16 More Enter SUI Elections; 3 Quit Race

Sixteen more students have entered races for posts in the all-campus elections next Wednesday and three students have dropped out. Four students have become candidates for married students' representatives on the student council. Four other students have entered the race for two positions on the Panacea committee. Eight women have filed for four positions on the Women's Recreational association.

'New' White House Is Readied

LAST MINUTE TOUCHES before return of President Truman Thursday evening include installation of this new vestibule at the entrance of the White House Thursday. The frame and decorative border are aluminum, with glass top and walls.

Truman Returns Home; Still Silent on Politics

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Truman, still silent on politics, returned from a three-week Florida vacation Thursday night and settled down in the gleaming "new" White House for the first time in more than three years.

The Trumans vacated the White House in November, 1948, and moved across the street to Blair House. In the interim, the executive mansion has been rebuilt and remodeled at a cost of $5,671,000.

Smiling and tanned, Truman arrived at National airport aboard his plane, the Independence, at 4:56 p.m. "I never felt better in my life," he said.

Then, spotting Mrs. Truman, he hurried to her side and gave her a hug - with a repeat performance at the request of photographers.

Silent About Stevenson The President had nothing to say about published reports (1) that he has asked Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois to become the administration's candidate for president, and (2) that Stevenson rejected the invitation.

Newsman asked whether he had received any word from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower on when the general wants to leave his post as supreme allied commander in Europe to campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

Moving Day Completed The President shook hands all around, then left by car to take up residence in the refurbished White House. Mrs. Truman had already directed the moving day chores from Blair House while the President was still sunning himself at Key West.

Chief usher Howell Crimm greeted the President and Mrs. Truman at the front door as cameras recorded the scene. The President said he was very happy to be back in the White House. The beautiful part of it was, he said, that he didn't have to take any part in the moving.

New Atomic Tests Planned in Nevada

LAS VEGAS, NEV. (AP) - The atomic energy commission indicated Thursday that it will start a new series of nuclear detonations at the Nevada test site this week. The AEC issued a warning to all ranchers, miners and other persons to vacate the test grounds, about 75 miles northwest of here by the end of this week. It also warned all aircraft to stay out of the air above the Yucca and Frenchman Flats area, scene of a dozen atomic blasts during 1951. The AEC's warning was similar to those issued before the two test series last year. AEC spokesmen declined to amplify on the Thursday warning, saying "it speaks for itself."

Hawkeye, Magazine Staff Applications Due by April 8

Students wishing to run for editor and business manager of Hawkeye yearbook and SUI's new humor magazine must file applications with the school of journalism by 5 p.m. April 8. The Student Board of Publications will name the editors and business managers of the two publications April 15. The applications, which should be written, must include a letter from the registrar certifying good scholastic standing and stating cumulative grade point average through the first semester of 1951-52. Seniors Eligible After considering the applications, the board will interview applicants. Students who will have senior standing in the 1952-53 year (with 78 hours or more at the opening of the fall semester, or senior standing during the second semester of 1951-52) are eligible for Hawkeye and business manager. No hour requirement has been set for positions on the magazine. Experience Necessary Besides good scholastic standing, candidates for the positions must have had experience on the publication and must have demonstrated executive ability. The editors of both publications have charge of editorial work on the publication, while advertising, circulation and general business policies are the responsibility of the business managers.

Arnall Silent After Steel Conference

HANDS IN POCKETS, price stabilizer Ellis Arnall tells reporters, "No comment... no comment..." Thursday as he leaves a meeting with defense mobilizer Charles E. Wilson. CIO steel workers are scheduled to strike April 8 and Wilson's talk with officials apparently is an effort to settle the labor dispute.

Des Moines Law Stymies Dog Sales To University Lab

The SUI medical school would buy stray dogs from Des Moines for laboratory work if a change in an ordinance prohibiting their sale for that purpose were put through, Prof. Erwin G. Gross, head of pharmacology, said Thursday night. Professor Gross said university officials had asked whether stray dogs would be available from Des Moines, but that the Animal Rescue league there has apparently stopped a move to legalize sale of the dogs. The SUI medical school reportedly offered to pay $2 for each of the animals. Thursday the league voted six to three not to sell the dogs to medical institutions, thus squelching a proposed ordinance change which would permit it to make such sales. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Selover, former dog raisers in Des Moines, lead the move to block a change in the present ordinance. They said they have long contributed to anti-vice societies at Minneapolis and Chicago. "Cruelty is everybody's business," Mrs. Selover said. She expressed pleasure over the vote of the Animal Rescue league.

Churchill's Health Bill Wins First Test Vote

LONDON (FRIDAY) (AP) - The Churchill government's bill to impose small charges for medicine and other items in Britain's national tax-supported health services cleared its first big hurdle in the house of commons early today. By a vote of 304 to 279, the house rejected a Labor party motion to kill the bill.

Mass Search on For 2 Iowa Bandits

FLOYD, IOWA (AP) - A mass search for two armed bandits who Thursday night held up two service stations and took a gun from a Charles City policeman, was on in this area about 25 miles east of Mason City. The bandit's crime wave started at Waterloo, where they held up a service station and fled with about $400. The two men later held up a station at Denver, Iowa, about 12 miles north of Waterloo. At Charles City, policeman Gale North said he stopped the bandits' car after a general alarm was put out for their arrest. He said the driver of the car drew a gun on him while the second man disarmed him and ripped the radio out of the patrol car.

Ohio Phantom - Spook Driver Rides Again

WELLSVILLE, O. (AP) - Enveloped in an eerie green light, the phantom of the highway made another appearance in Ohio early Thursday night. Four motorists said they saw a skeleton-like figure in an automobile that appeared to have a green halo. But as in other cases in recent months, the spectre had disappeared by the time police and highway patrol took up the search. Police have taken a dim view of the phantom's activities, calling him a mental case or someone with an odd sense of humor. His last appearance in this area was in an adjoining county on March 12.

