Polio Spreading At Sioux City

Number Dead Climbs to 12

SIoux CITY, IA. (AP) — The 12th polio death in less than a month occurred here Wednesday in an infantile paralysis epidemic which one official called proportionately worse than that at Houston, Tex.

The three latest deaths were those of Larry Kunsel, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kunsel, Crofton, Neb.; Paul Smith, 28, Sioux City, and Margaret Ann Fitzpatrick, 14, Danbury, Ia., all of whom died at a Sioux City hospital.

The total number of polio deaths in Iowa now stands at 15.

13 Des Moines Cases

The latest to be admitted to a Des Moines hospital was Conner T. Flynn, 32, secretary of the Lessing Advertising Co., Inc., of Des Moines. The list of patients remained at 13 there.

Two more patients entered hospitals at Council Bluffs Wednesday, raising the number under treatment for polio there to 14. The two latest sufferers hospitalized in Council Bluffs were Billy Paulsen, 8, son of Mrs. Mary Paulsen of Council Bluffs, and Mary Ellen Mitchell, 9, daughter of Mrs. Norma Mitchell of Council Bluffs.

A total of 173 patients from the Sioux City area have been hospitalized here this year. The current case figure is 109.

More Than Houston

R. G. Cook, a representative of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said the present number of cases, in relation to population, is much greater than at Houston. The incidence thus far has been about 76 cases per 100,000 in the Sioux City area.

The Texas State Health department reported Wednesday that polio climbed to a new Texas record last week with 296 cases. It was the third new record in four weeks. The new report brought the year's total of 1,605, far ahead of last year's 528 cases on the same date.

Use 9 Iron Lungs

Nine iron lungs were in operation in Sioux City hospitals Wednesday and four others have been flown in for standby use.

No mass inoculations have occurred and there has been no closing of swimming pools or other public places.

Dr. C. P. McHugh, city health officer, said "We are getting more bulbar type cases than usual and also a higher percentage of young adults."

He said the epidemic has no relation to the recent Missouri river flood. There have been only three cases from flooded areas.

Dean Mason Ladd Gives Yale Talk

Obtaining Conviction Of Drunk Drivers Difficult, Ladd Says

The greatest difficulty of legal control of drunken drivers is the problem of obtaining conviction of the guilty, Mason Ladd, dean of SUI's college of law, told a group at Yale university Wednesday.

Ladd, who is chairman of the National Safety council committee on tests for intoxication, addressed the Yale summer school of alcohol studies.

The accused who claims that he drank just "two beers" is too frequently successful in convincing jurors of his innocence, Ladd said. "The fact that moral turpitude is not involved, that in many cases the accused is a reputable citizen, that he surely intended no harm, all combine to make the cases involving driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated among the most difficult for the prosecution to obtain a conviction."

Ladd discussed another question — the difficulty of admitting chemical test evidence. There is no uniformity in law on whether an accused can be forced to submit to chemical tests. The supreme court has not yet decided a case which bears directly on this problem.

"One fact is often overlooked," Ladd added. "The taking of a compulsory chemical test does not necessarily involve a physical struggle of compulsion." He pointed out that fingerprinting is not considered a violation of individual rights.

MOTHER, SON KILLED

POCAHONTAS, IA. (AP) — A mother and her son were killed Wednesday in a car-truck collision at the intersection of highways 17 and 5, ten miles south of here. They were Mrs. Florence Rippke, about 35, of Shell Rock, and her son, Jerome, 16. Mrs. Rippke was killed outright, and the youth died later at a Fort Dodge hospital.

Demo Tension Mounts On Civil Rights Issue

By The Associated Press

A stormy battle over civil rights that could split the Democratic party and trigger a repetition of the 1948 Dixie "revolt" threatened to erupt Wednesday as a prelude to the Democratic national convention in Chicago.

Discordant rumblings from the North and South over the explosive issue suggested that the Democrats may make the Republicans' strife-torn convention look tame.

While party leaders asked for harmony, these were the developments:

1. Sen. Herbert Lehman of New York, a supporter of presidential aspirant Averell Harriman, pledged a showdown fight on the convention floor if necessary to get a civil rights plank "at least as strong" as the 1948 plank.

2. Leaders of rival Democratic factions from Texas headed for Chicago to battle for the right to cast Texas' 52 convention votes — with states and civil rights a prime issue in the dispute.

Briefly, here is the background of the Texas fight: Two groups met in separate conventions and each elected its own delegation to the national convention in Chicago.

"Loyalists" Support Party One group, the pro-administration "loyalists" headed by former Rep. Maury Maverick, pledged its delegates to support the national party's nominee for president.

