U.S. Seizure Averts Steel Strike

Taft Decisively Beats Eisenhower In Illinois Primary

Industry Says It Will Fight Truman Order

They're in 2d Childhood

"WE'RE JUST A COUPLE OF KIDS AT HEART," agree Jack Frouty, A2, Cedar Rapids, and Sue Higdon, A2, Webster City, as they rehearse a skit called "Hellzippoppin'" for the all-campus carnival April 19. The setup is for a "when we were a couple of kids" number and Jack is clad over the teddy-bear present Sue has made for him.

House Votes to Extend Truman's War Powers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The house late Tuesday passed a stop-gap bill to extend President Truman's emergency war powers after the Japanese treaty takes effect.

There was no formal vote. The house merely accepted by unanimous consent the recommendation for extension voted earlier Tuesday by its judiciary committee.

The senate judiciary committee also voted extension Tuesday, but it wrote in a ban on government seizure of industries other than public utilities, under the emergency powers.

Look Toward Steel Strike
The senate proviso was aimed directly at the situation growing out of the threat of a steel strike Tuesday night.

The talk of steel seizure had centered largely on the possibility of action under the "inherent powers" of the presidency, with no suggestion that war emergency laws provided the authority. Nevertheless the senate judiciary committee decided to emphasize that nothing in the extension would permit seizure of non-utility plants.

Otherwise, the measure, calling for a 60-day extension to July 1, was along the lines of the one accepted by the house judiciary group.

Want Pre-Easter Vote
A vote will be sought before the house quits business Thursday for an Easter recess. A bill for long-term extension awaits action later.

The President sent an urgent request for such legislation to the capitol Thursday, pointing out that the alternatives to it were delaying the effective date of the peace pact or dropping powers which he said are needed in the current emergency.

Prof. David Stout Given Fellowship

Prof. David Stout of the department of sociology and anthropology has been awarded a faculty study fellowship by the American Council of Learned Societies.

One of only a few such fellowships to be awarded, it will enable Stout to divide his time equally during the next academic year between his teaching duties and a program of independent study.

Stout expects to pursue a study of art among the primitive, or non-literate peoples of the world.

Stassen 2d in GOP Balloting; Kefauver Unopposed for Demos

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio swept to an impressive victory early this morning in the Illinois GOP primary on a tide of votes that swamped a write-in effort for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Taft ran far ahead of both Eisenhower and Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota in a race that never was in doubt from the start.

With more than one-third of the state's 9,610 precincts counted, Taft was leading Stassen 6-1 and Eisenhower — in third place — by more than 7-1. Taft and Stassen were on the GOP ballot, while the General's votes were write-ins.

In the Democratic primary, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee piled up a huge vote in his unopposed preferential race for president.

There had been expectations that write-in drives would develop strength for Eisenhower in the GOP race and for Illinois Gov. Adlai Stevenson on the Democratic ballot. But a comparatively small percentage of Illinois voters appeared to have taken the trouble to write-in their votes.

On the basis of returns from 3,441 of the state's 9,610 precincts, it appeared Taft would poll an ultimate total of 685,000 votes to 93,000 for Eisenhower.

Incomplete returns indicated that Taft men may win almost all the 50 GOP national convention delegate posts. But Kefauver — despite his showing in the primary — could not count on any of the 50 elected Democratic delegates.

The state Democratic organization is expected to give the delegate vote to Stevenson in case he enters the presidential race.

The elected delegates — and the 10 others to be named later by each party convention — are not bound by the results of the presidential popularity contest.

The vote totals from 3,963 of 9,610 precincts showed:
REPUBLICANS — Taft, 290,211; Stassen, 47,467; Eisenhower, 93,249.

DEMOCRATS — (3,409 precincts) Kefauver, 207,074.

Prof. Vasey Heads Local ADA Group

Prof. Wayne Vasey, director of the SUI school of social work, was elected president of the newly organized Johnson county chapter of Americans of Democratic Action at a meeting Tuesday night in Schaeffer hall.

Other officers elected were the Rev. Alfred Henriksen, Duane Hill, Charles Tanford and Prof. Ralph Ellsworth, vice-presidents; James Jensen, secretary, and James Liek, treasurer.

Elected as board members were Mrs. William Porter, Walter Navin Jr., and Profs. Everett Hall, William Aydelotte, Alexander Kern, Manfred Kuhn, Neil Palmer and David Gold.

Emily Cronheim, ADA midwest representative, presented a charter to the group. She said there now are more than 100 chapters in the U. S. with membership exceeding 50,000.

Costello Given 18 Months, Fined

NEW YORK (AP) — Racketeer Frank Costello heard himself sentenced Tuesday to 18 months—his first prison term since he was a young man of 24.

The 61-year-old underworld big shot drew imprisonment for twice defiantly walking out on the senate's Kefauver crime committee here a year ago, when millions watched the proceeding by television.

He also was fined $5,000 for contempt of the senate for refusing to answer committee questions about his finances and his political contacts.

Costello could have gotten 10 years and a $10,000 fine.

The Italian-born racketeer—often labeled "the prime minister of the underworld"—folded his arms as newsmen asked him if he had anything to say.

"No comment," he replied.

Then he and his attorney, Kenneth M. Spence, shook hands.

Spence said the sentence will be appealed. He previously had asked for a mistrial because a juror talked to a newspaper woman before the Costello verdict last week. This was denied.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan, who sentenced Costello, refused to grant him bail. But the federal appeals court freed him on $5,000 bail, at least until Thursday.

Russia Eager For East-West Trade Setup

MOSCOW (AP) — Many speakers at the Soviet-sponsored international economic conference have come out in favor of a permanent organization to promote East-West trade. The conference is almost sure to set up such an organization, perhaps seating it in Berlin.

Western diplomats around Moscow—who are following the work of the conference with interest—have no illusions about what it is doing and its possibilities. Secretary of State Dean Acheson denounced the conference last month as a propaganda trap. But there is a chance that the conference and its aftermath may raise havoc with sections of the current foreign policy of the United States.

Solution to Problems
The conferees have heard speaker after speaker say that, if there is wide East-West trade with no restrictions or discrimination, some of the world's major economic and labor problems could be solved.

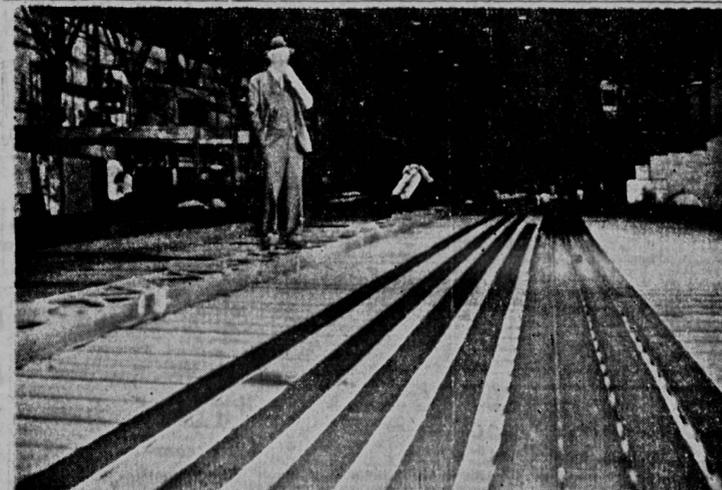

Soviet spokesmen have stressed that they are ready to buy and sell, by cash or barter. To trade-hungry businessmen who have come here from many parts of the world, this is a strong appeal.

