13 Students, 2 Faculty Members Selected for Membership in ODK

Thirteen SUI students and two faculty members were "tapped" for invitation to membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary, at the 30th annual William O. Finkbine dinner Wednesday night in the Iowa Memorial Union.

Approximately 130 students, faculty and alumni attended the dinner given for representative campus leaders in memory of Finkbine.

An 1880 graduate of the SUI college of law, Finkbine inaugurated and sponsored the event until his death in 1930 at the age of 73.

Hancher Among Speakers

Theme of the dinner was "The Importance of Leadership in the American Way of Life." Speakers included Edward F. Diekmann, E.A. Ottumwa, student representative; R. Bruce Hughes, JD '51, alumnus and a Waterloo attorney; and President Virgil M. Hancher.

Diekmann said qualities of a leader were integrity, intelligence, and interest in things about him. He said SUI leaders should be "men in that sense as well as 'Iowa' men. Hughes, former editor of The Daily Iowan, said good leaders should also be good followers.

Students "tapped" for membership in ODK were: Peter Van Oosterhout, A3, Orange City; John B. Britzmann, A3, Hawarden; Charles H. Karr, M3, Fonda; John Hays, C3, Iowa City; Richard I. Williams, A3, Iowa City; Ralph E. Fretty, A3, Des Moines.

James S. Sherman, C3, Sioux City; Samuel M. Syverud, E2, Bettendorf; James A. Bullard, A3, Jefferson; Thomas A. Brown, A3, Iowa City; Wayne M. Hopp, D3, Iowa City; Robert J. Louts, A3, Clinton; and Robert W. Soll, A3, Adel.

Faculty Members "Tapped"

SUI faculty members "tapped" were L. Dale Faunce, dean of students, and Prof. Frank R. Kennedy of the college of law.

Francis M. Long, E4, Oxford, also has been "tapped" for ODK, but he was unable to be present Wednesday night.

Men tapped for membership in ODK must be in the upper 35 per cent of their class or have a grade point average of 2.8, and be representative leaders in the fields of scholarship, athletics, social and religious activities, publications, or speech, music and dramatic arts.

Peter W. Everett, G, Iowa City, president of ODK, presided during the tapping ceremonies.

President Hancher told the men to be a "leavening force" at work in their communities.

He said "barring some great catastrophe" SUI would be a great institution 1,000 years from now, if "left free to search for truth and teach the truth to know the truth."

New London Doctor Dies; Hurt in Crash

Dr. Robert J. Stolley, 31, New London, died about 11 p.m. Wednesday at University hospitals of injuries suffered in an auto crash 13 miles south of here Monday.

He was critically injured in the crash of a car, semi truck and dump truck and had been unconscious since the accident, hospital officials said.

The doctor's six-year-old son Peter was also critically injured in the mishap but was reported "doing very well" early this morning.

Highway patrolmen said the accident occurred when the car Stolley was driving was hit by the dump truck, which had just collided with the semi truck.

Kefauver, Taft Predict Victory

By The Associated Press

Tennessee's Estes Kefauver and Ohio's Robert A. Taft swept into the lead in the nation-wide races for delegates Wednesday, and both promptly posted claims of virtual certainty victory at the Chicago presidential nominating conventions in July.

Kefauver said that on the basis of a striking upset in Ohio — and a strong but losing display in Florida — he is now "practically assured" of winning the Democratic nomination.

Taft told newsmen he will "never be headed" in his bid for the Republican prize.

Registering a landslide victory in his native Ohio, Taft surged well in front of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in the battle for delegates by capturing the state's en-

3 Rail Unions Request Ruling On Seizure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three big railroad operating unions said Wednesday they will ask the supreme court to rule on the government's seizure of railroads at the same time it rules on President Truman's seizure of the steel industry.

The court has scheduled arguments for Monday on Judge David Pine's decision that seizure of the steel mills on April 8 was illegal and unconstitutional.

Attorneys for the three brotherhoods — the engineers, conductors and firemen — said in a statement they have filed notice of appeal with the U.S. appeals court in Cincinnati, challenging a no-strike order issued by the U.S. district court in Cleveland April 23.

The three unions said they would make two requests to the appellate court in Cincinnati:

1. To postpone effectiveness of the no-strike order.

2. To send direct to the supreme court a union appeal from the no-strike order.

Justice over the youth after his release.

Allies Won't Buy Truce with Lives

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman put the stamp of finality on the United Nations stand in Korean truce negotiations Wednesday with an assertion that "we will not buy an armistice by turning over human beings for slaughter or slavery."

His formal pronouncement was the climax of a series of official American statements on the issue, all aimed at making clear to the Communists and to the world in general that there will be no more concessions.

The President followed up statements from:

1. Deputy Defense Secretary William C. Foster who told newsmen that the package deal offered to the Reds in Korea was "final" but not an "ultimatum."

He confirmed that a naval blockade of Communist China and direct attack on the Chinese mainland have been considered among actions that might be taken in event of a final breakdown of truce talks.

Acheson Describes Formula

2. Secretary of State Dean Acheson who described the Communist-rejected formula as "fair and reasonable" and told a news conference that if the Communists really wanted a truce they would accept it.

As proposed by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway — and turned down by the Reds — the offer was to get all the remaining truce obstacles out of the way by (A) allowing the Reds to repair and build North Korean air fields, (B) throwing out the Communist proposal to bring in Russia as a "neutral" nation to help police a truce and (C) dropping the Red demand for repatriation of all prisoners of war whether they want to go back to their own lines or not.

