Children Miss Their Grandparents

ALONE IN A BUS DEPOT in Indianapolis Friday were Freddie Goins, 5, and his sister Sussie, 4, who had traveled all the way from Florida to visit their grandparents. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baldwin, missed connections with the children at Indianapolis. The children couldn't remember their grandparents' names. Bus driver Fred Holleman (right) tried to comfort the kids until the bus, the children, and the Baldwins got together at Ford Wayne. Mrs. Baldwin said the mother, Mrs. Mary Goins, is ill in Florida and can't care for the children.

Until Full Red Demands Are Known

Dodd Wants No Force Used For His Release

SEOUL (SATURDAY) (AP) — An American general held captive for three days by North Korean prisoners of war on Koje island has asked the eighth army not to attempt his rescue by force until full Communist demands are made known.

The army was ready to use force when ordered.

Gen. James A. Van Fleet disclosed today that the Allied command already had granted the Communist prisoners some minor demands in an effort to obtain the release of Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd. But the eighth army commander made clear he never would yield to "unreasonable" demands from the Reds. He insisted that the 52-year-old general be released unharmed.

Dodd Has Been Replaced

Dodd commanded the prisoner of war camp on Koje island off southeast Korea when he was seized Wednesday by North Korean prisoners. He has since been replaced.

"We have granted minor requests of the Communists and have asked them for a statement of their demands — telephones, writing paper, admittance of representatives to other compounds," Van Fleet said in a statement.

"Gen. Dodd in a telephone conversation with camp authorities last night requested that there be no violence," Van Fleet said. "Dodd indicated that conferences within the hide-away were being held on a peaceful plane."

Hide-away Unknown

The hide-away apparently referred to the building or tent inside compound No. 72 where Dodd is held captive. Allied soldier guards outside the compound do not know its precise location.

Van Fleet, who made a trip by plane to the southeast Korean island Friday, said it was expected the Communist leaders would conclude their talks with Dodd this morning.

Van Fleet disclosed for the first time that Dodd was seized when he answered a request for a conference with the Red prisoners.

"The evidence as to what happened at the time of General Dodd's capture is so conflicting that no clear picture is possible now," Van Fleet added. "That is why the (army) board of inquiry is sitting."

Fair Weather Forecast

DES MOINES (AP) — Several days of rains and unseasonably cool weather were due to make their exit from Iowa Friday night, making way for a weekend of partly cloudy to mostly fair weather and higher temperatures.

The weather bureau said also late Friday the rain stopped in the western part of the state Friday afternoon and is due to end in the east during the night. Indications for today are for partly cloudy skies and higher temperatures, and for Sunday mostly fair weather with little temperature change.

McGranary Now Faces Test on Senate Floor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The senate judiciary committee Friday voted 8-4 to approve the nomination of Federal Judge James P. McGranary as U.S. attorney general, but a number of Republicans promptly announced they will continue their fight to block the confirmation on the senate floor.

With a single exception, the committee split on party lines. The exception was Sen. William Langer (R-N.D.), who sided with seven Democrats against four Republicans. Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) was absent and did not vote.

Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.), who opposed McGranary in four-day committee hearings, said he will file a minority report setting forth reasons for his opposition.

Chairman Pat McCarran (D-Nev.) said he would send the nomination to the senate without delay, but would refrain from asking the senate to act until Ferguson's minority report is completed, which will be three or four days.

Witnesses during the hearings variously described McGranary as a tyrant on the bench who set federal attorneys quaking with terror, and as a man of unchallenged integrity and great ability.

Sen. Arthur Watkins (R-Utah), who opposed McGranary, said he also would speak out against the nomination on the senate floor, but that he assumed the administration has enough votes to put the nomination over.

McGranary was named by President Truman to succeed former Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath early last month, after McGrath fired Newbold Morris as the administration's anti-corruption chief and then Truman fired McGrath.

80 Students to Take Medical Exam Today

About 80 SUI students will take the national medical college admission test in the geology lecture room today.

The test is given for students planning to enter medical study in the fall of 1953. It is sponsored by the Association of American Medical Colleges, and will be used, along with other college records, in determining admission to medical college.

Prof. Robert L. Ebel, director of the SUI examination service, said Friday that students taking the test should report to the geology lecture room at 8:30 a.m. Actual testing will begin at 9 a.m. The test is 5 hours and 45 minutes long, and has a 3-hour afternoon session.

Scores will not be made available to those taking the exam, but will be sent to any recognized college of medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, nursing or veterinary medicine, which the student requests.

NEW ATOMIC PROGRAM

HOT SPRINGS, VA. (AP) — Chairman Gordon Dean of the atomic energy commission said Friday that a proposed new atomic expansion program, costing something under five billion dollars, probably will go to congress within 10 days.

OPS Requests Quick Change In Price Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The office of price stabilization (OPS) told congress Friday a quick change in the price control law is needed to prevent higher food prices and chaotic conditions in the merchandising trade.

OPS boss Ellis Arnall said that unless provisions of the Capehart amendment are clarified he will be compelled to boost ceiling prices on stocks of hundreds of thousands of food stores across the country.

The Capehart amendment was introduced by Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.) at the last session of congress and attached to the wage and price controls act. It permits cost increases from June 24, 1950, the date fighting began in Korea, until last July 26 to be added to retail prices.

OPS has been operating on the basis that the amendment applied only to manufacturers and processors of goods and to sellers of services.

Safeway Stores, Inc., a food chain, contended, however, that the amendment applied to wholesalers and retailers. It sued for the right to boost prices and was upheld by the emergency court of appeals, a special bench which handles price cases. The government is considering an appeal to the supreme court.

