War No Nearer Now Than In 1950, Stalin Says

Arnall Fears No Settlement In Steel Feud

WASHINGTON (AP) — Grave doubt that an April 8 strike in the nation's steel industry can be avoided was expressed Tuesday by Ellis Arnall, price stabilization director.

"I hope for the best, but fear the worst," Arnall told newsmen.

His comment came after a conference on prices with President Benjamin Fairless of the U.S. Steel corporation. Arnall indicated he is standing fast against giving the steel industry any special price concessions to encourage it to accept a government proposal for a wage increase.

At New York steel wage talks were postponed for the second day in a row as the strike-threatening CIO United Steelworkers showed signs of mounting restlessness.

Union President Philip Murray seemed irritated and called the delays by industry "unwarranted." April 8 is the union's strike deadline.

In postponing Tuesday's meeting, the industry camp said only that it is "still waiting further developments." The developments were not explained.

However, a spokesman indicated steel's indecision had something to do with a Washington conference during the day between Fairless and Arnall.

At the end of a second meeting Tuesday with Arnall, Fairless told reporters, "the only thing I can say is I hope there won't be a strike."

So far the industry has said it cannot possibly absorb the suggested 17 1/2 cent hourly pay boost, and other benefits, to Philip Murray's million CIO steelworkers without compensating price increases.

Humor Magazine X Goes on Sale Today

The back yard of Old Capitol was once used for dumping ashes. This fact is just one of the many about "Our Sacred Cow" revealed by Dean Norman in an article appearing in Magazine X, the new campus humor magazine.

The magazine will go on sale today on the streets of Iowa City in time to reach students going to 7:30 classes. It will be sold by campus beauty queens, members of the magazine staff, and volunteers.

Featured in the magazine will be a contest to name the publication which is at present being produced under the name of Magazine X. A $15 first prize will be given to the winner of the contest with $10 going to the runner-up. Three cartons of cigarettes is also included in the list of prizes.

It will be the first campus humor magazine since Frivol went out of circulation last semester.

Spring, Sunshine and Studies

RELUCTANT SPRING Tuesday brought sunshine to Iowa City, with a promise of more to come, but weather forecasters said temperatures for the next few days will have a few degrees below normal for this time of year. Ignoring predictions are Mert Berenstein, C2, Des Moines, and Peggy Kelo, N1, Atlantic, as they study on a rock water-inlet near the Art building.

Government Officials Protest Demand For Private Records

WASHINGTON (AP) — Corruption hunter Newbold Morris' demand for detailed data on the personal finances of high government officials was reported Tuesday to have set off sharp protests from cabinet members at a meeting of President Truman's official family.

Several members were said to have raised a ruckus over the idea, contending it was an invasion of privacy.

So far only the justice department has gotten its bundle of the questionnaires but Morris, sharply at odds with Attorney General McGrath over the issue, has indicated plans to cover the whole top echelon of government.

The protests were said to have been voiced at a cabinet meeting Friday. Mr. Truman reportedly made no decision at that time whether he would insist that his highest officials provide the requested data.

Attorney General McGrath and Secretary of the Treasury Snyder were listed among those who opposed the questionnaire.

Morris, appointed by the President to ferret out any corruption in government has prepared thousands of the questionnaires for government employes and has delivered 596 copies to the justice department.

President Truman scheduled a talk with McGrath today on the open break between the two officials amid reports that one or the other would have to step out. Truman also asked for a record of McGrath's testimony.

A presidential aide asked for, and received, a transcript of testimony in which McGrath virtually disowned Morris, his special assistant.

Meeting of Powers, German Unification Termed 'Useful'

NEW YORK (AP) — Prime Minister Joseph Stalin Tuesday assurred a group of American newspaper editors and radio men — at long distance — that a third world war is no nearer than it was in 1949 or 1950.

Stalin said he feels a meeting of the chiefs of state of the great powers possibly would be useful. Also that the time has come to unify Germany, and that communism and capitalism can exist peacefully side by side — if.

He expressed these views in a telegram dispatched in response to four questions sent to him March 24.