Seek German Peace Treaty Like Japan's

MOSCOW (AP) - Diplomatic sources said Thursday night Russia has told the West that Germany should get the same military deal as Japan got in the San Francisco peace treaty, even though Russia still regards that pact as illegal. Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky, in a highly unusual step, gave his country's views Tuesday in a half-hour oral analysis of American, British and French replies to Russia's proposal that the Big Four sign a peace treaty with a unified Germany. Ask All-German Elections Vishinsky told the diplomats Russia stands firm in rejecting Western proposals that elections for an all-German government be supervised by the United Nations. He said such elections should be prepared by the presently divided East and West German governments with whatever aid is necessary from the Big Four. The West insists that a United Nations commission be permitted to study whether conditions in East and West Germany are favorable for free all-German elections. Reds Like Jap Treaty Although Vishinsky stressed that Russia does not recognize the Japanese peace treaty, he said the San Francisco pact covering armed forces does not differ essentially from that which Russia envisions for Germany. The Russian proposal is that a United Germany, staying clear of foreign commitments such as the North Atlantic Treaty organization (NATO) and the proposed unified European army, be permitted to build up her own army, navy and air forces for defense. The Western replies reject this proposal.

$167 Million Every Day Lovett Says Defense Spending Will Hit That Figure by 1954

WASHINGTON (AP) - Secretary of Defense Robert Lovett has told congress the United States soon will be spending $167 million a day for military security. And, he says, it will cost this much until the end of 1954, at least. Lovett told a house appropriations subcommittee headed by Rep. George Mahon (D-Tex.) that this estimate was based on the assumption there would be no upsurge in the Korean fighting and no general war in the next year. The secretary and other witnesses strongly defended the "calculated risk" budget of $52 billion in new funds requested for the 1953 fiscal year, beginning next July 1. Committee hearings were in January, and the testimony was released Thursday. Lovett said this figure was reached after chopping down a total of 73 billion dollars which military leaders estimated was necessary to put the U. S. army and marines in "an acceptable state of readiness" by July 1, 1953 and to bring the navy and air force to such a state at a later date. America's industrial base for wartime production will be in place by the end of 1954, he estimated. After that expenditures can begin tapering off. "If we confidently expected war to break out on some given nearby date," Lovett said, "we would cut into the civilian economy regardless of the consequences, because our safety and freedom might be at stake."

6 Children, Parents Die in Flames As Farmhouse Burns

SOMERSET, PA. (AP) - Six children and their parents perished Thursday in a farmhouse fire. Only one person got out alive. He is 13-year-old Franklin Whipkey, one of 11 children of John and Evelyn Whipkey. In addition to the parents, the dead include Gertrude, 17; Dorothy, 15; Homer, 14; Freeman, 10; James, 12, and Aaron Joseph, 8. The blaze broke out about 7 a.m. in the kitchen of the three-story frame structure which was over 100 years old. It quickly spread to the second floor of the house and enveloped it in a matter of minutes. State police blamed the fire on an explosion presumably started by kerosene being tossed in a coal stove by the 49-year-old mother. Whipkey, 51-year-old retired miner, quit the mines several years ago because of an asthmatic condition. He had been employed as a town street worker.

Prisoner Exchange Stalls Truce Talks

MUNSAK (AP) - Korean truce negotiators laid groundwork Thursday for a possible compromise on the trayed prisoner exchange issue. Allied and Red staff officers exchanged detailed statements of their respective positions. The problem is one of three major issues barring a Korean armistice. The others are Red nomination of Russia as a neutral truce observer and Red insistence on rebuilding military airfields during a truce. The Allies had held out for voluntary repatriation while the Reds insisted that every prisoner should be required to go back to the other side.

McCARTHY CHALLENGED

WASHINGTON (AP) - Sen. William Benton (D-Conn.) Thursday challenged Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) to face him in court and throw out their $2 million libel dispute before McCarthy comes up for re-election in November.

4 Die in Explosion At Howard University

WASHINGTON (AP) - Four custodial workers were killed Thursday by an explosion while moving some chemicals from a basement laboratory at Howard university, large Negro institution. The victims were Eugene H. Gough, 65, chief custodian of the university; James Clinton, 34; Clinton Irvine, 32, and Alphonso Smith, 47.

Union, Industry Can't Agree, Talks Halted

WASHINGTON (AP) - High-level government efforts to break the steel industry's deadlock with its CIO union workers ran into unexplained snags Thursday amid signs the whole dispute may be turned over to President Truman. At Pittsburgh, the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. broke off talks with the union indefinitely, as the United States Steel Corp. and the union had done Wednesday. So did Youngstown Sheet and Tube and Republic Steel. The President returned from his vacation at Key West, Fla., Thursday. He could invoke the emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley act, which call for an 80-day cooling-off period, if he thinks that step is necessary to avert a strike threatened for April 8.

Wilson Discusses Situation

Mobilization chief Charles E. Wilson called off a meeting of his top aides to discuss the steel-wage situation. He also discarded plans to issue a statement setting forth the government position. Instead, Wilson met separately with Roger L. Putnam, head of the economic stabilization agency; Chairman Nathan P. Feinsinger of the wage stabilization board (WSB), and Ellis Arnall, director of the office of price stabilization (OPS).

The WSB last week recommended a settlement which would include a three-installment pay boost of 1 1/2 cents an hour, plus other benefits worth about 5 cents an hour, for the 650,000 steelworkers.

Engineer Fred White Resigns from Iowa Highway Commission

DE SMOINES (AP) - Fred R. White, 67, the No. 1 man in Iowa's highway setup ever since automobiles came into general use, has resigned and the task of picking his successor is under way. White's resignation from the $10,200-a-year job as chief engineer of the Iowa Highway commission takes effect next Sept. 1. After that date he will remain as a consultant to the commission. In announcing White's resignation at the statehouse Thursday, Commission Chairman Sanford Zeigler said the job of choosing someone to take White's place "will be a lengthy and difficult task." Zeigler issued a statement saying that on May 21 White will be 68 years old or two years past the retirement age for commission employes with rank of district engineer or higher. He said White called this situation to the commission's attention more than two years ago and that the problem has been discussed many times in the intervening period.

