Ridgway Named To Succeed Ike

Carrier Returning With 61 Survivors Of Lost Destroyer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 27,100-ton aircraft carrier Wasp limped home Monday with 61 survivors from the destroyer-mine-sweeper Hobson, which it cut in two in a mid-Atlantic collision Saturday night. Missing—and apparently lost—were 176 other members of the Hobson's crew.

It was one of the worst peacetime disasters in American naval history. Capt. B. C. McCaffree, commander of the Wasp, said the 1,600-ton Hobson broke in two and sank four minutes after it came under the cliff-like bow of the carrier during night maneuvers on an inky sea.

176 Listed 'Missing'
Ships and aircraft searched for survivors until sundown Sunday. On the faint chance that some of the 176 seamen may still be rescued, the navy listed them as "tentatively missing."

The Wasp and the Hobson, a converted destroyer, were en route to the Mediterranean in a task force when the accident occurred 1,200 miles due east of Boston and about 700 miles off the Azores. With the Rodman, another destroyer converted into a minesweeper, the Hobson was escorting the Wasp and was on the lookout for any planes which might be lost from the carrier.

About 10:20 p.m. (7:20 p.m. CST) the Wasp with Rodman and Hobson turned into the wind to recover aircraft. Capt. McCaffree reported to Atlantic fleet headquarters at Norfolk, Va., Monday.

Hobson Struck Amidships
At 10:26 p.m. the Hobson crossed the bow of the Wasp from port (left) to starboard (right) and was struck amidships on her starboard side. The Hobson rolled on her portside and her keel dug deep into the Wasp's bow.

McCaffree radioed that eight small boats were launched immediately from the Wasp for rescue operations and that life jackets, rafts, floats, nets and lines were thrown over the side to the men in the water.

The previously darkened ship was brightly lighted as the Wasp and Rodman illuminated the area and continued picking up survivors, McCaffree said.

In this fashion 61 men were saved, although some of them are seriously injured. Apparently the Hobson's skipper, Lt. Com. W. J. Tierney of Philadelphia, went down with his ship. No one was injured aboard the Wasp.

General Grow Faces Court Martial for Diary Reds Copied

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maj. Gen. Robert W. Grow was ordered Monday to face court martial charges brought in connection with the incident in which Moscow used excerpts copied from his diary for propaganda purposes.

Grow, former military attaché at Moscow, had written in his diary that war with Russia was inevitable. A Soviet agent is believed to have slipped into his room in Frankfurt, Germany, last summer and photographed portions of it.

A Communist-sponsored book published in Germany quoted Grow as exclaiming: "War is as soon as possible! Now!"

Secretary of the Army Frank Pace announced Monday that Grow has been charged with "improperly recording classified (secret) military information in private records and failing properly to safeguard classified military information."

Grow's case has been referred to the commander of the second army at Ft. George G. Meade, Md., for hearings to determine whether a formal court martial shall be convened.

Grow has been assigned to the second army since his return from Europe.

Iowa Publisher Opens County Cancer Drive

Henry B. Hook, director at large for the Iowa division of the American Cancer society, set the 1952 Johnson county cancer crusade into motion Monday night by telling about 70 local solicitors "We are ambassadors of life!" Hook, speaking in the Iowa Union River room, said the number of cancer cases per capita is going down for the first time in the recorded history of the state medical department. He went on to say, "When we think of the many people who have lost their lives, it makes us believe that maybe we haven't done enough."

Speaking of Johnson county's 1952 quota of $6,713, Hook said, "We in Iowa can go over the top of what really are 'peanut' quotas. Last year all 99 counties went over their quotas because of the spirit of the thing. We have a great case for cancer."

Hook, publisher of the Davenport Democrat and a 1933 SUI journalism graduate, quoted a survey stating that nine out of 10 people want to give to the cancer fund. He advised canvassers to "carry on as ambassadors of good health; that's our cause and that's our crusade."

The new cancer movie cartoon for men entitled "Man Alive!" was shown at the meeting.

The committee judging the contest has selected the winning entries and the board of publications will make official approval of the first place name at its next meeting, Wednesday, May 7.

Ike May Close Margin In Massachusetts Vote

BOSTON (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has a chance to come within striking distance of a tie nationally with Sen. Robert A. Taft when they contest for delegates in the Massachusetts presidential primary today.

The latest tabulation by the Associated Press of elected delegates pledged, instructed or known to favor the two leading candidates gave Senator Taft 256 to Eisenhower's 233.

At stake in Massachusetts are 28 delegates running in pairs in the 14 state congressional districts.

Both contenders will pick up two votes from the 10 unopposed candidates for delegate-at-large. The other six are undecided.

The following shows the lineup of Republican delegate candidates who according to surveys have taken a position or remain undecided in today's primary: For Eisenhower 31, unpledged 5, Taft 30, General MacArthur 6.

