Council Supports Application Forms

By BOB HESS

The student council Thursday night accepted a committee suggestion that questions of race, religion and color be retained on SUI's application forms.

The report was adopted by a unanimous vote after council president John Bunce denied discussion of the issue by members of a "coordinated committee on application forms."

James Joseph, G. Forest Hills, N.Y., said the group represents the campus chapter of YMCA, the Young Democrats, the Young Progressives and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Joseph is co-chairman of the group.

The council report said that "nothing would be gained and something valuable would be lost by removing these questions on the applications."

No Discrimination

"Our investigation has shown," the report continued, "that the university does not use the answers in any discriminatory way."

The student council's committee contacted SUI administrative heads and Iowa City clergymen to help formulate the final report.

Registrar Ted McCarrel said the religion question is one of the best public relation factors of the university because the names are forwarded to the churches "and this gives parents an assurance that our campus has a moral aspect."

McCarrel said that all resident applicants must be admitted, and out of state students are admitted, if they are academic prospects, and that race or religion never enters the picture.

Ted Rehder, head of the dormitory assignment office said, "surprisingly enough, it is the parents who usually want their children to live with another student of their own religion. This is a public relations aspect that has probably not been fully appreciated by many people."

The Rev. Robert Sanks, president of the Iowa City Ministerial association, said that the churches should have the same opportunities as the Greek organizations to tell the incoming students what they have to offer.

The Rev. Harold F. McGee said the question of religion should not be removed because "it benefits a majority of the students and its removal would penalize this majority to please the minority."

Group Comments

The delegates from the "coordinating committee on application forms" were dissatisfied with Bunce's decision to hear only council members and issued this statement to The Daily Iowan after the council's decision:

"The student council committee in their final report totally ignored the opinions of all minority groups on the SUI campus. These groups were denied permission to discuss the issue and to present pertinent information which had not previously been presented to the council.

"The opinion of the 2,000 students who signed petitions (last spring) urging the removal of questions was not considered.

"These questions aid discrimination by giving out the information to employers and Greek organizations.

Bunce said he refused to allow the "coordinating committee on application forms" to express any opinion Thursday night, because discussion by non-council members is not permitted when the council is determining an issue.

In other action, the council adopted the proposed 5 per cent reapportionment plan, which increases the membership from 17 to 28 members and abolishes the representatives-at-large.

The following letter was read from Prof. Leslie G. Moeller, director of the school of journalism and chairman of the Student Board of Publications:

"The Board of Trustees of Student Publications, Inc., at their meeting Feb. 19, 1952, spent some time discussing the possibilities of having the student members of the Board of Trustees, at some future time, chosen directly by the student council.

"Members of the board have directed me to inform you of their interest in looking forward to the eventual adoption of this plan and have asked me also to request the comments and suggestions of the student council on the desirability and feasibility of adopting such a selection plan."

Faure Loses Tax Hike Vote; Resigns Job

PARIS (FRIDAY) (AP) — Premier Edgar Faure went to Elysee palace early today to offer his resignation to President Vincent Auriol.

Faure decided to resign after he was defeated in the French national assembly on a vote to increase taxes 15 per cent to pay for French rearmament.

The assembly voted 309 against the tax hike to 283 for it. This was the second of 20 votes of confidence on which Faure had staked the future of his government.

The vote against Faure's tax proposal was slightly below the majority required by the constitution — more than half the assembly's total membership of 625 — to force the premier to resign.

However, the show against him was so strong the premier decided to resign after five weeks in office.

Illinois Gubernatorial Candidate Withdraws

CHICAGO (AP) — William N. Erickson, powerful Cook county contender for the Republican nomination for governor of Illinois, withdrew his candidacy Thursday under fire.

He told a meeting of county committeemen who had backed him in the race that he was making the move for better county government.

Erickson, who controls 6,600 jobs as president of the Cook county board of commissioners, was hit by revelations that several county jobs were passed out to stalwarts who did little work except cash the pay checks.

The pressure which led to

Senator Charges Tax Case Dropped Due to Influence

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Williams (R-Del.) fired another round Thursday at Joseph D. Nunan Jr., saying that a move to prosecute a $792,094 tax claim against a Florida man was dropped after the former internal revenue commissioner entered the case.

Williams said the case was the sixth handled by Nunan and his associates in which "recommendations for criminal prosecution have been ignored and proposed taxes totaling over $3.5 million remain uncollected."

In a senate speech, Williams said the government had moved to bring a criminal prosecution against Jacob (Jack) Udell for $792,094 in taxes and penalties, but dropped it after Nunan came into the picture as an attorney.

Williams said the amount is still uncollected "and chances of its collection at this late date are slim." He described Udell as a resident of Miami Beach, Fla. The senator said Udell formerly lived in New York city and operated a poultry processing plant at Frankford, Del.

Prosecute Udell was dropped after Udell was dropped after he obtained a physician's certificate saying a trial might endanger his life.

Williams read what he described as a report made by a government physician, following an examination of Udell, saying Udell had heart disease and that a trial might be fatal.

Erickson's withdrawal from the Republican race began Feb. 6 when Charles Gross, a candidate for Republican ward committeeman in the 31st ward, was slaying gang style, on a west side street.

The Gross killing touched off a shock of civic outrage which led the Republican Cook county central committee to ostracize eight of its members from west side wards reported to be influenced by hoodlums.

At the same time, the central committee voiced its pledge through Erickson to sweep patronage employees sponsored by these ward leaders from the county payrolls.

Detroit Coed Suspended in Red Inquiry

DETROIT (AP) — A defiant witness was threatened with federal prosecution for fraud and a university woman student was suspended as an outgrowth of Thursday's communism inquiry.