The other group, the anti-administration "regulars" led by Gov. Allan Shivers, refused to accept the pledge and insisted on waiting to see what the Chicago convention does about FEPC and other states rights issues.

Both will lay their arguments before a credentials subcommittee of the Democratic national committee in Chicago Friday.

Labor and industry have no plans for new bargaining sessions. The White House has not made a move to get them together again.

A New York state chain of newspapers published a story which said the striking CIO United Steelworkers will accept the industry's last offer and announce the end of the strike at the Democratic national convention in Chicago on Monday.

USW president Philip Murray wasn't available for comment. Union aides called the report "a wild story."

The walkout, longest and most expensive in steel history, costs about $40 million a day in lost wages and lost steel production.

The next expected development in the work stoppage will come here Monday when Murray goes before his 170-man wage-policy committee to report on the bogged down negotiations and to ask for guidance.

The main issue left in the controversy is the union shop. The union wants USW membership to be compulsory. Industry wants workers to be free to choose for themselves.

As the dispute dragged on, no word was received from presidential assistant John R. Steelman who asked the union and industry to "stand by" after they reported Tuesday that they were still in disagreement.

High Voltage Grid To Pool Iowa Power Will Be Built Soon

DES MOINES (AP) — Plans for a $38 million high voltage transmission grid were announced Wednesday night by the Iowa Utilities association.

Sutherland Dows, association president, said the grid will be a network of 1,259 additional miles of 161,000-volt electric lines to move large quantities of electricity between the eight participating companies.

Dows said the companies are financing the grid themselves without use of government funds. He said the plans represent the latest step in a Iowa power pooling and generation system which is estimated to cost $268 million by 1965.

The grid would utilize 356 miles of existing 161,000-volt lines which extend from Davenport to Des Moines. A leg of that system extends from Des Moines to Fort Dodge, and another from Des Moines to Clarinda. A 115,000-volt line from Cedar Rapids to Boone also would be incorporated.

When Missouri river hydro-electric power becomes available, the grid will be ready to make connections at Sioux City and other points to transmit such power to Iowa users.

Taft, defeated last week in his fight for the Republican presidential nomination, told reporters he always felt that in the end the Democrats would turn to Truman.

He said he expects the Democrats to decide that various weaknesses rule out all the others in the big field of contenders for the party nomination.

Taft added that Truman has plenty of weaknesses himself but nonetheless is the best-known of all the Democrats.

He declined to talk about Republican politics or his defeat by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the Republican nomination.

Union Leaders Scoff Reports Of Steel Truce

PITTSBURGH (AP) — No one lifted a finger to end the steel strike Wednesday and reports of a secret settlement were scoffed at by union aides.

Labor and industry have no plans for new bargaining sessions. The White House has not made a move to get them together again.

A New York state chain of newspapers published a story which said the striking CIO United Steelworkers will accept the industry's last offer and announce the end of the strike at the Democratic national convention in Chicago on Monday.

Newsman Speaks to Journalists

RAYMOND BORST, head of the Buffalo Evening News convention staff, explains to SUI journalism students how Gov. Thomas Dewey held the New York delegates' votes for Gen. Eisenhower. Borst covered the Republican convention last week and is visiting SUI previous to his going to Chicago to cover the Democratic convention. He told the journalism students that newspapers can still compete with TV because "people like to read it — things that they see look so much different in print." However, he warned that newspapermen will have to do a better job of reporting if they wish to maintain their influence.

Borst Speaks of News, Politics, Conventions

The Midwest, with its huge farm vote, holds the key to the Republican chances of winning the presidential elections next November, Raymond Borst, head of the Buffalo Evening News convention staff, told a group of SUI journalism students Wednesday afternoon.

Borst went on to point out that Eisenhower virtually had the Eastern vote sewed up and would have to concentrate on carrying the Midwestern states if he wanted to capture the presidency.

The Buffalo newsman is at present visiting the campus before his covering of both political conventions.

Known Dewey Well In addition to his duties of working on the conventions, Borst's regular job is to head the Albany bureau of the Evening News. Through this job he has had an opportunity to become a close friend of Gov. Thomas Dewey of New York, whom Borst says engineered Eisenhower's successful campaign for the Republican nomination.

Contrary to what many people may think, Borst believes strongly that Dewey will not accept a cabinet post, or any other federal government post for that matter, in case of a Republican victory in the fall.

Commenting on the upcoming Democratic convention in Chicago, Borst said that the consensus of opinion among newspaper writers is that Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois will walk off with the Democratic nomination. "New Dealer Averell Harriman has an outside chance though, especially if backed by President Truman," Borst added.

