Cold Wave, Snowstorms Sweep Nation

By The Associated Press
A wave of biting subzero cold came tagging Tuesday behind snowstorms that stretched a wide white belt across the northern portion of the nation.
The cold drove the mercury down to 29 below in Minnesota and sent nippy freezing temperatures as far south as Oklahoma and Virginia.

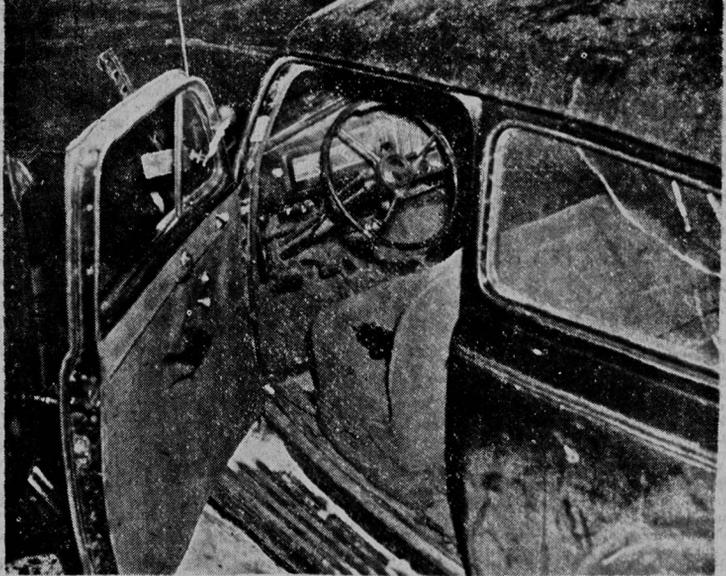

The weather bureau reported the snow ranged in a heavy band, about 200 miles wide, from southeastern Minnesota to western Pennsylvania and New York.
Snow-covered areas of Iowa will be visited by 20 below zero temperatures this morning, the Des Moines weather bureau predicted Tuesday night.
Elsewhere, minimum readings of around 10 degrees below zero may be expected, the bureau added.

Ex-Wife Testifies Remington Told Her He Was a Communist

NEW YORK (AP) - William W. Remington's divorced wife said under oath Tuesday that the former government economist told her in 1938 he was a Communist and asked her to keep it a secret.
With his knowledge, she added, she, herself, became a Communist just before their marriage that year.
Mrs. Ann Remington, a serious, unsmiling witness at her ex-husband's federal perjury trial, testified she went to Young Communist league meetings with Remington when he was a Dartmouth student.

Navy Discards Plan To Release Reservists

WASHINGTON (AP) - The navy has chucked overboard its plans to start releasing reservists next summer, a navy spokesman said Tuesday.
An announcement Nov. 1 said enlisted reservists recalled involuntarily would be released at the rate of 5,000 a month and reserve officers at the rate of 1,500 a month beginning in July, 1951.

ABOVE IS A VIEW OF THE FRONT SEAT of the wrecked car in which Clarence H. Swalles, 29, Tipton, was found nearly unconscious from a gunshot wound in the head Monday evening. Swalles was rushed to University hospitals by two passing motorists. His condition was described as fairly satisfactory but serious Tuesday night.

Tipton Man Found Shot in Head Still In Serious Condition at U-Hospitals

A 29-year-old Tipton man found shot in the head in a car east of Iowa City remained in fairly satisfactory but serious condition at University hospitals Tuesday night.
Sheriff Albert J. (Pat) Murphy said Tuesday he was investigating a possible attempted suicide by Clarence H. Swalles, a carpenter and day laborer in Iowa City, Tipton and West Liberty.

724 Dead in Holiday Accidents

By The Associated Press
Observance of Christmas this year cost the nation a frightful violent death toll of at least 724 persons over the three-day holiday.
On city streets and along the highways, traffic mishaps took the greatest toll, 545. This was more than 100 above the number of persons killed in traffic accidents during the 1949 Christmas holiday.

Thirty Injured In Iowa Train Crash

LINEVILLE, IOWA (AP) - The Los Angeles-bound "Imperial" crack Rock Island railroad passenger train, plowed into the rear end of a stalled freight near this Iowa - Missouri border town Monday.
Five persons were hospitalized with injuries and 25 others suffered minor cuts.

