Ike's 10-Year Income Listed At $888,303

Profit from Writings Netted Largest Share

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower Tuesday released a statement of his finances of the past 10 years showing he received a total income of $888,303.99, including $935,000 for all rights to his book, "Crusade in Europe."

The statement pointed out that since the General and Mrs. Eisenhower filed joint returns during the entire period, the figures represented that joint income. The General said that as of now he was "without income except from investments."

The Republican presidential candidate listed the total income of himself and his wife, in addition to the book, as $235,303.99 after taxes.

His Democratic opponent, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, last month revealed his 10-year income tax record and listed overall gross income before taxes of $500,052.

In the 10 years, the report of the Republican presidential candidate showed he paid a total of $206,893.16 in income taxes, including $158,750 in capital gains taxes on his book.

The General said that he took leave without salary when he left the presidency of Columbia university to go to Europe in early 1951 to organize NATO defense forces. He noted also that he resigned his army commission on his return to this country to campaign for the GOP nomination earlier this year.

His financial statement, including some correspondence, was released at Eisenhower's New York headquarters by Arthur Vandenberg Jr., his executive assistant.

Eisenhower is campaigning in the south at present.

The General said he paid a federal capital gains tax of $158,750 on the book, "Crusade in Europe," leaving a balance of $476,250. He taxed a considerable less under capital gains as a non-professional writer than he would have been under income tax regulations.

Woman Kidnaps 5-Day-Old Baby From N.Y. Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—An international hunt was on Tuesday for a dark-haired woman who kidnaped a 5-day-old baby girl from Bellevue hospital by casually asking for it by name.

Twenty-four hours later, the infant's mother, Mrs. Anna Hernandez, 38, showed up from another part of the hospital to claim the child and was told it already had been called for. She collapsed.

Every air, rail and highway exit from the city was closely watched by police for a trace of the kidnaper, a short woman of about 40 wearing a rose-colored coat. She speaks Spanish and broken English.

A routine alarm was flashed through 13 northeastern states. In addition — since the parents are Puerto Rican — authorities were alerted in Florida, Puerto Rico, Cuba and Mexico against any attempt to get the child out of the country.

There was no apparent motive for the kidnaping.

Soviet Envoys Arrive in U.S.

SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER Andrei Vishinsky (right) and Andrei Gromyko, Soviet ambassador to London, arrived in New York on the S.S. Queen Elizabeth. The two Soviet envoys are in the United States for the opening of the United Nations general assembly.

Appeals for Korean Peace Mark Opening of UN Assembly

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—

Two veteran United Nations leaders opened the seventh UN general assembly Tuesday with appeals for delegates of East and West alike to work unceasingly for an armistice in Korea.

Lester B. Pearson, of Canada, chosen as the new president of the assembly, joins Luis Padilla Nervo of Mexico, the retiring president, in down-to-earth warnings that cold war problems everywhere must be settled or the world faces the ultimate tragedy of a ruinous war.

In an air of diplomatic gloom, the assembly convened in the bright, gay new $12½ million hall.

The speeches of Padilla Nervo and Pearson, Canada's foreign secretary, furnished what many delegates called a realistic approach to the tense international situation.

Despite their pleas, there was no sign of a break in the East-West stalemate or any other of the problems affecting the UN.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson, the last principal delegate to arrive in the buzzing hall for the assembly start, and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky did not speak. They made no sign of recognition and immediately started what was obviously a game of watchful waiting.

Acheson had been slated to speak today with a demand for the assembly to appeal to the Reds for an armistice in Korea on UN terms. But the word was passed that he would speak later and no definite time was given.

Some delegates speculated Acheson would withhold a resolution on the Korean situation until Vishinsky has made his opening address to the assembly. Acheson wants to see just what Vishinsky has to offer. There was speculation the Russian would put up another peace plan—but Vishinsky refused to tip his hand.

The state board of education has approved an estimated $85,000 project to eliminate fire hazards at Oakdale sanatorium, Milo D. Wynn, sanatorium business manager, has announced.

At a public hearing held at the sanatorium Tuesday, the bids for the contract were turned over to the Stanley Engineering company, which will conduct an investigation of the bidding parties. The awarding of the contract will be based on the result of this investigation, Wynn said.

Based on a plan recommended by the state fire marshal in 1945 and 1951, an estimated $40,000 will go into electrical improvements and $45,000 into new water and sewer lines. The water and sewer lines will be laid out according to recommendations made by the state board of health.

