3-Year Rail Labor Dispute Ends

Delay No-Cut Action Until Fall

A decision on the suspension of the no-cut rule has been postponed until next fall, Dean Dewey B. Stuit of the college of liberal arts, said Wednesday.

Stuit said there will be no opportunity for the deans of the colleges to discuss the matter before the end of the semester. He said no statement could be made at this time regarding the possibility of continuing the experiment.

The experiment referred to is the suspension of the no-cut rule before and after Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter vacations, during the 1951-52 academic year. Stuit did not say how many liberal art students cut classes before and after vacations. He indicated that cutting was extensive after Easter vacation and he termed class attendance before Easter and Christmas vacations as unsatisfactory.

Dean Sidney G. Winter of the college of commerce did not comment on the no-cut suspension for vacations other than Easter. He did not give any attendance figures but said class attendance was satisfactory relative to expectations of the college.

Dean Frederic G. Higbee of the college of engineering could not be reached for comment on the ruling.

John Garfield Dies From Heart Attack In Blonde's Room

NEW YORK (AP) — John Garfield, 39-year-old stage and movie actor, died of a heart attack in the bedroom of a beautiful blonde Wednesday. Authorities said they found nothing suspicious.

Garfield's pugnacious features and manner made him a natural and popular star for hard-boiled roles. He became a star after he played a minor role in the Broadway stage play "Golden Boy" in 1937.

The blonde, Irish Whitley, 36, blue-eyed and blonde striking, told police Garfield became ill while visiting her Gramercy park apartment Tuesday night and decided to rest there overnight. He'd had a heart attack about a year ago and been under a doctor's care since.

Garfield's brunette wife, Roberta, was reported prostrate at their New York home at news of his death. She had expected him home Tuesday night. They have two children.

Miss Whitley, an interior decorator and former actress, said she and Garfield dined together, then went to her apartment.

"I feel awful," she quoted Garfield as saying, "I'll feel better if I get some rest."

Miss Whitley said she spent the night on a couch in the two-room apartment. She added that she found Garfield dead in bed when she brought him a glass of orange juice Wednesday morning.

Acheson Is Ready For European Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Acheson, ready to fly to Europe on a few hours notice, clung to hope Wednesday that issues blocking agreement on the rearmament of Western Germany will be quickly cleared up.

Delays are already threatening the timetable for adding German strength to NATO defense forces in Europe. Officials have hoped that this strengthening process might be started by the end of the year.

Acheson told a news conference Wednesday he hoped the final points still in dispute at meetings going on now in Europe may be worked out in a day or so. He said he also hoped he would be promptly informed and declared that he would then leave at once on a flight expected to take him first to the seat of the West German government at Bonn and subsequently to Paris.

Assuming that final agreement is reached shortly, the tentative plan is for Acheson to join with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman at Bonn early next week in signing a peace contract with German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

2,000 Storm Coed Houses At Oklahoma

By The Associated Press

Pantie snatching broke out anew Wednesday night at the University of Oklahoma just as collegiate and civil authorities were cracking down on the nationwide campus craze.

Two thousand college men stormed 16 dormitories at Norman, Okla., and were met by police tear gas guns when the crowd got out of hand.

Then police called on state highway patrolmen for help when they ran out of ammunition for the gas guns. Fifteen patrol cars answered the call for help.

Some of the co-eds retaliated by raiding Jefferson house, occupied by university athletes. They swiped underwear from at least one football player, Merrill Green, a varsity halfback.

The doors were ripped off the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority house when the girls waved panties from the windows. Then the men stormed the bedrooms and made off with all the lingerie in sight.

Elsewhere the stern hand of the law and college disciplinarians took over. College officials hoped the raids were just an outburst before final examinations and soon would die down, but they kept their fingers crossed.

At Columbia, Mo., a Missouri national guard unit still was on the alert to augment the police should there be a recurrence of raids at the University of Missouri, and the two women's colleges, Christian and Stephens.

About 1,000 students also raided girls' housing at Iowa State college Tuesday night.

Four University of Tennessee students were fined $25 each and held for a grand jury and six others were fined from $10 to $25 in Knoxville city court.

Two of 16 identified raid leaders at the University of Georgia were suspended. Three others were threatened with expulsion.

Where Are the Panty-Raiders?

WATCHING FOR PANTY RAIDERS are these coeds shown at the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority house at the University of Washington, in Seattle, Wednesday night. Their houseboys later fought off some of the 1,000 male student-raiders with clubs. The raiders did minor damage elsewhere on campus.

Council Rift Moves Toward Decision Today

The flareup over two phases of student council power will head toward a showdown this afternoon, as opposition continued to mount Wednesday to recent curbs on campus groups.

The council will meet in a special session at 4 p.m. in the senate chamber of Old Capitol to consider these rulings passed last Thursday:

1. That student council members are not bound to vote as instructed by groups which they represent.
2. That no groups can recall their delegates.

By Wednesday night, these decisions had angered many of the major groups on the council. One organization, Quadrangle council, has threatened to withdraw from the student council.

Latest of the groups to voice opposition were Hillcrest council, Union board and the University Women's association. Besides Quadrangle, the other group dissenting was Currier hall.

Westlawn met Wednesday night to discuss its stand, but announced no decision.

The dispute started when the Quadrangle council ordered its three delegates to the student council to vote against a proposed amendment to the council's constitution.

One of the Quad representatives, Kent Forney, A2, Sibley, voted for adoption of the amendment instead of as instructed by the Quad council. Forney is vice-president of the student council.

Seven delegates, not including Forney, represent the dissenting groups on the student council. Fourteen votes, a simple majority, are needed to reverse the rulings.

The question of "instruction and recall" has not arisen previously in the six years of SUI student council existence.

Student council has no constitutional authority to prevent member groups from resigning, and no power to take action against them for doing so.

The dispute poses the following questions: Is there a power higher than either student council or member groups to decide the question? What happens to student council government at SUI if one or more members "secede" from the council?

Magazine X Sales Pass 2,400 on First Day

First day sales of the June issue of Magazine X—the final issue of the year—soared past the 2,400 mark Wednesday. The figure about equals total sales of the May issue.

Copies will again be sold today by campus salesmen and on newsstands. The magazine sells for 10 cents.