The last item in that list is the one on which the United States took its firm stand. This country insists that it should return only those who want to go back. The Reds, apparently stung by the propaganda effects, have been adamant since it came to light that only 70,000 of 170,000 soldiers and civilians held by the UN have said they are willing to go.

Truman Explains Proposal

"The three parts of Gen. Ridgway's proposal are all parts of a whole," Truman said. "They must be considered as an entity — not piecemeal. Our agreement is contingent upon acceptance of the whole proposal. This is our position."

It has become obvious, Truman said, that the truce issues now outstanding can not be resolved separately. He said this country "fully approves and supports without qualification" the Ridgway formula for settling them all.

Both Foster and Acheson emphasized that the Ridgway plan had the full support of the United States. It was in fact presented to the Reds by Ridgway, through his truce negotiators, on instructions from Washington. The step was taken after detailed consultation with Britain, France and other Allied governments in the Korean fight and with full realization that Red rejection of it might produce a breakdown in the talks and a renewal of fighting.

Local Lieutenant Wins Bronze Star

Lt. James S. Lampe, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Henry W. Lampe of R.R. 1, Iowa City, has been awarded the Bronze star for meritorious achievement while in action in Korea.

Lampe received the recognition in connection with operations against the enemy in Korea from Oct. 26 to Dec. 7, 1950.

The citation states that Lampe "organized and accompanied two river boat patrols to known mine areas in an effort to confirm reported locations, and took part in armed missions into unsecured territory in pursuit of local information. Later, he helped evacuate friendly forces and civilians from the Chinnampo-Pyongyang area."

He is the husband of Mrs. Margaret B. Lampe, Beatrice, Neb., and nephew of Prof. M. Willard Lampe, director of the SUI school of religion.

$6 Billion Aid Bill Voted by Committee; Spain to Be Helped

WASHINGTON (AP)—The house foreign affairs committee Wednesday unanimously approved a $6,889,100,000 foreign aid bill which includes Spain for the first time.

The approved bill was cut by $1,010,900,000 from the $7.9 billion originally requested by President Truman, with all of the reductions taken from funds earmarked for Europe.

This leaves a total authorization of $4½ billion for military assistance abroad — mostly guns and other war equipment — for the year ending June 30, 1953.

In addition to this, the committee voted to give military officials the authority to transfer $1 billion worth of equipment from American stocks to foreign allies if the need arises.

The 4½ billion for military aid covers the manufacture of war equipment in this country and in Europe for use in arming Allied armies.

The house measure mentions Spain by name as eligible for assistance and specifies that at least $25 million from European funds shall be used there for economic, technical and military aid.

Iowa Youth May Get Release From Prison

AUSTIN, TEX. (AP)—The state board of pardons and paroles Wednesday indicated it will recommend release from the Texas prison of 15-year-old Herbert Fletcher of Onawa, Ia., who went to prison because officials thought he was 17.

All three board members showed agreement at a hearing Wednesday that the conviction was illegal.

Happy Triplets Visit Big City

Mock Trial to Highlight Supreme Court Day

Four senior law students will go before the Iowa supreme court at 2 p.m. today in the house chamber of Old Capitol to argue a hypothetical appeal case which will highlight SUI's annual supreme court day.

The all-day program also includes a coffee session, an Order of Coif initiation ceremony, a Coif luncheon and a college of law banquet.

The four law students will argue the question of whether a partnership agreement may prevent the victim of an automobile accident from collecting damages from the partner who was responsible for the accident.

Chosen for High Scholarship

Attorneys for the appellant are George W. McBurney, Council Bluffs, and Albert C. McClain, Fort Scott, Kan. Attorneys for the appellee are Wayne A. Brooks, Davenport, and Walter F. Johnson, L4, Chillicothe.

These men were selected to argue on the basis of their work in two years of competition in Law club arguments and upon the basis of their scholastic standing in law school.

Judge Dwight G. Rider, Fort Dodge, will be made an honorary member of the Order of Coif and give the Coif address as the top 10 per cent of the senior law class are initiated into the organization at 10:30 a.m. in the senate chamber of Old Capitol.

The Order of Coif is a honor law fraternity in which eligibility for membership is based on scholastic standing.

Judge Rider is president of the Iowa state board of education and a 1923 graduate of the SUI college of law. He has served as judge of the 11th district court of Iowa and is now practicing law in Iowa.

It Won't Budge

A 54-year-old pocket knife, which has never been used, is laying on the third floor in the northeast corner of Schaeffer hall.

For over half a century, SUI students have bent over to pick it up, but all have been unsuccessful—the knife is firmly imbedded in the cement and will not budge.

R. J. McGinnis, physical plant electrician and veteran of 41 years in the maintenance department, said that the knife was evidently dropped into the wet cement by a prankster when the building was built in 1898.

He has seen many students come up with an embarrassing smile after their unsuccessful attempt to take it with them.

The knife has become a part of the maintenance department's tradition and a few returning alumni have ventured up to see if it is still there.

U.S. Slashes Fuel Supplies For Air Travel

DENVER (AP)—The nationwide oil strike will continue, the president of the oil workers' international union said Wednesday night.

O. A. Knight added, however, that the union will comply with a wage stabilization board order and attend a wage board meeting on Tuesday.