A sweep by General Eisenhower would put him within three of the 268 delegates that can be counted for Taft tonight.

Estimates of a total vote reaching possibly 400,000 were cut back Monday when the weather bureau forecast continuing showers on election day.

The vote, however, seemed certain to reach the 270,000 presi-

Governor's Council On Lay Education Opens at SUI Today

Some 250 citizens of Iowa will meet here today and Wednesday to conduct the governor's lay leadership conference on education.

The delegates, none of them professional educators, were selected by the Iowa Council for Better Education and invited by Gov. William S. Beardsley.

The two-day council was planned by the Iowa Council and will be built around the theme "Better Education for Iowa."

National authorities on education will give a series of addresses and there will be a special research committee report on school finance.

The conference is to be an exploration and analysis of the problems facing Iowa educators.

Top speaker on the program will be William G. Carr, associate secretary of the National Education association. Carr has had 28 years experience in education and has been active in UNESCO and other United Nations organizations.

This year's ballot bears a single box in which voters may write in their preference for the nomination for president by the party whose ballot they use.

Reds Brand Jap Treaty as 'War Pact'

TOKYO (AP)—Japan, once again independent, delicately sidestepped Monday her toughest diplomatic problem — future relations with Russia, Red China and other Communist nations.

Scarcely had the Japanese peace treaty become effective Monday at 10:30 p.m. (7:30 a.m., CST, Monday) than it was blasted by both Russia and Red China as a pact for "a new war in the far east."

The treaty became effective when the United States deposited its ratification at the state department.

Thus ended nearly seven years of Allied occupation, and the end of SCAP — Supreme Commander, Allied Powers. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, who in April, 1951 succeeded General MacArthur as supreme commander, was appointed

UN Official Chats with Harper

RALPH BUNCHE (right) chats with Prof. Earl E. Harper before speaking to a capacity audience of 2,000 in the Iowa Memorial Union. His talk was the last in this year's lecture series.

Prospects for World Peace Getting Brighter Every Day, Bunche Says

By MARVIN BRAVERMAN

Prospects for world peace are good and they are becoming brighter every day, United Nations official Ralph J. Bunche told a capacity audience of 2,000 in the Iowa Memorial Union Monday night.

In his first visit to Iowa, Bunche affirmed that there is no reason why peace cannot be secured and maintained, "if the peoples of the world — particularly the free peoples — remain alert and are willing to make sacrifices."

"The times are dangerous, but not hopeless. We can have peace in the world and equality among men. But to have peace, so much depends on how we live and act."

Trusteeship Director
Bunche, a Negro and the grandson of an American slave, is director of the UN's department of trusteeship and non-governing territories.

An expert in political science, he came into the world spotlight in 1948, when he took over as UN mediator in Palestine and was instrumental in ending the fighting between the new nation of Israel and her Arab neighbors. This brought him the Nobel Peace prize in 1950.

Outlining the goals and accomplishments of the United Nations, Bunche cited the intervention into Korea as a "direct challenge to the force and vitality of the United Nations."

'Persistent Effort'
"The United Nations," he declared Monday night, "is the way of conciliation, negotiations and honorable compromise. The UN way is also the way of persistent effort. It seeks to act as a bridge between parties. The UN is the way of collective security."

Teaching Religion On School Time Gets Court's OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The supreme court upheld Monday New York state's system of releasing public school pupils from classes to receive religious education away from school property.

The 6 to 3 decision, which brought sharp dissents from Justices Jackson, Black and Frankfurter, sanctioned released-time programs involving some two million pupils in most of the 48 states.

It came several years after the court held in a similar case that religious instruction cannot be given to pupils, grouped according to sects, on public school property.

In other decisions Monday, the court:

1. Denied a hearing to "Tokyo Rose" — her real name is Mrs. Iva Ikuko Toguri D'Aquino — on her appeal from a conviction for treason.

2. Upheld, 5 to 4 an Illinois law banning publications which expose members of any race or religion to hatred or ridicule.

free nation from an act of aggression.

"Aggression in Korea and action of the United Nations sounded a very effective alarm to the world. Because of the Korean war, we are now more prepared to meet world conflict. Furthermore, there is now more solidarity among nations."

"It's a great tragedy that happened in Korea," Bunche continued, "but I believe it has not been in vain. I believe there was no alternative for the UN but to intervene."

'Must Have Patience'
He said that truce negotiations may on the surface seem depressing, but their progress should not be a cause for discouragement.

"We need to learn the lesson of patience," he said. "We must consider that it is very important that negotiations have continued. A break could easily have led to war."

The 47-year-old peacemaker had every right to know what he was talking about. For many months he argued and pleaded with Jews and Arabs until armistice agreements were signed in Palestine. Many persons believe today that his patience and even temper during these talks saved the United Nations itself from collapse.

