Spending Easter Vacation at SUI

MOST OF THEIR FRIENDS HAVING LEFT for home as Easter vacation began Wednesday, these five SUI men pulled their chairs around the table and settled for a quiet game of cards in the Quadrangle lounge.

Many SUI Students Stay Here Over Easter Holiday

While some students went home for Easter, hundreds of others remained for a quiet four and one-half days in Iowa City.

Many SUI housing units will remain open during the spring vacation.

Even students with a choice of two homes to visit during the respite from studies stayed in town. J. Robert Cotter, manager of married student housing, estimated that about 50 percent of the 971 married couples on the campus would stay here.

Many of the students who stayed in town said they were unable to go home because of distance.

They pointed out that if they went to their homes in New York, California, Florida and other distant states they would not have time to travel and spend any time with their friends and parents.

Another group of students who didn't leave town were the foreign students, who not only had no chance of getting home but had no place in the United States to spend the vacation.

Those from the Western world indicated they would observe Easter in Iowa City churches, and some from the Orient said they also would observe the Easter spirit in local churches.

Still other students stayed at SUI because they had jobs which they could not leave.

Then there were those who stayed around the campus avowedly because they felt it would be a fine time to "catch up on some reading," or to "write that term paper."

Absentee Ballots Now Available

Absentee ballots for Monday's municipal election can be obtained now at the city clerk's office.

Persons unable to go to the polls because of serious illness, or who will be out of the city on election day, can vote now at the clerk's office, or submit votes by mail. However, if mailed, the vote must be in the clerk's office by election day.

Approximately 10,500 ballots were printed for the election. Five city councilmen and one park commissioner are to be elected.

SUI Professors Testify in Dubuque

(Special to The Daily Iowan)

DUBUQUE - SUI English professors Paul Engle and W. R. Irwin appeared at a closed session of the Dubuque county grand jury Wednesday in an effort to help jurors draw the thin line between art and indecency. The two professors presented riffs on earthy literature and its place in art, but just what they had to say was not revealed.

County Atty. John Duffy said he appearance of the two SUI men completed the work of the jury, and that it would meet today to decide if indictments should be returned.

The investigation was ordered after women's groups in Dubuque sought banning from newsstands of cheap reprints of certain modern novels.

Sen. Mercer Pushes $1-Million Raise in SUI Budget

DES MOINES (AP) - Sen. Le Roy Mercer (D-Iowa City) announced Wednesday he had marshaled the support of 29 of the 50 members of the state senate for a $1-million a year increase, in SUP's appropriations for the next biennium.

This amount would be in addition to the $5.5-million a year for salaries and operations of the university as recommended by the senate appropriations committee last week.

Senator Mercer said he had drafted an amendment to the committee bill which is now on the calendar and had obtained 29 senate co-sponsors. This is more than enough to assure adoption of the increase if all of the co-sponsors continue to support it when the bill comes up for action.

With the Mercer amendment, which would be subject to house approval, the university would receive $6.5-million a year for salaries and operations and $200,000 a year for maintenance of its buildings or a total of $6.7-million.

Gov. William S. Beardsley had recommended a total of $5.8-million including the maintenance appropriation. The appropriations committee cut this figure to $5.7-million.

A group of senators led by John R. Hattery (R-Nevada) was reported working on another amendment which would give a $1-million increase to Iowa State college.

The governor recommended $5,850,000 for Iowa State and the appropriations committee cut this to $5.6-million.

Truman Says Korea Doubled U.S. Strength Marine Mourns Comrade

(From the Wire Services)

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Truman told the world Wednesday the United States now can strike against any new aggression with twice as much strength as it had when the Communist camp gambled on the South Korean invasion.

Manpower Doubled An exchange of telegrams between the chief executive, at his Key West, Fla., little White House, and Defense Secretary George Marshall showed the total manpower strength of the armed forces has mounted from 1,458,000 nine months ago to more than 2.9-million now.

"This tremendous gain in our strength," the President said, "has been made necessary by the lawless aggression of Communist forces in Korea, and by the menace of still further Communist attacks against other free nations."

The announcement obviously was intended to produce a dual psychological effect abroad - warn Russia, and assure America's friends. And the telegram also appeared to have a message for critics of the administration's rearmament program at home.

Quicker Than War II Buildup Marshall informed the President that a strength of more than 2.9-million men "was not attained in World War II until more than 21 months after our build-up in June, 1940, following the fall of France."

The nation has been on an all-out defense footing only nine months this time - since the North Koreans attacked last June 25.

Part of this probably is accounted for by the availability this time of hundreds of thousands of reservists, a trained and ready manpower pool which did not exist when World War II started.

3.5-Million Goal The armed forces' primary goal is 3,462,000 men to be put under arms as soon as possible after June 30 but a larger ultimate force is seen necessary by military men. Mr. Truman opposes a 4-million-man limit fixed by the senate.

The pre-Korea force of 1,458,500 men has been more than doubled by the calling of six national guard divisions, the recall of many reserve units and the drafting of 450,000 men.

Of the 2.9-million now in the armed forces, about 377,000 are deployed either in Korea or in Western Europe, 23,000 in the U.S. occupation zone of Germany.

Labor Blasts Program of Mobilization

WASHINGTON (AP) - Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston, beset by a mounting storm of labor criticism, Wednesday sought means to bring peace into the troubled mobilization setup.

Labor chieftains turned their guns on the program at a rally sponsored by the united labor policy committee, airing demands for a thorough shake-up.

Late in the day, management informants said Johnston had called a labor-management meeting today in a move to restore harmony.

Johnston returned Wednesday from a flying trip to confer with President Truman at Key West, Fla.

Management officials said they are convinced the government will act soon - within a week, one informant predicted confidently - in an effort to settle the dispute.

Last month labor union chiefs walked out in protest against what they termed "big business" domination of the mobilization picture.

The immediate objective is to patch up a truce as the first step toward creation of a new wave stabilization board, presumably with dispute-settling powers, to replace the old nine-man board.

Meanwhile, big union leaders joined in lambasting the mobilization program, with such unity that talk arose of a possible end to the great AFL-CIO split which started 15 years ago.

The speeches were made at a rally of 700 local and statewide leaders assembled by the united labor policy committee (ULPC). The rally was a move to generate support of housewives and community groups behind the labor union rebellion against present mobilization and stabilization plans.

Quarters Provided For Tourney Fans

The Iowa City junior and senior chambers of commerce will provide sleeping quarters next week for hundreds of fans attending the boys' state basketball finals.

Bunks will be set up in the Iowa fieldhouse March 29 and 30 for 500 members of teams not participating in the tournament. Beds will also be provided those two days in the Community building.

