A TAG like the one above will be given to all new students today as part of the university's orientation program.

New Students' Orientation Begins Today

Orientation week opens today for liberal arts and nursing students entering SUI for the first time this fall.

New students in engineering and pharmacy will begin their orientation activities Monday morning with special assemblies.

Activities of the new-student week are designed to acquaint freshman and transfer students with the problems they will face in becoming college students.

Several innovations have been added to the schedule this year and existing parts of the program have been expanded to aid the student in getting the most from the week's activities.

This morning new students will attend group orientation assemblies in which the purpose and outline of orientation week will

Big 3 Ministers Agree on Progress Of Cold War Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Big Three foreign ministers surveyed their "cold war" strategy Wednesday and reportedly agreed that the West is making definite progress in bulwarking its defenses against possible Communist aggression.

Diplomatic informants balanced this moderately optimistic note, however, with a report that the foreign ministers feel the West must still step up the pace of its rearmament if it is to protect the free world from attack.

Secretary of State Acheson spent two hours with Britain's Foreign Secretary, Herbert Morrison, and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman examining the east-west balance sheet.

Afterward, informants said the ministers agreed on the wisdom of pushing forward with their present grand strategy for defeating communism.

The state department kept a tight secrecy curtain drawn around the meetings.

But it was reliably reported the ministers were generally agreed that despite new danger spots the West was now better equipped to meet Communist aggression than it was when they last met in Brussels in December, 1950.

An afternoon meeting, the foreign ministers turned to the number one western European problem—Germany.

Student Deferment To Continue Year

WASHINGTON (AP)— The defense department said Wednesday it will continue deferring the draft of college students during the coming academic year but added that the program may have to be "tightened up" when military manpower nears the bottom of the barrel in the following year.

The department's manpower chief, assistant secretary Anna Rosenberg, issued a formal press statement Wednesday apparently related to testimony she gave a senate military appropriations subcommittee last June and which was made public recently.

In her testimony then she said the bottom of the military manpower pool would be reached in 1953 and added "we have to ask Gen. Hershey (director of selective service) to set aside the student deferment next year, because we will not have enough men."

6,000 'Friends' Build Farm in 1 Day

GALLOWAY, WIS. (AP)— Frank Flees' good friends and neighbors put the finishing touches Wednesday on the 80-acre farm they carved out of virtual wilderness for him.

There was little left to do. The bulk of the work was done Tuesday by 6,000 persons — many of them utter strangers to Flees—who turned out Tuesday and performed in one day a Herculean task it would have taken Flees a lifetime to complete.

Many of the volunteers came back Wednesday to finish the interior of the five-room house erected Tuesday. The new milk house roof needed shingling and

Lovett Replaces Marshall In Defense Job

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Truman boosted Robert A. Lovett into the job of defense secretary Wednesday after George C. Marshall resigned to seek once more a quiet retirement at his Leesburg, Va., home.

In congress, there was immediate praise of Lovett's appointment with some Republican senators saying they were happy to see a civilian returned to the top control of the huge military establishment.

The senate is expected to give quick approval to Lovett's nomination.

Marshall said he resigned for "very personal reasons" and after an understanding with Mr. Truman that his services at the pentagon were to be only temporary. He was appointed secretary exactly one year ago.

President Truman accepted the resignation "with great reluctance" and told the 70-year-old five-star general in a letter: "No man has given his country more distinguished and patriotic service than have you. You have earned your retirement many fold and I wish you many good years at Leesburg."

Both Republicans and Democrats in congress appeared happy over the Lovett appointment. He is a 56-year-old former New York investment banker who first came into the government in 1940 at President Roosevelt's request as assistant secretary of war.

UN Warns Reds In Pointed Note

TOKYO (THURSDAY) (AP)— Gen. James A. Van Fleet warned the Communists today as their break in the truce talks entered its fourth week that they would "want peace before winter, before we're through with them."

The Reds countered the eighth army commander's pointed notice of intentions with a complaint that he was "openly inviting war" by his series of Allied attacks all across the Korean front.

The shift in the tone of Allied and Communist talk from peace toward war came as the armistice conference lay paralyzed by a double deadlock over Kaesong neutral zone violations and where to draw any cease-fire line.

