Ike Says World Peace Is Top Campaign Issue

DENVER (AP) — Dwight D. Eisenhower declared Friday that development of a sound program for world peace overrides all the issues of the presidential campaign.

And the Republican nominee for the White House said it is his objective to create such a program.

At this first news conference since he was nominated July 11, Eisenhower pledged that he and his running mate, Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California, will conduct an intensive, fighting campaign in all the "nooks and crannies of the United States."

The campaign probably will get underway about Sept. 1, Eisenhower added.

He met with newsmen as his campaign high command was arriving in Denver for a strategy huddle with Eisenhower today. Those scheduled to sit in at the conference — the first big get-together since he won the nomination — included Nixon and Arthur E. Summerfield, the new chairman of the GOP national committee. Summerfield also is serving as Eisenhower's campaign manager.

At the news conference, Eisenhower:

1. Said he plans to pay close attention to his political advisors, but he added "there can be no other boss of this campaign than Eisenhower himself." He said the party's national convention had handed him that responsibility when it chose him the Republican standard bearer.

2. Stressed that he regards it just as important for the Republicans to capture control of congress from the Democrats in the November election, as for the party to win the presidency.

3. Said he will support all the GOP nominees for congress, but emphasized that he did not necessarily mean he would see eye to eye with each one on all issues.

4. Declared he regards it as most important to dovetail the work of campaign volunteer groups, such as the national citizens for Eisenhower committee, with operations of the Republican national committee and the party's affiliated professional political organizations around the country.

Eisenhower talked of development of a sound program for world peace when a reporter noted that Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, the Democratic nominee, had singled out foreign policy as the principal issue of the campaign. Asked whether he agreed with Stevenson, Eisenhower replied he did not like to oversimplify.

"I will say this," he added, "the greatest issue, at least on our side of the Iron Curtain, is the initiation of a sound program for peace."

Rise in Living Cost Predicted In Wake of Food Price Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's stabilization chiefs predicted even higher prices Friday night in the wake of a labor department report that food costs have soared to a new record.

Economic stabilization director Roger L. Putnam directly blamed Republicans. At the same time he accused the steel industry of holding "a gun at the government's head" to get the steel price increase which he said will be a factor in a coming general rise.

Price Stabilizer Ellis Arnall said the food price report "clearly shows what the public can expect" and added that it is "a strong argument against those siren voices among the business community who have been telling congress and the people that the need for concern about the cost of living is over."

$100 Increase Denied

Ernest T. Weir, chairman of the National Steel corporation, the country's fifth largest steel producer, meanwhile called "absolutely untrue" a previous Arnall estimate that the increase in steel prices will add $100 a year to the average living cost of the American family.

Weir said in a statement issued at Pittsburgh that if the industry operates at capacity during the next 12 months, the actual price increase on steel will be "only about $10 per family per year spread over automobiles, washing machines, refrigerators, tin cans, and everything else made of steel that the family buys."

Large Increase Seen

The BLS study showed that in a mere 14 days the cost of $1 worth of grocery store items had gone up by July 15 to a little over $1.01. One price expert called that "a large increase for so short a period."

"There's no question that the cost of living is going to rise somewhat and that the 82nd congress (only recently adjourned) did curb our program," Putnam said.

"There's just no question that the Republican party was voting to cripple controls," Putnam said. "The government itself is decontrolling prices where it feels such action is 'safe,' but 'the prices where we've decontrolled have shown sharp increases in most cases, so we've got to be careful."

3 More Dry States Are Listed for Aid By U.S. Government

WASHINGTON (AP) — The sun-baked states of Massachusetts, Maine and South Carolina were added to the agriculture department's drought disaster list Friday.

Nine more counties in Arkansas, scorched by blazing summer skies, also qualified for emergency help.

The agriculture department's action opens the way for farmers in the stricken territory to seek millions of dollars in federal aid to buy cattle feed, keep their herds intact and finance the planting of new crops.

Eight states have now been declared drought disaster areas, as well as 27 counties in Arkansas and some in Missouri, Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi and Tennessee are other states qualifying for help from the farmers loan administration.

Subnormal Rainfall Forecast for August

WASHINGTON (AP) — The weather bureau said Friday that its 30-day outlook for August calls for temperatures to average above seasonal normals over the western half of the nation and in the deep south.

"Subnormal rainfall is predicted for the great plains, west gulf states and Rocky Mountains, but substantial showers are expected in a belt extending from Arizona northward to Oregon. Over eastern portions of the nation, where drought has developed in many areas, some relief is expected.

Wyatt Named Campaign Head By Stevenson

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. (AP) — Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, named Wilson Wyatt of Louisville, Ky., his personal campaign manager Friday.

Wyatt announced at a news conference that national campaign headquarters will be in Springfield. He said it marks the first time the party's campaign headquarters have not been in Washington.

"Since the campaign obviously must be directed by Governor Stevenson, the headquarters will be here and mine will be too," he said.

Was Housing Expediter

Wyatt, 46, ex-mayor of Louisville, was national housing expediter in 1946-1947. He was national chairman of Americans for Democratic action in 1947.