'Persistent Effort'
"The United Nations," he declared Monday night, "is the way of conciliation, negotiations and honorable compromise. The UN way is also the way of persistent effort. It seeks to act as a bridge between parties. The UN is the way of collective security."

He pointed out that collective security is similar to a bank — no one can get any more out of it than what he puts in.

To those who have wondered why the UN continually tolerates the acts of the Soviet bloc at its meetings, Bunche explained that the purpose of the United Nations is to settle differences.

Purposes of UN
"If we eliminated from the UN those nations which constantly present differences, there would be no need for the United Nations," he said.

What are the fundamental purposes today of the United Nations? Bunche listed these:

1. To maintain peace, even

Mark Clark to Become Far East Commander

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman Monday appointed Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway to succeed General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower as supreme allied commander in Europe to build up defenses against the threat of Soviet aggression.

The President also announced that Gen. Mark W. Clark will succeed Ridgway as United Nations commander in Korea and as commander-in-chief of U.S. armed forces in the Far East.

Gruenther Retains Post
Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, Eisenhower's chief of staff, will continue in that post under Ridgway.

The appointments are effective June 1, the date Eisenhower is scheduled to doff his uniform and return to the U.S. to press his bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

The five-star general is due to make his first homecoming speech at Abilene, Kan., June 4.

Eisenhower heard the news of the appointments while on a farewell tour of British troops under his command in Germany.

"Things will be in good hands," he said. "We could not do better."

Ke Lauds Shift
Eisenhower hailed the Ridgway-Gruenther combination as "the finest the American services can produce for the European command," and he told newsmen:

"You have got in Gen. Ridgway one of our splendid leaders . . . a great friend of Gen. Gruenther. You have in Gen. Gruenther a man of great experience with a fine brain and great skill as chief of staff."

On Capitol Hill, some legislators expressed mild disappointment that Gruenther had failed to get the top command.

In announcing the big shift in commands, President Truman extended his personal best wishes to Ridgway in undertaking "this great responsibility" and predicted that Ridgway and Gruenther together will make an "outstanding team for our common defense effort" in Europe.

Ridgway Is Optimistic
In Tokyo, Ridgway issued a statement declaring:

"With full realization of the great task ahead of me, I approach this new assignment thankful for the great organization work done by my distinguished predecessor and confident of the continued support not only of my own country, but of all free countries represented by the North Atlantic council."

Meanwhile, the army said Gen. Clark's present post as chief of the army field forces, with headquarters at Fort Monroe, Va., will go to Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, now commander of the third army at Fort McPherson, Ga.

Border Towns Defy Heavy River Crests

MUSCATINE (AP) — The Mississippi rolled on toward Missouri Monday, still throwing its heaviest punch of all time against the Iowa and Illinois borders.

Muscatine, a city of 19,500, still was riding out the flood. The chief fear was that drainage district dikes which protect several thousand acres of farm lowlands on the Illinois side of the river would break.

The river reached a crest of 21 feet at Muscatine. This was 3 inches above the previous high set a year ago. Highway 61 at Muscatine was closed by the rising waters.

River experts said the peril will continue for a week. Upstream at Davenport and Clinton, where the crest was reached Saturday, the stream still had not begun to recede.

Flood waters bubbling back through Clinton's storm sewer system still were flowing through the streets, cutting the city into three parts linked only by log detours. The two Mississippi bridges at Clinton remained closed to truck traffic, and on the Fulton, Ill., side, water poured through a broken dike over a large area.

Doctors Will Study Licensing Situation

DES MOINES (AP) — The Iowa State Medical society house of delegates Monday voted to study further licensing of foreign-born physicians, who frequently are displaced persons.

Action on a resolution presented by Dr. C. F. Watts, Marengo, from the Iowa county delegation indicated some action will be taken at the society's concluding session Wednesday morning.

The resolution is the outgrowth of a squabble which culminated in the resignation of the three members of the state board of examiners April 20.

The resignations followed a ruling by the Iowa attorney general's office that the board has no authority to say that a displaced physician must declare his intention of becoming a citizen in order to practice in this state.

Purdue Men Stage Demonstration, Raid Women's Housing

LAFAYETTE, IND. (AP) — Hundreds of Purdue university students stormed through a women's dormitory and sorority houses west of the campus Monday night, and all peace officers in the area were called out.

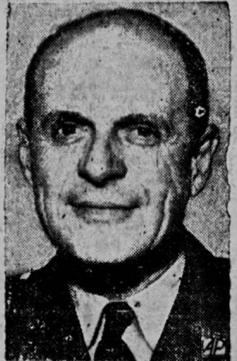

The West Lafayette police department reported "three or four" men students taken to the Tippecanoe county jail and two girls injured.

