German Troops Approved For Europe's Army

LONDON, Nov. 8 — The Western Big Three foreign ministers and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer announced Thursday that they had reached agreement in London on a new defense pact in which France and Germany are scheduled to take part.

The agreement was announced in the presence of U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter. The new defense pact, it was reported, is expected to strengthen the Western military alliance. Britain, however, has not yet signed the agreement.

The three foreign ministers are: West Germany's Adenauer; France's Foreign Minister Robert Schuman and Britain's Foreign Secretary Winston Churchill.

The French railway (SNCF) was reported to have ordered the removal of all barriers on the Franco-German border. The French railway also claimed the resumption of all services between Paris and Germany.

The French National Assembly overwhelmingly approved Tuesday the idea of a new defense pact among the Big Three. The French government also called for the immediate implementation of a new defense pact. The adoption of the new defense pact was expected to create a new situation in Western Europe.

The three-man board of the United Nations Security Council was said to be meeting Wednesday to decide whether or not to approve the new defense pact. The three-man board is expected to meet Thursday to consider the action of the Security Council.

The French railway was still reported to be in operation. The railway had announced plans to resume all services on the Franco-German border. The railway also said it was expected to resume all services between Paris and Germany.

NotBothered By Illinois Win Over Indiana

By Jack Herdeg Special Columnist

We've got to be there in the Chicago final, the national championship, and we're not going to play for anything less.

That was the declaration of Coach Chet Lemon, coach of the Illinois Fighting Illini, as he spoke to the press at the Illini practice gym yesterday.

"We're not going to play for anything less than the national championship," Lemon said. "We're going to be there and we're going to win it."

The Illini, who are currently ranked second in the national polls, have already won the Big Ten conference championship and are looking forward to the challenge of the national tournament.

Lemon's statement was met with a round of applause from the press, who praised his team's determination and focus.

"Coach Lemon's attitude is exactly what we need," said Illinois forward Mike Huey.

"He's always been a great motivator and he's got us ready for the biggest game of the year."

The Illini will face the University of Kentucky in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, which tips off at 8:00 p.m. tomorrow night.

Kentucky, led by Coach Adolph Rupp, is currently ranked first in the national polls and is considered by many to be the favorite to win the national championship.

Lemon and his team are confident, however, and are ready to take on the challenge of the tournament.

"We know it's going to be a tough game," Lemon said. "But we're ready for it."

The Illini will need to play at their best if they hope to emerge victorious from the tournament.

"Our team has been working hard all season," Lemon said. "We've been practicing every day and we're ready to take on the challenge of the tournament."

The Illini will face the Kentucky Wildcats in the first round of the NCAA Tournament on Thursday, March 15, at 8:00 p.m. The game will be held at the University of Kentucky in Lexington.

Students Pick Up First Semester Grades

Junior ROTC Seniors At '52 Summer Camp

Add-oms, we are pleased to announce that the end of this semester will witness the commencement of a four-week camp, at Old Fort Tuesday, and Wednesday. Approximately 40 students will round out their two courses with a round of training under the supervision of the ROTC program. The camp will conclude with a review of the students' work and an examination at the end of the course. The students will be divided into two sections, and each section will be responsible for its own group. The camp will be conducted by the ROTC program and will include the following: physical training, first aid, and leadership training. The final examination will be held on the last day of the camp. The ROTC students will be responsible for the care of the camp property, including all equipment and supplies. The camp will be held at the camp headquarters, and all students must be present for the entire duration of the camp. The camp will begin at 8:00 a.m. and conclude at 4:00 p.m. each day. The cost of the camp will be $50 per student, which includes all meals and lodging. Students must register by the end of the semester to participate in the camp. The camp will be under the supervision of the ROTC instructors. The camp will provide an opportunity for students to develop their leadership skills and to prepare for future ROTC assignments.
