Ike Gets Delegate Majority In Iowa

Major Industries Face Tieups

Wage Chief Works to Halt Steel Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's wage boss made a flying last ditch effort Friday to head off a Tuesday midnight strike of 700,000 defense-vital steel workers.

"I'm prepared to stay until hell freezes over—if it will help—to settle it," said Nathan Feinsinger, chairman of the wage stabilization board.

He flew in from Washington to an atmosphere of gloom—with the CIO Steelworkers resigned to their first strike since 1949 and the industry already preparing to shut its mills.

Feinsinger held out no immediate hope of peace as he huddled quickly, first with one side and then the other. But he did say: "I hope to be able to reopen negotiations."

They collapsed Thursday in a deadlock over the wage pattern outlined last month by Feinsinger's own WSB. The union wants the pattern with its 17 1/2 cents an hour wage increase. The company won't accept it without a steel price raise of some $12 a ton.

However, even as the new talks were begun, Price Stabilizer Ellis Arnall said in Washington he still cannot see a special price increase for the steel industry.

Under present government price policies, the industry can hope for a steel price increase of only $2 a ton or slightly higher—far below its $12 a ton demand.

Big steel said the WSB recommendations were worth 30 cents an hour to the steel workers and would cost industry $1 billion more a year.

Besides the 17 1/2 cents, the WSB recommended fringe benefits it estimated at worth five cents an hour, plus a union shop.

The industry made a final offer Thursday, which it said would add 16 cents an hour to a steel worker's wages. Phillip Murray said it was only worth 14 1/2 cents and turned it down.

Union Sends Strike Notices
The union then dropped strike notices into the mail, far enough in advance of the deadline to give the steel mills a chance to cool their furnaces before shutting down.

There has been talk in Washington of government seizure of the steel industry, if and when a strike gets underway.

But the industry is ready to go to court in an effort to block such a seizure, which it contends would be illegal "confiscation."

Town Men Schedule New Council Election
The reorganized election of three Town Men representatives to the student council will be April 23. This was announced Friday by a committee of Town Men and members of the student council which met to determine election procedures.

The committee was formed after the regular Town Men election was called "null and void" earlier this week because not all town men were given an opportunity to become candidates.

The committee Friday set April 7-16 as the dates candidates may apply for the three council posts. Applications will be available in the office of student affairs.

Students eligible to become candidates are those single male students who are not pledged to or living in fraternities or dormitories and who are not eligible to vote under any other categories.

Candidates must also be in good academic standing.

City Manager Speaks To Alpha Kappa Psi
City Manager Peter F. Roan spoke on the functions of a city manager at the regular meeting of Alpha Kappa Psi professional commerce fraternity Thursday night.

Telegraphers Stay Out, Hint Phone Walkout

NEW YORK (AP)—Western Union claimed restored service in 48 major cities Friday in the second day of a nation-wide telegraphers strike.

However, the striking AFL Commercial Telegraphers union belittled the company claim and still stood on its statement that the strike was almost 100 per cent effective.

Government Fears Long Strike
Some government circles gloomily looked forward to a long strike.

In some cities, an increase in telephone calls and airmail and special delivery letters was reported in the wake of the Western Union strike.

Although many parts of the nation were without telegram service, the company appeared optimistic about further extensions of service despite its first national strike in 33 years.

Supervisory employees were manning Western Union facilities in many places. In Boston, they were eating and sleeping in the main office.

In many cities, the company claimed employees were disregarding the strike call, despite a union warning of a $100 fine for crossing picket lines.

Demands 50c Hr. Increase
An estimated 31,000 members of the CTU quit work in the first moments of Thursday morning. They are demanding wage increases and other benefits worth an estimated 50 cents an hour per worker. Western Union has not made public any counter-offer.

The shift of telegraph business to telephone lines pointed up the further threat to the nation's communication system if a Monday telephone strike deadline is reached.

An estimated 57,000 telephone workers are demanding unspecified wage adjustments in 43 states.

Both telephone and telegraph workers now earn an average of between $1.53 and $1.63 an hour. However, the two disputes are in no way related.

Hawkeye, Magazine Executive Bids Due

No applications have been received as yet for the positions of editor and business manager of the 1953 Hawkeye and new student humor magazine.

The deadline is Tuesday at 5 p.m.

Candidates must have had experience on the publication, demonstrate executive ability, and have good scholastic standing in the university.

The Hawkeye editor is in charge of editorial work on the publication, and the business manager's responsibilities are advertising, circulation and general business policies.

Students who will have 78 hours or more at the opening of the fall semester and senior standing in the second semester are eligible for Hawkeye editor and business manager. No hour requirement has been set for positions on the humor magazine.

The board of trustees of Student Publications requires that applications include a letter from the registrar certifying good scholastic standing and stating cumulative grade point average through the first semester of 1951-52. After considering the applications, the board will interview the applicants.

Applications may be turned in at the office of the school of journalism, N2, East Hall.

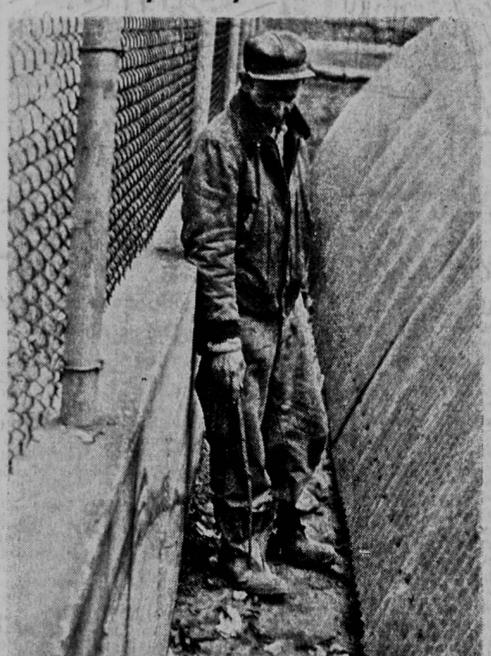

Magazine 'X' Gets 60 Name Entries

Sales of Magazine X, SUI's new humor magazine, reached the 3,050 mark Friday. The magazine made its debut Wednesday.