U.S. Troops Score 5-Mile Advances

TOKYO (THURSDAY) (AP)— American troops ripped out gains of five miles or more in Korea today and captured stores of enemy equipment while Allied planes damaged three enemy jets in another vicious airfight.

Deep River Man Dies Here of Injuries Suffered in Crash

A 38-year-old Deep River man died in Mercy hospital about 1:40 p.m. Wednesday of injuries suffered a few hours earlier in a truck-train collision at a crossing on highway 6 at West Liberty.

He was Everett Garrett, whose semi-trailer truck, according to authorities, crashed into a west-bound Rock Island freight train about 11:30 a.m.

The truck hit the engine of the train, but the train was able to continue. Garrett was brought to Mercy hospital in critical condition suffering from multiple injuries.

Missing Iowa Citizen Found Here Alive

Mrs. Anna Zimmerman, 84, who had authorities baffled after she disappeared from a nursing home here Monday night, was found alive and conscious in Ralston creek in south Iowa City Wednesday.

She was found about 1:30 p.m. behind Goody's Tire and Parts service company, lying in shallow water on a mud bed.

The woman was taken to University hospitals, where she was reported in "fair" condition Wednesday night, suffering from exposure.

The boys who discovered Mrs. Zimmerman, were Paul Smith, 16, 119 S. Linn st., and Edwin Cox, 16, Ainsworth.

When found, Mrs. Zimmerman was able to talk, but all she could tell authorities was that she was in the creek "just cooling off."

It was unknown how long she had been in the creek or where she had wandered during her more than 42-hour journey.

The first report of Mrs. Zimmerman's disappearance came about 7 p.m. Monday night, at which time a nursing home at 26 S. Capitol st. where the woman stayed said she was missing.

One American F-84 Thunderjet was shot down but the pilot was rescued. It was the fifth consecutive day of air battles, but in other encounters this morning the Soviet-built MIG 15's fled to their Manchurian sanctuary.

The biggest Allied gain was on the western front where American troops straightened out their lines in a drive that carried them five miles forward against no opposition. Gains of more than a mile were registered in central Korea in a series of bloody battles.

The fighting in eastern Korea was the bloodiest of the front, though, and U.S. marines fought on hands and knees to kill Communist troops hidden in bunkers. The marines gained there and captured two important hills, but the gains were made a foot at a time in hand-to-hand combat.

The leathernecks used tanks and flame throwers but more often their bayonets to wipe out an enemy that fought back with fanatical resistance. But many an enemy died and hundreds more died across the rest of the blazing front.

The air force announced that 30 Thunderjets encountered 35 MIG's north of Pyongyang and that three of the enemy aircraft were damaged and the American plane shot down in the vicious air battle.

Two other MIG's made an "ineffective" attack on F-80 Shooting Stars in northwest Korea while another flight failed to attack a second group of F-80's. Thirty F-36 Sabrejets intercepted an equal number of MIG's near the border out the enemy wheeled and fled back across the Yalu.

Prof. Pitcher Accepts Post At NY College

Prof. Seymour M. Pitcher, a member of the SUI English department since 1931, said Wednesday he will resign to accept a position at New York State university, beginning Oct. 5.

He will be a professor of English, directing an area of arts, letters and philosophy at Champlain college, Plattsburgh, N.Y.

He came to SUI as an instructor in English. After receiving his Ph.D. degree here he became head of literature core courses.

A graduate of Hamilton college, N.Y., Pitcher has spent three years in graduate study at Harvard university.

His publications include articles on the interpretation of Aristotle's "Poetics" and a translation of that work. This past summer he did research in Shakespeare's early work at the Folger Shakespeare library, Washington, D.C.

Parents Continue to Picket 1-Room School

GARRETT, IND. (AP) — Picketing parents continued to block pupils from their one-room rural schoolhouse Wednesday and vowed to keep them out "indefinitely."

The mothers and fathers of 10 families formed what they called a "line of protest" around the Schopf school for the third day. They said they were dissatisfied with the education their children got there.

The parents decried that fact that one teacher taught six grades, that 31 pupils shared a gallon thermos jug of drinking water and that the youngsters had to use a mop pail for washing hands.

They wanted their children transferred to schools at nearby Garrett "where the educational standards are much higher" and filed suit in Dekalb circuit court Tuesday to force Keyser Township Trustee Lester Smurr to do so.