Wayne university Thursday suspended Lorraine Faxon Meisner, 21, the coed who refused to answer questions from house un-American committee investigators.

President David D. Henry of Wayne told Mrs. Meisner her refusal indicated "either an unreasonable refusal to cooperate or a prima facie admission of criminal action on your part."

Dr. Henry's assertion was contained in a telegram to Mrs. Meisner which the university made public.

A few hours earlier Mrs. Meisner had been rebuked on the witness stand for her attitude.

Two other unwilling witnesses figured in incidents in the aftermath of their refusal to talk on the stand.

Joseph Bernstein, 42, employee of the Detroit News lost his job. Paul Henley, 50, Chrysler Corp. factory worker, was escorted from his job by indignant fellow workers.

Both refused to say whether they were or had been Communists.

The fraud prosecution was threatened against Patrick Rice, vice-president of the CIO United Auto Workers' huge Ford local 660.

Rep. Potter (R-Mich.) said that Rice's testimony relative to his application for a passport to visit Europe would be examined with the possibility it would be turned over to the department of justice.

Potter said that, according to Rice's testimony, he had committed fraud in the application.

Subcommittee chairman Wood (D-Ga.) hurled a falsehood charge against Coleman Young, 33, native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., and executive secretary of the National Negro Labor council.

Young told Wood that he was elected to congress only because the vote was denied to the Negro in Georgia. Immediately, the chairman interrupted with: "That is a deliberate false statement on your part."

Attlee Says Britain Agreed with U.S. To Bomb Manchuria

LONDON (AP) — Former Prime Minister Clement Attlee conceded Thursday his Labor government had agreed with the U.S. to bomb Red Chinese air bases north of the Yalu river in Manchuria if they were used to launch heavy attacks on United Nations forces in Korea.

Attlee insisted this did not constitute a "departure from the general policy of confining operations to the Korean theater of war."

Prime Minister Churchill, denying in parliament Tuesday Labor charges he had made new commitments for Britain in the Orient during his Washington talks with President Truman, revealed the hitherto secret agreement the previous Labor government had made on the Chinese bases.

Attlee's statement was apparently a move to prevent an open split in Labor's ranks after Churchill's disclosure.

Martin Calls UMT 'Best Insurance U.S. Can Afford'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Tom Martin (R-Ia.) calls universal military training "the best possible insurance against war at a price that we can afford to pay."

He said that he "vigorously supported" the proposed legislation now being debated in the house.

"The important thing," Martin said in a statement prepared for the house, "is to base our national defense on a relatively small standing armed force together with the largest possible number of basically trained reserves."

The proposed plan for UMT would enroll able-bodied 18-year-old youth into active training for six months. Thereafter, for 7½ years, they would be members of the reserve.

"We must be able in any great emergency to expand our armed forces to numbers far beyond anything we can afford in permanent organization," Martin said.

"Six months of UMT training will not save six months of mobilization time, but it will save several months of time in getting to combat team training.

Georgia Senator Enters Demo Presidential Race

In Divided World — Nation Prays For Peace

NEW YORK (AP) — The words are different, but they all mean the same thing.

Today, the words will be spoken in churches, in migrant camps, in Indian villages, in thousands of communities across the country.

The occasion is the annual "World Day of Prayer," in which an estimated 100 denominations will participate.

Theme for the day this year is "Christ Is Our Hope."

"Loving Father," says the prayer prepared for general church use, "look in mercy upon the world today. We know it is far from Thy design. Forgive us for our part in making it so. We come asking Thee for strength and wisdom to serve Thee in our generation . . ."

A spokesman for the National Council of Churches said 17,000 communities in this country, and churches in 104 countries abroad, will observe the day.

Subscription Notice

The Iowa City carrier-delivered subscription price of The Daily Iowan, effective March 1, will be $8 per year payable in advance; six months $4.25; three months $2.50; by the week 25 cents.

By mail in Iowa $9 per year; six months $5; three months $3. All other mail subscriptions $10 per year; six months $5.60; three months $3.25.

Group Hopes to Block Re-Election of Truman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia got into the race for the Democratic presidential nomination Thursday but left unanswered the question whether he will bolt if the prize goes to President Truman.

The 54-year-old senator automatically became a major candidate of the southern anti-Truman Democratic faction which has fought the President's civil rights program and has pledged itself to block his re-election.

But Russell himself gave no direct answer to the chief issue implied in his entry into the race; will he lead a third party of some kind if Truman gets the nomination that seems his for the asking?

Cites 1948 Record

He observed, however, that he didn't bolt in 1948 when the States Right ticket took 39 electoral votes from Truman.

Although Sen. Walter F. George (D-Ga.) described Russell as a non-sectional candidate, it was evident that some of Russell's supporters hoped his entry would serve notice on Truman that he faces well-organized opposition if he runs.

Others seemed to fear Russell's entry might spur the President to get into the race out of pique. Russell said he doesn't know Truman's plans but he predicted the President won't run.

Doubts Truman Will Run

"If he were going to be a candidate, he would have said so," Russell declared. "He has nothing to gain by holding back his announcement."

Truman told his news conference earlier in the day he won't divulge his intentions until after he returns from a Key West, Fla., vacation. He is leaving next Friday and will return about March 29, the date of the $100-a-plate Jefferson-Jackson day dinner.

The other political developments:

1. Harold E. Stassen brought to Washington his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination with a speech he described as the most important of his campaign.

Stassen said that if elected, he would order a sweeping reorganization of the state department which would eliminate all those "sharing a responsibility for the soft policies toward Communism which have resulted in serious failures . . ."