American and other Westerners at United Nations headquarters here called the Stalin pronouncements propaganda. They speculated it was strange for Stalin to make such comments only a few days after the Russian propaganda machine reached a new high in assailing the United States on charges of using germ warfare in Korea.

Here is the question and answer exchange as announced by James L. Wick, Niles (Ohio) publisher who was a member of the party sending the queries:

Q. Is a third world war closer now than two or three years ago?
A. No, it is not.

Q. Would a meeting of the heads of the great powers be useful?
A. Possibly it would be useful.

Q. Do you consider the present moment opportune for the unification of Germany?
A. Yes, I do.

Q. On what basis is co-existence of capitalism and communism possible?
A. Peaceful co-existence of capitalism and communism is quite possible if there is a mutual desire for cooperation, if there is a readiness to fulfill the undertaken obligations, if there is observance of the principle of equality and not interference in the internal affairs of the other states.

Taft Overtakes Ike in Torrid Primary Race

OMAHA (AP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio regained his early lead from Gen. Dwight Eisenhower early this morning in the see-saw Nebraska GOP primary.

With complete returns from only 292 of the state's 2,058 precincts, Taft held a 6,096 to 5,387 margin.

Eisenhower grabbed the lead momentarily from Taft after the Ohio senator had led in first returns.

Former Minnesota Gov. Harold E. Stassen was a strong third in the GOP balloting with 4,123 votes.

Kefauver Heads
On the Democratic side Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee continued to run ahead of Sen. Robert Kerr of Oklahoma.

With 143 of the precincts reporting, Kefauver led Kerr, 2,757 to 1,916.

But the totals did not include any of the precincts in populous Douglas (Omaha) county where partial returns indicated Taft had perhaps his greatest strength.

Returns Slow
The returns were slow because of the long and complicated ballot and a near-record vote drawn to the polls in large part by the bitterly-contested presidential popularity contest.

There were some write-in votes for Gen. Douglas MacArthur, President Truman, Gov. Warren of California and others but they were an insignificant part of the total.

The early returns reflected a political curiosity in which the candidate on the ballot — Stassen — was running behind two candidates whose names were not on the ballot.

Taft in Front In Wisconsin; No Write-Ins

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio appeared headed early this morning toward a victory giving him at least 24 of Wisconsin's 30 Republican presidential nominating delegates.

With about half of the state's precincts counted, delayed returns from Milwaukee and some rural areas pushed Gov. Earl Warren of California into second place over former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota.

Warren Challenges
Warren was challenging Taft in district races in Milwaukee where four delegates were being chosen. He also was a threat to take two delegates in the second district embracing Madison.

Both Stassen and Warren's supporters had bid for votes from friends of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. Eisenhower's name was not on the ballot and could not be legally written in.

In state-wide races to elect the 10 at-large delegates, the count from 1,948 of 3,204 precincts was: Taft 155,273, Warren 108,806, Stassen 83,243.

In district races, where 20 of the GOP delegates are chosen, Taft's men led for 16 places.

Kefauver Rolls Along
Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, the ex-crime prober, appeared to have tucked the state's 28 Democratic presidential nominating votes under his belt.

Kefauver was rolling along with more than 80 per cent of the vote. He was opposed by Charles E. Broughton of Sheboygan heading a rival "draft-Truman" slate and a third, unopposed slate, headed by Jerome Fox. Late Tuesday night Broughton conceded defeat.

If the expected victory here were combined with a possible win in the Nebraska primary, Kefauver would be in a top position among announced candidates to succeed President Truman as the Democratic nominee.

In the state-wide race, Taft was getting about 43 per cent of the total Republican vote, Warren 30 per cent and Stassen 23.

It's Election Day; 75 Candidates Seek Campus Jobs

The all-campus elections—with a mixture of national politics—take over at SUU today. Seventy-five candidates are in the scramble for major student posts.

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and booths will be located in the Quadrangle, Iowa Memorial Union, Currier hall, Schaeffer hall, Macbride hall, University hall, Engineering building and East hall.

Students must present identification cards before voting.

One candidate, Robert Mau, A3, Charles City, dropped out of the race for liberal arts senior officer Tuesday, because he is transferring to the college of commerce next year.