Spokesmen from Communist China have painted a picture of a great two-way market—a China ready to buy millions of dollars worth of goods and just as willing to sell millions in raw materials. Lord John Boyd Orr of Britain, who is attending the meeting, has said uninterrupted international trade—if properly developed—can wipe out poverty in one generation.

Britain-China Deals
The British delegation announced Tuesday it has a 10 million pound, ($28 million) trade deal in the works with Communist China. The Britons made public letters exchanged with the Chinese group providing in principle for the pact to go into effect before Dec. 31, 1952.

Under the plans, 35 per cent of the British goods would be textiles. The rest would be chemicals, certain metals and other goods. In return China would supply soybeans, egg products, tea and peanut oil. It was stressed that no British defense-restricted goods would be involved.

PLANES RAKE REDS

Mills to Be Active Again

THIS STEEL ROLLING MILL of the Clairton company in Pittsburgh will soon be reactivated following President Truman's order Tuesday night seizing all steel industries. Superintendent Harry Innis surveyed the mill which had been deserted by workers in anticipation of the scheduled strike at midnight Tuesday.

Record Missouri River Crest Expected; Farmers Move Out

OMAHA (AP) — Nebraska Tuesday "sweated out" what may be the Missouri river's most savage onslaught in recorded history.

The crest of the high water, estimated to be nine days away—may reach 26 feet at Omaha on April 17 — higher by nearly 1½ feet than the 1881 flood, the worst on record, and 3½ feet higher than the disastrous 1943 flood.

Iowa Dikes Collapse

The weather bureau warned people up and down the Missouri river to take necessary precautions against "this major flood."

Two dikes near Blencoe and Modale, Ia., collapsed Tuesday night sending swirling waters of the Missouri river over thousands of acres of land.

About 25 farm families were evacuated when the dike four miles southwest of Blencoe gave way at 7 p.m. Another 25 families were taken out when the McFerrin dike west of Modale burst earlier Tuesday.

At Blencoe an area four miles square was flooded when the waters pushed through the levee. The Missouri river overflow was within 300 yards of highway 75.

Expect Levees to Hold
Levees at Council Bluffs and Omaha were expected to hold.

At Missouri Valley about 75 per cent of the farmers living on lowlands were reported moving out already.

Since agricultural levees in the area were built to withstand up to 22 feet of flood waters, no effort is being made to save them, as they are expected to be topped if the forecast crest materializes.

Even Hoover Dislikes 'Em

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover, usually heard these days on the serious matter of foreign policy, turned whimsical Tuesday on the subject of broadcasting.

The 77-year-old Hoover was a speaker at a testimonial dinner at the Waldorf Astoria hotel for Dr. Lee De Forest, inventor of a vacuum tube essential to radio and television broadcasting.

Saying that De Forest had brought the world "infinite blessings," Hoover added in a prepared speech:

"But he has some grave matters to answer for. He has made it possible to transmit the worst music on earth—the political speeches."

House Committee To Quiz Morris

WASHINGTON (AP) — The house subcommittee investigating the justice department decided Tuesday to call Newbold Morris, ousted corruption hunter, for testimony on Thursday.

Chairman Chelf (D-Ky.) told newsmen that Morris will be questioned about statements he has made publicly since his ouster last Thursday.

"The committee feels it is entitled to any facts that he may have," Chelf said.

Chelf's committee is looking into the way the justice department has operated under former Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath.

McGrath fired Morris last Thursday and the same day the White House asked for McGrath's resignation.

Korean Truce Talks Enter 10th Month

MUNSAE (WEDNESDAY) (AP) — The Korean armistice negotiations rounded out their ninth month Tuesday with three basic issues unsettled. But an air of compromise persisted.

The Allies asked, in effect, for plain talk instead of obscure Communist hints of compromise on these issues: the nomination of Russia as a "neutral" truce supervisor, rebuilding North Korean military airfields, and exchange of prisoners.

Tuesday's four-minute session on truce supervision produced nothing but a Communist proposal that the question of Russia's role in post-armistice Korea and that of military airfield construction be taken up together.

But Maj. Gen. William Harrison, Allied sub-delegate, said the Reds offered no definite compromise.

Communist newsmen at Panmunjon have hinted repeatedly the Reds might be willing to withdraw Russia's nomination if the Allies drop their demand for a ban on repair of military airfields during an armistice.

Don Wallace Applies For Hawkeye Post

Donald Wallace, A3, Venetia, Penn., has applied for the position of editor of Hawkeye yearbook for the next school year. James Bowermaster, A3, Fairfield, has applied for reappointment as business manager of SUI's new humor magazine.

The two applications were the only two announced Tuesday for the positions of editor and business manager of the yearbook and magazine. The application deadline was Tuesday.

The Student Board of Publications is scheduled to make the four appointments next Tuesday.

Wallace, photo editor of this year's annual, has been a staff photographer and done work in advertising for The Daily Iowan.

Bowermaster became business manager of the new humor magazine when it was formed at the beginning of this semester.

Western Electric Co. Mediation Talks Fail

NEW YORK (AP) — A four-man mediation team Tuesday tackled the Western Electric Co. wage dispute, one of three strikes plaguing the nation's high-speed communications system.

The mediation talks began in mid-afternoon, the first since 16,000 Western Electric installers struck Monday. Later, mediators said they made no progress.

For a second day, Western Electric picketing — which could idle 300,000 telephone operators in 43 states — was spotty. All-out picketing by the striking CIO Communications Workers union was deferred apparently until Thursday morning.

Mediators also were at work on separate telephone disputes in Michigan, Ohio, New Jersey and northern California. Some 51,000 operators and clerks struck telephone exchanges there Monday. They also belong to the CWU-CIO but have separate contracts.

Still a third strike, now six days old, has idled 30,000 AFL commercial telegraphers, who punch out telegrams for Western Union in 2,000 cities and towns.

Ike's Resignation Letter In Mail, Friends Say

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, ALLIED POWERS IN EUROPE (AP) — The best available sources close to Gen. Dwight Eisenhower expressed belief Tuesday he is resigning in a letter to be delivered at the White House Thursday.

They said a letter was started on its way Monday to defense Secretary Robert A. Lovett. Such a communication would probably go by air courier or airmail. Eisenhower headquarters officers refused to comment.

Only 26 Out of 100 Students Voted

Only 26 out of every 100 students on the SUI campus are represented in the various student groups.

