New Red Assault Threatens Sinanju; More Chinese Seen

TOKYO (SUNDAY) (U) - Communist troops exploded a new attack from the east against United Nations forces on the Sinanju front in Korea today while Chinese reinforcements raced down from Manchuria and massed west of Sinanju.

The attack from the east smashed to the outskirts of Kunu-ri, 16 miles northeast of Sinanju, where airmen said the largest concentration of Reds seen in this war were massing at Chongju, 22 miles northwest of Sinanju.

See Truck Convoy An American Eighth army spokesman who disclosed the new Red attack said also that a "large enemy truck convoy" was seen heading south across the Yalu river 48 miles north of Chongju at 1:30 a.m. today.

Simultaneously, a Chinese Communist broadcast from Peking pledged Red China's full support to North Korea in resisting United States "aggression" in the Orient.

American and South Korean troops defending the big supply center and airfield at Sinanju pulled back on the north and west into a tight defense area running through Pakchon, eight miles north.

The North Korean Communists, with heavy Chinese Communist reinforcements, seemed intent on capturing Sinanju and driving United Nations forces out of a 65-mile area fronting the big Yalu river dam developments in north-west Korea.

Another enemy force attacked across the Kuruyong river five miles northwest of Kunu-ri and cut off one battalion of the 24th division. However, the spokesman said, this battalion fought its way out of the trap but was forced to leave some vehicles behind.

Many of the Chinese Communists who have been taken prisoner are expressing great surprise at the presence of American troops in Korea.

Crowd Gathers, But No Hawks to Welcome

Approximately 1,200 "anxious Hawkeye fans were left standing on the Jefferson hotel corner Saturday night when SUI's victorious Hawkeyes failed to appear for a scheduled welcome home.

One girl in a Tallfeathers sweater led the fans in a chant as the first bus came into view, but the chant faded away as a handful of unidentified men and a few players descended from the practically empty bus.

A second bus appeared 15 minutes later, but it carried only three men, one of whom was Rollie Williams. Williams said he thought the bus carrying the players had already been there.

About half of the fans still remained waiting for the returning Hawkeyes, but dispersed 40 minutes later when it became evident the Hawkeyes were not coming.

Tibetan Reds Seize Government Control

NEW DELHI, INDIA (SUNDAY) (U) - Pro-Communist Tibetans, led by two leftist monks, seized control of the government of Lhasa after the 16-year-old Dalai Lama fled before the advancing Chinese Red armies, reports reaching here said today.

Apparently there was some opposition to the Red coup, but it was quickly put down. The Chinese Communist troops advancing on Lhasa from the north were reported to be within 130 miles of the capital.

The two leftist monks were described as supporters of the 13-year-old Panchen Lama, rival to the Dalai Lama. The boys are believed by devoutly religious Tibetans, to be reincarnations of different Buddhas.

Truman Rips GOP; Promises Prosperity If Democrats Win

ST. LOUIS (U) - President Truman called Saturday for election of a Democratic congress next Tuesday to save his stated program of peace, prosperity and progress from the "no good, do-nothing" Republicans.

In a slam-bang political speech reminiscent of the "give 'em hell" campaign he waged across the nation two years ago, he ripped into the Republicans as a party dominated by special interests, riddled with isolationists, and discredited by the voters.

The President said the two big campaign issues are isolationism and "whether this country is going forward here at home toward greater strength and prosperity."

"Any farmer, workingman or businessman who votes Republican, he said, "is voting against his own interests—and ought to have his head examined."

He praised those GOP leaders who have cooperated with him in the bipartisan foreign policy, but he charged bitterly that other Republicans "have dragged our foreign policy into politics" and are running for office as isolationists.

"A vote for isolationism in this election would be a vote for national suicide," he said.

SUI Staff Doubts Housing Adequate; Backs Rent Control

A survey of SUI faculty and staff members, taken by SUI's chapter of the American Association of University Professors, indicate a large majority believe there is not adequate rental housing in Iowa City.

A similar majority favor continuation of rent controls. Survey forms were sent to 1,500 faculty and staff members. Of the blanks returned, only 657 arrived in time for tabulation.

A total of 479 persons believed there was not adequate rental housing, while 14 said there was and 30 were uncertain.

Majority Favor Controls Asked if they were in favor of extending rent controls here until June, 1951, 473 persons favored extension, 35 were opposed and 11 were undecided.

Of the total answering the questionnaire, 172 said their units are under rent control, 35 had no rent control, 33 did not know and 299 owned their own homes.

The survey showed the average monthly rental for homes or apartments under rent control was $57.82, while the average unit without rent control was $68.36.

Rents Vary The range in cost for apartments or homes under rent control was from $32.50 to $125, and the range for units not under rent control jurisdiction was $35 to $120.

Thirty-five of the persons answering the survey questions said they had attempted to find new rental housing during the past year, but could not find any.

Fifty-six said they could not find adequate housing and 80 said they could not find new housing because it was too expensive.

The poll also showed that 149 persons had purchased or built new homes since 1946. Of these, 122 were in Iowa City and 27 outside the city limits.

Iowa City residents, at Tuesday's election, will indicate their preference on the issue of continuing rent controls. The city council, however, has the authority to make the final decision.

Reichardt Smashes for Another First Down

SMASHING FOR A 12-YARD GAIN through left tackle, fullback Bill Reichardt (30) made a first down in the second period which placed the ball on Iowa's 33-yard line. Trying for the tackle was fullback Gary Johnson of Minnesota.

UN Removes Ban Of Spanish Envoys

FLUSHING, N.Y. (U) - The United Nations general assembly Saturday rescinded the four-year diplomatic ban against the Spanish government of Generalissimo Francisco Franco.

The Soviet-opposed action accomplished two objectives: 1.—It withdrew the 1946 recommendation to all UN members that they withdraw ambassadors and ministers from Madrid.

2.—It lifted the 1946 ban against admission of Spain to the UN's specialized agencies, such as the food and agriculture organization and the world health organization.

However, Saturday's resolution left intact the condemnation of the Franco regime for its aid to the Axis during World War II.

The United States, switching previous policy, voted in favor of removing the anti-Franco boycott.

The gist of the arguments in favor of the move has been that the action merely restores to governments their full sovereign rights in deciding whether to restore ambassadors to Madrid.

Truman Attends Funeral Of Slain Bodyguard

ARLINGTON NATIONAL CEMETERY, VA. (U) - President Truman watched moistened Saturday as White House Police Pvt. Leslie Coffelt, who gave his life to save him from an assassin's bullet, received a hero's burial here.