The humor magazine will not be published again until three weeks after the fall session begins.

Frank Burge Named Director of Union At Kansas University

Frank R. Burge, assistant director of the Iowa Memorial Union, Wednesday accepted an appointment as director of the Kansas Memorial Union, at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kan.

Burge is expected to assume his new duties about August 1. The Board of control of the Kansas Memorial Union made the selection.

Burge, who has been on the Union staff for a total of nine years, has been assistant director of the Union for the past five years. Before World War II, from 1938 to '42, he served on the Union staff while a student at SUI.

He then entered military service where he rose from the rank of private to that of major.

Commenting on Burge's new appointment, Prof. Earl Harper, Union director, said, "As director of the Union I am sorry to see Mr. Burge leave, but I am happy for him because of the opportunity which he has, and am proud that Kansas turned to Iowa for its new Union director."

Truce Decision Rests With Reds Joy Says

MUNSAN, KOREA (Thursday) (AP) — Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, in his farewell statement as chief Allied truce delegate, told the Reds today "There is nothing left to negotiate — the decision is in your hands."

Joy said no amount of argument and invective would budge the Allies in their refusal to send back prisoners of war who do not want to return to Communist rule.

This is the last roadblock to a Korean armistice. Of approximately 170,000 prisoners of war in Allied hands, 100,000 have said they do not want to go back to the Reds.

The Communists want all their captured soldiers back — or no truce.

"After 10 months and 12 days, I feel that there is nothing more for me to do," said the admiral who will leave Korea in a few days to become superintendent of the naval academy at Annapolis.

SUI Young Demos To Elect Officers

The SUI Young Democrats will elect officers tonight at their last meeting of the year.

The tentative slate set up by the executive committee is: for president, Bob Henry, L1, Sheldon; Dave Koch, A3, Ames, and George Murphy, L1, Dubuque; for secretary, Ruth Duffy, A3, Churdan, and Joyce Hankins, A1, Mount Pleasant; for treasurer, Jim White, A3, Iowa City, and Frank Cleveland, P1, Iowa City.

LONDON MAIL THEFT LONDON (AP) — Seven bandits hijacked a British mail truck in downtown London early Wednesday, clubbed its three guards and made off with loot valued up to 100,000 pounds ($280,000).

The infants, Michael Alan Porter and Steven Louis Leckerman, were born within one day of each other.

Senate Committee Approves Curbing Wage Board Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — The senate banking committee gave final approval Wednesday to a bill to keep economic controls in force after June 30 but forbidding the wage stabilization board to recommend settlements in labor disputes as it did in the steel crisis.

The extension of the defense production act would also abolish the present WSB set-up of six members each from organized labor, management and the public.

The committee thus stuck to its previous decision on WSB in the face of a threat by the American Federation of Labor to boycott any wage stabilization program without labor members on the board.

As approved in the committee the bill would:

1. Extend wage-price controls to next March 1.
2. Continue rent controls and the authority to allocate materials to June 30, 1953.

Distribution of Hawkeye To Commence Friday

Distribution of the 1952 Hawkeye will begin at 8:30 a.m. Friday at the publications office in the basement of East hall.

The 402-page maroon-covered yearbook has over 700 photographs including a 16-page beauty section on pebble brown tone paper, a married students section and a picture story of the graduate college.

Also new to the publication is a divided senior section which breaks down the senior class into individual colleges and presents them separately.

Several "fold out" pages have been added this year in order to include large pictures that could not otherwise be accommodated.

One of these is a cozy scene taken at the south entrance of Currier hall on Dad's day.

The residence section includes shots of all SUI dormitories, fraternities and sororities.

An industrial-type design of which Old Capitol is the center of attention goes to make up the maroon and cream Hawkeye cover.

Books may be picked up at the department of publications office in the basement of East hall from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday.

All graduating students are eligible for a copy without cost upon presentation of their ID cards. Others must show both receipts of payment and ID cards.

Boatner Policy Prevents New Koje Riot

KOJE ISLAND, Korea (THURSDAY) (AP) — The tough policy of Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner prevented a new riot that threatened this stormy prison camp after a U.S. soldier killed a menacing Red prisoner.

The new commander disclosed Wednesday it happened last Saturday. It was the fourth Red uprising in five days. Three were on Koje and the fourth broke out Tuesday at nearby Pusan, when another prisoner was killed.

Boatner's firm policy was paying off. He put down the first two revolts last week without bloodshed.

Some prisoners have hauled down defiant posters which Boatner said were insulting. Communist flags still fly over the compounds, however.

Witnesses to the Saturday shooting said the prisoner had been the leader of a work detail which was returning from the outside to compound 602.

They reported he halted the line of prisoners at the gate, ordered them to sit down, and began to shout at the American guard.

He refused to be searched, a requirement of all prisoners who leave or enter the barbed wire stockades. The argument grew hot. The guard fired a warning shot.

Boatner said the guard apparently thought the angry prisoner was about to attack and fired twice, killing him.

Boatner took over only nine days ago. There have been three revolts since. Two last week in the hospital compound and the women's prison quarters were quelled without bloodshed.

Ridgway, Bradley, Lovett Confer on Far East

GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY, new Allied European military commander, (center) confers Wednesday at the Pentagon with Gen. Omar N. Bradley (left), chairman of the joint chiefs of staff and Defense Secretary Robert Lovett.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway said Wednesday Soviet Russia is carrying on a big and "significant" military buildup in the Far East, while the Communists in Korea command a bigger offensive punch than ever before.

But the four-star general said that if the Reds should strike now with an all-out attack in Korea, they would be thrown back with "tremendous losses" on their side.

Discussing the critical Far East situation with senators on Capitol Hill and with newsmen at the Pentagon, Ridgway made these other points:

1. The outlook for an immediate cease-fire agreement in Korea is not bright, but efforts to reach a settlement should continue.
2. He would not advocate any ultimatum to the Reds in connection with the truce negotiations.
3. The United Nations are not strong enough to stage an all-out offensive to drive the Communists out of Korea, or to begin bombing nearby Soviet Manchurian bases.
4. A "crackdown" is needed —

Unions Accept White House Peace Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The three-year rail labor dispute ended Wednesday night when three big unions reluctantly accepted a White House peace proposal.