PTA President John Buckles, who called the picketing "very orderly," said it will continue until Smurr is forced to act. He said 10 families are giving their children an extended vacation and forcing three others to do the same.

"Only one family is actually resisting our protest and that's because they live next door to the school," Buckles said. "Their daughter can easily run home to clean toilet and washing facilities."

He said two other families sent their children to school because the mothers wanted to work and couldn't care for them.

Buckles said the parents think six grades under one teacher "is too much for one man to handle."

"Several books were never even opened last year because the teacher just didn't have time to get around to all the subjects," he said.

MIT Math Professor Indicted by Jury On Conspiracy Charge

CAMBRIDGE, MASS. (AP) — Prof. Dirk J. Struik of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, accused of being a secret member of the Communist party, was indicted by a grand jury Wednesday for "conspiracy to overthrow the government of the United States."

The Middlesex county grand jury also indicted Harry Winner of Malden, Mass., on the same charge.

Both men were named in a second indictment on a charge of "conspiracy to overthrow the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

A third indictment charged Struik with "advocating the overthrow of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts by force and violence."

Two women, identified as Martha H. Fletcher and Margaret Gilbert, also were named in the conspiracy indictments.

District Atty. George E. Thompson said Struik and Winner probably will be arraigned this week. He said he did not plan to arrest them immediately.

The indictments climaxed a long investigation of Communist activities in Middlesex county, highlighted by testimony from Herbert A. Philbrick, who posed as a Communist for nine years while feeding information to the FBI.

Philbrick had named Struik as a secret member of the Communist party in testimony before the house un-American activities committee in Washington in July.

The former undercover agent also named Winner as a member of the Communist party.

Philbrick said Struik, a mathematics professor, lectured at the Communist-sponsored Sam Adams school in Boston and also that Winner was active in the school.

May Have Robbed Store

DES MOINES (AP) — Police said Wednesday the man who robbed a Thriftway store here Aug. 17 may be the nation's most wanted man.

Detective Chief Jack Brophy said four employes of the store have identified pictures of Joseph Franklin Brent Jr., as the armed bandit who held up the store and escaped with more than $2,000.

Brophy said Brent was at the top of the FBI's list of most wanted criminals. The pictures identified by the employes were furnished by the FBI.

Truman Nominates Bowles As Ambassador to India

Chester Bowles
Must Win Over Nehru

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chester A. Bowles, who once held the trying job of federal price administrator, was nominated Wednesday to be U.S. ambassador to India, one of the most sensitive diplomatic posts in the world.

President Truman sent the nomination of the former Connecticut governor to the senate with another major shift in a cold-war hot spot—Loy W. Henderson, now envoy to India and Nepal, to replace Henry F. Grady as ambassador to Iran.

Grady is retiring. His resignation consisted of three formal sentences:

"I wish to render to you my resignation as ambassador to Iran, effective when you desire it to be. It has been a great honor for me to serve under you, our commander-in-chief, in the cold war in this critical zone. With assurances of my highest esteem. I remain faithfully yours, Henry F. Grady."

Mr. Truman accepted the resignation with "the greatest reluctance" and thanked Grady for his "distinguished service as American chief of mission in India, Greece and Iran."

The retirement of Grady—to be replaced by Henderson—and appointment of Bowles to the important Indian post had been expected. Grady started to leave earlier but stayed because of the British-Iranian oil crisis which still must be solved.

The effective date of the shift, assuming senate confirmation of the nominees, will be determined on Grady's return to this country.

Bowles has been available for a federal assignment since he was defeated for re-election as governor of Connecticut in November, 1950.

He may find his assignment as tough as his job as price administrator at the end of World War II, when the nation was shifting from a war to peace economy.

The principal job of the ambassador to India is to win over the cooperation of Premier Jawaharlal Nehru and his important Asiatic country in resisting Communist expansion.

The difficult nature of the task is demonstrated by the fact that Nehru boycotted the recent Japanese peace treaty signing in San Francisco and has been bitterly critical of U.S. policy in China.

George VI Is Suffering From 'Lung Condition'

LONDON (AP) — The health of Great Britain's King George VI has failed again.

That fact, hinted at for days, emerged Wednesday through the rigid protocol of royal tradition.

Black headlines, splashed above front page pictures of the king's drawn and tired face, told Britons that their monarch has been forced to cut short his traditional Scottish holiday and return to London for treatment of a "lung condition."