Wyatt said his appointment was made after Stevenson consulted with his running mate, Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, who concurred.

Wyatt said that Stevenson and Sparkman are going to conduct a "very aggressive and militant campaign."

Invited Three

Stevenson Friday invited three of the men he defeated for the presidential nomination to confer with him about campaign plans.

Invitations to parleys at the governor's mansion went to Sen. Kefauver, Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia and Averell Harriman.

William I. Flanagan, the governor's press secretary, said Kefauver plans to come to Springfield some time after Thursday's election in Tennessee.

Robber of Ankeny Bank Escapes with $25,270

ANKENY, IA. (AP) — A two-gun bandit robbed the Ankeny State bank of $25,270 early Friday and apparently made good an escape despite a road block thrown up by federal, state and local officials in central Iowa.

The robber, who broke into the basement of the bank some time Thursday night and lay in wait for the first employee to appear, fled with the largest amount taken in an Iowa bank holdup since 1934.

He was described as a large man about 35 to 40 years old. He is believed to have driven off in a gray or green auto parked about a block from the bank. He held one gun and had another in his pocket.

On March 13, 1934, the late John Dillinger and a gang of five men robbed the First National bank of Mason City of $51,600.

The robbery at Ankeny, about 10 miles north of Des Moines, was the third daylight holdup of an Iowa bank within a year. The Epworth Savings bank, near Dubuque, was robbed of $10,000 last October 11. The Central National bank of Des Moines was robbed of $15,000 last May 26.

Wayne Rowland, 36, assistant cashier of the Ankeny bank, said the bank had the large amount of cash on hand because Friday was payday at the nearby John Deere Des Moines works.

The holdup occurred about 7:10 a.m. Rowland had just come to work and was about to open a vault door when the bandit stepped from a door leading to the basement of the bank.

The robber forced Rowland to open a safe and stuff the money into a large flour sack. After that the robber locked Rowland in the vault and fled. The next official of the bank to arrive released Rowland about 10 minutes later.

4 New Polio Cases In SUI Hospitals

Four new cases of polio have been admitted to University hospitals Friday. They were reported to be in fair condition. The present number of cases at University hospitals is 30.

19 Polio Cases Enter Hospital In Sioux City

SIoux CITY (AP) — Nineteen new polio patients were hospitalized here Friday as the city added up the figures on the worst infantile paralysis month in its history.

With the 19 new cases, hospitals reported 10 patients were discharged during the day, leaving 192 under treatment.

The new patients raised to 362 the number of polio cases diagnosed here this year.

Health department statistics, released Friday, showed July produced 294 cases here, including those brought from the adjacent three state territories for hospitalization. That total topped any previous month on record. It also exceeded the 12-month figure for any previous year, including 1948, the worst year up to now, when 274 cases were reported.

The July patients included 137 from outside Woodbury county, 123 from Sioux City and 34 from the county outside the city.

Friday's report showed three additional patients on the "critical" list, raising that count to five.

Acheson's Plane Limp to Denver

DENVER (AP) — A plane carrying Secretary of State Acheson to a three-power conference at Honolulu limped into Lowry air force base here Friday with one of the four engines dead. No one was injured.

Repair crews had the plane back in shape within a half-hour and the flight to San Francisco was resumed.

Acheson was enroute to Honolulu to put into effect the new Pacific Defense alliance of the United States, Australia and New Zealand.

U.S. Jets Bag 3 Red MIG's As 90 Planes Protect GI's On Recaptured 'Old Baldy'

SMALLER TYPE LOCATES NORTH KOREAN cities blasted by Superfort bombing attacks which began in a big way May 8. The seventh massive blow, by 66 bombers, smashed a light metals plant on the Yalu river four miles west of Sinuiju Wednesday.

Hot Ground, Air Warfare Begins As Rains Cease

SEOUL (SATURDAY) (AP) — American jet pilots opened the August air war by shooting down three more MIG-15s and damaging two.

Jets fought Friday for the first time in nine days as 90 other warplanes protected U.S. second division infantrymen digging in on the recaptured crest of Old Baldy, prized hill of fighting on the Western front.

The Red jets were bagged in a 10-minute fight when F-86 Sabre pilots attacked 60 MIGs near the Yalu river.

19 Lost Last Month

Simultaneously the fifth air force announced the Allies lost 19 planes last month, but only two of them were shot down by MIGs. The other 17 were lost to ground fire or unknown causes.

Two U.S. jets and 32 Red jets were shot down in July air battles.

An abrupt end to six days of steady rain opened the way for the renewal of air warfare and the recapture of Old Baldy in a 12-hour battle.

Bayonet-wielding second division infantrymen drove 200 Chinese off the crest, but the Reds clung to an adjoining ridge line.

Most Allied planes and artillery concentrated on Red artillery which zeroed in accurately on Old Baldy. The Reds fired 3,800 rounds in 24 hours.

