell and Sheriff Albert J. (Pat) Murphy, reported Monday.

Using the latest available figures, those of 1947, the committee found that 958 boys and 244 girls were in juvenile courts in the state.

In the large cities and surrounding areas, 55.9 cases per 10,000 persons reached the courts, whereas in the farm areas only 11 persons 10-19 years old went to court per 10,000 persons.

The committee was part of the governor's commission on children and youth.

36 SUI Students Receive Carr, Forensic Awards

Twenty-three students are attending SUI on Iowa High School Forensic league scholarships during the current school year, L. Dale Faunce, dean of students, said Monday.

Thirteen others, seven of them Iowa residents, are holding Carr scholarships.

Verna Mae Wingate, A4, Davenport, holds a Pritchett scholarship, established 10 years ago by an endowment gift from the late Edward Pritchett, Chicago. Students holding Forensic scholarships affording a $30 per semester reduction in their university fees for four years include: Phillip D. Bigelow, A3, Council Bluffs; Bob Joe Slavens, A1, Davenport; Warren K. Wood, A1, Davenport; William A. Skaife, A2, Dubuque; Richard Ball, Harvard.

John A. Rutan, A2, Hawarden; Thomas C. Tilgner, A1, Hawarden; Thomas A. Brown, A1, Iowa City; Don Guthrie, A4, Iowa City; Richard F. Houston, A3, Iowa City.

Robert W. Evans, A2, Muscatine; Loren B. Gross, A3, Muscatine; James D. McKney, A1, Muscatine; Gerald Miller, A1, Muscatine; Joe R. Petty, C3, Muscatine; Robert Duane Linder, A1, Oelwein; N. Louise Bekman, A3, Ottumwa; Edward Diekmann, A4, Ottumwa; Richard Luman, A3, Ottumwa; Wilbur Friedman, A2, Sioux City; Karl Scheid, A3, Sioux City; Donna Hacker, A1, Thompson; and Donna Lee Johnston, A1,

Carr scholarship winners who receive full basic fees in the college of liberal arts, commerce engineering and pharmacy during the current year include: Arlene Ehrlich, A3, Cherokee; Norma Jean Wilding, A4, Council Bluffs; Nancy Woody, Delta; Doris Lone Ruby, A3, Estherville; Donald L. Bohlken, C4, Monticello; Bruce W. Glick, C3, Olin; Joan L. Welding, A2, West Point.

Jacqueline Reese, A4, Grayville, Ill.; Marjorie Little, A4, Springfield, Ill.; Darlene F. Sweet, C4, Lamar, Mo.; Jacqueline Brooks, A4, New York City; Harlette W. Batipps, A3, Media, Pa.; and Max Edward Womack, A4, Dover, Tenn.

HOUSING SHORTAGE
FARIBAUT, MINN. (AP) — This ad, which appeared recently in the Faribault Daily News, points up the housing shortage in Faribault: "Wanted to rent — Six year old boy desires four room apartment. Has no children or pets, just parents. Write Box O-33, Daily News."

Minister's World Topsy-Turvy

PROMOTING SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE, The Rev. Geoffrey W. Royall, minister of North Hollywood Church of the Nazarene, stands on his head on the roof of his church before 500 people Sunday. He said he would do the stunt if Sunday school attendance reached 300.

Professor Charts Brain Waves

Prof. John R. Knott, SUI department of psychiatry, has started work on a project to chart brain waves of the normal human brain from birth to retirement age.

Within the last 15 years, brain wave specialists have learned to use "brain waves," tiny electrical impulses generated by the brain, in diagnosing nervous disorders.

Wide variations from normal brain wave patterns ordinarily indicate some sort of functional disorder, Knott said.

Existing normal growth charts are based on only one area of the brain. Ranges of normal patterns have not yet been completely established, according to Knott.

Present Methods Unreliable
Existing charts are especially unreliable in the younger and older age groups, Knott said.

28 Passenger Plane Now Has Flight Through Iowa City

United Airlines' first 28-passenger DC-3 Mainliner is now operating through Iowa City, B.D. McWilliams, station manager, said Monday.

The plane, assigned to the Chicago-Iowa City-Lincoln route, is one of seven which the company has converted from 21-passenger Mainliners. These planes are being assigned where increased accommodations are needed.

The new airliner, which leaves here at 2:50 p.m. daily, replaces the 21-passenger DC-3 previously assigned to this run.

Schedule to Change
Effective Nov. 1, McWilliams said, the 2:50 p.m. flight west-bound will be changed to 3:10 p.m. and the 3:10 flight going east will be changed to 3:35 p.m.

In the first major change of a DC-3 since 1933, the planes will now have four rows of seven seats instead of the original three rows, McWilliams said.

Rear Pit Enlarged
The change was accomplished by taking out the forward luggage pits, enlarging the rear pit, and moving the lavatory forward. The new seats and the aisle will be slightly narrower.

McWilliams said the change will permit passengers to carry their own luggage and thus eliminate the time taken to claim luggage at the stations.

Air freight will be decreased to compensate for the additional passenger weight.