As the services ended the President walked to the side of the slain policeman's widow, who was near collapse from her sorrow. He touched her hand gently, then walked away, his eyes misty.

Secret service men and police by the score imposed strictest security rules at the 58-minute rites for the 40-year-old, $72-a-week officer who died three days ago helping thwart an invasion of Blair house, the President's home.

They took no chance on a repetition of the attempted assassination, in which Coffelt traded fatal shots with one of the two Puerto Rican revolutionaries who had tried to storm Truman's residence.

Guards in muff, khaki, and police blues were scattered thickly among the hundreds who pressed around Ft. Myer chapel and Coffelt's grave.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends," intoned Dean John W. Suter of Washington cathedral, who conducted Episcopal services for Coffelt in the small, red-brick colonial chapel.

Gunman's Widow NEW YORK (U) - The defiant, dark-eyed widow of a gunman who tried to assassinate President Truman was reported Saturday to have carried her hunger strike into the second day in protest of her arrest.

But secret service officials clammed up and refused to say anything about Mrs. Carmen Torresola, 22. She was charged Friday with conspiring with at least five people in the assassination plot and sent to jail in lieu of $50,000 bond.

The real Clarence O. Smith, owner of the S & W Motor company, Lone Tree, appeared at the Iowa City police station Saturday and identified the social security and draft cards used by the arrested man.

Draft Card Stolen The real Smith told police he had lost the social security card in Bronson, Mich., in 1938. The 1945 draft card classification was stolen in 1947 from Smith's Cedar Rapids home during a series of Cedar Rapids burglaries.

In the county jail Saturday, the arrested man still insisted his name was Clarence Smith.

even when confronted by the real Smith whose credentials he had been using.

The man is being held in the county jail charged with larceny of an automobile, but police officials said additional charges will be filed against him.

Claims He's Smith In sprawling handwriting, he signed information Friday night as Clarence Oheran Smith, 31, Cedar Rapids. The real Smith's middle name is O'Herron. He is 38.

Police found several .38 caliber shells in the arrested man's pocket Friday night. Wax paper had been substituted for the slug in all but one.

Police said this kind of shell

Floyd of Rosedale Returns to Iowa

Floyd of Rosedale, the bronze pig traveling trophy of the Iowa-Minnesota football rivalry, returned with the victorious Hawkeyes Saturday and is now resting proudly on Coach Leonard Rafensperger's desk.

Iowa's 13-0 win over the Golden Gophers brought Floyd to the Iowa campus for the first time since he went to Minnesota in 1948.

Team co-captain Harold Bradley and the team's manager Mort Kaplan received Floyd in Minneapolis after the game and brought him back to Raff's desk.

Commack's Daughter Don Commack had two reasons to celebrate Saturday night after Iowa's 13-0 victory over Minnesota.

The speedy Hawkeye halfback became the father of a baby girl born Saturday while the first half of the game was in progress.

The baby, born at University hospitals, weighed eight pounds, five ounces. Mrs. Commack was reported to be in "good" condition.

Iowa started the scoring drive on the Gopher 35-yard line. Short Pass Glenn Drann hit fullback Bill Reichardt with a short aerial for an eight-yard gain down to the 27 from where Bernard Bennett punched to the 22 and a first down.

A six yard gain by Fiske and two carries by Reichardt moved the ball to the 11 for another first down.

Fiske then drove to the one-foot line and went over on the next play. Reichardt's conversion was wide and Iowa held a 6-0 lead.

This touchdown put the Gophers in a hole from which they couldn't escape even with the encouragement of the victory starved Homecoming crowd. All the encouragement in the world couldn't put speed into the legs of the Minnesota backs or crispness into the blocking.

The pattern for the rest of the game had already been cut after Iowa's touchdown.

Gopher Threat Minnesota threatened during the first half but it just wasn't up to scoring.

Time and time again the aggressive Iowa line beat down any Minnesota attempts to get moving.

Ends Bob Hoff and Jerry Long were especially responsible for the Gophers' failure. The Iowa flankers spent more time in the Minnesota backfield, harassing passers and kickers and often dumping them for losses, than they did on the line of scrimmage.

Iowa's second touchdown cinched matters and everyone, including the Minnesota team, seemed to acknowledge this.

The touchdown drive covered 70 yards in eight plays with a big 40 yard gain on a pass from Drann to End Dick Meyer the major blow.

Long Pass Bennett and "Chug" Wilson had moved the ball from the 30 to the Iowa 39 before Drann found Meyer along the right sidelines. The Iowa end scampered to the Minnesota 22 and the Gophers just weren't up to holding the Hawks who needed an insurance touchdown.

Wilson and Reichardt carried the ball to the 17. Drann then sent Bennett around right end for the score. No seconds showed on the scoreboard when the Mason City sophomore scored his second touchdown of the season.

This time Reichardt's conversion was true and the Hawks held their ultimate winning margin, 13-0.

The fourth quarter was a series of disappointments and frustrations for the tarnished Golden Gophers, who dropped their fourth decision in five games.

Iowa Keeps Ball After several feeble scoring attempts were knocked down, Iowa took over possession of the ball and ran out the clock with line from scrimmage compared to 167 plays.

Iowa held a conspicuous statistical edge over the inept Gophers. The Hawks amassed 311 yards for Minnesota and outgained the Gophers 261 yards to 179 on the ground.

The win avenged last year's 55 to 7 defeat here, which dealt a death blow to the Rose Bowl hopes the Hawks took into that game.

23 Johnson County Residents Seek Office in Tuesday Election

By WAYNE SHAW

Twenty-three Johnson county residents are seeking election in the Nov. 7 general elections.

The three hottest races in the county are for the offices of county attorney, county sheriff, and for state representative from the 41st district.

William L. Meardon, 31, is seeking the county attorney's office on the Republican ticket. He is opposed by Jack C. White, incumbent.

Meardon has practiced law in Iowa City for two years since his graduation from SUI law school in 1948. He received his B.A. deand formerly farmed near Morse. He is married, has seven children and lives at 608 Ronalds street.

JAMES G. DONOHUE

He was in the purebred Angus cattle business for more than 40 years.

Robert E. Rowe, 44, lives at 608 S. Madison. He has been in the painting business for 28 years as a paint contractor and decorator. This is his first bid for public office.

Rowe served 34 months in the navy during World War II working with the security department which handles navy policing activities. Before the war he was in the Iowa National guard for eight years.

He is married and the father of four children.

G.M. Ludwig and Joseph G. Raim are the Republican and Democratic candidates respectively for the office of state representative from the 41st district.