Former Follies Girl Found Strangled in Hotel

NEW YORK (AP) - A former Ziegfeld Follies actress was found strangled in a hotel room Tuesday and a lumberjack, who had rented the room where the body was discovered, was taken into custody several hours later in Utica, N.Y., police reported.
The former Follies girl, Evelyn Hughes, about 50, was strangled with a piece of cloth and a scarf stuffed into her mouth. Empty beer cans were scattered about but there were no signs of a fight.

ROK's Battle Chinese Reds Within 28 Air Miles Of Seoul

Leave Korea or Be Driven Out, Reds Warn U.S.

HONG KONG (AP) - Communist China delivered its "final warning" Tuesday - United States troops will be driven from Korea and Formosa if they do not withdraw.
Here is the text of the broadcast by the Peking radio, regarded as the voice of the Red China regime:
"Having taken part in the Korean People's army for the purpose of supporting them and driving back the American imperialist invader, Chinese volunteer units gained big results.
"And the brave actions of the Chinese volunteer units were supported as a patriotic action in the second world meeting for the protection of peace (the Warsaw congress).
"The Chinese will fulfill their right actions.
"We will drive them back by our might if the U.S. invaders will not withdraw from Korea and Formosa.
"These words are the final warning from us."
There are no American troops in Formosa. But small U.S. liaison groups were established after President Truman declared the neutrality of Formosa.

OPEN ARROWS LOCATE Chinese Red activity along the 38th parallel in Korea Monday. A fierce battle was reported in the Korangpo area (A), 28 miles northwest of Seoul, while 45 miles northeast of the South Korean capital a North Korean blow aimed at Chuncheon (B) was turned back. Red patrol activity was reported in other sectors of the defense line set up by UN forces defending Seoul.

No Immediate Indication of Size of Fight

TOKYO (WEDNESDAY) (AP) - A fierce battle within 28 air miles of Seoul erupted Tuesday between Chinese Communist forces and South Korean troops again defending their capital and homeland.
Republic of Korea (ROK) headquarters announced the action was "in progress" in the Korangpo area. That is about two miles south of the 38th parallel and 10 miles east of the road and rail hub of Kaesong. There was no immediate indication of the size of the fight.
Republican headquarters also reported that Red patrols were sparring with the defenders all along the ROK-held section of the front lines.
Reds Mass 300,000 Men
Chinese and Korean Red forces are estimated to have 30 divisions of 300,000 or more men along or immediately to the rear of a 120-mile front running from west to east along the 38th parallel.
A giant new exodus of civilians began from Seoul Tuesday following a wave of Christmas day rumors that the Chinese had begun their attack in force.
It was exactly six months ago today that Seoul first fell to the North Korean Red invaders. It was liberated on Sept. 27 by UN forces.
A North Korean blow aimed at Chuncheon, 45 miles northwest of Seoul, was turned back Tuesday and the situation there was better for the time being, ROK headquarters said.
GI's Reach Pusan
Some 105,000 U.S. 10th corps troops have reached the Pusan-Pohang area in extreme southeast Korea from abandoned Hungnam on the northeast coast.
The 10th corps was being absorbed back into the U.S. Eighth army, after operating separately since the Inchon landing Sept. 15.
The reorganized Eighth army - now three corps strong and bolstered by ground forces from eight other UN countries - regrouped under its new commander, Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway.

Truman Flies Back To Washington For Urgent Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Truman flew back to the capital Tuesday for urgent talks with his top military and diplomatic advisers.
Press Secretary Joseph Short told newsmen firmly that no new crisis had arisen - such as the one which sent Mr. Truman hurrying back to Washington after the Communist invasion of South Korea last June.
Nevertheless, the President cut 20 hours off his scheduled five-day Christmas holiday at his home town of Independence, Mo., and arranged a top-level conference to begin soon after his arrival.
Those invited included Secretary of State Dean Acheson, Secretary of Defense George Marshall, Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder, and Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.
The announcement of Mr. Truman's change in plans came shortly before Gen. Douglas MacArthur disclosed in Tokyo Monday that Communist "secret political and military decisions of enormous scope" had been uncovered as a result of the UN drive to the Manchurian border last month.
White House Secretary Short told newsmen Mr. Truman planned to discuss numerous defense problems and also the forthcoming departure of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to become supreme commander of a Western European defense army.