GIs Worked Fervently

Under the protective cover American infantrymen worked feverishly, digging deep bunkers in the rain-soaked red clay.

An American officer said the planes hit the Reds with 61 tons to close and lay off workers temporarily because their steel supplies, depleted by the 54-day strike, will run out before new shipments arrive.

A regimental officer estimated the Chinese suffered at least 100 casualties, that brought estimated Red losses in recent fighting for the hill to 1,400.

American casualties were not reported, but a colonel said "those bullet proof vests are wonderful."

No Reports Received

Another officer said no reports had been received of any Allied soldier wounded in the areas protected by the lightweight armor—the chest and back.

For half an hour the Chinese artillery hammered the hill with 30 shells a minute. The shelling continued intermittently into the night.

Red infantry reinforcements were seen moving up. But Allied officers said floods and artillery had cut off every Communist approach to the hill.

All streams were swollen by 12 inches of rain in six days.

editorial An Old, Old Story

All Africa is disturbed. The UN recently received this news from an African leader who is alarmed over the "expansionist policy of Premier Daniel Malan" of the Union of South Africa.

This country of 8.5 million colored people and 2.6 million whites is controlled by Malan and some 3,000 associates of the secret society, "Broederbond."

Malan, who succeeded the late and more broadminded Gen. Smuts in 1948, is a rabid "keep-the-Negro-in-his-place" advocate. He insists on absolute (and unworkable) segregation.

To prove he means business, he has enacted a bill prohibiting mixed marriages and a group areas act stipulating that Indians and natives must live in separate districts from whites. When the court ruled the legislation unconstitutional, he disregarded the ruling. He rules the legislature by a slim but iron majority. Nor is Malan a stay-at-home. South West Africa has already been added to the Union. Meanwhile Malan is casting envious eyes at three other British protectorates and putting his partisans to work in Southern Rhodesia.

Eight and one-half million people will not forever endure a fascist government which denies them the right to vote, strike, marry or live outside their color caste, to ask for more pay, or to travel without permits, and which imposes segregation on them.

An organized campaign of civil disobedience, directed by the Torch Commandos group, is now underway and arrests are being made every day.

So far the resistance has been organized and somewhat restrained. Any day it may blow up. Meanwhile, South African colored people are hearing an old story - it's all about something called Communism.

Virginia Senator Remains Aloof On Question of Candidate Support

By The Associated Press

Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, long a power in southern politics, refused to say Thursday whether he will throw his support to Democratic Gov. Adlai Stevenson or Republican Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in the presidential campaign.

Byrd issued a crisp statement at Winchester, Va., after his colleague, Senator A. Willis Robertson announced he will vote "the straight Democratic ticket next November."

Robertson and Byrd usually see eye to eye on political matters. "In response to many inquiries, I will not at this time make a statement with respect to either presidential candidate," Byrd said.

Clarification Wanted Byrd indicated that before he makes up his mind he wants to see a "clarification of the views of both candidates on the many governmental issues which neither has yet discussed."

One of the key issues is expected to be civil rights. Some southern leaders are reportedly still angry over northern efforts to write a stiff civil rights plank into the Democratic platform at the Chicago convention last week.

The plank, as adopted, was considerably watered down from the 1948 version which called for a compulsory Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) with authority to punish in cases of discrimination in the hiring and firing of Negroes.

Democrat Plank Praised Senator Morse (R-Ore.) said Thursday night the GOP plank on civil rights is "unacceptable" and he praised the Democratic plank and the south as a Truman man." on that controversial issue as being "much stronger and clearer."

However, some Dixie Democrats are reported none too happy over the Democratic plank, and there have been rumblings of a southern "revolt" favoring a switch to Gen. Eisenhower.

In Washington, Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing told newsmen that Stevenson's vice presidential running mate, Senator John J. Sparkman of Alabama, "sold the south" on a provision in the Democratic platform aimed at curbing the filibuster.

Talk Is Weapon Traditionally, long talk is the weapon used by southerners to beat back civil rights legislation.

Ewing said the platform declaration for a change in the senate rules on limiting debate was a tremendous step forward in the fight for civil rights and "a real achievement" for Sparkman. It takes a two-thirds vote now to cut off senate debate. The platform urged changes to permit a majority to put its will into force after "reasonable" debate.

In the Republican camp, Gen. Eisenhower huddled with his top advisors in Denver and was urged to set up a program designed to rally 10 million more voters than are now enrolled as Republicans to his support.

Ike Gets Advice He was also advised to court "the great middle ground" of American voters in his bid for the White House and to disregard "the extreme right and the extreme left." The advice came from Gov. Val Peterson of Nebraska.

Eisenhower's running mate, Senator Richard Nixon of California told reporters the Democrats are offering the nation a candidate who is captive to the CIO, the big city machines and President Truman.

"Despite his good intentions, and I do not question his good intentions, Gov. Adlai Stevenson is a captive candidate," Nixon said. As for Sparkman, Nixon said the Democratic vice presidential nominee is "known in the senate and the south as a Truman man." and the south as a Truman man."