Knight Criticizes Board

Knight, in a telegram to Nathan Feinsinger, chairman of the wage board, said, "In light of the history of the dispute and of the wage board's apparent inability to affect industry participation in wage hearings we have no alternative but to continue our strike."

The union president said the dispute dates back to September, 1951, and added that the strike has been postponed three times since then. He pointed out that the strike actually went into effect almost two months after its original effective date.

"We have patiently attempted to achieve peaceful settlements but to no avail. We have finally been forced to strike and we must continue striking until settlements are reached."

Strike Threatens Nation

The strike for higher wages and increased night work pay began one week ago. It has had these effects:

1. Refineries producing nearly three million of the nation's daily 6.5 million barrels of oil daily have been shut down.

2. A 30 per cent slash in high-octane gasoline for commercial airliners and private planes took effect Tuesday.

3. The air force has reduced training flights, involving about 12,000 pilots at U. S. bases, to conserve fuel. Military flying in Europe and Alaska also has been curtailed by the air force.

4. Filling station supplies are dwindling in some areas, notably around Chicago and Detroit, and some operators are rationing gasoline to customers. But Secretary of the Interior Oscar Chapman said no nationwide rationing now is planned.

5. The government has extended to all but five states its restrictions on inventories of gasoline, diesel oil and other fuels.

6. Union leaders said the defense department must screen all applications by the armed services for oil products from strikebound refineries, but all such requests approved by the department will be granted promptly by the unions.

The strikers' original demand was for a wage boost of 25 cents per hour above the present average of $2-$2.10. But Knight said any company offering an 18½ cent increase undoubtedly would see the strike end at its plants.

Steelworkers Ready To Bargain Again

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Philip Murray said Wednesday the CIO-United Steelworkers union is ready to resume negotiations with the steel industry.

But Murray said, "Industry is going to have to bargain on an equal give-and-take basis — not just bargain-down."

The steelworkers president, who is also head of the national CIO, said the union has bargained "for more than five months in good faith — but not the industry."

Murray said "all bargaining had ceased and the union was ready to strike" when President Truman suggested the issues be turned over to the wage stabilization board for recommendation.

"The union agreed. So did industry. But when the WSB handed down its decision, the union accepted. Industry refused."

"Now industry wants to bargain once more, but it wants only to bargain down the recommendations of the board. And we will accept nothing less than those recommendations."

Murray was here for a one-day closed meeting of the union's 86-man executive board which assembled to lay plans for the biennial convention opening Tuesday. Approximately 3,000 delegates representing the union's 1.1 million members will attend the five-day conclave.

Indian Student Enjoys Freedom for Foreigners

By DON MAPES
Kandaswamy Arunachalam, a 42-year-old graduate student from India, says he likes the U.S. people, prosperity and freedom, but not the weather.

Arunachalam, a Hindu, came here last fall from his home in Periyanaickenpalayam, a town of 2,500 in southern India where he and his wife (who didn't come with him) both teach at a teacher's college.

The cold weather in this country bothers Arunachalam, "but there is much to compensate for that," he says. He likes the freedom allowed foreigners here to go about their own ways and live as their culture dictates.

It pleases him that "there is plenty to eat here, even for the laborer." Arunachalam's home town, the little one with the big name mentioned above, has a textile mill where 600 people spin yarn from cotton grown in Madras. Others press oil from peanuts and coconuts, and make pottery. Arunachalam's mother has a coffee plantation.

He says our businesses and factories operate with far less manpower than those in his country. This he said had at first given him the impression that we were "very short of manpower," but he added that he later realized that we employ countless machines to do work here that is done by hand in his country.

He was surprised to find radios and telephones in rural areas over here. These do not exist in his country. The fact that we often have many churches located in a small town prompted him to ask how people so divided got along with each other.

Assured that they did "get along," he went on to say that he was surprised to find laymen and people from all walks of life teaching Sunday school classes. He said when he first attended a church in Iowa City he recognized the Sunday school teacher as being a downtown grocer. He likes the idea.

Critical of Marriage Customs Concerning the American family, Arunachalam was critical of the way we Americans choose our marriage partners. He thinks young people aren't qualified to choose their marriage partner and that "they should seek advice, help and counseling from their elders and those qualified to give such advice."

Arunachalam said marriages in his country are arranged by the parents, but he added that the parties are usually consulted as to their choice. "Neighbors usually marry and only very seldom is a person forced to marry a stranger," he said.

Aunachalam came to the U.S. on a Fulbright travel grant and is attending school on a Watumull Foundation scholarship. After receiving an M.A. in education this June, he will tour the country (at his own expense) before sailing for India from New York in August.

"Hello - Society editor!"

Fight Against Gambling Lured Dixon From Trip to Mexico

Kenneth L. Dixon, born on a midwest farm, became a school teacher because he didn't like farming, turned reporter because teaching was too tame, freelance to get experience, became an editor to earn more money and returned to reporting to get a war correspondent's assignment.

After the war he turned to writing a syndicated column with headquarters in Washington. Then to Europe and Palestine on reporting assignments. After that Dixon intended to go to Mexico to write a book.

"Instead," he says, "despite being fully passported, shot, etc., when I stopped off at Lake Charles, La., to visit old friends and found them needing help, I stayed to lend a hand and never got on the road again."

As managing editor of the Lake Charles American Press, Dixon was acquitted last month of defamation charges growing out of a crusade against gambling.