Approval by the unions foreshadowed quick return of the seized roads to private ownership after 21 months under government control.

The carriers accepted the White House proposal Monday night.

More than 150,000 members of the engineers, firemen and conductors will get an immediate wage boost ranging up to 37 cents an hour and lump sum payments of $600 to $1,100 for back pay to October, 1950.

Back wages will cost the roads an estimated $100 million. Union approval of the new agreement, good until October 1953, was announced by the unions at their hotel here.

"Some Disappointment" The three rail union chiefs said they accepted with "some disappointment" but that "there are no better alternatives under one-sided government seizure and rule by labor injunction."

The roads have been under technical control of the army since they were seized in August, 1950, to avert a nationwide strike. Since March, 1949, when the long dispute over working rules and wages got started, strikes and "sick" walkouts have occurred at least three times — in 1950, 1951 and last March.

The March strike brought a no-strike court order which is still in effect.

The agreement approved Wednesday night is substantially the same as one tentatively accepted by heads of the three unions in December, 1950, but rejected by the rank-and-file.

Can Reject Demands But it contains one change which the unions called a "major improvement" over the spurned 1950 proposal. That change gives the unions the right to reject carrier demands for extending the runs of train crews beyond a divisional terminal point.

The fourth big operating union, the trainmen, settled its dispute with the roads a year ago when it accepted the December, 1950 proposal.

TO THE EDITOR:

Will you please publish the Big Ten "pantie raid" standing in order of occurrence and the approximate number of lettermen at each school?

Ralph Knuth, A4, B-197 Quad

TO THE EDITOR:

The recent nation-wide pattern of dormitory raiding by university students MAY indicate that American universities are failing their students in satisfying the desire for new experience. It seems unlikely that dormitory raiders would exist if the university made Western Civ. I or physics II as stimulating and exciting as they should be in this age.

The innocuous substitutes for dormitory raids suggested in other letters to the editor aim only at the overt action, not the causes, and are only duping the student. What are the causes of such actions? Could it be that U. S. students are frustrated in overt collective action of any kind, for any "cause" whatever, unless it be as innocuous as a Campus Chest campaign?

In Paris and Berlin, students and intellectuals have always been the instigators of new movements — but not in America. Perhaps they (American students) realize that any collective action in favor of any new movement would bring down on their heads cries of "subversive" and subsequent tightening of academic freedom.

Perhaps the authorities provide so many innocuous pastimes — competitive sports, contests, etc. — to divert our attention from important issues, that they keep us perpetually immature.

Jane S. Marcin, A3, Eastlawn

TO THE EDITOR:

The "Letter to the Editor" section of The Daily Iowan has been gaining increasing momentum as the number one source of amusement to all lovers of the comic. It has gained this distinction from an endless variety of subjectively objective letters concerning the recent raid upon Currier. Being an ardent Pogo fan, this has caused me no end of mental stress as my colleagues and I have considered it as potentially capable of alienating many of the followers of Pogo. However, after much diligent research, we have come to the conclusion that like Pogo, it has a moral: "Never let a pink elephant sit on you."

We have traced this moral thru the several eloquent panegyrics which have been contributed by the fearless watchdogs and the magnanimous guardians of whatever they are watching and guarding as they hover over an imaginary monster, gasping in his death throes, while they wait for him to raise his dying head in one spasmodic jerk so that they might give him a final kick. The monster of which I speak is the one which has been created by headlines screaming out the news of corset kleptomania, and using such sparkling phrases as "panty pilfering, tawdry filching riots."

This was immediately followed by several profound solutions by persons who have suspected that the younger set is degenerate and who have eagerly been awaiting proof of the fact. We are happy to see that there are so many noble individuals who are aware of this fact. We are also happy to hear that this didn't happen in the "good old days" of 1947 (or 1925 for that matter).

However, many of the solutions, while interesting, have not been complete. With a little more investigation no doubt, they would probably be most effective. I suggest that the proponents of "our Bo Walker," who have evidently shown a great deal of interest in the episode, recruit "our Bo Walker" to form an organization called the OTTPOFALASAMOLR. (Organization For the Purpose of Finding a Legitimate and Socially Approved Method of Libido Release.)

Our investigations have also carried us back into history where we have noted that Rabalais also had many specific suggestions as to how to accomplish this purpose. He enumerates many games of a greater variety than that of the Sea Hawks and which would probably be more intellectually interesting. However, if this does not suffice, perhaps a study of the social structure of Ootumwa might be helpful, providing that everyone becomes aware of the fact that science has proved that mermaids and other monsters do not exist and that you are often striking at something you yourself have created.

Scots' Plea for Home Rule Poses Big Problem for Queen

Distributed by Central Press

The fledgling reign of her youthful majesty, England's Queen Elizabeth II, may see an important political change involving the land of her mother's birth, Scotland.

Scottish nationalists have become increasingly insistent on home rule for the Land of Lochs and Anie Laurie. Not that they object to Elizabeth as their queen — far from it. But they do want their own parliament.

For many years patriotic Scots have sought home rule. However, only in the last half-decade or so has Scottish insistence reached such heights that soon, it is quite likely, something will be done about it.

The spiriting away of the historic Stone of Scone (later returned) from beneath the coronation chair in Westminster Abbey on Christmas Eve two years ago, dramatized the national feeling.

However, the home rule movement is not led by youthful, gay spirits. Among the nationalist leaders are such greatly-respected figures as Lord John Boyd Orr.

Lord Orr, a Nobel Peace Prize winner in 1949, headed the World Movement for World Federal Government and also served as head of the United Nations food and agriculture organization. Dr. John MacCormick is the dynamic head of the Scot nationalists.

Another angry Scot is Andrew Dewar Gibb, law professor at the University of Glasgow, who is quoted as crying out against "the treatment being meted out to us" and fearing that it is "something that is going to recoil with violence."

There have been other warnings of possible civil disturbances though nothing untoward has yet occurred.

The nationalists, incidentally, have adopted the name of "Covenanters," a name hallowed in the history of Scotland's long resistance to outside interference in its affairs.

The original Covenanters came corner of East hall basement. Seniors are eligible to receive free copy if they are on registrar's graduating senior list. Non-seniors must present ID card and the Hawkeye note which has been stamped by the treasurer as paid.