Russian Churchmen Rap United Nations

ZAGORSK, USSR (AP) — The leading churchmen of the Soviet Union sought Friday to rally all churches and faiths of the country to the Communist peace campaign.

White-bearded Nikolai, Russian Orthodox metropolitan (bishop) of Moscow, denounced the United Nations as an instrument of war in an address to scores of prelates and representatives of Russia's numerous religions.

The metropolitan accused "American imperialists" of starting the war in Korea and of using germ warfare there, and urged the churchmen to get in touch with believers in other nations to work for peace.

Patriarch Alexei, head of the Orthodox church in all Russia, who presided, likewise declared germ warfare in Korea and China must be "condemned by every religious person in every land."

Tipton Service Group Fetes Foreign Students

Eighteen SUI foreign students are guests of the Tipton Lions club this weekend. Today they will visit local business establishments, farms and industry.

Friday evening they participated in a Ladies' Night program. Sunday will be spent in club members' homes, and the students will return to SUI in the evening.

Judge Says Press Freedom Essential to Personal Liberties

SHREVEPORT, LA. (AP) — A Louisiana judge who acquitted five newsmen accused of defaming 16 public officials and three gamblers declared Friday night all individual freedom would perish if freedom of the press should die.

And warned Judge J. Bernard Cocke of New Orleans "the press itself is the principle guardian of its own freedom." Newspapers must "adhere to principle above desire for selfish gain and not become the advocate of special interests" to perform their duties and retain their powers, the New Orleans judge said.

Stoutly defending freedom of the press, Judge Cocke recently acquitted five Lake Charles, La., newspapermen on defamation charges.

Indicted for Anti-Gambling Crusade

The newsmen, members of the Lake Charles American Press staff, were indicted for their parts in an anti-gambling crusade waged by the American Press. Their trials attracted nationwide attention.

Judge Cocke, in an address prepared for delivery before the Louisiana Bar association, said:

'Have Power to Expose Corruption'

"Newspapers possess the power to expose corrupt officials and it is their solemn and inescapable duty to print the news and direct its own influence to the promotion of the public good."

But he added neither the constitution nor court decisions can protect the nation's press if it "prostitutes its privileges or offends recognized standards of fairness of decency and of morals."

One of the newsmen cleared of the defamation charges, Kenneth L. Dixon, managing editor of the American Press, is scheduled to deliver the Don R. Mellett Memorial lecture in Iowa City next Thursday.

Outstanding Mothers of the World

HONORED AS OUTSTANDING MOTHERS, Mrs. Rosa de Gonzales Videla (left) wife of the president of Chile, and Mrs. Toy Len Goon, Chinese-born Portland, Me. resident, appear to be at ceremonies in New York honoring them at the annual awards luncheon of the American Mothers committee. Mrs. Gonzales, who has two daughters and five grandchildren, was named "Mother of the World" in recognition of her work for welfare and social progress. Mrs. Goon, mother of eight, was selected "American Mother of 1952." She and two daughters operate a laundry in Portland.

GOV. WILLIAM S. BEARDSLEY presents an award to Herbert Cooke, A4, Cedar Rapids, for being chosen as the outstanding ROTC infantry senior. Marshall, A4, Evanston, Ill.; Beardsley; Cooke; and Donald W. Thomas, E4, Sioux City.

Beardsley Says ROTC Plays Big Role in Nation's Defense

The present reserve officers training corps program satisfies a place in our society today by allowing young men to study their vocations while receiving military training, Gov. William S. Beardsley said here Friday.

Beardsley spoke at a Governor's day luncheon in the Iowa Memorial Union honoring all senior ROTC cadets.

Training obtained from the ROTC program will leave American's young men better qualified to defend their nation if the need should arise, Beardsley said.

Beardsley Reviews Cadets
The governor's talk was the second main event in Governor's day ceremonies.

Earlier he reviewed SUI's 1,800 army and air force cadets in a parade at the field house. The review was originally scheduled to be held on the parade grounds behind the field house but rain forced it to be held inside.

The Scottish Highlanders and the ROTC band also performed at the review.

3 Seniors Honored
Receiving medals as the most outstanding ROTC seniors were Herbert J. Cooke, A4, Cedar Rapids, infantry; Donald W. Thomas, E4, Sioux City, engineering; and Charles B. Marshall, A4, Evanston, Ill., air force.

Melvin G. Beebe, E3, Robins, was awarded a medal as the outstanding engineering ROTC junior. William K. Ayers, A4, Lombard, Ill., received an award as the "most noteworthy" in the Billy Mitchell squadron.

Winners of the annual Governor's day rifle match were Edward McLaughlin, A4, Clinton, first; Donald J. Green, Renwick, A1, second; and Stanley L. James, A3, Iowa City, third.

Drill Medals Awarded
Receiving Chicago Tribune drill medals were Lawrence M. Phillips, A2, Des Moines; Charles L. Bolender, A2, Primghar; Ralph Heninger, A1, Davenport; Wayne Peterson, P2, Jacksonville, Ill.; William Anderson, A1, Clinton; John Hall Jr., A1, Chicago, Ill.; Edwin Carlson, P1, Marion, and Keith Jones, A1, Iowa City.

Minute Man medals were presented to eight freshmen and sophomore ROTC cadets for notable leadership and drill. They were awarded by the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Recipients were Bradford Burns, A2, Muscatine; Edwin Carlson, P1, Marion; Nicholas Katchee, A1, Cedar Rapids; Martin McCarthy, A1, New York, N.Y.; James Montgomery, A2, Jefferson; Lee Murphy, A1, Fort Madison; Stanley Roseberry, A1, Cedar Rapids, and Norman Sparrow, A1, Clemons.