The vote today could easily top last year's vote of 2,400, despite the fact that the student council delegates-at-large will not be on the ballot. A heavy vote is expected because of the presidential straw vote, which will be taken during the elections.

The co-chairmen of the election, Ralph Cockshool, A4, Atlantic, and Marilyn McMullen, A3, Dubuque, said Tuesday all candidates have conducted their campaigns according to the rules and added that they hope they will continue to do so.

"The only thing that remains to be done is for the student body to participate wholeheartedly by casting a record number of votes," they said. "This will insure that the outcome truly represents their desires as to who should fill these important positions."

The ballot for today's all-campus elections:

GUARDED OPTIMISM OVER Korean Truce Meetings
MUNSAN, Korea (WEDNESDAY) (AP) — Allied and Communist subdelegations in an air of guarded optimism prepared today for renewed debate on Russia's role in any Korean truce supervision.

A note of optimism was sounded by sources close to Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy. They said he hopes to have achieved an armistice before he leaves early this summer to become superintendent of the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis.

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower
The Tide Is Flowing

Ike Says Limit To Resources, Patience

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, ALLIED POWERS IN EUROPE (WEDNESDAY) (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower warned Europe today that there is a limit to American resources — and to the patience of American taxpayers unless European nations cooperate fully for the common good.

"There is no real security yet achieved in Europe," he asserted. "There is only a beginning."

But he said the tide of battle in the cold war "has begun to flow our way."

12,000 Word Report
Eisenhower made these points in a 12,000-word report marking the end of his first year in command of SHAPE, military headquarters for the North Atlantic Treaty organization of 14 nations. His report did not refer to U.S. politics.

He struck a note for economy, saying:

"It would be fatuous for anyone to assume that the taxpayers of America will continue to pour money and resources into Europe unless encouraged by steady progress toward mutual cooperation and full effectiveness. America can not continue to be the primary source of munitions for the entire free world. To do so would be militarily unsound."

World-Shaking Tragedy
"Moreover the United States can not long continue such expenditures without endangering her own economic structure. The soundness of that structure is of vital concern to the entire free world, for its collapse would be a world-shaking tragedy."

"National and combined staffs (have) the great responsibility of eliminating every trace of luxury in organization and in size and design of equipment. We must be fearful that we do not prove that free countries can be defended only at the cost of bankruptcy."

Eisenhower detailed some of the successes and failures of SHAPE'S first year, and then declared:

"The tide has begun to flow our way and the situation of the free world is brighter than it was a year ago."

"(But) it would be disastrous if the favorable signs and developments recorded in this report were to put any mind at ease or to create a sense of adequate security, for there is no real security yet achieved in Europe. There is only a beginning."

"As of today, our forces could not offer prolonged resistance east of the Rhine barrier."

highest officials provide the requested data.

Attorney General McGrath and Secretary of the Treasury Snyder were listed among those who opposed the questionnaire.

Morris, appointed by the President to ferret out any corruption in government has prepared thousands of the questionnaires for government employes and has delivered 596 copies to the justice department.

President Truman scheduled a talk with McGrath today on the open break between the two officials amid reports that one or the other would have to step out. Truman also asked for a record of McGrath's testimony.

Today Is the Day—Vote!

One candidate for today's all-campus election has registered considerable skepticism in the voting set-up.

This candidate, so we hear from one of the election chairmen, expressed fear that the balloting will not be fair.

The Daily Iowan believes this groundless. Let's look at the facts.

In charge of the election are Ralph Cockshott, A4, Atlantic, and Marilyn McMullen, A3, Dubuque, two highly capable members of the student council.

Under their direction, members of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, and University Women's Association will officiate the election.

These groups will be headed by Thomas Gihlin, A1, Iowa City, and John Barr, G, Cades, S. C., of APO, and Sue Orsborn, A4, Red Oak, of UWA.

At each poll throughout the day there will be two students to instruct the voters.

The counting of the votes will be under the supervision of Prof. Robert Ray and his staff from the SUI Institute of Public Affairs.

To aid them will be one representative from each organization participating in the election, plus two student council election committee members.

These individuals have cooperated and worked for weeks in order that any kinks reported to have appeared in previous elections, will not turn up in this one.