Desk Sgt. N. S. Beisel said a squad of 35 to 40 officers got the demonstration "partly corralled" within an hour and a half. He said the demonstration crowd numbered 400 to 500 or more.

The West Lafayette police said the rampaging men students broke into the women's quarters and cut up bed clothing.

There was no indication how or why the demonstration started. The first call came from Wood hall, a women's dormitory in the area west of the campus.

Police were hampered by students letting air out of the tires on squad cars.

Israelites Learn Tobacco Growing From an American

AP Newsfeature
TEL AVIV — Where Joshua once commanded the sun to stand still, that great Biblical warrior would behold something to make him stand still if he were to return to Israel today.

He would see a village named after an American rabbi, the late Stephen S. Wise, growing Virginia tobacco, under the supervision of a southern Baptist.

The village is Kfar Schmel (Hebrew equivalent of Stephenville). It was established two years ago with the erection of eight prefabricated huts. A year later Robert Miller, owner of a tobacco plantation in Suwanee county Florida received a telephone call.

Funds from the $500 million Israel bond campaign, he was told, had been allotted for the establishment of tobacco plantations in Israel and Miller was asked if he would come and teach farmers how to raise Virginia tobacco.

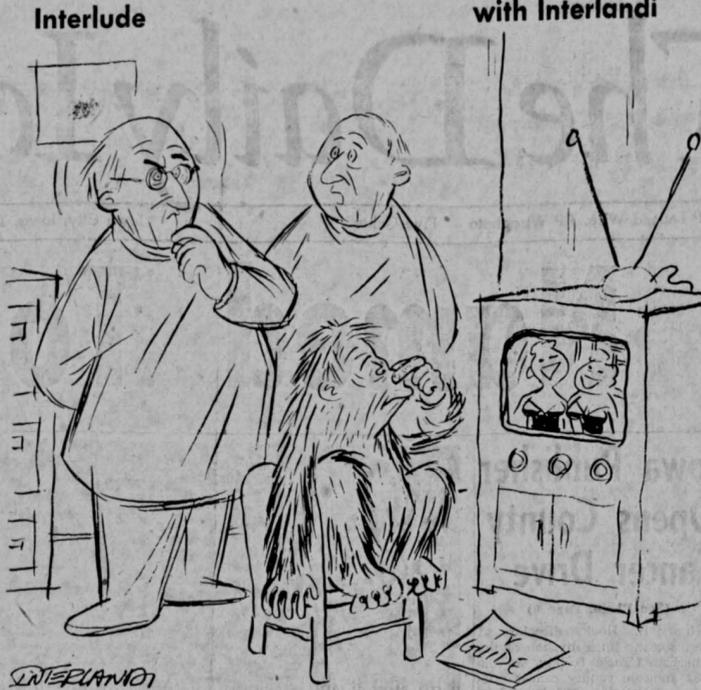

Two hundred acres of the Virginia type of tobacco have been planted and the first crop harvested at Kfar Schmel. The southern expert believes that Israel can raise sufficient tobacco for her own needs and some additional for export.

WSUI Offers Varied Program List

By JIM GOLTZ

Some of the best radio listening in Iowa City is being provided by WSUI's student-operated radio station WSUI. The station has compiled an interesting and educational series of programs designed to appeal to every type of radio listener.

Some of the most entertaining and enlightening programs offered are:
1. The BBC World Theater on Tuesdays at 8 p.m. The program consists of dramatizations of historical events, novels, stories, and plays, with subjects varying from the life of James Boswell to the Alger Hiss trials. The programs are tape-recorded at London's world-famed BBC radio theater and leased to American radio stations.

'Rambles' Is Popular
2. "Rhythm Rambles" at noon every week-day. This is a half hour program of recorded popular music with disc-jockey Hugh Coons.

8. "Women's Hours" at 9:30 a.m. The program is divided into three sections. The first half hour, "Baker's Dozen," has recorded music, the second 15 minutes, "Book Shelves," is composed of excerpts from old and current novels, and the last 15 minutes ranges from ways of making party decorations to reading poetry to comments on current and international news.

WE NEED THREE U. OF IOWA SENIORS!

We want three top-flight University of Iowa graduates — men with the potential to handle, after a reasonable period of training, positions of responsibility in our banking, trust, bond and administrative departments. As one of the nation's largest, most progressive bank and trust companies, we need college men for such varied activities as market-research, sales, management and investment of trust funds, purchase and sale of government and municipal bonds, advertising, public relations, personnel management and investment and credit research.

If you have poise, a pleasant personality and believe you will enjoy contacts with leading businessmen, The Northern Trust Company offers you exceptional opportunities. You will work with friendly people in modern, pleasant surroundings in the heart of Chicago, the second largest city in the nation and the center of highly diversified industry, commerce, transportation and finance. Draft eligibility does not eliminate you from consideration. Investigate these opportunities.