6 Nations Pledged to Defense Pact

PARIS (AP) — Six West European nations Friday initiated the drafting of a treaty aimed at pooling their military resources in a unified army more than a million strong.

This army, intended to include 400,000 West German troops, is to be placed at the disposal of the North Atlantic Treaty organization (NATO) in the western front against aggression.

It will come under the command of Marshall Alphonse Juin, 62-year-old French military hero, in his capacity as chief of NATO's central ground sector.

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower hailed the initialing of the draft as "a real milestone in the development of Europe's defenses."

In Oslo on a farewell visit as the alliance's supreme commander, Ike told newsmen the army plan would bring German strength into the European defense system on a basis of self-respect.

But how soon West Germany will be able to start putting soldiers in uniform remains one of the big problems of the unification plan.

Plants, Stations Are to Retain Reserve Supply

By The Associated Press

The government Friday ordered a cut in gasoline consumption in 32 eastern and midwestern states, including Iowa, and the District of Columbia, as prospects of settling the nationwide oil strike grew dimmer.

The government directed bulk gasoline plants, terminals and large filling stations in the covered area to reserve supplies of motor gasoline for possible allocation to maintain essential transportation.

One-Halt of Stations

The order went into effect at 4:01 a.m. today (Iowa time) and may affect one-half of all filling stations in the area under the order.

There was no immediate indication of what effect the directive would have on the nation's motorists.

"Overall, the nation still has at this time adequate supplies of automotive gasoline," the petroleum administration for defense (PAD) said in a statement. "Local shortages may occur, however, in the eastern and central states because of difficulties in transporting products to the point of need."

O. A. Knight, president of the CIO Oil Workers International, largest of 22 unions involved, said in Denver the 90,000 strikers won't go back to work without a settlement.

Chairman Nathan Feinsinger said Friday he still felt there was a 50-50 chance at settling the 10-day-old dispute without turning it back to the White House.

Unions Ask 18 1/2¢

The unions originally asked a 25 cent an hour pay boost but said later they would settle at 18 1/2 cents. Wages now average $2 to $2.10 an hour. They also want 6 cents instead of 4 cents differential for a p.m. to midnight work and 12 instead of 6 for midnight to 8 a.m. work.

President Truman said he is working hard to settle the dispute. He added it isn't serious enough yet to invoke injunction powers of the Taft-Hartley law.

At the Interstate Oil Compact commission meeting in Phoenix, Frank Porter, president of the American Petroleum Institute, said the oil industry has stockpiled products in most sections to keep motorists from walking until about mid-June.

Order Affects Stations

The petroleum administration order declares: "Operators of service stations in PAD districts one and two having storage facilities for at least 3,000 gallons of fuel and bulk-plant and terminal operators in the same areas must keep on hand at least 3,000 barrels of motor fuel or a quantity equal to 5 per cent of their total storage capacity, whichever amount is smaller."

States in the two PAD-districts are: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina.

4 Air Force Men Indicted for Bribes To Dodge Service

DANVILLE, ILL. (AP) — A special federal grand jury indicted an air force master sergeant and three officers on charges involving alleged bribes to assist the officers in avoiding active duty. The indictment, returned in eastern Illinois federal district court, accused M/Sgt. Luther R. Bradley, of Staunton, Ill., of offering to change the officers' medical records for bribes ranging from $15 to $500. Bradley, who is attached to a medical unit at Scott air force base, Belleville, Ill., was charged with bribery and conspiracy in allegedly making such offers to some 150 air force reserve officers who had been recalled to active duty. Martin H. Haase of Staunton, a tavern operator, also was named by the grand jury, which accused him of acting as go-between in some of the bribe cases. The three officers, accused in the indictments of paying bribes to Bradley to change their records, are: Joseph A. Crowley, Indianapolis; Gordon W. Cook, Dearborn, Mich.; and Edward L. Kanok, Chicago.

Busino's Buffoonery

"I guess he's still marking our papers."

From Other Colleges

FENN COLLEGE The head of the department of speech at Fenn College, Ohio, thinks the nation's presidential candidates have a lot to learn about public speaking. He declares: "Taft lacks courtesy when excited, because of his concern for issues. During question periods he is likely to give speeches instead of answers."

"MacArthur becomes too dramatic," he goes on to say, "as with his 'old soldiers never die, they just fade away.' If he had, his speech might have rivaled Lincoln's Gettysburg address. As for Truman, who was a candidate at the time of the speech professor's remarks: 'He could announce that all income taxes will be abolished the first of next month and make it sound humdrum.'"

IOWA STATE A grant of $5,000 has been given Iowa State college by the Iowa division of the American Cancer Society, for research in the field of genetics. The money will support a project which already has been under way for some time in the Iowa agricultural experiment station. The project deals specifically with leukemia, or cancer of the blood. At the present time research is being done with chickens, with the knowledge gained expected to be of help in the study of tumors, their formation and growth.

ILLINOIS The assistant dean of foreign students at the University of Illinois made a check on the number of foreign students on that campus and also the number in United States schools. More than 30,000 students are on record, 420 of whom are at Illinois. Germany is the only European country among the "top 10" as compared with four from Asia and two from the Near East. The check of the students also revealed a financial investment of $75 million based on the total cost of travel, tuition, and room and board.

HOLY CROSS A committee at Holy Cross college of Massachusetts, keenly aware that most students are broke most of the time, published a pamphlet entitled, "Picking Pater's Pocket."

