Waukon Carpenter Admits Shooting Wife

The Rev. Robert Reeder, a Waukon carpenter, was charged with murdering his wife, Betty, in September. The charges were filed after Betty's body was found in a wooded area near their home. The police investigation revealed that Reeder had been experiencing financial difficulties and had been drinking heavily before the incident. He was arrested and charged with first-degree murder. The case is currently pending in court.

Truman Firm On McDonald Appointment

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Truman was quick to agree Wednesday to the Senate's request for his resignation. Asked if he would resign, he replied: "I will resign." The decision comes after a series of scandals involving the Administration, including the resignation of former Interior Secretary James C. Goodrich. Truman's resignation is expected to bring an end to the Democratic Party's reign in Congress.

In Switzerland - Lowdowns Win Battle

BALE, Switzerland - The lowdowns were defeated by the highdowns over a police opinion poll in the city of Bale. The highdowns argued that the lowdowns had been subject to manipulation and lacked legitimacy. The lowdowns countered that they represented the views of a majority of citizens and deserved to be taken seriously. The issue is expected to be resolved in a referendum scheduled for next month.

Florida Governor Threats Cutting Off News to Paper

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Gov. John Graham has threatened to cut off news to the state's largest daily newspaper, the Tampa Times, if it continues to publish critical stories about his administration. Graham has been criticized for his handling of the state's budget crisis, which has led to a sharp increase in the cost of living. The governor has accused the newspaper of being biased and has stated that he will take action to prevent further coverage of his administration's policies.

Seeks Senate Job For Ex-Presidents

WASHINGTON (AP) - Ex-president Dwight D. Eisenhower has endorsed a fellow ex-president, Harry S. Truman, for the Senate seat in Missouri. Eisenhower, who served two terms as president, has praised Truman's integrity and record of service to the country. The endorsement is expected to give Truman an advantage in the highly competitive race.