Kefauver Raps Truman For Favoritism

Sen. Estes Kefauver called on President Truman, in effect, Thursday to keep hands off and let the nation's Democratic voters choose their own nominee if Truman himself decides not to seek re-election. Kefauver spoke out after reading reports—unconfirmed by the White House—that Truman has asked Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois to become the administration's candidate for president. Truman withheld any comment on the purported offer to Stevenson. Returning to Washington from his Florida vacation, the president told newsmen he could not say anything about it at this time. In Omaha, where Kefauver is pushing his own campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination, he told newsmen: "If President Truman doesn't want to run, I think the people will want to choose the Democratic nominee, as they have been doing in voicing their sentiments in the primary elections." Kefauver scored an astonishing upset over Truman in the New Hampshire "popularity" primary. He also ran ahead of Truman in write-in votes in Minnesota. Along with Kefauver's jab at any king-making move by the President, a well-informed Democratic source in Washington suggested that Truman may have little say about the choice of a successor by the time the Democratic national convention rolls around in July. "The President may find he will have lost complete control of everything by that time," the capitol informant said. With the White House still silent on the subject, reports of a Truman bid for Stevenson to head the Democratic ticket continued to crop up. The Chicago Daily Sun-Times said Stevenson has "firmly declined President Truman's invitation to seek the Democratic presidential nomination." The newspaper said it had also learned that "only a full-blown convention draft" could shake Stevenson's decision. In Nebraska, boosters of Sen. Robert A. Taft made no secret of their hope to revive the Ohio senator's somewhat ebbing pres-

Interpreting the News — Reds Use Truce Talks To Cover Other Moves

By J.M. ROBERTS JR. Associated Press News Analyst As spring comes to Korea, bringing favorable conditions for resumption of the war, the Communists keep on making mountains out of molehills to prevent a truce.

ROBERTS

While no progress was reported from conferences over prisoner dispositions, the Reds started balking over words in portions of agreements already reached. They don't want to use "United Nations" on the grounds that the Allied negotiators do not represent the Korean peoples.

Another question is whether "operation kill" was not the best tactic ever employed by the Allies, and whether the truce talks were initiated by Russia merely for stopping it rather than to stop the war.

New Products

Portable Pool, Chairs Ready for Summer

NEW YORK (AP) — Portable is the word for new products this week—portable furniture, portable swimming pools. A portable swimming pool fits into a container measuring only one cubic yard. Installed, this vinylite plastic pool weighing 195 pounds can be filled with 10,000 gallons of water.

In the furniture department are portable chairs delivered in a flat cardboard box from the Comfy Manufacturing company of New York. You can put them together in a couple of minutes.

Dallas Smith, an Indiana state policeman from Indianapolis, invented the chairs. They are made of a fiberboard frame which weighs eight pounds. The spring seat and back and tailored slip cover weigh the same. It will support a ton in weight, and is also designed to withstand romping children and dogs. The slip covers are in a dozen different patterns, and the chairs are in three styles—with and without arms and with arms on one side only so that a three-chair divan combination can be formed.

More Home Rule Offered to Tunisia

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP) — France Wednesday offered Tunisia more home rule, but insisted the Bey, the nominal ruler, first fire Premier Mohammed Chenik and his pro-nationalist cabinet.

French officials said the 70-year-old Bey, Sidi Mohammed Al-Amin, answered with a "temporizing note." They did not specify how long a delay he asked, but appeared clearly dissatisfied with his reply.

The students are all members of the "Case Studies in Public Relations" class.

Five SUI students were named Thursday to the publicity committee of the 1952 Johnson county Cancer Crusade.

Chairman of the group is Ann Lawson, A4, Iowa City, who will direct and coordinate the activities of the committee.

Committee members and the type of work they will handle are Jerry Flynn, A4, Des Moines, radio programs and announcements; John Hermann, G, Polk City, cancer research at Iowa City hospitals; Jim March, A4, Kingsley, newspapers and magazines; and Bill Beckner, A4, York, Pa., distribution of pamphlets and posters.

Three other committee chairmen were named Thursday by the Johnson county campaign chairman, Prof. Donald E. Metzler, of the engineering college.

Joseph K. Schaaf, 426 Bayard ave., is chairman of the organized groups committee. He will be responsible for solicitations among various service clubs and other organizations.

Chairman of the Iowa City canvass committee is Robert Alderman, 228 Melrose court. Alderman will be responsible for the organization and supervision of the Iowa City solicitation program. He will select several assistant chairmen and a staff of volunteers will be under his direction.

Prof. Charles Davidson of the college of law will head the university staff committee. This group will solicit contributions from members of the SUI faculty and staff.

Community Groups To Give Plays Today At Theatre Festival

The 24th annual Iowa play production festival will open today in the SUI theater with eight community drama groups performing this weekend.

Student groups from 58 Iowa high schools will have their part of the festival Monday through Saturday of next week. Three hundred students are expected to participate.

Community groups presenting plays this afternoon will be the Marcia Federated club, Williamsburg, "Proud is the Heart"; and the Little Theater group of women's club, Fairfield, "The Unseen."

Tonight's plays will be by the Women's club, Iowa City, "The Old Maid"; Women's club drama department, Fairfield, "Mooney's Kid Don't Cry"; Community Theatre Starlighters, Monticello, "Hello, Out There"; and Effective Speaking class of women's club, Sioux City, "Joint Owners in Spain."

Performances Saturday afternoon will be by the Women's club, Mechanicsville, "Ladies of the Mop"; and the Women's club, Waverly, "The Twelve Pound Look."

