Communist Masses Riot In Berlin

5 Red Prisoners Killed In New Korean Riots

KOJE ISLAND, Korea (FRIDAY) (AP) — Two North Korean prisoners of war were killed and four were wounded today in renewed rioting on Kojé island off southwest Korea.

The riot was the second in 24 hours involving prisoners of war and interned civilians.

Three civilians were killed and 13 were injured Thursday in a prison compound at Yonchon, 80 miles north of the provisional capital of Pusan, Tokyo headquarters announced.

The Kojé riot started today when a work detail charged its guards.

Two American and two South Korean guards were involved in the Kojé flareup.

The Yonchon riot was a fight between interned civilians moved there recently from Kojé island.

About 100 Allied troops wielding bayonets and throwing tear gas Thursday raided an unruly compound on Kojé containing 3,350 prisoners, destroyed their headquarters and seized Red flags and knives. No blood was spilled, the army said.

It was the first big show of force inside any of the 17 compounds since disorders flared early in May on this South Korean island where 80,000 prisoners of war are held.

The trouble began when guards spotted Red prisoners trying to chop a hole through an inner barbed wire fence that bars the way to an areaway leading to the outer gate.

Col. Henry Taylor, Magnolia, Ark., ordered the Reds to repair the hole. When they refused, he summoned 50 battle-seasoned troops from company E of the 38th Infantry regiment.

The infantrymen, wearing gas masks and with bayonets fixed to their rifles, then moved in with tear gas, driving the Red prisoners from the fence. Behind this flying wedge, more than 50 British soldiers moved in and began tearing down their command post and a nearby dispensary.

The Reds stood back, chanted slogans, jeered and sang. One prisoner mounted a rostrum and declared the incident was "a rehearsal for World War III."

The first British wrecking crew was relieved by 65 more British troops who had been taking riot-control training. These troops completed the demolition job. They brought out knives, Red flags, medical supplies, blankets and pictures, most of which had been hidden under the floors of the two shacks.

The Reds had two flags flying again within minutes after the U.S. and British troops quit the compound. They plastered the compound with signs damning the operation, but they were quiet.

Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, the camp commander who is bringing firm rule to the island, watched the whole operation. He ignored written demands by Red leaders that he confer with them.

Then came the accidental shooting. The prisoners remained quiet, but they brought the two wounded prisoners to the front gate of the compound.

The one prisoner died shortly thereafter. The prisoners refused, however, to turn over the body. Taylor ordered an investigation of the shooting.

Authorities emphasized that the show of force in compound 66 was not part of the planned movement of prisoners to smaller compounds.

This movement is expected to come in about a week, and a showdown is likely then.

Red Heavy Artillery Continues Shelling On Korean Front

SEOUL (FRIDAY) (AP) — Furious Red artillery fire Thursday, for the second straight day, raked the Korean front, where powerful Communist forces of troops and tanks are in position to strike.

For a time the rate of fire in the mountainous east even exceeded that of Wednesday, when the Communists hurled a record 7,125 rounds into Allied positions along the twisting, 153-mile front. The heavy shelling blistered the strategic punchbowl area, where two enemy platoons were thrown back early Thursday.

An Allied patrol intercepted about 300 Chinese Communist troops moving up for an attack and stopped them cold in an action beginning shortly before midnight Wednesday.

The Red raiders called for artillery support, flares were dropped by both sides, and the big guns opened up. After a four-hour fight, the Chinese withdrew, leaving 54 injured or wounded.

Later Thursday, the fighting tapered off into light engagements between small forward forces.

The rising tempo on the front comes at a time when the Communist armistice negotiations have been threatening a spring offensive.

Authoritative officers in Tokyo say the Reds now have a total ground strength in Korea just shy of the one million mark, with at least 400 tanks and 1,000 planes.

Reds Drop Threat To Peace Parley Of Spring Drive

MUNSAN, Korea (FRIDAY) (AP) — Communist truce negotiations Thursday abruptly dropped their threat of an offensive in Korea but kept up a drumfire of charges that the Allies "massacre" prisoners.

For an hour and five minutes the deadlocked delegates traded words at Thursday's session.

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison lectured the Communists on the question of voluntary repatriation of prisoners, the last issue preventing an armistice.

Harrison declared that the Communists themselves agreed to the questioning of prisoners to see if they wanted to return to Red rule. Only 70,000 of 170,000 Red prisoners said they wanted to go back.

GIs in Korea Express Views On Panty Raids

Barkley Enters Race For Demo Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Alben W. Barkley, veteran of 39 years in congress and renowned stump speaker, Friday became the sixth vowed candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The 74-year-old Kentuckian said that he had been on the verge of saying ever since President Harry Truman took himself out of the running March 29, that he would accept the nomination if tendered.

Barkley's entry scrambled the Democratic race into a bigger omelet than ever. He also made it difficult for the President to pick a pre-convention favorite if he desires to do so. Including Barkley, several close friends of Truman are now avowed or potential candidates.

Her Last Son Returns from War

MRS. RAY SMITH places her son Donald's picture on a table in her home Thursday as Donald looks on. Other pictures on the table are Mrs. Smith's seven other sons, all of whom served in the armed services during World War II or following. Donald returned from Korea only two weeks ago after a year's service with the army. Today is the first Memorial day in 10 years that Mrs. Smith has not had at least one son in the service.

Iowa Drivers Told Of Weekend Danger

DES MOINES (AP) — The state safety department warned motorists Thursday that careless driving over the Memorial day weekend could bring death to anywhere from five to 15 persons in Iowa.

During the three-day period starting on the eve of the holiday last year, four persons were killed on the highways. There was a total of 346 accidents and 153 persons were injured.

State safety commissioner Pearl McMurry said the heaviest and most dangerous traffic in Iowa history would begin late Thursday and continue through Sunday as motorists swarm the roads to take advantage of the long holiday.

"If only a few of those drivers fail to take sensible precautions, as many as 15 persons may be dead in Iowa accidents by Monday morning," McMurry said. "If our drivers perform with the caution they have shown through most of this year, we may escape this weekend with as few as five deaths."

McMurry said Iowa's safety record has been showing a reduction of 30 to 35 per cent in fatalities compared with last year and he hoped drivers would not mar this record.

Woman's 8th Son Home Safely From War Zone

Eight pictures on a linen covered table today give Mrs. Ray Smith of 610 S. Madison st. the happiest Memorial day she has had in 10 years.

All eight of her sons have returned from the war safely.

Donald Comes Home

The last to come home was Donald, 22, who returned two weeks ago from a year of army duty in Korea. With him came his picture to be placed on the little table beside the pictures of his eight brothers, all of whom saw service during World War II or since.

Mrs. Smith's table of pictures reads like a recruiting poster. Her oldest, stepson Lester, served with the coast guard; Frank, 37, with the air force; Harold, 26, navy; Robert, 24, navy; Joseph, 23, marines, and Donald and LeMoine, 21, both of the army.

Mrs. Smith was formerly Mrs. Bessie Janney and all her sons are by her previous marriage.