SUI Symphony Tickets Still Available at Union

Tickets are still available at the Iowa Memorial Union desk for the SUI symphony orchestra concert tonight at 8 in the Union main lounge. Prof. Hans Koelbel, violinist, will be guest soloist. The orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Philip Greeley Clapp, will play selections by Smetana, Lalo and Liszt. WSUI will broadcast the concert at 8 p.m.

State Tells Motive In Baltimore Killing

BALTIMORE (AP)—The state told a story Tuesday of a man "hopelessly in love" with another woman and offered it as the motive in the bizarre killing of Mrs. Dorothy May Grammer.

George Edward Grammer, 35-year-old New York office manager, was put on trial charged with his wife's murder.

State's Atty. Anselm Sodaros identified the other woman as 28-year-old Mathilda Mizibrocky, a Canadian employed at United Nations headquarters in New York.

Then he told the court:

"Letters from the defendant to Miss Mizibrocky will be offered in evidence, which clearly indicate that Grammer was hopelessly in love with her and that he intended to marry her."

Mrs. Grammer, 33-year-old mother of three children, was found in her car Aug. 20. She was pronounced dead at a hospital.

The case was first reported as a traffic accident. Investigation resulted in the filing of a murder charge against Grammer less than two weeks later.

A Condensation of Late Developments

CAIRO, EGYPT (AP)—A single regent Tuesday supplanted the three-man Regency Council that has been ruling for infant King Fuad II. Premier Gen. Mohammed Naguib, leader of Egypt's reform program, set off the day's developments by firing an army officer from the council. Naguib accused the officer, Col. Rashad Mehanna, of "actions which gave the impression there was a split in the current Egyptian reform drive." A few hours later the entire council resigned. The Premier then announced that henceforth Prince Mohamed Abdel Monem, a second cousin of exiled King Farouk, will act for the baby king as sole regent.

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill said Tuesday night he thinks a third World War is unlikely because it would begin with horrors "on a scale never dreamed of before" and would be crippling to a power depending on vast land armies, such as Russia. The Prime Minister addressed the Anglo-American Pilgrim society. He did not mention Russia by name, but his solemn warning clearly was pointed at her.

MADRID, SPAIN (AP)—Spain and West Germany Tuesday signed a new commercial agreement providing for an exchange of goods of almost pre-war volume. Informed sources said a considerable part of Spain's imports under the accord will consist of material for Spain's armed forces.

Kremlin Theme Used by Ike, Adlai Charges

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson Tuesday night accused Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower of chanting the theme song of the Kremlin in contending that America's prosperity is based on war and rearmament.

Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, also declared that Eisenhower — his GOP rival for the White House — has resorted to "mean motives" and has dipped "somewhere near the low-water mark" in an effort to win the November election.

In a speech prepared for delivery at the Mormon tabernacle, the Illinois governor ripped at Eisenhower more scathingly than at any time during the campaign.

Tours Western States
Stevenson denounced a new what he calls the general's surrender to GOP Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio who bid unsuccessfully for the nomination Eisenhower won.

On the first leg of a 6,000 mile campaign tour of five western states and Texas, Stevenson flew Tuesday morning from his home base at Springfield, Ill., and made a mid-day speech at Casper, Wyo., on the way to Salt Lake City.

In Casper he said, "Republican bosses have fought with blind fury" against all prosperity programs and have opposed "every measure to build America's alliances against the Communist conspiracy."

Chies Kremlin Story
In his Salt Lake City address, Stevenson had much more to say about the prosperity issue.

"Far worse than his surrender to Taft, far worse than his acceptance of all the bad senators of his party, is what he said about American prosperity. He dared to tell us that our forward surge since 1945 has been based on war and rearmament. And he implied that the whole growth of social justice during the past 20 years is also based on war.

"This is the most unkind untruth of all, for this is the Kremlin story. This is the theme song of every Communist newspaper in France and Italy — and across the Iron Curtain.

$85,000 Oakdale Fire Prevention Project Approved

The state board of education has approved an estimated $85,000 project to eliminate fire hazards at Oakdale sanatorium, Milo D. Wynn, sanatorium business manager, has announced.

Students Practice 'Magazine X' Skit

Students of the Iowa City school board voted Tuesday night to let the building and grounds committee further investigate bids for grounds improvements at two Iowa City schools.

The project includes new paving at Iowa City high school and a gravel driveway at Roosevelt grade school.

A $245,452 bid by Tom Alberhasky, local contractor, was set aside for further consideration.

In an analysis of school enrollment, Supt. Buford W. Garner said that if enrollment increases at its present rate, elementary building facilities may be inadequate by 1955.

Garner's analysis was in the form of a four page projected enrollment report which he submitted to board members.