Some sample suggestions of what to tell the old man when you want money: "And I contributed all of last month's allowance to the Ubangi missions—" or "How was I to know they were using a Canasta deck?"

MICHIGAN STATE The dean of students at Michigan State college will wait on tables for the Zeta Beta Tau fraternity soon. His services were purchased for $32 at the third annual Campus Chest auction at Michigan State. The price paid for the dean was the highest bid for any of the faculty and staff for "sale." Total donations reached over $300.

The odd part of the deal is the fact that ZBT fraternity was placed on 10 weeks social probation by the dean last February.

DRAKE The Drake Relays may have been too much to take for one Drake athlete. A few days after the big track meet the sprinter walked through a closed window in one of the campus buildings. While being treated for leg cuts in the first aid room, the student said he mistook the 8-foot-high window for an open door. Three doors at the main entrance were propped open at the time. Witnesses said he walked right through the window without stopping.

NEBRASKA Four hundred male students at Nebraska university raided the women's dormitories and sorority houses two weeks ago, injuring a housemother and making off with quantities of lingerie. The housemother tried to stop the mob of shouting students when they approached one sorority house, but she was swept aside. She suffered bruises and a wrenched back.

City and campus police rushed to the scene but made no arrests. Jeering students turned water hoses on them. The disturbance began a water fight between residents of the men's dormitory and a neighboring fraternity house.

Voids Bookie Tax

AN EARLY U.S. supreme court test is expected following decision of Federal District Judge George A. Welsh (above) of Philadelphia that the federal law requiring bookmakers and numbers operators to register and pay a $50 stamp fee is unconstitutional. Judge Welsh ruled against several aspects of the law in the case of Joseph Kahrigier, 36, charged with failure to register as a gambler.

CONTINO IN ARMY LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dick Contino, one-time $4,000-a-week accordionist, got a $75-a-month job Wednesday. He was inducted into the army after passing a physical examination.

Interpreting the News — West Europe Defense Far From Realization

By J. M. ROBERTS JR. Associated Press News Analyst

The Western European allies are making a lot of noise about the latest steps in their defense program which is not altogether warranted by the actual meaning of the developments.

The intialling of what is really an incomplete draft treaty by a lower-echelon experts does mean that a lot of preliminary work is over. It also means that they have not been able to agree on key points which must now be taken up by the foreign ministers.

There is still a serious dispute over German payments to the proposed defense community and her expenditures on development of the forces to be raised in Germany. There is still a very serious Franco-German dispute over the Saar, without settlement of which the Germans say they will not go ahead. There are many organizational details still unsettled.

Greater than these, however, is the dispute over the terms of the new peace contract offered West Germany by the allies. These two treaties are deliberately intertwined, and neither can become effective without the other.

German Opposition Strong

Opposition in Germany has taken a strong position. Chancellor Adenauer obviously has gone out in front of his political support in dealing with the allied high commissioners.

It was not to be expected that the truly revolutionary concept of a six-nation European army, with Germans, Frenchmen, Italians, Belgians, Luxembourgers and Dutchmen, would be effected without hitches. The great step was when they agreed to even try to work it out at all.

And what I have said is not intended to represent pessimism over the ultimate outcome. It is just to make it clear that there are still many difficulties, which need not produce despair as they are met. The six European foreign ministers and their British and American allies are confident of great progress in their various meetings soon.

Marshal Aids Optimism

Perhaps there is some connection between the optimistic noise over the European defense community and the simultaneous selection of Marshal Juin of France to head the hoped-for army.

The allies are in a great race with Russian propaganda at the moment, and Russia is already visibly shocked by the intensity of allied defense efforts. The longer the negotiations are dragged out, the more time Russia has to work on the doubts of some Europeans.

They All Shoot It Out In I.C. Movies

By JIM GOLTZ CAPSULE REVIEW: "I'll Never Forget You" is an interesting film, concerning a man's transporting himself back through the centuries to the time of his ancestors. Made in England, it offers rollicking entertainment to pseudo-scientific fans and a rollicking "nightmare" to subscribers of True Science magazine.

Senate Inquiry Of Grain Shortages Seen Fading Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unless special investigators uncover some new sensations, most senators expect the senate investigation of the agriculture department and multi-million-dollar government grain shortages to gradually fade out.

Chairman Ellender (D-La.) of the senate agriculture committee, which is holding the inquiry, was opposed to it in the first place. He was out-voted by Republican committee members with the help of some Democrats, including Senator Anderson of New Mexico, former secretary of agriculture.

However, few committeemen except Ellender, who as chairman more or less feels obliged to attend, and Senator Aiken (R-Vt.) have sat through recent sessions. Only firework in sight is a probable dispute over what the committee's report to the senate will say.

MRS. R. A. FENTON, "REPRESENTATIVE SUI MOTHER" from Iowa City, will preside over the Mother's day weekend events. She is the wife of Dr. R. A. Fenton, professor emeritus of dental surgery at University hospitals. She is the mother of three SUI students, Anne, A4, John, A3, and Bill, A2. She will present the winning group in the University sing Sunday and speak at the mother-son-daughter luncheon.

'Streets of New York' — Bit Players Dominate Show

— Last SUI Production

By JIM GOLTZ

"The Streets of New York," which held its opening performance Friday night, is the type of play which distinguishes the legitimate stage from the experimental college theater, and as an experiment in theater, it is quite essential to a university group.

The main fault with this last University theater production is that it has a tendency to over-leap all boundaries in proving itself the biggest colossus of the year.

Jamming five long acts with nine "entree acts," it leaves the viewer, after witnessing three hours of sensation-upon-novelty accentuated by bursts of organ, with a faint feeling of paralysis.

