Truman Rules 'No More Gifts'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman swung into his cleanup campaign Tuesday night by laying down this rule for federal employees: no gifts from people doing business with the government.

With Christmas just around the corner, Mr. Truman said federal employees should spurn favors, gifts, unusual loans or entertainment.

He acted in the aftermath of congressional investigations studded with stories about cut-rate fur coats, deep freezes and de luxe airplane jaunts to Florida.

He expressed his views in a letter to Raymond M. Foley, head of the housing and home finance agency. Foley had written the President about steps he has taken to guard against graft in his agency and to discourage would-be influence peddlers.

Truman Praises Policy

"I think the policy you have set out with respect to the acceptance of gifts by employees is a wise one, and I believe that this is the correct policy for all of the government," the President wrote.

Foley had told all his employees his agency has a "firm practice of not permitting the acceptance of any gifts or other gratuities from individuals or organizations whose activities are related to the functions of the HHFA."

"Because of the general public interest in this subject at the present time," Truman wrote, "I believe your letter should be made public as an example of the manner in which this problem has been dealt with in the past, and is being dealt with, by the government."

Congressional investigations of the reconstruction finance corporation and the internal revenue bureau have uncovered numerous instances of gifts being showered on government employees — television sets, cameras, perfume, hams, turkeys and the like.

Some officials have also acknowledged accepting lavish entertainment from persons doing business with the government or from those in trouble with one of its agencies.

White House Was Involved

The White House itself has not escaped attention. The RFC inquiry brought out that Donald Dawson, Truman's patronage chief, enjoyed a cost-free stay at a Florida hotel which was an RFC borrower, and that Matthew Connelly, another presidential aide, accepted a Christmas camera from the American Lithofold corporation, another RFC borrower.

During a previous inquiry into influence peddling it was brought out that Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughn, the President's military aide, once received seven deep freezes from a perfume company which was interested in getting the way cleared for a resumption of business with Europe in the post-war period.

Britain to Support NATO Army Morally, Won't Participate

PARIS (AP) — Winston Churchill pledged Tuesday night that Britain will support and work with a European army "in all the stages of its political and military development" — but will not join it.

The pronouncement immediately posed the question whether Churchill's moral support without participation would be enough to restore the waning enthusiasm of some European countries for the one-uniform international army.

Churchill's position was stated in a joint British-French communique after he had lunched with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, strong advocate of the European army idea, and had had two days of talks between himself and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden on the one side, and French Premier Rene Pleven and Foreign Minister Robert Schuman on the other.

Discussions with President Vincent Auriol and W. Averell Harriman, chairman of the North Atlantic economic planners, also were sandwiched in.

City Council Proposes Purchases for Parking

The city council Monday night tentatively approved purchase of two properties that would provide parking space for about 130 vehicles.

Largest property involved is the Van Meter hotel, located on a 100 by 150 feet lot on Iowa ave. The property is owned by M. Kirkhofer and Barbara Kirkhofer and is listed for sale at $55,000. It adjoins a 60 by 150 feet lot on the east which has also been recommended for purchase, at a price of $16,500.

The other purchase proposed Monday night is a 50 by 150 feet lot which lies just south of the Dubuque st. parking lot. It is owned by Everett Means and the cost would be $25,000.

Public Hearing Jan. 7

Public hearings on all three proposed land purchases have been set for Jan. 7.