His illness has been plaguing him since last May.

The King's return, expected by this weekend, was decided upon as a result of X-ray examination of his chest on last week's virtually unprecedented trip here from Scotland for a 90-minute consultation with one of London's leading diagnosticians.

The doctor's findings, which recalled King George from the Scottish moors to the vicinity of his medical advisors and London's well-equipped hospitals, again stirred speculation that he may have to cancel his scheduled January visit to Australia unless his health improves.

Colonel Blames Wife's Breakdown On 'Heckling' Dogs

LONDON (AP) — Col. Kenneth F. May asked legal surcease Wednesday from the heckling of an even 100 dogs.

They all live in a kennel next door to the colonel.

May demanded an injunction against the owners of the Osborne boarding kennels to stop the din.

He said the dogs start barking at 5 a.m. and go on barking until midnight, and have put his wife in the hospital with a nervous breakdown.

"The noise varies," said his lawyer, "from deep barking, moaning and howling to high-pitched yapping."

Mrs. Florence Osborne, owner of the kennel, denied the dogs are a nuisance.

Mrs. W. Malone, City Resident, Dies

Mrs. Winifred Malone, 84, lifelong resident of Iowa City, died at her home at 328 S. Dodge st. Wednesday, after an extended illness.

She was a lifelong member of St. Patrick's church and the altar and rosary society.

Her husband, Michael, and one daughter preceded her in death.

Mrs. Malone was born Sept. 7, 1867, the daughter of Michael and Bridget Cash, who were pioneer residents of Iowa City.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. E. T. Toomey, Los Angeles, Calif., and Elizabeth Malone, at home; two sons, Joseph and John, both at home; four sisters, and two brothers.

Funeral services will be at 9 a.m. Friday at St. Patrick's church with burial in St. Joseph's cemetery. The rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at the McGovern funeral home.

Former SUI Students Meet After 9 Years Aboard Troop Ship

(Special to The Daily Iowan)

ABOARD THE USNS. GEN. M. C. MEIGS — A pair of former SUI students, now Marine officers aboard this Far East-bound troop carrier, have become believers in the antiquated adage about it being a small world.

Capt. John Wilkinson, Marengo, Ia., and 1st Lt. C. P. "Jack" Lewis, North English, Ia., were students at SUI in 1942 when they enlisted together in Des Moines.

They were called to active duty together, serving in the same unit for several months before being sent to different stations.

Now, nearly nine years later, the two Marines occupy adjoining bunks aboard this ship carrying a replacement draft to reinforce Marine units now in Korea.

Highlanders Asked To Pick Up Uniform

Members of SUI's Scottish Highlanders were asked Wednesday to pick up their instruments and uniforms any afternoon, today, Friday, next Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

Bill Adamson, director of the Highlanders said practice sessions this year will be on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

The first practice will be Thursday, Sept. 20. Tryouts for admission to the group will be this Saturday.

BOARD GETS RESOLUTION

A resolution asking for the paving of W. Benton st. past Roosevelt school has been passed by the Iowa City school board.

The resolution, together with a petition by residents of the Benton st. area, will be presented to the city council.

$13,000 Suit Filed Against City Hospital

A $13,244.33 damage suit was filed in district court Wednesday against Mercy hospital for injuries suffered in an accident at the hospital. Louis Goss, Johnson county, is the plaintiff.

Goss alleges that he suffered two broken wrists, head injuries and severe cuts and bruises when he fell in the hospital's furnace room last March 26, while delivering coal there.

He claims that the fall was caused by a bar on a door of the furnace room, and therefore the accident was due to the hospital's negligence.

The plaintiff asks $7,500 for pain and suffering, $5,000 for loss of earning capacity, $595.83 for loss of work and $148.50 for medical expenses.

Robinson Stops Turpin In 10 For Title

Referee Halts Fight Before 61,000 Fans

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson, suddenly turned killer by blood streaming from his left eye, won back his world middleweight title from Britain's Randy Turpin Wednesday night on a technical knockout with a violent attack that forced Referee Ruby Goldstein to stop the fight at 2:52 of the tenth round.

Unleashing the full fury of his bombs after the sturdy Briton opened the gash over his left eye, the sleek Harlem Sugar Ray shot the works in one furious burst that yanked to its feet the sell-out crowd of 61,370 at the polo grounds.