Army Orders 7,500 More Officers to Report for Duty

WASHINGTON (AP) - The army Tuesday ordered 7,500 national guard and reserve lieutenants and captains to report for active service between March 1 and March 22.
The army said it also will call up 100 Women's Army corps officers of those grades. The number of lieutenants and captains recalled to date now totals about 27,000.
The army also announced that it is ordering to active service 890 additional medical officers, 850 dental officers and 415 medical service corps officers. They will report for duty in two groups on Feb. 5 and March 15.
This is the first time the army has ordered up individual officers from the national guard and organized reserve units. The army said that the number of lieutenants and captains called from such units will be small and that they will not be ordered into active service until after officers from four other sources have been exhausted.
The other sources in the priority set up by the army are:
1. Volunteers from the national guard and organized reserve.
2. Organized reserve officers commissioned from the ROTC who were previously deferred and who have one year's prior federal service.
3. Reserve officers commissioned from the ROTC who did not execute deferment agreements and who have had less than one year of federal service.
4. Members of the volunteer reserve.

U.S. Contemplates Red China Boycott

WASHINGTON (AP) - A proposal for a free world economic boycott of Communist China was reported under study by the United States Tuesday as a possible next step in dealing with the Korean crisis.
Following Peiping's rejection of the United Nations appeal for a cease-fire, responsible administration officials forecast that the U.S. will have definite "suggestions" probably next week for action by the UN general assembly.
Indications from responsible authorities were that what is under study is a revival of the Soviet - vetoed proposal to brand Communist China as an aggressor and an effort to get other nations to join the American trade embargo against the China mainland.
WASHINGTON (AP) - Congress marked time Tuesday awaiting an expected rush of emergency defense legislation keyed to three messages from President Truman early in the new year.
The senate met for 24 seconds between gavel knocks by Sen. Kenneth McKellar (D - Tenn.), acting presiding officer, and recessed until Friday.
The house met for seven minutes, then quit until Thursday.
Both houses are operating on a standby basis during the Christmas holidays under agreements to hold off on major legislation until the house returns in full strength Jan. 1 and the senate Jan. 2.
The only house action Tuesday was to send the civil defense bill to conference to adjust differences between separate versions already passed by the senate and house.

Penicillin Shot Kills Pennsylvania Nurse

MC KEESPORT, PA. (AP) - Penicillin, the wonder drug, turned killer Tuesday.
The "miracle" drug took the life of a 23-year-old McKeesport hospital nurse shortly after she injected a "small" dose into her thigh to help cure a common cold.
Staff attendants said the nurse, Geanne Beatty, died so suddenly they at first believed she had suffered a heart attack. She was on duty in the children's ward when she collapsed.

State Cancer Society Grants $40,800 to SUI

Eight grants by the Iowa division of the American Cancer society were accepted for SUI by the finance committee of the state board of education Tuesday.
The grants total $40,800 and bring the three-year total of grants to SUI from the state cancer society to almost $145,000.
This sum is in addition to $297,000 granted to SUI for research by the national office of the cancer society during the three-year period. The 1950 national grant was $109,000.
The biggest single gift went to the radiation laboratory. It was $10,000 to be used to hire two post-doctorate research associates and buy equipment for the lab.
Dr. R. G. Bunge, associate professor of urology, will receive $5,500 for a study of organ culture with emphasis on kidney growth.
Dr. Willis M. Fowler, professor of internal medicine, was awarded $5,000 for continuation of bone marrow studies.
Dr. John G. Moore, obstetrics and gynecology, was granted $3,300 to study the growth of the uterus.
Organisms which control plant growth will be studied by Dr. P. J. Leinfelder and Dr. Gordon G. S. Christiansen, department of

World Situation at a Glance

FIGHTING FRONT - Fierce battle erupts between Chinese Reds and South Korean troops in Korangpo area two miles south of 38th parallel and within 28 air miles of Seoul; battle may be first in overdue full-scale offensive by 300,000 or more Chinese. New exodus of civilians begins from Seoul.
WASHINGTON - Army orders 7,500 national guard and reserve lieutenants and captains to report for active service between March 1 and March 22.
WASHINGTON - Congress marks time awaiting expected rush of emergency defense legislation keyed to three messages from President Truman early next year.
WASHINGTON - President Truman returns to capital to confer with top diplomatic and military advisers on Korean war and overall U.S. strategy against communism.
HONG KONG - Red China delivers "final warning" that U.S. troops will be driven from Korea if they do not withdraw.