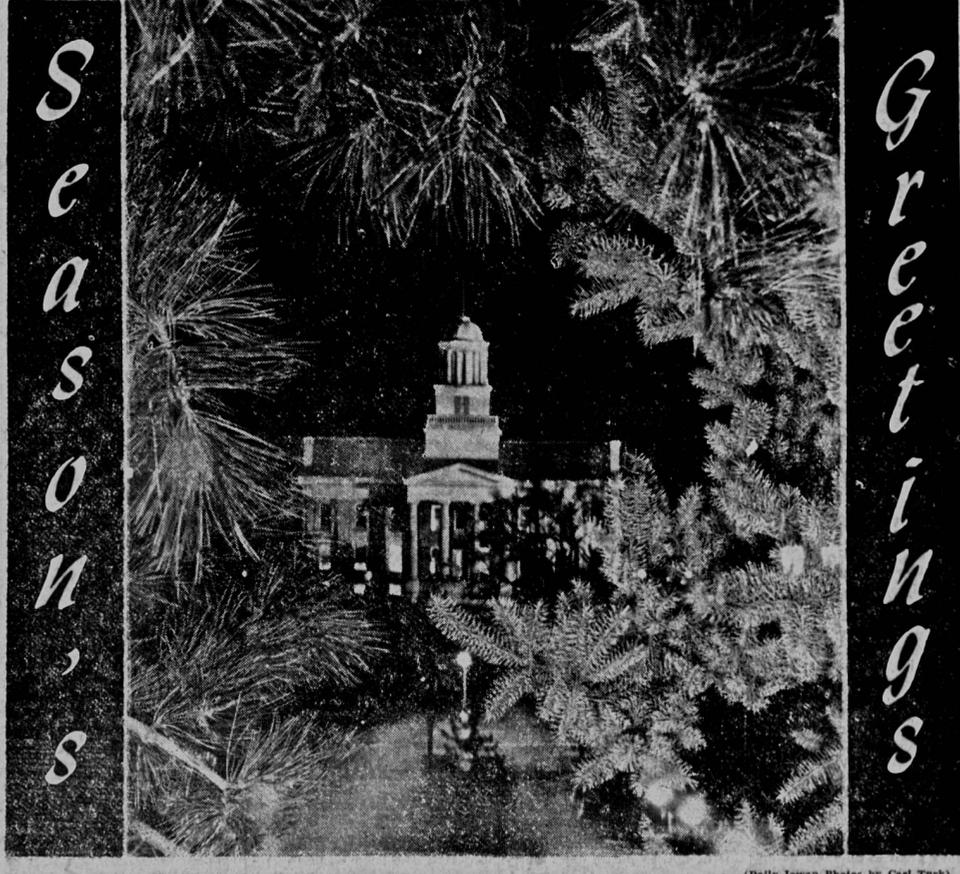

City Manager Peter F. Roan said Tuesday that the lots would be purchased from funds collected from parking meters which amount to about $6,000 a month.

The city manager pointed out that, since the city is required to spend 75 per cent of the income from the meters for off street parking facilities, $4,500 can be allotted for this purpose each month.

City Pays Off Debts

Roan said that the city has paid off $27,000 in parking lot indebtedness in the past three months and that lots now owned by the city will be completely paid for out of money appropriated for next year.

The Iowa City real estate board Monday night petitioned the council to lift rent controls here by Jan. 1. A resolution, passed by the

Greetings

Hancher Extends Holiday Greetings

While wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year let me urge you to insure that they are merry and happy by keeping yourselves safe and sound. Last year over the three-day Christmas holiday 545 deaths resulted from highway accidents. Be sure that you are not included in the number for this year. Already a serious accident has occurred to one of your fellow students. Do not add to this number.

May your vacation be a pleasant one. I hope that you will see your parents while you are gone. They have a great interest and a substantial investment in you and your future. Give them all possible return on it.

We hope that you will return to us safe and sound, and refreshed for the completion of a good school year.

Again best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Steel Mediators Set To Head Off Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government Tuesday called a mediation meeting in a last-ditch effort to head off a New Year's day steel strike, but Price Administrator Michael V. Di Salle warned there will be no "unjustified price increase" to buy peace.

The CIO steelworkers union is demanding 15 cents an hour and other benefits. The companies say they can't raise pay without price compensation.

Spokesmen to Meet Thursday

Management and union's spokesmen were called to Washington on Thursday. The call was sent out by Cyrus S. Ching, chief of the mediation and conciliation service, as direct bargaining in Pittsburgh approached a stalemate.

A few hours later the price pronouncement was made by Di Salle, who had met with steel mill representatives to talk over possible increases under the Capehart amendment to the economic controls law.

The amendment provides for ceilings reflecting all changes in costs up to July 26, but not changes since that time. Hence it would not cover the cost of a pay raise now for the steelworkers.

Reds, Allies Remain At Odds on Truce Despite List Exchange

MUNSAN, Korea (WEDNESDAY) (AP) — Communist truce delegates Tuesday released a list of 11,559 Allied war prisoners, but there was no indication that the list release would speed up efforts to reach an armistice in Korea by Dec. 27.

Red and Allied truce teams also still were at loggerheads over numerous other details, such as supervision of a truce. The subcommittees discussing supervision met again in Panmunjom at 8 p.m. Tuesday, CST.