Friday was the last day the magazine was sold on campus. Copies are still available, however, on newsstands.

The May issue is scheduled to appear April 30 with a name to be chosen from entries submitted by students. About 60 entries had been received by Friday.

Baby's Body Found Here

PAUL FRANTZ, foreman of a construction crew working at the Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric company gas plant, 505 E. Burlington st., points to the spot where the cardboard box containing the body of a newborn baby was found about 9 a.m. Friday near the plant. The fence at the left runs east and west along Burlington st. Building on the right is a quonset hut used by the construction company.

Mystery Surrounds Baby's Death Here

Mystery Friday night continued to surround the death of a newborn baby which was found earlier in the day in a cardboard box at the Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric company plant at 505 E. Burlington st.

The baby, wrapped in rags and a newspaper and placed inside the box, was found about 9 a.m. by James Rogers and Paul Frantz, both of Iowa City, who are employed by the Wildman Construction company. The company is building an addition to the gas plant.

It was reported that an autopsy had been performed on the body, but County Coroner George D. Callahan refused to disclose the results.

'Wasn't Speaking'
Callahan merely said that he "wasn't speaking with reporters." It was not known when Callahan would make a report.

Detective Harland Sprinkle and Deputy Sheriff Don Wilson said the body was that of a baby boy, weighing about seven and one-half pounds. They said it appeared to be "several days old" and "had been dead for sometime."

Wilson also said that the newspaper the baby was wrapped in was a local paper dated March 3.

The box containing the body was found inside the fence along Burlington st. to the east of the main gas plant building. Frantz, who is foreman of the gas plant job, said his workmen had moved steel rods out of the area Thursday afternoon and that the box wasn't there then.

He said a gate connects the fence to the building, and that the gate was unlocked during the night.

Frantz said Rogers called him "within minutes" after finding the cardboard box. Frantz said the box was standing upright, but one of the top flaps was pressed down and a foot was sticking out of the top of the box. Frantz said Rogers told him "that it looked like a doll."

Size of Box
Frantz said he could remember no lettering on the box, which was about 12 inches square and 8 inches deep.

Sprinkle said that animals or rodents had nibbled at the box and body. He took the rags and the newspaper the baby was wrapped in and the box to Des Moines Friday night for laboratory examination.

FBI Will Take Over Hunt for Corruption
WASHINGTON (AP)—James P. McGranery, the new attorney general, said Friday that J. Edgar Hoover and the FBI will be given the job of searching for corruption in government.

"If there is anything wrong, we will find it out," McGranery said at the White House after he had met with President Truman for almost an hour.

The first chore, according to McGranery: "Find out if a clean-up is necessary."

But he seemed to think a clean-up will be needed, for he told reporters, "I think the President is a great man."

Necessity Is the Mother of Invention

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—"Official Business — U.S. Taxpayer." That's the sign J. Allyn Rath puts in his car when he's hard up for a parking space. Then he parks his car near the Minneapolis armory among cars with such signs as "Military Dept. — State of Minnesota," and "Official Business — U.S. Air Force."

Rath, a typesetter, made his sign himself. He uses it only in emergencies, he says, and all in the spirit of fun. So far it has worked fine.

650 Liberal Arts Seniors To Take Scholarship Tests

How much has the liberal arts senior learned in his four years at college? The 650 SUI liberal arts seniors will have an opportunity to find the answer to this question, when they take a test of general scholastic aptitude to be given April 29.

In addition, seniors in 17 departments of the college will be given general comprehensive examinations in their major field in the afternoon.

Two 3-Hour Tests Given
The two three-hour examinations are being given to undergraduates for the first time, without charge, as part of a group program in which SUI has been asked to participate.

The program, sponsored by the Educational Testing service, Princeton, N.J., is given to evaluate knowledge obtained in college, to test scholastic aptitude and to compare the results obtained with other students in the same field.

Students taking the exams will be given reports of their scores, but the scores will have no effect on their regular grades.

Comparison with Other Students
"The student will be able to compare his achievement in his chosen field with that of other students both at SUI and other universities throughout the country," Dean Dewey B. Stuit of the college of liberal arts said Friday.

The examinations will also be used as graduate record examinations and any student who desires his score sent to a graduate college or professional school may do so by paying a transcript fee of $1.

"The information obtained from the results of the tests should be interesting in and of itself, but, in addition, should be helpful in planning for graduate or professional study," Stuit explained.

Earlier Tests Discontinued
SUI had a similar program 10 years ago for all entering graduate students. Since the discontinuation of the earlier program, graduate record examinations have been given on an individual basis at four dates throughout the year. A charge of $10 is made for the service.

The examinations are tests which have not been given previously, and all test items are new. The project has been approved by the committee of educational policy and the executive committee of the college of liberal arts.

Committee Finds Costello Guilty
NEW YORK (AP)—Gambler Frank Costello was found guilty Friday night of contempt of the senate crime investigating committee.

The verdict was returned by a federal court jury which deliberated about seven hours. Costello faces a maximum of 10 years in prison and fines of $10,000.

Two members of the jury had been ousted from the panel earlier in the day by the judge.

The woman juror, Mrs. Helen Louise Mason, the foreman, said the trial judge accused her of being mixed up in a deal to hang the jury and prevent a verdict.

"It's ridiculous," said Mrs. Mason, a housewife.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan ordered the case to proceed after two alternate jurors were named.

A President Grets a Queen

PRESIDENT TRUMAN GREETS QUEEN JULIANA of the Netherlands at a ceremony in Meridian Hill park in Washington. The Queen arrived Friday to present a carillon to the United States in appreciation for its help in liberating her country from the Nazis during World War II. Queen Juliana expressed her sympathy for U.S. taxpayers called on to help pay for European defense. She and Prince Bernhard planned to begin a nationwide tour of the country this morning.

3,030 Choose Goodwin As Committeeman

Goodwin Mrs. Lomas

DES MOINES (AP)—State GOP Chairman Robert K. Goodwin of Des Moines was elected unanimously Friday as Iowa's new Republican national committeeman by a vote of 3,030 delegates to the state convention.

Goodwin was the only nominee for the post and his election by all the delegates was departure from traditional procedure which gave the national convention delegation power to elect the committeeman and committeewoman.