Contact Miss Helen Barnes, Placement director, to obtain a copy of our descriptive booklet, "Big City Banking," and to arrange an appointment with E. L. Hall, vice president who will be on the Iowa Campus May 6.

Panhellenic Studies New Counseling Plan To Assist Rushees

A counseling plan to aid sorority rushees in the fall of 1952 is being considered by the Women's Panhellenic association.

The plan would place 13 women, one from each sorority house, in the dormitory during the rushing period working in teams of two to counsel rushees about their problems and questions.

The system is under consideration in the hope that, if adopted, it would reduce confusion, stop rumors and misconceptions that spread at such a time.

The idea has been taken to the individual houses for discussion and voting. A final vote will be taken May 6.

A committee was formed to investigate the plan and discover if such a system would be beneficial at SUI. Beth Larsen, A3, Waterloo, was the Panhellenic member and chairman.

Other members were Jeanne Thompson, G, Iowa City; Margaret Reed, A3, Waterloo, and Carla Heller, A3, Appleton, Wis.

Counseling plans were studied at Minnesota, Michigan, and Washington.

In the event that the plan is adopted, each house will nominate three girls and Panhellenic will choose one of them to go through the spring training period in preparation for fall.

The girls would be trained by persons from the counseling service and Helen Reich, panhellenic adviser.

FRAN SWARTZ, A3, Iowa Falls, for the second week in a row received a merchandise award and recognition as Daily Iowan Salesman of the Week at the regular meeting of the Advertising Sales and Promotion class Monday afternoon. The presentation was made by John Crusberry, business manager of the Iowan.

The Daily Iowan has introduced a program of recognition for those individuals that make the publication of a newspaper possible, the advertising salesman. Without advertising no newspaper could long remain in business. Unless advertisers get results from their advertising they will soon stop advertising. Support your newspaper, The Daily Iowan, by patronizing those merchants using the Iowan advertising columns.

HAWKS HIGH AT DRAKE

Many Iowa students attended the Drake Relays in Des Moines over the weekend, and they got their money's worth as they witnessed the greatest Relays in history—a meet that saw 14 Drake marks and three American records broken.

Hawkeye athletes were also present, and made their presence felt as they entered in nine events and placed in eight of them. The Hawks won two of their races and took second and third in another.

Iowa easily rated among the top four squads entered at Drake. Unofficial estimates as to how the Hawks would have ranked if team standings were kept indicate that Iowa was a solid third among the 60 schools that competed.

Record Breakers

Iowa broke the Relays record in the sprint medley relay, although the four runners had worked together less than a week. In other relay events, the Iowans won the quarter-mile and took fifth in the mile. In the 800 relay, in which Iowa was rated as a top contender, the baton was dropped between the first and second runners, thereby ruling out any contention.

Representatives of SUU were also outstanding in the individual events of the meet. Ted Wheeler, who had turned in an amazing half-mile (1:51.6) in the sprint medley relay, ran second in the mile run, followed closely by Rich Ferguson. Freshman Ferguson took second in the two-mile run to rank as the top individual point-getter for the Hawks.

Clyde Gardner, competing in his second college meet, took third in the discus; DuWayne Dietz finished fifth in the 440-yard hurdles, which is run only in Olympic years, and Ira Murchison took fifth in a very fast 100-yard dash field.

Great Iowa Climb

All told, the showing was exceptional—especially in the light of former-Iowa showings at the classic of American track meets. Since the advent of Francis Cretzmeier as cinder coach, running has taken a turn to the better here, and Iowa fans can expect even bigger successes in the future.

The fact that the Hawkeyes did so well was also heartening from the standpoint of the competition. Illinois and Kansas raked tops for the meet. The Jayhawks probably had an edge, man-for-man, but the Illini had better depth and balance and would have won the meet on a point basis.

The Kansans, led by distance star Wes Santee, set two American records and the Illini added another. Kansas' marks came in the four-mile relay and the 440-yard hurdles; the Illinoi record was scored in the two-mile relay.

Gets Up, Wins

The Illinois mark was considered the most outstanding showing by many, but the achievement of Kansas in the distance medley cannot be overlooked.

In that race, the No. 2 Kansas runner was run right off the track by a Notre Dame runner who had finished his leg of the medley and was slowing down to stop. Despite that, resulting in a loss of at least two seconds of time, the Jayhawks made a time of 10:01.8—just 2.4 seconds over the American mark. Some observers thought the loss in time might have run all the way up to four seconds.

The chief contributing factor to Kansas in that race was Santee's second great mile in two days. The day before, the Jayhawk sophomore had run an estimated 4:08 mile in anchoring the team to its record-smashing four-mile mark. Saturday he was clocked in 4:07.4, and was voted the outstanding athlete in the Relays by 32 of 33 Relays writers.