Covered '24 Demo Fight Borst, a newspaperman for over 30 years, is an old hand at covering political conventions. His first convention assignment was for the 1924 Democratic meeting when Al Smith and William McAdoo engaged in a struggle which cost both men the nomination.

Since that time Borst has missed covering only a few of the conventions.

Moving away from the topic of politics, Borst offered some tips to prospective journalists.

"Above all," he warned, "never break a confidence. It's not worth it, because it might cost you a break on a bigger story in the future."

He termed "invaluable" the experience gained by a reporter from working on a press service, even if only for a short time. It is almost a necessary requirement these days, he added.

Truman Sick Gets Mild Virus Attack But Recovering

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman was hospitalized Wednesday for the first time since he entered the White House.

Aides minimized the illness but it still carried political implications related to his stated determination not to run for reelection.

The 68-year-old President was admitted to the army's Walter Reed hospital after a four-day fight with what the White House called a "mild virus infection."

In the late afternoon the White House put out word that during his first day at the hospital the President signed 37 of the bills passed by the recent congress. The implication was that the patient was not too sick to do urgent business.

Truman's OK Releases $1 Billion in Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman's signature Wednesday cleared the way for veterans discharged since fighting began in Korea to share in benefits amounting to about a billion dollars a year.

The veterans administration reported there were 870,000 such veterans on May 31, with the number increasing daily.

The measure sailed through congress on Independence day with only one dissenting vote.

Truman signed it, along with 36 others, while in Walter Reed hospital for a checkup.

The law gives new veterans an education and training program on the order of that received by World War II veterans. However, there are some changes in the amounts of money available and in the way the program is to be run.

The act also provides for mustering-out pay, unemployment benefits of $26 a week up to a total of 26 weeks, and financial backing for home and business loans.

Sympathy Brings Law The law stemmed from a widespread feeling that congress ought to do something for Korean veterans because they couldn't qualify for benefits set up for World War II servicemen.

Eligible veterans include those who served 90 days or more and were discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

For each day of military service, a veteran will be entitled to 1½ days of education up to a maximum of 36 months.

48 Months Top If the ex-GI qualified for training by reason of World War II service and then put in additional duty after Korea began, he will be permitted a top total of 48 months of training.

If it's formal schooling he wants, he takes his pick from a list of institutions approved by the VA or state agencies. He can go full-time or part-time.

A veteran who elects to go to school full-time, will draw $110 a month if he has no dependents, $135 if he has one dependent, and $160 if he has more than one dependent.

The rates are scaled down for those who take their training on a three-fourths or half-time basis.

Pay Own Tuition With these funds, veterans will pay their own tuition fees, buy books and take care of living expenses.

Tax-supported schools that ordinarily don't charge tuition fees will be permitted to assess veterans up to $10 a month. All schools will be paid $1.50 a month for each veteran enrolled.

Here is the schedule by which mustering-out payments will be made to all service personnel below the rank of major or lieutenant commander:

For 60 days active duty and service outside the U. S. or in Alaska, $300;

For 60 days active duty within the U. S., $200; and for less than 60 days, $100.

Typing Skills Discussed at Conference

A business education conference attended by about 100 business teachers opened Wednesday morning at SUI.

The conference is being sponsored by the department of office management and business education of SUI's college of commerce. A demonstration class in beginning typewriting taught by Philip S. Pepe was the opening feature of the conference.

Pepe is manager of the typewriter educational services of Remington Rand, Inc.

He spoke on "New Discoveries in the Learning of Typewriting" and explained 10 simplifications in the teaching of typewriting. Two of these methods were demonstrated with a class of pupils studying beginning typewriting at University high school.

One of the methods he described was the 10 minute speed and accuracy building cycle in which the teacher "forces speed so the pupil will gain skill that will enable him to type accurately."

Today at 9 a.m. in the senate chamber of the Old Capitol, George Hossfield, former world's champion typist, will demonstrate and lecture on manual and electric typewriters for the conference members.

Hossfield, a 10 times winner of the world's professional typewriting championship, will speak on "Modern Training and Teaching Methods to Develop Typing Skill." He is director of Underwood corporation's teachers advisory service. His highest official typing record, using the five stroke word count, is 139 net words a minute for one hour's typing from unfamiliar material.

A dinner at the New Ox Yoke Inn, Amara, for the members attending the conference was held Wednesday night at 6:30. Following the dinner Sidney G. Winter, dean of the college of commerce, spoke on "Business Teacher Preparation to Meet Current Needs in Education."