A three-way race developed over the national committeewoman post when three women—Mrs. Gertrude Wilharm, Sumner, state vice-chairman; Mrs. Malcolm Lomas, Red Oak, and Mrs. O. G. Clause, Jefferson, all were nominated for the post.

A roll call then was begun. The rules required that the winner receive a majority of the 3,030 delegate votes.

Mrs. Lomas, seventh district vice-chairman, was elected on the first ballot.

She got 1,729 votes to 879 for Mrs. Wilharm and 421 for Mrs. Clause.

County Delegates Give Ike Slim Edge

(Special to The Daily Iowan)
DES MOINES — The Johnson county delegation favored Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower by a slim majority in discussions at the state GOP convention Friday.

However, the exact majority could not be determined, since there were no votes taken Friday in which the 37 delegates could actually express their preference.

The Johnson county GOP convention last month recommended that the delegates favor Eisenhower 2 to 1.

Here is how the delegation voted Friday in the selection of a national committeewoman: Mrs. Malcolm Lomas, 32; Mrs. Gertrude Wilharm, 3, and Mrs. O. G. Clause, 2.

Several of the planks adopted at the state convention were also adopted at the county convention with slight modifications.

Atty. D. C. Nolan, Iowa City, the Johnson county delegation's only member to be elected to a committee, was named chairman of the resolutions committee Friday. He was elected to the committee Thursday night.

MacKenzie Fails in Bid

(Special to The Daily Iowan)
DES MOINES — Alec MacKenzie, L3, Cedar Rapids, failed Friday in his bid to become a delegate to the national GOP convention.

Herbert Selby, Newton, an Eisenhower supporter, was chosen the Young Republicans representative in the 26-member Iowa delegation.

MacKenzie, state chairman of the Young Republicans, had also favored Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. There were five candidates seeking the Young Republican post.

Some Vets Should Contact SUI Office

The SUI veterans service office is anxious to get in contact with several veterans now attending the university for possible reinstatement of their GI training.

William D. Coder, coordinator of veterans affairs at SUI, said Friday that several graduate students who received their bachelor degrees in February, but neglected to apply for new certificates of eligibility until after graduation, were previously refused certificates by the Veterans administration.

Is Given 15, Taft Receives 9 Delegates

DES MOINES (AP)—Iowa counted Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower the winner Friday over Sen. Robert A. Taft in their battle for the state's national GOP convention votes. The score in delegates: Eisenhower 15, Taft 9, neutral 2.

Eisenhower forces pinned up their victory Friday in a GOP state convention which ended on a note of high excitement and unexpected results.

Taft 'Expected' It
Sen. Taft said: "It's about what we've been expecting in the last three weeks. It's been a very close fight all the way through." He said the two neutral delegates "are pretty certain for me."

Wes Roberts, executive director of the Eisenhower national headquarters in Washington interpreted the convention's action as a "smashing victory" for Eisenhower.

Republican presidential candidate Harold Stassen said "this is just another indication that Taft doesn't have the support he claims."

Predicts Split
But Taft's national campaign manager, David Ingalls, declared: "I think when things get all settled down, the delegates will be pretty well divided between the two."

The delegates will not be instructed to vote for any candidate at the national convention — but most of them either made their choice clear prior to the convention or said they would follow the will of their district delegations.

The surprise ending to the convention came about in this way: State delegates had been fighting for hours to shift the balance of power which seemed solidly set at a dead center between Taft and Eisenhower.

The eight district caucuses elected 16 delegates — two from each district, and they were split 8-8 between the two presidential candidates. After that, it appeared there also would be an even split in the election of 10 delegates at large.

Committee Divided
The task of selecting these at-large delegates (to be approved by the whole convention) was given to the convention's nominating committee. The committee was evenly divided between Taft and Eisenhower backers.

The committee struggled in a hotel room for more than three hours in what seemed like a deadlock. But shortly after 5 p.m. the committee gave its report to the convention. It assured Eisenhower seven and Taft one of the 10 delegates-at-large.

14-Point Platform; Includes Farm Plank

DES MOINES (AP)—The Iowa Republican convention Friday adopted a 14-point plank including the farm plank of the Iowa Republican farm council. The platform committee report drew no opposition on the floor.

The farm plank is expected to be submitted for the consideration of the party's national convention.

No changes were made in the council suggestions, as previously announced. These proposed an ever-normal granary, local control of farm programs established by a bi-partisan board and a permanent system of standby agricultural price supports for distress periods.

The plank on foreign policy said: "We cannot retreat to our own shores and abandon other peace loving nations."

The resolutions did not mention the Taft-Hartley act by name but said as to labor:

"We favor the present labor-management relations act, subject to changes which experience may indicate to be necessary."

Another plank recommended that the proposed national presidential preference primary be favorably considered by the legislatures of the various states.

On the matter of controls the platform said, "We deplore the continuation of so-called emergencies for the sole purpose of retaining controls over our economy by the executive branch of our government."

4 Tornadoes Rip Southern States, Kill 6 Persons

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A quartet of small but vicious tornadoes, one a killer, struck across Louisiana, Alabama and northwest Florida early Friday bringing death to six persons, injuries to at least 60 others, and property damage estimated in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

All of the dead and 58 of the injured were in Louisiana, hit by two of the four tornadoes born in the winds and rains of a squall that lashed eastwardly across the gulf coast states.

The other two tornadoes hit with heavy damage, but without reported loss of life, at the municipal airport area at Mobile, Ala., where two persons were injured by flying bricks from a school building; and along the beach area outside Panama City, Fla.

Four of the six killed by one tornado in Louisiana were members of a farm family at Arnaudville, a little farming town in the heart of the French speaking Cajun country 10 miles northeast of Lafayette. The Arnaudville area was the hardest hit of all with 24 others injured requiring hospital treatment, and uncounted but extensive property damage.

The New Orleans weather bureau said the tornadoes were developed in a squall that formed in east Texas and moved across Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, northwest Florida and into southwest Georgia.

Danger from the storm was reported as probably being past, but the weather bureau said it would not likely terminate its tornado warnings until later.