Robert Gage, manager of the chamber of commerce asked Iowa City residents to contact his office if they wish to rent rooms next week.

U.S. Families Borrow Half Billion Dollars

NEW YORK (AP) - American families borrowed more than half a billion dollars on life insurance policies during 1950, the institute of life insurance reported Wednesday.

Borrowings last year totaled $518-million compared with $475-million in 1949. Loans paid off, however, amounted to about $350-million, the largest total of repayments for several years.

O'Dwyer Denies Receiving Cash Fireman Says Was Contributed

Costello Says He Paid Taxes

NEW YORK (AP) - Frank Costello said Wednesday there is one thing he has done for his adopted country - he paid his taxes.

Sen. Charles Tobey (R-N.H.), a member of the senate crime committee hearing, asked Costello if this country had come up to his expectations.

"Yes," Costello said.

"Have you fared pretty well in material things?" Tobey asked.

"Yes," Costello said.

"When you signed your naturalization papers what did you promise to do as a citizen?"

"I promised to uphold the constitution."

"Have you always upheld the constitution and the laws of the nation?"

"I believe I have."

"Did you ever offer your services to help the war effort?"

"No."

"What have you ever done for your country as a good citizen?"

"I don't know what you mean by that."

"Looking back, there must be something."

"I paid my tax."

There was laughter in the courtroom.

Pollock to Deliver Holy Week Service

The Rev. Hewison Pollock of First Presbyterian church will be the speaker today at the second Holy Week noon service at the Engler theater sponsored by the inter-denominational committee of Iowa City laymen.

The Rev. Mr. Pollock will speak on "The Gift of Self" with hymns led by Prof. Herald Stark and Instructor Charles Davis of the SUI music department. W.R. Clendenin, G. Iowa City, is the organist.

The Rotary club of Iowa City moved its luncheon meeting to 12:30 p.m. today so that members could attend the service. Friday's speaker will be The Rev. John C. Craig of the Congregational church on "Beyond Pain and Suffering."

Dr. L.L. Dunnington of the First Methodist church spoke to the first service Wednesday on "Prayer Took Jesus Too." About 150 persons attended the first service.

MARGARET MAKES DEBUT

NEW YORK (AP) - Margaret Truman was scheduled Wednesday to make her debut as an actress April 26. She will co-star with James Stewart in a production called "Jackpot" produced by the Screen Directors guild over the National Broadcasting company network.

Allies Take Chunchon

FALLING WITHOUT A FIGHT, the great Chinese Red base of Chunchon (1), eight and one half miles south of the 38th parallel, was occupied by advancing U.S. forces Wednesday. The enemy also was pulling back on the eastern front (2) where Republic of Korea troops already may have reached the parallel. An Allied armored patrol fighting north on the road from Seoul to Uijongbu (3) met Red resistance.

Yanks Occupy Chunchon Without Red Opposition

CHUNCHON, KOREA (THURSDAY) - American troops pushed unopposed through Chunchon today and from its northern rim gazed at the mountains of North Korea looming plainly through the bluish haze.

Chunchon, the great Chinese Red base where the enemy was expected to stand if he intended to stay in South Korea, fell without a fight to U.S. forces.

Littered Streets The streets were littered with stone, mortar, metal, debris, ground glass and tangles of electric wires.

Oddly enough, not one body was to be seen in Chunchon.

Evidently the Chinese who prefer to bury their own dead, had taken their wounded with them and forced the few remaining civilians to dispose of their own casualties. Inevitably many were killed in the ghastly pounding the city took.

Little groups of South Korean civilians greeted the American tanks as they swept into and through Chunchon. They had smiles on their faces, and they waved cloth and paper flags of Republic of Korea.

Impromptu Greetings The greetings seemed to be genuine and impromptu, in contrast to the sometimes sullen expressions which have encountered Allied troops in other Korean cities.

Enemy forces that abandoned the city of rubble apparently were pulling back beyond the 38th parallel only eight miles north.

Chunchon, was a much greater prize of war than Seoul, the liberated old Korean capital 45 miles to the southwest.

The enemy also was pulling back on the eastern front, where Republic of Korea troops already may have reached parallel 38, the old political dividing line between the Red North and the Republic of South Korea.

Strongly Entrenched In the west, however, the enemy still was strongly entrenched north of Seoul and to the east of the capital.

The enemy's shifting of 60,000 fresh troops into the west raised conjecture that the enemy might be planning a counterattack.

Red Cross Drive In County Reaches Three-Quarter Mark

The Johnson county Red Cross drive had received $15,540 in contributions by 5 p.m. Wednesday. This was short of the $21,074 goal.

General Chairman M. L. Huit, SUI counselor to men, said that with the exceptions of rural areas almost all divisions were near their goals. Contributions from country residents were hampered by bad weather and road conditions.

By noon Wednesday, rural areas had contributed $1,614.50 toward the $5,250 goal, while residential areas in Iowa City were only $923.73 short of the $5,000 total requested.

The largest total contribution was $5,229.70 given by the business division with Richard Sidwell in charge. Its goal is $5,800.

The university division by noon Wednesday was second in total contributions with $2,204.11. David Day, SUI instructor in the department of commerce, heads the division.

Other division standings Wednesday included: hospitals, $1,014.30 of the $1,150 goal; men's organizations, $60 of the $100 goal; women's organizations, $83 of the $315 goal; men's housing units, $166.71 of the $250 goal; women's housing units, $344.91 of the $350 goal, and schools, $209.75 of the $270 goal.

Solon, Wednesday, had collected $309.80, compared with a 1950 total of $100. Hills also reported complete with $87.30 contributed.

Costello Still Refuses to Talk About Money

(From the Wire Services)

NEW YORK - A fireman told senate crime investigators Wednesday that he handled Former Mayor William O'Dwyer $10,000 in cash for his 1949 campaign, but O'Dwyer stuck by his earlier testimony that he hadn't received a cent.

O'Dwyer swore under oath only Tuesday that he never took any contribution in 1949 from the Uniformed Firemen's association (UFA).

John P. Crane, president of the Uniformed Firemen's association, said the $10,000 was part of $72,500 he had paid out for political campaigns and "good will."

Crane's story came on the final day of the committee's hearings, which Sen. Charles Tobey (R-N.H.) said had revealed some things that "come pretty near to being treason."

"One man is lying," Committee Counsel Rudolph Halley told newsmen.

O'Dwyer, contacted by newsmen, said of Crane's testimony and the alleged campaign contributions: "I was asked about that ... under oath and I flatly denied it."

Pressed for further comment, he replied: "I answered the questions regarding myself. No other comment."

Gave Away Crane said the fireman's association gave away these sums:

1. $10,000 to O'Dwyer in person in October, 1949, for his last mayoral campaign.