The Red list, given up only after repeated prodding, was exchanged for one from the Allies containing the names of 132,472 North Korean and Chinese prisoners.

The Red list of Allied prisoners was rushed to Munsan for quick study at that advance base camp of the Allied truce team. (The list as transmitted from Tokyo, began arriving in the United States shortly after 6:30 p.m. Tuesday CST).

The Red radio at Peiping lost no time charging today that the Allied list of Red prisoners was unsatisfactory. It said information was lacking which was needed for identification and that the Allies said it could not be forthcoming — written in Korean and Chinese — until after Dec. 25.

3,198 U.S. Men On List; 7,844 Still Missing

BULLETIN

TOKYO (AP) — A spokesman for Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters said today that approximately half the American army names on the Communist prisoner list had been checked against records as of 2 p.m. and "so far no discrepancy has been found."

From The Wire Services

WASHINGTON — The last hope thousands of people held for the lives of loved ones listed as missing in Korea was destroyed Tuesday night when the defense department began making public the names of 3,198 American prisoners held by the Communists.

The U. S. government has reported 7,844 servicemen still missing in action. The Communist list, begrudgingly yielded after repeated Allied demands, accounted for only a little more than one-fourth of the total number previously reported missing.

General Dean Listed

Foremost among those listed as alive by the Reds was Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, one of the great heroes of the Korean war. There had been many conflicting reports as to the fate of Dean after he was lost leading his men in the early months of the war.

Some reports claimed that he had been killed. Others said that he had been taken prisoner. But it wasn't until Tuesday that there was any official word about what had happened to the 52-year-old medal of honor winner.

Dean commanded the 24th division — first American division to fight in Korea after the Communist invasion. He is reportedly held in prisoner camp number six at the North Korean capital of Pyongyang.

Congress Demands Investigation

The disappointingly small list of UN war prisoners led some members of congress to demand a thorough investigation of Red atrocities.

Defense department officials declined comment until further information was available.

Rep. H. R. Gross (R-Iowa) questioned the accuracy of the defense department's missing tabulation. He said he thought the department had been "covering up on the number of men killed in action by reporting them as missing or wounded."

Phone Calls from Relatives

Newspapers and radio stations around the country received numerous phone calls from relatives and friends of men listed as missing.

By 1 a.m. today, about one-third of the 3,198 names listed on the prisoner report had been made public. These names weren't identified with home towns but had only the serial number, the army unit and the place of imprisonment of each man.

The more tedious and lengthy task of looking up each man's home town and nearest of kin was slowly grinding on at the Pentagon. Only a small fraction of the total list, complete with home towns of the men, had been released late Tuesday night.

Iowans Listed

Four Iowans were officially reported on the Red POW list, but it is probable that the list will include more Iowans.

They were:

- Pfc. Al M. Brooks, son of Mrs. Genevieve Brooks, Coon Rapids.
- Pfc. William R. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brown, Victor.
- Pvt. Wayne L. Caddell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caddell, route 1, Logan.
- Cpl. Billy E. Clark, son of Mrs. Lola Clark, route 1, Dallas.

Other Iowans whose names were the same as those appearing on the prisoner list were:

- Sgt. Richard L. Collett of Ottumwa.
- Cpl. Richard L. Cones of Cedar Rapids.
- Cpl. Ralph E. Bishop Jr. of Fort Dodge.
- Pfc. William Fisher of Fort Dodge.

Schoenbohm Resigns As School Director

W. B. Schoenbohm Goes to Minnesota

Wilko B. Schoenbohm, director of the Hospital School for Severely Handicapped Children, has officially accepted a position as director of the Minnesota Society for Crippled Children.

Schoenbohm, who was also the associate director of the state services for crippled children, will for the next five months spend alternate weeks with the society in Minneapolis. The rest of his time will be spent on duties here in Iowa.

In June Schoenbohm will assume full-time duties in Minnesota.

He received his MA from SUI in 1950. He previously attended Wartburg college in Waverly, where he received his BA, and the universities of Berlin and Erlanger, in Germany.

Between 1933 and 1937 Schoenbohm studied at the Bethel Theological school and the Wartburg Theological seminary in Dubuque.

He was minister at Bryant, S.D., from 1937 to 1938 and afterwards directed the crippled children's school in Jamestown, N.D., until 1948.