Dixie Flags Ordered Off 4 Navy Ships

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The navy has ordered the destroyer division 122 — known as the Dixie division because all of its skippers come from the south — to cease flying the Confederate flag.

Charles E. Crocker, retired investment broker who had written Navy Secretary Kimball suggesting some disciplinary action, said he had read a story saying the division displayed the Confederate flag in Hong Kong. His letter of complaint said:

"I can imagine the feelings of the northerners and really patriotic members of the crew of the ships involved."

He received a reply Thursday from Capt. R. S. Benson who said: "On checking we discovered that as all four commanding officers of the division were born in the south the division became known informally as the Dixie division. On departing from Hong Kong two of the ships displayed small southern flags at signal yards. Each destroyer of course flew the national ensign at the staff, the regularly assigned display vantage point where all men-of-war show their national colors. Instructions have been issued to the division commander to discontinue the display of unauthorized flags."

Interlude

"Yea, now that you mention it, she is kind of a party girl!"

NOTES FROM CINEMA-LAND: 20th Century Fox is filming a "spine-tingling" murder-mystery using the ideal background-site—Niagara Falls . . . Also in the making is a comedy starring four of Hollywood's top blondes and called "The Greeks Had A Word For It"—the Golden Age or the Hellenistic Period?

FILM BIOGRAPHIES in the making include Susan Hayward as Rachel Jackson in a movie based on the best-seller "The President's Wife" . . . Marilyn Monroe as Jean Harlow . . . David Wayne as impresario Sol Hurok.

Moving to the sound stages is Broadway's "Call Me Madame" starring Ethel Merman and George Sanders . . . Also to be filmed is Damon Runyan's tale "Blood-hounds of Broadway" . . . films separated from the university except for faculty advisors and those working on it. The ones working on the magazine are in a magazine laboratory class. The use of coated stock paper would have cost an estimated $800 in running some 3,000 copies off the press. As it is, the cost for printing this first issue was about $300.

Another criticism was that some jokes used were old. As one student put it, "I heard that one when I was in grade school." How many magazines are read today in which people do not find something that they have read, seen or heard before? The answer is obvious.

The magazine had one strike against it before it was ever printed. Think how many magazines have been started on this campus and have failed. Think how many students have worked to try to make those magazines a success.

It is natural, then, to look on the new humor magazine subjectively and expect it to fail also. Is this what is to happen? It need not if the students will criticize constructively and help accomplish what has been the desire of this campus for years—a successful humor magazine.

Russia Is Changing Her Tune; Pressure Eased

By J. M. ROBERTS JR., Associated Press News Analyst

Russia's latest maneuvers in the cold war suggest she may have decided that the tension, which she inspired in the hope of causing the West to wreck its economy, has become too dangerous.

She may have learned that she is frightening the Allies into a unity they would never enjoy otherwise, such as that which is developing in Western Europe. She is hoping to cool the ardor for Franco-German cooperation by easing the pressure.

Heretofore she has frequently acted in such fashion to promote Western mobilization at a critical times, perhaps in the hope of overextending the Allies.

She may have decided to back off now until the West goes to sleep again. Or she may have decided that the Allies have become too strong, and that war must be avoided at all costs.

The significant developments are these: There is a noticeable lessening of tension in the Korean truce talks.

Russia has reversed her field in Germany to suggest a unified Germany with a national army, rather than see West Germany fall completely into the arms of the West.

Izvestia Echoes Stalin
Izvestia, official publication of the Kremlin, has chosen to echo the views expressed by Stalin that coexistence of capitalism and communism is possible and that all issues are negotiable. This is either a direct invitation to peace talks, or an attempt to regain the "peace offensive" initiative lost to the Allies because of their disarmament proposals in Paris.

More noticeable as an indication of a desire to face realities is the conduct of the current economic conference in Moscow which was shunned by the Allies as more propaganda.

It was agreed at the start of the sessions that the platform would not be used for comparing communism and capitalism — in other words, for propaganda. At least on the surface, effort was being made to reach world interest in resumed trade on a strictly business basis.

There is a school of objectors thought in the West which always believed the best hope for peace with Russia lay in mutual profitable trade. Russia needs Western equipment for her industrial revolution, and she needs products as well as gold which to pay.

The trouble has been that the threatening military buildup made it necessary for the West to deny her anything which might make her stronger in any way. The sole hope for peace lies in the possibility of Russian changes of Russia's recognition that she can do better as part of, rather than an enemy of, the world. This change can take place within the framework of totalitarianism is utterly unbelievable. It changes in that which are watched for.

Salesman Arrested On Morals Charge
DES MOINES (AP)—An auto license number written in lipstick on a purse mirror by a 18-year-old Des Moines girl has resulted in the arrest of a Des Moines salesman on morals charges.

Norman William Teer, 29, was arrested at his home Thursday and is being held in the Warren county jail.

Teer is accused of enticing the girl into his auto on the pretense of driving her home. The girl told officials Teer instead drove her to Warren county, where he stopped and began making improper advances.

She said she fled from the car to a nearby farm house. Warren county Sheriff John Taylor said Teer signed a written statement in which he admitted making improper advances to the girl.

Style Varies

Irene Dunne Suggests Classic Lines

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—How does a gal get on best-dressed lists? Irene Dunne offers a few hints. She was recently named one of the best-dressed women of America.

How does she do it? "Perhaps it is because of the way I buy clothes. I don't buy many, but what I do buy are of the best. When I look for an outfit, I don't want one that will merely last for a season. I make sure the clothes are well made and I generally pick things along classic lines. It's not unusual for my things to last six or eight years.

"If styles change and hems go up, I buy a dress that fits the current style. But I still have a basic wardrobe which can be worn in any year, regardless of the change of style. "I think you'll find that the women who consistently make the best-dressed lists do not follow the latest styles. For instance, I'm sure you would never find the Duchess of Windsor and Mrs. William Paley buying the same dress."

Miss Dunne pointed out that she brought only three dresses back from a recent trip to Paris. She believes American designers have a better understanding of the clothing needs for U.S. women. On the other hand, she admires the Parisian enthusiasm for dress design. "It's exciting to be in Paris when the style showings are going on," she remarked. "The French have a verve for new fashions that is lacking here."

