

CIO Charges 6 Top Steel Producers With Refusal To Bargain

Truman Urges Honest Talks By Both Sides

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman, accusing the major steel producers of a conspiracy to drag out the present strike, said Thursday the situation does not call for use of the Taft-Hartley act. What is needed, he said, is honest bargaining between the two sides.

Within an hour after he spoke out at his news conference, the CIO Steelworkers union filed formal charges with the national labor relations board (NLRB) accusing six major producers of refusing to bargain.

CIO general counsel Arthur J. Goldberg said the union has direct evidence that the six companies have refused to bargain in good faith.

Violates Basic Law

Refusal to bargain in good faith is a violation of basic labor law. The NLRB has authority to issue orders requiring a company or union to bargain. It normally does so only after lengthy hearings.

As for the suggestion from congress, included in the Defense Production act extension, that he should seek Taft-Hartley injunctions against the strike, Truman said that the situation "in my opinion does not call for the national emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley act" but for "honest collective bargaining."

Replying to Goldberg's charges, a spokesman for the six steel companies in the wage case issued the following statement Thursday in Pittsburgh:

'Compulsory Unionism' Charged

"Unable to bring about an agreement involving compulsory unionism, the union now makes the false and ridiculous claim that the companies are negotiating illegally. The union's real complaint is that it has been unable to make the steel industry toe the mark."

Truman strongly indicated that he will not heed the suggestion from congress that he seek to end the 32-day work stoppage by asking the courts for an 80-day injunction against the strike. The Taft-Hartley act provides for such orders in emergency situations.

The President said he understood a number of steel companies were ready to sign strike-ending agreements with the CIO-Steelworkers union, but were being prevented from doing so "because of pressure being put on" by others.

Against Public Interest

"It appears to me," Truman said in a formal statement, "To be a conspiracy against the public interest and not a labor dispute."

He did not name the parties to the alleged conspiracy. He spoke out, however, shortly after reports from Pittsburgh said that the six major producers had held secret meeting and pledged a solid front against union demands.

Industry sources there named the companies taking part in this meeting as U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, Jones & Laughlin, Indiana, and Youngstown Sheet and Tube.

$10 Million Slated For Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Thursday night passed a $10 billion appropriation bill in which the bulk of the money is earmarked for foreign aid and a huge expansion of the nation's atomic weapons program.

The measure, passed by voice vote, would authorize the spending of $3.5 billion — or two billions more than the house allowed — for a build-up of the atomic program as urged by the Truman administration.

An even larger amount, $6 billion, is carried in the bill to finance the foreign military and economic aid program for the 1953 fiscal year that began Tuesday. This is identical with the amount voted by the house.

World News Briefs

A Condensation of Late Developments

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Daily News says word reached Sen. Robert A. Taft's headquarters Thursday that Gen. Douglas MacArthur would accept nomination as Taft's running mate on the Republican ticket.

CHICAGO (AP) — The Republican party Thursday night was reported aiming a lusty swat at the United Nations for failing to direct member countries to give the United States more help in Korea. And, in a bid to assure full Taft-Eisenhower agreement with the party's foreign policy plank, platform drafters were said to be ready to promise further economic aid to shaky freedom-loving countries — but aid of a "better quality."

LINCOLN, NEBR. (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower accused the Taft forces in Chicago of ruthless "Iron Curtain" tactics Thursday and then charged that unscrupulous men in public office have misled the American people. "If I know the American people," the General said, "this ruthlessness in Chicago will boomerang."

NEW YORK (AP) — The big black-hulled liner United States, her whistle blasting, sailed Thursday on her maiden voyage and — just conceivably — history's greatest ocean race.

Malik Vetoes Germ Inquiry

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Russia's Jacob A. Malik grimly vetoed Wednesday an American proposal for the International Committee of the Red Cross to investigate Communist charges of germ warfare by the U. S. and the UN.

The vote was 10 for the investigation with only Malik opposed. This was the 49th veto cast by the Soviet Union since the council first met in 1946.

The UN charter provides that any important resolution must have seven votes to pass the council, including the votes of all the five permanent members — the U. S., France, China, Britain, and Soviet Union.

American delegate Ernest A. Gross vigorously denounced Malik for having "sat down against the truth." He said Malik's vote "frustrating" the will of the council showed the charges are false. Gross followed this attack on Malik with a resolution calling for a council verdict that the germ war charges are false. He asked for condemnation of "the practice of fabricating and disseminating such false charges, which increases tension among nations and which is designed to undermine the efforts of the United Nations to combat aggression in Korea and the support of the people of the world for these efforts."