That conclusion can be drawn from the recent all-campus election.

Seventy-four out of every 100 students shirked their responsibility for making democracy work — they failed to vote.

We were not only surprised, but also baffled by the small number who turned out to vote.

This election was as well organized and efficiently operated as any on the SUI campus in recent years.

The location of the polling booths and the time of voting was printed a number of times in THE DAILY IOWAN. So was information concerning the various candidates.

Why didn't they vote? Some had classes all day — no breaks long enough to go to the polls. But these were surely a small segment of the SUI family.

If we'd had a snow storm that day we would have expected low returns. But, it was a nice day.

Yet, only 26 out of every 100 students were willing to spend the five or ten minutes necessary to fill out the ballots.

To us this shows that most people on the SUI campus don't care who they are represented by. That is a bad situation.

But, these same people who failed to vote are some day going to be the leaders of America. In their hands will rest the task of running the nation's business.

How can we expect them to be responsible leaders in the years hence if they are not willing to perform their duties as voters now?

Reds Attempting to Split All European Markets

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
Associated Press News Analyst

One thing to remember about the current economic conference in Moscow is that Russia now controls Germany's former eastern European markets.

By offering to open up these markets, the Communists not only seek to drive a wedge between West Germany and the new Europe now being organized, they also are angling for goods they vitally need.

They also are trying to split all Europe away from at least a part of its dependence on the United States.

American authorities attempted prior to the conference to discredit it as merely another part of the Soviet "peace offensive." Then they attempted to belittle Russia's trade offers as being too small to offset the political effects of selling her the strategic materials she desires.

Nevertheless, the Soviet effort has struck a responsive chord, to a degree which is yet to be revealed.

The U. S. has agreements with countries to which she gives economic aid which prevent them from passing on any resulting benefits to Russia through sales of strategic materials. There has been little or no conflict in policy between the U. S. and these countries over sales of material which is directly connected with war preparations.

But Soviet willingness to buy a couple of billion dollars worth every year of borderline products, such as electrical machinery and other heavy goods which can be used to build up her indirect industrial capacity for war, is going to put pressure on America's allies. Very likely, in the long run, there is going to be new bitterness about U. S. restrictions which have not set too well in some places anyway.

In the first days after the war it was axiomatic that European recovery could not be effected without a resumption of East-West trade. When the economic strangling of the Russian sphere became a strategic part of the cold war, the U. S. had to substitute its own economic aid for the former trade.

A lot of Europeans felt and still feel that at least a part of the motivation was an American desire for economic hegemony. Russia's propagandists played the idea for all it was worth, and still do, but it hasn't taken a really widespread hold.

Nevertheless, East-West trade in Europe, and in the Russian-controlled Chinese market, remain vital to a normal world. It is the basis for the present divergence between the U. S. and Britain on Chinese policy. When the Russians probe the sore they agitate an economic fact, and cannot be ignored.

25,000 Jobs to Be At Disposal of GOP If It Wins Election

By ROBERT E. GEIGER

WASHINGTON (AP)—If the Republicans win this year's election, they will find a smaller proportion of political jobs to divide than any incoming administration in history.

The tax scandals have resulted in removing internal revenue collectors from presidential appointment, and today about 93 per cent of all federal jobs in the United States are under control of the Civil Service Commission and several government agencies have their own merit systems.

Government officials estimate fewer than one per cent—about 25,000 jobs out of 2½ million—are political, filled by presidential appointment.

'Snivel Service'
Back in the days of Andrew Jackson, around 1828, it was widely accepted that "to the victor belong the spoils." Politicians contemptuously called civil service "snivel service."

It took the assassination of President Garfield in 1881 by a spoilsman demanding a job to bring the Civil Service Act to congressional approval.

At first only about 10 per cent of the 131,208 jobs that existed then were under competitive examination. Now, with 2½ million federal jobs, here is the breakdown:

Ninety-three out of 100 are under civil service system. In normal times most jobs are filled from lists prepared through competitive examination, with the highest-graded applicants on top.

There are important exceptions. One is that war veterans are given preference over non-veterans for most jobs, regardless of grades, if they get on the eligible list after examination.

The other seven jobs out of 100 are in such government agencies as the atomic energy commission, the Tennessee Valley Authority and the FBI. Congress decided these other agencies should have most of the say in hiring employees.

Remember...? Five Years Ago...

Thirty-three students were elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary society. Newly elected president was Prof. Gerald Elise.

Competition For Stations To Delay TV

By WAYNE OLIVER

CHICAGO (AP) — If television doesn't spread throughout the country quickly after the freeze is lifted, it won't be for lack of persons to build stations.

On the contrary, there will be delays in a lot of cities by battles over the station assignments to be handed out. And radio broadcasters, experienced in sending programs over the air and into homes, expect to come out with a majority of new TV stations as they have with the 108 now on the air.

With the end of the freeze by the Federal Communications Commission now imminent, this appears to be the outlook for the order in which new stations will come on the air.

Areas Without TV

First will be communities now without any stations, and probably the smaller cities where there is no competition for the remaining channels assigned to them.

After that probably will come cities now without television where there is competition for channels and the FCC has to hold hearings. It's expected to hear such cases first.

Trailing the parade will be cities already having TV where there's hot competition for the remaining channels.

That was the thinking of many industry executives here last week for the annual convention of the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters.

The FCC, after lifting the freeze, now expected in two or three weeks, will allow probably three months for everybody who wants to apply for a station.

Not 'Til Late Summer

If the commission finds the would-be telecaster is qualified and issues a permit, that means it already will be late summer — in August.

If the applicant has everything set to go, including a building that could be used for TV studios and perhaps a tower for his TV transmitting antenna, he might go a rush job and get on the air by November.

But it adds up to the probability that there will be no more than a dozen new stations on the air by the end of the year. After that, the parade will quicken with 150 to 175 more in 1953.

Iowa Tops Nation In Cash Income Of Livestock Sale

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.

Cash receipts from farm marketings in Iowa amounted to 2.4 billion dollars in 1951, a 13.4 per cent jump from 1950, the Iowa Business Digest reports in its April issue.

Published by the SUI bureau of business and economic research, the Digest notes that the 1951 showing was 0.5 per cent higher than that of 1947, the previous record year for farm cash receipts.

"In Iowa, 87 per cent of farm income was derived from the sale of livestock and livestock products, 13 per cent from the sale of crops," the business periodical adds. "On an average, in the United States, livestock and livestock products made up 60 per cent, crops 40 per cent, of total cash farm income."

Drop in Crop Income

Iowa topped all 47 other states in cash farm income gained from sale of livestock and related products. However, the state experienced a drop from seventh to twelfth in the rankings based on income from crops.

The Digest reminds that excessive rainfall in 1951 cut down the quantity and quality of many of the crops marketed in Iowa.

The rate of increase registered by most major business indicators slowed down after the middle of 1951. Even so, almost four times as much money changed hands by means of checks in 1951 as in 1939, according to the Digest's report on Iowa trends.