Ludwig, 53, is seeking the same office which he unsuccessfully sought in 1948. He is the KXIC farm editor and currently operates a farm near Tiffin.

He has been a teacher and superintendent of schools in Johnson county for 26 years. He was superintendent of schools at Sharon and Tiffin and still teaches at the Oakdale school.

G. M. LUDWIG

Ludwig received his B.A. degree from Western Union college in 1921 and an M.A. degree from Western Reserve university in 1923. He's taken graduate work in philosophy at Ohio State university and SUI.

He also has been a minister in several churches in the past. He is married and the father of six children.

Joseph G. Raim, 53, of Solon, is seeking reelection to the state representative's office. He was first elected to the office in 1948 defeating his present opponent, G. M. Ludwig.

He was born in Johnson county and educated in the county schools. He has owned and operated a farm near Solon since 1914. He is married and has one daughter.

JOSEPH G. RAIM

Republican Congressman Thomas E. Martin of Iowa City is opposed by Democrat James D. France of Tipton for the office of first district representative of Iowa in the U.S. house of representatives.

Martin, 57, was first elected to the house in 1938 and has been reelected to that office six times in succession.

He was born at Melrose in Monroe county and attended grade and high schools in Russell. He was graduated from Albia high school and in 1916 received a B.A. degree from SUI. In 1927 he received a J.D. degree from the SUI college of law.

Martin received a Columbia university fellowship and was graduated with a L.L.M. degree

Counting Student Ballots in Mock Election

COUNTING THE VOTE IN FRIDAY'S mock election held on the SUI campus. A total of 1,098 ballots were cast. Eight were void. The students chose Democrat Al Loveland for senator, and incumbent Republican Governor William Bardsley. They also voted for a constitutional convention to reapportion representation.

from that institution in 1923.

Among the public offices that he held prior to his present position are city solicitor of Iowa City, 1933-35, and mayor of Iowa City, 1935-37.

He was an army officer from 1917 to 1919. Martin was a professor of military science and tactics at SUI, 1921-23. He is married and the father of a daughter and a son, who is now in Korea.

Martin voted to abolish Point Four, President Truman's program for underdeveloped areas. The Republican move was defeated by a vote of 220-150.

He voted to cut foreign aid in May, 1950. The move was a Republican - Southern Democrat coalition which passed the bill in the house by a 273-113 vote. Of the 273 votes for the measure 116 votes were Democrats and 157 Republican.

Martin did not vote on the Communist Control bill which was passed over President Truman's veto on Sept. 22. However, Martin has said that he favored the bill. He said he was absent from Washington at the time the bill was voted upon.

Martin was one of 106 Republicans and 39 Democrats voting against the extension of rent controls to Dec. 1950, with a provision that local areas could thereafter extend it until June 30, 1951. This bill was passed in the house, however, by a 176-145 vote.

In January of this year Martin helped vote down a $60-million authorization for aid to Korea. The vote was 192-191.

France was unopposed in the June primary election for the Democratic nomination. He was defeated in 1948 when he ran for the same office.

Robert L. Larson, 52, of Iowa City is seeking reelection to the office of state attorney general on the Republican ticket.

Larson was born in Fairfield and graduated from Fairfield high school and Parsons college in Fairfield. He attended the University of Chicago and was graduated from the SUI college of law.

He is a veteran of World War I having served in the U.S. navy. Larson taught school at Wapello and Anamosa. He was city solicitor of Iowa City, 1937-1941; and assistant Johnson county attorney during the same period.

Larson was named assistant attorney general Oct. 4, 1943 and served in that capacity until June 25, 1947 when he was named attorney general by Gov. Blue to fill the unexpired term of the late John M. Rafkin. Larson was elected to his first full term as attorney general in 1948.

Lester S. Gillette, Democratic candidate for governor of Iowa, accused Larson of failing to enforce "other laws" while he was conducting his statewide anti-gambling campaign. Gillette made the charges during a visit here several weeks ago.

Larson is married and the father of four children.

Harold J. Fleck of Oskaloosa is the Democratic opponent of Larson for the state attorney general's office.

Frank J. Messer of Iowa City is one of six candidates for three bench seats on the Iowa Supreme court.

Messer is running for office on the Democratic ticket.

He was born, raised and educated in Iowa and is an SUI college of law graduate. He has been admitted to the bars of state and federal courts, the circuit court of appeals, the eighth district court and the U.S. supreme court.

Messer has held the office of special assistant to the attorney general in chain-store tax cases in 1934 and '35. He has served as city solicitor of Iowa City and was special state counsel in Johnson county on numerous occasions.

Other offices which Messer has held are the past presidency of the Johnson county bar association and ex-member of board in control of athletics at SUI. He is a member of the Johnson county, Iowa state, and the American Bar associations.

Messer is a special lecturer on law in the Valparaiso university college of law during the summer sessions.

He is campaigning for a non-partisan state supreme court.

Leonard L. Ryan and P.J. Siegers are also campaigning on the Democratic ticket for judge of the state supreme court. William L. Bliss, Norman R. Hayes and G. K. Thompson are seeking the three offices on the Republican ticket.

Harold D. Evans, a Republican is the candidate for the eighth district judge. He is unopposed, having been nominated by both the Republican and Democratic parties.

He received for the second time the Democratic nomination for reelection to the district court for the eighth judicial district, Johnson and Iowa counties.

Evans, the incumbent, has held the office of eighth district judge for 22 years. He first received the Democratic nomination about 11 years ago, he said. Evans lives at 505 Oakland avenue.

Ed Sulek, 75, is the unopposed Democratic candidate for Johnson county auditor, a position he has held since 1917. He was Johnson county deputy auditor two years prior to that.

Sulek was graduated from the SUI college of law in 1906 and practiced law for 10 years. He is married and the father of two children. He lives at 729 N. Kimball avenue.

street. He is married and has two sons and two grandchildren.

Three candidates are campaigning for two positions as justice of the peace.

Atty. J. Newman Toomey, 32, 617 Rundell street, is the Republican candidate opposing the two Democratic incumbents.

Toomey received his B.A. degree from SUI in 1939 and served five years in the army during World War II. He was graduated from the SUI college of law in 1949.

He was chairman of the 1950 Johnson county cancer fund drive and chairman of the Johnson county committee for the Hoover report.

Toomey is county chairman and a state director of the United World Federalists. This is his first campaign for public office.

The two Democratic incumbents seeking reelection as justices of the peace are C.J. Hutchinson and Atty. W.F. Murphy.

Youth and Crime —

Two recent examples of juvenile crime in Iowa City bring up the question, "What can be done to help cut down on juvenile crime?"