GOP Beats Drums Republican chieftains in several quarters were beating the drums for a GOP break into the Democratic "solid south" this year.

Chairman Arthur Summerfield of the Republican national convention told newsmen in Columbus, O., there has been "amazing enthusiasm coming from the southern states" for Eisenhower and he predicted a bumper GOP vote crop in Dixie.

Senator Morse said in a radio (MBS) interview he thinks the GOP may win Texas, Florida, North Carolina and Virginia.

In Kansas City, President Truman voiced enthusiasm for the Stevenson-Sparkman ticket, but what part he will play in the campaign remained unclear. Stevenson has said he will welcome Truman's support.

A visitor quoted Truman as saying the Democratic party is "united behind Stevenson" and praising the Illinois governor as "a fine man."

In New York, Gov. Douglas MacArthur, who backed Senator Robert A. Taft for the GOP nomination, told a reporter he will "take no part" in Eisenhower's campaign.

Truman Confident Of Demo Victory KANSAS CITY (AP) - President Truman voiced enthusiasm Thursday over the Stevenson-Sparkman ticket, but what part he will play in the coming campaign remained unclear.

He told a caller at his penthouse suite in the Hotel Muehlebach here that the Democratic party is solidly "united" and "we are going to win in November."

The caller was Lewis Lindley of Thayer, Mo., a Democratic presidential elector since 1934, who gave reporters his occupation as that of "a Democrat."

3-Power Pact To Woo Other Pacific Powers

By J. M. ROBERTS JR.

Associated Press News Analyst One of Secretary Acheson's jobs at Honolulu will be to make the new U. S.-Australia-New Zealand mutual defense program an invitation to other Pacific powers to join eventually.

There is no immediate intention of trying to create in the Pacific anything comparable with the North Atlantic Treaty organization. The nature of the present work is more like that with Latin America.

The urgency of ever-possible enemy action in the Pacific is not present as in Europe. And the immediate focal point if it ever develops will be Japan, not the South Pacific.

Indeed, there will be a spirit present at Honolulu, however, politely covered, which compares in some respects with that which exists between France and Germany when they seek to cooperate, under new pressure, against a background of mutual fear. The fear is that of the Nazis for Japan. It is one of the chief reasons why the U. S. has made mutual defense treaties with Australia and New Zealand on the one hand, and with Japan and the Philippines individually.

There are economic matters involved, too, between the British commonwealth and Japan, with the latter's return to trading importance in the Orient running head-on into British efforts for trade expansion. There is some plain old-fashioned racial prejudice.

But, just as the present lack of direct military pressure on the Pacific permits the present arrangement, so would a real threat require unification. And there is no guarantee that Russia's traditional expansionism toward the Orient, her traditional enmity with Japan, will not eventually regain first place in Russian policy.

Nothing like a supreme command among America, Australia and New Zealand is being planned for the present. Liaison for co-ordination of military programs is the present objective.

TO THE EDITOR: Fifty per cent of all the married people are women! Armed with this amazing observation and the July 30th Iowan editorial entitled "Paddle the Parents," the persons sweltering through statistics this summer can point with satisfaction at the pointlessness of all their trouble. Obviously the statistics department will say a bunch of amateurs have invaded the field.

From the collection of assorted and rather dubious numbers the Iowan has made some vague assumptions. They are:

1. That all scholars drink the same amount if they drink at all and for the same purpose.

2. That drinking per se is degrading. If it had no immoral implications no one would fear a righteous paddling.

3. That parents in many instances do not attempt to at least acquaint their children with this form of social intercourse and its acceptable use. Rather than hide their own actions under a bushel, basket, the parents try to set a valuable example by their own "drinking habits."

In all fairness the Iowan has purely tried to defend the college stand on this question. Whether their approach has clouded the position of developing drinking habits in the home is speculation. They have proved really only one thing. That drinking seems to be an acceptable and enjoyable experience to college men and women.

To the Iowan I say, "If you would care for a beer, come on my house."

TO THE EDITOR: In response to the letters written by Mr. Brugger (July 26) and Mrs. Bobac (July 29) I wish, on behalf of the Hawkeye Village Council, to make known the following facts relative to the above mentioned letters.

Hawkeye Village is at present the only married students housing unit which has a functioning council. This body has been set up to arbitrate disputes, settle petty grievances, deal with flagrant violations and establish rules and regulations by which families may live closely and harmoniously. A council meeting was called immediately upon publication of Mr. Brugger's letter. This was an open meeting with those people concerned in attendance. The problem was thoroughly discussed and, insofar as possible, settled to the satisfaction of those concerned.

We sincerely wish that those concerned had been aware of the existence of the council and brought the matter before it for consideration and action.

AEC Orders Atomic Power For Big Ships WASHINGTON (AP) - The atomic energy commission made a deal Thursday for development of an atomic power plant for large naval vessels, such as aircraft carriers.

The AEC said the job of trying to perfect a nuclear power plant for ocean-going giants has been assigned to the Westinghouse Electric corporation - the same firm which is already building an engine earmarked for installation in the navy's projected atomic submarine, the USS Nautilus.