Other Sons Working

Donald is now employed at the Moorhead Construction company in Iowa City. The other boys are working at jobs in places ranging from California to Chicago.

Mrs. Smith has never had all her sons together at once since World War II started. John was the only one of her sons who was wounded in service. He has since recovered.

"When my boys went into the service I wasn't sure they would all return safely but now that they have I'm very thankful," Mrs. Smith said Thursday. "I hope we can all get together soon for a real reunion."

French Riot Leaders Charged with Plotting Against Nat'l Security

PARIS (AP) — French Communist boss Jacques Duclos and two henchmen were charged Thursday with plotting against France's internal security by inciting hate-riding riots as a front for Red revolution.

Communist-led unions threatened strikes by millions of workers in protest.

Duclos' ringleader companions in the Paris Red rioting of Wednesday were identified Thursday as Alfred Wigeshoff and Georges Goossens.

They were arrested with Duclos beside his car at a riot scene Wednesday night but were not immediately named as plotters. The charges against the three are identical: plotting against the internal security of the republic.

Goossens told police the pistol and a club found in Duclos' car belonged to him and that he was carrying them because a recent attempt was made to assassinate Duclos.

Pigeons found in the car, Goossens said, were given to the Red boss by an admirer.

The government crackdown on Communists brought uproars from the Red following.

'Play Soldiers' Cause $450 Damage with Guns

DES MOINES (AP) — Five boys ranging in age from 11 to 14, admitted to juvenile officers Thursday that they caused about $450 damage to cars and trucks parked on a lot while they were playing a "guns and army" game.

The vehicles served as the "enemy," the boys told Brophy. The boys told Capt. Ralph Brophy they broke windows and tore panel boards on the vehicles when the "attacked" with BB guns.

EXPECT RIOT IN JAPAN

TOKYO (FRIDAY) (AP) — Some 25,000 metropolitan police with wooden shields and a unit of American military guards with fixed bayonets were mobilized for an expected outbreak of Communist demonstrations today. National police were alerted for outbreaks in other parts of Japan. Police said the Reds planned a show of strength in observance of "Martyrs day," anniversary of Communist demonstrations in the Far East.

300 Arrested As Reds Enter American Zone

BERLIN (AP) — Fifteen thousand Communists, surging in from the Russian zone for an anti-Western demonstration, touched off a savage clash with West Berlin police Friday night in a growing war of nerves.

Club-swinging police wounded hundreds of the invaders, arrested 300 and broke up the demonstration after an hour of milling in the downtown borough of Kreuzberg, in the American sector.

Tear gas squads were ready, but were never needed. There was no gunfire.

The Communist pattern of trouble-making was as clear, however, as it was in the anti-Western rioting in Paris less than 24 hours before.

Paris Red Charged

The French Red boss, Jacques Duclos, was charged in Paris Friday with plotting against the internal security of France by inciting riots as a front for Red revolution. His labor supporters called a strike. The ostensible target of the French demonstrators was Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, who succeeds Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today as supreme commander of the North Atlantic alliance.

Berlin is a convenient target in the Communist fight against NATO and related pacts lining up West Germans with the West.

The riot was set off by a group of a thousand brawny Communists distributing leaflets denouncing West Germany's newly signed peace contract with the Allies and calling for German unity, Soviet style.

Brawny Rioters Scattered

After a series of short but sharp battles with highly trained West Berlin police platoons, the rowdies were shoved into side streets and dispersed. Most of the other demonstrators, teen-age youths, kept out of the fight.

Reports that 25,000 strongarm men had been ordered into other areas in the American, British and French sectors kept police on the alert, but proved unfounded.

The rioting was timed with a visit of British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, who told West Berlin's parliament and people to stand firm. He declared the Red pressures were "passing phases" and forecast eventual German unity in peace with this city as the capital.

Eden Rebuffs Threats

"The security and welfare of Berlin and our position here are essential parts of world peace," Eden said. "We shall not be influenced by threats. Threats are the stock in trade of those who lack confidence. Calm is the weapon of those who seek peace."

In the West German capital of Bonn, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government stamped hard on rumors that West Berlin and its 2.2 million people would be given up to the Russians without a fight. Declaring the rumors were "circulated for political purposes to cause unrest," the government statement said they are totally without foundation.

Say Morris Made $30,000 in Deals

WASHINGTON (AP) — A senate subcommittee reported Thursday that Newbold Morris, ousted government cleanup chief, earned approximately $30,000 in surplus ship deals which led to "questionable, and in some instances illegal, practices."

The report is the result of a sensational inquiry made by the investigations subcommittee into the purchase of surplus oil tankers from the old U. S. maritime commission by Joseph E. Casey and a group of prominent public figures.

Casey, a former Democratic house member from Massachusetts, is now practicing law in Washington.

No Paper Saturday

The Daily Iowan will not publish Saturday, so that staff members may observe Memorial day today.

$3 Billion Requested For Atomic Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman asked congress Thursday to vote more than three and a third billion dollars to build up the nation's atomic weapons program. He said the money would provide for a "major further expansion" over a five-year period.

"The national security and the security of the free world," Truman said in letters to congressional leaders, "demand that we maintain and increase our leadership in this field. . . . Not to do so invites disaster."

The President gave no details of the projected $3,341,000,000 expansion, saying only that it would "provide greater capacity for the production of fissionable materials and for the fabrication of such materials into atomic weapons."

The atomic energy commission declined to elaborate except to say that the program embraces one Ohio river valley plant which it has announced is under consideration.

Presumably, however, any such major expansion would speed up additions to the U.S. stockpile of conventional A-bombs and would also permit greater speed in the development of production of such weapons as artillery, nuclear-powered submarines and aircraft, and the fearsome hydrogen bomb.

3 Northwestern Editors Fired

EVANSTON, ILL. (AP) — Three top editors of Northwestern university's daily student newspaper were fired Thursday by a university official following publication of a news story about the school's counselor to women.

The editors of the Daily Northwestern said they would defy the firing order.

They were ordered to vacate their posts by Dean Kenneth Olson of the university's school of journalism. Olson acted as chairman of Northwestern's board of publications, which supervises student publications.

The student newspaper Thursday published a news account of a meeting yesterday of the school's student governing board, at which alleged student complaints against Mrs. Claudine V. Mason, counselor to women, were heard.

The ousted editors issued a statement defying Dean Olson's order on grounds that the action needed majority approval of the publications board.

"We don't know whether we're still the editors or not," the statement read, "but we're going to proceed in our jobs until the board of publications makes a final decision."

The editors involved are: Harry Ernst, Charleston, W.Va., editor-in-chief; Roy Alexander, Ashville, N.C., assistant editor; and Lloyd Gerlach, Wauwatosa, Wis., associate editor.

The Daily Northwestern suspends publication today until the beginning of the fall term. Named by Olson to serve as editor of today's edition was Gregory Shaker, Charleston, W.Va.

University President J. Roscoe Miller said he could not comment on the firing because he hadn't discussed it yet with Olson. Olson could not be reached for comment.

At Wednesday's meeting of the student governing board, some students complained that Mrs. Mason has tried to block approval of a proposed student judiciary council, which would mete out discipline to erring students.