One thunderous right to the head, coming out of a flurry of blows, caved Turpin's tricky defense. Down went the 23-year-old Negro on his back. Taking full advantage of the count he scraped himself off the deck at nine.

Furious Assault

But Robinson, who lost his 160-pound crown in a tremendous upset in London July 10, was not to be denied. Pinning Turpin against the ropes with the fury of his drive, he rained blow after blow at the reeling champion.

All Randy could do was twist his head. He couldn't even raise his hands to ward off the stunning blows.

It seemed as though his head surely must be torn from his shoulders by the enraged Robinson.

Goldstein peered closely at badly damaged Randy—but still the blows continued in relentless attack. Just when Randy appeared ready to pitch forward on his face, the referee stopped it. At the end, Turpin reeled forward wildly and almost sank to his knees.

Robinson Stronger

This was a different Robinson than the lack-luster man who back-pedaled from Turpin's bullyboy tactics at London. Three pounds heavier at 157½, Robinson was punching with more power than last time when he never stunned the courageous Briton. Turpin weighed 159.

In the second round, a solid right to the jaw sent Turpin into his squat and his knees almost touched the floor. Again in the third, a left hook and a right combination shook up the valiant scrapper who carried the hopes of the tight little isle into this dramatic international contest.

Turpin had shaken off the effect of these blows and was coming on in the eighth and ninth. Then he made the fatal mistake of opening the gash over Robinson's eye. That did it.

With the gore streaking down his face, Sugar Ray turned wild man. He knew he had to do it then or never.

"Shouldn't Have Stopped It"

Turpin disputed Goldstein's judgment in stopping the fight in the dressing room.

"He shouldn't have stopped it," he said. "With only seven seconds to go. I was perfectly keen."

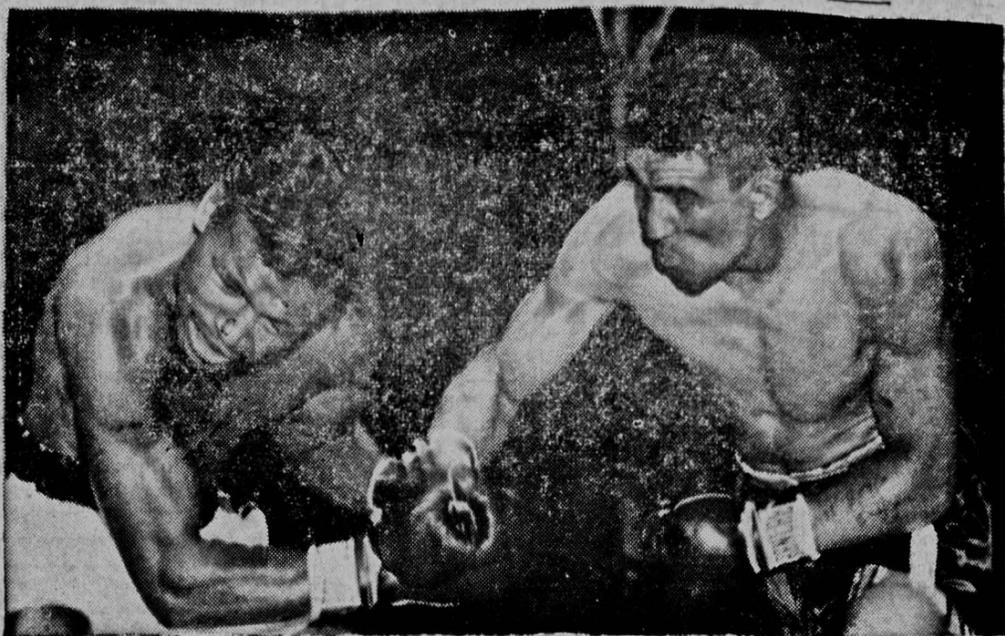

The sellout crowd that set a new all-time gate record for a non-heavyweight bout may have contributed toward a million dollar date. Receipts were $767,630 with another $225,000 from movie and theatre television rights. There was no regular free home television or radio broadcasts of the scrap.

Although exact financial details won't be known for some time, until the movies have made the rounds, it appeared Robinson would get about $230,000, his richest purse for his 30-minute workout and Turpin about $190,000.

It was a close bruising contest until the violent ending. Robinson was out front by a narrow margin on the cards of two officials and even on the other.