Malik quickly said he would vote to this latest resolution also.

The UN charter provides that any important resolution must have seven votes to pass the council, including the votes of all the five permanent members — the U. S., France, China, Britain, and Soviet Union.

A tribute to the educational philosophy of President Virgil M. Hancher of SUI is featured in the July 7 issue of Time, weekly news magazine.

The article was occasioned by the American Council on Education's recent appointment of Hancher as head of a new committee to study government scientific research grants to colleges and universities.

The magazine describes him as a "humanologist," and says that the university has become, under Hancher, "one of the boldest crusaders against the vocationalism that plagues the U. S. state universities."

"Even before the famed Harvard report," says Time, "Hancher was busy remodeling his curriculum, slashing away the hodge-podge of vocational courses in favor of a broad and solid liberal arts program."

Hancher is called "one of the state university presidents in the U. S." in the article, and is cited for his achievements in helping Iowa and its 10 colleges "climb to high rank in the mid-west."

Benton in turn accused McCarthy of "tactics of blackmail" and described the Wisconsin Republican as the "star witness" in Benton's move to oust him from the senate. He invited a test between the two under the perjury laws.

Benton took the witness stand as soon as McCarthy finished. The rules committee before which both appeared is considering McCarthy's demand for a full inquiry into Benton's conduct. It also has before it a resolution by Benton looking to McCarthy's ouster from Congress.

Benton, who listened through it called McCarthy's attack on him "vicious, vicious and scandalous," but he said McCarthy did not discuss the issues raised by Benton in his bill of particulars calling for McCarthy's ouster.

Governors Demand Delegates Be Barred In Admission Vote

E. G. MONROE, a summer-returnee grad student in art, has had more exciting adventures in his 20-some years than most human beings have in an entire lifetime. If this sounds a bit unbelievable, witness the following:

Monroe, who hails from a small town in Tennessee, is a direct descendant of President James Monroe and who claims the governor of Tennessee as his first cousin, has traveled extensively abroad, spending several years in India as a personal friend of the Princess of Hydrabad.

He served as the head of the art department at the University of Seoul

Ike Calls TV Ban Taft 'Iron Curtain'; Campaign Train Enters Iowa Today

EN ROUTE TO CHICAGO (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower accused the Taft forces in Chicago Thursday of ruthlessly putting up an "iron curtain" so the American people can't see what goes on in the credentials committee of the GOP national convention.

This was a reference to the fact that radio and television were barred from broadcasting the hearings of disputes over the delegations to be seated at the national convention.

"This will boomerang," the general said, "this ruthlessness in Chicago will boomerang." And then he added: "I am firmly convinced that an overwhelming majority of the delegates to the convention will refuse to allow back room scheming to control the outcome of the convention."

He made his accusations at McCook, Neb., from the rear of the 13 car special train rolling across the midwest to Chicago.

Wants Clean Government

At Brush, Colo., Eisenhower told a cheering crowd "I assure you of one thing: Regardless of my fate, I am going to keep fighting for clean government and decency in everything we do including the political parties on which our government depends."

His long special train had all the trappings of a presidential campaign tour—and the schedule called for a series of stops through Colorado, Nebraska and Iowa before the entry into Chicago.

Will Picnic in Boone

The highlight of today's stops will be one at Boone, Ia., where the general and his wife, Mamie, will visit Mrs. Eisenhower's birthplace and be entertained at a picnic arranged by the people of Boone.

Then later in Ames, Ia., the general will appear on a television show (NBC's "We the People"—6:30 p.m. CST) after which he will make a brief speech at the Ames football stadium.

5-Year-Old Gets 1st Polio Shot

PATRICIA ANN BURNETT, 5-year-old daughter of Dr. Matthew Burnett, polio advisor to the Harris County Polio association, received the first shot Wednesday in an experiment to fight paralysis from polio with gamma globulin. The gamma globulin, a blood fraction, is being used in a mass inoculation of children one to six years old in Houston, Tex. Dr. Byron York, president of the Harris County Medical society, administers the shot.

Dramatists Prepare Props

Dramatic Arts Tutors Work With Students In Erecting Set for Coming Play

Twenty-one Iowa high school drama teachers are getting actual experience this summer in stage production in the 21st annual high school speech and dramatic arts workshop sponsored by SUI.

The teachers, enrolled in three dramatic art courses taught by workshop Director Paul Davey, divide their time between the classroom and the student workshop.