No Danger of Sugar Rationing

WASHINGTON (AP) - Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan Tuesday set an 8-million ton sugar import quota for 1951 in an effort to assure adequate supplies and guarantee fair prices to consumers and growers.
Brannan said the new quota should enable household and industrial sugar users to maintain adequate stocks without any increase in prices.
He said it will permit "unrestricted consumption" - in other words, there is no danger of sugar rationing.
COMPOSER DIES
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Ben Black, 60, co-composer of the song "Moonlight and Roses," died here Tuesday.

Residents Leave Seoul Again

By WILLIAM J. WAUGH
SEOUL, KOREA —(P)—Residents of Korea's ancient capital began leaving their city again Tuesday.

There was no panic, but fear was in the eyes of the people who moved slowly southward, burdened with all the earthly goods they could carry.

President Syngman Rhee told the citizens Monday it would be better if they departed, so that military traffic would not be impeded in case the war situation became worse.

The big southward movement of civilians began Tuesday morning. Main thoroughfares were lined with refugees.

Many shop windows were boarded up. One solid line of civilians extended from the center of the town to Yongdongpo, a distance of four or five miles.

Streetscars were not operating. A Korean said motormen and conductors were busy sending their families south.

Associated Press correspondent Bill Shinn, a Korean, went into a residential district and talked to the people.

"An old man told me that the young people were leaving but that most families were leaving one person, usually an elderly one, to guard the house," said Shinn.

Rhee and his top government officials are remaining in Seoul. But the families of many national assemblymen already have departed, and minor officials likewise have begun to leave.

The national assembly, upon adjourning Monday, announced it would reconvene Jan. 15. It was indicated the assembly would meet in Pusan if the military situation grew worse.

Seoul is pitiful by daytime and eerie by night. Civilians must clear the streets by 7 p.m. The city is dark and shivering cold.

Communists and their sympathizers are becoming bolder. Red pamphlets are appearing. A Korean actress was arrested by police who said she had been distributing handbills reading: "Let us welcome the North Korean people's army — crusaders of liberty."

Watches Father's 'Last March'

TRAGIC MOMENT FOR GENERAL'S SON. Capt. Sam Walker (far right, foreground) sadly watches as the body of his father, Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, is placed aboard a hearse at Tokyo's Haneda airport Sunday after air arrival from Korea. The Eighth army commander was killed in a jeep accident near the northwestern Korean front Saturday.

Says Russia Gave China 100 Jets for Korean Intervention

PARIS —(P)—A confidential report received by the French government said Tuesday that Russia promised the Chinese Communists 100 jet fighter planes if they intervened in Korea and promised even more extensive aid if the United States bombed Manchuria.

The government was understood to regard the report as unconfirmed but as coming from a reliable source.

According to the report, the Russians and the Chinese Communists concluded an agreement Nov. 15 covering the Korea situation.

Under this agreement, it was said, the Russians promised in addition to contributing planes to start at once the training of 1,000 Chinese pilots and 2,000 Chinese paratroopers.

Further, it was asserted, the Russians promised to provide troops — who presumably would be Mongolians operating as Manchurian "volunteers" — if the United States bombed Manchuria. The figure of 10 to 11 divisions, with the addition of 30,000 former Japanese war prisoners, was mentioned.

The same reports said that about 300 Chinese Communist planes and about 350 Soviet fighter and light bomber planes were now concentrated near the Korean frontiers.

They added that in event the war spread to Manchuria, a general staff would be formed for North Korea, Chinese Communists and Soviet participants with a Soviet marshal in command.