2. Gov. Earl Warren of California officially entered the Wisconsin primary April 1 and a full slate of 30 delegate candidates was entered for him. Leaders say the group will shift to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower if it appears Warren has no chance for the nomination.

3. The Minnesota supreme court handed down rulings which mean that Eisenhower and Kefauver's names will not be on ballots in the state primary March 18. That leaves Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota unopposed as a favorite son on the Democratic side. The GOP primary will be between Stassen and Edward C. Slettedahl, state chairman of "fighters for MacArthur."

SUI Eisenhower Club Is Planned by GOP

An attempt to organize an "Eisenhower for President" club will be made by a group of SUI Young Republicans Tuesday night at 7:30 in room 221A, Schaeffer hall.

SUI Young Republicans said Thursday that this will be a formal organization meeting to elect officers and that all interested students are invited to attend regardless of party affiliation.

Phil Bigelow, A4, a member of the Young Republican group here, said that the organizers of the Eisenhower movement are in touch with the state organization headed by E.R. Hickland of Wapello.

He said that they will probably receive literature from Eisenhower state headquarters for distribution at Tuesday night's meeting.

Dave Stanley, L3, will be temporary chairman of the meeting. Bigelow said that two members of the Johnson county Republican organization will be invited to speak to the student group.

University Male Students Will Select Miss SUI of 1952 Today

Male students go to the polls beginning at 8 a.m. today to select Miss SUI of 1952.

The 20 finalists ended three days of campaigning Thursday, and a queen and six attendants will be revealed tonight at the Club Cabaret, all-university party.

Voting will continue through 2:30 p.m. today at booths located in the Iowa Memorial Union, Schaeffer hall, University hall, Quadrangle dormitory and the medical laboratory.

Tailfeathers pep club and Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity, will conduct the voting. ID cards will be punched and each ballot stamped.

A group picture of the candidates in costume and individual pictures will be posted at the polls. Numbers will be placed on the pictures. The ballots will be marked with these numbers instead of the names of the candidates.

The 20 candidates for Miss SUI and their themes are as follows:

Martha Baker — "You and Your Beautiful Eyes"

Marianne Boling — "Who?"

Joan Borg — "Prisoner of Love"

Betty Lou Brunson — "Lady in Red"

Sally Carbaugh — "Tea for Two"

Nancy Faris — "That Old Black Magic"

Doris Foster — "Personality"

Meri Hill — "Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody"

Francine Kruse — "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling"

Phyl Miller — "A—You're Adorable"

Marilyn Mosbach — "Candy"

Jan Naylor — "I'm Nobody's Baby"

Dolores Rorabaugh — "Dixie"

Helen Roseberry — "Strawberry Blonde"

Judy Schroeder — "Buttons and Bows"

Bobbie Springate — "April Showers"

Nancy Sweitzer — "Tuxedo Junction"

Patricia Welsh — "Dream"

Jo Ann Williams — "Red Roses for a Blue Lady"

Renee Wolf — "Pretty Baby"

Club Cabaret . . .

Tickets selling at $1.50 per couple are still on sale at the Iowa Memorial Union desk for the all-university Club Cabaret party to be held from 9 to 12 tonight at the Union.

The party, which will be informal, is reported to be the most extensively-decorated school function in SUI's history.

The decorations committee, under the guidance of Dale Gould and Rosemary Goetzmann, has included such things as lamp posts in all the rooms, lit in such a way as to appear actually burning; huge replicas of the Arc de Triump and the Eiffel tower, and a third-dimensional backdrop in the cafeteria, which will convey the impression of space with a genuine awning and iron grill.

Flowers will be sold to couples, at the beginning of the party, by Carolyn Morgan, A2, Iowa City, who will dress as the vendor of a Parisian flower booth.

MISS SUI WILL BE ELECTED TODAY BY A CAMPUS-WIDE male vote and announced at the Club Cabaret tonight. The 20 candidates in costume are seated (left to right) Francine Kruse, A4, Vinton; Judy Schroeder, N1, Lost Nation; Joan Borg, A1, Victor; Patricia Welsh, N1, Oxford; Jo Ann Williams, A3, Atlantic; Nancy Sweitzer, A1, Waterloo; Jan Naylor, A4, Traer, and Doris Foster, A1, West Branch. Standing (left to right) are Bobbie Springate, N1, Des Moines; Meri Hill, N4, Villisca; Martha Baker, A4, La Grange, Ill.;

Marilyn Mosbach, N1, Humboldt; Sally Carbaugh, A1, Charles City; Dolores Rorabaugh, A3, Davenport; Phyl Miller, A2, Ames; Nancy Faris, N3, Iowa City; Betty Lou Brunson, A2, Davenport; Marianne Boling, A3, Keosauqua, Ill.; Renee Wolf, A2, Mason City, and Helen Roseberry, A3, LeMars.

Retail Price Wars Seen Rising Again, Now 'Guerrilla-Style'

By WALTER BREEDE JR.

NEW YORK (AP) — Are retail price wars flaring up again? "Yes," many independent merchants report. "Cut-throat price cutting threatens to drive us out of business."

"Nonsense," scoff other retail experts. "Current pricing policies are following the usual February pattern."

An Associated Press survey of retail price competition in 24 cities gives this general picture of conditions six months after the bitterly contested pricing battles of last summer:

Price wars are still going on in several major retail centers. But they're being fought in a different way. It's an unofficial, undercover, guerrilla-style of warfare, silent and concealed from the buying public but no less real and deadly than the noisy fracas of six months ago.

Court Decision Blamed

Why do we still have price wars? Small retailers unanimously pin the blame on the Supreme Court's decision of last spring which pulled the props from fair trade laws in 45 states. The court's action paved the way for price cutting of "fair traded" nationally advertised brands.

