Allies Abandon Seoul As Chinese Troops Storm In

New Congress Convenes; House Slaps Administration

WASHINGTON (AP) - The new 82nd congress convened Wednesday under the threat of World War III and with a warning from President Truman that he will soon ask "much heavier" taxes to pay for the nation's rearmament.

In the senate, Vice - President Alben Barkley banged his gavel promptly at noon to start the legislative machinery rolling. The chamber recessed 38 minutes later, until Friday, after the oath-taking ceremonies for new senators and those reelected to new terms.

Session Opens
In the house, Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Texas) opened the session in the newly redecorated blue-and-gold chamber, and stood with his colleagues in reciting the Lord's prayer.

Administration forces suffered a jolting setback in the first hours of the new session when a coalition of Southern Democrats and Republicans rolled up a 244-179 margin in a critical test of house strength.

Nominally, the Democrats control the house by 235 to 199, but there was no mistaking the power of the Dixie-GOP bloc to threaten that slim majority at any time.

The vote came on a motion to restore authority to the coalition-dominated house rules committee to pigeonhole legislation.

Mustering 92 Democrats and 152 Republicans, the coalition rammed through a repeal of a rule which had allowed other committees to bypass the rules group and get legislation to the house floor.

Rule Put In
Truman Democrats put in the rule two years ago because Dixie Democrats and Republicans on the rules committee were bottling up many administration measures - notably President Truman's civil rights proposals.

Across the capital, the Republican high command also opened fire on the administration. Sen. Robert Taft (R - Ohio) bluntly accused Mr. Truman of forcing congress to mark time "for perhaps two weeks" in a time of urgency by delaying his annual "State of the Union," economic and budget messages to congress.

Mr. Truman is scheduled to deliver the message in person to a joint session of congress next Monday. His economic message will follow several days later, and his budget message is due on Jan. 15.

Tickets for Lecture By Retired Admiral Available Friday

Rear Adm. Ellis M. Zacharias, author of the best sellers, "Secret Missions" and "Behind Closed Doors," will speak Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Iowa Union.

Zacharias' lecture is being sponsored by the committee on university lectures of which Prof. Earl Harper is chairman.

The admiral's subject will be "Instruments of Peace." Free tickets for the lecture will be offered to students, faculty and staff members beginning at 8 a.m. Friday.

Tickets will be made available to the public on the day of the lecture if any remain undistributed.

Zacharias, now retired from the navy, had a long career in naval intelligence.

In March 1941, he predicted the impending Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. His prediction was complete in every detail except the actual date.

Zacharias made headlines again after the war when he said that the United States then possessed an atom bomb 50 times more powerful than those dropped on Japan.

He is now engaged in nationwide lectures. He also is a radio analyst of world news and foreign affairs on a program titled "World Intelligence Reports."

World Situation at a Glance

FIGHTING FRONT - Allied troops abandon flaming Seoul ahead Chinese assault troops storming gates of the city. UN navy stands off west coast ready to "redeploy ground troops by sea," if necessary.

DIPLOMATIC FRONT - UN cease - fire committee acknowledges failure in efforts to halt fighting in Korea. U.S. Delegate Warren Austin says American troops will fight on against Red aggression and urges free world to stand together in hope of averting World War III.

WASHINGTON - Secretary of State Dean Acheson accuses Russia of completely ignoring the West's proposal for overall Big Four talks on cold war. Demands clarification of Soviet attitude.

MOSCOW - Soviet papers carry no editorial comment on Russia's notes to Western powers stating it flatly will not accept rearmament of West Germany.

LONDON - British commonwealth leaders trying to solve Moslem Pakistan and Hindu India quarrel on peace-and-war strategy talks, which Pakistan has boycotted.

SAIGON, INDO - CHINA - French army announces enemy action in north Indo - China by Communist-led Vietminh forces has lessened.

DUSSELDORF, GERMANY - About 500,000 workers of West German iron and steel industry serve notice they will strike Jan. 31 unless they are given a voice in the economic management of their plants.

HONG KONG - Hong Kong pro-Communist newspaper Ta Kung Pao boasts: "Now that the giant of new China has stood up and our volunteers have displayed suppressing strength, our liberation armies can certainly lick the U. S. navy, airforce and the 700,000 hurriedly assembled Japanese troops."

(Japan has no army as such, only a lightly-armed police.)

Induction of Enlistees Halted Temporarily

DES MOINES (AP) - Shipments of army airforce enlistees to Des Moines from Iowa enlisting substations were ordered halted temporarily Wednesday.

Maj. H. S. Graham said the Des Moines station was swamped with enlistees and needed time to process and induct a backlog of about 150 men before receiving any more.

The major said this did not mean enlistments would be refused. They will continue as heretofore.

However, with the large number of men now in Des Moines awaiting their final physical examinations and induction, the station was unable to take any more men from out in the state.

The order would not affect Iowa enlistees in western Iowa who report to Omaha for processing and induction.

The major said that as soon as the backlog was cleaned up, the station would resume receiving men from its substations about the state. The plan in the future, he explained, was to accept about 60 men daily. This number could be processed each day.

Excess Profits Tax Signed by Truman

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Truman added $3.3-billion to the nation's tax load Wednesday by signing the new excess profits tax bill and warned "the task ahead of us will require more and much heavier taxes."

The measure, passed during the last hours of the 81st congress, brings the total of new taxes voted since the start of the Korean war to $7.8-billion, including a $2.8-billion boost in individual income taxes.

Harrison to Head Production Agency; Symington Replaced

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Truman set up a new super defense production agency Wednesday to rush arms production while keeping an eye on essential civilian needs.

The new agency, known as the defense production administration will be generally similar to the World War II war production board. It will be headed by William H. Harrison, now head of the national production authority, which will continue in existence with a new chief and less power.

Harrison, working directly under defense mobilization director Charles E. Wilson, will take over major defense production planning which formerly was farmed out to NPA and a number of regular government agencies.

At the same time the President set up a new defense mobilization board, made up of heads of major government departments, to advise Wilson on major aspects of mobilization.

Along with the reshuffle, the munitions board disclosed it is stepping up its layaway program with the aim of assuring the nation enough reserves of critical materials to meet a five-year war. Wool will be stored, and production of Guayule rubber will be pushed in case foreign natural rubber supplies are cut off.

Wilson, responsible only to the President, gets still broader powers to direct the overall mobilization program. Chairman W. Stuart Symington, of the national security resources board returns to his original role as mobilization adviser to the chief executive.

Beardsley to Give Budget Message Soon

DES MOINES (AP) - Gov. William S. Beardsley said Wednesday he will deliver three messages in person to the 54th general assembly within a week after it convenes next Monday.

The governor said he will deliver his "biennial message" Jan. 9, his inaugural address Jan. 11 and possibly his budget message Jan. 15 before combined sessions of the senate and house.