The contract for a "large vessel" power plant - coupled with the fact that the navy has gone ahead with building the Nautilus even before its projected engine has been tested - immediately prompted speculation that the commission considers the basic problems solved and an engine assured.

The AEC declined to amplify its terse, two-paragraph announcement except to say, in answer to questions that a "large" naval vessel would include "anything bigger than a destroyer."

Navy Secretary Kimball has said in recent speeches that he hopes that some of the new super-carriers will use atomic power. He said he hoped that atomic power for naval propulsion would proceed rapidly enough so that the third or fourth of the 10 projected super-carriers might be so powered.

Observers have speculated that 100,000 mile cruises at high speed and without refueling would be duck soup for a battlegroup or a commercial liner powered by atomic uranium, a pound of which could generate as much power as 1,500 tons of coal or 200,000 gallons of fuel oil.

How much atomic fuel would be required for a battlegroup's atomic power plant - and how much speed would be attained by such a craft - has never been indicated by the AEC.

But President Truman in his speech at the keel-laying of the submarine Nautilus in June, said the atomic sub would be able to cruise underwater at "more than 20 knots."

Presumably then, the planners of atomic power for big craft must have their sights set on some lickety-split speeds for atomic surface craft.

Union Chief Warns Telephone Workers To Vote on Strike DES MOINES (AP) - A strike vote will be taken among union workers of Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. here Thursday night.

"You will be confronted with a strike ballot," Beirne told Des Moines union members.

The union and company which operates in Iowa, Minnesota and the Dakotas have been negotiating for a new contract at Omaha. The present agreement expires Aug. 9.

Beirne said the company's latest offer amounted to an average of 7.8 cents an hour and that the union had turned this down Thursday.

He said that the CWA so far this year in negotiations with other telephone companies in the Bell system had obtained an average of 11.4 cents an hour this year.

54 Southern Editors Prefer Ike

All-Time Favorite Among GOP Hopefuls

ATLANTA (AP)—Among southern newspaper editors, General Eisenhower is the most popular candidate the Republicans have ever nominated for president.

Fifty four newspapers in the 13 traditionally Democratic solid south states have endorsed the general or said they would do so. That is far more than ever before expressed preference for a Republican nominee.

The figures were compiled in an Associated Press survey of 112 papers in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Kentucky, Virginia and the Carolinas.

Stevenson Lineup

But the survey also shows that the newspaper lineup against the Democratic ticket of Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Sen. John J. Sparkman is not much greater in the south than it was against President Truman in 1948.

Of the papers surveyed, only 29 have endorsed or said they would endorse the Democratic ticket. In 1948, there were 35 of the papers polled on the Truman bandwagon.

But four years ago, 24 papers favored Governor Dewey and 22 were for the states rights Democratic candidate J. Strom Thurmond.

The survey includes only newspapers that took a stand on the presidential race in 1948, or have taken, or will take one this year.

Both Will Gain

Both the Democratic and Republican candidates are sure to pick up additional editorial support as the campaign progresses among the 30 newspapers that have taken no stand so far this year.

Of those, 13 supported Truman, 13 favored the states righters and 4 endorsed Dewey in 1948.

Eisenhower backers among southern editors include 11 in Texas whose 1948 position, if any, was not specified. The 1948 stand of the one Texas paper supporting Stevenson also is not known.

Also, it should be noted, 22 editors who favor Ike felt the same way about Dewey in 1948 and 24 of the Stevenson papers backed Truman in the previous campaign.

Parent Conference Is Closing Feature Of Speech Clinic

SUI's six-week 1952 summer speech clinic officially closed Friday with the end of a two-day conference for parents of children who attended the clinic.

A feature of the final day of the conference was a panel discussion by parents of children with four different kinds of speech problems — articulation, stuttering, hearing and cerebral palsy.

Participating in the panel were Mrs. Edward Lucas, Beaman; Mrs. Orlean Rife, Anamosa; Mrs. R. O. Boldt, Iowa City, and Robert Folsom of Ogilvie, Minn.

The panel discussed some of the problems confronting the parent of a child with speech difficulties, and outlined the role of the parent in dealing with the problems. It was pointed out that the parent is frequently called upon to act directly as a speech therapist if there is no one else to help the child.

The need for early recognition of speech problems, and action in seeking out expert guidance was emphasized by the parents on the panel and in the audience.

The panel members advised the parents to constantly expose their child to new experiences and new people, and to help him recognize and cope with his own problems.

Earlier, at a general meeting of all parents attending the conference, Wendell Johnson, chairman of the university council on speech pathology and audiology, spoke ways to help the child gain better speech.

Indiana Burial for Drowning Victim

Funeral services and burial for two-year-old Heath Magenis will be today in Indianapolis, Ind.

The child, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Magenis, drowned Thursday night in the Riverside Park lagoon. The body was discovered in five feet of water about six feet from the west bank of the north end of the pond. Attempts by his parents to revive the boy failed, and he was pronounced dead at 10 p.m. at University hospitals.