2. $20,000 to O'Dwyer's intimate subordinate, James J. Moran, water commissioner and former deputy fire commissioner, also for that mayoral campaign.

3. $35,000 to Moran in 1947 for "good will and aid" - what happened to this sum was not explained.

4. $3,500 to Brooklyn Republican Leader John Crews for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's campaign in the 1948 Oregon Republican presidential primary, after Dewey had signed a bill helpful to firemen.

5. $4,000 to the Democratic state committee. Millions of persons have followed the sensational hearings in a federal courtroom here through television.

Besides Crane's testimony, other highlights of the final day included:

1. Two more refusals by racketeer Frank Costello to say how much he is worth - refusals that could lead to his imprisonment for contempt.

2. Testimony by Bert Stand, former secretary of Tammany Hall, that he believed Costello threw a cocktail party on the occasion in 1942 when he was host to O'Dwyer. The ex-mayor has testified he met Costello on army business.

3. A new invitation to Governor Dewey to tell the committee what he knows about crime in general and - if he wishes - about wide open gambling in upstate Saratoga Springs. Dewey indirectly rejected the latest bid and accused Chairman Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) of making "discourteous personal remarks" about him.

Blind? . . .

TO THE EDITOR: E.K. Blakeney seems to be taking a great deal for granted, including total blindness on the part of "ALL" readers, in his letter of March 20.

First, that "all" legislators are corrupt. Second, if one does not agree with a law passed by legislators elected by the majority, he should disobey it and should not be punished. How much order would there be in a society where laws might be obeyed or disobeyed at the personal discretion of the layman?

Mr. Blakeney bemoans the fact that the United States "once was known as the land of the free." One thing we have maintained, fortunately, is "majority rule." As long as we keep that virtue, there will be very little chance for "rank fascist persecution" as Mr. Blakeney would call it.

What crime has Michener committed? Perhaps he has injured no one physically, although some other young man no doubt has been required to take his place in the armed forces, and perhaps ultimately, in combat. However, were he and others like him allowed to flaunt the law, it would certainly result in a moral undermining of the society.

As for his 10-year sentence, it is a long one. However, as I understand it, only a legal fiasco in the courtroom by the prosecution prevented the sentence from being 15 years. Perhaps if there are fewer light "year-and-a-day" sentences, there will suddenly be an astonishing decrease in the number of "conscientious objectors."

Why, Mr. Blakeney, do the people allow the "ancient European folly of conscription to be inflicted upon them?" Perhaps the conscientious objector would see all our war ships junked, our armies totally disbanded, in short, our defenses reduced to nothing. How long would we last as a "free" country?

Lastly, is it for "refusing to accept militaristic slavery" for which the "most intelligent" inmates have accepted prison terms? I was under the impression that this professed "compulsion" was religious in nature.

Self-Oiling Metals Claimed by Firm

WASHINGTON (AP)—A west coast firm has claimed to have developed a metal alloy that defies rust, works without lubricants in moving machines, stays cool while being lathe-turned, and can be made at reasonable cost from scrap materials.

Samuel Freedman, an electronics specialist, said the new metal produced by Chemalloy Associates, Inc., Santee, Calif., has possible uses which are limited "only by the imagination and initiative of laboratories and manufacturers."

Freedman, the firm's general manager, said the alloy is made by combining molten metals with a wet chemical mass. He said any kind of metals can be used, including zinc, copper, aluminum or lead.

The process, he added, works equally well with metals reclaimed from scrap items such as fuel pumps, radiator grilles, carburetors, or other old automobile parts. He said its production costs are "comparable" with those of conventional metals.

Another advantage of the process, he said, is that the alloy can be pressure die-cast in molds to hold tolerances normally obtained only by machine shop methods.

Situation 'Pregnant with Possibilities'

Italian Land Reform Progresses

COSENZA, ITALY (AP)—This city of 40,000 people is the heart of one of Italy's greatest social fights—the breaking up of ancient feudal estates and the distribution of the land to the embittered, impoverished peasants.

It is a grim fight. But progress is being made. The enemies of land reform are the Communists, who want to see the peasants restive, and political trickery, monied interests and peasants' mistrust.

Against all obstacles the Sila region land reform committee has bulldozed its way forward to prove that land reform can mean new life for Italy's "forgotten south."

In May, 1950, the government enacted the much-delayed land reform law which provided for expropriation of 189,500 acres or nearly 300 square miles—or privately-owned Sila land which is to go to peasants. Barely one-fifth of this land actually has been distributed thus far.

Here in Cosenza, the Sila committee is a town affair. Giulio Leone, director general of the organization, is "commanding general" of an army of agrarian experts and engineers, inspectors and foremen who have invaded the south to make good on promises which people here have heard for centuries.

Of the land marked for expropriation, 70,900 acres have been taken over by the Sila committee. Only 3,950 acres have actually been given to peasants. This land went to 396 peasants in Santa Severina, a small town of 2,320 inhabitants perched on a 900-foot hill.

The job is not easy. Taking land from big estates and giving it to landless peasants is simple to say but the land reform committee must also see that there are roads to the land, that there is equipment to help work the land, that there are projects to get water to the land and so on.

The committee has set up sub-offices throughout the area to study conditions. At Santa Severina, experts—many veterans from Libyan farming projects in Africa—are there permanently to help introduce modern methods in farming.

The poverty of the land is hard to believe for those who have seen the rich, fertile fields of northern and central Italy.

Centuries of neglect and erosion have left barren wastes, with only a thin top soil over rock croppings. But once a southern peasant is able to call a piece of this "my own," his broad back and muscular arms achieve wonders.

"They are suspicious people," Mazzocchi said. "Everybody has promised them everything for hundreds of years. They didn't believe us either. Now they see their dreams coming true. We move ahead slowly."

Hitler Godson Would-Be Catholic Missionary

INGOLSTADT, GERMANY (AP)—Adolf Hitler's godson is in a Catholic monastery here, studying for the priesthood.

Had his godfather's thousand-year Reich held together, he might have been headed for quite a different career in the Nazi party elite. He is the son of Martin Bormann, Hitler's trusted lieutenant and second only to the Fuehrer himself in the last stages of the war.

Martin Bormann's life ended in a question mark in 1945. He was with Hitler in the Fuehrer's bunker when Russian troops overran the city.

What happened to Bormann is a mystery. Rumors in the last five years have placed him in South America, Spain, Russia. Nobody knows for sure.

Adolf Martin Bormann, student at the Brothers of the Sacred Heart seminary, says he doesn't know either.

"I know only what I see in the papers. I don't know if my father is alive or dead."

Young Bormann was baptized in the Protestant faith, with Adolf Hitler as his sponsor.