Referee Goldstein had it 4-4-1 and 5-5 in points.

Judge Harold Barnes saw it 5-3-1 in favor of Robinson and Judge Joe Agnello 5-4 in favor of Sugar Ray. The AP card had Robinson on top 4-3 with two even after nine.

Robby Catches as Turpin Pitches

A VICIOUS RIGHT to the head thrown by Britain's Randy Turpin made Sugar Ray Robinson grimace in the fourth round of their middleweight championship bout at New York's Polo Grounds Wednesday night. More than 61,000 fans saw Robinson regain his title by stopping Turpin in the 10th round.

Chicago Crowd Riots Over Theater TV

CHICAGO (AP) — Thousands of fight fans rioted outside the state-lake theater Wednesday night disappointed because they could not get inside to see a television showing of the Robinson-Turpin fight.

A mob of 1,500 persons smashed three heavy plate glass doors before the fight started and surged into the theater. Many did not have tickets but there was no way the management could oust them.

Another group of 75 invaded the theater through the stage door before police sealed it off and 50 more climbed a fire escape and entered through the balcony, bowling over an usher who tried to stop them.

The gate crashers ran through the darkened theater, mingling with paid customers so that police and ushers could not find them.

Police and firemen kept them from standing in the aisles, however, so that many of the invaders were forced to sit on each others' laps or keep circulating throughout the theater as the telecast of the fight showed on the screen.

Hits Theater TV

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator Hendrickson (R-N.J.) Wednesday night urged the federal government to stop the practice of limiting telecasting of big sports events to theaters where admission is charged.

"Millions of our sports-loving people in America were deprived of watching the telecast of the world's championship boxing match," he said.

McCloskey, Green Quit Grid Squad; Hawks Continue Drills

The Iowa football roster dropped to 66 Wednesday when guard Bob McCloskey and back Dave Green left the squad.

The Hawkeye total had been boosted to 68 Tuesday by the addition of nine freshmen.

McCloskey was a former all-state star at Loras of Dubuque but did not figure to be used much this season. At 178 pounds, he was considered too light for the rugged Big Ten line play.

Defensive Back

Green, from North English, worked as a defensive back in practice, but he, too, was not slated for much game action.

Wednesday's practice followed the usual two-a-day drills—fundamentals and conditioning in the morning and passing drills followed by a short scrimmage in the afternoon.

Two backfield units were evident in Wednesday's scrimmage. One had Jim Sangster at quarterback, Dusty Rice and Chuck Denning at the halfbacks and Mike Riley at fullback.

Britzmann's Unit

Another quartet saw quarterback Burt Britzmann team with halfbacks Bernie Bennett and Don Commack and fullback Bill Reichardt.

Fullback Gerald Nordman was excused after he banged the knee which was injured last year and kept him out for the entire season.

And halfbacks Chug Wilson, with a twisted knee, and Loranzie Williams, with a bruised thigh, also stayed out of the contact work.

Highlight of the scrimmage was the impressive pass receiving of Rice and end Del Corbin.

Minnesota ...

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. (AP) — Minnesota football stock took a sharp turn for the better Wednesday with the announcement that Bob McNamara, a star freshman end last year, was being discharged from the army and will report for football Sept. 18.

McNamara, who lives in Hastings, Minn., was rated one of the finest freshman ends in Gopher history when he played for yearling Coach Butch Nash last year. He has been stationed at Fort Benning, Ga.

Meanwhile, rainy weather forced Coach Wes Fesler to take his charges indoors for the first time since drills started a week ago.

The emphasis was on pass offense and defense and the Gopher coach called it "one of the finest passing drills I have seen."

Michigan ...

ANN ARBOR, MICH. — Passing and punting were given special emphasis Wednesday as the University of Michigan varsity football squad worked on its offense.

Coach Bernie Oosterbaan said the Wolverines were looking better, but that he still was worried about who was going to take over the first string fullback spot. He has been using four men in scrimmage at the post, with none standing out particularly.

The four hopefuls are Don Peterson, Dick Balzhiser, Tom Witherspoon and Rus Rescorla, with Peterson probably holding a slight edge because of his greater experience.

Indiana ...

BLOOMINGTON, IND. (AP) — Coach Clyde Smith of Indiana saw his offensive and defensive units in action Wednesday and said both teams appeared to be nearing their peak.