We know that they have profited from previous mistakes and as far as we are concerned this election should be one of the most efficiently handled.

These people did this in an effort to make voting procedures easier for you.

Now it's your turn. You can show your interest in campus affairs by turning out between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. today and casting your vote.

TO THE EDITOR:
This letter is written because of the need for INFORMED voting in today's elections.

I wish to call to the attention of all married students the experience and qualifications of three men who are running for the three married student positions on the council:

He is a delegate to the 1952 Republican state convention, and also represented Johnson county at the 1950 Republican state convention. He was a member of the Republican resolutions committee for Johnson county in both 1950 and 1952.

He organized the SUI chapter of United World Federalists, is a past state president of UWF and is now a member of the UWF national executive council. As an undergraduate, he represented SUI in debate and discussion. He received his B. A. in political science from B. U. He is a member of Young Republicans, United World Federalists, Phi Delta Phi, Phi Eta Sigma, Phi Beta Kappa and Wesley Supper club (Methodist).

Peter Van Metre, a junior law student, lives at 217 Finkbine park. As an undergraduate at Trinity college he was editor of the student newspaper. He was also active in debate and many other forms of public speaking, and was president of the college debating society.

He received his B. A. in history from Trinity college. He is a member of Young Democrats, United World Federalists, Phi Delta Phi, Phi Beta Kappa, and Trinity club (Episcopal). He is active as a speaker for Young Democrats.

Jack Wesenberg, a graduate student in marketing, lives at 459 Riverdale village. He is the present married student representative on the 1951-52 student council. He is also a member of the student council's executive committee, and is public relations director of the student council. He is chairman of the committee which is dealing with suspension of the no-out rule.

In 1951, he was the official SUI delegate to the Big Ten student government conference at Michigan State. He received his B. A. in economics from SUI. He is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He served as president of Riverdale village for 2 1/2 years, and is now acting chairman of the Riverdale council.

Duane Meyer, G 935 E. College

TO THE EDITOR:
I believe Dwight D. Eisenhower should be the next president of the United States.

I think he will be. Eisenhower has shown his tremendous popular appeal in two states already (prior to Wisconsin and Nebraska primaries). But more important, to me, are those qualities he possesses which go together to make up that appeal. He is a man of unquestioned personal integrity, and I am certain he will carry this integrity to the presidency. As a leader he is capable and forceful.

Most important of all, Eisenhower has proved his ability to bring capable men with differing opinions together in working for a common goal. In our present state of world chaos, I feel that we must have such a man at the head of our great nation.

J. T. Snyder, L3

TO THE EDITOR:

SUI married students are realizing now for the first time that we can be represented on the student council. It is the first time because Mr. Jack Wesenberg, our "representative" last term, was elected by a mere handful of married students and not in a popular campus-wide election. And what did we hear from him on married student problems? What concrete gains did he accomplish for us?

I am running for one of the three married student positions on council. If you are voting for Wesenberg I ask you please do not vote for me, because I could not conscientiously follow his policy of inactivity. I intend to push for immediate action on the muddy, rough, dangerous roads in the villages, the uncalled-for rent increases, and the unenforced speed laws. I suggest better play areas for the kids, a baby-sitters cooperative, and the reactivation of married students organization as an effective expression of married student opinion, including off-campus dwellers.

I also stand for the permanent suspension of the no-out rule, a new — and this time unbiased — investigation into questions of race, color, and religion on university application and housing forms, and a stronger and more representative student government.

Now Mr. Wesenberg and his two running mates bought an ad in the Iowan, feeling it necessary to attack me implicitly (as I am their only opponent) as having "axes to grind" and using the council in the interests of "pressure groups." They are absolutely right: I do have "axes to grind" and I hope to represent a "pressure group" on the council. The "axes" are the problems above and others that all married students yourselves who want real action, not just talk, in your interest as well as in the wider interests of the whole university community.

TO THE EDITOR:

Last week 80 Town Men, who had managed to get their names on mailing lists since last September, received ballots in the ballot from a Town Men nominating committee. The ballot presented a slate of three candidates for the three Town Men representatives to the student council for next year.