Faced with heavy inventories and lagging consumer demand, many stores are reported still using marked-down branded merchandise as "bait" to attract store traffic. That's the complaint from the small independent merchants. Big stores defend the policy as one which results in lower prices to the consumer.

But even where price competition is violent, as in metropolitan New York, you no longer find it proclaimed in fat black type in newspaper advertisements. Instead, merchants are resorting to the "unadvertised special," with reductions on branded products that may range from 10 to 50 per cent below the manufacturer's list price. The price is lowered from day to day, quietly and without fanfare. How much it is lowered generally depends on what the competitor across the street is doing.

Another Way

Then there are the fat trade-in allowances paid by some dealers. And the dealers who later give the customer back the old range or refrigerator he traded in. In many cities discount houses do a thriving business in nationally advertised refrigerators, rugs, toasters and TV sets at substantial reductions from manufacturers' list prices.

The hottest competition is in New York. But there's plenty in other cities.

An "occasional spark" of last summer's price cutting is reported in Detroit.

Other cities reporting more or less "normal" seasonal competition include Chicago and St. Louis. Spokesmen for independent retail associations however see the national picture in an extremely pessimistic light. They've been worried ever since the supreme court ruled that nonsigners of fair trade pacts are not bound by manufacturers' list prices.

Government Waste Blamed for High Taxes

WASHINGTON (CP) — "Only two things in life are certain," wrote Ben Franklin many years ago. "They are death and taxes."

Now that income tax season with all its horrors is in full swing, many taxpayers are regretting that the two don't come in that order. What with Uncle Sam playing Santa Clause so much, the taxpayer is extra busy holding the bag.

That's what makes a study made by the Bureau of Business Practice of the National Foremen's institute of New London, Conn., so timely. The foremen have conducted a study to see what effect taxes are having on all of us.

150 Taxes on 1 Hat

Did you know that there are more than 100 separate taxes on a dozen eggs? Over 150 separate levies on a woman's hat? — 116 taxes on a man's suit?

There are. What's more, the institute found that federal, state and local taxes take more than 30% of our entire national income! In 1951, the Bureau of Business Practice reports, federal spending was nearly equal to the entire income of everybody in all states west of the Mississippi river!

It will hardly help your digestion any, but the trend seems to be toward more and bigger taxes, the institute reports. Twenty years ago, federal spending amounted to less than two-thirds the income of the residents of California.

Many Hidden Taxes

The average family spends over $700 a year on taxes in addition to federal income taxes, the institute found. Most of these are "hidden" taxes. That is, they are taxes on the manufacture and sale of things we buy.

Purchasers aren't even aware that they are footing this enormous tax bill. Prices on these items, the ladies' colorful headgear, for instance, don't show the tax. They are just higher than they would otherwise be.

Other facts, unearthed by John L. Beckley, author of the report entitled "The Best Kept Secret in the Country", are astounding. A 20th century Rip Van Winkle, who woke up from a two decade snooze today, would really get a jolt, Beckley believes.

$500 Taxes in a Car

A car today, for example, contains about $500 worth of taxes, accumulated all the way up. The raw material is taxed. So is the manufacturing process, with extra levies required for transportation and distribution. Even the finished product gets whacked, because it is at this point that many cities and states tack on a sales tax.

The National Foremen's institute tells us that there's not much to be done about a big hunk of this tax bill because it's needed to pay for defense requirements caused by unsettled world conditions.

However, it believes that the government could go a long way toward cutting down by reducing waste. Take a simple thing like tonsils, for instance.

16.1 Days in Army

Instead, the Allies are launching a new effort to break the long stalemate for an over-all treaty including Russia.

The situation, however, seems closely akin to that regarding Germany prior to establishment of the Western German republic.

Beauty Parades, Gay Costumes Enliven Contest

By TOSH HONDA

Horns blared, a monkey performed in a tree, girls capered on the tops of cars and masked "desperadoes" staged a "hold up." The circus wasn't in town and the local citizens weren't reviving the "wild and woolly west" era. It was all a part of the campaign of candidates for "Miss University of Iowa" honors.

One group of ambitious girls walked about on stilts and another rode about in a horse-drawn carriage.

A mock hold-up was staged in a local drug store by girls armed with toy pistols and one girl was paraded about in a baby carriage.

Sandwich board signs and corsets were standard equipment for two groups of campaigners. Others, in costumes, rode around in cars and tossed paper carnations to pedestrians.

Girls dressed in Gay Nineties costumes staged a dance in a store window while others serenaded the men in dormitories.

Pop corn balls were passed out on street corners by groups supporting one candidate and others performed musically about the campus.

Campaigning activities ended Thursday with serenading at the men's housing units by the candidates.

Dubuque Woman Requests $2,000 To Voters' League

Two thousand dollars from the estate of the late Marian Lyons of Dubuque has been bequeathed to the League of Women Voters of Iowa for organization extension.

Past president of the Dubuque League of Women Voters for five years when the club was first organized in Dubuque, Miss Lyons was prominently identified with both church and women's organizations throughout her residence in Dubuque.

There are 17 local leagues in Iowa cities, and four provisional leagues whose purpose is to encourage citizen participation in government.

UP IN THE AIR OVER THEIR "A-YOURE ADORABLE" candidate are Myrrha Conley, A2, Sioux City; Betty Folwell, A2, Rochester, N.Y., and Jan Jones, A4, Cedar Rapids, who paraded along Clinton st. and on campus on stilts Thursday afternoon.

University Club Plans Style Show

Members of the University club will model spring fashions at its annual style show and luncheon to be held in the clubrooms of the Iowa Union Thursday at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Ned Ashton is general chairman for the program. Her co-chairmen for the affair are Mrs. Gordon Marsh and Mrs. William Gower. Mrs. Dale Faunce and Mrs. W. C. Schwank will plan the decorations.