This was the first board meeting of the new school year. It met at Junior high school.

Publisher Accused — McCarthy's Charges Rebuked

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A Las Vegas publisher accused by Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) of being "an admitted ex-Communist" Tuesday swore out an affidavit denying the charge.

"It's the dirtiest lie McCarthy ever told," said Herman M. Greenspun, publisher of the Las Vegas Sun, after the two men tangled verbally at a Republican meeting Monday night.

Greenspun said he was publishing on the Sun's front page this morning an affidavit swearing he is not and never has been a Communist, nor consorted with Communists and fellow travelers. The publisher said he is offering $1,000 to anyone who can disprove one word of the affidavit.

McCarthy, the object of a pointed column by Greenspun Monday, labeled the publisher "one who sports all the mouthings of the Daily Worker." The senator told the audience that Greenspun was an "admitted ex-Communist" and referred to him as a violator of the Articles of War and an indicted smuggler.

Greenspun was fined $10,000 in 1950 in Los Angeles district federal court after pleading guilty to violating the neutrality act by smuggling arms to Israel forces in their battle with the Arabs.

Regarding McCarthy's other charge, Greenspun said he and an entire ward were fined $25 each for overstaying a hospital leave by two hours on New Year's eve, 1945. He was in an English hospital, recovering from wounds received in France.

The ruckus between the two Republicans — Greenspun's paper is supporting Eisenhower — flared when McCarthy called the publisher to task for his column.

Greenspun's column asked the senator to answer questions about his income tax among other things.

Neighbor Held In Slayings In California

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Nevada officers Tuesday held a next-door neighbor of Guard Young, Chester, Calif., grocer, who was beaten to death last Friday along with three children. They acted at the request of California authorities.

Washoe county (Reno) Sheriff George Lothrop identified the man as Louis Edmond Blair, about 45, the owner of Chester's only movie theater.

Blair, picked up at a roadblock north of Reno as he drove away from the Chester area, denied all knowledge of the mass robbery-slayings at Chester. He waived extradition to California even before any charges had been filed.

Asked by newsmen if he knew Young, who was found beaten to death with his daughters, Jean, 7, Judy, 6, and a neighbor boy Michael Saille, 4, near Chester Saturday, Blair replied:

"Sure I knew them — I knew the whole family."

However, he denied knowing Young made a regular Friday trip to the bank at Westwood, 14 miles away, and said he was at home last Friday when the grocer and the children were killed after Young drew out $7,128 from the bank.

School Board Asks Further Investigation On Improvement Bid

Russian Protest Rejected by U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The state department Tuesday rejected Russia's assertion that an American B-29 bomber missing near Japan with its crew of eight violated Soviet frontiers.

Moscow said in a protest note Sunday that the Soviet fighters fired on the plane a week ago in the area of Yuri Island north of Japan.

Red Leader Threatens Purge; Party Rule To Be Intensified

MOSCOW (AP)—A leader of the Soviet Communist party's control commission warned Tuesday that party representatives will be installed in republics, districts and counties, independently of local party authorities, to intensify party rule.

This warning came from the deputy chairman of the control commission, Matvei Shkiryatov, 69, an old Bolshevik who has been a close associate of Prime Minister Stalin.

In a speech to the 19th All-Union Communist Party congress, he said:

"This measure will assist in the prevention of violation of party by-laws and intensification of the struggle against defects and unhealthy phenomena which exist in the life and work of party organizations."

Shkiryatov's statement, which may be regarded as the most important report on party discipline in a long time, was one of the highlights of the closing sessions of this congress, the first called by the party in 13 years.

The congress has named Stalin and ten aides to a revision commission which will reshape the party program in line with changes in the internal and international situation and report back to a party meeting four years from now.

The Moscow press made public today the speeches of Shkiryatov,

Mikhail Suslov, a central committee secretary and authority on ideology, and several others before the congress of 1,200 Communist leaders from the 16 Soviet republics. Shkiryatov's speech aroused particular interest.

He promised severe punishment to "bureaucrats and stiflers of criticism, regardless of who is involved."

Drive to Top Despite Heavy Red Resistance

SEOUL, (Wednesday) (AP)—U. S. seventh division troops, attacking through mist and fog, stormed to the top of Triangle Hill in central Korea today. To the west, South Koreans won complete control of White Horse mountain after engineers blasted the last Chinese Red defenders to death.

Success in the center by the U. S. 31st (Polar Bear) regiment of the 7th division under Col. Lloyd Moses, Wood, S. D., came after waves of Chinese Red reinforcements had hurled the Americans back from Triangle Hill, north of Kumhwa, Tuesday night.