"If they've never worked with a flat (four boards and a piece of canvas from which stage scenery is constructed), we just put them to work with the kids," explained Davey, assistant professor of speech and dramatic arts at the workshop.

The teachers are working with Davey's staff in each phase of the workshop program, from sewing curtains to building props to applying makeup.

"There are entirely too many drama teachers in the high schools of the nation whose experience doesn't go beyond a couple of courses in dramatics plus an appearance or two in a college play," observed Davey.

Producing plays at the high school level requires far more than a passing acquaintance with acting skills, he said. There are sets to be designed, costumes to be selected, problems of lighting, staging, and organization to be met.

These are the functions the teacher trainees are learning.

'Antics' Cause Of Demotion For Piersall

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — It came out Thursday why rookie outfielder Jim Piersall was demoted to the minors by the pennant-hungry Boston Red Sox.

Not that Piersall wasn't a good ball player, Red Sox shortstop Vern Stephens told a reporter, but "because of a number of crazy things that made our manager mad."

And when Piersall spanked Stephens' 4-year-old son in the Boston clubhouse last Friday night "that was the climax," Stephens reported, and manager Lou Boudreau ordered Piersall sent back to Birmingham of the Southern association.

Boudreau, himself, refused to comment on the story, insisted "the Piersall incident is closed" but he didn't deny the report.

The story was reported first by Ed Costello, sports editor of the Boston Herald.

At New Orleans, Piersall admitted the spanking but "I ain't got anything more to add."

Costello, in his story, quoted Piersall:

"During the game I did go into the club house and Vern's boy, a cute kid, was there. I started fooling with him and I guess I gave him a spank on the seat of his pants, that was a little too hard because he started to cry."

"I kidded with him then and asked if he was all right. I have two children of my own and wouldn't for a minute stand for anyone intentionally hurting them. I certainly didn't mean to hurt Stevie's boy and told him so Friday night and Saturday morning."

Yankees Split With Senators

WASHINGTON (AP) — The New York Yankees and Washington slugged it out to a draw Thursday in a double-header. The Yankees twice came from behind with 4-run splurges in the seventh and ninth innings to grab the first game, 9-6, and the Senators unleashed a 14-hit attack to capture the second game, 6-4.

Washington advanced to fourth place as Jackie Jensen, former Yankees' outfielder, hit safely in both games. He has batted safely in 20 consecutive games, hitting .430 over that stretch.

The Senators carried a 6-5 lead into the ninth inning of the opener, but the Yankees blasted Don Johnson and Joe Haynes for 4 runs.

Johnny Sain, fourth New York pitcher, got the victory, his eighth, as Bauer and Brown led the Yankees' 14-hit assault with three hits each.

Washington's erratic infield play presented the Yankees a 4-1 lead in the second game, but the Senators slammed Joe Ostrowski for 10 hits in the first 4 innings to tie the score. Eddie Yost's bases-filled single off Bob Hogue in the fifth inning scored Mickey Vernon and Pete Runnels to send the Senators ahead to stay.

Sandy Consuegra, who replaced Lou Sleater with one out in the third inning, blanked the Yankees on four scattered singles in a fine relief job.

Reds Pound Pirates

CINCINNATI (AP) — Bubba Church won his first game of the season Thursday, holding Pittsburgh to four hits while the Cincinnati Reds pounded out a 5 to 1 victory over veteran pitcher Howie Pollet.

Joe Adcock's homer with Bobby Adams on second, and two doubles and a single by Roy McMillan sparked the Reds' attack. It also ended a three-game losing streak for Cincinnati.

Gus Bell's Homer into the right-field bleachers in the seventh spoiled Church's bid for a shut-out.

Church, who had lost two games and until Thursday had not finished one this season, gave only one safety in the first five innings.

Scheib Whips BoSox

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Right-hander Carl Scheib, making his second start of the season, gained his fourth win Thursday as Billy Hitchcock banged out a bases-loaded ninth inning single to give the Philadelphia Athletics a 4 to 3 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Scheib, who has lost two this year, held the Sox to six hits including a sixth inning Homer by rookie first baseman Dick Gernert with two men on base—the sum total of the Boston scoring for the afternoon.

The A's first sacker, Ferris Fain, hit safely to run his streak to 16 games.

Edie Joost hit a Homer for Philadelphia.

SERVICES EYE MANTLE

MIAMI, OKLA. (AP) — A member of Mickey Mantle's draft board disclosed Thursday national selective service has suggested a third army physical for the 4-F New York Yankee outfielder.