Letters to the Editor

(Editor's note: This letter was recently received by L. Dale Faunce, SUI dean of students, from six servicemen now stationed in Korea. The Daily Iowan believes that the letter is of enough interest to our readers to be reprinted in our columns.)

May 22, 1952
North Korea

L. Dale Faunce
University of Iowa
Iowa City, Iowa

Dear Sir,
In some of the recent issues of Stars and Stripes, we have read of some of the escapades of your students, and students of other well known colleges and universities in the United States.

We find it hard to enter into the spirit of such things as "lingerie raids," "ice cream riots," and the open derision of recognized authority, as demonstrated by these students. Maybe we have forgotten how to have good clean American fun, but we don't consider this in the least bit humorous.

Do American parents, and educators, recognize their children and your students as being in the upper intelligence bracket? Isn't a college education supposed to develop personal initiative, so that one should not be as susceptible to mob hysteria as less educated people? It seems that what your students have done in regard to this situation could be more readily applicable in other countries than our own.

No doubt some of your students sooner or later will be leaders. One of the most important things that a leader must realize is the recognition and respect of higher authority. At times, recognition of a higher authority is difficult, but it is better to practice obedience while planning one's future so that, as a subordinate, some crucial period may not end in failure.

Please don't misunderstand our view of this situation. We have not been embittered by our present state, because some of us have served previously in the armed forces, and some of us are ex-college students. We realize more than ever before the reality of the Communist doctrine which we are now fighting. We will admit that at an earlier period, we had a "laissez faire" attitude toward it, but during the past 14 months our attitude has changed, and now we are actually fighting for our freedom, both personal and democratic.

Since our arrival in Korea, it has been a continual "thorn in our side" at the utter disregard that the majority of the American people have for this "police action."

It is our purpose in writing this letter not to condemn your students or our families at home, but to request that each individual will take a short period of time, and think about the Communist slave masters which we are helping to fight against, and their contribution to this fight.

It is a very real enemy!
Sincerely yours,
Cpl. Edward Bohi
Pfc. Lee H. Nicholson
Cpl. Norris E. Hall
Cpl. William A. Harmon
Cpl. James Drake
Pvt. David L. Westhoff

P.S. Please let us know what your students think about this letter. We are most interested.

Interlude

"These recent 'panty raids' clearly indicate the immaturity of our youth!"

Interpreting the News —

Reds Now Using Force; Will They Risk War?

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.
Associated Press News Analyst

The Kremlin has shelved its peace offensive, by which it tried to make western mobilization appear useless, in favor of force, and threats of more force, in an effort to make it appear too dangerous. Communist mobs run through Paris, in what French authorities say is a definite plot against the state. Communist mobs infiltrate Western Berlin. Chinese Communists in Korea use the same phraseology to threaten a new offensive that they used when threatening the original intervention.

Russia is reacting just as the Allies expected, but there is a critical alertness in the absence of knowledge of just how far she may go. She shows obvious signs of deadly fear as plans go forward for mobilizing Western Germany, with its Ruhr and its nearly 50 million people, on the Allied side.

She is met in the broad field of power politics with American plans for a $3 billion addition to the atomic weapons program.

She is met by Allied announcement, in effect, that an attack on Berlin will be considered an attack on Britain, France and the United States themselves.

She is met with Allied confidence that, if the Reds do make another attempt to conquer South Korea, UN lines will hold and "operation kill" will be repeated. And if she backs the Chinese army with airpower, she is met with the prospect of Allied air attacks on China and Manchuria and even, if the need became extreme, on the Russian supply line from Vladivostok to Korea.

In other words, Russia has gone just about as far as she can without risking getting herself directly into a war.

Winston Churchill has echoed President Truman's estimate that the situation is very grave. Authorities estimate that Russia's atomic preparedness will not reach practical proportions for another year or so, and think she would be foolish to start a war before then. But would that be much more foolish than Stalin's decision in 1945, as reported by Averell Harriman, that he would not cooperate for a brave new world because he thought an American depression would let him conquer the whole business for himself?

Just think what would have happened for Russia if she had participated in the great worldwide cooperation for postwar recovery, instead of blockading herself behind the iron curtain while devoting practically all of her resources to military preparedness.

When you are dealing with a government capable of decisions like that, you can't tell what is liable to do.

SUI Religion Plan Noted in Article In Time Magazine

This week's Time magazine contains an article entitled "The Iowa Plan," and deals with SUI's school of religion.

The article describes the organization of the school and says, "Since the Iowa plan was founded, other state-supported universities have patterned their departments of religion after it. And in 25 years, the plan has made religion an integral part of SUI's college life."

Dr. M. Willard Lampe, director of the school of religion, is quoted as saying, "The basic idea is this: religion, theoretically and practically, is inseparable from education; hence it should be taught, even in a tax-supported institution like the State University of Iowa, not indirectly or surreptitiously, but unapologetically, comprehensively and in the line with the best educational practice."

Time's article says the school of religion has taught 690 students during the present semester.

"Commented an SUI undergraduate: 'Around here we think it's a helluva good idea,' said the article.

Time calls the SUI school of religion "a harmoniously working faculty of Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish clergymen giving honest presentations of their respective religious teachings in separate courses and for college credits."

Uncle Sam Indicates Crackdown on Spies

By Central Press

WASHINGTON—Is Uncle Sam ready to be really tough on spies, as the upshot of the exposes of recent years?

Seasoned observers of diplomacy here think that he is, and point to Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, convicted of giving atomic secrets to the Russians, moving a long stride closer to an unprecedented peacetime execution for espionage, and the demand of a congressional committee that the death penalty be meted out to all spies who are caught.

Repercussive Policy

Such a policy, which may seem only logical to Americans outraged by repeated disclosures of top secrets, is expected to have repercussions around the globe.

They say that espionage probably has been practiced to a far greater extent by virtually all governments than was realized generally. Spies always have been, but an unwritten code among nations decreed that they should be treated with discretion if war was not actually being waged.

Typifying the new attitude, however, is the blunt declaration by New York's Judge Irving Kaufman, made in passing sentence of the supreme penalty upon the Rosenbergs, that:

"Your crime is worse than murder. Plain deliberate contemplated murder is dwarfed in magnitude by comparison. Indeed, by your betrayal, you undoubtedly have altered the course of history."

Consequently, espionage once a kind of romantic international sport featuring glamor girls like the fabulous Mata Hari of World War I and assorted cloak and dagger boys, and later a sordid business in the buying and selling of state secrets, seems to be taking its place alongside the most heinous crimes.

War Would Outlaw

If the Nuernberg trials after World War II forged a new international crime of making aggressive war, the legal soothsayers speculate that a World War III could bring the final outlawing of espionage. Even without war, a new era of fair exchange of information and freedom of the press may dawn as the result of the crackdown on spies.

It is pointed out that many nations are reflecting the trend, Greece having just sentenced eight Red spies to death. From Europe come reports that spying, once as popular a way of making illicit money as operating the black market, has become so unhealthy that for the first time it is difficult to hire agents.