The Hoosier offensive squad ran through a make-shift defensive group at will while the No. 1 defensive outfit stopped a freshman team cold in scrimmages.

The first-string backfield sported passing quarterback Lou D'Achille, Bobby Robertson, Bill Dozier and Gene Gedman. Tackle Pete Russo and fullback Jerry Van Ooyen still were sidelined with injuries.

A Champion Smiles

(AP Wirephoto)

HIS AMBITION fulfilled of regaining the world's middleweight championship that he lost to Randy Turpin last summer, Sugar Ray Robinson gave out with a broad grin in his dressing room after stopping Turpin in 10 rounds. A cut eye spurred Robinson on to his winning rally.

Urzetta, Chapman Fall In Amateur Tourney

By WILL GRIMSLEY

BETHLEHEM, PA. (AP) — The champions of the United States and Britain — Sam Urzetta and Dick Chapman — and another member of the Walker Cup team were jarred from the National Amateur golf tournament Wednesday in upsets that left outsiders holding the whip hand.

When the long day's activities were ended in semi-darkness on the Saucon Valley country club, only two members of America's vaunted international brigade were still left in the field of 16.

They were Charles Coe of Oklahoma City, winner of this championship in 1949, and little bespectacled Harold Paddock of Aurora, Ohio.

Paddock sank a 41-foot putt on the 20th hole to prevail over Dale Morey from Martinsville, Ind.

Defending champion Urzetta's brilliant game fell into tatters on the last nine holes of his fourth round match and he went out a 2 and 1 victim of Joe Gagliardi, a 39-year-old lawyer of Mamaronck, N.Y.

The Rochester, N.Y. titleholder, four up after nine holes lost six of the last eight and five in a row in a miserable battle with sand, rough and jumpy nerves.

More than an hour later, the 40-year-old Chapman, who won the British Amateur last spring at Birkdale, came trooping in, a dejected loser by 2 and 1 to L. M. Crannell Jr., an unknown from Dallas.

Tall Jim McHale of Philadelphia, a neighborhood favorite who had been picked by his Walker Cup mates to win this 51st title, bowed in the morning third round to Billy Joe Patton, a 29-year-old lumber man from Morganton, N.C. The margin was one up.

But Patton himself came out after lunch and fell into the debris that has marked this tournament in Pennsylvania's hilly steel region. He was ousted by Edward P. Martin of Winchester, Mass., 39-year-old champion of his state, 2 and 1.

Two more 18-hole rounds today will reduce the field to four and it was anybody's guess who would play in Saturday's finals.

Reds Defeat Brooklyn, 6-3; Red Sox Top Tigers; Cubs Bow

CINCINNATI (AP)—Lloyd Merriam's base clearing triple in the seventh inning off Carl Erskine broke a 3-3 deadlock and gave the Cincinnati Reds a 6-3 victory over the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers here Wednesday in the final game of their season series. Ewell Blackwell, who limited the Dodgers to two hits in the 5 2/3 innings after replacing Ken Raffensberger in the second, was credited with the victory, his 15th against 14 losses.

Herman Wehmeier pitched scoreless ball in the last two frames after replacing Blackwell when the latter tired.

Erskine, who replaced Newcombe after the Reds got three runs in the first, was the loser. It was his 10th against 15 wins.

It was the Reds eighth victory over Brooklyn in 22 games.

Red Sox 2, Tigers 1

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox picked up a half game on the idling Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees by sweeping a two-game series with the Detroit Tigers Wednesday with a 10-inning, 2-1 decision.

The third-place Boston forces now are 4½ games back of the Indians and 3½ behind the Yanks. Both of those pennant rivals appear here during the sockers' current and final home stand.

Both hurlers had given but four hits until the Pesky-Vollmer combine decided the final Boston-Detroit contest of the season. The Red Sox gained a 12-10 season edge over the Tigers.

CHICAGO (AP)—Catcher Walker Cooper blasted his 17th and 18th homeruns to bat in five runs as the Boston Braves hung a 7-3 defeat on the Chicago Cubs before 3,633 persons Wednesday.

The Braves rallied to score three runs each in the eighth and ninth innings and overcome a 3-1 deficit.

The victory enabled Boston to split the two-game series, as Chicago closed out 1951 competition against the Braves with a 12-10 advantage.