Supporting Cast

Performers who were most successful Friday night were supporting players. Among them, Lawrence Stein, as a sea captain, wheezed his way through an apoplexy attack that made "Camille" seem like a victim of hay fever.

Cameo-like Janice Wilson, exquisitely-dressed in costumes by Frances Umland, is extremely good as the haughty "villainess."

As the poignant "heroine," Sue Marrs, who seems to draw heart-rendering sobs with amazing ease, is winsome, while Marilyn Hart makes a proud and devoted mother. Miss Marrs' and Miss Hart's talents are combined in an outrageously — funny "thwarted-suicide" scene.

"Scene-Stealers"

The show's three real "scene-stealers" are the members of the Irish "Putty" family. Jerry Silbermann once more over-acts grossly and is once more superb at it, while Donna Anphinson is adorable as his wife.

Arthur Whitman, as their feeble-minded off-spring, is hilarious.

The entire plot, however, is over-shadowed by the "entree acts," all of them the most worthwhile moments of the evening. Prima ballerina Carolyn Morgan bounds across the stage with the agility of Broadway's Jean McCracken, receiving able assistance from Jerry Mason and Robert Price.

Charming Soprano

In other "acts," Catherine Weiler is a charming soprano, while Helen Pittas displays a deft knack

Hillel Open House To Honor Chaperons

Hillel foundation will hold its annual Mother's day open house from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Men's Fashions Designed for Comfort

Designers of men's fashions have found that the loose and lousy comfort of sportswear can be utilized in formal wear for men without sacrificing its dignified appearance.

The tight straight-jacket tux is a thing of the past. Formal coats this spring will be moderately long and roomy over the chest and the blade of the back.

Sleeves will taper slightly to the wrist. The waistline and pockets will be low. Shoulders will have that natural look.

Formal attire fabrics will be lighter this year. One top designer is using lightweight tropical worsted for year-round wear. The new "Stain Shy" finish helps to make dinner jackets more resistant to stains, water and wrinkles. The designers predict the single breasted formal to increase in demand. A modern version of the shawl collar is being used.

The solid stiff shirts are being replaced in popularity by soft pique with broad pleats, or a regular soft white shirt.

WSUI Names 2 Men To Programing Staff

James P. Wehr, former music director at station KCRG, Cedar Rapids, has been named assistant program director at station WSUI, replacing Craig Tenny, who is now employed at station KGLO, Mason City.

Mark D. Munn has been named "Listen and Learn" director, replacing Mrs. Darlene Haring. Munn came to WSUI from Ohio State university, where he was a writer and director for the "School of the Air" educational programs.

Unitarian Society To Meet Monday

The First Unitarian society of Iowa City will hold its annual meeting in the recreation room of the church Monday, Ray Vanderhoeft, chairman of the board of trustees said.

The meeting will begin with a pot luck supper at 6 p.m. A business meeting following the supper will consist of reports of the year's progress from officers and minister, the Rev. Alfred J. N. Henriksen.

Action will be taken on the proposed federal union of Unitarian and Universalist churches in the United States. A budget for the coming year will be planned and officers elected.

All members and friends of the church are invited to the supper.

Sponsor of the journalism awards banquet was Theta Sigma Phi, journalism fraternity for women. Charlene McCorkel, A4, Burlington, was toastmistress.

Hawks To Hold Final Practice Today

Runners Threaten Records Here Today Against Northwestern

Full-Game Scrimmage To Show Evy's 1st Team

The Iowa track team will make its only home showing of the 1952 outdoor season today at 1 p.m. when Coach Francis Cretzmeier's Hawks meet Northwestern.

SCOTT GOLLIDAY

Iowa beat Northwestern, 75-38, in an indoor meet this season and even the usually pessimistic Cretzmeier thinks that his Hawks have a good chance of repeating.

No. 1 Sprinter

The Wildcats do have the Big Ten's outstanding track man in Jim Golliday. He is entered in both the 100 and 220-yard dashes with both races expected to be tops on the meet schedule.

Cretzmeier will send four of his top runners after Iowa and meet records.

Ted Wheeler will go after the meet mile record of 4:27 and should break it unless track conditions are bad because of recent rains. Wheeler has been timed in 4:13 for the mile this season.

Wheeler and LeRoy Ebert also have a good chance of breaking the SUI record for the 880-yard run. The present mark of 1:54.1 was set by John Graves in 1937.

Wheeler Has Best Time

Wheeler was timed in 1:50.3 for the 880 at the Drake Relays and Ebert is the holder of the Iowa indoor record for the 880. His best time is 1:55.7.

The two-mile meet record is almost certain to fall to Iowa's Rich Ferguson. Leonard Ristine of Iowa set the mark of 9:53.8 in 1922. Ferguson has been timed in 9:09.9 for the two mile.

Clyde Gardner, who last week set a new Iowa discus record, could do it again today. Gardner's toss against Wisconsin was 154 feet, 5 1/4 inches and his practice tosses this week have been that good or better.

Coach Forest Evashevski will put his first Iowa football team on show today at 3 p.m. in the Iowa stadium as the Hawkeyes close spring practice with an intra-squad game between Black and Gold teams.

Iowa officials expected a crowd of up to 9,000 earlier this week but rain on Wednesday and Thursday cut this figure. The weather forecast for today shows little change in temperature from Friday but with no additional rain expected.

Today's game will give Iowa fans their first look at Exashevski's single wing under game conditions and also will give good indications as to Iowa's starting lineups both offensive and defensive for 1952.