Cold, Snow Predicted; Most Highways Clear

Another cold wave moved into Iowa Tuesday behind the second big snow in a week and forecasters held little hope for a letup in frigid weather snow before the weekend.

Wide areas of the U. S. cringed under a new flurry of wintry weather blows that sent the nation's storm deaths soaring to 185.

The cold weather swept into the state from the west as the last snows were falling in the east early Tuesday and readings skidded to nine below zero at Sioux City and seven below at Spencer.

The weather bureau predicted new light snows would hit western Iowa Tuesday night and spread over the state today. A slight temperature rise expected to accompany a low pressure system sweeping southeastward from western Canada.

The Iowa highway commission said highways in counties along the Mississippi river south of Dubuque were "somewhat slippery" from packed snow. Elsewhere, Iowa highways were normal except for packed snow and ice in sheltered areas. Some drifting was reported but all highways were open.

Indiana U. Pin-Ups Banned by Dean

BLOOMINGTON, IND. (AP) — An Indiana university official Tuesday banned circulation of a campus humor magazine's Esquire-type calendar bearing photographs of 12 coeds in bathing suits.

Leo R. Dowling, assistant dean of students, described the Crimson Bull's calendar as "more sedate" than commercial ones but said "several" of the photographs "might be open to criticism."

Dowling ordered the Crimson Bull's student editors to delete the calendar insert from the current issue, which was supposed to be released Tuesday. Editor Robert Wilcox held up circulation pending an appeal to higher I. U. officials.

Photographs on the "pin-up girl" type of calendar "were not objectionable," Dowling said, "but it would not be in keeping with university tradition."

UP Sends Entire U.S. POW List

THERE WAS RENEWED HOPE AND HAPPINESS in the hearts of thousands of Americans Tuesday night as the names of 3,198 U.S. prisoners were released by the Chinese Reds. Hobert Duncan, A4, Mason City, Daily Iowan managing editor, found that checking the teletype was a full-time job. At the time the picture was taken about 1,000 names had been received. Duncan is holding the list which then measured about 30 feet. The list included only name, rank, serial number and the serviceman's unit; no home addresses were available until later.

A Challenge to All Students—

For the second time this year the no-cut rule has been suspended. To many, who are from New York, California and other far-away places, this means an opportunity to catch an earlier ride home.

Some students may think that this is unfair. Actually it is not. Each student should evaluate his own case. Those living near Iowa City or those who can find quick, last-minute transportation home should be willing to stay until they complete their last class before leaving.

John Doe from Los Angeles has probably left by now and is headed home. Perhaps he will arrive there today or tomorrow.

Betty Doe from Des Moines can leave Iowa City this afternoon and still be home before John.

The students' attitude toward the no-cut rule is to be admired. It shows a desire for more self-administration on the part of the students.

Another point, which is even more encouraging, is that a group of deans have enough faith in the student body to give the no-cut suspension a second try.

Considering that the no-cut rule has been in effect for 30 years this should prove that the deans recognize the willingness of our generation to accept and carry added responsibilities with enthusiasm heretofore unbound.

This is a challenge to all SUI students.

The abolition or resumption of the no-cut rule will directly show just how ready the students of today are for increased self-governing.

Film Producer Faces Hearing in Shooting Of Actress' Agent

BEVERLY HILLS, CALIF. (AP)

Film producer Walter Wanger was ordered Tuesday to appear for arraignment Dec. 26 on an indictment in the triangle shooting of Jennings Lang, agent for Wanger's wife Joan Bennett.

The county grand jury charged Wanger, 57, with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. The possible penalty is 5 to 14 years. He was permitted to remain at liberty on $5,000 bail posted following his arrest.

Lang, 39, was shot in the groin Thursday night as he stood beside Miss Bennett's car in a parking lot where Wanger had been waiting for them to return from a drive. Wanger told police: "I shot him because he tried to break up my home."

Wanger has been at liberty since Friday on a habeas corpus writ.

One grand jury witness, parking lot attendant Sam Scott, told reporters that, after hearing loud voices, "I looked over and they were sort of grappling."

Scott and Sid Holtzman, another attendant, said they didn't hear the shots, however, Holtzman, who drove Lang and Miss Bennett to a hospital in her car, said Miss Bennett was "cool as a cucumber."