Briefly, that's the background of the man who will deliver the Don R. Mellett Memorial lecture in Iowa City May 15.

Dixon will discuss freedom of information in a public lecture at 8 p.m. in the Shambaugh lecture room of University library.

Dixon, 37, was one of five members of his newspaper's management and staff who were indicted in August, 1951, on charges of defaming 16 public officials and three gamblers. The newspaper had been crusading against gambling in its country.

The right of citizens and newspapers to criticize the public acts of government officials was cited in the court's decision of acquittal. The court called this right an essential without which government would be dictatorship.

Born near Colchester, Ill., on April 3, 1915, Dixon went to school there and at Western Illinois State Teachers college. He taught school for three years, working as reporter in the summer and on weekends. Then he became a fulltime hand on the Canton, Ill., Daily Ledger.

After free-lancing ("hitchhiking starvation," he called it) while he went to the Hobbs, N.M., Daily News-Sun, eventually becoming its editor. While there, he married Ola Maye Montgomery on July 1, 1938. The following year he became managing editor of the Carlsbad, N.M., Daily Current-Argus.

When the tragedy of Bataan occurred, the families of a battery of Carlsbad boys on the peninsula haunted his office for news of their sons. That convinced Dixon that war reporting on a home-town basis was vital. He promptly applied to the Associated Press for a war correspondent's job.

On July 1, 1942, he was assigned to the Washington bureau and for a year kept reminding all who would listen that he wanted to go overseas. In August of 1943, he did.

First he went to Algiers, then on to Italy, the Anzio beachhead, Cassino and Rome. Then he made the landing in southern France and went with the troops through France, Belgium and into Germany.

him out to get their names in the paper back home.

At the end of the war Dixon was in the Pacific and quit the AP to go with International News Service and King Features, writing a column called "Assignment: America."

For three years he worked out of Washington, covering top stories and writing columns from all over the country. He returned to Europe in 1948, then quit INS and King Features, aiming to go to Mexico.

That's when he wound up in Lake Charles.

Dixon's address will be the 23d annual lecture series established in memory of Don R. Mellett of the Canton, O., News. Mellett was shot and killed in 1926 because of a newspaper crusade he was conducting against crime and corruption in government.

The annual memorial lecture is sponsored by a fund in the custody of New York university, which each year selects a new site for the talk.

Choice Quotes from Nathan Book

By JIM GOLTZ
In the "World of George Jean Nathan," published by Borzoi books and now available at most book stores, author Charles Angoff has gathered together, from three dozen of Nathan's out-of-print books, what he considers the liveliest and most lasting pieces.

The book expresses the attitudes of an extremely civilized and witty man on a great variety of subjects: women, theater, English, New York city, gynecology, strip-tease, love, bachelors, and so on. There are also portraits of some of Nathan's friends: H. L. Mencken, Theodore Dreiser, Sinclair Lewis, Eugene O'Neill, and others.

Some of the most choice quotes from the book:
"I know many married men; I even know a few happily married men; but I don't know one who wouldn't fall down the first open coal-hole running after the first pretty girl who gave him a wink."

"Greatest Happiness" "The greatest happiness is that of the imminent, but not yet quite realized, achievement. To be about to succeed — that is true happiness. To have succeeded — that is to be in Pechorr brewery, with diabetes."

"The test of a real comedian is whether you laugh at her before she opens her mouth."
"The man who whispers into the ear of a sweet one that she is the only woman he will ever have a penchant for is, accordingly, one of three sorts; a deliberate fraud and liar; an unconscious fraud and liar; or a man over 60 who, either deliberately and unconsciously, is telling the melancholy truth."

Critic's Worst Bore "The worst of all bores encountered by a dramatic critic is the one who approaches him after the first act and asks him what he thinks of the play. My own usual retort to any such jackass is to inquire of him, in turn, what he thinks of a dinner after the oysters."

"An actress is charming on the stage in the degree that her audience imagines she is charming off the stage."
"In the words of a friend of mine, I drink to make other people interesting."

CAPSULE REVIEW: "Kon-Tiki" is a motion picture of primitive beauty, offering "must-see" filmfare for those who have read and enjoyed the book of the same title. Consisting of films made during a six-man voyage across the Pacific combined with narration by the book's author, it contains fact more thrilling than fiction. Also, showing is "The Mob," which features Broderick Crawford playing Russian roulette with the coldest crew since "The Killers." With it is "Thunderhead," a horse story.

NOW AVAILABLE on Columbia Masterworks records are complete recordings of six Metropolitan operas with their original New York casts—"Hansel and Gretel," "La Boheme," "Madame Butterfly," "Faust," "Die Fledermaus," and "Pagliacci."

The best-selling opera in the Metropolitan's recorded repertoire has been "La Boheme" with Bidu Sayago and Richard Tucker. "Così Fan Tutte" will be recorded in early June for fall release with Eleanor Steber and Richard Tucker.

Jerry Silberman, A1, Milwaukee, Wis., will portray "Mr. Puffy," a kind-hearted old Irishman. Silberman has been in six of this season's seven productions. Playing opposite him will be Donna Anfinson, A2, Nevada, as "Mrs. Puffy," a woman with a special knack for befriending the poor.

Mortar Board to 'Tap' New Members Saturday

A colorful SUI tradition of many years will be continued Saturday when new Mortar Board members are received into the organization.