Fenton Leads Blacks

The Black squad, led by end Bill Fenton, captain-elect for 1952, is expected to have an offensive edge over the Gold squad. Burt Britzmann will start at quarterback for the Blacks with Bob Stearnes at right half and Bernie Bennett playing fullback. All three were lettermen in 1951.

Both Britzmann and Stearnes were used exclusively as offensive quarterbacks while Bennett played both offense and defense as a halfback.

The left halfback position on the Black team probably will be filled by Harold Reister, another 1951 veteran. Reister will take the place of Dusty Rice who was scheduled to start for the Blacks but who was injured in Tuesday's practice.

Rice in Spots
Rice was held out of practices Wednesday through Friday but Evashevski indicated Friday that the Oelwein sophomore would see action only as a spot player if he is used at all. The Hawkeye coach felt that it is extremely doubtful that Rice would play.

Trainer Doyle Allsup said that Rice's knee injury has improved in the last three days but he was uncertain about Rice's ability to play.

Allsup also said that the rest of the players on both squads are in top physical condition except for a few minor bruises.

Blacks Have Top Backs

The Black backfield rates as the better of the two teams offensively even without Rice. Britzmann's experience as a signal-caller and proven passing ability plus Stearnes' running and passing should give the Blacks a decided edge when they are on offense.

Stearnes is an added threat since he is a left-handed passer and can throw effectively on reverses.

Bennett should give the Blacks power from his fullback spot. The Black line also is rated an offensive edge. Fenton and Dan McBride are Iowa's best pass catching prospects at the end spots and both are good blockers.

The rest of the Black line probably will have George Palmer and Dick Frymire at the tackles; Jerry Clark and Andy Houg at the guards, and Bud Lawson at center.

Houg Switched to Guard

Houg started spring practice as an end but was shifted to offensive guard because of his blocking. He will play end on defense.

The Gold team, captained by Tackle Don Chelf, appears to have the backbone of Iowa's defensive team for the 1952 season. Chelf was outstanding on defense this past season and will have help from the pick of Iowa's defensive players.

Frank Schwengel and John Hall will probably be the Gold's starting ends. Three experienced flankers back this pair up. Don Bjork, a letter winner in 1950, Del Corbin and Clyde Gardner make up this group.

Paulson Impresses Coaches

The tackles will have Chelf and Joe Paulson. Paulson, a first semester freshman, was shifted from quarterback because of his size and has impressed the coaching staff with his defensive play.

Phil Hayman, the outstanding lineman on the junior varsity this season, and Charles Boothe, a 1951 varsity reserve will be at the guards. Forrest Houser will be the center.

The Black's best offensive weapons are Chuck Daniels, Don Inman and Bob Keeffe.

The admission price for the game is one dollar except to the following groups:

- 1. Students with ID cards.
- 2. I club members with membership cards.
- 3. Press and radio men with tickets issued by SUI's sports information service.

Will Captain Grid Hawkeyes

LEADING IOWA INTO PLAY next fall will be Bill Fenton, junior end and former Iowa City High star. Fenton was chosen captain by his teammates in a meeting Friday afternoon, thus becoming the first full-season captain in more than 10 years. The big pass-catching star will be seen in action this afternoon as his Black team meets the Golds in the intra-squad game marking the end of spring football drills.

Iowa City's 2d 'Big Bill'

End Bill Fenton, Iowa City's second consecutive "Big Bill," Friday was chosen captain of next fall's Iowa football team.

The election of a full-season captain broke a precedent that had lasted for more than 10 years, that of choosing a game captain each week during the season.

Fenton thus holds Iowa City in good stead as a producer of Hawkeye leaders, succeeding Bill Reichardt, all-Big Ten fullback for the last two seasons. Reichardt was chosen game captain twice last season.

Fenton, who is equally adept with text-books and catching passes, has nearly a straight A average for his three complete semesters at Iowa. Bill has received one B in his pre-medicine curriculum, and that in military.

The big (6-3, 205) end is also a versatile athlete. In high school, he was chosen as an all-stater in football in 1949, and as a forward on the all-state basketball team in 1950. Basketball coach Bucky O'Connor said recently that he expects Fenton to join the cage squad next season.

Head grid coach Forest Evashevski said Friday night that he thinks "the boys made a very wise choice. Bill has been very impressive in spring practice, and evidently has the makings of an excellent leader."

Oliver Holds Lead in Open By Using Rule

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—Ed (Porky) Oliver ate lunch while most of the other Greenbrier open golfers played during the worst of a rain storm, then finished in the sun to hold his lead to the second round Friday.

The roly poly Lemont, Ill., veteran went one over par 70 despite the break he had in weather. But it was good enough to give him a one stroke lead over Jimmy Clark of Laguna Beach, Calif., and Sam Snead, the host pro.

Oliver had a 61 first round Thursday which set him up for a 36-hole total of 132 with 36 more holes to go.

Snead, who had been three strokes behind, pulled up with 69, and Clark hoisted himself right along with a 65, best score in the second round by any of the 37 pros.

Oliver was on the eighth, and three strokes over par when the elements let loose on the Old White course. Taking advantage of a rule permitting a golfer to take time out when there is lightning, Oliver returned to the clubhouse for lunch.

Karras Signs Pro Contract with Cards

CHICAGO (AP)—Star halfback Johnny Karras of Illinois Friday was signed by the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football league. He was No. 2 on the Cards' draft list.

It had been reported Karras, named to the Associated Press' all-America second team last fall, also was dicker with a Canadian football team. His Canadian salary was not disclosed.