We are writing to you as two Town Men who had expressed, individually, to members of the nominating committee our desire to compete for these positions, and who were denied the right to appear even on a nomination slate. After some inquiry, we found cause to question the entire procedure, and feel that our fellow Town Men should know about it. Those of you who received ballots, or who received no ballots at all, would be interested in the following characteristics of the mailed-ballot procedure:

1. The ballot had to be signed by the voter, which seems to us to deprive men of the right to secret ballot.

2. The ballot was received on March 26 and had to be post-marked by March 27 (almost a full week before the deadline for campus elections), thereby making any kind of effective write-in campaign impossible.

3. Members of the nominating committee nominated themselves. At the last meeting of Town Men early in March, Ralph Cockshott, the present and temporary representative to student council, announced that Virgil Hancher Jr. and George Reischmuller, two of the candidates who finally appeared on the nomination slate, were members of the nominating committee.

4. Only 80-odd men received ballots (those on a mailing list), whereas the Town Men were given three representatives on the student council on the basis of an eligible 750 residents. On Thursday, March 27, when other Town Men had been on the mailing list, and others who had not, appeared in the office of student affairs to request ballots, they were told that only men who had paid dues and owned membership cards were eligible for ballots. But a check of Town Men who had received ballots indicated that a significant number had never gone through the formality of paying dues and picking up membership cards. And since when, we have wondered, does a student have to pay, in the form of dues, for the right to vote for his student council representatives?

5. The election procedure outlined at the meeting in March was not followed. At that time, the announcement was made that the nominating committee would submit its slate at the next meeting (today), that nominations could be made from the floor, and that elections would take place in an open, democratic way. We have wondered why this procedure was not followed. If the representatives had to be elected before the April 2 deadline, certainly an earlier meeting might have been called.

All of which leads us to suspect that a small, tight nucleus of present officers, in order to perpetuate itself, has acted in unfair and undemocratic ways. This is of particular concern to Town Men since your vote for these representatives is the only vote you have for your choice on student council. We do not ask you to make a final decision now. We DO urge you to come down to the meeting at 7 p.m. today in Macbride hall, where, presumably, the entire matter will be aired in a democratic way.

Joe Says Don't Worry --He Would Like That

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
Associated Press News Analyst

Joe Stalin's latest advice to Americans is, in effect, to keep their shirts on, stop worrying about war and about Russia's intentions toward other states.

If he could get away with it it would be wonderful—for him. Replied to questions posed by a group of newspaper and radio editors who have been touring Europe but who got nowhere with an effort to see Russia and Stalin, Joe says:

"A third world war is no nearer now than it was two or three years ago.

"It is possible a meeting of the heads of the great powers would be useful.

"Now is a good time to unify Germany.

"Peaceful co-existence of capitalism and communism is possible if there is mutual cooperation, a readiness to fulfill undertaken obligations, observance of the principle of equality and no interference in the internal affairs of other states."

Well, the whole object of Allied policy for years has been to see it that conditions are created which will make Russia hesitate about starting a shooting war when it becomes evident she is not going to win the "cold war." If war is nearer now, the whole program of containment is a failure.

Stalin Has Initiative

Allied officials also say war is no nearer. But the Stalin dictatorship is the only government in the world which has the power to make war without regard for the will of its own people, and so Stalin, not the Allies, has the initiative. And what he says has never seemed to have much bearing on what he does.

Stalin's opposition to UN-sponsored elections is the best evidence of how he wants to unify Germany.

Stalin's propaganda machine insists in the affairs of other nations, so it is plain that under Stalin's "coexistence" the Allies would be the only ones who would have to stop that.

"Peaceful Aid" They would have to stop interfering with the placid life of the North Koreans, for instance, while Russia carried out her peaceful aid for North Korea and her improvement plans in Germany, France, Turkey, Yugoslavia, Greece and, eventually, all the rest.

There is only one angle of such statements by Stalin, which is really interesting and worth studying. That is the difference between his statements addressed to the peoples of the West, and his propaganda line aimed at the peoples he is trying to mobilize for his true purposes.

To the West he seeks to at least give an impression of reasonableness. But even at these moments his propaganda machine in the East never ceases its hammering of hate.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 37...THE SWORDFISH

"They had me fencing with fancy facts!"