More 'White Stuff,' Wind Expected in Iowa City

By TROY ANDERSON
Iowa City, still shoveling its way out of a two-inch snow fall Wednesday, is slated for more of the "white stuff" today - this time accompanied by strong winds and much colder weather.

Two Johnson county schools have been added to the list of weather casualties, according to Superintendent of Schools Frank J. Snider.

Cosgrove consolidated school near Oxford and the West Liberty school were closed Wednesday because of the ice and snow conditions.

The remaining 89 county rural schools, however, were still operating, Snider said.

Streets Cleared
Meanwhile, work on clearing the snow from downtown streets is expected to begin sometime tonight after business establishments have time to clear the sidewalks.

Street Commissioner Willard R. Irwin Wednesday said four trucks and crews will continue to put sand on icy hills throughout the city.

Alfred Alteneber, foreman of the highway maintenance workers, said plows were busy clearing highways. He described the condition of highways leading out of Iowa City as "generally bad."

Mercy hospital reported Wednesday that two Iowa citizens were injured during falls on icy streets in the city while University hospitals reported none.

The injured were Marie Condon, 121 E. Court street, who fell and fractured her hip, and Florence Gilliland, 311 Iowa avenue, who fractured her wrist.

Envelopment Threat Forces Retreat

UNITED NATIONS TROOPS began their retreat from Seoul Wednesday night as two columns of Chinese Reds (A) swept to the outskirts of the flame-swept city. One force of Reds (B) was believed to have captured the key city of Kapyong and threatening to encircle the Allied columns (broken line) along the highway to Seoul. Another Communist drive (C) was reported to have taken Chunchon in an attack down the Chunchon-Wonju highway aimed at outflanking the South Korean capital from the southeast.

SUI'S Students Begin Faculty Rating Program

SUI's students and faculty began working in reverse this week, with the students grading the faculty.

In an attempt to find out how the students rate the instructor, and to provide this information to the instructor, the University examination service has begun issue of faculty rating forms.

The student will be asked to compare five instructors with whom he has had classes. Using these instructors as a basis, the students will judge ten different teaching categories with grades varying from best to poorest.

The appraisals of the instructor will be evaluated by the examination service and the grades will be available to the instructor.

Student Anonymous
However, the student will remain anonymous. No copies will be kept on file, and under no circumstances will results be released to administrative officers.

SUI expects to obtain "norms of performance" after the instructor has made his appraisal.

Freshmen who are not familiar with five SUI instructors may use high school instructors for comparison. Transfer students are permitted to compare five instructors from the school the student formerly attended.

Five Members
On the rating form will be five numbers, from one to five, one

86 Students Leave SUI, Enlist in Armed Forces

By WAYNE DANIELSON
A total of 86 men have dropped from SUI to enlist in the armed forces, Registrar Ted McCarrel said Wednesday.

The students were rushing to join their favorite branch of the service so they would not be drafted into the army.

Draft officials have announced that many college-age men will be reclassified 1-A and called for their preinduction physicals this month. (After a man has had his physical he can no longer enlist.)

One Thousand Notices
Last week the state selective service headquarters announced it would send notices to about 1,000 Iowa college students between Jan. 1 and 15. These notices direct the men to report for their preinduction physicals.

Registrar McCarrel said students leaving SUI now to enter the armed services will receive full credit for their semester's work if they follow directions.

If a man is doing failing work at the time he leaves, a grade of F will be put on his record.

If an enlisted man wants credit he must wait till he is in the service and then ask his commanding officer to send the registrar a letter stating when the man reported for duty.

Within Two Weeks
To get credit the man must be in the service within two weeks after he cancels his registration.

A man wishing to cancel his SUI registration to enlist should do the following things:

- 1. Get a cancellation card from his college office. (Liberal arts students go to the liberal arts advisory office, room 109 Schaeffer hall.)

2. Have the proper SUI officials sign the cancellation card. (Usual signatures include the dean of the student's college, the dormitory assignment office, the office of student affairs and the treasurer's office.)

3. Present the filled-out card to the registrar's office.

At SUI Wednesday there were indications that the enlistment boom was still going strong.

The Johnson county draft board office reported a rush of students asking more information concerning their draft status.

The Daily Iowan received several calls from men asking for information on the various armed forces.

Few Room Cancellations
But the SUI dormitory assignment office said almost no room cancellations were turned in Wednesday by men leaving school to enlist.

In Des Moines, navy and airforce recruiters reported one of the heaviest days since the early part of World War II.

The navy recruiters took in more than 150 men Wednesday; the airforce, 60, and the marines, 22.

In Cedar Rapids, navy and airforce recruiting officers said that at least 200 SUI students were among youths who inquired Wednesday about enlistment opportunities.

The students indicated they do not plan to return to the SUI campus for the spring semester, officers said.

Navy Prepared For Possible Evacuation

By OLEN CLEMENTS
TOKYO (THURSDAY) (AP) - Chinese assault troops stormed the gates of Seoul today. Some may already be inside the flaming, abandoned South Korean capital.

United Nations ships off the west coast stood ready to evacuate retreating UN troops, if necessary. A Red entrapment force to the east threatened to swing southwest and cut roads of retreat south of Seoul.

Four American divisions and a British brigade pulled back through the 500-year-old city, deserted by most of its civilian population.

Airfield Demolished
UN forces demolished and abandoned big Kimpo airfield, 15 miles northwest of Seoul. It may already be in Red hands.

U.S. warships off Incheon, 20 miles west of Seoul, bombarded the vanguards of seven Chinese armies bearing down from the north. Warships of at least seven countries were in position to cover the UN withdrawals.

A navy summary today said the U.S. warships were "lending their pinpoint bombardment in support of embattled ground forces on the west coast."

The shelling was opened Wednesday night.

In the UN fleet were naval transports and merchant ships - ready just in case. Already thousands of Korean civilians had been evacuated by sea.

Admiral Thackery Commands
Rear Adm. L. A. Thackery, senior officer of UN naval forces off the west coast, said:

"We are ready to provide naval gunfire and, if necessary, naval transports and merchant ships to redeploy our ground troops by sea."

Swarms of Allied planes also were adding hourly to the huge losses inflicted against waves of Chinese.

U.S. airforce, navy and marine planes, augmented by South African and Australian fighters, rocketed and bombed the Reds.

The peril in the east was posed by enemy forces, paced by hard-riding cavalries, seeking to swing southwest and cut the escape roads from Seoul to the old Pusan beachhead in southeast Korea.

No Report
At noon (9 p.m. Iowa time, Wednesday) a U.S. Eighth army spokesman said there was no report from Seoul that all Allied troops had cleared out of the city.

Headquarters did not know whether all the Han river bridges connecting Seoul with the south had been blown.

(This dispatch, passed through censorship, strongly suggested that the retreating Allies already were demolishing some of the spans across the Han. The river flows down from the northeast, curves around Seoul's southern outskirts, then goes northwest into the Yellow sea.)