Part of SUI Library To Be Air Conditioned For Summer Session

The smoking lounge and the east wings of the second and third floors of the SUI library will be air conditioned this summer, Jack Wesenberg, student council representative on the SUI library committee, told the council Thursday night.

He said funds aren't available at this time to provide conditioning units for the west wings.

The library committee has decided to keep the library open until midnight on Fridays, following Easter vacation, unless attendance drops below 75 persons during a trial period, he said.

The committee is also considering plans to allow the "guard" at the door to sign out books after 10 p.m.

Wesenberg said students can inquire at the information desk about music room and microfilm facilities now available at the library.

Carl Zimmerman, chairman of the student council book exchange committee, said 70 books unclaimed after the recent sale have been given to the YWCA book drive.

Final reports from this year's council will be given at the next meeting, Thursday, April 17, when the new council will be installed.

Members of both councils can attend the annual dinner to be held the preceding night, April 16, at 6:30 p.m. in the River room of the Iowa Union.

What every young man should know

Diamonds aren't all alike. They may vary in many ways and in many degrees. All of these differences may not be desirable in the diamond you buy for your sweetheart, so you should know what you're giving. You don't get much practice in buying diamond rings. Fuiks' jewelers know this, so they are ready and willing and able to help you select the right diamond.

Hey Kids! Kite Flying is Fun... But FLY 'EM SAFELY!

FLYING a kite is a lot of fun. But it can be dangerous, too, unless a few easy rules are followed.

Listed below are four important "don'ts" to remember next time you "take to the air" with a kite.

By playing safe, and following these simple rules, you'll enjoy all the fun of kite flying, and there'll be no danger of a serious accident to yourself or to your playmates.

Reddy says, "Safety pays—play safe!"

LEARN THESE REDDY RULES FOR SAFE FLYING:

- ★ Don't use a kite with metal ribs or a kite string of wire or tinsel. Use only cotton cord.
- ★ Don't attempt to climb poles to release a kite or try to release it by throwing stones at it.
- ★ Don't use wet cord. It's as dangerous as a wire if it contacts electric lines.
- ★ Don't run across streets or highways when flying a kite.

Beau's at Home with Shoes

FEELING RIGHT AT HOME while shining shoes at the Atlanta National country club is Beau Jack, former lightweight champion of the world. Jack became a fighter while working at the club as a youngster, and won the championship in 1943. He now works at the course site of the Masters tourney between fights. His last bout was a losing effort against Gil Turner in Philadelphia.

Snead Grabs Masters Lead With 67 Round

AUGUSTA, GA. (AP) — Sam Snead, playing bold and near-perfect golf, took the lead in the Masters tournament Friday with a 36-hole score of 137.

One stroke off the pace in the opening round with 70, the long-driving veteran from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., shot a sharp 67 to rush out in front.

That total was seven strokes under par for the two rounds and five under Friday for the 6,950-yard Augusta National course, whose par is 36-36-72. It didn't exactly shake off all pursuit, for little Ben Hogan, always a strong finisher, still was out playing par golf when Snead finished. Hogan also had an opening round of 70.

Hogan's 70 in Rain
Hogan, playing through showers that sent spectators seeking cover, finished with another 70, two under par, and a two-day total of 140. That gave him second place and a two-stroke edge over Tommy Bolt of Durham, N.C., Jim Ferrier of San Francisco, and Johnny Revolta, of Evanston, Ill.

And a new challenger turned up Friday when Jack Burke, the curly-haired Houston, Tex., hot-shot, matched Snead's round of

Araujo Gets TKO Over Older Riley In Impressive Debut

NEW YORK (AP) — George Araujo, a 20-year-old lightweight with the poise of a veteran, made a sensational New York and television debut Friday night by stopping Charley Riley of St. Louis in 106 of the ninth round of a 10-rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

It was the 29th straight victory for the Providence, R. I., contender, a 1 to 6 favorite. Araujo outwitted his rival, 134 to 128. The once-beaten Negro, who hasn't lost a bout in 2½ years, treated the 28-year-old veteran as if he was a novice. He swept every round with a varied assortment of punches and rarely gave the 5 foot 2½-inch westerner a moment's letup.

Araujo beat Riley in Providence in a 10-rounder last December. The youngster never floored his chunky rival but he might have if referee Pety Scalo had not stopped the affair in the ninth. George had just rattled a volley of lefts and rights against Riley's bleeding nose when the official intervened. Dr. Vincent Nardiello had inspected Riley in his corner after the eighth round.

The New Englander drew blood from Riley's nose in the second round and it dripped from then on.

Riley had just one good moment. At the start of the sixth he drove Araujo into a corner and banded him with two hard rights and a left to the head. But the classy Araujo rallied with a series of left hooks to more than make up that deficit.

It was the 42d victory in 43 starts for Araujo who is seeking a title fight with lightweight champion Jimmy Carter. It was the 5th time Riley has been stopped in 78 bouts of which he now has lost 22.

A crowd of 1,969 paid $3,976 for the nationally telecast and broadcast bout.

67. Burke, winner of four straight tournaments on the winter circuit, started with a 76. His total of 143 hardly constituted a serious threat, but he could become one by continuing to play that kind of golf.

Ferrier Hits 33 on 9
Ferrier, the former Australian, burned up the difficult back nine Friday for a score of 37-33-70. He had an even par 72 Thursday.

Bolt shot his second straight 71. So did veteran Revolta.

Second only to Snead and Burke in Friday's scoring was Dave Douglas of Newark, Del. He carded 33-36-69 after an opening round of 76.

Tied with Burke at 143 were one of Thursday's leaders, Johnny Palmer of Badin, N.C., George Fazio of Pine Valley, N.J., and amateur Harvie Ward of Tarboro, N.C.

Ray Gafford, the tall Texan who shared the first-day lead with Palmer, slumped to an 80 Friday.

Duggan, Myers Win in Olympic Trials at Omaha

OMAHA — Iowa's wrestling captain, Phil Duggan, advanced to the third round of the Omaha District Olympic tryouts Friday night by taking a fall and decision in two opening matches.

George Myers, runnerup for the NCAA's 191-pound championship this year, kept pace with Duggan by pinning his first round opponent, Lew Dickey of Kansas City, Mo., in 2:28.