Karras, feet 187-pounder from Argo, Ill., shares the Illini all-time season scoring record of 13 touchdowns with Red Grange and Buddy Young, now with the NFL's new Dallas entry.

Karras was new Card coach Joe Kuharich's second draft choice behind fullback Ollie Matson, coached by Kuharich at the University of San Francisco. Matson has deferred considering pro football until after a possible Olympic appearance this summer.

Head grid coach Forest Evashevski said Friday night that he thinks "the boys made a very wise choice. Bill has been very impressive in spring practice, and evidently has the makings of an excellent leader."

Oliver Holds Lead in Open By Using Rule

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—Ed (Porky) Oliver ate lunch while most of the other Greenbrier open golfers played during the worst of a rain storm, then finished in the sun to hold his lead to the second round Friday.

The roly poly Lemont, Ill., veteran went one over par 70 despite the break he had in weather. But it was good enough to give him a one stroke lead over Jimmy Clark of Laguna Beach, Calif., and Sam Snead, the host pro.

Oliver had a 61 first round Thursday which set him up for a 36-hole total of 132 with 36 more holes to go.

Snead, who had been three strokes behind, pulled up with 69, and Clark hoisted himself right along with a 65, best score in the second round by any of the 37 pros.

Oliver was on the eighth, and three strokes over par when the elements let loose on the Old White course. Taking advantage of a rule permitting a golfer to take time out when there is lightning, Oliver returned to the clubhouse for lunch.

Karras Signs Pro Contract with Cards

CHICAGO (AP)—Star halfback Johnny Karras of Illinois Friday was signed by the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football league. He was No. 2 on the Cards' draft list.

It had been reported Karras, named to the Associated Press' all-America second team last fall, also was dicker with a Canadian football team. His Canadian salary was not disclosed.

Karras, feet 187-pounder from Argo, Ill., shares the Illini all-time season scoring record of 13 touchdowns with Red Grange and Buddy Young, now with the NFL's new Dallas entry.

Karras was new Card coach Joe Kuharich's second draft choice behind fullback Ollie Matson, coached by Kuharich at the University of San Francisco. Matson has deferred considering pro football until after a possible Olympic appearance this summer.

NY Boxing Commission Calls IBC to Monopoly Hearings

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York state athletic commission Friday called a hearing to determine if the International Boxing club should lose its license for acts detrimental to the best interests of boxing.

Originally slated for May 16, the hearing was set back 45 days to late June on the IBC's plea for an indefinite postponement. The multi-branched IBC, which operates two nationally televised shows a week, already is involved in three anti-trust suits pending in U.S. district courts.

Chairman Bob Christenberry, in a letter to the IBC dated April 30 and made public at Friday's meeting, informed the promoters of the hearing. He said charges would be considered that the IBC dominates and controls champions and leading boxers, important New York arenas, radio and television rights and has alliances with other promoters contrary to the best interests of boxing.

In asking for the postponement, Truman Gibson, IBC secretary, claimed the questions raised by the commission were substantially the same points of law and fact concerned in the federal cases. His letter was dated May 5.

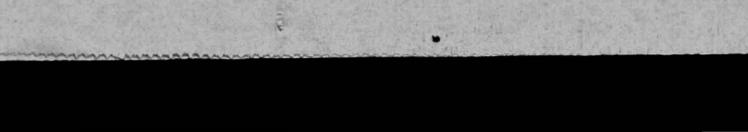

Parallels Federal Suit
The government anti-trust action, filed March 17, accused the IBC of controlling the sale of radio, TV and motion picture rights, obtaining exclusive rights to principal arenas and exclusive contracts with champions and leading contenders.

Christenberry's move was interpreted as a parallel action at the state level.

The IBC also must answer charges that it farms out its matchmaker and exclusive contracts to "foreign" (out-of-state) corporations, actually directed by employees of the IBC.

In addition to New York's Madison Square Garden, the IBC controls boxing in Chicago Stadium, Detroit Olympia and St. Louis arena. All of its Friday radio-TV shows originate in New York at the Garden or St. Nicholas arena. Most of the Wednesday fights, also nationally televised, are run out of town.

Yogi: 'Thou Shalt Not ...'

TAKING LIBERTIES WITH YOGI BERRA'S ARM proved costly to Dom DiMaggio Friday in the second inning of the Yankee-Red Sox game in New York. DiMaggio tried to steal second, but the throw from Berra was in time to allow Phil Rizzuto to wait for the runner. The Yanks won, 7-4.

Reds Stomp Mizell, Whip Cardinals, 8-3

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds, scoreless for six innings, broke out with seven runs in the seventh Friday night against Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell and defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-3, to move into third place in the National league race.

Mizell limited the Reds to four hits until the frame in which his own fielding error seemed to upset the highly-regarded rookie southpaw. He was allowed to stay on the mound while 10 Cincinnati players batted, seven scoring on two walks and four hits, one of which was a three-run homer by Joe Adcock. Mizell's defeat was his third against one victory.

Veteran lefthander Ken Raffensberger, gaining his fourth triumph in six decisions, gave up eight hits, including a double and the first major league home run by Les Fusselman, freshman St. Louis catcher.

The Reds, who scored their final run against Jackie Collum in the eighth inning, finished with 10 hits, Ted Kluszewski had three and Adcock and Grady Hatton two apiece.

The Cardinals held a 2-0 lead at the time the roof caved in on Mizell.

Shantz Pitches A's Past Senators, 9-3, Gains 4th Decision

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Little Bobby Shantz, Philadelphia's five foot six inch southpaw, pitched a 9-3 triumph over the Washington Senators Friday night while posting his fourth decision of the year and first over the Senators since 1949.