Cold and weary American soldiers broke lanes across the ice and ferried supplies and materiel southward in assault boats.

Ice was broken away near pontoon bridges still serving military forces.

Meardon Gets Delay In Lons Murder Trial

The first degree murder trial of James Lons Wednesday was continued to the February term of court.

U.S. Extends Peace Feelers

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. (AP) - The United States declared Wednesday it intends to "fight on in Korea," but is ready to negotiate with Peking "at any appropriate time."

American Delegate Warren R. Austin told the United Nations' main political committee that Communist China's drive across the 38th parallel "compounds the original aggression" committed when its troops crossed the Manchurian border into Korea.

While carefully holding open the door to negotiation "of an honorable solution," Austin served notice that the U.S. would push discussions with other UN members on "what the free world must do next" to deal with the new Chinese offensive.

Austin made the policy statement at the first meeting of the general assembly's political committee since Dec. 18.

The committee heard a full report on the efforts of the UN's cease-fire team to halt the Korean fighting - efforts frustrated by Peking's refusal to deal with the mediators.

The report disclosed that Gen. Douglas MacArthur's unified command had proposed a cease - fire blueprint calling for a 20 - mile buffer zone north of the 38th parallel.

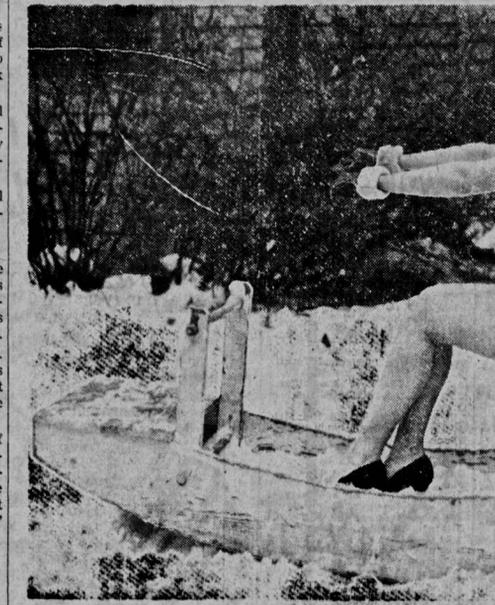

The report of failure did not end the work of the cease - fire team.

Dewey Raps U.S. Civil Defense Plan

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) - Gov. Thomas E. Dewey charged Wednesday that President Truman's administration had bungled home defense, and urged the legislature to gird New York state for its "own salvation" against possible atomic attack.

Dewey outlined a sweeping and costly preparedness program for the state, in the face of what he termed the "genuine possibility" of a "most savage" attack.

In his message in the crowded assembly chamber, the governor accused the Truman administration of "grave weakness and vacillation." Dewey charged that Russia was "in fact, waging a nation in a number of forms against us now."

What's a Little Snow?
BUT BABY, IT'S COLD OUTSIDE! Vivian Walton, A2, Cedar Rapids, didn't mind the cold Wednesday as she posed for a Daily Iowan photographer. Miss Walton was making believe she had an old fashioned sleigh and knew the horse would get her there - if she had had one. In many parts of a nation a sleigh perhaps was better than cars for travel. Miss Walton's lack of winter attire - who cares?

Kenneth Reeds Weds JoAnn Wicks Here At Bride's Home

JoAnn Wicks, SUI graduate, and Cpl. Kenneth D. Reeds, both of Iowa City, were married at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Wicks' home, 1230 E. Burlington street.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marc E. Wicks, was affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha, social sorority. She is employed as speech correctionist in the Fairmont public schools, Fairmont, Minn.

Reeds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Reeds, 519 E. Jefferson street, attended SUI, where he was affiliated with Delta Upsilon, social fraternity. He is now serving in the marine corps at Camp Del Mar, Oceanside, Calif.

The Rev. P. Hewison Pollock officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Maid of honor was Marilyn Miner, Sycamore, Ill.

Ralph Reeds, A2, Iowa City, brother of the groom, served as best man. Candlelighter was Alan Wicks, a brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home. The couple then left on a short wedding trip to Chicago.

To Wed SUI Student

ANNOUNCEMENT HAS BEEN MADE OF THE ENGAGEMENT OF Bernice Quakenbush, Vinton, to Everett Montgomery, G. Vinton. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Blanche Quakenbush. She is employed at Virginia Gay hospital, Vinton, Montgomery is the son of Mrs. Max Bykowski, Chicago. No date has been set for the wedding.

SUI to Give Special Laundry Course

At least 20 persons are expected to attend the special SUI course in hospital laundry management Feb. 12 to March 30, according to L. A. Bradley, manager of the university laundry.

Registration for the seven-week course currently totals 10 persons from places as far away as Florida and California. Ten others will be selected Jan. 8 from a group of scholarship applicants. Registration is limited to 35 students, including the 10 who receive scholarships.

Charles C. Ingersoll, administrative intern at University hospitals, will serve as the university's representative on the scholarship selection board to choose those who will receive scholarships at $275 each.

Engineering background, public health aspects, textiles, laundry chemistry, personnel and production management, hospital organization, accounting and cost keeping, speech and note taking and laundry management will be considered.

New synthetic laundry products such as synthetic soaps, permanent starches and fluorescent dyes, will be held in the university laundry plant.

Enrollment fee will be $94—covering complete cost of the course, including books and supplies. Housing will be provided in university dormitories if desired, Bradley said.

Applications for admission should be made to the university extension division before Jan. 15, accompanied by a check for $25, or $35 if university housing is desired.

The course is sponsored jointly by the American Hospital association and SUI. The association made the scholarships available through the cooperation of Pacific Mills.

Two Appointed to College of Nursing Staff

Two additions to the SUI college of nursing staff were effective Jan. 1, Dean Myrtle E. Kitchell announced Wednesday.

Nancy Sittig, SUI graduate and former resident nurse at Currier hall, was appointed instructor in pediatric nursing. She was awarded an M.A. degree in education with a major in pediatric nursing by the University of Chicago in December.

Jeanne Stikels, A4, Rockford, Ill., is a newly appointed instructor in surgical nursing.

A native of Fort Dodge, Miss. Sittig is a graduate of the Michael Reese hospital school of nursing in Chicago. She was a member of the U.S. army nurse corps, and received a B.A. degree from SUI in 1949.

A graduate of the Rockford, Ill., Memorial hospital school of nursing, Miss Stikels was a night supervisor there for a year. Later she did postgraduate work at Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore. She was also a member of the army nurse corps. She will receive her B.A. degree in February.

Dramatics Professors Attend Conference In New York City

Four professors from the SUI dramatic art department attended a conference in New York, Dec. 27-30.

The professors were Gladys Lynch, Gregory Foley, Arnold Gillette and Harold Crain.