BIG TEN IMPRESSIVE

The Big Ten fared quite well in the standings. Besides the strong Iowa finish and the Illinois superiority, Jim Golliday of Northwestern took the 100-yard dash in :09.7 and Indiana and Michigan State ranked high in several races. Major individual winners for the Illini were Dick Coleman in the pole vault (14-3 1/2) and Joel McNulty in the 120-yard high hurdles (14.4 seconds).

BANGERT TOUCHES HEARTS

The most touching part of the Relays was the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. It was done this year by Bill Bangert, two-time Relays champion in shot put who is nearly blind and still competing. Bangert is a very good singer and put the shot right around 50 feet in an exhibition.

15,000 TRACK FANS!

The crowd, largest in the memory of this writer in 13 years of watching the pageant, was estimated at 15,000. The Relays was very colorful as the sun beat down on a wide assortment of shades created by uniforms of the athletes, 19 marching bands and over 50 officials.

Spivey Joins Kentucky Aide, 6 Cagers In New Scandal

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Spivey, seven-foot all-America basketball star at the University of Kentucky, was indicted for perjury by the New York grand jury Monday and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

District Atty. Frank S. Hogan announced the indictment as the mushrooming fix scandals reached a new climax with a part-time Kentucky coach, Jim Line, and six other players named in fresh accusations.

The indictment charged Spivey with giving false testimony when he appeared voluntarily before the grand jury in February. The towering Kentucky center denied again Monday—as he has repeatedly in the past—any part in the scandals.

Specifically the indictment charges Spivey with falsely denying he discussed deals with an alleged fixer to control scores of games in which Kentucky was involved and that he accepted $1,000 as the result of such arrangements in Dec., 1950, and Jan., 1951.

The district attorney charged Spivey's testimony was not borne out by that of others questioned. He said Spivey discussed deals with alleged fixers "before practically every game by his team during Dec., 1950, and Jan., 1951."

Hogan made the announcement of Spivey's indictment five hours after four alleged fixers had been arraigned in general sessions court. Spivey, Line, Walter Hirsch, another former Kentucky player and four former Toledo university players were named in the new indictments.

Accused of Delivery

The district attorney said officials in Kentucky had been asked to arrest Spivey on a fugitive indictment.

Line was accused of delivering money to Spivey and Hirsch for "going under the points" in the 1950 Sugar bowl game between Kentucky and St. Louis.

The four Toledo players named as having taken bribes were William Walker, Carlo Muzzi, Robert McDonald and Jack Peeman. Assistant District Atty. Vincent A. G. O'Connor said they had been involved in three fixes.

Cubs Defeat Cards, 4-3, Tie for 2d

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Big Hank Sauer batted in all of the red-hot Chicago Cubs' runs Monday night as they beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 4 to 3, and tied the idle Cincinnati Reds for second place in the National league. Sauer drove in the four tallies with a home run, an infield out and a single.

The Cubs, gaining their fifth victory in the last six starts and eighth in 11 games this season, blasted veteran lefthander Harry Brecheen for nine hits, including a triple and double by Frankie Baumholtz, in the first five innings. Thereafter they were held to one single by Redbird relief hurlers Willard Schmidt and Dick Bokelmann.

Paulsen at Creston

CRESTON (AP) — Joe Paulsen, former Iowa athlete, has been elected as new head football coach of Creston high school.

Paulsen, a 1951 Iowa graduate, has been serving as an assistant wrestling coach and assistant junior varsity football coach at Iowa this year while working on his master's degree.

While an undergraduate he lettered in both football and wrestling. Paulsen succeeds Don McDonald at Creston. In addition to coaching football he will assist in basketball and track. A Creston basketball coach will be hired later.

Pro Clubs Get Draft Call on Chuck, Pinky

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Chuck Darling, Iowa's record-smashing center, was drafted by the Rochester Royals of the National Basketball association at the annual league draft here Saturday night.

Bob Clifton, Hawkeye guard, was the choice of Ft. Wayne. Darling had previously announced that he would join the Phillips Oilers organization rather than play pro ball, as has Clyde Lovellette of Kansas, another top draft choice.

Indicted For Perjury

LaDue, Sorenson Take Sweep in Olympic Tryouts

Runners, Netmen Outstanding — Over the Weekend

— Baseball Team Gets Split

By LEE CANNING
Members of Iowa's sprint medley and 440-yard relay teams were sporting new watches Monday after the Hawkeyes' showing in the Drake Relays Friday and Saturday in Des Moines.

The watches were awarded to the Hawkeye relay teams after their victories in the annual Drake classic.

Ted Wheeler's half-mile finish in the sprint medley gave Iowa its first win Friday. LeRoy Ebert, Gary Scott and DuWayne Dietz were the other members of that team.