Military Instructor Receives Promotion

Sgt. Glen L. Howard, A3, Iowa City, has been promoted to Sgt. first class, Col. W. W. Jenna, SUI military department commandant, announced Monday.

Howard attended SUI in 1945 and 1946 before his enlistment in the regular army and subsequent appointment to the SUI military staff as an infantry instructor.

At present, Howard is taking part time work at SUI in liberal arts.

A veteran of eight years service, Howard served 37 months overseas with the 34th infantry division during World War II.

SUI Goal: Continue High Educational Level

SUI is not concerned with keeping the university "alive just to be alive," but to continue producing graduates at a high educational level, H.H. Davis, university provost, said Monday.

Davis commented on a statement by Malcolm Willey, vice-president of the University of Minnesota, who said Monday that only women could solve the manpower drain on the professions, caused by increasing military needs.

Willey spoke at an area conference of college registrars at Winona State Teachers college, Winona, Minn.

Davis said the American college will continue to play its part in all the military and civil programs.

"The other great powers of the world are larger in population than we are, therefore we must utilize all our physical resources — whether they be men or women," he said.

Admitting that the present outlook in college enrollment was gloomy, Willey expressed confidence that some means would be devised to insure the continued functioning of colleges and universities.

He suggested the present GI program might be extended to include draftees.

Willey advised schools to think seriously about encouraging women to enter professions.

Ted H. McCarrel, SUI registrar, attended the conference and will return to Iowa City tonight.

Incomes, Output of Nation Gained Before Korean War Began

Incomes and output in the nation were rising sharply in early 1950, even before the Korean war, SUI Prof. Robert H. Johnson, Monday told a Marengo adult education group in one of a series of talks on national economy.

Johnson also said economic activity was paced by a high level of construction and a high demand for producers' durable goods, and that there was an increase in inventory.

Shot Upward
Consumer spending and government outlays, stable in early 1950, shot upward after the Korean war, Johnson said. Inflationary price pressures now being felt will be intensified between now and mid-1951, he predicted.

Comparing the U.S. economy in 1929 and 1949, Johnson said gross national production had increased two-and-a-half times. Consumer goods accounted for 75 percent of this output in 1929; while in 1949 it represented 50 percent.

Higher Pay Trend
There is a long-run trend toward higher wages and salaries, Johnson said. In 1929 wages and salaries accounted for 58 percent of all earnings in the nation. It mounted to 73 percent in the depression year of 1933 and was 65 percent last year.

Johnson teaches courses in fiscal policy and national income in SUI's college of commerce.

Stolen Iowa City Car Recovered in Davenport
A 1941 Oldsmobile, stolen from Mrs. L. R. Adrian Friday night, was recovered in Davenport Sunday, police reported.

The car was taken from its garage about 5 p.m. Friday. Police did not state the condition of the vehicle.

Street Repairs Lag As Deadline Nears

Iowa Citizens will have to wait until next year for the completion of street resurfacing.

City Engineer Fred E. Gartzke Monday said it was doubtful whether the project would be completed before winter begins.

The contract for the $139,000 project, awarded last July to the Hargrave Construction company, Cedar Rapids, provided that work be completed by Nov. 1.

Suit Claims Negligence In Farmer's Equipment

Eugene Cambridge, route 2, filed suit Monday for $3,613 against Bohumil Meka, a farmer in Liberty township, claiming Meka broke its bridle and led him to drive a team of horses with a defective bridle.

Cambridge claimed he suffered a broken arm Aug. 10 when one of the horses pulling the wagon and hayrack he was driving for Meka was negligent in permitting team ran away. Cambridge has asked for a jury trial.

U-Hospitals Release Five Polio Patients

Janet Moore, 12, Iowa City, and four others from the polio ward of University hospitals were discharged Monday.

Three new patients were admitted to the active ward Monday, raising the total active cases to 20.

New cases diagnosed as polio were Gary Rohwedder, 3, Olin; Thelma Jackson, 19, Milton, and Ruth Silcox, 1, New Liberty. All were reported to be in "fair" condition.

Others discharged included Dale Fleming, 19, Corwith; Harry Aibley, 9, Waterloo; Dale Kittle, 21, Arballo, Mo., and Ruth Reuter, 22, Warsaw.

Try and Stop Me
By BENNETT CERF
THE Government of India Information Service, intent upon proving to Americans that despite all sabre-rattling at Pakistan, they still have time to pass along a good story, released the following recent bulletin:
Two friends, Ammu and Din, took an airplane to Kashmir. Ammu, unused to flying, was chilled to the bone when their non-air-conditioned plane hit a twelve-thousand-foot altitude. "I am freezing," he complained. Din sympathized, and sought to remedy the situation. Suddenly his face brightened. "I know," he cried. "Let's tell the pilot to stop those big fans whirring outside."
A traffic officer stopped an out-of-state motorist and said, "I'm going to give you a ticket for driving without a tail light." The motorist got out to investigate, and let up a wail of dismay. "Come now," said the officer, "it's not as serious as all that." The motorist explained, "It's not the tail light I'm worried about. What's become of my trailer?"