Dr. Magenis is an intern at University hospitals. Mrs. Magenis is also a doctor. The family lives at 137 Riverside Park.

The parents left Iowa City Friday for Indianapolis. Burial will be in the Crown Hill cemetery there.

Life Aboard Ship Kept Highlanders Happy

WOC to Televis Excerpts of Opera

Sunday's "University Hour," telecast weekly at 2-2:30 p.m. over WOC-TV, Davenport, will feature excerpts from the Mozart opera "Così fan tutte," presented recently by the SUI school of fine arts.

The following principal players will re-create their roles in the university production: Dorothy Krebill, Donnellson; Marilyn Horstman, Odebolt; Stephen G. Hobson, Cedar Rapids; and Harry S. Morrison, Jr., Douds. Graduate student Stephen Joseph of London, England, will narrate the television presentation, and music will be played by pianist Ruth Vornholt, Iowa City.

HARPER TO SPEAK

Prof. Earl E. Harper, director of the SUI school of fine arts, will take part in the 14th annual Governor's day celebration at Clear Lake Sunday. He has been invited to speak at the united worship service. The service is scheduled for 11 a.m. Sunday at the Clear Lake city park. His topic will be "Life-Bringing Channels." Harper is also director of the Iowa Memorial Union.

Soviet Magazine Denies Reds Have 'Hate America' Campaign

MOSCOW (AP)—Moscow's English-language magazine, News, said Friday there is not now and never has been any such thing as a "hate America" campaign on the part of any Soviet leader or any Soviet publication.

The same day this article appeared (News is a propaganda weekly intended for western readers), Pravda launched a new attack on Americans.

The Communist party newspaper rejected U.S. Ambassador George F. Kennan's protest against an aviation day poster showing U. S. planes being chased by Soviet fighters. Kennan previously had also complained against Soviet press attacks picturing Americans as beasts, cannibals and so forth.

"It's The Opposite"

News, in a leading editorial, said that, far from a "hate America" campaign, the feeling exists here for improving Soviet-American relations.

"Neither at the present time nor at any time in the past have there been insurmountable differences between the two countries," it said. "Never have their vital interests clashed or led to conflicts that could not be resolved peacefully."

"Do actual conditions exist today that would help improve Soviet-American relations? Undoubtedly they do."

News then recalled Stalin's 1947 statement to Republican leader Harold Stassen that the possibility for cooperation always existed, but that there was not always the desire for cooperation.

Publication of this editorial coincided with a blast in Pravda at Ambassador Kennan's protests concerning the aviation day poster to which, the Communist party paper said, "the Soviet people took a liking."

Kennan Protests

Kennan sent a protest to the foreign affairs ministry Saturday and refused to attend Sunday's aviation day ceremonies at Tushino airport. The poster, about three feet wide, still is displayed in many places. It shows three separate scenes of incidents in which the Soviets say Americans violated Soviet frontiers.

Pravda said: "In all these incidents, the uninvited guests were given a proper lesson."

Pravda also used Friday's article as an occasion to lambaste the U. S. Republican and Democratic presidential candidates, Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Reds Charge West Trade Restrictions Violate '49 Pact

BERLIN (AP)—Russia charged Friday night that restrictions imposed on trade between east and west Germany by the Big Three Western occupying powers violate the 1949 agreement ending the Soviet blockade of Berlin.

The charge was made in a letter from General of the Army Vassily Chuikov, Soviet commander in Germany, to the three Western high commissioners. Chuikov demanded that the West lift restrictions on trade between the east-west zones of divided Germany.

Chuikov's letter was signed Thursday. The text was released Friday night by the Soviet-licensed news agency ADN. The restrictions to which the Russian commander objects were imposed by the West to prevent the flow of strategic materials, especially steel, into Soviet-dominated areas.

Chuikov's letter did not mention Russian harassing tactics against interzonal trade. East Germany's Communist-controlled government has been especially given to hamstringing free trade between west Berlin and west Germany.

The purpose behind Chuikov's move was not immediately clear. Western observers viewed it as significant in view of the tension in this Russian-surrounded city. The Russian accusations could foreshadow another blockade of Berlin if the Soviets are looking for an excuse for such a tactic.

On the other hand, it may be only another twist of the screw in the Russian brand of nerve warfare.

Bo Stassforth In Finals

Breast Stroke Star Qualifies

HELSINKI (AP) — Bowen Stassforth, SU's representative in the Olympics, qualified Friday for today's 200-meter breast stroke final.

He finished third in the second heat behind world record holder Herbert Klein of Germany and Takayoshi Kajikawa of Japan. The winning time was 2:37 and Stassforth's time was 2:38.7. Stassforth was less than five feet behind the winner at the finish.

Thursday Stassforth equaled the Olympic record of 2:34.3 for the 200 meters when he won his first heat. However, the record was broken by Ludevic Komadel of Czechoslovakia who swam the distance in 2:33.9.