It was the first relay victory at Drake for Iowa since 1938.

For Wheeler, the victory meant watch No. 2 for the 1952 season. He won the first by taking the 1,500-meter run at the Kansas Relays last week.

The 440-yard relay outfit gained its first place Saturday by outdistancing one of the finest quarter-mile relay fields ever to run at Drake.

Ira Murchison started off for the Hawkeyes and gave teammate Glen Hesselstine a lead. Hesselstine boosted Iowa's lead and Len Sykes kept the Hawkeyes in front at the end of the first three legs. Scott clinched the Iowa victory. Iowa's winning time was :41.5.

Wheeler Takes Points

Wheeler also finished second in the mile with teammate Rich Ferguson placing third. Ferguson also took a fifth in the 440-yard high hurdles.

Iowa's mile relay team turned in its best time performance of the season, 3:15.6, and still finished fifth.

Netmen Swat Illini, 7-2

Iowa's tennis team took its second victory of the season over Big Ten teams Saturday by defeating Illinois, 7-2, here.

The Hawkeyes dropped Wisconsin, 9-0, Friday in their first matches against conference opposition.

Veeck Farms 2 Players to Japan

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Bill Veeck and his St. Louis Browns, who always welcome festive occasions, Monday marked the return of Japanese independence by sending two farm club ball players to Japanese professional baseball.

This makes the first time in history American ball players have been loaned to clubs outside the continental United States.

Iowa to Open 4-Game Home Schedule Today With Western Illinois

Iowa's baseball Hawks open a four-game home schedule today in a tilt with Western Illinois at 3:30 p.m.

Iowa, with a 6-8 record, will be favored over its first opponent, which has a 2-4 mark for the season, but should run into trouble in the forms of Michigan State and Michigan this weekend.

The Wolverines will be here for a single game Friday, and Michigan State will play the Hawks twice on Saturday.

Only 2 Over .300

Going into the game with Western Illinois, only two Iowa regulars are hitting over the .300 mark. Ed Lindsey, who bats cleanup when he is not pitching, leads all batters with a .356 average, and is followed by centerfielder Gus Brandt with a .320 record. Catcher Bill Vana is third with .296.

Don Westcott is the top Iowa hurler on the basis of won-lost and earned-run averages, but has pitched only 6 1/3 innings. He has allowed no earned runs and received credit for one win against no defeats.

Hilgenberg Top Fielder

Merle Jensen is next in the won-lost column with a 1-0 mark, but has an ERA of 5.76 for his 20 1/3 innings of work. Ed Lindsey, with a 1-2 record, has allowed 3.15 earned runs per game.

Leading the Hawkeyes' infield is rightfielder Jerry Hilgenberg, who has accepted 28 chances without an error. Vana has also compiled an impressive record, with only one error to mar his .968 average.

Barnes defeated Augustana's Paul Johnson in the feature singles match. The Hawkeye No. 1 player lost the first set, 4-6, but recovered to take the last two, 6-3, and 8-6. Johnson was singles champion of the Little Nine conference last season.

The loss was Augustana's first of the season.

Illinois won the team title for the third consecutive year, and thus retained the trophy. Iowa finished fifth among nine teams in its first entry in the meet.

2 Holes-in-One Made at Finkbine

Two holes-in-one have been recorded so far this year at Finkbine golf course here, both on the par three, 162-yard fourth hole.

Sunday, Dr. Robert McMurray got an ace on the same hole with a five iron. Playing with him was Dr. C. S. Wright.

Golfers Beat Gophers, Wildcats

Iowa's golf team displayed the most consistency of any Hawkeye links squad in several years as it beat both Minnesota, 30 1/2-17 1/2, and Northwestern, 30 1/2-11 1/2, in a triangular meet at the Cedar Rapids country club Monday.

Tom Crabbe, a native of Cedar Rapids and returning mainstay of the team, took medalist honors for the 36-hole match with a 141 (70-71) total, which is one under par for that distance.

But the rest of the Hawks were not far behind as the top six men topped entries from both rivals. Other outstanding rounds were turned in by Chuck Kromer, who shot rounds of 73-72 for a 145 total and Gene Slack, who turned in scores of 73-74 for his 147 mark.

John Barton shot a 148 for the Hawkeyes, Dale Kniss collected a 150, and Bud McCord shot 157, to complete the Iowa sweep of the top six men.

The next competition for Iowa is a quadrangular meet with Northwestern, Ohio State and Purdue at Lafayette Saturday.

Another promising freshman back, Bobby Stearnes, is still handicapped by a sprained ankle suffered during one of last week's scrimmage sessions and did not run through the signal drills with the squad yesterday.