Iowa's other entry in the meet, heavyweight Dean Lansing, lost a first round decision to Don Jensen of Ames, 21-11. In his second round match, Lansing was pinned by Frank Ruvolo of Omaha.

Duggan's first victory came as he pinned Omaha's Ron Abboud in 10:12.5. In his second match, Duggan took a unanimous decision from Newton's Dean Lufkin.

The Hawkeye captain is entered in the 125½-pound class.

Race Track Plans Presidential Primary

LAUREL, MD. (AP) — Who's going to win the race? Taft? Eisenhower? Kefauver? or Russell. They'll all race here April 17.

Horses nicknamed for eight possible nominees were entered Friday for the "Presidential Sweepstakes" at the Laurel race track. There'll also be a "Dark Horse." And a "Truman's Choice."

Take your pick, but sorry, no betting allowed—officially, that is. The sweepstakes will be a special race in addition to the eight regular events.

John D. Schapiro, Laurel president, got his idea for the race from a politician's comment that "This year's political campaign promises to be a real horse race, especially now that President Truman has been scratched from the nation's biggest sweepstakes in which the winner takes all."

Since Laurel is only 20 miles from the nation's capital, "it is only natural that we should bring the candidates together on our race track during this most important election year," says Schapiro with a straight face.

Horses in the race will carry the names of Sen. Taft (R-O), Gen. Eisenhower, Gov. Warren, Harold Stassen, Gen. MacArthur, Sen. Kefauver, Sen. Russell and Sen. Kerr.

The racing will be done by stable ponies. And they aren't thoroughbreds.

Class A Runners Meet Today

East Weaker; Expect New State Champ

By LEE CANNING

A new class A high school track champion probably will be crowned today in the field house. The meet is divided into afternoon and evening sections. Finals in the pole vault, 440-yard run and the two-mile relay will be held in the first half plus preliminaries in the 50-yard dash and the low and high hurdles. The remainder of the finals will be held at night.

Starting time is 1:30 in the afternoon and 7 for the evening.

East Weakened

East Des Moines, winner of the 1950 meet and a repeater in 1951, doesn't appear to have enough top performers or balanced strength to take a third straight title. The Scarletts will be challenged by:

1. Des Moines Roosevelt — winner of the Iowa AAU junior division meet.

2. Davenport — champion of the Mississippi Valley conference.

3. Clinton — runnerup to Davenport for the Valley title.

4. Ottumwa — ruler of the Little Six.

5. Ames — contender from the Central Iowa loop.

Fred Lucas, East's 50-yard dash standout, is back to defend his state title won last year. George Brewer of Des Moines North already holds one victory over Lucas this season in the AAU and three other dash men rate chances of beating both runners.

Strong Dash Field

Ellis Kondora of Iowa City, Bob Lear of Keokuk and Gary Ram-

seyer of Muscatine all have been timed in :05.6 for the 50. This time was good enough to win the AAU championship.

The 440-yard run also has its 1951 winners returning. Larry Thomas of Centerville and Ira Dunsforth of Davenport were quarter-mile section kings last year and both figure to finish high today.

Newton Holds Surprise

Newton's Keith Nimmo could surprise the 880 field and take the championship. The Newton runner has the best time, 2:04, of any competitor for the half.

Nimmo also tops the list of mile entries with a time of 4:41. Loren Wulf of Davenport and Ron Jackson of Council Bluffs Abraham Lincoln follow him.

Davenport's 880-yard relay outfit and East's mile relay team appear to be the best in those divisions.

Rookie Gets No-Hitter As Phils Clip Cards, 3-0

SAVANNAH, GA. (AP) — Steve Ridzik, Philadelphia Phillies' young rookie, hurled a no-hit, no-run game Friday as the Phils downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-0, in an exhibition game.

The 22-year-old righthander from Yonkers, N. Y., walked four and hit three batters but tightened when control was needed in the pinch. In hurling his no-hitter, Ridzik ran his string of Grapefruit league hitless innings to 11 and his scoreless string to 17 innings.

Ridzik's no-hit triumph was the second of the spring exhibition games.

Jim Hearn and Monte Kennedy of the New York Giants turned in a 10-0 no-hit, no-run triumph against the Chicago Cubs on March 17 in Los Angeles.

The Phillies' third baseman, Willie Jones, banged out a two-run homer to spark the winners' attack.

Giants Stop Cleveland

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The New York Giants rebounded from a seven-game losing streak to the Indians by trouncing Cleveland, 5-3, in exhibition baseball Friday.

The Giants, behind 2-0 at the end of three innings, tied it up in the fourth and pushed across a pair of runs in the fifth on two singles, a walk and an Indian bobble to take the lead to stay.

Bob Feller pitched the first three frames for the Indians, allowing no runs and only one hit. It wasn't until Early Wynn replaced Feller that the National League champions got going.

Chisox 5, Browns 4

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox Friday concluded spring exhibition engagements with the St. Louis Browns, losing 5-4 on a wind swept field.

Tommy Byrne, ex-New York Yankee, contributed an eight hit pitching job and a key double to the Sox defeat that evened the series at two games each.

Howard Judson, opposing Byrne, pitched well until the seventh inning when the Browns scored three runs to take the lead.

Reds 3, Nats 2

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds made it three in a row over the Washington Senators Friday winning, 3-2, as right-hander Ewell Blackwell blanked the Nats after the second inning.

Washington took a 2-0 lead in the second but the National league club rapped four hits and three runs in the fourth. Walter Post's circuit smash started the rally.

Dodgers Get Shutout

MONTGOMERY, ALA. (AP) — Chris Van Cuyk and Clem Labine shut out the Boston Braves on nine hits Friday as the Brooklyn Dodgers' took a 7-0 exhibition game.

Baseball, Golf, Tennis Teams Leave on Trips

Spring trips which take the baseball players and golfers to Arizona and the tennis squad to Missouri and Kansas for competition until April 12 now are under way for Iowa athletes.

Twenty-two baseball players and eight golfers are enroute to Tucson, Ariz., and eight tennis players open the season Saturday against the University of Missouri at Columbia.