The three teen-agers who twice ransacked the Alpha Tau Omega house this fall and a juvenile crime ring which has been operating in Johnson county about five months indicate a weakness in the social structure of both our city and nation.

Poverty is a prime cause of juvenile crime. A disproportionate number of delinquents come from low social-economic family groups, with fathers either unskilled or semi-skilled and with consequent lower social status and less security. Homes where there is total unemployment, where mother instead of fathers work, or where both parents work also are likely to breed crime.

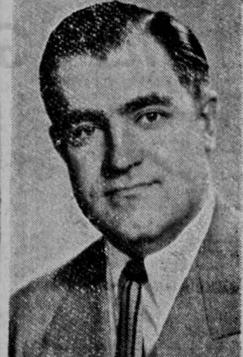

A disproportionate number of delinquents also comes from large families, where unsatisfactory housing and poor neighborhoods are probable.

The broken family often is cited as the cause of our rising crime rate. Of 13,000 cases of juvenile delinquency studied between 1899 and 1909, 43 percent came from broken homes. Today it is estimated from 40 to 70 percent of all delinquent children come from broken homes.

Many believe that delinquency is a learned experience and requires direct contact with other delinquents to acquire delinquent attitudes and skills.

Delinquents might see more movies than average American youth, but movies at worst can be said to aggravate delinquency, not cause it. Probably the same factors which drive the child to seek escape on the screen drive him to delinquency.

Housing projects and well-planned recreational programs can help fight crime. As citizens interested in our own personal welfare and that of our cities and states, we must wage this fight.

He was an army officer from 1917 to 1919. Martin was a professor of military science and tactics at SUI, 1921-23. He is married and the father of a daughter and a son, who is now in Korea.

Martin voted to abolish Point Four, President Truman's program for underdeveloped areas. The Republican move was defeated by a vote of 220-150.

He voted to cut foreign aid in May, 1950. The move was a Republican - Southern Democrat coalition which passed the bill in the house by a 273-113 vote. Of the 273 votes for the measure 116 votes were Democrats and 157 Republican.

Martin did not vote on the Communist Control bill which was passed over President Truman's veto on Sept. 22. However, Martin has said that he favored the bill. He said he was absent from Washington at the time the bill was voted upon.

Martin was one of 106 Republicans and 39 Democrats voting against the extension of rent controls to Dec. 1950, with a provision that local areas could thereafter extend it until June 30, 1951. This bill was passed in the house, however, by a 176-145 vote.

In January of this year Martin helped vote down a $60-million authorization for aid to Korea. The vote was 192-191.

JACK C. WHITE

1936. White is married and the father of three children. The family lives at 1827 E. Court street.

Three candidates are vying for the county sheriff's office. Albert J. (Pat) Murphy the incumbent is running on the Republican ticket, James G. (Gee) Donohoe on the Democratic ticket and Robert E. Rowe as the independent candidate.

Murphy, 50, is seeking reelection to the office he has held for the past four years. He previously was deputy sheriff for five and one-half years.

The GOP sheriff candidate graduated from West Branch high school. He has been a farmer and a service station operator.

He is married and lives at 417 S. Clinton.

James G. Donohoe, 57, the Democratic candidate defeated Robert E. Rowe, the independent candidate for sheriff, in the primary election. Rowe got his name on the ballot by circulating a petition and getting the required number of signatures.

Donohoe is a native of Holbrook ated a farm near Solon since 1914. He is married and has one daughter.

Republican Congressman Thomas E. Martin of Iowa City is opposed by Democrat James D. France of Tipton for the office of first district representative of Iowa in the U.S. house of representatives.

Martin, 57, was first elected to the house in 1938 and has been reelected to that office six times in succession.

He was born at Melrose in Monroe county and attended grade and high schools in Russell. He was graduated from Albia high school and in 1916 received a B.A. degree from SUI. In 1927 he received a J.D. degree from the SUI college of law.

Martin received a Columbia university fellowship and was graduated with a L.L.M. degree from that institution in 1923.

Among the public offices that he held prior to his present position are city solicitor of Iowa City, 1933-35, and mayor of Iowa City, 1935-37.

the department of internal revenue for over 15 years. Married and the father of three children, Hutchinson lives at 821 Dearborn street.

Atty. W.F. Murphy, 94, the other Democratic incumbent seeking reelection as justice of the peace, has held that office for two terms.

Born in Monmouth, Ill., Murphy was graduated from the SUI college of law in 1880 and has practiced law in Iowa City for 70 years. He was county auditor for five years.

Murphy, the father of three children, lives at 113 S. Johnson street.

Roy Lewis and Pat Gilroy are the Republican and Democratic candidates respectively for constable. Two candidates will be elected.

Lewis, 68, is seeking reelection to the office he has held for 14 years. He was born and raised on a farm three miles southwest of Iowa City. He was graduated from high school at Iowa City academy.

Lewis worked as a motorman on the Cranvic railway commission for 16 years. He now lives at 514 S. Dodge street.

Patrick Gilroy, 71, has been constable since 1940 and is seeking reelection on the Democratic ticket.

Gilroy farmed in Johnson county for many years. He is married and the father of six children. He lives at 332 S. Dubuque street.

Two candidates are seeking reelection to the county board of supervisors. Both are Democrats and are unopposed for the offices they seek.

J.E. Pechman is campaigning for reelection to the county board of supervisors for a three year term beginning Jan. 1, 1951. He was first elected to the board in 1948.

Pechman, 67, was born in Lincoln township and attended the Iowa City academy. He farmed for 24 years near Iowa City.

He is married and lives at 542 S. Clark street.

Marvin A. Stahle, Solon, chairman of the board, has been in office since 1946. He was born in Big Grove township and farms one mile north of Solon.

Stahle is seeking reelection for a three year term beginning Jan. 1, 1952.

He was appointed to fill a vacancy on the county board of supervisors in 1946. Stahle was elected to the board in 1948.

Under the system of staggered terms, two men are elected to the three man board every two years.

Women in Political Race May Capture Top Offices

WASHINGTON (UP)—Women are making one of their strongest bids for high elective office in the Nov. 7 election since Jeannette Rankin—the feminine political trail blazer—entered congress in 1917.

The campaigns have not produced a record number of female candidates. But they are rated as having a better chance of capturing top offices than ever before.

One is making a strong race for the senate and another is given an excellent chance to occupy a governor's mansion. In Connecticut, both major parties have nominated women for secretary of state.

Ten Women in Congress

At present, there are 10 women in congress, including Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.). The other nine (four Republicans and five Democrats) are members of the house.