BILLY MITCHELL SQUADRON will meet for last time today at 7:30 p.m. Problems of reorganization will be discussed.

EDUCATION STUDENTS urged to attend the last Iowa Future Teachers meeting of the year. Ken Johnson of Des Moines, state executive secretary of IFTA, will discuss "So You Plan to Teach," on Thursday, May 22, at 8 p.m. at University high cafeteria. Refreshments served.

SIGMA DELTA PI, NATIONAL Spanish honor society, will hold final meeting Saturday, May 24, at 7:30 p.m. in basement of Congregational church. The Cervantes extremes "La cueva de Salamanca" will be staged.

LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION will meet Sunday, May 25, at 5:30 p.m. at Lutheran student house. After picnic supper, the Rev. Baudler of Earlville will present "A Clergyman's View of Communism as Seen Behind the Iron Curtain." Rev. Baudler spent five years as a pastor in Russia, escaping in 1950.

into being when adherents of the Presbyterian church of Scotland resisted the attempt of King Charles I to substitute the service and prayer book of the English church (Episcopal) for the Presbyterian form of worship.

The sturdy group of Scots who bound themselves by a covenant in 1638 to resist the move soon gained the name "Covenanters."

When Charles II, after the Restoration, sought to root out Presbyterianism in Scotland a period of unrest and persecution ensued. Because the Covenanters were opposed to the House of Stuart, they came to be regarded as treasonable by the English throne.

The persecutions finally ended in 1688 with the accession of William and Mary.

Good Shows in Town; Exams Coming

By JIM GOLTZ

With finals on the way and the average campusite having no extra time for movies, Iowa City seems to be moving a grand slam of better than average pictures available.

"The Man in the White Suit" stars the incomparable comedian Alex Guinness. Up to par with "The Lavender Hill Mob" and "Kind Hearts and Coronets," this one has the timid Guinness as a scientist who stumbles onto the formula for making a seemingly indestructible material. While in the process of revolutionizing the clothing industry, he discovers the one flaw in the cloth which makes for a hilarious situation.

"Pandora and the Flying Dutchman" has James Mason and Ava Gardner making passes at each other while basking in a Mediterranean paradise. Although souped-up with the usual MGM hokum of too-good-to-be-true technicolor, millionaires, casinos, and background music, it's still as relaxing as a weekend in Palm Springs. Ideal for travel-folder fans.

"Boots Malone" has William Holden, which always makes for decent film-fare. This one has race tracks, horses, jockeys, and enough excitement and pathos to make True Story magazine seem like the diary of a monk. Bring your handkerchief.

"Hurricane Island" is a fictitious but enjoyable account of Ponce de Leon's adventures in Florida while seeking the fountain of youth. On hand are witch doctors, black-hearted pirates (including a female gang leader), savage natives, Spanish maidens, several dueling bouts, gorgeous scenery, and a hurricane scene.

To top it all off, the Student Art Guild will show "Pyramalion" and "Major Barbara" on the same bill Friday night. The Art Guild's first double feature, both films are British-made and star Wendy Hiller, who may be remembered for playing "The Heiress" opposite Basil Rathbone on Broadway. Although the first film suffers from an excess of length, Leslie Howard's performance makes it a worth-while experience.

German Peace Will Be Signed Monday

BONN, Germany (AP) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said this week his government will sign a historic peace contract tying West Germany politically and militarily to the West May 26.

He told newsmen a parallel European army treaty linking the forces of Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg will be signed the same night in Paris.

Adenauer released the scheduled dates after his 31st meeting with the British, French and American high commissioners. They had hoped to complete the document last Monday, but a hitch over financial arrangements necessitated another meeting which Adenauer said would be held Wednesday.

Risky Way to Make a Living

BILL GAURE, maintenance worker, nears the top of the north tower of Golden Gate bridge in San Francisco after nearly a half-mile uphill hike from the center of the span. This task is part of the year-round inspection to keep the structure in tip-top shape. In background, center, is a residential area of San Francisco, and at upper left is part of the Presidio of San Francisco. The huge bridge spans the Golden Gate where the Pacific ocean and San Francisco bay meet. This picture was made by Associated Press photographer Ernest K. Bennett while he was sitting on a narrow ledge of the tower, 740 feet above the water.

Panhellenic Adopts Plan To Counsel Fall Rushees

The Women's Panhellenic association has voted to adopt a counseling plan to aid sorority rushees during the first semester formal period. The plan will go into effect in the fall.

It will place 12 women, one from each sorority participating in the program, in the dormitory during rush week to work in teams of two to counsel rushees about their problems and questions.

The counselors will have all the facts about rushing and will work toward stopping rumors and misconceptions that arise at such a time. It will be their place to help a rushee see all the factors concerning her problem but not to make decisions for her.

To equip the 12 women for their work, a spring training program has been initiated. The training will be from three viewpoints: the counseling service will deal with counseling in general, a Currier hall representative for problems from the dormitory angle, and Helen Reich, panhellenic adviser, to explain the mechanics of rushing.

After June the counselors will be completely dissociated from their chapters and will not return to the chapter house until after rush week is over.

Miss Reich said about the plan: "The counseling plan is an attempt to alleviate the two-fold problem that always exists in rushing; namely, a lack of communication and a hesitancy to ask questions."

A committee formed to investigate the plan was composed of Beth Larsen, A3, Waterloo, chairman; Jeanne Thompson, G, Iowa City; Margaret Reed, A3, Waterloo, and Carla Heller, A3, Appleton, Wis.

Counseling plans in operation were studied at Minnesota, Michigan, and Washington.

Each house nominated three women and Panhellenic chose one of the three to go through the spring training period. They are Joan Myers, N2, Rochelle, Ill.; Marylene Shadle, A2, Boone; Janet Sulter, A2, Ida Grove; Marjorie Brickner, A3, Decorah; Shirley Schroll, A1, Marengo; Harriet Lynch, A2, Red Oak; Delores Schetzler, N2, DeKalb, Ill.; Ann Mayo, A3, Cherokee; Jo Anne Voss, A3, Ft. Dodge; Marilyn Duckett, C3, Manchester, and Connie Menard, A3, Sergeant Bluff.

All sororities except Sigma Delta Tau are participating.