TO THE EDITOR:

Just wondering how long all this about "discrimination," "censorship," and last but not least, General Rommel, is going to continue.

You certainly don't have an enviable job. Seems to me a lot of people around here like to see their names in print; personally, I don't give a if you print this or not, so please don't worry about your "censorship." If you can't find room among all these illustrious letters which cost time and a lot of money to set up in print.

Eugene Hippler, A2, 339 N. Riverside.

TO THE EDITOR:

If Mr. Demitillo would pay more attention to his history, rather than wrangling in the press, he would find out the Nigeria is not a colony, but a protectorate.

Daniel Dim, E1, B118 Quad.

TO THE EDITOR:

When we read the letters by the three fellows from Nigeria, we were amazed — not, to say, disgusted. Being ourselves foreign students and afraid that these letters may create some misunderstanding as to the opinion of foreign students about this country, we would like to say this to our friends from the palm country: We are not very well informed about the kind of human relations they have developed there, but, having spent a few years here, we have found that United States live up to the name Americans here and abroad have built for them. A name which means, at least to us, freedom and progress.

It's not only because of the technological advancements that we came here to study. There is another reason that makes people so eager to come to this country. It's because we believe that we can learn here a few things about getting along with other people and adopt better methods of living. It is beyond questioning that those of us that come here with good faith, profit by what we see and learn about the way Americans live.

Of course, we don't approve of racial discrimination, but, being outsiders, we don't think we should go any further into that. Nonetheless, to call a country where you are offered the best of opportunities for higher education and where most people try to be as friendly to you as possible, a complete failure, is not exactly the most courteous thing to do. Even if this country were a complete failure, in your opinion, mere politeness requires that you don't express that through the newspapers.

Mr. Wanberg, quite correctly suggested that when you disagree with the way people live, or when your disgust reaches such a point that you have to publicly call this country a complete failure, the simplest thing to do is leave. There are other places in the world where you can obtain just about as good a technical education. We are sure that the Nigerian fellows do not really have the illusion that they can change this country by staying here.

We trust that our Nigerian friends will read the above with good faith and that they will understand our point of view.

ROTC Lengthens Student Contracts To 8 Years Duty

SUI air force and army reserve officer training corps corps are now offering new deferment agreements to students enrolled in their courses.

The new agreements call for the student, if he completes two years of basic and two years of advanced ROTC, to serve a total of eight years instead of six in the reserve.

If the student finishes the four years, he graduates with a second lieutenant's commission in the army or air force. The commission is active for two years.

Very few students are refusing the agreements. There are about 575 air force and 450 army students eligible to sign the agreements, not including freshmen. About 85 per cent of the freshman ROTC students will be offered deferment.

The former agreements called for the students to serve six years in the reserve after graduation.

Oak Ridge Fellowship Awarded SUI Student

Donald F. Wilson G, 103 Central park, is one of the seven students at Iowa colleges who are among the 343 holders of atomic energy sponsored fellowships, the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies announced Monday.

He is a predoctoral student in biochemistry.

The institute is administering the fellowship program for the Atomic Energy commission for the 1951-52 school year. The fellowships were awarded for study at 70 American universities and research institutions, and seven others located abroad.

There are 300 doctoral and 43 postdoctoral fellows who will do research and study.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 30...THE SQUIRREL

This nimble-minded nutcracker almost tumbled for those tricky cigarette mildness tests. But he worked himself out of a tight spot when he suddenly realized that cigarette mildness just can't be judged by a mere puff or one single sniff. Smokers everywhere have reached this conclusion—there's just one real way to prove the flavor and mildness of a cigarette.

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke—on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis. No snap judgments. Once you've enjoyed Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...

Camel leads all other brands by billions

It would be disillusioning to say it was anybody but Santa himself, but you might ask Frank Hayne, Lubbock, Tex., college instructor and author, about it.

Iowa City C. of C. Elects 5 Members To 3-Year Terms

The Iowa City chamber of commerce elected five members to the board of directors, L. K. Vertrees, chairman of the election board, announced Tuesday. Harvey Davis, Harry Dunlap Jr., Wayne Putnam Jr., Joe Schaaf and Robert Stevenson were elected to a three year term on the board. The new board members' terms will start Jan. 1, 1952 and will end Dec. 31, 1954. Ballots were mailed to members Dec. 10 and had to be postmarked by 5 p.m. Dec. 17 to be valid. Five members are elected to the 15-man board every year.