The Rosenbergs, languishing in Sing Sing prison, now have only the United States Supreme Court or a possible commutation of sentence by President Truman between them and the electric chair. Both seem rather remote.

No Death Sentences

No death sentence has been imposed heretofore either in war or peace under the present espionage act, enacted in 1917. The nearest exception was the six Nazis executed in 1942 after being trapped on the landing benches. But that was in wartime and before a military court.

By 1945, peace had returned and President Truman hardened to past practice by committing to life imprisonment the death sentence of another Nazi spy, William C. Colepaugh, 26, of Miami, Conn. That was before the present wave of revelations and the hue and cry against spies. How does it feel to be branded "worse than a murderer" and left in virtually complete silence to ponder the crime while awaiting execution? In a petition asking release from the death house, "as a living hell," Ethel Rosenberg tells:

Spies Are Lonely

"I am sealed in the gray walls of this prison as if in a tomb. I am alone in an entire building except for the matron who guards me. I see no other human being from morning to night and from night to morning. I have no occupation other than to sit immured in the aching soundlessness of my narrow cell," she laments.

However, Judge Jerome Frank on the United States Court of Appeals, reviewing Judge Kaufman's assessment of the supreme penalty, added: "We think the judge stayed well inside the discretion allowed him." Yes, say observers, Uncle Sam must be getting tough on spies at last!

Today Marks Milestone Again In Lives of 12 Civil War Vets

WASHINGTON (CP) — Twelve Union and Confederate veterans of the Civil War wait today for final taps.

Their ages range from 103 to 110. They are the last of two and a quarter million comrades in arms who have long since passed away into history.

However, the 12 veterans—eight Confederate and four Union soldiers—still carry on. The end may be near, but they won't admit it.

Each Memorial day represents another milestone — perhaps the last — to them. On this day, set up originally to commemorate the Civil War dead, they recall the great host of men who fought with them for Abraham Lincoln and Robert E. Lee.

Outlived Estimate

Who is there to say that they will not live to see another Memorial day, and another, and another? They have already proven the government's actaries to be wrong. These men, with the cold logic that distinguishes them, estimated back in 1870 that the last Union survivor would die in 1946.

Today, the Veterans Administration estimates that of the four Civil War veterans on its pension rolls, only one will be alive in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1953.

James A. Hard, 110, of Rochester, N.Y., commented when he heard this, acidly, that: "It won't be me who will be dead." It was Hard who remarked during the 83d and final encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in 1949 that "I have been in perfect health today and I may reach the 200 mark."

With the confidence that comes with having already outlived the ordinary span of life, Albert Woolson, 105, of Duluth, Minn., took out a five-year subscription several years ago for The National Tribune, a veterans newspaper published in Washington, which was established in 1877 by members of the GAR.

In doing so, he wrote Editor Edward K. Inman: "When my subscription runs out, I want to renew it for another five years."

Honor Roll

Here is the honor roll of the last of the boys in blue and gray, who wait in hamlets and cities throughout the nation for final taps to sound:

James A. Hard, 110, Rochester, N.Y. Enlisted in Company H, transferred to Company E, 32d New York infantry, served May 31, to June 9, 1863.

Israel A. Broadstreet, 105, Samuels, Ida. Company H, 51st Missouri infantry. Served April 4, 1865, to Aug. 13, 1865.

Albert Woolson, 105, Duluth, Minn. Enlisted Oct. 10, 1864. Company C, 1st Minnesota heavy artillery. Transferred to Company B, same outfit, July 7, 1865. Mustered out Aug. 5, 1865.

William H. Magee, 105, Van Nuys, Calif. Company M, 12th Ohio cavalry. Served from Oct. 20, 1863, to Nov. 14, 1865.

Confederate Vets

Those who served under the Stars and Bars:

Walter C. Williams, 108, Franklin, Tex.

Thomas Evans Riddle, 106, Wichita Falls, Tex.

John Salling, 105, Slant, Va.

Arnold Murray, 105, Orangeburg, S.C.

William D. Townsend, 105, Olla, La.

William J. Bush, 105, Fitzgerald, Ga.

William A. Lundy, 103, Laurel Hill, Fla.

William M. Loudermilk, 103, Jonesboro, Ark.

Receive Pensions

No central records exist on the Confederate veterans, who are not carried on the federal pension rolls. The Confederate veterans receive pensions from their home states ranging from $20 to $150 a month.

Three of the remaining Union veterans receive pensions of $120 a month from the Veterans Administration. The fourth, William H. Magee, is living on his retired army pay. The Civil war did not end his military service. Magee went on to serve also in the Indian wars.

Interestingly enough, Magee did not join the GAR until about three years ago. The GAR members have outlived the boys in blue who did not join their organization. The last of the non-members died several years ago.

The Confederate survivors belong to the United Confederate Veterans. They celebrated their 61st and final reunion in June 1951.

GAR Post Exists

One GAR post is still in existence. It is the Los Angeles post to which Magee belongs. The second surviving member of this post died in April. He was Douglas T. Story, 107, of West Los Angeles, Calif. With his death this post also will probably go out of existence.

Congress has provided that the last surviving members of the GAR and the United Confederate Veterans are to be buried in Arlington National cemetery, their next-of-kin willing.

The GAR is being kept together by Miss Cora E. Gillis, the organization's secretary and past national president of the Daughters of the GAR, who keeps the records, flags, officers' badges, official seal, and other mementoes at her home in Jamestown, N. Y.

New Farm Created Within 17 Hours For World War Vet

MOSES LAKE, WASH. (AP) — Dozens of farmers, carpenters, electricians and plumbers chipped in Thursday to create a $75,000 farm in 17 hours for a dramatic start of the million-acre Columbia basin irrigation project.

More than 100 workers started under floodlights a minute after midnight. They were so far ahead of schedule at noon that the planters were asked to slow down to give the hundreds of spectators a longer show.

The finishing touches were to be completed at 6:30 p.m. (CST). This is the signal for reclamation commissioner Michael Straus to start the symbolic flow of the first irrigation water from the Columbia river.

The seven-room house, which contractors said would normally take more than two months to build, was 70 per cent completed by noon as carpenters banged away at the roof and got out of the way of the painters.

The farm is completely stocked—even to tractors, furniture and groceries—and belongs to Donald Dunn, 30, father of two children and an army veteran of World War II.

Dunn was washed off his dryland, Marion, Kan., farm by the 1951 floods. But he gets a big start on a new life because he wrote a letter for the national Veterans of Foreign Wars contest to find a tenant for the "farm in a day." He was adjudged the most worthy veteran and got the farm free.

SHADOWS OF LONG AGO AND FAR AWAY — Blue and Gray — but the modern world has not forgotten.

Scottish Highlanders Prepare for Trip to England, Scotland, Wales

BONNIE MCKITTRICK, A1, DES MOINES, is shown practicing the sword dance in full Highlander regalia. Come August she'll be dancing for audiences in the country from which the dance originated. Bonnie and the other Highlanders going to Europe this summer are spending time perfecting their parts for presentation to European audiences.

ARLENE ALLAN, A3, MANCHESTER, right, is going to be properly prepared for rainy weather when she visits Europe with the touring Highlanders. Mary Sals, A3, Earlville, another traveling Highlander, is helping Arlene "button up."