Mrs. James Kessler, Mrs. A.O. Klaffenbach, Mrs. Herbert Lyte,

Mrs. Chester I. Miller, Mrs. W. F. Morrison, Mrs. Kirk H. Porter, Mrs. J. Ned Smith, Mrs. F. A. Stromsten, Mrs. L. K. Vertrees and Mrs. Elizabeth Hunter are on the luncheon committee.

Although no reservations for the style show are necessary, reservations for the luncheon will be necessary for members and no guest reservations will be taken until Monday. All reservations should be made by Tuesday with Mrs. Gordon Marsh, 8-1335, or Mrs. W.C. Schwank, 9383.

Mosse Says Yugoslavia Seeks Cultural Rapport

"Yugoslavia is seeking intellectual rapport with the West, but is finding it with England instead of the United States."

That was the opinion of Prof. George Mosse of the SUI history department Thursday in his information first lecture "Attention on Yugoslavia."

As a Yugoslavian professor told Mosse when he was in Yugoslavia for several weeks last fall, "Europe has culture; America has civilization."

Since isolated Yugoslavia seems to feel that the West has no sympathy or interest for them, Mosse said that the U.S. should send intellectual journals and books to Yugoslavia so that the leaders can know America's intellectual achievements.

The trend in Yugoslavia is for industrialization. This has led to a tremendous over-population in cities and the ill arrangement of factories which are built as money is available.

The peasants, who have prospered and who have most of the money to circulate, support Tito strongly, said Mosse. The main opposition to the regime is by the middle class who openly criticize the party machinery but not the fundamental principles of the Communist theories.

Cavaretta Involved In 'Phantom' Payroll Probe in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—The name of the manager of the Chicago Cubs baseball team, Phil Cavaretta, turned up Thursday in the investigation of "phantoms" on the Cook county payroll.

Cavaretta was listed on county forest preserve district records from Dec. 22, 1947 to Feb. 29, 1948 as a swimming pool manager at a salary of $250 per month.

At Mesa, Ariz., where he is supervising Cub spring training, Cavaretta said, "That's a new one on me."

"I was never a Cook county payroller," he added. "I think it's silly."

He said, however, that he did once live at the address listed on the county personnel form.

Roy Zehner, director of swimming pools for the forest preserve district, said he had seen Cavaretta "around the office. I think his job was to give lectures about sports to young people's groups."

This was the latest development in a continuing investigation of ghost payrollers in the county. The probe followed the slaying of Charles Gross, 31st ward acting Republican committeeman.

Cling to Hope Of Possible Tie For Loop Title

By JACK JORDAN Sports Editor

Iowa's basketball team leaves by plane this morning for Northwestern in good shape for its last road game and still thinking of the possibility of a tie for first in the Big Ten.

"As much as we want to concentrate on the games at hand, we'll be thinking of how Illinois is coming out," Coach Bucky O'Connor said Thursday.

"We'll have to play up to the top against the Wildcats," he continued, "for they have an excellent center in Petranek (Frank), and Larry Dellefield and John Biever have also been outstanding this year."

Petranek Rates High
Petranek ranks seventh among the Big Ten's leading scorers with a 14.4 points-per-game average. Dellefield is the only man on the team with previous varsity experience and has hit for a 12.4 average from his forward position.

The Hawkeyes Thursday held their first practice since the Michigan State game Monday night and, according to O'Connor, were "a little off in their timing."

Good news from the practice, though, was that Chuck Darling's cold is negligible and Bob Clifton's charley horse is completely gone. Unless something drastic happens, then, the Hawks will be at full strength against the Wildcats.

Illini Must Lose
O'Connor's statement about watching Illinois' results stems from the fact that Iowa can't even share the conference title unless the Illini drop one of their three remaining games—with Wisconsin, Northwestern and Purdue.

Should Iowa win both of its remaining games with the Wildcats and Wisconsin, and should Illinois lose one of its games, the title would probably be decided in a playoff game on a neutral court.

The Hawks will take 15 men on the trip, including the same 14 who have regularly traveled and Murray Rost, veteran guard.

Button Nearing 5th World Skating Title

PARIS (AP)—Dick Button of Englewood, N.J., virtually clinched his fifth straight world figure skating championship Thursday while Olympic champions Ria and Paul Falk of Germany won the pairs title by beating out Peter and Karol Kennedy of Seattle.

Button, a 22-year-old Harvard university student, gave a flawless performance in the compulsory figures and was given first place by all seven judges as he piled up a commanding lead over Helmut Seibt of Austria, the European titleholder.

West Liberty Out; Reinbeck, Monona, Guthrie, Valley Win

West Liberty was knocked out of contention for the championship Thursday night by Guthrie Center, 50-34, in the first game of the Iowa high school's girls basketball tournament in Des Moines.

Monona defeated Mallard, Reinbeck stopped Tingley and Valley of West Des Moines beat Pella Christian to also advance in the state tourney.

Monona's Norma Schoulte ramed home 45 points to lead her team to a 59-51 victory in the second round of the tournament.

The performance by the state's scoring champion was the best individual effort so far in the playoffs.

The 6-foot, 4-inch Schoulte hit 22 field goals and a free throw, 40 of her points coming in the first three periods.

Guthrie Center connected on 40 per cent of its field goal attempts to make an easy advance to the semifinal round tonight. A rugged Guthrie Center backcourt, headed by Elsie Tallman, upset West Liberty's offense. The losers hit only 24 per cent of their shots.

After grabbing an early 4-0 lead, West Liberty lost the margin soon after on a six point flurry by Guthrie Center's Joyce Bennett, who collected the game's high of 24 points, 10 of them coming in the first half.