Checking Accounts Up

Data from all of the state's Federal Reserve banks outside of Des Moines show that loan and discount volume for February of this year was somewhat below the record high of November, 1951. But checking accounts totaled $720 million in February, highest since April of 1951, and savings accounts for February exceeded those for any month since early 1948.

January, 1952, department store sales skidded about 15 per cent below sales for the first month of 1951. "This apparent slump was primarily caused by the excessive sales of January, 1951, rather than unseasonably low sales this year," the Digest explains.

Struggle for Power Forecast

WITH 72-YEAR-OLD STALIN "now a chronic invalid" because of two brain "disturbances" and doctors advising that "his death may take place anytime," a fierce internal struggle to succeed him is shaping in the Politburo, according to the British magazine Intelligence Digest. The publication says its information comes from the "very highest level of Russian affairs." Word is that the struggle is between V. M. Molotov (right) and Georgi Malenkov.

SUI Pediatrics Clinic Treats 'Whole Child'

The "whole child" is being treated at SUI hospitals as a result of a unique child development clinic established on a trial basis last fall by the department of pediatrics.

Using specialists in such fields as pediatrics, psychiatry, clinical psychology, social work, speech, nutrition, endocrinology and special education, the clinic attempts to treat more than just the child's complaints which are due directly to disease. It is also concerned with those which stem from the child's or parents' physical and emotional surroundings — hence the term, "treating the 'whole child'."

Dr. Julian D. Boyd, professor of pediatrics and director of the clinic, says that after little more than eight months of operation the clinic "has definitely proved its worth." He calls it a valuable instrument in the department's struggle to help each child work toward the highest level of health and development he is able to attain.

Children Are Not 'Ill'
He explains that many children brought to the pediatric clinic in Children's hospital are not really ill at all—that is, they don't suffer from any physical disease. Instead, their complaints, or "symptoms," result from nutritional or emotional disturbances created by the child's past, or present environment.

A searching examination, in fact, occasionally reveals a mother who only imagines symptoms in her child. Instead of actually existing, the supposed complaints are really based on the mother's own unhappiness or her dissatisfaction with life.

If these causes of complaints can be rooted out and corrected, the child's condition may be improved and the peace of mind of the entire household may be enhanced, Boyd says.

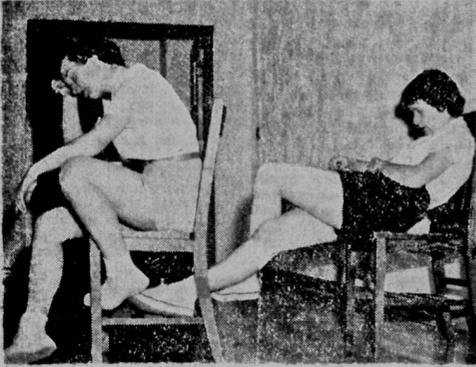

Clinics Exist
The knowledge that environment can influence a child's physique, his rate of growth and his emotional pattern is not new to pediatricians. Clinics have been set up in various places to deal with problems of emotional hygiene such as the development clinic here is doing.

The innovation in Iowa's development clinic, however, is that it deals not only with problems of the child's emotional life, but also with those problems having to do with unfavorable patterns of physical growth as well. Dr. Boyd explains that the pe-

Exercises Help to Conquer 'Fatigue Slump'

TYPICAL CLASSROOM POSTURE OF MANY COEDS who have "college fatigue slump" is demonstrated by Jo Vogt, A3, Springfield, Ill., (left) and Marilyn Jensen, A4, Cedar Rapids. Probably the most noticeable posture faults in college women are round shoulders and forward head which give the impression of unconcern and non-alertness. Prof. Gladys Scott of the women's physical education department said the major causes of poor posture are developing a habit from a customary working position, imitating someone with poor posture habits or low energy due to the general physical state of the individual.

FOR THE BEST ECONOMY OF THE DAY'S WORK, attitude and appearance, Jo and Marilyn show the sitting posture which lends the greatest efficiency to doing class work. Feet on the floor, back straight, and head up are some of the prerequisites to a good appearance and alert mind. Prof. Scott said posture is interpreted as an expression of the way an individual feels and behaves. Good posture habits can be developed before the faults become physiological difficult to correct by being conscious of appearance and practicing the good mechanics of standing, walking and sitting.

THE MORE ATTRACTIVE APPEARANCE OF THE STANDING position (right) than the slumped shoulders and hanging head (left) is illustrated by Marilyn Jensen. A well-balanced stance is easier on the body frame and the eye.

TO CORRECT ROUND SHOULDERS AND FORWARD HEAD, alternate back spinal hook sitting as demonstrated by Jo Vogt (left) and relax and stretch as demonstrated by Marilyn Jensen. Repeat about 16 times. Postures can be corrected by exercising and by thinking about the way you sit, stand and walk.

SITTING TAILOR FASHION, ELBOWS STRAIGHT AT SIDES, pull shoulder blades together as arms come back as demonstrated by Marilyn Jensen (left) and Jo Vogt (right). Movement should be only in the shoulder joint. The shoulder blades should feel as if they are being pinched together if the exercise is to be effective. Repeat about 16 times alternately with the above exercise.

School of Journalism Vocations Conference To Begin April 18

Tours of the SUI school of journalism and SUI library will be featured in the closing session of the vocations conference in mass communications April 19.

The conference, to be held April 18 and 19, will include discussions of job opportunities in all phases of mass communications with talks by representatives in the field.

High school, junior college and college students have been invited to attend the meetings.

After touring The Daily Iowan, station WSUI and the newspaper production laboratory, the students will hear talks by Robert Fawcett of the Stamata Publishing company, Cedar Rapids, and Gene Claussen, news director of station KXIC in Iowa City. The men will talk on the topic, "If I Were to Do It Again."

The student group will visit the site of the new communications center now under construction.

Prof. Ralph Ellsworth, director of SUI libraries, will talk to the group on "How to Get More from the Library in Your School Work." His speech will conclude the conference.

Delta Gammas Hold Children's Easter Party
An Easter party was held for 25 Iowa City children by Delta Gamma sorority at the chapter house, 932 E. College st., Saturday afternoon.

A visit from the Easter rabbit climaxed the afternoon which included an Easter egg hunt, games and refreshments.
Sylvia Gilbert, A1, Des Moines, was in charge of the party.

Cookie Jar

Of Clear Plastic Keeps Contents Fresh

NEW YORK (AP) — A practical new product on the market is a cookie jar that lets you tell at a glance whether the kids have been swiping your cookies. The cookie jar, made of crystal clear shatter-proof plastic, is eight inches in diameter and three inches deep.

The maker, Tri-State Plastic Molding company of Henderson, Ky., stresses that the container is air-tight and will keep cookies fresh for a week or more.

"Portion control" for packaging and dispensing foods will be introduced on a nationwide basis by mid-summer by the Kraft Foods company of Chicago. The company is packaging jellies and jams in 1/4 ounce vinylite plastic sealed containers, each an individual serving opened by the user.