The names of new members are kept secret until the time of the official tapping ceremony which will take place on the west approach to Old Capitol at 2 p.m.

Sixteen active members, garbed in their traditional caps and gowns, will circulate through the audience and "tap" new members by placing mortar boards on the head of each one.

Each year on Mother's day weekend, from 5 to 20 junior women are initiated into Mortar Board on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and service to the school. The active chapter chooses the new members guided by faculty recommendations and student opinion as expressed through a junior vote.

An SUI organization, "Staff and Circle," founded in the spring of 1911 by Anna Klingenhagen, then dean of women, was the campus group which in 1926 became a Mortar Board chapter.

A breakfast was held for all junior women and those in attendance voted for 12 girls who made up the first membership. They were elected on the basis of scholarship, personality, and accomplishments.

The organization was defined as "an advisory council for the dean designed to further the best development of university women."

The national organization was founded in 1918 and included chapters at Swarthmore college,

Cornell university, Ohio State university, and University of Michigan.

It now has about 85 chapters throughout the United States with a membership of 19,000. Approximately 1,000 new members are received annually.

Iowa chapters other than the one at SUI are Iowa State college, Cornell college, and Grinnell college.

Advisers for the SUI Mortar Board society are Helen Reich, assistant director of the office of student affairs, Mrs. B. V. Crawford, and Mrs. H. J. Thornton. Each one serves a three year term.

Davey Gets 4 Knockdowns, Unanimous Win Over Vejar

Grant Vejar 1 Round After Closing Rally

CHICAGO (AP) — Undefeated Chuck Davey, scoring four spectacular knockdowns, Wednesday night easily defeated Chico Vejar with harpooning lefts to the face and stomach in their ten round welterweight battle in Chicago Stadium.

The decision of the two judges and Referee Frank Sikora was unanimous. Making an astonishing whirlwind finish, Vejar was credited with winning only the tenth round. The second and the ninth were declared even.

Davey, fancy boxing southpaw, outsmarted and outmaneuvered the New York university dramatic arts freshman by his savage two-fisted attack to the head and body.

Davey Top Welter Threat

The victory moved Davey, unbeaten in 33 bouts, into contention as the foremost challenger of Cuban Kid Gavilan's welterweight championship.

Davey, holder of a master's degree from Michigan State college, scored two knockdowns in the first round, another in the sixth and another in the seventh.

Davey was complete master of the 20-year-old Stamford, Conn., youth in all but the last two rounds during which Chico staged a stirring but belated rally.

Vejar, who had never fought a southpaw, was unable to fathom Davey's bewildering stance and was an easy target for stabbing right jabs and left crosses.

The defeat was only Vejar's second in 43 fights. He had scored 24 knockouts.

Absorbs Pummeling

Vejar displayed rare courage and an iron man's stamina to bring himself up off the canvas after absorbing severe punishment.

Davey swarmed all over Vejar at the start. He first knocked him down with sharp left crosses to the jaw. Vejar got up at the count of five, but took an eight count as required by the rules of the Illinois State Athletic commission.

Near the end of the first three minutes of fighting, Vejar hit the floor again after being pummeled by a series of rights and lefts to the head and jaw.

He took an eight count the second time.

The other two knockdowns — in the sixth and seventh — were scored by paralyzing left hand punches to the stomach.

Belated Flurry

When it appeared that Vejar was finished and wouldn't survive the count, he amazed the crowd, estimated at 10,000, by leaping up and charging into Davey.

The college graduate, 26-year-old baby faced son of a Detroit policeman, proved that he rates a title match with Gavilan by his one sided victory.

Davey and Vejar weighed the same — each at 148½ pounds — 1½ over the welterweight limit.

Ray's Got the Fists —

Sugar Eyes Joey's Title

— Fans Have the Cash

NEW YORK (AP) — Ray Robinson, having changed his mind about letting George do it, has agreed to meet Joey Maxim in a light heavyweight championship match at Yankee stadium, June 23. George probably is very much relieved.

Every time the subject of such a match has come up before, Sugar Ray had a stock answer, to wit: "Let George fight him." George is George Gainford, Robinson's manager, who didn't figure to be hurt at all if he sent his mid-dleweight king into the ring with Maxim.

Ray Didn't Wanna

Not too long ago the International Boxing club declared with finality that the fight was off. It had been trying to make the match, but Robinson ostensibly wanted no part of it.

That he shouldn't be understandable, for as good as he is it doesn't figure that he can give away 15 pounds or so to a cutie like Maxim. Joey may not be a great champion, but he knows his way around inside those ropes and is a pretty rugged citizen.

But Ray might have started to do a little figuring. He knows that such a match figures to draw a half-million or better gate, and a fellow can take a pretty fair beating for what Robinson's share promises to be.

"Big Money Match"

Regardless of the reason for the sudden change in the picture, we now are due for some high-pressure ballyhoo, with everyone digging back into the record books to prove that a little man, if he is good enough, has an excellent chance against pretty fair big men.

Lawson Gets Award —

Gridders to Give Iowa Single Wing 'Premiere'

By JIM COOKE

Iowa football fans will get a preview of the 1952 Hawkeye team here Saturday afternoon when a regulation intrasquad game will mark the end of spring football practice.

Coach Forest Evashevski and his staff have divided the 75-man Iowa squad into two teams, the "Blacks" and the "Golds," for the scrimmage at three o'clock in the stadium.

