Kefauver Expects T-V To Help

By The Associated Press

New York (AP) - The Senate's anti-communist crusade, according to Senator Estes Kefauver, will be brought to the attention of the American people through television and radio this week.

"We have a wonderful opportunity to get this movement before a mass audience," the New York Democrat said of the nation's capital's 40th birthday celebration which will be televised on Tuesday.

Kefauver's plans for the celebration include the screening of a new anti-communist film, "In the Name of the People," and the presentation of a special stamp commemorating the event.

The senator said he expects the celebration to be a "nationalistic" affair, with the theme "The Prizes of Freedom." He added that the event will be "a fitting tribute to the men and women who have died in the struggle for liberty."