Valley of West Des Moines upset previously undefeated Pella Christian, 52-48, in the tourney's second round. It was the first defeat for the Pella girls in 25 starts this year.

Tonight Valley goes against Monona and Guthrie Center takes on Reinbeck, who beat Tingley, 69-35.

Joe Gives Woodling the Nod

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe DiMaggio, who came to town to sign another lucrative television contract, put a finger on Gene Woodling Thursday as the man probably best qualified to fill his old centerfield spot with the New York Yankees.

"Woodling is the best fielder of the lot," the Yankee Clipper told an uptown press conference. "He is fast and can cover the ground. The only problem would be his arm."

"Right now I'd say Jackie Jensen has a little edge over Mickey Mantle. Mickey is going to be a great player but he has a lot to learn about outfielding."

DiMaggio, lean and tanned after a winter on the Pacific coast, talked baseball while putting his name on a new contract that will boost his 1952 earnings above anything he ever made as a ball player.

He signed for a quarter-hour series over NBC to be known as "Joe DiMaggio's Dugout." It will be seen Sundays from 11:45 a.m. to 12 noon (EST) and will be aimed at teaching the fundamentals of the game to youngsters.

The sponsors (the Buitoni Macaroni corporation) said the program would start April 6 and extend for 26 weeks.

DiMaggio already has signed to

Iowa Heavily Favored In Last Dual Tank Meet

By LEE CANNING

The Iowa swimming team, heavily favored to repeat its victory of last season, closes its dual meet schedule here today at 3 p.m. when the Hawkeyes face Minnesota's Gophers.

Iowa dropped Minnesota, 53-31, last season and the Hawkeyes' greater team depth points to another Iowa victory today.

Minnesota's record includes only one victory in five starts. The Gophers opened with a win over Carleton but have dropped decisions to Michigan, Northwestern, Illinois and Wisconsin since. Iowa has defeated the last three teams in dual meets this season.

Stassforth to Try for 2
Heading the list of 10 events will be the breaststroke, medley relay, 440 and 220-yard freestyle races.

In the breaststroke, Iowa co-captain Bowen Stassforth will go after the American record for the 440-yards and 440-meters. The present mark of 6:06.2 was set by Emmet Cashen of the San Francisco Olympic club in 1941.

Already the holder of five American records, Stassforth has been below that time in workouts this week. The Hawkeye senior had an easy practice Thursday under instructions from Coach David Armbruster, and was pronounced physically right for his try at the record.

Medley Team Uncertain
Iowa's medley relay team also will go after an American record for that event. Armbruster has definitely decided on Ron Johnson in the backstroke and Stassforth in the breaststroke but the freestyle section is uncertain. Either co-captain Wally Nicholson or Dick Labahn will be the Hawkeye entry in the freestyle.

The 220 and 440-yard races promise to be the best on the program. Minnesota's top distance man David Anderson will face Iowa's Dick Labahn and Buddy Lucas in the 220. It will be Anderson against Lucas again in the 440.

Only 4 Gopher Lettermen
With only four lettermen returning, Minnesota coach Neils Thorpe is depending heavily on sprinter Jack Rebney and distance man Anderson to gain points against Iowa.

Rebney lowered the Big Ten 50-yard freestyle record from 23.1 to 22.8 when he placed first in the conference meet last year. The Minneapolis senior is entered in the 50, 100-yard freestyle and the freestyle relay.

Anderson placed second in the Big Ten 440-yard race last year. He also finished third in the NCAA's 1500-meter event last season. In 1950, Anderson won the National AAU junior 1500-meter in the record time of 19.50.

Record Holder Leads Gophers

LEADING MINNESOTA into its dual meet with Iowa today in the field house pool will be Jack Rebney, Big Ten record holder in the 50-yard free style. A senior from Minneapolis, Rebney is one of four lettermen on the Gopher squad. His record time for the distance is :22.8.

Rites This Saturday For Mrs. Kasper

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at St. Mary's church in Solon for Mrs. Mary Kasper, 77, Iowa City, who died Wednesday night, following a long illness. Her husband preceded her in death in 1937. She was born Aug. 6, 1874, near Iowa City and lived her entire life in Johnson county. Survivors include one son, George S. Kasper, of near Solon; a brother, Vincent Antone, Iowa City; two grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Burial will be in Solon.

Student Musicians To Give Recitals

A piano and clarinet ensemble will be featured in the first of three recitals sponsored by the SUI music department this week-end.

Glenn Baumgartner, G. Euclid, O., clarinet, and Norma Cross, of the department faculty, piano, will present a sonata by Reger and a selection by Uhl in a recital in north Music hall at 7:30 p.m. today. They will be assisted by music instructor Robert Oppelt, viola.

Woodwind performance of solo works by Marcello, Mozart, and Groviev will be included in "Recital Hall" to be broadcast by radio station WSUI at 11:30 a.m. Saturday.

Performing will be Charles Howard, G. Amarillo, Tex., oboe; Maurice Fahrney, A2, Deep River, clarinet, and Ronald Tyree, A2, Des Moines, bassoon. Jane Kercheval, G. Rowan, soprano, will give a recital of works ranging from Mozart to MacArthur in north Music hall at 4 p.m. Sunday. She will be accompanied by Catherine Welter, G. Iowa City, pianist, and Don Gissel, A4, Fort Howard, Md., flutist.

Group to Show Travel Film

Herbert Knapp Out of South America, Films

Photographer Herbert Knapp will present "Travel Trails of the Andes" at 8 p.m. Sunday in Macbride auditorium, as another in a series of Iowa Mountaineer travelogues.