Car Accident Suits Ask Total of $19,000

Two damage suits have been filed in Johnson county district court as a result of an auto accident last Sept. 4. The suits ask a total of $19,875.42. Both actions name Clayton and Robert Mahoney as defendants. One suit is brought by Doris Jensen and the other by William V. Hoyt. Miss Jensen states that she was a passenger in a car driven by Hoyt when it was struck by a car driven by Clayton Mahoney and owned by Robert Mahoney. Miss Jensen asks $13,494.42 for injuries suffered in the accident and Hoyt asks judgment of $6,381 for damages to his car and personal injuries. The accident occurred on highway 218 about 4 miles north of North Liberty last Sept. 4.

Auto Damage Suit Settled for $3,400

The $25,000 auto accident suit that began Monday in Johnson county district court was settled late Monday afternoon out of court. The case was brought by Mrs. Pearl Skriver against Howard and Ronald Wilkison. She had asked judgment for injuries received in an accident May 2, 1951. According to the court, the defendants have agreed to pay $3,400 to Mrs. Skriver. The defendants counter-claim of $338.98, for damages to their car, was dismissed.

Boys Must Work or Pay For Halloween 'Pranks'

If two Iowa City youths choose to work out police court fines of $52.50 each, it will take 122 hours as prescribed by a law established in 1850. The boys are Donald R. Rochau, 18, 416 S. Dodge st., and George N. Kondora, 18, of 1828 N. Dubuque st., a senior at City high school. They pleaded guilty before Judge Emil G. Trott Monday on a charge of vandalism on Oct. 30. Police said they were among a group of 15 youths charged with property damage resulting from Halloween pranks. Rochau and Kondora admitted helping tear down speed analyzer warning signs posted at highway entrances into Iowa City. Eleven of the youths, all under 18, were charged in juvenile court, authorities said. Names of juvenile offenders are withheld from publication.

Rochau and Kondora told Judge Trott that they may choose to work off all or part of their fines during Christmas vacation. If they do, they will work for the city at 43 cents and hour. That's the hourly rate as set up 101 years ago, the judge said. But it seems doubtful that the boys could work out all of the fines because at 43 cents an hour it would take approximately 122 hours to "earn" $52.50. That means they could reduce their fines by $3.44 per day at an eight-hour work day. It also means that it would take 15 1/2 days at eight hours per day to work off $52.50. But the boys just won't have that much time. Rochau will only have 10 available working days during the university's vacation and Kondora will have only eight days during City high period. A third youth over 18 also charged with tearing down analyzer signs has entered the service and could not appear in court.

Illini Invaders Hoist Rose Queen

(AP Wirephoto)

COACH RAY ELIOT, ALWAYS THE GENTLEMAN, doffs his hat while hoisting Queen Nancy Thorne of the Tournament of Roses to his shoulders and those of Illinois captain Chuck Studley. The Illini arrived in Pasadena Tuesday by train for their meeting with Stanford in the New Year's Rose bowl game.

Illini Hopes Hinge On Coast Sunshine

CHICAGO (AP)—Ray Eliot hoped for two weeks of fabled California weather Tuesday to get his Illinois football team ready for his second Rose bowl clash, with Pacific coast co-champion Stanford New Year's day.

Pasadena Welcomes Illini

PASADENA, CALIF. (AP)—Pasadena's Tournament of Roses put on an effusive welcome for the invading Illinois football team Tuesday as it arrived for its date with Stanford in the Rose bowl New Year's day.

Several hundred people, waiting patiently for more than an hour for the late-arriving train, gave the visitors a hearty cheer and added an extra shout as the players and coaches were introduced individually.

The Tournament of Roses band blared a welcome tune, Mayor Al Abernath gave an official greeting and then the entire party of 44 players and Illini camp followers were paraded to their quarters at the Huntington hotel.

stopped us from doing any real work before we left home."

Illinois was permitted 16 days of practice for the scrap and used six at home before departing for California.

"We didn't get in any scrimmaging," Eliot said. "Had to work indoors except for about 30 minutes. We couldn't do any passing or kicking, just had to concentrate on our running. We'll get our scrimmaging in California."