Whose Aching Back, Did You Say?

Once there was a Sophomore who was planning a Whale of a Weekend in New York. Being a Man of Some Foresight, he carefully packed his copy of "New York Confidential," his compilation of Terrific Manhattan Numbers, and his list of Solvent Alumni in the Big City. Likewise I clean shirt, 1 toothbrush, 1 razor and 1 package of Sen-Sen. He was Ready.

Just then his roommate came up with a Tip for the Traveler. "Hey!" he said, "Have you wired ahead for your Hotel Reservations?"

Our Hero gaffed. "Don't be dull," he answered. "I'll make up my mind where I want to stay when I get there. New York is full of hotels."

He was right. New York is full of hotels. On this particular weekend, however, it was also full of people. Political convention.

Oh, he's all right again now. Two nights on a bench in Central Park never killed anyone. Only thing that bothered him was the squirrels. He thought they were looking at him Oddy.

Lockman Reaches First on Cardinal Error

GIANT FIRST BASEMAN WHITEY Lockman races to first base safely as the ball eludes Cardinal pitcher Cliff Chambers (28) in the first inning of the game Wednesday afternoon. Lockman grounded to first baseman Dick Sisler, whose throw to Chambers was scored an error. Card catcher Del Rice backed up his pitcher to prevent an advance. The Cards won the first game of an afternoon-night doubleheader, 3-0.

5 Records Fall As 21 Batters Face 4 Hurlers

BROOKLYN (AP) — Brooklyn set a new modern major league record, with 15 runs in the first inning Wednesday night on the way to a staggering 19-1 win over the Cincinnati Reds. Twenty-one Dodgers went to bat in the big inning as 19 men in succession reached first base.

Twelve runs were scored after two were out in the rout of four pitchers.

Chris Van Cuyk lashed out four straight hits, two in the big inn-

Records in Big Inning

Five records were set Wednesday night in Brooklyn's 15-run first inning, against Cincinnati that took an hour to play.

The runs scored were a new modern high for an inning and the 21 men at bat topped the previous high of 19. The 12 runs after two were out beat Pittsburgh's high of 11 set in 1942.

The fact that all 15 runs were batted in, set another new inning record. Another "first" was 19 successive men reaching base safely.

Billy Cox, Pee Wee Reese and Duke Snider also tied a major league mark by coming to bat three times in an inning.

ing, as he coasted to his third victory by scattering five Cincy hits. Duke Snider hit the only homer of the record-breaking inning attack that included 10 hits, seven walks and two hit batsmen. Bobby Morgan later hit two homers, each with a man on base.

Homer Ruins Shutout A homer by Dixie Howell, his first hit of the season, ruined Van Cuyk's shutout bid.

Ewell Blackwell, the fellow the Dodgers are supposed to be trying to lure from Cincy in a major deal, was knocked out of the box in the first inning revolt.

Snider smashed his fourth homer off Blacky after Pee Wee Reese walked to start the scoring.

Jackie Robinson's double, a walk to Andy Pafko and George Shuba's single made it 3-0, sending Blackwell to the showers.

Roof Falls In Bud Byerly came to the hill and immediately got a lift when Pafko was cut down at third on an attempted double steal. Then it started.

Gil Hodges walked, Rube Walker singled. So did Van Cuyk, Billy Cox and Reese. The score mounted to 7-0 as Herm Wehmeier replaced Byerly.

He walked Shider to fill the bases and forced home a run by plunking Jackie Robinson with a pitched ball. Pafko's single rolled the score to 10-0 and Frank Smith came in to pitch. A walk to Shuba and another to Hodges forced in the 11th run.

Snider Starts, Ends It Walker's second single, a bad hopper over Grady Hatton's head, added two and Van Cuyk's second hit of the inning made it 14-0. After Cox, up for the third time, was hit with a pitched ball to load the bases again, Smith walked Reese to force home Walker with the 15th run.

Snider, who started the scoring with his homer, took a called third strike to end it.

Continues Comeback Climb

LaMotta Decisions Hairston

DETROIT (AP) — Swarthy Jake LaMotta, the aging Bronx Bull bent on a comeback, made his late-round bull rushes pay off Wednesday night to win a unanimous 10-round decision over young Gene (Silent) Hairston before an estimated 10,000 fans at Olympia stadium.

LaMotta, eight years older than the 22-year-old Hairston, outweighed his foe, 168 to 160.

Jake, the former middleweight champion who hopes for a crack at the light heavyweight title, played it cozy the early part of most rounds. Then he tied into Hairston with windmilling rights and lefts.

Referee Clarence Rosen scored it 53-47 for Jake; judge Joe Lenahan, 52-48; and judge Jack Aspery, 55-45. The AP score card read 55-45.

The crowd booed Hairston, Negro deaf mute from the Bronx, time after time for what they believed to be low blows. But referee Rosen didn't agree.

Jake, who calls Detroit his "lucky city," battled Hairston to a draw here in March. There never was much doubt Wednesday night after Jake worked inside and clouted Hairston in the first round. There were no knock-downs.

Petition Circulated

For Ouster of Grid Coach Tony Hinkle

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A petition for replacement of Paul (Tony) Hinkle as football coach at Butler university, reported to have been circulated last week, had not been delivered to university officials Wednesday.

Dr. M. O. Ross, president, said: "We have not received the petition nor have we heard of one. It has not been presented to any school official. If and when it is presented, it will receive the same consideration as any other petition."

At the time Dr. Ross said: "We have every confidence in the ability and judgment of Mr. Hinkle."

Boris Dimancheff, assistant football coach, said he had heard of the petition and has asked that it be stopped. He said he understood the petition asked that he be named to succeed Hinkle.

Davey, Vejar Sign

For Return Match

DETROIT (AP) — Undefeated welterweight Chuck Davey was signed Wednesday for a hometown return bout with Chico Vejar at Detroit's Olympia Stadium June 11.

Davey, former Michigan State college boxer who made good in the pro ranks, won a unanimous 10-round decision over the Stamford, Conn., welterweight in Chicago May 7.

That action-packed bout was acclaimed by many as one of the finest fights of the current season.