"After a while, though, Father made us all break away from the church," he recalls. "He wanted no Christian religion in his family. It was contrary to Nazi ideas."

"He put me in a special school near Munich. It was made up of students selected by special tests throughout Germany. It emphasized political education. It was a very bad school and morally it was terrible. There was outright perversion among some of the students. Two prime factors ran their lives: fear of punishment for misconduct, and Nazi idealism."

Young Bormann last saw his father Jan. 9, 1945, when the latter left for Berlin to join Hitler. "He did not appear worried," the youth says. "We did not feel that he planned not to see us again."

"We, my seven brothers and sisters, knew him only as our father. He was a good father, but usually silent and very stern. Our only holidays with him were walking to construction projects of which he was in charge."

After the war the youth lived on an Austrian farm. There, in the home of a Catholic family, he became converted to that faith.

"When I finish my schooling, which will take six of seven years, I hope to be sent out as a missionary," Adolf says. "The Sacred Heart order has missionaries in the South Pacific and the Far East. I hope to go to one of those areas."

Noise Necessary

AKRON, OHIO (AP)—Does the hum or rumble of your tires on the road bother you? For many motorists, such noises in moderation provide a feeling of safety according to William F. Billingsley, designer for B. F. Goodrich.

A noiseless tire could be made, Billingsley said, but it would have little skid resistance—probably not enough for good starting, stopping and steering.

Interpreting the News — UN Would Cross 38th To Establish Short Line

By J. M. ROBERTS JR., AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Five will get you ten from this corner that United Nations forces will cross the 38th parallel in Korea if they are able to do so momentarily, not merely in tactical strength, as now suggested, but in force.

It seems certain that political decisions will not be made which would tell the enemy that he would not be pursued across the old dividing line between North and South Korea. And without such decisions no military commander would attempt to stabilize a line near the parallel if he could proceed northward, say as far as the narrow waist of the peninsula between Wonsan on the east coast and Chinnampo on the west.

It seems also that if such a short line could be established, in an area much more easily defended than the terrain along the parallel, no major effort would be made to clear the whole country to the Yalu river border, as was intended before the entry of China into the war. At least not as long as political considerations prevent aerial attacks on enemy supply lines and bases beyond the river.

If the enemy should begin heavy aerial assaults on American forces from these bases, however, Allied airforces would retaliate, the handoffs which interfere with fighting near the border would be off, and the limits on Allied action would rest strictly on their ability.

The UN has begged off from decisions on the 38th parallel, passing the buck to Washington, where agreements are now being sought between the Allies.

The UN is inactive because some of the nations are trying to duck responsibility, some prefer to stay south of the parallel in the belief that it would increase the possibility of a deal with China, and none of them want to interfere, within the UN, with the work of the good offices committee now seeking contact with China, regardless of its poor prospects.

The main decision will be military rather than political. Within three or four weeks the Chinese are expected to launch a big spring offensive. The Americans think they are in a position to contain it. The line being kept in good shape now, where as it was off balance because of its own advances in November when the Chinese attacked before. Also supplies and communications are up to the minute now, and firepower can be maintained at its peak where it was handicapped by a shortage of ammunition in North Korea.

If this expected Chinese offensive can be contained as was a smaller one last month, the war of movement—Operation Killer as the Allies call it—can be continued from whatever position the Allies are in when it stops, north or south of the parallel. Presumably it would continue also from any Chinnampo-Wonsan line which might be established. But the Allies would be better off there if there is to be a stalemate or any sort of halt for negotiations.

Black Market Told In Farm Equipment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farm equipment retailers have complained that a nationwide black market is developing in their field and requested help from congress in stamping it out.

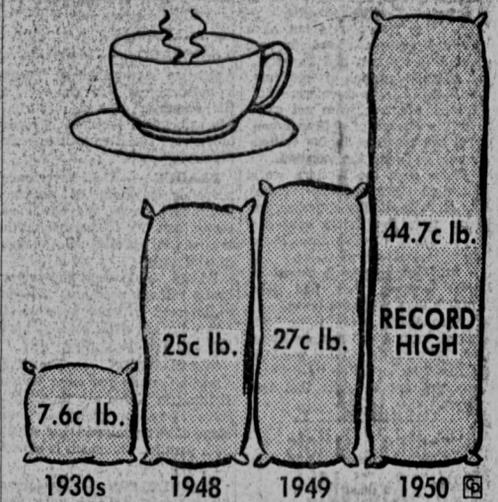

Managing Director Paul M. Mullikin of the National Retail Farm Equipment association, St. Louis, testified before a house agriculture subcommittee in behalf of 17,500 implement dealers.

Mullikin said both the Mississippi delta area and Iowa are "bad areas" for black marketing. He proposed legislation to prohibit interstate shipment of power farm equipment on which serial numbers have been removed or falsified. He said "black market" operators frequently scratch out the serial number to prevent manufacturers and dealers from tracing their source of supply.

He said farmers who buy such equipment have trouble getting repair parts because they have no way of knowing the serial number of their machines.

Rep. Charles B. Hoeven (R-Iowa) said he favored such legislation.

Soaring Coffee

SIX-FOLD RISE in import price of coffee from the 1930s to 1950 is illustrated above. Last year the U.S. imported 14 percent less coffee than in 1949. Consumer price resistance forced the import cut, but had little effect on price itself, according to the agriculture department.

Six Months of Fluctuating Korean War

SURGE OF WAR CARRIED both Communist and United Nations armies from the southern to the northern tip of the embattled Korean peninsula in the past six months. The map (left) shows the line beachhead held by the UN on Sept. 15. By Nov. 26, the Allies had pushed the North Korean Reds into two narrow corridors (center) on the Manchurian border. After China's Communist forces intervened, stiffest fighting was needed to restore the UN to the present front (right), which protects recaptured Seoul and reaches to within a short distance of the controversial 38th parallel.

New York Spring Fashions

The bodice, fastened with gold metal buttons, slants to the side wrap of the slimly-draped skirt. The stole, also two-toned, partly hides the deep cut armholes barely capping the shoulders. The belt is brown leather. THIS PIQUE ON GRAY interestingly-detailed worsted dress is yoked from one shoulder into a buttoned pocket, for spring, 1951, from a noted designer's collection. White pique layers the collar, and gray leather defines the waist. A center front fold runs the length of the skirt.

Louisiana Tech Hands Iowa Second Loss Of Season, 4-3

(Special to The Daily Towan)

RUSTON, LA. — Iowa's touring Hawkeyes were beaten 4-3 here Wednesday afternoon by Louisiana Tech for their second defeat in three games on the current southern tour.

Louis Pipes went the distance for Louisiana, granting the Hawkeyes five hits, striking out three and allowing four walks.