The company says the new packaging saves through positive inventory control, prevents over-filling of individual portions, improves quality, and results in completely sanitary handling.

West Expects Concession From Russians Soon

BONN, Germany (AP) — A high Western official predicted Tuesday Russia will offer the West some big concession before May 1 in a new effort to neutralize Germany and undercut the North Atlantic defense program.

His estimate, he said, is that the Kremlin will either:
1. Accept Western demand for free, national elections in Germany as the forerunner of a four-power peace treaty with Germany, or
2. Dramatically play its ace-in-the-hole, offer to negotiate the question of eastern territories Germany lost to Poland and Russia at Potsdam.

Riasanovsky Claims Christianity Is Key To Nature of Values

Prof. Nicholas Riasanovsky, SUI history department, speaking Tuesday night at the YWCA "Philosophy of Life" series of lectures, said that the best answer to the nature of values lies in Christianity.

"The basic definition of this view," he said, "is in the gospel of St. John and the Liturgy of the Orthodox church."

"The ultimate answer for the meaning of life is either no answer at all or in some form of theology, for the meaning of values must be apart from the physical world."

A belief in Christianity may bring the following conclusion, he said: one shouldn't have any idols; truth brings light and answers to the basic questions and absence of truth, darkness; that there are only unfortunate and sick people, not hateful and vicious people.

He said that "Once you come to a belief in values, the question is the why and the what is behind the values. The answer has to be different than those given by the material world."

City Garden Group To Hold Breakfast

The garden department of the Iowa City Woman's club will meet for a spring breakfast at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in the clubrooms of the Community building.

A program about Easter customs through the ages will be presented by Mrs. W. D. Paul, Mrs. Carl Davis, Mrs. L. O. Bender, Mrs. D. G. Oshner, Mrs. Clayton Eden, Mrs. Verne A. Gunette, and Mrs. Marcus Powell. Mrs. C. R. Allman is program chairman.

Mrs. R. H. Reimer is in charge of serving, and Mrs. Paul is decorations chairman. Mrs. Charles Fieseler is in charge of the breakfast.

French Premier Pinay Wins Parliament's Okay

PARIS (AP) Premier Antoine Pinay won final parliamentary approval Tuesday night on his 10 billion French budget in a crucial series of 10 confidence votes.

The budget provides almost four billion dollars for defense and was designed to avoid tax increases by stringent economies. The national assembly approved the budget as a whole on the final vote 311 to 206. The only hotly-contested ballot came on a section pardoning Frenchmen who have cheated in the past on their taxes. By this means it is hoped to bring their hidden hoards to aid government financing. The government won this 259 to 210.

Fraternities Plan Public Projects For Greek Week

Greek week will be held on May 3, 4, and 5. Marvin Luehrs, C4, Sheboygan, Wis., president of Interfraternity council, said Tuesday.

The project was originally planned to include the Panhellenic groups on campus. On April 1, Panhellenic voted to withdraw and present the recommendation to the Greek week committee that the function be held in the fall.

Luehrs said that IFC will go ahead with Greek week without the sororities. In place of the sorority-fraternity exchange Sunday dinners a sports event will be held, perhaps an east side, west side fraternity baseball game.

The purpose of Greek week is to better integrate the Greek groups on the campus with the community.

The program will begin with work projects on Saturday, the sports event on Sunday, and a dinner for all groups participating on Monday night.

The work projects consist of any constructive public improvement such as painting, cleaning up, raking, or cutting down trees.

Luehrs said that he had contacted the city manager and the sanatorium at Okdale but at present there is still more manpower than there is work.

Ed Diekmann, E4, Ottumwa, chairman of Greek week, will speak to Panhellenic at the next regular meeting on April 15. At that time he will urge participation of the sororities.

WITH THE WEATHER HANGING in the 70's the last few days, Iowa students are beginning to flock to the golf courses. Here John Ferguson, D2, Cedar Rapids (left) and Bob Peterson, D1, Cedar Rapids, check their score card after a nine-hole round at Finkbine Tuesday. Big Ten Rule Stops SUI-ISC Fraternity Tilt

The tentative intramural football game between SUI's Delta Chi and Iowa State's Sigma Chi was cancelled Tuesday. Al Frost, Delta Chi's intramural director, said Tuesday night that he had written to State saying that University permission for the game would have to be withheld because of a Big Ten rule. The rule states that any athlete who competes on a team outside of conference play, except during the summer, will lose his eligibility for the remainder of his time in school.

Many Similar Cases When asked if the game might be played independently and without SUI permission, Frost replied, "I don't know." Dr. Frederick Beebe, SUI's intramural head, said that cases similar to this one have arisen before in the Big Ten. Conference schools have always denied the fraternities permission to hold such games.

Beebe said that conference officials feel there is too great a possibility of injury, which is not covered by insurance. Players injured in such a game could not even be handled under the University's medical program, Beebe added.

No University Facilities University facilities to play the game would not be available due to the fullness of SUI's outside intramural program.

Preliminary arrangements had been made earlier between Frost and Chuck Graber, representing Sigma Chi. Both felt that a game between the schools' intramural football champions would be a start at reviving the rivalry between SUI and ISC on a varsity basis.

The last varsity football game between Iowa and State was in 1934 and ended in a Cyclone victory.

Dizzy Dean Caught In Feud as Saigh Balks at Movie Stunt

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Dizzy Dean was caught in a squabble play between the Cardinals and St. Louis Browns Tuesday.

The former pitcher of the Cards was safe in Oklahoma City broadcasting a baseball game, unaware of his position.

Dean is to be honored here Saturday at the opening of the city series between the Cards and Browns. Sponsors are movie press agents hoping to publicize the film, "Pride of St. Louis," the story of Dizzy's life.

The Cardinals had been asked to participate in the ceremony.

But owner Fred Saigh Tuesday said no — in what may be a spring renewal of last year's feud with Bill Veck, president of the Browns.

Dean will broadcast some of the Brownie games this year for a brewery advertisement.

In a letter to 20th Century Fox Film corporation, producers of the Dean story, Saigh said:

"We do not want to take part in any promotion or any program or parade in which the Browns have a single person... this is not a baseball picture... it is the life of a man who spent his active playing career in the Cardinal organization. We do not feel that anyone else should muscle in."

Iowa Drops 2d In Arizona, 11-4

(Special to The Daily Iowan) TUCSON — Iowa's baseball Hawkeyes lost their second successive game to powerful Arizona in a night game Tuesday, 11-4, when Iowa pitching fell apart in the eighth inning.

After tying the score at 4-4 in the top of the seventh inning, the Hawks allowed two runs to score in the last of that frame, and then the roof fell in on the Iowans.

