Reds Breach UN Defenses

The Campaign Parade — Ike Defends Private Business; Stevenson Doubts GOP's Aims

Dr. Edwin E. Stendler, The Bell held the National Student Council's annual meeting at a graduation dinner. Features of the meeting included the presentation of the National Student Award to President David Bleakley of the University of Iowa, which now includes attorney David Bleakley among its officers.

Stem Meets

The noted jurist is expected to speak in Philadelphia, is expected at 8 p.m. for the general meeting of the university club. Details are still in the planning stages.

Greek Week Agenda

The season will close Dec. 1. An organized program will highlight various sororities and fraternities at the university. Several civic and religious organizations will participate in the program.

Plans for Opening International House To Be Discussed

A meeting to discuss formal plans for the new international house in the middle of the quad area will be held. The project is expected to be completed by the fall semester.

Thorton Fund Totals $772 in Contributions

A total of $772 has been reported from students who have contributed to the fund. The fund is used to support various international student groups on campus.

World News Briefs

A Condensation of Late Developments

AGENDA, GREEK — King Fred I, president of the university, called for a special meeting of the university council. The council is expected to discuss the university's policies on foreign students and international relations.

Schedule Announced For Returning Books

Students who have not graduated from the university or have not been accepted to continuing study must return their books by December 10. The schedule is set to help those students who are planning to return to their homes for the holidays.

Health Plan Prompts Debate

A newly proposed health plan has sparked a debate among students and faculty members. The plan includes provisions for mental health care and alternative medicine.

Central Intelligence Agency in Korea

Walter Eckardt, a former CIA officer, has been arrested in Korea. The agency is expected to release a statement on the matter soon.

The Daily Iowan

Iowa City, Iowa, Wednesday, Oct. 2, 1952 — Vol. 87, No. 13

The Weather

Former Indian police chief cornered by a 6-foot-4-inch, 280-pound mountain lion on Friday, Oct. 1. The lion was reportedly loose in the area and had been seen chasing livestock.

15,000 Chinese Break Through On Seoul Road

The Chinese army has broken through the defensive line around Seoul. The city is now under attack by a determined force of Communist soldiers.

125 Persons Routed In Des Moines Fire; 2 Firemen Overcome

The fire, which began in a gutted building on the outskirts of Des Moines, took 125 persons out of the building. Two firefighters were overcome by smoke and had to be rescued.

Intelligence Agents Jailed

The agents were arrested on charges of espionage and treason. The case is expected to be handled by the Department of Justice.

15,000 Chinese Break Through On Seoul Road

The Chinese army has broken through the defensive line around Seoul. The city is now under attack by a determined force of Communist soldiers.

Schedule Announced For Returning Books

Students who have not graduated from the university or have not been accepted to continuing study must return their books by December 10. The schedule is set to help those students who are planning to return to their homes for the holidays.

Health Plan Prompts Debate

A newly proposed health plan has sparked a debate among students and faculty members. The plan includes provisions for mental health care and alternative medicine.

Central Intelligence Agency in Korea

Walter Eckardt, a former CIA officer, has been arrested in Korea. The agency is expected to release a statement on the matter soon.
GENERAL NOTICES

GENERAL NOTICE - The West Hall, Student Union, will be open 24 hours a day, starting at 1 a.m. on Sunday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week. The Student Union will be closed at 11 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

THURSDAY, OCT. 10

APPOINTMENTS: Appointments will be made until the end of Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

THE CAMPUS MUSICIAN - The Campus Musician will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

THE HUMANITIES SOCIETY - The Humanities Society will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

RUGGED SCHOLARSHIP - The Rugged Scholarship will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

THE TECHNOLOGY CENTER - The Technology Center will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

THE BUSINESS AND ECONOMY STAFF - The Business and Economy staff will be available from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

TO THE EDITOR:

The Daily Iowan, Oct. 4.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 9

FOR THE WEEK ENDED:

APPOINTMENTS: Appointments will be made until the end of Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

THE CAMPUS MUSICIAN - The Campus Musician will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

THE HUMANITIES SOCIETY - The Humanities Society will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

RUGGED SCHOLARSHIP - The Rugged Scholarship will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

THE TECHNOLOGY CENTER - The Technology Center will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.

THE BUSINESS AND ECONOMY STAFF - The Business and Economy staff will be available from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in order to accommodate the needs of students involved in the 40-hour week.
Meet Blackstone's Complete Beauty Staff for Fall...