The baseball team has the unusual task of playing one team, the University of Arizona, on three afternoons and three evenings April 7 to 12.

Meanwhile, the golf team, coached by Bucky O'Connor, will have six meets with Arizona, Colorado and four other teams at Tucson.

Captain Otto Vogel named these men for the trip:

Infielders:
Jack Lundquist, Frank Bok, Jack Hess, Tom Stenger, Don Waldron, Jim Citek.

Outfielders:
Jack McKinney, Bob Scheyll, Bob Heiss and Duane Brandt.

Remove Injured Eye Of Cardinal Rookie

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The injured left eye of baseball pitcher Bob Slaybaugh was removed in an emergency operation at Barnes hospital Friday.

Dr. S. Albert Manser, who performed the operation, said a rupture at the rear of the eyeball forced the removal.

Slaybaugh, 20-year-old left-hander, was reported in good condition after the operation. His mother came here several days ago from their home in Hartsville, Ohio.

Slaybaugh, property of the St. Louis Cardinals, was struck in the eye by a line drive during batting practice more than two weeks ago at St. Petersburg, Fla.

The youngster was with the Redbirds' Omaha club. He had a 17-10 record with Goldsboro, N.C., last year.

Edean Anderson Gains Tran Semis

PHOENIX, ARIZ. (AP) — An amazing 22-hole battle landed blond Edean Anderson of Helena, Mont., in the semi-finals of the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament Friday.

The 21-year-old tournament medalist, two down with two holes to go, rallied on the final greens to defeat Grace DeMoss of Corvallis, Ore., one up.

The spectacular fight overshadowed the other matches of the day.

Joining Miss Anderson in the round of four were Mrs. Cliff Prather, Phoenix; Mrs. Lyle Bowman, Richmond, Calif., and Marjorie Lindsay, Curtis Cup player from Decatur, Ill.

The baseball team has the unusual task of playing one team, the University of Arizona, on three afternoons and three evenings April 7 to 12.

Meanwhile, the golf team, coached by Bucky O'Connor, will have six meets with Arizona, Colorado and four other teams at Tucson.

Captain Otto Vogel named these men for the trip:

Post-Season Games, TV on NCAA Docket

CHICAGO (AP) — Leaders of the National Collegiate Athletic association will study reports on post-season competition and a 1952 television program at a three-day session starting today.

Sunday and Monday, the 17-member NCAA council will hold its first sessions since the 46th annual NCAA convention at Cincinnati in January.

The NCAA's extra events committee meets today to review its study of football bowl games and other post-season competition. The study will continue throughout the year. The NCAA has banned new commitments for post-season competition pending the final report of the extra events committee.

Raff Denies Formal Bid For Arizona State Job

Former Iowa football coach Leonard Raffensperger Friday denied published reports that he had formally applied for the head coaching job at Arizona State college.

"I have only written inquiring about the position," Raffensperger said. "They have made no offer and no meeting with them has been arranged."

He added that consideration of the job may affect his decision to remain at Iowa in the athletic department.

In a wire story from Tempe, Ariz., where the college is located, it was said that Raffensperger had formally applied for the job, but Raff said Friday it was in no way an application. The story further said that he, along with former Indiana coach Clyde Smith and Walter Barnes of the Philadelphia Eagles, is under consideration for the post.

The job was made available by the resignation of Larry Siemering, former coach at College of the Pacific. Siemering's resignation still has not been cleared by the state board of regents in Arizona.

Siemering resigned in the heat of a controversy over the eligibility of a player who was allegedly a transfer student from the Big Ten that did not wait the necessary year before continuing with his varsity career. The charges also said the player played under an assumed name and that the coach was aware of the situation.

Raffensperger completed his duties as head coach shortly after the first of the year, and has since been offered another job in the athletic department. He has not yet announced his decision.

Mention Hawaii Coach As Hawkeye Grid Aide

It was rumored Friday night that Archie Kondros, head coach at the University of Hawaii, will become the fifth member of Iowa coach Forest Evashevski's staff.

Evashevski said in Davenport Thursday night that he hoped to announce his selection of the last aide by March 15, the opening day of spring football practice.

He added that the approval of the president of the proposed man's university was all that was holding up completion of the transaction. Evashevski was not available for comment Friday night.

Cancer Crusade Quota Set

Johnson county's quota in the 1952 Cancer Crusade, which opens April 28, will be $6,713, part of which SUI students and faculty will be asked to raise.

This was announced Friday by Prof. Donald E. Metzler of the college of engineering, county chairman.

The national quota is $16 million and the state quota, $331,880.

62 Deaths in 1951

Last year 62 persons in Johnson county died of cancer. Metzler said he believes about one-third of these deaths could have been prevented, if the persons had been given proper information.

About $172,000 or nearly 36 per cent of all funds contributed in last year's Iowa Cancer Crusade is now being spent on research—$45,000 being granted to SUI in January.

In the past four years, $190,000 has been given to SUI directly by the Iowa division with an additional $39,000 granted from national headquarters.

SUI Research Termed Best

Last summer, the SUI research program was termed "the best program of cancer research of any American cancer society division I have yet seen" by Cornelius P. Rhoads, director of the Memorial Hospital for Cancer and Allied Diseases in New York city.

Thirteen SUI scientists and doctors are participating in 12 cancer research projects at University hospitals.

Metzler said that one out of five Iowans now living will have cancer and one out of every six will die of it. Iowa had about 4,000 deaths from cancer last year with 220,000 Americans dying nationally.

VA Volunteers Oriented in Hospital Work

Volunteer workers at the Iowa City Veterans hospital attended the first in a series of orientation and indoctrination courses held at the hospital Friday night.

Volunteer workers will be assigned to assist in social services, physical medicine, or special services on a number of assignments. These services include work as staff assistants, information clerk, recreation hostess, projectionists, ushers for chaplaincy service, escort hostess for wheel chair patients, and other assignments.

Those appearing on the program were Dr. L. E. Stilwell, hospital manager; James Hurson, assistant manager; L. E. Hunn, chairman of voluntary services, and Miss Marion Dunn, chief nurse.

The orientation series will cover general information relative to the services, policies, and procedures of the hospital. It will show the volunteer workers how the hospital functions and acquaint them with the various services available.