Iowa Tour to Precede Embarkation July 15

By SARAH ADAMS

Sixty Scottish Highlanders have been busily preparing for their summer trip to England, Scotland and France.

As the date of departure, July 15, draws nearer, each Highlander has been vaccinated, practicing routines, getting her passport, and planning her wardrobe.

The group will embark at Montreal, Canada, July 15 on the S.S. Arosa Kulm, director Bill Adamson has announced, and arrive at Le Havre, France, July 26. They will stay in Paris from July 26 to 31. From August 1 to 11 they will be in London, England. Their last stop will be Edinburgh, Scotland, where they will stay from August 11 to 25.

They will start home from South Hampton, England, Aug. 26 and return to Montreal Sept. 6.

The boat on which the group will travel is restricted to student and teacher passengers. Accommodations, Adamson reports, will be dormitory style.

Housing Arranged

Housing on the tour has been arranged for the Highlanders at the women's dormitory of the City University in Paris, the King's College Hostel of the University of London, and 10 private hotels in Edinburgh.

No organized sight-seeing tours have been planned. The women will go on independent side tours to places that interest them. With parent's permission, they will be allowed to go on overnight trips.

Thirty Highlanders will participate in an Iowa tour preceding the main trip. It will begin June 9 with a performance at Cherokee. On succeeding days they will play at Storm Lake, Spencer, and Mason City. The tour will serve the double purpose of raising money to help pay for the European trip and giving the members additional experience.

Passports Received

Preparations have included everything from special practices to vaccinations. Four faculty members and a student talked to the group in a series of lectures on how to understand the English and Scottish peoples, their customs and currencies, wardrobes, health, and conduct.

Most of the girls already have their passports. Smallpox was the only required vaccination, but tetanus and typhoid were recommended. They began getting their shots April 1 and will be finished Monday.

What clothes to take was another problem. The instruments and most parts of the uniforms will be carried in 11 packing cases.

Luggage Limited

Since this will take up most of the baggage allowance on the boat, Adamson has asked the girls to limit their personal luggage to one suitcase and a cosmetic case. They must pack their kilts and doublets, the Scottish skirts and coats, in their own bags.

Mary Lou Mortenson, A3, Des Moines, Highlander drum major, described the typical wardrobe. It will include at least one nylon dress, a suit, blouses, a raincoat, and a bathing suit. Slacks and shorts for informal wear on the boat will also be included.

Everything possible will be nylon. Irons are hard to find in Europe.

Rehearsal Planned

The Highlanders will gather in Iowa City July 9 for four days of intensive rehearsal before they leave for Montreal. Two different types of routines have been prepared. Iowans are familiar with the intricate formations that are popular in America.

The other type has been prepared especially for the Scottish and conforms to their idea of a bagpipe band, which means more difficult music and slower, simpler marching steps.

All Highlanders were given the opportunity to go on the tour. Letters were sent to their parents describing the plans. The tour will cost the members about $600, which will cover transportation, food, and housing, but pocket money is extra.

To keep in better contact with the group, Adamson has divided it into 10 squads of six persons each, headed by squad leaders. These squad leaders plus three other members elected by the group will determine rules of conduct.

Mr. and Mrs. Adamson will chaperon the tour.

Highlanders Going

The following members of the Scottish Highlanders will go to Europe this summer:

- Eunice Achenbach, A1, Lisbon;

JOYCE PALMER, A2, ESTHERVILLE, is getting the last of a series of shots required for Europe-bound Highlanders. Judging from the expression on Joyce's face, it didn't hurt at all. Dr. Chester I. Miller, director of student health, administered the inoculation.

Senior Party Programs To Be Mailed Tuesday

The invitation-programs for the fifth annual senior party will be mailed out Tuesday, it was announced Thursday.

Helen Hays, A4, Iowa City, chairman of the party committee, said there has been a delay in printing, but that invitations should be received in time for the party, which is Thursday.

The informal function is free to all seniors. Iowa Union has been exclusively reserved, and Bill Meardon's band will play.

Arrangements have also been made to accommodate all parents who wish to attend.

Demand for Engineers Still High, Service Says

DES MOINES (AP)—The demand for engineers continues brisk at Iowa State Employment Service offices throughout Iowa, but the number of openings for farm hands is declining, the service said Thursday.

There are openings for 203 engineers of all types listed in the service's files, with salaries ranging from $3,400 to $10,000 per year, the employment agency said. Of these, 137 openings are for civil engineers at about $5,000 a year.

Ministers Back the 'Fasting Preacher'

CHERRYVILLE, MO., (AP)—Getting steadily weaker, the Ozarks' fasting preacher shut himself off from the outside world Thursday night even as neighborhood church leaders called on the public to withhold judgment on him.

"There is more behind this than we realize or understand," the Rev. J. P. Myers told his assembly of God congregation at nearby Steelville. "Who is man to judge man?"

By his own count, the 57-year-old preacher and father of seven grown children goes into his 40th day of self-denial today. He claims to have had no food, and only a little water, since April 20.

Trackmen Rise to Prominence

At this time last season, Iowa's track team "astounded" the Big Ten track world by finishing fifth in the conference outdoor meet. It was as high as a Hawkeye team had finished in the meet since anyone cares to remember.

This year Coach Francis Cretzmeyer's squad is in a good position to take at least third, and to no one's surprise. The Hawks finished third in the indoor meet this winter by a margin of 14 points—in 1951 they finished well down the ladder, eighth.

"It's possible to figure numerous dope sheets and maybe none of them will be any good. We might score as many as 37 points and we could drop to around 20," Cretzmeyer figures. If he had made that statement last year, fans and the press would merely have chuckled.

The main difference is finally getting the outstanding material to enroll at Iowa. Bucky O'Connor has done it in basketball after a few years lapse in the caliber of the teams while the Hawkeye swimming teams, under the able direction of Dave Armbruster and Jim Counsellman, have been tops for many years.

HERE'S THE IOWA MILE RELAY TEAM which has the best time in the conference in dual meets this summer. Its fate mainly depends on Gary Scott, on the far left, who has a suspected touch of glandular fever and hasn't practiced all week. Latest reports were that he has received the doctor's go-ahead for the Big Ten meet and will enter the 220-yard dash and the mile relay. Scott usually competes in four events.

The track accomplishments seem another step in finally building Iowa to a respected spot in the national athletic scene.

Gary Scott and Bob Henard are about the only 1951 veterans not overshadowed by first year men. Scott, of course, last year's high point man with 77, is the anchor man on the mile relay team which has turned in the top Big Ten outdoor time of 3:12.4.

He also has the second best time recorded by conference performers this year in the 440, 48.8, and the third best 220-yard time, 21.1. Several other runners have tied these marks. Henard's best broad jump distance of 23-feet, 2 1/2-inches stands second in the Big Ten.

Meanwhile, newcomers Ira Murchison and Rich Ferguson have gained at least midwest prominence by handing runners in their respective events their first collegiate losses.