The film depicts scenes in the South American countries of Ecuador and Peru. Views of the Andes, Lima, Peru's capital city, Inca remains and a modern mining development will be included. Knapp, a Californian, began his film career in 1933. He made several motion pictures of Peru for the office of the coordinator of inter-American affairs.

His film "The Amazon Awakens," a Walt Disney production, has been judged an outstanding documentary. Admission to Sunday's program is by membership card or tickets which may be purchased at the door.

Only 7 Called from County in March Draft

In the March draft call, the smallest in several months, only seven Johnson county men will be inducted into the armed forces. Thirty-two men, including the seven who will go to Des Moines March 11, have been called from this county this year. Of this total, 11 were drafted in February and 14 in January. In February, 36 SUI students, transfers from other boards, and 18 Johnson county men, received their pre-induction physicals. Seventy-two men from this county were sent to Des Moines during January for physical examinations.

FBI Man To Talk On Federal Jobs

Ambrose Strittmatter, special agent of the federal bureau of investigation, will speak at 4:10 p.m. Tuesday to graduating seniors and other students interested in positions with the FBI. Strittmatter is stationed with the FBI in Cedar Rapids. He was scheduled to speak at a session of the careers conference but was unable to keep the engagement. His appearance will be sponsored by the Collegiate Chamber of Commerce.

Suit Against City Set for Wednesday

A $5,825.79 damage suit against the city of Iowa City is scheduled to begin next Wednesday at 10 a.m., when the petit jurors will report for jury.

Plaintiff in the suit is Sophia Amrine who claims she suffered injuries from a fall caused by a sidewalk in disrepair last Jan. 17, near the corner of Van Buren and Burlington sts.

District Judge James P. Gaffney said this case was scheduled to replace an auto accident damage suit settled out of court earlier this week. In the latter case, arising from an accident last May 8, claims and counter claims totaled $25,886. The suit was brought by C. E. Mathes against Mr. and Mrs. Ver-nard Moore.

Unitarian Lent Services

The Rev. Alfred J. Henriksen, pastor of the Unitarian church, has announced a series of Lenten discussions and sermons on Unitarianism.

The discussions will be Sundays at 9:30 a.m. in the Fireside room of the church and will be led by the Rev. Mr. Henriksen. The sermons will be given Sundays during the 10:45 a.m. services.

More Snow for New England

WHILE IOWA CITIANS ENJOYED springlike sun Thursday, New England office workers were hurdling snow drifts after the latest blizzard. The above picture was taken in Boston which escaped with only a foot of snow. Cape Cod was hit by possibly the worst storm in 50 years and snow drifted to depths of 10 feet marooning motorists and stopping all transportation.

SUI High School Camp Resumed For Musicians

For the first time since before World War II, an all-state music camp for Iowa high school students will be conducted on the SUI campus this summer.

C. M. Stookey, University high school music instructor and director of the camp, said Thursday about 150 students are expected to attend the camp, which will be held June 15-28.

Stookey said the camp is being revived as a result of a survey of Iowa instrumental directors, who almost unanimously showed interest in the project.

Directors Recommend Students
The camp is open to students from this year's eighth grade through high school graduates who have a minimum of one year's playing experience and the recommendations of their band directors.

Students attending the two-week camp will receive instruction in band, orchestra, music appreciation, theory, conducting, ensemble work, reed work and twirling.

They will also be members of the all state band and orchestra, with both organizations appearing in public concerts and radio broadcasts. Similar concerts and broadcasts are planned for soloists and ensembles.

Band to Have Guest Conductor
Guest conductor of the band and orchestra will be Paul Van Bodegraven, instrumental director at New York university, a music educator who has conducted clinics and worked with high school organizations throughout the eastern and midwestern states.

Other guest directors will be R. E. Mead, all-American twirler, Eastern New Mexico university; A.O. Noxon, Waverly high school;

Paul Behm, Mason City high; Dorothy Johnson, West high in Waterloo; F.E. Mortiboy, Davenport high, and Howard Robertson, Chariton high.

Other individual and group instruction will be given by the entire instrumental staff of the university music department. A course in music appreciation will be offered by Prof. Phillip Greeley Clapp head of the department.

Planned Recreation
A full program of supervised recreation, including all summer games and swimming, has been planned. Entertainment will include stunt night, parties, picnics and movies.

Application blanks have been sent to all Iowa music directors and are now being accepted. Deadline for mailing applications is May 23.

Running concurrently with the music camp will be a workshop at which high school and college band directors may earn two hours of graduate credit in music. The graduate workshop will be directed by Prof. Himie Voxman of the music department.

Ted McCarrel Returns
Registrar Ted McCarrel and Loren Hickerson, secretary of the SUI Alumni association, will return today from northern Iowa where they contacted prospective SUI students this week.

McCarrel spoke to high school students in Decorah, Cresco and Charles City. Hickerson interviewed students at Clarion, Algona and Forest City.

13 Colleges Represented Here In World Affairs Conference

Dean Dewey B. Stuit of the college of liberal arts will open the annual intercollegiate conference on world affairs at 9:30 a.m. today in the senate chamber of Old Capitol.

Speech students from SUI and 13 colleges and universities in Iowa, Illinois, Ohio and Wisconsin will participate in discussion and debate today and Saturday.

The discussion topic is "How can college groups improve moral and ethical conduct?" The topic for debate is, "Resolved: The federal government should adopt a policy of permanent wage and price controls."

Debate Held in Classrooms
The debates will be held in classrooms in Schaeffer hall and the discussions will take place in Schaeffer hall and Old Capitol.

The discussion groups will meet today at 10:30 and 11:30 a.m. and at 2:30 p.m. and at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday.