White Sox Second By Taking Pair

CHICAGO (AP) — Eddie Robinson bashed in seven runs with a pair of homers and a single to fuse an 18-hit barrage Thursday that carried the Chicago White Sox to a 12-3 nightcap victory and a doubleheader sweep over the St. Louis Browns. The triumphs boosted the Sox into second place in the American League.

As an opener, the Sox won, 6-3, a game suspended since April 27. Robinson lashed out his season's 11th and 12th homers in the regular game, each good for three runs. He completed his work in the eighth with a run-scoring single that supported a five-run inning. Sherman Lollar belted his ninth Homer of the campaign in the big frame.

The first game was resumed after a two-month interruption after five innings with the Sox leading 3-1. Tommy Byrne walked four batters to give the Comiskey's their fourth run of the game in the seventh. Lollar brought Minnie Minoso home for Chicago's fifth tally in the series.

Giants Whip Dodgers, 4-3

BROOKLYN (AP) — Don Mueller's big bat and accurate right arm proved the deciding factors Thursday as the New York Giants vanquished the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-3, to pull within two games of the National League lead.

Mueller had a hand in all the Giants' scoring as they whipped their arch interborough rivals for the sixth straight time, four in a row at Ebbets field. Not since the days of the oldest fans have the Giants been able to accomplish such a feat.

The right fielder walked in the second inning, advanced a base on another pass to George Wilson, moved to third on a force play and scored the first Giant run on a long fly by catcher Sal Yvars.

In the sixth, Mueller featured a three-run outburst against Billy Loes with a soaring triple to the left center field wall that scored Whitey Lockman and Bobby Thomson. Don crossed the plate a few moments later on Wilson's single to right.

The Dodgers, who had taken a 2-1 lead in the second on a walk, an error by Thomson, and Billy Cox's single, threatened to tie the game in the eighth but were thwarted by Mueller's fine throw to the plate.

Phils Blank Braves

BOSTON (AP) — Ex-GI Curt Simmons pitched a neat four-hitter for his seventh win against two defeats and Del Ennis walloped his eighth Homer of the season Thursday as the Philadelphia Phillies blanked the Boston Braves 2-0 for their fifth victory in seven starts since Steve O'Neill took the managerial reins.

The verdict was the fourth shutout for Simmons since he returned from army service in Germany. He struck out four and didn't walk a man.

Braves' pitcher Jim Wilson held the Phils hitless for four innings, but Ennis opened the fifth by blasting the ball over the left field wall.

The surging Phils put together singles by Johnny Wyrrostek, Ennis and Willie Jones for their other tally in the ninth.

Rain Washes Out Play at Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, ENGLAND (AP) — Rain washed out a full day's play in the all-England lawn tennis championships Thursday for the first time since 1923 — the year this huge tennis plant was opened.

The loss of a love set to the weather set the schedule-making department in an uproar. After much juggling they decided to play the two all-American women's semi-finals, which had been scheduled for Thursday, on the same bill as today's men's singles final between Frank Sedgman of Australia and Jaroslav Drobny, the self-exiled Czech.

The new program will also be jammed to the gunwales with doubles of all kinds. Semi-finals will be run off in men's, women's and mixed doubles.

Originator of 3-6-3 Double Play Dies

BOSTON (AP) — Ted Kroll, an unattached pro who thrives on rain, fired a seven-under-par 32-33-65 in intermittent showers Thursday to grab the first day's lead in the $15,000 Motor City Open golf tournament.

The best any of the other 170 odd pros and amateurs—many of them playing completely in sunshine—could do over the Red Run golf club course was a 34-33-67 by the veteran Henry Ransom.

Pete Fleming, who hails from the same St. Andrews, Ill., club as Ransom, was one of six tied for third with 68. In that bracket with him were defending Motor City champ Lloyd Mangrum, Jim Ferrier, Dave Douglas, Dick Mayer, and Al Zimmerman.

The only other sub-70 shooters, all with 69, were Johnny Bulla, Max Evans, Andy Anderson, Jerry Barber, Cary Middlecoff, Doug Ford, and George Fazio.

After today's 18-hole round, the big field will be trimmed to the top 60 scorers and ties. The final 36 holes will be divided into 18-hole rounds Saturday and Sunday.

Goetz One-Man Riot Squad —

This Umpire Is Tough

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK (AP) — That brief battle of the busted bat at Braves Field Tuesday night was unscheduled, so it was quite accidental that had the best possible result.

When Earl Torgeson came streaking across the field, an animated hunk of concentrated fury, to land an eye-splitting punch on unwary Sal Yvars, watching the action with more than idle interest was Larry Goetz.