Ferguson dropped Don McEwen, the defending Big Ten two-mile champion, in that event last week. However, McEwen's best time for the season is 9:01.8 while Ferguson's top mark is 9:08.9.

Murchison topped 100-yard dash man Jim Golliday in the Northwestern meet here a few weeks ago. It was the first loss to Golliday by another collegiate runner in any distance. Murchison covered the distance in :09.3, also Golliday's best time for the season.

Ted Wheeler's 880-yard Iowa record of 1:53.7 is the fifth best time record in the loop this year. Clyde Gardner has heaved the discus 156-feet, 11-inches, the third best distance in the league comparative performances.

The 23-foot, 3/4-inch leap by Stan Levinson in the broad jump stands third in the conference, behind Henard.

If these men can achieve near their peak performances, the Hawks can finish anywhere from first to third, battling it out with Illinois and Michigan. For that matter, even if the Hawks don't come through quite as well as expected this time, we can look forward to fine teams in the coming years—the outstanding point-getters, with exception of Scott, a junior, are either sophomores or freshmen.

Red Smith has come up with another gem of sports wit which the Baseball Digest for June has picked up. It's called "Hitting in the Cliche" and concerns, as Red says, a record of an interview "between an applicant for a job as baseball writer and a sports editor who wonders whether the candidate can make the grade, fill the breach and carry the ball."

Here are some of the best from the article.

- Q—Question (by sports editor): What is baseball? Answer: The national pastime.
  - Q—Good, very good. Now, what is the game played with? A—The horsehide and ash.
  - Q—What is a rookie? A—A rookie is The New Dizzy Vance, The New Babe Ruth, The New Ty Cobb; in special circumstances, The Left-handed Dizzy Dean.
  - Q—What does the rookie who is The New Ty Cobb run like? A—deer.
  - Q—On days when he doesn't run like a deer, what does he run like? A—The wind.
  - Q—What has he for an arm? A—A rifle.
  - Q—What is the Eddie Stanky type? A—A holler guy.
  - Q—What else? A—A take-charge guy.
  - Q—Can you elaborate? A—He is a spark plug.
- This stuff goes on and on.

McGrath Tabbed as Man to Beat — Forecast Good Weather For Indianapolis Race

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Bad weather, one of three things that could prevent a record-cracking 500-mile auto race today, probably will miss the Indianapolis motor speedway again.

The forecast was for a warm, partly cloudy Memorial day. The start is at 11 a.m. central daylight time. There will be a special speedway radio network, no television.

The most important American auto race, the only one that counts in the international standings, has been postponed only once since it started in 1911.

Rain shortened the 1926 race to 400 miles and the 1950 race to 345 miles.

The other two factors that could slow the race — wrecks and engine failures — may not be so well under control.

Johnny Parsons of Sherman Oaks, Calif., only former winner in the 33-car field, rates among the favorites in his 1950 winning car, the Jim Robbins special.

Veteran newsmen at the track generally tagged Jack McGrath of Pasadena, Calif., as the man to beat if he keeps out of trouble. He was among last year's leaders, suffered severe leg cramps, and turned over the car to Manuel Ayulo of Burbank, Calif., for a third-place finish behind Lee Wallard and Mike Nazaruk.

Bolt, Mangrum Tie For 18-Hole Lead Of Western Open

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Tommy Bolt of Durham, N.C., and veteran Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago took the 18-hole lead in the $15,000 Western Open golf tournament Thursday with two-under-par 68's.

Their finish pushed Earl Wilde of Rock Island, Ill., down to third with a 69 card earlier over the long and tricky Westwood country club course.

Bolt, this year's Los Angeles Open champ, shot three birdies and a bogie for a 34-34-68. Mangrum, who duplicated the card, had four birdies and two bogies.

Davey Upset By Basilio In Wild Bout

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Carman Basilio, 156, of Canastota, N. Y., produced one of the major upsets of the 1952 boxing season Thursday night by handing Chuck Davey of Lansing, Mich., his first professional defeat in a wild 10-rounder.

It marked the first professional setback for Davey, former undefeated collegiate ringster at Michigan State. Chuck had won 33 since turning pro.

The verdict was a split affair. Judge Dick Fazio called it five rounds for each fighter, but a 6-5 edge in points for Basilio. Judge Harvey Smith saw it 5 for Davey, 4 for Basilio and one even.

Judge Joe Palmer then threw

BULLETIN
SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Carman Basilio's upset victory over Chuck Davey of Lansing, Mich., was voided Thursday night by a deputy commissioner of the state athletic commission, who said "ultimate outcome rests with Chairman Bob Christenberry.

The crux of the dispute revolved around the second and ninth rounds in which Referee Joe Palmer had voted to Davey, but failed to make any notation of points.

The 6,500 fans into an uproar with 3 rounds for Davey, 3 for Basilio and 4 even. On points Palmer gave Basilio 8 points and Davey only 6 to decide the match.

The 10th and final round was as wild a three-minute session as ever seen in a local ring.

Davey had been cut over the left eye in the seventh. In the final round the wound was reopened. And with blood flowing freely Referee Palmer called a halt and summoned the club physician Dr. Charles Heck.

He examined the cut and said the bout could go on. Less than a minute later Palmer called another halt, deciding to waive Davey to his corner.

Trainer Izzy Klein of Davey appealed and Dr. Heck again came to the apron of the ring for a second examination. He ruled the wound was not serious and fin-

Pick Illinois to Win Big 10 Track Meet At Ann Arbor Today

ANN ARBOR, MICH. (AP) — A three-way battle for Big Ten outdoor track honors among Illinois, Michigan and Iowa, with a number of records in grave danger, is in prospect for the 52d annual Western conference championships here today and Saturday.

Defending champion Illinois is favored but with Michigan and Iowa, the latter an upsurging contender, capable of upsetting the leader as the 246 athletes from all 10 institutions assemble at 2:30 p.m. today for the start of the 14-event program.

An Olympic preview, in a sense, the meet will feature no less than seven athletes who are top contenders for the Olympic teams of foreign countries as well as a number of prospective U. S. team members.

Among the foreign contingent are Denis Johansson, Purdue, Finnish, 1,500 meter and 5,000 meter champion; Roland (Fritz) Nilsson, Michigan, who will also represent Sweden in the shot and discus this summer; McEwen, Panama entry; Canadians McEwen, John Ross and Jack Carroll, all of Michigan in the middle distance and Rich Ferguson of Iowa and Canada, distance racer.

Indiana Early Big Ten Golf Meet Leader

EVANSTON, ILL. (AP) — Favored Indiana, undefeated for the season, piled up 28 points to 23 for defending champion Michigan State in a two-team battle Thursday through the first round of the Big Ten tennis tournament.

Northwestern was third with 17 points, followed by Purdue and Illinois each with 13; Michigan and Iowa each with 11; Wisconsin 7 and Ohio State and Minnesota none.

Drobac was forced into an extra set to defeat Baumbach of Northwestern 6-3, 4-6, 6-3 and move into the No. 1 singles semifinals.