Iowa Pitchers Bruce Marsh and Bob "Whitey" Diehl gave up seven hits. Marsh and Diehl, who relieved the Iowa starter in the fifth inning, each walked one batter.

The Hawkeyes took a one run lead in the first inning. Rex Vana, Iowa center fielder, scored on a steal of home after moving from first to third on a hit and another steal.

Louisiana Tech came back to score two runs in the second inning. Tech loaded the bases with one out and scored twice when Bob Sheppard grounded out third to first.

Louisiana added another score in the bottom of the fourth inning. Lewis Best, Tech third baseman, scored from third after Marsh muffed a grounder.

Iowa tied up the game in the third inning when Marsh scored from second on a base hit by Rex Vana.

Louisiana got its fourth run in the bottom of the eighth as Best singled home Bill Williams, Tech right fielder, from third.

Frank Bok tripled and Bob Christoph doubled in the top of the ninth inning for Iowa's last run.

Iowa plays Louisiana Tech again this afternoon and then travels to Conway, Ark. for a two-game series with Arkansas Teachers.

Kansas State Edges Arizona

KANSAS CITY, MO. (AP) — Kansas State college, coasting on a 21-point margin with ten minutes to go, was forced to use every trick in its book Wednesday night to stave off a late rally by the University of Arizona and take the opening game of the western NCAA playoffs, 61-59.

The Big Seven champions, winners of 22 games this year while losing only three, jumped off to a nine to nothing lead in the first four minutes with each of the starting players contributing points. They built that lead to 36-20 at halftime and clicked off a 23-point lead, 50-27, in the next six minutes.

With 10 minutes to play, Coach Jack Gardner of K-State sent in his second string and Arizona Coach Fred Enke ordered a full court press.

Bob Honea hit five points, Jerry Dillon and Jack Howell got fielders and Leo Johnson a charity. It was 60 - 49 and four minutes left and Gardner hollered for his first team.

But the Arizona press, once started, was almost unstoppable. With a minute and a half to go Roger Johnson stole the ball under the goal and laid it up. The score read 60-59.

With 13 seconds to go, Ernie Barrett of Kansas State was fouled and bucketed a free shot. Kansas State kept the ball and stalled out the last seconds.

Ticket Scalpers Foiled by Police

KANSAS CITY (AP) — An intensive check of mail orders blocked an effort by gamblers and bookmakers to obtain western NCAA basketball tickets for scalping purposes, the Kansas City crime commission said Wednesday.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament, which opened Wednesday night in Municipal auditorium for a four-night run, was sold out the minute tickets were placed on sale. So many orders were received thousands had to be returned.

Arlon Wilson, managing director of the crime commission, said known bookmakers and gamblers were found to have ordered large blocks of tickets. Most were spotted through the vigilance of auditorium officials and commission agents, he added, but a few tickets slipped through when temporary employes, hired to handle the deluge, filled the orders.

One commission investigator bought tickets from a gambler, who hiked the price of the tickets. Regular prices range from $1 to $3.

Campus Basketball

NEW YORK (AP) — The NCAA will give serious consideration to returning its annual basketball tournament to all-campus sites, Secretary-Treasurer Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson said Wednesday.

Speaking at a luncheon meeting of the Metropolitan Basketball Writers association, Wilson emphasized the various steps which may be necessary to "protect" the game.

A Single for Hodges

DODGER FIRST BASEMAN Gil Hodges joined his wife Wednesday in admiring their one-day old baby daughter born Tuesday in a Brooklyn hospital. Hodges arrived in Brooklyn Wednesday after a hurried trip from Florida where the Dodgers are in spring training. Brooklyn is one of the favorites in the National league this season.

Ez Charles Says He's Married and a Father

CINCINNATI (AP) — World heavyweight boxing Champion Ezzard Charles disclosed Wednesday night that he has been married since Dec. 30, 1949 and that he has been a father since last Feb. 13.

The double-barreled disclosure followed recent denials by Charles that he was married. Wednesday night, however, he said the wedding with Miss Gladys Gartrell of suburban Madisonville took place more than a year ago but he declined to say where the ceremony was performed.

He said their baby girl was born in New Kensington, Pa. The attractive Mrs. Charles was in her home in Madisonville Wednesday night and refused to see newsmen.

The heavyweight champ said he first met his wife in 1945 shortly after he was discharged from the army and when she still was a senior at Withrow high school.

Kill Bill to TV Minnesota Sports

ST. PAUL (AP) — A resolution to "request" the University of Minnesota to allow all home athletic contests to be televised was killed Wednesday by the senate university committee.

Smiling wryly, Sen. Harold Schultz, St. Paul, a sponsor of the measure, told the committee, "We'll see you again two years from now."

A similar resolution won preliminary approval of the house in a 41-34 standing vote Tuesday.

Sees Marty Most Often — Ain't Fractured; It's Broke

— But Dizzy Funniest

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA. (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinal clubhouse is a squat, sprawling, frame structure nestling close to the spick-and-span concrete stands of Al Lang field like a battered old tug nudging up to an ocean liner.

The interior is just as rough and ready, and formality is parked at the door when you enter. Grand central station is private by comparison.

Only Trainer Doc Weaver's little room is out-of-bounds to anyone who doesn't have business there. A long, lean guy was stretched out on a table when we peeked in, and Doc, with some sort of wrestling hold, was bending and twisting and kneading a skinny leg methodically.

"Hey," the guy on the table called, "come here and look at this. Just want you to know I'm not joking." Marty Marion laughed engagingly.

His knee didn't look good, at that. It was swollen like a toy balloon, and two angry scars on the inside were mute evidence of an operation last December.

"Don't hurt except when I put all my weight in it going after a ball," he explained. "I guess I tried to give it the works too soon."

Doc Weaver nodded agreement, then added: "Marty's my regular customer. Guess I've worked on him more than I've worked on any other man during my 25 years with the club. His knee and his back, you know."

Marty pulled an elastic bandage over his knee, jumped up and down gingerly a couple of times, then headed out the door. Weaver gazed after him fondly.

"Been at this business 36 years," he said. "Been with the Cardinals, let's see, this is the silver anniversary now. Worked on some great athletes — Alexander, Hornsby, Pepper Martin, the Deans."

"Never had to do much work on Diz and Paul. On Pepper Martin, neither. I remember when Diz broke his toe in the all star game. After he got it out of a cast I told him to let me work on it, as I'd been treating post-fracture cases for 13 years.

"Diz said: 'Heck, Doc, it ain't fractured; it's broke.' Great fellow, that Dizzy."

Sinkwich Resigns

TAMPA, FLA. (AP) — Frank Sinkwich resigned Wednesday as head football coach at the University of Tampa without making public his reasons.

The former University of Georgia all-American ace also declined to comment on his plans for next season.