Philadelphia gave its talented portlander a 2-0 lead in the second inning on a single by Gus Zernial, Ferris Fain's double, an infield out and a fielder's choice while they tallied another in the fifth on safe bunts by Elmer Valo and Dave Philley, a throwing error by Eddie Yost and Zernial's outfield fly.

The winners chased starter Bob Porterfield to cover after the fifth, an inning in which they crossed the plate four times. The frame opened when Philley singled and rode home on Zernial's second home run of the season with doubles by Fain and Skeeter Kell and Shantz' single accounting for the other two tallies.

Iowa Faces Indiana Golfers at Home

The Iowa golf team will return to its home course, Finkbine, for a dual meet against Indiana today at 8:30 a.m.

The Hawkeyes went to Lafayette, Ind., last Saturday for a triangular meet with Purdue and Ohio State and lost to both the Buckeyes and the Boilermakers. Iowa moved to Champaign, Ill., Monday and beat Illinois in its third conference victory of the season.

Coach Bucky O'Connor's squad opened its conference schedule by beating Minnesota and Northwestern.

Tom Crabbe, junior letterman, and Chuck Kromer will lead the Hawks against Indiana. Crabbe has consistently been Iowa's low man while Kromer shot a two-under par 68 against Ohio State and Purdue.

Sain's Hits, Pitching Break Bosox, 7-4

NEW YORK (AP)—It took two enemy errors plus hitting from an unexpected source to end the Yankees' three-game losing streak Friday, as the slump-ridden New Yorkers defeated the Boston Red Sox, 7-4, in a battle of bobbles.

Johnny Sain, who pitched the first seven innings, was the big man in the Yanks' nine-hit attack. In winning his second game, the veteran righthander hit a two-run homer and a double while driving in three runs.

But it was three unearned runs in the sixth inning which brought the fading world champions their fifth victory in 13 games. Errors by third baseman Johnny Pesky and shortstop Jim Piersall helped create the Yanks' three-run inning.

The defeat knocked the visitors out of first place in the American league.

Sain was struck on the right kneecap by a liner from the bat of Billy Goodman in the second inning. He remained in action until the knee stiffened from the exertion of running bases. Bob Hogue, also a former Braves' righthander, finished up. He was touched for two unearned runs in the eighth, due to errors by Gil McDougald, the Yankee second baseman, and himself.

Bill Wight, who hurled the first six innings, was charged with his first loss. He has won once.

Minoso's Triple Wins 16-Inning Tilt, 8-5

DETROIT (AP)—Minnie Minoso's two-run triple in the 16th inning won the longest game of the 1952 major league season Friday, the Chicago White Sox whipping the last-place Detroit Tigers 8-5 in a four hour and 27-minute duel that began in daylight and finished under the lights.

Relief pitcher Bill Kennedy snuffed out a Tiger bases-loaded rally in the last of the 16th by striking out George Lerench and getting Johnny Groth to ground out.

In all, 34 players saw action.

An error by shortstop Johnny Lipon set up the winning tallies. With one out, Lipon tumbled winning pitcher Harry Dorish's grounder.

Nellie Fox singled and Minoso

Says People Know Where to Find Him

OSLO, Norway (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower Friday night reaffirmed his intention "not to campaign for the presidential nomination."

Speaking to reporters during a coffee and brandy hour that followed a state dinner given for him by the Norwegian government, he said:

"If the people want me for president, they will know where to find me."

The general, who came to Norway in the course of his farewell tour of North Atlantic Treaty organization (NATO) countries, said he has no plans for speeches in the U. S. after he gives up his job as supreme Allied commander around June 1 except a long-planned speech in his hometown, Abilene, Kans., June 4.

Eisenhower told the newsmen that "I have said before and I say now that I do not plan to make any campaign" for the Republican presidential nomination.

Doesn't Know Date
The general said he still does not know the date he will return to the U. S. other than "around June 1." He added he will spend "at least one day" in Washington, then fly to Abilene.

The formal dinner for Eisenhower, attended by 130 guests, was given in historic Akershus castle, a 14th century Norse fortress built at the edge of Oslo fjord.

Eisenhower began his response by quoting "One of my old commanding officers who told me always to take your job seriously, never yourself." He said that "all the things I support" as supreme Allied commander in Europe "I would continue to support wherever I am and whatever my favor shall be."

Believes Milestone Reached
Earlier Friday on his arrival from Paris Eisenhower hailed the initialing of the European army draft treaty in the French capital as a "real milestone in the development of Europe's defenses."

He predicted the treaty would be signed before the end of May by foreign ministers of the participating nations — France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg — and that it would be ratified by their parliaments "without delay."

The Battle Of Ward 34

There's nothing to break the silence in Ward 34, Bliss General Hospital, other than the clink of dishes... or an occasional muffled groan. From time to time a rolling stretcher comes in on rubber wheels and goes out bearing a silent American GI.

Yet the battles in Ward 34 and hundreds of other wards of military hospitals both here and abroad are life-and-death battles. The enemies now are shock, hemorrhage, infection.

In these quiet yet all-important battles you can play a vital part. For fallen fighting men need blood. In America there is no other way to get it than for you to give it. The work of doctors and surgeons cannot succeed if blood for transfusions is not available right now!

In our free country you are the only one who decides whether to give blood or not. Your country is now and will be for some time, desperately short of blood, to help save fighting men, to restore them to health, to happiness, possibly to you.

The decision is yours. You're the doctor. Please, please make a definite appointment today to give your blood!

WHAT HAPPENED TO THAT PINT OF BLOOD YOU WERE GOING TO GIVE?