Stanford "Terrific" Eliot, judging from scouting reports received from Michigan's Ernie McCoy and J. T. White, rated Stanford as a "terrific team."

"A big sturdy line and an awfully good team, fine linebackers." However, Illinois is a seven point favorite.

"They'll outweigh us considerably," he said. And that passing combination of (Gary) Kerkorian

Chet Nichols Wins E.R.A. Title at 20

NEW YORK (AP)—Chet Nichols, 20-year-old Boston Braves southpaw, Tuesday became the youngest pitcher ever to win the National league earned run title.

The poised youngster from Pawtucket, R. I., completing his third year of pro ball, allowed 50 earned runs in 156 innings for an average of 2.88 per nine-inning game. Although he ranked ninth on a won-and-lost basis with an 11-8 record, he finished with a rush to win seven of his last 11 starts.

Not since Jim Turner, also a Brave, led in earned runs in 1937 had a first year man been the most effective pitcher in the league. And Turner, now a New York Yankee coach, was 33 when he broke into the big league from Indianapolis.

Nichols' feat of leading the pitchers was surprising because he performed steadily with a fourth-place club and was overlooked in the general excitement about New York's Sal Maglie and Larry Jansen and the Dodgers' Roy,

Hot Rod Writer Finds Life Dull After Dismissal

MEMPHIS, TENN. (AP)—Life moved in slow motion Tuesday for Bob Starr, Arkansas' stripped-down dual-carburator hot rod student.

He had time on his hands. Time to sit, time to draw a deep breath, time to thumb through a magazine.

It's driving him crazy. Starr's enforced "leisure" came after he was gently but firmly punted from Memphis State college — an amiable parting fraught with amazement and a certain tenderness.

State's ouster order wasn't based on flunked courses or college pranks. College authorities simply feared Starr was about to throw a rod. He was, simultaneously:

A Few Activities
Enrolled in both Memphis State and Southwestern, making top grades in a tough course at each.

Sports editor on both college annuals.

Columnist on both college newspapers.

Sunday night news editor for a newspaper wire service.

Sports writer (high school sports) for The Commercial Appeal, a Memphis newspaper.

Prospective author of a novel, based on psychological stress, fully outlined.

Husband and father of two small children.

In addition, he also found time to play intramural basketball at Southwestern, and hold a part-time job at an ice cream plant.

Held Test Run
During last summer's term, Starr, in a test run for his fall activity, worked 48 hours at the ice cream plant, held his part-time newspaper jobs and attended both colleges, although not on the extensive schedule required during the regular school year.

Memphis State authorities told Starr such goings-on were contrary to college policy. Starr did not ask why.

Forced to choose, the student cyclone stayed at Southwestern, where he is a senior and attends under the GI bill of rights. He was paying his way through Memphis State.

35 Semester Hours
He was carrying 18 semester hours at State, 17 at Southwestern.

Starr claims the schedule was not much of a strain, especially as he had his wife, Norma, and his motorcycle to help him. Norma takes care of the kids; the motorcycle got him places on time.

Players Won't Talk In Kentucky Probe

LEXINGTON, KY. (AP)—A three-hour conference was held here late Tuesday concerning an alleged basketball fix involving University of Kentucky players but no progress was reported by conferees following the meeting.

John Y. Brown, an attorney representing unidentified youths who New York authorities claim accepted money from gamblers to fix games, declared "so far as I am concerned, there will be no more conferences. Our position is unchanged and unchangeable."

Vincent O'Connor, assistant district attorney of Manhattan, and Dr. H. L. Donovan, University of Kentucky president, said upon emerging from the president's office that they had no statement to make.

O'Connor has appealed in public statements for the players' help in prosecuting "vicious criminals."

He said he wanted the suspected players' cooperation in prosecuting New York gamblers. He conceded the players have broken no laws.

Illinois Slams Sooners, 69-51

CHAMPAIGN, ILL. (AP)—Undeclared Illinois, the nation's third-ranking basketball team, led all the way Tuesday night in pounding Oklahoma 69-51 for its third successive victory.

Jim Breder scored three baskets to lead the Illini into an 18-5 first quarter edge. By halftime Oklahoma lagged 36-21.

The Sooners, using a total of 14 players in an effort to find a scoring punch, hit their first field goal, by Bob Waller, after 8½ minutes had elapsed. They made only 19 floor shots out of 68 tries for the game while Illinois, also off the beam, hit on 28 out of 78.