Other top singles results: Jim Deloy, Wisconsin, defeated Ken Jones, Purdue, 3-6, 7-5, 6-0; Norman Barnes, Iowa, defeated Bob Bernoth, Illinois, 6-3, 6-4; Bob Burnham, Indiana, defeated Al Mann, Michigan, 6-2, 6-2.

2 Americans Fall To Ex-Army Major In British Amateur

PRESTWICK, Scotland (AP) — A retired Highland army major, who was critically injured six months ago, Thursday eliminated defending champion Dick Chapman and U.S. amateur king Billy Maxwell from the British amateur golf championship in a pair of round-up upsets.

The giant-killing act by 34-year-old David Blair and the defeats of Frank Strafaci and Jack Penrose sliced the once-powerful American contingent down to three —

And one of Uncle Sam's hopes was sure to go today when McHale, of Philadelphia, and Ward, of Tarboro, N.C., clash in a morning quarter-final. Stranahan will face Charley Carlow of Scotland in his first match today.

Philadelphia Edges Giants, 6-5

Brooklyn Wins, 7-3; Only 1 1/2 Games Back

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies cut the New York Giants National League lead over the Brooklyn Dodgers to a game and a half Thursday with a 6-5 win that almost got away from them in the last inning.

The league leaders threatened in the ninth, scoring twice on singles by Wes Westrum, Dave Williams, Whitey Lockman and Bob Thomson.

Carl Drews, who started for the Phillies, was relieved by Jim Konstanty in the eighth. Konstanty gave way to Andy Hansen in the ninth and Ken Heintzelman finally stopped the New York surge.

Catcher Smoky Burgess clinched the decision for the Phillies in the seventh with a bases-loaded single, scoring Del Ennis and Willie Jones, who had singled and walked.

The loss ended the Giants' seven-game win streak.

Dodgers Finally Hit

BROOKLYN (AP) — Brooklyn bats boomed for the first time in four days Thursday and the Dodgers walloped the Boston Braves, 7-3, with a barrage of four home runs.

The Dodgers, who just lost a three-game set to the red-hot Giants, smacked three Boston hurlers for 11 hits, including home runs by Andy Pafko, Jackie Robinson, Pee Wee Reese and Gil Hodges. All of these players had been in hitting slumps.

Their slugging gave Chris Van Cuyk his fourth victory of the year, although the tall lefthander needed help from Joe Black in the sixth inning. Max Surkont, first of Boston's moundsmen, suffered his third loss.

Dickson Winner

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Murray Dickson held the Cincinnati Reds to four hits and, with the aid of Ralph Kiner's fifth home run of the season, gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-2 victory Thursday at Forbes field.

Dickson didn't allow a hit until the fifth inning and had a one-hitter going into the eighth. It was Dickson's second victory against seven defeats with the cellar-dwelling Pirates.

Nats Get 1 Hit

BOSTON (AP) — Lefty Maury McDermott turned in a one-hit pitching performance for the Boston Red Sox Thursday night as they broke their second-place American league tie with the Washington Senators with a 1-0 victory.

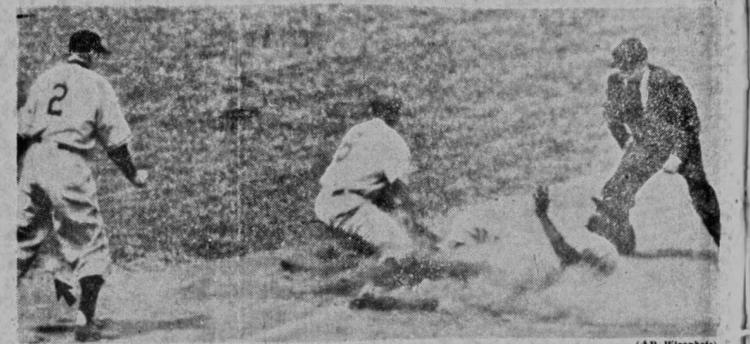

The Red Sox collected 10 hits off Bob Porterfield. A base on balls to Clyde Vollmer and Fred Hatfield's triple provided the winning tally in the sixth.

McDermott is generally wild, but faced only 27 batters. Mel Hoderlein ruined McDermott's no-hit hopes in the fourth inning with a single before being wiped out in a double play.

Feller Wins 5th

DETROIT (AP) — Harry Simpson boomed a bases loaded home run and Al Rosen smashed home four more runs with a double

Thompson's There, Ball's Not

HANK THOMPSON, NEW YORK GIANTS infielder, slides into third in the third inning of Thursday's 6-5 loss at Philadelphia as the ball continues on (at left). Thompson went to third when Don Mueller hit to centerfielder Richie Ashburn, who threw past Phillies third sacker Willie Jones. Giants manager Leo Durocher (2) looks on.

Error Helps Yanks

NEW YORK (AP) — An eighth-inning error by substitute first baseman Billy Hitchcock enabled the New York Yankees to nip the Philadelphia Athletics, 3-2, Thursday.

Phil Rizzuto scored the winning run from second when Hitchcock permitted Yogi Berra's grounder to seep through him. Hitchcock was playing in place of Ferris Fain, who was sidelined with an injured right wrist.

Hitchcock's boot permitted Vic Raschi to sneak in with his 23rd victory over the Athletics in 25 decisions.

Child Art to Be Studied At Parents Conference

How the creative arts should be used in the training of children will be the subject of the 25th Iowa Conference on Child Development and Parent Education at SUI June 17-18. Emphasis will be on what parents can do to make their children "have fun" while they learn music, art and crafts.

Sponsored by the Iowa child welfare research station at the university, the conference is open to all who are interested in child development, with all sessions planned primarily for parents rather than specialists.

Theme of the silver anniversary conference stems from a belief that throughout the country there has been much emphasis generally on maladjustment of children and a neglect of how to make the "normal" child a happier, richer human being.

Speakers in the field of art at the meeting will include Manuel Barken, associate professor of art at Ohio State university; Frank Wachowiak, assistant professor and acting head of art at university schools; and Bernice Setzer, director of art education in the Des Moines public schools.

Barken and Wachowiak will discuss the general philosophy of children's creative activities, with special reference to children's art. Mrs. Setzer's topic will be children's crafts and hobbies.

Edna Buttolph, musical specialist at Bank Street College for Teachers, New York city, will include a demonstration of how to organize music activities for children in her presentation of the part music should play in their lives.

Children's creative dramatics and theatre, with special reference to what the relatively untrained parent and teacher can do in this field, will be the subject of Winifred Ward, professor emerita of the Northwestern university school of speech.

The conference speakers will be present for all sessions of the meeting, leading discussion groups following each talk and participating in a summary panel following a luncheon at the close of the conference. Presence of the speakers as consultants throughout the conference has been planned as a means of integrating the suggestions of these specialists in the teaching of creative arts.

Commencement Luncheons Will Honor Alumni

Under SUT's new "milestone" program special reunions of the classes of 1942, 1927 and 1902 have been planned for commencement week, June 6-7.

Alumni from these classes will be honored at a 10th anniversary luncheon, the silver jubilee luncheon and the golden jubilee dinner to be held on the campus June 6 after commencement.