Whitey Diehl, starting Hawkeye hurler, loaded the bases to start the eighth, and then allowed

Golfers Tie, 15-15

Iowa's golf team remained undefeated Tuesday as the Hawkeyes tied Arizona, 15-15, in near-perfect golf weather. With the thermometer at the 72-degree mark, the Iowans played sharp golf to tie the Arizona squad, which has been practicing for a month. The round was only the third for all men on the Hawkeye team.

The Hawks had beaten the Wildcats Monday, 16-14.

speedy Bill McMullen to steal home. The theft was the 17th in 11 games for McMullen, who has broken the old Arizona record, with 20 games left to play.

After the steal of home, Wildcat catcher Jenney hit a home run with two on 380 feet over the left field wall at the identical spot of his Monday homer with the bases full, and the three runs iced the lead for both teams.

Arizona, in its 11th straight win, opened the scoring with one run in each of the first and second innings and two in the third. Then in the fifth, Jack Hess got on by an error for the Hawks. Tom Stenger walked and Jerry Hilgenberg popped up to the second baseman, but the latter dropped the ball and Hess scored on the error.

The Iowans tied it up in the seventh when Frank Bok, Ed Lindsey and Hilgenberg got on base and a single by Bob Scheyll drove all three runs home. However, the Wildcats came back

Monte Irvin suffered a broken ankle in an exhibition game against Cleveland recently.

Should Elliott be shifted to the outfield, it is expected that manager Leo Durocher will open with Bobby Thomson in center if Willie Mays is drafted, and Henry Thompson at third. Elliott's main value will be his heavy hitting, and Thompson is primarily a fielder.

Formerly, Thomson was playing third, and Thompson was on second. A newcomer, Davey Williams, has apparently sewed up the key-stone position.

Stengel Indicates Mantle Will Get DiMag's Old Post

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — Manager Casey Stengel indicated Tuesday that Mickey Mantle has won the job as Joe Di Maggio's successor in centerfield for the world champion New York Yankees.

At the same time Stengel indicated he plans to start Gil McDougald at third in place of Andy Carey, the Yankees' newest rookie sensation.

"Look at that McDougald," Stengel snorted. "I told him not to take infield and there he is getting Diekey (coach Bill Diekey) to hit grounders to him."

"Hell, Gil's already been hurt twice. And there he is fooling around again. I don't want him doing that; I want him to start the season."

Giants Buy Braves' Elliott

Give Pitcher, Cash in Deal For Holdout

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Giants announced Tuesday that they had acquired veteran third-baseman Bob Elliott from the Boston Braves in exchange for pitcher Sheldon Jones and cash. Elliott, a holdout, has been working out with the San Diego team of the Pacific Coast league. The cash surrender was estimated at $50,000.

Mays Pleads Hardship

HOUSTON, TEX. (AP) — Centerfielder Willie Mays of the New York Giants left the club Tuesday to claim a hardship case before his draft board in Fairfield, Ala. Mays, who will be 21 on May 6, is the chief support of a family of nine.

He said he has a meeting scheduled with the board today. If his plea is turned down, Mays will be inducted into the armed forces on May 16.

Bums Stop Braves, 4-1

RICHMOND, VA. (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers captured the rubber game of their nine-game exhibition set with the Boston Braves here Tuesday by whipping the Braves, 4-1, behind the tight pitching of Clem Labine.

A home run by Duke Snider, one of two he collected for the afternoon, got the Brooklyn off to a 1-0 lead in the first frame and they stayed ahead. Gil Hodges also smacked a homer for the Dodgers in the fifth.

The Braves got their only run in the sixth when Labine loaded the sacks and Sam Jethroe tallied on a fly to centerfield by Pete Whisman.

Minoso Leads Chisox

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Orestes (Minnie) Minoso slashed out four hits in five trips to pace the Chicago White Sox to an 8-4 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Tuesday.

Minoso's hitting and the fielding and hitting of right-fielder Al Zarilla were just too much for the Bucs who used four hurlers to no avail.

Manager Billy Meyer started Don Carlson, and in rather rapid succession sent in Paul Le Palme, Mel Queen and Forrest Main to try to halt the onslaught. Carlson and Queen were hit the hardest.

Reynolds Looks Sharp

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — Allie Reynolds fanned seven batters in four frames Tuesday as the New York Yankees edged the Charlotte Hornets of the class B Tri-State league, 3-1.

The Yankee fireballer pitched to only 13 men, one drawing a base on balls. Reynolds came on in the sixth inning, after southpaw Ed Lopat had held the minor leaguers to four hits and an unearned run in five innings. The world champs managed only seven safeties off the curves of lefty Mike Dzingelowski and Zeke Meize.

Bob Cerv led the Yank attack with a triple and a single.

Mizell Paces Cards

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP) — Vinegar Bend Mizell, the Cards' prize rookie pitcher, gave up only one hit in five innings Tuesday as the St. Louis Cards slugged out a 9-8 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Mizell was touched for a blooper single by Mel Clark in the bottom of the fourth. He went out in the fifth when he tired.

The Phils sent an even dozen batters to the plate in a big seventh inning. They scored seven runs off Dutch Meyer on six hits, three walks and two errors.

Tiger Homers Win

ATLANTA (AP) — Matt Batts, Cliff Mapee, Neil Berry, Pat Mullin and Ben Taylor blasted home runs Tuesday to help the Detroit Tigers to a 10-4 victory over the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern association in an exhibition game.

It was the club's biggest spring-time homer outburst. Rookie Dick Littlefield gave the Crackers two hits in five innings and rookie Paul Foystack allowed four in four innings.

Bob Montag smashed two Atlanta homers and Charles Williams one.

Leahy Displays Interest In Maryland's Split-T

COLLEGE PARK, MD. (AP) — Coach Frank Leahy of Notre Dame is mighty interested in the split-T system.

He sent Bob McBride, a line assistant, to Maryland's spring football practice Tuesday and today to watch how coach Jim Tatum's version of the split-T works.

Notre Dame has been basically a regular T team under Coach Leahy.

Coach Tatum learned the split-T from Don Faurot of Missouri and last year won 10 games without defeat, including the Sugar bowl over Tennessee, with it.

Resign at Alabama

TUSCALOOSA, ALA. (AP) — The resignations of baseball Coach Floyd Burdette and Trainer Fred Owen from the University of Alabama coaching staff were announced Tuesday by athletic Director Pete W. Cawthon.

No reasons were given in the university announcement. Burdette could not be reached for comment. Burdette has been basketball coach at the university since 1946. During that time his teams won 81 games and lost 59.

Netmen Remain Undefeated With 6-1 Win over Jayhawks

(Special to The Daily Iowan)

LAWRENCE, KAN. — Iowa's tennis team continued its winning ways Tuesday as the Hawkeyes took their third straight victory, beating Kansas, 6-1.

Coach Don Klotz' men have now taken all three of their meets, and have lost only three matches of the 27 they've played. The first win was over Missouri Saturday, 9-2, followed by Monday's 9-0 victory near Washburn.