Win Gold Medals

Two of America's finest athletes — diver Dr. Sammy Lee and swim speedster Yoshio Oyakawa — captured gold medals in the Olympic games Friday during an afternoon of riotous excitement on the basketball court and in the boxing arena.

For the second time during the basketball tournament, players and spectators rioted and fought on the court and, for the second time, the fiery Uruguayan team was involved.

Playing against Argentina for third place, two Uruguayan players tangled with the Argentine scoring star, Oscar Furlong. Someone threw a punch and within seconds the battle was raging all over the court. It took police 10 minutes to restore order and get the game going again.

Uruguay Wins

The game ended with only four Uruguayan and three Argentineans on the court — and with Uruguay on the long end of the score, 68-59.

America's stout ringmen seized the initiative from Russia going into the finals, but not until another "incident" occurred. Acting on a protest from the American coaches, the boxing jury relieved J. Neuding of Poland from his duties as a referee on the grounds of his ineffective handling of bouts.

But Neuding pleaded for and was given another chance after being warned by the jury to abide by the rules of the International Federation and not to interpret them in his own manner.

Records Broken

Every swimming event, except some early morning trial heats, produced a record. Oyakawa broke the Olympic record for the 100 meters backstroke; the Hungarian women's 400-meter relay team shattered the world and Olympic records and Australia's Jack Davies, a University of Michigan student, equalled the Olympic mark in a semi-final heat of the men's 200-meter breast stroke.

It was a banner day for the red-white-and-blue water specialists, who picked up 34 points to none for Russia and cut the Soviet's lead for the unofficial team championship to 24½ points, with one more full day of competition remaining.

Jack McCormack of Pasadena, Calif., finished fourth in the high-board diving and two other Americans gained points in the backstroke sprint.

Other Leaders

Jack Taylor, 21-year-old Ohio State graduate from Akron, Ohio, finished third in the backstroke behind Oyakawa and France's Gilbert Bozon. Ensign Allen Stack of Hingham, Mass., who won the event in 1948, was fourth.

America's 400-meter women's relay team picked up four more points in finishing third behind Hungary and Holland.

These various exploits gave the United States a total of 499 points compared with 523½ for the Russians, who fattened their total on men's and women's gymnastics early in the games.

The way is thus paved for a climactic neck-and-neck finish for these two powers.

Main Interest

The main interest will be focused on two adjoining arenas at the fair hall where the two big rivals clash head-on for basketball and boxing championships.

America's hardwood skyscrapers meet Russia's aggressive speed boys in the basketball finals. The United States swamped the Russians in an earlier meeting, 86-58.

In boxing, the U.S. had five survivors after matinee eliminations which saw two of Russia's leading hopes sent to the sidelines. The Soviet was left with only four ring representatives, with semifinals in the five heavier divisions yet to be contested.

On Last Day of Olympics — U.S. Likely to Overtake Russia

HELSINKI (AP) — The United States is within striking distance of the Olympic over-all championship today.

Trailing Russia by 24½ points — 523½ to 499 — the U.S. should wrap up the unofficial title today on the last full day of competition.

Here's how it could be done:

Boxing — the worst the U.S. can do is 25 points. The most Russia can score is 20 points.

Basketball — United States is the outstanding favorite to win the gold medal and 10 points, with the silver medal and five points going to Russia.

Swimming — The U.S. has three entries in the finals of the women's high dive (they finished 1-2-3 in their qualifying dives). The Russians qualified two. America has two men going in the 1,500-meter free style final and one in the 200-meter breast stroke. Russia isn't represented in either one nor in the women's 400-meter free style, where the U.S. again has two entries.

Water polo — the United States is certain of picking up three points. Russia can finish no better than fifth, good for two points.

Equestrian — U.S. will pick up at least one point in the team division of the three-day competition.

Cycling — Russians may score quite a few points in the 120-mile road race. U.S. doesn't figure to be among the first 30.

Cubs Whip Bums, Roe

BROOKLYN (AP) — Preacher Roe finally lost a ball game Friday night after seven straight wins as Chicago's Bob Rush whipped Brooklyn, 6-1, cutting the Dodgers' National league lead to five games over New York.

The Dodger lefty was knocked out in the fifth inning and the Cubs continued to maul his successors for 12 hits.

Hank Sauer's 26th home run with two men on base came off rookie Ray Moore in the seventh inning.

The Cubs opened their drive for their first win in Ebbets Field this season with two runs in the second. Errors by Pee Wee Reese and Bobby Morgan and Roy Smalley's single set the stage for Tommy Brown's two-run single.

Giants 7, Pirates 3

NEW YORK (AP) — Rookie Dusty Rhodes belted a three-run homer and Wes Westrum and Whitey Lockman connected with the bases empty Friday to lead the New Giants to a 7-3 triumph over the lowly Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Giants celebrated the return of Monte Irvin to the starting lineup by blasting rookie Harry Fisher for four runs in the first inning.

Indians 6, A's 5

CLEVELAND (AP) — Larry Doby hit a home run in the 10th inning Friday night to give the Cleveland Indians a 6-5 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics. The Athletics had tied up the game in the ninth on Gus Zernial's grand slam homer.