New Commander Arrives in Korea

TOKYO — Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway arrived at U.S. Eighth army headquarters in Korea Tuesday to take over the command of nearly 250,000 Allied troops under a new unified command setup.

Ridgway succeeds Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, the Eighth army commander who was killed Saturday in a jeep accident north of Seoul. He flew from Washington for the assignment.

Coincident with his arrival, the army disclosed that most of the troops of the U.S. 10th corps had been placed under the Eighth army command after being transferred from the Hungnam beachhead to South Korea.

In northeast Korea the 10th corps had fought as a separate command under Maj. Gen. Edward M. Almond. The split command of the ground forces in Korea had been criticized in some quarters.

Nationalists Say Guerrillas Hinder Reds

WASHINGTON —(P)— Chinese Nationalist officials said Tuesday their guerrillas on the China mainland have delayed Communist movement of supplies to Korea and diverted troops the Reds wanted to use in the invasion of Tibet.

They also reported widespread guerrilla operations in south-west China opposite Formosa. They contended Chiang Kai-Shek could invade the mainland and win control of all south China if the administration lifted its ban on Nationalist attacks on the Chinese mainland.

The Nationalists here noted that Chiang claims "Close control" over 1-million guerrillas in a line stretching from southeast to southwest China. They said these men could be used to prevent a Red invasion of Indo-China if Washington would permit.

President Truman ordered the seventh fleet to Formosa in an effort to localize the Korean war. While that was before Chinese Communists invaded Korea, many officials still feel no action should be taken that would increase the danger of an all-out war with Communist China.

The Nationalists said that, if Chiang were permitted to invade south China, the action would threaten one field army, deployed along the Indo-China border, and force its withdrawal.

They held out no hope that the guerrillas could cut off all supplies being sent to Communist armies in Korea. But some military officials believe the China Reds already have been slowed down by supply problems.

The Communists have confirmed unintentionally that the guerrillas are giving them trouble. A recent Hanchow broadcast said 13,000 "bandits" were wiped out in Fukien. The coastal province nearest Formosa, and that "main communications lines are being restored."

Porter to Participate in Washington Meet

Prof. Kirk H. Porter, head of the political science department, will participate on two committees at the American Political Science association's convention at Hotel Statler in Washington, D.C., beginning today and continuing through Friday.

Porter is on the committee which compiled a book entitled "Toward a More Responsible Two-Party System." The book was the product of nearly two years work by professors from 13 universities, and state department officials.

It was published two weeks ago by Rinehart and Company Inc., New York.

Porter is also on the Woodrow Wilson Foundation awards committee. The foundation presents an award annually for the best book on political science.

Other SUI political science faculty members who will attend the convention in Washington are Prof. John Briggs and Vernon Van Dyke, and Instructor Lane Davis.

Asks Help in Search for Historic Stone

LONDON — Scotland Yard appealed to every person in Great Britain Tuesday night to aid in the search for the historic "stone of Scone" which was stolen from Westminster abbey Christmas morning.

Newspaper editors were asked to publish pictures along with a full description of the stone, which for more than 600 years had been fixed under the coronation chair in the abbey as a symbol that kings of England crowned on it also were kings of Scotland.

Police throughout the country maintained a day and night search of highways and byways for an automobile which might be taking the stone back to Scotland whence King Edward I brought it to London in 1297. Cars were stopped and drivers questioned. But the "Yard" admitted dispiritedly that if — as is suspected — Scots nationalists "liberated" the stone, it might not turn up for 100 years.

In the belief that nationalists took the stone, Scotland Yard clamped a warlike "security blackout" on details of the search. Patrol cars which formed road blocks all the way between London and Scotland were ordered to report in special code to prevent leaks to nationalist sympathizers.

245 CASUALTIES
WASHINGTON (P) — A defense department announcement Tuesday listed 245 casualties. Of the total, 28 are dead, 122 wounded, 77 missing and 18 injured in accidents.

First Quadruple Amputee Home from Korean War

WASHINGTON — The first quadruple amputation case of the Korean war — 20-year-old Pfc. Robert L. Smith — is being flown here for treatment in Walter Reed hospital, the army said Tuesday night.