Richards Only Loser

The only defeat against the Jayhawks came in the No. 1 singles match, in which Chuck Crawford of Kansas downed Iowa ace Bob Richards, 6-4, 6-1. However, No-man Barnes put the Hawks even with a solid 6-1, 6-0 win over Kansas' No. 2 man, Jim Fotopolous.

Barnes, in the last two meets, has lost only four games in four sets. Other singles wins came from Bruce Higley, George (Dusty) Rice, Dave Van Ginkel, Gordon Chapman and Chuck Johnson. Only five singles matches were counted in the final results.

Sweep Doubles Matches

Barnes teamed with Roger Klotz to take the first doubles match over Kansas' top team of Crawford and Fotopolous, 3-6, 6-0, and 6-1. Then Richards and Rice beat Headstrom and Friberger.

Simmons Expects Discharge Thursday

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP) — Former Philadelphia Phillies pitcher Curt Simmons arrived at Camp Kilmer Tuesday and began processing for his discharge from the army.

He probably will be mustered out of the service sometime Thursday morning, a post public information officer said Tuesday night.

Simmons, a sergeant, flew back to the United States Monday from Germany, where he had been serving with the 28th infantry division.

He said he expects to rejoin the Phillies as soon as he is discharged and comes to terms on a new ball-playing contract.

Simmons, 22, was called back to active duty with the 28th division in September, 1950, during the National league pennant race.

ger of the Kansans, 6-4, 9-7, and Chapman and Higley took the measure of Irwin and Sells, 6-2, 6-1. Only two of the doubles matches counted in the score.

In all, the Iowans won nine of the 10 matches. They meet Kansas State today at Manhattan, and Washington university at St. Louis Friday. If the weather permits, the Hawkeyes will also meet the AAA Golf and Tennis club team in St. Louis on Saturday.

8 Schools to Meet To Organize Loop

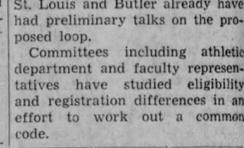

CHICAGO (AP) — Representatives of eight midwestern schools will meet today to discuss organization of a new collegiate basketball conference.

Notre Dame, Marquette, De Paul, Loyola, Bradley, Louisville, St. Louis and Butler already have had preliminary talks on the proposed loop.

Committees including athletic department and faculty representatives have studied eligibility and registration differences in an effort to work out a common code.

Champion Billiard Artist to Appear At SUI April 24

Clarence E. Anderson, world champion trickshot pocket billiard artist, will perform in the Iowa Memorial Union April 24. As leader in the field of pocket billiard instruction and trick shots, Anderson succeeds Charlie Peterson, who has given similar performances here for a number of years. Peterson, who last year drew a capacity audience, has retired. Anderson says he took up trick shots to break the monotony of instructing billiards. His repertoire now includes more than 250 trick shots. A bleacher seating system will be constructed to enable spectators to see all action on the billiard table. Both students and the public will be admitted free. The performance will start at 8 p.m.

Minneapolis Symphony To Give 3 Concerts Here April 22-23

The Minneapolis Symphony orchestra will present three concerts at SUI April 22 and 23 as part of the university's annual concert course series. The Minneapolis Symphony has made some 25 appearances at the university, this being its 10th straight year to perform here. The orchestra is in its 49th season. Its annual tours have included more than 3,000 concerts in 425 cities of the United States, Canada and Cuba. Antal Dorati has conducted the orchestra since 1949, when Dimitri Mitropoulos, conductor for 12 years, resigned to become permanent conductor of the New York Philharmonic. Dorati, a native of Budapest, formerly conducted the Royal Opera house of Budapest and later the Dallas Symphony. The concerts will be presented in the Iowa Memorial Union at 8 p.m. April 22 and 2:30 p.m. and 8 p.m. April 23. Different programs will be given at each concert. Students may receive free tickets, for one concert only, by presenting identification cards at the lobby desk of the Iowa Memorial Union, beginning April 17. Faculty and staff ticket sales will begin April 18, and sales to the general public will begin April 19. Tickets are $2 each, and information on mail orders can be obtained from the university band department.

Law College Hears Swedish Professor

Swedish law Prof. Seve Ljungman pointed out the need for considering the sociological aspects of all laws in an address before student and faculty members of the college of law Tuesday. Ljungman, an expert in corporate law, has been instrumental in bringing about a unification of many Swedish laws. He explained the achievements of legal research in Sweden where the laws vary from one section to another as they do in our 48 states. The University of Stockholm professor, who is on a five month speaking tour of American law schools, has visited the eastern schools and the University of Chicago. He will go to the west coast from here. He attended classes at the college of law Tuesday morning.

Language Courses Offered To June ROTC Graduates

Language training courses are open to air force ROTC students graduating this June, the SUI military department announced Tuesday. The courses, under the direction of the air force institute of technology, will particularly apply to students who have shown aptitude for this type of instruction, the announcement said. The language courses will be held at five civilian institutions and the army language school. They will run from 6 to 12 months. Applicants for language training must volunteer to serve on active duty for a three-year period subsequent to completion of their instruction courses. The men will then be assigned to active duty as soon as possible after completion of their schooling. All applications must be made to Col. George A. Bosh, professor of air science and tactics at SUI, before April 15. Courses offered include one in German which will be available at the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia, Pa. Polish, Turkish, and Serbo-Croatian will be taught at the University of Indiana. A Ukrainian course will be offered at Cornell university, at Ithaca, N. Y. Chinese classes will be held at Yale university while a Russian course will be in the curriculum at Syracuse university.

Lt. Earl Lemons, 28, Dies in Japan

Lt. Earl H. (Bud) Lemons, 28, former City high athlete and SUI student, died in Japan March 31, according to word received here. His parents, Sgt. and Mrs. John Lemons, formerly of Iowa City, now reside in Downey, Calif. He graduated from City high in 1941, where he played both football and basketball. He attended SUI from 1942-1947, except for two years service in the air force during World War II. His father was on the university ROTC staff from 1921 to 1933, and after his retirement served with the athletic department from 1943-48. CENTER BORROWS PAINTING The Des Moines Art center has loaned an oil painting of Prof. James Lechay of the SUI art department, to the Art Institute of Chicago for their Sixtieth Annual American Exhibition.

Body of Kalona GI Returned to U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The bodies of three Iowans who were killed in Korea have been returned to the United States aboard the Alamo Victory, the department of defense announced Tuesday. The three are army Pfc. Lyle E. Reid, son of Robert H. Reid, 915 4th avenue, Council Bluffs; army Pvt. George J. Schaefer, son of Mrs. Ona C. Schaefer, Kalona, and marine Pfc. Glenn I. Jones, son of Mrs. Alma M. Jones, 1145 W. Ninth st., Des Moines. The ship carrying the 217 dead arrived at the San Francisco port of embarkation Tuesday. Next of kin have been notified, the department said, and bodies will receive a military escort to the point designated by each next of kin.