Debate teams will compete at 4:30, 7 and 8:30 p.m. today and 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

Extempore speaking will be held at 11:30 a.m. and public speaking at 3:30 p.m. today.

Resolutions Considered Saturday
Parliamentary sessions will be held in Old Capitol at 11 a.m. and 1:45 p.m. on Saturday to consider the resolutions drawn up by the discussion groups. Chairman will be George McBurney, L3, Council Bluffs.

At noon Saturday, the conference luncheon will be held at the Iowa Memorial Union. President Virgil M. Hancher will speak. Ratings of participants will be announced at 3:15 p.m. Saturday in the senate chamber of Old Capitol.

13 Schools Will Participate
Iowa schools participating are Buena Vista college, Storm Lake; Cornell college, Mt. Vernon; Drake university, Des Moines; Grinnell college, Grinnell; Iowa State college, Ames; Iowa State Teachers college, Cedar Falls; Simpson college, Indianola, and St. Ambrose college, Davenport.

Out of state schools are Akron university, Akron, Ohio; Augustana college, Rock Island, Ill.; Knox college, Galesburg, Ill.; Mundelein college, Chicago, Ill., and Whitewater State Teacher's college, Whitewater, Wis.

Prof. Kammermeyer Enters School Election

Prof. Karl Kammermeyer, head of the SUI chemical engineering department, is one of five candidates named to run for two three-year positions in the coming school board election March 10.

Other candidates named are the Rev. Alfred Henriksen, pastor of the Unitarian church, Dale W. Welt, partner in the Welt Real Estate and Insurance agency, Alva B. Oathout, funeral home director, and Irving B. Weber, vice-president and manager of the Sidwell Ice Cream company here.

Oathout and Weber are now serving their first terms on the school board. Oathout is the chairman.

The five men were selected at a meeting of the bipartisan selection committee Wednesday night at City hall.

Under Iowa City's bipartisan system, both Oathout and Weber are automatically candidates if they choose to run for re-election. Each had announced their candidacy earlier in the week.

Serving on the selection committee were 10 Democrats and 10 Republicans, picked earlier in the month at party caucuses.

The committee members were: Leslie G. Moeller, Dr. E. L. DeGowin, Richard Holcomb, A. C. Cahill, Jane Condon, Mrs. Thelma

Lewis, G. W. Martin, Mrs. Emil Trott, Julia Popkin, Blanche Thone, Ed Kessler, C. Merton Spicer, Kathryn L. Gillies, C. D. Janney, and J. A. Swisher.

Prof. Kammermeyer has been on the SUI faculty since 1949 when he came here from Balthore, Md.

A native of Germany, he has lived in the United States for 25 years. He attended the University of Munich and took his graduate work at the University of Michigan.

Welt, a graduate of SUI, has lived in Iowa City since 1927.

The Rev. Mr. Henriksen has been pastor of the Unitarian church here since June, 1951. He came here from Augusta, Maine.

Red Cross Sets Quota For Iowa City Schools
The quota for Iowa City schools in the Johnson county Red Cross fund campaign has been set at $270.

Glen Jablonski, president of the local teachers' club, has appointed Mrs. Alma Morse of Horace Mann school as chairman of the school campaign.

The quota for the main Iowa City drive, to begin March 3, is $19,844.

Engineers To Air Mecca Activities

Mecca week activities will be featured on Saturday's broadcast of "Information Engineering," heard at 8:45 a.m. over station WSUI.

Charles Springer, E4, Wapello, chairman of the Associated Students of Engineering, will appear on the program.

The following engineering students will also participate in the broadcast: Louis Bethel, G4, Iowa City; John Galvin, E4, Cedar Rapids; Lin Lenhart, E3, Evanston, Ill., and Francis Long, E3, Iowa City.

House Witnesses Urge Caution in Fluoridation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three witnesses before a house committee Tuesday urged caution in the addition of fluorides to drinking water as a means of checking tooth decay.

They said the chemical substances apparently do sometimes prevent decay of children's teeth, but that they also may cause mottled tooth enamel and may have other undesirable effects.

Dr. Howard Smith of the University of Arizona, one of the discoverers of fluoride's role in the dentistry, said nobody knows the safe amount of fluorides to add to waters in the various climatic zones of the country.

VA To Move Office To New Vets Hospital

The veterans administration office in Iowa City will move to the new Veterans hospital beginning Monday.

William H. Doherty, local VA representative, will continue to serve all veterans in this area, even though they are not connected with the hospital. The VA office will be open through today at its present location in the Iowa State Bank and Trust building.

Dubuque Author Gives Chapter of Book to SUI

A handwritten manuscript of the sixth chapter of his forthcoming book has been given to the SUI library by Richard Bissell, a Dubuque writer.

The document will be added to the library's Iowa author collection.

The book, entitled "The Monongahela," concerns the Monongahela river in West Virginia and will be published in May as a volume in the "Rivers of America" series.

19 Persons Register for Laundry Course

Nineteen persons from 12 states and Canada registered for the annual SUI hospital laundry management training course March 10-April 25.

The course is sponsored by the American Hospital association and the university's extension division. It is designed to help provide trained men and women to work in the hospital laundry management field.

The course will utilize facilities of University hospitals, the university's laundry and its various laboratories and will stress practical experience in hospital laundry situations. Instruction will be provided by regular university staff and faculty members although classes will be of a special nature rather than follow the usual academic lines.

Students will be instructed in the basic knowledge of chemistry, textiles, personnel management, production management, record keeping, accounting, hospital organization, engineering and the preparation of oral and written administrative reports. Successful completion of the seven-weeks course qualifies each student for a certificate of hospital laundry management which will be presented in a special ceremony by a member of the university administration.