Slump Doesn't Worry DiMag

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Joe DiMaggio's failure to hit in his accustomed style is causing some concern in the camp of the New York Yankees.

DiMaggio has collected only two hits, both home runs, in 18 official times at bat in Grapefruit league games for a weak .111 mark.

The Clipper himself is not unduly worried over the sad state of affairs. DiMaggio jokes with his teammates and expects to get going any time.

Actually his timing is not far off. He is meeting the ball but is either cutting under or topping it.

Last year DiMaggio slugged at a .403 clip during a six week period before the regular season opened.

Rogers Hornsby, former National league great and now manager of Seattle in the Coast league, said he had the same trouble when he was in the 30 age bracket.

"I found that every spring after I got well into my 30's it was harder to get started," Hornsby said. "There doesn't seem to me to be anything wrong with Joe than the fact he's 36 years old."

Another factor may be that DiMaggio is trying too hard. DiMaggio wants this to be a great year and he especially wants to shine during the tour of his home state.

DiMaggio is in good shape with the exception that he is about 15 pounds below the weight he likes to start the season with. DiMaggio is reported to weigh 190.

Kentucky, Illini Rated Favorites In Semi-Finals of NCAA Meet

NEW YORK (AP) — Adolph Rupp, the drawing Kansas who fashions basketball gargantuan at the University of Kentucky, brought his Wildcats to town Wednesday and found them in a familiar role—top-heavy favorites to win the NCAA championship.

"I would be deeply embarrassed if I ever came to New York, even with a grade school team, and didn't find myself favored," the Kentucky colonel said in his molasses brogue. We're all ways favored, but I don't see it."

Kentucky, leader of the final Associated Press poll, and St. John's of Brooklyn, ninth ranked nationally, will clash in the feature semi-final game of the eastern NCAA eliminations tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Illinois' Big Ten champions will oppose revitalized North Carolina State, winner of the Southern conference, in the other game, opening the program at 8:45 p.m. (CST). Illinois is favored.

Meanwhile, the western NCAA, running a round behind, will complete its semi-final bracket at Kansas City with Oklahoma A and M playing Montana State at 8 p.m. (Iowa time) and Washington opposing Texas A and M in the windup.

Rupp acknowledged that his great Kentucky team didn't measure up to expectations in the first round at Raleigh, N.C., Tuesday night, although beating Louisville, 79-68.

"We aren't as strong as when we came here early in the winter and beat St. John's 43-37," the Kentucky coach declared. "Losing Hirsch hurt us. We have stopped this big boy, Bob Zawoluk (St. John's center), twice in the last two years. I'm not sure we can do it again."

Frank McGuire, young St. John's coach, said his boys are crippled and tired but are looking forward to another shot at the Wildcats.

"Hard-Nosed" Kids Harry Combes, Illinois coach, said he had a bunch of "hard-nosed" kids with a lot of scrap but expected to find a tough foe in N.C. state.

"Two seniors, Ted Beach and Captain Don Sunderlage, have kept us going," Combes added. "It's fortunate we've had two such good men to go with our sophomores."

The tall Illinois team opened

Valley Track Meet At Fieldhouse Tonight

A total of 17 City high trackmen will compete tonight in the 21st annual Mississippi Valley indoor meet at the fieldhouse.

Those named by Coach "Chick" Gorwald are: Keith Hopp, Bob Moore, Dick Oliphant, George Frohwein, Dick Moore, Kenneth Weller, Bill Beyers, Frank Strub, Ron Teety, Ron Wilkinson, Mike Korns, Jack Hoag, Jim Wagner, Danny Mattess, Jim Freeman, Roger Crull and Wallace Jackson.

Fourteen events are scheduled for the meet which gets under way with pole vaulting at 7 p.m. The track section starts at 7:15 with the preliminaries in the 50-yard dash.

Defending champion Davenport is favored to win tonight's meet although the overlapping of basketball and indoor track has weakened all schools in the conference.

Jewish Judge Dismisses Suit Of Protestant Against Catholics

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A Jewish judge dismissed a suit Wednesday brought by Protestants seeking to compel the city to remove a Catholic nun's statue from public property.

Civil District Judge L. H. Yarrut's opinion made the observation:

"When there is a legal contest prosecuted by some of the Protestant faith to remove a public statue dedicated to one of the Catholic faith tried in a court of law presided over by a judge of Jewish faith, we may well know that democracy is still hard at work."

The suit was brought in September, 1950, by George L. Singlemann, joined by five Protestant ministers, to compel the city government to remove a statue of St. Frances Cabrini from the neutral ground of a city boulevard.

The statue depicts the Catholic saint, known as Mother Cabrini during her life, in her nun's garb with her hands raised in supplication. Paid for and erected in Aug. 1949, by the Order of Alhambra, a Catholic fraternal society, the statue is about six feet tall and four feet at its base.

Mother Cabrini was born in St. Angelo, Lombardy, Italy, on July 15, 1850. She spent considerable time as a nun in New Orleans as well as in other cities. She died Dec. 22, 1917 in Chicago, and she was canonized as a saint on July 7, 1943.

At the trial the Protestant ministers—two Baptist, one Methodist, one Lutheran and one Presbyterian—testified the statue extolled only the Roman Catholic church and not the benevolences attributed to Mother Cabrini.

The ministers argued that the statue violated the American heritage of separation of church and state.

Judge Yarrut said he took judicial notice of the many statues erected in honor of all kinds of people from all walks of life. All of these, he noted, are on public property.

Damages estimated at $100 resulted from a collision at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday on Melrose avenue. Cars were driven by Jack W. Clemens ES, Amama, and Bert Steffensen, Solon.

An accident at 12:45 p.m. Wednesday at College and Johnson streets caused damages estimated at $280 to cars driven by Ray Kinsinger, 1303 E. College street, and John E. O'Neill, 321 N. Johnson street.

Parks Lowers Voice —

Admits Was Communist During War II Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — Movie actor Larry Parks, star of "The Jolson Story," admitted to congressional investigators Wednesday that he is a former Communist party member and said the confession probably will wreck his Hollywood career.

He told the house un-American activities committee he joined the party in 1941, when he was 25, because it was "the most liberal of the parties" and drifted out of it in 1945 from a "lack of interest — of not finding the things I thought I would find."

Scarcely Audible Tones
Chain — smoking one cigarette after another and speaking in scarcely audible tones, Parks talked freely about himself. But he begged the committee not to ask him about other Hollywood figures who were in the Communist cell of which he was a member.

Stage and Film actor Howard Da Silva refused to discuss possible Communist affiliations on grounds it might incriminate him.

Actress Gale Sondergaard also refused to tell the committee about any Communist connections she might have.