Moses' men, who had pulled back from Triangle Hill so artillery could rake the estimated 1,000 Chinese Reds, renewed the attack this morning under cover of a drizzle.

Scale 1,500-Foot Slope
Men of the 31st scaled the 1,500-foot-high steep, sandy slopes then moved about 150 yards down the other side, AP war correspondent Milo Farnet reported.

Tuesday, at the outset of the Allies' first big attack in 11 months, Moses' men got to the top of Triangle Hill then had to withdraw after a bayonet fight.

On White Horse mountain, the western base, ROK ninth division troops after nine days of seaway fighting had won all but the "Three Sisters" by this morning.

Blast Rocky Mountain
Today ROK engineers tunneled under the last Red finger-holds—three knobs on the northwest ridge — to plant explosives. The resultant blast was so terrific that the whole mountain mass seemed to tremble.

Paving the way for the Allied successes were heavy artillery barrages and swarms of supporting planes.

At the western end, South Korean ninth division troops, northwest of Chorwon, increased their hold on the Three Sisters — a series of knobs extending down the northwest ridge of bloody White Horse mountain.

9th Fighting Day
The South Koreans astride White Horse today began their ninth straight day of fighting. At last reports they were only 50 yards from the first of the Three Sisters. About 700 Chinese held the knob, backed by 700 more Reds in reserve.

The old Iron Triangle, formed by Chorwon on the west, Kumhwa on the east and Pyongyang on the northern apex, once was the main Communist staging area in Central Korea. Only Pyongyang remains in Red hands.

Early Tuesday a big Allied force moved out north at Kumhwa with massive artillery and tank support, for a drive on Triangle Hill.

Going Becomes Tougher
The going became tougher as Allied infantrymen scrambled up the steep, sandy incline under intense Red mortar fire. They hit the 1,500 foot crest but were driven off in a bayonet charge by Communist reinforcements from a neighboring height.

Allied fighter-bombers buzzed continuously over the height, pounding the Reds with bombs, rockets and jellied gasoline fire bombs.

GOP Urges Women Lead Cleaning of Government

Republican club women were handed a three point creed as a guide in campaigning for the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket. The creed highlighted a pep talk delivered by Mrs. Ivy B. Priest, assistant to the chairman and head of the women's division of the Republican National committee.

Stressing the importance of this presidential campaign in terms of what women want from their government, Mrs. Priest enunciated the following three point creed as a model for voting women:

"I believe Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is a crusader for good housekeeping in government because he is sensitive to waste and extravagance in government, and high taxes.

"I believe he is an administrator of skill because he organized and directed, and brought to successful conclusion, a massive campaign which freed a whole continent of enslaved people, and a program for European unity to keep those nations free and secure.

"I believe he is a statesman of great stature, who has won the respect and confidence of freedom loving nations, and whose devotion to people will provide inspiration and leadership to achieve tranquility at home."

Mrs. Priest also said that American women, along with all their other duties, are taking increased interest, and are assuming new responsibilities in government. After criticizing the "shockingly negligent public attitude toward crookedness in government" she called on the women of the country to take the lead in "bringing back wholesome standards of conduct among public office holders."

More Football—

Time again to list the top games of the week. The Notre Dame-Purdue and Kansas-Oklahoma tilts snap up as the tough ones to pick.

Notre Dame will be up after their upset loss to Pitt last week, but Purdue still should be the best team on the field.

Kansas and Oklahoma have strong teams and the game is rated as a toss-up. We're going along with Kansas by no more than a point.

Here are the selections for the week by Johnny Meyer, Dick Mau and myself.

Table with 3 columns: BENDER, MEYER, MAU. Lists game selections for various teams like Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, etc.

As must have been gathered from Tuesday's column, just about everyone around the state has come to the conclusion that Iowa just doesn't have too much in football this year.

This anecdote along that line comes from the press box during the Purdue game.

An Iowa sportswriter was asked why he couldn't say in so many words that Iowa was a terrible team for three quarters Saturday.

"We can't do that because as soon as you do, somebody thinks you're trying to fire the coach."

This year there can be no reflection on the coaching if Iowa doesn't win a game, even though it could have picked up a win or two in the first two games.

The only difference between this year and some of the past years is that the press and some of the more powerful alumni are finally willing to admit that Iowa doesn't have the material.

Saw the Minneapolis football team, the Bombers, virtually clinch the Western division crown of the Central States league by defeating the Waterloo entry at Waterloo Sunday, 20-7.