The need for volunteer workers at the present time is not great, said L. E. Hunn, but with increased patient load, assignments will open up and a number of volunteers will be needed.

Annual Design Show Is Open to Public

"New Forms in the 20th Century," the SUI art department's fourth annual design show, is now open to the public in the main gallery of the art building from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays and from 2 to 5 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

A design which has attracted a great deal of attention is a plan for a restaurant, supposedly located between Cedar Rapids and Iowa City.

Also notable are the house designs and models in the show. Steel, stone and glass are used to provide spacious rooms for comfortable living.

The exhibit reflects striking proof that the engineer and the artist may work together in harmony.

Couple Robs To Furnish Their Home

FT. MADISON (AP) — A newly wedded Ft. Madison couple was sentenced to 10-year reformatory terms Friday for furnishing their apartment by a series of burglaries.

Bill (Junior) Johnson, 22 and his 26-year-old bride, Hazel, both pleaded guilty to burglary charges and were sentenced by District Judge James Barrows.

County Attorney Robert N. Johnson said the pair systematically robbed an appliance store, a drug store, a hardware store, and a furniture store to equip themselves with the things a young married couple needs.

Three of the burglaries occurred in Ft. Madison and the furniture store burglary took place at Kahoka, Mo.

Police Chief Roy Poling said young Johnson used his employer's truck on the sly to haul away the loot from Kahoka which included three lamps, a coffee table, 10 small rugs, two chairs and an ironing board.

Poling said their apartment was "so filled with loot you could hardly walk through it." It included a coffee-maker, radio, food mixer, electric razor, waffle iron and silverware.

Truman Praises NATO at 3d Anniversary

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman said Friday the North Atlantic Treaty alliance is steadily raising the odds against World War III and is marshalling the strength to ward off any attack.

But Secretary of State Acheson warned that "danger is still with us — the hardest part of the task lies ahead."

The President and his top cabinet officer presented these views at ceremonies marking the third anniversary of the signing of the original 12-nation Atlantic treaty on April 4, 1949. Since then, Greece and Turkey have joined the coalition of Western allies in a common defense against the threat of Soviet aggression.

Queen Juliana of the Netherlands, her husband, Prince Bernhard, and numerous high officials attended the ceremonies in Constitution Hall.

President Truman took occasion to hit out at advocates of this country withdrawing from Europe's troubles, declaring that "peace through neutrality and isolation... never will work."

The President also struck back at Soviet propaganda blasts accusing the Western alliance of being a war-making organization and a threat to Russia.

"The North Atlantic treaty is an instrument of peace," Truman said emphatically.

Basin Commission Prepares Program For River Study

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Missouri River Basin Survey commission Friday completed its preliminary organization for a comprehensive study of what to do about droughts and floods in the 10-state basin.

The 11-member commission, appointed last February by President Truman, voted to establish its permanent headquarters at Lincoln, Neb.; hired an executive director as a staff administrator and agreed on a series of public hearings to begin the latter part of April and to continue through May and June.

A five-point program outlining the scope of its study was released by the commission. The points are:

1. Review existing and proposed plans for the development, protection and use of land and water resources in the basin.
2. Conduct on-the-site surveys and appraisals and hold public hearings.
3. Consider the estimated costs and benefits of projects and programs and the economic soundness of development proposals.
4. Consult with state representatives and other groups within the basin.
5. Consider the proper division of financial responsibility between the federal government and the states for resources development.

Moderator for the day course will be C. K. Jefferson, assistant circulation manager of the Des Moines Register and Tribune.

Highlighting the program will be a panel on newspaper carrier salesmen. Lectures will be given on topics in the fields of direct mail subscriptions, newspaper promotion and newspaper pricing by leading circulation managers from midwestern states.

The committee planning the short course includes Edwin Mill, circulation manager of the Davenport Democrat and Times; E. J. Liechty, circulation manager of the Cedar Rapids Gazette; Jefferson, and Wilber Peterson, head of the school of journalism's bureau of newspaper service and its media management sequence.

About 70 circulation managers attended last year's short course, including participants from Utah, Texas, Idaho, Illinois, Kentucky, Arkansas, Indiana and Iowa.

Student Kills Wife, Stays with Body 1 Week, Surrenders

CHICAGO (AP) — A graduate student Friday was charged with murder after police said he signed a statement that he shot his wife and stayed with her body for a week before surrendering.

Harold Roland Markham, 35, told officers he shot his wife, Mary Elizabeth, 35, during a quarrel March 27. Until Thursday night, he said, he remained in their two-room home writing notes, eating hard boiled eggs and trying to get the nerve to kill himself.

Markham's statement said he and his wife quarreled the evening of March 27 and that she told him she was going to leave him.

"This seemed to me too much, all seemed lost, and yet I felt that I just had to talk her out of it," the statement said. "It was complete turmoil."

The statement related that Markham grabbed a gun owned by his wife "and I shot right at her." Police said Mrs. Markham was shot twice in the face and once in the back.

Markham's statement said he instantly regretted the shooting and tried to stop the flow of blood, but that he gradually realized his wife was dead. Then, he said, he attempted to "set the stage" and kill himself so both deaths would appear to be the result of a suicide pact.

New Gambling Tax Law Nets 2 Million Dollars

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government registered 17,656 professional gamblers in the first four months of the new gambling tax law and collected more than two million dollars from them.

But their business evidently is in the doldrums.

This was indicated Friday by a revenue bureau report which showed two out of three of the gamblers did not list any business for January in their reports filed in February.

House Bans Post At Vatican Unless Senate Okays Man

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Friday voted to ban the establishment of a diplomatic mission at the Vatican unless the senate confirms the mission head.

The vote came on a provision written into the state department appropriation bill for the year beginning July 1.

An effort to eliminate the provision was defeated on a standing vote of 159 to 82.

Rep. Prince Preston Jr. (D-Ga.), who sponsored the clause in the appropriations committee, said it was designed primarily to prevent President Truman from making a recess appointment of an ambassador to the Vatican or in setting up a mission there without congressional approval.

Preston said Truman still could appoint a personal representative to the Vatican, paying him from executive funds.