The Republicans are running all four women incumbents in the house this year but Mrs. Smith will not have to campaign again until 1954. The four GOP feminine legislators are Reps. Edith Nourse Rogers, Mass.; Frances P. Bolton, Ohio; Katherine St. George New York, and Cecil M. Harden, Indiana.

Three of the Democratic house candidates are campaigning to succeed themselves. They are Reps. Chase G. Woodhouse, Connecticut; Edna F. Kelly, New York, and Mrs. Reva Bosone.

Fights for Senate Seat

Helen Gahagan Douglas, a Democrat, is fighting for a senate seat from California. If she wins she will be the third woman to be elected to the senate and the second to make the grade without a husband who previously occupied the seat.

A number of women are running for various state elective offices.

In traditionally Democratic Arizona, Democrats have nominated Mrs. Ana Frohmler as their gubernatorial candidate. She has been state auditor — an elective position — for the past 24 years and won the primary election hands down.

American Tourists Travelling More; Ticket Agents Happy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans are going places as they've never gone before. The greatest crop of American tourists of all time is now being harvested.

These news flashes come to you today by courtesy of the American society of travel agents.

They're holding their annual convention here, and in view of the travel developments their outlook is as rosy as a travel folder.

Newell Grinnell, the outgoing president, is the authority for the travel information. He told a reporter that millions are going to Canada and Mexico. Others are going to Hawaii, Bermuda, Puerto Rico and Cuba. And 400,000, a record, will see Europe this year.

Furthermore, he predicts that within seven or eight years as many as 800,000 will tour Europe annually.

How come we're such travelers? Travel agents, rubbing their hands gleefully, say it's several things.

The war showed the GI lands he never had dreamed of. He vowed he'd bring Mom or the wife and kids back some day.

Air travel became popular. This gave the person with limited time a chance to go a long way.

Church Luncheon To Open Activities In Religion Program

The Religion-in-Life program for Monday will include a luncheon at the Presbyterian church, two seminars in Old Capitol and a dinner meeting for program leaders.

The Rev. Francis W. McPeck, industrial relations secretary for the Congregational council for social action, will be the featured speaker at meetings Monday through Wednesday.

Special guests at the 12:30 luncheon will be members of the International club, Inter-Varsity Christian fellowship, Gamma Delta (Missouri Synod Lutheran students). Anyone interested may attend. Cost of the meal will be 35¢.

The 2:30 p.m. seminar will be on "Alcoholism and Religion" and the 3:30 p.m. seminar will be on "Christianity and Industrial Relations." Seminars will be in the senate chamber.

A coffee and discussion hour at the Congregational church will be held at 4:30 p.m.

Six leaders and the advisor from each student church group, the YMCA and the YWCA, will attend the dinner at the First Baptist church at 6:15 p.m.

Iowa Citizens Wed At St. Wenceslaus

Mary Claire White and Milo J. Palmer, both of Iowa City, were married here at 9:30 a.m. Saturday in the rectory of St. Wenceslaus church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul White, 418 N. Governor street. Palmer is the son of Mrs. Marie Palmer, 21 E. Bloomington street.

Both are graduates of Iowa City high school.

The Rev. Edward W. Neuzil officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Robert Parrott, 1020 N. Summit street, attended the bride. Gordon Coon, Davenport, was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home. The couple then left on a wedding trip.

They plan to live at 742 Seventh avenue. Palmer is employed by the SUI married students' housing office.

Wounded Visited by Santa

'Home' is Best Christmas Gift Korean Veterans Say

CAMP PENDELTON, CALIF. (UP)—The soldiers wounded on Korea said Saturday they already have received what they want most for Christmas—they're home.

Hollywood, which wants to play Santa to the soldiers, sent a dozen pretty starlets in Santa Claus suits here to get their lists. But most of the 120 said from their beds that the only thing they've wished for in the last six months has already come true.

"I don't need anything for Christmas; it's just Christmas to be home," said Pfc. Charles Chevalier, of Los Angeles. He came home from Honan, but he came without a leg.

"I'm happy to be back in the U.S. That's enough," marine air Staff Sgt. Richard H. Bennett said. The starlets turned over their lists to a group of movie stars sponsoring a ball to raise money for the gifts. Fifty percent of the men who had a wish wanted to see the folks at home on Christmas or, if the doctors wouldn't let them out, talk to them on the telephone.

Marine Sgt. Jack Hoy hoped he could get to his home in Ft. Scott, Kan., for the holidays. Sgt. Thurman Smith, who lives in West Los Angeles, said his best present would be seeing his family in Ohio.

Another group, about 20 percent, wanted pictures of themselves or of their families. The money is going to be raised by a three-day benefit party starting Nov. 17 to open at La Quinta Hotel near Palm Springs. More than 100 stars and celebrities will pay $35 for the three-day soiree, and another 200 persons will pay $10 to hobnob with them at a Saturday night ball.

Even that won't raise enough money to take care of all the wounded who will be at Camp Pendleton by Christmas. But the committee, headed by Mrs. Julie Kline, sister of Producer Hal Wallis, and including Sir Sidney and Lady Lawford, Mayor Charles Farrell of Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nelson, Diana Lynn, Bud Abbott and Van Johnson, hope the movie stars will underwrite the rest.

Propose Re-Routing Highways Around City

Re-routing of major state highways around Iowa City may result from a meeting last week of SUI and city officials and a representative of the state highway commission.

Frank E. Kerrigan, commission member, said an Iowa City committee could meet with the commission to discuss plans to take heavy traffic, including large trucks and gasoline tankers, out of the Iowa City business district. Plans have already been approved for construction of a cut-off of highway 6 to bypass the downtown sector. The cut-off will start west of Coralville, go south and reconnect with highway 6 in west Iowa City at Newton road.

Representing SUI at last week's meeting were Fred W. Ambrose, business manager; Prof. George Horner, superintendent of SUI's division of planning and construction; and Prof. Frederic Higbee, college of engineering.

Raim Failed SUI in Capital: Ludwig

G. M. Ludwig, Republican candidate for state representative, Friday challenged State Rep. Joseph G. Raim on his representation of SUI in the Iowa legislature.

Ludwig, a Tiffin farmer, is running for state representative from the 41st district. Raim is his Democratic opponent.

"I have been led to believe that the job (representing SUI) performed by my opponent has not been satisfactory," Ludwig said. "I believe that I am in a much better position to do this job well."

"I pledge my whole-hearted support to a more energetic and progressive program," he said.

Ludwig pointed out that he once attended SUI and to his continued interest in SUI affairs.