Saturday night the Prince-Men of Friendly House, Davenport, will present "The Romance of the Willow Pattern."

Following each series of performances, judges will critically evaluate each production. Group judging will be followed, with ratings of superior, excellent, good, average or below average.

Marilyn Mosbach to Enter Drake Contest for SUI

Marilyn Mosbach, A1, Humboldt, was named Thursday to represent SUI in the Drake Relays queen contest.

The Hawkeye Pageant committee selected Miss Mosbach after Bobby Springate, N1, Des Moines, winner of the recent "Miss SUI" beauty contest, withdrew from the race.

Miss Mosbach was the runner-up in the contest.

Miss Springate withdrew from the contest because she plans to be married during Easter vacation.

Miss Mosbach was the entry of the Delta Delta Delta sorority in the "Miss SUI" contest.

PANGBORN TO SPEAK

Dr. Cyrus R. Pangborn, instructor in the school of religion, will speak at the weekly meeting of the Hiller foundation at Hiller house Friday after the 7:30 p.m. Sabbath eve service.

2 SUI Professors To Attend Coe Centennial

Two SUI professors will attend the Symposium on Human Freedoms which will be conducted today and Saturday at Coe college in Cedar Rapids.

They are Prof. A. Craig Baird of the speech department and Prof. Hew Roberts of the college of education.

The symposium will be held as a part of the centennial school year observance at Coe and will feature four outstanding speakers.

Speaking will be Arthur H. Compton, chancellor of Washington university, St. Louis, Mo.; Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review of Literature; Dr. Liston Pope, dean of the Yale university divinity school, New Haven, Conn.; and Thurman Arnold, former U.S. assistant attorney general.

Dr. Margaret Mead, New York anthropologist, will serve as clarifier for the four sessions.

Town Women To Hold Election of Officers Monday in Union

The Independent Town Women will hold an election of executive officers 7:30 p.m. Monday in conference room 1 of the Iowa Union.

The slate was prepared by senior girls of the organization. Applications will be available Monday night for girls desiring the following positions which make up the council of town women: UWA representative, YWCA representative, WRA representative, two student council representatives, art, publicity, and social chairmen and historian.

The executive slate includes: Marie Curry, A1, Massena, and Eileen Sellen, A2, Carroll, for president; Betty Welter, A2, Iowa City, and Marion Ries, A2, Iowa City, for vice president; Beverly Teague, A1, Iowa City, and Marlovene Healey, A1, Iowa City, for secretary; Emily Penningroth, A3, St. Petersburg, Fla., and Carmen Blair, A2, Manchester, for treasurer.

SOCIETY ELECTS 46

The state historical society elected 46 new members, including four Iowa Citizens, during March. New Iowa City members are Mrs. W. J. Boatman, Mrs. Charles A. Hawthorn, Clarke DeHaven, and John C. Nunn.

Religious Groups Plan 5 Discussion Meetings

The Wesley Supper club will continue its Lenten series, "Born to Believe," with a discussion on "Life Everlasting" at 5 p.m. Sunday in the north lounge of Wesley house.

At the same hour the single students will meet in the main lounge to discuss "Who is Jesus Christ?" The Rev. Robert Sanks, student director, will guide the discussion.

Two meetings are scheduled for Tuesday. At 12:20 p.m. the Religion and Current Events Luncheon club will consider the problem of "Freedom in Education," a continuation of the series "Civil Liberties Under Attack."

At 8 p.m. Wesley Wives will meet in the main lounge to hear Dr. Pauline V. Moore on "Natural Childbirth."

Bids Received for Tunnel Repair Job

Bids for repairs to the steam pipes of the tunnel system at SUI have been received and opened at a public hearing, according to George R. Parizek, assistant superintendent of planning and construction.

Carstens Brothers, Ackley, made a total project bid of $46,037 and Boyd and Rummelhart, Iowa City, made a bid of $58,800.72.

The bids have been forwarded to the state board of education. Contracts will be let by the board's finance committee soon.

The repairs are the first step in a program providing an addition to the Iowa Memorial Union, according to Fred Ambrose, university business manager.

Restaurant Prices Ordered Frozen To February Level

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government Thursday night slapped rigid ceilings on the nation's 500,000 restaurants by ordering meal prices frozen at levels in effect the week of Feb. 3-9.

The office of price stabilization also directed operators to post before April 25 their dollars and cents ceilings on their main food and drink items.

The order, effective April 7, also provides that prices in the 12 billion dollar a year industry can be changed only by OPS order. The agency said orders for any changes up or down would be based primarily on significant shifts in the wholesale food price index compiled monthly by the bureau of labor statistics.

To make those changes OPS will issue from time to time percentage factors which eating establishments will use in computing and posting new ceilings.

Price stabilizer Ellis Arnall said food costs are "fairly well stabilized" and he does not foresee any general changes at this time.

Duplicate Bridge Round To Be Played Sunday

Duplicate bridge will be played at 2:30 p.m. Sunday on the sunporch of the Iowa Union.

Winners from last Sunday's round of duplicate bridge were Ross Moyer, A3, Wellesley Hills, Mass.; Jim Whitney, G, National City, Calif.; Dick Fuson and Dick Newman, both from Iowa City.

Former SUI Student Has Book Published

A former SUI graduate student will have her first book, "Wise Blood," published in May by the Harcourt publishing company.

The author, Mary Flannery O'Connor of Savannah, Ga., was a student in the university writer's workshop and received her M.A. in 1947.

'Spring' Is Theme For WSUI Chapel

"Springtime" will be the theme of WSUI's Morning Chapel program Monday to Saturday. To the accompaniment of Easter music, five speakers will talk on various aspects of spring.

Monday, the Rev. Leon England of the First Christian church will talk on "Springtime and Easter," Tuesday, Mrs. Elmer Dierks will speak on "Spring song."

Wednesday and Thursday, Mrs. George Gloeckler will give an eyewitness account of springtime festivals in Japan and will read Japanese poetry of spring.