Prof. E. C. Mabie, head of the dramatic art department was scheduled to attend but was unable to do so. Crain, however, presented a paper written by Mabie titled, "Exciting New Developments in Research."

Crain also headed one of the national committees which gave a report at the conference.

The four organizations which met in New York were the American Educational Theater association, the National Theatrical society, the Society for the Study of Communications and the National University Extension association committee on debate materials.

Inter-Church School To Offer 4 Courses, Talks by Prof. Lampe

Iowa City's Inter-Church Leadership Training school for Sunday school teachers will offer four courses and include Prof. Willard Lampe, director of SUI's school of religion, on its faculty when it opens Jan. 8.

Lampe will teach "Christian Character and How It Develops." Prof. Robert S. Michaelsen of the SUI school of religion will teach "Content and Value of the New Testament."

Two other courses, "Teaching Primary Children" and "Teaching Juniors" will be offered. The courses will be offered on the basis of standards set up by the International Council of Religious Education which will give credit for the courses.

Ten Iowa City churches have united to hold the school with both Sunday school teachers and interested persons invited to attend. A fee will be charged for the school, which is to be held in the First Presbyterian church building on six consecutive Mondays.

12 SUI Law Seniors To Receive Awards

A total of 15 certificate awards will be given out to law seniors tonight at the annual Law Review dinner, 7 p.m. in the River room of the Iowa union.

Richard Hobbet, L4, Eagle Grove, editor in chief, expects at least 50 persons to attend including District Judge James P. Gaffney, who will be after-dinner speaker.

Those who are to receive certificates include Donald P. Lay, Iowa City, 2 certificates; Emery E. Davis, Marathon, 2; Richard Hobbet, Eagle Grove, 2; Alan N. Polasky, Iowa City; Burt J. Fulton, Iowa City; Robert C. Tilden, Kalona.

Iowa Business Hits New High

The economic index in January's issue of Iowa Business Digest reports that business activity throughout Iowa hit a new high of 342 in October on SUI's economic scale. The year 1939 is used as a base of 100 in the index. At the same time, the national index reached 330. For the first ten months of last year, Iowa business activity climbed 4.8 percent and the national index 9.9 percent over the same 1949 period.

Infant Dies in Fire, 2 Brothers Escape By 2nd Floor Leap

OTTUMWA — Three teen-aged brothers leaped to safety from the second floor of a blazing frame house Wednesday but were later unable to rescue their infant cousin, who perished in the flames of undetermined origin. Firemen said that a coroner would have to determine whether David Young, the 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Young, died of suffocation or burns.

The three older youths, Jack Reynolds, 19, and his brothers, Darrell, 17, and Robert, 15, jumped from a window of the house, then remembered they had left the baby behind, authorities said. A fireman scrambled up a ladder to the second level of the one-and-a-half story house in efforts to rescue the child, but he was dead when he was brought into the open.

SUI to Receive Du Pont Awards

SUI is one of 47 universities which will receive post-doctoral and graduate fellowships from E. I. DuPont, De Nemours and company Inc., it was announced in Wilmington, Del., Wednesday. The fellowships will be granted during the 1951-52 academic year. Selection of candidates and their projects will be determined by the university.

Woman Seeks Estate Valued Over $2-Million

MASON CITY (P) — Mrs. L.L. Bosworth of Mason City Wednesday asked the Cerro Gordo county district court to recognize her as the heir to the estate of W.E. Brice, wealthy Mason City man who died Dec. 29, 1950 at the age of 89.

V. R. Schuster Moves To Council Bluffs Office

V.R. Schuster, former outside representative of the Northwestern Bell Telephone company in Iowa City, has been transferred to the company's Council Bluffs office. He assumed the district service engineer's position there Tuesday.

Petition Disputes Fearful Texans' Protest

BROWNWOOD, TEX. — Newsboys and citizens circulated a petition Wednesday to overrule a landowners' protest that reactivation of nearby Camp Bowie would cause an atomic attack on this west central Texas town. Twenty-five landowners from two counties met last night and wired a petition to Sens. Tom Connally, Lyndon Johnson, and Rep. O. C. Fisher, Texas Democrats, urging that Camp Bowie not be reactivated.

monthly publication of the university bureau of business and economic research. Of the six components in the over-all index, only cash receipts dropped 3 percent in Iowa and 3.5 percent nationally in the first ten months of 1950.

In comparing the January-October period of 1950 with 1949, the index shows the following: Bank debits increased 9.5 percent in Iowa and 12.7 percent nationally. This measures the volumes of checks used in personal and business transactions. The value of construction contracts awarded skyrocketed 28.9 percent in the state and 44 percent in the nation.

Senator Butler Takes Controversial Seat

WASHINGTON — Sen. John M. Butler (R-Md.) was permitted to take his controversial senate seat without objection Wednesday but under a procedure designed to permit his expulsion later by simple majority vote.

Republican leaders had decided earlier that the Democratic maneuver did not mean anything anyway and there was no objection when senate Democratic Leader Ernest W. McFarland, Ariz., asked unanimous approval of the motion to seat Butler.

The Democrats figured the procedure would permit the chamber to expel Butler later if a current investigation should sustain the charges he used unethical tactics in his successful campaign against former Sen. Millard E. Tydings, his Democratic opponent.

Prisoners Strike For Diet Change

DAVENPORT — A one-day hunger strike by 20 prisoners at the Scott county jail ended Wednesday with assurances of "dietary changes." The prisoners, most of them serving terms up to one year, demanded more rolls for breakfast, coffee three times a day and other changes. Their petition called for elimination of spaghetti, peas, rice and sandwiches from the jail menu.

SUI Graduate Wounded During Korean Fighting

Lt. Horace L. Sturtz, SUI graduate from Boone, was listed as wounded on the latest casualty list from the Korean war. Sturtz received his B.S.C. degree in advertising in February 1950. He was classified advertising manager for The Daily Iowan from September 1949 until just before his graduation.

HANCHER TO SPEAK

President Virgil M. Hancher will speak at the weekly meeting of the Rotary club at 12:15 p.m. today in Hotel Jefferson on "Current Problems in Higher Education."

Iowa Casualty List Includes 6 Missing, 3 Wounded, 1 Killed

WASHINGTON (P) — Korean casualty list No. 192, issued Wednesday night by the defense department, contained 461 names. Of the total, 97 were dead, 179 wounded, 157 missing and 28 injured in accidents.

WASHINGTON (P) — Ten Iowa casualties, including six missing in action, one killed in action and three wounded, were announced Wednesday night by the defense department.

The list includes: Killed in Action Army—Pvt. Raymond F. Rowland, son of Mrs. Rose A. Rowland, 329 Second avenue, South, Clinton. (Previously reported missing in action).

Sgt. 1st Class Manuel Junior Spoon, husband of Mrs. Lena Mariam Spoon, Lucas.