Senators 3, Chicago 1

CHICAGO (AP) — Washington's Walter Masterson, facing the Chicago White Sox the second time this season, Friday night achieved a 3-1 victory in the first of a four game series.

Cards 10, Phillies 5

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A parade of five Philadelphia pitchers failed to quiet the boom of St. Louis bats Friday night as the Cardinals walloped the Phillies 10-5. A four-run outburst in the ninth inning by the Cardinals settled the issue as Stan Musial and Solly Hemus tripled before Enos Slaughter homered.

Reds 2, Braves 0

BOSTON (AP) — Boston Braves righthander Max Surkont uncorkeed two wild pitches against Andy Seminick in the ninth inning Friday night to give the Cincinnati Reds the winning run as Ken Raffensberger gained his 11th pitching triumph with a 2-0 shut-out. Surkont's second wild heave enabled pinch-runner Wally Westlake to score the initial run.

Swallows Troubles Browns Edge Yanks; Courtney Gets Homer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Radio announcer Bud Blattner was in the ninth inning of his description of the St. Louis-Washington American league baseball game here Thursday night.

Suddenly in mid-sentence he began sputtering and coughing. A hurried call for relief went to his announcing partner, former pitcher Dizzy Dean, who had wandered into the press box.

By the time Old Diz arrived, Blattner had swallowed his troubles — a large bug that flew into his mouth.

BoSox 3, Tigers 1

DETROIT (AP) — Lefthander Mel Parnell, blazing along on a comeback since recovering from burnitis, scattered eight hits Friday night as the Boston Red Sox whipped the jittery Tigers, 3-1.

Browns Edge Yanks; Courtney Gets Homer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Catcher Clint Courtney, with a home run and a single, drove in both runs for the St. Louis Browns as they defeated the New York Yankees here Friday night, 2 to 1.

Gene Bearden needed help from Satchel Paige to score his victory over Allie Reynolds.

Courtney hit his home run in the second inning and drove in the second Brownie run in the fourth. Bob Nieman doubled with one out for the second hit off Reynolds at that point and Courtney followed with a single to center.

One Up on Russia

URUGUAY'S HECTOR COSTA lands atop Russian ace Otar Kurkilia during the rough Olympic semi-final basketball game won by the Soviets, 61-57, at Helsinki. Kurkilia's right hand is still bandaged — the result of an injury during the Russian-United States game earlier in the tournament. The U.S. team won its way into the finals with an 85-76 victory over Argentina and will meet the Russians today for the title.

Russia to Compete in 1956 Olympics

HELSINKI (AP) — Russia will compete in the 1956 Olympic summer games in Melbourne, Australia, C. J. Gray, a member of the Australian Olympic organizing committee, said Friday.

"The Russians have given us assurances they will come," said Gray.

Gray and other members of the Australian organizing committee are to make preparations for the 1956 games.

Yankees Buy Pitcher, Schmitz, From Dodgers

BROOKLYN (AP) — Johnny Schmitz, lefthanded relief pitcher of the Brooklyn Dodgers, was sold to the New York Yankees Friday and will join the American League leaders in St. Louis today. The deal was for cash and Wally Hood, a Yankee farm hand pitcher now at Kansas City.

Schmitz, who came to Brooklyn a year ago in the Andy Pafko deal, appeared in 10 games for the Dodgers this season and had a 1-1 record. Hood was transferred from the Kansas City club to St. Paul, also of the American Association.

This is the fourth time in as many years that the Yankees have dipped into the National League previous deals helped bring them late in the season for help. The American League pennants and world series triumphs.

In 1949, the Yanks acquired hard-hitting Johnny Mize from the Giants. Two years ago they picked up Johnny Hopp, outfielder-first baseman from the Pittsburgh Pirates. Last year it was Johnny Sain, veteran pitcher, from Boston.

Although major league players cannot be sold or traded to another major league club after June 15, the Yankee deals all have been legal because none of the National League clubs were willing to pay $10,000 for Schmitz' contract. Once the National League clubs waived on him, Schmitz could be sold to the highest bidder in the American loop.

Schmitz' sale puts the Dodgers one player below the legal limit and it is possible another player will be called up.

'We Wuz Robbed,' Red Broadcaster Says

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio's Helsinki correspondent Friday night gave Russian home service listeners a "we wuz robbed" version of the Olympic boxing semifinals.

The broadcaster, identified as Snyavsky, said:

"The match between the Soviet featherweight boxer Bulakov and the German Basel showed the superiority of the Soviet boxer. However, the judges who the other day had shown an unfavorable attitude to the Soviet boxer Dosukhin, again gave the victory to the German, who did not deserve it. This unfair decision was passed by the votes of two judges, a Norwegian and a Dutchman.

"The judges took a similar attitude in deciding the result of the match between Perov of the USSR and an Argentine boxer.

"The judges did everything they could to spare the American team difficult matches in the finals."