They crossed swords with the wrong man when they engaged this swashbuckling senior in combat! At first, he was foiled by the tricky, "one-puff" . . . "one-sniff" cigarette mildness tests. But he parried their thrusts with this gleaming sword of logic: The only way you can judge mildness is by steady smoking. That's the true test of cigarette mildness!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke, on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why . . .

on the Sports Scene with Jack Jordan

In Tuesday morning's column I picked what I think will be the final standings in the American league. Judging from phone calls and people who stopped me on the street, there are differences of opinion.

However, no one has written to contest (or uphold) the validity of the selections, and that's disappointing. This is a public service and the public is invited to get into the act. This is a new day, though, so on with the National league.

I look for a subway series, figuring that either the Giants or Brooklyn will meet the Yankees for the world title. Right now, the Giants appear to have the edge.

First of all, it is impossible to overlook a defending champion. And no one will argue the fact that the New Yorkers are real champs after their stretch drive to overtake the Dodgers last season.

Leo's Same Crew
Leo Durocher's personnel will be nearly the same as the group that played in the World Series, the outstanding exception being the imminent draft call of Willie Mays. Even that situation has been alleviated, though.

Davey Williams has become a full-fledged second-baseman under the tutelage of Alvin Dark and can fill Eddie Stanky's vacated spot. That frees Henry Thompson, who has hit very well this spring, to return to third. Then, should Mays leave, Bobby Thomson can return to the outfield from third base.

Brooklyn's shouts of "Wait 'til next year" now have subsided into grumbles of "This is the year," and manager Charley Dressen and his boys won't take lightly to another fit of choking up such as they experienced last year.

Campanella Troubles
The Dodgers still look good on paper, with the exception of having troubles with Roy Campanella. The league's outstanding catcher backed out of an operation on his elbow for bone chips at the last minute last summer, and now is balking at a suggested diet.

The Brooks still have such men as Jackie Robinson and Gil Hodges, though, and will be held as favorites by many.

If Curt Simmons can still pitch with the effectiveness he held when he entered the army, Philadelphia's entry will be very strong. Primarily a fielding team, the Phils have also shown ability to hit, as they did in winning the flag in 1950. Then with a good Simmons joining a mound staff that has been spectacular this spring, the Phils are the darkhorse on my list.

Cards Hustling
Stanky, in his first try at managing, has the St. Louis Cardinals hustling like an old "gas-house" gang. A bumper crop of rookie pitchers seems to constitute the hinge of success, and Stanky has already been praised for his handling of youngsters. Eddie has also convinced the Redbird management that he needs some youth, and has strengthened his bench considerably.

Stan Musial is still there, too. Boston is in the sad state of rebuilding and has several very weak hitters in the lineup. The Braves are also sold on trying the risky idea of using an outfielder in the infield, and will start Willard Marshall on third. Manager Tommy Holmes also has to decide between a rookie shortstop, Billy Klaus, and Jack Cusick, who hit .177 last year.

The last three teams can be thrown into a hopper and they'll probably come out in a more accurate list than opening can produce. Cincinnati looks good on the field but can't hit. Pittsburgh has shown good pitching, but is also notoriously weak at the plate. Howie Pollett has shown very good form this spring, but won't be able to win without runs.

Cubs a Bit Previous
And Chicago? Well, the Cubs haven't changed much since their wartime team won in '45. You say look at the spring results? They haven't changed, either. The season just starts a month too late for Chicago.

National league predictions:
1. New York
2. Brooklyn
3. Philadelphia
4. St. Louis
5. Boston
6. Cincinnati
7. Pittsburgh
8. Chicago

Trotters Beat Collegians
BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The Harlem Globe Trotters made it four straight over the College All-Stars Tuesday night in their nation-wide exhibition basketball tour, turning back a late collegiate surge to win, 58 to 53, in Memorial auditorium before 11,690. "Goose" Tatum again took scoring honors with 20 points.

These Bats Good Luck for Cards

'Better' Net Team Opens This Week

By LEE CANNING

Iowa's tennis team, headed by four returning lettermen, opens its 1952 season Saturday at Columbia, Mo., against a strong University of Missouri squad.