The Waterloo team includes former Iowa stars Jerry Faske, Chuck Denning, Dave DeProspero, Ron Fairchild and Lloyd DeBillo, who gave fine accounts of themselves in the game.

The Wildcats were fighting for the division lead going into the game and a win would have lifted them over the Bombers in the standings.

However, they lacked the punch when they got near the goal line. Twice in the first quarter Waterloo drove to the eight-yard line only to bog down.

In the final quarter the losers drove to the one-foot line but again were stopped. You know how tough these huge Minnesota linemen are from watching them in college games here.

Waterloo finally did score as Faske took a pass on the 20 and picked his way through Minneapolis defenders, doing a quick dance on the five, to get over the goal.

Faske provided much of the Waterloo offense during the entire game. Several times he momentarily broke into the clear but was brought down from behind while waiting for a key block to materialize.

DeProspero was a terror at defensive end and he and Denning collaborated to stop the Bomber ball carriers well behind the line.

In fact, Waterloo pushed Minneapolis all over the field, limiting the Bombers to a net of only 20 yards on the ground in the first half. However, the visitors capitalized on their two opportunities before intermission and led 14-0 at that point.

Harris Signs $35,000 Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bucky Harris Tuesday signed a new two-year contract to manage the Washington Senators. His salary wasn't announced officially, but it was reliably reported to be around $35,000 a year.

This would be an increase of $10,000 a year over what he has been making for the past three seasons.

Three years ago Harris returned to the Senators — where he started out in the major leagues 33 years ago — after Washington had finished a sorry last, 44 games out of first place.

Since then Harris has coached his team into seventh once and fifth twice.

"I read that Carter is favorite 2 to 1 but that is crazy odds," said the little Monterrey mauler who works out of Los Angeles.

"I'm sure I can beat Carter again. I punch too hard and have too much lasting strength for him."

The scheduled 15 rounder at Chicago Stadium will begin at 9 p.m. CST and be televised and broadcast nationally.

Michigan State Recaptures Top Spot In AP Grid Poll

NEW YORK (AP) — Michigan State, the pre-season favorite, was back on top of the Associated Press Football Poll Tuesday but cannot afford to relax and take it easy.

At least two other teams with impressive, unmarred records — Maryland and California — are ready to step in the moment the Spartans let their guard down.

The Spartans recaptured the No. 1 position this week from Wisconsin, upset victim of Ohio State. They impressed sports writers and newscasters with the decisive way they manhandled Texas A & M, 48-6.

No Team Dominates

The first three weeks of the AP Poll have produced no single powerhouse which completely dominates the scene.

Michigan State led the first poll before losing out last week to Wisconsin.

This week the Spartans won only a slim advantage over Maryland and California, both in first place ballots and in overall points.

In the poll, 10 points are given for each first place vote, nine for second, and so forth.

Gets 39 Top Votes

Michigan State received 39 first place votes and a total of 1,026 points. Maryland, which whopped Georgia 37-0, got 31 first place votes and 961 points compared with 21 first place votes and 889 points for California.

The Golden Bears beat Oregon Saturday, 41-7. Completing the top 10 are Georgia Tech, Duke, Oklahoma, Southern California, Kansas, Purdue and UCLA.

Wisconsin dropped out of the first 10 on its 23-14 loss to Ohio State. Notre Dame, beaten 22-19 by Pitt, plummeted from eighth position and Princeton, its 24-game winning streak broken by Penn, fell from 10th to the "also rans."

New members of the top 10 are Oklahoma, up from 12th to 6th; Purdue, from 16th to 9th, and UCLA, from 11th to 10th.

Cook County Jury Refuses to Indict White Sox Player

CHICAGO (AP) — A Cook county grand jury Tuesday reportedly refused to indict Manuel (Jim) Rivera, Chicago White Sox outfielder accused of rape of a 21-year-old housewife.

Rivera did not appear before the grand jury.

Rivera was accused by Mrs. Janet Gather, wife of an army private.

Rivera denied the charges. He admitted he was intimate with Mrs. Gather but insisted the act was committed with her consent.

Texas Western Player Leads in Total Offense

NEW YORK (AP) — While Ray McKown drew a long breath during last Saturday's "breather" game, Dick Shinaut of Texas Western drew into the lead in total offense among major college football stars.

McKown, who had displaced Shinaut from first place the previous week, was held out when Texas Christian played little Trinity University last week. Meanwhile Shinaut racked up 153 yards to regain the lead with a total of 810 yards in four games.

Actually Shinaut gained 155 yards in the air and netted minus two on the ground. The Texas Western sharpshooter has gained 767 yards on 43 pass completions and has pitched eight touchdown passes.