Now Goetz by profession is a baseball umpire, but he's the fellow you'd want around in case of a small riot that you wanted quelled, whether it was on a ball field or at a convention of petunia fanciers.

Takes Charge

That is. He's a take charge guy in any circumstances, a trait which makes him one of the best umpires in the game.

We met Frank Dascoli, a large and determined young man who also is a National league arbiter, at the Maxim-Robinson fight and in the wandering course of the conversation the name of Goetz came up.

"He has the respect of the players and managers," Dascoli said, "because they know he knows his business and won't stand for any foolishness. He really takes charge, and that's what I try to do."

It was obvious that Goetz is something of an idol to Dascoli, who added: "I believe, and I've heard others say, that if you had one game on which everything hinged Larry is the man you'd want to work it for you."

Opinion Shared Widely

Dascoli's opinion is shared by a great many others, who see in the large-boned, square-rigged, articulate guy the picture of the ideal umpire — rugged, tough but understanding, rare in judgment and with the same pride in his profession that made the late Bill Klem practically a symbol of umpiring perfection.

Now Goetz by profession is a baseball umpire, but he's the fellow you'd want around in case of a small riot that you wanted quelled, whether it was on a ball field or at a convention of petunia fanciers.

It's more than a game to me; it is a religion."

Integrity Assumed

We've purposely omitted any reference to honesty, as to say that an umpire is honest would be a silly reference to an accepted fact. Their judgment may be questioned, but their integrity, never.

As Klem used to say in rebuttal to insinuations that he may have erred: "I never missed one in my life," then placing a hand dramatically over his heart, he would add: "here."

Dascoli's esteem for Goetz was not lessened by the fact that Larry came to his defense in his usually articulate manner when the Brooklyn Dodgers made a great to-do about Dascoli costing them the pennant because of a decision in Boston late last season.

Convinced of Call

Dascoli, convinced he made the right call on a close play, and that his ousting of Dodger catcher Roy Campanella was justified, was asked if the Brooklynites had given him any trouble this year by referring to the incident.

"No, of course not," he said emphatically, and you got the impression they'd better not bring up the subject. As mentioned, the tall guy with the pouter-pigeon chest that gives him a false appearance of arrogance has learned rapidly through association with Goetz and other more experienced National league arbiters. He "takes charge" now.

Anyway, getting back to the Boston incident of last Tuesday in which Torgeson got a busted bat and Yvars a busted eye, we don't know whether or not the action would have spread if Goetz hadn't been there, but the fact remains it didn't. He's a one-man riot squad.

How many "Independence Days" have we left?

"We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed..."

Immortal words from the Declaration of Independence, adopted July 4, 1776

THESSE WORDS are the stones upon which man built history's greatest work — the United States of America. Remember them well!

... all men are created equal ... That means you are as important in the eyes of God as any man ever brought into this world. You are made in His image and likeness. There is no "superior" man anywhere.

... they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights ... Here is your birthright — the freedom to live, work, worship and vote as you choose. These are rights no government on earth may take from you.

... that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men ... Here is the reason for and the purpose of government. Government is but a servant — not a master — not a giver of anything.

... deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed ... In America, the government may assume only the powers you allow it to have. It may assume no others.

From Concord to Korea, your kinsmen have fought and died for the principles of America's Declaration of Independence: belief in God . . . belief in the God-given rights of man . . . belief that man is more important than government . . . belief in the vital need for morality in all men.

But on this Independence Day, as never before, these beliefs are in deadly peril. There are people in America who would deny your God-given rights, who prefer expediency to morality, and who would make government the master — not the servant — of man. These people are the advocates of an all-powerful, all-providing socialistic government to control your destiny from cradle to grave.

The time has come to answer them with your own "Declaration of Independence" . . .

Declare that government is responsible TO you — rather than FOR you.

Declare that freedom is more important to you than "security" or "survival."

Declare again that the rights God gave you may not be taken away by any government on any pretext.

Our founding fathers accepted the truths of America's Declaration on faith alone. Today, our nation is — absolute and irrevocable — that these truths work. They are the last great hope for the protection of human civilization.

FREEDOM NEEDS YOU

On this 176th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, help give the day the spiritual, religious meaning it had to the founding fathers.

Renew your faith and allegiance to the immortal truths stated in the Declaration. Make them an active part of your thinking, your acting, your voting.

Pray for help in maintaining man's closeness to God, in preserving man's God-given rights and responsibilities against those who would make you dependent upon a socialistic, all-powerful government.