Chairman John S. Wood (D-Ga.) said the committee probably will consider contempt action against her and Da Silva.

There have been a series of recent court tests of the right of congressional witnesses to reject questions. Several have been acquitted while others have been convicted on grounds they did not properly claim self-incrimination.

First to Admit
Parks, the first Hollywood figure to admit former Communist party membership to the committee, pleaded with members NOT to force him to "crawl through mud to be an informer" on other film figures.

Committee members said they told Parks' attorneys after the morning session the star had a choice of naming former fellow-Reds in closed session or continuing to refuse and take his chance with a contempt citation.

Local Business Firm Makes Plant Addition

A new addition to the Moore Business Forms, Inc., plant on South Riverside drive will more than double its size and allow consolidation of all Iowa City operations in one plant.

C. H. Swanholm, plant manager, said the plant at 605 S. Gilbert street, after the new addition is completed, will be moved into the plant across from the airport.

Construction by Kobes Bros. Manufacturing company will begin about April 1, and be completed within six months.

The 60 by 215 foot addition will bring the overall plant size to 100 by 215 feet, plus a 1,000 square foot shipping area.

Swanholm said the new addition will consolidate present operations and expand the scope of present production. The firm now produces forms for automatic accounting machines and autographic counter register supplies.

The Iowa City branch, one of 15 maintained by the company, was established in August 1948, and now employs 60 people.

McCarthy Aid Asks Tydings Quiz

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ewell G. Moore Jr., a former researcher for Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) urged a senate elections subcommittee Tuesday to refer testimony by a Baltimore printer to the justice department for perjury prosecution.

He also asked the lawmakers to recommend that the department investigate former Sen. Mildard E. Tydings (D-Md.) for inducing perjured testimony.

The subcommittee is looking into complaints by Tydings that backers of his successful Republican opponent, Sen. John Butler, used "scurrilous" campaign literature and were guilty of "financial irregularities" in the Maryland campaign last November.

2 Fined Total of $17.50 For Traffic Violations

Robert C. Lovetinsky, 1500 S. Crescent street, was fined $12.50 by Judge Emil G. Trott in police court Wednesday on a charge of improper passing on a public highway.

Connie Riley, A2, Cedar Rapids, was fined $5 for making a U-turn in the middle of a block. Another charge against Riley, failure to have a valid operator's license, was continued for trial Wednesday.

ORGAN DEDICATION
The dedication of a Minshall electronic organ for the little chapel will be held during the 10:45 a.m. service Sunday in the Congregational church. The organ will be dedicated in memory of W. F. McRoberts, former member of the church, by his widow, Emma McRoberts.

Judge Sentences Cook To 300 Years; More Prosecution Seen

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Killer Billy Cook escaped the electric chair Wednesday with a 300-year sentence from a federal judge who found him insane, but the U.S. department of justice quickly approved plans to prosecute him in California.

Federal Judge Stephen S. Chandler accepted the testimony of psychiatrists who found Cook "incurably insane." The judge ordered the 23-year-old badman to serve five consecutive 60-year terms in Alcatraz or some other "safe" prison for the kidnap-murders of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mosser, Atwood, Ill., and their three children.

Phoned Washington
U.S. District Attorney Robert Shelton, angered by Chandler's decision, telephoned the justice department in Washington and obtained permission to return Cook to California. He is charged at El Centro, Cal., with the murder of Robert H. Dewey, 32, Seattle, Wash.

Dewey was slain on Jan. 6 near El Centro as Cook fled from authorities who had identified him as the Mosser slayer.

Assistant Atty. Gen. James H. McInerney authorized the transfer of Cook with the approval of Deputy Atty. Gen. Peyton Ford.

Death Sentence Possible
Cook could be given a death sentence in the California case if judged sane there and convicted of murder.

Cook also is charged with five counts of murder at Joplin, Mo., where he shot the Mossers and hid their bodies in an abandoned mine shaft.

Cook, his eyes almost closed, stood blank and expressionless as Chandler pronounced 1 sentence.

In ruling Cook insane, Chandler made no mention of three prosecution — sponsored psychiatrists. They held Cook sane and responsible for his crimes.

Wayne Says Public Will Forgive Parks

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The American public will forgive Larry Parks for having been a Communist because he had the courage to admit it, No. 1 boxoffice star John Wayne predicted Wednesday.

Parks said in Washington he expected his admission he was once a Communist would mean curtains for his sparkling career. But Wayne, president of the Motion Picture alliance, the strongest anti-Communist group in Hollywood, said he was sure U.S. citizens would give the star of "The Jolson Story" a second chance.

"I think the American public is pretty quick to forgive a person who is willing to admit his mistake," the actor said.

"Parks' courage to speak the truth is commendable. I think it's fine that he had the courage to answer the questions and declare himself."

Women's Gym, Radiology Lab Contracts Approved

Contracts for completion of services at the women's gymnasium addition, and utilities installation at the radiology development were approved by the board of education Wednesday.

Carstens Bros. of Ackley received the contract for the women's gymnasium services with a $66,907 bid, George L. Horner, SUI architect said.

Boyd and Rummelhart, Iowa City, received the plumbing and heating contract for $5,472 and Davenport Contract company, Davenport, was given the electric contract for $6,084, for utilities in the radiology department in the General hospital.

Yesterday in Washington

RFC — Senate Republicans opened a drive to abolish the RFC, but ran into strong opposition from southern Democrats who said the government needs such a lending agency to help small business and finance defense plants.

Both sides agreed, however, that something drastic should be done about the RFC which has been pictured by senate investigators as shot through with "favoritism and influence" reaching into the White House itself.

TROOPS-TO-EUROPE — The senate agreed to vote on the hotly-disputed troops-to-Europe April 2 after taking a "long weekend" for Easter.

The cut-off date for the "great debate" was fixed by unanimous consent as a bipartisan group introduced a compromise amendment aimed at settling the sharpest controversy over the legislation.

As it now stands, the resolution endorses President Truman's plan to commit six U.S. divisions to the Atlantic Pact army commanded by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. But it calls for advance "congressional approval" of any further troop commitments.

NAVY WEAPONS — Weapons for destroying enemy submarines—a top priority project to the navy—now include new target-seeking torpedoes and special plane-launched rockets.

These missiles were described by the navy's chief of ordnance, Rear Admiral M. F. Schoeffel, at a news conference. With Russia reportedly expanding her submarine fleet, anti-submarine warfare has become of critical importance to the United States.

SPIES — Rep. Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.) said in the house that the FBI knows of 4,500 foreign spies now at large in this country.

Cannon is chairman of the house appropriations committee which received much testimony in secret from government officials.

He said they are being left unmolested so the FBI can see who their associates are.

NOMINATIONS — The senate confirmed William McChesney Martin Jr., as a member of the board of governors of the Federal Reserve system.