Friday, the Rev. Louis Penningroth, Presbyterian minister at Atalissa, will describe "Springtime in the Country."

Saturday, Dr. Frederick P. Bargebuhr will speak on "Old Testament Accounts of Spring Festivals."

Sunday Supper Opens Religion in Life Week

Religion in Life week at the Congregational church begins Sunday with a United Student fellowship supper at 5:30 p.m. to be followed by a panel discussion on "What is Belief?" at 6:30 p.m.

Monday through Thursday at 5:30 p.m. there will be supper meetings, at which four members of the faculty will make a statement of their religious convictions, each on a different evening.

These supper meetings are open to all. Reservations should be made by calling 4301 or 7220 not later than Saturday, if possible. The supper cost is 50 cents.

Johnson Will Conduct Indiana Speech Meeting

Prof. Wendell Johnson, chairman on council of speech pathology and audiology, is conducting a stuttering workshop for the Indiana State Speech and Hearing association at Bloomington Saturday.

Johnson will demonstrate methods of treatment and lecture on stuttering research.

Davenport Cops Valley Meet

Clinton Trails By 16½ Points, Iowa City 4th

By LEE CANNING

Davenport retained its Mississippi Valley conference indoor track title Thursday night in the Iowa field house by outdistancing second place Clinton, 83½ to 67.

The Blue Devils showed balanced strength in both track and field events to take the championship.

A rankin of Cedar Rapids held third with 29 points, far behind the two leaders. Iowa City was fourth with 26½.

The two leaders dominated the entire meet, taking nine of 12 first places. Davenport and Clinton scored nine seconds between them.

2 Firsts for City High

City high rated two top awards as Jim Freeman won the shot put and Fritz Hageboek copped the high hurdles. Kulaner of Cedar Rapids Roosevelt led the high jump field.

Two conference records were tied. Hageboek tied the loop's mark for the 60-yard high hurdles with a time of :07.7. Bill St. Clair of Clinton got the other tie in the 60-yard low hurdles with a :07 time.

Davenport won five events. Kline finished first in the 50-yard dash and Hanson paced the second section of the 880-yard race. Davenport's mile relay and mile medley relay teams also took top places.

Kent for Clinton

The Blue Devils' other first came as Argenta won the pole vault. Clinton picked up most of its points on St. Clair's first plus victories by Kent in the first section of the 880 and its 440-yard relay team. Felderman gave Clinton another win in the broad jump.

Final Team Standings:

Davenport	83½
Clinton	67
Franklin	29
Iowa City	26½
Roosevelt	14
Dubuque	11
Wilson	3

Furgol Matches Cape Fear Mark

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP) — Marty Furgol, 34-year-old professional who plays out of Lemont, Ill., equalled the course record with an eight under par 64 Thursday to serve as ringleader in a mass assault on par in the opening round of the $10,000 Azalea open golf tournament.

Marty's 32-32 tied the record for the par 72 Cape Fear country club course set in the inaugural tournament three years ago by Paul O'Leary of Bismark, N. D., and gave him a two-stroke lead over his nearest rivals, Art Wall Jr. of Honesdale, Pa., and Jimmy Clark, Laguna Beach, Calif., who each posted 33-33-66.

Smith, Berg Slam 73's, Tie in Women's Open

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Youthful Marilyn Smith and veteran Patty Berg — a real golfing contrast — trimmed par with 73's to move ahead tied with two stroke leads in the $4,000 New Orleans women's open tournament Thursday after 18 holes.

Troubled with accuracy, Babe Zaharias posted a one over par 75 to take third spot after first round play in the 72-hole tournament over the flat 6,539-yard city park course.

Richards Seeks Vaulting Mark

CHICAGO (AP) — The Vaulting Vicar, Rev. Bob Richards, Saturday night will continue his stratospheric sniping at the world indoor pole-vault record on the same spot it was wrought nine years ago.

A spirited mile relay battle is also expected between Drake, Oklahoma and Big Ten record-holding Iowa.

Richards leads a select trio of 15-foot aerialists who will hog some of the spotlight in the Chicago Daily News Relays which will lure a capacity 17,000 to the Chicago Stadium.

Try for Record

Richards, perhaps pressed by another ex-Illinois vaulter, Don Laz, and Nebraska's Don Cooper, will hopefully swipe at the 15-foot, 8½-inch world mark set by Cornelius Warmerdam at the stadium in 1943.

Richards, whose own best mark, 15-4¾, was achieved at the stadium last year, will speed down the same 125-foot spruce runway as did Warmerdam in his record vault.

The standards and cross-bar will be in the same position and Richards will crash-land into the same sawdust pit used by Warmerdam.

Kansans Bid for Olympics

— vs. AAU Hustle

NEW YORK (AP) — The lineup was set Thursday for the Olympic basketball trials, and the No. 1 question was: who's going to keep record-shattering Clyde Lovellette and his Kansas teammates out of Helsinki?

From their impressive sweep to the NCAA championship at Seattle, the Kansans now move to Kansas City where they make their opening Olympic bid Saturday night against the small college champions, Southwest Missouri State of Springfield.

The team which represents the United States in the Olympics will be chosen from the squads of the two finalists.

Here's the lineup of opening games Saturday night in Kansas City and New York's Madison Square Garden (all Iowa time):

In New York — 6:45 p.m. — Peoria Caterpillars (AAU winner) vs. U.S. air force (AAU No. 3).

8:30 p.m. — LaSalle (NIT winner) vs. St. John's (NCAA runner-up).

In Kansas City — 8 p.m. — Phillips Oilers (AAU runner-up) vs. Hollywood Fibber McGee and Molly (AAU No. 4).

9:45 p.m. — Kansas (NCAA winner) vs. Southwest Missouri (NAIB winner).

Semi-finals are scheduled Monday, March 31, at Madison Square Garden with the winners of the two college games meeting each other and the AAU survivors renewing an old rivalry. Finals are Tuesday night.