A Condensation of Late Developments

SEOUL (THURSDAY) (AP) — A flight of 50 Communist jets, described as "the cream of the crop," challenged U.S. Sabre jets high over northwest Korea late Wednesday and one Red fighter was reported shot down. "The best MIG pilots I have seen up there yet," commented Capt. Arthur H. McCarthy of Dearborn, Mich., who was credited with destroying one of the formation—his first.

SANTA MONICA, CALIF. (AP) — Marion Davies, one-time actress and long-time friend of the late William Randolph Hearst, filed suit for divorce Wednesday from her husband of eight months, Horace G. Brown. Miss Davies charged cruelty, but made no specifications. She said they separated last Sunday, the 13th. Their elopement to Las Vegas, Nev., Oct. 31 surprised even their closest friends. Brown, a former merchant marine captain and a figure in Beverly Hills society, is from Richmond, Va.

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Paul H. Douglas of Illinois Wednesday night said the Democrats have a better chance now of defeating Gen. Dwight Eisenhower than they did before the Republican convention. He said, however, he wanted to say nothing to depreciate the general whom he described as "a noble man." He admitted that some time ago he came out for Eisenhower, but "that was before Eisenhower became a Republican."

JASPER, ALBERTA (AP) — Jasper Park lodge, luxury playground center of the Canadian Rockies, burned to the ground Tuesday night in a mass of orange flames silhouetted against the mountain peaks. The 500 guests, many of them U. S. tourists, and 500 other hotel employees escaped injury. The loss to the Canadian National railways, operators of the resort, was estimated by unofficial sources at from a million to two million dollars.

Demos Might Outdo GOP With Rumpus
By ARTHUR EDSON
CHICAGO (AP) — Before the Democrats wind up their national convention, they may kick up more of a rumpus than the Republicans. But they certainly are getting away to a much slower start.

CATHOLIC STUDENTS — don't forget the Newman picnic Sunday, July 20, at Lake McBride. Fun for all with swimming, boating, and softball. If you haven't signed up yet, be sure to do so. Contact Jean McNamara, Phone 6954, or Mary Beth Hogan 80257.

FACULTY WOMEN WILL have luncheon Thursday noon, July 17, in Union cafeteria alcove. All faculty women urged to attend.

The week before the Republican convention was complete madness, literally seasoned with pandemonium. But the Democratic convention opens next Monday, and so far all is comparatively calm.

ATTENTION GRADUATING SENIORS: Orders are now being taken at Campus Stores for August graduation announcements. The announcements must be paid for when they are ordered and are $10 apiece. Orders for announcements for graduating nurses will be taken at the college of nursing.

IOWA MOUNTAINEERS—Mississippi Palisades outing for practice climbing on July 19-20. Leaving clubhouse at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, July 19. Cost is $2.50, payable in advance. Please register by Wednesday night with Art Wendler, 260 Black Springs Circle or phone 2329.

A fight of sorts over disputed delegations is expected. There will be a showdown on what the party should say about civil rights (Democrats always have been remarkably uncivil when discussing civil rights), and maybe as many as 10 ballots will be needed to pick a candidate.

New Body Armor Protects Korean G.I.s from Shrapnel

SEOUL, Korea — "Operation Boar" may determine whether thousands of U.S. soldiers live or die in the next war. "Boar" stands for "Body Armor" — not the cumbersome armor of old but an eight-pound nylon vest.

A water-proof coating, two breast pockets and fastens down the front. The soldiers learn the vest will stop most grenade and shell fragments and other missiles of low or medium velocity. They are warned it will not stop high-velocity rifle or machinegun bullets.

Constructs for Air Force

United Nations combat patrols have been issued the vests for more than three months. Lt. Col. Andrew A. Aines of Boston heads "Operation Boar."

UNDER A BOILING KOREAN SUN, U.S. Army Cpl. Richard J. Pelzer, West Liberty, Iowa, builds a floor for his tent near an advanced airstrip. A member of the 930th engineer aviation group, Corporal Pelzer is a heavy equipment operator. Corporal Pelzer's wife, Theresa, lives at 1861 Muscatine ave., in Iowa City. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Pelzer, route 1, Atalissa, Iowa.

Fort Randall Dam Will Soon Rule Missouri River in South Dakota

COMPLETION OF THE FORT RANDALL DAM on the Missouri river in South Dakota may eliminate the disastrous floods that plagued the middle west earlier this year. The above scene, photographed on April 15, shows workers battling to contain the surging Missouri at Omaha, Neb. The Fort Randall dam is now in the critical stage of construction. Total flow of the river is expected to be passing through the dam by the end of July.