This is Davey's first main-event appearance in his home city, and the first glimpse of him that local fans have had since March 28, 1951. Since beginning his pro career, Davey has had 22 knock-outs, 10 decisions and one draw in his 33 bouts.

Runs String to 15 1/3 Hitless Innings

Trucks Fails in 2d No-Hit Bid

DETROIT (AP) — Speedballing Virgil Trucks, nervously intent on pitching his second straight no-hit game, ran his hitless string to 15 and 1/3 innings for the Detroit Tigers Wednesday. Then Billy Hitchcock of the Philadelphia Athletics spoiled it with a one-out single in the seventh inning. The Tigers won, 5-1.

It was obvious that the 33-year-old righthander from Birmingham, Ala., was trying to equal Johnny Vandermeer's 1938 record of hurling two straight no-hitters for the Cincinnati Reds. He worked slowly and fidgeted constantly.

Virgil, who tossed a 1-0 no-hitter against Washington last Thursday, retired Ferris Fain on a grounder to lead off the seventh inning. But Hitchcock rifled his first pitch cleanly to left center and the 3,718 paid fans groaned.

Trucks lost his control in the eighth inning and was replaced by Dick Littlefield after giving up two walks and a one-run single to Dave Philley. Tiger outfielder Pat Mullin boomed his second home run of the season into the upper right field stands after Don Kolloway doubled in the first inning.

Vic Wertz and Johnny Groth singled home two more runs in the third inning off loser Bob Hooper.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Robin Roberts, working toward his third 20-victory season in a row, chalked up win number seven as the Philadelphia Phillies turned back the hapless Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-3. Roberts' hasn't lost a decision since he was the loser in the Phillies' 1952 opener.

Little Murray Dickson went the distance for the Pirates and hurled as effective a game as Roberts, each allowing seven safeties.

Four Pittsburgh errors gave the Phillies the game. Four of the Phillies' runs were unearned and in the second inning when the victors scored five times, the most they should have gotten was two runs.

CHICAGO (AP) — Pitcher Allie Reynolds tripled across the first

2 Top Pitchers In Big Ten Meet Friday

CHICAGO (AP) — The two top pitchers in the Big Ten may square off Friday as first-place Illinois meets Minnesota to launch the final weekend of conference baseball play.

Official league statistics Wednesday stamped Minnesota's Paul Giel and the Illini's Jerry Smith as the leading hurlers, each with a 4-0 record and four complete games. Ohio State's Paul Ebert also has a 4-0 record, but failed to complete one game.

If Giel and Smith hook up in the Gopher invasion of Champaign, Ill., Friday, it may prove the season's most important game. On Saturday, the Illini play host to Iowa in a double-header.

Hawks Could Ruin Hopes Illinois (9-3) needs a sweep of its final three games for a sure finish ahead of Michigan, second with a 7-3 record. The Wolverines, who have had two games cancelled because of weather, play at Northwestern Friday and invade Wisconsin for a twin bill Saturday.

If Illinois wins only two of its three games, its final record would be 11-4 for a 733 percentage. By closing with three straight wins, Michigan would have 10-3 and a .769 mark.

Giel Top Hurler Giel, who was a sensational football halfback last fall, is doing just as well in baseball. He was issued only one earned run in 34 innings, striking out 37, while allowing 22 hits and walking only five.

The league's top hitter is Jack Gannon, Ohio State catcher, with 486 on 17 hits in 35 trips. Last week's leader, Harry Hanes of Purdue, dropped 10 points to .459.

run and scored the second in a 4-run seventh which gave the New York Yankees a 5-1 win over the Chicago White Sox and the eighth victory in their last 10 starts Wednesday.

Reynolds, completing his seventh consecutive game for his fourth victory, scattered five hits to beat Chicago's ace southpaw, Billy Pierce. After yielding 12 hits, Pierce was supplanted in the ninth by Howie Judson.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Early Wynn and Mike Garcia proved too much for the Boston Red Sox Wednesday night and the Cleveland Indians won the two-game series opener, 5-1. Wynn, credited with his fifth victory, was rescued by Garcia in the eighth.

Jim Hegan hit a two-run homer off Ray Scarborough in the second inning and, as it developed, that was enough for the Indians. For insurance, they added three more in the seventh at the expense of Willard Nixon.

NEW YORK (AP) — Lefty Dave Koslo won his 10th straight from St. Louis Wednesday night as the New York Giants slugged their way to an 8-1 triumph for an even split in a day-night doubleheader. Cliff Chambers blanked the Giants with four hits, 3-0, in the afternoon game.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Sid Hudson walked little Bobby Young with the bases loaded in the last of the 10th inning Wednesday night to give the St. Louis Browns a 2-1 victory over the Washington Senators. The triumph, credited to pitcher Satchel Paige in relief, broke a string of four consecutive losses to the Senators by the Browns this season.

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Browns traded Tony Adamle, whom they expect to quit football, and Dopey Phelps to the Green Bay Packers Wednesday for Ace Lomis, a youngster Cleveland owned early last season.

The veteran Adamle was outside linebacker and the Browns' captain the last two years.

Phelps, a halfback, suffered injuries last season and saw little action.

Adamle has told the Browns he expects to enter medical school and give up pro football.

ILLINOIS (9-3) needs a sweep of its final three games for a sure finish ahead of Michigan, second with a 7-3 record. The Wolverines, who have had two games cancelled because of weather, play at Northwestern Friday and invade Wisconsin for a twin bill Saturday.

If Illinois wins only two of its three games, its final record would be 11-4 for a 733 percentage. By closing with three straight wins, Michigan would have 10-3 and a .769 mark.

Giel, who was a sensational football halfback last fall, is doing just as well in baseball. He was issued only one earned run in 34 innings, striking out 37, while allowing 22 hits and walking only five.

The league's top hitter is Jack Gannon, Ohio State catcher, with 486 on 17 hits in 35 trips. Last week's leader, Harry Hanes of Purdue, dropped 10 points to .459.

Iowa Reserves Dip Burlington Netmen, 7-0

(Special to The Daily Iowan) BURLINGTON — Iowa's reserve tennis team dropped Burlington JC for the second time this season by taking a 7-0 decision Wednesday at Burlington.

The victory raised the reserves record to five wins and no losses during 1952. Both wins over Burlington have been by 7-0 margins.