Cage Officials Revise Bonus Toss System

SEATTLE (AP) — The choice of whether to take the ball out of bounds or shoot for a free point after a foul was taken away from the players Thursday by the National Basketball Committee of the United States and Canada.

The committee disclosed that the new rule, tried out Wednesday night by Illinois and Santa Clara in the consolation finals of the NCAA tournament, actually had been adopted before the game.

Announcement was withheld until Thursday, however, as the committee wished to see the game and determine if any revisions were advisable.

While requiring him to shoot all fouls, the rule gives a player an extra shot if the first one is missed. This holds during the first 37 minutes of play in college, YMCA and Amateur Athletic union games. High school teams will play 29 minutes of their games under this bonus plan.

During the last three minutes of all games, every foul called will provide for two free shots; and there will be no waiver. During high school overtime, the automatic two-shot regulation will remain in force. In other games, the bonus shot will apply for the first two minutes of overtime and the automatic two-shot system for the remaining three minutes.

Bonus for Blocks

At any time during the game a player fouled in the act of shooting will get two shots, as in the past — or one if he has made the field goal.

The rules regarding possession of the ball after a free throw were not changed.

If a foul is clearly intentional during the first portion of the game the offending player will be given two shots, whether he makes or misses the first try.

NCAA Mat Meet Has Record Draw From U.S. Schools

FT. COLLINS, COLO. (AP) — A record 151 competitors from 41 colleges and universities were entered Thursday in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) wrestling championships opening today.

Coach Julius Wagner of host Colorado A&M college said there were 20 more contestants than competed in the championships last year at Lehigh university, Bethlehem, Pa.

The addition of two new weight classes—115 and 191 pounds—accounts for some of the increase.

The 115 and the 191 pound classes are Olympic weight divisions and were added to permit pre-Olympic competition. The NCAA tournament here has no bearing, however, on the Olympic tryouts which will be held on a district basis later.

Oklahoma will defend the crown it won last year by one point, 24-23 from Oklahoma A&M, the perennial NCAA champion.

Sawyer Tags Jones With $200 Reprimand

CLEARWATER, FLA. (AP) — Manager Eddie Sawyer of the Philadelphia Phillies slapped a $200 fine on third baseman Willie Jones Thursday demonstrating in no uncertain terms he expects the club's training camp austerity program to be followed to the letter.

Sawyer, in a short statement to reporters covering the club's spring camp activities, said Jones had been fined "for conduct detrimental to the welfare of the ball club." He declined to elaborate.

Out Past Bedtime

Reporters concluded that Jones, 26-year-old Laurel Hill, N. C., native, had violated the midnight curfew. Sawyer has ordered all his players to be in bed by midnight. He bawled out rookie pitcher Steve Ridzik for being 15 minutes late one night last week.

The fine was the first imposed by the usually mild mannered Sawyer since he took over the managership from Ben Chapman in mid-summer of 1949.

It was unofficially reported that the fine was the largest levied in a big league training camp since Miller Huggins tagged the late Babe Ruth with a $500 assessment in the 1920's. Fines in spring camps are a big league rarity.

On Good Behavior

The Jones incident climaxed Sawyer's strict program aimed at taking north a well conditioned, well behaved ball club, if not a pennant winner.

After signing a new three-year contract last October, Sawyer announced that there would be no wives in camp this year, no traipsing to dog races, no card playing, no swimming at the beach, and no automobiles.

Magazine X Features Photos of 'Professor'

A picture story on "the typical professor" by student photographer Carl Turk will be among the features of the first issue of Magazine X, when it makes its appearance next Wednesday.

The picture story includes a series of poses by drama student Victor Ferris "typifying the expressions of the college professor in class," according to the editors of the humor magazine.

"In Ferris' mobile face," the editors said, "Turk has captured the expressions of the typical professor as he 'bawls out' the student, makes an additional assignment, casually announces a 'pop' quiz, tells his favorite joke and so on."

Turk, a junior art student from Mason City, was chief photographer for The Daily Iowan.

Prison To Expand Rehabilitation Plan

DES MOINES (AP) — The state board of control is planning to expand its prisoner guidance and rehabilitation program at the Anamosa state reformatory.

The program set up a few months ago is designed to help men committed there to adjust themselves to reformatory life and to try to fit them more properly for assuming a worthwhile place in society after their discharge or parole.

Robert Lappen, chairman of the state board of control, said Thursday he and other reformatory and board officials will make a tour of several out-of-state institutions next week to study guidance and rehabilitation programs in effect there in an effort to determine how the Anamosa program may be of even more value to the inmates.

Counties To Be Told Of Deserting Dads

DES MOINES (AP) — The state board of social welfare is notifying county attorneys of fathers who apparently have deserted their families and left them to public charity for support.

This is the first year in which the notice to county attorneys has been used. It will help county attorneys obtain the information on which to bring back fathers and require them to support their families.

The action is being taken because the desertion of families not only injures the families but increases the burden on public funds, board officials said.

Freshman Arguments By SUI Law Students To Begin Monday

Freshman arguments at the college of law will begin in the law building at 7 p.m. Monday.

The annual affair, which is presided over by Iowa attorneys and SUI law seniors, is part of a course in law bibliography offered by the college of law.

About 40 to 50 freshman students will argue questions of law, just as if they were arguing an appeal before the Iowa supreme court. One attorney and two law seniors preside over each argument.

All arguments will be held in the courtroom and room 106 of the law building. Two are scheduled for each evening Monday through Thursday of next week and the following Monday. One is scheduled for the next and final day, April 8.

Presiding attorneys from outside of Iowa City will be Harold Keele, West Liberty; Robert Day, Washington; A. W. Eckhardt, Muscatine; R. W. McMahon, Daventry; and Dave Bleakley and Ty Ingersoll from Cedar Rapids.