Illinois employed 12 players, but did not make a substitution until in the second quarter with a lead of 24-8. At this point, Oklahoma uncorked its only sustained scoring drive of the game.

The Sooners racked up 10 points with the scoring handled by Sherm Norton, Delwin McEachern, Sterling Jones and Les Lane. This spurt closed the gap 27-18 and it was the closest Oklahoma came from there on. After three quarters, Illinois was ahead, 58-35.

The Illini missed 14 out of 27 free throws while Oklahoma missed only 4 out of 17.

Michigan State Lasts Detroit Surge, 52-47

DETROIT (AP)—Undeclared Michigan State marked up its fourth straight basketball triumph Tuesday night by defeating the University of Detroit, 52-47.

A determined Detroit bid in the second half fell short, although the Titans trimmed the Michigan State margin of 11 points.

The Spartans jumped into a lead in the first two minutes and stretched the margin to as much as 14 points several times. The Titans managed only one field goal in the first quarter but stayed in the running on free throws.

Norm Swanson, Detroit's star center, banged in five field goals and eight straight free throws for 18 points, best performance of the night.

With three minutes to play, State saw its lead cut to seven points at 50-43 and the Titans charged even nearer on field goals by Walter and Paul Poff. But Michigan State started freezing the ball at that point and successfully staved off the rally.

St. John's Falls To 'No. 1 Jinx' In Basketball Polls

St. John's of Brooklyn has suffered from the same jinx that plagued Kentucky a week ago.

At that time Kentucky was picked at or near the top in all the national polls of basketball teams. They were promptly upset by Minnesota, 61-57.

This week the pollsters bowed to that showing by the Wildcats and rated St. John's a notch above Kentucky. Kentucky immediately blasted the Redmen 81-40.

The United Press selections placed Illinois in first place.

California Group Bars Louis Fights

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The head of the California state athletic commission said Tuesday that ex-heavyweight champion Joe Louis will not be permitted to box again in California because he is too old.

The announcement by commissioner Joe Phillips headed off the plans of local promoters who had hoped to match Louis here when he returns from a tour of the Far East.

The ex-champion has not given any indication he intends to resume his ring career.

Steelers Hire New Head Coach

PITTSBURGH, PA. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steelers Tuesday night signed Joe Bach of St. Bonaventure university, as head coach to replace Johnny Michelosen, who resigned under an ultimatum of the owners.

Bach signed a two-year contract with the Steelers.

This is Bach's second association with the Steelers. He was their head coach in 1935 and 1936. He also coached Duquesne university here.

Swimmers Leave Today for Florida; Practice Scheduled

Iowa's swimmers leave today for Florida, where they'll spend their Christmas vacation in training stints and competition in the annual East-West swimming meet at Ft. Lauderdale.

Coach Dave Armbruster indicated that he will hold organized drills for the 14 men making the trip in the Casino pool in Ft. Lauderdale. He believes that this will enable the team to be in good shape for the Champaign meet with Illinois Jan. 12.

The best of the Hawkeyes will participate in the East-West meet, and the group will return Jan. 3. The group will travel by car.

The squad turned in encouraging performances in its intrasquad meet last Saturday, the first timing done on the long course this year. The most outstanding time was turned by Ron Johnson, junior from St. Louis, in the 150-yard individual medley. He came within a half second of the American record made in 1939, with a time of 1:37.5.

K-State Pays $100,000

WICHITA, KAN. (AP)—Kansas State college spends $100,000 a year on athletic scholarships but even this outlay doesn't always get the player wanted most, a former coach of the Wildcat school said Tuesday.

Ralph Graham, who resigned as head coach at K-State a year ago, told his story of how a scholarship, plus booster club cash, failed to land a certain Tyler, Texas, junior college star who eventually landed at Texas university.

"As a point of honor," Graham said, "I'm not going to name the player. He's a fine boy—just a victim of overcommercialized colleg sports who was taught he had a market value."

Graham elaborated in an interview Tuesday on remarks at a Wichita U. Downtown Quarterbacks club Monday night.

At Manhattan, Larry (Moon) Mullins, who became K-State's director of athletics after Graham left the school, made this brief comment: "Ralph has made an intelligent estimate."