Howard Hill, holding the No. 1 spot on the Hawkeye squad, started Iowa on its way by beating Chick Pauley, 6-1, 6-0. Iowa's Bob Fletcher defeated Doyle Adams, 6-1, 6-1, and Chuck Johnson gained another Iowa victory by topping Jim Luth, 6-1, 6-2.

Iowa's Jim Sticklely won the No. 4 match by defeating Roger Pleke, 6-0, 6-0. The last singles match went to Iowa's Bob Soll who tripped Tom Yager, 6-4, 6-3.

Both doubles went to Iowa as Hill and Johnson paired to beat Pauley and Bogner, 6-1, 6-2 and Sticklely and Soll took Pleke and Yager, 6-3, 6-3.

The tennis clinic which was scheduled for Wednesday at Burlington was rained out.

Iowa Coach Don Klotz will be at Clinton Sunday for a clinic at the Clinton tennis club.

Hoover Describes FBI Protection Of Liberties in Iowa Law Review

America's great problem today is to maintain the basic civil liberties of the individual, "the foundation stones of free government," and at the same time to protect the security of the nation. J. Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of investigation, defines this dual obligation in his article on "Civil Rights and Law Enforcement: The Role of the FBI," in the current issue of the Iowa Law Review.

His article is part of the "Civil Liberties Symposium" of the Review, quarterly journal edited by seniors in the college of law. "Law enforcement ethics must rise to prevent abuses, such as third-degree techniques, unlawful arrests, unreasonable detentions, illegal searches and seizures," the FBI chief declares.

He adds that to secure law enforcement officers who will not betray their positions nor violate civil rights, it is important to appreciate the impact of better training programs, modern equipment, adequate salaries, and personal integrity.

Both the FBI National academy for local police officers and the FBI's training program for its own special agents stress respect for constitutional law, the Bill of Rights, and laws on searches and seizures, Hoover points out. Training in technical crime detection also helps preserve civil liberties, the FBI director says. An all-trained officer may be tempted to force a suspect to confess to a crime. But the FBI agent uses a microscope, a teaspoonful of dirt, a fleck of paint, or an X-ray to help identify the guilty and protect the innocent.

securing of evidence against law enforcement officials who have cooperated with the FBI in other cases," he adds. Results of such investigations are turned over to the department of justice which decides whether or not the facts warrant prosecution.

The latter program requires the FBI to check its files for names and fingerprints of all employees and applicants for positions in the federal executive branch, report any information indicating disloyalty, and conduct field investigations to ascertain the facts in cases where there may be some suggestion of disloyalty.

"The FBI's role under the loyalty program is to report the facts to the civil service commission without bias, conclusions or recommendations. It is the responsibility of the employing agencies and the loyalty hearing boards to weigh the facts and to decide the proper administrative action," the man who has headed the FBI for 28 years reports.

WASHINGTON (AP)—FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover announced Wednesday the arrest of a New York girl night club singer and two Rhode Island men in connection with the $100,000 robbery at the Quonset, R.I., naval station March 7.

Hoover identified those under arrest as Howard Hildebrandt, 25, Robert R. LaPlante, 27, both of West Warwick, R.I., and Gloria Dale, 30, a New York night club singer.

Orchestra in Successful Close

The 1951-52 concert season of major music groups on campus came to a successful close Wednesday night with a distinguished performance by the SUI symphony orchestra.

Although only five works were on the program, each composition was flawlessly performed at the spring concert in the Iowa Memorial Union.

occupation with humanitarian and libertarian ideas and ideals. Violins Effective
Mozart's "Jupiter" Symphony in C Major is known as one of the composer's three greatest symphonies, and the orchestra's interpretation consisted of dramatic passages leading up to full climaxes alternated with tranquil airs. The violins in this number were especially effective.

One of the top pieces performed was Strauss' tone poem, "Don Juan." The work is based on a narrative poem by Nicholas Lenau in which the writer treats the Don as a young man "in love with love."

He is fatally wounded in a duel and dies to slow music without the benefit of the sulphur and brimstone which such writers as Byron and Shaw have included. Dream-Like Atmosphere
Debussy's "The Afternoon of a Faun" is a drowsy type of music which creates a dream-like atmosphere through the use of sensory impressions. Its appeal to the imagination has termed the composition "impressionistic" in contrast to the "realistic" type of nature poetry. As played by the orchestra, it was a flowing, sensitive number which greatly appealed to the audience. Balakirev's Asiatic-sounding "Islamey" opens with a march-like rhythm accented with dramatic bursts and the clash of cymbals. Building into a frenzied clapping of wind, string and percussive instruments, it ends with a brilliant sweep.

Iranian Cartoons —

Jackass Is U.S. Symbol

— Poke Fun at Point 4

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — A floppy-eared, bug-eyed jackass is fast supplanting the familiar figure of Uncle Sam in Iran as the symbol of the United States.

Not a day passes but one newspaper or another carries a front page cartoon showing the jackass in varying moods — sometimes plotting against Iran's independence, sometimes offering the country needed help, depending on the paper's political affiliation.

Usually, the old figure of Uncle Sam is somewhere in the cartoon. Readers now know without being told that the donkey means the United States.

Point 4 Ships Donkeys It all began several months ago when Point Four officials handled the shipment of a load of jackasses from Cyprus to Iran in a program to improve the local breed.

Iranian papers, forgetting all the good that Point Four was doing in the country, immediately seized on the jackass which became the butt of every political joke.

"What's wrong with Iranian donkeys?" was heard everywhere around Tehran.

Papers Use Symbols Whenever the newspapers thought they spotted something wrong in the Point Four program, they trotted out the floppy-eared, bug-eyed jackass.

When an anti-government newspaper wanted to lampoon Premier Mohammed Mossadegh for agreeing last month to resumption of U.S. military aid, it showed him astride a donkey going off to fight America's battles.

An editorial in the influential Keyhan set the tone for the jackass controversy. Its editorial writer said:

"I have looked over the list of aid from the United States to Britain, Turkey, Italy and Greece and have failed to see any mention of donkeys. Are we unique in the world in needing them?"

Foreign Minister Bagher Kazemi had to explain that the Iranian army had been importing foreign jackasses to improve the breed and that was why the animals were brought over.