Iowa City attorneys presiding will be Atty. William Meardon, Emil Trott, Ingalls Swisher and Robert Osmundson.

Prof. Louis Irwin, college of commerce, will preside over the last session.

History Conference To Hear Welcome By Hancher Today

About 200 history and social studies teachers are expected on campus today for opening sessions of the 30th annual history conference.

The conference will be three sessions beginning at 2 p.m. today and concluding Saturday with a 10 a.m. meeting.

Prof. Stow S. Persons of the SUI history department will preside at the first meeting in the senate chamber of Old Capitol. President Virgil M. Hancher will deliver the welcoming address.

Prof. Daniel J. Boorstin, University of Chicago, will talk on the subject, "Conformity in American History." Prof. George L. Mosse of the SUI history department will speak on "The New German Nihilism."

After an evening dinner in the Iowa Memorial Union, conferees will adjourn to the Shambaugh lecture room in University library to hear the keynote address, "History and Humanism Since the Renaissance," by Prof. Hajo Holborn of Yale university.

Visitors will then attend the dedication of the new Winfred T. Root seminar room, in University library.

The room will be dedicated in memory of Prof. W. T. Root, head of the SUI history department from 1925 to 1947.

The third and final session Saturday morning in the senate chamber of Old Capitol will feature the reading of papers by Prof. Fred A. Shannon of the University of Illinois and Burr W. Phillips of the University of Wisconsin.

Shannon's paper is entitled "Concerning the Rewriting of History" and Phillip's, "German Education, 1947 to 1951."

A luncheon in the Iowa Memorial Union will conclude the conference, which is sponsored by the history department, college of education, graduate college and extension division.

Guard Units Expect New Vehicles; Old Ones Go Overseas

The Iowa National Guard is expected to get new jeeps and trucks this summer to replace those which they turned in this week.

Brig. Gen. Fred Tandy, Iowa adjutant general, said Thursday.

The jeeps are expected to arrive about May 31, while the trucks will come before the unit leaves for their summer encampment Aug. 3.

The vehicles will replace those which were turned back earlier this week for shipment overseas. More than 800 jeeps and trucks were turned in.

The two Iowa City units of the guard, the 34th reconnaissance company and the clearing company of the 109th medical battalion, turned in six jeeps and seven trucks.

N.Y. Surrogate to Talk At Law Group Meeting

Anthony P. Savarese, Jamaica, N.Y., a surrogate of Queens county, will arrive in Iowa City this afternoon to speak before the Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity district conclave being held here today and Saturday.

The conclave will begin with a dance tonight in the Rose room of the Jefferson hotel. Savarese will speak at the Saturday evening banquet.

Savarese is the chairman of the board of trustees for the Italian charities, an institution that has raised over a million dollars under his direction.

The second speaker for the two-day event is Owen Cunningham, one of the lawyers who defended Tojo and 27 other Japanese war criminals in international war crimes court.

Cunningham won a "not guilty" verdict for Tojo and the 27 Japanese on the account accusing them of conspiracy to dominate the world.

His talk, "The Highlights in the Trial of Tojo," will be given at a Saturday noon luncheon in the Jefferson hotel.

Job placement and the organization's legal aid program will be discussed at the conclave. New officers will be elected.

Veterans Hospital To Get Post Office

A post office branch in the Veterans hospital will begin operation April 1, Iowa City Postmaster Walter J. Barrow said Thursday.

The branch will supply complete service at the hospital, including parcel post, stamps and money orders.

It will be managed by Elsie Zeithamel on a contract basis with the postal department, Barrow said.

The hospital post office will be located on the first floor. Hours at the branch are expected to be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. during the week and from 10 a.m. to noon on Saturdays.

Oakdale Hospital Gives TB Program

A program presented by staff members and patients of the Oakdale sanatorium highlighted the annual meeting of the Johnson county tuberculosis association Thursday night.

Ansel Chapman, president of the association, presided at the dinner and meeting in the Mayflower Inn.

The program, which had been arranged by Dr. William Spear, director of the sanatorium, showed what happens to a tuberculosis patient at the hospital from the standpoint of treatment as well as social service aspects.

50 High Schools Will Take Part In Speech Finals

Speech students from 50 Iowa high schools will take part in the state finals of the Iowa High School Forensic league at SUI April 3-5.

Representing winners of the state district meets, approximately 200 students will compete in debate, extemporaneous speaking, original oratory, radio speaking, interpretative speaking and student senate events.

Eight four-year fee-reduction scholarships will be awarded by the university, two to the outstanding speakers in extemporaneous speaking and original oratory classifications and six to outstanding debaters.

Schools taking part in the class A debate include Abraham Lincoln, Council Bluffs, Ames, Mason City, Davenport, Muscatine, Oskaloosa, Newton, Estherville, Algona, and Sioux City East. Class B debate teams will come from University high, Iowa City, Pella, Hawarden, Emmetsburg, Council Bluffs, St. Francis, Malvern, Dike, Eldora, and Thompson.

Winning debate teams from each class will record their debates for later broadcast over WSUI. Winners in all events will be announced at a luncheon in the Iowa Memorial Union April 5.

An institute for teachers of speech and dramatic art is planned for Tuesday through Saturday in connection with the forensic league meet.

Veterans Hospital Offers Free Tours

Group tours of the Veterans hospital can be arranged by phoning or writing L. E. Hunn, special services director at the hospital.

Dr. L. E. Stilwell, manager of the new hospital, said groups of 25 to 75 persons can be accommodated in an average tour, which takes about 90 minutes. Conducted tours will begin at 2 and 7 p.m., he said.

Stilwell said the tours were inaugurated following requests from many groups in this area.

Surgery Conference Opens Here Monday

Approximately 35 Iowa dentists and physicians are expected to attend a conference in oral surgery at SUI Monday and Tuesday.

The conference is sponsored by the university's college of dentistry and will be held at the University hospitals. Faculty members of the colleges of medicine and dentistry will join with physicians and dentists from Michigan, Missouri and Minnesota in presenting the program.