Injury May Scratch Rice
 George (Dusty) Rice, outstanding halfback who was slated for a starting position on the Black squad, may miss Saturday's game. Rice injured his knee during scrimmage Tuesday afternoon and did not practice Wednesday.

Iowa trainer Doyle Allsup said Rice's status will not be definitely known until the knee is examined today. "Corky" Reister filled in for Rice at left halfback on the Black squad at yesterday's drills. Coach Evashevski announced Wednesday that Warren (Bud) Lawson has been named by the coaching staff as the recipient of the award for the player contributing the most to spring practice. Lawson, a sophomore from Fairfield, has held the center position on Evashevski's first offensive unit.

Still 2 Platoons

The award, an Elgin wrist watch, is based upon attitude, attendance and improvement and will be awarded to a member of the spring football squad each year.

Saturday's intrasquad game will pit Burt Britzmann and his offensive-minded Black team against the Golds, who have been drilling mainly as a defensive unit. With Britzmann in the Black backfield will be Bob Stearnes, Bernie Bennett, Jim Milani, Bob Phillips, Bunny Broeder, Reister, and possibly Rice. Linemen include Dan McBride, Bill Fenton, Dick Frymire, Andy Houg, and Lawson.

Paul Kemp will quarterback the Gold team, which will have Don Chelf, Joe Paulson, Phil Hayman, Don Inman, Jim Hatch, and Bob Keefe along their probable starters.

These are the squads:

BLACKS
 Ends: Dan McBride, Bill Fenton, Marlow Eckhoff, Clyde Gardner, Gene Holtorf, Frank Strub.
 Tackles: George Palmer, Dick Frymire, Ennet Sawyer, Lloyd DeBillo, Dan Exline, Jim Frazer.

A. L. Signs Ump Robb

CHICAGO (AP) — President Will Harridge of the American league Wednesday hired Douglas W. "Scotty" Robb, who quit his National league umpiring job two days ago after being disciplined and fined by the senior circuit's boss, Warren Giles.

The direct switch of leagues by an arbiter under such circumstances is unprecedented in the majors.

In taking the action, Harridge praised Robb as "the kind of gentleman we like to have on our staff."

"Robb's a Good One"
 "We needed another umpire and we considered Robb a good one," he added. "His first assignment for us will be in the White Sox-Easton Red Sox game in Chicago next Tuesday night."

Assigned with Robb for that game are Art Passarella, Joe Paparella and Ed Hurley.
 "Robb gives us a full umpiring complement of 16 men," said Earl Hilligan, A. L. director of public relations. "Cal Hubbard, whose eye injury by a shotgun pellet is keeping him out of action this season, still is being carried as a member. Robb worked the 1950 and 1951 All-Star games and our umpires know him and what he can do."

Robb, a four-year veteran of the National league, was accused of pushing Manager Eddie Stanky of the St. Louis Cardinals during a game at Cincinnati April 22. Giles at a subsequent hearing fined Robb "a sizable amount and much greater than the combined fines of the players involved."

"Happy to be Back"
 Stanky was fined $50 and Cardinal shortstop Solly Hemus drew $25. Hemus started the altercation by throwing his bat in the air when he was called out on strikes.

"Harridge telephoned Giles Tuesday and asked if Robb were a free agent and could sign with the American league," said Hilligan. "When this was established, Harridge phoned Robb this morning at his Cedar Grove, N. J.

home and offered him the position with us."

At his Cedar Grove printing plant, Robb said: "I'm happy to be back in baseball... and you can judge how happy I am when I say that when Mr. Harridge approached me with an offer I was so choked up I couldn't talk for a minute or two. That's how I felt."

Commissioner Ford Frick in New York would not comment on the affair.

Cleveland Beats Yankees, 7-2; New York Dumps Cards, 3-1

Tribe Tops Yanks

NEW YORK (AP) — The Cleveland Indians made it two straight over New York Wednesday as Mike Garcia scattered 12 Yankee hits for a 7-2 triumph, the Tribe's fourth in a row. The victory kept the Indians a game behind the league-leading Boston Red Sox.

The Indians made only 11 safeties off three Yankee hurlers but three went for extra bases, a home run by Al Rosen and back to back doubles by Luke Easter and Dale Mitchell. On the other hand, the light-hitting Yanks collected only a pair of two-baggers among their dozen base hits.

Giants Beat Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The New York Giants spoiled the starting debut of Willard Schmidt, 23-year-old righthander of the St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday night, 3-1, but not before they used their two veteran masters of the mound, twice 23-game winners of 1951 Sal Maglie and Larry Jansen. The 35-year-old Maglie was credited with the victory, his fifth of the season and eighth straight.

Schmidt, a graduate of the class A Western league, hurled creditably in his first major league starting assignment, allowing eight hits before retiring under fire in the seventh inning.

BoSox Win, 7-2

BOSTON (AP) — Rookie southpaw Bill Henry chalked up his fourth straight pitching victory by handcurfing the Chicago White Sox to five hits Wednesday as the Boston Red Sox swept the two-game series with a 7-2 decision.

That unbeaten youngster helped his own cause tremendously by banging a three-bagger and a single as three Chicago hurlers were slammed for nine hits. Henry's blows drove in two runs.