He has been designated by President Truman to succeed Thomas B. McCabe as chairman of the board.

Three other nominations also were confirmed: Richard C. Patterson Jr., of New York as ambassador to Switzerland.

Alan T. Waterman of Connecticut as director of the national science foundation for a term of six years.

Deans E. Walker as collector of customs at Indianapolis, Ind., to succeed Alden H. Baker, retired.

Accuse U.S. Athletes of Working for FBI

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — A government newspaper charged Wednesday that United States athletes at the recent Pan American games here had instructions from the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation to take photographs which would damage Argentina's prestige abroad.

The paper, Noticias Graficas, said that photographs taken from two members of the U.S. team proved there was a plan afoot to paint Argentina as a totalitarian country. It added:

Police on duty at the National Military academy, where all the visiting athletes were housed, seized "suspicious" photographs taken by William Rootzheim Jr., of Florida State College at Tallahassee, Fla., and Stanley Stanczyk of Miami, Fla.

Police attention was aroused because the athletes asked soldiers on duty to pose while they took motion pictures. The police confiscated the films immediately and returned the camera.

The report said one picture made it appear that the soldiers were searching a civilian at the point of a rifle.

Newsmen who were present recalled that nothing more was made of the incident, which occurred a few days before the games ended.

Rootzheim won the individual championship in gymnastics and Stanczyk was light heavyweight winner in the weight-lifting competition.

Cite One Picture
While only one picture and two athletes were cited by the newspaper, it said that an official Argentine investigation showed all 128 members of the U.S. team had been instructed by the FBI to gather evidence against Argentina.

It declared they were told "to try at all costs to paint for the world an untrue picture of liberty in Argentina."

The U.S. embassy said the matter had not been brought to its attention.

Most Ridiculous

In Chicago, J. Lyman Bingham, executive director of the U.S. Olympic committee who attended the Pan American games, said "such a charge is the most ridiculous thing I have ever heard."

He said he remembered a conversation at the time of the games about two of the athletes taking pictures "as a gag."

House Gets Resolution for Final Adjournment

DES MOINES — Rep. Dewey Goode, R-Bloomfield, defied superstition Wednesday and filed a joint resolution calling for final adjournment of the legislature on Friday the 13th.

Goode, house majority leader, set April 13 as the closing date of the session in his resolution, which must win approval in both houses. The legislature usually meets for 100 days and the 100th day this year would not come until April 17.

If the resolution is adopted, it could be amended by either house to extend the deadline. The senate has not yet received any final adjournment resolutions.

It is a common practice of the legislature to set in advance a final adjournment date somewhat ahead of what can be expected as "a mark to shoot at." Then if the session lasts beyond that time, the clocks are stopped and the records show that anything done after the adjournment date agreed upon was done on the final day.

Conservation

The Iowa house conservation committee recommended Wednesday a system designed to solve the problem of financing sewer disposal systems in the Great Lakes and Clear Lake areas.

The committee recommended an appropriation of $350,000 each to the great lakes and the clear lake sanitary districts. This would be in lieu of any special assessments against the state for constructing sanitary facilities.

In order to get the state funds, the districts would have to issue general obligation bonds of 90 percent of the legal limit on the assessed valuation of the property involved.

Building Code

The second attempt in two years to establish a uniform building code to apply throughout Iowa was approved Wednesday by the house of representatives.

A measure generally similar to one passed in the house in 1949 was sent to the senate by a vote of 87 to 10. The 1949 bill failed to pass in the senate.

The objectives of the 30-page measure are to standardize the construction requirements and provide protection from fire, of health, and of safety. In general the code would cover all buildings in Iowa except private one and two-family dwellings and farm buildings.

Bank Robbery Trial Of Kitts May Go to Jury Sometime Today

MASON CITY (AP) — The bank robbery trial of Kenneth Kitts and Yancy D. Hardy may go to the jury this afternoon.

Indications that the federal district court trial would wind up today came after the government closed its case Wednesday.

Kitts, 33, of Omaha, and Hardy, 32, of Tyler, Texas, are charged with the $38,000 robbery of the Laurens (Iowa) State bank last Nov. 3.

Hugh Boyle, counsel for Kitts, who has said he planned to put Kitts on the stand, waived his opening defense statement and called no witnesses.

M. L. Mason, of Mason City, court-appointed attorney for Hardy called two Tyler, Texas, witnesses. Their testimony aimed to place Hardy in Tyler the day of the robbery.

The government closed its case with the testimony of Tony Prochelo, 29-year-old Sioux City night club operator. He has pleaded guilty to a charge of possessing money taken from the Laurens bank, and is awaiting sentence.

Boyle, on cross examination, asked Prochelo if he hadn't robbed the Laurens bank. Prochelo denied this vehemently and also denied the government had made any deals with him.

Purse Snatched From Woman Here

A purse containing about $10 was snatched from Mrs. Ray Catta, 716 Walnut street, as she was walking on Dodge street Tuesday night, police said Wednesday.

The man who took her purse escaped in an automobile, Mrs. Catta said.

In another case, R.M. Adams, 3 Triangle place, said that draftsman's tools, valued at $61, were taken from the engineering building between Feb. 20 and 22.

A third complaint was reported by Frank Fryauf Jr., proprietor of Fryauf Leather Goods store, 4 S. Dubuque street, who said that a billfold was taken from the store.

FIRE SCHOOL

Johnson county firemen will attend a fire school at Hills, conducted by the extension division of Iowa State college, April 3, 10, 17 and 24.

Senate Considers Liquor Commission

DES MOINES (AP) — A senate committee Wednesday recommended passage of a bill which would prohibit any policy of discrimination on the part of the Iowa Liquor Control commission and would open the books of any liquor company which sells its products to the commission.

The bill was recommended favorably by judiciary committee No. 1. It was introduced by five members of the last legislative interim committee which investigated commission practices.

The authors are Sens. A. E. Augustine (D-Oskaloosa); A. L. Doud (R-Doubs); J. C. Colburn (R-Harlan); J. Kendall Lynes (R-Plainfield) and LeRoy Mercer (D-Iowa City).

The measure would forbid the adoption of any rule or practice by the commission which would discriminate against any citizen of Iowa in favor of a non-resident of the state.

Every contact of purchase made by the commission would have to carry an agreement that the books and records of the company involved would be open to any legally authorized investigating body.

The measure was placed on the senate calendar.

TYPHOON STRIKES

HONOLULU (AP) — Typhoon "Georgia," carrying winds up to 115 miles an hour in its path, hit the southeastern fringe of the Marshall islands Wednesday some 650 miles southwest of Eniwetok, the tiny central Pacific island where major atomic tests are underway.