Both his legs were removed below the knee and both hands at the wrists, apparently as result of severe frostbite suffered in the fighting around the Chosin reservoir.

Through an apparent mistake, Smith's mother, Mrs. Clara Elma Smith, of Middleburg, Pa., was notified only that her son was "slightly wounded." The army said she was notified Friday. But she told newsmen she received the telegram Tuesday.

Iowa Manufacturing Centers Remain Stable

Iowa's leading manufacturing centers have remained highly stable over the years, a new SUI study on manufacturing in the state shows.

With but one exception, the ten leading counties in 1929 were still among the ten leaders in 1947, the last year for which figures are available. This leadership is based on value added to the economy by manufacturing.

The study was made by Norman H. Ringstrom Jr., of SUI's bureau of business and economic research.

The ten leading counties in 1947 were Polk, Linn, Blackhawk, Woodbury, Scott, Lee, Dubuque, Clinton, Jasper and Webster. No 1947 figures were available for Wapello county, which was ninth in 1929.

While 1929's top ten counties produced 72 percent of the state's total manufactured output, the top 10 in 1947 accounted for 70 percent, the study shows.

Five of the leading counties — Linn, Clinton, Dubuque, Blackhawk, and Jasper — had 90 percent or more of their industrial activity concentrated in a single urban center in 1947. Polk county just missed the list, with 89 percent of its output centered in Des Moines. Webster county had the least amount of concentration, with only 52 percent centered in Fort Dodge.

The ten leading Iowa manufacturing cities in 1947, according to the study, and the percentage of the state's manufacturing output they produce were as follows:

Cedar Rapids, 12 percent; Des Moines, 11.5 percent; Waterloo, 9 percent; Dubuque, 5.5 percent; Davenport, 5.1 percent; Clinton, 4.5 percent; Fort Madison, 3.6 percent; Burlington, 2.7 percent; Mason City, 2.5 percent.

These ten cities accounted for nearly 60 percent of the state's manufactured output.

Copies of the new report may be purchased from the university's department of publications for $1 a copy, according to C. Woody Thompson, director of the bureau of business and economic research.

Swishers Conduct Morning Chapel

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob A. Swisher are conducting the Morning Chapel over WSUI at 8 a.m. during this last week of December. They are presenting "A Fivefold Formula for Faith."

Swisher spoke Tuesday and will speak again today. Mrs. Swisher will speak Thursday and Friday, and both will participate Saturday.

The programs are based on the five letters of the word faith. They are: F — Forget your Failures and your Fears, "Forget It!"; A — Assume Always an Aspiring Attitude, "Replace Fear with Faith"; I — Increase your Interest in the Intangible and the Invisible, "Cherish Things Not Seen"; T — Take Time to be Thankful, "Give Thanks Always," and H — Harbor Hope, Harmony and Happiness, "Live in Triumphant Faith."

50 Scouts to Camp Out This Weekend

Fifty Boy Scouts from the Iowa River Valley council will brave wintry blasts this weekend at the Rotary scout camp, five miles west of Iowa City.

The hardy young men plan to camp out in tents and cook over open fires.

Activities will begin at 10 a.m. Friday and continue through breakfast Sunday. The scouts will break camp in time for church Sunday.

Each troop will have its own adult leader in attendance.

The camp will be directed by John M. Kelly, neighborhood counselor for the River Valley council.

Three Iowa City troops are among the six which have already made reservations for the weekend.

Gutchenritter Rites To Be Held Today

Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. today for 91-year-old Joseph Gutchenritter who died at his home at 215 S. Johnson street Monday.

The rites will be at Beckman's and Dr. L. L. Dunnington, pastor of the First Methodist church will officiate.

Burial will be in Oakland cemetery.

Mr. Gutchenritter was a native Johnson county. He operated a broom manufacturing establishment here prior to his retirement.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lena Hague, Sheldon, and a nephew, Frank Gutchenritter, Iowa City.

Collection Suit Brought

A collection suit has been brought in Johnson county district court by the Swisher Feed and Lumber company against Joe Prachar Jr.

Seeking an award of $236.25, the lumber company claims it loaned the defendant $200 three years ago and that he has never repaid the money. The additional $36.25 represents accrued interest, the company says.