Chief Justice Tried for 'Canevasion,' Gets 30 Days

Chief Justice Don Lay, I.A., Iowa City, Friday became the victim of the inquisition he started when the SUI college of law "kangaroo court" prosecuted him for grand larceny.

Prosecutor Dave McFerren, I.A., Davenport, said at least 10 charges of "canevasion" had been filed against Lay up to last Tuesday, but somehow they all disappeared.

Lay pleaded insanity and gave the court many evidences of same including sitting in the witness box in bright-colored shorts, and blowing on a Halloween horn that unrolled and hit the prosecutor in the face.

Acting Chief Justice Jim McDonald, I.A., Cherokee, and Judges Wayne Andresen, I.A., Iowa City, and Dave Harris, I.A., Jefferson, concurred that Lane was insane. The verdict prescribed was shock treatment — the shock of carrying a cane for 30 days and nights.

The court promised to impeach Chief Justice Lay next Friday at 9:30 a.m. in the law building courtroom.

Federal Aid to Crippled Children's Fund

Funds available to the Iowa state services for crippled children in 1951 are expected to be double the 1949 budget of approximately $140,000, Dr. Raymond R. Rembolt, director of the SSCC said Saturday.

About $40,000 in additional funds are available for the remainder of 1950, Rembolt added. This is the result of amendments to Title V of the national social security act authorizing congress to increase annual grants for services to crippled children from $7.5-million to $15-million.

Aid More Handicapped

Two to three times as many physically handicapped children may be aided by the Iowa SSCC through the increase, Rembolt estimated.

With the additional funds, several expansions and additions will be made. These will include:

1. Increase in number of diagnostic clinics held throughout the state.
2. Additional clinics in areas of heavy registration, allowing special attention to individual children.
3. Opening of follow-up clinics specializing in crippling conditions such as rheumatic fever, cerebral palsy, congenital heart disease and heart disorders.
4. Hiring of additional clinical and case workers.
5. Appropriations allowing a greater number of needy children to receive proper care in foster homes while receiving medical treatment.

Stiegleman to Address Iowa Wire Editors

The Iowa Associated Press and Telegraph Editors association will meet at SUI Nov. 11 and 12. Twenty-five members are expected to attend.

Prof. Walter Stiegleman, SUI school of journalism, will speak at the opening meeting Saturday night.

Iowa Jobs, Wages Gain in September

The Iowa non-farm employment figure for September rose 1,750 above that for August to set an all-time high for the state, according to the Iowa employment security commission.

The new high was reached despite a 6,900 drop in the durable goods industries, which was caused by the idling of 10,000 workers in several strike-bound farm machinery plants. The meat packing industries also showed decreases.

New contracts in the electrical machinery and transportation equipment industries added 1,200 workers in September. The average weekly wage for Iowa factory workers during the month was $58.94, $1.40 higher than in August, the report stated.

In Fraternity Business Office — Machines Manage Finances

By CHUCK MC LAUGHLIN
The SUI fraternity business office is saving itself nearly 300 man-hours a month this year through the facilities of the statistical service's International Business machines.

Graham Marshall, head of the business office, said two full-time and three part-time workers spent over 500 hours a month hand-posting fraternity accounts. His office is a business channel for 20 social fraternities, three sororities, and two professional fraternities, handling their financial matters amounting to nearly $75,000 a month.

Coordinates Business
It was established to coordinate fraternity business, advice and counsel fraternity members, enabling them to spend more time on their administration functions. The fraternity treasurer gives a list of members' house bills (room, board, dues, fines, etc.) to Marshall who distributes the bills to the SUI treasurer's office and to the fraternity members.

Under the old system, too much time was spent in hand posting the 8,000 to 10,000 bills each month and errors were sometimes made.

Faster Processing
With the IBM equipment, some of which is capable of sorting 650 cards a minute, the process is faster and it is foolproof.

The holes guide the cards through several machines which sort, file, duplicate and check the cards. Last year, the statistical service handled nearly every SUI department's business. A record of every piece of movable equipment owned by SUI is kept through the use of IBM machines.

ROOF FIRE SATURDAY
Iowa City firemen answered a 12:30 p.m. call Saturday at the residence of Leon Meeker, 909 Hudson street to put out a roof fire.

Metropolitan Opera to Begin 66th Year

NEW YORK — The "Met" will sing in its 66th season Monday night with an old opera and the usual first-night show and show-offs of society, but there will be more than the usual excitement over several brand new things.

Opera lovers will be judging far more than the Metropolitan Opera company's opening presentation, a revival of Verdi's "Don Carlo," with four new singers making their debuts.

For one thing, it will be the first season under Viennese-born Rudolf Bing, general manager who succeeded Edward Johnson, retired. "More than the usual amount of excitement surrounds this year's opening," a Met spokesman commented. "Everybody's watching to see how things go under the new management."

When Bing took over in June, he soon began trading blows with irritated singers, some of whom aren't back at the Met this season.

31 Young Patients See Shriners Circus

Thirty-one youngsters from University hospitals attended a two-hour Shrine circus in Cedar Rapids Saturday as guests of 14 Lone Tree Shriners.

The circus was sponsored by the El Kahir Shriners temple, Cedar Rapids, for hospitalized and orphaned children in this area.

4 Students Rival For Rhodes Prize

Four SUI students, candidates for Rhodes scholarships, will appear before a state committee meeting at Ames early next month for the final selection of Iowa's two candidates for the scholarship.

Competing will be William R. Eads, A4, Ida Grove; John R. Kuehl, A3, Davenport; Myron J. Lumine, A4, Reading, Pa., and Robert E. Shepherd, G, LaGrande, Ore.

The two state candidates selected from Iowa colleges and universities will then compete with students from a six-state district for four scholarships.

Rhodes scholarships are offered annually for two years study at Oxford university, England. A scholarship is renewable for a third year if certain performance standards are met.

Historical Society Honored for Trips

An award of merit for the State Historical Society of Iowa was presented to the group Friday night for its sponsoring of last year's Mississippi boat excursion for society members and friends.

Voted at the annual meeting of the American Association for State and Local History, Aug. 30, the award read: "For having developed a unique annual tour in the form of a boat excursion down the Mississippi river — and for encouraging a dynamic educational program in state and local history."

Texas Jolts Mustangs, 23-20

SOUTHERN METHODIST'S ACE HALFBACK Kyle Rote was stopped for a yard loss on this play early in the first quarter Saturday at Austin, Tex. where the Texas Longhorns upset the Mustangs, 23-20. Making the tackle of Rote was Paul Williams (80) of Texas. Bill Milburn, Longhorn tackle came in to secure the issue. It was SMU's first loss of theseason.

