No Compromise On Civil Rights By Stevenson

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Gov. Sander R. Levin today said he would not support any civil rights measure unless he got a state he could embrace, and that he was not ready to discuss a Democratic civil rights bill until after the Democratic rule in the Senate.

Levin, who is a member of the Senate Democratic party, said that he was not ready to discuss a civil rights bill until after the Republican party takes control of the Senate.

He said that the Republican party was more concerned with the issues of the day than the Democratic party.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR
THE DISCUSSION OF THE SUBJECT "GOING ON A CRUISE" was by Dr. Pollock, who correctly stated that there are many factors involved in going on a cruise. These factors include the costs of the cruise, the potential for fun and relaxation, and the possibility of meeting new people. Dr. Pollock emphasized the importance of considering these factors carefully before committing to a cruise.