Coach Don Klotz, now in his fifth year as Iowa's mentor, expects his 1952 outfit to be stronger than last season's team. Klotz, however, is waiting until the team gets match experience before he goes overboard on the squad's chances of finishing high in the Big Ten meet.

Lack of Experience
In sizing up the team's strength Klotz commented, "To date, the squad appears to be better than last year's group. The biggest weakness is lack of experience."

Klotz continued by saying, "We hope that the spring trip will condition the team and give it the necessary match experience for conference play."

Iowa's spring trip opens with the Missouri matches Saturday. The Hawkeyes move to Topeka, Kan., Monday to face Washburn. Iowa also will meet Kansas, Kansas State and Washington of St. Louis on the trip.

4 Returning Lettermen
Topping the list of returning lettermen are Bruce Higley, Iowa City senior, and Bob Richards, Moline junior. Higley won the conference No. 4 singles championship in 1951 for Iowa's only Big Ten title.

Richards has shown excellent form during early workouts and has a good chance of moving into the vacant No. 1 position on the Iowa squad.

Iowa's other veterans are seniors Gordon Chapman and Roger Kroth.

Race for No. 1 Spot
Dave Van Ginkel, a minor letter winner in 1951, also could help because of his experience. Although Richards rates as one of the top contenders for the No. 1 position, sophomore Norman Barnes also is a possibility for that spot. Barnes won the state high school singles championship as a Cedar Rapids prep in 1948. During the 1949 and 1950 seasons, he was runnerup to "Dusty" Rice, another highly rated Hawkeye sophomore.

Klotz says that both Barnes and Richards have been very impressive while practicing indoors. The Iowa coach rates both players equal.

Finished 3d in 1951
Iowa's 1951 team was the surprise of the conference meet, finishing third behind champion Michigan State and runnerup Michigan.

During the regular season, Iowa won six dual matches, lost three and tied one. The Hawkeyes dropped three of their first four meets but finished with six wins in their last seven outings. Only a 3-3 tie with Denver marred Iowa's late season rush.

The Hawkeyes lost four lettermen from the 1951 squad. Bill Ball, John Fletcher, Don Lewis and Vance Trueblood finished their competition last year.

CUBS 4, CHISOX 2
SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Lefty Paul Minter and Johnny Klippstein combined for a five-hitter Tuesday night to guide the Chicago Cubs to their fifth successive win over the Chicago White Sox 4-2. Minter limited the Sox to three blows in seven frames and Klippstein finished with a yield of two.

Peoria Wins U.S. Title, 62-60

Stops Kansas In Final Game; Oilers Take 3d

NEW YORK (AP) — A one-handed shot by Howie Williams in the final eight seconds gave Peoria's Caterpillars a thrilling 62-60 victory over Kansas' college champions Tuesday night in the finals of the Olympic basketball trials.

With 15 seconds left and the score tied at 60-60, Kansas' big Clyde Lovellette stole the ball from Marcus Freibeger and dribbled the length of the court but missed an easy layup while in the clear.

A Peoria player picked off the rebound and tossed the ball up court to Williams, who took two steps and let go on the fly from 20 feet out.

Thus the final game of the Olympic trial was brought to a climax before a disappointing but not disappointed crowd of 6,234 at Madison Square Garden.

Phillips Smothers LaSalle

In a third place consolation, the Phillips 63 Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla., smothered a lethargic and tournament weary LaSalle team 92-58, giving the AAU powers a sweep against their collegiate opposition.

The AAU champion Caterpillars and Kansas each sent their main forces to Helsinki in July for the summer Olympics.

Peoria's victory represented the amateur championship of the United States.

The Caterpillars, an experienced team that never lost its poise despite mounting pressure, found an antidote to the towering 6-foot-9 Lovellette with a battery of dead-eye shooters.

Clyde Gets 22

Nevertheless it was Lovellette who brought Peoria honors for the evening although Peoria plaudits frequently amounted to three defenders.

The all-American didn't hit from the floor until eight minutes and 50 seconds of the game elapsed, but he scored a total of 22 points on seven field goals and eight free throws.