Max Surkont checked the Cubs on four hits as he gained his 11th victory against 13 losses. Lefty Joe Hatten, who pitched out of bases full-none out situations twice in the first and second innings, suffered his fifth defeat.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Billy Pierce scattered six Washington hits in pitching the Chicago White Sox to a 3-0 victory Wednesday night. The win was the left-hander's 13th and gave Chicago a 14-8 record over the Senators for the season.

Nelson Fox accounted for three of Chicago's nine hits off Sid Hudson. Fox sent the White Sox into a 1-0 lead in the first inning when he singled, went to third on Al Zarilla's single and scored after Orestes Minoso flied out.

Azores Are NATO Defense Link

ANOTHER LINK was added to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's chain of defenses with the new agreement between the U.S. and Portugal for use of the Azores islands by U.S. aircraft. The agreement replaces a similar pact signed in 1948, which made Lages airfield available to U.S. aircraft. The new pact provides that the Azores may be made available to other NATO nations (in black) later.

This Is Where the Atomic Plane is Being Built

THE HISTORY-MAKING TASK OF CONSTRUCTING an atomic-powered airplane is underway at the two factories shown above. The engine itself is being built at General Electric's gas turbine division, Lockland, O., (bottom) the rest of the plane at Consolidated Vultee's big B-36 plant (top) at Fort Worth, Tex. The project is the result of four years of study at Oak Ridge Tenn., by a group known as Nuclear Energy for the Propulsion of Aircraft. Cost of building such a plane may run greater, it is believed, than the $40 million already spent on an atomic submarine, a project on which the U.S. navy already has let a contract.

Father Makes Sure

RAYMOND HOLSTEIN accompanied his five-year-old daughter, Donna Lee, to Clifton kindergarten Monday and stayed all day, just to make sure she was not sent home. The school board ordered Donna Lee to go to South Avondale school because that's in her neighborhood, but Holstein objected. He said the child would have to cross too many traffic thoroughfares to get to South Avondale and he objected to religious differences there.

for excusing them from work in which they have already achieved proficiency and as a basis for general guidance.

Tonight a "get-acquainted" meeting for both men and women will be held at the Iowa Memorial Union, followed by parties in each housing unit.

During the week, each student will have conferences with faculty advisers to discuss problems of scheduling and adjustment to university life. Student helpers will assist faculty advisers in these conferences.

Monday night men students will attend a sports night to acquaint themselves with the facilities of the Iowa fieldhouse, while women students are visiting selected faculty homes for a social hour.

Tuesday and Wednesday evenings the new students will attend receptions at the home of President and Mrs. Virgil M. Hancher.

Registration for new students will take place Tuesday. All university classes will begin a week from today.

Sophomore, junior and senior students will be assigned as group leaders for the new students to guide them through the orientation activities and to answer questions. Each group leader will be responsible for from 15 to 20 new students, and will visit the same students during the first week of classes to offer additional advice if needed.

Senator Describes New Atomic Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Brien McMahon (D-Conn.) said Wednesday the destructive fury of America's atomic weapons is "truly fantastic . . . a frightful threat" that dwarfs anything perviously known to man.

McMahon, chairman of the senate-house atomic committee, made the statement to newsmen on emerging from an "important" closed-door session with members of the atomic energy commission.

Golf Club Thief Puzzles Police

Iowa City police are looking for a thief who presumably plays golf either right or left-handed, or who else knows little about the game.

Authorities reported Wednesday that $233 worth of golf equipment, including 13 clubs, a bag and club covers, were stolen sometime last Sunday night or early Monday morning from Gene Chapman's driving range south of the airport.

But what puzzles police most is that some of the clubs taken were right and some were left-handed.

Senate Speeds Work On Defense Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The senate put on a sudden burst of speed Wednesday toward final passage of the $61,103,856,030 defense bill after writing in curbs on pentagon "white collar" employes and a two-year time limit on spending authority.

An agreement to limit debate— with only two hours for the final stage—indicated passage may be reached by today. A long list of amendments still awaited action, however.

Majority leader Ernest McFarland (D-Ariz.) won the speed-up agreement late in the day as the senate appeared to be bogged down in endless debate. Only a few protests were heard.

Before quitting for the day, the senate beat down a series of attempts by Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.) to whittle $184,794,000 from funds which he said would go for tools to private industry and for expediting defense production.