By The Associated Press
OMAHA — Fort Randall dam on the Missouri river in South Dakota went into the critical part of the closure stage Tuesday.

Back of Fort Randall dam, water will be held stored for 150 miles upstream. Only Hoover, Grand Coulee and Fort Peck dams have greater storage capacity than the 6.3 million acre feet of water that will back up behind Fort Randall.

Ahead of the critical phase initiated Tuesday the contractors laid a blanket of chalk out from the dam site 1,000 feet down from the dam and then laid two so-called sills on top of that.

Who Are Villains?
"Who are these villains?" a reporter asked. "Gentlemen, the statement speaks for itself," Sullivan said. Mild stuff, this. The Republicans at this stage of the game already had their boxing gloves off and were trying to stick their thumbs in each others' eyes.

Russell Urges Repeal Of T-H Law

Predicts Nomination On 5 to 8 Ballots

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia came out Wednesday night against the Taft-Hartley labor law and promised to work for its repeal.

Russell issued a statement describing the T-H act as "weighted against labor." He did not single out features of the act he considers undesirable.

He said that if he wins the Democratic nomination and becomes president he will call labor and management leaders together for their view on an entirely new law.

Wants New Legislation

"The Taft-Hartley law must be supplanted by new legislation in the field of labor relations," Russell said shortly after his arrival in this convention city Wednesday.

Russell was one of those who supported the controversial T-H law in the senate. He voted for the bill and later to override President Truman's veto.

Russell said it has long been apparent that the T-H law "has failed to accomplish its purpose of stabilizing relations between labor and management."

Russell earlier predicted he will win his party's presidential nomination somewhere between the fifth and eighth ballots.

300 On 1st Ballot

Russell told reporters as he climbed off a plane from Washington, D. C., "I will have 300 votes on the first ballot. I expect to have a few more on the second ballot, and will pick up steadily."

A couple of bands and an enthusiastic crowd were out to greet the man who is the choice of the south at the Democratic convention opening Monday.

Russell, in sizing up the convention, said, "It will be a fine fight that will be good for the party and good for the country. He passed, and then said, "it can be good for Dick Russell too."

Lasansky to Serve On Art Judging Team At New York Show

Prof. Mauricio Lasansky, of the SUI art department, has been invited to serve on the jury for the coming American Watercolors, Drawings and Prints national competitive exhibition sponsored by the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

The exhibition opens December 5 at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

A series of regional juries have been set up in San Francisco, Chicago, Atlanta and New York.

The museum has announced that "because of the controversial character of American art and the wide area of disagreement between several points of view, two juries of selection will meet in each region and artists entering the competition will be requested to specify to which of the two juries in their region they wish to submit."

Prof. Lasansky will serve with Claude Bennett of Illinois and Fred Conway of Missouri Sept. 10-12 on one of the Chicago juries which will judge works from 18 states.

This is the third of a series of three national competitive exhibitions sponsored by the Metropolitan museum, the first two being in painting and sculpture. It is one of the largest art shows of the year and will have 18 prize of $500 each, totaling $9,000.

75 HOSPITALIZED

NEW YORK (AP) — A rush hour subway rolled backwards down a grade into a train behind it Wednesday, knocking hundreds of screaming and panicky passengers violently to the floor. At least 75 persons, by police count, were taken to hospitals.

Those being mentioned as possible nominees are: Leon Powers, Denison; E. L. O'Connor, Iowa City; LeRoy Rader, Storm Lake; Allan R. Shepherd, Des Moines; and C. I. McNutt, Des Moines.

Remedial Reading Discussed at Workshop

DISCUSSING THE ASPECTS of remedial reading at a conference table in University high school are 5 of the 54 teachers and other interested persons attending SUI's Remedial Reading workshop. Pictured are Ann Sheldon, Storm Lake; Clyde Linsley, Cedar Rapids; Edith Johnson, Boone; Lucille Hoekett, Garnaville, and Ralph Schlotfeld of Lone Tree. The purpose of the workshop is to give those attending instructional techniques and material with which they will better be able to help children with special reading problems learn to read proficiently.

Clinic Director Says Teachers Help Cause Faulty Reading

The failure by teachers to recognize individual differences in students is one of the major causes of reading difficulty, according to Margaret Lee Keyser, director of the SUI reading clinic.

Miss Keyser made this charge Wednesday before 50 Iowa educators attending a remedial reading workshop on the university campus.

