Nationalists Say Guerrillas Hinder Reds

WASHINGTOH — Chinese Nationalist press agencies Tuesday said guerrillas had created “extreme disturbances” in the mountainous Chiang Kai-Shek stronghold area because of the Communists' American and Russian supplies. The agencies said guerrilla forces, who are probably made up of escaped prisoners of war, were in the area to aid in the army's war with the Chinese Communists. The agencies said the Communists were using guerrillas to prevent the Chinese Nationalists from getting vital supplies from outside the country.

Says Russia Gave China 100 Jets for Korean Intervention

WASHINGTON — Daily News reports Tuesday that the Russians have promised China 100 jet planes for use against the United Nations forces in Korea. The planes, which will be delivered to China from Russia, are said to be of the latest design and will be used by the Chinese forces in the war against the United Nations forces. The Russians have promised to deliver the planes as soon as possible.

Urges Prayer for Peace in Holy Year

WASHINGTON — The annual Christmas message from the Pope was read Tuesday by the Archbishop of Washington. The message urged the people of the world to pray for peace during the Holy Year. The Pope said that the world was in need of peace and that the only way to achieve it was through prayer. He urged all people to pray for peace and to work towards the realization of this goal.