Longhorns Stall Rote for Upset

AUSTIN, TEXAS (AP) — Texas stopped Kyle (Killer) Rote Saturday and smashed down mighty Southern Methodist, rated college football's top team, in a 23-20 upset thriller in the best wild and woolly tradition of the Southwest conference.

The game had everything it took to amaze and entertain 66,000 spectators jammed into Memorial stadium on a golden autumn day for a look at the only two teams unbeaten in conference play.

Texas came out of the bruising struggle an odds-on favorite to wind up in the Cotton Bowl as host team for the conference on New Year's Day.

Byron Townsend, the terror in the Texas backfield, did for the triumphant Longhorns what SMU fans had expected Rote to do for their previously unbeaten team.

Townsend had one of the best days of his football career, scoring a touchdown in the first period from five yards out and running four yards for another in the second period.

When Texas solved Rote, SMU turned to an air attack with Fred (The Needle) Benners starring. Twice he pitched for touchdowns — 24 yards to Ben White who lateraled to Rote at the four yard line in the second period, again in the fourth period 26 yards to White.

Rote got a touchdown from the one yard line in the third period and the score hovered at 21-20, with the game still in the balance. But Bill Sullivan kicked wide on the try for point, his first miss in 21 tries this season.

That was all Texas needed, but the Longhorns drove down to the SMU two in the closing minutes and produced themselves a safety.

Iowa State Survives On Late Rally, 13-7

MANHATTAN, KAN. (AP) — Kansas State's down-trodden Wildcats came within one foot and one fumble of scoring its second Big Seven football victory in six years Saturday but Iowa State struck for two fourth quarter touchdowns and snatched a 13-7 triumph.

The Wildcats had their Homecoming day crowd of 14,500 counting a 7-0 victory when the roof fell in early in the fourth period. Iowa State turned two Kansas State fumbles into scoring drives.

Halfback Roy Burks pulled the crowd to its feet with one of Wisconsin's longest touchdown runs and Backs Bill Hammond, Bill Schleisner and Rollie Strehlow completed Purdue's collapse by ramming over the goal.

Wisconsin completely outclassed Purdue in the air. Coatta accounted for all but 10 of the 178 yards Wisconsin made on passes. Purdue got only 66 yards.

Strehlow crashed over from the one-yard line midway in the first period. Purdue bounced back with a 58-yard drive, its longest in the game. But Wisconsin's iron line forced Purdue to kick.

Dale Samuels, Purdue's 19-year-old signal caller, connected in the second period on a 33-yard pass to Neil Schmidt for Purdue's lone score.

Getting Up in the Buckeye World

WALT KLEVAY, WHO displays running magic for Ohio State Buckeyes went up in the air Saturday to register a short gain against Northwestern. He was tackled by Jack Springer of the Wildcats. The Buckeyes struck early and romped to a 32-0 win.

Bucks Hit Early Again, 32-0

EVANSTON, ILL. (AP) — Ohio State and its one-man grid gang, Vic Janowicz, stifled Northwestern, 32-0, Saturday in near freezing weather for its fourth straight Big Ten victory.

The Buckeyes, with Janowicz leading the way even as a blocker for two long runs by teammates Karl Sturtz and Walt Klevay, proved their superiority in the opening 2-12 minutes. From then on, it was only a question of how big a score Ohio State might run up.

But even though losing, Northwestern found some glory. The Wildcats rushed through the Buckeye line for 163 yards, a stellar performance against a group which had allowed five previous opponents to gain an average of only 42 yards per game.

The Wildcats were good in the air too, as Dick Flowers and Bob Burson, combined to complete 20 or 32 throws for 209 yards. But one of Flowers' heaves was intercepted by Sherwin Gandee and returned 30 yards for the Buckeyes' fourth touchdown.

Grover Alexander Dies

ST. PAUL, NEB. (AP) — Grover Cleveland Alexander, a fabulous major league pitcher in his day, died Saturday of a heart ailment.

Death came to the 63-year-old baseball immortal in the one roomed room he occupied in a private home here. He had been living of late of a $150 a month baseball pension.

Alexander had been in ill health in recent years — he lost an ear to cancer — but friends who saw him Friday said he mentioned nothing about feeling ill.

He had earned it with a remarkable assortment of records chalked up in a career that covered nearly 20 years — from 1911 to 1930.

It was typical of the colorful Alexander, a notable breaker of training rules, that his best-remembered triumph came at a time when his greatness appeared to be fading.

As a pitcher for the St. Louis Cardinals, Alex had won the sixth game of the World Series in 1926. The Cards needed the seventh to win the series.

Came the seventh inning of the seventh game against the New York Yankees in Yankee Stadium. Two men were out, the bases were loaded, the Cards held a precarious 3-2 lead and Tony Lazzeri was up.

Legend, always denied by Alexander, had it that the one-time Nebraska farm boy was napping in the dugout after celebrating too well his previous day's win the night before. Cold as a mackerel, Alex took the mound, struck out Lazzeri on three pitched balls and went on to win the game.

Illini Nip Michigan, 7-0

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A six-yard pass from Major to Tony Klimek gave Illinois a 7-0 Big Ten win over Michigan Saturday in a swirling snowstorm before 90,000 chilled spectators.

The crowd saw Illinois, No. 10 in the Associated Press poll of sports writers, brand itself the hottest Rose Bowl prospect in the Western conference.

The win gave Illinois a record of two conference victories against a lone defeat by Wisconsin. The Illini have Iowa, ineligible Ohio State and Northwestern to play. The defeat gave Michigan a record of a win, a loss and a tie and virtually eliminated the Wolverines from Rose Bowl consideration.

With the gridiron converted into a skating rink by the steady snow and below freezing temperature, Illinois worked smoothly for its touchdown, rolling 80 yards in 12 plays, all on the ground, except the touchdown pass by Major.

Illinois had all the superiority in the vital first half. Fullback Dick Raklovits and Halfback Ron Stevens made up for the absence of Johnny Karras, the Illinois running star who did not play because of injuries.

Raklovits raced 31 yards to the Michigan 49 to start the drive. After alternating for short gains, he and Stevens moved Illinois down to the 28. Here Stevens cut outside his own left end and spilled six yards from the goal by Michigan's linebacking sophomore, Roger Zatkoff. Two plays later Major straightened up behind the tough Illinois line and calmly flipped a high toss to Klimek. Sam Rebecca converted.