"At the fifth grade level, you will find students ranging from a second grade reading level through an eighth grade level," Miss Keyser said, "and in senior high school, the difference span is even greater."

Because of these individual differences, Miss Keyser pointed out that equal results with all students could not be expected nor attained.

The Iowa teachers are gaining additional experience here working with clinic youngsters who have not developed as far in reading as their abilities would permit.

Miss Keyser supported her contention that there is no one single cause for poor reading by pointing out that the average student can surmount any one single handicap. "It's when problems begin to mount up and become too complex that the student begins failing," she added.

High among the many reasons contributing to poor reading skills are: poor hearing, poor speech, poor vision, nervous disturbances, and emotional and social maladjustment.

Dr. Helen Murphy, director of the summer reading clinic at Boston university, addressed the group Tuesday at a luncheon in the Memorial Union.

The week-long conference closes today.

Democrats to Nominate 3 for Supreme Court

DES MOINES (AP) — Delegates to the biennial Democratic judicial convention will meet in Des Moines today to nominate three candidates for the Iowa supreme court.

Those being mentioned as possible nominees are: Leon Powers, Denison; E. L. O'Connor, Iowa City; LeRoy Rader, Storm Lake; Allan R. Shepherd, Des Moines; and C. I. McNutt, Des Moines.

New Drug Gives — Relief For Hay Fever

— Within Half-Hour

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A new drug that has taken the misery out of the ragweed season for hundreds of hay fever sufferers is obtainable throughout the country, it was disclosed Wednesday.

Dr. N. E. Silbert of Lynn, Mass., who tried the drug out on 102 patients, said that within a half hour after a tablet was given 90 got relief.

First developed in France and produced in this country by Wyeth Inc., Philadelphia, the drug is pheneragan hydrochloride.

It can be sold only by prescription, a spokesman for Wyeth said. In a clinical report in the May-June issues of Annals of Allergy, Dr. Silbert said the results obtained from pheneragan were "far superior to those obtained from other antihistaminic agents."

All the patients he treated were sensitive to grass, tree or ragweed pollen either singly or in various combinations. The drug was given to them in three doses: after breakfast, mid-afternoon and be-

Iowa Nurses To Meet Here July 24 to 26

The second of four 1952 work conferences in nursing service administration will be held at the SUI college of nursing July 24-26, according to Myrtle E. Kitchell, dean of the college of nursing.

Directed by Louise M. Schmitt, assistant professor of nursing, the conference will explore the areas of organization, policies and staffing in nursing service administration.

General sessions during which prepared papers will be presented and discussed, and group discussion sections led by experienced administrators have been included in the program.

In addition to Kitchell, the group discussion leaders will be Olga C. Benderoff, associate professor of nursing at Western Reserve university, and Madeline McCarthy, instructor in nursing education at the University of Chicago.

The series of conferences has been designed to make in-service training in nursing service administration available to graduate nurses in Iowa who are unable to continue taking advanced academic work in the field because of pressing duties. The third conference will be held in October.

100 Civil Air Cadets To Continue Search For Illinois Plane

MOLINE, ILL. (AP) — One hundred civil air patrol cadets will conduct a ground search Sunday for a plane believed to have fallen in the Mt. Carroll area near the Mississippi river, a CAP official said Wednesday.

A civilian plane carrying Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Humble of Danville, disappeared June 12 on a flight from Albert Lea, Minn., to Danville.

Murray Jensen, public relations officer of the Quad City civil air patrol, said the cadets will be taken by trucks to the wooded area previously searched by plane. They will spend the entire day hiking through the section, since the missing plane could be in the area, although not visible from the air.

Air force and civil air patrol planes spent two days last week in a fruitless search of the same area.

Mason to Moderate At N.Y. Roundtable

Professor Edward F. Mason, head of the pictorial journalism sequence of the SUI school of journalism, will be moderator of a roundtable discussion at the Association for Education in Journalism meeting in New York August 25 to 28.

The roundtable will discuss "New Emphases in Newspaper and Magazine Photography, and Teaching Techniques in the Field."

Newspaper representatives in the discussion will be William C. Eckenberg of the New York Times and Joseph Costa of the New York Mirror and King Features syndicate. Thomas Holliman of Holiday and Arthur Rothstein of Look will represent magazines.

Costa is board chairman of the National Press Photographers association and Eckenberg has been chairman of the group's technical committee.

4. The bill contained complex procedural provisions on inspections, and appeals, which would make it difficult of enforcement.

5. The measure places mine safety enforcement functions directly under the director of the bureau of mines instead of the secretary of interior, as Truman wants.