As in past years, members of the Emeritus club, all classes of 1901 and earlier, will also be honored at their annual dinner the evening before commencement. On commencement night an all-alumni buffet supper will be held in Currier, hall for all university graduates who wish to attend. Their annual all-alumni coffee hour is scheduled for Saturday afternoon, June 7, in the Iowa Memorial Union. The university alumni association will hold its annual meeting Saturday morning in Old Capitol.

Many classes outside the "milestone" program are also planning to meet on the campus next week. Among these groups which have already indicated they will meet are medical classes of 1907, 1912 and 1917; law classes of 1907, 1917, 1922 and 1932; dentistry class of 1932; engineering 1912; and liberal arts classes of 1912 and 1922.

A coffee hour for college of nursing alumni is planned for Saturday morning at Westlawn, nurses' dormitory.

Iowa alumni registration will take place in the Union Friday and Saturday, June 6-7. Reservations for overnight accommodations on these nights should reach the university alumni office before June 1, program planners say.

Local Man Found Dead Under Wrecked Car

Albert P. Hogan, 62, 411 S. Dubuque st., was found dead early Thursday morning under his wrecked automobile on a gravel road near Swisher.

Hogan, who was superintendent of schools at Walford for the past three years, apparently died instantly from injuries received when his car skidded off the road into a ditch about midnight Wednesday, Linn county authorities said.

The accident occurred on the road marking the Linn-Johnson county line about three miles west and one mile south of Swisher. The wreckage and body were not discovered until about 6 a.m. Thursday when Eldon Stepanek, whose farm is near the scene of the accident, found them.

Dr. Robert Brosh, Linn county coroner, said Hogan had suffered a broken neck and head injuries. He estimated the time of death as occurring about midnight.

Hogan had been working on tuition reports at the Walford school Wednesday night and was driving back toward Iowa City when the accident occurred.

Few Races In Monday's Election

Iowa City's deluge of newly-registered voters for Monday's primaries will find only one candidate listed on each party's ballot for most county offices, none for the others and none for any of the township offices.

"Voters Unlimited," a newly organized non-partisan group of Iowa Citizens, staged a campaign which ended a week ago with 1,050 new voters on the rolls, compared with 1,150 for Cedar Rapids; 1,000 for Dubuque, and 1,816 for Waterloo, all more populous cities than Iowa City.

To Give Award

Polling places in Iowa City will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday. To the ward showing the greatest percentage of increase over the number of votes cast in the 1948 primary, "Voters Unlimited" will present a citizenship citation.

Except for possible write-in votes there will be no contests in the June 2 primary within either party here for any of the county offices. The only two offices for which men from both parties are seeking nomination are sheriff and a term on the county board of supervisors beginning January, 1953.

Democratic Candidates

Those listed on the Democratic primary ballot for county offices are: auditor, Ed Sulek, incumbent; treasurer, Lumir W. Jansa, incumbent; clerk of district court, R. Neilson Miller, incumbent; sheriff, John L. Stahmer.

County coroner, George D. Callahan, incumbent; member board of supervisors, Robert Mahoney Sr., incumbent (term beginning January, 1953), and member, board of supervisors, J. E. Pechman, incumbent (term beginning January, 1954).

Those offices for which no Democratic candidate is listed are county recorder and county attorney.

Republican Candidates

Those seeking nomination on the Republican primary ballot are: sheriff, Albert J. Murphy, incumbent; county recorder, R. J. (Dick) Jones, incumbent; county attorney, William L. Meardon, incumbent, and member, board of supervisors, Harry H. Ziskovsky, (term beginning January, 1953).

Those offices for which no Republican candidate is listed are county auditor, county treasurer, clerk of district court, county coroner and member of the board of supervisors (term beginning January, 1954).

Also to be elected in the primary are two justices of the peace and two constables for each township. Each party will elect a county central committeeman and committeewoman from each township.

To Elect Delegates

All precincts will elect delegates to the county conventions in June, the number to be determined by the number of votes cast in the precinct for governor in the last election. One delegate is allowed for each 25 votes.

The polling places are: in the first ward, the county court house for the first precinct, and the Hawkeye Awning company for the second precinct; in the second ward, the city hall for the first precinct, and the fine arts building for the second precinct.

In the third ward, the CSA hall for the first precinct; in the fourth ward, the Junior High school gymnasium for the first precinct, and the Community building for the second precinct; in the fifth ward, the county social welfare department, 538 S. Gilbert st. for the first precinct, and Longfellow school for the second precinct.

Council Committee Readies for 'Largest' Book Selling Year

The student council is getting ready for what is expected to be the largest book selling business in the history of the book exchange.

Bill Isenberger, A2, Sioux City, chairman of the exchange announced Thursday that the exchange will accept books Sept. 19. A definite schedule for the sale and return of books will be set later.

The exchange will be located in the reading room on the first floor of Schaeffer hall.

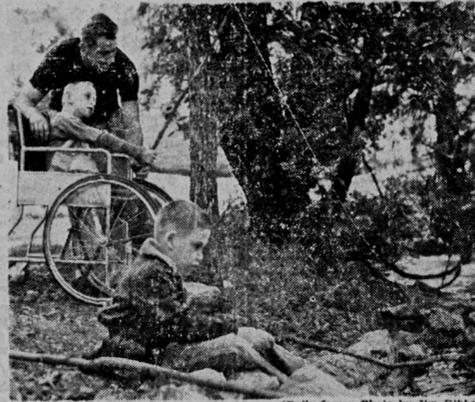

Since its opening by the student council in Feb., 1951, the book exchange has sold 5,550 of over 6,000 books handled for a total return to students of $6,414.

Included in the plans for the sale this fall will be an attempt to secure as comprehensive a list as possible of texts to be used.

Isenberger stressed that the success of the exchange depends on both buyers and seller and urged students to store as many books as possible this summer. Housing units are being asked to allow space for storage.

Other members of the book exchange committee for the next school year include Mary Ladd, A3, Iowa City; Audrey Belle, A1, Iowa City; Jo Ellen Lane, A3, Boone, and Virgil Hancher Jr., A3, Iowa City.

LEARN...and LIVE!

When your boy or girl is old enough to take the wheel of the family car, their chances of becoming a safe driver are three times better today than a few years ago—if they have had the opportunity of becoming a high school-trained driver.

Last year nearly 700,000 students—more than one out of every three eligibles—were enrolled in driver training courses given by 8,000 high schools. There is hope that in the not too distant future every boy and girl will receive driver education before taking the wheel.

How is it working? In one state, a check of 800 trained and 800 untrained drivers after a year's experience revealed that only 100 of the trained ones had run afoul of the law in accidents, violations and warnings. Of the 800 untrained, 769 had some kind of black mark against them. Other state reports confirm this progress through driver education.

Here lies one of the most encouraging answers toward reducing the tragic death and injury toll on our highways. If your community's schools give driver training courses be sure your children enroll before they attempt to drive. If not, find out why your schools do not participate in this vitally needed life-saving training. The cost of driver education to the community is small—the reward great.

Give your children the chance to—Learn and LIVE!

Drive As Though Your Life Depends On It -- IT DOES!