Moeller Named Member Of Cancer Committee

Prof. Leslie G. Moeller, director of the SUI school of journalism, has been named a member of the lay education committee of the Iowa division of the American Cancer society.

The purpose of the committee is to further the society's program to bring additional information of the problems of cancer to the public and to promote awareness of the great need for early diagnosis of cancer.

Manpower Shortage To Hit County's Farms in 1951

Not only SUI but farms in Johnson county and Iowa will suffer from a manpower shortage this year.

While male students have been leaving school, other males who would ordinarily have been farm laborers are entering the army and jobs in accelerated war production. Mrs. Nellie C. Verdin, manager of the Iowa City branch of the Iowa State Employment service said Wednesday the need in Johnson county will be primarily for general farm hands who can start work about March 1.

Such construction projects locally as the veteran's hospital and the Coralville dam have also drawn away potential farm labor. To meet the situation, Mrs. Verdin urged all farmers to report their expected labor needs to the Employment service as soon as possible in order to have a chance of obtaining sufficient help.

Farmers Must File To Get Soil Money

Johnson county farmers must file evidence of their 1950 soil building practices by Jan. 10, 1951, if they are to receive federal support for them. Papers should be mailed or taken to the county production and marketing administration office on the second floor of the Iowa City post office building.

John B. O'Connor, chairman of the PMA in Johnson county, said some papers have been mailed to his office with no names attached. Any farmer who may have filed soil building reports without attaching his name should contact the office immediately.

Lone Tree Cafe Enjoined From Selling Liquors

The Nibble Nook inn, a cafe operated by Kenneth and Deores Smith near Lone Tree, was permanently enjoined Tuesday from selling intoxicating liquors by District Judge Harold D. Evans.

The injunction was sought last July 8 by former county Atty. Jack C. White after an Iowa City high school girl, Irene Crow, 17, was killed in a truck accident. It was alleged at the time that she and Charles Yordi, who was driving the truck when it turned over on a curve on highway 6, had visited the Nibble Nook during the evening.

Judge Evans noted in his decision that Smith had consented to the injunction.

Iowa Industry Pays Below Par, Study Shows

Nine of the ten industries in Iowa employing the most workers paid wages below national averages for those industries in 1947, a report of the Iowa study of manufacturing shows.

Wages and salaries in manufacturing industries comprised 10.5 percent of the total income payments in Iowa in 1929, but by 1947, the figure had increased only to 13.2 percent. During the same period, total employment in Iowa manufacturing rose from 87,144 to 140,425 persons.

The study, just released by SUI's bureau of business and economic research, was made by Norman H. Ringstrom Jr., a member of the bureau.

In both 1929 and 1947, the average annual earnings of Iowa manufacturing employees were lower than national averages. Individuals working in Iowa manufacturing companies in 1929 earned $1,409, while the average for the rest of the nation was $1,492. In 1947, Iowa workers earned $2,652 and the national average had climbed to $2,777.

Bread and bakery products workers were the only Iowa employees that earned higher than the national average. These workers drew wages 4.7 percent above the national level.

Millwork plants paid their workers just 1.2 percent below the national average for the next best record. Iowa workers receiving the lowest comparative wage were commercial printers. These employees drew only 76 percent of the national average wage.

The ten industries measured accounted for over 34 percent of the state's manufacturing workers in 1947. The industries measured were the three industries listed above, wholesale and meat packing, newspapers, construction and mining machinery, prepared animal feeds, creamery butter, but-tons and periodicals.

In Liverpool, 3,000 transport workers were ill and disruption of bus and tram service was threatened as new cases of illness among drivers and conductors were reported hourly.

Ship unloading was dragging, with 2,000 of the 17,000 dockers ill and the lift mounting. Doctors and druggists reported more work than they could handle, and one hospital shut down with 100 of its nurses in sickbeds.

Man Found Government to Pay Veteran $426

CLOQUET, MINN. — In Washington Wednesday Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) said ex-infantry Pvt. Jesse Franklin Irish had $426 coming to him, but no one knew where to find Irish.

Radio station WKLK here broadcast The United Press story and Vernon Butcher of Cloquet heard it.

"Jesse and I went to vocational school together at Duluth to learn the shoe trade," Butcher said. "Sure, I know him. He lives at 319 Humboldt St., Hurlong, Calif. We write each other every so often."

Irish is eligible for $1 a day for the 426 days he spent in a prison camp after he was captured, at Anzio Feb. 21, 1944. The war claims commission said it was unable to find him.

The commission turned to Humphrey for help because the ex-infantryman last was heard from at Waubun, Minn. Irish was born at White Earth, Minn.

Humphrey said all Irish had to do to collect was write to him stating his claim number and present address.

Flu Epidemic Flares In Northern England

LIVERPOOL, ENGLAND — An epidemic of mild influenza flared throughout northern England Wednesday in the wake of cold and abnormal snow, sleet and rains.

In Liverpool, 3,000 transport workers were ill and disruption of bus and tram service was threatened as new cases of illness among drivers and conductors were reported hourly.

Ship unloading was dragging, with 2,000 of the 17,000 dockers ill and the lift mounting. Doctors and druggists reported more work than they could handle, and one hospital shut down with 100 of its nurses in sickbeds.

MEAT PRICES RISE

CHICAGO (P) — With receipts deeply cut back from advance indications because of icy roads, hogs were 25 to 50 cents higher and cattle steady to 75 cents up Wednesday. Although sheep were in greater supply, since westerns arrived by rail, demand was still higher and prices were firm to 50 cents up.

SUI 'Class' Enrolls 10,000

Class is Dream Assignment for Teacher — No Assignments, Examinations, Grades

There is one teacher at SUI with a "dream" assignment. She directs a class with the largest enrollment of any given on the campus—an estimated 10,000—and she never has to grade an examination paper or answer a question from a pesky student intent upon stumping her.

Like to know who she is and how it's done? She is Mrs. Phyllis Schneider and she uses remote control to reach her unseen students. Mrs. Schneider is a program assistant at radio station WSUI and the class she directs is WSUI's "Listen and Learn" series.

This is the third year that the station has been airing the program and more than 500 elementary schools in eastern Iowa, southern Wisconsin and western Illinois provide the audience.

Fifteen minute broadcasts are made twice a day Monday through Friday at 10:30 a.m. and 2:15 p.m., with one exception. The Friday afternoon program is a 20-minute story period beginning at 2:10.

Among the programs in the current series are "Why is America?", "Merry and the Maestro," "Health Parade," "Science Circus," "Sailor Dan's Sea Chest of Stories," "Exploring the News," "To Build a Nation" and "The Storyteller."

Varied Programs

Programs deal with nearly every aspect of living. Children learn simple rules for fire prevention, the way gravity affects their lives, old and new songs, history and current events.

Study guides covering the programs are sent to teachers who write for them.