Truman's OK Permits Government Closure Of Dangerous Mines

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman Wednesday signed a bill permitting the government to close coal mines it considers dangerous. But Truman insisted the measure falls short of needs.

In a statement, he said the bill is "a significant step in the direction of preventing the appalling toll of death and injury to miners in underground mines."

He cited what he called five defects in the measure, however, and gave these arguments against them:

1. Coal mines in which less than 15 persons are regularly employed underground "are exempted from compliance with any of the mine-safety provisions regardless of whether a major disaster might be imminent."

2. The bill is directed solely toward preventing major disasters from explosion, fire, inundation, man-trip or man-hoist accidents.

3. The legislation contains several exemptions to safety provisions, particularly with regard to replacement of dangerous electrical equipment and faulty ven-

Ike to Discuss Campaign Plans with Duff

DENVER (AP) — Dwight D. Eisenhower will talk over campaign plans next week with Sen. James H. Duff of Pennsylvania who helped spearhead the General's successful bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

Eisenhower headquarters said Wednesday that Duff will arrive here probably July 21. There has been no decision yet whether the conference will take place in Denver or at Eisenhower's vacation retreat at a cattle ranch near Fraser, Colo.

Eisenhower plans to leave here Thursday afternoon for a week's trout fishing at the ranch of his old friend, Aksel Nielsen. The place is situated on the western slope of the continental divide, about 70 miles west of Denver.

Queen Mother Visits With 100 U. S. Teachers

LONDON (AP) — For over half an hour Wednesday, Queen Mother Elizabeth stood in the gardens of Lambeth Palace, the London residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and shook hands with 100 men and women teachers from America.

The teachers were guests at a garden party given by the British committee for Anglo-American interchange of teachers.

Brundage Voted Olympic Head; 1st American to Gain Position

By TED SMITS
HELSINKI (AP) — Avery Brundage of Chicago was elected president of the International Olympic committee Wednesday over Lord David Burghley of England by a vote of 30 to 17.

He is the first American ever to head the world's famous organization. He succeeds J. Sigfrid Edstrom of Sweden, who retires Sept. 1 in ceremonies at Lausanne, Switzerland.

Armand Massard of France was elected Olympic vice-president, succeeding Brundage. Again the opponent was Lord Burghley, but this time the vote was 25-23.

Support, Fear Mixed
Ironically the support for Lord Burghley came from a combination of the British Commonwealth and the Iron Curtain countries. The latter fear an American in the top amateur sports job.

Brundage was unanimously proposed for the presidency by the executive committee, of which Lord Burghley is a member. The election of the Olympic president was fourth since the Pierre De Coubertin of France in 1896.

Brundage, a wealthy 64-year-old hotel man, was fifth in the pentathlon—a five event test of all around skill—in the 1912 Olympic games and has been prominent in American sports ever since, serving four times as president of the Amateur Athletic union. He has been president of the United States Olympic committee since 1929.

Gets No Salary
The Olympic job carries no salary. Brundage will pay his own expenses to all Olympic meetings. More than 8,000 athletes are competing here, nearly twice the number at London in 1948.

There are so many men in the 1,500 meter run, the near equivalent of a mile, there will be preliminary heats, and then semifinals, before the final race can be run. In the past only one round of trial heats was needed.

Record Year
SUI Athletes Broke 15 Marks
It was literally a record year for SUI in track for the 1952 Hawkeyes broke 15 marks and tied another in the greatest slash of records since the early 20's.

The big men of the record-breaking were Ted Wheeler and Rich Ferguson. Wheeler is credited with six marks and helped to set a relay standard and Ferguson has four records.

Iowa's outdoor records, the best marks made in more than 60 years of track, took a beating mainly from Wheeler and Ferguson, with seven new marks and one equalled. Wheeler grabbed the 880-yards, 800-meters, mile and 1,500-meters records and Ferguson took the two mile and 5,000 meters.

Indoors, the mile record went to Wheeler, two mile to Ferguson and half mile to LeRoy Ebert. The indoor mile relay team broke the Big Ten record.

Ferguson distinguished himself as he made the Canadian Olympic team by setting a new Dominion record for the 5,000 meter and three mile runs. In the Central Collegiate meet, Wheeler broke John Woodruff's 14-year-old record for the half mile run.

An unusual fact is that each of the record-breakers — Wheeler, Ferguson, Ebert, Clyde Gardner, who broke a 25-year-old discus record; and Ira Murchison, equaler of the 100-yard mark — was in his first year of intercollegiate competition.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Detroit battered Don Johnson for four runs in the first inning and breezed to a 9-0 victory over Washington Wednesday night behind the four-hit pitching of Bill Wright.