Organ, Plaque Contributed By Class of '52

The finance committee of the state board of education has accepted $18,920 in gifts and grants for SUI, President Virgil M. Hancher announced Wednesday.

In addition, the committee accepted an organ and appropriate plaque for the Danforth chapel as a memorial from the class of 1952. The new student chapel is now being constructed on the banks of the Iowa river.

Prof. Emil Witschi of the zoology department received two grants totaling $10,500 to support research in that department. The American Cancer society gave $5,000 for research into the causes of abnormal development of vertebrates.

Research in the field of sex-indifferentiation under Witschi will be supported by a grant of $5,500 from the National Research Council.

$4,000 History Grant

The Rockefeller foundation granted $4,000 to Prof. William O. Aydelotte, head of the history department, for a study of the way in which social and economic backgrounds of the members of the British parliament of 1841-47 affected their political behavior.

A graduate fellowship in chemistry, to be administered by Prof. Karl Kammermeyer of chemical engineering, will be established with the help of a $1,900 grant from the Archer-Daniels-Midland company of Minneapolis.

The American Optical company gave $1,000 for research under the direction of Dr. Alton E. Braley, head of ophthalmology in the college of medicine. Dr. William B. Bean, head of internal medicine, received $45 from Mrs. L. D. Yanaway, Cedar Rapids, for research in heart disease.

Nursing Award Established Prof. Amy Frances Brown, of the college of nursing gave $1,000 to establish a Carmelita Calderwood Hearst Clinical Achievement award.

The award, in memory of the late Mrs. Hearst of Cedar Falls, will be used to recognize excellence of clinical practice in nursing and to aid those recognized in acquiring further preparation in nursing. The first award will go to a member of the 1952 senior class after he or she completes at least one year of staff nursing.

An anonymous donor gave $360 to apply toward the expense of bringing Ann C. Tattersfield, Newcastle-on-Thyne, England, to the university for work in speech pathology. This will supplement an earlier grant of $650 for the same purpose by the Field Foundation, Inc.

The committee also accepted a total of $115 from various donors for the Beth Wellman Memorial fund. The fund is to be used to purchase research tools, current journals and scholarly publications to facilitate student work in the Iowa Child Welfare Research station.

STRIKLAND ELECTED DES MOINES (AP) — The Iowa Manufacturers association Wednesday elected Charles E. Strickland of Mason City, as its new president to succeed L. P. Boudreaux, of Cedar Rapids. Strickland, general manager of the Peoples Gas & Electric division in Mason City, had been vice-president of the association during the past year.

Brannan Blames '48 Congress For Grain Storage Scandals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Brannan set off a table-thumping senatorial row on the subject of political manipulation of farm prices Wednesday by accusing congress of creating the conditions for the grain storage scandals.

In between rounds of the word battle he stoutly defended his department's performance in the storage program as a "grand job" done under difficulties. He was witness in the senate agriculture committee's investigation of multi-million dollar shortages of products bought up to support prices.

The shortages occurred in products which had been placed in commercial warehouses or stored on the farm as security for loans to farmers.

Brannan Slams '48 Cut Brannan set the price-politics talk going with testimony that some of the troubles were caused by limitations he said congress put into the commodity credit corporation law in 1948. He said the result was that CCC could not take needed steps to expand storage facilities for the great crops that year.

Senator Aiken (R-Vt.), who headed the agriculture committee in the Republican-controlled congress of 1948, came back quickly with the accusation that Brannan had distorted the events.

He said the department agreed to the law and helped write it. Lack of Space Rumored "But then," he said, "somebody got the idea to spread it around the country that there was a lack of storage space. The price of grain was forced down a billion dollars and they put the blame on congress.

"They played a dirty trick on the farmers. They lost a billion dollars for purely political reasons. They're not going to do it again this year if I can stop it."

Aiken said the committee has testimony that there was ample storage space in at least some midwest states in 1948.

Dewey Blames Truman There have been repeated Republican statements that the drop in grain prices was a big factor in President Truman's victory over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. Dewey himself has said the Truman administration as a political maneuver caused a price drop about 10 days before the election to scare farmers away from voting Republican. Truman replied that Dewey knew there was a word of truth in the charge.

Chairman Ellender (D-La.) told Aiken "that's your opinion" of the happenings of 1948 and there are plenty of different views.

Manchester Youth Is Drowning Victim

MANCHESTER, IA. (AP) — Ronald Rabe, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rabe, drowned in the Maquoketa river here Wednesday despite the efforts of a 79-year-old Waterloo man to save him.

The boy and several other lads were riding their bicycles near the river bank when Rabe suddenly fell into the water.

A. Gashel of 810 Hannah Blvd., Waterloo, who was fishing nearby, heard the boy scream and hit the water. He waded out to the boy, but just as he grabbed the body, Gashel stepped into a hole and went under and the body disappeared.

The body was recovered about 25 minutes later, 20 feet from the bank.

Engineering Students Vote New Program

Students in the college of engineering voted Wednesday to re-vamp student seminars conducted by each department of the college into a common body.

Formerly the seminars, which are required of junior and senior engineering students, met separately once a month.

The new program, which will go into effect next fall, provided it is accepted by the dean and the executive committee of the college of engineering. Departmental meetings three times a month and a fourth joint meeting once a month of all the seminars are scheduled.

The objectives of the revised seminar schedule are: to bring student problems to the faculty and have the faculty discuss its student problem with the students; to promote the profession of engineering; to plan technical programs; to bolster existing engineering activities, and to include the freshmen and sophomore engineering students in seminars.

Bankroll Burned Up

DAYTON, O. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. White got married 25 years ago after they saved up a modest sum. They decided they would live frugally and save something for their old age.

They saved and saved. Finally, last weekend they counted up. They had $43,550—435 bills of $100 denomination.

"We'd better put this in the bank Monday," they said. So, Monday morning Mrs. White put the money in its usual hiding place—a muslin bag pinned to her slip. But she had to clerk from noon until late in the evening and didn't get the money to the bank, the Whites told police Wednesday.

The money was gone Monday night. After a day of searching, they decided the money had been burned up in trash that Mrs. White gathered and burned.

But, the only thing they have to bolster their theory is a pile of gray and black ashes. That's the only thing they have left, too, of their life savings.