Nats Drub Tigers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington defeated Detroit, 6-2, for its sixth straight victory Wednesday night, behind the five-hit pitching of Sid Hudson, who posted his second win. Ted Gray was shelled during the Senators' four-run uprising in the third inning, and was charged with his fourth loss.

Bucs Whip Phils

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Southpaw Howie Pollet scattered five hits Wednesday night as he pitched the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 5-1 win over the Philadelphia Phillies to snap a six-game losing streak for the last place Bucs. The Phillies helped the Pirate cause by committing five errors. It was

Pollet's first win of the season against three defeats. Russ Meyer was charged with the loss — his fourth in a row.

Pollet gave up two infield hits in the first inning, then was nearly invincible until the fifth when Connie Ryan tagged him for a homer.

A's Jolt Browns

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Alex Kellner of the Philadelphia Athletics and Earl Harrist of the St. Louis Browns waged a tightly knit mound duel Wednesday night as the A's beat the Browns 1-0. Kellner allowed only five hits and Harrist four. The lone Philadelphia tally came in the first inning on a double by Eddie Joost, a sacrifice and an outfield fly.

Brooks Win, 5-4

CINCINNATI (AP) — Rookie Johnny Rutherford allowed only three hits in six and two-thirds innings of relief pitching Wednesday night as he hurled the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 5-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. The 26-year-old Rutherford, up from St. Paul, took over after the Reds had shelled starter Chris Van Cuyk for three runs in the third.

Spring Program Proof —

Band at Home in Concert

— Performance Is Tops

By JIM GOLTZ

The university band Wednesday night made a great stride in proving Prof. C. B. Righter's point that a band is equally "at home" in a concert hall as an orchestra.

The band performed in the Iowa Memorial Union in its 71st annual spring concert.

In attempting the interpretation of numbers obviously written for orchestra, the band was superb, with Righter's directing seeming almost triumphant with the knowledge of his achievement. All of the selections played, each one seemingly designed to appeal to emotions, were far superior to anything else the band has attempted this season.

Swirling Passages

Wagner's "A Faust Overture" combined swirling passages with rolling drums, moving to a thundering climax followed by a subdued ending. Delibes' "Cortège de Bacchus" was also a triumphant work — its opening accentuated by the sharp clash of a cymbal, light, tinkling bells and the proud blast of a horn.

On Cowell's "Hymn" and Milhaud's "Provence," the horn section was once again excellent, the latter being a lively, spirited affair. Gould's contemporary "Allegro Moderato" featured a semi-jazz tempo expressing the fevered bustle of modern-day life.

Khachaturian's "Sabre Dance" was superbly staccato, his "Lullaby" tranquil, and his "Dance of the Rose Maidens," fiery.

Outstanding Numbers

The two most outstanding numbers performed were Williams' "A London Symphony" and Grieg's "Piano Concerto." The "Symphony" depicts a staid, severe British type of ceremony, which, through a chorus of Westminster chimes, dissolves into a sense of pastoral beauty.

Conducted by Albert V. English, it mingles pomp with subtle pagant, seeming to describe files of cavaliers parading before a ceremonial court.

The well-known "Piano Concerto" was well performed by James L. Taggart.

Keys Presented

Following the "Cortège," gold I-Club keys were presented to twelve band members. Receiving keys were:

J. Wesley Bolin, A4, Iowa City; Donald Briceland, A2, Iowa City; Gerald W. Buxton, A3, Iowa City; Donald R. Gissel, A4, Ft. Howard, Md.; David W. Hart, A4, Iowa City; Danne Longstreth, A3, Elma; Donald G. Tweed, E2, Ft. Madison; Robert T. Quade, G, Elizabeth, N.J.; James L. Rice, A4, Des Moines; Donald D. Rogers, Iowa City; John A. Ruttan, Iowa City; and Clarence L. Tripplitt, C3, Jefferson.

The program was closed with the perennial "Iowa Fight Song," which almost seemed ludicrous in comparison with the moving classical works performed.

Instrumentalists will be Donald Briceland, Iowa City; Maurice Fahmy, Deep River; and Dorothy Schaefer, East Moline, Ill., all clarinet; Ronald Tyree, Des Moines, bassoon; Barbara Krieger, Grand Junction; Alan Rea, Kansas City, Mo.; and instructor Margaret Pendleton, all piano.

Finance Company Files $344 Suit

According to a petition filed in Johnson county district court by the household finance corporation, Irvin J. Kelley has defaulted on a $300 promissory note, and the corporation seeks judgment of $344.97.

Kelley made the loan, which was payable in 24 monthly installments, April 28, 1951, and the note provided that upon default in making any payment, the unpaid balance of the principle and interest should be at once due and should be paid.

The petition further states that the defendant has defaulted and the sum due as of May 6, 1952, is $344.97.

Debaters to Argue College Athletics

Two SUI debaters, Allen Hall, A3, San Diego, and James McKinney, A2, Muscatine, will participate in a debate at Iowa State college on May 16.

The debate will be included in the Veisha activities. The resolution is: "Resolved that all intercollegiate athletics should be abolished." SUI will take the affirmative side.

At the Big 10 debate conference in Columbus, O., a discussion of intercollegiate athletics was held and a resolution to abolish them was passed. The SUI debaters wanted to discuss the question further and challenged the Iowa State college debaters.

Hospital Sends 'Health' Letters

Tumor Registry Keeps Track of Patients

By MARY JO GARVEY

When a tumor patient leaves university hospitals after receiving treatment, he is not forgotten as far as the tumor registry office is concerned.