Every year "Listen and Learn" invites its absentee alumni to an open house at the radio station. Last April's party brought 500 "old grads" and their friends to the station.

Won Award

The series began in 1948 with 50 Johnson county schools participating. At that time the emphasis was on supplementing classroom work for elementary school teachers.

Since then the scope of the programs has been expanded to tailor the series for town and city schools as well.

The programs brought WSUI a "First Award" last spring at the 14th exhibition of American radio programs in Columbus, Ohio.

RAILS DIP SLIGHTLY

NEW YORK (P) — Investors pocketed some of their recent profits Wednesday and railroad bonds reacted with a minor price dip. It was only the third time in the past 17 sessions that rails had failed to advance.

Hanley Debts Not Caused By Failure of Iowa Bank

WASHINGTON (AP) — A senate committee investigating the famed "Hanley letter" of the 1950 political campaign said Wednesday it finds no evidence that former Lt. Gov. Joe R. Hanley of New York owed a large sum of money because of a bank failure.

In subsequent explanations, Hanley said he was in dire financial straits because a Muscatine bank in which he once owned some stock had failed. He said he inherited the stock from his father and felt liable for $150,000 as an outgrowth of the bank failure.

The committee, headed by Sen. Guy M. Gillette (D-Iowa) said the investigation is continuing. It drew no conclusions as to whether there was any law violation in connection with the affair.

Gillette said his senate elections investigating committee found no evidence to support the bank-failure explanation. Gillette said, however, that Gannett and the Bank of Manhattan lent Hanley $28,500 to satisfy what they understood were the remnants of the Iowa bank obligation.

Charles C. Hagermann, Muscatine, identified himself Wednesday night as a "schoolboy friend" of former Lt. Gov. Joe R. Hanley of New York but said he knew nothing about a note that figured in an investigation of Hanley's debts.

A sheriff's jury had awarded the plaintiffs $250 in April. The district court jurors apportioned the figure to $300. The plaintiffs said the farm was originally valued at $48,000.

Puzzle?

Who Threw Grenades In the Cabbage

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The case of the grenades among the cabbage presented city and federal authorities with a first rate mystery Wednesday.

Seven cases stamped "stimulated hand grenades" and five marked smokeless powder were found in the trailer of a truck loaded with produce.

The boxes promptly were turned over to city police who figured it was a problem for the FBI. The federal agents investigated and in the meantime gave the cases, still unopened, to the army.

Nobody knows what's inside the boxes but army officials were inclined to believe the cases contained dummy grenades, the kind used in maneuvers and unexplodable. The cases were consigned to Camp Pickett, Va., and Pickett Army Arsenal, Dover, N. J.

Meanwhile a search was begun for the missing truck driver, identified by police as Carl Fisher, an employee of the Tri-County Trucking company, Chicago.

Detective sergeant Edward Hinnegan said his investigation produced this set of facts:

Fisher came here around Christmas with a load of produce and delivered his cargo. Then he made connections with the Cross Country trucking company, in south Philadelphia, picked up a truckload of produce and ostensibly set out with it for Tampa, Fla.

But neither Fisher nor his cargo ever showed up in Florida. And nobody knew what had happened to the cargo until Wednesday. And still nobody knows where Fisher has been since Dec. 26 or where the grenades came from.

Plaintiffs Win $50 In Condemnation Appeal

A jury of five women and seven men Wednesday took just 45 minutes to award the plaintiffs an extra $50 in an appeal on condemnation proceedings in Johnson county district court.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Braverman, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Worton, and Herman Worton had complained that the two-thirds of an acre which the Iowa highway commission condemned to widen a curve on Highway 6 near Oxford devalued their 280-acre farm by $3,000.

A sheriff's jury had awarded the plaintiffs $250 in April. The district court jurors apportioned the figure to $300. The plaintiffs said the farm was originally valued at $48,000.

Suspend Chicago Police as Result of Hearing

CHICAGO (AP)—The aftermath of Kefauver committee hearings Wednesday brought suspensions for two more captains on the police department's list of mysteriously affluent officers.

Police Commissioner Timothy O'Connor announced the suspensions of Captains Joseph Goldberg and Harry J. O'Connell. Earlier Capt. Thomas Harrison, district chief in Chicago's rowdy night club belt, was suspended.

Findings of the senate committee showed that Goldberg, a policeman for 35 years, is worth about $43,000 and owns 760 acres of land in Arizona. He had said that some of his assets came as gifts from his "closest friend."

O'Connell, the committee found, has assets of $20,400. The officer said he had to dip into savings to help pay living expenses, but the committee noted that one expense item was a $225 a month apartment.

The annual salary of captains on the Chicago force runs around $5,600. In all, 19 officers were questioned by the committee. No immediate charges were filed against Goldberg and O'Connell and O'Connell said these would be revealed later before a civil service board. The suspensions were for an indefinite period.

Four Register Here Under U.S. Alien Act

One SUI student was among four aliens to return completed alien registration forms Wednesday required by the Internal Security act passed by the 81st congress last year.

The student is J. Peter Whitehouse, G. L'ndon, England, who is studying in the SUI hydraulics lab. The university has 180 foreign students according to Richard E. Sweitzer, adviser to foreign students, but not all will have to register.

As the act, the Mundt-McCaran bill, is set up, only those students who 1) entered the U.S. on an immigration visa and have not taken out first citizenship papers or 2) entered on a visitor's, student's, or official visa and have overstayed the expiration date must register.

Such aliens must register at the local postoffice by Jan. 10. From Jan. 10 to Jan. 24 a written explanation must accompany each registration. After Jan. 24 late registrants will be subject to a $100 fine and 30 days in jail.

Campus Grill Restaurant Sold to Irving Brothers

The Campus Grill, 9 E. Washington street, has been sold, the former owners, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Penland, announced Wednesday.

The new operators of the restaurant, who took possession Tuesday, are Robert and Richard Irving. Robert Irving plans to sell the Coralville Steak shop which he has operated since last July.

'Most Courteous Clerk'

Mrs. Dorothea Hirling, 311 Ronalds street, was named winner of the third annual "Most Courteous Clerk" contest sponsored by radio station KKIC.

Mrs. Hirling is a clerk in the Scott store, 114 E. College.

Auto Skids, Rolls; Pair Escapes

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Quant, 706 E. College street, suffered minor injuries at 2:30 a.m. Tuesday when the car in which they were riding skidded into the ditch on highway 6 near West Liberty.

The car, a 1937 Chevrolet, rolled over twice before coming to a stop. The couple received minor bruises — the car was a total loss, police said.

Three other accidents were reported to Iowa City police Tuesday.

Damages estimated at $440 resulted from a collision at 7:20 a.m. Tuesday on highway 6 in front of the Melody Mill. Drivers of the cars were Ames Reynolds, route 2, and Kenneth L. Cray, 20 Valley avenue.