Olympic Team Completed

NEW YORK (AP) — The Olympic basketball committee Tuesday night completed the selection of the 14-man squad for the Helsinki games by picking two Phillips Oilers players to join the seven from the University of Kansas and the five from the Peoria (Ill.) Caterpillars.

The two Oilers are Bob Kurland, former Oklahoma A & M star and the only man in the trials to play in the 1948 Olympics, and Wayne Glasgow, former University of Oklahoma player.

Eight alternates, four from AAU teams and four from college fives, also were selected.

The college alternates in order of pick are: Tom Gola, LaSalle freshman; Ron McGilvray, St. John's of Brooklyn; Norm Grekin, LaSalle, and Bill Hamilton, South-west Missouri State college of Springfield.

The AAU selections in order are Jack Stone, Hollywood McGees; Bob Wallace, U. S. air force of Tinker Field, Okla.; Bruce Hefley, U. S. air force and Bill Donovan, Hollywood McGees.

Local Prisoner Freed For Aiding Police To Check Jailbreak

An Iowa City man was released from Johnson county jail Tuesday for helping to prevent a jailbreak there.

Earl M. Ingalls aided Sheriff Albert J. Murphy in frustrating an attempt made by two juveniles to saw their way out of the jail.

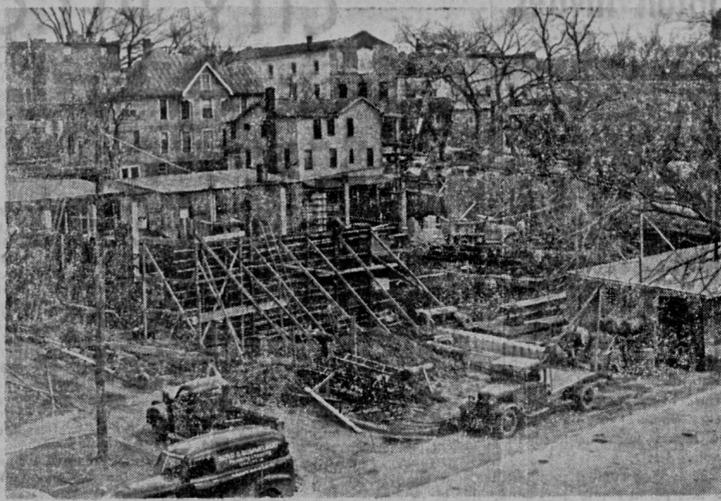

Murphy said several jail bars had been partially sawed. He did not reveal when the attempted break occurred.

He was charged with breaking and entering and entered a plea of innocent Feb. 25.

Med Seniors To Intern in 16 States

Seventy-nine seniors who will graduate from the SUI college of medicine this June have received their internship appointments for the year beginning July 1.

The one-year period, required of all doctors following the regular four-years' study, can be served in any accepted hospital offering internships. The internship is a period of observation and study, after which the doctor may enter into private practice or serve a residency to prepare himself for one of the specialized fields of medicine.

This year's seniors will intern in 16 states, Canada and the Territory of Hawaii. Michigan leads in the number of internships with 14, Iowa comes next with 13 and California follows closely with 11. Five seniors will intern in Hawaii. Other states represented are Missouri, Colorado, Utah, Minnesota, Indiana, Illinois, Washington, Ohio, Maine, Texas, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Wisconsin.

Iowa High School Forensic Finals to Attract 200 Students

Some 200 high school students are expected to be at SUI Thursday for the state finals of the High School Forensic League.

First round events in debate, original oratory and extemporaneous speaking will open the three-day meet for participants representing 50 high schools from all sections of Iowa. The speakers will also enter radio speaking, interpretative speaking and student senate events Friday and Saturday.

Eight four-year fee-reduction scholarships will be awarded by the university, one each to the outstanding speakers in original oratory and extemporaneous speaking classifications, and six to outstanding debaters.

In connection with the forensic league meet and the Iowa Play Production festival taking place at the university this week, an institute for teachers of speech and dramatic art will be held today and Friday. The sessions are planned to enable the high school instructors visiting the campus to exchange ideas and discuss their curriculum problems.