50 Administrators At Library for Audio-Visual Meet

Nearly 50 Iowa school administrators and audio-visual directors met on campus Tuesday to discuss the production and use of audio-visual materials in modern education. The one-day conference, held in University library, featured lectures and discussions by Iowa educators. Guest speakers included Walter A. Wittich, audio-visual director, University of Wisconsin, and Julien Bryan, executive director of the International Film foundation, New York. In a morning session Bryan described the many new techniques used in the production of instructional films. Addressing the conference in an afternoon meeting, Wittich offered suggestions on the possible use of audio-visual aids which the school can produce locally. Members of the Audio-Visual Education association discussed expansion of their organization at their regular spring meeting held in conjunction with the conference.

2 Professors Attend Pre-Medical Meeting

Two SUI faculty members are attending the National Conference of the Subcommittee on Pre-professional Education of the Survey of Medical Education being held in Buck Hills Falls, Pa., this week. The SUI delegates are Ralph H. Ojemann, professor of psychology and parent education, and Dr. Woodrow Morris, assistant dean of student affairs in medicine. The four-day conference, which will end today, will evaluate the program of pre-medical education in American colleges and will assist in formulating a comprehensive report on its present status. Over 250 delegates representing approximately 130 liberal arts colleges will attend.

Ice Show Set for May 15-18 at SUI

"Ice Vogues of 1952" will appear at the Iowa field house May 15-18. This will be its second appearance here. The ice-skating troupe has 75 in its cast. Performances are about 2 1/2 hours in length. Frank Havlicek, business manager of athletics at SUI said that performances would be available for each performance. The show carries its own full size portable skating rink and refrigeration unit.

Mountaineers Scale Engineering Building and WSUI Tower for Colliers

THE MOUNTAINEERS, who have in previous years scaled peaks in the Canadian Rockies, Alaska, Mexico and western United States, Sunday swarmed over the SUI engineering building and the WSUI radio tower jutting from its roof. Purpose? to provide subject material for pictures and a story to appear in Colliers magazine. The story is to be written by Leonard Stephens, SUI graduate in radio journalism, who is doing free lance writing. At left, five of the group begin rappelling down the side of the engineering building. They are Mickey Thomas, G. Iowa City; Martha Ann Paver, Iowa City; Dorothy Newfang, Iowa City; Stan Kaiser, A4, Iowa City, and Alan Wendler, A3, Iowa City. Watching over the side are Mountaineers Donald Sullivan, Iowa City; John Englert, Iowa City; Walter Dolger, Chicago, Ill.; Carl Hinrichs, G. Iowa City; Earl Carter, Iowa City, and Chan Boettcher, A4, Marion. In the foreground (also from left) are Mrs. Edward Burke, Colliers photographer, and Joe Steltner, Chicago, Ill. In the picture at right, Mountaineers clamber up the WSUI tower in rope parties of four, while a Colliers photographer, perched comfortably higher up on the tower without benefit of rope, records the climb.

Members of the Roger Williams fellowship will join the Sunday Evening club of the First Baptist church in a potluck supper Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at the Roger Williams house. Assisting the Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Dierks with the supper will be Woodye Webber and Orville Kessler. Robert Grooms will be in charge of the Easter evening devotional service following the supper.

Funeral Today For John Shalla

John Shalla, 81, died Monday at 7:30 a.m. in Iowa City after a short illness. He was born in Iowa City July 20, 1871, the son of Thomas and Mary Shalla and married Julia Neider. Services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Hohenschuh mortuary with the Rev. John G. Craig of the Congregational church officiating. Burial will be in Oakland cemetery.

Court of Appeals Denies Rosenbergs Re-Hearing

NEW YORK (AP) — The U.S. court of appeals Tuesday denied a petition by Julius and Ethel Rosenberg for a re-hearing on their appeal from their conviction of stealing the atomic bomb secrets for Soviet Russia. Rosenberg, 32, an electrical engineer, and his wife, 35, were sentenced to death last year and their sentences were reportedly the first under the espionage act of 1917, which imposes death as a maximum penalty for espionage in wartime.

2 States Now Own Abandoned Bridge

DUBUQUE, IA. (AP) — After eight years of litigation, ownership of the ice-damaged Black Hawk bridge across the Mississippi river at Lansing, Ia., Tuesday passed to the states of Iowa and Wisconsin. Federal Judge Henry N. Graven ordered the receiver for the bankrupt Iowa-Wisconsin Bridge company, to accept the $70,000 joint offer which the two states have made for the bridge.

2 Killed in Parachute Maneuvers

SAN SABA, TEX. (AP) — Two men died Tuesday as 3,120 paratroopers of the 508th regimental combat team leaped from troop transports in Exercise Long Horn. One died in the collision of two F-51 fighter planes. The other was one of the paratroopers. His chute became entangled in his equipment and he plummeted to the earth. More than 100 injuries were reported in Tuesday's big drop of a regimental combat team. The jumpers dropped as planned but an unexpected mixup prevented dozens of generals, including J. Lawton Collins, army chief of staff, from witnessing all of it. They had been notified by maneuver headquarters that the jump was called off. Col. Joe S. Laurie, 38, the 508th's commander, said the 12 to 14 miles per hour winds at the jump's start were within the 15-mile per hour safety limit for maneuver jumps. But he said gusts of wind which followed caused most of the trouble, making it difficult for the paratroops to collapse their chutes on landing.

Rites to Be Monday For Mrs. Vrchoticky

Mrs. Anna Rose Vrchoticky, 94, 409 Ronalds st., died at her home Monday at 11:10 p.m. She had been in failing health the last two years. Mrs. Vrchoticky was born in Czechoslovakia to Thomas and Anna Neuzil and came to this country at the age of nine years. The family spent a few months in Iowa City, then moved to a farm in Union township. She was married to John P. Vrchoticky Sept. 4, 1875, and the couple farmed the Neuzil homestead in Union township until 1910, when they retired and moved to Iowa City. Mrs. Vrchoticky was a life-long member of St. Wenceslaus church and also a member of the Altar and Rosary society. Funeral services are planned for 9 a.m. Monday at St. Wenceslaus church. The Rev. Edward W. Neuzil, nephew of Mrs. Vrchoticky, will officiate at the funeral mass. Burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery. The body is at the McGovern Funeral home, where the rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Members of the Rosary society will say the rosary at 8 p.m. Sunday and preceding the funeral mass Monday.

Daily Iowan Salesman of the Week

John F. Deacon, A4, Cranford, N.J., received a merchandise award and recognition as Daily Iowan Salesman of the Week at the regular meeting of the Advertising Sales and Promotion class Monday afternoon. The presentation was made by Ellis Newsome, Advertising Advisor of the Iowan.

The Daily Iowan has introduced a program of recognition for those individuals that make the publication of a newspaper possible, the advertising salesmen. Without advertising no newspaper could long remain in business. Unless advertisers get results from their advertising they will soon stop advertising. Support your newspaper, The Daily Iowan, by patronizing those merchants using the Iowan advertising columns.