Cars driven by Robert V. Hogg

Jr., 512 S. Summit street, and William S. Cohen, A4, Des Moines, collided at 8:05 a.m. Tuesday on Burlington street between Gilbert and Van Buren streets. Damage was estimated at $300.

Damages estimated at $88.50 resulted from an accident at 9 a.m. Tuesday when an Iowa City coach skidded on the ice and struck a parked car owned by Alling Benson in front of his home at 206 E. Bloomington street.

Truman Appoints Thomas Islands Commissioner

WASHINGTON — President Truman Wednesday appointed former Sen. Elbert D. Thomas of Utah as high commissioner of the trust territory of the islands.

Thomas, a Democrat and former chairman of the senate labor committee, was defeated in the November elections by Republican candidate Wallace F. Bennett.

The islands in the far Pacific — for which he will be this country's high commissioner — are the former Japanese — mandated islands which United States forces occupied during the last war.

New Congress Hears Of Super Carrier

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation for a 60,000-ton super aircraft carrier which presumably would put the navy in the atom bomb business was introduced Wednesday as one of the first bills of the new congress. Hearings start Jan. 9.

In the background as Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) of the house armed services committee offered the measure were the same explosive issues which brought about the "admirals' revolt" and a sensational congressional investigation in 1949.

The basic disputes then were over the roles to be assigned to the navy and the air force in carrying long-range war to an enemy, and the division of funds to prepare for those roles.

JOE LOUIS' advantage in weight and reach which the Brown Bomber used to TKO Freddie Beshore Wednesday night is illustrated in this shot taken at weighing in ceremonies earlier in the day. Louis weighed 210, Beshore 191.

Louis Batters Beshore, Scores TKO in Fourth

DETROIT (UP) — Joe Louis, punching with the slashing viciousness of his championship days, scored a four-round technical knockout victory over Freddie Beshore Wednesday night to re-ignite his chances of regaining the heavyweight crown he wore for a decade.

Referee Johnny Weber halted the bout at 2:48 of the fourth when Beshore's face was covered with blood from a bad cut over his left eye.

A crowd of 13,906 saw the streamlined Louis, looking much like the Brown Bomber of old, pound the game but outclassed Harrisburg, Pa., youngster with stinging left hooks and punishing rights throughout the bitterly battled four rounds.

The fast-punching Brown Bomber made good his boast that he would stop the rough, tough Beshore in quick order but he could not floor dead-game Freddie despite a number of solid blows.

The victory helped soothe the humiliation Louis suffered in losing to Ezzard Charles last September and was an improvement over his unimpressive showing in decisioning Cesar Brion of Argentina at Chicago last month.

Nearly eight pounds lighter than when he came out of retirement to lose to Charles, Louis proved that his once murderous punch hasn't completely evaporated yet despite his 36 years.

Two Athletes Quit School to Enlist

Two Iowa athletes have enlisted in the armed forces, it was announced Wednesday.

Bob Busch, varsity swimmer, and Ed McClusky, star halfback on the freshman football team, are no longer in school, the athletic department said.

Over 85 students have withdrawn from school since returning from Christmas vacation to enlist, the office of the registrar reported Wednesday.

Irish Grid Team Voted Flop of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Notre Dame's football team was voted the "disappointment of the year" in an Associated Press poll Wednesday as the result of its four losses during the past season.

The Irish had been named the "team of the year" in 1949. They were picked as the probable 1950 champions in a pre-season poll and they had run up 39 games without defeat when disaster struck in the form of an inspired Purdue eleven on Oct. 7.

Purdue won, 28-14, and before the curtain fell, Indiana, Michigan State, and Southern California made up for years of frustration by whipping famed Notre Dame, a synonym for success in football.

The runnerup position went to Joe Louis, the former heavyweight champion, whose amazing string of triumphs and records fatten the record books. The old Brown Bomber's comeback was ruined by the flashing fists of Ezzard Charles in a 15-round bout in Yankee Stadium.

Iowa Tankers Resume Drills After Holiday Meet in Florida

Iowa swimmers have resumed daily workouts in the fieldhouse pool in preparation for the approaching opening meet with Wisconsin here Jan. 13.

The Hawkeye tankmen, most of whom participated in the Fort Lauderdale, Fla., aquatic meet over the Christmas vacation, appeared further along in the conditioning process than they had shown before the holidays.

"Swimming in Florida helped us a lot," said Coach Dave Armbruster, "but we still have a long way to go before we take on Wisconsin."

"Our distance men — Watson, Lehman and Yim — are looking good but the sprinters are below par. Rusty Garst, especially, has been slow in rounding into shape because of illness."

Armbruster cited sophomores Ronnie Johnson, breast stroker and Otto Broeder, diver, as two of the bright spots in the pre-season work.

Johnson placed third in the 150-yard individual medley in the Fort Lauderdale meet.

On the darker side was the loss of star sprinter Bob Busch, who enlisted in the navy, and minor letterman John Boyd who quit the squad.

Fred Wilt Gets Sullivan Trophy

NEW YORK (AP) — Fred Wilt, 29-year-old Indiana university graduate who runs in the colors of the New York Athletic club, Wednesday was named as winner of the James E. Sullivan memorial trophy for 1950.

The award has been presented annually since 1930 to the amateur athlete "who, by performance, example and good influence did the most to advance the cause of good sportsmanship during the year."

Runner-up for the second straight year was Joseph Verdeur of Philadelphia, 1948 Olympic breast stroke swimming champion, with 114 firsts and 1,013 points. Dick Attlesley, world-record breaking hurdler from Southern California, with 14 firsts and 838 points, was third.

Pee Wee Reese Signs Contract for $30,000

BROOKLYN (AP) — Harold (Pee Wee) Reese, veteran Brooklyn Dodger shortstop, Wednesday returned his signed contract for a reported $30,000 salary.

The 31-year-old club captain told vice President Buzzie Bavasi in a phone conversation he regarded 1950 as an "off year" and looked for a comeback next season.

Reese underwent a hernia operation a year ago. He was slow regaining playing condition and did not hit his real stride until late in the season. He wound up hitting .260 in 141 games, a drop of almost 20 points from his sensational 1949 year.

Pacific Coast May Not Renew Rose Bowl Pact with Big Ten

RIVERSIDE, CALIF. (AP) — The Pacific Coast conference late Wednesday sounded an ominous warning that the famed Rose Bowl football game, daddy of all the bowl contests, may be ended as far as it is concerned.

Prof. H. P. Everest, president of the conference, shook the traditional post-season game to its foundations with an announcement that it might be discontinued or the method of staging it modified.

The coast conference, whose teams have been the hosts since the Rose Bowl games began in 1902, may withdraw from the picture entirely, said the University of Washington professor.

The action would be due to the conference's belief that post-season games in general and the Rose Bowl engagement in particular serve to overemphasize college football.