Edward Wieben, statistician and head of the office, sends approximately 6,000 letters yearly to these patients questioning them about the effectiveness of treatment they received and about their health in general.

Personal correspondence is the key to the registry's success, said Wieben. A patient examined at the hospital for a tumor is thereafter listed on the registry. A letter every six months questions him about his physical condition. After he has been on the registry five years, the letter is limited to an annual contact.

7,000 Patients Contacted
Correspondence in 1951 with the 7,000 patients on the registry resulted in 6,400 answers to questions concerning the patient's physical condition.

The registry was set up in 1948 to follow patients having tumors or cancer. A tumor does not necessarily mean cancer.

Correspondence includes questions concerning effectiveness of different types of treatment received by the patients while at the hospital, complications resulting from disease or method of treatment, and establishes the natural history of the disease.

All letters sent out are individually typed and signed by some member of the registry office. This adds an intimate personal touch and makes the patient feel that the office is actually interested in his individual case.

Another way of encouraging him to answer these letters is by asking, "Do you have any other comments to make concerning your health which you feel might be of help to us in dealing with your case?"

The registry also supplies reliable data on incidence, location, and effect of treatment for cancer research. Wieben explained that this is a basis for improvement in methods of treatment. Material from the files is used to teach medical students about the diagnosis and treatment of tumors.

SUI Construction To Resume Today

Local iron workers and laborers are expected to return to work this morning, weather permitting, following a walkout last week during a wage dispute.

The strike was officially ended Tuesday night at Cedar Rapids at an American Federation of Labor meeting, when the iron workers accepted the 15-cent-an-hour increase offered by the contractors. The workers had previously requested a 20-cent-an-hour raise.

Work would have been resumed Wednesday morning on construction jobs here and at Oakdale, if the weather had permitted, Roy Skriver, business agent for Laborers' Local No. 43, said.

While the teamsters and cement finishers did not come to terms, it is expected that their differences with the contractors will be settled in the near future, Skriver said.

Work, in the meanwhile, will be resumed by members of the other unions on such projects as the Hospital School for Severely Handicapped Children, the SUI Communications Center and the Oakdale sanatorium.

SUI Couple Share Good Luck

When a husband or wife receives a scholarship for study abroad, there is often some reluctance in accepting the award because the couple would be separated for some length of time.

In the case of SUI students Robert and Mary Ruigh, this difficulty has been completely overcome. Both have received Fulbright awards for study at Oxford, England, beginning next fall.

"We didn't expect both of us to get one," Robert said Wednesday as he and his wife looked over forms that will pay round-trip transportation, books, tuition and subsistence.

First SUI Couple
The grants are the first of such awards to be given simultaneously to an SUI couple and quite unusual even in the entire country.

Mr. Ruigh will continue work in the history of natural law at the University college of Oxford and Mrs. Ruigh will study Anglo-Norman legal history at Somerville college.

Mrs. Ruigh graduated from SUI with high distinction in August 1948. She was a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic fraternity for women.

Both SUI Grads
Her husband expects to receive his master's degree in August. He received his B.A. in June, 1949, graduating with highest distinction. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Both are now working on their Ph.D.'s. Robert is a research assis-

The couple first met in a cultural history class on the SUI campus after discharge from the service. He had served 28 months in the army air force, part of the time in England, taking 26 missions as a gunner on a B-24. She was a navy nurse during World War II.

Carthage College to Give Doctorates to SUI Grads

Two SUI alumni will receive honorary doctorate degrees from Carthage (Ill.) college at commencement exercises June 2.

They are Conger Reynolds, a 1912 journalism graduate and director of public relations for Standard Oil company since 1929, and Dr. Merriam H. Trytten, who received his M.S. degree from SUI in 1924 and is now director of the office of scientific personnel of the National Research Council, Washington, D.C.

Library to Install New Cooling Units

Warm weather will be no excuse for neglecting studies as plans for a cooling system in University library proceed.

Although time of arrival is not certain, cooling units have been ordered for the most used areas of each floor, according to Prof. Ralph Ellsworth, director of the library.

These units will be installed in the technical processes area on first floor, the reading area on the east end of the second floor and government documents reading room and east area of the third floor.

Venetian blinds have been ordered for all east, south and west windows. Screens will be placed on windows not in the areas of the cooling units so that they may be opened.

Further plans for air-conditioning the library will depend on whether the next session of the Iowa legislature will appropriate funds for such a project.

Government Suspends Controls Regulating Installment Buying

WASHINGTON (AP) — Controls over installment buying were suspended Wednesday because the government decided inflationary dangers have eased off.

For the consumer, the decision means no government requirements as to down payments or time to pay for automobiles, furniture, radio and television sets, and scores of other items.

Many authorities said the result would be a trend toward small down payments and more time to pay. Dealers and finance companies still may impose their own terms, in the absence of government regulations.

The federal reserve board's regulation "W" has required a one-third down payment on automobiles and 15 per cent down on most other items, with 18 months to pay.

The board urged congress to extend its control powers, now due to expire June 30, so the installment buying curbs can be imposed again if needed in any new inflationary upsurge.

Wednesday's action was another in a series of steps in which the government has noted a lessening of inflationary threats.

Only Monday, the reserve board lifted its program of voluntary credit restraints designed to confine bank loans and other financing to defense projects and essential civilian needs.