Now Ready to Serve YOU
Expertly - - - Efficiently!

Vacations are over and our staff is again complete. We have the largest, most modern salon, and the most experienced staff of Hairdressers in Iowa City. All booths are strictly private and individually equipped. We use only the finest nationally advertised supplies and we specialize in permanent waving.

Our facilities are given by experts and we feature a complete line of Demometric Cosmetics.

23 Years of Beauty Service in Iowa City!

There is no substitute for experience. If you have a beauty problem, bring it to us — consultation without charge. We also feature Gyrator Reducing Service.

VISIT US IN OUR NEW LOCATION!
118-120 S. Dubuque
We are again able to welcome more "after-5" appointments.

Blackstone's
for appointments dial 5825
Yankees Take Title Again, 4-2

BROOKLYN—The mighty New York Yankees, playing for the third time in the game, did it again. In front of a crowd of 45,000, this time Yankee Stadium was filled to the roof. The New York Yankees on their way to the world championship. By the third inning Tuesday afternoon, the first World Series contest was decided, and many fans were waiting outside the stadium gates.

In the fifth inning, the Yankees' manager, Casey Stengel, hit a home run that carried the ball to the roof of the stadium. The Yankees scored four runs in the inning and went on to win the game 4-2.

We Can Always Win on Road,' Shouts Casey—
Bums Say, 'Mantle Killed Us'

"I've never been pitched to on the road," said Indian Chief, Joe Black, after the game. "I think this would have been a very different series if we had played on our home field."

"I've never pitched in a World Series," said the New York Yankee's pitcher, Whitey Ford. "I think this would have been a very different series if we had played at home."

"We're going to make them eat their words," said the Indian Chief. "We're going to make them eat their words."
Cedar Rapids Trial on Baby's Death Begins

Cedar Rapids, La., Nov. 16—(AP)—The first witness in a trial that will be heard in a courtroom here Tuesday morning will be the dead baby, according to the coroner, who said the body would be placed on the floor for the jury to see. The trial is expected to last two days.

Walter R. Kellogg, 51, was charged in connection with the death of the infant, according to the coroner. The baby, who was found dead in a downtown Cedar Rapids hotel room, was declared dead at the scene.

Kellogg is expected to testify Tuesday morning.

Real Estate Men Hear New Plan

Robert J. Moxey, Jr., President of the Cedar Rapids Hotel Association, and Dr. John R. Myers, Treasurer, addressed the meeting here Thursday evening.

The dinner was held at 6:30 p.m. at the Des Moines Country Club, followed by a meeting in comfortable rooms at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Moxey outlined the plans for the association and the importance of the hotel industry in the community.

The program included a discussion on the future of the hotel industry in the area.

Medical Association

The Medical Association of Cedar Rapids will meet and hold an educational meeting here Thursday, Oct. 9.

The dinner will be held at 6 p.m. at the Iowa Memorial Union in the center of downtown Cedar Rapids. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Carroll R. Lottman of the Children's Hospital Department of Surgery will open up the meeting with a discussion on the future of the hospital.

The program will include a discussion on the future of the medical profession in the state.

Weekly Special

The weekly special of the Medical Association will be held here on Thursday, Oct. 9.

The dinner will be held at 6 p.m. at the Iowa Memorial Union in the center of downtown Cedar Rapids. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Carroll R. Lottman of the Children's Hospital Department of Surgery will open up the meeting with a discussion on the future of the hospital.

The program will include a discussion on the future of the medical profession in the state.

Medical Association

The Medical Association of Cedar Rapids will meet and hold an educational meeting here Thursday, Oct. 9.

The dinner will be held at 6 p.m. at the Iowa Memorial Union in the center of downtown Cedar Rapids. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Carroll R. Lottman of the Children's Hospital Department of Surgery will open up the meeting with a discussion on the future of the hospital.

The program will include a discussion on the future of the medical profession in the state.

Medical Association

The Medical Association of Cedar Rapids will meet and hold an educational meeting here Thursday, Oct. 9.

The dinner will be held at 6 p.m. at the Iowa Memorial Union in the center of downtown Cedar Rapids. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Carroll R. Lottman of the Children's Hospital Department of Surgery will open up the meeting with a discussion on the future of the hospital.

The program will include a discussion on the future of the medical profession in the state.
Rips "Low Standard of Morality in Capital"

...Taft criticized Truman on Illinois tour... Taft added that the Muslim children buried in the cemetery are not being allowed to rest... Lindbergh's son on expedition...