Michigan's best effort with the bad weather shacking Chuck Ortman's passing efforts carried to the Illinois 38-yard line. After the touchdown, Illinois was content to let Michigan do what it could on the snow-caked field.

Late Army Drives Edge Penn, 28-13

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An un-sung defensive halfback, Herbert Johnson, set Army's football offensive in motion Saturday and the nation's No. 2 football team ground out a 28 to 13 victory over Pennsylvania to run the Cadets unbeaten streak to 26 games.

Johnson recovered a Penn fumble to pave the way for the first touchdown and made the first interception of a pass by Francis Bagnell this season. Bagnell ran his streak of non-interceptions to 88 before Johnson spoiled things.

Pennsylvania battled Army on even terms through the first two periods, tallying only 7-6 at half time. Then Army struck explosively for two quick touchdowns, one on a short pass thrown by Bob Blaik and the other on a 29 yard run by Eugene Filipki.

After Penn rallied for a second touchdown, Filipki put the game on ice in the fourth period with a 73-yard gallop.

Spartans Smash Indiana, 35-0

EAST LANSING (AP) — Snow, cold, mud, and Michigan State's sizzling Sonny Grandelius were too much for Indiana's Hoosiers here Saturday, and they were thrashed by the Michigan State College Spartans, 35-0.

Grandelius, a roaring terror through tackle and around end, scored three of the Spartans' five touchdowns. He rolled to more than 180 yards in 25 tries. A blanket-wrapped crowd of 45,237 fans saw the game.

The Hoosiers, with the passing arm of Lou D'Achille shackled by the wet and cold, fumbled away what few chances they had. An alert, hard-hitting Michigan State line again and again proved their undoing.

Michigan State's other touchdowns were scored by Le Roy Crane and Defensive Fullback Ed Timmerman, the last on a 60-yard return of a pass interception with 46 seconds remaining. Timmerman recovered two key Indiana fumbles.

The closest the Hoosiers came to scoring was in the second period.

Bright Nears Record As Drake Wins, 42-14

DES MOINES (AP) — Drake's Johnny Bright hustled to within 17 yards of a new national total offense record Saturday as he led his team to a 42-14 victory over Bradley in a Missouri Valley conference football game.

The 200-pound junior halfback turning in his most brilliant performance accounted for 436 yards to boost his eight-game total to 2,171 yards, only 16 short of the record 2,187 by Frank Sinkwich, of Georgia, in 11 games in 1942.

The Drake star finishes his schedule against Iowa State next Saturday and barring an injury seems certain to break Sinkwich's record.

Irish Passes Sink Navy, 19-10

CLEVELAND — Out of the despair of one of their bleakest seasons, Notre Dame and glory Saturday became working partners again at wind-swept Municipal stadium where the Fighting Irish rose in their best tradition and twice came from behind to sock down high-pitched but luckless Navy, 19-10.

Beaten three times by Purdue, Indiana and Michigan State, the Irish were not to be denied as 71,074 rain-drenched fans cheered them on.

It was all-America quarterback, Bob Williams, Notre Dame's "passing fancy" who came through with two touchdown passes with a wet ball on the rain soaked field to direct the forces to victory.

With the score 10 - 7 against them, the fired-up Irish put on a 78 - yard march to a touchdown early in the third period to go ahead for the first time. Williams threw three passes in the downfield parade, wafting the last one to end Chester Ostrowski in the end zone on fourth down from the 12 yard line.

That was the key moment of the ball game, but Notre Dame made its margin more secure when the green-shirted boys got going on another scoring march in the fourth period.

Notre Dame Captain Jerry Groom started it out when he blocked a Navy punt and a host of Irishmen fell on it on the Navy 17. Johnny Landry engineered things the rest of the way, with three straight plunges, the final one being good for five yards through center for the touchdown that made it 19-10.

California Spills Washington, 14-7

SEATTLE — California's ground-eating Bears, moving relentlessly toward a third straight Rose Bowl bid, mixed a surprising passing attack with sheer power Saturday to humble the Washington Huskies, 14-7, for their 31st consecutive regular season victory.

Jim Marinos, a 180 - pound senior from San Diego, passed for one touchdown and helped set up another as California remained among the unbeaten and untied. It was the first Pacific coast contest victory for the Huskies.

Reynolds, Nagle Lead Cornhuskers Home, 40-34

LINCOLN — The Nebraska Cornhuskers, spurred by sparkling Sophomore Bobby Reynolds, and the passing of Fran Nagle, overcame a 14-point deficit to trim Missouri, 40-34, in a wild offensive battle before a sellout homecoming crowd of 38,000 Saturday.

In LEADERSHIP there is CONFIDENCE..

In DIRECTION there is STRENGTH...

In ABILITY there is QUALITY...

You Know These Johnson County Men—Some of Them Have Proved Themselves as Leaders—as YOUR representatives in Government—You know You Can Depend on Them For

GOOD HONEST GOVERNMENT

Now . . . give these new men a chance to show their ability and also serve you well!

ELECT These Capable Men

WILLIAM L. "Bill" MEARDON

for County Attorney

An experienced and practicing attorney; veteran of World War II; married; taxpayer. Attain greater results at less expense.

G. M. LUDWIG

for State Representative

Assure your best interest by electing a Republican to a Republican legislature. Ludwig is the man—able, dependable, sincere.

J. NEWMAN TOOMEY

for Justice of the Peace

Newman is a practicing attorney—married—veteran of World War II—taxpayer. Will do the job you want done.

These Men Have Been Your Representatives—in Congress—in the State House—in the Courthouse!

They are your friends and neighbors—have worked for YOU!

RE-ELECT These Capable Men!

Congressman

THOMAS E. MARTIN

for U.S. Representative

As your congressman from the first district, he has served you well as his record shows.

Attorney General

ROBERT L. LARSON

for Atty. General of Iowa

Attorney General Larson has been a leader, not a follower. All forms of gambling have been wiped out and he will keep it that way.

Judge

HAROLD E. EVANS

for District Judge

True justice must be founded on the integrity, character and experience of such men as Judge Evans.

Sheriff

ALBERT 'PAT' MURPHY

for Sheriff

An excellent sheriff working well with all law enforcing bodies. He does his duty without seeking personal credit—He likes the work and does it best.

County Recorder

R. J. 'Dick' JONES

for County Recorder

A friend of everybody is Dick. Keep him in there as County Recorder.

Constable

ROY E. LEWIS

for Constable

A real servant of the people is Roy. Been doing a job for Iowa Citizens for many years.

Be SURE to Vote! Be PROUD to Vote!

Vote For YOUR Republican Friends and Leaders!