Post-season games, he said, may crystallize all the problems which surround college football as outlined repeatedly by the National Collegiate Athletic association, parent body of intercollegiate athletics. Everest cited the increasing pressure to win and the evils of proselyting athletes.

The coast conference will hold a special meeting, at a date and place to be announced later, after the NCAA convention in Dallas next week.

Everest's announcement, made at the annual conference meeting here, proved a bombshell.

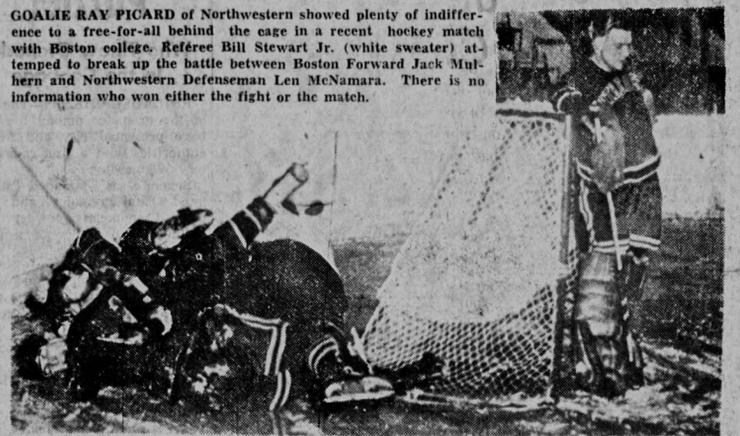

It followed a close meeting between the presidents of the nine PCC universities, their faculty representatives and directors of athletics.

The Pasadena Tournament of Roses committee, which inaugurated the game and turned its management over to the PCC about 15 years ago, was floored by the disclosure.

"This is the first word we have heard of such a development. We cannot announce any definite plans but I assure you that the Tournament of Roses will solve this problem just as we have solved many others, and that Pasadena will have some major attraction on New Year's day of 1952," said Lathrop K. Leishman, chairman of the football committee of the tournament.

Another Fight? How Boring

GOALIE RAY PICARD of Northwestern showed plenty of indifference to a free-for-all behind the cage in a recent hockey match with Boston college. Referee Bill Stewart Jr. (white sweater) attempted to break up the battle between Boston Forward Jack Mulhern and Northwestern Defenseman Len McNamara. There is no information who won either the fight or the match.

TAKING THE OATH OF OFFICE as speaker of the house of representatives Wednesday was Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) as the 82nd congress convened. Rayburn's re-election was one of the first pieces of business transacted by the new congress. Rep. Adolph Sabath (D-Ill.), as the senior member of the new congress, administered the oath.

Captured Russian Newsreels . .

THIS IS A SCENE FROM A Russian newsreel captured in Korea of the Soviet air force's TU-4 in flight, according to the defense department. This four-engine bomber is labeled a copy of the B-29 Superfort. This is one of a series of pictures from the newsreel released in Washington Wednesday.

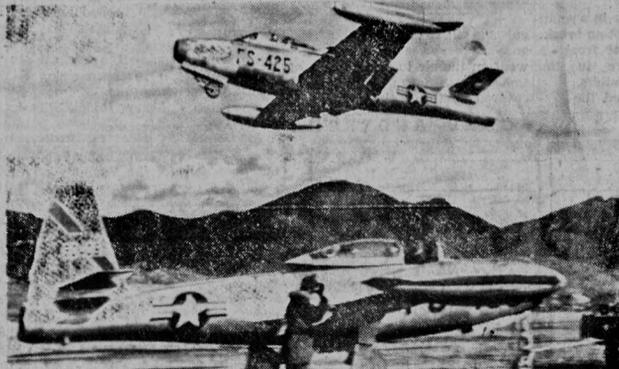

. . . Show Red Planes in Action

A SOVIET MIG-15 of the same type which faced U. S. F-86 Sabres this week over Korean skies as Yank pilots tangled with the Reds in the biggest air battle of the war is shown from a captured Russian newsreel shot. Fifteen of the F-86's damaged four of the Red machines and sent all 40 of them in scurried retreat to the Manchurian border. The MIG-15 is rated at 659.1 miles an hour.

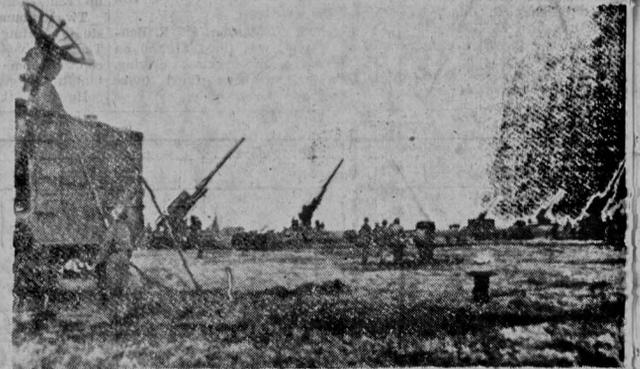

Mail, Stove 'All-Important' in Korea

Airmen Busy Against Chinese Foe

AN F-84 THUNDERJET of the Far East airforce vaults off a Korean airport runway with rockets and machine guns loaded to hit Red forces as a sister ship is towed out for rearming and a similar mission. Allied craft Tuesday flew about 700 sorties in an attempt to stem the Red drive towards Seoul.

Anti-Aircraft Guns over New York

TO PROTECT NEW YORK CITY against a possible sneak air attack, these 120 mm. anti-aircraft guns and the radar unit to the left were set up at Fort Totten, Queens, Tuesday. These and some 90 mm. guns were readied at Fort Totten and nearby Fort Tilden. The 120 mm. guns can fire 30-pound shells to a distance of up to 20 miles and an altitude of more than 40,000 feet. Radar and an "electric brain" operate the guns, while the crews "just pass the ammunition."

Peace and Quiet in Vienna

ALL OF THE REDS WEREN'T LOCKED in combat with U. S. forces Wednesday. In Vienna goose-stepping Russian military police turned over the policing of the international sector to American troops. The police duty is rotated monthly between the four occupying powers. British military police will take over the responsibility in February. At left in the background a Red military band played the Soviet national anthem while a U. S. band in the center background stood at attention while awaiting the appearance of the U. S. police detachment.

In the News — Again

ARGUING WITH A COP doesn't pay Los Angeles Gambler Mickey Cohen learned Wednesday morning at the corner of Hollywood and Vine streets in the movie capitol. Cohen told the arresting officer what he thought of him but that didn't stop Cohen from getting a traffic ticket for failing to proceed on a green light. Cohen had stopped to buy a newspaper.

A Pillow of Snow

NOT ONLY THE DEAD SLEEP IN THE SNOW in Korea. This exhausted UN fighting man curled up at the side of a road somewhere north of Seoul with his automatic weapon still strapped to his back. Seoul is being threatened by an all-out Red drive to take the South Korean capital split the UN forces defending the city.