5 New Picks On Baseball 'Star' Squad

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1952 major league All-Star team, announced Tuesday, is almost brand new everywhere except the infield.

Of the four players who are holdovers from the 1951 selection, three of them are infielders — first baseman Ferris Fain of the Philadelphia Athletics, second baseman Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers and shortstop Phil Rizzuto of the New York Yankees.

The fourth returnee is Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinal outfielder making the honor team for the sixth time. He has missed only once since the team was first picked in 1946.

New York's World Champion Yankees placed three men on the 10-man team while the Philadelphia Athletics placed two.

Completing the infield was Al Rosen, who batted .302 for the Cleveland Indians. Joining Musial in the outfield were Hank Sauer of the Chicago Cubs and Mickey Mantle of the Yankees.

Larry (Yogi) Berra edged out Brooklyn's Roy Campanella for the catchers' spot. His battery mates were solid choices — Bobby Shantz, the Athletics' 24-game winner, and Robin Roberts of the Phillies, who had the season's best record at 28-7.

Shantz received the most votes, getting 70 of the 72 cast. Musial, who also received votes for first base, was on 68 ballots.

Hawks Drill in Secret Again

Iowa's football squad worked out behind closed stadium gates Tuesday. Coach Forest Evashevski drilled the Hawkeyes mainly on defense.

In a short offensive workout which ended the session Jack Hess alternated at quarterback with Burt Britzmann. Hess, previously used mainly on defense, made a good showing offensively in a last half stint against Purdue last Saturday.

Hawkeye statistics released Tuesday show halfback Jim Milani leading the individual ground-gainers with 137 net yards in 23 tries for an even six-yard per try average. Second is Binkey Broeder with 84 yards in 16 tries for a 5.2 average. Third is Bernie Bennett with 81 yards in 23 tries and fourth is Dusty Rice with 44 yards in 20 attempts.

Burt Britzmann tops the passer with 21 completions in 43 throws for 275 yards. Jack Hess is second with four for nine and Burt Stearnes with three for eight.

Dan McBride has caught the most passes, eight, followed by Rice with five. Top yardage is Stearnes' 103 yards on four catches in 23 tries for an even six-yard

In-Service Education Meeting Set for Nursing Administrators

More than 30 nursing service administrators are expected to attend a work conference on in-service education at SUI Thursday through Saturday.

The three-day conference, sponsored by the college of nursing, is the third in a series of four. The series is planned to provide information for nursing administrators to use in conducting continuing educational programs in their own local hospitals.

According to Louise M. Schmitt, director of nursing service administration in the college, the conference will begin with a general session, breaking up into smaller groups for problem discussion. Emphasis will be placed on government approach to nursing service and continuing educational programs, and the benefit of such programs from the standpoint of the hospital administration. Each nurse attending will be able to talk with consultants about individual problems if desired.

Part of Program
Miss Schmitt said this series is part of the in-service educational program established by the college under a grant from the W. K. Kellogg company. Fourteen colleges and universities, under similar grants, are planning to offer graduate work in nursing service administration. To date, she said, only five have programs in operation, including the one begun at SUI in 1951. Five graduate nurses, receiving their master's degrees in August, were the first to complete the program.

Cordes in Program
Participating in the program will be Donald Cordes, administrator of the Iowa Methodist hospital, Des Moines, and president of the Iowa Hospital association; Gladys Dieterichs, director of nursing service, Mitchell County Memorial hospital, Osage; Eloise Zeller, assistant to the chief of nursing, Iowa City Veterans hospital; Mattie Brass, director, division of public health, nursing, Iowa state department of health, Des Moines; and Carol Madsen, director of nursing service, Burlington hospital, Burlington.

Aid in Program
University personnel taking part in the program include, in addition to Miss Schmitt, are Dean Myrtle E. Kitchell of the college of nursing and Pearl Zemlicka, associate in nursing service administration, also in the college of nursing; Jeanne Stickels, assistant director of nursing service, University hospitals; J. Leonard Davies, assistant professor of education and director of correspondence study at the university; and Clayton L. Ringgenberg, research specialist in the institute of public affairs.

DP's Among 400 Who Take State Medical Board Exam

DES MOINES (P)—A couple of displaced person physicians were among about 400 men and women who took the State Board of Basic Sciences examination Tuesday.

Dr. H. Earl Rath of Cedar Falls, board chairman, said he didn't know how many DP's there were because their addresses are listed as the places of their present residences. But he said there were "a couple, that I know of."