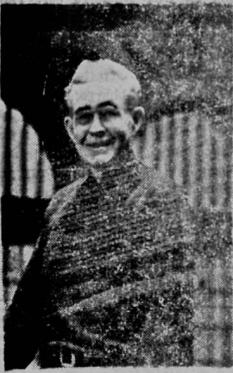

Stearnes, however, is expected to be back in action in two or three days.

Evashevski's first unit in Monday's drills was the same, with two backfield exceptions, that has worked together since almost the first day of spring practice. Don Inman and Jim Hatch, instead of Stearnes and Bernie Bennett, worked in the backfield with Dusty Rice and Burt Britzman.

The line for this team was: ends Dan McBride and Bill Fenton, tackles Cameron Cummings and Dick Frymire, guards Tom Ellis and Jerry Clark and center Bud Lawson.

Welfare Institute Attended By Nearly All Iowa Counties

Nearly every public and private social welfare agency in the state was represented at the fourth annual Iowa Welfare Institute at SUI last Thursday and Friday. Wayne Vasey, director of the school of social work and president of the Iowa Welfare association, held Monday.

A post-institute check of the registration lists indicated attendants came from nearly all of Iowa's 99 counties. Vasey said only a few of the flood-battling river counties were unable to send representatives.

The bulk of the registrants were from county and state social welfare departments, with a number also from mental health centers, psychiatric hospitals, general hospitals and other health agencies, probation and parole agencies, settlement houses and privately financed family and children's agencies.

Among the official groups represented were the state board of control and its institutions, the state board of social welfare, the state services for crippled children and the SUI health services. Vasey said that while 10 discussion sections considering different aspects of social welfare work held sessions concurrently during the institute, the necessity for good case work was stressed in each. He said this points up the fundamental importance of qualified field personnel to proper welfare administration.

though it may be an insecure peace.

2. To resolve all differences which might have led or which are leading to world conflicts.

3. To eradicate causes of war.

4. To correct dangers of psychological attitudes, which often are the causes of the world's difficulties.

Most of those persons criticizing the UN because it has little power, he said, at the same time condemn it for invading sovereign power of the United States.

Why There Are Weaknesses

"If the United Nations shows a weakness in one direction or another," he continued, "it is very often because of governments failure to participate. The United Nations is given only that authority which it gets from governments belonging to it."

Although he calls himself "biased toward the UN," he didn't overlook some of the disadvantages of the present organization, which he gave as following:

1. Discord and abuse of the veto in the security council.

"These," he said, "are being offset measureably by increasing power and influence of general assembly."

2. Promise in 1945 of disarmament in the world. "However," he added, "only last winter steps were taken toward disarmament. He cautioned that "we should not harbor the opinion that these steps will lead to a quick or spectacular disarmament."

3. United Nations is unable to set up a security force as set forth in its charter. There is a security force, Bunche said, but it is somewhat weakened.

4. UN members pursue policies which favor national self-interests.

East-West Impasse

"These failures are a reflection and are exaggerated by the impasse between the West and East," he added. He maintained that too many of the conflicts that have taken place in the world have been blamed on this impasse.

As progress of the UN, Bunche cited the technical assistance given to nations, the encouragement of human relations and the establishment of new states.

"But the greatest test of the United Nations has been the stopping and prevention of war," he said.

"The basic problem of the United Nations is that of understanding problems of human relations," he emphasized. "The human factor looms large in international situations. . . . We must keep in mind that the big issue of the world is people and not guns."

A leader in the field of human relations both in this country and on the international front, Bunche said the Negro "asks only the fundamental prerogative of citizenship — equality of treatment."

Bunche is scheduled to leave Iowa City today for a speech at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. His talk here was the final one of the university lecture series.

Services Held for Mrs. Ida Bargebuhr

Services were held Sunday afternoon at Beckman's for Mrs. Ida Bargebuhr, 75, who died at her home, 340 Ellis ave., Saturday.

Rabbi E. Stamm Cooper conducted the services and officiated at the burial in the local Jewish cemetery.

Mrs. Bargebuhr, mother of Prof. Frederick P. Bargebuhr of the school of religion, was born January 22, 1877, in a small town in Germany. She was married in Hamburg to Dr. Arnold Bargebuhr, who died in 1928.

Mrs. Bargebuhr went to Israel in 1934. She lived there until 1950 and was in Jerusalem when that city was attacked and besieged by the Arabs during the trouble in Palestine.

The hardships of life in that country seriously undermined her health, and when she came to the U. S. in 1950 she was suffering from an acute heart condition.

In addition to Prof. Bargebuhr, Mrs. Bargebuhr is survived by another son, Dr. Hans Bargebuhr, a pediatrician in Israel. Also surviving are two granddaughters in Israel and a sister, Mrs. Elsie Dispeker, Los Angeles.

Easter vacation attendance figures still are being tabulated, and will be considered at the faculty meeting.