It was Wright's fifth win and his third shutout. Three of the Senators' four safeties were infield hits, and only one Senator got past second base.

Cubs Snap Loss Streak With 3-2 Win in 13th

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs, beaten 21 times in the past 30 games over a month's span, snapped a five-game losing streak when Manager Phil Cavarretta smashed a one-out single in the 13th inning to give the Bruins a 3-2 victory over the Boston Braves Wednesday.

Cavarretta's ninth hit in 21 games this season sent Tommy Brown across the plate with the winning run. Brown singled off Lew Burdette after catcher John Pramesa grounded out. Hal Jeffcoat walked, and Burdette was replaced by Chipman. Cavarretta took a called strike, and then hit Chipman's second pitch sharply to center for a game-winning single.

Cavarretta's fireworks also snapped a five-game winning streak for the Braves, managed by Charlie Grimm, Phil's former professor when he broke in with the Cubs way back in the middle 30's.

The three hour and 15 minute match started out as a tight pitching duel between Warren Spahn and Johnny Klippstein. The Cubs scored a run in the first inning.

New Yorkers Stretch Lead to 4 1/2 Games

NEW YORK (AP) — Kal Segrist and Tommy Gorman made auspicious major league debuts Wednesday as the New York Yankees swept a doubleheader from Cleveland, 8-7 and 7-4, to increase their first place margin over the Indians to four and a half games.

Segrist, brought up from the Yankees' Kansas City farm along with Gorman Tuesday, scored the winning run in the first game after singling to open up the last half of the 10th inning. The 21-year-old second baseman advanced on a sacrifice, to third on a wild pitch and then crossed the plate on Hank Bauer's line single to center.

Gorman was called upon to relieve starter Bill Miller in the seventh inning of the nightcap with the Yankees leading 3-2, the bases full of Indians and nobody out. The 26-year-old right-hander whipped a third strike over Bobby Avila, got Dale Mitchell to hit a force play grounder that sent in the tying run and then fanned the dangerous Al Rosen on three pitches.

The Yankees bounced back with four runs in their half of the seventh. Bob Feller, the victim of the assault, went down to his eighth defeat against seven victories. Gorman was credited with his first major league win.

The world champions fought an uphill battle to take the opener. A home run by Yogi Berra with a teammate on base and two out in the eighth inning tied the score at 7-7 and forced the game into overtime. The blow came off Mickey Harris.

Phils Edge Pirates
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Paced by Connie Ryan's four hits, including his eighth homer of the season, the Philadelphia Phillies eked out a 8-7 victory over the cellar-dwelling Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday in a slam-bang game marked by 10 extra-base blows.

It was the Bucs' fifth straight loss and the second of a four-game series with the Phils. Robin Roberts won his 13th game against 6 defeats.

BoSox Throttle Chicago, 7-3
BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox tightened their grip on the American league's third place Wednesday by whaling ex-teammate Joe Dohson of the Chicago White Sox for a 7-3 victory. Hoot Evers contributed a two-run homer and Billy Goodman a two-run double to the 13-hit Boston attack.

Lefty Mel Parnell gave the White Sox nine hits while turning in his third straight pitching triumph since being sidelined by a buritis attack.

The Red Sox banged Dohson, seeking his 10th win, for seven hits and six runs in two and two-thirds innings.

Davey Easily Decisions Basilio

CHICAGO (AP) — Undeclared Chuck Davey, Detroit school teacher with college trained fists, Wednesday night administered a sound thrashing to a once saucy pupil, Carmen Basilio, in a blistering ten round battle in the Chicago stadium.

The decision was unanimous with Referee Gilmer voting 54-46 in favor of Davey, and the two judges, Harold Marowitz and Edward Klein, casting identical ballots for Davey, 55 to 45.

Davey's clean cut victory blotted out the controversial "draw" with which Basilio was credited in their first battle fought in Syracuse last May 29.

Wednesday night Basilio was credited with winning only two rounds with one even.

At the finish, Davey's face was smeared with blood from cuts opened in the eighth and ninth rounds.

Davey, boxing from his left-hand stance, had Basilio puzzled until he began to tire in the eighth and ninth rounds from his own aggressive pace which he spirited-ly opened with the start of the second round.

The battered Davey said in his dressing room that "I started too fast and tired badly in the middle of the fight. I couldn't see out of my right eye in the ninth because of the blood."
Basilio claimed he won the fight, although he admitted he started too slowly.
"He ain't nothin'," said the rugged Italian lad. "He can't break an egg."