There was a bitter battle in the Iowa house of representatives in 1951 on a bill to abolish the board. Proponents argued that the board had been discriminating against chiropractors. The bill was not enacted.

Delta Wing Fighter Ordered by Air Force For Actual Production

WASHINGTON (AP)—America's first supersonic delta wing fighter plane, the F-102, finally has been ordered into actual production.

Consolidated Vultee aircraft corp. (Convair) will build the high altitude interceptor at San Diego, Calif., the air force said Tuesday.

Performance details were kept secret and the only clue to the plane's shape was a statement from a Pentagon spokesman that in general it will resemble the experimental XF-92 which has been flying since 1948. It will not necessarily resemble the XF-92 in size.

A delta wing plane is triangular in shape, generally like half a diamond. It has no horizontal tail.

The experimental XF-92 is rated in the high subsonic speed class but is not known to have exceeded the speed of sound. The F-102, however, is definitely planned for operation above that speed, which varies with such factors as temperature and humidity but ranges generally from 760 miles an hour at sea level to 660 at 40,000 feet.

Des Moines, County Feud over Jail Bills

DES MOINES (P)—A dispute between Polk County and the city of Des Moines over caring for city prisoners in the county jail reached a new peak Tuesday.

The County Board of Supervisors ordered Sheriff Thomas L. Reilly not to accept any more prisoners who have been charged with violations of city ordinances "until such time that all past due bills for care of city prisoners are paid."

Jet Model Used to Instruct Cadets

CAPT. THOMAS W. ALLES, assistant professor of air science and tactics, is shown with a jet rocket model which he constructed and designed. The model is to be used in the classroom to instruct air force ROTC cadets in the different aspects of aerial dynamics. Moveable parts on a regular plane also move on the model.

U.S. Households Get Smaller, Bureau Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American household is getting smaller, despite a big growth in population, according to the census bureau.

The bureau said Tuesday that a high marriage rate, a larger volume of housing construction and a general prosperity were probably factors making for more and smaller households.

In 1940, the bureau said, the United States had 34,948,666 households with 128,427,069 people living in them, an average of 3.67 persons in each household. In April of this year, the census bureau estimated, the nation had 45,464,000 households, with 151,552,000 people, an average of 3.33 persons per household. The drop has been steady each year since 1947, when the average number of persons per household was 3.55. By household the bureau means all the people living in a house, an apartment, room or group of rooms that make up a dwelling unit.

'Friends of Scouting' Campaign To Begin in Johnson County

The annual "Friends of Scouting" campaign will start Tuesday, Oct. 21, throughout Johnson county, Prof. M. C. Boyer of the SUI mechanics and hydraulics department announced Tuesday. He is committee chairman for this area.

Funds raised will be used to finance the operating budget of the Hawkeye Area council, which includes all Boy Scout and Cub Scouts organizations in this area. Professor Boyer emphasized that the Friends of Scouting campaign will not be conducted in Iowa City proper, since Boy Scout organizations receive a share in the Community chest funds.

Contact men for the campaign are J. W. Welt, who will be in charge of the northwestern part of the county; Ralph Hudachek, in the Lone Tree vicinity; Bert Falls, Hills area, and Irving Duddleson, Oxford area.

Cook County Jury Votes Bill Charging Striker with Murder

CHICAGO (AP) — A Cook county grand jury Tuesday reportedly voted a true bill charging a striking union official with the fatal slugging of a non-striking employee of the International Harvester Co. Harold Ward, 30, reportedly is charged with the murder of William Foster, 52, both are Negroes.

Ward is financial secretary of local 108 of the Independent Farm Equipment — United Electrical Workers union. FE-UE locals are on strike against eight Harvester plants in three states. Police said Foster related before his death Oct. 3 that he was beaten with a length of lead pipe while on his way to work. Another true bill was reported voted against Ward last Friday charging him with assault to kill Watson Wright, another non-striker. Wright reportedly told the jury he was beaten with a baseball bat while on his way to work Sept. 15.

Mr., not Mrs. — In a story which appeared in Tuesday's Iowan, Mrs. C. M. Mickey was incorrectly referred to as an SUI assistant professor of sociology and anthropology. Instead, her husband holds that position on the SUI faculty.

Finely-Printed Books to Be in SUI Collection

FRANK LESLIE, PRESIDENT OF THE JOHN LESLIE PAPER COMPANY, Minneapolis, is shown with the collection of expertly-printed books that he will formally present to the SUI school of journalism at the 1952-Fall Newspaper conference here Friday and Saturday. Included in the gift is an "Oxford Lectern Bible," one of 200 existing copies. The books will be on display today through Sunday in the foyer of the SUI library.