Out-of-state lecturers will include Drs. Donald H. Bellinger, chief of oral surgery at Henry Ford hospital, Detroit; Edward J. Hempstead, St. Louis university dental school; Stanley A. Lovstedt, Mayo clinic dentistry section, Rochester, Minn., and Edmund A. Smolik, associate professor of neurological surgery, St. Louis university school of medicine.

Lecturers from the university will include Drs. Robert Carney, associate professor of dermatology; Alton K. Fisher, head of oral pathology; Albert P. McKee, associate professor of bacteriology; A. Sabs, head of neurology, and Paul Seebomh, assistant professor of internal medicine.

Tax Collector Serves As Cupid in Britain

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Cupid-in-disguise — the tax collector — is packing churches and registry offices with couples racing to get married.

Hundreds of couples are hurrying to have the knot tied before April 6.

Every British couple who marry before that date will save $204. April 5 ends the British tax year and couples hitched by that date can claim the marriage exemption for the previous 12 months.

FBI Investigate Diseased Hogs For Sabotage

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal bureau of investigation said Thursday it is looking into an outbreak of anthrax among hogs in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois to determine whether sabotage was responsible.

In response to questions, the FBI said the inquiry by its field agents covers the possibility of sabotage "and any other federal law violation within our jurisdiction which may be involved."

Officials at the agriculture department said Ohio authorities had reported they believed the anthrax virus reached there in bone meal imported from Belgium. Bonemeal is used in livestock feed and as fertilizer.

Anthrax is an infectious disease usually fatal to animals. It is marked by ulceration of the skin, enlargement of the spleen and collapse. It can be transmitted to human beings.

Outbreaks are common in the United States. They can be controlled by vaccination.

The outbreaks of anthrax in the Ohio-Indiana-Illinois area were said to be unusual in that they have occurred largely among hogs, which are least susceptible. The disease also developed out of season. It usually appears in the summer and is largely contracted from infected soils.

The current outbreak also was said to be unusual also because it is in an area which has been largely free of the disease.

Officials said there is a sort of anthrax belt in this country—an area in which much of the soil is infected and where the disease frequently appears. This belt includes parts of South Dakota, Nebraska, the lower Mississippi delta region and the gulf area of Texas.

Operation Transplants Artery to Living Woman

NEW YORK (AP) — A death two months ago is giving new life today to a middle-aged, smiling woman.

From the dead person came a big, Y-shaped section of artery, about five inches long. For six weeks it was preserved in an artery bank.

Ten days ago, it was transplanted, substituted for the woman's own Y-shaped artery which had to be cut out to save her from abdominal cancer.

Sitting in a wheelchair at Delaware hospital, she smiled and said, "I feel fine. I can stand and walk a bit now."

Students Prepare for Professional Music Field

Career Training in Voice

Music Department Offers Special Instruction For 40 Students Majoring in Voice Area

SUI's music department provides special classes and instructorship for its 80 voice students, 40 of whom are majoring in the voice area of the department.

Of the voice students, the greater share will eventually teach, since there are few job openings in the professional field. There are, however, several outstanding examples of students who have graduated and secured positions with operatic companies and in the choruses of Broadway musicals.

Grant Eastham, a '50 graduate, is now singing with the Papermill Playhouse in New Jersey, while Hugh Cocksfoot, '37 graduate, has toured the country in several "light operas" and is now in the chorus of a New York show.

Three Training for Opera

Of the group of singers who took leading roles in the music department's presentation of "Die Fledermaus" last summer, three students are being trained for operatic futures in New York, while two are teaching music.

While training for the musical field, beginning students are given such courses as fundamentals of music and voice and music and theory, which allow them to sing in the university chorus.

For the junior and senior students, special music courses in song literature and opera are offered. Advanced students are given solo parts with the chorus and are required to give a full recital and appear in a university opera in their senior year.

Operatic Ambitions High

Typical of the students who hope for a career in opera is Marilyn Horstman, A4, Odebolt. She

Water Safety Course Begins at Women's Gym

A Red Cross training course for water safety instructors will hold its first meeting in the women's gymnasium April 7 at 7:15 p.m.

The course is open to all university and town women whose instructor certificates must be renewed or who have a current senior life saving certificates. Candidates must be 19 or over and in good health and sound physical condition.

The course will be conducted by Virginia Dix Sterling of the women's physical education department.

Applications for the training course may be made at the women's gymnasium.

Students Face Charges After Robbing Grave

CHATHAM, VA. (AP) — Spirit rites around a freshly dug-up skull and bones in a college lounge room led Thursday to the indictment of six students on the felony charge of grave robbing.

A special Pittsylvania county grand jury certified the charges against two girls and four young men to make more solid the wraith-like rumors that have been whispered here for nearly a month.

Five of the students attended Averett college and the other attended Danville Technical Institute, both in the nearby tobacco city of Danville. The Averett students were promptly expelled. Averett is a Baptist women's college which accepts a few off-campus male students.

The six will face a hearing here May 19 under bench warrants the Pittsylvania county prosecutor said would be issued.

It was on the family farm of one of the students that an old grave in the burying ground was opened March 1.

Sheriff Danney Hall said March 3 and 4 were the days that the lounge room at the college was the scene of the seances — an effort by means of spiritualism to communicate with the dead. The skull and bones were on display.

The sheriff disclosed excerpts from the statements which said that the group had no intention of "violating sepulture" burial as the law calls it.

Some said one student gave them the impression he had a right to dig in his own family's graveyard.

The sheriff said they didn't elaborate on the reason for the seances or say if they were seeking to contact any specific spirit.

Draft Call for April Lowest Since July '51

Only five men will be drafted from Johnson county during April selective service officials said Thursday.

This call is the lowest since six men were inducted at Des Moines in July, 1951.

Seven men were taken from this county for the March quota, and 14 during January and February.