Book Gift to Journalism School Now Exhibited at SUI Library

Books included in the gift by Frank Leslie of the John Leslie Paper company, Minneapolis, to the SUI school of journalism will be on display today through Sunday in the foyer of the SUI library.

The gift of more than 25 books, all examples of fine printing, will be formally presented to the school by Leslie at the 1952 fall newspaper conference to be held here Friday and Saturday.

The SUI school of journalism was selected for the presentation because of the outstanding work in typography by Prof. Carroll Coleman, head of the typographic laboratory. Many of Coleman's books have been chosen among the 50 best books of the year by the American Institute of Graphic Arts.

Bible Included in Gift Included in the gift is an "Oxford Lectern Bible," one of only 200 existing copies of the book, which has been called the "supreme example of fine printing in our age, perhaps any age," by Beatrice Warde, printing authority.

Many of the books in the collection, including the Bible, now on display in the library, were designed by Bruce Rogers, foremost American book designer. Most of the volumes are from printings that totaled less than 500 copies. This is the fourth such presentation that Leslie, president of the John Leslie Paper Co., Minneapolis, has made to schools of journalism. The other three have been given to Minnesota, South Dakota and Montana.

Leslie has been a collector of examples of expertly printed materials for many years. Love Letters in Collection The collection also includes James Boswell's love letters, "Porzio Sansoni" and "Leaves of Grass" by Walt Whitman. Rogers, the designer, wanted a lectern Bible which would be as "beautiful as possible, yet utterly simple." The only decorations in the book are the initial letters heading the chapters. The beauty of the book is in the type-face, Coleman says. It is a Rogers re-design of an original type used by Nicholas Jenson, an Italian printer of the 15th century. Typeface Called 'Centaur' Rogers called his re-cutting "Centaur," after a type used in printing a book of the same name, written by Maurice de Guerin, 19th century French poet. Coleman said that during the printing, Rogers went to the mills of Barcham Green, near Oxford, England, to inspect a special handmade paper. He was so impressed with the paper that he cabled friends in America for money to buy it, and they responded. Rogers used the paper for a special leather-bound edition for the Library of Congress. Cost, $1,200.

The "Oxford Lectern Bible" was printed at the Oxford University press, Oxford, England, and took four years to complete.

Following the new president's address, the honorary degree of Doctor of Science will be conferred upon Dr. John H. Dorman, Upper Iowa's "Grand Old Man of Football."

Mr., not Mrs. — In a story which appeared in Tuesday's Iowan, Mrs. C. M. Mickey was incorrectly referred to as an SUI assistant professor of sociology and anthropology. Instead, her husband holds that position on the SUI faculty.

Candidates to Talk To Women Voters

The League of Women Voters will hold a "candidates meeting" at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 21, in the Community building to hear political candidates in debate.

The speakers will be Tom Martin (Rep.) and Clair Williams (Dem.), first district candidates for the U.S. house of representatives; Scott Swisher (Dem.) and G. M. Ludwig (Rep.), candidates for the Iowa house of representatives.

The debate will be moderated by Robert F. Ray, director of SUI's institute of public affairs. A question and answer period will follow.

The national candidates will announce "Federal Government, Too Much? Too Little?" and the state candidates will debate "Iowa Highways, What to Do About Them."

Federal Trainee Jobs Offered Seniors, Grads

Senior and graduate students may be considered for the 1953 Foreign Affairs Management Trainee program, the U.S. state department has announced.

Applicants should possess good background in political science, economics, public administration, international relations or related fields. The program is designed to secure a limited number of carefully selected trainees who possess outstanding potential for eventual promotion to top level executive and managerial positions.

$3410 and $4205 to Start Beginning salaries for the program, which begins in the summer of 1953, are $3410 and $4205, depending on individual qualifications and requirements of the department.

The Civil Service commission's junior management assistant examination will be given today through November 11 as part of the selection process. Students who wish to be appointed in the department must compete successfully in this examination.

Students interested in taking the examination should contact Prof. Russell M. Ross of the SUI political science department, 306 Schaeffer hall.

Faculty on Nominating Boards Nominating boards, composed of faculty members, will assist the individual departments by screening qualified students from among JMA competitors and nominating the most outstanding candidates for consideration by the state department. Trainees will generally be assigned to administrative and managerial activities in Washington consistent with the interests and background of the individual trainee.

About 90 per cent of the trainee's time is spent in regular work assignments under the guidance of a training counselor. The remaining time is allotted to orientation, counseling and seminars. These assignments are in Washington, but are not positions in the foreign service.
